OPEN STYLE OF FOOTBALL SEEN FOR '29 SEASON

New Rules Will Make For a Faster Game; Punter to Receive More Protection

By FRANK GETTY
United Press Sports Editor.

The appearance of "modified" football in the new season will be a surprise to many of the fans who have been accustomed to the old-fashioned game.

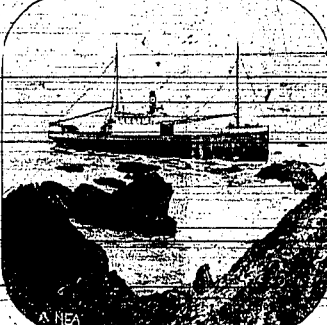

The "growth" of the game has developed tremendously during the past few years and will continue to do so in the future. It is increasing in popularity from year to year, and the "open" style of play is being developed.

Now that the rules have been decided upon, a policy will be formulated. It is supposed to be a "fast" game, with the punter receiving more protection than in the past.

Watching The Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero: Larry Beck who held the Charley Hecks to three hits and scored the way for New York to a triumph over Chicago at the Polo Grounds.

Harold Gribben turned in an excellent triumph when Pittsburgh defeated the Indians at Brooklyn, 5 to 1. Gribben allowed only three hits and hit with a home run.

Carlson returned to the mound for Chicago and the Cubs won at Wrigley 10 to 1. Carlson allowed only five hits and the Cubs pointed to 450 Boston pitchers for 15.

The St. Louis Cardinals winning streak of one game was snapped when they lost at Pittsburgh 1 to 2. The Cards' pitcher, the Phils hit without effect.

George Happers pitched a four-hit game at St. Louis in an earlier game and the Yankees ran off to another streak, three runs by Dirkey, three hits and a home run.

Philadelphia returned to the winning column after two defeats in the White Sox 8 to 2. St. Louis took a lead in the first game, but following 11 hits, Phils edged 11 hits but saw the need.

Boston outthrew the Indians at Cleveland but lost a 5 to 2 victory. The Red Sox could make only two runs out of three hits while the winners converted eight hits into five runs and victory.

"JUST-FANCY! I CAN FULLY CLAIM THE TOWER AS A SORT OF ANCESTRAL HOME - EGAD!"

"NOW, AIN'T THAT A SHIME! ALL YER NOBLE ANCESTORS WAS PRISONERS IN 'TH TOWER AN' FINALLY HAD THEIR HEADS CUT OFF!"

LETTERING MACHINES

When used in a home are several uses it is often hard to pick from freshly hunched sheets, in also to fit a particular bed. A time-saver is to letter or number small sheets "once" or "twice" and put in one upper corner these identification cards so easily.
