

FIGHT FANS SEE GORMAN PREPARE FOR COMING BOUT

Boy from La Grande proves Real Attractions When Training for Fight Here

There were of late the many "fight fans" who have gathered over Dill's fight quarters to watch Nally Gorman fight-heavyweight boxer, each one of the night against "El" Sheehy of Salt Lake City. Nally was out in the ring last night, and his younger brother, Rick, was also in the ring, who will meet Max Mangan, Jr. at Salt Lake City, Saturday.

There was plenty of cheering and shouting from the crowd of spectators who were gathered in the arena to watch the fight. Nally Gorman, who is 175 pounds and was a former champion of the world, showed plenty of speed and skill.

Nally Gorman has a record of 17 wins and one draw. He has been fighting for more than three years and has fought 25 times in his last 22 battles. He is now ranked as a contender, and he is expected to fight on Thursday night at the arena. He is expected to appear in the arena on Thursday afternoon. ### THE STORY IN BRIEF

Following is a brief play in an actual Harsh-Yale football match. Philip Williams, who was the cause for the surprising side by running to the wrong goal.

Left would have been stricken in some other venue had it not been for Williams who requested that the had be made his roommate. Together they leave for New York to assist in another handi-capped.

The days that follow are filled with exciting adventures, aching hearts in the air and thrilling skirmishes with rebel hands. When Lefty gets lost in the wilderness, Williams flies to his rescue. He is wounded by a hot aerial gun, he lands his plane near Lefty, only to fall unconscious. The rebel leader, Aquilino, and his men are closing in. Lefty puts his foot in the plane and flies off to the base. He smokes a safe landing with a broken landing gear, while flying insistently for his dead. Williams realizes that Lefty is not to blame for his disappointed love affair. He wishes Elinor and his pal happiness in their life together.

BLOW YOUR BREATH ON A COLD MIRROR

That's what happens to "wet" gasoline in a cold motor—it condenses in droplets on the cylinder walls. "Dry" gas, on the other hand, stays vaporized longer and therefore burns more cleanly.

... a cold day picture of "wet" gasoline

The choke clear-out, the battery weakened by overwork—time wasted—and, worst of all, your oil ruinously diluted by raw gasoline that has run down the pistons! Is that your winter experience—trying to start on "wet" gasoline?

Here is a cure for it: Shell 400, the "dry" gas forms a dry vapor that catches from the first spark. You only need part of the choke. You waste no time, no fuel. Your motor, in only a few seconds, is warm enough to run smoothly. Shell 400 can burn cleanly, because it contains no heavy "wet" fractions of petroleum that refuse to vaporize. None is left to thin the crankcase oil.

The quick starting advantage of "dry" gas is something that you can prove to yourself. Test it in your car—against any other gasoline you know. Convenient yellow and red pumps sell Shell 400 everywhere.
