DENIES HE IS KING PURNELL CULT LEADER

Long-haired Captive Taken at Marysville, O., Is Under Suspicion by Authorities; Admits He Was Once Member of House of David, However.

MARYSVILLE, Ohio, April 30.—A tall, long haired man who denies he is "King" Benjamin Purnel, head of the Israel House of David, sat quietly in Union county jail today awaiting the arrival from Kent county, Mich., of authorities who will attempt to identify him as leader of the Benton Harbor religious cult.

The man, believed by Sheriff Frank Collier to be "King" Benjamin, wanted in connection with the "one man grand jury" investigation of charges of immorality against his Benton Harbor colony, is held on open charge.

"I have suspected he was "King" Benjamin ever since he came here about six weeks ago as a 'knife grinder' said Sheriff Collier.

The alleged ruler was arrested late yesterday on the outskirts of Marysville.

"When we walked up to his truck in which he has been driving since coming here, the man came out to meet us," the sheriff said today.

"He told us before we had said a word that he knew what we wanted but that he might be wrong in him."

"I am just a man," he said. "just a man and not the one you want."

The prisoner refused to give his name, although according to Sheriff Collier has admitted that he is a former member of the House of David colony.

Legality of Merger Will Be Determined

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 30.—The legality of the merger of Armour and Morris packing interests will be determined in a series of hearings opening here today.

The hearings will be conducted by Chester Morrill, head of the packers and stockyards administration of the department of agriculture.

F. Edson White, who succeeded J. Ogden Armour as president of Armour minor interests will be one of the witnesses appearing in defense of the merger. White was expected to arrive here today.

DEFEATED BULL FIGHTER TRIES TO END HIS LIFE

MEXICALI, Lower California, April 30.—Chagrined at his sorry showing in the Mexican bull ring, Perot Rivera, torreador of Mexico City and Torreon, tried to commit suicide before the Sunday crowds.

He had been badly gored by a wild bull, and, according to matador custom, attempted to kill himself following the animal's victory. Arena attendants prevented him from accomplishing his purpose.

Rivera was reported today to be recovering from his wounds in a hospital here.

WOULD BUILD LINE.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The Oregon Short Line today applied to the interstate commerce commission for authority to construct an 11-mile branch line from Ammon, Idaho, to Dumas, Idaho, to provide transportation facilities for potatoes and sugar beets.

Staunch Republican to Succeed Senator Nelson in Capitol

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—A conservative republican who will staunchly support the Harding administration and fill the gap in regular republican ranks, will be named to succeed Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota, whose death slipped another vote from the administration's margin in the senate.

The margin of votes on which the administration can count in the next senate is very slim, not only because of republican losses in the last election but because of the disappearance of party lines and party loyalty. Though they are called republicans, a number of senators will be found voting against administration policies probably as often as they vote for them. These constitute the so-called "radical" group headed by LaFollette, and include Shipstead of Minnesota who now becomes senior senator from that state; Howell of Nebraska, Brookhart of Iowa; Norris of Nebraska, and Frazier of North Dakota, and sometimes Borah of Idaho.

TRANSCONTINENTAL MAIL SERVICE IS GOVERNMENT PLAN

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Twenty-eight hour mail service between New York and San Francisco is the aim of the postoffice department in a new service which will be started this summer.

The department intends to set a new record for transcontinental mail transportation and not only to set the record pace, but to maintain it continuously.

Crack pilots in the speediest planes will be put on the new route, which Postmaster General New said today would "mark a milestone in the history of aviation."

The schedule being worked out calls for an "unprecedented" amount of night flying. This will be necessary to make the 28 hours record which the department is aiming for.

The air mail will leave New York about noon. The first pilot will carry it to Chicago, reaching there before dark. Flying all night, another pilot will take it to Cheyenne, Wyo., arriving there about dawn. On the third and last relay, the mail will be freighted high above the summits of the Sierras and will be dropped in San Francisco before the end of the second day.

Powerful beacon lights and a chain of high system of guide posts will mark a plain pathway for the fliers, who will try to annihilate time and distance in the postal service's new experiment.

ALL BUT ONE PLANE REACHES DESTINATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—Three of the four marine fliers who left San Diego, April 19, completed their transcontinental flight at Rolling Field here today.

The fourth plane was forced down at Harper's Ferry, W. Va., in sight of the goal.

The planes were greeted on arrival by Secretary of the Navy Denby, Admiral Moffatt and General John Lejeune, commandant of the marine corps.

SUICIDE

BERLIN, April 30.—Prince Bamarkoff of Russia, relative of the former czar, committed suicide today in a Munich hotel.

DEATH CALLS HOUGH AFTER ACTIVE LIFE

Noted Writer of Western Fiction Succumbs Following Operation; Was at Apex of Career; Stories, "Covered Wagon" and "North of 36" Still Widely Read.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Emerson Hough, noted writer of stories dealing with American frontier and pioneer life, died at the Evanston hospital today. He was 66 years old.

Death came at the height of Hough's career.

His two most widely read stories, "The Covered Wagon," and "North of 36," dealing with early day life on the western plains, are now attracting widespread attention.

Hough died following an operation performed Saturday for an intestinal obstruction. He was reported seriously ill last Tuesday and was removed from his home in Highland Park, a Chicago suburb, to the hospital.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon from the residence and the body will be taken to Galesburg, Ills., for burial.

Hough is survived by his widow.

—Hough was regarded as one of the most vivid and true portrayers of the old West among present day authors. He was born in the West—at Newton, Iowa, and had lived the life of which he wrote.

Prominent among scores of books, short stories and magazines written by Hough are:

"The Singing Mouse stories," one of the initial works; "The Mississippi Bubble," "The Way to the West," "The Sowing," "The Purchase Price," "The Man Next Door," "The Sagebrusher."

Hough married Charlotte A. Cheney, heiress of Chicago in 1897.

Probe Lynching of Missourian by Mob of 600, Statement

COLUMBIA, Mo., April 30.—A grand jury will investigate the lynching of Charles Scott, negro, by a mob of six hundred persons, Prosecuting Attorney Hulen said today.

Scott was forced to a railroad trestle after Regina Almstedt, 14, was said to have identified him as the man who attempted to attack her.

Professor A. H. Almstedt, father of the girl, and the sheriff pleaded with the mob to let the law take its course. The lynchers swept them out of the way and rushed the suspect to the trestle as church bells sounded Sunday church calls.

Scott pleaded innocence. He was a campus building janitor.

FILM MONOPOLY CHARGE AGAINST EASTMAN CO.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—Alleged conspiracy to monopolize the market for moving picture films, the federal trade commission has begun proceedings against the Eastman Kodak company of Rochester, N. Y., and against a large number of persons and corporations said to be associated with the Eastman concern.

A complaint lodged by the commission alleges that the Eastman company used unfair methods in attempting to obtain control of the movie film business.

SPECTATORS HURT WHILE CONGRATULATING PLAYER

PATERSON, N. J., April 30.—Several spectators were injured when Babe Ruth was mobbed by a delighted crowd after he had knocked a homer in an exhibition game which the Yanks took from the Paterson Silks by a score of 9 to 8.

Police reserves failed to check the crowd and the game had to be called at the end of the eighth inning. Hinkey Haynes and Brin Ward were knocked down by the rush when they tried to hold watch over the club's equipment but they were not hurt. The Yank players lost several gloves, bats and balls which fell into the hands of souvenir hunters.

Rival Powers Sign Chester Concession; Strife Looms Between French-Turks

TURKS SIGN IN FACE OF OPPOSITION

Work by Railroad Company to Begin Soon; Mineral Oil Will Be Transported to Coast.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30.—The Chester agreement granting Americans concessions for the development of Anatolian oil fields was signed at Angora today.

In the face of French protests, the Turkish commissioner of public works, Feizi Bey, and Colonel Kemkjeoy of the Ottoman-American Development company, affixed their signatures to the final papers, dispatches stated.

Copies were exchanged by the parties, and the work will be begun at the earliest possible moment.

The manager of the railway project, which is to haul mineral oil to the sea, has begun a study of the situation, and actual labor on the scheme will be begun as soon as his plans are completed.

Colonel Kennedy went to Angora by way of Mudania, aboard an American destroyer. All the details were completed before his arrival and there remained only the formal signing of the papers.

Jilted Lover Is Thought to Have Wounded a Rival

DENVER, Colo., April 30.—Jealousy is believed to have been the motive for the wounding of Cleit Dyer, 30, as he and Mrs. Myra Deutrich were driving in an automobile here early today. Both declared a man named Sam Nickson did the shooting but police doubt this.

According to the story told police, Mrs. Deutrich had rejected Nickson's attentions. When the couple drove up in front of Mrs. Dietrich's home, Nickson stepped out from the porch and started shooting. Mrs. Dietrich said.

Dyer's condition is serious.

Sheriff Wants Aid in Bringing Back Hammer Murderess

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—Deputy Sheriff Blackburn sent two additional deputy to help him bring back from Honduras the woman held there, if she is identified as Clara Phillips, the hammer murderess.

Appropriation for the expenses of these deputies was sought today.

The state board of control today voted an appropriation for Blackburn and his wife, but Clara's underworld friends have sworn to free her if she is brought here. The woman held in Honduras is preparing for a stiff legal fight against extradition it is learned. She is expected to hire Hindman after news to begin habeas corpus proceedings for release before the extradition papers or American officials arrive on the scene.

Money for this purpose is said to have been forwarded from Tampico.

Blackburn will leave Friday.

GIRL PLEADS TO LIVE WITH HER FOSTER MOTHER

CHICAGO, April 30.—Beatrice Nuttall, 12, whose real and foster mothers have created a strange emotional drama by seeking a court to decide her custody, today declared she will live some day with the mother who gave her birth.

The child, after establishing a friendship between the two women, pleaded to live with Mrs. James Nuttall, the foster parent, who has kept her since she was a week old.

Mrs. Charles Morris, the real mother, started court action for Beatrice after a 12 year search through several states for her. She claimed that Beatrice was taken from her and given in adoption by relatives who feared disgrace because the child was born out of wedlock.

Mrs. Morris later married Clayton B. Klinger, whom she says is father of the child, and he has been subpoenaed to testify when the case is heard before two superior court judges tomorrow.

"Mrs. Nuttall is the only mother I have ever known," said Beatrice today.

"I love her. If they take me away from here I'll run away and after a long time I'll walk back here to Mrs. Nuttall's home."

All Chicago was stirred up by the tangle of mother love today. A dozen or more ministers preached sermons on the case yesterday, are church congregations offered prayers that Superior Judge Joseph B. David and Claire C. Edwards be given divine inspiration in deciding wisely the fate of the girl.

TROOPS ARE STATIONED FOR PATROL

Movement of Turkish Forces Regarded as Incitement to War; Not to Be Tolerated.

LAUSANNE, April 30.—A French military picture against Turkey caused grave concern at the Near East peace conference today.

Delegates at the conference, aware of the arrival of General Pelle, French high commissioner from Beirut, were expecting from France to see his extraordinary movement of troops as an indication to war. They feared that it may influence the Turkish delegation, who are now trying to find a basis for peace.

General Pelle has been instructed, it is said, to help France defend the Turkish lines against the Kemalists, that is, to prevent any incursion into the Mosul region by the Turks. Regarding the Turkish movement, troops as an indication to war. They cannot be interpreted by the French government, which is now in Lausanne personally but fear the Turkish attitude. Pelle is expected to go.

He is to call, it is said, that the French cannot take sides in the elements at Angora who might wish to stir up trouble at the Syrian border in order to influence the outcome of the present peace conference.

France has a mandate over Syria and her troops are already stationed there to meet the Syrian army in patrolling the border.

Reports were circulated more than a week ago that two divisions of Turkish forces had been moved toward Syria to a spot where they could easily reach the border in 4 days travel.

America May Lend Hand in Adjusting Payment of Debts

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—The possibility of the United States participating in an international conference to bring about a final settlement of the reparations crisis was again in the foreground of discussion in Washington today.

This aroused interest in connection with dispatches bringing fresh news about a new reparations offer Germany is to make.

It now seems fairly well established that Germany's offer will provide that the question whether and how much Germany should pay over a definite sum expected to be put forward, be determined by an international conference of financial and economic experts, as proposed by Secretary of State Hughes.

Germany Decides to Offer France Thirty Billion Gold Marks

BERLIN, April 30.—The German cabinet has decided to offer France 30,000,000,000 gold marks, instead of twenty. It was learned today. A further increase may be agreed upon if the experts decide that Germany is capable of paying.

The German offer, which probably will be embodied in the note to be sent to France Tuesday night, also would safeguard France against German military attacks, demand immediate evacuation of the Ruhr at the moment of signature.

PHIL ALQUIN TO FACE MURDER OF DETECTIVE

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—Phillip Alquin, who was deported from Mexico after one of the most spectacular man-hunts in local police annals, comes up for trial today on a charge of slaying Detective Sergeant John J. Fitzgerald nearly two years ago. The trial will probably be postponed for a few days owing to another case pending in Judge Avery's court.

BODY OF SENATOR NELSON SENT TO HIS HOME TODAY

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 30.—The body of United States Senator Knute Nelson, who died Saturday night on a Pennsylvania railroad train between Washington and this city, was sent to his home yesterday. Funeral services probably will be held Friday. On the train at the time of the death was George W. Wells, state insurance commissioner of Minnesota, and he took charge of the body here and will accompany Mrs. Nelson, accompanied by her brother Nelson.

SUIT AGAINST TAXI ASSOCIATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—A suit in equity against the Taxicab Operators association, comprising approximately [illegible] companies and [illegible] the companies and [illegible] was filed today by Charles [illegible] attorney general, Daugherty is [illegible] district court, at his request [illegible] injunction to restrain [illegible] association from [illegible] dividends, [illegible] "combination and conspiracy in restraining interstate commerce in violation of the sherman act."

HARDING DECLARED IN LINE FOR DEFEAT IN VIEW OF OPPOSITION STREAMING IN FROM ALL SIDES

WASHINGTON, April 30.—With the practical politicians and leading officials of the Republican organization ranging themselves against President Harding his defeat for renomination in 1924—if he doesn't withdraw his candidacy before the next national convention opens—is fast becoming inevitable, in the opinion of those whose business it is to read political signs and portents.

This new and powerful combination against Mr. Harding reinforces the opposition of the progressives and radicals who are resolved that he shall not continue in the presidency.

When Will H. Wood, chairman of the Republican Congressional committee, went lightly to the White House and told President Harding that his proposal for America's participation in the International Court of Justice menaced Republican solidarity it was with the assurance that this was merely echoing the sentiments and fears of Senator Moses, chairman of the Republican Senatorial committee, Senator McCormick, Senator Brandegee, Senator Watson, Senator Lodge, and Senator Curtis, Republican whip of the senate.

The fact is that a large faction of the Republican party is convinced of President Harding's "unavailability" and want to substitute some one else to take the race in 1924.

The leaders of this faction—all practical politicians—would prefer to furnish Mr. Harding an excuse and an occasion to eliminate himself, but they are resolved that if he won't step aside they will bowl him over.

Indiana is not the only state in which the "regular" reactionary element, which ought to support Mr. Harding is either indifferent or hostile to his renomination. One Republican senator has said that the "organization" in Illinois is so much opposed to his candidacy that he would be badly beaten were he to enter a primary contest with Senator Tirram Johnson. Antagonism to the president has been growing also in Pennsylvania. Senators Pepper and Reed are angry because their recommendations and objections have been ignored in the distribution of federal patronage. Men who control the Republican machine of the state are equally sore about other conditions which they charge to Mr. Harding.

QUESTION AND ANSWER BOX

(Conducted by Auntie Sue.)

Q. Dear Auntie Sue: This is my first time for writing to you and I want to ask I love your corner very much. Will you please answer the following question for me: How do you take care of lily bulbs after they have stopped flowering and started to die? My mother has one and she would like to keep it for another year. Thank you. Molly.

A. The lily should be allowed to die, which it will do if you discontinue watering it; then the strength of the plant will go into the bulb, which should then be placed in a dark nook and buried in sand until next spring, when it should bloom again.

You are very welcome, Molly. Come in again.

Q. Dear Auntie Sue: Please settle this argument: What nationality is Rudolph Valentino; also how old is he? Thank you very much. Auntie Sue. Frankie.

A. Valentino was born in Italy and is 28 years of age. You are very welcome.

Q. Dear Auntie Sue: Please tell what day and month the sun passes the equator. Jimmie.

A. Twice during the year the sun passes the equator, you know, Jimmie; once going and once coming back, so to speak. The vernal equinox was March 21. The autumnal equinox is September 23.

Q. Dear Auntie Sue: Will you kindly give me the addresses of Phillipsburn, Bellas Hess, and National Cloak and Suit Co.? Thanking you in advance.—Mrs. Greelly.

A. Phillipsburn, Inc., South Paulina St., Chicago. Bellas-Hess & Co., New York city. National Cloak & Suit Co., 207 West Twenty-fourth St., New York city.

Q. Dear Auntie Sue: I hope you will answer my question as willingly as you do others; I have been going with a girl some time now. The other night I took her to a party and she started shifting dances with me. So after she started shifting I thought two could play the same game. From then on we haven't spoken to each other. Would you speak to her now?—Jerry.

A. Why for shame, Jerry! Can't you play a little friendly game of "Staff" without getting peevish and refusing to speak? You both followed the rules, didn't you—and are quite even now, aren't you? Well then, why not forget it, and go on as though nothing happened? If you cannot do that, would be just as well to discontinue the friendship anyway, for likely the girl will do the same thing again. There a sluffer, always a sluffer, some one tells us. You know.

Q. Dear Auntie Sue: Will you please publish the poem, "Over the Hill to the Poor House?" Thank you.—Logana.

A. I haven't the space here, Logana, but if you will send me a stamped self-addressed envelope, I will be very glad to send it to you.

INDIANS SHOW EARLY CLASS IN AMERICAN

Tris Speaker's Crew Is Coming Along in Great Shape; Giants' Hurling Staff Has Gone to Pieces; Tigers Bat Heaviest in Either Circuit.

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, April 30.—Tris Speaker's Cleveland Indians are the current sensation of the American league. With nine victories out of 12 games, the Indians are not only leading the league but they are playing the best ball in the majors.

Speaker is getting good pitching and good hitting even if the defense of the club is rather sloppy at times. The Indians at present are the only club in the two leagues that have the pitchers and batters both working.

The Giants are leading the National league with nine victories out of 12 games. It would be silly to say that the world's champions are not playing good ball, but they are not keeping on their stride. McGraw's pitching staff has gone up again. Fifteen pitchers have been used in four games and it is only a game heart and great hitting that is keeping the Giants in the lead.

Detroit needs only some pitching to make the strong bid for the pennant that is expected of them and Ty Cobb is beginning to feel that pitching. The Tigers are the heaviest hitting club in the major leagues and they are just as game as the Giants. The club is in second place now, and unless they collapse they will be up around the snarp for the closest part of the race.

The Browns and the White Sox continue to be the poor hosts of the race. The Sox have been hit by getting the expected pitching, and the Browns are having trouble filling the shoes of George Sisler. Dutch, a rookie, has been replaced at first by Jacty McNamara, their second baseman, and, although he has been doing well the defense deficiency of the team has been disregarded with Foster on second base.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

With the bases filled in the ninth inning, Woodall went up to bat as a pinch hitter and drove in the run that gave the Tigers a 1 to 0 victory over the Browns.

Perkins' single with the bases full and Ricondo's sacrifice fly scored two runs in the fifth inning and enabled the Athletics to beat the Senators 3 to 2.

Sensational support behind the good pitching of Lee Haynes gave the Cards a 3 to 2 victory over the Pirates.

Bishop, a rookie pitcher, was rushed in to stop a ninth inning rally of the Giants, and he delivered, the Phils winning from the champions 7 to 8.

Boeckel's single, a sacrifice by Mellanis and Bagwell's single in the eighth inning scored a run, and the Braves beat the Robins 2 to 1.

Ragged fielding behind loose pitching caused the White Sox to drop before the Cleveland Indians 8 to 3.

The Cubs got three doubles, a single and four bases on balls off Pete Donohue in the first four innings, but they all came with two down and the Reds won out 3 to 0.

BIG TIME CHIEFS SIZE THINGS UP

By CONNIE MACK,
Manager Philadelphia Athletics.

I feel that the experimental days are over as far as the Athletics are concerned. My team has arrived. All I ask is pitching, and we will make any team in the league step some. Sammy Hale has made our batting, which is now one of the best in the American League. Pitching is my greatest worry yet outside of the New York club. I can't figure where any other team in the American League has much on us in that respect. The Athletics are no longer the door mat of the American league.

DE KLOTZ GIVEN FIRST PLACE BY LOCAL GUN CLUB

Yesterday the Gun club finished their trap shoot at the grounds. The first place cup was given to DeKlotz with a score of 46 out of 50 for yesterday's shooting. Patrick took the second cup with 45 out of 50 for the 12 class and "Doc" Snoke got the class cup with 42 out of 50. Bailey, White and Berns all shot between the two classes and failed to get any of the rewards. Another feature of yesterday's shooting was the start made for women in the sport by Miss Stancliffe who broke 26 out of 50 birds. The results of yesterday's shoot:

	Broke	Shot at
DeKlotz	46	50
Patrick	45	50
Bailey	44	50
White	44	50
Berns	42	50
Snoek	42	50

Doctor Snoek, E. L. Patrick, L. T. Wright, Harbor, DeKlotz and Wheelwright shot twelve rounds of double with the following results after the regular shoot:

	Broke	Shot at
Patrick	19	24
Wheelwright	16	24
Harbor	13	24
Snook	12	24
DeKlotz	12	24
Wright	9	24

After the tournament shoot some startling marks were made. Bill Bailey made a perfect score of 25 straight and in one squad three went out of 25 and another 22. The only thing which kept these from perfect scores was the high wind which prevailed through the last two rounds. The score for this squad were:

	Broke	Shot at
Harbor	24	25
Wright	22	25
DeKlotz	21	25
Evans	24	25
Laird	19	25

HIGH SCHOOL BALL TEAM WILL LEAVE ON TRIP TUESDAY

Tomorrow noon the high school baseball team will leave for Caldwell and Nampa where they will meet those schools during the week. Nampa will be Twin Falls' opponent Wednesday and Thursday, while Caldwell, reported fully as good as last year, will make things interesting Friday afternoon.

The schedule has been so arranged that those of the players who want to view the big track meet at Caldwell Saturday will not be forced to miss it. Some records are due to fall when the track stars compete for the right to go to Moscow later. Judging by the way the Nampa and Caldwell ball teams have been clipping off victories lately the fans of those cities are in line for some close battles, replete with thrill and dashing baseball.

Knox College Team Is Most Versatile

Knox college has what is probably the most versatile basketball team in the country. Of the ten men on the Knox squad every man is active in at least one other major sport. The team has three captains of other varsity organizations. Albro, captain of the college football team; Hoban, captain of the track team, and Ludvig, captain of the football eleven. Five of the other men are regulars on the Knox football team, and one other is the best intercollegiate golfer in that part of the map centering about Galesburg.

Florida Has Longest Coast.

Florida has the longest coast line of any state—almost twelve hundred miles—more than half the distance between Chicago and San Francisco. California is second in this respect, with over one thousand miles of coast line. Some authorities are inclined to give the preference to California, there being so little difference between the coast lines of the two states.

Origin of "Pottron."

A person who lies long in bed is likely to be lacking in energy, and probably in courage. A modern word meaning a coward bears more witness to this. Polyzon now means a bastard, but originally only a sluggard and is derived from the Italian poltro, a bed. Another relative is German-polster, a cushion from which we get bolster.

Age Took Too Much Liberty.

It appears that ape understand the action of a lock. One simpleton city zoo was taught to unlock his door, and it was amusing to see him choose the right key and let himself out. But the experience caught the keepers never to teach another animal. Soon the chimpanzee was found at large in the gardens; he must have opened the door with tools of his own making.

JACK DAW IN BALLOON LAND

Drawings by Leslie Elton. Story by H. [illegible]

"Now, what will become of this poor horse balloon?" asked Jack. "Oh, we'll just have him repaired," replied Coppy. "It will teach him not to get so baby." Then Jack's attention was attracted to several cow balloons which were floating through a great white clouds in the sky a short way off.

Coppy noticed Jack watching them and he explained that they were the famous cow balls which lived in the Milky Way. "That stretch of white," said Coppy, "is the Milky Way." Then, suddenly one of the cows went up into the air and over the moon's head. He landed safely on the other side.

"Wasn't that a pretty jump?" asked Jack. "Yes, it was," replied Coppy. "That's the cow you've heard about, the cow that jumps over the moon." Then, [illegible] had been quiet for so long that his mates asked for [illegible]. A surprised greeted Jack. (Continued.)

If your garage burns and the mortgage on your house is foreclosed and your wife has twins, do you sit down, wring your hands and wail or do you look the situation straight in the eye, grapple it with both hands and start building anew? If you're a wailer look at the irrigation farmers of southern Idaho, take heart and follow their example.

During the war-years of high prices, the Snake river, sole source of the irrigationists' water supply was so low that the crops were short. When water became abundant, prices dropped disastrously. Alfalfa and beets were the principal output of the district; they did not drop—they leaped and tumbled down the price precipice.

Yet the producers did not wail. On the contrary, they got ready for increased production. In January they organized by almost unanimous vote the largest irrigation district in the world for the sole purpose of helping to build the huge American Falls dam and reservoir for the storage eventually of three million acre feet of Snake river flood water, to the end that the threat of a water famine might be definitely nullied and the productive area increased by a million acres.

If you are a wailer, stay away from Idaho. They have use for only builders who waste no breath in the emission of doleful sounds.—New Freedom.

"YOUR OWN BOSS"

Are you nursing a hope that some day you can be "your own boss" instead of working under some one else's orders? Certainly. Everybody does.

But there is no such thing as absolute independence in life. Always there is a boss—either a person or a force that stands over us with a whip.

Take the career of one man—Rodger Dolan. In babyhood his mother was his boss. When he grew too large for her to handle, dad stepped in with a shingle.

Rodger ran away from home when he was 16, tired of the farm. He became a waterboy for a "tong buckin'" crew that was laying an oil pipeline through a middle western state. He had a boss on this job—a rough boss.

Rodger graduated. He bucked tongs with the crew. Still he had a boss, the foreman. Because he was the best tong bucker in the gang, always on time, exerting his last ounce of strength, quick to notice and report how money could be saved by taking shortcuts in the work, Rodger soon got the foreman's job. The foreman moved on—promoted.

"Aha!" chuckled Rodger. "Now I'm my own boss."

—O—

But Rodger quickly found that he had merely exchanged bosses—traded the foreman for a district superintendent. So it went. The years slipped by. Rodger kept rising. Finally he was vice president of the oil company. Apparently he had only to move one more link in the chain of bosses, and he'd be in a position where he'd have no one over him.

The great day came—Kismet. Rodger became president of the company. He sighed with relief at finally being his own boss. But the sigh died in his throat. For he learned that he still had bosses—the company's directors and stockholders, income tax auditors, congressional legislation and that most tyrannical of all bosses—the company's customers.

To please these bosses, kept Rodger hustling until his hair turned white.

Then he retired, with enough money to support him in comfort for the rest of his life.

"But I still have a boss," he confides. "My children who used to boss me around have grown up—and grandchildren have taken a hand at the bossing. I'm within sight of the time when I'll have one foot in the grave, and it's dawning on me that I still and always will have the eternal boss—God."

—O—

We cannot escape from the boss system. Go even to a deserted island and the boss hobs up like a ghost—weather conditions, crop failure, death. And, over all, of course, God.

The boss system is part of natural law. It is universal—from the sun bossing the planets that revolve around it to the school of fish or flock of wild ducks following a leader.

Where you find no boss, you find nothing worth bossing.

King Took Debts for Taxes.

In old English towns during the Seventeenth century if the owner of a building failed to pay the taxes due the king the doors and windows of the building were taken off, every one in it was turned into the street and the structure had to remain idle for a year and a day or longer before the doors might be redeemed in open court or before the building could pass to the next heir.

When Electric Globes Pop.

The strength of the glass prevents an electric light bulb from bursting. When a bulb is broken with a blow, the "pop" is the result of the fact that the interior was not filled with air.

The Bible.

Men that no longer hold the Bible in esteem—"which," as Macaulay so truly said, "if everything else in our language should perish, would alone suffice to show the whole extent of its beauty and power"—do not wish to stand on resplendent mountain peaks but are content to be in the valley without the companionship of light.—Joseph S. Auerbach.

"Big Cities" in 1790.

In 1790 New York city was the largest city in the Union. Its population was 49,401. Other cities having a population of over 5,000 were Baltimore, Boston, Charleston (S. C.), Philadelphia, Providence (R. I.) and Salem (Mass.).

MARKETS

CHICAGO, April 30.—After an early dip active buying appeared on the Chicago Board of Trade today and all grain prices strengthened under the lead of corn.

The first floats in Clear Chicago headed with grain left for Buffalo this afternoon carrying 1,000,000 bushels of corn and 129,000 of wheat.

Reports from Hutchinson, Kan., reported the winter wheat greening up following last week's rain but stated it was doubtful if the moisture came in time to produce a crop. Other crop and weather reports throughout this country and Canada were favorable. World shipments of wheat were 13,500,000 bushels, which was an increase of about 2,000,000 over last week.

Oats was the weakest of grains but followed in the general advance. Provisions were higher.

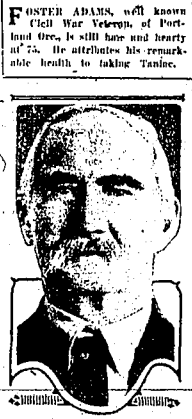
FOSTER ADAMS, well known Civil War Veteran, of Portland, Ore., is still hale and hearty at 75. He attributes his remarkable health to taking Tanlac.



"That I am feeling so strong and well at my age I can attribute to nothing but the use of Tanlac," recently said Foster Adams, well known Civil War veteran, living at 1220 E. Main St., Portland, Ore. "For over ten years I suffered from indigestion. After eating would invariably bloat with gas until I could hardly get my breath, and had awful pains in my ribs. I was constipated and all run down, and had such spells of weakness I just had to go to bed.

"Well, the Tanlac treatment set me to eating heartily, did away with that indigestion and bloating, and strengthened me and built up my health in every way. Tanlac is without doubt a remarkably good medicine.

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Take no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

Quick Quaker Oats

The Quickest-Cooking Oats in the World

Now you get two things in Quaker Oats which no other oats can offer. You get a flavor which has won the world. All Quaker Oats are flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats.

And now there is Quick Quaker — the quickest-cooking oats in the world. It cooks in 3 to 5 minutes.

Made from the same queen grains, but the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small thin flakes cook quickly.

In either style you get the finest flavor an oat dish ever had. In Quick you get quick cooking. Tell your grocer which style you prefer.

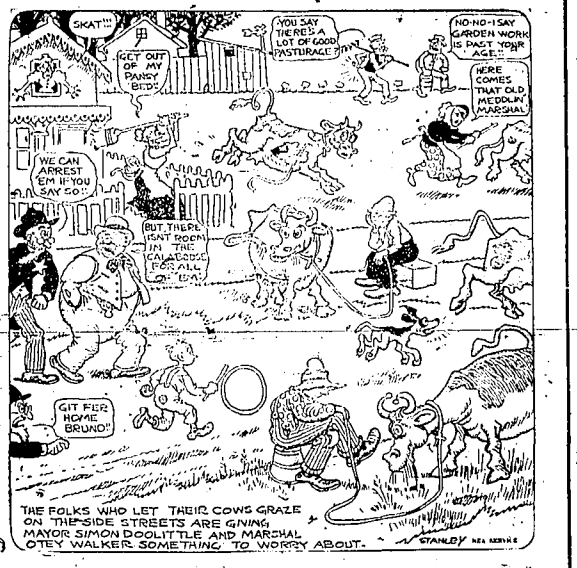
THE OLD HOME TOWN



Train Is No Hazard

Moving trains and such are not a thing in Glenn Collett's young life. Hazards fade before her powerful driver.

The fairway at Belleair Heights, Fla., at one spot is crossed by a railroad track. Miss Collett was at the tee just as a freight train lumbered along.

"Wait," said one of the players. "There's a train."

Miss Collett replied by slamming her shot far and high over the box cars and onto the fairway beyond.

Onside Kick Won't Be Missed, States Dobie

"The elimination of the onside kick by the football rules committee will not make much difference to the game," said Gilmour Dobie, Cornell's football coach, in discussing the rule changes adopted by the football legislators.

The play, according to Dobie, was not often used and furthermore it was difficult for the officials to rule on it. He added:

"I have never considered the onside kick of enough value to warrant using it to any extent. It requires too much time and attention to perfect it and under the best conditions its success were merely a lottery. The play added little to the offensive strength of a team and was useful only when it was worked as a complete surprise on the opposing team. It's elimination won't hurt the game."

For Obstinate Corks.
Accidents often happen in the corks of the extract and other small bottles in the kitchen and when we are in a hurry the cork is obstinate and must be dug out with a fork. Buy some small screwpegs and fasten one of these in each of the corks. They can be changed as the bottle is emptied and you will be pleased at the time and trouble saved by this novel cork puller.

PITTULO QUERY IN RE WATER IS ANSWERED

Chairman Swim Covers Questions Raised in Detail Showing That South Side Tract Rights Cannot Be Impaired by Big District.

Complete Answer Was Made Today to Sam Pittulo Regarding Water Rights.

The committee says:

Our committee welcomes such inquiries as that of Mr. Pittulo published in The Times on Friday, April 27th. We hope that other landowners will make known whatever doubts or misgivings may be in their minds in order that a most thorough understanding may be reached before May 12th.

The questions propounded may be stated and treated in two groups as follows:

1. Questions:

"As I understand it the plan is to transfer all of the storage from Jackson Lake now for the Government and the South Side projects and the North Side project down to American Falls. After that is done, will there be any priority rights in the American Falls storage, or will they all take on the same basis?"

"The contract between the American Falls Reservoir District and the United States Government does not provide for an exchange of the Jackson Lake Storage rights now held by the South Side or North Side projects to the American Falls Reservoir site. The storage right of the South Side Canal company in Jackson Lake is the property of the stockholders of that company and can be disposed of or exchanged by no one but the stockholders themselves.

"The United States Reclamation Service proposed to furnish water for the present Minidoka and extension project from the American Falls Reservoir, utilizing approximately 120,000 acre feet for this purpose in addition to acquiring new storage for this purpose the United States Reclamation Service proposes to exchange the rights now held by it for the Minidoka Project in the Jackson Lake Reservoir for equal rights in acre feet in the American Falls Reservoir, which rights are to be secured by projects above American Falls.

"Included in the projects that propose to acquire storage in the American Falls Reservoir and make an exchange with the United States Reclamation Service for Jackson Lake storage are the Aberdeen-Springfield Canal Company in Bonneville and Bingham Counties, and the Martin Canal Company in Bonneville County. These canal systems and the lands served are a part of the American Falls Reservoir Irrigation District, but this irrigation district has not contracted to effect an exchange of storage rights for these companies.

"The right which the South Side Canal Company will acquire in the American Falls Reservoir through the Irrigation District will be, in the event that the bonds carry on May 12 next, a storage right of 100,000 acre feet; this is in addition to and supplemental to the right now held by the South Side company at Jackson Lake Reservoir.

"There will be no priority of right between the Minidoka project, the North Side project or the South Side project in American Falls Reservoir. This applies alike to storage acquired by original purchase and by exchange from Jackson Lake.

"The plan as proposed will materially enhance the value of the right of the South Side Canal Company in the Jackson Lake Reservoir for this reason: The rights which are to be acquired in American Falls and exchanged with the United States Reclamation service for Jackson Lake storage are being acquired for use and will be used to supplement present supplies, whereas now the Minidoka project uses this storage as a primary right for irrigation on the Minidoka Project. When this water is used only in the upper Snake River valley for supplemental purposes the demand will not be as great and the probability of the Jackson Lake filling each year will materially increase and the "top right" of the South Side Canal company will become more valuable.

"There is another advantage that will enure to the benefit of the South Side Canal Company in transferring storage water from Jackson Lake to the Milner dam, and that is, the Canal company can first use a portion of the storage at American Falls Reservoir, then store the water from Jackson Lake in a large body of from 20,000 to 25,000 acre feet at a time to the American Falls Reservoir, thus saving material loss in transmission.

2. Questions:

"I understand that if this is done, the Minidoka settlers will not consent to a transfer unless they get prior rights. In case they do not consent and enter into a contract for that transfer, is there any way of forcing them to do so, and if so, on what basis?"

Answers:

There is no complaint on behalf of the Minidoka settlers against the proposed transfer of their rights from Jackson Lake to American Falls. There can be no priority in the American Falls Reservoir as between the South Side, North Side and Minidoka projects. It has been established beyond all doubt that this reservoir will at all times fill much more easily than these projects can possibly use, so an attempt to establish a priority would be purely artificial. It is not a question of the settlers on the Minidoka project consenting to the exchange of the storage from Jackson Lake to American Falls, nor does the success of the project depend upon these settlers entering into a contract to permit this exchange. The settlers on this project have already entered into a contract with the United States Reclamation Service, wherein the United States government undertakes to furnish water for the lands segregated; the water to be delivered at Minidoka dam. The settlers do not have a choice between water impounded in the American Falls Reservoir or in the Jackson Lake Reservoir. So long as there is sufficient water at American Falls (and as stated above, this is at all times) for the Minidoka settlers under their contract with the United States Reclamation Service they are bound to accept this water as appurtenant to and for use on the lands within that segregation.

The advantages of a supply of water in the American Falls Reservoir for irrigation purposes on the Minidoka project are so many and apparent that a mere statement of the proposition would seem to be a sufficient answer to a claim that a settler should object to use this water but preferred a supply by Jackson Lake.

Dated April 30th, 1923.

NEW REGISTRANTS FILE FOR OFFICES OF BOY SCOUTS

The silly campaign is now fairly open in the Boy Scout election and new filings are expected this evening. George F. Sprague, Jr., and Richard Robertson entered the race this morning for the commissionership.

Previous candidates in the field were Paul McClain for mayor, Clark Beebe, Alton Blackburn, Dean McClellan and Floyd Atkinson, for commissioners; George Miller, Walter Estelle and Lee Miller for highway board and Wesley Bagley; Charles Brown, Charles Anderson, Herbert Carter and Miles Walters for the school board. Their names were filed just at the close of filing Saturday evening.

Extensive preparations are being made for the parade on Friday.

FROM DREAMLAND TO JAIL CELL IS SAD TRANSITION

Two Men Taken into Custody on House Charge Sunday Morning Were Wrapped in Somnolific Luxury When Invasion Took Place.

Aroused from peaceful slumber on a calm Sunday morn by the rude and rascous intrusion of the minions of the law, T. C. Glenn and Frank McCormick were hurried to the "dog-house" of High Sheriff M. Finch yesterday. The map, with a still about seven gallons of moonshine and sundry vessels were taken into custody at the Glenn home two miles south of Hansen at 11 o'clock and hurried away to captivity, while neighbors looked on and waved a farewell.

Glenn is a farmer who said he was getting ready to plant wheat and declared that this interruption would likely doubtless have a demoralizing influence on his agricultural activities, and interfere with his plans. McCormick has previously been convicted of a misdemeanor, officers say. The men were in bed when the officers came, they still and the booze were in the house.

TO THE MUSICIANS AND MUSIC TEACHERS OF TWIN FALLS COUNTY

The Idaho State Music Teachers' Association will hold its fourth annual convention in Boise May 30-31 and June 1, during Boise's Music Week. Board and room will be furnished free to all members of the association.

All good musicians and all good music teachers of Twin Falls County are urgently requested to become members. As matters of great importance to the accredited music teachers will come up at the convention, Twin Falls county ought to be well represented in Boise May 30-31-June 1.

SEED SHOW COMMITTEE IN SESSION

Reorganization of Prize List Taken Up; Will Not Set Place for Holding Show Today; Question of Changing Name Debated.

The directors of the Idaho State Seed show met this morning in the Rogerson hotel to consider the work of the organization during the past year and to lay plans and set a meeting place for the meeting next year. There was a good attendance and the greatest optimism was expressed by those who were present.

The meeting was called to order by President J. C. Welch of Jerome. Secretary C. H. Ashton, who is also state seed commissioner, was present. Others in attendance were H. K. Wylie of Soda Springs, Carl E. Johnson of Idaho Falls, F. W. Cater and W. V. Swart of Burley; M. A. Thomets of Twin Falls; County Agent O. S. Fletcher of Moscow; County Agent H. E. Brossard of Twin Falls, State Commissioner Mark A. Means of the Idaho department of agriculture, and H. G. Pechin of Parma.

After a preliminary discussion this morning it was announced that the prize list, taking the place of a new one, would not be passed on at this session of the directorate. Considerable time was taken up in rearranging the schedule of prizes. The seeds will be the same, but they will be reclassified and this will mean that there will be considerable alteration in the list of prizes.

There was quite a debate over the proposed changing of the name from the Idaho Seed Show to some other, indicative of a broader purpose than the exhibiting of seeds alone. It is proposed to take in grains and livestock if conditions warrant.

It was voted this afternoon to send an exhibit again to the International Seed show at Chicago next year with a somewhat different educational exhibit from that seen this year.

QUACKS AND THE BIG RESERVOIR ARE DISCUSSED

"The human family has been tricked by "quacks" parading under the guise of doctors, cure-alls of every description since time immorial," said Dr. A. P. McClusky of Buhl today in speaking before the Kiwanis club luncheon. First among these quacks came the homeopath and since these have begun to fade other new fakes have sprung up with some new de-stuck scheme for curing all the ills. Next came osteopathic treatment which maintains that all disease can be cured by mechanical means. Close to this followed the chiropractor who said that the trouble was along the vertebrae and that if the nerve centers were corrected the whole physical mechanism would right itself.

The latest and most widely advertised fake is that of Abrams. Chiropractor of the Spondylotherapist who covers all cause of disease and is able to develop a corresponding electron which will counteract or cure the trouble in any physical being. He claims to also be able to tell who your lover is, etc. In this process one of the instruments used by Dr. Abrams is called the Spondylotherapist which has never been examined by the public, according to Dr. McClusky. Another is the Oscillocast and the third is the Electro-consensor. All these and their effect upon disease are fakes according to Dr. McClusky. They do not perform the miracles which Dr. Abrams claims for them and cannot function as he claims they do. Abrams claims to have a number of degrees which come from questionable institutions, according to the mayor of Buhl.

American Falls Project Urged

H. K. Wylie, director of the American Falls Reservoir project, from Springfield and Aberdeen-Springfield in favor of the project stated what it would mean for this part of Idaho. He said among other things that this reservoir alone would cover 20,000 acres of land. Referring to the South Side Twin Falls project he said all its acreage is ready for the water as soon as the election over.

CROP DAMAGE TO APRICOTS.

The frost last night is reported to have injured apricots to some extent, though not injuring other fruit. Some apprehension is felt over tonight's temperature.

Tree Outlines.

The thing next in beauty to a tree in full leaf is a tree bare; its every regularness of shape revealed, and its hold on the sky serenely so unquakably assured; and, more than the beauty of shape and the outlining on sky, the solemn grace of prophecy and promise which every slender twig bears and reveals in its tiny gray buds.

NEVADA HIGHWAY FROM THIS CITY IS IMPORTANT

Road South from Rogerson Could Be Made Better Than Any Other for Tourists Seeking Southern California Points.

The highway from Twin Falls to Wells, Nev., should receive valuable consideration from every division of the Snake River valley. Every tourist who crosses the continent by either of the southern routes gets tired of the desert and wants a change, and he dreads to double back and prolong the monotony. The call of green fields, orchards, trees, streams and cultured mountains comes from afar off when the homeward turn is contemplated. Two highways through Nevada are equally dreary. Every tourist on the California and Victory highway passes by Twin Falls district and the record-breaking crops. And now the American Falls dam is to be completed for the following year. On the east-bound journey from Reno, Nev., to Salt Lake it is a tease of veracious a bad road for 500 miles. The Victory highway up the Humboldt river may be contemplated without frenzy, but the road from Wells to Salt Lake will always be avoided if possible. A guide board at Wells with a finger point north would catch a hundred drivers a day. Toward Salt Lake on a dusty road winding up a hill there are 200 miles and 10,000 chuck holes. Half the distance to the north is Twin Falls. There are green fields and canals full of water. From Hiem to Wells not one road leads to Idaho. From Salt Lake to Wells there is not a single highway to the north. Every one of the 200,000 tourists to pass through Nevada in 1923 will want to see Idaho.

The road from Rogerson to Wells can be made better for auto travel than either of the routes out of Utah, 200 miles west. The Yellowstone Park-California tourists could be diverted through Twin Falls by a small amount of road improvement and a wise campaign of publicity. The high places in every tourist's itinerary are California, Lake Tahoe and the Yellowstone. Twin Falls is on a direct line to each of these points, and only the Rogerson-Wells link of the highway is required to complete a new highway for thousand miles. Only 17 miles of this route, from Rogerson to the Nevada line, calls for expenditure of Idaho funds. The Nevada end of the road is kept in good condition during the summer by the Contact mining interests.

DIVERSIFICATION IS URGED BY THE COMMISSIONER

Head of State Agricultural Department Opposes One Crop Plan; Should Have as Many Silos at Autos

"The final solution for many of the problems of the Idaho farmers is to get upon a cash basis," says Mark A. Means, state commissioner of agriculture. "I realize that such a suggestion is easier said than done and it may seem like a strange theory at this time when so many of the farmers are loaded down with heavy indebtedness and struggling to get back upon their feet financially. But it can be attained if the farmers will raise a variety of crops so that they will always have something to market." Mr. Means is here at the seed meeting.

"The great trouble in the past has been that we have been too much of a one crop state. In the hope of making a big return we have rushed headlong into one crop or another and have neglected to put out an anchor by diversifying our crops so that we can always have something to sell. I feel that another mistake has been made in trying to hold our crops too long in hope of a higher market. My theory in operating my farms has always been to sell my stuff when it was ready and get the money. It is too risky to speculate on hopes for higher markets. By getting my money I was able to pay cash for my purchases and was not eaten up by interest charges and could get whatever advantage there was in the cash price.

"Idaho is coming back strong. We have the soil and the resources that will bring great production but we will have to get down to smaller acreage, diversified crops and farm tractors and automobiles to save a silo for every automobile in the state and a cream station for every gasoline station. When we can always have a little something on the farm to sell and will sell it when it is ready for market we will have the money to get on a cash basis and prosperity will be sure.

"There is only one time when it might be better to hold for a time than to sell when the crop is ready and that is when the price offered is very near the cost of production. If there is a profit to be had it is better to take it than to hold for a possibly higher profit and be eaten up by shrinkage and interest.

"I do not believe in preaching or trying to farm by theory but there are fundamentals of success. Own what you have instead of letting some other fellow have the big interest in it. When we get on a cash basis we can do that."

Some things you should know about your heart

THE first thing a physician examines, when summoned, is the heart pulse. A normal heart will beat one hundred and three thousand times each day. You depend on it to beat every second of your life. You realize the heart should not have to overwork constantly to throw off blood impurities. It is impurities which increase the heart beat. More red-cells mean cleaner, purer, richer blood. They mean nerve-power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. This means freedom from pimples, from blackheads, from boils, eczema and skin eruptions; from rheumatic impurities, from that tired, exhausted feeling. Red-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S. S. S. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1826 as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-cleansers and system strengtheners ever produced.

Mr Arthur A. Smith, 1001 S. Ada St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "After suffering with boils, I was advised to take S. S. S. I wish to say that it came up to all expectations, and believed me of health. I wish to express my appreciation for what S. S. S. did for me."

Try it yourself. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical than the smaller.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again
