Some Tall - Others Taller

you may be causing miles of motor wear

Five or ten miles of motor wear before you've moved an inch! Incredible, yet that is just what happens with every cold start if your motor oil is sensitive to cold. At 32 degrees, many oils lag. At 32 they become hard—completely useless. When warmed up, pistons, cylinders and bearings grate and grind—metal against metal—for lack of lubrication.

With Texaco Golden Motor Oil neither the coldest start nor the fastest warmed-up driving will impair your motor. Regardless of weather, Texaco is on the job the instant you step on the starter. It is free from all hard-carbon-forming elements and cold-sensitive impurities. To the last drop it is nothing but clean, pure, free-flowing, full-bodied lubricant.

Here is an experiment that has been made thousands of times. Left in a snow bank overnight—next morning Texaco flows freely—monthly. Many other oils thicken and refuse to flow!
