India Will Not Join West In Condemnation of Reds' Action in Hungary Revolt

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Sept. 13 (U.P.)—India declared itself today flatly against any condemnation of Russia and the Hungarian regime for the brutal suppression of last year's freedom revolt in Hungary. Despite the position taken by India, a recognized leader of the Asian "neutralist" group, efforts to weaken a 22-power resolution condemning the Soviet action appeared certainly doomed. The United States, with the unanimous support of 36 sponsors, rejected a resolution submitted by Burma to replace the word "condemns" with "deplores" in the resolution.

Observers foresaw a crushing defeat for this move and an overwhelming approval of the resolution as submitted when it comes to a vote tonight or tomorrow.

Ambassador Arthur S. Lall told the general assembly's special session India's attitude "does not mean that we, in any sense, approve of what has taken place in Hungary."

He added:

"We feel we must, both in the interests of Hungary itself and in the larger interests involved, turn away from the course of condemnation."

Usually sources said that to substitute "deplores" for "condemns" would weaken the resolution's chief

Strike May Tie Up Phone Lines In South Idaho

IDAHO FALLS, Sept. 13 (AP)—A general strike by the Communications Workers of America against Western Electric company could have widespread effect in southern Idaho, the head of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph company's Idaho operations said today. "A strike against Western Electric would tie up installation work at a number of exchanges," said J. W. Heckman of Boise, company vice president for Idaho. "If the picket lines were honored by our operating personnel, the strike could slow down or interrupt telephone service at several exchanges."

Heckman explained that Western Electric crews are making telephone equipment installations at Twin Falls, Idaho Falls, Pocatello, Boise and Caldwell. The largest group, 120, is at Twin Falls, where a three-million-dollar project for conversion to a dial system is nearing completion. Crews at the other cities range from four to six, Heckman said. They are making minor installations.

Heckman said conversion to dial operations for the Magic Valley area —Twin Falls, Gooding, Jerome and Shoshone—is scheduled for Oct. 19 and a strike could delay the conversion date.

At present dial exchanges are in operation in the Boise and Idaho Falls areas. Effects of a strike would not be felt in those areas as quickly as it would at other telephone exchanges such as at Pocatello and Twin Falls.

"We are of course hoping the dispute will be settled before Monday," Heckman said.

The CWA has called the nation-wide strike for Monday against Western Electric. The workers involved do installation and maintenance work on telephone company equipment.

Faubus Leaves to Confer With 'Ike' On Racial Tension

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 13 (U.P.)—Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus took off from Little Rock today for a dramatic meeting here tomorrow with President Eisenhower on the school integration impasse in Little Rock. Faubus, who has defied a federal court order to admit Negroes to the Central high school in Little Rock, was accompanied by two consultants. No information was released as to the route of the six-place Aero-Commander plane carrying the gubernatorial party or the estimated time of arrival at the summer White House.

But Faubus told reporters he understood he and his companions would spend the night "in the Newport area." The conference is scheduled for 9 a.m. tomorrow.

Faubus said he would have no legal advisers with him at the talks with Eisenhower.

"The only time I need legal advice is in court, not in a conference," the governor said.

The meeting between Eisenhower and the Arkansas governor was arranged by Rep. Brooks Hays, D-Ark., an old friend of the President. But there was no immediate indication Hays would be present at the conference.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said it was likely Faubus and his party would spend the night in Providence, R. I. He said they would be picked up by helicopter at Theodore Francis Green airport near Providence at 8:30 a.m. and flown here for the meeting.

Hagerty said Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., and presidential assistant Sherman Adams will arrive here about 8:30 a.m. tomorrow, half an hour before the President's meeting with Faubus.

That will give them time for a private session with Eisenhower before the meeting the governor. The attorney general and Adams were not expected to sit in on the entire Eisenhower-Faubus meeting because the President and the governor may want to have a few words alone.

NEWS BULLETINS

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 13 (AP)—A tug boat with five men aboard was forced under water in the Elizabeth river near here today. Three men were rescued but two others were presumed dead. None of the men has been identified.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 13 (AP)—The FBI today turned over to local authorities a man reported to have undisclosed information about the dynamiting of a newly integrated Nashville school. Shortly after Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., announced in Washington that the FBI was investigating the bombing early Tuesday of the Hattie Cotton school, agents presented police with a suspect.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—The union of telephone equipment installers, threatening a nationwide walkout Monday, made "substantial" concessions to Western Electric company today, a union spokesman said.

Texas Driver Forfeits Bond For Tipsiness

A Texas forfeited a $250 bond Friday in Twin Falls justice court rather than stand trial on a charge of drunken driving.

The man, Johnnie Edwards, San Antonio, Tex., was arrested Monday on highway 93 six miles north of Rogerson by State Patrolman D. L. Cain. He was found in possession of a Texas and a Georgia driver's license.

Twin Falls Justice of the Peace J. O. Pumphrey said Friday a report of the arrest and forfeiture will be forwarded to the department of law enforcement, Boise. Edwards will be denied the use of Idaho highways for one year.

Others will be sent to Georgia and Texas by the Boise office, Pumphrey said.

Three persons have been fined by Buhler Police Judge Henry W. Tucker on charges of speeding.

They are Paul Temple, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil D. Temple,

Still Mild

Mild, dry weather will continue in Magic Valley into next week, according to the five-day forecast received from the Associated Press.

"This is the kind of weather we can use plenty of nothing but," exclaimed the AP reporter, making hash of his syntax, as he read this forecast:

"No rain likely through Wednesday. Temperatures averaging near normal. Highs generally 75 to 85 and lows 45 to 55 except 40 in higher valleys."

Homes Swallowed by Crevasse in England

FARNWORTH, England, Sept. 13 (U.P.)—A mysterious hole in the ground swallowed houses whole, made scores homeless, and inched its way across a square mile of Farnworth today. Torrential rains added to the havoc. What began as a tiny crack in the middle of Fylde street yesterday morning became a huge erosion process that drove 400 persons from their homes. Police feared that the daylong downpour would spread the damage. In the first 24 hours, the slowly-widening crevasse swallowed 12 houses whole, made a shambles of three more, shattered the fronts of another 111 and left an estimated 100 more in dangerous condition with cracks or other damage.

The original hole became 40 feet square and 20 feet deep by this afternoon. The outer edges were spreading at the rate of six inches an hour as earth gradually sank into an unknown emptiness below.

The rain and fractured storm sewers poured water into the depression faster than three fire engines could pump it out.

Borough authorities believe a defective sewer may have eluted away earth from 120 families affected area, causing collapse of the surface ground.

Emergency crews dug into rock and mud to install a bypass drainage ditch around the suspected broken sewer and head off further disaster.

No one was certain what caused the trouble. Some officials said it might be an abandoned coal mine caving in through this Lancashire city of the British midlands.

Policemen roped off a square mile of the crowded Fylde street district and stood guard to prevent residents or looters from entering the endangered streets.

The Lancashire constabulary prohibited the lighting of fires in the neighborhood. Electricity and gas lines were cut off to lessen the chance of a conflagration from short circuits or leaks.

Police said 1,000 families were ordered evacuated. Most found safety at the homes of relatives or friends. Others were put up in emergency shelters, and the borough council opened an emergency feeding station in a Sunday school.

Benson Plans To Continue Cabinet Duty

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (U.P.)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson said today it is the decision of President Eisenhower that he continue indefinitely in the cabinet.

Benson said the matter was discussed at his conference with the President at Newport, R. I. Wednesday.

"Some time ago the President asked me to stay on," Benson said. "I took the matter up with my church, from which I am on leave. It consented and I agreed to stay on."

Benson said the matter was discussed again Wednesday, and that there was no change in the situation.

Benson is an apostle of the LDS church.

Benson's remarks at a news conference were in response to a request for comment on a demand by

Fire Benson, Senator Asks 'Ike' in Wire

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—Senator Proxmire, D-Wis., yesterday asked President Eisenhower to fire Secretary of Agriculture Benson. This, Proxmire said, would be in accordance with the will of the people. He said this was demonstrated by his election victory last month.

In a telegram to the President, the freshman senator said a recheck of the Aug. 27 ballots "is an unmistakable repudiation of Secretary Benson and the farm policies which he has advocated."

Proxmire said Benson's policies were supported by Walter Kohler, former governor who was the Republican senate candidate.

"I promised to oppose him (Benson) with all my power," Proxmire said. "Farm voters endorsed my position by a landslide vote of 2-1."

The senator said that "the farm depression has brought economic blight to rural areas of Wisconsin. Returns to farmers last year were only 43-52 cents per hour, according to official agriculture department studies.

"In spite of this disgracefully low return to the dairy farmers of my state, the only suggestion for a change in government farm policy has been offered by Secretary Benson is to further reduce the price supports for dairy commodities."

SUPPORT EXTENDED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—The agriculture department said today it will extend the 1957 wheat price support program to cover sprout-damaged grain grading No. 4, No. 5 and sample.

School Given Problems for Money Grant

RUPERT, Sept. 13 — When the federal government gave Minidoka county schools $350,000 earlier this week, it also handed the school system a problem.

The schools had asked for $502,000 to build new schools in the county. Basis for the request was the increase in school enrollment caused by the new homesteads. Children of homesteaders are attending Minidoka county schools but land upon which they are living is not taxable until the homesteaders have proven up on the land after five years of working the farms.

The county had intended to build and furnish 25 classrooms at Acequia and Paul and to add general purpose rooms and kitchens to the schools.

In denying the full request, the federal government held the situation in Minidoka county is only temporary but county school officials want to make the additional classrooms permanent by adjusting them to existing structures.

School Supt. Camden Meyer said the money provided by the federal government will build the 25 classrooms but that plans for all purpose rooms and kitchens would have to be abandoned. He said the money would build the bare rooms but that furnishings for them would have to come from regular sources.

To get this additional money the school board is considering a two-mill improvement levy. For this, however, an election would have to be held.

Once the additional rooms have been built the heating plants at both the Acequia and Paul schools would have to be revamped to heat the additional space. Money from the levy rather than from the government would have to be used for this purpose.

The school board also will open bids on Sept. 23 to replace the heating plant serving Lincoln and Washington schools, Meyer said.

Wind Stops Test For Atomic Shot

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev., Sept. 13 (AP)—Scientists plans to launch off the unprecedented evening shot in a test blast were thwarted yesterday by adverse winds.

Anxious to close out the summer test series, the scientists decided to schedule a small shot for 5 p. m.—the latest hour at which a shot ever had been planned here. But at 3 p.m. weather briefing, however, it was announced that winds were unfavorable and if the shot were fired there would be an unfavorable fallout pattern at Hiko, Nev., east of the test site.

Idaho Power Reports Two Costly Projects

Two projects involving nearly one-half million dollars to provide for increasing electric use in the Twin Falls area were reported Friday by Donald Bailey, Idaho Power company's division manager here. Bailey said an additional substation, costing a total of $247,700, is under construction on Highland avenue east for a 10,000-kilowatt transformer. Another project calls for a $241,000 expansion program at the Milner substation. A crew currently is laying the foundation for the Highland avenue project, to be known as "Eastgate," Bailey said.

A 150- by 200-foot fenced area allows for the continuing enlargement of the new Eastgate substation which will operate in addition to the existing transformer and switching facilities on Filer avenue, he reported.

The Eastgate substation will, for the present, have one transformer to provide service to three feeder lines. Additional transformers will be added later to serve 12 feeder lines extending from the unit.

The present development, including a control building 15 by 30 feet and a fence line will cost approximately $247,700 for the transformer alone, Bailey said.

Work will commence next week on the construction of two miles of a 46,000-volt line which will tap the Shoshone falls-Twin falls trunkline and carry electricity to the Eastgate substation which, will be in service before the end of the year. About 20 men from Idaho Power's mobile crews will be stationed here during the construction.

Bailey said another large expansion is slated in the company's substation at Milner. Three transformers, representing a bank of 60,000-kilowatts, are being moved from the railroad siding near Milner to the substation for installation later this fall. The program will cost approximately $241,000.

"Heart of Idaho Power's unprecedented expansion," Bailey pointed out, "is the Brownlee power plant development on the middle reach of the Snake river, which will have an initial generating capacity of 360,000 kilowatts. The project is 60 per cent completed and is being rushed to completion next year to avoid a power shortage."

Northern Lights

A spectacular display of northern light streaked the sky north of Twin Falls with glowing green and crimson Thursday night and early Friday morning.

Streamers of yellow and green shot from the horizon across the northern skyline from east to west, later turning to crimson on the extreme limits.

The luminous phenomenon, more accurately known as aurora borealis, is most frequently seen in the arctic regions although several displays have been noted in the Twin Falls area this year and last.

T. F. Resident Listed Critical After Surgery

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 13 — Clyde Taylor, 28, Twin Falls father-of-two children, remained in critical condition Friday in a Salt Lake City hospital following a delicate brain operation at 10 p. m. Monday.

Taylor, manager of Twin Falls bakery of the Clay Food store chain, was flown to Salt Lake City at 10 p. m. Sunday from Twin Falls airport in an ambulance plane from Mountain Home air force base.

The operation was performed by Dr. Peter Lindstrom, surgeon at Salt Lake City General hospital. Dr. Lindstrom is the former husband of movie actress Ingrid Bergman.

Preceding the flight from Twin Falls to Salt Lake City, Dr. Lindstrom conferred with Twin Falls doctors for one hour before the removal of Taylor from Magic Valley Memorial hospital was authorized.

Becoming ill a month ago, Taylor was admitted to the hospital here last Friday. His illness is caused by an abscess on the brain.

Taylor had been confined to his home until last Friday when his condition became worse. His wife, the former Jean Buehler, whose brother, Jack Buehler, is general manger of the food store chain, rushed Buehler Friday to tell him of her husband's condition.

Draft Call Set

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—The army today issued a draft call for 7,000 men in November. This is the same number previously announced for October, and is 1,000 under the September quota.

The new call brings to 2,251,430 the total number drafted or earmarked for induction since the resumption of selective service in September, 1950.

Pens Lacking At Show for Late Arrivals

JEROME, Sept. 12—Late arriving livestock exhibitors at the district youth fair on the Jerome county fairgrounds are going to be hard pressed to find space for their animals. Even though the deadline for entering livestock is 8 a. m. Saturday, practically all the space had been taken by noon Friday.

All of the livestock entered by blue ribbon 4-H and FFA winners at fairs and achievement days in Magic Valley this year will be judged on Saturday. Livestock judging contests and fitting and showing events also will be held at that time.

In the 4-H home economics judging contest, judged by Florence Schultz, Twin Falls county home demonstration agent, the Gooding county team was first, Cassia county's team second and Blaine county's team third. Linda Williams and Mary Erwin, both Gooding county, were tied as high individuals.

The other members of the Gooding team, in addition to Miss Williams, and Miss Erwin was Sharon Moore. Members of the Cassia team were Leslie Conner, Mary Pennington and Fay Backman. Members of the Blaine team were Linda Worthington, Ruth Shaffer and Verla Worthington.

Saudi Arabian King Tells Views on Crisis

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (U.P.)—King Saud of Saudi Arabia on Aug. 25 expressed his serious concern to President Eisenhower over pro-communist developments in Syria, diplomatic sources revealed today. In a letter to Eisenhower, the king said it was reported to have sought the President's views on what should be done to prevent any new Middle Eastern crisis. It was understood, too, that the king indicated he believed some action should be taken. State Department Press Officer Lincoln White confirmed that King Saud had sent a letter on "Middle East developments" but he refused to divulge its contents.

White sharply denied a flurry of reports that the king had sent a message during recent days to the effect that the United States may be driving Syria further into the Soviet camp.

White also rejected as "completely unfounded" reports that a new letter from Saud had caused the tempering of the American attitude toward Syria shown in Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' press conference remarks Wednesday.

White acknowledged that Saud has expressed his views to the U. S. on the Syrian situation. He likewise said the king's views have been taken into consideration by the U. S.

Saud's Aug. 25 message may have been instrumental in the U. S. decision to speed up delivery of arms to Saudi Arabia, Jordan and other neighbors of Syria.

Saudi Arabia had received 12 F-86 Sabrejet fighters and two T-33 jet trainers by the end of August.

There was no hint at the state department as to whether President Eisenhower has replied to Saud. It was assumed that the President has replied, however, because the two leaders, who met here earlier this year, frequently write to each other.

STRIKE DELAYED

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Sept. 13 (AP)—A threatened strike of 2,000 lumber and sawmill workers in Arizona and New Mexico has been postponed at least until Monday.

Resolution on Salmon River Is OK'd Here

A resolution urging protection for salmon spawning runs through a land withdrawal program at the headwaters of the Salmon river was approved Friday by the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce board of directors.

The directors, meeting in regular weekly session, heard a report by Dr. Charles Scholer on the proposed land withdrawal. Under the resolution, to be submitted to the Idaho congressional commission, some 30,000 acres of land would be withdrawn at the Salmon river headwaters to prevent mining of mining claims. This is similar to that protecting the waters for the Jerome area during their spawning runs.

The resolution will be presented to the commission at its joint meeting with the bureau of land management, Sept. 19 and 20 at Boise.

In other action, the directors heard a report by Ray J. Holmes on a meeting of persons interested in the state's proposed Kimberly road construction project.

Thomas R. Hovenden spoke briefly on the 4-H and FFA pig stock sale at the Twin Falls Livestock Commission company Sept. 21.

Californian Resumes His Trip Following Period of Blackout

BURLEY, Sept. 13—Antonio Burton, 65, was on his way back to Venice, Calif., Friday in spite of the fact he was a few days in his life of which he has no knowledge.

Burton, a retired railroad employe, was found wandering in the desert near Strevell by state police Wednesday night. He spent Thursday at the Cottage hospital in Burley and was picked up by his brother Friday to return to Venice.

When located by police, Burton had $300 in cash in his pockets. Also in his possession at the time was evidence he had approximately $14,000 in the bank.

Police have learned Burton has a history of periods of amnesia. He was returning to Venice from Chicago, when he had a similar attack, by bus. At Snowville he disappeared from the bus, apparently caught a ride to Strevell and then was found wandering in the desert.

State police at the Strevell checking station started to take him to Burley and were met about half way by State Patrolman Marvin Snyder who brought Burton to the hospital. The Californian's brother was contacted and Friday morning Burton resumed his trip home.

Hit-Run Victim Is Reported as Fair

Condition of little Diane Dixon, 2-year-old hit-run victim now in Magic Valley Memorial hospital, was "fair" Friday according to an attendant.

The child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon, Graceman Addition, was admitted as a patient at the hospital since Saturday night when she was struck on Shoup avenue west.

Meanwhile, Twin Falls police continued to check all leads to the identity of the elusive driver of the black sedan who fled at the scene after backing his car up and viewing his young victim.

Big Harvest Of Potatoes Is Predicted

BOISE, Sept. 13 (AP)—Production of all potatoes in Idaho during the season is forecast at 22,375,000 hundredweight, compared with 1956 production of 21,080,000 hundredweight, the U. S. agriculture department said Friday.

The harvest would be far greater than the 1949-55 average of 23,615,000 hundredweight.

The report said the four per cent increase in the harvest would result from a corresponding four per cent increase in potato acreage in Idaho's fall production area this year.

Fall potatoes in Idaho are grown in the area east of King Hill.

The department said late summer potato production in Idaho would total about 2,205,000 hundredweight, a nine per cent increase over last year's production.

Memories Linger of Children's Needless Death

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13 (AP)—A letter addressed to "Dear Mr. Motorist" arrived at the Mirror-News.

"I am not writing this to you to remind you all over again," the letter said, "but to all motorists because school again begins.

"I want to prevent the tragedy that we have shared together—a mother and you, Mr. Motorist.

"That day three sun-tanned little faces smiled as they waved me a happy goodbye and so importantly went on their way to school. I wanted to call them back to tell them how lonesome it would be.

"Mr. Motorist, I wanted to kiss them once more . . . Then I saw you take that corner—tires screaming, car out of control.

"What was your hurry? Were you late for work? Were you angry at someone?

"Surely not my three. I am sure you would not want to run your screaming tires over their happy faces intentionally, crasing forever the smiles they had for me.

"But, Mr. Motorist, children are very forgiving in life and—I'm sure—in death. They would if they could, put your hand and feel sad that because of one tragic moment you are left to live over and over again how your love of speed took three lives.

"I don't hate you any more. I feel sorry for you. I can still see those smiling little faces as they wave me goodby."

The letter was signed. Under the signature, this postscript:

"Another year. And once again your flowers arrive. They are beautiful. Thank you."

The newspaper sent reporter Charles Nelsweader to investigate. He talked with a close friend of the letter writer. She told him the letter was written four years ago on the first anniversary of the tragedy. It was written but never intended to be mailed to the man who was driving the car. The friend sent the letter to the paper, which printed it Thursday.

The motorist?

He still sends the mother flowers on each anniversary of the children's death.

And the mother?

She couldn't write a letter now. For in her mind she still waves goodbye to the smiling faces of her children.

The tragedy was too much. She is in a mental hospital, hopelessly insane.

Beck Is Given Court OK to Go to Parley

SEATTLE, Sept. 13 (U) — Jaunty Teamsters' boss Dave Beck planned to leave for New York today with a U. S. district court judge's permission to attend the union's Sept. 30 Miami convention.

Judge George H. Boldt granted Beck's request following his plea of innocent yesterday in Tacoma to charges of cheating the government out of $184,000 in income taxes for 1951-53. Judge Boldt also okayed requests of Beck's son, Dave, Jr., Fred Verschueren, sr., and Norman J. Gesser to attend the convention. The trio also had pleaded innocent to charges of conspiring with the elder Beck to evade his taxes.

Beck, Jr., said he was a Teamster organizer in an affidavit seeking permission to appear at the convention. Gesser, a cousin of Mrs. Beck, sr., said he had to go since he was a "general organizer" for the union. Verschueren is a Teamster auditor. All three said they would leave next week.

Boldt said Chicago labor relations consultant Nathan Shefferman and his son, Shelley, will be arraigned in Tacoma Oct. 18 on conspiracy charges similar to those involving Beck, Jr., Verschueren and Gesser. Both had been granted a continuance at their attorney's request.

Alcorn Views Tough Battle

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 12 (U)—Mead Alcorn, Republican national chairman, said today the GOP faces a "very tough battle" in the 1958 elections, particularly in Democratic bailiwicks.

He said the party has "reasonable prospects" for making gains in the house. The senate, he added, will be "extremely difficult" since most of the seats at issue are in the traditionally Democratic South.

Alcorn was here to help kick off a Minnesota GOP "the people speak" conference today and give a banquet speech tonight.

He described farm prices as the "real battleground" of 1958. Alcorn told a news conference the party is going all out to regain ground lost in 1956 in these traditionally strong GOP states.

ried to Twin Falls after the call from Mrs. Taylor. They were present at the hospital when Twin Falls doctors decided the case called for a brain specialist.

Dr. Lindstrom was contacted by telephone. He decided that a flight to Salt Lake City carried less risk than leaving Mrs. Taylor in Twin Falls.

Meanwhile, Buehler and Nugent were trying to arrange transportation for the stricken man. They finally contacted a Red Cross worker, Mrs. Ruth Markham, Pocatello. She in turn called Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

The governor called the commander at Mountain Home airforce base and he ordered an ambulance plane to Twin Falls to transport Taylor to the Utah hospital.

When the plane arrived in Salt Lake City it was met by Dr. Lindstrom with a special ambulance and a police escort for the trip to the hospital.

Bergesen is co-chairman of the state Republican "neighbor-to-neighbor" plan for raising funds. He said the drive will start on Oct. 24.

Plans are to have GOP workers go through their neighborhoods to get funds for the party campaign. He said he is confident the plan will bring more members into the GOP ranks for the 1958 congressional campaign.

Soybean Surplus Given Attention

This year's soybean crop has been forecast as the largest on record, and in excess of market prospects.

The department will send a market specialist to Japan soon to work with private trade groups and government officials there to promote wider use of U.S. soybeans in the Japanese diet.

Idaho Health Board Stages Initial Talks

BOISE, Sept. 13 (U)—Idaho's new five-man state board of health today held its organizational meeting and elected Dr. Paul Ellis, Wallace, to be permanent chairman.

Harry Elcock, Twin Falls, was chosen vice chairman. Other members of the board are H. Westerman Williams, Boise; L. E. Monnquist, Caldwell, and Hugh Wagnon, Pocatello.

One Holdover

Elcock was the only member of the new board who was a member of the old nine-member board of health which was abolished by the 1957 legislature.

Dr. Fred Graeber, acting director of public health, met briefly with the board this morning and told members public health was a complicated problem with a "tremendous number of ramifications."

He discussed the organization and functions of the state health department and discussed its current operations.

School Problems

He said one problem facing the board would be consideration of the state health department's participation in school health programs and school inspections. He said the matter of school health inspections was an "acute problem" in some areas.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie today signed the certificates of appointment for all five members of the board. All were recess appointments which must be confirmed by the senate during the 1959 session.

Benson Plans To Continue Cabinet Duty

newly-elected Democratic Sen. Proxmire of Wisconsin for Benson's removal from the cabinet.

Benson devoted much of his news conference to a discussion of plans for seeking modifications in present farm programs in the next session of congress.

He said the administration will seek legislation for crop controls, greater flexibility in setting price supports and expansion of the agricultural trade development act which authorizes sale of farm surpluses abroad for foreign currencies.

Scientists Glance At Spuds to Halt Radioactive Peril

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (U) — Widespread planting of potatoes might help protect the public from radioactive fallout in the event of atomic war, three scientists suggested yesterday.

They said cultivation of potatoes and other crops low in calcium relative to their overall calories producing value offers one possible means of reducing the amount of strontium 90, a radioactive isotope, entering the human "food chain."

Strontium is chemically similar to calcium and therefore can be absorbed by plants just as calcium can. A plant that is naturally low in calcium content would tend to absorb only relatively small amounts of strontium which gets into the soil from fallout.

The researchers, who offered the suggestion in the technical journal "Science," are Dr. C. L. Comar and Dr. R. H. Wasserman of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, under contract with the atomic energy commission; and Dr. R. Scott Russell of the University of Oxford, England.

Farmers Claim Sprinkler Plan Halted by Government Bureau

AMERICAN FALLS, Sept. 13 (U)—A spokesman for some of the farmers in the Michaud flats irrigation project said today they think they are being discriminated against by being denied sprinkler-type irrigation.

"Our organization represents the owners of approximately 4,000 acres of land in the Michaud flats, all of whom feel that they are not getting a square deal from the government," M. P. Michell of American Falls said in a statement.

Gregg R. Potvin, American Falls attorney, through whom the statement was issued, said Mitchell is chairman of the Michaud Landowners committee. He said the group is composed of owners of approximately one-third of the arable land in the project.

In Boise, William H. Tuller, assistant regional director of the bureau of reclamation, said the project was authorized by congress as a gravity-type project and "we are only sprinkling that land which would not have been included in the project if it were not for sprinklers."

"We were told by representatives of the bureau of reclamation, prior to the holding of the election that authorized the project, that our land would receive sprinkler-type irrigation. Now we are told that this is impossible."

Replied Tuller: "We know of nobody in the bureau of reclamation who told them that."

Mitchell said the gravity-type of irrigating installation being furnished to the land owned by association members is "worse than useless to us" because of the type of soil and the rolling nature of the land.

2 Solons Ask Disposal Plan In Dried Peas

BOISE, Sept. 13 (U) — The two Democratic members of Idaho's congressional delegation urged today the development of an emergency program for the disposal of surpluses of edible dried peas.

Sen. Frank Church and Rep. Gracie Pfost directed their request to Secretary of Agriculture Benson. They said a surplus carryover of dried peas had made it difficult to market the crop at fair prices.

"Few agricultural producers," they said in their letter to Benson, "have made such vigorous efforts to develop and expand their market without direct assistance or subsidy from the government, as have the pea producers.

"Despite these efforts, the surpluses are exercising a severely depressing effect on the market, and causing widespread distress in areas where dried peas constitute a major farm crop.

"We earnestly solicit the interest and attention of the department of agriculture in devising an emergency program to relieve this situation."

Foreign Foes Make Capital Of Race Woes

By The Associated Press

The Egyptian government has ordered its powerful Voice of Arabs radio to hit hard at the troubles in the United States over integration.

And the communist press is advising the world to turn its eyes to Little Rock and Nashville instead of worrying so much about Hungary.

These are examples of the way the school segregation story is affecting the United States abroad.

The Egyptian directive, reported in Cairo yesterday, is for the Voice of Arabs to go all-out particularly in its broadcasts to Sudan, whose inhabitants are dark-skinned and mostly pure African. The same directive is reported to have ordered increased attacks on "imperialists" particularly the United States.

Soviet newspapers are focusing on treatment of Negroes in the United States after a slow start on the current story. The newspaper "Soviet Russia" said Thursday the world press should turn its complaints to that instead of Hungary. It called foes of integration "white men with black souls."

Smylie, State Health Board Leaders Talk

BOISE, Sept. 13 (U)—The temporary chairman of the new Idaho state board of health conferred yesterday with Gov. Robert E. Smylie and the heads of the two divisions under the board's jurisdiction.

Dr. Paul Mills, Wallace, visited briefly with the governor and then spent the afternoon talking to Dr. F. O. Graeber, acting director of public health, and Dr. John L. Butler, acting director of mental health.

He said he came a day in advance of the board's first meeting, which opens tomorrow, so he could confer with officials about details of the programs with which the board will be concerned.

Other members of the board are H. Westerman Williams, Boise; Harry Elcock, Twin Falls; Fran Blomquist, Caldwell, and Hugh Wagnon, Pocatello.

The board was created by the 1957 legislature and took the place of one created by the 1955 legislature. The former board became a center of a controversy because of dissension with L. J. Peterson, then state health director.

Onion Harvest Decline Noted

BOISE, Sept. 13 (U)—The agricultural department today predicted that Idaho farmers would harvest 570,000 hundredweight of onions this year.

The estimated harvest would be 14 per cent less than the 1956 onion crop and 50 per cent under the 1949-55 average harvest.

The department report said Idaho onions suffered further damage from insects during August, and some acreages in southwestern Idaho may not be harvested. Stands in the Twin Falls area also were listed as thin because of hail and heavy rains early in the season.

Idaho's harvest of sweet corn for 1957 was expected to be about 85,000 tons, just slightly above the 1956 production. The output would be well over the 1946-55 average of 39,800 tons.

aim — get communist cooperation with Prince Wan Waithayakon of Thailand as the assembly's special representative to seek an end to Russia's repression of Hungary.

The American sources, who had canvassed the 36 other sponsors of the resolution, also rejected two other Burmese resolutions.

One dealt with a section which notes the investigating committee's "conclusion that the events which took place in Hungary in October and November, 1956, constituted a spontaneous national uprising."

Burma wanted this noted as the "main conclusion" of the committee's 180,000-word report.

To accept this change, the U. S. sources said, would be to imply that one conclusion of the five-member committee had more validity than the others.

The Burmese also sought to delete a provision that Prince Wan should consult with the investigating committee in the course of his work. Burmese Ambassador U Thant said the committee should be abolished.

Republican Chiefs Plan Fund Talks

SEATTLE, Sept. 13 (AP)—Republican leaders from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming and Alaska will meet here Sept. 23 with Charles S. Thomas, finance chairman for the Republican national committee, state GOP officials announced today.

Thomas, former secretary of the navy, will discuss political issues and methods of raising campaign funds.

John H. Hauberg, jr., Republican state finance chairman who is in charge of arrangements for Thomas' visit, said one purpose of the conference is to eliminate duplications in soliciting funds at county and state levels.

Exhibit Accepted

BOISE, Sept. 13 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie accepted for the state yesterday a statewide exhibit showing mining and milling facilities of the Bunker Hill company in northern Idaho.

John D. Bradley, company president, presented the exhibit, expressing the hope that it would give residents of the state increased "pride in being Idaho citizens and will stimulate them to take an active part in the continued development of their state."

CHURCHILL'S PROPOSAL

Sir Winston Churchill wants to change the voting system in the United Nations. He believes the present plan of one vote for each nation allows combinations of small and sometimes irresponsible states to govern vital decisions in the organization.

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold doubts, however, that the "equal vote" arrangement really handicaps the U. N.'s usefulness in dealing with world problems.

Since any durable world agency would seem necessarily to be founded on the equality of nations, the Churchill plan is unlikely to advance far. Despite their differences of power, size and development, the various countries of the earth could hardly be graded and classified successfully.

One great virtue of national independence is the dignity it brings to a sovereign voice as it speaks to the world. How could we truly justify muffling many of these voices in the U. N. by allotting them half votes or less?

Sir Winston may well have an important point in his argument, but the answer perhaps lies in other channels.

The U. N. today is a sounding board, a forum; a battleground for many small nations, some new and some old, which before its existence could not have counted on being heard well anywhere.

In the nature of things, some of these are flexing their vocal muscles more than is either fitting or necessary to sustain their true interests.

Since any number are former colonies of the Western powers, there may be, consciously or otherwise, some spitefulness in the formation of combinations to defy the big nations within the U. N.

Of course this is immature and foolish, for whatever the errors of the colonial powers in the past, they are not morally balanced by similar errors today on the part of the emerging small countries.

The cure would not appear to be to limit the voice of these nations in the U. N. or anywhere else, but instead to encourage in them a deep sense of responsibility toward the finest ideals of international justice.

Young in the use of their modest strength, they must not be deprived of it but rather taught the wise exercise of it.

MORSE TALKS TOO MUCH

Sen. Wayne Morse, in addition to being a political renegade, is one of the oddest and most puzzling men to sit in the U. S. senate in many years.

No one doubts that in some respects he's a brilliant fellow, as his pre-senate career would indicate. He also is an exceptionally hard worker, for a great deal of research must go into the too many and too lengthy speeches he delivers.

Another political asset is the fact he has an exceptionally thick skin—so thick it's almost impossible to hurt his feelings.

His greatest fault, it would seem, is that he takes himself too seriously and spreads himself too thin. Like a jack of all trades and master of none, he does not or cannot concentrate on one or a few subjects, and make himself an acknowledged expert in those particular fields. Like a lot of people who talk too much, he refuses to realize that he bores those who have to listen.

It doesn't even bother him that the reporters troop out of the senate gallery as soon as he obtains the floor, with an ominous pile of books, papers and magazines on his desk.

As a result, there are a good many in Washington who regard him as one of the least effective men on capitol hill. By permitting himself to become bitter in debate, he estranges members who otherwise acknowledge his ability.

So, instead of Morse eventually rising to greater heights with all his political opportunism and verbal bombast, it's more likely he'll gradually become a lone wolf and fade out of the picture.

LEARNING HARD WAY

Normally when the Communist party gets a foothold in any free nation the world must perforce view it as a danger and a potential tragedy.

But, while the peril is just as real in India as anywhere in the world, the inroads of communism may be could turn out to be a blessing in disguise.

The Indian definition of "neutrality" between East and West has from the start meant a curious leaning toward the East. Submersed in hatred of Western colonialism were the Indians that they could see no menace in red tyranny.

Then the Communist party won ground in their country—in the southern state of Kerala, and now India is beginning to learn first hand what it refused to face abroad.

At first moderate in behavior, the Communists in Kerala now are trying to push through legislation to gain control of all private schools. Agitators in several sectors are being charged by Indian industrialists with "systematic sabotage" of important factory installations.

We of the West can't help wondering now that the Communists have found their way inside the gates, just how neutral the Indian people can continue to feel toward these friends of the masses who devote themselves to clobbering the masses.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—The Eisenhower-Benson hope for 1958 enactment of a new, permanent, and money-saving agricultural program has been dampened, if not killed entirely, by recent political and economic developments here and abroad. Also endangered is their expectation of reducing food prices to urban consumers as a favorable basis in next year's congressional elections.

Ray Tucker

Secretary Benson's new-model farm plan has three devices for reducing the production of surpluses when they are burdens on the market, and for bringing production into a better balance with consumption. He has never blueprinted his proposed methods, but they are recognizable from the numerous addresses which he and his departmental aides have made throughout the farm country.

The three schemes reduce the inflow of surpluses, Benson seeks to dispose of existing stocks in school lunch and other relief programs, and especially by subsidized exports abroad. Congress gave him additional funds for these forms of disposal at the recent session.

Key to the whole plan is the price support payments, which now range from 75 to 90 per cent, so as to discourage production of those commodities now in excess—mainly, wheat, corn, tobacco, cheese and cotton.

The federal investment in these crops totals 5.3 billion dollars in a total holding of approximately 7.8 billion dollars. The 1957 crop alone added up to many products which once swamped warehouses. Stocks of others, such as small grains, butter, dried milk and wool, have been cut to low levels.

Under these schemes reduce the inflow of surpluses, Benson seeks to dispose of existing stocks in school lunch and other relief programs, and especially by subsidized exports abroad. Congress gave him additional funds for these forms of disposal at the recent session.

FARM EXPORTS HIGHEST EVER—As a result, farm exports are now the highest in history. They amounted to about five billion dollars in the current year, although these transactions entailed a loss that must be deducted from the asset side of our ledger. Materials for possible military use that we received in exchange.

Despite Benson's optimism, he has been able to make only a dent in the huge hoards of crops owned or mortgaged. The all-time peak investment was 8.9 billion dollars in February, 1956.

He points out, however, that a large percentage of this surplus must be kept as permanent insurance—a granary—against unfavorable growing weather, war, supplies for our military and civilian population, as well as for our increasing number of allies.

PROGRAM IN JEOPARDY—But Benson's long-time and cure-all program, to be presented to congress next year, has been placed in jeopardy overnight. The Democratic victory in the Wisconsin senate race was due, in part at least, to an anti-administration revolt among the farmers, especially dairymen.

They figure that their income is too low, and their expenses too high under existing conditions. Neither they nor their spokesmen on capitol hill will be in a mood for further cuts in support prices.

John F. Diefenbaker, the new Canadian prime minister, has protested publicly against our exports of foodstuffs on the ground that they hurt Canada's overseas trade. The same complaint was registered by numerous South American statesmen at the recent Buenos Aires conference, where Uncle Sam was accused of "hogging" the world market in food and fibers. European countries have now increased production, and no longer need our contributions.

Finally, 1958 is an election year, and Democrats have shown strength in farm districts now represented by Eisenhower-Republicans. Thus, there will be bipartisan resistance to Benson's demand for a permanent solution of the farm problem—for producers and consumers.

VIEWS OF OTHERS

AND THE JUNKETS GO ON

Congressman Dawson of Utah has declared he does not intend to give up his battle to require congressional committees to budget and account for the expenditure of counterpart funds.

Counterpart money actually belongs to the taxpayers of the United States. It is local foreign money provided by foreign governments as a counterpart to American dollar aid or the sale of U. S. surplus farm stuffs. Congressmen who go abroad can draw on these funds for their expenses—and are not required to make a public accounting of how they spend the money. About 150 members of congress are reported on trips abroad or planning them this late summer and fall.

Mr. Dawson's amendment to require an accounting of counterpart fund expenditures was beaten by a vote of 146 to 86.

"I intend to continue to press for its enactment. We should not—as members of congress—exempt ourselves from accounting procedures we require from other public officials," he said. Mr. Dawson will have some support from at least one other lawmaker. Congressman Gross of Iowa has said he plans to introduce legislation in the next session of congress to prevent the "abuse" of foreign travel by congressmen. He said some lawmakers embarked on foreign "junkets" even before congress adjourned.

Mr. Gross proposes to make the congressmen spend only funds appropriated to their committees by congress, then account for them and lay the record open to public inspection when they return. If they use counterpart funds they should pay for them with American dollars, he said.

Congressmen Dawson and Gross should be given the strongest kind of citizen support. The special privileges given congressmen with regard to the counterpart funds encourage chiseling and even petty thievery. Some of the congressional trips abroad are worthwhile but a good many are nothing more than "good time" junkets, free vacation trips for people who already are well paid.

Outraged taxpayers should make it known they want the strings tightened.—Salt Lake Tribune.

THERE'S TURMOIL IN DENVER

Turmoil in Denver, touched off by a move to levy and collect a city income tax, came in for widespread attention lately when it was disclosed that Denver's mayor, Will F. Nicholson, had signed a petition for his own recall.

Quite likely it is that most Denver residents deplore the difficulty which Colorado's capital shares with most other American municipalities in financing services and benefits for which there's increasing demand.

But evidently, too, that sympathy in this instance doesn't go so far as to include everybody in support of a new tax.

In addition to the property tax, Colorado already has a state income tax ranging from 1 to 5 per cent, along with a 3 per cent sales tax that's earmarked for old-age pensions.

The proposed city income tax which has gained tentative city council approval, would take one-half of one per cent of income up to $5,000 and a full one per cent beyond $5,000, and it would apply to suburban workers in Denver as well as city dwellers.

Opposition to the proposal shaped up in a drive for a special recall election to unseat the mayor. The recall petition accuses the mayor, a former state senator who was elected in 1955, of "irresponsibility as an elected official and willful contempt for the will of the people of Denver."

Mayor Nicholson has said he signed the recall petition to bring matters to a head as quickly as possible.

It might be, too, that he's just tired of his job.—Boise Statesman.

POT SHOTS

ANENT OVERTIME PARKING

Dear Pot Shots:

When we pulled into our car, there was a nice big car parked on one side of us. The first thing I noticed, the meter in front of it read expired.

I sat there from 5 to 10 minutes and during that time several men walked by. They looked at both meter and car and walked on.

Finally the cop came along and he, too, looked at both, but he did not write out a ticket. No, he did not. The owner was across the street and the cop stood there and looked at him till he caught his eye, then motioned to the meter and the man came and put in some change.

How much pull does one need to be such a good friend of a cop? I would like to know.

HOT SEAT

We're not strictly bound to avoid the use of a name in this little opus, but things might be a lot more peaceful around the T-N if we don't. Anyway, it will become obvious to you that the guy had to tell this one on himself.

Seems he was locked in a small room, using the room for the purpose for which it was designed, and also smoking a cigarette. Well, cigarettes being what they are, they don't last forever and the time arrived when his cigarette had to be discarded.

It further seems these small rooms aren't too adequately equipped with ash trays, so there was only one place where he could discard the cigarette butt.

In the process of discarding the cigarette, he failed to lean sufficiently far to the left. When he settled back, the action was almost explosive. Now we understand the ash, furniture in the room is scarred and maybe the gent, too, but it doesn't show.

CITY SLICKER

Then there's the case of a Twin Falls resident who took a vacation trip up in Washington. He returned from vacation telling glowing tales about the quantity and variety of fruit he had seen.

He described how he had brought back two boxes of peaches at a total cost of 75 cents.

By the way, the fellow watching that particular fruit stand was 11 years old.

ECONOMY

A Twin Falls businessman who sells hunting and fishing licenses had more than a slow burn the other day. It all started when a fellow asked for a resident fishing license, assured the clerk he'd lived in Idaho "for 40 years."

So the clerk completed the necessary forms and filled in the blanks, then, as specified on the form, asked the customer for his driver's license. The fellow flashed a California driver's license, so the clerk wrote down "None" in the driver's permit blank.

That's when the customer got huffy, then suddenly decided he didn't want the resident license after all.

Here's the rub: The difference between the prices of the resident and non-resident licenses is $0.50. It cost the California gent more than that for gas to drive up here!

By the way, the businessman said this wasn't an unusual case and quite a few, er, ah, sportsmen from the coast have been caught.

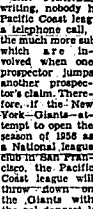
GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

SAN FRANCISCO—Up to this writing, nobody has even paid the Pacific Coast league the courtesy of a telephone call, to say nothing of the much more substantial courtesies which are involved when one prospector jumps another prospector's claim. Therefore, if the New York—Giants—attempt to open the season of 1958 as a National league club in San Francisco, the Pacific Coast league will throw down on the Giants with Westbrook Pegler's cool-dangerous spirit in the lurid history of the weird confusion of property rights and journalized mawkishness known as the American national game.



The Coast league has franchise rights in eight Western cities, including San Francisco, where clubs are now operating, and in other cities where franchises have gone into coma for economic reasons. Oakland and Salt Lake City are examples of the comatose outposts. The lawsuit of the Pacific Coast league will name as other defendants the National league and probably the National association, which embraces all the professional leagues, major and minor. The Coast league, though rated as a "minor" league, is not at all inferior to two "major" leagues, the National and American, in the validity of its property right in cities which have been its own undisputed diggings for many years.

San Francisco is the best baseball city in the minor leagues. The Coast league stadium, completed in 1903 and has worked it ever since. But this year, the Giants, a decadent flop in Manhattan, decided to muscle into the territory, indeed, muscle into even into the ballpark occupied by the local Coast league entity, called the Seals. And the mayor of San Francisco, George Christopher, a joyous but possibly too-impulsive milkman, swept away by the thought of himself as the man who might promote San Francisco from a minor to major status, seems to have neglected certain legal details.

The Coast league will bring another suit against other defendants, too. They will be, first, the city of San Francisco and, second, Charles L. Harney, a construction contractor who built the famous, sweeping freeways which have worked marvels. Mr. Harney is now tearing down a mountain to clear a site for the new ballyard and incidentally obtain rock and soil for many acres of land, now under water. The Coast league will contend that he does not dispose title to some of the 500 acres in an expanse which he now represents as his own. A portion of this acreage will be ceded or sold by Mr. Haney to the city for the ballpark.

At the hour when I learned of the Coast league's intention to sue the city et al, I was just completing a tour of Mr. Harney's awesome operations. One of his great scoops was silent and idle because an agent of the Operating Engineers' union, the old—Joe Fay racket, was insisting that Harney employ a No. 2 oiler to assist the No. 1 oiler, at $24 a day. The idle machine represented an investment of about $300,000.

Another scoop was smashing its maw amid rock loosened by dynamite and dumping great hunks into diesels which then scampered across a half-mile plain to dump their burdens onto the dam fill. Just about there, Mr. Harney was laying the base for a new region of the city. The site of the outfield of the new ballyard already was smoothed away.

Mr. Harney admitted that he and the city still had many "paper" problems to settle. We had secretly owned a great spread of submarine muckfeldtsure, part of an expanse of 500 acres. He frankly said that when he had finished pulling down the mountain, known as Bay View park, and dumped the stuff into the ocean and rolled it flat, he would have kind words 40 million dollars for an "industrial park," which is a melodious term for a factory district. The Pacific Coast league contends that Mr. Harney cannot prove that he paid taxes on an assessed valuation of more than $100,000 of this area. Mr. Harney plaintily enjoys his cleverness in concealing his ownership of much of this sea-bottom until he was ready to get busy. Now the city will pay him untold millions to erase the mountain and he will get the rubble free and collect pay for hauling it a few hundred yards where he makes real estate for himself.

The proposed home plate of the Giants' potential new home lies about 200 feet beneath a rocky bluff not unlike Coogan's bluff of Manhattan Island in the lee of which the Giants have played for about 70 years. This is only 25 minutes at conservative speed in traffic from the St. Francis hotel in Union square.

The present minor league park holds fewer than 21,000 patrons and has no roof. The new place will seat 44,000 and will be covered against rain. There is never any snow here and sun-glare is no much problem here as it is in all the major league parks of the Midwest and East.

The coast league franchise of the Seals belongs to the Boston Red Sox, who run the club as a farm. The local agents of the Boston firm's outpost are strangely apathetic about the outrage, if that is what it is, against their franchise. They are on notice, however, that their tenure at Seals park ends next year. Thereafter, the land will be used for factories. And, possibly, when Mr. Harney puts the New Giant, the Seals will be the only firm with a clear title to the franchise, and the wail will move into the mansion at nominal rent.

Floods Strike

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Sept. 13 (AP) —A flood left 15,000 homeless in Nicaragua's Leon department yesterday. Only 18 miles away, Mount Cosiguina, erupting volcano, destroyed more than 2,000 acres of cotton.

It That So!

by Eugene Burns

Fox Is Smart, but Isn't That Smart

Mention fox and what do you think of? Thanks to fable, legend and myth—unless you've had personal experience of your own, immediately there comes to mind a handsome sly, cunning creature. Thanks to our literature, Reynard has been outwiting his dull enemies for centuries by invariably coming up with superior resources.

Eugene Burns

This master strategist, supposedly had no end of tricks up his sleeve. He can double back on his tracks, run upstream in a brook, dash over backs of flabbergasted cattle or sheep, with glorious abandon to elude his grounded pursuers. Odds that might well dismay the most resourceful humans are as nothing for him to solve.

Actually, this animal is not nearly as smart as tradition and folklore would have us believe. In fact, analyzed this fox story just when the fox procured a copy of the railroad timetable so he knew to conveniently managed to get his enemies started in pursuit of him so precisely at train time.

The same author-story that Reynard took poisoned bait intended for his personal consumption and slyly dropped it into the burrows of certain animals that had offended him.

This is not to say that during hunts, the fox has not demonstrated unusual wiles to throw off his pursuers—backtracking and big leaping to one side and making off in a new direction, or running through a shallow brook—but fox doesn't a no-count dumb jackass. Nit do just about as well? And has you ever heard of a jack being eulogized? No, indeed—fox is not a matter of tradition. But there is the little cottontail, thanks to a series of stories, who is a good headway in building up a lot of uncommonly good sense.

Quite recently, an expert wrote an account in one of the leading weekly magazines telling of an article for in southern Illinois who got rid of his fleas by cleverly backing slowly into a pond while holding a tuft of wool in his mouth. In other versions it is a piece of wood, slowly submerging tail first. The fleas (also clever beasties) to save themselves came forward onto the piece of wool (or wood), which was then set adrift by the fox.

This story, with embellishments, appears also in the scholarly book, Living Mammals of the World. But it fails to make all the traditional edgements. These go back to 1640 when John Swan mentions the story in his Speculum Mundi; and before that, when an earlier writer, Olaus Magnus (1490-1558), a Swedish ecclesiastic and historian, wrote about it.

But now, anyone who has been around a dog with fleas knows that reinfestation of new often fleas come off into the water after a stick is will still come back with his flea Fleas remain close to the skin where there would be enough imprisoned by the fur to prevent wetting for some time. And it takes time, even for a fox, to wet clear to the skin.

Furthermore, most aquatic mammals with, fur have fleas—such as beavers and otter—and they spend a good share of their life submerged.

German Voter Help Is Asked By Candidates

BONN, Germany, Sept. 12 (AP)—The opposition Socialists appealed to West German voters last night to oust Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in the general elections Sunday and end "one-party rule."

The Socialists announced that in no circumstances would they join Adenauer's Christian Democrats in a coalition government after the voting.

Answer Given

The Christian Democrats hit back with a warning that the "freedom and unity of our people" are at stake. They reminded voters of the booming economy and told them they never had it so good.

The latest public opinion straw poll makes the 81-year-old Adenauer an odds-on favorite to win a third term.

Figures Listed

It gave his Christian Democrats 41 per cent to 33 per cent for the Socialists. This represented a five-point drop for the Socialists since August.

The poll gave the moderate right-wing Free Democrats nine per cent, the Refugee party six per cent and Adenauer's rightist allies, the German party, three per cent.

Guest Preacher

The Rev. J. A. Schlichting, Escondido, Calif., will be guest preacher at Immanuel Lutheran church, Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Schlichting is a former pastor of the Twin Falls church—having served here from 1913 to 1917.

Topics for his sermons are "There Was a Great Woman," at the 8:30 a.m. service and "I-Religion" for the 11 a.m. service to be broadcast over KTFI radio.

Volunteers' Help Is Credited For Success of Polio Clinic

Clerical work and uncounted hours of volunteer workers from Twin Falls Grange No. 216 has been a deciding factor in the success of the Twin Falls county polio immunization clinic.

The clinic, in operation from 1 to 5 p. m. each Wednesday at the county health department office on Shoshone street, was formed through the efforts of members of the Grange community service committee, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Twin Falls defense, members of the Boy Scouts and others.

The program includes an adult polio immunization clinic which calls for three shots of the Salk vaccine.

Mrs. Irvin Bodenstab, chairman of the Grange community service committee, estimates 75 per cent of the children in Twin Falls county schools and school district 411 have received the shots.

The clerical work for the weekly clinics has been done alternately by the Twin Falls Grange women and the Women of the Moose.

Friday, Mrs. Bodenstab said, "It is hard to estimate the number of hours spent in setting up the program. Hundreds of phone calls have been made and many miles driven. Twenty Grange members have taken an active part in the program, putting in over 500 hours and driving over 1,000 miles."

As of July 1, a total of 3,462 shots had been administered. Mrs. Bodenstab says the greater per cent were given to children.

A $1 charge is made for shots given to adults. Mrs. Bodenstab explains the money received goes into a "revolving fund" to provide money so children may receive immunization without charge.

She says the clinic will continue until the need or demand for polio immunization in Twin Falls county is filled.

"Money, in terms of wages, could not begin to pay us for the time and effort we have made. The satisfaction of such a worthwhile project cannot be measured, yet we point with pride to the small number of polio victims here the past year as compared with other years," Mrs. Bodenstab said.

The first adult clinic was held June 6, 1957. The vaccine is given in a series of three. The second shot should be administered one month after the first and the third in seven months.

Mrs. Bodenstab points out that only two patients were in the polio ward at Magic Valley Memorial hospital and they were victims of the 1948 and 1952 outbreaks.

Group to Pay In Equipping One Bedroom

SHOSHONE, Sept. 13 — The Chamber of Commerce will pay for the furnishing of a single bedroom at the Wood River Convalescent center, members decided Tuesday noon. Cost of the project is $450.

Members of the chamber also voted to store the park signs, made by school art students last spring, until next spring. They will be stored in the fairgrounds building and then put up next spring.

A discussion on the proposed swimming pool for the city was held with Councilman Rupert Manning stating that up to date only a study has been made, and no definite action had been taken.

The study at this time regarding the pool, Manning said, is in regards to the railroad tank which may be converted to a filter system. Officials have about decided they would rather than a 40 by 80 pool instead of the 40 by 60-foot one first considered.

A pool should be 10 or 11 feet deep at the deep end if a high diving board is used. A low board requires from eight and one-half to nine feet. Complete filtration and chlorination is required about every eight hours when the pool is used.

Sen. Jack M. Murphy reported on the Kimama road project and following a discussion, the chamber went on record in favor of promoting the project as much as possible. The secretary was instructed to write various taxing units in the county urging their support in the construction.

Most of the taxing units, Murphy said, have said they would loan equipment toward the job, that a fund of $1,000 for administration will be provided through the county and a gravel pit has been located which can be used. The bureau of land management also has promised to assist with the project and county and city equipment will be used.

Ex-State Health Chief Gets Post

BOISE, Sept. 13 (AP)—An acting administrator for the Idaho Elks Rehabilitation center was named yesterday as former Idaho Health Director L. J. Peterson announced he had accepted a position in California.

Peterson was dropped last spring from his post as director of the Idaho health department.

Robert W. Overstreet, Boise, chairman of the Idaho State Elks Association Rehabilitation center, said directors of the Boise institution appointed Richard L. Williams, former assistant administrator, as acting administrator until the executive committee finds a replacement for Peterson.

He was born in Missouri in 1868 and married Emma Johnson Oct. 12, 1899. Mr. Bush came to the Twin Falls tract in 1906, and moved to Jerome in 1924 where he had farmed in the Barrymore district until he retired a few years ago.

Auto Crashes Are Reported

Damage was reported minor in three accidents investigated by Twin Falls city police and the county sheriff's office Thursday afternoon.

In an accident investigated at Murtaugh by Deputy Sheriff Wayne Hankins about 4:10 p.m. Thursday, damage to the right front end of a 1952 Studebaker driven by Mrs. N. J. Anthony, Gooding, was approximately $100. Damage to a 1954 Ford pickup truck owned by the state highway department and driven by John R. Wilson, 22, Boise, was slight.

Hankins reported both vehicles were traveling east on highway 30 when the truck started to make a left turn. As the car started to pass it struck the left rear of the truck.

An accident in Twin Falls shortly after noon Thursday involved a 1940 Chrysler driven by Nola Pouts, 17, Filer, and a 1953 Plymouth driven by Esther D. Pederson, 40. Police reported the Chrysler was backing from a parking place near the Daisy Dell when the collision occurred.

Another minor accident at the intersection of Fourth avenue east and Second street involved a 1952 Cadillac driven by Lilbert L. Fisk, Rupert, and a car driven by Rose Mattice, 1316 Maple avenue. Minor damage was reported.

No injuries were reported.

Sentencing Delay Granted in Court

Sentencing of David Walker, Twin Falls, was postponed Thursday in Twin Falls district court until Walker can be treated at a hospital for alcoholism.

Walker was placed on probation in June after Judge Hugh A. Baker withheld sentencing on a charge of presentation of a fraudulent account. Specifically Walker was charged with making false statements to the employment security agency for the purpose of obtaining benefits.

In an affidavit signed by H. J. Clark, probation officer, Walker was charged with violating his probation. Clark stated Walker committed petit larceny in July by stealing from the Magic Valley Bakery company and again on Aug. 16, when he pleaded guilty to drunken driving before Justice of the Peace J. O. Pumphrey, Twin Falls.

He was ordered to again appear in court after being treated at a hospital in Salt Lake City.

Lockup

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 13 (AP) — The first students to take up residence in Marquette university's elaborate $1½ million dollar men's dormitory made a somewhat disconcerting discovery.

They could get into their rooms but, once inside, they couldn't get out.

That was when university officials discovered that the manufacturer of the aluminum doors had mistakenly installed locks intended for a mental institution.

Temporarily, brass locks have replaced the too-secure latches.

Hunger Strike Is Ended for Prison

WALLA WALLA, Sept. 13 (AP)—Hunger striking prisoners at Washington state prison quit suddenly Yesterday afternoon.—Warden—Bob Rhay said the men gave no reason for ending their self-imposed fast.

Originally 35 prisoners had taken part in the strike, which started Tuesday night. The number had dropped to 25 this morning.

The strike was among men in the prison's maximum security wing. It was in protest over a new rule requiring inmates to be checked individually each time they enter and leave the recreation area.

Rhay said the rule has not been changed.

Sued on Note

The Magic Valley Adjustment bureau filed a civil action in Twin Falls probate court Thursday against Lloyd Schneider seeking $371.07 allegedly due on a promissory note given the bureau.

Attorney fees amounting to $100 are sought. Attorney for the bureau is William Bakes, Twin Falls.

Newspapers' Ads Top Other Media, Speaker Declares

SUN VALLEY, Sept. 13 (AP)—Advertisers spent more on newspaper advertising last year than on radio, television, magazines and outdoor advertising combined, a newspaper executive said yesterday.

Richard L. Jones, jr., chairman of the board of directors of the bureau of advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers association, addressed the opening session of the board's meeting here.

"This is a striking vote of confidence in the matchless efficiency of newspapers as an advertising medium by the advertisers themselves," Jones said.

Jones, who is president of the Newspaper Printing corporation of Tulsa, Okla., said advertisers invested more than $3,235,600,000 in newspaper advertising last year.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass
Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (nonacid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

In this land of superior sanitation—is it not surprising—to find beautiful school buildings in which little has been done to keep the pupils in a comfortable state of cleanliness. Especially is this true in the washrooms, the toilets. If parents inspected those rooms in many of our public schools, they would be shocked. It would be a good idea for them to visit those places the next time. Something might be done for the comfort of the children if they did.

I have spoken about this condition many times but without avail so far, so I am saying it all over again just in hope. Teachers lay great stress on the cleanliness of pupils' work sheets. The students in secondary school hand in maps, working drawings, art work on paper. They have been in the gymnasium, or in the lot, or in the laboratory before they get down to work on those papers. Maybe they have been drawing with charcoal before they entered the classroom for the lesson in English composition.

Their hands are certainly not clean yet they have to hand in clean sheets of work. Why don't they wash their hands there? Because there is no provision for that. If there are basins there is no soap—if there is cold water — and who can wash hands clean in cold water without soap—there is no hot water.

Ever try to wash hands in cold water without soap? Or—in cold water with soap? And no towels. How comfortable, how comfortable in mind and body would you be standing with cold dripping hands just before entering a classroom?

Plenty of clean wash basins, hot and cold water, soap and towels are necessary in schools where many children, many students, are gathered as they are in homes. It is disgraceful to leave a school without these simple fundamentals of hygiene. Disgraceful. And parents should do something about it without delay.

Is it expensive? Of course it is. The equipment would be destroyed in no time? Not at all. Give children and youth shining washrooms well equipped and they will take care of them pridefully. I know because we had that equipment in a big city school. We were granted a goodly sum of money for repairs and improvement and the superintendent asked us what we would prefer having done and we said, "New equipment for the washrooms, the best the market offered."

"They couldn't believe we meant it but we did and we got what we asked for, beautifully fitted toilets, wash basins, mirrors, tiled floors and walls—and the boys and girls were delighted. The custodian said, "Never in his long years of experience had such care been given those rooms."

The children enjoyed having clean hands.

Convalescent children must be amused and also guarded against fatigue. Multi-Million Dollar Offer To Prevent Dodger Move Is Rejected by Brooklyn Boss

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers Thursday brushed off a 7½ million dollar offer from a syndicate interested in keeping the club in New York. The offer, made in the form of a telegram to Walter O'Malley, Dodger president, came from Sinclair Robinson, 43-year-old New York financier as head of a five-man group. Robinson, president of Williams-McWilliams Industries, Inc., which does dredging and general construction work in New Orleans and operates the Markel chain of retail meat stores in New York, would identify only one associate. He was Rowley W. Phillips of New York and Connecticut, chairman of the board of Williams and McWilliams. He said two of the others were from New York and one from Connecticut.

The Dodgers promptly tossed a bucket of cold water on this offer. Arthur Red Patterson, assistant general manager, issued this brief statement in mid-afternoon.

"Obviously nothing need be said about this type of publicity."

There have been several offers to buy the Dodgers in recent weeks while O'Malley has talked of moving the club to Los Angeles. Earlier this week, Nelson Rockefeller offered to buy an interest in the club or help build a new stadium for the club. The highest previous New York offer was about five million dollars by the Wrigley interests.

Robinson said he was a Dodgers fan of long standing. In his telegram he called upon O'Malley to "extract all means at your command to keep the Dodgers in the city" as his "civic duty." He said he did not know O'Malley and never had met him but had reason to believe his offer would be considered.

Mustangs Beat Bees For First Playoff Win

BILLINGS, Mont., Sept. 13 (AP)—A grand slam homer by Bob Sadowski helped push the Billings Mustangs back into the Pioneer league playoff picture Thursday night on an 8-3 humbling of the Salt Lake Bees. Sadowski pounded his roundtripper over the right field wall in the third frame after Bee starter Fern Carson had loaded the bases on singles to Don Choate and Lyle Krall.

The Bees opened the scoring in the first inning when reliable Lou Vassie smacked a Choate delivery over the left wall. Carson put the Mustangs away in the bottom of the frame.

After the scoreless second and the Sadowski third, Salt Lake made it a 4-2 contest when catcher Gene Klinger knocked a line drive single in the fourth and pushed walking Al Kenders over the plate.

Billings then blasted Carson in the fifth: Mel Nelson tripled off the wall and romped in on Krall's double. Duke Carmel, the league's most valuable player from Billings, then doubled in Krall. Tom Shima relieved Carson and got the Mustangs out. The score was 6-2.

Billings opened its half of the sixth as Tony Cannizzaro, catcher, walked and Choate bunted safely. Nelson followed that up with a double and Cannizzaro and Choate crossed the plate to make it an 8-2 ballgame.

Salt Lake's Bob Hunt tried to put the Bees back in the tussle in the seventh with a solo homer over the right wall, but it was the final Bee threat of the night.

Fern Bee had hurled to get the Thursday night contest and thus wind up their 1957 season with three straight victories in the five-game playoff series. They won the first two in Salt Lake City on 6-5 11-inning and 13-6 scores.

Salt Lake gained the playoff by winning the first half of the league's split season and Billings copped the second half.

Senators Will Trade All but Roy Sievers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—Harry Cookie Lavagetto Thursday signed a new one-year contract to manage the Washington Senators and he would deal off anyone but slugger Roy Sievers to lift his team from the American league cellar.

"We need help at seven positions," Lavagetto told reporters who gathered for his ceremonial coming to terms for a reported $22,000 with club President Calvin Griffith.

"We will trade anybody but Sievers if the deal is right," added the 44-year-old veteran of 21 seasons in baseball as player, coach and manager.

Besides Sievers, who is leading the league in homeruns and runs batted in, Lavagetto said he is satisfied with a "great job" by Rocky Bridges at shortstop.

Otherwise he is seeking young players who can add "speed and throwing ability" and pitchers who can give depth to the Senators' thin mound staff.

Lavagetto and Griffith, who plan to feel out other clubs during the World Series next month, also said there are a couple of pitchers they're not eager to trade. They named only Camilo Pascual and they had a bit of mewa for the Cuban right-hander: He may not pitch this winter in his homeland.

Pascual has been troubled by a sore arm since he was hit by a batted ball several months ago. Griffith said the Senators' team physician had recommended that Camilo sit out the winter and the club may have to force him to do so under a major league agreement with Caribbean ball clubs.

Lavagette, the quiet type, took over as manager from breezy Charley Dressen last May after the Senators had lost 16 of their first 20 games. Cookie had been a Dressen aide for several years at Brooklyn, Oakland and Washington.

Idaho's First Big Game Hunt Opens Sunday

BOISE, Sept. 13 (AP)—Idaho's first general big game hunts for the 1957 season will open Sunday with hunting legal in a portion of the state's primitive area.

Tom Leonard, director of the state fish and game department, said the area which opens Sunday will include the Middle Salmon and upper Selway areas into which there are virtually no roads. It will include most of Bear valley, which was excluded from the early hunting season last year.

Leonard suggested that sportsmen check their big game maps, issued by the department, to determine the exact boundaries of the area to be opened.

"Because of light hunting in this area, due to its remoteness, ruggedness and difficult access," Leonard said, "the section is assigned a fairly long season—from Sept. 15 through Nov. 15.

"Within the section, a part of the Selway and main Salmon drainages will have extended seasons running through Nov. 30 and part of the Middle fork of the Salmon-Big Creek canyon area will be open through Dec. 15."

Leonard noted, too, that in the Middle Fork-Big Creek strip hunters may kill two deer, instead of the usual one, this year.

BURRIS INJURED

EDMONTON, Alta., Sept. 13 (AP)—Kurt Burris, formerly of the University of Oklahoma, will be lost to the Edmonton Eskimos for about a month because of a broken thumb. Burris suffered the injury in Monday night's western conference game with the Calgary Stampeders. Bob Weber, formerly of Colorado A and M, has been named to take Burris' place.

They're Holding Plenty

Boston's Ted Williams, left, and Roy Sievers, the Washington thumper, check batting grips. They also hold impressive records with Sievers leading the American league with 36 homers and 101 RBIs and Williams setting the pace in batting percentages with a .376 average. (NEA telephoto)

Injured Yanks Will Take Part In Sox Series

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—Although the New York Yankees held a comfortable lead with only 14 games to play, injuries to key men plagued Manager Casey Stengel as he prepared to open a two-game series with Chicago Friday.

Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra and Bill Skowron are on the questionable list as Yank starters. Mantle spent a few days in the hospital as the result of "shin splints" and Berra and Skowron have been out of action for almost a week.

Mantle took batting practice before Wednesday's day game with Cleveland, and Berra and Skowron were scheduled to visit Yankee stadium for treatment by trainer Gus Mauch.

Mantle hasn't played the outfield since Sept. 3 although he did make two appearances as a pinch hitter. Berra has been nursing a sprained right thumb and Skowron hurt his back while reaching for a screwdriver in his apartment.

The Yanks, of course, are in a good position with a solid lead at this stage of the game. Chicago can't afford to settle for a split in these two final games with the Yanks. New York holds a 13-7 lead in the season series.

Altitude Blamed For Sluggish Bout

DENVER, Sept. 13 (AP)—Argentina's 23-year-old hopeful for the heavyweight title, Alex Miteff, blamed mile-high air and heavy gloves for a sluggish performance on the way to a knockout victory over Johnny Holman Tuesday night.

"I was too slow at first," Miteff said in talking over his knockout of the 204-pound Chicagoan in 2:32 of the ninth round.

Miteff, 205, was almost kayoed in the sixth when Holman caught him with a series of rights that sent the South American reeling to the ropes.

Flu Ruins Yuma Football Squad

YUMA, Sept. 13 (AP)—All but two members of the 42-man Yuma high school football team had been sidelined today with influenza, and doctors were expected to make tests to determine whether it is Asian flu.

Coach Phil Krueger said Henry Montague, an all-state end candidate, had been hospitalized, but others were less seriously ill.

Krueger said his team would take the field Sept. 20 against El Centro, Calif., high school, "if we have to use only junior varsity players."

Prospects Must Carry Shoshone's Grid Hopes

SHOSHONE, Sept. 13—Coach Bob Sloan has only five veterans to replace the nine starters lost through graduation and will be counting on some top prospects to carry the Shoshone Indians to a respectable finish in the Little Six conference. In 1956, the Indians posted a 3-5 record. A bright spot for Sloan and Shoshone is the return of Ted Johnston, a senior letterman, who will lead the team as quarterback. The Indians also have experienced men in all the backfield spots. Mike Wilmoth, 180 pounds, will be counted on at fullback and he is only a junior. At halfbacks seniors Dick Tanaka, 145 pounds, and Gary Whitehead, 165 pounds, are expected to give impetus on offense.

Stan Meyers, 175-pound end, and 185-pound Robert Strunk, a tackle, will be responsible to anchor the line.

Filling in the remaining spots will be four juniors and a sophomore, who have not lettered previously, but who have shown up well in practice and the Indians' first game.

The Indians lost their opening game to Richfield 7-6. The remainder of their schedule includes Sept. 20, Shoshone at Glenns Ferry; Sept. 27, Wendell at Shoshone; Oct. 4, Shoshone at Hailey; Oct. 11, Kimberly at Shoshone; Oct. 25, Shoshone at Gooding; Nov. 1, Shoshone at Mountain Home, and Nov. 11, Valley at Shoshone.

Spokane Man Wins Inland Golf Title

RAYDEN LAKE, Ida., Sept. 13 (AP)—Fred Siegel, 44-year-old Spokane accountant, often called the "mechanical man," for his steady style, won the Inland Empire Seniors golf tournament Thursday with a 213. His rounds during the 54-hole tourney were 71-72-70.

Three strokes behind was Washington State college baseball Coach Buck Bailey, who shot a two-under par 68 on the final round for a total of 213.

W. T. Hodges of Great Falls, Mont., won the A handicap event with a low net of 195.

ANNOUNCES GAME

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 13 (AP)—Syracuse university announced Thursday its football team would meet Oklahoma in the 1962 season. The game, the first between the schools, will be played Sept. 22 at Norman, home of the Sooners. It will be the opener for both teams.

Braves Rally In Ninth to Beat Dodgers

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 13 (AP)—Rookie Danny McDevitt whose wildness dimmed a great pitching performance put the deciding run on base with a walk in the ninth inning Thursday night and Del Crandall drove the runner home at the National league leading Milwaukee Braves defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers 2-1.

McDevitt had held the Braves on only four hits until the ninth when he walked Johnny Logan. The second major argument of the game developed as Wes Covington came to bat and hit into what appeared to be a double play. McDevitt had started his delivery, and Covington appeared to step out of the box, but the pitcher came through and Covington tapped a bounder to second base for what appeared to be the twin out. However, umpire Dusty Boggess had called for a time out, and the play was nullified.

Covington came back with a single to send Logan to third, and after Nipsy Jones, batting for Del Rice, had forced Covington, Crandall smashed a single into right scoring Logan. It was only the fourth hit off McDevitt.

McDevitt staked the Dodgers to a new National league mound-staff strike out record in the second as he fanned the slap. Andy Pafko was his first victim, equalling the old mark of 817 set by the Dodgers in 1953. The rookie fanned seven more to push the new standard to 824. He also fanned the side in the eighth.

The major league record of 895 strikeouts was set by Detroit in the American league in 1946.

All-Walker Cup Semi-Finals Set In U.S. Amateur

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 13 (AP)—Dr. Frank (Bud) Taylor, the Pomona, Calif., dentist who plays the game with a surgeon's sensitive skill, and three brash young teens made it an all-Walker cup semi-final Thursday in the national amateur golf championship. Other survivors in the bitterest and closest waged quarterfinal in modern times were Rex Baxter, 21, a University of Houston junior from Amarillo, Tex., who was a carrier in the 21st hole; Mason Rudolph, 23, an army private from Clarksville, Tenn., who went 19, and Hillman Robbins, 26, a lieutenant from Memphis—the only player not carried the full route.

Baxter fought off a scrambling college teammate, Phil Rodgers of LaJolla, Calif., to win on the third extra hole. Rudolph beat Dick Yost of Portland, Ore., a former Walker Cupper, on the 19th, while Robbins won 3 and 1 over Dick Chapman, the 44-year-old ex-champion making a golf comeback.

Taylor, a pug-nosed 40-year-old, who has been picked as their apparent to Harvie Ward's undefended title, scored a 2-70 victory over Gene Andrews, hard-fighting 44-year-old insurance man from Los Angeles, sinking an 18-foot sidehill putt on the final hole.

At the end of the day's play the slender doctor had toured 89 holes of the Country club course in seven strokes under par—by far the most consistent performance of the tournament.

In Friday's 36-hole semifinals, it's Taylor against Rudolph and Robbins against Baxter.

Skipper Says Cards Must Do It Themselves

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 13 (AP)—St. Louis Cardinals Manager Fred Hutchinson of the St. Louis Cardinals feels about the National league pennant race now that his Braves have pulled up to within four games of the first place Braves.

That's the closest the Cardinals have been to the lead in a month. The Birds have dropped only two of their last eight contests while the Braves have lost five of the last eight games.

The Cardinals have won 7 straight.

Veteran star Stan Musial said he thought the pressure is on the Braves.

"Milwaukee must be worried. They've got to be," Stan said Wednesday night after St. Louis trounced Philadelphia 14-6.

The Cardinals play Milwaukee three times late in the month, Sept. 23, 24 and 25.

GETS CHANCE

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 13 (AP)—Dave Skaugstad, a 17-year-old pitcher from Corona, Calif., who signed with the Cincinnati Redlegs for an undisclosed bonus, will be in uniform Friday night when the Redlegs meet the Philadelphia Phillies at Crosley field.

Mountain Home to Start Independent Grid Slate

MOUNTAIN HOME, Sept. 13—Not affiliated with any conference this year, the Mountain Home Tigers only aim will be posting a stellar win-lost record. And with nine of the 1956 starters lost through graduation, the Tigers and coach Lloyd Schiller may find it hard to improve on last year's outstanding 9-1 mark.

Also in 1956, Mountain Home was a member of the Little Six conference and took that title with a perfect record of 6-0.

Coach Shiller has his two guards back for action again this year in Allan Markham and Richard Petty.

In addition to these, Mountain Home has veterans in Jim Loftes, at guard, and backfield men in Jerry McGrath, Mike Landers and David Arousteges. Petty and Loftes weigh in at 150 pounds and Arousteges is 165. The remainder are close to 155.

Shiller has several promising sophomores who he is counting on to take up much of the slack. These include Terry Schofield, John Tate, Jim Cassil, Chuck Robertson, Larry Bastida, Richard Hall.

But the Tigers will miss the services of last year's standouts in Ken Everett, Ralph McGrath, Mike Morgan, Frank Black and Gordon McCormick.

The Mountain Home schedule includes Sept. 13, Mountain Home at Wendell; Sept. 19, Boise jayvees at Mountain Home; Sept. 27, Ontario at Mountain Home; Oct. 4, Mountain Home at Filer; Oct. 11, Mountain Home at Emmett; Oct. 18, Mountain Home at Hailey; Oct. 23, Kuna at Mountain Home; Nov. 1, Shoshone at Mountain Home, and Nov. 11, Glenns Ferry at Mountain Home. The Hailey game will begin at 2:30 p. m. and the Glenns Ferry clash will start at 2 p. m. The remainder are set for 8 p. m.

Installation of Officers For Shoshone Indians Will Be Conducted at Sun Valley

SUN VALLEY, Sept. 13—Members of the Shoshone Indians, Inc., currently staging their annual trapshoot here, will conduct their annual Shoshone ceremony at 4 p.m. Friday at the Trail creek cabins. All members will be dressed in full Indian regalia for the event, which is highlighted by installation of officers. Rudy Etchen, Ketchum, will be installed as high chief and Tom-Lynott will become official vice high chief. Ralph Kellogg, Longview, Wash., is the new chief scribe.

In Thursday's shoot, N. B. Henry topped the annual Buffalo doubles shattering 95 birds. He was followed by Herman Peterson, who broke 91 for second place and O. E. Willard was third with 85. Fourth place went to R. McCoskey and Russ Sims, who tied for fourth and fifth places with 83.

Other top scorers in the event were D. R. Barnett, 82; Don Anderson, 80; Les Giese, 78; Rolly Law, 77; J. B. Collard, 75; J. Kennedy, 75; J. F. Heagle, 73; A. D. Stanley, 73; Elmer Sims, 68; Jack Geltz, 65; Neal Prichard, 64; R. Heckstead, Jr., 64; Leo O'Connell, 62; Hugh Fort, 61; Alton Young, 59; and R. W. Cool, 59.

Shooters from 16 states are participating in the meet. States represented are Illinois, Kentucky, Washington, Indiana, Florida, Kansas, Montana, Oregon, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Pennsylvania, California, Colorado, Oklahoma and Missouri.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie was a spectator Thursday, but he did not compete. Last year he participated in the all four days of events.

Valley Edges Shoshone in Jayvee Game

HAGERMAN, Sept. 13—Valley's Shockers punched into the end zone from the 9 yards out in the fourth quarter and the Valley jayvees notched a 6-0 win over Shoshone's sophomore team.

Highlighted by stout defensive play by both teams, the teams seesawed through most of the game between the 20-yard lines. Shockley's 20-yard strip stab came after the Valley fieldiel had ground into the Shoshone two. Chuck Webb plunged for the extra point.

Neither team could roll up much yardage with Shoshone making the first downs and Valley getting most of the yardage. The winners lost about 150 yards through penalties.

Attandance Is up

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19 (AP)—The National league is running almost 1,000 ahead of last year in attendance and expects to have drawn close to nine million fans by the time the season ends on Sept. 29.

Last year the league's total attendance was 8,640,507. The all-time record of 10,383,476 was set in 1947.

Winless Wolves Hope To Better 1956 Mark

CASTLEFORD, Sept. 13—Having lost all their games last year, the Castleford Wolves, under new head coach Robert Thomas, are out to make a better showing in the Magic Valley "B" league and they have 10 lettermen on whom to pin their hopes. Thomas, who was assistant football and basketball coach at Buhl in 1956, has only two seniors on this year's squad. The remainder are split between juniors and sophomores.

At tailback Castleford has Gary Heidle, a senior, with Randall Brewer and Willard Price at the quarterback positions. Blocking back is Kenny Swanson.

Bob Johnson and Keith Barnes offer the Wolves two veteran pass receivers. Gale Owens has lettered in the center position and Joe Conrad is a returning guard. Ted Hasslip rounds out the experienced list, playing tackle.

Thomas has his eye on three juniors, who are inexperienced but have played good ball in practice sessions. These are Earl Farmer, Mormian Stombaugh, jr., and Bob Eden.

The Wolves open their season against Declo Friday and the remainder of the slate includes Sept. 20, Castleford at Hansen; Sept. 27, Castleford at Malta; Oct. 4, Castleford at Hagerman; Oct. 25, Murtaugh at Castleford, and Nov. 1, Castleford at Richfield.

Wilson Wins 14th as Sox Beat Boston

By The Associated Press

Righthander Jim Wilson finally pitched his 14th victory Thursday and it couldn't have come at a more appropriate time for the visiting Chicago White Sox who whipped Boston, 7-1.

The victory inched the runnerup Chicagoans to within 5 games of the front-running Yankees when they meet in the opener of a critical series in New York Friday night.

Wilson had tried on four other occasions to win his 14th and picked his favorite enemy in the Red Sox. His triumph Thursday was his fifth over Boston this season.

Wilson, who leads the league in shutouts with five, lost his sixth whitewash job in the seventh when the Red Sox scored an unearned run. Ken Aspromente, who had doubled, scored as Ted Beard dropped pinch hitter Mickey Vernon's sinking liner.

Nellie Fox belted three singles and now has a total of 176 hits, 11 more than Mickey Mantle of the Yankees.

Ray Boone and Frank Bolling crashed homeruns as Detroit defeated Washington, 8-5, to sweep a three-game series and deal the homestanding Senators a fifth straight loss. Duke Maas, who required help from Harry Byrd, posted his 10th win.

Chuck Stobbs, who lost his 19th decision, was betrayed by his defense. A pair of errors accounted for six unearned runs among the seven the Tigers scored against him, with rightfielder Neil Chrisley letting three runs score in the seventh when he dropped Harvey Kuenn's fly.

T.F. Sophomores Get Past Bellevue 12-6

Twin Falls sophomore squad ruined the debut of Bellevue high school into 11-man football Thursday night by scoring twice in the first half and then using defense to save the 12-6 win. Charles Ward accounted for both Twin Falls touchdowns as he took a pass from Bart Strong for the first in the opening period. The play covered 35 yards. Then in the second quarter, Ward got loose on an end-run and scampered 20 yards for the final Twin Falls score.

After fighting the third quarter on even terms, Bellevue broke into the scoring column on an intercepted pass. The ball was deflected into the air and picked off by a Bellevue man who ran 60 yards.

Twin Falls coach Orville Ryther said he was impressed by the hard running and hitting of the Bellevue team. He noted that while the team was quite young, it should become strong before the end of the season.

Ryther also had praise for the defensive work turned in by the Twin Falls line and the running of Gary Deford. Strong completed five of seven passes.

PICKS ROBINSON

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. Y., Sept. 13 (AP)—Jackie Robinson, the former Dodger star who quit playing baseball at 37, Thursday picked 37-year-old Sugar Ray Robinson to beat Carmen Basilio in their middleweight title bout Sept. 23.

Lost Player Found

LONG BEACH, Calif., Sept. 13 (AP)—Halfback Mickey Goyd, missing from the air force academy lineup this season, has turned up at Long Beach State college, an official said Thursday.

Goyd, 164-pound player from Anaheim, Calif., and considered the fastest member of last year's air force team, is trying out for the halfback spot on the Long Beach team.

GETS RELEASE

DETROIT, Sept. 12 (AP)—Carl Osterloh of Crene Coeur, Mo., former University of Missouri center and the Detroit Lions' 11th draft choice last season, has been released on waivers, cutting the Detroit squad to 41 players, six over the player limit.

They produce about 35,000 tons annually, or about six per cent of Chile's 1956 production of 539,539 tons.

T.F. Merchants Set Promotion For 1958 Sale

A special merchants committee checking possibilities of promotion in conjunction with the 4-H-FFA fat steer sale here Sept. 21, decided Thursday to withhold promotion with the sale until 1958.

The seven-man committee discussed the possibility of holding a free barbecue simultaneously with the sale but felt no action could be taken this year because of the nearness of the event.

A motion to concentrate an all-out effort for the 1958 sale was made by Mitchell Hunt, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, and passed unanimously.

The 1958 plan calls for a two-day sale to "ease the tension" and provide edequate time for judges and buyers to evaluate cattle.

Thomas R. Hovenden, chairman of the fat steer sale committee, pointed out to the merchants group that 4-H and FFA members will also be informed as to the reasons for the particular placing of animals at the sale under the two-day setup.

He said in the past some youngsters have been disappointed over judging of animals and have never been informed of reasons.

It was suggested that a combined committee of interested persons, including merchants and cattlemen be appointed to promote mutual understanding of activities.

The committee of merchants definitely approved the barbecue for next year and cited the biggest problem, a sufficient beef supply.

The meeting at Wray's cafe was attended by A. E. Vaughn, Earl Faulkner, Orlo Hitt, Hunt, Hovenden, John Roper and William Grange.

73 Cases of Polio Listed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (U.P.)—The U. S. public health service reported 73 new cases of paralytic polio last week, bringing to 1,299 the total since Jan. 1.

The comparable figures last year were 202 and 4,242, respectively.

The health service has attributed the sharp reduction in the incidence of paralytic polio to the new Salk vaccine.

The agency said 244 polio cases, including 176 of paralytic type, were reported during the week ended Sept. 7. This compared with 854 in the same week last year.

It listed 4,130 cases of all types since Jan. 1, compared with 9,759 during the same period of 1956.

Faubus Given Sharp Attack By Knowland

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 13 (U.P.)—Sen. William F. Knowland, R., Calif., in a fighting speech last night said he deplored the actions of Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas for his stand on civil rights.

"No persons, not even the governor of Arkansas, has the right to abrogate the United States constitution in civil rights," Knowland said.

The senator addressed 600 Republicans at a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner. He also condemned "some labor leaders" for their actions that have "shocked all Americans."

"Shocking Facts"

Knowland said revelations by the senate rackets committee have disclosed shocking facts about some labor leaders. "These revelations have shocked the rank and file of labor itself," he declared.

The senator mentioned that some labor leaders have marked him for political oblivion because of his labor stand.

Basic Right

"I will not be intimidated by these men," Knowland said. "The right to work is a basic American right of the first magnitude."

Regarding civil rights, Knowland said that each state has the right to set its own rules on voting. "But once these laws are made they should apply to all citizens regardless of color, race or creed."
