Tax Reform 'Nil' If No Budget Cut, Republicans Say

WASHINGTON, March 4 (UPI)—House Republicans said today that as much as 15 billion dollars could be spared from President Kennedy's record 98 billion dollar budget without harming either the economy or national security. If the economies are not made, the GOP warned, administration hopes for a tax cut "will be almost nil." The warning came from an appropriations committee task force, headed by Rep. Frank Bow, R., O. Speaker John W. McCormack promptly challenged the Republicans to pinpoint their proposed economies. Other Democrats predicted nothing would come of the drive.

The GOP group said a study of the budget showed cuts could be made in every field for the 12-month period starting July 1. They said this included defense and space.

They added that details of their economy blueprint would be made public as the appropriations subcommittee moves ahead with its work.

Generally, Bow said, the economy plans calls for a downhold on the federal payroll, a moratorium on "non-essential federal programs and a reappraisal of existing programs.

Other developments:

Space — Space Agency Chief James E. Webb warned congress it would be dangerous to cut the space program in an effort to pave the way for tax reduction. Said Webb: "I don't think there's any economy in letting the Russians get ahead of us." He testified before the house space committee.

Navy — The chief of naval operations said the navy made more than 20 submarine contacts during the Cuban crisis. At least six were positively identified as Russian subs, Adm. George W. Anderson told the senate armed services committee. The six Russian subs were forced to surface by navy units and photographed.

Bus Loaded With Nurses Submerged

NEW YORK, March 4 (UPI)—A bus carrying nine women plunged off a road into the East river today.

Two bodies were recovered, and one woman was reported taken alive from the water.

Six others were feared dead. Most of the passengers were said to be nurses, employed by the city department of hospitals.

Police and fire department officials said the bus was moving on a street on Welfare Island, which is in the middle of the river when it hurtled into the frigid waters.

It fell under in the river's east channel.

Many nurses work and live there.

Hemorrhage Is Fatal to Famed Poet

RUTHERFORD, N. J., March 4 (AP)—Dr. William Carlos Williams, a leading American poet for four decades, died of a cerebral hemorrhage at his home here today. He was 79.

Dr. Williams, perhaps best known for his long poem "Paterson," lived in Rutherford all his life and combined a literary and medical career.

Although the early efforts were considered imitative, the poet-physician in time developed a strong personal style brought to fruition in "Paterson."

Dr. Williams was a physician here from 1910 to 1950. He was forced to retire because of illness. He specialized in pediatrics.

He had about 40 books of poetry published and several prose works as well, including a collection of short stories and five novels.

Jury Decides Man Insane

BURLEY, March — A 12-member jury decided William Morgan Owens, 50, former Oakley farm laborer is "insane to the extent he is unable to stand trial for the charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder."

The jury returned a verdict Friday afternoon in district court here. Judge Lloyd Webb ordered Owens returned to State Hospital South, Blackfoot.

Owens was charged with the stabbing of Gilbert Hunter, 15, and Larry Sager, 16, both Oakley, last November. The hearing Friday was to determine if Owens had sane enough to stand trial.

Triple Crash

MONT DE MARSAN, France, March 4 (UPI) — Three French air force planes crashed into a forest near here today after a triple collision in the air.

An air force spokesman said it was believed that the crewmen were killed and four others injured in the mishap. He said others were believed to have parachuted to safety.

The planes were B26 training bombers. The accident happened during a training flight, the spokesman said.

Peru's Junta Chief Sees Little Change

LIMA, Peru, March 4 (UPI)—Gen. Nicolas Lindley Lopez, new chief of Peru's military junta, says the bloodless ouster of Gen. Ricardo Perez Godoy will not affect holding of democratic elections scheduled for June 9.

The civilian winner elected then is to replace the military bosses.

Lindley, a one-time commando instructor in the U. S. army, joined two other members of the four-man junta to force out Perez Godoy over the week-end.

The six million people of this nation on South America's Pacific coast took the change in the junta calmly. Lindley said it was a matter only of personalities within the junta.

Lindley, a quiet, forceful man of 54, charged that his predecessor tried to make himself a dictator.

"We did not overthrow the government last July to enthrone Perez Godoy as dictator," he declared.

Cowboys Air Rules for '63

Guests were E. Kleinwetter, Twin Falls, and Walter Smoke, Emmett. Also attending were representatives from Winnemucca, Nev.; Harper, Ore.; St. Anthony, Caldwell, Nampa, Meridian, Emmett and Twin Falls.

After the meeting a jackpot rodeo was held at the Qualls' Park ranch.

Supreme Court Strikes Down Union Featherbedding Practice

WASHINGTON, March 4 (UPI)—The supreme court ruled today that the nation's railroads have the right to eliminate "featherbedding."—The decision affects workers in five union brotherhoods who have threatened to strike if the changes are made. In a brief unsigned opinion, the high court upheld a ruling of last Nov. 28 by the seventh U. S. circuit court of appeals in Chicago. It maintains that after routine moves, the railroads legally can go ahead with operating rule changes designed to eliminate unnecessary work known as featherbedding.

The five railroad brotherhoods appealed the lower court decision, asking the supreme court to hold hearings on the case.

But today's unsigned opinion said the only question to be decided was whether the lower tribunals were correct in deciding that the parties had "exhausted the procedures provided by the railway labor act for major disputes such as that involved here."

The supreme court said the lower courts were right on this.

In other actions today, the supreme court:

—Dealt the justice department a setback by voting 5 to 3 to put off a decision on whether a manufacturer may legally assign exclusive territories to dealers and limit their customers. The justice department argued this was an automatic violation of the antitrust laws. But the court ordered a lower court trial on government charges against the White Motor company, a Cleveland truck firm, that followed such a practice.

—Refused to accept an appeal from Nicholas Stringe, an Allegheny county, Pa., union leader convicted of violating the federal Hobbs anti-racketeering act.

Today's featherbedding decision came as a slight surprise inasmuch as the court had heard no arguments on the appeal by the five unions.

Snowslide Sweeps 3 Off Colorado Pass

OURAY, Colo., March 4 (AP) — An avalanche of snow, slithering downhill at racing car speed, swept over a high mountain road Sunday, burying a Congregational minister, his two daughters and their car. Rescuers, endangered by other slides, searched the snowy mass in a canyon alongside U. S. 550 on Red mountain pass for the Rev. Marvin Hudson, 39, and daughters, Amelia, 17, and Pauline, 12. "I don't feel there's any chance they're alive," said Sheriff Albert Brown. "I've been in snowslides. The concussion is terrific. It could have knocked them unconscious. There is also a tremendous amount of mist. It's almost impossible to breath in it."

A snowplow operator, Leo H. James, said he saw the slide whisk down East Riverside gulch and over the minister as he crouched by his stuck car, apparently putting on the chains. The girls were inside the car.

"The slide came down and took the car right off the road," said James, who had stopped his machine because 50-mile-an-hour winds whipped up ground blizzards that hampered his vision.

"The car went around me and got stuck there and about that time the snowslide fell," he said.

The avalanche clogged the road on the 11,018-foot pass for more than 500 feet with snow 18 feet deep. It apparently carried the victims over a 70-foot, sheer wall to a creek bed below. The snow is 30 feet or more deep in the canyon, searchers said.

Viet Cong Executes 2 Missionaries

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, March 4 (AP)—An American missionary and one from the Philippines were executed today by a communist firing squad before the eyes of their wives and children after their car was ambushed north of here.

Injured by Viet Cong shots—though not seriously—were two of the Filipino's young sons. Wives of the two men, an American child and two Philippine children were not injured. The survivors have been brought to Saigon.

The American was identified as Elwood Jacobsen, Foreston, Me.

Labor Agency Celebrates Its 50th Anniversary

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP) — The labor department looked back on a half century today to celebrate the astonishing change the nation has brought to the lot of the American working man.

This is the department's 50th anniversary. President Kennedy will help mark the occasion at a banquet tonight attended by some 3,000 department employes and representatives of labor and management.

It was on March 4, 1913, just before riding to the Capitol on his inaugurated day in office, that President William Howard Taft, a Republican, signed a law creating the department. His successor, Woodrow Wilson, a Democrat, immediately named William Wilson, no relation, as the first labor secretary.

House Asks Senate Appropriation Vote As Tax Bill Guide

BOISE, March 4 (AP)—Idaho's house of representatives called on the senate today to vote immediately on some major appropriations bills, such as public schools and institutions of higher education, to give a clear indication of how far the senators want to go in slashing budgets. The Republican majority in the house agreed in caucus to bring out no new tax measures until that is done, so there will be an indication of how much revenue will be required.

"We want to see what kind of economy they are talking about," said Rep. Arvil Millar, R., Bingham, chairman of the revenue and taxation committee.

Both Democrats and Republicans in the senate have been talking of trimming the budget to as low as 93.5 million dollars. Millar said the house Republicans have no such sentiments.

"They are in favor of meeting our needs, of meeting the 102 million dollars budget if that is what the appropriations committee recommends."

The joint finance-appropriations committee indicated that it has no intention of cutting the budgets it has recommended, which would total 102 million dollars if public schools got 40 million dollars.

Saturday's defeat of the sales tax brought a new round of economy talk, and the necessity of finding other revenue sources unless budgets are drastically slashed.

House Republicans indicated in the caucus today a preference for an increase in income tax rates as the major new sources of revenue, said Millar.

He emphasized that any tax to finance a budget increase is going to hit the low income brackets. One of the major arguments against the sales tax was that it would hit those least able to pay.

"Irregardless of what route we take here, it's going to cost money," said Millar. "If it is the income tax route, it will be a substantial amount and is going to hit hard on the little man.

"If it is the head tax, it will

N. Y. Post Publishes In Blackout

NEW YORK, March 4 (AP)—The presses rolled at the New York Post today, breaking the New York City newspaper blackout.

A resounding cheer went up in the pressroom of the Post as pressman Robert Lawton pushed the button that started one of three presses rolling for the first time in 87 days.

The Post resumed publication amid reports of progress in negotiations to get the other eight major dailies back on the streets.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner reported both sides had substantially narrowed their differences on two important issues following a six-hour session that ended early today.

Negotiations in a 95-day five-union strike against Cleveland's two dailies also continued today.

Carbon Dioxide, H20 Vapor Found on Mars

PALESTINE, Tex., March 4 (AP)—The presence of water vapor and carbon dioxide on Mars was detected during the Stratosphere II balloon flight but life on the planet would be marginal at best, a preliminary report by scientists said today. The preliminary summary of the findings of the tandem balloon carrying a huge telescope and sensing equipment this past week-end was released just prior to a news conference by researchers here. "A very preliminary scientific analysis of the infrared tracings of Mars taken on the flight shows that the telescope did observe the infrared spectrum of the planet, that it recorded bands that can be attributed to water vapor and carbon dioxide, and that the amounts of these can be determined from the tracings," the report said.

"Because of these atmospheric conditions on Mars, life on the planet would be marginal at best, if, for example, the water content on Mars can be determined near the upper limit now estimated—if condensed, less than four cubic miles—some very primitive life forms become conceivable. If, however, the water is found to be much less, the possibility of life becomes much more remote, or else a life-supporting solvent other than water must be found," the report stated.

Dr. Martin Schwartzchild, Princeton university astronomer, headed a team of scientists which followed the balloon and recovered the huge telescope and recording instruments.

It was launched near here last Friday.

The balloon carried the 30-foot telescope to 77,000 feet—above 98 per cent of the Earth's atmosphere—where the telescope was trained on Mars. Radio-control enabled a ground crew to cut loose the telescope. It drifted to earth by parachute.

GOP Power In South Increasing

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP)—Republicans measuring 1964 chances find their strength gaining in the South and West and their weakness showing in the big cities where they say they lost the presidency in 1960.

That was the gist of a statistical report released over the week-end by Republican National Chairman William E. Miller. He said it provided "satisfaction with the results of last fall's election and optimism as Republicans prepare for the campaign of 1964."

Any such optimism was tempered, however, with the report's admissions (1) that the big cities are still solidly Democratic, (2) that New England, once a Republican stronghold, "needs extra effort," (3) that votes of farmers aren't responding to GOP appeals and (4) that party candidates made no significant 1962 gains in depressed areas.

Three of the big cities—Detroit, Chicago and Philadelphia—bid today at a meeting of the national committee's site subcommittee for the 1964 presidential nominating convention.

Gov. George Romney of Michigan and William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania, who have been mentioned as possible candidates for the nomination, planned to head their delegations. Democrats Mayor Richard J. Daley led the Chicago group.

The subcommittee will hear proposals Tuesday from Dallas, San Francisco and Miami Beach.

Earthquake Shakes up U. S. Towns

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 4 (UPI)—A "freight-train"-sounding earthquake shook the nation's heartland Sunday from southern Illinois to Memphis, Tenn. There was no serious damage.

The Rev. William Stauder, St. Louis university seismologist, said the tremor was "moderate to strong." Its shock was felt in nearly 20 communities, breaking windows, cracking plaster and generally mystifying people.

In Dexter, Mo., city police dispatcher Wilson Lesler thought his office had been hit by a freight train.

Other communities feeling the shock were Herrin, Marion, Du Quoin in Illinois; Sikeston, New Madrid, Caruthersville, Hayti, Poplar Bluff, Columbia and Dexter, Mo.; Hickman, Paducah and Fulton, Ky.; Tiptonville, Reelfoot, Pinson and Memphis, Tenn.; and some in eastern Arkansas.

The Rev. Father Stauder said the center of the quake was located 140 miles south-southeast of St. Louis, Mo., in the New Madrid area. He said it registered a magnitude of about 5 on the Richter scale, "indicating a moderate to strong quake."

Snowstorm, Winds Blitz Into Midwest

By The Associated Press

A heavy snowstorm, packed with gusty northerly winds, swept across the southern Rockies into the central plains Monday and headed into wide areas of the Midwest.

The early March storm dumped heavy snow in Colorado, Wyoming and parts of Nebraska, with amounts up to a foot in some sections. The snow spread into central Arizona and New Mexico northward through southern Utah.

Winds of 30 to 45 miles per hour whipped the snow from northeastern Colorado northeastward across northern and central Nebraska and into southeast South Dakota and extreme northwest Iowa. There was much drifting and the blowing snow created hazardous driving conditions. No severe cold was reported.

Lighter amounts of snow were reported in Minnesota and Wisconsin. Heavy snow warnings were issued for areas from central and extreme northeast Nebraska, extreme northern Iowa northward into eastern South Dakota and southern Minnesota.

Nikita Elected

MOSCOW, March 4 (AP)—Not that he had any doubts, but Premier Khrushchev learned today that both he and the glamorous actress for whom he voted were elected to the Russian federated republic's parliament.

Max Yost to Explain Idaho Future Without Sales Tax

Max Yost, executive secretary of Associated Taxpayers of Idaho, will explain some of the consequences the people of Idaho will be facing since the senate killed the three per-cent sales tax measure Saturday. He will be featured during the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce legislative luncheon Tuesday noon at the American Legion hall.

Yost, who is an outstanding tax expert, will outline some of the effects Idaho citizens will have if legislators take the route to increase the head tax, cut the education appropriation and other components of the general fund budget or if they take the route of a two per cent sales tax. Other routes the legislators may take will be explained by Yost.

"Now is the time to do something about the tax situation instead of waiting until next January or February when you pay your taxes," says William Grange, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce. "Every Twin Falls citizen who wants to have something done to lighten the tax load should attend the luncheon meeting Tuesday."

Grange said because of the large number of persons expected to attend the meeting, those who plan to attend should phone the Chamber of Commerce office, 733-3074 for luncheon reservations.

AWOL Sailors Live It up, Then Give It up on Spree With Hot U.S. Notes

DALLAS, March 4 (UPI) — Two young sailors, who for 42 days had the power to loot the U. S. treasury with a shipment of 40 million dollars were held in naval authorities.

The pair jumped ship in Japan, hopped a commercial airliner to the United States and began a spending spree that could have tapped the treasury for unlimited funds. Spending upon the sailors' pay.

Seaman 1/c William Alfred Buell, 21, Des Plaines, Ill., and Seaman Appren. Milford H. Newsom, Denison, Tex., were arrested in Denison Saturday while trying to trade a $7,000 bright red sports car for a fancier model.

"If we could have had just another few weeks," police quoted Buell, "we could have been fixed for life."

A naval spokesman, who refused to be quoted by name, said the blank U. S. treasury checks were worth "up to 50 million dollars" if the sailors had the nerve to fill them in for huge sums.

The navy chief of information in Washington said the shipment of checks was missing from the USS Renville, an attack transport based at Sasebo, Japan.

Newsom and Buell have been absent without leave from the base since Feb. 16. Newsom was a postal clerk aboard the Renville. They were being held in the brig at the Dallas naval air station.

Change and Smokes Gone From Store

HEYBURN, March 4—About $5 in loose change and a few cigarettes were taken during a burglary early Monday at the Grand Mere, Heyburn, reports Ralph McCombs, owner.

S. E. Vannattan, who lives across the street from the store, told officers at about 12:30 a.m. Monday, he saw a flashlight in the store and witnessed two boys leaving. After he called the village marshal, Lloyd Wilson, and Minidoka County deputy Sheriff Howard Platt, Vannattan followed the two boys in his car. The boys were walking, Vannattan said.

The boys traveled south from the store toward the fire station, but Vannattan lost them. Platt reported the front door lock was jimmied and the lock will have to be replaced. Apparently a screwdriver or crowbar was used, Platt said.

McCombs said about $5 in loose change was taken from the cash register and a few cigarettes are missing but he has not had time to go through everything in the store to see if anything else had been taken.

Driver Is Cited Over Turn After Highway Crash

Richard L. Kassman, 19, Malta, was cited for making an improper U-turn after an accident about 5:45 p.m. Sunday on Highway 30 one-fourth of a mile east of the Twin Falls city limits.

His 1957 Plymouth collided with a 1953 Ford driven by William T. Conant, 29, Burley. Both vehicles were being driven west on Highway 30. Kassinger was driving in the right-hand lane and made a U-turn without signaling, driving into the path of Conant's car in the center lane.

Kassman was bruised, but did not require hospitalization.

Rites Held for Donald T. Larsen

JEROME, March 4 — Funeral services for Donald Theodore Larsen were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Wiley funeral chapel with Frank Scherer conducting.

Bishop Herrick M. Drake was speaker and Milo Swainston offered the invocation. A quartet included Wayne Thompson, Raymond Jones, Virgie Packer and Grace Saunders. Mrs. Thora Gough was pianist. Dwight Kimpton sang the benediction and Pagley Larsen dedicated the grave.

Pallbearers were Aubrey Johnstone, Robert Sauer, Cecil Donnely, Willard Bell, Melvin Larsen and Dale Johnstone. Flowers were cared for by the Jerome second ward Relief society.

Final rites were held in the Jerome cemetery.

Two Valley Men Hurt in Crash

MOUNTAIN HOME, March 4 —Two Magic Valley men were injured Sunday afternoon when their car went off U.S. highway 20 about 14 miles west of Mountain Home and rolled several times before coming to a stop, Elmore county sheriff's deputies reported.

Injured and reported in good condition at a Mountain Home hospital are Joe Coitlantile, 30, Shoshone, and Sabino Garatia, 25, Rupert. Both had multiple abrasions and contusions, according to hospital attendants.

Coitlantia, driver of the car, told deputies one of the front tires blew out as he was passing another car. No citations were issued.

ABOARD CARGO SHIP — HAGERMAN, March 4—James M. Curtis, boatswain's mate third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Curtis, Hagerman, is serving aboard the attack cargo ship USS Washburn, part of the Pacific fleet amphibious force.

Weather, Temperatures

Magic Valley — Mostly cloudy with some chance of snow Tuesday afternoon. High temperatures Tuesday 35 to 42 after lows of 20 to 23. Temperatures at 5 a.m., 29 at Jerome, 22 at T. F. experiment station with 82 per cent humidity, 23 at T. F. entomology laboratory, Buhl 27 per cent humidity, 21 at Fairfield, 17 at Hailey, 24 at Buhl and 28 at Castleford; at noon, Twin Falls, 34 at Hailey, 38 at experiment station and 36 with 54 per cent humidity at experiment station and 36 with 48 per cent humidity at entomology laboratory. Barometer 30.35. Soil temperature at four inches, 37 at experiment station; Buhl, 33 at Castleford, at eight inches, 38 at experiment station, at 20 inches, 38 at experiment station.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY

The low pressure center that moved into the South Sunday is moving northeastward across Texas and Oklahoma. Moisture injected into this storm from the Gulf of Mexico is causing some rather large local areas of snowfalls in Colorado, Wyoming and Nebraska. The precipitation area extends eastward into the Great Lakes region although the cloud cover is extensive over the eastern half of the United States.

Clear skies dominate most of the area west of the continental divide. Low pressure at the upper levels over the southwestern United States is causing a northerly flow of colder air into the northwestern states and a storm center is located in the vicinity of the Pacific ocean off the Washington coast. The storm is expected to bring cloudy skies with some rain or snow Tuesday.

Temperatures will remain in the low 30's and into the 40's for Tuesday with nighttime temperatures ranging in the teens to the upper 20's.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST

The forecast weather pattern through next Saturday indicates the high pressure ridge aloft over the Far Western states is migrating westward into the Pacific ocean. This shift in pattern will allow Pacific low pressure disturbances to swing far enough southward on their track across the West to draw colder air into the Intermountain region.

Temperatures will average from 6 to 10 degrees below their seasonal normals with a gradual cooling spell during the first of this week and then additional cooling during the latter half of the week. Normals for this five-day period are Gooding, 44 and 25, Twin Falls, 48 and 26, Burley, 45 and 24.

Precipitation totals for this week will average from .10 to .20 of an inch, occurring mostly as light snow occasionally mixed with some rain during the latter half of this week. Extreme southern Idaho ski areas will tend to average more precipitation than will southwestern valleys during this period.

Sunshine will total about 55 per cent of possible with daytime cloudiness averaging less than four-tenths coverage the first half of the week but then averaging six- to seven-tenths coverage during the latter half of the week.

Soil temperatures at the four-inch depth will sag into the low 30's and 40's by the end of the week. Below normal temperatures with periods of precipitation mainly in the form of light snow flurries during the latter half of the week will limit pre-season field preparations and other field activities.

be a 50 per cent increase," he said. "The little man will take the biggest percentage."

Millar said another proposal, a property tax on automobiles assessed of the basis of models and years, would have "quite a broad base" but the low income brackets would share in it.

"The people who said that they were saving the little'man' money will probably end up hitting him harder," he said.

Millar said a proposed increase in property tax of 1.7 mills would hit the low income brackets the least.

"If we meet our budget requirements this is going to be a terrific impact on present tax structure," he said. "The people who were so opposed to a sales tax were making their comparisons on the basis of the budget of two years ago rather than present needs."

The revenue and taxation committee has under study a variety of tax possibilities, from which Millar said they expect to present a package to meet whatever budget the lawmakers indicate they want.

He listed seven tax possibilities, including increased rates for individual and corporate income taxes and a 1.7 mill increase in the statewide ad valorem, or property, tax.

A 10 per cent surcharge on individual and corporate income taxes was being considered as an alternative to the rate increases. But Millar said committee members preferred a revision of the rate structure to a surcharge.

As to an increase in the head tax, he said none of the committee members favor it.

"We'd rather have an income tax rate adjustment, to spread it around," he said.

The committee had considered a $15 increase in the head tax. Millar said shifting the funds from the present $10 head tax from the building fund to the general fund was also proposed but they had been rejected with out formal consideration.

In addition to the income tax and property tax increases, Millar said the committee is considering a property tax on automobiles that would raise 2.5 million dollars, a tax on motel, hotel and rental units that would bring 1.2 million dollars.

Already introduced in the house are Gov. Robert E. Smylie's proposed "roll-ahead" in the income tax withholding rate that would bring in an estimated 750,000; another cent in cigarette tax that would bring in 1.3 million dollars and an increased liquor surcharge that would produce $900,000.

Also introduced is an increase in the statewide property tax would bring an estimated 2 million dollars in the next two years, Millar said.

He added his committee was waiting for approval of additional men from the caucuses before deciding on what kind of a package to bring out. But he said it intended to include enough measures to finance a budget of about 100 million dollars.

Sen. Rodney Hansen, R., Minidoka, chairman of the joint finance-appropriations committee, said the committee had no plans to follow suggestions by some lawmakers that it begin slashing its proposed budgets. He said nothing would be done until the committee is told what the revenue will be.

One of the major roadblocks of the session apparently was cleared with announcement of a compromise agreement on a school formula.

Sen. Dick Smith, R., Madison, chairman of the senate education committee, said the house committee agreed to the senate proposal to raise from 15 to 22 mills the base figure used in calculating how much will go to school districts.

He said that with the 15-mill base the rich school districts were remaining "at least 30 per cent richer" than the poor districts. He said the senate committee had favored a 30-mill figure, so the 22 mills was a compromise halfway between.

Otherwise, the formula is basically the revised version of the existing formula that came out of the house committee, Smith said, however, that the teacher factor had been "desensitized" so it will have less effect on how the money is distributed.

The Tuttle-Mills formula in the senate would have eliminated the teacher factor.

Sen. Arthur Murphy, D., Shoshone, told the senate it is overlooking a revenue source which would bring in more than 3 million dollars in a biennium. It involves sale of packaged liquor by private industry, rather than through state - operated stores, and the removal of the present ban on liquor sales on Sunday.

Murphy said the private sales would add 2.5 million dollars to state receipts.

Murphy, who voiced vigorous objection to the sales tax in last Saturday's debate which ended with defeat of the measure, said he is determined that Idaho's economy needs it. He said he will vote for no more than 37 million dollars for the public schools, compared with the current 33 million dollars, and will oppose, except in rare instances, any increase of more than 5 per cent over current appropriations.

Reported to the senate floor was a bill which would abolish the present fish and game department and commission and substitute for it a department of wildlife directed by a five-man commission, members of which would be elected, instead of appointed.

The bill came out of the public resources and recreation committee without recommendation. The measure, under normal procedure, would be up for final consideration Wednesday.

A proposed amendment to the United States Constitution that would prohibit the requirement of paying a poll tax as a qualification to vote was reported to the house floor by the state affairs committee with a do-pass recommendation.

The constitutional affairs committee gave a do-pass recommendation to a bill providing for an increase in the tax on potatoes and onions to pay the costs of a growers' education and research committee as part of the Idaho potato and onion commission.

Theft of $630 From Local Firm Probed

Twin Falls police are investigating theft of $630 in cash from an unlocked box in a filing cabinet from / Thelsen Motors, Inc., with a lot of suspects, according to Police Chief Frank Barnett.

He reported Monday noon that whoever was involved in the theft must have had information about the building's layout and how to get into the building. Entry was gained through an unlocked rear door and the only items in the office disturbed were an old records safe and the locked filing cabinet.

Chief Barnett said, "They went straight to the filing cabinet."

The filing cabinet was pried open and the cash box was taken out. Checks were sorted from the cash and left behind. The break-in occurred sometime between 9 p.m. Friday and 12:27 a.m. Saturday, according to Barnett, who noted two women driving past the building about 12:25 a.m. saw someone standing outside.

They notified police who arrived at the building after the burglars had left. Barnett said officers aren't sure the person seen by the two women is involved and indicated the theft could have occurred earlier.

He said a "half-hearted attempt" was made to pry open an old records safe, in which no money was kept. It was not opened.

Innocent Plea Entered by T. F. Man to Charge

Steven R. Miller, 21, 143 Sunrise boulevard north, one of four Twin Falls persons involved in a Friday morning fight with six Jerome men in the 200 block of Main avenue east, appeared Monday morning in Twin Falls police court and entered a plea of "not guilty."

Two of the local men, W. Allen Sonius, 21, route 1, and Lynn Nelson, 20, route 2, appeared Monday afternoon and pleaded innocent.

Miller and Sonius are represented by Douglas Kramer, attorney. Trial dates have not been set.

The six Jerome men were fined $25 and costs Friday by Police Judge Dale J. Adamson after pleading guilty.

Month's Building Totals $44,400

Total building construction in Twin Falls for February amounted to $44,400, according to figures compiled by the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company.

There were three new residential permits amounting to $26,000 and one new residential construction amounting to $16,000. Alterations and repairs were valued at $2,400.

Burglars Enter Service Station

Twin Falls police are investigating a burglary at Ray's Westcott service station, 303 Shoshone street north, between 9 p.m. Saturday and 8 a.m. Sunday.

An unknown amount of small change from a cigarette machine and several packs of cigarettes were taken after entry was gained by breaking out glass in a rear door. Front panneling on the cigarette machine was removed and the machine was then moved to the lubrication room, next to the office. Police said the burglars then tried unsuccessfully to pry panneling off the lower part of the machine, where a money bag was kept.

Idaho Lad Again Muffs Romantic Call

NEW YORK, March 4 (UPI) — Dany Prichard, 16, heads for his Idaho home today to end another futile round trip to romance.

Authorities in Scotland sent him back to New York yesterday after he arrived at Glasgow in hopes of meeting his pen-pal Kathy McFee, 16, of Rosshire.

Kathy's father refused to let the teen-agers meet, and Scottish officials declined to let him remain since he was a minor with insufficient funds.

Last summer Prichard flew to Modina, Italy on another romantic quest. Five days after he arrived to visit a girl with whom he had exchanged letters, he was sent home.

Explaining his search abroad, Prichard said:

"American girls think they're too good. All they want is a Rock Hudson.

"I've needed a girl friend since I was 13 years old. It gets awfully lonesome when you don't have a girl friend."

Prichard, Bonners Ferry, Ida., said his father had bought him a one-way ticket, since he had planned to stay about a year in Scotland. He said his father probably would pay for the return trip, as he had done on the journey to Italy.

Clair Talks For Gooding Farm Confab

GOODING, March 4 — Mel Clair, Idaho Wool Grower's secretary, was one of the speakers at the annual meeting of the Gooding County Marketing association last week.

Clair spoke on problems pertaining to the industry and recent wool sales.

Dr. Kintner, sheep inspector, spoke on various sheep disease problems and their control. He explained that some pregnancy disease has been noted lately. The feeding of molasses has helped with this nutritional problem, he said.

Wade Wells, University of Idaho extension animal husbandman, described experimental remarks secured at the Caldwell station on dry-lot handling of ewes. He also discussed various phases of lamb feeding.

He noted that lambs are most efficient in feed conversion at an early age, and it is important to have the lambs on "creep" as soon as possible.

Robert Bolte, jr., vice president, presided at the business meeting, during which the members voted to support the Idaho Wool Growers Association, with the dues to be withheld from the wool receipts.

The sign-up period for the 1963 pool deadline will be March 20. Contracts are available at the county agent's office.

R. M. Woody, who has now retired, was presented a wall plaque in appreciation of his many years of service as a member of the board of directors.

Directors elected at the meeting were Dean Wolfe, George Moody and Clarence Wells.

The shearing school dates and purpose were noted.

Area Cattlemen Oppose Import Of Foreign Meat

Opposition to the importation of meat in any form, either raw or processed, from any country where the foot and mouth disease exists, was voiced in a resolution adopted by directors of the Twin Falls Cattlemen's association Thursday night at the county agent's office.

This action was taken because there have been news reports that some of the restrictions in canned beef might be relaxed for some South American countries.

Art Kaster, Jay Cobb, Donald Tuttle and Rolland Patrick were appointed to make plans for the 1963 awards at the county fair. Another committee was appointed to make plans for tours during the summer months. Members of this committee are Tom Callen, Kenneth Larson, Melvin Sackett, Donald Ramseyer and Warren Ralph.

Callen was chosen to represent the association on the advisory committee for the county extension agent.

Ramseyer, president of the association, conducted the meeting.

Sorry Exhibition

Fights after the Jerome-Twin Falls basketball game Thursday night constituted a sorry exhibition, one of which all concerned should be ashamed. Quite significantly, no basketball players were involved in the brawling. Players have more interest in winning than any other students, yet any coach who is worth his salt will ingrain in his teams the thought they should play the game as hard as possible, but still be good sports about it.

No one can ever feel worse about a defeat than one of the players actually participating in the game. The fact that a player can be on the losing side, perhaps shed a few tears over the defeat, and yet not degenerate into a fist-swinging, name-calling brawler, is always a credit to both the player and his coach.

No one expects students to be happy after watching their team lose. Yet there is absolutely no point to trying to beat each other into insensibility. The win or loss from the game goes into the record books. Any fighting afterward merely reflects on the participants.

One other fact about last week's violence sticks out like a sore thumb. A good percentage of the brawlers were beyond high school age, 20 or 21 years old. These are not high school students, but young men who should be developing a sense of responsibility. Above all else, they are old enough to know they must accept responsibility for their actions.

It's regrettable these young men felt so strongly about the game that they should erupt in violence. The incident is bound to reflect on the high schools they apparently attended at one time, yet the schools have no control over them. There also is a stigma extending over the two student bodies, yet students aren't to blame. Above all, the brawling reflects on the young men at a time in their lives when they should be building reputations as valuable citizens.

And what was gained by all the violence?

ANOTHER DRY YEAR

It has been said the Salmon tract's normal year is one of water shortage, but present snow conditions indicate a record dry year for the tract. March 1 snow depths and moisture content across the watershed are the lowest in 32 years of record in some instances.

With snow missing from the mountains, farmers will be reducing crop acreages accordingly. Present estimates are crop plantings will be possible on only one-fourth to one-third of land. Plowed fields, lying fallow, are not unusual for the Salmon tract, but it appears there will be more idle land than ever this summer.

About the only development that can change prospects this late in the season would be continual, heavy rains and snows across the entire watershed. The possibility for such a phenomenon is virtually nil. Even if such unusual weather should develop, much of the moisture would be absorbed by dry, unfrozen soil, with a minimum reaching Salmon reservoir.

The Salmon tract closed out the last irrigating season with a small carryover in the reservoir, a rather rare event. If it had not been for the water being left over last year, this spring's picture would be even darker.

The dim outlook isn't confined to the Salmon and Roseworth tracts. Those areas lying adjacent to the south hills where wells have been developed since the war also may be effected. There have been reports ground water has not risen in wells this winter and some farmers are skeptical about having enough water for full crops this summer.

Elsewhere, prospects are about normal for farmers using Snake river water, thanks to a fairly heavy carryover from last season. The Snake river watershed snowpack is well below normal, but the several reservoirs already contain a good supply of water.

For the Salmon tract, 1963 may go down as the driest year in a long series of dry years.

DETECTION NEEDED

The 50-year-old rifleman who came within an eyelash of killing two Oakley boys has been judged too insane to stand trial. He has been taken to Idaho Hospital South, not accountable for all the pain and misery left behind in Oakley because of his twisted mind.

His brief shooting rampage could have been a wholesale tragedy in Oakley because he did his level best to shoot down others, standing on a corner and firing his rifle at cars coming down the street.

Somehow, it would seem a civilized, scientific nation could find a means of detecting such mental disorders before others are hurt or killed. There must be a way to discover a twisted mind before the damage is done, not afterward.

Prevention of such deeds should be the goal, not treatment after innocent bystanders have become victims.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON, March 4 — Today I am a no-good communist. Yesterday I was a good communist, complete with adenoids, because I believe the citizenry should mount a closer check on the central intelligence agency, which spends up to one billion dollars a year spying for Uncle Sam.

Andrew Tully

This a dangerous opinion to possess, because whenever some body wants to tinker with the CIA, he is automatically is suspected of being a pen pal of Nikita Khrushchev or of owning a copy of Das Kapital. But I am in good company, having been antedated by the some-what non-communist Hoover commission in 1956, which was disturbed by CIA's free-wheeling operations.

Moreover, the time has arrived — borne on the events of the past several years — when congress should at least discuss seriously some kind of closer supervision of our big-spending cloak-and-dagger boys. The Cuban situation has jogged memories of other moments in history when CIA has gone off on its own to the detriment of a stable foreign policy.

CIA can mutter about congress holding the purse-strings, but that has not prevented congress from meddling in the internal affairs of countries like Iran and Laos and in flaunting the impression that the CIA, not the state department, was making foreign policy. To be sure, President Kennedy has cracked down on this dangerous tampering, and had tightened executive supervision of the agency, but he can't give the job day-to-day attention it requires.

COSTLY ERRORS — Meanwhile, the U.S. has had to pay in both cash and prestige for CIA's backing of the ineffectual "strong man" in Laos, Gen. Phoumi Novasan. It has paid for CIA's blundering in the Bay of Pigs fiasco. And it has paid to support the utterly corrupt government set up in Iran by CIA after the agency's 1953 overthrow of old Premier Mossadeq.

These disasters have proved that the present supervisory setup is ineffective and dangerous. This setup puts CIA under the President, the secretary of defense and the secretary of state, and submits its operations to periodic scrutiny by the President's board of consultants on foreign intelligence activities. Infrequent backstopping also is provided by subcommittees of the senate and house armed services and appropriations committees.

Yet, because the people's representatives in congress are not directly concerned with CIA planning, the agency poses the frightening specter of invisible government. Knowledge conveys power, and it is disturbing to go on to the corollary that secret knowledge conveys secret power. And when this secret power, through intelligence estimates, influences foreign policy and thus the national security, congress should be more attentive to its potentiality for evil.

AEC CHECK WORKS — The Hoover commission's recommendation for a congressional watchdog committee for CIA similar to the joint congressional committee on atomic energy was soundly beaten in congress in 1956. Since then, succeeding proposals have failed to come to a vote. Yet congress would be abdicating its responsibility if it failed to investigate some arrangement whereby it could maintain a closer watch on CIA day-to-day activities.

Those opposed to a watchdog committee warn of the danger of entrusting intelligence secrets to a clutch of talkative congressmen. In the past, the White House has been under considerable pressure from our allies with whom we trade intelligence and who are opposed to sharing their information with congress. But the answer to this is that throughout its lifetime of more than 15 years, the joint committee on atomic energy has never had even a minor leak.

And the fact remains that the supervisory system which excludes congress except for an occasional peek just hasn't worked. Is it unpatriotic to suggest that another system be explored?

VIEWS OF OTHERS

WRONG NUMBER?

There is an old gag that runs something like, "figures don't lie, but liars can figure." So be it, but the fact remains that figures themselves can be pretty misleading without being actually false.

One little set that came along the other day involved a census of telephones around the world — a neat trick in itself—and showed that the Soviet Union among all nations had the greatest percentage increase in telephone installations in 1961. The increase was 18 per cent, and it made the American increase of only 4.1 per cent look sort of small—not enough "growth rate," probably. But there are some other telephone figures. The Soviet Union has only 5.1 million (barely more than New York City) while the United States has 77.4 million. And while the Russian comrades were hooking up 800,000 new phones, our telephone workers were putting in 3.1 million new installations. And have they tried the multiple digit system?—Washington Post.

EVERYONE HAS TROUBLES

The Soviet foreign aid program is not working out as the Kremlin would like. A growing number of governments, like those of Tunisia, Algeria, India, the United Arab Republic and Iraq, take the Russians' rubles yet persist in throwing some of their domestic communists in jail.

Since all the countries mentioned are also being aided by the United States, we ought to take heart from Moscow's embarrassment. If things are going badly for the Russians, maybe we are doing better. It's a thought for Rep. Otto Passman, the house ace man on foreign aid.—San Francisco Chronicle

SOLD OUT BY OUR OWN GOVERNMENT

Idaho lumber people are going to get no help from the U. S. tariff commission. The body has rejected the request for a measure of protection from Canadian soft wood now flooding into the domestic market.

Thanks to the highly touted trade act there is absolutely no appeal from the ruling of the commission. The temper of the ruling party in congress is such that no help can be expected in the way of special legislation. In other words here is another of many instances in which the American government cuts the throats of its own people for the benefit of other countries.

When, oh when? Are the American people going to awaken to their danger and begin electing men who will make the welfare of their own people a primary concern? It had better be soon. —Sandpoint News-Bulletin.

THE BEST IS YET TO BE . . .

Sometimes you get the feeling, in this youth-oriented society of ours, that anybody on the shady side of 29 is to be—well, if not scorned, at least pitied.

And then along comes Stan Musial. Musial, a not exactly doddering 42, signed a contract recently to play his 22nd season of professional ball with the St. Louis Cardinals. "Never felt better physically," says Musial, with no indication that this may be his last season. All Musial did last year was knock the cover off the ball.

Life can be worthwhile past 29.

Potso:

How do those poor folks who live in town ever find room for all the things they don't want to throw away?

I don't know what we'd ever do if it wasn't for the barnyard-tool shed, machine shed, garage and what have you. Of course, the trouble is getting rather crowded, too.

Seems about the only things we ever throw away at our house consist of whatever the pigs eat. We have boxes and folded wrapping paper stacked away. There are rolls and rolls of string and twine, and not just in the basement. We should see the stacks of twine but near the corral where twine has been cut from bales of hay and straw.

Then there are posts, a couple of old cars, machine parts (worn-out, naturally) all over the place. What we need is another farm just to stack the junk!

We got our first Pot Shots dog right after the war. He was a fine animal, real good with the livestock and a dandy hunter. We had him for about five years when he got run over by someone who never bothered to stop.

Then we got another one who was equally fine except that he didn't hunt. He up and died not so long ago at the age of about 10.

Now we have our third Pot Shots pup, a fine little fellow about 10 weeks old. We're quite pleased and hope you keep up the fine work of finding homes for pups.

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, March 4 — There is magic in the name and that is nowhere more evident than in the instance of one of the new freshmen in the house of representatives. Robert Taft, Jr., was elected representative at large from Ohio last year by a majority of 631,000.

That is one of the many illustrious names in American political history. Marquis Childs

The new representative's grandfather, William Howard, was the 27th president of the United States and later chief justice. His father, Robert Alphonso Taft, was Republican leader of the senate and narrowly missed the nomination for president in 1952. An uncle, Charles P. Taft, has been active in Ohio politics and is a leader among moderate and liberal Republicans.

The newest Taft has followed in his father's footsteps, staking out a strong political base in Ohio before coming onto the national scene at the age of 45. But with his arrival in Washington the progress is bound to be accelerated.

His supporters foresee him running for the senate next year. They are maneuvering to try to make sure that he has the party's nomination without a contest. This could mean cold-shouldering former Sen. John W. Bricker, who is said to be considering an attempted comeback.

Elected to the senate in 1964 and ever-increasingly before a national public, Taft could be the presidential nominee in 1968 when he is 50 years old. This is the private dream of certain Republicans who see Gov. Nelson Rockefeller as the candidate in 1964. Failing to defeat President Kennedy, so this somewhat cynical view goes, Rockefeller can be put aside four years later for the new Taft standing midway between the moderates and the extreme right.

Granted this is a long-distance dream, it has a certain inherent logic. Taft himself is carefully attending to his knitting and if he is looking beyond the senatorship he has given no sign of it.

As he has discovered since coming to Washington, there are penalties as well as great advantages in a dynastic name. One of Taft's committee assignments is education and labor and that committee is now trying to put together a comprehensive general aid to the schools. Rep. Edith Green, D., Ore., taking a lead in this effort, has found occasion to point out to Representative Taft, the latter's father was in the senate when he supported federal aid to education.

Taft has an analysis prepared of his father's stand on this highly controversial issue. The bill that Senator Taft introduced in 1947 called for federal assistance on the basis of the need of individual states to augment their own school funds. According to this analysis, federal funds would have gone to only about a fourth of the states. Last year, as majority leader in the Ohio house of representatives, Taft introduced a resolution calling on the federal government to turn back in lieu of direct aid one per cent of federal tax collected to the area from which it was collected.

This last is sound states-rights doctrine. Those who have followed Taft's career to date say that he is at least as conservative as his father. It is a strong family tradition. His grandfather broke with Theodore Roosevelt who was angered by his caution, and when Theodore Roosevelt led the Bull Moose party, Taft was defeated for reelection.

In 1956 when Taft was running for reelection to the legislature in his home district in Cincinnati, the Republicans were in a turmoil over a right-to-work amendment put on the ballot at the insistence of the Chamber of Commerce. Opponents paid for an ad quoting his grandfather, his father and his Uncle Charles to show that they would all be against such a measure. Taft's position was that while the amendment should not be on the ballot he did not believe union membership should be required to hold a job.

The amendment brought out powerful organized labor opposition and one consequence in that black year for Republicans was Bricker's defeat. Taft says he ran 15,000 ahead of the ticket in conservative Cincinnati.

The term of one of Ohio's two Democratic senators, Stephen M. Young, expires next year. While he spoke about being a strong one-term senator, implying he would not seek reelection, Young apparently intends to run again and judging from reports from the state he would be the strongest candidate. At 76 he would have the advantage of running on the Kennedy ticket.

Between the flourishing Kennedy dynasty and the Taft dynasty are many contrasts. Of the four Taft sons of the present generation only two are in public life. William Howard III, ambassador to Ireland under President Eisenhower, is now a career foreign service officer. Charles P. II is associate professor of physics at Yale and Lloyd is with a New York investment firm.

Cool, calm and collected are the adjectives that seem to apply to Robert Taft. Personable, intensely hard-working—this the asset of his name he has a long reach.

World Corners

By PHIL NEWSOM
(UPI Foreign News Analyst)

Now the Soviet-Red China dispute finally resolves itself is important to the whole world and not alone to communists.

But as it runs its course it continues to baffle western observers. In recent weeks alone expert speculation has run the gamut from forecasts of a total break between the two to predictions that the quarrel soon would be patched up.

Phil Newsom

For each there has seemed to be tangible evidence.

After the withdrawal of Soviet missiles from Cuba, words exchanged between the two were quite unusually reserved for enemies.

Then, Nikita Khrushchev's friendly approach to the Chinese ambassador at a reception in Moscow led to a new round of speculation that the two were approaching a solution to their troubles, if only to take advantage of the obvious split in the Western Atlantic alliance.

Mixed in with western speculation also have been questions which fall in the category of "which came first, the chicken or the egg?"

There have been such questions as whether the dispute actually was economic or ideological or whether it is less a matter of ideology than an outright fight for communist leadership.

Henry Shapiro, UPI correspondent in Moscow for more than 25 years, makes it simpler. He says there never has been a unity of viewpoint between the Kremlin and the late Joseph Stalin favored an alliance between the communists and Chiang Kai-shek in China simply because he knew he could not control the Chinese communists if they came to power.

On Feb. 26, the Peking People's Daily lumped all the lines of speculation and dumped them into one basket. Each school of thought gained a certain number of support. The People's Daily:

Attacked the Khrushchev policy of co-existence and Moscow's new friendship for President Tito of Yugoslavia (political).

Attacked Moscow's failure to support China in its border war with India (challenge for leadership).

Attacked the Soviets for "perfidiously" tearing up hundreds of contracts with the Peking regime (economic).

Again proposed a communist summit conference but only on the basis that the Soviets accept the Chinese viewpoint.

That was the peak year for Soviet-Sino trade which has been declining ever since.

In 1959, the Soviets denounced the Chinese communist system as an idea that had been tried and already proved a failure.

And in 1959 the Soviets described the Indian-Chinese border dispute as "tragic" and "deplorable."

The Chinese are known to have resented Soviet aid to India which just about equalled the amount they themselves received. They believed this aid should have been limited to communist nations and they believed that this aid should be extended even at the expense of Soviet development.

But in the grim Chinese determination to go it alone if necessary, the economic factor still exists. Without the Soviets there would be no aid for the new lamps of China.

Poor Man's Plato

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, March 4 (AP) — A house is a place where you can count on it that you are sure to run out of something you need.

Hal Boyle

Every home, be it hovel or palace, has a lack.

The mountains of real loss that confront us sometimes during our existence are inescapable. These we take with a gasp. The splendor of our ordinary is made extraordinary by a disappearance, and we close ranks and go on. That is all we can do. We accept the major inevitable.

But it is the minor inevitabilities that rub us raw, the small doums that we feel we could have avoided by proper planning.

We live on the frontier of an amazing plenty, but it seems to be our fate that we always run short of essential items.

I don't know how your household is, but I'll tell you how my household is.

We don't miss mink coats, yachts and diamonds. These we can get along without tidily. It is the things we can afford that we don't have.

For example, our home is chronically short of bathroom tissue, "soft-white" light bulbs, Epsom salts, soda water and canned chicken noodle soup.

Year after year I have had to face these shortages. We live across the street from a supermarket which stocks some 30,000 items.

Yet when a light bulb burns out we have none to replace it, there is never enough soda water in the refrigerator, and there is rarely a can of chicken noodle soup. On the other hand, half a dozen cans of beef and vegetable soup always adorn the shelves.

"I spent five years with the U.S. army in three continents avoiding canned beef and vegetable stew," I frigidly inform my wife, Frances. "I would rather die now than eat a can of beef and vegetable soup."

"Oh, go ahead and die then," she says placidly. "I'm on the way to the laundromat, and can't be bothered with you now."

Once I got so irritated over the problem of broken shoelaces that I bought a dozen black pair. Sure enough, the very next morning I snapped a shoelace. It was brown.

One of these days I am going to go across the street and bring back 1,000 rolls of bathroom tissue, 875 light bulbs, 45 cases of soda water, 112 bottle of aspirin and hundreds and hundreds of cans of chicken noodle soup.

The Doctor Says

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

"It looks good enough to eat" applies to anything that's not hailed down as far as most infants are concerned. We all went through this stage once—in fact, putting things in our mouths was the way we learned about all of things when everything was new and wonderful.

Dr. Brandstadt

Those responsible for infants know that some of the things an infant may put in his mouth may cause serious trouble if swallowed or inhaled. For a baby to have access to such objects is almost always due to carelessness, a failure to appreciate the hazards involved.

Another factor in many an accident is the infant's great capacity for imitation. Let a mother hold a safety pin in her mouth while dressing a baby and he will jump to the conclusion that safety pins were made to be put in the mouth.

Now all that is necessary is that the mother has carelessly left another safety pin within the baby's reach and we have all the ingredients of a tragic accident—one that occurs all too frequently. In addition to safety pins, such items as pennies, small toys, tacks, straight pins, marbles, dice, buttons and beads may be swallowed or inhaled.

When such objects are swallowed the hazards are not so great as when they are inhaled but they may cause intense pain as they are slowly carried down the stomach. Once in the stomach they often pass through the rest of the digestive tract without causing any trouble unless a sharp edge or point perforates the delicate lining membrane.

On the other hand, when a foreign body gets into the windpipe it may cut off the passage of air and cause death by asphyxiation.

When rough or sharp bone chips are swallowed or inhaled by older children this is the result of carelessness partly in the preparation of the food and partly in the child's failure to chew his food thoroughly and thereby discover the bone. This is usually associated with eating too fast.

All of these accidents are preventable and the mere description of them suggests obvious means of prevention.

As with all other emergencies, it pays to keep a level head. Don't demand to know what the child choked on. He can't tell you until whatever it was is dislodged.

Don't pound his back. This does no good and may do harm. Don't hold the baby upside down by his heels. It takes more than gravity to dislodge a foreign body. Don't prod his throat with your finger as this is likely to push the foreign body farther down.

Quietling the child with a reassuring manner gives him the best chance to get his breath and cough up the offender. Observe the symptoms carefully so you can describe them accurately to your doctor. Send for your doctor at once if the choking is severe or if the baby does not cough up the foreign body.

DECLARER MUST TAKE CHANCES

Starting with today's article I am going to use the first person for awhile to let you see how I plan and conduct the play when I am declarer.

West opens the jack of spades and before playing from dummy I note there are four potential tricks, the ace and king of trumps, the ace of clubs and a spade. I can't do anything about the first three losers, but there is a parking place for my losing spade on dummy's long club.

It would be duck soup if I could pull trumps, set up that club and get my discard, but I won't have time for that operation. The opponents get into the lead with the ace or king of trumps and establish their spade trick.

Hence, I must go after the club suit immediately. Someone may ruff in, but beggars can't be choosers and I must try to make the hand. Furthermore, the play is pretty good.

There are eight clubs out and as long as they break as well as five-three I'll chalk up game and rubber.

Now, I win the spade with the king to let the opponents know that I also hold the ace in case they want to try some other suit. I lead the jack of clubs. It holds. I will continue the suit and get rid of my losing spade before the opponents have a chance to get their spade trick.

4 Webelos Badges Given At Murtaugh

MURTAUGH, March 4—Webelos badges were presented to four members of den one, pack 108, preceding the annual pinewood derby held Thursday night at the high school gymnasium by Boy Scout troop 104 and the pack.

Charles Lee, Mike Howard, David Kloer and Charles Davis formed a lying circle with their parents as their webelos badges were presented. They also were presented with an arrow each as a remembrance of their Cub Scouting days.

Mrs. Kent Davis received a card of thanks for her services as den mother and Owen Davis received a card of thanks for his services as den chief for den one.

Elmer Graff was presented a Scouting pin upon his retirement from Cub Scouting.

Other Cub Scouts and the awards they received from Robert High are Mark Howard, one gold and one silver arrow under the wolf badge; Wayne DeGeorge, gold arrow under bear badge; Earl Buel, silver arrow under wolf badge, and Jimmy Cooper, Charles Lee and Mike Howard, lion badges.

Archie Brown, Twin Falls, and his assistants, announced winners in speed and construction for the pinewood derby.

Dennis Tilley, den four, took first place in both speed and construction; Charles Davis, den one, second in speed, and Ricky Young, den four, third for speed.

Second place for construction went to Donnie Barkes and third to Mark Howard, both of den four.

Winners among the Boy Scouts were Jimmy Lattimer, first; David Young, second, and Jerry Bourn, third.

The annual blue and gold potluck banquet is scheduled for March 22 at the Murtaugh Grange hall. Those attending are asked to furnish their own table service. Drinks will be furnished.

Tour Canceled

HONOLULU, March 4 (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham, ill in a Honolulu hospital, has canceled a revival tour for the first time in his career.

His Far Eastern crusade will go on without him, making its first stop in Manila on March 10, Graham said from his hospital bed.

He is in St. Francis hospital in Honolulu, suffering from what doctors called "an acute undetermined infection."

Activities Are Noted for Pupils

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, March 4 — Kenneth Weatherbie, a junior majoring in education from Twin Falls, was nominated by the Campus Union party as a candidate for the executive board of the student body.

Two students from Twin Falls, Nina Jenkins, a freshman business student, and Myrna Wills, a sophomore in the college of education, were chosen for membership in the Vandalettes drill team following recent tryouts.

Kenneth Amos, a freshman majoring in business from Twin Falls, has been chosen as chairman of one of the committees in charge of Freshman week which will be held early in March.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

by STELLA

MONDAY, March 4 — Born today, you seem to need the challenge of change and newness to keep on doing your best work. Inventive and highly imaginative, you are not one to give way under the pressure of opposition, no matter how intense it may be, but will continue in your own way until you have successfully crossed the finish line. You do not rest even then, however, but must be up and doing something new and different almost immediately.

A combination of idealist and realist, you are quick to spot the fly-in any ointment — and just as quick to remove it! This skill alone could make you worth your weight in gold to a business organization. The world of business, however, does not hold much attraction for you — the "one-big-happy-family" plan is far less appealing to you than is working alone!

Although you are usually right in your judgment regarding others, you must take care not to express any adverse opinion too soon or too openly. You just might be wrong and cause yourself to lose a friend you might otherwise have made. The same warning holds in your search for a mate. Avoid making a negative decision on the strength of a mere short acquaintance!

Among those born on this date are: Charles Goren, famed contract bridge authority; Knute Rockne, noted Notre Dame football coach; Channing Pollock, playwright.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Tuesday, March 5

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20) — Concentrate on purely personal goals. A marked popularity increase if you take advantage of the moment.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 20) — Don't try to deal with matters involving legal technicalities. Seek aid from one of training and experience.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21) — A beneficial day all-round if you keep a level head. Don't be sidetracked by the inconsequential.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Business may be booming, but it's at home that the day's main interest lies. Keep an eye out for romance!

CANCER (June 22-July 23 — Job opportunities should be studied carefully. Choose wisely and take the long view!

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Draw on your perceptive powers today to discover the underlying motives behind friendly overtures.

VIRGO (Aug.24-Sept. 23) — Tactfully, yet unmistakably, mention your best qualities to those in authority. Give your chances a substantial boost!

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — A day packed with opportunities. Combine several lines of endeavor for best results.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Business and/or personal affairs requiring travel should be attended to without delay. Go!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Exercise care in legal matters — especially with contracts — and today could make your future!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — On your toes! You may need physical as well as mental prowess today. Be prepared to switch from one line of action to another.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — If planning to branch out, be certain that legal commitments and finances are in balance!

I ATTEND SERVICES

KING HILL, March 4—Attending funeral services for Terrell Foster were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson, Mrs. George Von Pein and children, Mr. and Mrs. William Little and Mrs. Esther Hammerschmidt, all Seattle; Mrs. Harold Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Draper, Las Vegas, and Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Thebo and family, Parma.

Does BLADDER IRRITATION MAKE YOU NERVOUS?

After 21 common kidney or bladder irritations affect twice as many women as men and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent, burning or itching urination both day and night. Secondarily you may lose sleep and suffer from Headache, Backache and feel tired, nervous, pressed, in such irritation. CYSTEX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in strong, acid urine and by analgesic pain relief. Get CYSTEX at druggists. Feel better fast.

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH

Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. PASTEETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get PASTEETH today at drug counters everywhere.

Tense Nerves Block Bowels

New laxative acts on colonic muscles...de-constipates overnight.

The muscular wall of your colon contains nerves known to medicine as Auerbach's Plexus. In regular people, these nerves tell the colon muscles to propel and expel waste from the body. But tense nerves or emotional upset can block your normal bowel habits. Your colon muscle impulses are no longer strong enough to eliminate waste—which dries and shrivels, further aggravating the condition.

The most effective relief, many doctors say, comes from a bulking action combined with a colonic nerve stimulating action. Of all leading laxatives only a new tablet called Colonain gives you this special combination for 3-way overnight relief:

(1) Colonain stimulates colonic nerve network to further activate and regularize its muscular "movement". (2) Colonain's unique re-bulking action helps re-tone tense colon muscles. (3) Colonain moisturizes for easy passage without pain or strain.

Colonain even relieves chronic constipation overnight; yet it is clinically-proved gentle even for expectant mothers. Get COLONAIN today. INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢.

Declo Holds Farm Parley

DECLO, March 4 — A meeting was held at the Declo grade school to familiarize farmers with the program offered in the 1964 wheat referendum.

The meeting was sponsored by the local agricultural stabilization and conservation committee in conjunction with the Idaho Wheat Growers association and the Cassia county Grange.

Glen Jensen, local ASC agent, said a yes vote on the referendum would put into operation a two-price certificate plan on wheat with penalties for exceeding the acreage allotment and with a no vote price support would be about $1.18 per bushel in Cassia county.

Jensen explained that polling places will be set up throughout Cassia county in May for the national vote with a two-thirds majority required to put the referendum into effect.

He said the 1964 wheat referendum was incorporated by congress in the agricultural act of 1962.

Feed and Grain Association to Sponsor Seminar

BOISE, March 4 (Special) — The Idaho Feed and Grain association will sponsor a business management seminar at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday and Wednesday at the Downtowner Motel, Boise.

The agricultural division of American Cyanamid company, Princeton, N. J., will present the seminar and will be conducted by Roy A. Marriott, manager of sales training, John W. Nuffort, manager of credit and collections, will act as the director of the seminar.

Tuesday sessions will concern analyzing profit and loss statements, budgets, balance sheets, the control of expenses and inventory control, pricing, credit and collections.

Wednesday sessions will concern sales and selling, which includes recruiting, hiring and training of salesmen, analysis and establishing territories, managing for profit and planning for expansion.

News Around Idaho

BOISE, March 4 (AP)—Today is Idaho's 100th birthday. It was on the morning of March 4, 1863, just 100 years ago, that President Lincoln signed into law the act of congress which established Idaho. That law, known as the Idaho organic act, created the territory of Idaho and provided a temporary government for it. Idaho continued to function under that territorial organic act until 1890, when congress admitted Idaho to the union with a permanent state government under a new constitution.

BOISE, March 4 (AP)—Plans are under way to build trails in some 50 Panhandle lakes, some of which already are stocked with fish, Idaho Fish and Game Department Director John R. Woodworth said accelerated public works funds will be used. The department has been advised that $35,692 is available for north Idaho, he said. This will be matched by equal monies from state fish and game department funds, making the total amount $71,384.

By The Associated Press

Offbeat week-end accidents left three people dead today. An 18-month-old girl was scalded to death and two Fort Hall Indians died from drinking a commercial cleaning solvent. The girl, Misty Lee Godfrey, daughter of Carl L. and Janice Elaine Godfrey of Pocatello, turned on the hot water while being bathed. Officers identified the victims of the drinking bout as Mrs. Reeta Pocengerah and Corbin Besto, both 35, of the Fort Hall Indian reservation. The cleaning solvent contained methy alcohol.

MOUNTAIN HOME, March 4 (AP)—An invitation for bids for an estimated $200,000 family housing modification program at Mountain Home air force base was announced today by Arne L. Asleson, base contracting officer. The project consists of modifying 30 base four-plex housing units built in 1944. The reconstruction will change the 120 two-bedroom apartments into 60 four-bedroom units.

BLACKFOOT, March 4 (AP)—Mrs. Dorothy Trout Jones, an Aberdeen housewife and mother of three children was shot and killed Saturday night with a 30-30 rifle, and her husband, Sterling Jones, is being held in the Bingham county jail, Carl Staley, Bingham county coroner said that she apparently was killed instantly by a single shot that struck her in the back. Staley said the shooting occurred shortly after Jones returned to the family home about 8:30 p.m. An argument started between Jones and Mrs. Jones, who had expected her husband home earlier to stay with the children before she left for work at a potato processing plant near Aberdeen.

POCATELLO, March 4 (AP)—It appears that the residents of Pocatello may have some help in making up their minds on a flood prevention bond issue later this month. Some 75 Bannock county residents, most badly hurt by two floods within a year, were urged at a meeting here Sunday night to work toward passage of the bond issue. A meeting was to be set up today between the residents, who mostly live out of the city of Pocatello, and the Pocatello city commission. These residents will have no voice in the upcoming bond election, but expressed concern about future floods if the bond issue fails to pass.

BOISE, March 4 (AP)—Idaho teachers have voted not to refuse to contract their services for next school year, but leaders said many of the state's best teachers are already making arrangements with recruiters from other states. The Idaho Education association's policies committee said the margin was close with 46.4 per cent voting for the proposal and 53.6 per cent either voting against it or not voting. Boise teachers announced they had refused to participate in the referendum and would not accept the results.

Service Held for Leslie D. Sidwell

JEROME, March 4—Funeral services for Leslie Delown Sidwell were held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Wiley funeral chapel with Bishop Herrick Drake officiating.

Invocation was given by Artie Barker. Forrest Dixon was speaker. Mrs. Thora Gough was pianist. A duet was sung by Juanita Rigby and Iona Tranmer.

Honorary pallbearers were Bryan Henry, Max Toupin, W. H. Sanders, James Rowbottom, William Armga and W. W. Meiseel.

Active pallbearers were Luther Padgett, H. Z. Downing, William Hayhurst, S. S. Robbins, David Fulkerson and Walter Terry.

Military rites at the Jerome cemetery were conducted by Jerome post No. 46, American Legion. Flowers were under care of the Jerome second ward Relief society.

Victor T. Wood Honored at Rites

JEROME, March 4 — Funeral services for Victor Truman Wood were held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Wiley funeral chapel with the Rev. Joseph Wood officiating.

Keith Johansen was soloist and Mrs. Donald Jacobson was pianist.

Pallbearers were John Halverson, Ed Halverson, Weldon Ellis, Roy Halverson, Fred Webster and Tom Prescott.

EARNS AWARD

EDEN, March 4 — Jeffrey R. Ballentine received his eagle Scout award at a court of honor Saturday night at the Pasadena State Center, Pasadena, Calif. Jeffrey, 13, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Atkinson, Twin Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. August Bremers, Eden.

Fairfield Plans Oyster Supper

WENDELL, March 4—An Oyster supper will be served at Fairfield March 23 with Wendell Odd Fellows and their wives as guests, it was reported at a meeting of IOOF lodge No. 131 Thursday night by Walter Stockham, noble grand.

The Wendell lodge will be guests at the event because members made the largest membership gain in the district during the past year. Lodge members from throughout the district are invited and those attending are to furnish their own table service.

Annual party honoring the district deputy grand master and the deputy presidents is planned April 6 at the Hagerman IOOF hall. All Rebekahs are invited and refreshments will be potluck.

Elmer Jordan and M. A. McCloud served refreshments at the Wendell lodge meeting.

TRAINS IN ISLANDS

HAILEY, March 4—Spec. 4/Cl Robert L. Strong, Hailey, and other members of the 25th Infantry division participated in Exercise Lava Ridge III, a combined army-air force mobility exercise in the Hawaiian islands. Specialist Strong, a radio operator in the first battle group's headquarters company of the division's 27th Infantry, is the son of Mrs. Mildred L. Coleman, Hailey.

Reunion

JEROME, March 4 — All those interested in having a 10-year reunion of the Jerome high school class of 1953 are asked to meet at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Magic Valley cafe here.

Dennis Lowe, Twin Falls, is acting chairman. Lowe said if enough turn out Tuesday a date will be set.

Elmore People Warned on Trash

GLENNS FERRY, March 4—The Elmore county sheriff's office has received complaints of persons dumping trash on land other than designated dump grounds.

The practice is contrary to state and county laws.

Bohl Bethel Is Visited by Grand Guardian

BUHL, March 4 — Mrs. Helen R. Smith, Grangeville, grand guardian, stressed "Smiles and Giving the ideals of the organization" when she spoke to members of Buhl bethel No. 21, International order of Job's Daughters, during an official visit at the Masonic temple.

A banquet was given in Mrs. Smith's honor with table decorations in a George Washington theme. Arrangements included red and blue streamers accented with large George Washington colonial hats filled with candy.

Mrs. Smith was presented a red rose corsage and a crystal vase filled with coins, which were served by members of the local bethel for her project, the Shrine's hospital for crippled children. For the occasion, Mrs. William Watt sang the grand guardian's song, "Always," accompanied by Gloria Blaisdell.

During the meeting an initiation ceremony was conducted for Janet Stahlman, Corey McMillin, Nancy Hopkins, Kathy Eastman and Kathy Talley. Carole Dickard joined by affiliation. The bethel choir sang during the ceremony.

Rosemary Barker, honored queen, welcomed guests and introduced the grand guardian, as well as Mrs. Dave Erb, guardian; John Rhoads, associate guardian; Mrs. Richard Love, guardian; Mrs. John Barker, past guardian, all of the local chapter, Jane Ann Smith, Grangeville, past associate guardian of bethel No. 26, Grangeville. Bonnie Zorbaugh received a gift for winning the guessing contest.

A tea was held following the meeting. The lace-covered reception table featured an array of white snapdragons and pussywillows flanked by lighted white tapers.

Rosemary Barker and Myla Davis presided at the coffee service. During the tea Allen Dowd and Bob Clay entertained with instrumental numbers.

The committee in charge of refreshments included Mrs. Charles Collings, chairman, assisted by Mrs. John Bybee, Mrs. Ed Thomason, Mrs. Dan Hardin, Mrs. Nadine Machacek and Mrs. John Conover.

Mrs. Smith was a guest at a luncheon at the R and R cafe attended by bethel council members. She conducted a school of instruction in the afternoon at the Masonic temple and presented each girl with a Job's Daughters memo pad.

Baby-Sitting Training Is Given at YWCA

The YWCA baby-sitting course will be offered again to junior and senior high school girls, with registration after school next Thursday at the YWCA building. The first baby sitting course just came to successful completion; 18 girls received certificates of completion at an afternoon tea event attended by mothers of the graduates. Baby sitting kits with crayons, story books, games, and toys, were displayed.

During the course the girls were addressed by Fred Higgins, Twin Falls fire department; Ernest Marlow, Twin Falls police department, and Dr. Luther Thompson, public health department. They were instructed on what to do in case of emergencies. Reading material was distributed and a test was given during the course. The girls wrote a theme on what they had learned from the course.

Following completion of the classes the girls names are listed at the YWCA office and parents may call for a qualified baby-sitter's name. The YWCA does not assume responsibility for these girls, but verifies the fact that they completed a course in baby sitting.

Girls interested in taking the next course are asked to contact the YWCA office or come to the YWCA building after school Thursday to register. A junior membership in the YWCA is required and a fee is charged for the class. In charge of the course is Mrs. Floyd Shepherd, chairman, Mrs. Ron Merkley, Billie Ann Flake, Mrs. W. J. Williams, and Mrs. John Koontz, Jr.

Food for Americans

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Eggs, now reasonably priced and in large supply, are the base of many delicious meatless main dishes. Nutritionally, the protein in eggs is similar to that in meat and poultry.

MADRAS EGG CURRY
(6 servings)

1 tablespoon instant minced onion
½ teaspoon instant minced garlic
1 tablespoon water
1 tablespoon shortening or cooking oil
2 teaspoons curry powder
1 tablespoon tomato paste
¾ cup water
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice
6 hard-cooked eggs

Soften instant minced onion and instant minced garlic in the 1 tablespoon water. Saute in shortening or cooking oil along with curry powder, 3 to 4 minutes. Add salt and lemon juice. Stir and cook until the gravy is of medium thickness, about 1 minute. Peel hard-cooked eggs, cut in half lengthwise and add. Heat. Serve with rice.

HERBED SCRAMBLED EGGS AND TUNA FISH
(6 servings)

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 cans (7 ounces each) tuna fish
8 eggs, unbeaten
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
½ teaspoon ground oregano leaves
2 teaspoons chili powder
¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs

Melt butter or margarine in a 9-inch skillet; add flaked tuna fish, eggs, salt, spices and bread crumbs. Mix well. Cook over medium heat until mixture is the consistency of soft scrambled eggs. Serve as a luncheon or supper dish with grits, or pan-fried potatoes and a vegetable salad.

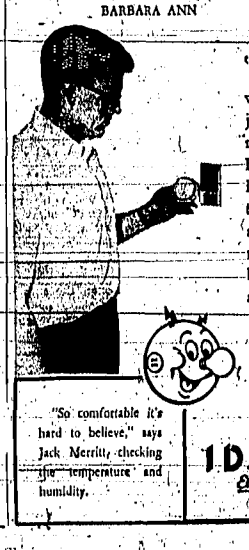
"Grown-Ups Ask the Funniest Questions"
. . . about ELECTRIC HEAT at our house.

BARBARA ANN JACKIE LYNN BRANT



"So comfortable it's hard to believe," says Jack Merritt, checking the temperature and humidity.

"FOLKS come to our house and ask wherels the furnace? Then they say it just CAN'T be in the ceiling! Heat rises, they tell us, how can you POSSIBLY keep warm? And they start peeling off their coats and sweaters just like they were going South for the winter, and make themselves comfortable. No matter what questions they ask, electric heat is great! We wouldn't swap for anything else."

Belfanz Wins Jump Title at Kiwanis Event

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., March 4 (AP)—John Balfanz, a disappointment in the North American championships a day earlier, won the 25th annual Kiwanis ski jumping tournament here Sunday, soaring 286 and 304 feet as a sun-drenched crowd of 15,000 cheered in crisp, 36-degree weather. Two falls eliminated the 22-year-old star from Minneapolis in the North American, and it was a fall Sunday on what would have been a record Pine Mountain jump that ruined the double-title hopes of the new North American champion—19-year-old Frithjof Prydz, a University of Utah sophomore from Oslo, Norway.

Prydz, lending on combined style and distance points after a first round jump of 301 feet, flew 321 feet on his second leap, but fell a few feet after landing. The Pine Mountain record is 317 feet.

Despite his fall, Prydz earned sufficient form and distance points to finish fifth in the Kiwanis.

Paul Johnson of Iron Mountain was Sunday's runner-up on jumps of 288 and 282 feet. Butch Wedin, also an Iron Mountain rider, was third with leaps of 288 and 276 feet, and Bob Keck of Oconomocow, Wis., representing the U. S. army, had jumps of 271 and 273 feet for fourth place.

Under a scoring system that gives 50 per cent weight to distance and 50 per cent to form, Balfanz had 226.6 points, compared with Prydz's 224.0 in winning the North American.

Johnson's 210.2 points made him Sunday's runner-up. Wedin had 209.3, Keck 99.3 and Prydz 198.3.

Gene Kotlarek of Duluth, Minn. who set an American record of 322 feet last month and was runner-up to Prydz for the North American championship, finished 19th in the Kiwanis Invitational. Although he had Sunday's longest jump of 316 feet, Kotlarek wobbled 241 feet on his first leap and dropped his hands in what judges finally ruled a fall.

Bowler, 46, Wins Fourth With 1,888

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 4 (AP)—Sam Coleman, 46-year-old bowling alley owner from Cincinnati, took fourth place in classic division all-events at the American Bowling Congress tournament Sunday with a nine-game total of 1,888.

He shot 625 in the team event Saturday night and come back Sunday with 647 in the doubles and 616 in the singles. He was far off the leading score, 1,925, set by Joe Joseph of Detroit on Tuesday.

Ed Herr and Joe Pilyo, Toledo, O., tied Jim Lewis and John Germann, of Albany, N. Y., for third place in the classic doubles at 1,254.

Joseph and Bill Golembiewski of Detroit continued to lead the professional doubles standings with the 1,378 they shot Tuesday.

Rookie Belts In Four Runs As Colts Play

APACHE JUNCTION, Ariz., March 4 (AP)—Rookie Charley Harrison, a former fullback for the Texas Tech Red Raiders, drove in four runs in his first day at the plate Sunday during a Houston-Colt intrasquad game.

Harrison, a powerful 5-foot, 10-inch, 195-pound first baseman, had two singles, a double and a homerun for the Colt youngsters in a losing struggle.

They dropped a tight, 9-8 contest with Colt veterans in a 12-inning game called by manager Harry Craft.

Ernie Fazio, a $75,000 bonus infielder who saw limited service with the team last year, added a two-run homer for the losers.

Cousy Plays His Last Pro Game Sunday

NEW YORK, March 4 (AP)—Bob Cousy, a product of the backboards of New York, played his last basketball game in Madison Square Garden Sunday afternoon on a court pitched over the ice hockey rink. It took him a while to thaw out.

When he did he pitched in two one-handers in a row and then passed off for two more baskets in an eight-point third quarter splurge that lost the game for the Boston Celtics.

They wound up 102-95 winners over the New York Knicks.

A crowd of 14,195—astounding for the last place Knicks—turned out to watch Cousy's farewell performance. Because the New York Rangers had a Sunday night game, the hockey ice already was frozen and the basketball court was spread over it.

Unfortunately, it was one of those dreary late-season NBA games. The Celtics had pinched first; the Knicks last, in the eastern division.

"It was a sloppy game," Cousy said. "It's that time of year, everybody's dragging. Maybe, if the game had meant something . . ."

Before the game there were speeches and awards for the man who is probably the most exciting basketball player who ever lived, and who is leaving the National Basketball association after 13 seasons to coach Boston college.

Dutch Skater Wins Second World Title

CORTINA, Italy, March 4 (AP)—Dutch skater Sjoukje Dijkstra, armed with her second world title, looked forward today to one more figure-skating world to conquer.

The 21year-old blond retained her ladies' singles crown Sunday in the closing event of the four-day 1963 World Figure Skating championships.

Miss Dijkstra completely outclassed a field of 24, sweeping both the compulsory school figures and free style skating. She was the unanimous first-place choice of all nine judges.

Aussies Sweep Tennis Matches

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 4 (AP)—Australians swept both the men's and women's championships of the Good Neighbor tennis tournament, third event on the winter circuit.

Roy Emerson, world's top amateur, knocked out the first two winter tournaments in New York and Tampa, defeated Manuel Santana of Spain 6-4, 6-0, 6-2 in the men's finals Sunday.

Lesley Turner upset Darlene Hard, Long Beach, Calif., top U.S. woman amateur, 6-0, 7-5.

Big 8 Tightens Rule on Transfer

KANSAS CITY, March 4 (AP)—An athlete who transfers to a Big Eight conference school from any four-year college will lose one year's eligibility under a new rule.

The old rule provided that an athlete lost a year's eligibility when he transferred from one Big Eight school to another in that conference.

Conference faculty athletic representatives approved the new rule, to take effect next Jan. 1. The rule also provides that eligibility will be forfeited if he merely attended classes and regardless of whether the athlete took part in freshman or varsity sports at the original school.

USC Net Stars Win in Doubles

LA JOLLA, Calif., March 4 (AP)—Top-seeded Rafael Osuna and Dennis Ralston, University of Southern California teammates, won the Pacific Coast sectional men's tennis doubles championship Sunday.

They defeated Bill Bond and Tom Elefsen 8-6, 6-4, 4-6 and 6-4. The victors also won the tourney in 1960.

Bowling Event Has Three New Leaders

IDAHO FALLS, March 4 (AP) — Three new leaders took over in the third week-end of the Idaho state men's bowling tournament at the Bowl-ero lanes here Saturday and Sunday. Pete Quayle, St. Anthony, moved into first place in the handicap singles with a 727 while last week's leader, Cecil Stanger, Twin Falls, dropped to third.

Atman Construction, Idaho Falls, took over the lead in the handicap team event, rolling a 3,098 total. James Perry Insurance company, Boise, dropped to third place, but maintained top spot in the team scratch with its record 2,984 posted last week.

B. Bailey, Pocatello, grabbed the lead in the singles scratch with a 686. That pushed the previous leader, Bob Rener, Boise, into runnerup spot.

All other leaders remained the same as the previous week-end and no new state records were posted.

The tournament has four more week-ends to run.

Here are the leaders after three weeks:

Wilt Sets Pace In Standout Play

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4 (AP)—A standout performance by Wilt Chamberlain capped a last quarter comeback as the San Francisco Warriors overcame a 13-point deficit and downed the Cincinnati Royals 123-122 in their National Basketball association game Sunday.

The victory brought San Francisco into a third place tie in the western division with the Detroit Pistons, who were defeated earlier in the day by Syracuse 127-123.

Disappointed Fans Boo Rodriguez

LOS ANGELES, March 4 (AP)—About 600 disappointed fans booed Luis Rodriguez Sunday when he took a day off from preparation for his championship fight with welterweight title-holder Emile Griffith.

The fans paid $1 apiece to see Rodriguez spar with L. C. Morgan at the downtown Alexandria hotel, where they are training. Their last three sparring bouts had been brawls.

The angry ticket-holders were pacified only after Rodriguez came down from his room, mingled with the crowd and signed autographs. He and Griffith fight March 16.

Modified Car Race Is Won By Porsche

LOS ANGELES, March 4 (AP)—Ken Miles' Porsche Spyder averaged 65.6 miles per hour around a 13-mile course to take the modified car event Sunday at Dodger stadium.

The Spyder liked the intricate course better than the bigger cars in the production car event. It was won by Dave MacDonald of El Monte, Calif., in a Shelby AC Cobra with a 54.9 miles per hour average. Both races were 15 laps.

The same drivers and same cars finished first Saturday in the 10-lap warm-ups. It was the first race meet at the stadium, which has miles of blacktop in the parking area which surrounds it. A crowd of 18,000 watched the two days' events.

McBride Shows No Pain Traces

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., March 4 (AP)—Ken McBride of the Los Angeles Angels pitched two hitless innings Sunday without a trace of the pain that knocked him out of action for the last two months of the 1962 season.

"I felt good," said the right-hander. "I don't believe the side is going to give me any more trouble."

He had pleurisy and a rib injury last year.

Rosburg Holds One-Stroke Lead Over Lema in Open

NEW ORLEANS, March 4 (AP)—Pudgy Bob Rosburg, who has had to settle for second-place five times since winning his last golf tourney, carries a one-stroke lead into today's final round of the $40,000 Greater New Orleans Open.

During the victory drought, Rosburg lost three sudden-death playoffs—the last to handsome Tony Lema, who is pressing Rosburg for the $6,400 first prize check here.

Rosburg, the ex-PGA champion from Portland, Ore., shot a 32-35—67 in Sunday's third round to equal the course record he set Friday on the water-dotted Lakewood Country club course.

Registering an 8-under-par 208 for 54 holes, Rosberg, 36, regained the lead he lost Saturday to gray-haired Bo Wininger, who's 72 dropped him to third place.

The 29-year-old Lema, who won three tournaments last fall, moved into second place with a 72-69-68—209. Wininger stood at 210.

Rosburg finished second in the New Orleans Open last year, with the happy-go-lucky Wininger picking up the championship.

"Anybody who's eight shots behind can win this tourney," was the prediction from Gary Player going into the final round. "You can make up—or lose—four strokes on one hole," said Player, whose 212—tied him with Doug Sanders for fourth place—four strokes behind Rosburg.

Wininger dropped behind Rosburg when to took a double bogey on the 17th hole after his tee plopped into a water hazard.

"I just looked up," said Wininger.

Arnold Palmer carded his par around with a 72 give him a 219 — 11 strokes off the pace.

Young Jack Nicklaus also had his best showing. He carded a 69 for a 216.

Intermountain Ski Team Named at Sun Valley for Championship Contests

SUN VALLEY, March 4 (AP)—Dale Miller, Ogden, and Karen Korfanta, Pinedale, Wyo., head a 15-member team named Sunday to represent the Intermountain Ski association in the National Junior Ski championships at Jackson Hole, Wyo. The selections were made following the ski association's giant slalom over a 47-gate course here, won by Mike Kirol of the Jackson Hole Ski club and Miss Korfanta. Kirol led the boys' expert class with a time of 1:45.4, while Miss Korfanta won the expert Girls' race in a time of 2:05.2.

Second in the boys' event was Kip Harris of the Alpine Training school, Salt Lake City, in 1:47.2, followed by Chips Barlow, Twin Falls, racing for the Sun Valley Ski club, in 1:47.4.

Behind Miss Korfanta in the girls' event were Karen Budge, Jackson Hole, 2:10.0, second; and Fea Jacobsen, Kifi Ski club, Idaho Falls, 2:11.4, third.

The intermediate boys' event was won by Pat Simpson, Ketchum, in 1:14.8. Judy Fleming, Jackson Hole, captured the intermediate girls' race in 1:34.0.

Ten skiers were named to the ISA's boys team. Besides Miller, they included Barlow; Kirol; Harris; John Miller, Alpine Training school; Pete Karns, Jackson Hole; La Grand Beinap, Alpine; Larry Ross, Snow Basin; Mike Uberuaga, Sun Valley, and Ray Miller, Snow Basin.

Named to the girls' team, besides Miss Korfanta, were Miss Jacobsen; Miss Budge; Peggy Goddard, Snow Basin, and Linda Bircher, Jackson Hole.

First alternate to the girls' team is Pam Street, Sun Valley; second is Robin Crabtree, Jackson Hole.

Officials said selections were made on the basis of points compiled in ISA sanctioned races.

32 Teams Named in NCAA Tournament

KANSAS CITY, March 4 (AP)—The NCAA completed the 32-team field for its college division basketball tournament Sunday when four teams accepted at-large invitations. Five conference champs were crowned Saturday night. The conference champions qualify automatically. At-large teams accepting invitations included Assumption, Mass., 13-4; Tennessee State, 24-3; Concordia of River Forest, Ill., 18-4, and the University of California at Santa Barbara, 15-8.

Wittenberg, 22-1, the No. 1 small college team in the Associated Press poll, won its third straight Ohio conference title. Other league champs crowned Saturday night were Hofstra, 21-4, in the Middle Atlantic States; San Francisco State, 15-11, Far Western; Winston-Salem, 21-4, Central Intercollegiate, and the defending NCAA college division champ, Mt. St. Mary's, Md., 18-10, surprise winner of the Mason-Dixon tournament.

The tournament starts with play at eight regional sites Friday and Saturday. The finals will be at Evansville, Ind., March 13-15. Pairings will be announced Tuesday.

Colorado Ski Team First In Qualifying

CRESTED BUTTE, Colo., March 4 (AP)—Colorado's evenly balanced ski team scored heavily in downhill and jumping Sunday to capture first place in regional qualifying competition for the NCAA championships March 21-23 at Solitude, Utah.

The Buffaloes finished the four-way meet with 387.4 points to 381.2 for Denver university's defending NCAA champions.

Chris Rounds, Denver, surprised with first place in the down-hill where co-favorites Bud Werner and Dave Gorsuch, Western State, finished out of the first 10.

A fierce snowstorm closed in at the time Werner and Gorsuch started their runs and visibility was almost zero. Werner spilled once on his ride, Gorsuch won the slalom Saturday.

Colorado's Earl Chandler took first place in jumping with 222.2 points to 219.7 for runnerup Erik Jantzen of Denver.

Western State placed third with 360.1 to join Colorado and Denver as the region's qualifiers for the NCAA meet.

Other team scores were Wyoming 356.8, Utah 307.7, Air Force 307.3 and Colorado College 330.5.

Idaho Sets New Trails to Lakes

BOISE, March 4 (AP)—Plans are underway to build trails to some 50 Panhandle lakes, some of which already are stocked with fish, the Idaho fish and game department announced today.

Director John H. Woodworth said accelerated public works funds will be used.

The department has been advised that $35,672 is available for north Idaho, he said. This will be matched by equal monies from state fish and game department funds, making the total amount $71,344.

The lakes are located in two national forests in the five northernmost Idaho counties and are isolated because there are no trails or directional signs to them.

Black Hawks Held to 2-2 Tie

CHICAGO, March 4 (AP)—The Chicago Black Hawks' National Hockey league lead was cut to four points last night when they played a 2-2 tie with the Montreal Canadiens.

Toronto moved to within four points by beating the Boston Bruins 6-3.

CANADIANS WIN

TORONTO, March 4 (AP)—Canada beat the United States 4-3 in the Grant Doubles Trophy match Sunday, completing a sweep of the international squash competition for the first time in history.

Justice Tops 148

PACOIMA, Calif., March 4 (AP)—John Justice, Los Angeles, batting target-bobbling winds up to 40 miles per hour, broke 50 of 100 from the 23-yard line Sunday to top 148 shooters in the Western midwinter trap tournament.

High overall for the four-day shoot was Maynard B. Henry, Los Angeles, with 690 of 750.

Arkansas Coach Asks Moratorium On Rule Change

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., March 4 (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic association's rules committee should declare a year's moratorium on putting sweeping football rules changes into effect, Arkansas coach Frank Broyles suggested last night.

The year's delay would give the coaches ample time in which to anticipate situations and aid in working out flaws, he said.

As it is, Broyles noted, confusion persists throughout the ranks of coaches and officials over special situations created by the committee's tightened substitution restrictions adopted last January for 1963.

Patterson Is Bitter Over Fear Reports

MIAMI, March 4 (AP)—Floyd Patterson said Sunday his most bitter memories from the first-round knockout by Sonny Liston were the remarks by sportswriters that he went into the ring afraid.

"I'm not afraid of any man in the world," the former heavyweight champion declared in his first news conference since his arrival in Miami to open a training camp at Tropical Park Race track.

His mental attitude has improved tremendously since he slipped out of Comiskey park in Chicago after the humiliating title loss to Liston last Sept. 25, wearing a false beard, so no one would recognize him, Patterson said.

"I've gotten over the depression," he said, "and I've picked up some confidence. I don't know what good it will do me but I've got it. I feel that my chances are fairly good this time."

Patterson weighs 198 and said he feels good. He has been training since six weeks after the Liston fight. He has no special desire to trim off any poundage.

"If the weight stays, it stays," he said. "It all depends on how I feel. If I feel content, it's enough for me."

Liston says he will again knock out Patterson in the first round.

"How do you feel when predictions don't come true?" Patterson asked.

He added with a grin: "I guess if I stay past the first round I'll get tremendous applause."

Red Wings Edge Rangers by 3-2

NEW YORK, March 4 (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings withstood a late New York rally and edged the Rangers 3-2 in a National Hockey league game last night, mathematically eliminating the Stanley cup playoffs Rangers from the four-team.

New York trails the fourth-place Wings by 18 points and has only eight games left to play. A year ago it was the Rangers who knocked Detroit out of a playoff.

Green Signs

ORLANDO, March 4 (AP)—Outfielder Lenny Green ended his holdout Sunday and came to terms with the Minnesota Twins for an estimated $22,000.

Green had been seeking $23,000. He received an estimated $18,000 last year.

Only one Minnesota regular is missing from spring camp now, pitcher Joe Bonikowski, who is expected to be discharged from the army this week.

L.A. Pro Is Puerto Rico Open Winner

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, March 4 (AP)—Charlie Sifford, a cigar-smoking pro from Los Angeles, shot a 3-under-par 68 Sunday and won the Puerto Rico open golf tournament with a 72-hole total of 277.

The 39-year-old Negro, who had never before won a PGA-sanctioned 72-hole tourney, was six strokes up on Toronto's George Knudson and collected $1,200 for his victory in the fourth stop on the Caribbean tour.

Sifford's only previous victory in a PGA-sponsored tourney was in the Long Beach Open in 1957.

Sifford had only a one-stroke lead over Knudson and Manuel de la Torre of Milwaukee going into the final round, but Knudson blew to a 73 for 283 while de la Torre went to a 75 and third place at 285.

Sifford's 68 was the best round of the day.

100-Mile Car Race Won by Tucson Man

CONCORD, N.C., March 4 (AP)—Bill Cheesbourg, Tucson, Ariz., powered his 1962 Ford to victory before 7,000 here Sunday in a 100-mile late model stock car race for United States Auto club drivers.

Cheesbourg took over on the 127th lap after Curtis Turner, Roanoke, Va., leading by nearly a lap, lost a rear wheel. Cheesbourg, who was the only driver in the same lap with Turner, finished three laps ahead of Don White's 1963 Ford nine miles ahead of Elmer Musgraves in a 1963 Mercury.

Others in the order of finish were Neil Castles, 1960 Ford; Ken Finley, 1963 Pontiac; Ed Blanton, 1961 Plymouth; Turner, Eddie Sachs, 1963 Ford; Paul Goldsmith, 1963 Pontiac; and Tim Flock, 1960 Ford.

JOCKEY WINS AGAIN

PHOENIX, March 4 (AP)—For the second consecutive year jockey Dean Hall rode The Rage to victory in the Phoenix Gold Cup at Turf Paradise Sunday.

CALIFORNIANS WIN

CORVALLIS, Ore., March 4 (AP)—California dogs won most of the honors Sunday at the close of the three-day Western open championship field trials of the Weimaraner Club of America, held at nearby Camp Adair. Grand champion, in a field of 30, was Whidbey's Baron, owned by Adelaide Davis, San Diego, and handled by Stan Head.

MARKETS AND FINANCE

Stocks

NEW YORK, March 4 (AP) — Stocks rallied out of their slump today in full-fledged rally, led by steels by rails, pushed the market higher.

The gains in the rails followed a supreme court decision upholding the carriers' move to halt featherbedding. More than a dozen issues in this section reached new highs in the session, led by Santa Fe, up 2 points at a point or more, Louisville, Nashville, Atlantic Coast Line, Baltimore and Ohio, New York Central, Great Northern, York Central, Great Northern, Pennsylvania Railroad and Northern Pacific were standouts.

Steels also performed well, responding to news that U.S. Steel has completed a plant idle since last November and is picking up in demand. Inland, Jones and Laughlin and Youngstown Sheet were features.

Autos also moved higher on news that the continued high rate of auto assemblies pointed to the third best quarter on record. Chrysler performed particularly well.

Eastman Kodak and Procter and Gamble were outstanding in the blue chips.

Drugs were also higher featuring Sterling, Smith Kline and French, Pfizer, Richardson-Merrell, Merck, Carter Products and Bristol-Myers. Corp. Edison and Bristol-Myers were higher in the utilities but Houston Lighting faded.

Xerox was up sharply on a prediction its 1963 sales will rise over 20 per cent. RCA moved higher on record 1962 sales and earnings and a dividend boost. Segrave rose 2086 after paying its first cash dividend since December 1958. Cook Cola was higher on record sales and earnings and a dividend boost. General Aniline and Film, Transportation Corp. and Sharp and Dohme rose on sharply up earnings and Bendix advanced after reaching a "preliminary understanding" for the sale of its computer division to control Data corporation.
