UNEMPLOYMENT MAJOR PROBLEM LEWIS DECLARES

Economic Situation Will Test President Hoover in March
According to the Illinois Senator-Elect in Statement

Editor's Note: Following is an exclusive interview with Senator-elect James Hamilton Lewis, famous Democratic statesman who was elected last week to the United States Senate.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10 (UPI)—President Hoover's strength as an economic leader will be tested by the first session of congress next March to meet the crisis created by unemployment. Senator-elect James Hamilton Lewis declared today in a United Press interview.

"The nation has met with an emergency which will demand that congress convene next March again," he said. "The recent Democratic campaign showed that at that time the President must show whether he has acted wisely to bring relief to the unemployed."

Issue of Warning

"My warning to the Republican party is contained in a line from Shakespear's Julius Caesar—'Be ware the Ides of March.'

Banked among the rest of his party's greatest leaders, Lewis already has been advised to take a stand on a proposal for vice-presidential election in 1932 election with Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York as a running mate.

The speaker of the House, from the speaking campaign through which he defeated two women opponents, was eager to talk of the nation's problems, but the nation's enthusiasm interested him more than his affairs, his associates say, has been dominant in his character through 40 years of participation in politics.

Two great questions arose in the campaign: Prohibition?

and unemployment? "Prohibition went well,"

Emergency Paramount

"The emergency created by unemployment will be paramount before congress. Mr. Hoover must demonstrate whether he has done his duty, between now and that time.

"Strictly interpreted, the constitution provides that only in times of war can the national emergency be declared without the consent of congress. But what would happen if we were to make appropriations for public works during a peace?"

"That would be a constitutional crisis, between now and that time.

"It is understood that a bill will be introduced in congress to amend the constitution prohibiting the sale of alcohol in Great Britain. British believe that such a bill would be passed quickly."

Mr. Adams' MAN ADMITS

DALTON, O. Z., Nov. 10 (UPI)—A passenger listed as Betty Adams, 25, British subject, came to Cleveland yesterday and said, for Havana, last night, under the name of "Betty Adams." Miss Adams, Alphonse McPherson,

FILER ROBBERS' CAR DISCOVERED

Machine in Which Bank Bandits Escaped Is Located Northeast of Montello, Nev.

The search for the four bandits who last night escaped unbound from the First National Bank at Filer, in a bold daylight holdup, turned up no trace of the robbers, though a frantic search of the town and surrounding country found no sign of them.

According to the telegram received, the car was found north of Montello. Action on the support of the bandits was taken by Sheriff E. P. Prater, who dispatched four deputies to Montello to aid in the search.

A reward of $1000 will be offered for apprehension and conviction of bandits robbing any bank in the state.

It was decided at a meeting of the Idaho Bankers' Association of this district, held Saturday night, that the route taken each of the 25 banks in this territory.

NORTHWESTERN AND MICHIGAN LEAD 'BIG TEN'

Intersectional Games Saturday
Establish Supremacy of the Middle West; Important
Struggles Set for This Week

CHICAGO, Nov. 10 (UPI)—Wisconsin and Minnesota held the key positions today as Big Ten teams turned their attention from inter-sectional competition to the first of the 1930 conference championships.

With last week's ten invasion established, the Big Ten teams have turned their attention to the first of the fall games, with Notre Dame and Northwestern holding the feature role because their national championship meetings.

Big Ten teams have two weeks of competition remaining and with three games still in the running for honor, the Big Ten schedule may not be decided until the final game is played—if ever.

Northwestern, now seven favorite already, scored its second victory in its third Big Ten contest, with Wisconsin Friday will be assured of at least a tie for the title. The Wildcats are strong favorites over Wisconsin and expect to win the title again with Notre Dame, November 22, as contender for the mythical national championship.

Michigan, the other undefeated conference team, risks its championship chances this week against a rapidly improving Minnesota club. If the Wolverines pass this test successfully, they will have little trouble in their finale with Chicago, November 22, and will be expected to complete the season with a record of five victories and no defeats.

Purdue, third contender for honors, cannot take the crown unless Northwestern and Michigan are defeated.

UTAH FAVERED IN COLORADO CLASH

BALTIMORE, Oct. 10 (UPI)—The week of the "big game" between the Rocky Mountain conference between the University of Utah and the University of Colorado arrived yesterday, but the most uncertain point about it was the weather.

One thing was pretty definite, however. It was agreed the game will be well attended and draw perhaps the biggest crowd ever to behold in the history of the city.

The rival teams turned in rather impressive scores against their last opponents, but the Colorado Indians put their full power down in defense and fighting Coloradans 41 to 6, marking the third Colorado game of the season given a sound trouncing by the Indians.

Colorado University showed for the first time Saturday that it has a punishing attack. This confused the Silver and Gold's usually excellent defense and caused the Colorado Teachers 27 to 7.

All scores and comparisons aside, however, Utah rates an overwhelming favorite mark in the much more impressive visitors' Colorado. It is pointed for this game and hopes to at least keep the score in respectable limits.

Walker and Schmeling

Your old pal, Power-gardener Jack Kearny, has set himself up in business in Chicago. The champion has madly invested.

The other day the halls brought a gaudy lithographed envelope containing a check for $10,000.

"Affect," Walker and Max Schmeling, for the heavyweight championship of the world, in Chicago, Oct. 13.

So there it is! Well, let's open the envelope and see what we shall see. There are four copies of Langford, Young, Ryman, Bob Fitzsimmons, etc., and a copy of the "Sportswriter" magazine.

Walker and Schmeling, from St. Louis, Stanley Ketchel, Philadelphia, etc., are all there.

It is a good idea to have the champion thus honored are those of Charlie Mitchell, Joe Walcott, Sam Langford, etc.

THE LARGEST CAR IN HISTORY. Carrying a fifteen piece orchestra, the world's largest automobile has come to the Studebaker proving grounds, near South Bend, Ind. It is four and one-half times as long as an ordinary sedan, weighs five and one-half tons. An ordinary roadster can be hidden under its hood, while a tall man can stand upright under its fenders. The mammoth was built for the movies.

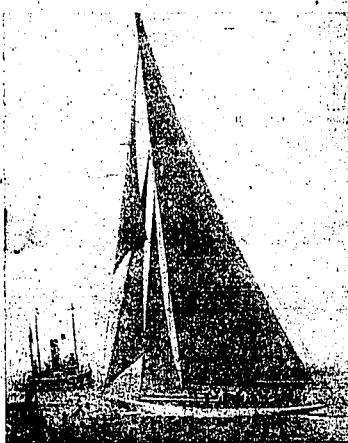

MOST DECORATED VETERAN: Mel Louis Lovrich, totally blind Jugo-Slav veteran with 16 decorations a delegate to FDAC convention in Washington, D. C.

"BLACK JACK" CELEBRATES 70TH BIRTHDAY. General John J. Pershing shown surrounded by tribal robes in his office at the War Department, Washington, D. C., on the occasion of his 70th birthday. The robes were sent to him by Indians from all parts of the country.

ENTERPRISE, DEFEATS SHAMROCK V. FOR CUP. The America's Cup is still sailing in America. The swift defender, Enterprise, is shown crossing the finish line a quarter of a mile ahead of the challenger, Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock V. in the first race for the Cup. The American boat shows greater speed throughout the series and under the skilful handling of its skipper, Harold S. Vanderbilt, who out-maneuvered the challenger.

Comfort Sets Dixie Style

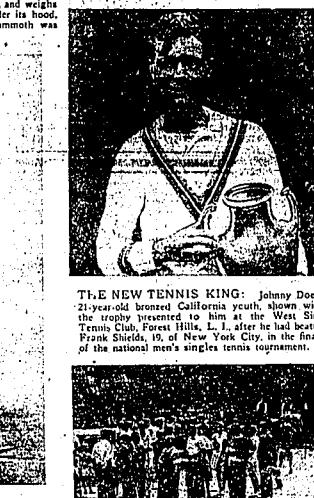

First it was the "pyjama" craze and then the "shorts," and now the short pants idea has invaded the ranks of football, with a vengeance. These fellows, who will often play in the North Carolina-Wake Forest football game at Chapel Hill, N. C., recently, took to their "shorts" for protection against the heat. The men are, left to right: Brewer (Maryland) head linesman; Biles (Switzerland) umpire; Shuler (Princetonian College) field judge; Springer (Pennsylvania) referee.

Where Hoover's Son Will Recuperate

Herbert Hoover, Jr., suffering from a tubercular infection, has selected the residence pictured above, the Sunbelt Mountain Inn, near Asheboro, N. C., for his recuperation. The eight-room and two-bath "cottage," which cost $10,000, was built 20 years ago and five years later was leased to William Jennings Bryan, who used it annually for two summer seasons. The estate, at an altitude of more than 2,500 feet, overlooks the city of Asheboro. It now is being put in order for the arrival early in November of the President's son and Mrs. Herbert Hoover.

The strikers, who include 150 girls, are seeking shorter hours. Picture shows a small group of the faithful who refused to go on strike.

THE FIRM OF EARNSHAW, EARNSHAW & EARNSHAW

Here are three of the members of the firm of Earnshaw, Earnshaw & Earnshaw of Philadelphia and Swarthmore, Pa. George Earnshaw, social registerite of Swarthmore (they call him "the Big Moose" in the Athletico's dugout), is the senior partner. George, Jr., who is 7 years old, is another member of the firm and Billy Barbare, 2, is the junior partner. The big Philadelphia pitcher spends his winters in a bungalow in the mountains of Mexico, where he is said to be a favorite with the local Indians. When the pictures above were taken, Mrs. Earnshaw, who also is an influential member of the firm, was not at home. George is shown at the piano, with his children, and taking a practice swing for camera purposes.

The two are shown chatting while the plane is refueled for a hop from New York to Buffalo.

CONGRESSMAN SMITH
CONGRESSMAN Addison T. Smith leaves Twin Falls today to return to Washington, D. C., secure in the knowledge that for the tenth consecutive time he has been elected representative from the second Idaho district.

He will carry with him the ardent wish of his constituency for success in his work for Idaho. Congressman Smith has become somewhat of a tradition in these parts. He has distinguished himself as a courteous, conscientious congressman, and Twin Falls has been honored all these years by providing an official who apparently has not the approval of the majority of voters in the other counties of the district.

On account of Senator Borah's interests lying more to foreign governmental affairs than to purely local topics in Idaho, Congressman Smith's sphere has been more particularly that of administering the affairs of his district than is ordinarily the case with a typical congressman.

A consistent Republican, Congressman Smith is a strong supporter of the administration and an advocate of many policies opposed by the senior senator, incongruous as this may seem, in the light of the support they receive from the same political elements.

It is wondered by some why Mr. Smith never has aspired to the United States senatorship. His friends reply that he prefers to be congressman, retaining his seniority in that body and in committees of which he is chairman of two important ones.

The congress to which he has just been elected does not open until one year hence—December 1, 1931, indicating that he has a tenure on his present post until March 4, 1933.

To this distinguished fellowtownsman—the only Twin Fallian and one of the few Idahoans to be included in Who's Who in America—and to Mrs. Smith, this community wishes them health and continued strength and happiness during their residence in the nation's capitol.

JOIN NOW

IT IS almost an axiom to say "Join the Red Cross." This section, familiar as it is with the history, work, influence and high civic character of the American Red Cross, may be expected to maintain its record as a supporter of this great national humanitarian institution.

Few organizations are so cosmopolitan in its membership, and few offer such an easy avenue to satisfy that impulse to take part in constructive charity as does this noble organization of men, women and children throughout the land.

Constantly ready to perform its myriad of ministrations locally as well as nationally the American Red Cross is deserving of support and encouragement from every citizen in this community.

The roll call opens Tuesday!

If it could be done without annoying the senior United States senator from Idaho, someone should inform him that during his trip to the middlewest last week and the week before, an election was held in this state, at which time he was elected as a Republican to serve six more years in Congress. Incidentally, during the hurried trip Mr. Borah made to assist his friend Senator Norris, his own party's candidate for governor was being defeated in Idaho. One of the chief disappointments of the campaign was Borah's absence from the Idaho campaign platform.

Just because there was an election last week is no reason to believe such events are things of the past. In December comes the American Falls Reservoir district voting; the annual Twin Falls canal company election is in January, while the city must go through a similar ordeal in the spring, tra la!

The Wildcat-Bruin gridiron battle at the fairgrounds Tuesday, promises to be all its name implies. Coaches Jones and Power are to be congratulated on having developed teams of calibre sufficient to make such an interesting contest possible between neighboring schools. May the best team win!

It is reassuring to learn that by virtue of the re-election of Twin Falls county's delegation to the state legislature that this arm of the state government will now be able to competently organize itself and to successfully function!

If Alworth had been elected congressman, the Democrats would be in control of the national house of representatives, believe it or not.

Fire Damaged Docks and Shipping at Providence

The spectacular fire which engulfed a coal company's wharf near the mouth of the Columbia River at Providence, Oregon, last night, did not damage any of the shipping, but it did burn up a number of small boats and damaged a number of docks.

It is believed that the fire originated in a small boat which had been moored to the wharf.

The fire was discovered about 10 o'clock last night.

The fire was extinguished at 11 o'clock.

INTEREST SHOWN IN BASKETBALL

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

PENNSYLVANIA, Nov. 10 (Special)—Superintendent H. F. Willmott who will coach girls' basket ball this year called the high school girls together for their first practice Monday evening. They expect to practice three times a week during the month of November. Much enthusiasm is being displayed by the girls and it is expected that Shoshone's high school will have a fine team worked up by the time the season opens.
