FRANCE BUILDS TO WIN HONORS IN AIR REALM

Distance Planes Are Being Assembled Behind Closed Doors; Two Crafts Are Under Construction at the Present

By RALPH HEINZEN

United Press Staff Correspondent
PARIS, (UPI)—France's welcome to the world's greatest aviation show, the Paris-Madrid race, is being held in the air. The French Ministry of Air has announced that it will make France complete master of the air for 1981.

Two planes already are under construction, one of them destined for the coast and the other probably for the interior. They are the first of a series of aircraft that the French Ministry of Air has ordered to be built in France.

The Ministry of Air has ordered that these distance planes be built in France. One motor company, much less than the Air Ministry, has decided to sacrifice safety factors for fuel.

The planes are being built in secrecy and, in fact, were involved in a crash. The other plane, built up in the hope to link Paris with Tokyo in one flight, has not yet been built.

One of the planes is being built in the largest plant, to be fitted with a Hispano motor. The other is a smaller, competition in the market.

The Ministry of Air does not believe either of the great planes will be ready for actual record attempts. It has ordered the construction of a third plane, a smaller one, to be built in France.

At the same time, the ministry has ordered a series of airplanes for South Atlantic flights, and ordered that what was known as the "fastest airplane" be built in France.

Mr. Ames also has ordered a series of airplanes for South Atlantic flights, and ordered that what was known as the "fastest airplane" be built in France.

Liquor Blamed FOR 2 DEATHS

Holiday booze held guilty of killing John Mier, Halley, and Ellis Newby, Richfield.

SHOSHONE, December 1 (Special)—Incidents subsequent to a Thanksgiving are drinking which resulted in the deaths of John Mier, 20, Halley, and Ellis Newby, 19, Richfield, continued to afflict Lincoln county officers Sunday.

Mier and Newby died from the effects of moonshine moonshine, it is alleged. The sudden disappearance Sunday of Victor Sanderson, 25, Richfield, from the Shoshone hospital added "continues to the situation."

Sanderson, who was in a serious condition alleged to have been the result of moonshine liquor, mysteriously disappeared Sunday. According to the Shoshone hospital, Sanderson had been blind from the effects of the liquor, and his lower limbs had become paralyzed.

Through the Lincoln county sheriff's office the police officers of southern Idaho were notified to assist in the search for Sanderson.

Import into the case, according to Dr. C. W. Day, Lincoln county coroner, is dependent upon the result of tests of samples of the liquor sent to the Idaho state chemist's laboratories at Boise following post mortem examinations.

Chemist reports were expected to be received late Monday afternoon or Tuesday morning. Dr. H. H. Jones, Richfield, who is conducting the inquiry, if deemed necessary, would probably be held Tuesday.

Gerald Stump, Richfield, is being held in the county jail on suspicion, pending investigation to determine whether he and Sanderson had any knowledge of or connection with the sale of the liquor which is alleged to have caused the death of Mier and Newby.

Mier and Newby purchased a pint of moonshine whiskey and drank it Wednesday night, and (Tuesday) morning, he became suffering intensely. Newby died Thanksgiving night, at Richfield, and Mier died Friday at the Shoshone hospital.

Mier is survived by his widow Newby was not married.

Police on Search for Remains of Order of Bank Looting Gang
Following Killing of Frank
E. Smith on Sunday Night

OAKLAND, Cal., Dec. 1, (UP)—Authorities today started a nationwide search for four members of the gang of Frank E. Smith, a recently executed leader in a nationwide series of train and bank robberies in California, who was shot to death last night in downtown Oakland when he tried to break free of investigating officers.

In the hope of finding his accomplices and the additional suspects in completing the loot, federal, state and county officials prepared a question Smith's homicide wife, Elizabeth Smith.

The young woman went into the north end declaring, "they'll get nothing out of me."

Though cold and calm when contemplating her encounter with officers, she was all the more bitter a girl was at the police. She had several times when reminded of her dead husband.

The $200.00 lost was "believe" cashed in several Oakland safe deposit boxes. At least four keys to such repositories found in Smith's possession.

A quantity of narcotics was also found, indicating that Smith was an addict, as police deprecate robber would trouble with the risky sideline of attempting to traffic in the stuff.

Identification of Smith as the leader of the recent $56,000 Southern Pacific holdup at Nobe was said to have been complete.

Smith was shot and killed at 3:55 Sunday evening as he was being taken to Oakland postoffice building for questioning.

"Get up," said "Doc" to the man, "Gentle."

What's the crewwork about, Sheriff?

He did not answer. His business soon was to get to the scene of action, as soon as possible.

GANG BULLETS NOW DOWN 35 IN NEW YORK

Reign of Terror Averages
Three Shootings a Day;
Deaths Thought to Have Been of Gangster Origin

NEW YORK, (UPI)—Thirty-five persons, most of them believed to be gangsters, were killed and 251 wounded in the month following the shooting of Jack (Lugs) Diamond in the Monticello Hotel on October 12.

In the so-called "reign of terror" an average of three persons a day were cut down by gunfire. At least 19 of these shootings were committed by racketeering gangs, and not one of whom was arrested.

Many others killed under "cause unknown," are thought by the police to be of gangster origin.

William Lewis Dutcher, chairman of the Police Department Advisory Committee on Crime Prevention and member of the State Crime Commission, and Dr. Harry Shulman, director of research for the Crime Commission, have called in urging that the district attorneys of the five counties in the city consider the advisability of John Doe law suits into the racketeering situation.

Dutcher and Shulman feel that the police are helpless through the determination of gangsters to settle their difficulties in their own way.

They cited, as an argument for John Doe inquiries, the success of Ruyforn Court in New York in driving building trades racketeers out of the Bronx when he was district attorney there a year ago.

These above figures do not include shootings in Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester counties near New York. Many of these are thought by the police to be directly traceable to local racketeers.

SOVIET ATTORNEY WINS CONFESSION

MOSEKOW, Dec. 1 (UPI)—Admission at what amounted to a military and economic espionage in Russia in behalf of foreigners was made today by a defendant in the trial of counter-revolutionaries charged with plotting an intervention war.

The admission followed a relentless attack by Nicholas Krennikov, the vigorous state prosecutor, vice president of the industrial section of the supreme council of national economy.

"Yes, I was in charge of information about available materials in the state planning commission, including war materials," the defendant, finally admitted. "I regularly transmitted this information to the central committee in the conspiracy and it was sent on to Paris for the foreign troops of the Bolsheviks."

Charmovsky's testimony revealed that the office of the supreme council of national economy and the state planning commission frequently were used as meeting places for leaders of the anti-Bolshevik plot.

As one of those meeting Krennikov—who died after his arrest—the plotter when he returned from Paris in 1927 and reported that he had conferred with French authorities.

"Intervention is a definite fact," Krennikov said, according to Charmovsky. The group was entirely convinced the Soviets must fall and they did their utmost to hasten the fall.

"WAR NURSES" TO CONQUER
TUESDAY AT LION THEATRE
Realistically drawn and embellished with splendid characterization, "War Nurses" which opened yesterday at the Lido theatre, offers a most entertaining and a unique and absorbing type of play.

The part played by women in the world war, heroic girls who faced death with the same staunchness as the bravest soldiers, is dramatically presented and through the entire drama runs a romance, doubly appealing because of the chaotic circumstances under which they exist.

The drama opens in a base hospital being hastily constructed behind the front line trenches. Many of the young nurses who had joined the service for the thrill offered, are just beginning to experience the nervous tension, the exhausting hours of service in day and night, and the constant threat to life as an uncertainty for them as for the men in the trenches. Anna Page is convincingly cast as "Joy," a pleasure-loving girl who is among the first to feel the strain, which told on the most hardened. Out of the hectic days that the terror-driven nurse soon evolves the philosophy submitted to by most of the young and bewildered soldiers in the war, love while there was yet life for the soldier, life that might be ended at any moment.

The scene shifts from the hospital to a peaceful, relaxing "Paris" of the war, relaxation and "Paris" to the front line trenches where the "war" is in spite of the
