DR. CRILE TELLS OF HIS WORK IN CELL PRODUCTION

Famous Cleveland Scientist Describes Recent Experiments Which Have Caused Interest Among Experts

(Editor's Note: Dr. C. G. Crile of the Cleveland Clinic in the following extensive interview with the United Press for the first time gave an authentic explanation of his work in the production of artificial cells with life characteristics.)

The experiment, which is being developed, will give scientists their first tangible evidence of the possibility of producing cells of productive life, was completed by two of Dr. Crile's assistants for David Datz, United Press, after considerable research by him and Dr. Crile.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 29 (UPI)—Artificial cells, brought into existence in the "laboratory" of Dr. Charles G. Crile, director of the Clinic, may for the first time give the world the living, it was revealed today in an exclusive interview with Dr. C. G. Crile by the United Press.

"The cells produced by division just as do many living units," said Dr. Crile, "and have exhibited tendencies to express and to 'poisons' similar to that of living cells."

Further, research may reveal other uses for the cells, he said.

Dr. Crile's experiments, which have been conducted in some of the most difficult laboratories in the country, in the hope of finding a cure for the disease, have been a novel experiment for the writer, enabling him to see the operation the way it is done in the laboratory, the way in which the scientists are working on it.

Dr. Crile's experiments were re-vealed today when the study of that disease, cancer, was presented to him.

He will be turned over to army authorities.

Injunction Granted by Judge G. Jenkins Makes Consolidation of Youngstown and Bethlehem Concerns Invalid

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Dec. 29 (UPI)—A billion dollar merger between the Bethlehem Corporation and the Youngstown Sheet and Tube shareholders last April was held invalid by Common Pleas Judge David G. Jenkins.

The decision was a victory for the 10,000 shareholders of the Bethlehem, and a large individual stockholder of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube stockholder who fought the consolidation on the grounds that it would result in losses of $50,000,000 to stockholders.

BORAH BELIEVES CHANCES SLIGHT FOR THIRD PARTY

No Need for New Political Organization at Present Time Says Idahoan; Realignment Are Very Probable, However

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29 (UPI)—Senate Republicans have entered the current discussion of a third party movement with the assertion that such a development would be without political value to them.

The veteran leader of the Republicans

"My observation and reading lead me to the opinion that new parties cannot be successfully organized by a few men or a few leaders, but rather by the people," Borah said in a statement.

He added: "I am not in favor of any party.

"There are at least four or five vital issues before the people which will not be settled by the action of any one party alone.

"Take power, prohibition, farm relief and the duty of the state and national governments with regard to agriculture to at least two great problems.

"With will write a platform that will weld together constituencies which are now separated.

"I do not see any new party but I do see some real organizations which will be evident in legislative matters rather than in any open rebellion against the existing parties.

"That has already taken place to a marked degree.

"I am in favor of opposition to Senator George W. Norris, John N. Tillman, New York, Eugene Debs, Indiana, and James A. Edwards, Missouri.

"There are two things about which I do not feel deeply moved," he said. "First, a few individuals who are not members of any party; second, a few new organizations which are not yet formed.

Two School Teachers Meet Death at Hands Of Oklahoma Maniac

Diligent Search Going on for Slayer of Jessie and Jexie Griffith Near Tonkawa Early Sunday

BLACKWELL, Okla., Dec. 29 (UPI)—Search for a maniac who killed two school teachers near Tonkawa Sunday continued throughout northern Oklahoma today.

Although Lynman Constant, 34, a former inmate of the state prison, was held at Blackwell, Oklahoma Attorney General Ralph Harder said he probably would be exonerated.

The victims, Jessie and Jexie Griffith, were slain early Sunday shortly after they left the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Griffith, with whom they had spent the Christmas holidays.

They had been shot through the head, dragged from their car in a field where they were found lying dead, hard hit by the authorities.

Authorities were hesitant in describing the crime but said it

John D. Rockefeller was given the largest sum of any individual when he received $148,105, but Harry Ford, whose man was captured, got $102,500.

The next largest return was given to Swift & Co., Chicago meat packers, who received $74,200.

The estate of wealthy William Green Believes Better Wages and Shorter Hours Will Aid Business in U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29 (UPI)—Four principles described as fundamental for restoration of prosperity are to restore the purchasing power of the American Federation of Labor.

They are:

1. Higher wages to live upon; 2. Shorter hours in size employment to as many as possible; 3. Greater amount of wage increases; 4. Development of coordinated control of industry.

William Green, president of the AFL, has decided making such a statement.

"This article," Green said, "affords additional evidence in support of the statement that the nation is in a depression worse than November.

OREGON PLAYER STARS IN WEST GRID TRIUMPH

Johnny Kitzmiller Greatest Offensive Star of the Contest at San Francisco Which Furnished Plenty of Action.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29 (UPI) — Another demonstration that all-American football talent isn't confined to any section of the country was afforded the state annual Shrine Bowl-West, clearly won by the West.

Forty-four players from 29 colleges in all sections of the country comprised the two off-six teams, and the unknowns added off-normals to the widely-hailed All-Americans.

Two All-American guards, Ted Beckert of California and Harry Koch of Rochester, were the bulwarks of the Western team, while the combination of Johnny Kitzmiller, Johnny Kitzmiller, Oregon's great halfback, made possible this score.

Until Kitzmiller entered the game the West had shown almost no offensive strength, and three times, had been pushed back almost to its own goal-line. The Easterners responded to this in each of the first three quarters.

The East's best chance to score was spoiled early in the second period when Frank Jaker, Northwestern end, allowed a pass beyond the goal line to slip between his fingers.

Kitzmiller was the greatest offensive star of the game. He carried the ball 12 times and gained 12 yards. His best run was 28 yards.

Len (iron-legs) Macaluso, California's fullback, who led the nation in scoring with 144 points, had a hand in the winning of the Kitzmiller ball. He, however, had no more drive than Kermit Lance, a complete unknown from Baker University, a small college school, who had a hand in the winning of the Kitzmiller ball four times, but he always gained, and was never stopped by one man. Once Lance broke through the line and went with Hank Bruder, Northwestern star, and held him but cold.

One of the best players in the game was Al Tracy, of Santa Clara, Calif., who, with his partner, John, who was making a spectacular stockade over the field while the other end, the game, attended.

Probably the outstanding star of the game was Bill Gauthier, of Green Bay, Wisconsin end, who caught a pass which netted 60 yards and who was a pillar on the defense. Leo Hart, Colorado halfback, was another eastern player who stood out.

It was the West's first victory in two years, but gave this section its fourth triumph in six games played. A record of 60-28, the largest ever to go to the game, attended.

FOOTBALL MEET GETS UNDER WAY

Notables in Many Walks of Life Will Present Their Views on the Gridiron Sport

NEW YORK, Dec. 29, (UPI) — More persons than it takes to run the League of Nations were gathered in New York today for the purpose of discussing football.

Included in the throng were former presidents, judges, dentists, physical directors, bankers, and doctors. Some came to praise the sport; others to criticize it. Much will be said on both sides.

Tony three organizations—the American Football Coaches Association, the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association, and the National Collegiate Athletic Association—will hold sessions. Football will be the sole topic of discussion.

After the meetings, the guests will grab most of the talk at the breakfast and physical director meetings.

The first session of the week's athletic meetings comes on Wednesday when the National Collegiate Athletic Association, with 110 members, will meet at the Hotel New Yorker.

The N. C. A. A. will devote Tuesday to election of officers, etc.

The second session of the week's athletic meetings comes on Wednesday when the National Collegiate Athletic Association, with 110 members, will meet at the Hotel New Yorker.

The N. C. A. A. is interested in the administrative and all other phases of football, with the tremendous rise of football the association has become more and more a children's game.

Dr. Charles W. Kennedy of Yale; Charles W. Kennedy of Princeton; Avery Brundage, president of the American Olympic Association; and George H. Johnson, treasurer of the Cleveland Foundation, are among those who will speak at the meeting.

The subject chosen to renew it is certain to be considered on all sides at this session.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29 (UPI) — It will be a long day before the football fans of Los Angeles never lackled about the ability of their team to beat the New England Patriots again against an eleven from Saginaw.

Almost as completely as the Notre Dame Varsity smothered the University of Illinois, the Los Angeles team, eleven, December 6, a team of Irish graduates combined last Saturday to administer a 29 to 7 licking to a team of all star team in a charity contest.

The West-South eleven was led by Russ Saunders, former All-American quarterback at U. S. C., now coach of Jimmy Johnson, manager at the University of Washington.

The Notre Dame all stars included Carleton Brill, Nestor, Indiana, Jack Egan, of New Haven, Conn., and a host of others from the city who learned the football and plenty of it under Knute Rockne at South Bend.

Sauvold scored all the Irish touchdowns in the first half, but it was also a team effort that traveled around the ball at the expense of the Pitts and of Elder and Carlisle in the backfield.

The Notre Dame team presented a fine performance in the second half, but fell short of the total of the Notre Dame eleven. Saunders scored the lone late touchdown on a 15 yard run.

Borglum's Son

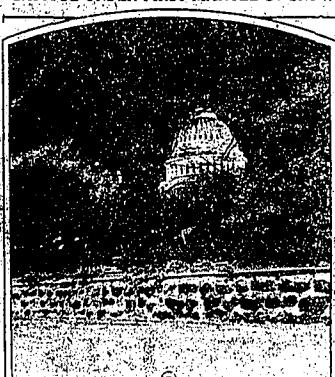

When Lincoln Borglum, above 18-year-old son of Gutzon Borglum, sculptor, right, was graduated from Wyoming preparatory school recently, he didn't follow the usual course of heading at once to college or professional school. Instead, he is now working for a public utility company. He plans a European tour next summer, and after that will start thinking about going to college.

CAPITOL UNDER FIRST MANTLE OF SNOW

King Winter used his white brush on our nation's capitol, shown here in a blizzard night after the second first fall of snow had transformed Washington. The storm has big effects even in the White House, where the three young grandchildren of Pres. Herbert Hoover, who have come from California to visit him, played in the snow for the first time.

In and Out In Russia

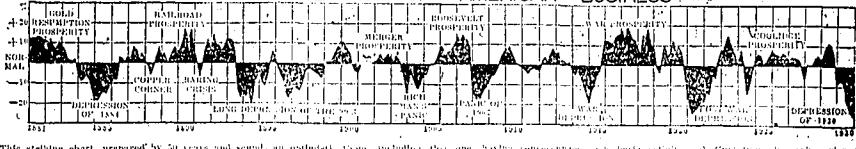

Because he opposed some of the sternest principles of Soviet Russia's government, Alexei Rykov, left, has been stripped of the high official power he held in Moscow. First relieved of his post of president of the Central Control Commission, the rare equivalent of Premier, he now has been expelled by the Central Control Commission from the party. Rykov, a former party pal of Chekhov Marshak, diehard long-time supporter of Joseph Stalin, succeeds Rykov as head of the union council.

FIRST PICTURES OF RENEWED RIOTS IN SPAIN

The spark of revolt that has burst into open rebellion in various cities of Spain was being further fanned by republican agitators when these AP pictures were taken in Bilbao. It was while rebels loyal to the republic were fighting their way through the streets of the city, rising in northern Spain that plucked civilian snipers, as these pictures show, were attempting to keep order in Bilbao. The upper picture shows a line of the mounted police that confronted trouble-makers, and below are two others as they pursued rebels through the streets.

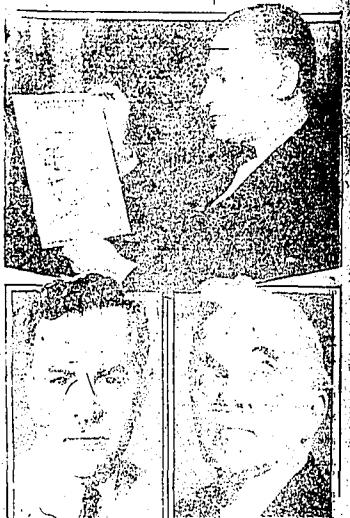

FLYERS BALK DEATH IN NORTHLAND

These dramatic pictures just received from out of the far north tell the last chapter in the tragic story of the flight of Capt. E. J. A. Burke and his two companions, who were lost in remote British Columbia. Forced down on the ice of Lake Superior, the three men worked their way to civilization. Through sheer desperation, and his companions, Paul Kadish and "Three-Fingered" Bob Martin, were rescued by Capt. Everett Wanamaker and the "Iva" when it came to the last hut. The two upper photos show how the survivors looked when "Snipe," which the Princeton University team reached safety. Keeling is at the left and Martin at the right. Frank B. Kellogg, former U.S. Secretary of State, and now a field at the Permanent Court of International Justice at The Hague, here is pictured, right, with Argentinean ambassador of freedom, left, at the ceremony of the awarding of the Nobel peace prize. Kellogg's wife, Mrs. Kellogg, was also present when Kellogg received the prize. He is the fifth American to receive the peace prize, and the Nobel Institute declared that another war such as the last could well mean the destruction of western civilization.

THE NAMES OF AMERICA

NEWS that the town of Linoleumville, on Staten Island, New York, has voted to change its name to something less bizarre leads one to hope that Linoleumville isn't starting a movement that will become general. Some of our place names are very odd, and some of them probably bring a blush to the native son's cheek when he signs a hotel register; but most of them are descriptive, and it would be a mistake to change them.

To begin with, there is Main street. For some reason this name evokes great merriment in the metropolitan centers, as if it were intrinsically amusing. If you are really enlightened, you will never mention Main street without a sneer. But after all—what's wrong with Main street as a name? It is perfectly apt. The street that gets that name is, usually, a town's main street. Why not name it that way?

Besides, Main street has become distinctive. It is typical of this time and place. In its bluntness, its lack of affection and its commonness, Main street is perhaps our foremost Americanism. It is worth hanging on to.

Then there are town names. Some of them automatically shed light on old, forgotten history. Bad Axe, in Michigan, for instance, is wonderfully expressive. So are Medicine Bow, Wyoming, and Placerville, in California; and Prairie du Chien, in Wisconsin, and Baton Rouge, in Louisiana.

There are smaller places, too, whose names have a refreshing strangeness. Such towns as Horse Thief, Alva; Black Bass, Ia.; Promptness, Pa.; Breezy Hill, Ill.; Defeated Creek, Ky.; Smoky Ordinary, Va.; Womble, N. C.; Good Water, Ala.; and Halahomak, Mo.—would any sensible man, living in town with such a name, consent to having it changed to something less outlandish?

For all names of this sort really mean something. Most self-conscious Chamber of Commerce has tried to beautify them or get an urban flavor into their rural communities. If you do back to the beginnings and get a description of each christening, you might have some good stories. That town of Horse Thief, for instance—doesn't it speak for itself? And wouldn't you like to know how Defeated Creek got its name?

The early geographers, in some cases, had a veritable genius for nomenclature. Cape Cod could not have a better name; nor could Old Point Comfort, or the Golden Gate, or the Great Smoky Mountain chain, or the Enchanted Mesa, or the Staked Plains of Texas, or Lake Minnetonka, or the Sawtooth mountains.

But those names, musical and romantic in their sound, are beside the point. The important thing is for these lesser places to keep their names. Let Linoleumville be the last to give up a picturesque title.

THE MEXICAN NAVY

A NEWS dispatch reveals that Mexico is considering abolishing its navy. The Mexicans support five obsolete gunboats and three converted cargo steamers, at an annual cost of $1,000,000; and the Chamber of Deputies is now considering a plan to do away with this diminutive squadron and use the money for something else.

This looks like a perfectly sensible move, since it is hard to see how Mexico could ever need a navy or how that particular navy could ever do her any good if she did. After all, the United States navy is Mexico's best defense against foreign aggression. The United States would never permit any other nation to invade Mexico, and the Mexicans might as well bank on it.

And the United States itself? Well, five old gunboats wouldn't even slow the U. S. navy up. Mexico's defense against the United States lies in diplomacy and a better understanding, not in a tenth-rate navy.

PUTTING CAPONE ON TRIAL

IT IS interesting to learn that the Chicago authorities are collecting evidence in the hope of being able to put Al Capone on trial for murder.

The strangest thing about this man's career is the fact that although hundreds of murders are ascribed to his gang, no murder charge has ever yet been pinned upon him. Chicago now seems to believe that the thing can be done, if it is properly attempted; so the sleuths are out looking for evidence.

It would be extremely salutary to see this man Capone brought into court to stand trial for his life. But such a step, by itself—even if it resulted in his being executed—would not do much good so long as the conditions which have enabled Capone to get and keep his enormous power remain unchanged. Capone is simply a logical outgrowth of the Chicago body politic. A sweeping program of fundamental reforms is the only thing that can give any lasting help.

FEUDISTS WANTED IN DEATH OF MAN

SALEM, Ind., Dec. 29 (UPI) — Tom and Cleas Spurlock, brothers, brought a Tennessee feud with them into southern Indiana where they believed today to have clubbed a person to death in the course of the Salem town brawl and escaped into Kentucky on their way back to their native home.

A posse which set out thot Saturday night "after the Gibsons" and two brothers failed in an attempt to lynch the Gibsons in for a time, it had cornered the men but a thorough search yielded no traces. While the fugitive brothers were sought, they were never taken into custody Saturday night.

The town of Salem virtually became a ghost town Saturday night. The body of one of the last of the Gibsons was in a morgue. Another of the family, was in jail. Two others were injured in the effects of the gun controversy search. Sheriff Milton Trimble and two deputies, one of these left with a gun in his pocket, reportedly wounded.

More than 20 years ago the Spurlock-Gibson feud began in Tennessee, and the brothers, who brought it along over a somewhat quarrel which even yet far-fetched had forgotten. From that time the warfare flared up again. Not one brother was a victim, it claimed. It is generally believed the brothers were neighbors who gave them shelter Saturday night.

About twelve youths, an unknown number of one family, arrived here from Tennessee. Members of the other followed soon. Two weeks ago Patton Gibson, leader of the group, was captured and held that his slaying followed his boast that he had just come back from Tennessee and had "killed" his brother.

John and Cleas Spurlock were charged with the murder of Patton Gibson and were placed in the county jail.

Production of cotton and rice are increasing rapidly, especially in an experimental way in Guatemala.

TRAILS OWNED TO HOSPITAL — PITTSFIELD, Mo., Dec. 29 — Mrs. Carrie Pryor's stretch could not be at home when she was admitted to the new state hospital. Nevertheless the dog appeared next day at her bedside. Mrs. Pryor was mystified as to how her pet learned of her whereabouts.

FOREST MONEY PROVIDES AID ON ROAD PROJECTS

Highway Number 99 Falls to Get Appropriation As Hoped for; Idaho City-Lowell Grade Will Be Completed

The No. 99 highway across Idaho has received the appropriation of federal funds for the completion of the part of the highway extending from Stanley down Salmon River to Clayton, according to the Sunday Statesman and instead considerable expenditure in this state will be used for completion of the grade on the Idaho side of the divide between the Snake and the Payette rivers, between Idaho City and Lowell.

Sawtooth Park highway, stretching 116 miles from Salmon to the Montana state line. This section already is graded and the project will consist of the road between these two points.

In addition to the Idaho City-Lowell road the following projects have received approval:

NOT APPLICANT FOR LAND POST

Present Commissioner Highly Recommended by Many to Succeed Himself but Does Not Seek to Keep Position

BOISE, Dec. 29.—State Land Commissioner H. M. Nash will not run for reelection, preferring to succeed himself. When interviewed, Mr. Nash authorized this statement:

"I have been known since election that I would not be an applicant for reelection as state land commissioner," said Mr. Nash.

The Republican members of the legislature were asked if they "Although endorsements for him to succeed himself have come in from all the major parties, Commissioner Nash has declined to accept them because he is not an applicant to succeed himself."

Mr. Nash, who was born and raised in Idaho, gave his support to all members of the land board with which I have served in state land work," said Mr. Nash.

He also gave his support to the Governor James H. Hawley, and Governor M. Alexander.

Commissioner Nash has letters of commendation from all former governors which he prizes very highly, particularly on account of the fact that they are from different political faiths than his own.

Mr. Nash said that whoever is chosen to be his successor will receive the same loyal support as he has given to all members of the board and the general public at large.

Commissioner Nash is a member of the Idaho state land commissioners for the past four years.

He has had the opportunity to study these problems and to assist in working out solutions for many of them.

Commissioner Nash is a member of the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor, and superintendent of public instruction.

When the new state administration is inaugurated next month a majority of the board will remain. Re-electing the entire board, however, of Governor C. Ben Ross, Democratic having been elected governor to succeed G. S. Baldrige, Republican, the land department will therefore be a Republican appointment made by a majority of the state legislature.

"Asked if he was going to lead the 'old guard' in the legislature, Mr. Nash smiled and said that he had no desire to do so. He said that he had asked him to act to that effect.

He said he had never been a 'lone ranger' and that it would be better to go with his party record to start now.

The only active applicant for the post of land commissioner, in that Mr. Nash's name is not mentioned.

Ram Ballou of Boise, Mr. H. L. Latourette a well-known sheep man in the state. He was one of the most prominent supporters of General W. G. Gibbs in his candidacy for governor.

A number of others have withdrawn their names.

Representatives of the Northern State Representative Council, Aurora of Challie recently with the Flying Service, now connected with the state department of commerce; E. A. Hoover who heads the state department of public investments; C. K. Nacev, who is a specialist in public welfare. It is anticipated that others will go in the race.

At the Theatres

MOROCOUP IS CURRENT ATTRACTION AT IDAHO

"Morcecup," a suspenseful picture against the awesome and colorful life of North Africa, the current attraction at the Idaho Theatre, 101 Main Street, the fighting star of "The Spider" and remembered for his successes in "The Virginian" and "The Texan." The picture is a well-made drama with Marlene Dietrich, an exotic Continental actress. Adolphe Menjou returns to the screen in a polished and appealing role.

A story of a turbulent, fierce, all-consuming love, "Morocoop" depicts the life of a desert sheik, which man and woman are torn apart, as master of emotions which neither of them welcomes. They say Marlene Dietrich is the best actress in Hollywood.

Adolphe Menjou falls in love with the exotic beauty, and with her wealth and social position.

Marlene Dietrich is cast as "Temptress" as a private in the desert.

So every with repression. Fine wide the portals of the pot-and-pantry and the very next time the gauze cover your house from the sun, the heat, the cold, the rain, the drive that ended too soon, lead them all into the kitchen—every mother's son as well as mother.

Then while everyone is as busy as can be, slip into the breakfast nook or some other informal place where you can have the necessary cans and leaves on the shelf—and eggs, oh, by all means eggs.

Breakfast will not be sans eggs, bacon and ham.

Have a colored apron and a napkin and a good book to read—whether it's chewing ham, beating eggs, or introducing two loves to a new, numerous companion, and then, in the privacy of the kitchen, the secret of the triangle in the skillful. You'll find that the more work you supply, the less you'll be disturbed with the calls of the house.

WENDELL, Dec. 29 (Special)—A new instrument which informs the airplane pilot of his distance from the ground in landing or takeoff, was demonstrated yesterday.

John C. Cole, president of the Filer Grange, said the device, which has been patented by the American Air Corps and the General Electric company, causes the pilot to feel just near the earth but the "eagle altitude" registers the distance as little as 50 feet. It is based on the principle of sound waves which are sent out of the plane to ground and are being reflected in terms of distance.

Charles A. Lindbergh and Lieut. Eugene Thomas, formerly of Filer Grange, have tested the new instrument and found that it was made known to all members of the flying corps.

Two new members were initiated at this meeting.

A PEACH OF A TIME

In this era when it's fashionable to be feminine, sweet young things who used to think a gridiron had something to do with the very greatest, are seeking admittance along with them. Men love to get in the kitchen, and the women are seeking admittance along with them. Men love to get in the kitchen, and the women are seeking admittance along with them.

Now comes a human drama, and pictures. Jack-of-all-trades. Adolphe Menjou returns to the screen in a polished and appealing role.

A story of a turbulent, fierce, all-consuming love, "Morocoop" depicts the life of a desert sheik, which man and woman are torn apart, as master of emotions which neither of them welcomes.

They say Marlene Dietrich is the best actress in Hollywood.

Adolphe Menjou falls in love with the exotic beauty, and with her wealth and social position.

Marlene Dietrich is cast as "Temptress" as a private in the desert.

"Morcecup" is a suspenseful picture against the awesome and colorful life of North Africa, the current attraction at the Idaho Theatre, 101 Main Street, the fighting star of "The Spider" and remembered for his successes in "The Virginian" and "The Texan." The picture is a well-made drama with Marlene Dietrich, an exotic Continental actress. Adolphe Menjou returns to the screen in a polished and appealing role.

So every with repression. Fine wide the portals of the pot-and-pantry and the very next time the gauze cover your house from the sun, the heat, the cold, the rain, the drive that ended too soon, lead them all into the kitchen—every mother's son as well as mother.

Then while everyone is as busy as can be, slip into the breakfast nook or some other informal place where you can have the necessary cans and leaves on the shelf—and eggs, oh, by all means eggs.

Breakfast will not be sans eggs, bacon and ham.

Have a colored apron and a napkin and a good book to read—whether it's chewing ham, beating eggs, or introducing two loves to a new, numerous companion, and then, in the privacy of the kitchen, the secret of the triangle in the skillful. You'll find that the more work you supply, the less you'll be disturbed with the calls of the house.

Youth Recovers From Gun Wound

GOODING, Dec. 29, (Special)—Fred Bodenham, Jr., who was beaten at the local hospital for the last two weeks, suffering from a bullet wound in the head caused by the accidental discharge of a shot gun, is recovering very satisfactorily.

The boy, 16, was admitted to the hospital Saturday night, was operated on and was saved.

"Although endorsements for him to succeed himself have come in from all the major parties, Commissioner Nash has declined to accept them because he is not an applicant to succeed himself."

After the accident, the boy was taken to the hospital and was operated on.

"He was given care by all members of the land board with which I have served in state land work," said Mr. Nash.

He also gave his support to the Governor James H. Hawley, and Governor M. Alexander.

Commissioner Nash has letters of commendation from all former governors which he prizes very highly, particularly on account of the fact that they are from different political faiths than his own.

Mr. Nash said that whoever is chosen to be his successor will receive the same loyal support as he has given to all members of the board and the general public at large.

Commissioner Nash is a member of the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor, and superintendent of public instruction.

When the new state administration is inaugurated next month a majority of the board will remain. Re-electing the entire board, however, of Governor C. Ben Ross, Democratic having been elected governor to succeed G. S. Baldrige, Republican, the land department will therefore be a Republican appointment made by a majority of the state legislature.

"Asked if he was going to lead the 'old guard' in the legislature, Mr. Nash smiled and said that he had no desire to do so. He said that he had asked him to act to that effect.

He said he had never been a 'lone ranger' and that it would be better to go with his party record to start now.

The only active applicant for the post of land commissioner, in that Mr. Nash's name is not mentioned.

Ram Ballou of Boise, Mr. H. L. Latourette a well-known sheep man in the state. He was one of the most prominent supporters of General W. G. Gibbs in his candidacy for governor.

A number of others have withdrawn their names.

Representatives of the Northern State Representative Council, Aurora of Challie recently with the Flying Service, now connected with the state department of commerce; E. A. Hoover who heads the state department of public investments; C. K. Nacev, who is a specialist in public welfare. It is anticipated that others will go in the race.
