Roosevelt Asks Drastic Power To Reorganize

President Outlines Five Major Points In Message to Congress

By Richard L. Harkness

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (UP)—President Roosevelt asked Congress today for almost unlimited power to give the executive branch of the federal government the most complete reorganization since its founding...

The plan was presented in a special message. It contained five chief points, all providing greater presidential executive management than ever before in American history. They were:

1. Creation of a new department of social welfare and a new department of public works, making 12 cabinet posts instead of 10. The government's 100 boards, commissions, administrations, authorities, corporations, committees, agencies and activities would be placed under the dozen departments.

"Executive Assistants"

2. Assignment of six "executive assistants" to the President so he may devote more time to his office. At the same time the White House secretariat would continue as presently planned making Mr. Roosevelt's son, 29-year-old James White House liaison man with congress, fiscal, personnel, and planning activities would be placed directly under the President.

3. Development of the present bureau of the budget into the President's right hand agency. Its functions would be enlarged to include direction of a central information and publicity bureau, conducting government research, drafting and issuing executive orders and an "adequate number of ordinating federal activities" in addition to formulating and executing the federal budget.

4. Extension of the civil service system to all government workers except top-rank, policy-making jobholders. The civil service commission would be abolished, and strikers. Attempts of union replaced by an administration appointed by the President on a merit basis, and an advisory board of seven non-salaried laymen approved by the U. S. senate.

5. Elimination of the compensated general's office. The new weapons, still occupied the position would be that of an advisor and controlled its gates. (Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

MURPHY STARTS MOBILIZATION OF MICHIGAN POLICE

Governor Calls Out Troops To Prevent Disorders In Motor Strike

FLINT, Mich., Jan. 12 (UP)—Gov. Frank Murphy ordered 1,500 national guardsmen into strike-torn Flint today as reports from Toledo said 1,800 C. I. O. union members were converging on this city to support General Motors strikers.

A few hours earlier Col. John S. Bersey, adjutant general, had ordered the troops mobilized for "strike duty."

FLINT, Mich., Jan. 12 (UP)—Gov. Frank Murphy today mobilized "a sizeable detachment" of Michigan state police to prevent further disorders in the General Motors strike.

He emphasized that he was not proclaiming martial law. He acted after 19 men were injured last night in a flight at Fish-jured last night in a flight at Fish-making jobholders. The civil service commission would be abolished, and strikers. Attempts of union replaced by an administration appointed by the President on a merit basis, and an advisory board of seven non-salaried laymen approved by the U. S. senate.

6 NOMINATED AS CANDIDATES FOR CANAL CO. BOARD

Stockholders of Twin Falls Company Meet Here In Annual Session

Six men, five of whom will serve during 1937 on the board of directors of the Twin Falls canal company, were nominated this morning as over 100 stockholders of the company met in annual session in Twin Falls.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 12 (UP)—Government agents, enlisting every resource of men and money in a manhunt for the kidnap-slayer of Charles Mattson, refused to comment today on reports from Everett that clothing believed to have been taken from the dead boy's body had been found there.

The reports, unconfirmed from any official source, said that the clothing was found by an Everett service station attendant, in a car abandoned by a man who ordered gas but fled before the attendant could fill his tank.

Description Of Tacoma Slayer

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 12 (UP)—This much is known about the man who kidnaped 10-year-old Charles Mattson of Tacoma: 1. He is a man of middle age, somewhere between 40 and 50. 2. He is of slight build, weighing possibly 140 pounds and standing about 5 feet 7 inches. 3. His hair is dark and his complexion swarthy. He was wearing a heavy beard the night he abducted Charles Mattson but the beard probably has been removed. 4. He is left-handed. He gestured with his left hand in the Mattson home and threw the ransom note to the floor with his hand. 5. He is someone who had a "grudge" against the Mattson family, for he remarked he had "spent" plenty of money on that house—the Mattson home—and was going to get some back.

CALLS MURDER 'GHAST'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (UP)—President Roosevelt, in describing the brutal kidnap-murder of 10-year-old Charles Mattson as "ghastly" today ordered the federal government's full resources flung into a drive to capture the perpetrators of the crime.

MATTSON RANSOM MONEY NOT PAID

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 12 (UP)—Paul Seva, an intermediary and close friend of Dr. William W. Mattson, today revealed to the United Press information concerning ransom negotiations in the Charles Mattson kidnaping which hitherto was undisclosed. Seva is manager of the Rainier Park company and was assisting Mattson in attempting to establish communication with the kidnaper. Seva quoted Mattson as follows: "The ransom was not paid, although I made every effort to pay it, and put forth every endeavor to try to follow instructions. The instructions were so elusive, however, and there was such a confusion of notes I was unable to pay the ransom."

Spokesman Says Too Much Confusion of Notes to Make Payment

It is quite evident the boy was killed instantly and had been dead a considerable time. "The kidnaper became exceedingly wary during the last few days and judging from the conditions of Charles' body he was still trying to collect the ransom money after Charles was dead."

Ransom Not Paid

Plans for private funeral services for the child went forward as the hunt for the nation's newest public enemy gained momentum. Federal agents vowed to avenge the boy, who looked upon G-men as heroes and liked to play kidnaper, Paul Seva, family friend and adviser, revealed. It is now the belief that Charles "saw too much and was too smart for the kidnaper" to be returned to his anxious parents alive. "The boy was keen on G-men study and read much of G-man procedure. We are confident that the boy was not too alarmed when he was kidnaped, but after spending a time with the kidnaper or kidnappers, they discovered that he was too smart for them and that his young memory was too keen."

Mattson Youth Third of Major Kidnap Victims

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 12 (UP)—Charles Mattson was added today to the list of three major kidnap victims who have lost their lives in the United States during the last five years. Charles Lindbergh, 20-month-old son of Charles and Ann Morrow Lindbergh, was found dead 73 days after he was stolen from the family home in Hopewell, N. J. in 1932. The skull had been crushed as was that of the Mattson boy. Brooke Hart Killed Brooke Hart, 21-year-old son of a prominent, San Jose, Calif., family, was killed and his body was thrown into San Francisco bay only a few hours after he was kidnaped. Following discovery of the body, a mob seized the slaying suspects, Jack Holmes and Thomas Thurmond, and lynched them in a park outside the county jail.

TOKYO, Jan. 12 (UP)—The Donel news agency reported today that disaster had overtaken the freighter Aitoku off Shikotan, province of Hokkaido, with 32 of the crew missing and only eight saved. The nature of the disaster was not reported. Presumably a gale drove the ship on the rocks.

Airliner Crashes; Explorer Aboard

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12 (UP)—Wreckage of a missing Western Air Express plane with 13 aboard was reported sighted in the hills three miles east of Olive View sanitarium today.

The sanitarium telephone operator reported she heard screams of injured persons coming from the ship. The spot where the wreckage was sighted was over a hill and beyond a ravine from the sanitarium. The nearest building of the sanitarium was the men's convalescent camp.

Among the passengers aboard the ill-fated plane were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, famous big-game hunters. The sanitarium is about five miles southeast of Newhall on a line toward the Burbank airport.

The telephone operator said patients heard the screams for help higher in the hills. Several figures were seen moving about, proving that some of the 13 passengers and crew, at least, had escaped. One passenger, Arthur Robertson, who was injured, said Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, famous big game hunters are "hurt and unconscious."

CLARK TO FIGHT NEW POWER DAM

BOISE, Jan. 12 (UP)—Gov. Barzilla W. Clark today threatened court action to prevent further development of a power site, including construction of a $2,400,000 dam, by the Idaho Power Co. on the Snake river near Hagerman.

Completion of the project would take most of the last water remaining in the Snake for generation of power to be sold in Utah, the governor said. "We need that water for the Bruneau reclamation project here in Idaho."

The power company has just announced plans for completion of the dam, at Upper Salmon falls, upon which construction was begun in 1931. The company first obtained permit to divert 6,500 second feet of water for power purposes on April 2, 1928, the permit requiring completion of the project within five years, according to department of reclamation records. In 1933 and again in 1936 two year extensions were granted, bringing the expiration date to April 2, 1938. Clark indicated he would attack legality of the extensions and seek relinquishment of the power site on the grounds that construction was not completed within the original five-year period.

Mr. Bothwell also cited cases during the year and those pending in which the canal company was involved in one form or another.

Resolutions Approved

Resolutions, presented by E. N. Pettigrove, chairman of the resolutions committee, were adopted during the afternoon sessions.

These pertained to noxious weeds, in which the continuance of the WPA program for their control was asked; calling attention to stockholders of the seriousness of the seepage problem and complimenting the board of directors on the work done along this line during the past year; endorsing the action of the board in their granting no more water transfers below the Cottonwood flume; endorsing the action of the directors in the notices sent to stockholders relative to the unlawful use of water, and complimenting them on their action in stopping water delivery to stockholders or persons failing to comply with the notice as sent out by the company.

Maximum Came Early

In the general manager's report, compiled by John Iron, it was revealed that the demand for a maximum water delivery came very early in the season during 1936. In order to meet this demand, Mr. Iron pointed out, it was necessary to raise the water level in all canals and laterals much faster than usual, "but we got by without any breaks and very few leaks," he commented.

"We were able to make constant uniform water deliveries throughout the entire irrigation season, and diverted at Milner during the twelve months, from Oct. 1, 1935 to September 30, 1936, a total of 1,260,000 acre feet, or 6.25 acre feet per acre which was the largest amount diverted since 1933. Of the total amount diverted at Milner in 1936, 88.82 per cent was natural flow and 11.18 per cent was storage water," Mr. Iron said.

Used Storage 82 Days

"The Twin Falls canal company used storage water for a total of 82 days in 1936, the period starting June 6 and ending September 15," he continued.

"The American Falls and Jackson lake reservoirs both filled to capacity this year. The American Falls filled on May 10, and Jackson lake on June 15, giving the Twin Falls Canal company a total storage of 318,971 acre feet. We used 141,514 acre feet, leaving us a balance of 174,657 acre feet.

"As the canal company has no holdover rights in Jackson lake reservoir, and as we think American Falls reservoir will fill to capacity in 1937, we may not receive any credit for any unused storage water. However, as the lower rights in Jackson lake are now almost filled, this unused storage water will help build up the top rights and contribute toward giving us storage for 1937, that we might not otherwise receive," Mr. Iron said.

In Good Shape

In his report, Mr. Iron told of inspections made of the canal system which showed them to be in very good order. He also stressed the importance of replacing wood construction with concrete and said his company was doing so at the present time.

With the aid of a power sprayer the company continued its work in ridding its canals of noxious weeds, the report states. The campaign against the ground squirrel menace has been continued during the past year as in former years, the report shows. The gophers had been poisoned in 1936 for the first time and poisoned carrots were used for the killing.

"We will not know the results until next summer," Mr. Iron commented in his report.

Engineering Report

Contained in Mr. Iron's report was an engineering report for 1936 which told of the work being accomplished in that field.

The drainage problems, and the supervision of the drainage construction, were the major part of the engineering work during 1936, the report states.

Work was done during the year on the Orcharua tunnel; the Love Brothers tunnel; the Howard-Ring tunnel; the Hypothecbank tunnel; the Neyman tunnel; the Spiker tunnel; the Harvey tunnel; the Griffin tunnel, and the Sherman tunnel.

Although the drainage work was not very active in 1936 because of the low assessment, the report shows, there has been 2,832 feet of tunnel driven, on seven different locations (as listed), and the open cuts for tunnel approaches for two other tunnels have been completed.

Financial Report

The financial report, read during the meeting, showed receipts from all sources during 1936 to be $240,322.30.

Total receipts on maintenance accounts the report showed, were $2,233.95. Of this amount $25,032.03 was listed as being for 1937; $104,788.29 for 1938; and the balance for the years 1916 to 1935, both inclusive.

During 1936, materials and supplies sold totaled $12,084.74 with refunds on the sales totaling $150. Receipts from penalty interest for the year were $1,025.37, the report revealed.

Think Rebels May Deal Lethal Death to Residents of Madrid

MADRID, Jan. 12 (AP)—Loyalist defenders, erecting new fortifications, feared today that the next general attack on the capital might bring into play the wide use of gas.

It was said unofficially that tear gas was employed extensively during the latter part of the insurgents' seven-day offensive last week. Loyalist officers expressed concern lest the use of tear gas might prestage the use of deadlier, toxic gases.

Government reports listed 4,000 insurgent casualties in last week's offensive, of which 1,000 were killed. Of those killed, loyalist reports said, the majority were Germans.

A blanket of mist which enveloped Madrid yesterday gave the capital a day of peace and tranquility, broken only by occasional artillery fire from the city and a few answering insurgent shots.

(Continued from Page One) according to the plans outlined today. A canal capable of taking 3,500 second feet of water into the power plant is projected; two 9,000 kilowatt generating units will be built up with a bank of 132,000-volt transformers.

The transmission lines will total 3. miles of 132,000 volt capacity to join the new plant with the company's system at the Shoshone falls plant.

"Increased demand for electric service has made practical the expansion of our facilities at this time," Mr. Carpenter declared. "Due to the increased mining operations in Utah, our company has been fortunate to secure a contract with the Utah Power and Light company for the sale of the surplus power generated at this plant during the next two or three years before the full capacity will be needed in the Idaho Power company's system."

Reports from Boise said the Upper Salmon falls plant will generate, when going at full capacity, 18,000 kilowatts of electricity.

In Twin Falls County Site of the new plant, according to Mr. Carpenter, is in Twin Falls county. It will add approximately $50,000 to the annual property tax paid by the Idaho Power company.

The work will be done under contract, with the project in general charge of H. L. Senger, chief engineer, and Ed Woodhead, general construction foreman of the power firm.

ROOSEVELT ASKS SPECIAL POWER

The recommendations, which observers conceded would meet heavy opposition in some congressional quarters, came from a reorganization report drafted by Louis Brownlow, director of the public administration clearing house; Charles E. Merriam, Chicago university political science professor; and Luther H. Gullick, executive director of the institute of public administration.

Approves Plans

Mr. Roosevelt approved the plans of his "committee on administrative management," made it official by explaining a report summary in person to newspaper correspondents and drafted a special message to congress to accompany it.

"The committee carefully pointed out that its reorganization plan would not encroach upon congressional legislative powers, it said.

"It is with full realization of the necessity of continuing this important function of congress and its committees that we suggest the necessity of holding the executive branch more effectively accountable to the congress."

Committee Suggestion

The committee suggested that congress should establish four new legislative committees—fiscal, budget, personnel and planning.

Two other committees are working on reorganization. One group is headed by Sen. Harry Flood Byrd, D. Va., and the other by Rep. James P. Buchanan, D. Tex. All three utilized the same information, then separated to write their own reports.

The president's committee made greater efficiency and centralization of responsibility as the chief aim of their work. Economy came second. Mr. Roosevelt himself explained the first purpose, declaring he sought common sense management of his branch of the federal government.

An attempt was being made, he said, to apply management methods of big, successful business houses to operation of the government.

Makes Forecast

Mr. Roosevelt held no hope that the plan would work overnight changes in the federal system. He forecast that two or three years will be needed to have it smoothly operating.

The committee, in recommending two new cabinet posts, declared "The (present) structure of the government throws an impossible task upon the chief executive because no President can possibly give adequate supervision to the multitude of agencies which have been set up to carry on the work of the government, nor can he co-ordinate their activities and policies."

The measure will give him broad powers to place existing agencies under the two major departments, and the 10 old ones.

Thus the cabinet under the proposed revision would include 12 secretaries, each with broader powers than at present and each directly accountable to the President.

GOVERNOR CALLS MICHIGAN POLICE

General Motors executives held an early morning conference in Detroit attended by William S. Knutsen, executive vice president, M. E. Coyle, president of the Chevrolet division, and Lawrence Fisher, head of the Fisher body division. They issued this statement regarding the fight:

"General Motors officials expressed regret and said they were waiting for accurate information on what happened."

The fight began when strikers on the outside tried to carry food into the approximately 450 "sit down" strikers who have occupied the plant since Dec. 31. The company had turned off the heat and had decided to stop the provisioning of the strikers, in an effort to force them to leave the plant.

Critically Wounded

An emergency operation was performed early today on Earl DeLong, 22, wounded critically in the abdomen. He was the only one of the injured men struck by a bullet. Most of the others were wounded by fragments from tear gas projectiles fired by Flint police.

Police said they would arrest all of the injured strikers as soon as they recovered. Two who had only minor hurts already have been taken to jail, according to police.

Murphy, standing in a hotel room with a blanket around his shoulders, revealed he had mobilized troops and police at the request of Mayor Harold E. Bradshaw of Flint and Sheriff Thomas W. Wolcott.

"No Brawl"

"This is not going to be a brawl," he said. After his announcement he returned to Lansing, the capital. No effort will be made, for the present to remove sit-down strikers from the Fisher body plants, he said, "but we may know more about that in 30 or 40 hours."

Murphy was asked about the barricade of automobiles that strikers had established in the Flint streets last night, and he replied that the state would not countenance anyone seizing public property.

"Whatever else may happen," he added, "there is going to be law and order in Michigan."

CHARGES EMPLOYERS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers charged today that the General Motors corporation was employing professional strikebreakers in Detroit.

Martin made his charges shortly after arriving here for a conference with John L. Lewis, chairman of the committee for industrial organization, which is backing the strike of the U. A. W. He was accompanied by John Brophy, C. I. O. director.

"We have reason to believe that professional strikebreakers are being hired by the company in Detroit and perhaps at Flint," Martin said.

"I believe that Pearl S. Bergoff has been brought in by the company," Martin said.

MAN, 60, HIT BY HIT-RUN DRIVER

Apparently the victim of a hit and run driver, Pat Conroy, 60, Twin Falls, was treated at the police station early this morning for slight scratches and bruises, a police report shows.

Conroy, according to the report, was found by L. F. Taylor, also of Twin Falls, at 1 a. m. today about one mile east of the city limits. He was dazed and had apparently been thrown against the curb by a passing motorist.

The aged man was brought to the police station by Taylor. He was later taken to his home. Police were investigating this afternoon in an effort to learn the identity of the unknown driver.

'LOAN CLOSET' IS NOW UNDERWAY

Red Cross Project Provides Materials for Use in Maternity Cases

Through the efforts of Mrs. D. L. Alexander, local chairman of the Red Cross, a "loan closet" has been established for the benefit of needy persons treated through the Twin Falls county health unit, it was announced today.

The material, which county health officers say is necessary in proper treatment of maternity cases as well as acute and chronic types of illnesses treated in private homes, includes such items as 31 blankets, 26 pillow cases, 30 gowns, 12 bath towels, 26 double sheets, 19 single sheets, 15 baby gowns, a few hot water bottles and ice caps and similar types of supplies needed in this type of cases.

Dr. J. W. Hawkins, director of the unit, reports that the supplies have already been used in 40 maternity cases, 21 acute cases, and six chronic cases.

The supplies are loaned during the duration of the illness and they are returned to the health unit for use again after being properly sterilized.

SUBMIT REPORTS, EMPLOYERS TOLD

Jobless Compensation Director Warns Double Taxation May Result

Twin Falls employers who have not yet submitted reports under the unemployment compensation statute of Idaho may encounter double taxation through negligence, according to word received today from Lawrence Lyman, superintendent of the unemployment compensation division of the Idaho industrial accident board.

Lyman declared many employers taxable under the statute, have failed to send statements to him.

Jan. 25 Deadline

"We have no desire to be arbitrary," Lyman said. "However, if employers who are responsible for the tax do not remit on or before the 25th day of January they will not be able to receive the credit offset from the federal government; thus will be obliged to remit in full to the United States internal revenue department, and again to the state unemployment compensation division; an unnecessary double taxation against which no provisions for refunds are provided."

Title nine of the social security act, provided for an excess tax of 1 per cent on employers of eight or more, based on the total of 1935 pay-roll. A credit offset is allowed all employers who have paid such contributions into an approved state fund.

Idaho Plan Approved

Idaho's unemployment compensation plan has been approved by the social security board, and provides for a tax of nine-tenths of 1 per cent for 1936. Thus, Idaho employers who comply with the provisions of both the state and federal acts will pay nine-tenths of the tax to the state and the balance of one-tenth to the federal government, and the Idaho employers will be the beneficiaries.

TRAVELS COVER 1,600,000 MILES

Wanderlust Leads Man Into Every Country Except Tibet

JOHANNESBURG, (U.P.)—J. H. Curle, "world's champion wanderer," whose wanderlust has led him on travels totaling 1,600,000 miles and in to every country of the world except Tibet, has returned here to prepare for another journey.

Curle began roaming when he was 14 years old, and he has kept a map of his travels. The tracks criss-cross Europe in a tangled network, plunge into the heart of Asia to Samarkand, and circle the globe in many lines.

He has just returned from a visit to Afghanistan and little-known Nepal, where he penetrated to the fringe of Tibet, the only country he has not entered.

Down through the Malay Archipelago to Sumatra and on to the inaccessible mining areas of New Guinea, where supplies all go in by air, lies one route, and Australia has traveled thoroughly, and the South Sea Islands. From the Klondike to the Straits of Magellan he has explored the two Americas. In Africa he has visited Timbuctoo and traveled down the River Congo from its source to the sea.

In his search for material for a book on gold mining Curle has visited more than 500 gold mines the world over. He has written a series of books containing his philosophical musings upon the people and places he has seen.

He considers Brazil the most beautiful country in the world; India the most romantic; Jerusalem the place and country in which he would settle if he could give up traveling. He first came to Johannesburg years ago as mining editor of a newspaper. He has no intention of settling down yet, and has already planned a journey into the heart of South America.

RECRUITING UNIT HERE WEDNESDAY

A recruiting party from the United States army, with headquarters at Fort Douglas, Utah, will visit this section Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, Sgt. R. E. Cobb, in charge of the local recruiting station, said today.

The party, which will be headed by Major Robinson and Sgt. Charles Cook, will secure enlistments for the 39th Infantry at Fort Douglas and the 4th Infantry at Fort Missoula, Mont. They will visit Twin Falls, Jerome, Buhl, Wendell, Burley and Rupert during the trip, Sgt. Cook said.

At the present time the army has a limited number of air corps mechanic vacancies for qualified mechanics. Men accepted will be stationed at Hawaii.

Stardom Comes to Jean Arthur After Five Years of Struggle

By PAUL HARRISON (NEA Service)

HOLLYWOOD — The colony is talking about Jean Arthur as though she were a cine-Cinderella who has just been led out of a Brooklyn chimney corner and launched into stardom.

Ha! and a couple of phoebes! Hollywood is like that. Hollywood has had five years to discover Jean Arthur. Her current romp recognition is not an initial climb, but a comeback. Cinderella crashed the party three times before she got her chance to shine. She is a celebrity now, rightly enough. You ought to hear Cell B. DeMille rave about her. DeMille directed "The Plainsman," with Gary Cooper as Wild Bill Hickock and Miss Arthur as Calamity Jane. Other movie-makers are begging her to please come and play in their lots. Casting conferences terminate like this: "and maybe you can find us somebody like Jean Arthur. She's the sweetest thing in town."

Miss Arthur is not impressed. Glad, of course, but not unbalanced by her new importance. She is still mindful of those long, discouraging years. She said, "I never much wanted to work in pictures, anyway, until producers made me so mad that I vowed I'd lick the game."

Wanted to Teach

She wasn't stage-struck as a kid. Wanted to be a school teacher. One day in Brooklyn she accompanied a friend to the studio of a commercial photographer. The latter asked her to pose for an advertisement.

Soon her face flashed from the best magazines, and along came the movie scouts. She got a contract, came to Hollywood, and found that they wanted her to play in a series of two-reel slapstick comedies.

She played in them, and did a few bits. Pretty soon her contract expired and she was free to return to New York and the still cameras. Instead, she stayed here and went into horse opera. Miss Arthur was the ranchman's daughter who rode to warn the settlement that bandits had crossed the Rio Grande.

A Film Mover

Then she was graduated to Paramount. First came a role opposite Richard Dix in something called "Warming Up." Then with Ruth Chatterton and Emil Jennings in "The Sons of the Fathers." Next as the murderess in "The Green Murder Case."

"I didn't want to be a murderess," she said. "I didn't like anything I had done on the screen. When my contract was up, I went back to New York, wondering what to try next. Maybe designing."

But she tried a play. It was "Foreign Affairs," with Osgood Perkins and Lillian Gish. And very good, too, except it was the kind of a play that didn't make any money or run very long.

It was enough, though, to encourage Miss Arthur. There were three more plays, all short runs, but she still likes the stage best, and wants more than anything else to be in a really good play.

She took a vacation in Hollywood and was offered new movie contracts. Made one picture, fretted in subsequent illness, and again returned to Broadway.

Two things happened to her there: She married Frank Ross, Jr., a realtor and builder, and she appeared in "The Bride of Toroko." One of this correspondent's indelible memories is how very, very bad that play was.

But Miss Arthur stood out against the sorry offering like a lighthouse in a fog. Movie scouts again pursued her.

So she came to Hollywood, determined to lick the game. And she has. "The Whole Towns Talking" set the town talking about Jean Arthur. "If You Could Only Cook" established her as a romantic comedienne. (Incidentally, she can't cook.)

"Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" and "The Ex-Mrs. Bradford" made her a celebrity.

REP. CLARK AIDS MOVE FOR FUNDS

Assistance in the move to secure added WPA funds to aid former-throut area residents now in Twin Falls is being given by Rep. D. Worth Clark, the Idaho representative has informed Mayor Duncan McD. Johnston. His message from Washington was in answer to the resolution passed by the city council.

"I had already taken this matter up with the WPA and was assured that a speedy solution was being sought," Rep. Clark said.

Not for Jean Arthur the glamour of luxurious gowns and gay night clubs. The untemperamental blond, now a filmland celebrity, likes to loll about in this fashion, with a book.

Your Baby's Health

By DR. MORRIS FISHBAIN, Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

During the last 10 years child psychologists have been giving an extraordinary amount of attention to the control of habits of sucking and their relationship to mental health.

Children suck their hands and fingers, eat dirt, bite their nails, or indulge in similar habits for many different reasons. There is no uniformity of opinion as to how these habits evolve, or which are their primary causes.

One psychologist insists that thumb sucking always is associated with hunger; another contends it is related to sexual manifestations; and others believe that the habit indicates the child is not able to feed satisfactorily.

Thus, one specialist has said that a child develops thumb sucking if the milk comes too rapidly from the mother's breast, or if it nurses from a bottle that empties rapidly.

One of the chief objections to thumb sucking is the fact that it may produce an ill-shaped mouth, and may damage the fingers. It stimulates an excessive flow of saliva, and may also disturb digestion for this reason.

Due to irritation of the mucous membranes of the mouth, there may be secondary infection. Plaster models of children's teeth and dental arches, made in a recent study of the subject, showed that there was bad formation of the jaws in 24 of 30 cases of children who persistently sucked their thumbs. It, therefore, is desirable that thumb sucking be stopped early, if possible.

There are various methods of treatment. One involves educating the child before a mirror; another has to do with the use of elbow cuffs or rings, and lastly, medicine, or similar devices.

The habits of nail biting and dirt eating occur especially in children more than three years of age. These habits usually are associated with interferences with health, and excessive nervousness. Children who eat dirt or bite their nails should be taught the harmfulness of these habits, and necessary steps should be taken to break the youngsters of them as soon as possible.

In each instance, these habits probably are associated with morbid fears or mental difficulties which the parent must uncover, to get a successful result. In many

DON'T SUFFER FROM CONSTIPATION

Read this letter from Wm. C. Billings, 1330 19th St., Denver, Colorado: "When I had eaten a heavy breakfast, I would feel loopy. After a couple of days of this, I would have to take a laxative."

"One morning I had a dish of ALL-BRAN. It beats any laxative, as it keeps me in shape every day."

Everybody knows that taking medicine all the time is an unhealthy habit. How much better to end common constipation by enjoying this safe, natural food!

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN relieves common constipation because it gives the body the "bulk" it needs. It absorbs twice its weight in water, gently exercises and sponges the intestines clean.

Try it for a week. If not satisfied, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company. Two tablets spoonfuls daily are usually enough—with every meal in chronic cases. Serve with milk or fruits. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

BRAZILIAN NUTS AROUSE CONCERN

But State Department Asserts Imports Play Small Role In Oleomargarine

By RALPH W. OLMSTEAD WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (Special)—A number of farm organizations in Idaho have become concerned over imports of Babassu nuts and oil from Brazil. Somebody has spread the statement that "through reciprocity treaties the nuts are being admitted free of duty and used in the manufacture of oleomargarine." Reciprocity trade division of the state department cheerfully replied that the Babassu nuts have been subject to duty since the declaration of independence and furthermore that only six per cent of the oleomargarine used in this country is made from Babassu oil. The 1930 campaign apparently is beginning early.

Senator Pope is calling to the attention of John Collier, commissioner of Indian affairs, the petitions of Nez Perce county citizens that the Indian agency, which two years ago was moved from Lapwai to Moscow, be returned to Lapwai. Strongest argument is that the Indians stayed in Lapwai—imagine an Indian agency in Moscow and no Indians.

The congressional delegation is exerting itself to end to secure $100,000 from PWA Administrator Ickes for the improvement and rehabilitation of the Lewiston orchards irrigation district. If ever a district needed help the Lewiston orchards do. We expect that its project eventually will be approved even if a new appropriation is necessary.

DESCENDANT

CANBERRA (U.P.) As a result of filming of "Mutiny on the Bounty" one more descendant of the "Bounty" Christian who led the mutineers to Pitcairn's island has just been found. The L. W. Nott, of this city, was on his way to see the film when he was handed a letter from Norfolk Island. It proved to be from Stephen Christian, a returned soldier and a descendant of Fletcher Christian, and begged that his boy, aged 15, be given an opportunity to enter the Commonwealth public service.

The boy, Holder Stanley Christian, probably will be placed in the postal department.

KIDNAPING DEATH PENALTY SOUGHT

Boise Group Moves for Strong Anti-Kidnaping Statute

BOISE, Jan. 12 (U.P.)—A move for a strong anti-kidnaping law was under way today in the Idaho legislature following news that kidnaped Charles Mattson of Tacoma, had been found beaten to death near Everett yesterday.

A group of senators asked J. F. Martin, senate attorney, to help them prepare a bill to require the death sentence for persons convicted of kidnaping.

Idaho's present law, provides a one to 25 year penalty for kidnaping, meaning that kidnaping would get off with little more than the minimum if future pardon boards operate as they have in the past, one senator pointed out.

A CHILD DIES

The child's brutal murder while his Tacoma parents sought frantically to pay the ransom demanded, furnishes the grim climax to a kidnaping that brought one hope to Idaho and the nation: catch the culprit.

Seized from his home in light clothing and already suffering from a cold, the youngster apparently survived until the trail became too hot for his captor.

The rest remains in the hands of G-men and Washington police.

The trail that grew too hot for the kidnaper must be kept hot—until the law's most drastic penalty is exacted.

And Idaho, meanwhile, would do well to listen to its own legislators who propose the death penalty for the crime of kidnaping for ransom. Since we have the death penalty for murder, certainly it should apply to kidnaping, which so often ends in murder.

A senator suggests we abolish "some of our verbal corpses." Isn't there a post office division that dispenses with dead letters?

NO MORE HIDDEN-BALL TRICKS

Nebraska's one-house legislature has finally swung into action.

Quite aside from the fact that one chamber means more economy than two, the plan should definitely end the old hidden-ball trick by which a two-house legislature can lose essential bills between the two chambers, with no one to take the blame. Responsibility is definitely centered.

Beyond that, the body is small and compact enough so that the voter can keep informed about who is doing what, and why, without devoting all his time to research.

The Nebraska experiment may be far from perfect. It may turn out to be much less valuable than its sponsors hope. But the point is that it is an honest, far-reaching effort to do something about legislative machinery that is often unwieldy.

For that reason it is worth careful study.

Science is trying to eliminate the glare of headlights, but nothing is being done about that of a wife when hubby trumps her ace.

ROMANCE AND RECKLESSNESS

Offhand, there would seem to be little relation between marriage and reckless driving—but listen to Ray Ingels, director of motor vehicles, state of California.

"Department records show many single men, formerly listed as habitual violators of traffic laws, who became model drivers after they were married. Perhaps the greater responsibility," continued Mr. Ingels, "curbs their reckless tendencies."

Or perhaps there is another reason. With marriage, for instance, a man's driving technic may undergo a decided change. Before, the task of manipulating steering wheel, horn, brake, etc., sometimes is left to one hand, while the other rests affectionately about a companion's neck.

After the ceremony, the man not only has both hands free to operate his car, but he may be assisted by sharp directions from the back seat.

Whatever the explanation, it is pleasant to know that Cupid can be an aid, as well as a detriment, to safe driving.

A thief stole a truckload of explosives in Washington, D. C. To date police have found neither hide nor hair of him.

NEW GOLD BRICK OFFER?

The hands-across-the-sea movement is beginning to come to life again. The Imperial Policy group, an organization of some two score members of the British parliament, announces that in March it will send over an unofficial mission to promote "a closer understanding between the United States and the British empire."

This mission, it is announced, will try to do two things: find out how America feels about a settlement of the British war-debt, and try to promote cooperation between the two nations in case another war blows up.

The first part of the job should be very easy, and could be accomplished by a cub reporter on any London daily. The average American's reaction to the war debt is simply a feeling that he would like to see a little something paid on account, and he has made no secret of this attitude for some years.

The second part may be tougher. When Anglo-American cooperation is mentioned, most Americans have a feeling that it is America that will do most of the cooperating. This is a cold and cruel world and this country still remembers that fall downstairs in 1917. A British mission which hopes to sell the idea of cooperation is going to have to demonstrate that it would be a two-way proposition.

Friendship and harmony between the two great English-speaking nations is a beautiful ideal. Americans can hardly be blamed; however, if they look at the record of the last two decades and decide that an overseas offer of cooperation is apt to have a catch in it.

We've already had all-down and lay-down strikes. It remains for circus athletes to inaugurate a back-flip "walkout."

A robber broke into a drugstore in a western city, but several bottles of liniment was all he got for his pains.

An ad suggests that people get more iron in their diets. This should be easy for the Germans, who have been offered butter or cannon.

The galley of the Christmas party at "Thunder Mesa," the Forest hacienda in New Mexico, has a tragic ending when PEARL JOHN DE FOREST, oldest of three brothers, is found dead with a knife in his throat.

Each of the de Forest brothers has the first name "Pearl." As a family they cling to traditions, seldom see outsiders. PEARL JOHN is the youngest brother, PEARL PIERRE is next, and PEARL TANTE JOSEPHINE is the housekeeper. TANTE JOSEPHINE, old and an invalid, BETTY WELCH, her young companion RAMON VASQUEZ, and ANGELO ABREXTA, guests at the party, PROFESSOR SHAW, archaeologist, and BOB GRAHAM, the salesman stopping at the hacienda with his car is required.

The body of Pearl John is placed in the house chapel, disappears. Bob hears Tante Josephine, in a hysterical outburst, accuse each of the remaining brothers of Pearl Sam's murder.

Hamon and Angeline discover that the body of Pearl Sam has been burned. Angeline flirts with Pearl Pierre to see if she can learn anything about the murder. Next morning, Pearl Pierre is missing and his body is found below a rocky ledge, the same knife that killed Pearl Sam in his throat.

The body is carried to the chapel and the door locked. Pearl John announces that he is going to destroy the knife. He goes for it, but the knife is missing.

HISTORY of Twin Falls City & County

As Gleaned from Files of The Times

15 YEARS AGO— JAN. 12, 1922 County Agent R. E. Brossard, who returned yesterday from the Idaho Falls seed show, says that the Twin Falls exhibits showed up magnificently in a show where the standard was high. Regarding the quality of the products on exhibition it is noted that the alsike clover of R. C. McGill, Buhl, which took first prize at the Chicago international shows won the fifth prize at Idaho Falls.

M. A. Thmetz, Twin Falls county, won first and C. D. Irwin, Escalante in the class.

E. S. Wood, Kimberly, won first in Dicklow wheat.

R. S. Harrison of the Cottonwood ranch won a number of prizes getting second in soft red winter wheat, third in navy beans; fifth in irrigated oats and fifth in beans of other varieties.

27 YEARS AGO—

Jan. 12, 1910 WASHINGTON — The United States supreme court today handed down a decision sustaining the power of the interstate commerce commission to regulate the distribution of railroad cars among coal companies. The decision is regarded by the government as most important and it is expected to rate cases to be heard by the court.

In announcing the decision Justice White considered two objections to the delegation of power to the commission, the first being that no such delegation had been made by the interstate commerce law in the matter of the distribution of company fuel cases as a means of prohibiting unjust preferences and undue discrimination, and the second, that even if such power should be delegated, the order enjoyed by the court below was beyond the authority conferred by law.

Oldsters Must Set Example It is going to be one of the greatest movements in all child training, so look for it, my friends. And not only this, but it is important for children to DO things they don't like to do very well.

As a matter of fact, we oldsters must also look to our own characters. There is always room for improvement. Yes, young and old should do a certain amount of unwelcome work, or unacceptable duties, if we are to be strong in spirit and really sporting.

Another angle of the same thing is learning to take what comes without complaint. This is not so new, but added to the unpleasant regimen of all the other things, it looks as though this business of self-saving and self-pity was about over, and the way ahead is no path of roses.

Teach Young to Forget Selves But something must be done to turn eyes away from self. At least the prognosticators say so. And I believe they are right. It has no name, it calls itself by no theory, it is merely a result of a better softening that has crept into the race; and investigations into the roots and causes have brought forth this truth. We can not become real men and women, so it seems, until we learn to forget our "enemies," take what comes and stop saving our mental and physical muscles.

We must be happy. Children must be happy. But, with true happiness as the goal, we must teach children to forget their injuries or imagined ones, and like everybody. No dislikes handed down. No family prejudices warmed over for the offspring. No acid comments on people we abhor. And so it looks as though we must shake off our own shackles first, if we are to free the children. Copyright, 1937 NEA Service Inc.

You May Not Know That—

Between 90 and 95 percent of Twin Falls county's 2,800 farms are infested, to small or large degree, with some type of noxious weed.

PAUL MALLON'S NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

An Exclusive Evening Times Daily Report on the Fast-Moving Events in the Nation's Capital. By an Expert Interpreter and Commentator. (Copyright, 1935, By Paul Mallon)

REACTION WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Published congressional comment on President Roosevelt's call for cooperation of the courts may have been misleading. Private comment was somewhat different.

An accurate indication of the congressional reaction may be gleaned from the actions of an eminent Democratic leader in congress. It is his custom to dictate his comment on presidential messages and send it to the press gallery on each occasion. It was misleading from the bulletin board this time. Newsmen set out to find him. When cornered, he said, "It was a great message and was received with lively enthusiasm."

Other experienced leaders generally chose to say the usual things more briefly than usual, or else said nothing. One conservative Democrat from down south said: "It was tragic," but asked that his name not be used. Another asked the question, off the record, whether the President fully appreciated the responsibility he had assumed.

At least two supreme court justices were reported to be "furious" by some of their friends who may or may not have been in a position to say.

CONFUSION The broadest reason for the widespread lack of congressional enthusiasm was personal. Nearly every leader and every congressman knows exactly what should be done about hours and wages, but their solutions wander in a dozen different directions.

For example, you would think that if any congressman reflected Presidential viewpoint, it would be Speaker Vankhead and Senate Democratic Leader Robinson. They are the President's leaders. But they came out in favor of the constitutional amendment method just a day or two before Mr. Roosevelt delivered his message advising against that course now.

Another, deeper, reason is that many legislators are frightened about continuing agitation (the auto strikes, threatened coal and steel strikes, etc.) and where this direct method of effecting wage and hour standards will end. They consider it dangerous to continue along those lines and would rather have the government assume the responsibility to encourage labor leaders to take it.

More on Sun Valley (Lincoln County Journal) One can go to almost any part of Idaho and find that the Sun Valley development is being discussed just as much as it is here. Reported incidents from other towns illustrate how folks are keyed up on this subject. At Pocatello a group of ardent motion picture fans waited three hours at the station to see the special Hollywood train come through en route to Ketchum on the morning of December 31. The train stood at the Pocatello station at 11:30 a. m. but the anxious fans, looking through the iron fences, caught not a glimpse of any movie stars. Subsequently a publicity man on the train heard about it even before he got to Ketchum. He went back to Pocatello and had an awaiting crowd, the film notables would certainly have crawled from their berths to greet the multitude. At Gooding, according to published reports, it was rumored last week that Mae West had come through town by automobile on her way to Ketchum and had bought gas at a service station. There was a flood of applications for Sun Valley reservations immediately.

Each time an air line purchases a $6000 engine for one of its planes, it is necessary to spend between $25,000 and $40,000 additional for the operation and maintenance of it before it becomes obsolete.

BROKEN HEARTS A glowering look has appeared on the faces of a dozen or more normally genial senators lately. The story in the cloakroom is that the glowers have heard that Mr. Roosevelt said he would not appoint a man

CONTINUANCE OF RAIL RATE ASKED

Idaho Shippers Traffic Group Makes Demand at Nampa Gathering
NAMPA, Jan. 12 (CP)—A formal demand that present livable rates on fruits and vegetables from Idaho be continued has been filed with rate bureaus of western, middle-western and southern railroads, Austin Anson, secretary of the Idaho Shippers Traffic association, said yesterday.
New higher rates to replace the emergency tariffs will cost Idaho farmers $3,167,827.50 in increased freight bills during 1937 if they are allowed to take effect, Anson estimated.
"The change would mean an increase of $30 an acre for apples, $17.50 for prunes and other soft fruits and from $22 to $30 for potatoes and onions, coming at a time when the Idaho producer is beginning to get his head above water for the first time in 10 days," he said.

STEELE PUTS BOOM IN MIDDLEWEIGHT BOXING CLASS

TACOMA FIGHTER SERVES AS TONIC

Winnor of Eliminations To Be Sent Against Champion In New York

By JIMMY DONAHUE (NEA Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 12—Middleweights have boomed into activity with old and new faces supplying the potent punch that bids fair to revive interest in a division relegated to comparative obscurity ever since Mickey Walker jossed the crown overboard to scrap big fellows.

Six months ago there hardly was a 160-pounder with sufficient drawing power to park a horn, let alone an office like Madison Square Garden.

Then along came Freddie Steele, a lethal larruper of Tacoma, who last July climaxed a brilliant string of triumphs by demolishing Eddie Babe Risko as champion. The entry of Steele into boxing's limelight served as a tonic to snap the middleweight effort-out of its abysmal lethargy.

A litter of jaw-breaking potency, Steele has the qualities that lure fight fibers to the bucks office. Promoters began scouting the hinterlands and foreign countries for 160-pounders of promise. New ones were uncovered and old ones resurrected.

The main idea, of course, was to produce an opponent worthy of testing Steele's mettle, and at the same time provide assurance of attracting a rich enough gate to entice the poker of the Pacific northwest to defend the diadem in the east.

Work for Steele
A dozen 160-pounders took new leases on life or were developed, overnight, as it were. Steele, long content to confine his activities to the Pacific slope, launched what promises to be a lucrative eastern invasion. The Tacoma Tapper obtained a good start in Milwaukee on the afternoon of New Year's day by dropping and defeating Gorilla Jones in his first start east of the Rockies.

There are six possible punching parties for which Steele can sign in New York. The warrior in the opposite corner could be Fred Apostol, Solly Krieger, Risko, Gustav Eder, Harry Balsamo, or Eric Seelig. Teddy Yarosz offers Steele opposition in Pittsburgh. Paul Pirone would be a suitable rival in Cleveland. Jimmy Clark no doubt would be happy to accommodate the coast cloaker in Buffalo.

San Franciscans still talk about a thriller in which Steele knocked out Apostol in the tenth round, April 1, 1935. Apostol now is in New York under the wing of Michael Strauss Jacobs, whose promotional activities have made his ticker scalping a sideline.

Krieger was a surprise knock-out victor over Balsamo, who cannot yet be counted out. Risko jumped back into the thick of things by taking a decision from Balsamo at a time when the boys were referring to the betting brakeman as another Stanley Ketchik. Eder is a highly regarded German welter who tackles middleweights. Seelig, the German referee, probably was caught cold when Balsamo flattened him for the first time.

Yarosz Sound
Yarosz, who lost the title to Risko on one good leg, is signed again and showing encouraging signs of return to top form.

Pirone, a dangerous puncher, would be a strong attraction against Steele in his home city of Cleveland.

Pirone has staged another of his frequent comebacks since Buffalo climbed out of the resin to stiffen him in Quebec. He won a pair of knockdowns in scoring a 16-round verdict from Johnny Miller of Paulsboro, N. J., on the Al Edmore-John Henry Lewis card in Philadelphia the other night. Duca substituted for Seelig, who was indisposed.

Clark in the Olympic Negro amateur attracting attention as a professional in Buffalo. He is a hard hitter, but may be a year or so away.

Lou Brillard is donning war rags for a trip to Paris and another crack at Marcel Thil, who could further stimulate the middleweight business by coming to this country.

It is expected that elimination bouts among the boys scrambling for the opportunity to meet Steele will be put on. Jacobs plans to send Apostol against Krieger, Risko, or Yarosz at the Hippodrome Jan. 22. If the former bellhop decisively repels any one of them, he is likely to be sent against Steele again without further ado.

Gooding Boxers Send Challenges

GOODING, Jan. 12 (Special)—Challenges have been sent to the Twin Falls, Jerome, Wendell, Bliss and Shoshone high schools by Floyd Elson, coach of the Gooding high school boxing squad.

Coach Elson has been drilling a squad of about 20 boys for several weeks, but as yet they have had no bouts.

Claims Record

BOSTON, (UP)—The Boston police radio department claims a new ultra-short wave transmission record of 3,000 miles.

A communication from Hermann Wurker of Neugersdorf, Germany, asks confirmation of a radio conversation on Oct. 15 between the radio patrol car of Police Commissioner Eugene M. Mcweeney and headquarters. Wurker says he picked up the seven-meter broadcast with amazing clarity.

MONEY SAYS GERMANS WILL WIN DAVIS CUP THIS YEAR

By HENRY McLEMORE

United Press Staff Correspondent
MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 12 (UP)—Putting the sports snafu here and there:

Since Fred Perry turned professional an even 3,000 prophets have gone on record as saying that the 1937 Davis cup competition is a cinch for the United States—I wonder if the prophets would like to risk something other than their reputations on America's chances?

Money says Germany will win it, and the Australians, not the Americans, will be the chief Nazis... of course, Germany may not get a chance to win it, now that anti-Swastika leagues are carrying their distillate of Hitler into the realm of sport.

Grateful for Uprour
Speaking of boycott organizations, my guess is that Madison Square Garden, Mike Jacobs, and Jim Braddock are so grateful for the uproar against Max Schmeling that they would gladly contribute to the campaign fund... After all, Schmeling and Braddock figured to draw haircut money, while Jim and Joe Louis are good for half a million or more.

Talks with representatives of several sporting goods houses has convinced me that the U. S. G. A.'s 16-club ruling will make money, rather than lose it, for the manufacturers... The edict sounded the death knell for the dozens of truck and fad clubs the golf companies manufactured and got stuck with each year... All the golf bags in all the clubs in the country, and the average number of sticks in each would be between eight and ten... Now, with 14 established as the proper number, your average golfer will want to increase his armory to the standard size...

Would Reduce Pay
Did you know that several of the golf ball companies can produce a ball which will travel 75 to 100 yards further than the present ball any day they want to? ... But they aren't likely to, for the reason that such a ball would revolutionize golf... It would play havoc with the courses, making par fives par fours, par fours par threes, etc... And it would require an entire new set of weapons.

Steve Owen, coach of the pro Giants, rates Sammy Baugh, the Texas Christian ace, as the best football player he ever saw... yet, I'll bet if Steve could have his choice between Baugh and Ken Strong, when Ken was in his prime, he'd take the big New York university star.

Chooses Perry
Cliff Sutter, who has played them both many times, thinks Elyworth vines will beat Perry only on the nights he (Vines) is absolutely at the top of his game... "And that won't be more than once a week or so, because usually Ely lacks control... He allows no margin of safety whatsoever on his shots."

Sam Coule, one of the leading jockeys at Tropical, is a ruler because Bill Norton, trainer for Mrs. J. H. Whitney, happened to buy a newspaper from him on a street car in Boston... Coule had never been aboard anything livelier than a bicycle when he reported for work as exercise boy at Saratoga. He's ridden fifty-three winners so far...

Consider Libel Suits
The Hingling Brothers circus, which trains in Sarasota, Fla., just 12 miles from Dizzy Dean's home in Bradenton, has named a chimpanzee after the Cardinal quiet, reserved pitcher... The chimpanzee has asked for $100,000 in salary, but he won't get it, either... Both Dizzy and the chimpanzee are said to be considering libel suits.

Sammy Byrd, baseball player, said he plans to quit that game for golf... If all the baseball players who said they were going to turn to golf for a living did, President Roosevelt would have to increase the unemployment budget.

The more I see of Al Alal (pronounced Baumg Bengay) the more I know it's the world's most over-rated sport.

Winner of Wednesday's Krieger-Yarosz match is almost sure to be matched with Fred Apostol, the 24-year-old Italian-American who has been a sensation on the Pacific coast. Victor of this series would be the logical opponent for the Steele-Risko match winner.

MOOSE WILL PLAY ORANGE

ORANGE QUINTET DEFEATS BURLEY

Local Squad Hangs Up 41-27 Win Over Visitors; Green Outstanding

Orange Transportation basketball team avenged a defeat of a week ago here last night as they downed the Burley Elks by a score of 41-27. The game was played in the high school gymnasium.

The Transportation team led from the opening minutes of play, and were ahead at the half time, 14-9. Johnny Wells led the local scoring with 12 points, while Hort scored the same number of points to lead Burley. Gail Green played an outstanding floor game for the Orange quint, counting nine points while making five throws out of as many attempts.

The game was a rough affair, 30 fouls being called. Shelton was ejected from the Twin Falls lineup on personals early in the first half and two Burley men, Baker and Holmgren, left in the second.

Orange Transportation: J. Wells (12) and Shelton (1), forwards; Turner (5), center; Haslam (9) and Green (9), guards. Substitutions: Lundheim (5), R. Wells and Serpa. Burley Elks: Westler (1) and Baker (3), forwards; Norby (4), center; Hort (12) and Holmgren (1), guards. Substitutions: Judvine (6), D. Parrish and Barlow (2).

GROUP SUGGESTS GAME COMMITTEE

Delegates to Wildlife Meeting In Boise Want Special Commission

BOISE, Ida., Jan. 12 (UP)—Possibility of creating a state game commission with its members to be under civil service was discussed yesterday by delegates to the Idaho Wildlife federation at its second annual meeting.

A suggestion that a game commission or the warden be given the responsibility for setting out fish and game regulations to the legislature of the task was made by George W. Grebe, Kuna, director for Idaho, Montana and Wyoming of the North American wildlife conference.

Glenn A. Smith, Missoula, U. S. forest service representative, recommended that numbers of big game be limited to as many as could be adequately cared for in unfavorable winters.

Deer may be as destructive to watersheds as sheep when they congregate in small areas, resulting in erosion and ruminant of winter feeding grounds, stressed Orange Olson, Ogden, regional forest director.

Wins Amateur Cup
The amateur cup went to Bruce McCormick of Pasadena, whose 288 was the lowest in tournament history. He was followed by Jim McHale of San Gabriel with 295 and Don Erickson, Los Angeles, with 298.

Cooper will master all the way carrying 69-70-69-69. Smith opened in the tournament with two 71s, then shaved down the course record with a 64, but folded in the last 18 with a 73. Guildahl maintained the consistency of the top money-winners with 70-72-66-71-270.

Expect Battle to Help Clear Up Muddled Middleweight Situation

NEW YORK, Jan. 12—The increased activity in the middleweight ranks bids fair today to clear up by this summer the title controversy that has raged since Mickey Walker abandoned the championship in 1931 to compete with the heavyweights.

The clash between former Champion Terry Yarosz of Pittsburgh and Solly Krieger, of New York, tomorrow night sounds like the starting gun of a tournament that should definitely settle the wear of the middleweight crown now claimed by Freddie Steele of Seattle and Marcel Thil of France.

Thil's ascendancy to the throne came through a national boxing association elimination in 1932. Steele's claim was made after he walloped Babe Risko in 15 rounds last summer.

Steele has agreed to meet Risko in Madison Square Garden next month.

Winner of Wednesday's Krieger-Yarosz match is almost sure to be matched with Fred Apostol, the 24-year-old Italian-American who has been a sensation on the Pacific coast. Victor of this series would be the logical opponent for the Steele-Risko match winner.

MOOSE WILL PLAY ORANGE
Seeking revenge for a narrow loss to the Orange Transportation five of Twin Falls, Jerome's strong Moose quintet will invade Twin Falls again Thursday night to oppose the Orangemen in a return game.

The battle is slated for 8:30 p. m.

Construction is proceeding rapidly on a large airport at Prague, Czechoslovakia, which, when completed, will cost approximately $7,000,000.

Cooper $2,500 Richer After Winning Los Angeles Tourney

By JACK GUENTHER
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12 (UP)—"Lighthorse" Harry Cooper of Chicago was $2,500 richer today because of his par-and-record-smashing stretch drive late yesterday that gave him the championship of the $8,500 Los Angeles open golf tournament.

Hortley Smith, the "Joplin" ghost, and Ralph Guildahl, St. Louis, tied to split second and third place money for $1,250 each. Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., was fourth to win $750.

The "hard luck master" title plumed on Cooper when Tony Manero defeated him in the national open finals is a misnomer insofar as play in the coast classic was concerned. He had his whole bag of clubs working throughout the tournament.

Gets Cheers
The mountain-surrounded course rang with cheers as Cooper cupped six birdies in the last round for a 66 that gave him a tournament score of 274 five strokes beneath the record he set himself in winning the first open here in 1920.

Smith started the last round two strokes in front but his iron failed him. Guildahl was a stroke ahead of Cooper and Smith, who were deadlocked, as they set out over the last nine.

Smith and Guildahl finished with 207s. Picard wound up in fourth with 280 strokes and "got $750. Thirty-two players received money prizes.

Wins Amateur Cup
The amateur cup went to Bruce McCormick of Pasadena, whose 288 was the lowest in tournament history. He was followed by Jim McHale of San Gabriel with 295 and Don Erickson, Los Angeles, with 298.

Cooper will master all the way carrying 69-70-69-69. Smith opened in the tournament with two 71s, then shaved down the course record with a 64, but folded in the last 18 with a 73. Guildahl maintained the consistency of the top money-winners with 70-72-66-71-270.

Guildahl lost $500 on one stroke on the last holes, missing a putt that would have given him exclusive possession of second place.

Teaming with the St. Louisan in hard luck was Art Bell, Pasadena youngster, who lost two birdies when his chip shots were deflected by divots. Bell finished fifth with 282 and reaped $500. A stroke behind was Sam Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., who shot-out a score of big-timers to gain sixth and $400.

STRIKES TO SPARE

WITH FRED STONE

Five Aces are a good hand, as Dell's found out when the Aces took all high honors as well as all three games.

Jones, as usual, led his gang with high three-games total of 615. Rolly had just one double, getting it in his last game, but four splits slowed him down.

Cap Prinegar got his share of splits, two in each game, but his two doubles helped overcome those a little.

Judy Rash and N. O. Johnson got one double each. Bill McDonald had the time of his life. He couldn't strike, in fact, hardly spare; seven errors were charged against his score.

Lee McCracken went over the 500 mark but seven errors wrecked a really good night. Ace Miller had a good first game but slowed his next two. Vern Jennings, not so good in his first and second games, but a turkey and a double gave him a good last game.

"Just anchoring along," said George Buhler. George's spare ball caused him plenty of trouble, and how.

Chevrolet certainly snowed under the Questionnaires, taking all three games as well as all high totals.

The Chevrolet has won its last nine games in a row and its last 11 out of 12.

Edwards had high single game, 178, beating his teammate Max Miller by one point. Edwards' 512 was good for high total.

Max Miller got the only turkey for the City league boys, getting it in his first game.

Joe Ainsworth was high man for Questionnaires, 162 for high single and 451 for high total. He got the only double made by his team, getting it in his second game.

Cosmeticians Differ Greatly About Best Makeup Procedure

The Eleanor Powell type usually is most flattered by natural-looking makeup. However, dark lipstick, rouge and powder generally make brunettes look more sophisticated.

Anyone with hair as dark, eyes as blue and skin as fair as Margaret O'Sullivan's, the new dark makeup, including rich, dark red lipstick, fairly dark rouge and powder two shades darker than the natural skin tones, is sure to be flattering.

The Jeanette MacDonald type can wear powder one shade lighter than her skin, lipstick and rouge which match natural blood tones and a pale, iridescent eye-shadow.

A Marlene Dietrich is easily enough to be able to follow the "color chart" theory. She might choose a special set of cosmetics to harmonize with the color of every dress in her wardrobe.

SCHOOL MEETING POSTPONED HERE

Because a quorum was not available last night, the board of trustees of Twin Falls school district postponed its scheduled monthly session and planned the meeting probably near the end of the present week.

Possible action on overcrowded conditions in the school system is scheduled for discussion at the meeting. Decision on the super-paying job. He paved a quarter-mile of 20-foot paving and required 12 helpers to supply bricks.

CABARETS VEX NEW ORLEANS

Regulation of Night Clubs Part of City Police Force's Duty

By RICHARD G. HARRIS
NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—This city didn't invent the night club, but New Orleans has had cabarets since the earliest days of its history.

They sprang up about 1718 and they've blossomed all those 218 years, a perpetual and colorful scene. Authorities worried plenty back in the colonial days. They taxed and they regulated and they told police it was their job to see they do both.

In this early day, New Orleans cabarets, as they say in Italy, were "had" everywhere. The ones with floor shows were largely places for family gatherings. The cabaret had come direct to New Orleans from Paris. The very name came from the old-French word "cabaret," meaning an empty space.

The city fathers taxed the cabarets for alcoholic liquors sold. Naturally the profession of liquor smuggling developed. Beneath the footstep of New Orleans was the first effort to weed the cabaret. The first effort to weed the cabaret was made in 1850. He was still with liquor smuggling for years. When he got his job and went back to France he brought the first bottle to his native city. They're wrestling with it yet.

Work On 'Coyote' Going Smoothly

Work on the Coyote, Twin Falls high school musical, is going smoothly. The E. E. Toulon faculty adviser, said the rehearsal was a success.

Today was rehearsal day with students being free to bring their cameras to school and snap pictures at will. It is hoped that some good snaps have been secured.

Practically all of the senior and junior pictures have been taken and are being finished as rapidly as possible.

The "Coyote" this year will be a hard-hitting and powerful musical. It is a departure from the usual musical as was last year's.

Members of the H-Y club will entertain the high school students Friday night with an after-the-dance at the Elks hall. The dance is to be a benefit for the eye clinic and any surplus is to be given to the eye clinic.

The program for the dance will be given by Gus and his band.

POST ON BOARD FOR MRS. DEISS

Mayor and Council ReName Member to Library Unit Chief Gives Report

Mrs. Herman Deiss had been reappointed today for a three-year period to fill one of the two expiring terms of the city library board.

Reappointment by Mayor Duncan and Council was approved by the city council at last night's session in city hall.

The councilmen also received the monthly report of Police Chief Howard Gillette, authorized Mayor Johnston to vote the city's 1,254.59 shares at the meeting of the Twin Falls Canal company stockholders today, and discussed the $100,000 airport project which has been granted $81,134 in WPA funds.

Second Appointment Later

Appointment of a successor to Mrs. E. M. Sweeley on the library board will be made later, the mayor and council decided. Members now on the board in addition to Mrs. Deiss include Mrs. Wilbur S. Hill, whose term expires Jan. 1, 1938; and Mrs. John E. Hayes, and Mrs. Ralph Pink, whose terms end Jan. 1, 1939.

Chief Gillette's report showed apprehension of 24 violators of city ordinances and 49 violators of traffic ordinance; 28 cases of drunkenness; eight misdemeanors and felonies; investigation of 217 complaints; 109 arrests.

The police department had a 100 per cent record on stolen cars for December, the report showed, since five were stolen and five recovered. Three bicycles were recovered. Fines and costs for the month totaled $195. Meals furnished at the city jail numbered 58.

IMA MINES BUSY SPEEDING OUTPUT

Property Between Salmon and Mackay Going Full Blast Night and Day

Property of the Ima Mines corporation, located about half way between Salmon and Mackay, is being worked full time and approximately 40 men are kept busy night and day, W. P. Barton, mining man, said here today.

Mr. Barton stated that the property is being worked at the present time, where purchases will be made of additional mining equipment, expected to double the output of the Idaho tungsten mine.

At the present time, Mr. Barton reports, one and one-half miles of underground tunneling have been completed. Workers will continue shipments all winter; the tungsten concentrate going to New York City markets and sulphide products to the Salt Lake City smelters.

Reliable engineers, according to Mr. Barton, say the tungsten located at the mine and immediate vicinity is the largest deposit of that metal in the United States. It is used principally in production of steel.

No Park Skating Until Tomorrow

There will be no skating until tomorrow afternoon and evening at Harmon park, it was announced today by A. B. Hopkins, park superintendent. The pool is still being flooded as it was not cold enough last night to freeze the surface sufficiently for use.

If the weather is right tomorrow the skating will be opened in the afternoon tomorrow and in the evening floodlights will be turned on. Fuel has been provided for the fireplaces, Mr. Hopkins stated.

Every effort is being made to provide adequate skating facilities for Twin Falls and vicinity and city authorities look forward next year to making Harmon park a real center for winter sports, Hopkins states.

No Epidemic Flu Found in County; Few Mild Cases

No true cases of epidemic influenza have been reported in Twin Falls county to date, although several mild cases of the disease exist, Dr. J. W. Hawkins, director of the county health unit said today.

According to Dr. Hawkins, a report of the United States Public Health department a week shows approximately 8000 cases of the epidemic type existing in the United States. The department, in view of this small number, does not recognize the present trend as being toward a general epidemic.

Urges Precautions

Inasmuch as the disease exists in some sections and is of the more serious nature, there is always the possibility it might spread this way, Dr. Hawkins said. He urged citizens to go to bed and call the family physician if any signs pointing toward the disease are noticed. It is also advisable, the physician said, to avoid undue attendance at public gatherings or places.

"Medical knowledge shows the influenza epidemics occur approximately every 20 years," Dr. Hawkins said. "Sometimes they are less serious in nature. The last general epidemic, occurring during the World war, was very serious."

"There is no evidence, records show, that at the present time the disease this year will approach the seriousness of the disease during the last epidemic."
