Senate Bloc Battles Over F.D.R. Court Proposals JUSTICES MAY QUIT JOBS

AMENDMENT TO AID PROGRAM OF CLARK IS ASKED Committee on Revenue and Taxation Seeks Help For Public Power

Sen. William E. Borah, R., Idaho, one of foremost constitutional authorities: "I cannot discuss it hastily."

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 6 (UP)—Further to expedite carrying out of Gov. Barzilla Clark's public power program, a constitutional amendment to permit municipalities to purchase, construct or condemn utilities was asked in the Idaho house of representatives today by the revenue and taxation committee.

The question would be submitted to a vote of the people along with another power proposal appearing in the senate yesterday, to permit public bodies to incur debt for power projects.

Authority to acquire electric plants, transmission systems, water supply and distributing systems would be given public power districts, which would be formed under another plank in the governors' public ownership legislation.

Tax Increase Proposed The revenue and taxation committee proposed to increase the tax rate on incomes over $7,000 from eight to nine per cent. Net incomes between $3,000 and $6,000 would be charged seven per cent. instead of eight.

A bill to further carry out provisions of the state school equalization law was introduced, providing for division of money in the state public school income fund to bring county funds up to $120 a month for common school classrooms and $160 for each classroom in high schools.

Appropriation bills appeared to provide for the 1937-38 needs of a number of state departments.

Opponents Charge President is Trying To "Pack" Supreme Tribunal

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (UP)—An embattled bloc of conservative Democratic and Republican senators began today an historic battle against President Roosevelt's request for power to increase by six justices the membership of the supreme court.

COMMENTS VARY ON COURT IDEA

Storm of Opinions Greeted New Presidential Proposal

By United Press

Heavily approval and vigorous denunciation greeted President Roosevelt's proposals for federal court reforms typical comment:

Sen. George W. Norris, Ind., Neb.: The message graphically calls attention of the country to an unfortunate situation in the judiciary. I commend and agree with every word in that regard. But I doubt the wisdom of the remedy suggested.

Sen. Carter Glass, D., Va.: It is well known that I am opposed to any tinkering with the supreme court.

Chairman Henry F. Ashurst, D., Ariz. of the senate judiciary committee: President (later chief justice) William Howard Taft urged this same thing several years ago. I am in favor of the President's proposal.

Vandenberg Against Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, R., Mich. I most emphatically do not agree to packing the supreme court no matter how adroitly the objective is described in a multitude of words.

House Minority Leader Bertrand H. Snell, R., N. Y. The New Deal has wrecked the economic stability of the nation and it is seeking to undermine the judiciary.

Senate Minority Leader Charles L. McNary, R., Ore.: It involves the transfer to the President of greater power than ever before held over the judiciary.

McAdoo Favors Sen. William Gibbs McAdoo, D., Cal. The message receives my unreserved commendation. The congress will, in my opinion, comply promptly with the President's recommendations.

Sen. William E. Borah, R., Ida. one of the capital's foremost constitutional authorities, said certain items of the program seemed to be "all right" while there were others he could not support. "A matter of this kind is of such importance," he said, "that I cannot discuss it hastily."

Former President Herbert Hoover. The supreme court has proved many times over that it is not a pack."

DAMAGES SOUGHT FOR BOY'S DEATH

Parents Ask $15,135 From Auto Driver for Killing Of Earl Goertzen, 9

Death of Earl Goertzen, nine-year-old Twin Falls boy struck by a motor car here last Nov. 3, resulted in filing of a $15,135 suit for damages in district court today.

The action was brought by Peter Goertzen and Mrs. Helen Goertzen against William P. White, Halley mining engineer, and the William J. Stratton company of Spokane.

The complaint charges White was driver of the car that struck the Goertzen boy as he was crossing Third avenue north at Shoshone street.

Damages of $10,000 were asked for the child's death, $5,000 additional was sought for punitive damages and $135 was requested for funeral expenses.

Claim Negligence Mr. and Mrs. Goertzen, in their complaint, accused White of driving negligently and carelessly and at a high and excessive rate of speed on Shoshone street.

White is employed by the mining concern, the suit asserts. Rayboun and Rayboun are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

COOKE RESIGNS WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (UP)—Morris L. Cooke, rural electrification administrator, resigned today, President Roosevelt accepted the resignation.

Acting in the midst of a national labor crisis on the eve of the supreme court argument on the New Deal Wagner labor relations act, the President with a single swift move, brought congress to grips with an issue affecting the fundamentals of the government system. With the same speed, he started the house on passing his judiciary reform bill, embodying the supreme court changes, without apparent effective opposition.

Storm Breaks But in the senate, a long-gathering storm broke with a fury of historical significance. The upper chamber, rich in the tradition of debate that has guided the nation's course for 150 years, began laying down the battle lines.

The administration leadership in the senate emphasized the need for reforms, particularly to reduce uncertainty frequently resulting between the time of lower court orders restraining enforcement of an act of congress and final supreme court decision.

Opponents of the program charged that it was an indirect attempt to "pack" the court and to extend so-called dictatorial methods at the expense of the judiciary.

Opposition in Minority Conscience that their action may bulk large in the pages of American history, the senate opposition admittedly was at present a minority but not without hope of victory.

Expected to bolster their ranks was the senate's powerful William E. Borah of Idaho, and, possibly, independent George Norris of Nebraska. Enlisted in the opposition ranks, on the basis of a preliminary poll of

LOVE 'SIT-DOWN' STRIKE FINISHED

Girl in Affair Arrives at Newark After Flight From Kansas City

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Feb. 6 (UP)—Harold Hulen, whose sit-down strike for love ended when the object of his affections, Miss Florence Hurbut, evacuated and flew to New York, gave up his siege on the empty Hurbut bedroom today.

"I got a telegram and she says she will give me her answer tomorrow night on a radio program," Hulen said.

The "answer" is a yes or no to his marriage proposal.

NEWYORK, N. Y., Feb. 6 (UP)—Florence Hurbut, Excelsior Springs, Mo., girl for whom Harold Hulen staged his "love sit-down strike" arrive there today by airplane from Kansas City.

The object of Hulen's affection was met by a group which included Phil Baker, radio comedian, with whom she left for New York by automobile. Her sudden aerial flight to New York from her persistent suitor apparently was an effort to get away from it all although it had appeared having some connection with a radio appearance which she probably will make tomorrow night.

Meantime, back in the home of her uncle in Excelsior Springs, Hulen abandoned his position by a radiator to which he chained himself in his well-publicized attempt to win "Miss Hurbut's affections. When she skipped out through a back window in her uncle's home, Hulen was sleeping peacefully, exhausted by his long vigil which began Wednesday noon.

Byrd Plans New Pole Expedition

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6 (UP)—Adm. Richard E. Byrd, the only man who has explored both ends of the earth, revealed today he is planning another expedition to the south pole to elicit and claim for the United States vast unexplored areas.

The veteran explorer said there were perhaps a million square miles of unknown territory on the other side of the south pole from Little America. He proposed to penetrate the region with airplanes and tractors.

COOKE RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (UP)—Morris L. Cooke, rural electrification administrator, resigned today, President Roosevelt accepted the resignation.

COMMENTS VARY ON COURT IDEA

Storm of Opinions Greet New Presidential Proposal

of the New Deal proposals as unconstitutional. Instead of the simple alternatives of the constitution by which these proposals could be submitted to the people through constitutional amendment, it is now proposed to make changes by packing the supreme court. It has the implication of subordination of the court to the personal power of the executive.

"Inconveniently Large"
Newton D. Baker, war-time secretary of war: It seems to me that a supreme court of 15 men would be inconveniently large and that it might delay rather than expedite its work to have so many justices to make up their minds.

Bainbridge Colby, former secretary of state: It is a sad and shameful day in the history of the United States. I reserve any further expression on this far reaching and tragic development.

Former Sen. James A. Reed, of Missouri, national Jeffersonian Democrat: I am horrified but not surprised. In common with the other Jeffersonian Democrats carrying on their campaign last fall, I repeatedly warned the people that Mr. Roosevelt intended to pack the supreme court. Now, having been elected, Mr. Roosevelt for the first time publicly exposes his infamous designs.

"Dangerous"
Young B. Smith, dean of Columbia law school: I regard the President's proposal to increase the number of judges on the supreme court as being not only unfortunate but dangerous.

Frederick Stinfield, president of the American Bar association: With such methods of changing the constitution I am not in sympathy. It is now asked that, through the appointment of the executive, he be allowed to construe the laws and the constitution. It would seem that 15 judges would decrease rather than increase efficiency.

Former Justice Clarence J. Smead, president of the Bar association of the City of New York: This proposal to destroy the existing supreme court under the guise of 'reorganization' is monstrous.

A REPRIMAND

Editor, Evening Times:
After reading C. D. McOlin's article in your paper, it looks to me like some one else is leaning on a more comfortable place than a shovel handle and has plenty of time to check upon WPA workers. It is a pity he doesn't check up on his shortcomings, he would have less time to check up on others.

There is some evil in all good or we would not know what was good. WPA work as I see it does not enter in to contributions for preservation of ducks.

FRIENDS OF VICTIM

Editor, Evening Times:
While listening to your afternoon broadcast from station KTPI, I heard of the kidnaping of Dr. J. C. B. Davis of Willow Springs, Mo.

It was a terrible shock to us as we were well acquainted with him. He had been our family physician for years, before coming to Filer, 12 years ago.

He was not only a great physician, but a friend to all, both great and small.

We were a smile for everyone. We were back to our old home on a visit last November and while there met our old friend and doctor and had a nice chat with him.

We are so very sorry to learn of his meeting with such a tragic death.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller,
Filer, Idaho.

POINT OF VIEW

Editor, Evening Times:
It's all in the point of view.

Quite interesting was the hungry child vs. starving duck controversy. Some are thankful for the wild game to eat—others say a pound of wild game costs many many times its value—others, realizing that a fool and his money are soon parted, say he had as well spend it for hunting licenses, gas, ammunition, etc., as for something worse. The nithead says hunting is great sport; others see no pleasure in killing and maintaining innocent birds. The hunter says he needs a rest anyway; his wife says a hunting trip feeds him plum 'out. He says he needs the exercise; she says there is plenty of exercise in the garden and front yard.

It's all in the point of view.

The sportsman secures laws protecting the wild life—the farmer tramps out all the pheasant nests. He finds to save his crops. He loathes the pheasants and then poals his farm against hunting; but he allows hunting in and out of season just so the hunter don't belong to the gun club. The sportsman asks for help to feed the starving birds—others say it should go to care for hungry children. Their father prefers to use it for card games and booze. Others say there is enough for all. Others say that it is not public money at all but is derived from the sportsman and should be used for their benefit alone. The farmer raves because his

FDR PROPOSALS STIR ARGUMENTS

Senate Bloo Wages Battle Following Yesterday's Congress Message

The senate, was a total of probably 30 members, with many others still undecided.

The controversy echoed across the nation with former President Herbert Hoover, former Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, Bainbridge Colby and others adding their protests or approval of the proposed legislation.

Speculation Aroused

Speculation was aroused whether passage of the proposed legislation would cause resignation of several supreme court justices usually considered conservative.

Six members of the court are over 70. Four of them are so-called "conservative" members who have voted consistently against New Deal legislation, one is a militant liberal and the sixth has voted both for and against administration-sponsored proposals.

The administration moved to carry out its program with a huge and orderly house majority and the pressure of the second New Deal victory last November which marshaled senate strength in unprecedented numbers. Majority Leader Jos. P. Robinson and House Speaker William B. Bankhead were prepared for a strenuous fight in support of the most important move yet made in the President's conflict with the supreme court.

It was considered insignificant that, soon after proposing a vast governmental reorganization plan, the President acted for reform of the judiciary on the eve of supreme court argument on the New Deal's Wagner labor relations act and while congress was awaiting word as to legislation by which Mr. Roosevelt hoped to achieve his announced objectives of higher labor standards.

The immediate reaction in congress was to emphasize and reinforce a split in party lines that many veterans believe must lead eventually to a national political party reorganization along conservative and liberal lines.

For the most part, there was general agreement with the proposals for judiciary reform designed to speed action on court dockets and on supreme court decisions on acts of congress.

"Those shone workers, who have spent their time to build the local order, are urged to carry on as they have in the past.

"Those who left the organization, and walked out of a recent meeting, seemed only to be imitating Al Smith," the announcement concluded.

It is Columbia's "More Than a Secretary," starring Jean Arthur and George Brent, which opens tomorrow at the Roxey theater. The entire supporting cast is so excellent that at least four or five of the featured players stand out in stellar style.

The story by Ethel Hill and Aben Kandel, is a clever tale based on the premise that in the spring a young woman's fancy also lightly turns to thoughts of love. The dialogue is brilliant and splendidly timed. The pace of the picture is as breezy and refreshing as a March wind.

RIVER FALLS IN FLOODED AREAS

Stream Lower From Cairo to New Madrid, Mo.; Rapid Drop at Paducah

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 6 (U.P.)—The Mississippi river fell slowly from Cairo, Ill., to below New Madrid, Mo. today but U.S. army engineers prepared for a month-long siege of high water along the levees.

The upper Mississippi, above Cairo, was rising due to recent rains but Memphis weather bureau officials said the rise was comparatively small and would not affect the Cairo stage.

The Cairo gauge read 69.4 at 6:30 a. m. today, a fall of .1 foot during the past 24 hours.

Cairo seemed safe behind its 63-foot seawall. The Ohio began a rapid drop near Paducah. When the drop reaches Cairo, lower Mississippi waters will fall rapidly, forecasters said.

The Mississippi crest moved near Caruthersville, Mo. It is expected to reach Memphis tomorrow or Monday.

The official weather bureau gauge here today was 48 feet, a rise of 2 of a foot. Forecaster F. W. Brist said the river will rise slightly higher, but not much higher; the crest is practically here.

Speaking of the recent "split" in the Alliance he said those who walked out of the meeting "did not have the needy at heart, but rather were seeking personal gain for themselves and not for the mothers and children."

Mr. Peavey explained how the previous organization had functioned and said it had to cease operations because the Community Chest could not raise the necessary funds. He suggested that the chairman of the committee, in some manner, be paid for his services as it was a full time job.

RUSSIA REVISES DEFENSE PLANS

MOSCOW, Feb. 6 (U.P.)—The Soviet union has revised its defense laws with a view to invading an enemy territory and annihilating its forces in case of attack on Russia, it was revealed today.

Klement Voroshilov, defense commissar, described the new "temporary articles of war of 1936" in an article published in the official newspaper Izvestia.

The articles co-ordinate the defense activities of all forces of the Soviet union and are designed not merely for resistance against attack but invasion of the enemy and his complete destruction.

The articles provide, however, for "an entirely different attitude towards a defeated enemy or army in surrender" and specify that the red army shall be "generous to a captured enemy and render him any assistance towards the preservation of his life."

An important provision of the articles stipulates: "To draw the workers and peasant masses of hostile armies and hostile populations to the side of the proletarian revolution is the most important condition of victory over the enemy. This is to be attained by political work on the part of commanders, officers and political army workers."

"The Red army is designed to work under the Socialist state of workers and peasants," the article stated, adding:

"The Soviet government never will be the instigator of war. But should it be entangled in war, the defense of the Soviet border will be by no means a passive one."

MYSTERY MAN HOLDS SPOTLIGHT IN CROSBY TOURNEY

STARS TO START PLAY TOMORROW

Pros Enjoy Meet as Movie Actor Puts Up All Prizes

By RONALD WAGONER
SAN DIEGO, Calif., Feb. 6 (UPI)—Crosby, the professional and amateur golfer, including a dozen or more Hollywood film celebrities, in his $3,000 open golf tournament at his ranch Santa Fe near here.

Bing lined up at the first tee with his distinguished guests but chief interest in the tourney was centered upon John (Paul Bunyan) Montague, the legendary mystery man from Hollywood, and whether he would "choose to play" today.

Montague was lured to the course by Crosby after Montague allegedly used a shovel, rake and hoe to defeat the lake singer in golf. The powerful Lakeside amateur is credited with drives past 300 yards, spectacular approach shots and the feat of killing a bird on a telephone wire with a brassie shot.

Montague Plays Pool
While other golfers played practice rounds yesterday, Montague played rotation pool in the Del Mar hotel, near the course. His opponent, an elderly "Mr. Sims," racked his cue and quit when Montague nonchalantly tallied the nine, eleven and fourteen balls on a single stroke while aiming for the three ball.

Great Field
A great field of professionals was on board for the final tournament of the California winter season. Harry Cooper, the Chicago pro with the fastest pocketbook of the winter, is rated along with Johnny Revolta of St. Louis as a favorite.

The pros are really enjoying the tournament since Crosby put up the money himself. A $2,000 purse will be split among the pros in the open tournament, and the other $1,000 goes to the pros in the team play. Winning amateurs will get trophies. A light rain fell over the 6,000-yard course last night but was not expected to hinder the golfers. Round of 36 holes are carded for today and tomorrow.

Pete Boyd's Free Throws in Final Minutes Upset Burley Bobcats

BURLEY, Feb. 6 (Special)—Three free throws were the margin of victory the Buhl Indians managed to gather in the last minute of play and they emerged on the long end of a 23 to 20 score after a game with the Burley Bobcats here last night.

Buhl led 4 to 2 at the end of the first quarter. Burley was ahead 10 to 8 at halftime, and remained in front 17 to 16 at the close of the third stanza. With three minutes of the game remaining the count was tied at 17 all, and a minute later, 20-all, it was here the stage was set for Boyd's free tosses.

Famed Sun Valley Ski Teacher Offers Times Readers Lessons

Second of six lessons in skiing.

By HANS HAUSER
Three-times open ski champion of Austria and world's foremost instructor now at Sun Valley, Idaho, Hans Hauser's style has been widely copied throughout Europe. This series is written especially for the Idaho Evening Times.

Having learned how to put on skis, the next step is to learn to walk wearing them.

Beginners are apt to become tense as they attempt the initial steps. They are conscious of the skis, which seem loose and awkward to them. As in swimming, to ski properly, skiers must relax. The skis must become part of them in their own minds. This is not hard, because if the skis are correctly attached the skier actually is part of them.

Beginners should spend several hours the first day walking on skis to become used to them. Thus they will automatically relax. Then it is possible for them to walk with the proper spring in their knees. Knee action, as I shall point out later, is one of the more important points of skiing.

First Step

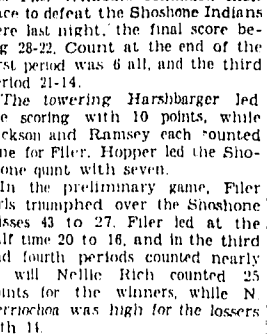

As novices start out for their first ski, they must make use of their ski poles. These should be placed in the snow vertically, the points being about even with the skier's toes.

As the skier thrusts the left foot forward, he or she should push with the left ski pole. At the same time the right ski pole should be thrust ahead to a position two feet in front of the left foot.

Poles should be kept close to the skis. When grade and snow permit, the skier should take advantage of his or her glide between steps. After thrusting forward the left ski and bending up the right, the skier relaxes and glides before pushing the right ski forward.

Next: The kick turn.

up even with the left and then thrust ahead, the skier pushing on the right ski pole at the same time and thrusting ahead the left ski pole.

BAER WILL FIGHT LANGLET FEB. 22

Ex-French Champion Scores K. O. Over Brubaker to Win Match

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6 (UPI)—Andre Langlet, former heavyweight champion of France, and Max Baer, former heavyweight champion of the world, will fight here on Feb. 22, it was announced today.

This announcement followed Langlet's knockout victory over Phil Brubaker, a Californian, here last night.

The Frenchman, after taking a fall to the canvas in the first round returned in the third, after an indifferent second, to batter the Californian with a barrage of lefts and rights that sent him reeling to the ropes. Langlet ended the fight by sending a smashing right to Brubaker's chin, which downed him for the count.

The Californian staggered to his feet unassisted after the count ended and was sparring wildly with himself when he was led to his corner.

The two heavyweights fought a draw when they were matched here last.

OUR OPPORTUNITY TO GO PLACES The campaign now under way to raise $35,000 in memberships to the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce is bearing fruit in more ways than one.

Needless to say, every one of these solicitors has run into some criticism of one kind or another against the Chamber of Commerce, and not all of this criticism has been unwarranted by any means.

In welcoming all of these suggestions and criticisms, constructive or otherwise, the Chamber of Commerce is on the right course. Its efforts along these lines can only result in a more efficient organization and a greater Twin Falls.

To all of those unfamiliar with Chamber of Commerce work and to many of those fully cognizant of its activities, there is no doubt that tangible accomplishments of the local chamber have been meager.

Everyone knows that in recent years a handful of men with enough civic interest to volunteer their services has turned out annually in a vain attempt to raise a chamber budget commensurate with the size and importance of Twin Falls.

No doubt there is considerable truth in the oft-expressed opinion that things have come too easily for the people in the Twin Falls country.

That's why the Chamber of Commerce is out after $35,000 in memberships instead of a puny $3,000. That's why it is making memberships available from 25 cents to $5 a week and asking everyone to join.

All this to iron out a few petty grievances which to a large extent no doubt were trumped up to appear important as a matter of "policy and principle."

POT SHOTS WITH The Gentleman in the Third Row

ALAS, FOR THE GOOD OLD POETIC DAYS: Dear Pot Shots: Are men less gallant? I'll say they are.

TOO BAD—YOU CAN'T MILK HER NOW: Dear Pot Shots: I thought a cow this morning and I can't find her darn milk bottle.

WHERE DID THIS GALLANT ACT OCCUR, ANYWAY?: Dear Pot Shots: I need 50 cents. So here's to gallant gents.

WE UNDERSTAND SEEN TODAY IS STILL STIFF: Mr. Pot Shots: Just a note to the county commissioners.

VERY TASTY: Pot Shootings: What I'd like to see is the expression on the face of that Tennessee mountaineer guy when his nine-year-old wife serves him up a nice luscious mud pie.

FIGURE IT OUT YOURSELF!: Pot Shatter: Well, I've kinda set back lately, just his'n'ing and sometimes thinkin' for a spell.

DON'T QUIBBLE—IT'S A GOOD WORD, ANYWAY!: Pot Shots: Since you took a crack last week at the Poratris, in my former home town, I hereby give you another.

SEND HIM TO THE TAILOR!: Dear Potter: If he doesn't give a hoot whether coat buttons hang on or fall off, take him and enjoy a carefree life.

FAMOUS LAST LINE: "... And he did a nice backflip to the sidewalk! "

THE GENTLEMAN IN THE THIRD ROW: ... And he did a nice backflip to the sidewalk! "

Behind The Scenes in Washington By Dennis Wheatley © 1937, NEA Service, Inc., William Morrow & Co.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6—A not-very-sly campaign to make judges rule the right way seems to be under way in congress. A couple of congressmen have started kicking dust on the shoes of the umpires about to make important decisions.

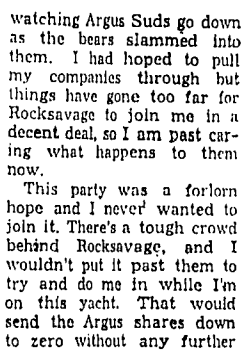

FINESSE No dust kicker is Senator Guffey of Pennsylvania. In fact, the senator originated the phrase likening the supreme court to an umpire.

CORRECTIVE President Roosevelt's legislative leaders made no secret of their opposition when Labor Secretary Perkins sent her message to congress requesting labor subpoena legislation.

TROUBLE? The regularity with which congressional leaders have said the wrong thing about many issues constitutional amendments, courts, budget, labor, etc.) has started a suspicion that they are getting ready to fight some White House proposals.

JUSTICE TRIUMPHANT Civil service is a great thing, especially if you know how to use it. Consider the case of the democratic congressman who found that the two high quality offers for a postmasterhip in his district were Republicans.

After I had read that letter I've just given you, Stodart handed me a slip of paper which, he said, the cabin steward had found on Blane's table.

I sent for the captain at once, told him what had occurred and he put back to port, while I sent a message up to my daughter that she was to take the guests in to dinner, then went up to the wireless room and sent a radio to the Miami police.

WHEAT FUTURES RALLY TO GAIN
CHICAGO, Feb. 6 (UP)—Wheat futures started out on a downward trend here today but persistent buying by cash and milling interests scared shorts into covering and the market rallied. Early losses were replaced by net gains.
 At the close wheat was 3/4 to 1 1/2 cents higher, May $1.34 1/2, new corn unchanged to 1/4, coat higher, May $1.07 1/2, old corn was 1/2 cent higher, May $1.01, and oats were 1/4 to 1/2 cent higher, May 50 1/2 cents.
 The rally was the main feature of the trading, with the main bullish factor in early dealings. Weather conditions were generally fair over the wheat belt, except in the northwest and in the Canadian west. Traders pointed out that while there is less concern over the possible damaging effect of the ice pack which has covered a large section of the winter wheat area, both government agencies and private authorities are again emphasizing the lack of moisture in the southwestern territory.

DOGGONE
 One member of the local police force doesn't mind words when he makes his report of an investigation.
 This officer answered a call from a Twin Falls woman, who said a band of dogs were mulling about her house, and she wished an officer to "clear them out."
 On the officer's report, under the column listed "Result of Investigation," he wrote one word.
 It was "doggone."

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

LONGHORN CATTLE, ONCE RAISED BY THE MILLIONS IN TEXAS, ARE SO SCARCE NOW, THAT SPECIMENS FOR THE TEXAS CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION, WERE SECURED FROM A GAME PRESERVE.

CHLOROPHYLL, THE GREEN COLORING MATTER OF PLANTS, IS USED TO COLOR SOAPS, COSMETICS, SYRUPS, FOODS AND FATS.

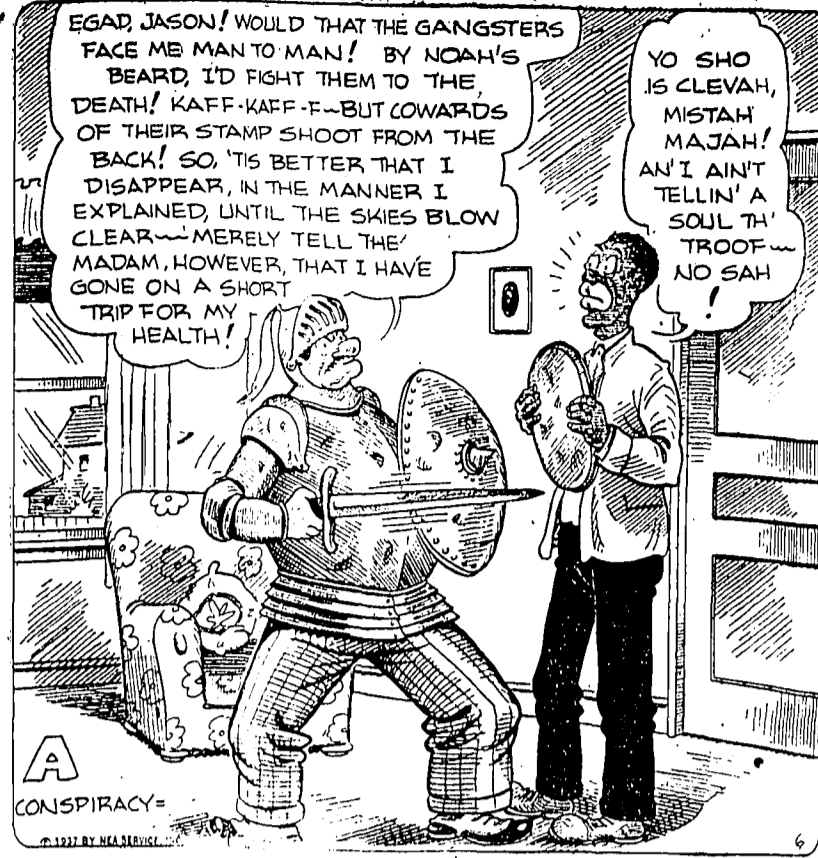

THE CURIOUS "JUG-HANDLE" ON THE CHRYSALIS OF THE TOMATO WORM IS A SPECIAL SHEATH FOR THE TONGUE OF THE MOTH.

Chlorophyll is not a single pigment, but a mixture of at least two. It is found in plants, though in some plants, such as the entire class of fungi, it is not found at all. Light is necessary for its development, and without it no formation of carbohydrate foods can occur.

Johnston Proclamation Cites Achievements and Urges Observance Here

Calling attention to the widespread achievements of the Boy Scouts of America, Mayor Duncan Johnston called on Twin Falls today to join in observance of the Scouts' anniversary week starting tomorrow and extending through next Saturday.

The mayor's proclamation: "The Boy Scouts of America, incorporated Feb. 8, 1910, and chartered by congress June 15, 1916, have during the past 77 years rendered notable service to the nation. They have done effective work in this community and throughout the country.

Notable Efforts

"During the World War their efforts on behalf of the Liberty Loan and War Savings campaigns and other measures were outstanding. In time of distress from flood, hurricane, tornado, and other disasters, they have organized the effectiveness of organized boy service.

"The Boy Scouts have not only demonstrated their worth to the nation, but have also contributed to a deeper appreciation by the American people of the higher conception of good citizenship.

"During the week from Feb. 7 to 13, the Boy Scouts of America will celebrate their 77th anniversary. I recommend that the citizens of this city observe this Boy Scout week for the purpose of strengthening the Boy Scouts of America."

RESERVOIRS TO BENEFIT IDAHO

Long Range Plans Call For 56 Projects in State; Approve Four

By RALPH W. OLMSTEAD WASHINGTON (Special)—To confer with President Roosevelt will go senators from every reclamation state. They have formed themselves into a block, directed by a policy committee chaired by Idaho's Senator Jim. Insistent are they that any program of flood control, navigation, or power give full recognition to irrigation needs. In the words of the president himself, they think "prolonged droughts have given added emphasis to the benefits of irrigation." If luck attends their efforts, Idaho well may profit immensely.

The bureau of reclamation is contemplating a six-year program of reservoir construction. In that program is included a reservoir at the Narrows site on the upper Snake, which is estimated to cost $8,900,000.

Included in the bureau of reclamation's long-range program of conservation and flood control are 56 reservoirs in the state of Idaho. Several reservoirs are planned in each other reclamation state, but no state other than Idaho has more than 12.

The public works administration has given final approval to four Idaho reclamation projects. Roseberry, Mesa, Lewiston, and Caldwell. The estimated cost of these four projects is $367,272. Reclamation services do not expect to secure immediate approval for this comprehensive program, but they do expect to get its ultimate value recognized and a definite federal policy of water conserving reclamation construction initiated. Once begun, such a program could not easily be abandoned by future administrations.

CASSIA RECEIVES SECURITY FUNDS

Burley Relief Head Reports Distribution of Money In County

BURLEY, Feb. 6 (Special)—Over $48,000 was spent in Cassia county in 1936 to carry out the social security program, according to the year's report issued by W. F. Hoeman, county director of relief.

Of this amount, $38,093 was spent for old age pensions, $556 was paid to the blind, and $9,951 for the support of dependent children.

Expenditure by the county totaled $9,758 during the year.

During 1937, Mr. Hoeman estimates that probably $75,000 will be spent in the county on the program, which, supplemented by about $15,000 for direct relief donated by the state will mean approximately a distribution of $90,000 for Cassia county for the coming year.

When the work was begun last February, 95 checks were issued, 92 for old age pensions, two for dependent children, and one for blind. This list of checks increased until by December there were 182 old age cases, 45 dependent children and five blind persons on the pay roll. The dependent children cases are expected to increase rapidly during the next month because of the shift of the women on WPA to the social security rolls.

Forty-three per cent of the Cassia county citizens over 65 years of age are on the social security roll, an exact average of the state percentage, which ranges from 24 per cent to 82 per cent.
