

Chemist Report Says Gas Caused Student Deaths

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 16 (UP)—Death of two Albion Normal school students who died in their trailer house near the Albion campus Friday, was caused by carbon monoxide poisoning, W. V. Leonard, state chemist, said today after an examination of vital organs of the youths, Claude Butler and James Roberts.

Leonard said he had been informed by Deputy Sheriff George Bray of Burley, who investigated, that the damper on a small stove in the trailer had been closed, sending the deadly fumes into the room through openings in the stove.

Although reports when the bodies were found were that air within the room was fresh, Leonard said only a small quantity of monoxide gas properly confined would be sufficient to cause death.

"OFFICIALLY CLOSED" BURLEY, Feb. 16 (Special)—Receipt of word from State Chemist W. V. Leonard, declaring that two Albion Normal students died of carbon monoxide poisoning found in the blood stream, "officially closes the investigation," Coroner Joseph Payne said this afternoon.

Mr. Payne said Leonard's verdict formally assigns the cause of death and removes necessity for any further probe.

(Upolds Deputy) The verdict upheld the theory advanced yesterday by Deputy Sheriff George Bray, who pointed to the fact that the two boys—Claude Butler and James Roberts—had closed a tight chimney draft. Top of the stove, he said, was warped in such a manner that gas could escape around the lid.

Although one window was open about two inches, the aperture was extremely small and the boys were sleeping considerably below its level. As carbon monoxide is heavier than air, there was ample opportunity for asphyxiation, Deputy Bray said. The trailer was airtight in its construction.

According to Bray, "Roberts, who slept nearest the stove, never moved. His body was entirely relaxed. The fact Butler's arm had dropped down against the side of the bed with his head off the side of the bed against the wall, showed plainly he had made an unsuccessful attempt to open the window before dying."

Lessons Ready Completed lesson assignments were found in the boys' notebooks and all their equipment and possessions are in order.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Acquila high school building with Bishop Albert Brunerton officiating, and 700 classmates and friends attending. Speakers for the service were David G. Parker, Professor Frank Howard Joseph P. Payne, Lewis R. Humphreys, while the obituaries were read by Bishop Brewerton.

Music was furnished by an instrumental duet, playing, "Lead Kindly Light" for the prelude and "Perfect Day" for the postlude. The cardinal key club of the Normal school sang, "Crossing the Bar," while a mixed quartet of Albion students sang "Rock of Ages" and "Beautiful Isle." The Acquila choir sang, "Sunset We'll Understand," and a quartet from the choir sang, "Sunset A Duet, 'Hope Beyond.'" was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Payne. Invocation was by R. C. May and benediction by John Larson.

The body of the Roberts boy was shipped to Leggett for burial. Interment for the Butler boy was held in the Rupert cemetery under the direction of the Payne mortuary with John Butler, Jerome, offering the grave dedication.

DUST BLIZZARDS RAGE IN "BOWL"

Farmers Fear Damage to Wheat Crops as Winds Blow in Middlewest

GARDEN CITY, Kan., Feb. 16 (UP)—The winds of the "dust-bowl" were on their annual spring rampage today, with the skies blotted out by the black blizzards. Farmers feared their wheat yields were suffering great damage.

The dusts ranged through sections of Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma and the Texas panhandle. Hope for relief lay in the expectation that yesterday's high winds would abate. While the great dust clouds centered in the four-state dust bowl, the outer fringes of the storm touched Denver on the northwest and San Antonio on the southeast.

Farley Honored

James Farley, national Democratic chairman, and U. S. postmaster general, was guest of honor last night at a testimonial dinner in Washington, D. C. Other guests included President Roosevelt and Vice President Garner.

FARLEY ON WAY TO RETIREMENT

Testimonial Dinner Given in Washington Attended by President Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (UP)—Postmaster General James A. Farley is on the way today toward retirement from the cabinet after a 310-per-plat testimonial dinner at which almost 2,000 Democrats headed by President Roosevelt dined and cheered in his honor.

Farley, who had a leave of absence from his cabinet post to conduct the presidential campaign, has just been confirmed for another four-year term. He has confided to friends, however, that he expects to resign this spring to accept private employment. He will continue as national committee chairman and some persons expect him to be a candidate for governor of New York in 1938.

Kissed by Chairwoman The Democrats gathered last night in a fashionable hotel to pay tribute to their national chairman, Farley, burning and bowing and kissed by vice chairman Mary Dawson right in the glare of the Klieg lights, told the crowd that the big victory of last November was made possible by hard work in the premises.

Mr. Roosevelt, Vice President John Nance Garner, who stayed up past 9 o'clock bed time, and other speakers had other explanations.

Best Chairman "In reading history," said Mr. Roosevelt in a brief address, "I take it that there will be found few persons who have had a greater importance in the affairs of party government than Jim has had."

Vice President Garner toastmaster of the evening, had this to say: "None in 50 years has approached Jim Farley as chairman of a national committee. He is an honest man. And if you are honest politically, you generally are honest in every other way."

Plastic Surgery May Be Used In "Dressing" Teeth

CHICAGO, Feb. 16 (UP)—What plastic surgery is to medicine, a new discovery for "dressing up" teeth may be to dentistry, delegates to the Chicago Dental Society believed today. Dr. Irving E. Laby demonstrated a method for straightening crooked front teeth which he said has benefitted dozens of actors and actresses. Soon, he believes, it may be available to everyone.

The dentist builds a porcelain jacket for a recessed tooth and makes it of sufficient thickness to bring it into alignment with other teeth.

LEGAL BETTING ON RACES ASKED BY IDAHO BILL

BOISE, Ida., Feb. 16 (UP)—Legalizing of horse and other animal racing along with mutual betting, was suggested to the Idaho house of representatives today by its reference committee.

A racing commission of five members would be appointed and a season established between May 1 and Nov. 1.

The bill proposed a 15 per cent "take" in the mutual system, 2 1/2 per cent to go to the state as tax. In addition a license of $100 per day for horse and $300 for other animals, would be exacted in counties larger than 20,000, with lesser figures in smaller counties. Jockeys and attendants also would be licensed.

A bill from the public lands commission would in effect nullify present graduated state taxes directed at chain organizations by providing the license tax to be computed at one quarter per cent of sales for all stores. Those doing a total business of less than $60,000 in the previous year, would be exempted, however.

Other house proposals were to permit prisoners to be used for public conservation work; reduce slightly motor truck fees; still another "fair trade" act directed at chain stores; to set maximum attorney's fees in workmen's compensation cases.

EIGHTY KILLED

TOKYO, Feb. 16 (UP)—Eighty persons were reported killed today when an avalanche of snow swept down through the town of Morioka, capital of Iwate prefecture, and destroyed 20 buildings.

Many of those killed were children who lost their lives when the snowslide crumbled two schools. Details were meager as communications were disrupted. Nearby communities rushed assistance.

Morioka, 85 miles southeast of Aomori, is a cotton textile and silk manufacturing center.

UNION DEMANDS WITHDRAWAL OF NATIONAL GUARD

ANDERSON, Ind., Feb. 16 (UP)—Union members today demanded withdrawal of national guard troops in Anderson and an end to martial law.

Victor Reuther, United Automobile Workers, of America organizer, charged that troopers were being used to handicap the union and that they were partial to the two General Motors subsidiaries—Guide Lamp and Delco Remy.

Mayor Harry Baldwin said he would ask military authorities or Gov. M. Clifford Tamm to expel Reuther before martial law is lifted because he felt public sentiment in Anderson is against Reuther.

Constitutional Rights The national guard is injuring our constitutional rights," Reuther said.

He charged that troops were sent to Anderson after General Motors arranged a trap for our men and they fell for it.

Company agents and "stoop pigeons," he said, would try to tempt disorders so the company could say the union has broken the agreement.

Four Arrested Col Albert H. Whitcomb, commanding troops in the area, announced last night that four additional union members had been arrested, bringing to 17 the number in custody.

He said they appeared at a hospital where two wounded men were being treated and attempted to gain entrance without military passes.

The arrests were part of the militia investigation of a tavern shooting Saturday in which two unionists were wounded seriously, he said. Eleven others were jailed.

Those arrested last night were Henry Showalter, Fred Reichert, Clarence Leiser and Carl Hubbel, all of FIRM, Mich.

NEW BILL ASKS IDAHO PURCHASE JUNIOR COLLEGE

BOISE, Feb. 16 (UP)—Idaho's senate today was asked to take over and operate as a state institution, Coeur d'Alene junior college, and appropriate $20,000 for its operation during 1937-38.

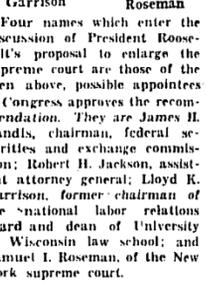

The bill, sponsored by the committee on educational institutions, was one of two today to deal with junior colleges. The same committee proposed to provide for establishment of two-thirds of the taxpayers within a proposed district would be required for its organization. A tax of five mills could be levied for support of a junior college, but no district could be formed to include less than $10,000,000 total valuation.

Value of equipment at the Coeur d'Alene school was estimated at $5,000 and capacity set at 100 students. Sponsors of the bill proposed to call the institution Northern Idaho Junior college.

Two Other Bills The state's higher education plan, both previously defeated in other forms, also await senate consideration. They would have the state take over Ricks college at Rexburg and Idaho three and four year courses at the (Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

Roosevelt Outlines Broad Program to Correct Farm Tenant Problems in U. S.

If Court Grows Says Action to Provide Security is Imperative

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (UP)—President Roosevelt told congress today that "the American dream of the family-size farm" is becoming so remote that "action to provide security is imperative."

Mr. Roosevelt outlined a broad program of federal action to correct farm tenant problems uncovered by his special committee on farm tenancy.

Declaring "we can no longer postpone action," the President outlined this four-point plan: "1. Action to open the doors of ownership to tenants who now have the requisite ability and experience but who can become owners only with the assistance of liberal credit, on long terms, and technical advice.

2. Modest loans, with the necessary guidance and education to prevent small owners from slipping into tenancy, and to help the masses of tenants, croppers and farm laborers at the very bottom of the agricultural ladder increase their standards of living, achieve greater security, and begin the upward climb toward land ownership.

3. The retirement by public agencies of land proved to be unsuited for farming, and help to the family living thereon in finding homes on good land.

4. Cooperation with state and local agencies of government to improve the general leasing system.

"These activities," the President said, "which bear such close relation to each other should furnish a sound basis for the beginning of a program for improving the present intolerable condition of the lowest income farm families."

The farm tenancy report was issued after exhaustive study by a committee headed by Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, and composed of heads of government farm agencies and officials of agricultural groups.

Supplemental reports were filed by Edward A. O'Neal, president of the farm bureau federation; Prof. Charles S. Johnson of Fisk university; and Henry C. Taylor of the farm foundation.

A minority report disagreeing with certain findings and recommendations of the committee was filed by W. L. Blackness, representing the southern tenant farmers' union.

McDowell Testifies Against Woman and Two Men In Trial Here

Testimony by G. A. McDowell, chief complaining witness against one woman and two men accused of robbing him of $38 last Jan. 1, formed the highlight in district court trial today of Marjorie Bess, 20, William Rector, 26, and Oscar Bradley, 30.

McDowell told of the alleged robbery and physical assault by the two men after the accused woman had assertedly drawn him to the spot where the pair waited. He was on the stand most of the morning and resumed testimony when court reopened at 1:30 p. m. after the noon recess.

Prosecutor Edward Babcock presented his opening statement when the trial convened this morning, and Defense Counsel W. L. Dunn reserved statement for the defendants. McDowell was then called.

Choice of the jury was completed late yesterday in the box are E. S. Fitzwater, George F. Hamilton, C. J. Davidson, Ed Askew, Glen Thietten, Frank Lozier, George Decker, Ed Pastoor, Ernest Emerson, Ray McKean, H. H. Stokes and A. C. Rutherford.

Judge J. W. Porter is presiding. Championed by Mayor Durnan McD Johnston, who said "now is the time to expand because of the growth of the city," the matter was introduced to council members last evening at regular meeting. Councilmen agreed unanimously and the move was referred to the city attorney for completion of the ordinance after a motion had been made by Milton Powell and seconded by W. E. Taylor.

Small Tracts With the exception of one 10-acre tract in the name of Ira Bradley, the area is already divided into tracts of five acres or less. It was disclosed by Attorney Paulson that if properly adjoining the corporate limits of the city "was cut into five acres or less, the city council could pass an ordinance bringing it into the city."

Suspect Denies Kidnaping Link

FEDERAL AGENT WILL QUIZ MAN HELD IN TWIN FALLS

All connection with the Tacoma kidnap-slaying of 16-year-old Charles Mattson last Dec. 27 was denied here today by Walter D. Wiley who told the Evening Times he "thought it was the worst crime in history" and he "wasn't even in Tacoma the day the crime took place."

Wiley is being held at the county jail after he was found guilty of vagrancy when he appeared before Justice Guy T. Swope last night. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

He was arrested by local police Sunday after he was accused of being intoxicated and seeking aid from a local Sunday school class. The police report regarding the case says Wiley could not get out of the church as he was locked in.

"This state hasn't affected me in the least," Wiley said this morning, "and I don't see why people should be so blooming narrow minded. I guess it is all right for the local police to hold me and think I might have done this crime, but it also gives me a chance to prove I am innocent and was not in Tacoma the day the kidnaping took place."

It is true I have a room about a mile from the Tacoma doctor's house, but if I ever walked by the house I didn't know it. The room rent in Tacoma is paid with rent month I paid it when I led the money and left Tacoma when I didn't have anything left to eat on," he said.

Wiley, who says he will be 42 years old March 2, talks with a divided English accent and says he is of English extraction. He talks slowly and his vocabulary is good. He said his weight will be around 150 pounds, and he is five feet three inches tall.

Although he has black hair he could not be classed as swarthy. A federal description and drawing of how the actual kidnaping might look indicates the person wanted is about 30 years old with hairy hands, prominent cheek bones, swarthy complexion, five feet seven or eight inches tall and weighing between 145 and 160 pounds. He is suspected of being of south European extraction and with a nose broken nearer the end than center.

of the girls said "No, that isn't the man," and then they let me go," he relates.

Wiley said he registered with the police at Walla Walla, Wash., on Dec. 26. He arrived in Tacoma on Jan. 5, and went to his room, where his extra clothes are located.

At CCC Camp

He related he had Christmas dinner at the CCC camp at Lewiston, Ida., and that night he was able to "scrape up" fifty cents and slept at a hotel, the name of which he can't remember.

On Dec. 26 he started for Walla Walla, going that way because it was cold in Spokane. He said he started his trip toward Tacoma from Weiser, Ida. He claims he was not in Tacoma Dec. 27.

At one point this morning Wiley broke down and tears came to his eyes.

"It is a pretty situation when a man can't travel and look for work without getting in this bally situation," he said.

He spent considerable time having various persons in the sheriff's office carefully scan the reward circular sent out by the department of justice, and which carries a drawing and description of the man they believe committed the crime.

"I'm not afraid of it," Wiley said at one time as he looked at the drawings.

Says He Is War Vet

Wiley claims to be an American Legion member of Post 01 at Tacoma. He said he joined immediately after he had received his bonus for overseas duty, and paid his dues until September of this year. He wears an American Legion pin in his coat lapel.

In English phrases he told listeners what he thought of the man that would commit such a crime. He used the word "bolshob" and said it was a polite way to call a person what you thought of them without actually using swear words.

Last night, jailers said today, Wiley amused prisoners in the cell block with various songs, and is reported to have stayed awake most of the night.

POPULATION GAIN LOOMS FOR CITY

Addition of 1,200 Predicted As Council Acts to Add 180-Acre Tract

"Is that the people want to come into the city at this time.

"They would save 40 per cent on fire insurance and $1 a month on their water bill and also would have fire protection. At the present time it would be necessary to let their houses burn if they caught fire, as the city truck cannot leave the city limits. If it does, and there is a fire within the city which gets underway, the city council and myself are directly responsible and could be held liable for the fire within the city limits.

"When the area comes into the city it will not be necessary to re-strict stock at the present time. This could be settled among the residents at a later date," the mayor said.

Water System

He also said an adequate water system, including fire plugs, would be installed as would a sewerage system.

A sewer line runs along Heyburn at the present time, he said, and several of the residences of the area are already connected with it.

A change would be made in the names of the streets in the area to be added to conform with the city streets which run into them. Every other street in the city runs into a "blind" block in the area at the present time, he pointed out, but this could be easily remedied by making new streets in the district.

The fact that at the present time WPA labor could be used to improve the section was stressed by the mayor.

The area, according to a map prepared by Mayor Johnston, is bounded on the south by Heyburn avenue and on the north by Fairview avenue. The western boundary is Washington street, while a five acre length of the eastern boundary is Elm street, and the remaining 15 acre length on the east is bounded by Locust street.

Other Advantages

Other advantages to be found were cited by Johnston, among them being that police protection would be available and street lighting would be provided. Under law it is only necessary for the council to pass the ordinance to declare the section part of Twin Falls. No protest meetings are necessary. It was pointed out by council members who were in favor of the addition.

After being questioned by council members, the city attorney said taxes could be levied on the property if it was a part of the city by May 1 and would appear on this year's tax rolls.

In "Drift Fence" Orpheum Holds Over Garbo - Taylor Film

The coupling of Greta Garbo and Robert Taylor, for "Camille" proves to have been a stroke of genius and accordingly the Orpheum management has decided to hold the picture in Twin Falls for an additional day's showing. "Camille" will close Wednesday night.

Produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer with a brilliant cast in support of Garbo and Taylor, the Dumas love story is an ideal vehicle for the two most glamorous stars of the modern screen. The brilliant cast includes Lionel Barrymore, Elizabeth Allan, Jessie Ralph, Henry Daniell, Lenore Ulric, Laura Hope Crews, Russell Hardie and E. E. Clive.

Following this picture, the Orpheum will offer the road show engagement Thursday of "Romeo and Juliet," starring Norma Shearer, Leslie Howard and John Barrymore, with two performances, matinee at 2:30 and evening 8:30, and all seats reserved.

present University of Idaho southern branch at Pocatello.

Among other bills in the rush marking the senate's final day for introduction was a measure to provide for appointment of a state printing agent to have charge of letting state printing contracts. He would be paid $3,000.

List of Changes

A lifting of the lid from state salaries was asked by the state affairs committee in a bill to repeal a 1933 law which set maximum salary figures for department heads, the top figure being $3,600.

A long list of proposed changes in handling unemployment compensation benefits were included in a state affairs bill. An accompanying measure asked an increase in salary of $600 for each of the three members of the industrial accident board for their increased duties in administering the unemployment compensation act.

Two bills would permit deposits of public monies in building and loan companies and similar institutions insured with the federal government. A joint memorial petitioned congress to maintain Idaho CCC camps and personnel with reduction. Another bill proposed to allow the commissioner of public investments at his discretion to extend time for payment of state mortgage loans as much as three years "to better safeguard state funds."

Other upper house proposals were to exempt from taxation automobiles held for sale by dealers; give broad powers to peace officers to stop night shipments of livestock to check rustling; appropriate $3,000 for pea weevil control; permit cities to make their own rules for nomination of candidates for city office.

"Legion of Terror" Scheduled at Roxy

The latest illustration of producing topical dramatic stories is Columbia's "Legion of Terror," showing tomorrow at the Roxy theater. While the newspapers are still running stories about the activities of the Black Legion around the country, Columbia is releasing this picture, the basis of which is an expose of these clans. The picture paints these organizations as a racket, and dramatically unfolds its methods of gaining members and power in a community. Incidentally, it introduces a news angle by revealing the activities of United States postal inspectors, who are to the postoffice department what the G-men are to the department of justice.

Bruce Cabot, Marguerite Churchill and Crawford Wever, a new Columbia discovery, are featured in "Legion of Terror," which was directed by C. C. Coleman.

"Make Way for a Lady" ends at the Roxy tonight.

the farm tenant problem so urgent that he sent his special message to congress even though the senate was not in session.

Report in House

The message and the farm tenancy committee report was read in the house, however, shortly after noon.

"We can no longer postpone action," the President said. "We must begin at once with such resources of manpower, money and experience as are available, and with such methods as will call forth the cooperative effort of local, state, and federal agencies of government, and of landlords quite as much as tenants."

Mr. Roosevelt recommended that the farm tenant program be started "on a scale commensurate with our resources and experience," declaring that federal aid should be expedited later "as rapidly as our experience and resources will permit."

Mr. Roosevelt said that the government has "already accumulated information and experience" through administering relief among rural people during the depression.

DAIRY CHECK-UP UNDERWAY HERE

Grading Work Starts Today For 20 Establishments Supplying City

Grading of dairies serving the city of Twin Falls was underway today and every dairy will be rated A-B-or-C condition, according to the requirements they are able to meet. O. H. Coleman, commissioner of public safety, said this afternoon.

Announcement that the grading operations would get underway was made to city council members last evening at regular meeting.

Grading may continue into next week, Coleman points out, and will be conducted by Dr. E. R. Price, meat and dairy inspector. Milk samples, taken during the course of the moratorium under which the dairies are now operating, will figure in the grading as well as the physical condition of the dairy and the premises.

It will be necessary to grade approximately 20 dairies, Coleman points out. This is the number which serves the city.

After grading is completed the list of dairies, together with their rating, will be published as required by law, Coleman said.

Dairies will be required to sell their milk with the grade under which they are operating stamped clearly on the milk bottle cap.

CAFE ADDITION PERMIT VOTED

Your Children

By Olive Roberts Barton

"Send for a doctor." is an easy thing to say. Yet a mother will hesitate to call for medical advice when every penny counts. She hesitates, and often too long, to have that sore throat looked at, or the chronic tiredness or loss of weight looked after, or the perpetual headache, or any symptom that, in her heart, she knows needs expert and immediate attention.

When, exactly, should she call the doctor?

To begin with, mothers learn to know their own children. Indeed, sometimes they know them too well. They get accustomed to the pallor, or the recurring coughs, or the repeated retchings.

However, there are a few rules that might be a general guide.

Danger Signal

First of all, every home should boast a clinical thermometer. It can be bought for a dollar or so at any drug store and is easy to read and care for.

Any temperature over ninety-nine should be the signal for medical attention at once. Or, if day after day it runs consistently over 98.3-5, the reason should be analyzed. This is the normal temperature of the average human. Babies sometimes run higher, but again, this needs to be checked.

Second, an illness that persists unusually long cannot be diagnosed at home. The sore throat that runs over a day or must have the professional eye. Or any pains that don't give way to reasonable home treatment very soon. Or coughs that linger, especially when accompanied by fatigue or flushed face, or retching.

Once I let a sore throat go into the third day. It was diphtheria. Once I let another sore throat go for two days. It was scarlet fever. I put the time limit very low here because experience has taught me.

Under-Par Child

The under-par child, who isn't enjoying life one bit, needs to be thoroughly examined. Be sure he must have help. He ought to be eating, sleeping and gaining in weight, even though slowly. Maybe it is infection in head, or throat, or teeth, or something else that is sapping his strength and happiness.

If there is an epidemic near, and illness occurs, I should have a doctor at once. It is the only thing to do.

A child's life is a child's life, and every doctor puts it first, although he should be paid sometime, and as soon as any bill can be met. Too often he has to wait after all the others, which is not quite fair. These things must be worked out between you and him. Be honest with him. Don't be afraid to talk to him. There should be no such thing as false

has just been built

Henry Ford and Edsel Ford with the first and 25 millionth Ford cars

It has never occurred before in automobile history that 25 million cars of one make, bearing one name, have been manufactured under one management. The 25,000,000th Ford car rolled off the Ford Rouge Plant production line on January 18, 1937.

25 million cars since 1903... more than one-third of all the cars ever built... enough cars to transport the entire population of the United States.

The figures represent a remarkable contribution to the social welfare, the industrial stability and the general progress of our country.

People respect Ford efficiency. They know Ford uses fine materials, the best workmanship at good wages, the most exact precision measurements. They know these things are passed along to purchasers in the form of extra value.

Naturally, they like to do business with such a company. That's why it has been required to produce 25 million cars.

Naturally, too, they expect more of a Ford car, more this year than last year—more each year than the year before. They have every right to.

The experience gained in building 25,000,000 cars enables Ford to produce today a really superb motor car at a really low price—with the beauty, comfort, safety and performance of much more expensive cars.

The 1937 Ford V-8 combines advanced design, all-steel construction, extra body room, and brilliant brakes with a choice of two V-type 8-cylinder engines—the most modern type of power-plant.

The 85-horsepower engine provides top performance with unusually good economy for its high power.

The 60-horsepower engine gives good performance with the greatest gasoline mileage ever built into a Ford car—at the lowest Ford prices in years.

People expect more of a Ford car because it's a Ford—and they get more, for the same reason. It is undeniably THE QUALITY CAR IN THE LOW-PRICE FIELD.

STRING QUARTET OFFERS CONCERT

Hart House Artists Appear In First of Community Programs Here

Twin Falls music lovers and a large number from this territory will hear the world-famous Hart House string quartet this evening in a concert at the Methodist church under the sponsorship of the Twin Falls Community Concert association.

The quartet is especially well-known for its late selection of valuable instruments, a difficult task according to authorities.

This ensemble has been playing together for 14 years, and their matchless tone is the result not only of constant rehearsing and the fine artistry of each member but of the fact that their instruments are very closely matched.

Oregon State Wins Over Vandals, 42-17

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 16 (AP)—The Oregon State college basketball team last night defeated the University of Idaho quintet 42-17 in a game that was one-sided from start to finish.

Among the superlatives of Oregon people is that whittling in a dressing room is the height of bad luck.

RED SOX PLAN TO USE COAST LEAGUER AT SECOND BASE

COLLINS-FIGURES ON BOBBY DOERR

Yawkey Spends $500,000 for Infielders, But Will Start With 'Busher'

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—The Boston Red Sox, who have spent more than $500,000 for infielders since Thomas Austin Yawkey purchased a run-down franchise four years ago, will start 18-year-old Bobby Doerr at second base this spring.

Doerr comes up from San Diego, where he hit a rousing .342 in the long Pacific coast league season of 175 games.

Eddie Collins doesn't expect Doerr to have complete mastery of all the technique of second basing in this, his third season in professional baseball.

Having played considerable second base himself, the general manager of the Red Sox realizes that a second baseman never reaches the point when he feels that he has all the intricacies of the position down pat.

Lazzeri Leader
Clubs without capable second basemen don't go very far. Like catching and shortstopping, it is a post where batting frequently can be sacrificed for fielding skill.

Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig have done the long-range clouting, but Tony Lazzeri at second base has been the key man and greatest team factor for the Yankees throughout 11 campaigns.

A natural leader, Lazzeri has a deal to do with the tactical employment of the infield in the field. Gehrig will tell you how pleasant it is to play alongside of the Italian. Lazzeri has been of much assistance to Frankie Crosetti at short.

He has helped his fellow San Franciscan mentally and actually over many a rough spot.

Rogers Hornsby, a second baseman, drove the Cardinals to their first pennant and world championship in 1920. The Red Birds since have been driven to four flags, two world championships, and to second place on three occasions by the Rajah's successor, Frank Frisch.

Collins scouted Doerr
Collins traveled to California to personally scout Doerr the past two seasons. He believes that the Los Angeles lad has in him to make good.

"But you never can tell what the present of big league competition will do to a youngster," asserts the one-time cooey second sacker of the Athletics and White Sox. "You never know how he will react to the new situation. He may lighten up and lose confidence."

"Doerr appears to be a fine prospect, however. He has a great keenness for the game and good baseball instinct."

Doerr stands 5 feet 11 inches and comes in at 175 pounds. He bats right-handed.

Collins hopes Doerr turns out to be a doer. It's about time one turned up at Fenway Park, where the very generous young Mr. Yawkey deserves a better fate.

New "Bubble" Bursts as Fight Scandal Falls Around Torrance

By HENRY McEMORE
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Feb. 16 (AP)—Another "Louisiana bubble" is broken.

News dispatches from New Orleans bring the information that Jack Torrance, the Bayou behemoth, hasn't been kicking out prize fighters at all, but a collection of high divers who allowed themselves to be swept off the springboard by the breeze from Jack's mighty hay-makers.

Torrance had disposed of four opponents and was already to dust off a fifth when No. 5 was suddenly overcome with remorse (either that or he didn't want to get his new suit wet) and confessed his guilt.

Subject of Talk
This was a sad blow to New Orleans. I know, because when I was there a week or so ago Torrance and his man-killing feats were the chief subject of conversation, being even more popular than the rise of the river and the strength of levers.

The town had even gone so far as to name a shrimp dish after him, and in New Orleans this is the highest possible compliment. It was called "shrimp a la Jack Torrance."

The entire city had a tremendous interest in Torrance, particularly as to his efforts to reduce. I talked to dozens of citizens and there wasn't one of them who couldn't reel off his latest measurements as readily as brokers do stock quotations. They were immensely proud that he had brought his waist down from 55 to 48, and shaved several sizes off his neck.

Next Champ
They interpreted this as a sure sign he could be next heavyweight champion of the world. They did not seem to remember that Paul Whiteman lost hundreds of pounds without gaining a title.

He had "knocked out" three men when I was there, and I talked to several citizens who had seen him send his opponents into beautiful one and one-half gamers, swans, and bark jackknives. They were tremendously enthusiastic, and said his "shot put" punch was the most devastating thing since gun powder was invented. I remember asking at the time if his opponents had been bona fide pugilists, and I remember being told they were men of great skill.

I left New Orleans convinced that Torrance was the ring's new killer, and with a note on my cuff to write a story pointing out that at the rate he was going, Torrance soon would outdistance even ether as a producer of unconsciousness.

Bar Sinitser
When the New Orleans boxing commission heard the full details of what some term a "scandal" it promptly suspended Torrance's board of strategy. It is a good thing that all other, state commissions have not treated similar cases with such severity, because if they had half the heavyweight champions this country has produced would have the bar sinitser across their chests.

Primo Carnero, to name one, would have so many bar sinitzers across his coat of arms that it would resemble a zebra, for old bootie spent a full year doing nothing else but pushing over pushovers with invisible punches. Of course, Primo had a pretty good excuse—that was just about the only type article he could knock down. That and Jack Sharkey, whose knockout by Primo will always go down in my book with other such mysteries as the whereabouts of Charley Ross and the name of Cock Robin's dastardly assassin.

Dizzy Dean Says He's Not Worth $400,000 Price

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Feb. 16 (AP)—Jerome Herman "Dizzy" Dean confessed to a radio audience here last night that he knows he's not worth $400,000, but that the St. Louis Cardinals turned down an offer for him at that price, so he thinks he's worth a $50,000 contract.

"I hope Branch Rickey and Sam Breadon are listening," he said. "I want to tell them they refused $400,000 for me I know I'm not worth that. But if they can refuse $400,000 for me now I think I'm worth fifty thousand."

"And if I don't get it, I won't sign."

STRIKES TO SPARE

WITH FRED STONE

Studebaker continued their winning ways by taking two out of three from National Laundry, despite the swell bowling of Art Woods, the Laundry's lead-off man who had games of 212, 181 and 182 for high three games of the night. Some bowler, a double and turkey his first game; turkey his second; double his last.

Al Pugliano got a turkey his first game. He also got eight splits. "What was this—a game?" moaned Sprouts as he totalled up his score. Louie Pugliano had plenty of trouble himself, six splits, three errors, no doubles. That's bad.

Bill Ford, at anchor, got two doubles and six errors.

Every player on the Studebaker team went over the 500 mark, led by Bob McCracken with 571. Bob took high single game with 217. Two turkeys for Bob, both his last game.

Fargo got one double. Also four splits and four errors for Gail. Art Boone just topped the 500 mark; one double for Art and five splits.

Ted Emerick went a little better; a double his first game, another his second, seven splits hurt his total count.

Brown got away to a slow start, but his second and third games were twins—181 each. Browne had two doubles; his second game, one his last. Four splits, no errors.

Emerick took 11 odd games from Chevrolet by the narrow margin of six pins.

Of the regular bowlers on the Emerick team, Clark was high. Don Sterling, subbing for Paff, started his third game with four strikes in a row.

Cap Emerick was the only player on his team to get a double.

Max Miller again showed the City league the way—he had high single game of 196 and high total of 484. Four strikes in a row for Little Maxie his second game.

John Robertson and Edwards both got doubles their last games. The other boys, no could do.

AIRING SET FOR FIGHT SCANDAL

Empire State Board to Talk Louisiana "Fixing" at Meeting Today

NEW YORK, Feb. 16 (AP)—The Louisiana boxing "scandal" will be given a thorough airing at the New York Boxing commission meeting tomorrow.

Commissioner William Brown promised to pursue a vigorous investigation to mete out the proper punishment to the New Yorkers, if any, involved.

The scandal, revolving around the Olympic shot-putter, Jack Torrance, developed over a fight that never materialized. His opponent, billed as Jack Willis, failed to show up in Baton Rouge last Wednesday night.

Picked up by police, he gave three different names which finally boiled down to Earl Phillips.

A list of instructions allegedly enclosed in a New York Hippodrome envelope, calling for him to "take the tank" at the first round, was found in Phillips' pocket. The Louisiana commission levied a fine of $300 and suspended him. Like treatment was meted out to Torrance's manager, Herb Brodie, and Musky Jackson, handy man around the Hippodrome.

Mike Jacobs, promoter for the 20th Century club which took over the Hippodrome last fall, denied that the envelope on Jackson implicated him in the plan to build Torrance via the tank method.

Thil Retains Crown on Foul as Frenchmen Boo

By HAROLD ETTINGER

PARIS, Feb. 16 (AP)—A. Falony, Belgian referee, today recommended penalties against John Buckley, of Boston, manager of Lou Brouillard of Worcester, Mass., for the blow on which Marcel Thil was awarded a middleweight title bout last night.

No penalties were recommended against Brouillard himself, who struck the blow as the result of which Thil was awarded the decision on a foul in the sixth round, and thus retained his middleweight title as recognized by the International Boxing union.

Referee Falony made his penalties recommendation to the union today while French boxing nursed another black eye caused by uproar over the fight.

Frenchmen Boo
The referee counted Thil out and named Brouillard the winner but a half minute later, after a conference with the judges, he called the blow a foul and gave the bout to Thil. Even the Frenchmen booed.

It was the third time Thil had defeated Brouillard and the third title bout he had won on a foul. He was named the middleweight champion by the boxing union after he won a decision over the American contender, Gorilla Jones, hard-hitting Memphis Negro, in the 11th round of their 1932 bout. He won a 12-round "home town" decision over Brouillard in 1935, then defeated the Canadian born Frenchman again Jan. 20, 1936, by a foul in the fourth round.

QUORUM MEMBER TALKS TO L. D. S.

Dr. John A. Widtsoe Speaks At General Sessions of Leadership Week

BURLEY, Feb. 16 (Special) — Dr. John A. Widtsoe, member of the quorum of the twelve of the L. D. S. church and former president of the University of Utah, spoke at the general sessions of the opening day of the 12th annual Leadership week of southern Idaho here yesterday.

As the subject for his morning talk, Dr. Widtsoe chose, "Science and Life," which was an introduction to his afternoon talk concerning the theme for Leadership week this year, "Learning to Live in a Changing World."

Speaks on Science
Dr. Widtsoe defined science as the sum of all human knowledge, providing that the knowledge is correct. "Science," he said, "is the most used and disused word in the world. Everyone uses it and yet few stop to think what it means. Today, he said, as we are not far along in our search for correct knowledge, we are not far along scientifically and we have much further to go."

In his discussion of science, Dr. Widtsoe warned his listeners that facts never change but that inferences drawn from the facts often do. Man, he said, to use science to his advantage, must learn to build his faith upon facts, not upon inferences. Then his foundations will always remain.

During the afternoon meeting, Dr. Widtsoe continued to make the distinction between that which is permanent and that which is merely external in the world and man's relation to it.

Classes Held
During the special classes of the day there were two genealogy, two agriculture, two scouting, and two Relief society meetings. The morning genealogy meeting, under the direction of A. William Lund, member of the board of directors of the genealogical society of Utah, was on the subject, "The Progress of Man," and this subject was continued during the afternoon.

The scouting subject was "Troop Programming," by D. L. Roberts, Porterville. The National Women's Relief society under Julia A. F. Lund, general secretary from Salt Lake City, studied, "Health and Life Today," at the morning meeting, and "Educational and Life Today," during the afternoon hour.

The agricultural meetings were on the subject, "Crop Experimental Work and Results," and were directed by John L. Toews, superintendent experimental station, Aberdeen.

In the evening the opening social event of the week, a general picnic, was held at the Arcadia with music by Chick Heim's Continentals.

Welcome Signs Urged For Elks
Merchants, Residents Asked To Plan Gala Greeting

Merchants of Twin Falls today were urged by Rulon Dunn, chairman of publicity for the coming visit of approximately 500 Elks from Idaho and Utah lodges, to display welcome signs in their windows and, if possible, to decorate the windows in the Elks' color of purple and white.

"The visitors are coming here from all over Idaho and Utah," Dunn said today, "and it is only fitting that we show we are glad they are here and appreciate the gift of a flag pole and plaque which they are to present."

Dunn said the parade, which will be a feature of the resulting celebrations, will attract hundreds to the downtown area, and merchants should take advantage of this fact by decorating their store windows accordingly. He urged householders to display flags.

Sec'y, American Bridge League
It has sometimes been said that one mark of an expert bridge player is that he not only gets more out of his aces and kings than does the average player, but that he has a knack of finding useful tasks for the deuces and treys which look so very meaningless to the amateur.

Two of the younger masters who are expected to attend the forthcoming national championship tournament of the American Bridge League at the Hotel Stevens in Chicago, the week of Nov. 30, are Jules Bank and George Roper. In a recent tournament held in Albany, N. Y., Bank showed that he fully appreciated the value of a worthless card.

McVEY'S INTERNATIONAL TRUCKS

McCORMICK-DEERING FARM EQUIPMENT

Claude Pratt Denies Rumors

No, the kind of oil we sell did not ruin a big Diesel motor, and our company did not give anyone a check for $63,000. Just read the following letter and let it be known far and wide that we are selling the best motor oil that comes to Idaho, and our sales are increasing like a house afire and Claude Pratt is not the least bit worried. The users are not circulating any false stories, as they know the oil is wonderful. The best farmers never farm, the best slatemen are never elected, and the ones that know the most about Pratt's oil never use it. They sell a different kind. Ha! Ha!

Feb. 11, 1937
Dear Mr Pratt:

Yours of the 9th just at hand. You may tell your friend or anyone else to whom you wish to give the information that I personally met Mr. McMullan on his arrival in Boise via his own plane. We drove to Mountain Home in my car, spent a few hours there. Then I drove him back to Boise late at night and early the next morning he left again for Los Angeles. We did not go to Glenns Ferry and I know no one there by the name of Neal. Mr. McMullan did particularly want to see the Knowles Bros. at Mountain Home as they are big users of our oil.

If you will look at the January 1st issue of "The Last Word," McMullan publication, you will note that between the time Mr. McMullan left here and January 1st, we had sold Knowles Bros. 915 gallons of Ring Free and the morning of January 2nd, we sold them 10, 55-gallon drums and 7, 5 gallon pails.

PRICE OF WHEAT TAKES 2C DROP

CHICAGO, Feb. 16 (UPI)—Liquidation induced by weakness in foreign markets today forced wheat prices down for net losses ranging up to two cents a bushel. Support was conspicuously lacking most of the session.
 A slump of 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 pence at Liverpool in response to heavy arrivals of southern hemisphere wheat and reports that the Argentine wheat crop was one of the largest and best on record dampened the enthusiasm of local bulk buyers. Recent buyers, it appeared, unloaded on a broad scale early in the day and despite additional reports of dust storms in the west the market met with little support. Trading slowed in the final hour with prices holding around their lows.

REGULARITY HELPS YOU AVOID COLDS

As a protection against colds, a healthy body is even better than umbrellas or overcoats.

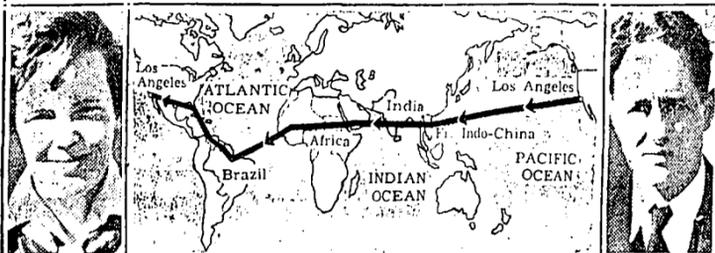

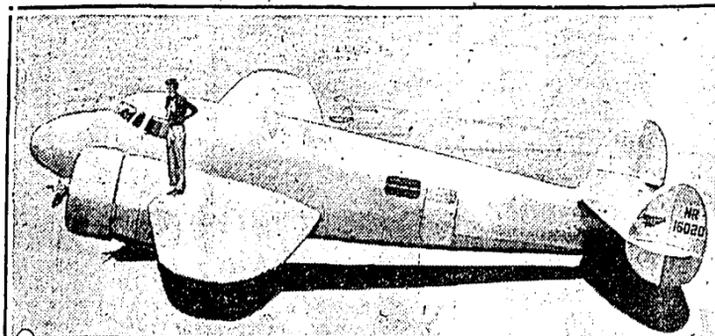

But so many people let common constipation get them in a "run-down" condition—where they are likely to catch the first cold that comes along.

Keep feeling well this winter. Avoid constipation by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN every day. It furnishes corrective "bulk," as well as vitamin B to tone up the intestines. Also iron for the blood.

In the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, forms a soft mass, and gently sponges out the system. Just eat two table-spoonfuls daily. In chronic cases, with each meal.

How much better to eat this food instead of taking weakening pills and drug! Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or fruits, or cook into recipes. Sold by all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

TRAINING YOUTH CALLED NYA AIM

Object Isn't Just Part-Time Employment, Says District Chief From Boise

Ultimate objective of the National Youth Administration is to train the youth of Idaho so that they will be better fitted to care for themselves later in life, rather than just giving them part time employment, I. Q. Wood, district supervisor of 18 counties, who has headquarters in Boise, said here.

Mr. Wood, accompanied by Miss Faye Norris, administrative assistant in charge of personnel, left Twin Falls late yesterday afternoon to return to Boise after he and Miss Norris, accompanied by Harold A. Salisbury, area supervisor, had made an inspection tour of this area, which embraces six counties. The purpose of the tour was for checking up on existing NYA conditions and making plans for future projects, many of which are expected to get underway in the spring.

At the present time, Wood said, particular emphasis is being paid to those youths, both boys and girls, whose present financial condition does not permit them to enjoy the benefits of educational advantages more easily obtained by other youths.

Sugar Growers, Buyers Fail to Sign Contracts

POCATELLO, Ida., Feb. 16 (AP)—A two-day meeting between the executive board of the Idaho Beet Growers' association and representatives of the Idaho-Utah and the Amalgamated companies closed here without the signing of a single contract for 1937 because the growers insisted on more money than the refineries would quote.

A minimum initial payment sufficient to cover the cost of production up to the time of delivery to factories was the chief obstacle. Possible federal legislation made the establishment of a minimum initial payment difficult to set, the growers said.

Initial payments in the five upper Snake river districts was $5.25 last year and $5.50 in the three lower districts.

Spring planting will not be hindered by the neglect of setting a time for renewal of negotiations, it was said.

"THE CREAM OF THE CROP"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Stanwyck verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
