NRA Return Planned After Enactment of U. S. Court Program

White House Source Says Administration Seeks Labor Provision Restoration

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (UP)—The administration has virtually completed a series of legislative measures to restore the labor provisions of NRA, the United Press was informed today by sources close to the White House.

It was believed, however, that no decision has yet been made whether any or all of these measures will be considered by congress until President Roosevelt's judicial reorganization program has been acted upon.

Mr. Roosevelt, it was reliably reported is awaiting definite word from organized labor factions regarding the methods they favor for restoring wage and hour provisions established under the Blue Eagle.

Future conferences will seek future conferences with leaders of the American Federation of Labor and the committee for industrial organization before any omnibus bill is drafted from the proposals already advanced.

Mr. Roosevelt has talked with President William Green and Counsel Charlton Ogburn of the federation, with John L. Lewis and other CIO leaders, and with Harper Sibbey, head of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, regarding the NRA substitute program.

The fact that the administration is committed to an equalization of profits with the boosting of purchasing power was emphasized to the United Press by a member of the President's cabinet.

Objectives Outlined The objectives he outlined were: 1. "Safe and sound business program."

LOYALISTS SHELL REBEL TRENCHES

Insurgents Re-Take Key Spot As Draft Is Ordered In Capital City

By IRVING B. PFLAUM MADRID, Feb. 23 (UP)—Loyalist artillery batteries on the west side of Madrid laid down a terrific barrage on the nationalist trenches today. Firing spread to all sectors.

Firing began at dawn. The din was heard throughout Madrid and windows in the central part of the city shook as if from an earthquake.

The firing centered in the University City and West Park areas. Heavy fighting was reported also south of the city in the San Martin-Morata sector of the Jarama river front, along the Valencia road.

The loyalist high command admitted that storm troops who yesterday captured La Marañosa, south of the capital in a key position, had been driven out.

Determined to enlist all man power in the final phase of the civil war, the government, from its emergency capital at Valencia, issued the decree by which all idlers and unemployed men between the ages of 18 and 45 years will be drafted and put to work building fortifications and doing other tasks behind the lines.

This decree follows one calling another 150,000 men for front service.

Bitter as the fighting is in the civil war, it was suspended yesterday in one area—at Villa del Rio in the south, on the Cordoba front. Several score militiamen were killed there last week and fighting was so heavy it was impossible to bury them. By means of loud speakers from the trenches, the loyalists sought a truce so they could bury their comrades. The nationalists agreed and stretcher bearers removed the bodies, some within 20 feet of the nationalist trenches and barricades.

Nevada Train Bill Unconstitutional

CARSON CITY, Nev., Feb. 23 (UP)—Nevada's 70-car train bill was held unconstitutional today by three federal judges who upheld a ruling to that effect previously made by the master in chancery and issued a permanent injunction against enforcement of the act by the state.

Handing down the ruling were U. S. Circuit Court Judge Clifton Matthews, U. S. District Court Judge Harold Lunderback and U. S. District Court Judge Frank Norcross.

300 REPORTED EXECUTED FOR ETHIOPIA BOMBING

ROME, Feb. 23 (UP)—An authoritative source estimated today that 300 persons had been executed at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, as the result of the bombing Friday in which Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, the viceroy; Gen. Aurelio Liotta, head of the east African air force, and the Abunda Cyril, head of the Coptic Christian church of Ethiopia, were wounded.

As Senate Judiciary Committee Started Work

Smiles that lighted the faces of members of the senate judiciary committee were not in anticipation of work which lay ahead of them. The picture was taken as Chairman Henry Ashurst (D., Ariz.) called his fellow senators together for executive business which included consideration of the President's controversial judiciary reform bill, passage of which, Roosevelt said, would mark "the fight of my life."

Help Pay City Benefits, Disputed Area Informed

Annexation Ordinance Passes First Reading; Coleman Cites Water Problem to Protestors

Because residents of the 180-acre tract which the Twin Falls council plans to annex to the city are receiving benefits, which city residents are paying for, including a water supply, O. H. Coleman, council member, today had taken the stand the people residing in that section would have to help pay the cost.

Coleman's statement was made last evening as members of the city council, with the exception of Milton Powell, in Pocatello on personal business, passed unanimously on first reading an ordinance making the area in question a part of the city.

Toward the close of a plea made by R. P. Mallon, serving as spokesman for persons not desiring the annexation, Coleman said:

"The city cannot supply outside districts with water much longer. What will you folks do for water then? We'll have to cut you off the water supply in the near future unless you aid us in supplying that water."

To this, Mallon said: "If the time ever comes that you find it necessary to do that, you can go ahead. But I thought it was not so much the lack of water but litigation which you needed."

"That's why you should help," Coleman informed him. "If the city folk must construct filtration plants, the people getting the benefits of them should assist in paying for them. Are we obligated to supply you water?"

Mallon asked: "Why haven't other sections been taken in?" At this point Mayor Duncan McD. Johnston interrupted and said: "I can answer that. Take for instance the Bremer section. There they have only three water taps at the present time, and that will not hurt our supply."

Mallon then suggested the residents in the 180-acre area construct a filtration plant of their own.

"And how much would that raise your taxes?" Johnston asked. "Not as much as you think," Mallon said.

At the council meeting, which was attended by approximately 25 residents and property owners in the district in question, only three members of the committee of five property owners appointed to meet with the council were present. They were Mallon, Elmer Laubenheim and H. B. Long.

The group presented the council with petitions signed by approximately 170 residents protesting the annexation. Mallon said he could get "90 per cent of the people to sign if they had the time," and that the present signers were "only gathered haphazardly."

Throughout the meeting Mallon argued that the people had no asset. (Continued on Page 3, Column 1)

Oddities From Here And There

INVENTIONS LONDON, Feb. 23 (UP)—British inventors, seeking to aid the country in its defense program were busy today. One suggested a giant bellows, to create high winds that would impede movement of enemy airplanes. Another suggested shells filled with feathers that would clog a plane's motor intakes.

WARRANT CHICAGO, Feb. 23 (UP)—Eml Spaiser demanded a warrant against his brother, Otto, because Otto took up too much of the bed at night and resisted violently when Emil objected. Police, unable to issue the warrant, promised to reason with Otto.

BOAT WORKERS STRIKE GROTON, Conn., Feb. 23 (UP)—The plant of the Electric Boat Co., engaged in constructing submarines under U. S. navy contracts, was disorganized today by a "stay-in" strike ordered by the Marine & Shipbuilding Workers of America, an affiliate of the C. I. O.

MISTAKE ROOSEVELT, N. Y., Feb. 23 (UP)—"Is that you, Harvey?" called Mrs. Caroline Flowers, 76, as her son, Harvey Rayner, and four other members of the family entered their home. The group at the door listened in amazement. They had just returned from Meadowbrook hospital where for hours they had kept vigil at the bedside of an elderly woman accident victim, her head swathed in bandages, whom they thought to be Mrs. Flowers. Police later learned that the hospital patient was Mrs. Florence Hayden, 71.

FOOD SAN JOSE, Calif., Feb. 23 (UP)—The first purchase made by Mrs. Laura Carpenter with a part of the $200 given her to test the Townsend revolving pension plan theory was food for Willie and Joe—goldfish.

LUCKY CLEVELAND, Feb. 23 (UP)—A huge oak, felled by a 50-mile gale aloft in twin lightning bolts, the automobile in which Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson were riding across its trunk, their car demolished, they looked at each other. Their names, Thompson, head scratches, his wife, a slightly-wrenched shoulder.

THRONG OF ELKS EVACUATES CITY

Utah and Idaho Lodge Men Hear Burley Invitation To Return Next Year

Salt Lake City, eastern Idaho and western Idaho Elks had evacuated Twin Falls today but the lodge men carried with them an invitation to return to south central Idaho again next year to help dedicate a new Elks home at Burley.

The Burley invitation was extended by Walter S. Chrysler, exalted ruler of the Burley lodge, at the banquet which formally concluded the two-day visitation last night. Chrysler declared Burley's Elks building will be completed in time for dedicatory rites by the time of the Washington's birthday trip in 1938.

Many at Banquet More than 400 Elks attended the banquet, at which short talks were made by W. B. Roberts, exalted ruler of the Salt Lake lodge, who introduced the lodge's officers and past rulers; Harry S. Joseph, Salt Lake City, chairman of the Salt Lake visitation committee for the last 12 years; Alf Gunn, deputy U. S. marshal for Utah; George Llewellyn, past deputy grand exalted ruler, representing the mayor of Salt Lake City; and Mayor Duncan McD. Johnston, Twin Falls. Harry Benoit presided as toastmaster.

The assembling extended praise to Judge O. P. Davall for his chairmanship of the Twin Falls arrangements.

Band Entertains Entertainment at the banquet was provided by the Union Pacific terminal band from Ogden, by Mrs. Melvin Neffner, blues singer from Burli, and her husband as accompanist; accordion solo by Florian Hunt, and dance by Wayne Kenworthy.

Salt Lake Elks entrained for home on the Utah special train shortly after 11 p. m. with several hundred Idaho Elks leaving by motor car throughout the evening.

Good Minds Rare, Says U. S. Teacher

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (UP)—First rate minds are rare in the United States, though there are more Phi Kappa Psi square mile than in any other part of the world, Dr. Joseph K. Hart, professor of educational sociology at Teachers' college, said in an essay today.

He defined ignorance as the "background cultivated during the pre-school years." Educational methods, he said, attempted to rid the pupils of this essential part of their individualities. The result made individuals naive, submissive and uncritical.

FIVE ESCAPE KANSAS JAIL

Idaho Man Among Convicts Fleeing From Prison In McPherson

McPHERSON, Kans., Feb. 23 (UP)—Five men escaped from the McPherson county jail today after having apparently been released by a confederate who had stolen the cell keys.

Those who escaped were Jack Allen and Roy Southern, Carthage; Mrs. Bert Woodworth, Wichita; Clyde Strahan, McPherson; and John Van Holman, of Idaho.

McPhail said Southern, Woodworth, Strahan and Holman were arrested two weeks ago as members of a burglary gang operating in south central Kansas. They had been bound over for trial on state burglary and car theft charges.

ALASKA VILLAGE RUINED BY FIRE

Douglas Destroyed as Town's Entire Population Is Left Homeless

JUNEAU, Alaska, Feb. 23 (UP)—The historic mining town of Douglas, four miles across the Gastineau channel from Juneau, lay in ruins today after fire of undetermined origin swept it rapidly.

It was not known immediately if anyone died in the fire. The fire broke out 6 a. m. and roared through the old wooden houses and huts, which were built close together.

It was feared the town's entire population of 700 would be left homeless.

A high wind fanned the flames furiously and they could not be checked.

Juneau's power was cut off and communications with the stricken town was possible only across a new steel bridge linking the cities. Douglas is on an island and Juneau is on the mainland.

The fire was first thought to have started in a roadside Mike's Dreamland where a Washington's birthday celebration lasted until early morning.

Study Planned WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (UP)—The senate finance committee today planned a study of the advisability of placing the social security program on a "pay as you go" basis instead of its present reserve system.

REAR ADMIRAL DIES PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Feb. 23 (UP)—Rear Admiral Henry Thomas Mayo, U. S. N. retired, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet throughout the World war, died at the home of a sign here today. He was 80.

Bringing into the open an issue which has been debated for years, Dr. Inez Cella Philbrick, 71, upper photo, is responsible for forcing into Nebraska's unicameral legislature a bill to legalize euthanasia, or merry deaths, for persons suffering from painful and incurable illness. Sponsor of the bill is Senator John B. Comstock, 32, below, attended at birth by Dr. Philbrick. Both are from Lincoln.

LEGALIZED MERCY DEATH IS ASKED

Woman Cancer Sufferer Tells Nebraska Solons to Pass Bill

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 23 (UP)—A woman suffering from cancer, with a fear she will die slowly and painfully, expressed home today the Nebraska unicameral legislature will legalize euthanasia mercy death.

She wrote of her fears and hopes to Dr. Inez Philbrick, elderly woman physician who later today was to appear before a legislative committee to defend the euthanasia bill she had introduced.

The cancer sufferer lives in another date Dr. Philbrick does not know whether or not her conditions, or, ever will be an hopeless, as to warrant merciful execution by a physician under authority of law. Her residence outside Nebraska would not bar her from coming here for the benefit of euthanasia if Dr. Philbrick's bill is passed.

That it will be passed at this session admittedly is doubtful, but Dr. Philbrick at 70, is confident she has a cause that eventually will be accepted.

REQUEST DENIED FOR EXTRA PLEA

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (UP)—District Federal Court Justice James M. Proctor today denied the request of John S. Farnsworth that he be allowed to plead not guilty and stand trial on charges of conspiring to communicate United States naval secrets to Japan.

Judge Proctor ruled that Farnsworth must stand on his plea of "nolo contendere" in which, in effect, admitted guilt and thereby waived the mercy of the court when his trial on espionage charges was held a week ago.

Farnsworth appeared before the court in person to plead for the right to change his plea. He contended that he had been subjected to "heavy pressure" before agreeing to make the nolo contendere plea, and now desired to stand trial.

BILL REPORTED FAVORABLY WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (UP)—Sen. Pat McCarran, D. Nev., chairman of a senate judiciary subcommittee, today reported favorably to the senate the supreme court full pay retirement bill passed by the house.

RETIREMENT ACT WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (UP)—The senate today passed a house-approved resolution extending until June 30, 1938 the taxing provisions of the railroad retirement act.

$50,000 Set In Fund For Advertising

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 23 (UP)—Creation of a state publicity bureau with a $50,000 appropriation to be used for advertising Idaho recreation resources was approved by the house of representatives today.

Funds would be used for purchasing advertising space, printing pamphlets and other means of developing the tourist industry.

"This bill calls for an appropriation to be expended to raise revenue without taxation," said Newmann, Nez Perce. He said numerous states had launched state advertising campaigns and found results highly satisfactory.

Walker, Ada, warned that "there are too many of these appropriations" and foresaw the state again in debt unless expenditures are cut down.

O'Connell, Butte, quoted figures to show that tourists now spend about $40,000,000 annually in Idaho.

"If we received a proportionate amount of the national tourist expenditure Idaho's share would be $100,000,000," he said. "We can get the rest of that money by advertising."

Sees Relief Increase Harrington, Canyon, house "one-man economy bloc" saw in the expenditure a possible increase in relief rolls by bringing more people into the state. "The ad valorem taxpayer would pay through the nose for such a program," warned Andrus, Bonneville.

Vote for passage of the bill was 37 to 21. The house then proceeded to pass five other appropriation bills with little opposition.

The senate postponed until late afternoon its start on consideration of 11 other bills up for final reading, spending its entire morning session in committee of the whole.

A joint resolution embodying Governor Clark's municipal ownership proposals was amended to include cities with special charters under provisions to allow municipalities and power districts to acquire power plants. A portion extending the provisions to water systems was eliminated because a later resolution deals exclusively with public water plants.

A measure to regulate the dairy industry was reported without amendment despite objections of senators who sought protection for the individual farmer who manufactures his own butter for sale.

Denman, Bonneville, demanded that the state affairs committee report two bills to provide for licensing of beer dealers by the liquor control commission and levy an additional $3.10 per barrel tax on out-of-state beer.

BABY RACE WILL RULED AS VALID

COURT O. K.'s $500,000 STORK DERBY PRESCRIBED BY TORONTO MAN

TORONTO, Feb. 23 (UP)—The Ontario court of appeals today ruled the "baby race" clause in the Charles Vance Millar will was valid.

The court also held that illegitimate children of mothers competing for the $500,000 prize left by Millar for Toronto's most prolific mother over a 10-year period could not be counted in determining the winner.

The court ruled on appeals brought by relatives of Millar against the findings of Justice W. E. Middleton, who declared on Nov. 20 that the will was valid and that illegitimate children could not be considered eligible.

The court also ruled on the appeal brought by Mrs. Pauline Mae Clark, one of the contesting mothers, who has admitted that five of the nine children she claimed eligible under terms of Millar's will, were born after her husband left her.

Under the court's ruling today Mrs. Clark is eliminated as a possible winner of the fortune.

ILL REPORTED FAVORABLY WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (UP)—Sen. Pat McCarran, D. Nev., chairman of a senate judiciary subcommittee, today reported favorably to the senate the supreme court full pay retirement bill passed by the house.

RETIREMENT ACT WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (UP)—The senate today passed a house-approved resolution extending until June 30, 1938 the taxing provisions of the railroad retirement act.

STATE OFFICIAL TO AID WORKERS

Plans Made to Reorganize and Review U. S. Employment Procedure Here

An intensive program to make United States employment service employes more valuable and better able to serve the community in which they work, was inaugurated here today with the arrival of Jac Running, district field representative in charge of state private placement activities, with headquarters in Boise.

Every employe of the service in this district will attend special meetings, under the direction of Mr. Running, which were being held from 4 to 6 p. m. today, and which will resume at 1:30 p. m. and continue until 9 p. m. A session will also be held Wednesday from 4 p. m. to 6:30 p. m.

Wednesday evening Mr. Running will speak to members of the Buhl Kiwanis club at their regular meeting.

Cites Purpose

"The purpose of the program which we are inaugurating today," he said, "is to review and reorganize office procedure and stress the importance of reception, interviewing, classifying, coding, placements and field visit on our workers. These things are essential in our work in aiding persons to find employment."

"Our service is permanently established. It is here for anyone who wants to use it, without cost to the employer or the employee. It is maintained by the government, national, state and county, on a cooperative basis. We do not have any connection with relief and are not related to it. Anyone who wishes to find a job or wishes to better his or her present employment can avail himself of the free service," he said.

Job description manuals are being added to the operating aids of the service, he pointed out. This will enable the service better to classify each worker and better to decide upon the qualifications of each person called upon to fill any particular job.

Complete Files

"Because of our complete files and descriptions of each person registered with us," Running said, "we feel we are able to judge and send the right person to any job which might come up. We know our people because, where the employer might have one or two interviews with the applicant, we have from five to 50 in a year's time."

Individual letters will be mailed soon to each retail and wholesale concern, fruit growers, farmers, hotel owners, restaurants, housewives and anyone who might be a potential employer, he points out.

The letters will outline the free service available to the employer and will urge that they take advantage of it. Running invited the general public to inspect the local offices at anytime.

CLOUDY WEATHER IS FORECAST HERE

Mercury High; Workers Start On Task of Clearing Fairfield Road

Fair weather prevailed in Twin Falls today and the mercury dropped only 24 above for low reading this morning, officials of the bureau of entomology announce.

High temperature yesterday was 44 above with a low reading of 30 above. Little change in temperature is forecast for this area but cloudy weather is seen tonight and Wednesday.

Roads of the Twin Falls highway district have been clear for the past several days and business locally has returned to normal following a slight slump caused by blocked highways after the blizzard of two weeks ago.

State plows today started operations in clearing the road into Fairfield. This road has been blocked for nearly two weeks, and is the only one in the state system on which travel is not moving at the present time, officials at the state highway office at Shoshone said today.

An average of four earthquakes occur daily in Japan.

Supreme Court Poll FOR AGAINST IDAHO EVENING TIMES

226 236

NATIONAL RESULTS

66,676 126,941

Southern Idaho voters in the supreme court poll being conducted by the Idaho Evening Times, fell in line with the nation's voting today as they cast 236 votes against the President's proposal as compared to 226 for. Votes counted include those received up to noon today.

Nationally the poll is going two to one against the proposed change as the vote total reached the 200,000 mark. This morning 170 newspapers in 39 states had reported. The Capital News at Boise had reported 497 for and 292 against and the Courier d'Alene Press showed 125 for and 66 against. These two papers and the Evening Times are the only ones in Idaho participating in the national poll.

Eastern newspapers still continued to run up big scores against the court change, while those in the south and west were slightly in favor of the program.

The Times will continue the contest until Thursday.

Idaho Return Hit "A Doctor's Diary" Coming to Orpheum

The relentless war medicine is waging against dread infantile paralysis, the still unexplained mystery which even in non-epidemic years is responsible for the deaths of thousands of children, is graphically portrayed in "A Doctor's Diary," behind-the-scenes revelation of what goes on in many large metropolitan hospitals, which begins at the Orpheum tomorrow.

In this film, John Trent, the handsome ex-filer who makes his first appearance in a leading role, is a young physician who is engaged in experiments which he hopes will reveal a serum for the malady.

His nurse, played by Helen Burgess, revolts against the conditions she is forced to watch and is dismissed. When he can stand it no more, he, too, leaves the hospital.

After a gripping climax in which he decides between his duty to humanity and his own career, he sees the reforms he fought for instituted. He also finds true love in the nurse who helped him through his crisis.

MORE BUILDINGS LOOM AT VALLEY

Union Pacific Eyes Additional Hotel; Eastern Group to Erect Another

KETCHUM, Feb. 23 (Special)—Plans for building a second lower-priced hotel near Sun Valley lodge are being formulated by the Union Pacific. It has been learned here. Definite action on improvements on the lodge are to be considered at the next meeting of the Union Pacific board of directors in New York City, it was understood.

Buildings considered for the lodge include a theater, a stable for horses during the summer months and a dormitory for employes. The lodge has been filled to capacity for the past month and reservations are filled as far ahead as the end of March. The winter sports will close April 15 and the lodge will reopen for the summer season about July 1.

In addition to the Union Pacific resort there will be a new hotel to be built by an eastern hotel syndicate. It has been announced here. An entire block of property has been purchased for the structure with construction slated to begin early in the summer.

Man Attends Father's Funeral, Then Visits Hospital to Discover Parent

NORMAN, Okla., Feb. 23 (U.P.)—J. E. Wilson of Oklahoma City who three days ago saw what he believed was the burial of his father, today shook hands with his parent, Sam H. Wilson, and told him that he was looking well.

The elder Wilson, unaware that his son had believed him dead, replied: "You ain't looking so pert yourself. Maybe you need a nip of spring tonic."

Wilson said he planned to take it.

Physicians at a hospital here notified the younger Wilson last Friday that his father, a patient, was dying. When Wilson arrived at the hospital, he was told that his father had died a few minutes before.

He looked at the corpse, inspected the records and arranged for the funeral.

The funeral was held at Davis, Okla., the following day. Mrs. Pearl Royce, a daughter, looked into the casket and said the Church Wedding For Clover Bride

CLOVER, Feb. 22 (Special)—The marriage of Miss Lorna Dierker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dierker, Clover, and Arnold Werner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Werner, Hansen and formerly of Clover, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at Trinity Lutheran church with Rev. W. F. Dannenfeldt reading the ring ceremony.

The bride was gowned in white chiffon velvet and wore a veil caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was white lilies. Attendants were her sisters, Miss Vernice Dierker, maid of honor, who wore blue taffeta, and Miss Flora Dierker, bridesmaid, who wore a frock of apricot moire taffeta. The flower girl was little Lulu Mae Dierker, who wore pink taffeta. Brothers of the groom, Clarence Werner and Kennert Werner, were best man and usher. Music for the approach of the bride party to the altar was played by G. C. Westerkamp.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the school where an informal program was presented by Mr. Westerkamp and Fred Rees. The gifts received by the bride couple were displayed.

Eighty-five guests were entertained at a wedding supper. Tables for the event were trimmed in pink and the bride table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Following a wedding trip to Salt Lake City, Mr. and Mrs. Werner will be at home near Hansen, Mrs. Werner is a graduate of the Filer rural high school and attended commercial school in Seattle. For two years she has been employed by the O. J. Childs Seed company at Filer.

2 CARS DAMAGED IN MISHAP HERE

Two automobiles, driven by W. W. Noble and E. D. Silgar, both of route two, Twin Falls, were damaged in a collision at the intersection of Shoshone avenue and Fourth avenue south Monday at 2:30 p. m.

Silgar, according to the police report, was making a left turn at the time and Noble collided with him. Both cars, police say, lacked adequate brakes and the drivers were instructed to have necessary repairs made immediately.

The Silgar automobile was the most seriously damaged, having bent front and rear fenders, broken front bumper and mashed running board as well as a damaged steering wheel.

TRIBUTE PAID TO BURLEY WOMAN

L. D. S. Rites Honor Mrs. F. Gudmundsen, Cassia Pioneer

BURLEY, Feb. 23 (Special)—Funeral rites for Mrs. Fanny Gudmundsen, 77, well-known Cassia county pioneer, were held Friday afternoon at the L. D. S. tabernacle with Bishop Earl Olverson of the First ward officiating.

Speakers for the services were Bishop Olverson, who read the obituary, and William Waite, Pres. D. R. Langlois, Joseph A. Brunt, member of the state presidency of Idaho Falls, and H. O. Hall.

Music included a violin solo by Mrs. Katherine Zillner; vocal solo by A. L. Hanks; vocal solo by J. Arnold Kirkham of Salt Lake City; and a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Payne. Prelude and postlude music was furnished by Mrs. Zillner accompanied by Mrs. Maurice Stocks. Ralph Unander offered the opening prayer and Mannie Pickett the closing prayer.

Interment was in the Burley cemetery under the direction of the Payne mortuary. The grave was dedicated by C. A. Barlow.

Flower girls were members of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers. Pallbearers were I. J. Clark, J. B. Jack Thomas, Deep Creek, and Mrs. Marlon Hamby, Riverton.

SIGNS, BUILDINGS GIVEN APPROVAL

Council Grants Permits for Activities by Firms and Individuals

Permission to erect three signs, and to construct two buildings at a cost of $1,250 and move another at a cost of $300, had been approved today following the regular meeting of the city council last evening.

Application of Swift and company to erect a four by six feet wooden sign at 220 Second avenue east was granted, as was permission to the Dumas Music company to erect a three by eight, 250 pound Neon sign on the Elks building, and the Soden Electric company a 350 pound, four by nine sign. Cosgriff Advertising Co. will erect the signs.

Permission to excavate in front of and move the United Brethren church building at an estimated cost of $300 was granted, as was construction of a $1,200 dwelling by Mabelle Clemans on route two, and a $50 garage at 1304 Seventh avenue east.

Mrs. James T. Hull was granted permission to secure water service out of the city limits by connecting with the private Pearson's subdivision line, which in turn connects with city mains.

DISPUTED REGION TOLD "HELP PAY"

Council Okes Annexing Move On First Reading; Water Problem Cited

(Continued From Page One) surance that the council members, of some later council, might not force residents to pay huge sums for improvements without asking their permission.

"Is it the intention of the council to install a sewer system?" Mallon asked.

City Attorney George Paulson answered Mallon's query by saying: "The council needs a four-fifths vote of its membership to put in a sewer district. With the possible exception of the main trunk line, this method has not been resorted to, however. It has been the practice of this and past councils to allow the citizens in an area to petition them before the council acts to form a sewer district."

Mallon pointed out, "We have no assurance that another council might not put in a sewer whether we want it or not?"

"It has not been the practice to do this so I do not see why any council, working for the good of the city, should do it," Paulson said.

Speaking on the fact the council members had contacted no residents of the affected area regarding their views, Mallon said:

"Why is the council taking the attitude we should be dragged into the city without proper discussion? Why haven't council members contacted and asked the property owners what they want? We want no taxation without representation. That is why the Revolutionary war was fought and that is why we are fighting now. We will be taxed as soon as we come in."

At this point the city attorney informed Mallon they would not be taxed until the next fiscal year starts.

Mallon then told of the reasons people in the area had established their homes in that particular section and cited his own and neighbor's cases.

"We bought suburban property because we wanted it. That's why the people live out there. We have raised youngsters out there who are real men because they could play in their own back yards and not on the streets, as they have to do in the city. The accidental hazards are reduced where we live."

"If we come in it would mean condemnation of property. We grant that the tax would be equalized by the resultant reductions in fire and water rates. We grant that, having fire protection would be a boon to us, but we do not need police protection. We get along without it and we don't need it."

Under questioning of Mayor Johnston Mallon admitted he had, on several occasions, asked police protection and was granted it in an attempt to catch prowlers in the vicinity of his home.

"If my property changed from suburban to city property I say now that I would sell it just as soon as I could find a buyer," he informed the council.

Mallon continued by telling of the freedom to be found in country life and said "my back yard means $1,000 to me." He also told of the athletes the area has produced.

Here Mayor Johnston interrupted by saying: "I think that is a very weak argument. You infer that the city children are not so fortunate and that they are not as healthy as yours. I don't believe what you say on that point is true."

The mayor cited the example of a prominent athlete of the United States who grew up in Twin Falls and "played on the biggest court in town" while he was a child.

Johnston then asked Mallon what kind of "sales talk" the petitioners gave the people living in the area.

"Didn't you tell them that sewers, sidewalks, streets and alleys would be immediately necessary when this isn't true?" the mayor asked.

"I couldn't say about all the petitioners," Mallon said, "but the fact remains that without even announcing the meeting, over 25 attended our first session held recently."

A discussion between Mallon and the mayor disclosed the fire rates on his property would be reduced from $290 a hundred to 30 cents a hundred, and that he would save approximately $12 a year in his water bill. Mallon granted these statements were true. The mayor told Mallon it would be necessary for the residents of any section to petition the council before any improvements are made and that unless they were petitioned the council would take no improvement steps.

A discussion concerning water rights, was instigated by Lem Chapman, council member, and was discussed among the council and the visitors present.

At this point Mayor Johnston gave his stand on the annexation by saying, "It is for the good of Twin Falls. We must look into the future. The city has to grow and as long as I am mayor I am going to do all in my power to see it grow."

Mrs. Lloyd Gilkey, a resident of the area for 12 years, said she would "welcome" coming into the city because "it would clean up the unsanitary conditions which exist in the area at the present time, especially in the section where I live."

"You who have lived in the better sections of the district, despite all your neighborly talk at the present time, have not added us in any way. You do not know what it means to live around manure and to have slop thrown 20 feet from your house."

"My husband and I are young. We do not want to lose our home but if any additional costs are put upon us because we come into the city then I say now we will pay them gladly because they will aid our living conditions," Mrs. Gilkey said.

Talking to Mrs. Gilkey the mayor said: "The city will clean up those unsanitary conditions if you are annexed, but (talking to Mallon)

NEW GOLD MINE COMPANY FORMS

Five Local Men Combine to Push Operations in Area Near Bellevue

Gold mining operations near Bellevue by the Gold Bottom Mining company, organized by five Twin Falls men, were announced here today after filing of certified copy of articles of incorporation with the county recorder.

The company is capitalized at $1,000,000, divided into a million shares of $1 par value. The four incorporators—C. I. Davis, W. D. Reynolds, F. J. Malone, A. E. Larsen and E. M. Wolfe—each subscribed for 10,000 shares.

Operating Property
Directors of the concern said it is operating a gold property, located about eight miles southwest of Bellevue in the Mineral Hill district in that part known as the Gold Bottom.

The company holds a lease and option on nine unpatented gold mining claims and now has a small force of the incorporators is to get out one body at a depth of about 200 feet and about 50 feet below the present exposed ore body. The plan of the incorporators is to get out enough ore to justify the construction of a mill to handle the products of the mine.

Six Cars Shipped
Six cars of ore, shipped to the American Smelter and Refining company at Salt Lake, averaged $23 per ton, directors said. One car of this product produced $53 per ton.

Intention of the incorporators is to sell stock sufficient to procure a mill for the treatment of the ore rather than to ship the ore to the smelter, it was announced.

Several of the incorporators associated men, some of whom have had considerable experience in mining both in Idaho and Utah.

GOODING SINGERS ANNOUNCE DEBUT

First Appearance Scheduled By Choir at College for March 3

GOODING, Feb. 23 (Special)—One of the leading events of the year at Gooding college will be the debut concert of the college a cappella choir on March 3. The choir has 33 voices. It is being directed by Prof. B. E. Harris, head of the music department, and is the first of its kind to be trained at the college or in Gooding.

The concert will be held in the auditorium at the college at 8:15 p. m. and will last for an hour and 15 minutes. A small charge will be made for admission, and the doors will be closed while a number is in progress. Numbers on the program will range from 18th century compositions down to the work of the modern composers. Some Negro spirituals, classics and religious hymns will make up part of the program.

Formal Concert
This debut concert will be formal and should provide something new in the way of music for people of southern Idaho. Prof. Harris states, A graduate of McPherson college, McPherson, Kan., he has taken graduate work in the University of Southern California.

Members Named
Members of the choir are: sopranos—Louise Whorton, Hagerman, Muriel Smithson, Buhl; Jessica Anderson, Hill City; Marie Schlake, Castleford; Helen Murphy, Aberdeen; Ardis Winters, Mrs. William Shearer, Elaine Hunt, and Avis Jeffries, Gooding; Lueen Patrick and Mary Supan, Richfield.

Alto—Esther Slack, Twin Falls; Esther Ellis, Mary Jane Reed, Marie Adams, Alveretta Thurber and Alma Evislizer, Gooding; Connie Clark, Dubois; Wilda Young, Wendell; Elsie Watson, Paul; Bertha Boyle, Murtaugh.

Tenors—Bernard Gordon and Marsh Rees, Twin Falls; John Mitchell, Rupert; Paul Kinney, Blackfoot; Blythe Clemons and Walter Johnson, Gooding; bass—Dudley Carson, Gooding; Wirt Fairman and Donald Eolf, Jerome; William Beck, Estacada, Ore. and Donald Smith, Rupert.

Following the debut concert the choir will make several tours through southern Idaho. One of these will be through the Twin Falls district and another through the Boise and Nampa district. At Nampa the choir will sing over the radio.

The Bureau of Air Commerce will receive the largest appropriation of any Commerce Department bureau this year.

BATTLE SEEN ON IDAHO "U" FUND

Cavanagh and Harrington in Hot Dispute Over State School Allowance

BOISE, Ida., Feb. 23 (U.P.)—An appropriations battle was scheduled in Idaho's house of representatives today when amendments reducing 1937-38 funds for the University of Idaho, Moscow, were to be presented in committee of the whole.

Motion to put the university appropriation in committee for amendment was made by Maud Coshio, Ada county woman representative, who explained that the house appropriations committee had restored a $148,000 cut in the institution's request made by Governor Clark.

The university requested $1,538,678, and was cut to $1,390,690 by the governor. Last biennium, the institution received $1,212,345.

Cavanagh in Battle
Debate on the university question ended with near threats of Harrington, Canyon, and Cavanagh, Twin Falls, to have it out with swords or pistols. Harrington, who is a strong economy advocate and Cavanagh as chairman of the appropriations committee, argued back and forth across the floor. As they were pounded down by Speaker Troy Smith, Harrington remarked, "I'll see you later, Cav."

The house during its late afternoon session passed a number of bills but still had the major part of an 82-bill calendar facing it today along with more measures coming up for second reading.

A bill providing $117,697 for relief of Mrs. J. F. Kohler and A. M. Hennen, who were injured in an automobile accident allegedly caused by negligence of the highway department was killed, but later reconsidered on motion of Murphy, Shoshone, and placed in committee of the whole for amendment to reduce the amount.

Pawnbrokers Licensed
Among measures passed were provisions to license pawnbrokers, give preference to disabled veterans for all public positions; appropriate $40,000 for payment of delinquent taxes and expenses to safeguard state investments in farm mortgages; appropriate $30,000 for control of Mormon crickets; place rentals on foreclosed lands in a "farm mortgage fund"; allow students to enter state educational institutions without payment of tuition after residing in the state for six months; license contractors dealing with the state highway department.

The house approved a measure to enlarge duties of the state tax commissioner, now charged only

3-MAN PARADE

A three-man Elks band, composed of two leaders and an accordion player, serenaded downtown visitors yesterday afternoon and also the staff at The Evening Times. The leaders were Jack Daly of the Daily Grocery at Rupert and Harry Colwell, Rupert postmaster, while the accordion player was Claude Sealander, owner of the Eleanor hotel at Idaho Falls. The three-man parade over the city lasted for several hours and aroused considerable interest.

with collection of the income tax. He would be given all tax collection activities of the state, now lodged in a number of bureaus of the department of law enforcement and department of public investments.

Bill Killed
Only bill which disturbed a quiet afternoon session of the senate was a measure to prohibit small claims courts from taking jurisdiction over torts, or actions arising out of negligence. The bill was killed.

The upper house passed with few dissenting votes a bill to create the office of deputy commissioner of reclamation. Amendments attached to the bill provided for qualifications of the commissioner—not the deputy—to be a man with not less than five years practical experience as a hydraulic engineer. Only bill which might have stirred up a row in the senate was held on the calendar until today on grounds that several senators interested in the measure were not present. The bill—innocent enough in its language—would recognize the right of decreed water rights to store water for use later in the season.

Would Cause Dispute
It was reported, however, that the measure would tend to embroil irrigators in the Twin Falls and Idaho Falls districts in a bitter dispute. Water users on the upper Snake river might be able to store water to the detriment of users below, it was said by opponents of the bill.

Other bills passed would provide for recording of plats and maps of federal departments with county recorders; provide methods by which foreign corporations could surrender and renew their licenses; give school districts right to convey rights of way to the state for highway purposes; provide for special licenses to non-resident insurance agencies; increase minimum death benefits under the workmen's compensation law from $6 to $8 a week.

The gorilla beats his breast as an outlet for a superabundance of energy and does it during all his various moods, not only when he is angry.

TAKE THAT, 1937 MAN:

Mister:

After dealing out the dirt to us 1937 ladders for two weeks, you have finally put Pot Shots into a spot where the gals can't do a little answering. Here's my answer with the greatest of joy. Keep your 50 cents. It's pleasure enough to speak my mind.

The man of a few decades back had it all over you modern men. There is just no comparison, and if I found one of those old-fashioned gentlemen, I'd marry him on the spot. And don't say "if he'd have me." I've got wiles enough to land any man I really start after.

The old-fashioned chap was courteous, gallant, considerate. He was a he-man, too—which is something you bunched-up, antiseptic-gargling, skinny-shanked me of 1937 aren't. He didn't consider it being hen-pecked to stay home with his wife, or to take her out.

He knew how to drink and could hold what he imbibed.

In short, he was a MAN. You synthetic trouser-wearers are not.

FANCY THAT—CHICKENS IN THE LIBRARY!

Pot Shots:

The ladies who run the library here in Twin Falls were startled no end Monday by a bit of the left-overs from the Elks' initiation.

Along about mid-morning or thereabouts, they opened the door of one of the library parlors and discovered a rooster and a hen parked therein, resentful at the world in general and librarians in particular.

"The rooster and the hen, as you may have guessed, were used to provide some of the devilsment to harass the Elk initiates."

WE THOUGHT THE editor of the Evening Times got a lot of mail on this supreme court issue, but we find now that first prize goes to the gent sitting at the desk on our left. He's the supreme court poll editor, and the votes in that Eve-times straw ballot are pouring in so fast that Pot Shots feels jealous all over again. At this moment all we can see of the poll editor is one ear sticking out of a stack of ballots. By tonight we suspect even that ear will be covered.

JOTTINGS ON THE PRESS AT THAT PARADE

Pot Shots:

Now give one of your readers a chance to write a Seen Today of his own, getting back at some of your Evening Times staff.

Seen Yesterday (at parade) . . . Reporter perched on back end of car, chewing gum a mile a minute as parade goes by . . . Another reporter volunteering to hold child for lady while she holds another child . . . and said reporter thereby stuck for solid half hour . . .

SOME REMARKS ON THIS AND THAT

Boise, Idaho

Well, Pot Shooter:

You seem to be having a lot of difficulty down your way. What'sn't that? Rain gone into reverse, or something?

Some years ago you wanted a toll bridge. Now you want the bridge but not the toll!

Incidentally, your editor, in a front page effort, says "There can be no question but what" on the same subject!

Are you taking a Literary Digest poll—with unquestionably the same bad luck ahead of you—on the future of the supreme court, according to administration plan, according to sapling cottonwood better than nine sturdy oaks? Rome's triumvirate did not triumph, so it became a free-for-all, much the same as indicated by Hitler, Mussolini and—?

Just who is right, or the right just, or what, if which?

Twin Falls wants to annex a suburb. Boise and Jerome on the dodge. It is presumed?

Idaho legislature exceeds all state records by introducing over 400 bills, without a recognizable law in the pot so far as the governor is concerned as yet. What can one expect for $5 per diem—do we pay too little for do little?

The answer must be why?

CONFIDENTIAL

CRIME FILE ON BOLITHO BLANE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Investigating the mysterious disappearance of BOLITHO BLANE, British seaman, from the yacht of CARLTON ROCKSAVAGE, his private companion in world wide trade, Detective Officer KETTERING runs into a maze of confusing clues.

He had that Rocksave sought a merger with Blane to save their companies; that LADY SWELTER is heavily interested in Rocksave's stocks; that COUNT POSODINI is an impostor and an ex-covert; that MISS JOCELYN is a girl of Walter's daughter; that "avea" on Posodini that INO-SURKE HAYASHI, Japanese agent, sought to handle; that the BISHOP OF WIDE was involved in an unsavory scandal during the World War.

Only NICHOLAS STODART, Blane's secretary, appears above suspicion since he was in the ship's lounge all during the period when Blane obviously was murdered.

Later, Kettering questions Posodini again, the 4-foot admiral that he held an old grudge against Blane. But he denies killing the seaman.

NOV. 20 ON THE STORY

CHAPTER XV

DETECTIVE OFFICER NEAME'S SHORTHAND NOTES OF DETECTIVE OFFICER KETTERING'S SECOND EXAMINATION OF THE HONORABLE MRS. REGINALD JOCELYN.

K: Good morning, Mrs. Jocelyn.

P. J: Good morning.

K: Sit down, won't you? There are just a few more things I want to ask you about the night before last.

P. J: Thanks—but I have already told you all I know.

K: All, Mrs. Jocelyn? I wish I could be quite certain about that.

P. J: But aren't you? I don't know anything about Mr. Blane's death at all.

K: Maybe you don't, but I just want you to think very carefully. Forget anything which you may have said to me yesterday. Put it right out of your head and I promise I won't hold it against you. I want you to tell me exactly where you were in this yacht between the time of your leaving the lounge with Count Posodini and returning to it changed for dinner on the night before last.

P. J: But I've already told you I came below with the count, left him at his cabin door and went straight along to my own cabin to change. My husband can prove that because he was there—lying in his bath—when I came in.

K: Ever read a book called "The Saint in New York," by Leslie Charteris, Mrs. Jocelyn?

P. J: Oh, yes—yes, I am reading it at the moment, but I suppose you saw it in my cabin when you searched the whole ship yesterday.

K: That's right. Where did you get that book?

P. J: Count Posodini lent it to me.

K: When?

P. J: Well, as a matter of fact, it was the evening that we're talking about. He gave it to me just after we came below, and I took it to my cabin when I went to change.

K: That's better. Now we're getting somewhere. How long did you stay in the count's cabin?

P. J: I was never in it. He went in and got the book and handed it out to me through the door.

K: Now, Mrs. Jocelyn, this won't do. I have no desire to pry into your private life, and if you've been having an affair with the count that's nobody's business. Anything you say is just confidential between you and me, but you've got to tell me the truth because somebody on this ship has committed murder, and somebody is going to the electric chair on that account. You'd feel pretty bad if that somebody was the wrong person; just because you failed to own up to it that you were talking to them while the murder was being committed, and you were the only alibi they had—wouldn't you?

P. J: Please don't let's be melodramatic, Inspector. I'm sure I won't come to that, and, as I've already told you, my husband can prove I was in my cabin at 7:45. He asked me the time as I came into the bathroom and I looked at my watch.

K: I am sorry but I don't believe you, Mrs. Jocelyn. It's natural enough that you and your husband should have got together directly it was discovered that there had been a murder done on board. You fixed that time between you to coincide with the time you left the lounge but, at the time you say you found your husband in the bath, you weren't in your own suite at all.

P. J: Well, if you choose to think I'm a liar . . . but I don't admit that I am for one moment.

K: I see. That's your story and you're sticking to it. All right, Mrs. Jocelyn, I won't trouble you any more for the moment, but later on I'm afraid you may be sorry that you haven't seen your way to tell me the truth.

P. J: It is the truth, I tell you.

K: So you say, sister, but I don't believe you, so there's no use our arguing any more about it. You can go now . . . no, not that way. Dyau mind going into the next cabin and waiting there for a few moments. I'm going to have a little talk with your husband next, and I'd prefer that you shouldn't have any opportunity of comparing notes with him as you pass each other in the passageway . . . thanks.

DETECTIVE OFFICER NEAME'S SHORTHAND NOTES OF

PAUL MALLON'S NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

An Exclusive Evening Times Daily Report on the Fast-moving Events in the Nation's Capital By an Expert Interpreter and Commentator. (Copyright 1935, By Paul Mallon)

MAIL BATTLE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18—When Mr. John (to be or not to be) Lewis announced he would swing his support behind President Roosevelt's extensive judicial New Deal, he did not mean moral support.

Mr. Lewis plays his Hamlet in politics and in labor, not with lace cuffs and a rapier, but with a purse of gold and a shillelagh. In fact, his spokesman, Major George L. Berry of labor's so-called Non-Partisan league, broadly hinted at the weapon they had in mind this time. He said, "congressmen will be delighted to hear from their people back home and we are not going to deny them the privilege."

What they did not say is that the communications which congressmen have been receiving from Mr. Lewis' forces out in the country indicate that some organization is vitally necessary.

For instance, one congressman stopped a colleague from an adjoining state in the hall the other day, saying he had received the most unusual mandate from a constituent in all his experience. It came from a mine worker local. The colleague had received exactly the same wire from a local in his state. Both wires read simply:

"We expect you to be for whatever the President is for."

POSTAGE

What Mr. Lewis can do in a postage way, if he sets his mind to it, is indicated by a private check-up recently made of campaign expenditures reports on file with the clerk of the house.

Various United Mine Worker contributions have been published from time to time, but totals have varied. So many contributions and loans were made at separate times to various organizations that no one has been sure of an exact total.

While this one may be inadequate, it indicates clearly that Mr. Lewis is not parsimonious in politics, as he was at least able to furnish the following sums in 1936:

To the Democratic national committee $419,648.91.

To the Pennsylvania state committee $40,000.

To two congressional districts in Pennsylvania $19,000.

Total $469,648.91.

It indicates, also, that Mr. Lewis need not go to the expense of sending additional letters to those two congressmen from Pennsylvania in whose election he spent $10,000.

FRIGHT FLURRY

The Lewis-Berry postal attack on congress appears to be needed by the organizers of the President's fight. The real thing which stopped his program cold and delayed consideration was the onslaught of critical communications to congressmen from their folks back home. His normally loyal supporters in congress were frightened.

Most of the estimates on mail are being given out by opposition congressmen. They may or may not be exaggerating, but their assertions indicate that their mail, unlike Mr. Roosevelt's, is nowhere near even.

Republican Representative Millard, Tarrytown, N. Y., told the house he had received between 1,800 and 2,000 telegrams, letters and petitions, but only one in favor. Republican Senator Capper's mail, which is reputed to be the largest in congress, is reported 95 per cent against; Democratic Senator Burke, Nebraska, 93 per cent against; Senator Herring, Iowa, 90 per cent against; Herring is the only one favorable to the President's plan.

SECRETARIAL WORK

During the utilities and bonus fights, congress received hundreds of thousands of communications, but most of these were obviously organized. Some of the utilities and bonus people were supposed to have written the letters themselves before going out on the highways and byways and soliciting signatures, in some cases signing the names themselves and paying the postage.

The first batches of incoming mail this time were obviously not the result of skillful organization, but much of the deluge poured from pens of lawyers and others acquainted with the subject.

The President's friends believe their deficiency in mail support was due to the fact that the issue was not understood by the average man in the street. They trust that, after a period of systematized campaign educational work and organization, they can bring in mail to congressional desks which will give congress justification for supporting the proposal.

This is the whole fight now.

SKILL

It seemed significant that Mr. Roosevelt announced his new commissioner to the Philippines just as Philippine military adviser General MacArthur and Philippine President Manuel Quezon were on their way to Washington for a conference. It was.

Those who should know, say Mr. Roosevelt hastened the matter before his cabinet and obtained its unanimous approval to the selection of Indiana's political leader, Paul V. McNutt. At first, the President considered sending Assistant State Secretary Francis Sayre, but State Secretary Hull protested Sayre could not be spared from his economic work in the department.

McNutt then was given only twenty-four hours to make up his mind. The President's main idea, they say, was to act before the Philippine representatives arrive on the scene, thus avoiding any impression that they had a hand in the choice.

You May Not Know That—

There is no law in Idaho prohibiting any county officer doing business on Sunday.

HEYBURN

Miss Lela Noys and John Carlisle were married Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noys, Declo. Mr. Carlisle is a graduate of the Heyburn high school and has been engaged in farming with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Konrad. The couple will make their home in Centuria, Wash.

Word has been received of the recent birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Skirlin, Nes Perce. Mr. Skirlin was formerly a teacher in the Heyburn schools.

Mr. George Etherington is seriously ill at her home north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth King entertained at bridge Saturday evening for 15 guests. Prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Leonard and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holston.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Skinner, Ogden, are visiting at the home of Mr. Skinner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Skifter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen, Bethel, Mo., are making an extended visit at the home of their brother-in-law, N. C. Lowry.

The play, "Go Slow Mary," was presented Friday evening in the L. D. S. ward chapel under the direction of Leland Thaxton. The chapel was filled to capacity.

EDWARD'S TRAGIC ROLE

The Duke of Windsor, rustivating in Austria since his departure from the throne of England, is somewhat hard up. He has not yet been reduced to hunger or thirst, but he is counting the pennies rather carefully, objecting to the price of haircuts at his Vienna hotel and cutting down on the fees of his ski-teacher in the mountains. When his sister, the Princess Royal, visited him recently, he told her:

"If the worst comes to the worst, I'll always pick up a living showing people around Schoenbrunn: I know it so well."

Schoenbrunn, of course, is the old Hapsburg palace in Vienna, haven of tourists innumerable; and the duke's plaintive remark is a reminder that the world has not as yet found any accepted way for the ex-owner of a crown to pick up a decent living.

Ever since Edward scandalized his loving subjects by proposing to marry the woman he loved rather than make her his mistress, his future has been a minor but genuine source of embarrassment to the rest of the royal family.

Parliament refuses to support him. His salary from the British people ended when he stepped on the destroyer that ferried him across the channel. He could, of course, make an enormous sum by writing his memoirs—yet that would hardly fit the dignity of a former king. He could make even bigger sums by listening to the siren song of Hollywood, but that would rowl the empire to its very vitals, and be highly unpleasant to boot.

So what is the man to do? He has to live, and, being a former king, he can't live in a garret and work as a department store doorman. He must keep up appearances, and that takes money; but all the accepted avenues to wealth are closed to him.

In the end, the British royal family probably will come to the rescue. Edward still owns divers properties in England. Royalty, it is reported, will club together and buy them, thereby providing him with enough money to live as befits a one-time king, and sparing the empire the mortification of seeing him work for a living.

THE CHINESE WAY

For ways that are dark, and tricks that are vain, the Chinese are reported to be peculiar. But there does seem to be some method to their peculiarities.

On their New Year's holidays, according to a news item, Chinese creditors picketed public bath houses throughout old Cathay. On the steaming baths inside, debtors huddled miserably, faced with a soaking of several days before the old year ended. Chinese tradition, it seems, demands settlement of all accounts before the end of the old year, and bath houses are the time-honored refuge for would-be welshers.

Many Americans have debtors who blithely and brazenly postpone paying off. Wouldn't it be swell if these pests, like those of China, could be compelled to undergo the ordeal of a long broiling every year end?

DETECTIVE OFFICER NEAME'S SHORTHAND NOTES OF

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

By DR. MORRIS FISHEIN

Editor Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

In addition to resuscitation by what is known as the Shaefer prone pressure method, the one described in a previous article in this series, much can be accomplished by use of special apparatus designed to improve breathing of those who are suffocating.

Supplying oxygen and carbon dioxide gas from a tank is exceedingly helpful. The gases are administered by means of an inhalator. A rubber-edge mask is put over the face of the unconscious person as he lies on his stomach during prone pressure artificial breathing procedure.

As air is sucked into the lungs by the recoil of the chest, the oxygen and the carbon dioxide contained in the mask covering the face will also pass into the lungs. This apparatus is used to start a continuous flow of gas and deliver it from the receptacle to the patient, but does not exert any positive pressure.

There is also apparatus which will blow up the lungs and then suck out the air. This, however, is difficult to control and should never be used except by a trained worker.

HISTORY OF TWIN FALLS CITY & COUNTY

As Gleaned from Files of The Times

15 YEARS AGO—

FEB. 23, 1922

Recognition of the services of Ralph H. Smith, extension department entomologist, was voiced in a resolution unanimously and enthusiastically adopted by the Twin Falls Horticultural society today in its meeting in Parish hall. The resolutions express regret at the determination of Mr. Smith to leave the county and briefly outline the character of his work, were offered by T. George Hishop.

Mr. Smith expects to leave March 1 for San Francisco to accept a position with the Central Creamery company, one of the largest institutions of the sort in the world.

Fruit men express the warmest appreciation for his thorough knowledge of horticulture as he is a recognized authority on pests that attack the field and garden as well.

MIND Your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usages by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

1. What is the safe rule to follow in selecting silver to be used for each course of a dinner?

2. Is it permissible to cut salad with a knife?

3. Should a knife or fork be used in pushing butter on vegetables?

4. Should a man and his wife be seated side by side at a dinner party?

5. Should a hostess use candies at a luncheon?

6. What would you do if—

(a) You tipped over a glass of water at the table.

(b) Apologize to your hostess and, if necessary, try to repair the damage?

(c) Act as though nothing had happened?

(d) Apologize profusely to your hostess for the damage you have done?

Answers:

1. Usually one begins with the piece of silver farthest from the plate and works inward.

2. Yes.

3. Fork.

4. No.

5. No, a candlelight is correct at tea or dinner.

6. Best "What Would You Do?" solution—eat.

ENGEN WINS U. S. AMATEUR SKI JUMP TITLE AT SALT LAKE

RUUD OF NORWAY IN SECOND PLACE

Smiling Utahn Goes 245 Feet To Set Up New Record As 7,500 Watch

By DAVID N. JOHNSON
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 23 (UP)—Alf Engen, smiling Utah Norwegian, today was king of United States amateur ski jumpers. Sigmond Ruud of Oslo, Norway, took second place.

Engen, with a total of 2263 points took the title by virtue of his final record-breaking leap of 245 feet at Ecker hill yesterday. Ruud, who jumped 232 feet in his final attempt, scored 2246 points.

Einar Fredbo, Anaconda, Mont., was third with a total of 2078 points. Fredbo leaped 216 feet in his final jump.

Fredbo, a stylist, thrilled the crowd with his perfect leaps which, although not pace-makers for distance, were excellent examples of the art of soaring on skis. Slightly bent forward from the hips, arms performing slight circles, he rocketed through the air from the takeoff with steady and breath-taking ease.

7,500 Witness Jumps
More than 7,500 persons crowded around the horseshoe at the bottom of the takeoff to witness the events. A bright sun made conditions ideal, although first jumps were retarded somewhat because of the slightly softened condition of the runway.

For their second leaps, however, the jumpers went to the extreme top of the slide, took running starts, and cleared the takeoff with terrific speed.

Kotlarek in Form
George Kotlarek, Duluth, Minn., former champion, was in good form, but failed by many feet to equal the distance set in Sunday's preliminary trials. His leaps of 165 and 183 feet were not sufficient to put him at the top of the list.

Sunday, he soared 210 feet to emerge among the first four.

The final jump with which he took the 1936 crown was 169 feet. Constant practice gave him great improvement during the last year, but not enough to cope with the pace set by the two smiling Norwegian lads who ranked first and second in today's finals.

VAN SICKLE WINS AMERICAN DERBY

Ashton Dog Race Captured Twice With Same Team For First Time

ASHTON, Ida., Feb. 23 (UP)—Lloyd Van Sickle, Ashton, yesterday raced his lucky team of Chesapeake bird dogs over the 16-mile American dog derby sledge course to become the first driver to win the annual Washington's birthday race classic twice with the same team.

His time for the course, which wound four times around this eastern Idaho town near the southwest entrance to Yellowstone national park, was 1:09:10.
Placing second was Celery Baum, also of Ashton, with a time of 1:10:48. Next drivers were A. R. Williamson, Jackson Hole, Wyo., 1:13:04; Bill Zink, West Yellowstone, Mont., 1:15:42; Thula Geelan, woman driver of McCall, Ida., 1:19:49.
Eleven teams and drivers were entered in the race, held for the 21st consecutive year.

"I'm Through With Baseball for This Year," Says Dizzy

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 23 (UP)—Jerome Herman (Dizzy) Dean, senior member of the pitching Deans of the St. Louis Cardinal baseball team, was out of baseball today. Authority for that statement was "Ole-Dizz" himself.

"You can say that I'm out of baseball this year," Dean said yesterday as he boarded a train with Mrs. Dean for his home at Bradenton, Fla. "That's definite and final."
"I'm not asking the Cardinals for $50,000 or any other salary this year and I won't play ball for anybody regardless of salary," he said. "I'm going home and take life easy."

BOOSTERS DOWN COYOTES, 48-36

College of Idaho Quint Falls Before Sharp Basket Shots of Rupert

RUPERT, Feb. 23 (Special)—The powerful Rupert Boosters continued their winning ways last night as they defeated the College of Idaho Coyotes 48-36.
The invaders, coached by Pat Page, former University of Indiana mentor, put up a savage battle the first half, but trailed by three points at the intermission, 23-20. Kirkland, star Coyote performer was ejected from the game on fouls, but before he left he had counted 20 points to top the scoring for the evening. Lacey counted 18 and Smith 11 for Rupert.

The lineup and summary:
Rupert Boosters (48)—Lacy (18) and Smith (11), forwards; Norby (2), center; Farley (13) and Carlson (8), guards. Substitutions: Hedrick (3), Friedman (2), McCloy (1) and Dickson.
College of Idaho (36)—Kirkland (20) and Burkhalter (8), forwards; Long (8), center; De Geus and Glasby, guards. Substitutions: Mitchell, Jones, Atkins, Esson and Hult.

SKI GROUP WILL WITNESS MOVIES

Expert Scheduled on Program Of Meeting to Organize Twin Falls Club

Action movies of downhill and slalom skiing as well as ski jumping will feature the meeting tonight at which a Twin Falls ski club is to be formed. The session is planned for 8 p. m. at the Chamber of Commerce offices.

Harold A. Lee, representative of the Northland Ski Manufacturing company and a former international competitor in Norwegian ski meets, will show the films, consisting of three reels "shot" by himself. Two of the reels were taken at Mount Hood, and one was taken at Mount Rainier during national tryouts in slalom and downhill skiing. The films also show jumping and racing.

Lee will explain briefly the technicalities of proper ski equipment and how to control equipment in action. He has been skiing since the age of three; competed twice at Holmenkollen, near Oslo, Norway, most famous ski tournament center; later represented the Minneapolis, Minn. ski club; helped organize the sport at Mount Hood; was president three seasons of the Cascade ski club; helped form the Pacific Northwestern Ski association, which is sponsoring the Sun Valley meet March 13-14, and he is now chief of the association's technical committee and senior tournament judge. He has been a teacher of skiing in the northwest.

Formation of the Twin Falls ski group is expected to follow the showing of the films tonight. Officers will be named, and reports on tentative sites within 30 miles of the city will be presented.

FAIRY HILL WINS IN $50,000 RACE

Stablemate of Highly Favored Rosemont Captures Big Santa Anita Event

SANTA ANITA PARK, ARCADIA, Calif., Feb. 23 (UP)—Fairy Hill, the Foxcatcher farms' three-year-old stablemate of Rosemont, was in Santa Anita's hall of fame today after blazing home a winner in the $50,000 derby yesterday.

Fairy Hill was overlooked in the betting and went to the post a 14 to 1 choice. On the basis of the credible showing in the derby, however, the chestnut gelding jumped into the front rank of contenders for the Kentucky derby in May, next big money event on the calendar for three-year-olds.

A crowd of 45,000 persons poured $1,177,074 into the pari-mutuel windows during the Washington's birthday program, and wagered $183,584 on the derby. Fairy Hill paid off handsomely with $3080 on $2 win tickets, $20.60 to place and $13.20 to show, and took a purse of $45,425.

Military of the Milky Ways farms, finished fast but failed to hold with Fairy Hill and was second, with C. V. Whitney's Ptolemy nosing out Brown Jade for third. Military paid $14.80 and $10.40, and Ptolemy paid $13.

Among betting favorites which had a bad day and finished out of the money were A. G. Vanderbilt's Tedious, the 4 to 1 favorite. Sharpshooter, stablemate of Tedious, Sir Oracle, the Norman Church horse, Merry Maker, Chingendal, Calculator, and Whitelee.

The time for the one mile and one-sixteenth race was 1:45.4-5.

LENGLET SCORES BRUBAKER KAYO

French Fighter Takes Second Knock Out Over Coast Divinity Fighter

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23 (UP)—Andre Lenglet, French heavyweight, today held his second knockout victory over Phil Brubaker, the one-time California divinity student. Lenglet belted Brubaker out last night in the second of a scheduled ten-round fight. In their first meeting they drew and in the second Lenglet scored a third round knockout.

Brubaker was carrying the fight to the Frenchman when he suddenly went down from a series of rights and lefts to the face. He did not appear badly hurt and many ring-siders believed he lost track of the count, thus falling to arise soon enough.

Bruins Play Rupert Team

Headlining the south central Idaho high school basketball schedule tonight will be the tangle between Rupert and Twin Falls on the local floor. Smarting from a defeat handed them on their visit to the Pirate's camp earlier in the season, the Bruins are looked to give the most powerful hoop teams in the district a tough battle.

Other games in the district will include a tangle between the Bobcats of Burley and Coach Jimmy O'Brien's Wildcats at Pler in what will probably be an elimination tilt as far as the district tourney is concerned. Wendell makes a trip to Shoshone to take on the speedy Class B quint, and Declo plays host to Paul.

FIVE QUINTS IN FERRY TOURNEY

Boys' and Girls' Teams Meet in Sub-District Play Starting Thursday

GLENN'S FERRY, Feb. 23 (Special)—Five schools will send cage teams to the annual King Hill class B sub-district basketball tournament to be held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Plans for the meet were announced by Supt. J. J. Bucholtz of Glenns Ferry, who is manager of the tourney.

Girls' and boys' tournament will be conducted on a double elimination basis with teams from Glenns Ferry, Hagerman, Bliss and King Hill entering from both sexes and Hammett entered in the boys' division.

Hagerman plays Bliss in the opening of the girls' division on Thursday afternoon. The boys' section will open with Hammett taking on King Hill. The evening meet will start with King Hill girls tangle with Glenns Ferry misses and Hagerman and Glenns Ferry boys meeting in the other contest.

E. F. Grider and Jerry Freeman, both of Boise will officiate.

Al Roth Loses to Lightweight Champ

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (UP)—The prestige of Lightweight Champion Lou Ambers, Herkimer, N. Y., took a sharp upturn today as a result of his decisive 10-round victory last night over Al Roth, of New York.

Before a crowd of 3,500 at the St. Nicholas palace, Ambers won every round and had Roth bloody and badly battered at the finish.
Ambers weighed 136½. Roth 137½.

HAYES KAYOED

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 23 (UP)—Frankie Martin, 120, Montreal, kayoed Buddy Hayes, 116, Miami, (3); Orville Drouillard, 135, Toronto, dethroned Bus Breese, 142, Manhattan, Kan., (10).

SUTHERLAND WILL QUIT PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 23 (UP)—Dr. Jock Sutherland will present his resignation as head football coach at University of Pittsburgh Thursday as a result of his "feuding" with Director of Athletics W. Don Harrison, the Pittsburgh Press said today in an exclusive story.

The famous coach has decided on this action rather than embroil the university "in a controversy which is neither dignified nor to the best interests of the university," the Press says.

The story gave no indication whether the resignation would be accepted, but indicated Chancellor John G. Bowman may take some action in the controversy should students and alumni give a rousing demonstration.

South Atlantic Women's Golf Meet Commences on Florida Course Today

By HENRY McLEMORE
ORMOND BEACH, Fla., Feb. 23 (UP)—Just to prove we haven't forgotten what we learned in journalism school (you know—what, when, where in the first paragraph stuff) the South Atlantic women's golf championship starts today on the Ormond Beach course, with a qualifying round of 18 holes, to be followed by match play which will continue through Feb. 27.

There's everything in that paragraph but the latitude and longitude of Ormond Beach, but we'll help you place it by telling you that it's only a few blocks up the road from where John D. Rockefeller, sr. once played a round a day until he decided it was more important to live to be a hundred than to break it.

Needs Pass
Given a following wind one of the longer hitting gals could drive the front lawn of the Casements, which is the name of the rambling old house on the Hill-fax. But it would be a lost ball for sure, because the flat-footed, blue-gerged suited men who guard the place, and whose business it is to see that if Mr. Rockefeller doesn't reach his goal of 100 years he'll have no one to blame but himself, allow little traffic through the gates. They say John D. himself almost needs a pass to get in when he returns from his occasional rides.

But let us get back to the golf tournament before the journalism professor gives us C minus and makes us stay after school and dust the erasers for wandering from our subject.

Berg Favorite
The favorite, of course, will be Miss P. Berg of Minneapolis, who has added 10 pounds to her chunky frame, 10 freckles to her nose, and 10 yards to her drive, since she was 1 eaten in the finals of this same tournament a year ago by the then Miss Lucille Robinson of Des Moines. Miss Robinson who, in beating P. Berg, hit as fine wood shots as any woman ever did, now is Mrs. Russell Mann and appar-

"Gee, I haven't got enough for both of us to get in." "Okay, Chuck. Then heads gets popcorn and the movie, tails goes back home."

Your Children By Olive Roberts Barton

"You didn't make the biscuits that way yesterday, Mother."

"Didn't I?" asks Jane's mother, castly, slipping the pan into the oven.

"No. You put in more sour milk and you mixed the soda with water. This time you stirred the soda right in."

"Well, maybe they won't be good today. I'm in a hurry. Come on, dear, and help me make the beds. I'm late."

Jane takes one side of each bed and her mother the other.

"Aren't you going to turn down the sheet over the blanket," asks Jane, "the way you did in Bobby's room?"

"It doesn't matter. Sometimes I do and sometimes I don't."

"I guess I'm going to be an old maid," laughs Jane, "but I like to get one way fixed in my mind. What is the really right way to make a bed, Mummy?"

"I don't know. I guess I prefer thought much about it. Just so they are made, that's the big thing. When you have a lot of housework to do, you take the easiest way."

It goes on this way all through Jane's Saturday. The breakfast dishes are washed without musing. At noon her mother douse, them with scalding water.

In the afternoon the clean curtains are hung, looped higher at one window than the other. At dinner, her mother brings in the coffee and stays cooling on the table before the rest of the food is ready.

All of which is perfectly all right if busy Mrs. Smith can save her disposition and strength this way, without worrying over uniformity of dress or any system of work.

However, there is a little girl, anxious to learn the right way of things by inheritance from her father, and a good routine school training, she senses that there should be one right way and that work is actually easier without the "guess" part of it.

Learn by Imitation

She is confused about cooking about the whole format of household tasks.

What is true of Jane's casual training in domestic duties can also be true of anything that touches child life.

Boys and girls learn largely by observation and imitation. If they are associated with hit-and-miss folk, they, too, will soon consider system unimportant. They adopt the hit-and-promise idea of work by and by, and this is fatal to efficiency.

There are so many things in home life not important in themselves, but vitally important in their influence on children. Once confused, always confused. They need clear, sharp outline to guide them.

Otto Lang takes a place high up on the roster of our distinguished guests at present, and it is quite a recommendation when he praises Sun Valley skiing, as he does most enthusiastically.

 BOSTON—Inquiry for spot domestic, wools in Boston was very light, the U. S. agriculture department announced today.
 Nominally, quotations were unchanged on spot wools but the actual price levels at which wools could be moved was very uncertain because many were not bidding and holders were not making an effort to sell their spot wools. Cable reports received by private cable in Boston indicated prices firmer in Australia at sales on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

WHEAT MARKETS

RECORD LOSSES

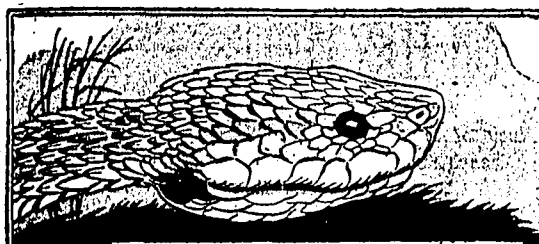

CHICAGO, Feb. 23 (U.P.)—Liquidation induced by weakness in outside markets caused a decline in wheat today after a firmer start. Net losses in the final hour ranged from 1 to 2 cents a bushel with May delivery showing the greatest loss.

At the close wheat was 1 1/4 to 2 1/2 cents lower, May $1.30½, new corn was 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 cents lower, May $1.05½, old corn was 1/2 to 1/4 to 1/2 cent, May $1.03, and oats were 1/2 to 1 cents lower, May 46½ cents.

Oats, rye, and soy beans also moved into lower ground in sympathy with the reaction in wheat. Oats were fractions to a point lower

IT IS A COMMON MISTAKE TO BELIEVE THAT POISONOUS SNAKES MAY BE RECOGNIZED BY THE FLATTENED DISTINCT HEAD. HOWEVER, THE GREATER NUMBER OF POISONOUS SPECIES DO HAVE HEADS OF THIS TYPE.

A CLUMP OF PRAIRIE GRASS, TWO SUMMERS OLD, WAS FOUND TO HAVE A TOTAL OF 320 MILES OF ROOTS.

THE PARROT'S UPPER JAW IS JOINTED, WHICH ENABLES IT TO THRUST THAT JAW STRAIGHT OUT.

Surprising results were obtained in experiments conducted by the University of Saskatchewan, on grass root research. A clump of prairie grass was found to develop 320 miles of roots in a mass of soil only seven feet deep and four feet square, and two miles of roots were added by each day's growth.

CRACKS APPEAR IN RANCH EARTH

Couple Near Nampa Report Splitting of Surface, Rumbling Interior

NAMPA, Feb. 23 (U.P.)—Stories of cracks appearing in the earth's surface, revealing a boiling hot interior, were told in Nampa by Mr. and Mrs. William E. Leake, Rockville, Idaho. They reported that a crack had appeared on the hillside above their ranch, two and a half miles east of Rockville, after numerous warning rumbles from within the earth and several slight tremors extending over a period of years.

Steam and smoke gushed from the crevice on cold mornings, shooting as high as 25 feet in the air.

Mrs. Leake reported she lowered a rock into the crevice and it went 30 feet, without touching anything. A spring recently broke out on a hillside a little more than a mile from the crack.

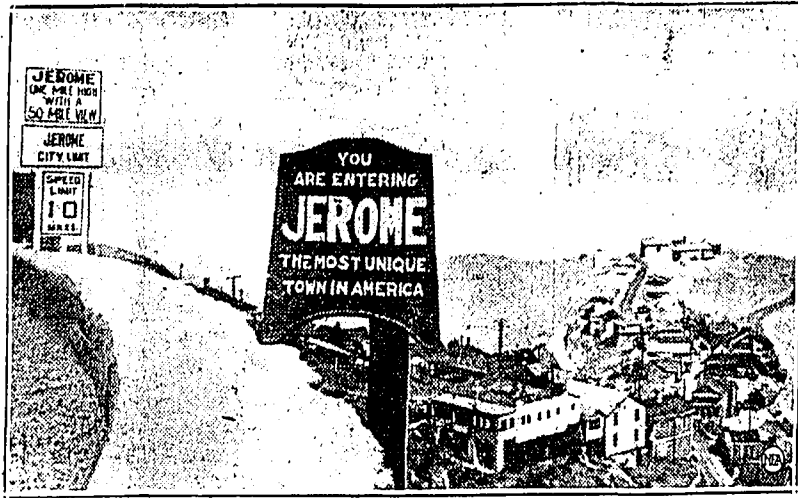

"A crack has appeared also on the McKenzie ranch about six miles away," the pair reported. "A neighbor boy lowered a bottle into it for 40 feet before the bottle finally lodged on a shelf."

They emphasized that the crevice had appeared to be the result of a slide rather than an explosion. "No rocks have been blown out or anything like that," they said. "We haven't a crater—just a crack in the ground."

The Leakes were particularly anxious to learn whether the present activity is indicative of something more to come or is the result of a gradual cooling process in that vicinity.

"If the slide breaks away, our ranch in the valley, about 700 feet below, may be covered," they said.

Jerome, Ariz., Once Boom Town, Reels on Pit's Edge

By JAMES E. KINTER (N.E.A. Service)

JEROME, Ariz.—Without waiting for Judgment day, or even a tentative tooth of Gabriel, upset this town is slowly sliding into the Glory Hole.

Scarcely a day passes without changes in the curb lines, settling of buildings, cracks or bulges appearing suddenly in walls, space suddenly appearing between buildings which had been flush before.

The town is slipping, sliding teetering down the slope of Mings mountain toward the Glory Hole, the vast excavation from which blasting and shovels have removed thousands of yards of earth and copper-bearing ore which once made Jerome a mining boom town.

Some day that hole, which made Jerome, is going to unmake it again. It's quite a town still, the 10th largest in Arizona. But the founders who built it 60 years ago either didn't know or were careless of the fact that it was built squarely above a "fault."

Lack of Proper Footwear Keeps Children Home

A concentrated drive to supply shoes for children who, because of the lack of them, are not able to attend schools in Twin Falls, was initiated today by the Associated Charities, officials announce.

Although many citizens of the city do not realize the acute need of some children in the community, many, they point out, have no shoes to wear. Because of this fact, children who should be in school are being retarded in the quest for an education.

A survey is to be made of public schools to find out how many children are staying home because of lack of proper clothing. During the past week, officials say, many children are attending school after clothing has been given to them.

The Associated Charities headquarters is located in the old office of the Evening Times.

That's a geological term for a dislocation of rock layers when a section breaks and then slips either vertically or horizontally so that the butt ends of the broken rock layers no longer fit together.

Boomed By Copper

The very excavation of copper ore at the base of the Mings mountain probably succeeded in slipping of the broken rock layers of the mountain and now wants to receive the town which the prospectors heedlessly built right at the point of the "slip."

Sixty years ago a covey of rich copper deposits drew hundreds of prospectors to Mings mountain. Then big copper companies bought up their claims and started development. Jerome was soon a buzzing town of 7,000 people.

Money flowed like water; payrolls were large and the demand for entertainment was high. New popular songs were rushed from New York to Jerome by special pony express. Theatrical troupes and even opera stars were imported at fabulous cost. It was a boom town in the best western sense.

Unlike so many of the boom towns, it did not die. Today it is still a prosperous, busy mining community. But it is sliding, sliding.

Three years ago residents noticed the first movement. But during the last three months the slipping has been speeding up.

Buildings Are Reeling

One man who had driven his car into his garage one night awoke the next morning to find that he couldn't get it out. The approach was destroyed when the earth under one door sank 18 inches.

Many buildings lean over at drunken angles, their walls bulging. Some have had to be condemned

Even the solidly built U. S. post-office shows a buckling of the window floor and cracking over the window sills.

The residents are philosophical. Nobody has been killed or badly hurt as yet. A hotel keeper chuckles as he points to the roof of his hotel.

"The northwest corner stands out just 16 inches beyond the foundation point that used to be plumb below it," he laughs. "Some old boy is going to get a 600-foot ride some night if his bedroom slips off down the hill!"

Jerome people aren't worried. On the contrary, they're rather proud what they put on the sign you see on entering the town is truer today than it ever was.

"You are entering Jerome, the most unique town in America," perched on the edge of the precipitous mountainside, with incredibly narrow

PRESIDENT ASKS COLUMBIA POWER

FDR Seeks Establishment of Uniform Rate System For Northwest

By RALPH W. OLMSTEAD WASHINGTON (Special)—On January 30 I stated in this column: "The power companies, a few Chambers of Commerce, the Idaho planning board, and Portland, seem to be the only ones opposing the establishment of a TVA power system in the Columbia river valley." We are lately advised by letter that various persons seem to deduct from that an intimated tie-up or understanding between the Idaho state planning board, the Idaho Power company, and some Chambers of Commerce. No such collusion or understanding was intended or implied. We merely listed those parties who had manifested opposition to a Columbia valley authority. We did not endeavor to elucidate the reasons for the stand taken by any of them.

Incidentally, Congressman White introduced a Columbia valley authority bill in the house some time ago, but all pending legislation has been superseded by the President's proposed bill which has now been made available to congress this week. The President seeks to establish a Columbia valley authority. As it is now written, the President's plan provides that the authority may establish a system of uniform rates. The Idaho junior senator expects to amend the measure by submitting "shall." By the time Bonneville power becomes available for distribution, we anticipate a miniature TVA program will be underway in the Pacific northwest.

Sold Down River

Her name isn't Nellie Gray, but she was "sold down the river" just the same, lamented lovely Ramona Davies, above, when she went into court seeking to restrain Paul Whitehead, with whose orchestra she sings, from leasing her services elsewhere.

MOUNTAIN LIONS CUT ELKS' HERD

Flock of 300 Attacked on Bench Near Pocatello; Two Killed

POCATELLO, Feb. 23 (U.P.)—Three mountain lions expertly cut out two elk from a herd estimated at 300 not more than five miles from here, according to Riley Dixon, Pocatello policeman.

Dixon said the elk were grazing near Kimpot and were seen to become frightened. When in apparent flight two members of the herd were singled out and cut down by the three cats working in unison. He and Basil Fleming, city firemen, observed the maneuvers through field glasses.

The elk herd is frequently seen on the west bench of the city.

District Deputy Game Warden L. A. Leibras said an investigation will be made to determine whether mountain lions or other animals are attacking the herd.

The United States biological survey plans a similar investigation, said Harold Crowley and Lee Twitchell, officers in charge.

In Romance

Talk of new romance shared attention in New York court proceedings which gave Patricia Mullinson, above, silk heiress, a divorce from Young Kaufman, Manhattan banker's son. Kaufman was reported planning to marry Stella Bailey, an actress. His wife's name was linked with that of socially prominent Henry C. Olmstead. The Kaufmans were wed in 1926, and have a son, Garrett, 7.

Gary Cooper says:
"It's plain common sense for me to prefer this light smoke"

"A little over a year ago I changed to Luckies because I enjoy the flavor of their tobacco. Ever since, my throat has been in fine shape. As my voice and throat mean so much to me in my business, it's plain common sense for me to prefer this light smoke. So I'm strong for Luckies!"

THE FINEST TOBACCOS—
"THE CREAM OF THE CROP"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Mr. Cooper verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
