Clark Says "Sincerity" Caused Veto

BOISE, Feb. 26 (UP)—Veto of two bills relating to enforcement of liquor laws and outlawing pin ball games was in the interests of "sincerity" in legislation, Governor Barzilla W. Clark said today.

"We now have a joint responsibility of city, county and state police officers in enforcement of our liquor laws," the governor explained. He said the first bill he vetoed would have placed sole responsibility on the hands of a few special police.

He made no mention of the second veto of a measure which would have legalized all non-operated mechanical devices as gambling games.

YOUTH HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Jack Smith Suffering From Head Injuries After Piler Mishap

Jack Smith, 23, of 405 Third avenue west, was in the county general hospital today suffering from what attending physicians say are injuries to his head and "possible" other injuries following an automobile accident yesterday between 10:30 and 11 p. m. three miles from Piler on the highway toward P. J.

Smith was brought to the local hospital by William Rose, teacher in the Hollister schools, and Harold Stapleton, superintendent there.

Turned Over on Road

The two educators were returning from basketball tournament games at Piler when they discovered the Smith machine upside down in the middle of the highway.

Smith was able to talk as Rose and Stapleton helped him from the car, and said he had run into the rear of a pickup truck carrying a Nevada license. The truck, he said, had no tail light and he was unable to stop before he struck it because of the slippery conditions of the highway.

The Nevada machine was forced into the highway by the collision and its occupants, according to Smith, made no effort to help him from his machine. Rose and Stapleton took the license number of the Nevada car and then notified the Smith car, it out of the line of traffic. They then left with Smith and took him to the local hospital. Today they said they had heard nothing more of the Nevada truck.

Smith is said to have been in the county office in Twin Falls.

Smith was talking irrationally before he arrived in Twin Falls, Mr. Rose said, and today hospital attendants said he was in "no condition to talk."

Smith is employed here at the local power company and is a brother of Mrs. William Lytle of this city. He was driving a company truck at the time of the mishap.

WRITER SUICIDE, POLICE BELIEVE

Officials Are Anxious to Quiz Wife of Dead Hollywood Scenarist

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 26 (UP)—Police authorities were convinced today that Humphrey W. Pearson, screen writer, took his own life. They were so sure, however, to question his widow about the circumstances.

"The Pearson, hysterical and suffering from a shock, is in Riverside hospital and it may be a day or two before she can be questioned. Lloyd Boller, chief of police, believes she tried to wrest the gun from Pearson when she realized he intended to end his life.

The gun was found in a bureau drawer in Mrs. Pearson's dressing room. It had been fired twice. One bullet passed through Pearson's chest. The other went wild.

Charles Morrison, friend of the Pearsons, told Chief Boller that Pearson previously had tried to kill himself and that Mrs. Pearson had forcibly prevented him. Pearson came here seven years ago after doing advertising work in Columbus, O., and New York City.

Idaho House Gets New Gross Income Tax Bill

One-Half to Three Per Cent Levy Asked in Latest Taxation Proposal

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 26 (UP)—A one-half to three per cent gross income tax bill passed over many opposing proposals in the Idaho legislature today. It was introduced in the house by the revenue and taxation committee.

The proposal differs from a previous one in two important provisions. It provides for a tax on gross income, and carries no social security provisions.

One half of one per cent would be levied on total income of manufacturers, farms, wholesalers, banks, insurance and finance companies. Retailers would pay one per cent and persons engaged in retailing two per cent.

The tax would grow to three per cent on utility income, dropping back to one per cent for all other classes of persons, including professional and personal services, sales of real estate and income from capital investments.

Family Head Exemption

A head of a family would be allowed a $1,000 exemption in computing the tax.

In addition to ordinary constitutional exemptions from taxation, manufacturers would not pay the levy cost of raw materials processed or manufactured in Idaho. Retailers would not be taxed on the cost of goods on which a tax already had been paid by a wholesaler.

The bill announced its intention in general to prevent double taxation upon the proceeds of one derived from the manufacture, processing, sale or resale of goods.

Exemptions Provided

Further exemptions provided were five per cent for depletion of coal mines, 15 per cent for metal mines and gas wells, 25 per cent for sulphur deposits. An allowance for depletion of timber would be made according to the peculiar conditions in each case.

A new gross income bill will compare favorably with three other proposals.

KIDNAPER NAMED LEADING FUGITIVE

Mattson Killer Elevated to Role of Public Enemy Number One

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (UP)—The headlined kidnaper of 10-year-old Charles Mattson of Tacoma, Wash., today became the official "public enemy No. 1" sought by the federal bureau of investigation, following capture in Katonah, N. Y., of Merrill Vandusen, alleged kidnaper and bank robber.

Acting FBI Director T. D. Quinn declined to rank the 140 fugitives sought by the G-Men according to guilt, but said they are "all rats."

The Mattson kidnaper is virtually the only major criminal still at large, although Quinn emphasized that a fugitive now considered a minor offender may become a vicious criminal overnight.

"A small time robber may, in a moment of panic, kill," Quinn said. "Then he is elevated instantly from his minor role to that of desperate criminal."

Senate Passes Measure Providing Voluntary Retirement for Court Justices After Reaching Age of 70

STRIKERS LEAVE - TWO PLANTS AS BATTLES FLARE

Tear Gas Barrage Routs Sit-Downs

Waukegan, Ill., Workers Are Forcefully Ejected from Factories

Waukegan, Ill., Feb. 26 (UP)—Sit-down strikers surrendered the Pansteel Metallurgical corporation plant today under a barrage of tear and knockout gas bombs hurled by 60 sheriff's deputies.

For more than an hour the attackers, enforcing two court orders previously defied by the sit-downers, poured gas into the two occupied buildings from a specially constructed "gas gun tower" mounted on a truck.

The truck drove up to the buildings and the barrel of a tear gas gun was thrust from a slit. Gas projectiles commenced pouring rapidly through the broken windows upon the strikers, many of whom were taken by surprise. The windows were shattered in the unsuccessful tear gas attack which the strikers withstood for two hours last Friday.

Jump From Window

In the first barrage one man jumped from a second story window and staggered away.

"For a time it looked like we had lost," said H. N. Keefe, a Pansteel attorney. "We poured gas into the building and I don't know how the men stood up. Finally just when they were about ready to give up they commenced pouring out of the building."

More than 100 strikers seized the plant Feb. 17 to enforce their demand for collective bargaining and recognition of their union. Amalgamated Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, which is an affiliate of John L. Lewis' committee for industrial organization.

Injunction Obtained

The Pansteel company obtained an injunction and an eviction writ which the strikers defied and on Feb. 19 Sheriff L. A. Doolittle attacked the plant with 100 deputies and police. The strikers repulsed the attack with missiles—including bottles of acid and rare metals—worth $500 a container.

Gov. Henry Horner commended the strikers' courage.

NO INQUEST FOR CROWTHER DEATH

Parents of Emmett Youth Are Satisfied Love-Stricken Boy Killed Self

EMMETT, Idaho, Feb. 26 (UP)—No inquest will be held into the death of Kenneth Crowther, 22, who apparently killed himself because he failed to patch up a broken love affair with Miss Genevieve Soom, 20, K. A. Guilliams, acting coroner, said today.

Guilliams said the youth's family was convinced that he had taken his own life. Sheriff Ross Rugg had no further investigation would be made.

Death of Crowther followed kidnapping of the girl from an I. D. S. chapter, Wednesday evening and several hours pleading with her to come to the bank of an irrigation canal. Sheriff Rugg led a search party for the girl.

Mrs. Soom, not taking kindly to the kidnapping, threatened to call her attorney to sue for her daughter's return. She was seen in an area of the canal at 10:30 p. m. after a midnight search party.

A 25-minute search party was heard a shot and he was found with help from Crowther's father.

Funeral services will be held at the Beckman chapel here Sunday.

"Hey, you, I can't be taking no mail here. It's seven o'clock—closing time."

Then he slammed down one of the patron's fingers. The latter never did get his bundle mailed.

As it turned out, Farley followed happened to be the postmaster general. The Atlanta postmaster did his darndest to discover which clerk had offended the head man but Farley never would tell.

This particular complaint, of course, didn't influence Howes. It was when the mails began to be burdened with the pleas of other citizens for more sweetness and light in post offices that he took pen in hand.

By FREDERICK COTHMAN
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (UP)—The polite and cordial gentlemen who run the post office department instructed their 100,000 clerks today to follow their example and quit grinning at the cash customers.

First Assistant Postmaster General W. W. Howes, who signed the order, indicated it was the belief of the postal high command that scowling mugs, bad for business, Saracenic clerks are making a lot of patrons sore, he said, adding that he wants America's post offices illuminated not only by electric lamps hereafter, but by great big smiles.

Even when the customers get tough the clerks must not tell them where to go, nor what to do, nor otherwise make 'em tougher. If a lady patron, for instance, says she does not like red stamps, the clerk is supposed to give her two green ones

Sheriff Leads Force At 5:15 a. m. Sheriff Doolittle led his force of deputies to North Chicago and attacked the plant.

Dozens of gas bombs were hurled into the factories from the truck tower and by men with guns set up outside the wire mesh fence which surrounded the plant.

The strikers, many awakened by the first explosions of tear gas shells among them, attempted to don gas masks which reportedly were smuggled in to them with their food several days ago.

There were not enough to go around and others tied wet handkerchiefs across their mouth and rubbed castor oil on their eyes—a new technique in fighting gas which had been taught to the strikers by union leaders.

POLICE MOVE TO END THEFT WAVE

Officers Take Steps to Halt Activities of Bicycle Thieves Here

Local police officers today were taking steps to bring a halt to the epidemic of bicycle thefts which has swept the city.

In most cases, the police point out, the wheels were evidently taken for "joy rides" and then were abandoned either in ditches, behind buildings or other places where they were discovered by the officers.

Four bicycles were stolen in the city yesterday afternoon and evening but this morning all had been recovered, including an additional bicycle which has not yet been reported as lost.

Should any of the persons taking the wheels be caught, officers point out, they will probably face charges of petty larceny, conviction of which carries a maximum penalty of six months imprisonment, a fine of $300, or both.

Fruit stains can be removed by spraying with lemon juice and then washing with hot water.

Snow is forecast tonight for the southern section of Idaho, with a general forecast calling for fair to light and Saturday.

AUDITOR RAPS AT RECKLESS DRIVER

Frank J. Smith Sends Letter To Lawmakers Asking for State Action

Because of auto accidents in which cars of two county officials were hit by drivers who refused to pay for expenses, they assertedly caused, Recorder and clerk of the district court, dispatched letters today to the four members of the state legislature urging new laws or enforcement of present statutes concerning drivers.

J. D. Barnhart, county assessor, and Mr. Smith were the accident victims.

Important Matter "If we have no law in this state to reach drivers who can drunkenly, carelessly or deliberately endanger the lives and property of law abiding citizens," Mr. Smith told the county's lawmakers, "then it would seem that there are more important restrictions for the legislature than consideration of harmless radios in autos.

"Also, if there are laws on the statute books at present to protect citizens from irresponsible characters on the highways, why are these laws not enforced?"

Cites Accidents The communication cited the fact that on Aug. 1, 1936 the assessor's car was struck by a machine careening down the highway east of Twin Falls. Mr. Barnhart pulled off to one side, but the other driver swerved and struck the parked auto. The offending driver was arrested and held briefly, the letter told the solons, and then was freed. He has not paid any part of the $36.50 damages.

The accident of Mr. Smith occurred Dec. 15 last when a truck smashed into his car. The truck driver assertedly admitted blame and promised to take care of damages, but has not done so. Mr. Smith said police records show the man was driving a truck carrying licenses issued to a Twin Falls woman for an entirely different machine.

Shepherd Ends 25 Years As Canal Chief April 1

JEROME, Feb. 26 (Special)—R. E. Shepherd ends on April 1 his quarter-century career as manager of the North Side Canal company, Ltd. He will continue to represent the canal board on an advisory committee of nine for the Snake river area during the current operating season.

Shepherd's appointment on the committee was made at the meeting of the canal board Saturday. The board decided to operate the canal system by committees of the board for the time being at least, without the appointment of a successor to Shepherd.

Heads Board Shepherd has been president of the advisory board of the American Falls reservoir since it started, and continues to hold this position. He has been president of the American Falls reservoir district since it was organized.

"Needless to say, my interest over so many years in the development of this project and the conservation of the water supply of Snake river will continue in a general way. I am one of the large water users in the canal system," he said in an interview.

Shepherd first came to Jerome in the fall of 1913 to take charge of the irrigation properties which had passed from the hands of the falling Kuhn brothers to their creditors, the bondholders' protective committee. He found the North Side canal system so inadequate that he began a project of rebuilding the entire system at a cost of $2,000,000.

State information and reports of geographical surveys were exhausted in determining the best means of obtaining an adequate water supply, and in placing the canal system in condition to deliver it.

With the completion of the system, seriously handicapped and delayed by the war, all water rights were sold, largely on long terms of payment.

Shortly after the war, the rapid growth of industry and the effects of the depression on agriculture influenced many to abandon their holdings. This threw a large amount of the land on the hands of the committee.

Difficulties were augmented by the unreliability of the government reports on the drainage of the Snake river watershed which made the conservation and storage of water sufficient for the needs of this project still more of a problem.

Supervises Construction Seeing the need of more adequate water storage, Shepherd supervised the construction of the American Falls reservoir, completed in 1926.

"At the time I came here, Jackson lake reservoir had just been begun, and it fell to my lot to complete it," he recounted. "The building of the American Falls reservoir, the enlargement of Milner dam, the rebuilding of a large portion of the main canals, all of which had to be carried on without the interruption of the delivery of water through the system to the farmers on the land—these have been no easy things to do."

Checks Moss Growth One of the early problems in connection with the canal maintenance which Shepherd cited was the growth of moss which appeared in the canals, often making it necessary for the farmers to shut off their water at the most critical time, that the moss might be killed. Moss absorption resulted in great water loss.

Putting the canals in a condition which would enable the elimination of moss by modern machinery has resulted in a saving of 10 per cent or more water.

The weed problem has also engaged Shepherd's attention for some time, and machinery believed successful in eradicating harmful vegetation along the canal banks has been adopted.

Having pointed the way to solve these serious problems of moss, transmission losses, and weed growth, I felt that it was no longer necessary for me to remain with the canal company, hence my resignation," Shepherd explained.

TWO AUTOS HIT; MILK SPLATTERS

Two motor cars were damaged and a case of bottled milk was splattered on highway 93 last night when a coupe driven by Richard Stanley, Twin Falls, crashed into the rear of a sedan occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hutchinson, the sheriff's office announced this afternoon.

The Hutchinsons, en route to deliver milk pulled out in front of the approaching machine, owned by Woodrow Harvey, Twin Falls, according to Deputy Sheriff Art Parker. Harvey was with Stanley at the time of the mishap.

None of the four persons involved was injured, Deputy Parker said. Damage to the cars was tentatively estimated at $100.

The accident occurred a mile and a half south of South Park, in front of the Hutchinson home.

SNOW CAUSE OF TWO COLLISIONS

Accidents Result in Damage To Four Automobiles This Morning

Two minor accidents within the city limits today featured the return of snow to this section after an absence of several weeks. The snow caused slippery street conditions.

The two accidents, happening within 15 minutes of each other, involved four automobiles, police records show.

At 10 a. m. today cars driven by J. F. Langerwater and Mrs. E. A. Griffin collided as Mrs. Griffin is said to have backed into the street in front of 313 Main street west. The left front fender and left running board of the Griffin machine were damaged considerably while damages to the Langerwater car were minor.

Fifteen minutes later cars driven by John Taylor and Charles Casey were involved in a collision when shone north from Fourth avenue shone north from Fourth street north, struck the Casey machine broadside, according to a police report. Both left side doors of the Casey machine as well as the body were damaged, while the Taylor machine had a broken headlight.

NEW SCOUT UNIT FORMED LOCALLY

L. D. S. Sponsored Troop Is Approved by Council Heads Today

A Boy Scout troop, to be known as troop 71 and sponsored by the Second ward L. D. S. church of Twin Falls, today became a member of the Snake river area council. Boy Scouts of America, local officials announced.

The new troop is officially approved by national headquarters and its charter has been forwarded to it. Individual certificates were being mailed today.

Members of the latest troop to join the council are: John Rappley, Ray Nelson, Gilbert Benton, Floyd Anderson, Kendall Wright, Delbert Nelson, Clifford Moyes and Donald Eldredge. Chauncey W. Abbott is Scoutmaster.

Former members of troop 40 of Jerome were registered today at local headquarters and registration certificates were being issued. Members who dropped, but have joined the Scouts again include Forest Clark, Edwin Evans, Leo Pine, Billie Speth, and Vernon Vinyard.

Charter was also received today from the national council for troop 12 of Burley. Troop chairman is Frank Kaggie, with Joseph P. Payne and Earl Olverson serving as members of the troop committee. Scoutmaster is Laman Martindale and the troop has ten members. It is sponsored by the First ward L. D. S. church.

Charter was also received today and forwarded to troop 44 of Kimberly, sponsored by the Nazarene church. J. W. Carrel is chairman of the troop committee and other members are Rev. J. O. Schlap, Dr. J. N. Davis and Sam Savage. Twelve boys are members and G. W. Miller is scoutmaster.

GOING MODERN

Anyone who says farmers in the Twin Falls section have gone modern is slightly mistaken.

A call was received at the local offices of the U. S. employment service for a farm laborer.

After the interview at the service had carefully taken down all the requirements the man to be hired must meet, the farmer added:

"And he must bring along his own trailer house to live in."

What's Doing at SUN VALLEY

(By Evening Times Special Correspondent)

SUN VALLEY BOASTS FINEST OF AVAILABLE X-RAY 'GUNS'

SUN VALLEY, Feb. 26 (Special)—This is the newest and most excellent pleasure spot on the North American continent at the present time, yet every provision has been made for the care of injury, pain and what have you. We just happened to wander into the first-aid station for a little chat with the nurse, and learned a great many things that we may have had a superficial knowledge of, but never realized before.

Sun Valley has the most complete X-ray equipment procurable today, a "gun" with which pictures may be taken, or interior action may be watched. The X-ray is installed in such a manner that no radiation is possible. The pictures are developed in the same room as the one in which they are taken, and a complete projector is close by.

For the day's interesting fact, resident physician Dr. Frost told me that in 20 years of practice in and about Chicago, the conversation somehow turned to the emotional life of the colored, he has never heard of a single instance when a Negro did not have to be rescued from sound slumber by his own execution.

Besides the resident physician and nurse, there is always a competent masseur stationed here at the lodge to ease the muscular tensions collected by the novice skiers. The present incumbent being one Dr. Boyle. Dr. Boyle relieved Tommy Dwyer, a chap so well liked that he had solid booking for a week to his return to Omaha for his well parties, tendered by the friends he had made since December.

Young Robert Pabst, the beer baron of Milwaukee, had quite a party for his friends in the game room, and not one single tumbler of suds was consumed. . . . The nights here in Sun Valley are taking on a scenic magnificence that leaves one breathless and adds the perfect complement to a day of flushed and eager sport. The snow-clad mountains become grey mounds shadowed with traceries of cobalt. Glistening snow in the foreground merely emphasizes the delicate lining of the horizon against the velvet background of the sky. A prismatic moon throwing the whole combination into gentle relief presents a scene of sheer beauty that Senator Blake must not have taken into account when a week ago he voiced

ACHIEVEMENT OF P. T. A. OUTLINED

Founders' Day Rites Held Here by Junior-Senior Organization

Achievements of the Parent-Teacher association during the 40 years since its founding and the progress it has had in reaching its objectives were emphasized in a talk on "Forty Years of Service" presented at the meeting of the Junior-Senior P. T. A. last evening by Mr. John E. Hayes, past state president and national officer.

Other talks commemorating the 40th anniversary of the organization were given by Mrs. J. C. Porter, whose topic was "Looking Backward" and Mrs. Roy Evans, P. T. A. president, who spoke on "Looking Forward."

A Founders' day ceremony was conducted by Girl Reserves under the direction of Mrs. Ruth McManis, with Barbara Minnick taking the lead. Others participating were Margaret Daugerty, Esther Tolman, Virginia Chase, Nelda Wagner, Eleanor Graham, Yvonne Alabara, Margaret Jones and Esther Nicholson.

Accompanying the ceremony with solo selections were Leslie Wilson and Julia Shepherd accompanied by Doris Leighton. Helen Slack presented a piano solo and the high school girls quartet sang "Trees."

PNEUMONIA MAY BE CONTROLLED

New York Physician Predicts Serum Will Lessen Great Death Cause

CHICAGO, Feb. 26 (UP)—Pneumonia, listed by the U. S. bureau of census as the fifth greatest cause of death, ultimately may be controlled by earlier administration of a new serum, a New York physician predicted in the Journal of the American Medical Association today.

Dr. Russell I. Cecil, basing his conclusions on five years of study, said he found that when serum was administered during the first 24 hours, the death rate is cut to approximately one-sixth the standard rate for type one pneumonia.

When one considers that serum is now available for approximately 65 per cent of all pneumococcal pneumonia, his report said, "one cannot fail to be impressed with the gap that exists between what would be done and what is being done for pneumonia patients."

Early administration of the serum produces a crisis before the patient's recuperative powers have been weakened by the disease, he said, and usually limits the infection to one lobe.

QUAKE HASTENS GLACIER'S SPEED

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Feb. 26 (AP)—A severe earthquake in the Fairbanks district last night gave rise to fears that Black Rapids glacier, now rushing forward at an unprecedented speed of a mile-a-month, would advance with even greater rapidity.

Scientists expressed the opinion, previously that an earlier quake started the 30-mile-long glacier on its movement down Black Rapids valley. The glacier is 100 feet high and two miles wide at its base, and is now within a mile of the Rapids roadhouse.

The quake last night was one of the most severe felt in years. Buildings in Fairbanks shook and windows rattled, but no damage was reported.

Upon this reasoning, Halpin did not ruff his heart loser, but led out six rounds of diamonds. East followed twice, then had to ruff four discards. He gave up his two spades and a heart without reluctance, but the next discard was fatal.

Finally, he parted with another heart. Thereupon, Halpin led a club to the ace and cashed three more heart tricks. These, with the king of clubs in dummy, gave him his contract.

WANTED—A KISSER OF DIVORCEES!

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT
CRIME FILE ON BOLTSHO BLANE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Investigating the murder of BOLTSHO BLANE, British agent, aboard the CARLTON ROCKSAVAGE, Detective Officer KETTERING, was today in a mood of conflicting circumstances.

Each of the ship's passengers appear involved in some manner. These include LADY WELTER, her daughter and son-in-law, ROYAL and MISS JOCELYN; DETECTIVE OFFICER KETTERING; OP BUDG, and INQUIRE HAYASHI. Only NICHOLAS STODART, Blane's secretary, appears above suspicion since he was in the ship's lounge all during the period in which the crime obviously was committed.

As the investigation progresses, Kettering, taking advantage of Jocelyn's finalizing, apurs him to reveal that Rocksavage had the real motive for murder—financial gain. He reveals also that Rocksavage had boasted of being able to dress for dinner in four minutes, a feat conceivably enabling him to commit a murder and return to the ship's lounge without arousing suspicion.

Later, Kettering contents Rocksavage with this revelation. Immediately Rocksavage counters that he saw Jocelyn himself near the cabin door, approximately the time of the murder.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XVIII

K: So you say you passed Jocelyn in the passage at 8:10?

R: I certainly did, so perhaps you'll exercise your talents in finding out what he was up to between 7:45 and 8:10. There was much more time for him to have done this job than me.

K: He hadn't got your motive.

R: He certainly had. He's always lived above his income. For the last five years he's been entirely dependent on Lady Welter. She's in a jam because of those fool papers she runs. She loses a packet on them every year, yet she won't give them up because she just lives for this Christian crusading business.

If I'd failed to do a deal with Blane she would have gone under with me and young Jocelyn would have found himself on his uppers. He stood to benefit just as much by Blane's death as I did. More, in fact, because even if Rocksavage Consolidated had gone down the drain I have other resources.

K: I get your point, Mr. Rocksavage.

R: How about the Jap, too?

K: How about him?

R: Well, he stood in to lose a million dollars if Blane had lived long enough to come to an arrangement with me.

K: I'd certainly like to hear some more about that, Mr. Rocksavage.

R: It's this way. Officially he's acting for the Shikoku people and he's been trying to sell me the Japanese soap monopoly on their behalf for months past, but he's playing ball with another crowd

PAUL MALLON'S
NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

An Exclusive Evening Times Daily Report on the Fast-moving Events in the Nation's Capital By an Expert Interpreter and Commentator. (Copyright, 1935, By Paul Mallon)

NAVY CAN'T BE ACCIDENT-PROOF

The flare-back that killed half a dozen men in a gun crew on the U. S. S. Wyoming is a tragic little reminder that the navy man has to take his chances in time of peace as well as in war.

There probably will be the usual claim that the accident proves our naval officers to be incompetent, careless, and poorly trained. But it ought to be remarked that tragedies of this kind are more or less inevitable, in all navies.

For the navy has to spend its days playing at the most dangerous of all games, using the most dangerous of all implements. No matter how carefully it is played, the game can't be made accident-proof. Once in a great while, by the mere law of averages, something is bound to happen.

A few years ago, the navy had some distressing submarine accidents. The S-4 and the S-51 were sunk after collisions with surface ships, and they took a good many fine young men to the bottom with them.

The naval air force, like all other air forces, has frequent accidents. Leaving the dirigible catastrophes out of consideration, there are airplane crack-ups—ships plunging into the sea, ships colliding in mid-air in maneuvers, and so on.

And there are gunnery accidents, such as this one on the Wyoming. High explosive is queer stuff. Handle it long enough, and some day a hunk of it is apt to go off in one's hands, no matter how careful he is. Then somebody gets killed, and civilians complain that the navy is getting careless.

But the point of it is that these accidents are the price the navy has to pay for development.

It might be possible to exercise a navy in peacetime so that accidents would not happen. The only trouble is that the exercises wouldn't be worth anything, and the navy wouldn't be ready for action if action should be needed.

You might, for example, conduct your gunnery exercises slowly and with pains-taking care, putting the gun crew through its work in slow-motion fashion, and sending each charge of powder to the laboratory for testing before you put it in the gun. The catch is that you'd have a sadly incompetent gun crew when you got through.

You could maneuver your submarines with extreme care, keeping them always on the surface when other ships were around and letting them dive only when the sea was clear for miles about. Unfortunately, your submarine force would be completely unprepared if war should come.

And you could put the air squadrons through their paces in such a way that there would never be any collisions, dives into the sea, or landing deck crack-ups. Your record would be free of accidents—and your air fleet would be utterly unable to meet the test of war, if war should come.

The navy is a grim proposition. If it keeps in condition, it is bound to have occasional accidents. Tragic as they are, such accidents simply prove that the navy is doing its job.

THE AMERICAN WAY

The supreme court problem is not the only one awaiting congressional action. Among the others is the farm tenancy problem—and we ought not to let the furor about the judiciary blind us to its importance.

For here is a chance to strike a great blow for the preservation of that much-talked-of thing, the American way of life.

By tradition, America is a land of independent farmers—men who own their own acres and, by the life they live on them, make rugged individualism in its best sense a going proposition. Yet tenancy is gaining by leaps and bounds—at the rate of 40,000 farms a year, according to one estimate—and in all too many cases the tenant farmer is only one level above pauperism.

Just what the government can do to reestablish the American way in agriculture may not be clear, at a casual glance. All the more reason, then, why congress should give the problem its most earnest and studious attention.

CAN THEY BE BLAMED?

The fact the Great Britain is about to launch a $7,500,000,000 national defense program can hardly be listed with the cheerful news items of the day. But it is tragically easy to see why the English people feel that they are obliged to spend the money.

We in America often shake our heads sadly and say that it will be almost impossible for us to keep out of it if a new European war starts. How much more cause, then, does England have for alarm! She is not separated from Europe by 3,000 miles of ocean, but by 30-odd miles of English channel. The airplane, as Stanley Baldwin has said, has made the Rhine her real frontier. Like it or not, she has to be ready for trouble.

Pot Shots:
Well, this six weeks' divorce idea for Idaho will do very nicely to put us into competition with Reno, since we've got a swell Jernt up on Sun Valley where the ladies can disappear while awaiting decrees. But if we're gonna battle Nevada, the legislators better not leave out any details. Reno has that archway which is covered with lipstick marks in Cupid's shapes where the divorces have kissed it. Idaho should build something like that in the shape of a big Idaho potato. Maybe sugar-coat it so it would taste better to the divorces than Reno's arch.

Or better yet, Idaho might hire an official kisser-of-the-departing-divorcees. I would be glad to accept that job at no cost to the state. But I suppose a lot of other guys would underbid me, and offer to pay the state $100 a month for it.

ALAB, FOR ODORS!

Scientists are coldly intelligent and have no eye for sentiment.

They're making onions minus all smell and I have a dire presentation!

They'll not stop there but will brahshly attack cabbage and cauliflower too.

And you know as well as I do, my friends, what such an action would do!

It would wreck the preliminary joys we get from hung'ly snooting!

When into the house at the end of the day we joyfully come—trotting!

QUESTION MARK AFTER "DANCE"

Pot Shots Sir:
My girl friend is the smartest gal in Burley, and she says she can win her 50 cents in exactly 35 words. This is her entry in the contest:

She prefers a modern man like me to the old-fashioned kind because I don't wear such big shoes as they used to and therefore can't step on her quite so hard when I dance.

—Joachim

AW, WE DON'T THINK HE EVER SAID THAT!

Pot Shots:
There are still reverberations from that "picturesque" remark they claim the Sun Valley manager made.

Anyway, on the back of the Wood river valley basketball schedule is an ad for the Hinawatha hotel at Halley saying "in the heart of the scenic Wood river sking country where Alab, including 'picturesque Idahoans,' are cordially welcome."

—Uncle Frank

VERY CONSIDERATE GUY!

Dear Pot Shots:
I've heard all winter of people being snowed in but I've been "snowed out." Having to leave my car on east and west road and going to and from it on my wagon. The other day I went down town, got in the car and started for service station before running out of gas and I want to take this opportunity to thank the thoughtful gentleman who stole my gas but left me enough to get to town.

—North Side Cow Poie

IF WE WERE A JUDGE, WED GIVE YOU LIFE!

Pot Shots:
All this huller about supreme court judges is judge making a mountain out of a molehill!

—Panster

THEY ASK 50 MILLION IN ONE DAY!

Pot Shots:
Did you read about the information desk attendant who finally retired after answering 50,000,000 questions?

—That's an awful lot of questions, but believe me, if he happens to have any young grandchildren around the house, he'll find his previous work was just a warm-up.

—Auntie Zilch

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH!

Pot Shots:
There's certainly a wave of sit-down strikes these days, but I have it straight, on authority of a Twin Falls gal who should know, that there's at least one group which won't stage any sit-down.

That's the telephone operators. It seems that they've got no desire to pull anything like that on account they sit down so much anyway. They'd prefer a stand-up strike. Rather exercise their feet a while.

THE GENTLEMAN IN THE THIRD ROW

DETECTIVE OFFICER NEAME'S SHORTHAND NOTES OF DETECTIVE OFFICER KETTERING'S SECOND EXAMINATION OF LADY WELTER.

K: Come in, Lady Welter.

K: hope you're feeling a little more reasonable this morning. I've got to ask you a few more questions and the sooner you realize that rudeness and obstruction will only prolong the ordeal the better it will be for you.

L. W.: I find all this most tiresome. I've already told you that I know nothing whatsoever about this man Blane's death.

K: It hasn't occurred to you I suppose that you might be charged with it?

L. W.: What! If you're mad, my man. I shall report you.

K: You can make any report you like but it won't alter the fact that you had a very strong motive for wishing Boltsho Blane out of the way.

L. W.: This is ridiculous.

K: Not at all. You lost a big portion of your fortune in 1929, you've been paying up the losses on these papers which you run for years and now you are up against it, because the Rocksavage companies in which the remainder of your money is invested passed their dividend last year. Owing to Blane's death Rocksavage is back on his feet again and you wish him.

L. W.: Well, if that is so Mr. Rocksavage benefits by this man Blane's death just as much as I do.

K: You're wrong there. Rocksavage has other assets outside his soap companies, whereas you haven't, so motive is stronger in your case.

L. W.: This is absurd, as though an elderly woman like myself could murder a man and push him out of the porthole.

K: You're only 55, Lady Welter, and a strong, well-preserved woman at that. Let me assure you from my police experience that many a woman with less physical strength than yourself could have done this business and in your case the motive was there. Moreover, there is no check on your movements from the time you came below with the bishop at 7:05 until you arrived in the lounge changed at 8:05 on the night of Blane's death.

L. W.: Oh, yes there is, young man. My maid was with me, helping me to dress for dinner.

K: Ah, now that puts a very different complexion on it, but why didn't you tell me that before, Lady Welter?

L. W.: Because I didn't think you could be such a fool as to suspect a woman like myself of a crime like this.

K: Was she with you the whole time?

L. W.: No, I rang for her when I reached my cabin and she was with me for about half an hour, until I had finished dressing.

K: Wait a moment, then, that only gets us to about 7:35, and we know Blane was alive at 7:45. You were already changed and you had 20 minutes, therefore, in which you might have done this job before arriving in the lounge.

L. W.: I was in my cabin the whole time.

K: So you say, Lady, but I want proof of that and, if you're a wise woman, you'll do your best to produce it.

L. W.: Proof! But how can anybody prove such a thing? You must take my word for it.

K: I'm afraid I want something more than that. What were you doing all that time?

L. W.: Well, if you must know, I was knitting a jumper. I only had one steeve to do so I thought I would finish it before I went up to dinner.

K: Can you give me any proof of that?

L. W.: Yes. My maid knows just how far I had got with the jumper before I dressed that evening and I left it finished on the table for her to press when I left my cabin half an hour later.

K: Can you produce the jumper, Lady Welter?

L. W.: Yes.

K: All right. That'll do for the moment.

The Family Doctor

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

If a person suffers pain with gripping, associated with food poisoning, a hot water bottle or hot packs may be applied to his stomach. If, however, not much pain is present, an ice bag may be useful in soothing the irritation in the intestines.

Sedatives or pain-killers should not be given until proper diagnosis is made. In other words, a physician should be called to make certain that the patient is not suffering from appendicitis, ulcer of the stomach, inflammation of the gallbladder, or some similar condition.

After an attack of food poisoning, little or no food should be taken for 24 hours. The person affected may have cracked ice, which will serve to relieve the irritation of the digestive tract, and also help to take the place of water lost from the body by repeated vomiting. After an attack of food poisoning, the return to solid food must be gradual.

Although there seldom are fatal cases of food poisoning, of the type described, instances do occur in which vomiting and the prostration are so great that death may occur in persons who are not of strong constitution.

The type of food poisoning resulting from infection by germs of the colon, typhoid, or paratyphoid family should not be confused with the much more serious type of food poisoning due to the contamination of food by the bacillus botulinus.

Such contamination produces a condition known as botulism, which is much more dangerous to life and health than is contamination by the other germs mentioned.

The botulinus germ is most frequently a contaminant of food that has been improperly canned. The articles connected most commonly with food poisoning of this type are meat and meat products, and foods which are mixed and stored for a considerable time before serving.

Of 1174 instances of food poisoning in the United States from 1910 to 1925, 148 were due to meat, 330 to fish, 480 to vegetables, 111 to fruit, 63 to soup, and 73 to milk.

A serum against the germ of botulism has been prepared and is available in many state health departments. If poisoning is diagnosed as botulism, arrangements should be made to take advantage of the anti-botulinus serum as soon as possible. Delay is exceedingly dangerous and may result in death.

Many of the earliest symptoms of botulism are confused easily with serious disturbances of the nervous system. If the person begins suddenly to see double, if he has vertigo, dizziness, or shock promptly after eating, or food about which there has been some suspicion, medical advice should be obtained immediately.

HISTORY of Twin Falls City & County

As Gleaned from Files of The Times

15 YEARS AGO—
FEB. 26, 1922
Twin Falls store No. 1153, F. W. Woolworth Co., opened its doors for business this morning with a great throng of customers. Practically every hour of the day up to press time a great crowd surged through this new store and picked up bargains.

Applications for loans under the government farm act passed under the Wilson administration are being taken at the commissioners' room in the court house today by J. W. McDowell, who represents this division of Twin Falls county. Up to 2 p. m. he had received a total of 31 applications.

There are two other districts in the county, one at Kimberly and the other at Buhl.

27 YEARS AGO—
FEB. 26, 1910
The ladies of the Wednesday afternoon card club gave a delightful progressive dinner party for their husbands last night. Thirty-two people enjoyed the dinner, the first course of which, oyster cocktails, was served at the home of Mrs. W. S. Hill at six-thirty. The guests then proceeded to the home of Mrs. Burton E. Morse, where the second course consisting of roast turkey and the fixings of a first class dinner was served at prettily decorated tables with place cards made of imitations of the hatchet that made George Washington famous. The home of Mrs. Homer Craven was next on the program where salad was served. Mrs. K. B. Lewis was next hostess and served ice cream and cake to the crowd. The balance of the evening was spent at the beautiful home of Mrs. Sweeley in playing five hundred. The honors were awarded to Miss Maxwell and T. J. Woods. The participants in the event were: Messrs. and Mesdames Aiken, J. W. Craven, Homer Craven, W. S. Hill, Larned, Lewis McCollum, B. E. Morse, Nixon, Pike, E. M. Sweeley, M. J. Sweeley, Tyler, Woods, Mrs. Ernest White, Mr. Fox, Misses Officer and Maxwell.

Youth of Village Prefer Old Dances

ACTON, Mass. (UP)—The Acton young folk prefer jigs and reels to swing music.

Harold Reynolds and Arthur Robbins inaugurated old timers' dances two years ago. Older folks were in the majority at first, but today most of the dancers are young people.

Proprietors of the dance halls where swing music is in vogue have been forced to suspend operations.

SUPPRESSION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 — Don't whisper a word of it to the southern congressmen, but a slightly rare, if not new, speech concerning them was not delivered by rural resettler W. W. Alexander in Des Moines a few days back.

You cannot get a copy of it around the agriculture department for $100. Advances furnished to news disseminating agencies have been confiscated, cancelled, recalled and suppressed. Pals of agriculture Secretary Wallace rushed about and borrowed the few remaining copies from the hands of unsuspecting newsmen. These have now been permanently mislaid.

It is obvious that Mr. Wallace is not going to let that classic opus fall into congressional hands at a time when President Roosevelt is trying to soothe the brows of southern senators, ruffled by his Supreme Court repacking plan. And, to make the occasion doubly inauspicious, Mr. Wallace is likewise now lading out soothing syrup for the southern legislators to make them swallow his kind of farm tenancy plan.

But what makes suppression triply desirable is that Dr. Alexander, the successor to Prof. Tugwell, intended to deliver it to a conference of farm leaders called to promote harmony between the south and west.

Dr. Alexander also thought it tragic that so few people voted in the south. His statistics indicated only 14 per cent of South Carolina citizens over 21 took the trouble to vote in 1936; Georgia 19 per cent; Alabama 20 per cent; Virginia 25 per cent.

He neglected to point out that the result would not have been different if 101 per cent had voted, as was suspected in some of the machine-laden precincts of the large northern cities.

The most horrible aspect of the speech from the standpoint of Mr. Wallace's friends here lies in their contemplation of what remarks like these might do to his 1940 presidential candidacy.

They are saying that Mr. Wallace is about ready to transfer Dr. Tugwell's old bureau back to the molasses tycoon, or even to Spain.

TRAGEDY

The suppressed text continues: "The policy of the south toward the problems causing and growing out of farm tenancy has been to let them alone.

"The growth of white tenancy, the loss of foreign markets, the widespread depletion of soil fertility and the recent depression have forced many to face the problems and see the necessity for planning as their solution for agricultural problems.

"Many southern leaders, however, still cling to the belief that industry will repeat its wonders for the south. Because of this, and the fact that the credit system of the south is controlled by northern eastern capital, their political affiliation has been with these regions rather than with other progressive farming regions."

FAST WORK

If you inquire what happened, you will be informed officially Dr. Alexander decided at the last minute that perhaps this was not the time and a west-south harmony conference was not the place to reopen the civil war.

However, that it not exactly the way it happened.

It seems the speech was prepared in the rural resettlement administration and sent over to the agriculture department for an okay. Advance copies were circulated in the usual routine way. No one paid much attention to it, until a few hours before it was to be delivered. Then, someone near Mr. Wallace here discovered the possibilities of a bad reaction. Conferences were hastily called. The speech was ordered killed.

Agriculture publicity men yelled: "Stop the Presses." Confidential instructions to "disregard the speech of Dr. Alexander" were sent to all news circulating agencies. Instructions were passed around quickly to all officials to say nothing.

Regular Meeting of Buhl Grange Held

BUHL, Feb. 26 (Special)—Buhl Grange met in regular session Tuesday evening at the city hall. Thirty-seven members responded to roll call. The program consisted of two harmonica numbers by Cleo Farris, a paper on the "Corn Industry" by S. E. Southwick, and Ethel Olds prepared 27 different articles made from corn and had them on display during the evening. Miss Esther Wright gave a reading, and the Harry Barry family were characters in a clever play entitled "Just Another Date." A game was conducted by Mrs. S. C. Orr with the entire group participating.

At the close of the meeting oyster stew was served by Mrs. S. C. Orr, Mrs. Peter Kruse and Mrs. Adolph Johnson.

Still More to Be Done

Besides all this, you had to clean up the house, for Jim likes tidiness when he comes home and then you have to look right yourself. The way you get to be too far gone, and the more you do, the more you do.

Now you go to get the food for supper so as to have a nice meal for your Jim. You are pretty tired after your day. Baby had colic in the night.

If it were not today it wouldn't be so bad, but it must be done as soon as possible and tomorrow.

Your thanks go, "Oh, what a lovely baby." Because, although you know Tommy is the loveliest baby of all, you also know that the pretty castings of his highness have much to do with it, the sweet smell, the perfection of coloring and banding, and what not.

Congratulations, little mother. Your weary work is not lost on us. We appreciate you.

High School News

Pictures of freshmen and sophomores for individual mounting in the "Coyote" were being taken last night yesterday and today. C. E. Jacoby set up a studio in the high school chemistry laboratory yesterday morning and by evening had taken approximately 200 pictures and was finishing up today on the remainder of the students who wished to have individual photos in the book.

James E. Tomlin, faculty advisor, stated that this is the first time individual pictures have been taken of lower classmen, group scenes always having been used heretofore. Mr. Tomlin also said that other revolutionary changes are being made in the book this year but declined to disclose them, saying that they were being saved for a surprise.

Latin club members in session yesterday answered roll call with Latin verbs in place of the usual "here." About 15 members of the club presented a play demonstrating English words derived from Latin. During the short business session reports were heard from the various committees working on plans for the annual banquet which will be held March 11.

MOTHERS ARE RESPONSIBLE

The family looks to you to aid your doctor in keeping them well. You can help prevent much illness and poor health by guarding them from common constipation.

Most constipation comes from faulty diet - meals low in "bulk." This condition can be corrected so easily and pleasantly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides the safe way to prevent constipation by putting "bulk" back in the diet. Within the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, forming a soft mass which gently sponges out the system.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and iron. It is so much better for your family than constant dosing with artificial pills and drugs.

Two tablespoons daily as a cereal with milk or cream, or in recipes, are enough for the average person. Three times daily in severe cases.

Sold at all grocers - and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

POLICE CONCLUDE HAWAIIAN PROBE

No Evidence Available to Uphold Charge of Assault

HONOLULU, T. H. Feb. 26 (AP) - Police today closed their investigation charge by Mrs. Charlotte Copping, 24, wife of a navy officer, that she was assaulted by a "huge white man" after a party on Feb. 15.

"We have followed every possible clue," the police said, "and have been unable to secure evidence a crime was committed."

The case recalled the Thelma Protesse Massie case five years ago in which she accused five Hawaiians of kidnaping and assaulting her. All were acquitted but one later was found slain and Lieutenant Thomas Massie and two seamen were tried and convicted of his death but were granted full pardons immediately.

In the Copping case, however, physicians said there was no evidence Mrs. Copping had been attacked.

Sun Valley Will Invite Canadian Champs to Ski Races

Crack Entry List Already Lined Up

GOLDEN SKI MEET ATTRACTS PRO, AMATEUR PERFORMERS

SUN VALLEY, Feb. 26 (Special)—The first three winners of the Canadian ski championships to be held at Banff, Alberta, March 5-8 will be invited to join the crack field in the Sun Valley Golden Ski races, scheduled for March 13-14 as the only national open ski event in the United States, it was announced here today.

The Golden Ski competition here, definitely looming as one of the greatest of ski classics, already has drawn an entry list including top skiers of the world, it was announced by Al Lindley of Mineral, president of Sun Valley Ski club, who had left today for Seattle to confer with officials of the Pacific Northwestern Ski association, sponsor of the races.

Listed on the opening roster for the event is a noted Swiss university team which recently made an outstanding showing in the United States eastern championships.

On Old Baldy The Golden Ski races will be held on the slopes of Old Baldy mountain, on a three-mile course of approximately 3,500 feet drop. First day will be devoted to downhill and the second to slalom racing. All competitors will run against time, starts being made at one minute intervals, but plenty of close racing will take place over a perilous course, at speeds approaching 80 miles. Estimated time for the course is under four minutes.

Care was taken to locate the most difficult possible course in the surrounding country, one made hazardous by trees and bad curves and slopes. In the opinion of experts, the Sun Valley Golden Ski races are comparable only with the celebrated Arberg-Kandahar competition held alternately at Merren, Switzerland, and St. Anton, Austria. Like Arberg-Kandahar, Sun Valley Golden Ski rules permit entrance of both professionals and amateurs.

Famed Skiers Enter The entry list, with others certain to follow, now includes: Hans Hauser of Sun Valley, three times champion of Austria; Siegmund Raud, member of Norwegian Olympic teams of 1932 and 1936; Hannes Schroll, Yosemite, three times champion of United States; Hjalmar Hvam, Portland, 1936 Pacific northwest champion; Thomas Mobraaten, Vancouver, of Canadian Olympic team of 1936; Georges Schweizer, twice winner of Arberg-Kandahar and coach of Dartmouth ski team; Dick and Jack Durrance, Dartmouth, members of 1936 American Olympic team.

Sverre Kolterude, Norwegian Olympic teams, 1932 and 1936; Charles Proctor, Boston, American authority on ski technique; Don Amick, Seattle, 1937 slalom champion, Pacific northwest; Robert Livermore, United States Olympic team, 1936; Roland Cossman and Joseph Benedetti, Sun Valley ski school instructors, authorized with Hauser by the Austrian government to compete officially for Austria; Franz Epp, Sun Valley, winner several European events; Sig Buckmaler, ski professional at Peckett's-of-Sugar Hill, New Hampshire, and Otto Lang, famed Austrian.

Lodge to Give Trophies Sun Valley will provide all trophies, according to the definite plans now fully outlined. All officiating will be directly in charge of the Pacific Northwestern Ski association, Peter H. Hostmark, Seattle, president of the organization, said he looks to the Golden Ski races "for the keenest competition yet held in America."

The race was given its official title because of the trophy to be given the winner, consisting of a gold ski emblem surmounted by a flashing sun. Second and third awards will be similar but of silver and bronze.

A throng which may reach 5,000 or more is expected to view the races.

ASSAULT OPENS ON TRACK MARKS

Great List of Entries Is Expected to Shatter Records Tomorrow

By LESLIE AVERY NEW YORK, Feb. 26 (UP)—The assault on track and field records at the A. U. national championships tomorrow night in Madison Square Garden shapes up as the best replica of the Olympic games ever staged indoors.

The entry list embraces 29 Olympic athletes from five nations, four of them champions. Holders of 30 indoor and outdoor world record times and marks are entered. Thirteen of last year's champions will defend their titles.

Sellout Event This blue ribbon event of the indoor season already is a sellout. The last 3,000 general admissions will not be put on sale until 6 p. m. tomorrow.

A A. U. officials believe that at least five world records and 11 national championship marks will be imperiled.

With five Olympic finishers and Donald Lash, the world indoor and outdoor record holder at two miles, entered in the 1,500-meter run, Gene Venzke's indoor mark of 3:49.9 appeared certain of being smashed. Beside Venzke and Lash, the 1,500 enter included Glenn Cunningham, holder of world indoor and outdoor one-mile records; Luigi Beccali, Italy's former 1,500 Olympic titleholder; Miklos Szabo, Hungarian champion; and Arnie San Romani of Kansas.

Rideout Twins After Eddie O'Brien clipped two-tenths of a second off his 500-yard mark in the New York A. U. games last week, observers believe his world time of 1:21 for 500 meters set last year is almost sure to go.

With the Rideout twins, Wayne and Blaine, competing in the 5,000 meters against Norman Bright of San Francisco, Bright's mark of 15 minutes flat should be trimmed considerably.

Other marks considered in danger are the 3,000-meter steeplechase, 1,600-meter relay, 65-meter hurdles, pole vault and shotput.

CASTLEFORD, Feb. 26 (Special)—The Castelford Wolves, favorites in the south-side class B sub-district tournament, took it on the chin last night as the fighting band of Eden Grizzlies edged them out in a thrilling battle. STRIKES TO SPARE

WITH FRED STONE

A very good match between Slatkin's and Dell's, the latter winning the odd game.

Rolly Jones again topped his team with a 536 total and a 204 his first game. He got a turkey his first game, a double his second. He also got three nice glaring errors.

Cap Brinegar kept pace with Rolly in one respect; he also got one double and a turkey.

Can you imagine it—N. O. Johnson went over the 500 mark on alleys 3 and 4 this "pie" alleys. N. O. got one double, his last game. No doubts for Bill McDonald or Charley Brueggemann.

Ray Preis, leadoff for Slatkin's, got a nice last game, a mark in every frame. His other two games, not so good.

Grant Kunkle got 10 spares in a row in his first game, something very unusual. He also got a turkey his last game.

Joe Amosworth, the middle man, didn't do so bad. No doubles but quite a few strikes and spares. One double his last game.

Walt Riggert was high man for both teams with 565 for total and his 206 topped Jones for high single by two plus. Walt had two open frames, both in his first game, but after that all either strikes or spares. One double his last game.

Buller's team of ladies took two out of three from Twin Falls Lumber in the City league, led by Ruth Rogers, who captured the high single game for both leagues with a score of 214. She got that through a double and a turkey her second game. Ruth also got a double her first. Her 482 was tops for the ladies.

Her sis, Lou Vazquez, doubled in both her first and second games.

Mrs. O. Lund got no doubles. Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Buller each got one, collecting them in their second game.

"No wonder Ruth is a good bowler," remarked L. S. McCracken, as he struck out to end his second game. "Watch her daddy go!" His 515 was high in the City league; his 192 that game was also the high for his team.

Rogers, Rieke, Hafer and Kimes, no doubles. In fact, according to Jack Kimes, very few singles.

Don't forget the singles and doubles, handicap tourney Saturday and Sunday. Also grand sweepstakes final Sunday night at 8 p. m.

ORMOND BEACH, Fla., Feb. 26 (UP)—Dorothy Traung of San Francisco, making her first invasion of the Florida winter golf circuit, was a decided favorite to win the South Atlantic championship, which went into the semi-final round today.

Miss Traung, carrying the same sound golf which carried her to the final round of the national title hunt in 1934, and to the western championship last year, trounced Patty Berg, the Minneapolis red-head, by a 3 and 1 score yesterday.

As a result of that victory, which saw her need only a par five in the easy home home for a 73, she was liked to eliminate Marion Miley of Lexington, Ky., today and march into the cup round.

PRICE OF GRAIN MAKES RECOVERY

CHICAGO, Feb. 26 (AP)—Grain prices staged a comeback in the late trading here today behind the lead of corn futures. The market had established fractional losses in the first half of the session as a result of liquidation centered on wheat but new buying was uncovered on the setback and prices of all cereals were firm at the close.
At the close wheat was 1/4 to 1/2 cents higher. May $1.31 1/2, new corn 3/4 to 1 1/2 cents higher. May $1.07. Old corn unchanged to 1/2 cent higher. May $1.04, and oats 1/2 to 1 cent higher. May 46 1/2 cents.
Corn met with selling based on the weakness in wheat during the early hours of the session but firmed later on buying induced by a broad shipping demand for the cash article. Although buying power was not particularly heavy the market registered net gains of a cent a bushel or more. Oats were fractions up the close while rye showed net gains of one to two cents a bushel.

Stampede Fever Seen for Young Prospectors as News Filters in FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Feb. 26 (UP)—Reports of two new gold strikes in proved districts were stirring the stampede fever of old and young prospectors here today.

The first find was reported by Charles Johnson, who arrived here from Good News Bay and said that claims were being staked on tributaries along the Kokovik river.

Johnson said that the gold found there apparently was an alluvial deposit which would have to be worked through dredging operations, but that the area was large and the values apparently good.

The second report of a gold strike came from Good News Bay and said that gold had been along the Tuglak river, west of there. It was believed that this also was placet but that the values were higher.

HOUSE BATTLES OVER 'U' FUNDS

Cavanagh Seeks Passage of $1,538,678 Appropriation For Idaho Education

BOISE, Feb. 26 (UP)—Not yet out of the house of representatives but well on its way today was an appropriation bill for Idaho's higher educational institutions—subject of an hour's bitter and at times personal debate in committee of the whole late yesterday.

Amendments intending to slice a quarter million dollars from the $1,538,678 University of Idaho appropriation never appeared. After conclusion of general debate, a motion to read the amendments was forestalled by approval in a standing vote of a motion by Cavanagh, Twin Falls, that "the committee recommend that the bill pass without amendment."

In addition to purely economy advocates, such as Harrington, Canyon, it was noted that those standing in favor of considering the reduction amendments were for the most part those representatives who were interested in passing previous bills to have the state take over the college and expand the Pacetello southern branch—both defeated in the senate.

Second Reading
The Pacetello bill in particular aroused a north-south conflict, supporters of a four-year southern university being lined up against backers of the present Moscow plant.

The disputed appropriation measure was put on second reading and will be up for final consideration in the house today. Another fight, more heated, takes the bill in the senate where economy forces include some of the principal Democratic leaders.

Tempting with educational appropriations is turning something like a warred George Curtis, Ada, former thomas senior and graduate of the university. He said that three or four amendments planned to reduce funds, to less than were appropriated during the last biennium.

"The house to take recommendations of its appropriations committee, which he termed a "bar," R. G. Bailey, Nez Perce, said, "How is the mob outside the courtroom, seeking the life of the defendant, capable of deciding his fate?"

Plenty Margin
These institutions allow plenty of margin in making their requests," offered Andrus, Bonneville. "There is no reason why we should be good fellows and give them every cent they ask. The best schools operating are those who have to watch their budgets."

Harrington, Canyon, so-called one-man economy bloc, hinted at railroad action in the appropriations committee, of which he is a member. He pointed out that the committee had allowed the institutions what they had originally asked—not what Governor Clark recommended. He referred to what he termed the "exorbitant" salary of Dr. M. G. Neale, president of the university, of $10,000 a year, plus use of a 10-room house and traveling expenses all over the country.

"Dr. Neale is a real gentleman," declared Cavanagh, jumping immediately to the attack. Looking directly at Harrington, he said, "We've let him because of the abuse and violation heaped on him on the floor of this house." The president's resignation, has been accepted, effective in July.

"Salaries of university instructors are down almost to the plane of farm hands," shouted the appropriations chairman. "If we don't want to keep up our higher educational plants, let's abolish them."

Murphy Backs Appropriation
Murphy, Shoshone, another member of the committee, arose to present statements of Harrington, "as much as saying we've taken money to increase the appropriation of the university." He heatedly asked if the representatives "knew that the university is asking the same as it received in 1931-32 despite the fact that it had enrolled at that time only 1,800 students and has 2,700 now?"

Insulted, Bamcock, brought in the southern university issue by pointing out that costs at the Pacetello junior college were about $290 a year per student while at Moscow the cost is about double."

Asked by Cavanagh if he knew that both the Pacetello and Moscow schools were under the direction of Dr. Neale, Bamcock replied, "Yes, but he's doing a very decent job at Pacetello." $20,000 of the president's annual salary comes from the southern budget.

POLL BALLOTING REACHES 300,000

Court Tabulations Four in From 203 Cities in 40 States

(NEA Service) (Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc.) Balloting approached the 300,000 mark in the NEA Service-Idaho Evening Times supreme court poll as tabulations poured in from 203 cities in 40 states.

Exact totals at last compilation are: For the proposal to reorganize the U. S. supreme court, 102,124 against the plan, 190,580—a grand total of 292,704 ballots.

Sixteen states had a majority for the plan, while 24 were voting against it. A regional tabulation showed that the only section of the country polling a majority for the plan was the south, with 53 per cent of the votes favorable, while the east was a tower of strength against the plan with 82 per cent of the votes unfavorable.

The west was showing a small majority against the plan, about 55 per cent, and the midwest somewhat stronger against it with 63 per cent so minded.

A high-water mark in the number of votes cast was reached by the St. Louis Star-Times, through which 17,633 people cast 13,584 votes for the plan and 4,049 against it, thus reversing by better than three to one the country-wide trend.

Los Angeles through the Evening News also polled a heavy vote and ran even more strongly in favor of the plan, better than six to one. But none approached the tremendous 59-1 majority against the plan piled up through the Boston Transcript, with only 97 votes for and 5,721 votes against the plan.

Three Rivers, Mich., has now gone through five days of balloting without adding a single affirmative vote to an early total of 11.

Tabulators were striving to keep abreast of the flood of ballots, as comparatively few papers had as yet made their final returns.

Supreme Court Poll FOR AGAINST

334 409 NATIONAL RESULTS

102,124 190,580

The 700 mark was passed in the Idaho Evening Times-NEA poll on the proposed supreme court changes, as letters containing from one to five votes flooded the editor's desk. Since the poll was started nine days ago, votes have been received here at the rate of nearly 100 per day. The standing this morning showed 409 votes against the plan and 334 for, as the "no" people continued their steady gain for the fourth consecutive day.

National results leaned a little to the "for" side in yesterday's voting as the "against" balloting weakened some. Total poll up to last night showed 190,580 against and 102,124 for, the first time the voting has showed less than a 2-to-1 advantage for those against the court change.

Contributions from readers welcomed. Letters should deal with matters of general interest. Matter should not exceed more than 500 words, and preferably should be confined to 300. No contributions considered unless signed, but initials will be used if specifically requested. All contributions should be addressed to Editor Idaho Evening Times and submitted through the mails.

Public Forum

JUDGES Editor, Evening Times

Some time ago we said "Thank God for the supreme court" and now folks write and say "Thank God for such men as Senator Borah. Yes, a time like this needs men who will not lie, whom the spoils of office cannot buy. We see by the press that many political plums await those who will follow the leader. In the beginning God gave unto the people judges and it was his will that judges should decide for the people. Therefore our government is the only government that has followed this rule.

Hence we have been blessed as no other nation has been blessed. Let us continue our constitutional form of government. The "must" program of the President and the "big-stick" methods of General Johnson, and now the sit-downers which are sanctioned by Mr. Lewis think to force their schemes through if they have to move heaven and earth.

Nevertheless, the public is against these strikes and the people are against the President's plan and we can thank God for that, too. We are told that "the central proposal is aimed not at judicial reform but at constitutional revision." Seeing that the people were kept in ignorance of the scheme to pack the court, it behooves congress to find out the will of the people before acting upon this legislation.

If there were no outcry against the President's plan we would indeed be discouraged, but we find Democrats taking the lead and Republicans alike taking their stand to uphold the constitution as it is, and not what Mr. Roosevelt would like to make of it.

Sincerely, MRS. ANNA SNOW Twin Falls, Idaho.

JOB SERVICE TO CHANGE ROUTINE

Early Opening Hour Will Go Into Effect at Local Unit Monday

A change in the office hours of the United States employment service was announced here today by Ray Butler, acting supervisor for this district.

Heretofore the office has been open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. each week day, but starting Monday hours will be from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. Monday through Friday of each week, and from 8 a. m. to 1 p. m. Saturday. As in the past the office will close during official government holidays.

To aid workers of the service Twin Falls residents are urged to observe registration hours of 10 a. m. to noon, which has been set aside for them each day.

A training program for private placement has just been completed at the offices under the direction of Jac Running of Boise, head of private placement for the state. The office setup has been re-arranged to conform to uniform standards which are being adopted over the country for offices of this type.

Signs of spring job activity are starting to be felt at the office, Butler said today, and a few men have been taken from files kept at the headquarters and are now working on various school projects starting to get underway throughout this district.

Several calls have also been received from farmers in this area seeking farm laborers.

COOPERATION OF BANKS IS ASKED

Head of American Bankers' Assn. Says Problems Are All Same

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 26 (U.P.)—Present day banking problems are much the same the country over and many are national in scope, Tom K. Smith of St. Louis, president of the American Bankers association, told the regional conference of the organization, urging that bankers attack the problems collectively.

Approximately 500 bankers from Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho, Utah, Montana, Arizona, Nevada and Wyoming were present at the two-day conference.

The success of these conferences has arisen from the fact that they furnish to individual bankers an opportunity to pool their individual knowledge and to aid in formulating collective policies at a time when collective action is a paramount necessity," President Smith said. "We are emerging from the most severe depression in our experience with a heritage of problems to be solved. Fortunately our emergency problems are behind us, but the fact that the depression is passing does not mean that all our troubles have vanished. Now that the crisis is past, we can devote our energies to some of the fundamental questions which confront us.

"With respect to these problems I wish to make one point: that they call unmistakably for collective action on the part of bankers throughout the nation. They furnish just one more illustration of the old motto: United we stand, divided we fall." Recently three stranded army flyers summoned rescuers by making a kite from the crashed plane fabric and flying it aloft. Searching planes noticed the kite and found the flyers.

HERE'S BETTER CONTROL OF COLDS

Just follow this practical home-guide

To help PREVENT many colds. At the first sneeze or sniffle or irritation in the nose—quick!—put a few drops of Vicks VapoRub up each nostril. This specialized medication is expressly designed for the nose and upper throat, where colds start. Used in time, VapoRub helps to prevent many colds—and to throw off head colds in their early stages.

To RELIEVE a cold sooner. Massage Vicks VapoRub briskly on the back (between and below the shoulder-blades) as well as on the throat and chest, for 3 full minutes. Then spread a thick layer on the chest. VapoRub's famous poultice-vapor action continues hour after hour—loosening phlegm, easing coughing, relieving irritation, and helping to break up local congestion.

Sickness from Colds Cut in Half!

The two simple steps outlined above, together with a few sensible health rules to build up and maintain resistance, are the basis of Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds. In the biggest cold clinic ever held—with 17,352 people as subjects, Vicks Plan cut sickness from colds more than half!

You'll find full directions for following Vicks Plan in your packages of Vicks VapoRub and Vicks VapoMenthol.
