Opening for A Good Man

There's spring in his step as well as in the air, and Mr. Elmer J. Twittell's eyes and thoughts both are wandering as he strides briskly to work in Twin-Falls this morning. But careful, there—an open manhole yawns directly in his path.

Hey! Watch Your Step!

Oh, the pity of it... Absorbingly interesting as the Evening Times may be, we NEVER have recommended reading it while walking along in public, as Mr. Twittell is doing here... Oh, oh, oh—see that one foot poised over that dreadful, uncovered manhole.

Ha-Ha-Ha! April Fool!

What! Mr. Twittell DIDN'T fall into that manhole? It's unbelievable!... And wait a minute—why is Mr. Twittell sticking out his tongue at us in that ill-mannered fashion?... And what's that he's saying? Could it be—"APRIL FOOL!"

LOYALS CONTINUE ADVANCE TOWARD REBELS' CAPITAL

Insurgents Fall Back Under Pressure of Drive By Reds
MIAJA STRATEGY HAILED
Madrid Defender Keeps Foes Busy on Dozen Different Battle Fronts

By LOUIS F. KEEMLE (United Press Cable Editor)
The loyalists continued their successful campaign in Spain today, driving in full force toward Burgos, the insurgent capital in the north, and pushing the southern rebel army steadily back towards Cordoba in the south.
The military strategy of Col. Jose Miaja, defender of Madrid, has proved extraordinarily effective. The rebels are superior in trained troops, airplanes, weapons and munitions.
On the other hand, the poorly-trained loyalist forces are numerically far superior. Gen. Francisco Franco, rebel chief, might have been in Madrid long ago if he could have concentrated his forces.
Keeps Rebels Busy
Miaja's strategy has been to keep the rebels busy on a dozen scattered fronts so that they cannot concentrate for a mass drive on Madrid and Valencia. The simultaneous drives on Burgos and Cordoba are examples.
Such moves prevent the insurgents from reinforcing their army in the Aranjuez sector just east of Madrid, where the loyalists have succeeded not only in holding them off, but beating them back.
From the international viewpoint, Italy remained the deciding factor. It was a question whether Mussolini will accept the loss of prestige entailed by defeat of the Italian forces.

Action Started On Condemning Of Toll Bridge

Clark Orders Taylor to Commence Proceedings

With definite action underway today toward state acquisition of the Twin Falls-Jerome inter-county bridge and removal of the toll, the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce and local attorneys were drafting plans to aid in the move.
Gov. Barzilla Clark today had ordered Atty. Gen. J. W. Taylor to start condemnation proceedings against the bridge in order to set a purchase price. And members of the Twin Falls County Bar association informed the Chamber of Commerce that they were ready to assist the attorney general in handling local details of the eminent domain proceedings.
Governor Clark's action followed conferences yesterday between the state's chief executive and a delegation of Twin Falls business men who urged the condemnation step as the first essential move in acquiring the bridge. The governor indicated his chief purpose is in removing the toll bridge from an arterial highway, since federal funds can then be secured to improve the U. S. 93—a main route to the newly-developing resort empire at Sun Valley.
Full cooperation of the attorney general was pledged today, members of the Twin Falls delegation said.
Mr. Taylor will name his own choice of local legal assistant in the eminent domain proceedings, according to F. G. Thompson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.
Governor Clark informed the delegation, members said, that "progress of Twin Falls should not be blocked by a toll bridge on a vital route."
See 1937 Action
Members of the delegation forecast today that the state move in acquiring the bridge will be completed and the toll removed before the end of the current year.

BUDGET DECISION EXPECTED WITHIN NEXT SIX WEEKS

Higher Income Levy Seen as Likely Source of New Revenue
TREASURY HEADS UNEASY
Lag in Estimated Receipts Causes Mistaloulation In Balancing

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, April 1 (UP)—Decision on new taxes and whether the budget shall be balanced as planned will be made within the next six weeks, the United Press was reliably informed today. Higher income taxes and additional nuisance taxes would be likely new sources of revenue.
Within the next few weeks' period the treasury will report to the budget bureau the extent to which revenues are matching expenditures and budget officers will spread the information before President Roosevelt. The best information now is that the treasury is uneasy but not panicky over the two factors which jeopardize budget balancing plans.
Unexpected Lag
Those factors are an unexpected lag below estimates in tax collections and the development of agricultural and other programs for which Mr. Roosevelt did not budget in his plans for next fiscal year expenditures.
The Democratic congressional leadership uniformly dislikes the idea of a tax bill. But the decision rests more with Mr. Roosevelt than with them. Some observers sensed an administration movement toward economy in action of the house agriculture committee in killing one of the Roosevelt farm tenantry proposals.
The measure would have required $50,000,000 next year for low rate loans to aid tenants to purchase their farms. In discussing these loans at his Tuesday press conference, Mr. Roosevelt intimated the whole farm tenantry program might be restricted for a time to an experimental basis, financed principally from relief funds.
Starts Request
The President has begun to prepare his request for 1938 fiscal year relief funds which he hopes to keep within $1,500,000,000. On the basis of that figure he believes last January that he would be able to balance the budget in the next fiscal year except for an item of $401,000,000.

Negotiations Fail; Workers Quit as Contract Expires

$6 PER DAY, 30-HOUR WEEK, VACATION WITH PAY ASKED

NEW YORK, April 1 (UP)—Failure of Appalachian soft coal mine operators and the United Mine Workers to sign a new contract caused 400,000 miners in a dozen states to leave their jobs today.
The old contract expired at midnight, making stoppage of work automatic until new terms of wages and hours are reached. The committee of 16, composed of union men and operators, recessed last night half an hour before the deadline, and will resume the conference today at 3 p. m.
Union miners would not have worked today anyway as they observe April 1 as "John L. Lewis day," but the walkout was in force as soon as the old contract expired. Meanwhile the conferees hoped that a new contract would be agreed upon soon, as the question of higher wages was said to be the only remaining difference.
Operators Balk
About 300,000 of the miners affected work in the Appalachian fields, extending from central Pennsylvania to northern Tennessee. The other 100,000 soft coal workers were scattered through several states from Alabama to Wyoming and Colorado. Wages in mines outside the Appalachian chain are based on the eastern agreement.
Until midnight, announcement of a new contract had been expected momentarily. It was frustrated when operators balked at terms of a contract drawn by a sub-committee of six. The points of disagreement were not revealed, but it was said that the disagreement was among the operator's representatives.
It was understood that Lewis had agreed to give the operators time to consider the proposed contract before the committee resumes its negotiations today.
Ask $6 Basic Rate
The union demands a guarantee of 200 working days a year at a basic rate of $6 a 30-hour workday.

Plans to Quit

William Aberhart, minister of the only social credit government in the world in Alberta, planned today to resign, following disagreement with his cabinet.

Borah Lashes Coal Measure Provisions

Idaho's Senator Argues Bill Would Exempt Owners from Anti-Trust Law

WASHINGTON, April 1 (UP)—Sen. William E. Borah, R., Idaho, today attacked provisions of the Guffey coal control bill which lifts Sherman anti-trust law restrictions for bituminous producers who comply with the bill's code of fair competition.
Borah, speaking as the senate resumed debate on the house-approved measure pointed out that the bill creates a bituminous coal commission to set maximum and minimum prices, and argued that exemption from the anti-trust laws would permit producers to form combinations to fix prices within these limits.
In addition, Borah contended, the exemption would result in "obvious discrimination" and in creation of two distinctly different groups of producers—those who comply with the code and those who do not.
Two Groups
The first group, Borah contended, would be fully-exempted from the Sherman act, whereas their fellow producers who chose not to come under the code would have to abide by the Sherman act.
Sen. Alben W. Barkley, D., Ky., argued that the exemptions were necessary to prevent producers complying with the code from being subject to prosecution under the Sherman act.
The maximum and minimum prices, Barkeley said, would be set by local boards who would be charged with considering all factors including wages, working conditions and fair profit, in setting the prices.
Set Prices
"In this connection," Borah interrupted, "I wish to point out that these local boards will be composed largely of producers. They will be the Jones who are to set minimum prices."
Borah noted that a similar bill had been enacted for the cotton textile industry, exempting textile manufacturers from anti-trust laws if they complied with the fair competition code set up under the act.

CHANGE LOOMING FOR PWA SET-UP

New Policy Will Put Burden More Squarely Up to Municipalities

A change in the PWA administration methods which will see the burden of employment placed more squarely on the shoulders of the various municipalities, rather than on the federal government, will be made in the near future, it was revealed here today by Mayor Duncan McD Johnston.
This announcement of the pending change is the first official statement to be released in Idaho and was learned by the mayor during a conference with PWA officials held at Boise yesterday.
Municipal Responsibility
"The relief setup will be turned over to the municipalities and will delegate to them more responsibility for caring for relief in the respective communities," the mayor said today. "It will also delegate to them the responsibility of handling their employables who are unemployed at the present time."
Under the new setup, which will be announced soon, the public works administration will pay the wages of relief labor on all projects plus 15 per cent.
In other words, the mayor explained, the PWA contributions to public works projects will be 115 per cent.

Oddities

SCHOOL
NEW YORK, April 1 (UP)—New York City has "a typically rural one-room schoolhouse," the city record revealed today.
The structure, built in 1821 and located in West New Brighton, Richmond, "has seats to spare," the record said.
JOB
DES MOINES, Ia., April 1 (UP)—Andrew Fiori, unemployed father of three, advertised in a newspaper: "Master wanted, able bodied man, good references, willing to work will sell himself into slavery." He received 11 offers of jobs. The best would pay him $70 a month.
SURVIVAL
CLEVELAND, April 1 (UP)—Out of a list of 2,700, court officials drew a jury which contained the names of Arthur H. Bock and William K. Bock—father and son. Their names survived two drawings, one from the original list, the second from a panel of 150.
WORKHOUSE
CLEVELAND, April 1 (UP)—"You let me go yesterday for the third time in seven weeks," Charles Farrell, 65, told Police Judge Joseph Silbert. "I was just celebrating, see?" The judge didn't. Farrell drew 10 days in the workhouse for intoxication.

BODY OF WOMAN FOUND ON COAST

Wedding Ring Only Clue For Police in San Francisco Tide Mystery

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1 (UP)—The nude body of a woman, about 35 years old, was found today on a San Francisco bay beach at the foot of Moraga street. There was a gold wedding ring on her hand, the only apparent means of identification.
Police, who began an investigation, said there were no clues which might explain circumstances of the woman's death. There were no footprints on the sand. No clothes were found in the vicinity. Authorities believed the body had been washed up by the tide after being in the water only a short time.
Except for a bruise on her side, there were no signs of violence on the body, police said.

State Gets Fund to Aid in Eradication Of Mormon Crickets

WASHINGTON, April 1 (UP)—Works Progress Administrator Harry L. Hopkins, today announced allocation of $214,135, for conservation and wa: control projects in 22 states.

Ernest Simpson May Not Get Court Hearing

LONDON, April 1 (UP)—The slender suit of Ernest Simpson against Mrs. Joan Sutherland probably will not be heard at the Easter session of the law courts, opening Tuesday, publication of the calendar showed today.
The Simpson case is the last but one on the special jury list and hence is likely to be crowded out.

WPA RETENTION FAVORED BY FDR

President Thinks Spending Should Be Limited to $150,000,000

WASHINGTON, April 1 (UP)—President Roosevelt favors extension of the public works administration for two more years but on a reduced scale, Rep. Alfred F. Belter, D., N. Y., said today after a White House conference.
The President believes, Belter said, the PWA should be limited to spending $150,000,000 for heavy construction projects and should use money employing only relief labor.
The $150,000,000 would come from the $300,000,000 made available federal loans and grants by Congress last year. The revolving fund came from PWA sale of municipal securities it accepted as loan collateral.
As the law stands now, PWA is due to close down June 30, 1939, proposal would continue it June 30, 1939.

Authorities Push Prob Of 'Teen Age Love Nests'

LOS ANGELES, April 1 (UP)—Authorities broadened today their investigation of an alleged "teen age love nest" in nearby Culver City, where young girls told of attending night-long revels and seeing as many as 11 high school couples lined up in the hall.
Lieutenant Edward Grab of the sheriff's juvenile bureau said similar "party houses" have been located in suburban Long Beach, Brentwood Heights, West Hollywood and Beverly Hills.
Forty persons—mostly juveniles—were questioned about the asserted carnivals in the Culver City house, near the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film studios. Detectives R. F. Culver City police described wild parties being held until dawn, in which 18 years old participated.
Questioning disclosed, 22 students—11 boys and 11 girls—frequented the place on a regular basis, lining up in the hall outside the room. Most were students of the Culver City high school.
Names of the 30 students in the party were given by two girls, he said.
Fearing publicity, parents of some of the students have refused, in which complaints charging the delinquency of the

Death Rumor is Bit-Exaggerated, Mayor Declares

Maybe it's the April fool influence, but Mayor Duncan McD. Johnston assured Twin Falls today that the rumor of his death is definitely exaggerated. "I'm alive and kicking," he said. "I feel very good, thank you."

Reports were current last night and this morning that the mayor had been killed in an automobile accident between Boise and Twin Falls, en route home from yesterday's jaunt to the capital by a local delegation on bridge and airport matters.

Nearly a dozen phone calls flooded the mayor's home and his store as solicitous friends called up to find out what was what—and to offer condolences if these were in order.

But Johnston said they aren't in order yet.

STEPS UNDERWAY FOR WEED FIGHT

County Director Tells Ranch Owners Re-Check Will Be Carried Out

Laying of the groundwork for resumption of the campaign against noxious weeds in Twin Falls county was underway today after J. P. Hunt, county director of the noxious weed bureau, issued instructions to farmers outlining procedure.

The project, carried out last year as WPA work, is expected to be renewed on the same basis. No definite word of cash allotment for the WPA labor, however, has yet been received here, Mr. Hunt said. Farmers pay only cost of materials.

Once Not Enough Farmers were advised "in order to protect investment" made toward weed control last year, to recognize the fact that chemical weed control is "not 100 per cent effective on one application under all conditions." Mr. Hunt's bulletin continued:

"Seed which has matured on plants or which might be in the ground is not effected by the chemicals. In order to prevent patches from re-occurring from seed or a surviving plant, no treated area should be disturbed until plant growth has started. If an occasional plant survives, it can be cleaned up with little expense.

Will Check Patches "It is planned to check all patches treated in 1936 as soon as possible. Please do not disturb until crews have had a chance to check and advise on handling for the coming season.

Projects will be opened soon to continue throughout the season in again treating noxious weeds. If you have additional work to be done this year it would be well to file your request at the county weed office at an early date."

"For close to fifty years I have been a regular smoker, so I think I know what constitutes a good cigarette. Luckies please me on two scores. I like their fine flavor. But even more important is the fact that they are a light smoke, easy on my throat. At any rate, it's results that count, and a light smoke pleases both my taste and my throat."

HON. HERBERT E. HITCHCOCK U. S. SENATOR FROM SOUTH DAKOTA

In a recent independent survey, an overwhelming majority of lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc., who said they smoked cigarettes, expressed their personal preference for a light smoke.

Senator Hitchcock's statement verifies the wisdom of this preference and so do leading artists of radio, stage, screen and opera, whose voices are their fortunes, and who choose Luckies, a light smoke. A NEW NAVAL RACE IS ON When the senate passed the $522,000,000 naval supply bill the other day, the hands of the clock spun backward for something like 21 years.

In 1916 Europe was at war, and informed Americans were beginning to suspect that America would not be able to remain at peace forever.

A little later we got into the war. Some of this work was delayed, and some of it was rushed through ahead of schedule.

The world as it existed in the early '20s had taken all the war it could stomach. A new naval race was on, with England striving to remain ahead of this new American might.

Under the Washington treaty, America agreed to throw away 19 completed warships, and to scrap 13 more that were under construction.

Now we are in 1916 again. We are laying down two battleships, and the prospect of building a dozen more in the near future.

The way in which spoils politics is the ordinary processes of government is daily illustrated in the grief which has descended upon the sturdy Irish shoulders of Martin L. O'Donnell.

Representative Samuel Dickstein (Dem., N. Y.), whose alarm over subversive influences in the United States almost amounts to what the French call an idee fixe, now asserts that a band of 100,000 Nazis in America has taken an oath of allegiance to Hitler.

NEW YORK, April 1 (Associated Press)—The Pulitzer prize committee, highest tribunal in journalism, today announced award of the 1937 Pulitzer prize for light reading to the Pot Shots column, Idaho Evening Times, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Chairman Johannes I. Blatt announced that clippings of the column over a two-month period won the award. He said the editor of the column will receive $1,000 and each contributor will be given $100.

"The Pulitzer prize award," the chairman said, "was made to this Idaho column, although it is only beginning a climb to national fame, because it is unique. None of the committee had ever seen anything like it."

FOR MERCY SAKE! Pot Shots: As long as you've been jumping on certain fellows because of too-refined first names, why don't you stop and give due consideration to the very musical first name of Brick Thompson, ye secretary of the Chamber of Commerce?

WHAT! AREN'T THEY STILL WAITING? Dear Pot Shots: It seems time for me to let one Al Westergren know that the Savages of Murtough whose team he was supposed to come to Murtough to play and who had a good crowd on hand at the time, that the crowd is not waiting now. The game was called for some time last January.

A KISS ON THE STREET—OR SOMETHING? Mr. Pottings: For your content: I was walking down Main avenue, feeling pretty blue because I got out of the wrong side of the bed. Couldn't shake off my low feeling,

Color blindness is more common in boys than in girls. It is exceedingly important today because signals on the railroads and on street corners are most frequently red, green, and yellow, and occasionally blue, the colors most frequently concerned in color blindness.

Certainly, no one who is color blind should attempt to drive a motor car in modern traffic. The difficulty of distinguishing between red and green is the most common form of color blindness.

The most common test involves sorting a number of colored, waxed sticks. The person being tested is given certain pieces and asked to match them with colors. There are other tests in which colored strips of paper are employed.

So important is color blindness today as a possible cause of accidents that every person who attempts to drive a motor car, or to occupy himself in any other way in which color detection is significant should have a test as soon as possible.

WASHINGTON, April 1 — It is only a stage secret now that President Roosevelt is less alarmed about the sit-down strike craze than most of his associates. Apparently, he looks at it like the budget. He would like to hold it within limits, but thinks it can be done without any drastic action. He sees the dangers that others are expressing but minimizes them more than he or any of his new orderers have cared to say publicly, except possibly Miss Perkins. Her expressions seem to come closer to his personal view than statements by all the other new orderers.

Many things which could not happen here are now happening every day. Not the least of these is the spreading movement to erect tariff barriers between the states. If there was one fundamental question upon which all the framers of the constitution were agreed. It was that the union could not exist with one state taxing discriminatorily the products of another. Yet, unnoted and almost unobserved, that idea is now developing on a wide scale.

Southern congressmen are worried about the campaigns in many western states to put a tax on southern products. They have noted the Illinois proposals for a natural gas tax and the Iowa movement to tax southern shortening made from vegetable oils. Ohio's retaliatory tax on Michigan beer has been upheld in the Ohio supreme court. (Prohibition repeal gave the states the right to levy tariffs on liquor, despite the fundamental constitutional rule against this principle.)

Some southern governors are said to be considering the idea of calling a general governor's conference on state tariffs—a matter which all states thought to be settled forever when the constitution was adopted. Seeds of discontent grow strange ideas.

ABOUT THOSE "VOLUNTEERS" of Mister Mussolini in Spain: Military and diplomatic authorities here have information indicating these "volunteers" are mostly blackshirt militia. They are no experienced troops, but "labor battalions" which had been working on roads, sanitary works, etc., in Ethiopia.

Hitler sent in better men than Mussolini, although he had less to choose from. For years Der Fuere has been training his men secretly, and this is not conducive to efficiency. His "volunteers" were really rather raw recruits, but they at least knew some discipline and how to shoot.

The German troops clearly fell down from what was expected of them by the German general staff. The Italians just followed the old rule that, he who fights and runs away, may live, but not necessarily to fight again.

What makes the war experts laugh is that both Mussolini and Hitler underestimated the ability of the loyalists. These defenders were little more than an unorganized mob at the start, but in six months they have learned a lot about warfare. They are now experienced veterans.

The next time Mussolini roars about his "eight million fascist rifles," just remember he is counting a lot which look good on parade but not so good in a fight.

WOOD TICKS ARE INFESTING AREA

Numerous Persons Bitten But No Spotted Fever Cases Reported to Date

At the present time numerous cases of wood tick bites have been reported by Twin Falls county physicians, but to date no cases of Rocky Mountain spotted fever, one of the diseases caused by tick bite, have been reported in the county, Dr. J. W. Hawkins, director of the county health unit said today.

A personal investigation made by Dr. Hawkins and other unit members, disclosed the ticks are even now infesting the sage sections surrounding Twin Falls. In one of the tests to determine whether or not ticks existed, a white handkerchief, merely brushed against a sage brush bush, resulted in four ticks clinging to its surface.

Four Months Worst

During four months of the year in particular, more persons come down with Rocky Mountain spotted fever than at any other time, records kept at the health unit reveals. Two of these months are April and May, the others being in the late summer and fall, namely August and September.

In some years, such as 1935, the cases of the fever started sooner, being reported first in March. During the first 10 months of 1936, 30 cases of the disease were reported, and during the same time 10 deaths were attributed to the disease. This number shows a mortality rate of one death for every three cases reported.

The state department of public health is of the opinion that at least twice the number of cases were contracted in the state than were reported. Cooperation of all private physicians in reporting each case immediately is urged to the end that the disease may be better controlled through quick action, Dr. Hawkins said.

Quotes Authority

In line with asking cooperation of private physicians in reporting the disease, Dr. Hawkins quoted from a letter received from R. R. Parker, director of the United States public health service Rocky Mountain laboratory located at Hamilton, Mont., as follows:

"Each year a considerable number of infections occur following tick bite which cannot be diagnosed as cases of any of the known tick-caused diseases. Very few of these illnesses are reported, and it is earnestly requested that physicians who encounter such cases will furnish this laboratory with as complete clinical histories as possible, and, if feasible send blood samples taken during acute illness and again during early convalescence."

All tick serum used in this section of the United States and Idaho is obtained, free of charge, from the Hamilton laboratories. At the present time, Dr. Hawkins said, private physicians of Twin Falls county have been supplied with enough serum to immunize over 200 cases. There is still a supply on hand at the unit offices here.

Urges Serum

"It is suggested that all who live in the areas where they might be exposed to the tick bite, or who plan trips into these areas, or whose work takes them there, be immunized. Now is the time to have this done as from two to three doses of the serum are administered at weekly intervals and several weeks are required before maximum immunity is developed," Dr. Hawkins said.

SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS 54,000

Officials Announce Aid to Adults and Children in Idaho

BOISE, April 1 (UPI)—Idaho social security officials announced today that more than 54,000 men, women and children in the state are benefitting directly under the social security act.

All ten provisions of the act are in operation in the state, it was said. Among the beneficiaries of the act, 40,000 are covered by the unemployment compensation provisions of the act, and 14,370 are being cared for under approved public assistance plans.

Wage earners applying for accounts under the old age benefits program total 52,068. Most of these are also covered by the state unemployment compensation law.

In the year since federal funds became available under the social security act, Idaho has taken steps for full participation in all provisions.

The state is now receiving federal cooperation and financial assistance in plans covering unemployment compensation, aid to the needy aged, the blind, dependent children; maternal and child health services; services for crippled children; child welfare services; vocational rehabilitation, and public health service.

IDAHO ASKS FOR $502,000 BONDS

Money to Be Used to Finance Blackfoot, Nampa, Orofino State Institutions

BOISE, April 1 (UPI)—The state board of examiners has decided to authorize the state treasurer to sell $502,000 in bonds to the Idaho department of finance at 3 1/2 per cent interest.

The bond issue, authorized by the last legislature to provide funds for the Blackfoot asylum, the Nampa state school and colony, and the Orofino state mental hospital, will be put on the books as of July 1. Reason for not advertising the sale of bonds for outside purchase, Secretary of State Ira Masters said, was to keep the interest in the state. In this manner, it will go from one

Special Course Will Be Given At University to Picked School Students

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO (Special)—A limited number of the best high school musicians in the state will be selected by May 15 for the high school music course which has been a popular feature of University summer sessions for the past three years.

Application blanks recently were sent out by the university music department to high schools. Students chosen will play in a demonstration band and orchestra under Harold Bachman, director of bands at the University of Chicago. He has developed an excellent plan for training high school musicians and demonstrating his methods to music supervisors. The coming summer will be his fourth at Idaho.

High school students in his demonstration groups will have the benefit of four weeks intensive study under one of the best men in the country. Several Idaho music men will conduct sectional rehearsals. All the high school students will be given a course in music appreciation by D. Sterling Wheelwright, assistant director of the Tabernacle choir, Salt Lake City.

Dates for the 30-day high school course are June 15 to July 9, or all but two weeks of the regular summer session. The high school musicians will live in university dormitories under faculty supervision. A recreational and entertainment program will be provided for them.

PARIS, (via London), April 1 (U.P.)—The European race for armaments is also a race in the output of human beings—potential cannon fodder in a future war.

Behind the staggering expenditures and tremendous building programs of these nations as France, Italy and Germany lies a determined effort to step up the birth rate.

In the case of France, the declining birth rate causes acute pre-occupation. The rate of 16 per 1,000, compared to 19 per 1,000 before the World war means, according to statistics, that France's population in 1940 will be 44,000,000 compared to Germany's 80,000,000 if the present ratio continues. It is Germany that France chiefly fears.

Attempts Birth Increase

By propaganda and numerous methods of subsidization, France is trying to increase births. Direct state subsidies range from 120 francs ($24.00) for the third child to 540 francs ($108.00) for the fifth. In addition there are subsidies by department (political subdivisions) reduction of taxes, reduction of railway fares for large families, allowances in water, electricity and gas rates, insurance, aid for unmarried mothers and their children and measures against abortion and social diseases.

Meanwhile, the building race goes on. The most radical departure of the French program is the decision, upon expiration of the Washington naval treaties at the end of December, to construct the third most powerful navy in the world as a reply to re-birth of the German navy and the rise of Italy's naval and air power in the Mediterranean.

Three-Year Program

To that end, a three-year emergency building program is proposed which will cost 12,000,000,000 francs ($2,400,000,000), enabling the construction of 250,000 tons and bringing total tonnage to 85,000 after overage vessels are retired.

The naval appropriation budget this year reached 4,400,000,000 francs, ($880,000,000) of which about one-half was emergency budgeting.

The chief features are resumption of the building of 35,000-ton battleships after 12 years' neglect; efforts to bring the submarine strength to the largest in the world and concentration on speedy cruisers and destroyers.

France already possesses the world's largest submarine, the Surcouf, of 2,380 tons, mounting two eight-inch guns. France also has the world's fastest cruisers and destroyers.

Hold Speed Record

The 7,500-ton cruiser La Galissoniere holds the world speed record in her class and the destroyer Terrible holds the world record of 49 1/2 knots.

In the capital ship class, the 28,500-ton Dunkerque was designed as the first reply to Germany's pocket battleships and is claimed to be far superior to them in fighting capacity. Another similar ship, the Strasbourg, is about to be launched.

Two 35,000-ton battleships, the Richelieu and Jean Bart, are under construction. The new emergency program envisages two more 35,000-ton ships, a 20,000-ton aircraft carrier, two first class cruisers, 12 submarines, three destroyers and other units bringing the probable number of ships on the program to 39, besides two new naval aviation squadrons.

Conscript Lengthened

Conscript service in the navy has been increased by six months.

The primary objective of France's navy is to assure freedom of passage from her north African empire across the western Mediterranean in the event of war, to provide access to the reservoir of native manpower in Tunis, Algeria and Morocco.

Although France possesses inexhaustible resources of iron, most of her coal requirements, and is practically self-supporting in food stuffs, she is woefully lacking in oil and gasoline, on which the mobility of armies depends.

Powerful on Continent
Furthermore, France is largely dependent on important metals and minerals such as nitrates, copper, zinc, manganese, nickel and tin, used in munitions manufacturing. She is greatly inferior to Germany in the chemical industry, although it is being expanded by high tariffs and generous governmental subsidies.

On that basis, taking into account all factors, including her system of alliances, her reservoir of trained reserves and pool of manpower in her "empire of 100,000,000," her supplies of raw materials, her industrial organization, her present and rising land, naval and air strength, her immense gold reserves—largest in the world except for the United States—France is at least as powerful, for the time being, as any nation on the continent.

Lack of Proper Food Causes Deer Deaths

PAYETTE, Idaho, April 1 (U.P.)—Deer in the Payette forest are dying because of a lack of natural food, W. B. Rice, forest supervisor, reported. Counts of the animals by forest service employees showed a substantial reduction in the number of deer. Natural forage is being overgrazed, and the animals are eating pine needles, it was said.

MARKET ROUTES REBUILDING SEEN

Highway Bureau Maps Most Used Farm Roads in State for Refurbishing

BOISE, April 1 (U.P.)—Extensive state participation in federal highway planning operations with the purpose of selecting logical farm market roads for refurbishing was announced this week by the bureau of highways.

One of 40 states participating in the federal highway planning program, Idaho had representatives this week at a meeting with federal men in Ogden, Utah.

Pointed out there was the fact that throughout the year, men have been checking all roads in the state for travel volume in an effort to map out a system of market routes which would include all the populous and productive centers of the state.

Working in eight hour shifts, highway workers have taken up positions at junctions of county roads, and at midway points, to check number of cars and trucks passing over the thoroughfare.

Then the routes have been mapped, with legends designating volume of travel on each particular road for each part of that road checked. These maps have been turned into the highway director's office, there to be used in determination of a road building and refinishing program.

Scientifically arranged and marked, the maps offer conclusive evidence as to most highly traveled market roads. Not only market roads are recorded, but intercommunicating lines are also checked and scheduled.

Cabins at Jerome Unique in Nation

Work Completed on New Court in City Center

JEROME, April 1 (Special)—With work recently completed, the Crystal DeLuxe Cottage court of this city is the only such court built in the United States at this time which complies with all Federal Housing administration specifications in regard to floor plans, ventilation, heating and other items. It was revealed here through information received by the builders, Mr. and Mrs. John Lindsey.

The court consists of 16 cottages, each containing two or three large rooms with hardwood floors, de luxe beds, electric refrigerators, a compact kitchen, hot and cold water and private bath. It is located in the heart of the Jerome business district.

The cabins are complete even to extensive landscaping. The landscaping includes evergreen trees, Juniper, Spiny Creek, Colorado Blue spruce, Black Hill spruce; ornamental trees—Floweran's crab, Hawthorne and Japanese flowering cherry; shade trees—mountain ash, white ash, horse chestnut, black walnut and elm.

COUNTY ASSIGNS PLUMBING WORK

Lets Contract on Building To House Health Unit and Other Agencies

Plumbing contract for improvement to the recently purchased building at 260 Second avenue east, which will house the county health unit, the ICRA offices, the WPA sewing project and the PWA canning kitchen, has been let to the Fair Plumbing and Heating company of Twin Falls on a low bid of $1,249.15, county commissioners said today.

This plumbing contract is primarily for the health unit section of the building, which will be located in the front three-quarters of the ground floor.

The report submitted to the county auditor's office by the commissioners shows other bids were submitted by the Home Plumbing company and Krengel's Hardware and Machine works.

The initial contract for remodeling of the downstairs of the building went to Herman Schurger of Twin Falls on a bid of $640. Work started last week.

BROAD ALL-YEAR RECREATION PROGRAM URGED HERE

COMMUNITY STEP SEEN NECESSARY

Report By Committee Finds Action Would Benefit Local Youth

Advocacy of a broad program calling for an all year around community recreational program which will provide for all ages and all economic groups was revealed here today with completion of a comprehensive youth survey report for the City of Twin Falls. The report took three months to complete.

The assembled data, in report form, will be presented at a public meeting called for Tuesday at 8 p. m., at the Park hotel. The meeting is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce with a view of taking the assembled facts and suggestions and molding from them a program designed to aid the entire community. A special youth committee will be appointed by the Chamber to work on the newly suggested program.

The survey was made by a committee of seven local citizens representing the home, the church, the school, character building organizations and the community at large. Members of that committee, and the groups they represent, include Rev. J. S. Butler as chairman, representing the churches; Harold A. Salisbury, relief groups; I. E. Joslyn, ex-officio chairman of the Twin Falls Scout district; Mrs. W. A. Van Engelen, girls' organizations; Mrs. J. R. Nelson, Parent-Teacher association; C. R. Sherwood, men's organizations; W. E. Nixon, boys' organizations.

The survey was made, the report states, to bring to light existing conditions of the youth of Twin Falls and to suggest methods of improving conditions where they were found to be undesirable.

"Your committee appreciates the fundamental places in the lives of young people of the home, the church, the school, and the character building agencies which mainly work through these institutions or other interested or sponsored groups. In addition your committee further recognizes the growing importance of the community as a whole in this responsibility to youth, and wishes to point out the necessity for community action to round out a youth program for all age groups available under all economic conditions.

Urges Centralization

"It may be said here that while much of the community program may be initiated by various civic-minded groups, that the correlation of the various phases and the final administration should probably be the responsibility of a strong continuing force such as the city government.

"This most emphatically does not relieve the other groups, institutions and organizations of their prime responsibilities in carrying on as never before with the splendid work they are already doing and extending their efforts to reach a constantly increasing number of young people," the report states in part.

The report further states that "because of broken homes, indifference or incapable parents; because of crowded conditions of the schools and the tremendous teacher load as well as the fact that schools are open only about nine months of the

University Scientist to Seek New Arctic Island

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 1 (U.P.)—An Arctic island where Eskimo children subsist on animal fats and seal oil and never suffer tuberculosis drew the attention today of Dr. Vistor Levine, Creighton university scientist, who is seeking a cure for the disease.

He announced he would accompany Father Bernard J. Hubbard, the "glacier priest-explorer" to the northland this spring.

Their laboratory will be lonely King Island, off the northernmost tip of Alaska. Father Hubbard is going there to study the Eskimos means of travel across ice floes. He is planning an expedition in 1940 farther north, in search of an undiscovered land that he believes lies somewhere between Alaska and the north pole. In 18 months he hopes to learn from King Island Eskimos the best modes of traveling across the Arctic wastes to his goal.

Dr. Levine, who received Columbia university's award for outstanding service to humanity, will spend his time on the island studying the natives' diet. Seal oil, one of the chief items, is rich in vitamin D and the doctor thinks there may be some connection between that and the lack of tuberculosis among the people.

Father Hubbard is pursuing a theory that the northern flight of birds from Alaska proves the existence of land to the north. He has obtained one clue in the discovery of the body of a drowned Eskimo on the north Alaska coast. The Eskimo wore clothes that have been obsolete in Alaska for 200 years, indicating that he may have lived beyond the sphere of the white man's influence.

The expedition will sail from Seattle May 20. Kenneth Chisholm, former Santa Clara university student; Edgar Levin, San Francisco, and Bernard Stanley, Santa Clara undergraduate, will accompany the priest and scientist.

Among the "needs" found by the committee, and which will be presented Tuesday evening are the following:

- (1) The need for more sponsoring institutions to provide opportunities for young people to take part in the programs.
- (2) The need for a better understanding, not only of the objectives of these programs, but the ways in which the objectives are obtained.
- (3) The Girl Reserves have need for a room in which they can hold their meetings, preferably where they may hold luncheons, inasmuch as many of the girls live out of the city and must take the buses to and from school.

(4) A suggestion has been made that any persons having appropriate meeting places available for small groups be urged to communicate with the proper authorities and offer these facilities for their use.

In regard to the community, the committee found the need for a correlating force in the development of the youth program and the need for an all-year-around community recreational program which will provide for all ages and all economic groups.

The committee also found a definite need for meeting places or social centers for young people and need for a new library building.

Not Athletics Alone

In connection with the report, and included in it, it is stated that by a community recreational program it is not intended to mean only athletic contests. It is to include mental, social, spiritual and moral training as well.

Four committees firmly believe that the future of Twin Falls and the nation depend every bit as much, if not more, on the opportunities of youth today than on the more tangible and commonly recognized civic and economic improvements that are being so carefully and successfully accomplished," the report states.

COPPER WORKERS GET WAGE RAISE

10,000 Arizona Miners Have Fourth 5 Per Cent Boost In Six Months

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 1 (U.P.)—A skyrocketing metal market brought more than 10,000 Arizona copper miners their fourth 5 per cent wage raise in six months today.

The new scale, apparently agreed on by all the state's copper producers, was $5 a day for lowest paid "top" workers; $5.40 minimum underground; $5.70 machine men; $6 timber men; $6.40 jiggers.

Concern over the copper boom which carried export metal to 17 cents yesterday was expressed by P. C. Beckett, vice president of Phelps Dodge.

"The question may be asked," he said, "how much of it because of unpredictable armament demands and speculation, which may collapse any time."

U. S. Builds 10 Radio Stations To Aid Aircraft

WASHINGTON, April 1 (U.P.)—The bureau of air commerce, speeding its program for expanding and modernization of the nation's airways, has 10 new-type radio stations under construction, the United Press learned today.

Seven of the new stations expected to be in operation before mid-summer, are being erected at points which have been without any kind of radio facilities before.

Five of them are being installed along the Nashville-Washington airway. One is being set up at Enterprise, Utah, on the Los Angeles-Salt Lake City route and another at Mullian Pass, Idaho, near where at least two fatal airline crashes occurred in recent months.

The new stations are of the simultaneous range type. They broadcast weather reports and the beam course signal at the same time.

When snow has just the right consistency, the wind sometimes rolls in into cylinder-shaped masses known as "snow rollers," which increase in size as they roll along.

It was at this meeting attended by representatives of organizations interested in youth, that the investigating committee was formed.

Abo was arrested in connection with the stabbing of another Japanese.

FORTY-EIGHT "MASTER" GOLFERS TEE OFF AT AUGUSTA

SMALL FIELD TO START PLAY FOR ANNUAL TOURNEY

Cooper, Snead, Smith, Picard Sarazan Head Threats For Title

By STUART CAMERON United Press Sports Editor
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 1 (U.P.)—Forty-eight "master" golfers tee off today in the opening round of the Augusta National Golf championship.

This year's tourney, fourth of the annual "masters" tournaments, has a relatively small field but includes virtually all the top golfers of the country. Bobby Jones will make his annual emergence from retirement.

Choose Six
Betting circles have picked about six linksmen as most likely to succeed, but actually the tourney is as open as the next presidential race.

Some like Harry Cooper who was nosed out of the title a year ago but who has been raking in the shekels in winter season competition. Others heavily played are Sam Snead, the youngster from White Sulphur Springs; defending champion Horton Smith; Henry Picard, the tall boy from Hershey, Pa., and Gene Sarazan, the Little Italian who will be a threat as long as he brings his sticks to a golf course.

Bet on Jones
Georgians, especially the Atlanta crowd, are planking down a large number of sentimental dollars on the chances of Robert T. Jones, who thinks they are wrong. His betting price is 12 to 1.

"There are a lot of good bets in the field," Bob said, "so they might try some of them instead of me; I'm just playing ordinary golf, and maybe not that good."
The show starts at noon when Jimmy Thomson and Sam Snead tee off. The ability of these two sluggers should make their two-one an engaging one.

But Where, Oh Where, Would He Get THAT Punch?

Jimmy Braddock is still the world heavyweight champion after knocking out Joe Louis in the 13th round of their scheduled winner-take-all 15-round bout staged "secretly" last night before a select gathering of 500 wealthy sportsmen in a barn near Stamford, Conn. Louis is shown here hitting the deck for the third, and last, time. Braddock, towering above him, was floored four times during the early part of the bout, but took command after the eighth. Each of the millionaire spectators paid $1,000 to see the battle, which was savagely fought throughout. Don't you believe it? Well, you don't have to if you don't want. But we must have our fun. It's only APRIL FOOL!

Mac Hurries South After Receiving Wire Telling Him He is "Short Stop"

By HENRY McLEMORE

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., April 1 (U.P.)—Two days ago this wire was delivered to me in New York as I sat at my desk wondering just how long it had been since I had licked the dasher of an ice cream freezer.

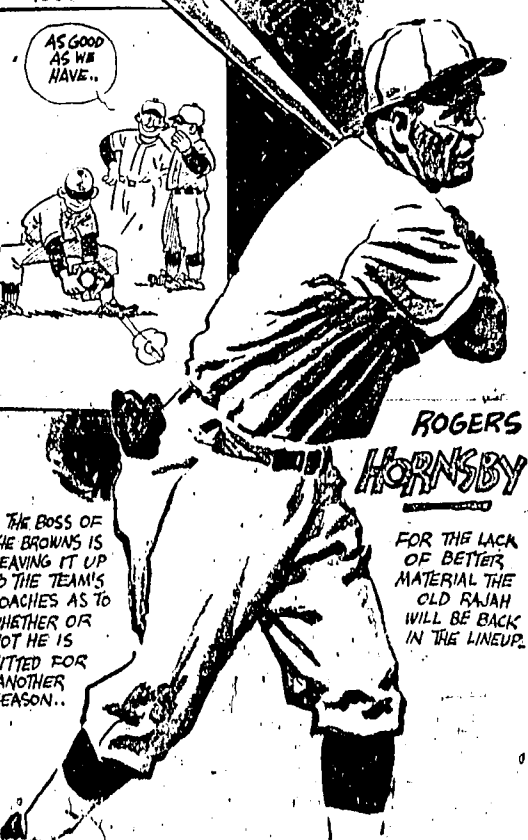

"You are short stop better hurry it," (Signed Frank). The wire was from Daytona Beach. The St. Louis Cardinals train in that city. And the manager of the Cardinals is named Frank, the same Frank Frisch who refused to meet my demands when I was a rookie with the Cardinals forcing me to become a hold-out.

The wire, it seemed to me, could mean but one thing and it chased the thoughts of ice cream dashers out of my head. Frisch had surrendered. He wanted me to hurry south and start playing shortstop for St. Louis. And to show that he felt no bitterness he had simply signed his last name to the wire.

My heart sang as I packed ready to take a plane within the hour which would rush me to the aid of those who needed me. I could once again feel screaming hunts coming off my bat. I could feel the ball slipping through my fingers. I could almost hear the roar of the crowd as I was taken out for a pinch hitter.

These were my feelings in New York and they were still my feelings when I reached Daytona Beach this morning. With Frank's wire clutched in my hand I hurried to the ball park

STUDEBAKER FIVE CLIMBS TO LEAD

Defeats Times to Edge Into First Place; Electrics Nip Safeways

Studebaker climbed into first place ahead of Dell's by a narrow edge in the Commercial bowling league today as a result of a clean sweep last night against the Evening Times, which last week started the first place shake-up by tumbling Slatkin's out of undisputed lead and paving the way for the current scramble.

Electric Motor annexed two out of three over Safeway in the City League.

Ted Emerick's 522 and 214 led the night's performances. Harper's 476 was high series in the City loop, and Dan Pfaff's 191 took high game.

The scores:

Plays Again

Once a year Bobby Jones, the miracle man of golf, returns to active competition. Today he is scheduled to participate in the annual Augusta national Masters tourney against the high-ranking players of the game. See column 1, this page for story.

STRIKES TO SPARE WITH FRED STONE

For the first time this season Studebaker now leads the pack by the narrow margin of three percentage points over Dell's.

Studebaker had overdrive really working as they drove over the Times for three in a row.

Ted Emerick, high man with 522. His second game of 214 was also high single game; one double and a turkey that session.

Art Boone, with four strikes in a row to finish his last game for a score of 209, crowded Ted for his high single. Art didn't do so well his other two games.

Bob McCracken just barely went over the top, his three games. Bob got a 204 for single game, getting it his first try. He picked up two splits in a row to start that game.

Gail Fargo got a turkey his first game. He had a bad night of it with six splits, four of them coming his third game.

Ralph Brown also had plenty of splits, six for him. Four of his came in his first game. A turkey to end his last session.

Jimmie Mullen led the Times boys with 488. James got a turkey in both his first and second games. He had picked up his spares, what a total he could have had—as he got plenty of strikes.

One double was about the sum total of Al Westergren's strikes. Bill Parish was under the dog house.

Harper led the City league with 476 for high three games. Not a double was collected for the Safeway boys.

Dan Pfaff led the City league with 191 for high single his first game. Two doubles in it.

Art Mingo got one double and Cap Emerick got one. Cliff also got the only turkey for the City boys, ending his second game with three in a row.

Y.

John Hubbell was sent to Greenwood, Miss., Les Powers to Baltimore on option, and Tom Ferrick, Bill Benne, Bill Yarewick and Jim Sheehan to Richmond, Wayne Black and Paul Carpenter were sent to Pensacola. CARDS PLAY DODGERS
CLEARWATER, Fla., April 1 (U.P.)—Despite the loss of 11 out of 15 training games, Manager Frank Frisch was optimistic over St. Louis' prospects today. SPORT SQUIBS
(by H. J. W.)

For all you young and aspiring wrestlers who may want to become a world champion of sports, we are in receipt of a sheaf of entry blanks for the national wrestling championships, to be staged at Ogden during the Pioneer days celebration—which is July 10-22, this year.

The wrestling tourney is sponsored by the WPA wrestling—parade us, we mean recreation—association.

After reading the entry blank, we have reversed our opinion of the wrestling profession. If all of the mat artists have to read blanks like the one we have on our desk—then they are an exceptionally intelligent group of people, and not only that, they are experienced penmen, because the ordinary person couldn't put in all the answers without getting the writer's "cramp."

After signing away everything he may have or expect to get, between now and the time of the tournament, the applicant is asked his name, his father's name, his mother's name, his guardian's name; then the contestant's name (his own name again).

Then follows his weight and age and after that comes the signing of the wrestler's name (his name again), his father's and mother's names and the guardian's name.

If the applicant's head is still clear after all that, he wades through something like this:

"In consideration of your accepting my entry and PERMITTING me to attend or participate therein, I hereby, for myself, my heirs, (this must be a rough tournament), executors, and administrators, waive and release any and all rights and claims for damages I may now or in the future, have against Ogden city, a municipal corporation, Pioneer Days, Incorporated, and James Cleary (whoever that is), their or either of their representatives, agents, members, or assigns for all losses and injuries suffered by me, directly or indirectly, in training for or in going to or coming from, or in competing in or attending, the said championship wrestling tournament. . . . And so on, far into the night.

"All we got to say is that if any wrestler was made to read that last sentence before he went to the mat, he would be so dizzy, out of breath and weak, that his opponent would think the promoters had made a mistake and sent Gandhi into the ring—without his shirt.

P.S.—The above tournament is only an amateur affair, where the boys are not supposed to be rough.

MINERS TO ACQUIRE TAN

BERLIN (U.P.)—German miners soon may be able to acquire a seaside holiday tan while at work, and at the expense of employers. The Nazi party's health department put forward the proposal that every mine should be equipped with artificial sunlight lamps to give regular ray treatment.

Week At The Capitol

By DAVE JOHNSON

BOISE, April 1 (UP)—Newspaper men this week were smarting under a gubernatorial reprimand, Governor Barzilla Clark, in a radio address, criticized the press for making too much of the Taylor-Stemmer battle.

Nevertheless, chief journalists interested at the capital centered around Joe Stemmer, working without pay since January, Attorney General J. W. Taylor put a stop order on the Taylor exchange, and instead of his $300 per month, the director of highways has been drawing a blank.

It seemed that Taylor's strategy was beginning to work when Stemmer sighed, said, "They're getting a lot of cheap help around here. I am tired of working for nothing."

Taylor previously declared, "I'll run Stemmer out of office." Method of doing this, it seemed, was tying up the road boss's check indefinitely. Taylor believed Stemmer would quit if not paid, thus making court proceedings unnecessary.

Stemmer, however loath he might be to quit under fire, indicated in an interview that he "couldn't hold out much longer." Asked if he had any plans for future work should he quit the highway department, he replied, "I haven't given it much thought."

The case should be decided next week, observers said. As about that time, Stemmer's ire, apparently slow to rise, should have reached the boiling point.

But what would happen to plans for an $8,000,000 highway building and renovation program should Stemmer take his hat, close his office door, and walk out, was debated. April 5 is the date for a conference with state and federal engineers over Idaho's program for the biennium.

Stemmer said: "The program doesn't revolve around me, they could get someone else." Who, however, was not indicated. The present highway director is busily making plans for the conference, and seems to have a quite definite program laid out.

At the same time, Attorney General Taylor found opportunity to throw another appointment puzzle into the limelight. He declared that the term of M. Reese Hattabaugh, public utilities commissioner member had expired early in January, and that Hattabaugh wasn't connected with the department any longer.

Governor Clark declined to comment on the matter of appointment with his usual, "I haven't given the subject any thought." Said executive Secretary James Shinn, "Hattabaugh is still a member of the commission. The governor hasn't appointed anyone else."

But Taylor's opinion insists that Hattabaugh is "out."

Along with his Hattabaugh opinion, came refutation of the legality of senate bill 21, duly passed and signed by the governor. The bill, raising age limit for purchase of beer from 18 to 21, was no good, Taylor said, because of errors in the title of the amending act.

Meanwhile, up in the motor fuel division, operators pointed to increasing demands for tax refunds, alleged misconduct among farmers, said, "This must stop."

DRIVER, 91, GIVES TIPS

PUEBLO, Colo. (UP)—If you want to avoid collisions "keep your feet near the brakes," is the advice of Frank Berham, 91, who has driven an automobile 100,000 miles without an accident. Berham is the oldest licensed driver in Colorado. He came to Colorado in an ox-drawn prairie schooner.

The bureau of agricultural economics estimates the 1936 cranberry crop at 530,000 barrels.

BASQUE PROTEST GOES TO VATICAN

Leader of Loyalists Claims He is Justified to Call Religious War

By RALPH HEINZEN (Copyright, 1937, United Press)

BILBAO, Spain, April 1 (UP)—The loyalist Basque government has protested to the Vatican against assassinations by nationalists of Roman Catholic priests supporting the loyalist cause, President Jose Antonio de Aguirre announced today.

Aguirre also broadcast an appeal both to the Vatican and to the Roman Catholic hierarchy to raise voice of the church in vigorous protest against the use by the nationalists of Moors against loyalist Catholics.

Himself an ardent Catholic like most Basques, Aguirre announced his protest to the Vatican in an interview with the United Press. On his desk as he spoke was a tall ebony and gold crucifix.

He promised there would be complete freedom of religion in the Basque provinces—the provinces of Bascaye, Navarre, Alava and Guipuzcoa in the north bordering on the bay of Biscay and France.

He said he thought his government was justified, in its bid for men, in calling a holy war by all Catholics against nationalists for their use of Moors.

Flout Westerners
"Black infidel forces have been brought to Spain by those who in their madness have taken the religion of Christ as a war banner. They call themselves successors of the Christian knights who fought against the Moors and finally expelled them from Spain."

"Now they have flouted western civilization by bringing back the Moors as their allies to kill other Spaniards."

"Reports of those assassinations have been sent to the Holy See."

The program of the Basque government, Aguirre said, includes redistribution of the wealth and the breaking up of big landed estates to provide farms for the poor. He promised respect for social and individual rights, freedom of worship, and security for members of religious orders and their property.

HAGERMAN, April 1 (Special)—Approximately 40,000 head of ewes and feeder lambs wintered in Hagerman valley are now being moved rapidly onto the desert south of Snake river, the first step of the journey to the summer range.

Despite the extreme cold of the lambing season sheepmen report an average lamb yield. The extreme cold reduced the muddy season. Feed on the desert is reported scarce and at least three weeks later than usual. Water is being hauled to the sheep.

Shearing was finished here recently and all the wool in the valley was reported sold at satisfactory prices.

PRICE OF WHEAT TAKES 1 C LOSS

CHICAGO, April 1 (U.P.)—Estimates on the domestic winter wheat crop averaging 136,000,000 bushels over last year's production, combined with weakness in foreign markets, forced wheat prices down for net losses of better than a cent a bushel on the Chicago board of trade today.

At the close wheat was 1/2c to 1 1/2c lower; new corn 1/2c lower to 1 1/2c higher; old corn 1 1/2c lower to 1 cent higher, and oats 1/2c lower to 1 cent higher.

A sharp break at Liverpool following the setback at Buenos Aires yesterday checked buying enthusiasm at the opening here. Losses were extended when local statisticians issued crop estimates ranging from 616,000,000 bushels to 690,000,000 bushels.

Corn was unsettled and closed with net losses of fractions to a point. Commission house buying appeared on a nearby break and final prices were somewhat above the day's low marks. Oats ruled easy along with corn while rye declined one to two cents.

THEATERS

Joe E. Brown at Orpheum

Your old friend, Joe E. Brown, gallops into the Orpheum theater tomorrow in the latest and laffiest of all his Warner Bros. starring vehicles, "Polo Joe." Joe has been almost everything in the sports world—prize fighter, racer, circus clown, high jumper, bike rider, hooper, acrobat—and now he comes as a synthetic polo player.

"The Sea Spoilers" Plays Roxy Theater

You will have an opportunity to see for the first time on the screen the heroic avventure that cost guard engages in, almost every day in the year, in its crusade against smuggling, seal poaching and other illicit enterprises, when Universal's "The Sea Spoilers" opens at the Roxy theater tomorrow.

It is a new and vigorous type of role for the talents of John Wayne and he plays it to the hilt, supported by Nan Grey, Fuzzy Knight and William Bakewell.

"Top Hat" with Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire ends at the Roxy tonight.

SCOUTS SEEKING FREE AIR RIDES

Aviation Merit Badge Contest Resulting in Construction Of Model Planes

Many homes in Twin Falls today are the scene of construction of model airplanes and box kites as Boy Scouts of the district strive to qualify for one of the three free airplane trips being offered to the first three completing and successfully meeting the requirements relative to attainment of a Scout aviation merit badge.

The awards will be 45 minute, 30 minute and 15 minute flights with W. H. (Pete) Hill, local transport pilot who taught Charles A. Lindbergh to fly and who has had 22 years of aviation experience.

The contest, which closes with the next Twin Falls district board of review scheduled April 14, is sponsored by the Evening Times, the Boy Scouts of America, Mr. Hill and W. H. (Wild Bill) Weber, local pilot who is donating his plane for the rides.

Full particulars regarding the contest have been made available to each Scoutmaster and additional copies can be secured at Scout offices.

Council to Hear Ordinance Facts

City Attorney Confers With Boise Officials

Findings made by City Attorney George Paulson regarding the Boise closing ordinance will be presented to the city council Monday night, it was announced here today.

Paulson conferred yesterday with Thornton D. Wyman, city attorney of Boise, regarding the ordinance and other matters. It has been suggested by various merchants that some sort of an opening and closing ordinance be adopted in Twin Falls but no requests to this effect have been made to the council and they have taken no action on the matter, it is explained.

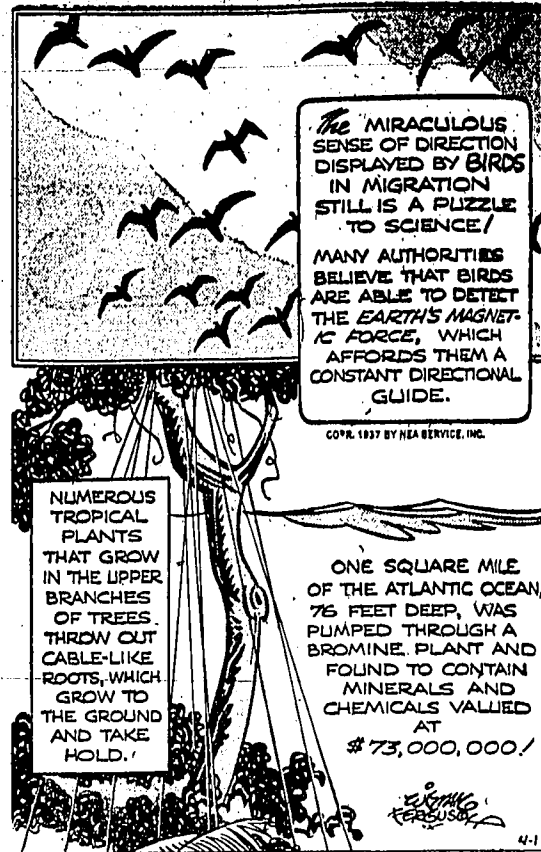

Circulars to ascertain the attitude of the various merchants are expected to be sent out in the near future by the Chamber of Commerce merchants' bureau.

BIRTHS

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

The 'MIRACULOUS SENSE OF DIRECTION DISPLAYED BY BIRDS IN MIGRATION STILL IS A PUZZLE TO SCIENCE! MANY AUTHORITIES BELIEVE THAT BIRDS ARE ABLE TO DETECT THE EARTH'S MAGNETIC FORCE, WHICH AFFORDS THEM A CONSTANT DIRECTIONAL GUIDE.

COPY, 1937 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

NUMEROUS TROPICAL PLANTS THAT GROW IN THE UPPER BRANCHES OF TREES, THROW OUT CABLE-LIKE ROOTS, WHICH GROW TO THE GROUND AND TAKE HOLD.

ONE SQUARE MILE OF THE ATLANTIC OCEAN, 76 FEET DEEP, WAS PUMPED THROUGH A BROMINE PLANT AND FOUND TO CONTAIN MINERALS AND CHEMICALS VALUED AT $73,000,000!

It remains beyond human understanding how birds can find their directions in long-distance migration. None of the known senses seems to explain the phenomenon. Several tests have been made which do give some basis to the belief that birds can detect the earth's magnetic lines of force.

I HAVE PLENTY, BOYS...

...IN THESE DAYS, FOLKS DON'T BRING IN THEIR SHOES UNTIL THEY'RE PRETTY WELL WORN OUT!

GIVE US EVERY PAIR YOU HAVE, PLEASE... THE SHERIFF WANTS THEM!

HERE THEY ARE! WHAT'RE YOU GONNA DO WITH 'EM?

WE'RE GONNA TRY TO FIND A PAIR THAT WILL FIT THOSE MYSTERIOUS FOOTPRINTS ON PINE STREET!

WE THINK WE'RE ON THE RIGHT TRACK! THE FOOTPRINTS INDICATE THAT THE SOLE OF THE SHOE THAT MADE THEM, WASN'T ALL THERE!

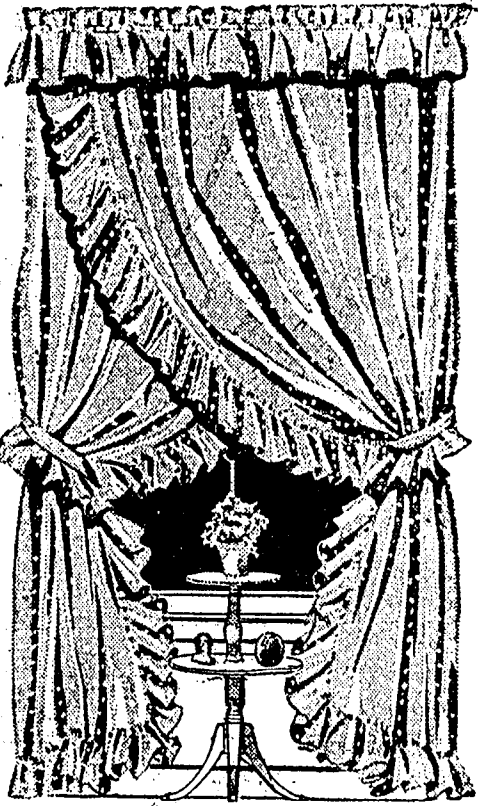

AND I DON'T THINK THE OWNER OF 'EM WAS, EITHER!
