Mother Sets Law On Husband of Her Daughter, Aged 10

Thirteen hours after Tania Leelova, 25, above, was found dying in a New York studio near Times Square, her skull broken with a claw hammer, police took into custody for questioning Mischea Ross (below), the girl's booking agent and manager. Miss Leelova, whose real name was Julia Nusenbaum, was formerly engaged to Ross as was another girl, who was a promising violinist of concert calibre.

STRIKE TROUBLE DEVELOPS ALONG LABOR'S FRONT

Steel-Helmeted U. S. Guards Patrol Shoe Factories In Auburn, Me.

COAST RIOTS THREATEN

Announcement of Settlement Basis Expected in Oshawa, Ont.

By United Press

Labor controversy developed on widely scattered fronts again today after a week of comparative quiet. Steel-helmeted national guardsmen patrolled the shoe factory district of Auburn, Me., ending violence in a 28-day old strike of shoe workers affiliated with the committee for industrial organization. Factories prepared to reopen under a court injunction prohibiting picketing.

Rioting was threatened at Stockton, Calif., where canning factories were closed by strike at the height of the vegetable canning season. Fifteen hundred deputized citizens under Sheriff Harvey Odell offered to assist canners to operate in defiance of 1,000 strikers. Both groups were armed with pick-handles and baseball bats.

New Basis

In Oshawa, Ont., announcement of a new basis of settling the strike of workers in the General Motors plant was expected momentarily. It reportedly would call for repudiation of the CIO by the workers.

Three New York justices convicted 15 strikers and the president of their union on charges of conducting a sit-down strike in the Brooklyn Jewish hospital in defiance of an old law making it a crime to endanger life of property by refusing to work.

League at Work

The newly-formed American Labor league, incorporated under Michigan law and pledged to oppose sit-down strikes, began working to gain membership throughout the country as a competitor of the CIO.

In Washington, the American Federation of Labor executive council met secretly to consider expulsion of unions affiliated with the CIO. There was a possibility the council would summon an emergency A. F. of L. convention to consider the drastic action.

POLICE LOOK FOR WIDOW'S KILLER

East St. Louis Woman, 82, Beaten to Death With Iron Skillet

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., April 22 (UP)—Fingerprints on the handle of an iron skillet used to beat to death Mrs. Mary Wright Flannery, 82-year-old wealthy widow, were examined today in an effort to trace her assailant.

A 16-year-old boy, Albert C. Lamb, was wanted for questioning in the slaying. He was hired by Mrs. Flannery Monday through an employment agency and disappeared before the body was found in the pantry of her home.

Mrs. Flannery's skull and jaw were fractured and there were deep lacerations on the back of the head. Police said robbery was probably the motive for the attack. Bedroom dresser drawers had been ransacked.

Mother Sets Law On Husband of Her Daughter, Aged 10

MADISONVILLE, Tenn., April 22 (UP)—Annle Hamby, mountain mother of six, carried out "Unit law" today to "kill" the 32-year-old back-country farmer who married her 10-year-old daughter, and the county clerk who issued the license.

Attorney General, Beecher Witt announced that deputies would drive into the Cumberland mountains today to serve a criminal warrant on Homer Peel at the cabin where he was honeymooning with Geneva Blevins, a slight little girl in a calico dress who dips snuff and smokes cigars.

"Ah! I'd rather see my daughter in an orphanage than a girl married at her age," said the mother, who lute-biked from her home at Decatur, Tenn., when she learned of the wedding. The warrants against Peel and County Clerk Fred C. Payne were sworn under the state's "child bride" law enacted by the legislature after disclosure of the marriage of Charlie Johns, 22, another mountaineer, and nine-year-old Eunice Winstead.

One Killed, Two Injured, Two In Jail Over Woman

VIENNA, April 22 (UP)—A beautiful 27-year-old widow named Almona and Mitrovitz, Jugoslavia has lost all five of the suitors who made her the envy of the town's unmarried women, a dispatch to the newspaper Tagblatt said today. The story was that Mme. Almona, unable to decide among the suitors, suggested that they decide the matter themselves. They cast lots. The oldest won. Then, the dispatch said, Mme. Almona complained: "What a shame that it had to be the oldest." The result, it was asserted, was that the four younger suitors killed the oldest and then fought among themselves. Two were wounded seriously, the dispatch said, and the other two were arrested.

GABLE RETURNS TO COURT STAND

Woman Accuser Says Screen Star Is at Least a "Perfect Double"

LOS ANGELES, April 22 (UP)—Clark Gable, dangled screen star, returned to federal court today for the third time to testify at the trial of Mrs. Violet Wells Norton, charged with misuse of the mails in attempting to prove the husky actor was father of her child.

The middle-aged Canadian woman remained quietly at the counsel table during most of the morning but during a court recess took occasion to affirm her belief that Gable was the man she sought and qualified the remark.

"If Gable and Frank Billings (the name under which she knew her child's father, he's his perfect double). The government introduced in evidence a birth certificate showing that 14-year-old Gwendoline Norton's birth had been acknowledged by Herbert James Norton on June 16, 1923, who signed the certificate listing him as the father.

DEMONSTRATIONS CONDEMN WARS

Attendances Disappointing At National Peace Gatherings

NEW YORK, April 22 (UP)—Student demonstrations condemning war were held throughout the country today in the fourth annual anti-war "strike," but in many instances attendances were distinctly disappointing to the United Student Peace committee which had predicted that 1,000,000 persons would participate.

Rain drenched New York City and it drastically under the 40,000 the committee expected here. Some 2,000 demonstrators, mostly from Brooklyn college and Long Island university, met at Brough hall in Brooklyn and listened to speakers denounce war and Fascism. One speaker called upon listeners to "support the loyalists of Spain, for their victory will be the most powerful drive against war."

In Madison Square Garden in Manhattan several hundred drenched students from the college of the City of New York and a inter college heard similar appeals.

The demonstrators carried banners advocating "down with war and Fascism," "schools, not battle-ships," "keep war out of the world," "down with imperialist war."

WPA ROLLS CUT

WASHINGTON, April 22 (UP)—The works progress administration announced today that its rolls were reduced 30,772 from Feb. 27 to March 27, a total of 2,114,780. The reduction was part of the usual substantial spring cut in relief rolls. The March 27 total was 760,847 below that for the corresponding week of 1936 and 925,962 below WPA's peak employment at the end of February, 1936.

Duke Will Join Mrs. Simpson In France May 4, Report Says

PARIS, April 22 (UP)—The duke of Windsor intends to join Mrs. Wallis Simpson at the Chateau de Candie at Monts May 4, the day after the expected award of her final divorce decree, it was understood today. A motor truck containing some of the duke's baggage already has arrived at Monts, along with a British detective and one of the duke's chauffeurs. Mrs. Simpson and the duke plan to marry in the neighborhood, probably at Monts. It was understood, and to spend the first part of their honeymoon at the Chateau.

Blind Workers on Strike

On strike against low pay, members of the blind workers' union sit in City Hall park, New York, with their signs to picket Mayor LaGuardia's office in an effort to win official assistance for their cause. The signs charge they receive but $5 a week. They ask $12 and $15 minimums.

Murder Suspect Killed, State Trooper Injured in Gun Battle

UNIONTOWN, Va., April 22 (UP)—A Negro murder suspect was shot to death and a young Pennsylvania state trooper was wounded critically today in a three-hour gun battle at the little mining town of Filbert seven miles southwest of here.

Barred into a mine house, the Negro, Hamilton Lestwich, fugitive, from the Fayette county jail, shot State Trooper Joseph Hoffer, 32, then fought two hours longer before he was killed by machine gun bullets.

Hoffer, a private in the Uniontown barracks of the state police, was given blood transfusions at Uniontown hospital. He was shot twice in the abdomen and twice in the chest. Physicians gave him only a "bare chance" to recover.

Escaped From Jail Lestwich, one of the six prisoners who escaped from jail here a week ago today was cornered in the small mine house by six state policemen who trailed him to Filbert from Seabright. Lestwich was indicted in connection with the slaying of another Negro, Joe Clark.

As the troopers began to surround the house, Lestwich opened fire. The officers answered and started closing in.

When Hoffer fell, Sergeant Vincent Bunch ordered a hasty retreat and sent to Uniontown for machine guns and tear gas.

Lestwich kept up a steady fire. Later, supplied with two machine guns and large quantity of tear gas, Sergeant Bunch gave the order to "open fire." Machine gunners fired from 300 to 500 rounds, riddling the mining shack.

The troopers found Lestwich dead on the floor, 15 bullet wounds in his body. Hoffer was shot shortly after 8 o'clock. Lestwich was killed two hours later. The battle was witnessed by more than 300 persons.

Justices Convict Hospital Strikers

NEW YORK, April 22 (UP)—Trial of 38 former employees of the Jewish hospital in Brooklyn, charged with endangering life and property during a strike last month, was postponed to Monday, May 3 today after defense counsel challenged the impartiality of the court.

Seventeen persons, similarly accused, were unanimously convicted by the three justices of the court of special sessions yesterday and will be sentenced April 30. They face possible maximum sentences of 12 years each.

California Measure Asks Lethal Chamber

SACRAMENTO, Calif., April 22 (UP)—A bill to substitute a lethal gas chamber for the scaffold for execution in California was approved by the state legislature and placed on Gov. Frank P. Merriam's desk today. The bill was introduced by Sen. James B. Hobbs, recently retired warden at San Quentin prison.

Three Crafts Will Try to Deliver Food to Hungry At Bilbao, Spain

ST. JEAN DE LUZ, France, April 22 (UP)—Three British ships asked clearance papers today of the new international neutrality control agency. They sought to run the Spanish nationalist blockade with cargoes of food for hungry Bilbao. Reassured by promises of protection by British warships from attack on the high seas, the skippers and owners of the three ships determined to rely on Bilbao loyalist authorities to get them the last three miles from the limit of Spanish territorial waters to the besieged city.

The three ships are the MacGregor, which came from Bayonne, and the Harmsley and Magdalena. The captains consulted Admiral Geoffrey Blake, second in command of the British Mediterranean fleet, aboard the giant battle cruiser Hood, before they decided to ask for papers. Blake told the skippers that the navy would do nothing to hinder or help them. But they had been assured that if a nationalist warship attacked them outside the three-mile limit they were entitled to protection.

ENGLAND WILLING TO TAKE PART IN ECONOMIC MEET

Baldwin Says Country Ready If Conference Would Appear to Succeed

LONDON, April 22 (UP)—The British government is willing to participate in a world economic conference, Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin informed the house of commons today.

Baldwin said participation depends on whether investigation shows adequate preparation and likelihood of success.

Adolf Hitler of Germany told George Lansbury, British laborite, in a talk a few days ago that Germany would take part, if the conference is proposed by an outstanding governmental head such as President Roosevelt.

Position Clear

"His majesty's government has seen Herr Hitler's statement. Our position in this matter has been made clear from time to time. I may repeat it," Baldwin said. "The government of course would be willing to participate in a world conference provided thorough comprehensive investigation showed that such a conference would be likely to succeed and provided there has been adequate preparation."

Not Prepared

Arthur Henderson, Laborite, asked: "Would the government be willing to implement that statement by getting in touch with the German government in this matter?" "I am not prepared to answer hypothetical questions on this matter," Baldwin replied.

MAN BOOKED FOR DANGER MURDER

Police Arrest Bar Customer For Setting Fire to Grass Skirt

LOS ANGELES, April 22 (UP)—The death of a 22-year-old hula dancer from burns suffered when a spurned spectator touched a match to her grass skirt while she danced in a waterfront barroom, brought the arrest today of Matthew Donahue, 57.

He was booked on suspicion of murder. Police said witnesses, including barroom revelers, accused Donahue of setting fire to the girl's flimsy costume after she refused his request for a date. The girl, May Purdue, died last night.

Donahue denied setting the fire. "I was drunk," he said, "but I remember clearly that I was standing several feet away from the girl when her skirt caught fire."

Police said Donahue had asked the dancer to sit at his table but was turned down. When he re-approached her with a request for a "date," he flared into a rage, witnesses said, because he was again refused.

DEATH NEAR FOR FORMER SHERIFF

Mose E. Finch, Twin Falls Official Three Times, Dying in Indiana

Death was near today for Mose E. Finch, sheriff of Twin Falls county for three terms preceding the incumbency of E. F. Prater. Doctors at Poseyville, Ind., have given up all hope for survival of the former Twin Falls official, according to word received here today by Probate Judge Guy L. Khney. Mr. Finch is suffering from an ailment of the liver. He is 75 years of age.

The former sheriff served from 1923 to 1928 inclusive. Word concerning his condition came from Judge Khney's mother, Mrs. Henrietta Khney, resident of Crossville, Ill., 20 miles from Poseyville.

Wedgewood Seeks More Powerful Blue Sky Law

By DAVID N. JOHNSON (Copyright, 1937, United Press)

BOISE, April 22 (UP)—Securities and exchange commission investigators told United Press today that officials of the Canadian government had appealed to them for aid in investigation of a certain Idaho mining stock being sold in Alberta province.

Bruce Aitchison, of the SEC general staff, said the attorney-general of Alberta had reported "wide sales" of a questionable stock issue, and that the Canadian government had been unable definitely to establish the worth of the security.

There is some question, Aitchison said, as to whether there is actually a mine back of the stock issues. Alberta authorities have been unable, he said, to get help from the Idaho commission of finance because of the weakness of the blue sky law.

The federal men said they would conduct an exhaustive investigation of the stock in question, and would probably go to the mine to see "just what it is."

Canada Powerless The Canadian government has been powerless to stop the sale of the stock because of lack of information concerning the basis of issue. Appeals to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the "mine" is located have been fruitless, Aitchison said, and there is no provision in Idaho's blue sky statutes to permit state authorities to stop sale of the stock.

Under present state law, Idaho cannot ask registration of a new mine, nor can authorities set up a definite proof that the mine is being developed with money received from sale of stock.

Federals in Court While federal men went into court today and presented petitions for injunction against mineral development projects which have been operated without registration with the SEC, George Wedgewood, state commissioner of finance, appealed for a more powerful blue sky statute.

Wedgewood denounced the statute as "inefficient" in that it exercised absolutely no control over

LOYALISTS START OFFENSIVE DRIVE

VALENCIA, Spain, April 22 (UP)—A Pelus (Spanish) news agency dispatch from Andujar today reported that the loyalists had begun a big offensive in mid-afternoon along the whole Pozoblanco front in south-central Spain.

The dispatch said that government artillery batteries pounded the enemy strongholds along a 60-mile front from Puentevejava to Villaharta through the intermediate villages of Penarroya, Villa Nueva del Terrible, Belmez and Espiel.

The agency reported that one company of rebel infantry of some 170 men, with their non-commissioned officers and full equipment, deserted to the loyalists on the Cordoba front where the attack was in progress. This was reported to be the largest mass desertion on any front in the civil war.

51 Dead, 170 Missing From Japanese Crafts After Storm Disaster

TOKYO, April 22 (UP)—Fifty-one persons were known dead, 170 missing were believed dead and five fishing vessels were unaccounted for in the latest official check-up of the Saghalien storm disaster. Government news agency dispatches from Toyoharu said a new storm which swept the west coast of Saghalien yesterday caused 47 deaths and 57 missing persons, mostly fishermen.

Fogs covered large areas of Japan proper and the inland sea today, arranging shipping schedules and making rescue work difficult.

STRIKES TIE UP CUNARD LINERS

International Longshoremen Union Walks Out on Atlantic Coast

NEW YORK, April 22 (UP)—All piers of the Cunard White Star and Furness-Withy lines along the Atlantic coast were tied up by a strike of the International Longshoremen's association today.

Joseph L. Ryan, president of the longshoremen's union, an American Federation of Labor affiliate, announced that none of the liner ships would be served until the union was recognized at Montreal and the companies had abandoned their relationships with the national independent union, a Montreal longshoremen's organization.

Possibility of an early settlement was seen today in an announcement by J. B. Labele, president of the N. I. U., that his union was ready to affiliate with the I. L. A. "but under its own conditions."

Pending adjustment of the conflict between the two unions as to which shall serve the British lines in Montreal, Ryan ordered all American longshoremen to stop service to the lines.

Expense Curtailment Needed, Says Farley

TROY, N. Y., April 22 (UP)—Postmaster General James A. Farley told the Rensselaer county committee last night that "this country cannot continue to go on for a long time spending more than it takes in."

"Sooner or later the federal relief program will have to be curtailed," he said. "It will have to be done gradually, however, or we will be in for some difficult times in the population centers."

HEARINGS END FRIDAY WASHINGTON, April 22 (UP)—Chairman Henry F. Ashurst announced today that the senate judiciary committee hearings on the president's judiciary reorganization plan would close Friday.

FARM PROGRAM WITHERS UNDER STRICT ECONOMY ORDERS

NEW PLANS FACE CURTAILMENT BY EXPENSE CUTTING

Tenant Aid, Crop Insurance, Ever-Normal Granary May Be Hit

By FRED O. BAILEY
WASHINGTON, April 22 (U.P.)—The administration's broad farm program, planted by Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace and sprouted at conferences of farm leaders, withered today under presidential orders for strict economy.

Wallace said at a press conference that the program faced sharp curtailment as a result of President Roosevelt's budgetary plans. He said, however, that he still hoped to salvage part of it, even if on a diminished scale.

Crop Insurance Affected

Likely to be affected by the economy move are the farm tenant aid program, the ever-normal granary, crop insurance, federal purchase of sub-marginal land and production control. Money is provided for continuation of the soil conservation program on its present scale.

"If we haven't got the money to spend, why of course we'll just have to throw things overboard," Wallace said. He asserted it would seem a little difficult to go ahead with plans with the money which it now appears will be available.

House Hasn't Voted

The plan for federal insurance of wheat yield beginning in 1938 is the only major part of the program acted on by congress. The senate passed the bill calling for a $10,000,000 annual appropriation for administration and a reserve fund of $100,000,000 for payment of indemnities, if necessary. The house has not voted on the measure.

No amount of money has been estimated as necessary to put the ever-normal granary—the storing up of food and grains in good crop years for release in lean years—in effect. Wallace long has advocated such a program.

Positive production control, to prevent surpluses from glutting markets and depressing prices, also appears doomed for the present by the economy program.

ALBERTA SEEKS PROBE OF STOCK

Idaho Mining Securities Are Under Scrutiny of SEO Federal Agents

mines in the state, nor over sale of stocks.

He said that most of the fraudulent stock deals perpetrated in the state have come from the fact that stock salesmen do not have to register nor post bond.

Can't Be Sure

Wedge declared Wedgwood is there any way of knowing what is done with the money derived from the sale of stock in mineral development companies.

The stockholder cannot be sure, under the limited protection given him by present blue sky laws, that his investment is returned to the mine for further development, Wedgwood said.

The commissioner of finance urged that the next legislature "do something" about the statute. He said the law should have more "teeth" in order to enable state officials to control mines and stocks.

"Under the present law," Wedgwood said, "a little mine can spring up, thousands of dollars worth of stock can be sold, the proceeds pocketed, and the mine abandoned. Stockholders are left without any return on their investment, and the state has no way of preventing such a practice."

Criticizes Agents

Wedgwood criticized the practice of "some agents," who, he said, cared for nothing "except the commission they get for selling stock."

"The proper thing to do," he said, "would be to slap a bond on every person who sells stock so the buyers can recover, at least in part, if the stock is proven worthless."

"In this way the state of Idaho could drive out the questionable stock salesman, because their reputations would not permit them to be bonded," he said.

The commissioner said it was "easier to sell stock than to develop a mine." He said if the state could enforce mine development from real sales of stock, investors would have a greater margin of protection.

Recommendations

Wedgwood recommended:

1. A change in blue sky laws to enforce a return of 80 per cent of proceeds from stock sales to new mines for development purposes, and that operators be forced to show this had been done.
2. Licensing and bonding of stock salesmen.
3. A provision whereby the principals in a mineral project be held responsible and accountable for the actions of their salesmen.
4. That stocks and securities now exempt from regulation by the blue sky law be put under the enforcing qualities of a new act.

Bureaucracy Fault of States

Behind much of the demand for a stronger federal government there lies the simple and unpleasant fact that people no longer trust their state governments the way they once did.

There are some things, of course, that state governments cannot do at all. But a great many things which they can do they seem utterly unable to do well; hence the growing tendency to ask Washington to do the things which ought to be done at the state capitols.

A revealing sidelight on this was provided the other day by Abraham Epstein, executive secretary of the American Association for Social Security, in an address before the association at New York.

Mr. Epstein was talking about old age pension systems, and he remarked that in too many states such systems have become "mere cogs in the state political machines."

"Grants are made frequently not on the basis of need, as the laws intend, but on the basis of political expediency," he said. "Politicians are outbidding each other with promises of bigger and better pensions in order to appease the appetite of organized selfish blocs."

Thus there is no uniformity between pension systems in the different states. Thus there are states in which the pension bureau is an acknowledged branch of political patronage. Thus there are states in which pensions are paid, not according to need, but according to what the winning candidates for office have felt it expedient to promise.

And as a result of all this, a great many people have come to feel that the old-age pension problem can be solved only by federal action.

Now this is typical of the situation in a great many other fields, and it is one of the most ominous signs in our whole political life. For while we have made real steps in the past generation toward making our federal government reasonably efficient and honest, most state governments remain what they were several decades ago—the prey of spoils politics at its worst.

Because of that fact, we are hamstrung when we approach any public issue. To suggest that such-and-such a problem be handled by the state instead of by Washington means, all too often, that it will not be handled at all. To advocate state instead of federal action frequently is equivalent to inviting self-seeking politicians to do their worst.

A great many people have been worried of late by the vast extension of the federal bureaucracy. The place to which such people should turn their alarmed gazes is the state capitol.

The federal bureaucracy will continue to expand and grow until we succeed in making our state governments efficient and responsive. We could not do the federal government a better turn than to make our state governments capable of taking some of the work off its hands.

Carry On

Until recently, most well-informed Americans supposed that medical science had finally "conquered" yellow fever. Beginning with Gorgas, Reed, and their conferees in Havana, science had shown that the disease was transmitted solely by one particular species of mosquito, called aedes aegypti; as this obnoxious pest was brought under control, yellow fever was sure to vanish.

The annual report of the Rockefeller Foundation, however, reveals that the picture is not so rosy. For it has been discovered that yellow fever can and does occur in regions where aedes aegypti has never appeared. Vast areas of South America jungle are centers of the disease, and some entirely new villain must be sought.

There are no brighter chapters in all medical history than those which tell of its fight with yellow fever. It may be discouraging to learn that the fight has not yet been won, but has merely entered a new phase. And yet, in view of past performances, who can doubt that medical science will find the brains, the courage, and the stick-to-itiveness to carry on until the victory is final?

THE GENTLEMAN IN THE THIRD ROW

TRAILER ADVENTURE

By Nard Jones ©1937, NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY MARY BRITAIN and BETTY HAYNES pick up GERRY NEAL, handsome young hitchhiker, on their way up a steep coast to demonstrate the new Airspeed trailer. At the Long Beach auto camp, where Neal was to meet a friend JACK SPEDDON, Neal disappears from the trailer and Speddon accuses Betty. After repeated efforts to find Betty, Martha again meets Neal and agrees to return to San Francisco with him to search for Betty. Unknowingly, Martha has fallen in love with Neal, despite the fact she does not know whether she can trust him. In San Francisco, Martha finds that neither Betty nor Speddon are registered at the hotel designated for their meeting. Instead, Martha gets a letter, presumably from Betty, explaining that everything is all right.

But Martha is increasingly disturbed. She wants to call Betty, but Neal tells her this move might mean Betty's death. That night Neal tells Martha he loves her, but she tells him that she doesn't love him, she would have turned him in to the police long ago. And the next day, as they drive north with Neal, Martha suddenly strikes her car into a filling station, while Neal is asleep, and tells the attendant that Gerry must be arrested. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XV

THE burly attendant took one look at Martha's pretty, troubled face, and needed no further encouragement. In a swift movement he reached beneath the cash register and brought out a revolver. Three long strides and he was at the side of the coupe, swinging open the door. "Come on," he said, nudging Neal's shoulder. "Get out of there!" Neal stirred drowsily, then opened his eyes, found himself staring into the ominous barrel of the station attendant's revolver. "What's the idea?" He sat up straight, looking first at his assailant, then beyond at Martha Brittain. "What is this, a joke?" "No," the husky young attendant mentioned. "I said get out of there, and it isn't any joke." He spoke over his shoulder to Martha. "You better call the police station. I can't leave here or I'd take him down for you."

Neal's eyes widened unbelievably. "Police station? Look here—"

"No back talk, buddy. Hold quiet a minute." A huge hand tapped the bulge in Neal's coat pocket, drew out the revolver he had taken from Martha's coupe. "Now just sit down on the running board there while the lady phones for a nice big taxi."

His expression ludicrous with astonishment, Gerry Neal dropped indignantly to the running board of the coupe. He saw Martha taking down the receiver of the telephone inside the glass enclosure beyond the gasoline pumps. "See here, you fool, that girl has misled you. You've no right to—"

"Button your lip," the attendant interrupted. No doubt about it, he was enjoying himself before. In his excited brain danced visions of newspaper headlines, maybe a reward for capturing a dangerous criminal.

Neal fell silent. Though he was inwardly raging he knew now that he was helpless. This giant idiot wouldn't listen to reason—and Martha had already telephoned the police. Casually he asked his captor's permission to reach into his pocket for a cigar. Instead, the younger man inserted one of his own between Neal's lips and lighted it. "I'm not," he explained, "taking any chances."

IT seemed to Martha that she had hardly turned from the telephone when a siren-screaming police car rolled into the station lot. She was taken aback, however, when one of the officers reminded her that she must come to the station with them and prefer charges against Neal. The desk sergeant, under the impression that he was facing speeders or roisterers, yawned prodigiously as they entered the room. But a word from the officer made him sit straighter. He looked hard at Martha. "What's your story?"

Quickly she told him, avoiding Gerry Neal's eyes. She began with the day she and Betty got the job with the Airspeed Trailer Company, and showed her letters from Arnold Sloss. She told of Betty's disappearance with Speddon, and how Neal had insisted upon accompanying her. When she had finished, the desk sergeant turned to Neal. "What have you to say about this?" he shot out. "Nothing," Neal said quietly. "I think Miss Brittain has told you the whole story."

The officer shrugged. "We can send out a description of Miss Haynes and this Speddon and the car in which they were last seen. As for this man here, I'll be glad to see that he doesn't annoy you further. There's also the little matter of a permit to carry a revolver."

"Then I may go?" asked Martha, trembling. "Yes," Breen, take the young lady back to her car, will you?" When she returned to the gasoline station to reclaim the trailer and coupe she found the burly attendant waiting, expectantly. "What happened, lady? What are they going to do to him?" "I don't know," Martha said. "At any rate, they're going to hold him—and I can go on in peace. How can I thank you enough for helping me?" "Gosh, that's all right." He grinned engagingly. "Just part of the company's service, like washing the windshield or putting air in your tires!"

MARtha had answered the burly attendant's smile, but as she drove out of Eureka and on up the smooth, wide highway, she felt little enough like smiling. She had imagined that she would be relieved beyond words to be rid of Gerry Neal with his seemingly misleading advice, and his gettful palmer as to what she felt for him. But somehow it was very lonely driving the little coupe with the trailer swinging behind. It was a loneliness growing from more than Neal's absence from her side. She realized that now she had no advice in the world, good or bad. There was no one now to whom she could turn.

True, she had the assurance of the Eureka police that an effort would be made to watch for Speddon and Betty. But the desk sergeant had been as dubious of her interpretation of the disappearance as had that exasperating detective, Sloan. What brand of stupidity was it that made them regard her beliefs as coming from a suspicious and hysterical girl?

She pressed on toward the border between California and Oregon. She knew that at the California border would be a traffic station, and she could determine whether the Eureka police had really reported to the state patrol. If they had not, then she herself would. The California state patrol was, she knew, an efficient and soldierly body which had brought many a fleeing roegade to the end of his trail. Yet she knew that she was hoping against hope that, if Betty and Speddon were still traveling, they were yet in California.

When, after long hours of driving, she rounded a bend of mountain road and glimpsed the little traffic station her heart beat wildly. Drawing the outfit to a stop she asked the alert officer if the Eureka police had telephoned. "Yes, that report came in. But Speddon drove through here several days ago and there wasn't any woman with him."

Martha paled. "How do you know? Are you—are you sure?" "Absolutely. You, week we were looking everybody over on account of a kidnapping up in Tacoma. I looked in the record book and found Speddon's name and his license number. He was okayed through—and nobody was with him."

HISTORY of Twin Falls City & County As Gleaned from Files of The Times

15 YEARS AGO APRIL 22, 1922 Boise's paving problem controversy was the cause of a trip made to this city by Mayor E. B. Sherman, Councilmen Kleiden, Aveline and Sharp, Health Officer Pratt and Engineer Stevenson, who arrived in this city Friday and put in several hours in intensive investigation of the paving that is causing a great deal of discussion in this city and has for the past year or more.

27 YEARS AGO APRIL 22, 1910 The city council met Monday evening and passed three ordinances. Ordinance No. 72, creating a sprinkling district, makes into one large district nearly every part of the original townsite. Bids for the sprinkling were called for May 2.

HAGERMAN A covered dish luncheon and the initiation of eight new members featured the meeting of the Grange at the Methodist church Monday. Twenty-five, including the new members, were present. During the business meeting the members voted to have one meeting a month, beginning with their next meeting, May 3. Members initiated were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Collett, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ellason, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Parks, and Mr. and Mrs. O. Jacobson.

The Family Doctor BY DR. MORRIS FISHBIN Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiea, the Health Magazine. Man is the talking animal, communicating with other men by speech. When a man loses his voice he is said to be dumb, and it is not strange that the word should also mean "stupid," when applied to a man who is unable to speak intelligibly with another. Hence the loss of the voice, or its improper use, is always a serious disturbance.

THE "CRY ROOM" Editor, Evening Times: Referring to your editorial in Tuesday's Evening Times relative to a theater in Illinois featuring a "cry room," wish to state that our new York theater at Jerome, which was opened to the public on Nov. 22, 1935, has one of these "cry rooms." It is equipped with a special loud speaker, chromium chairs, carpeted, etc., and it is a very nice attraction for our theater, and it has brought much favorable comment from our patrons.

WASHINGTON, April 22—If Democratic Treasurer W. Forbes Morgan (who died Wednesday) had not recently jumped to the distilleries for a reputed $100,000 per year, there would be no commotion over a hidden liquor joker in the new federal trade commission bill. As it is, there was plenty. Even President Roosevelt is said to have interested himself to avoid an embarrassing predicament.

Sharp legislative eyes spotted an obscure sentence tucked into the middle of the 16th page of the new federal trade commission bill. The measure, as a whole, lays down strong restrictions against false or misleading practices for food, drugs, cosmetics or other "devices."

SPRING BOARD Morgan's was the first unhappy moment caused Mr. Roosevelt by the recent desertions of his political and official friends to the new and rapidly growing liquor industry. It can hardly be the last.

Shortly after Mr. Morgan had left the Democratic national committee to go into the big money, one of the able Michigan publicists there, Norman Baxter, also shifted to the Distilled Spirits Institute. About the same time, Mr. Roosevelt's minister plenipotentiary to the Costa Rican government, the capable Leo R. Shackelford, his high hat and joined Schenley Products company. Two treasury employes also have entered this same productive field.

NOTE—The official explanation for exempting liquor advertising from federal trade commission supervision is that the federal alcohol administration already has this authority. However, that FAA authority is not as extensive as is proposed for other products under F.C.T. The present government regulations do not go much beyond requiring that the age and contents be stated truthfully.

NEGOTIATIONS have been under way for some days which may take another New Deal left-winger into a large, or semi-large, private business. The negotiators are not the molluscs group, which lured Dr. Tagwell, but someone just as sweet.

PRICES Recently, the President has been saying that durable goods prices are going too high and that his policies would be switched to help the non-durables. (The durables are steel, copper and heavy goods, while the non-durables are things more closely associated with the average citizen, such as food and clothing.)

FARMERS' VISION BETTER DES MOINES, Ia. (UP)—Farmers' eyes are trained to see farther and as a result the average vision of farm drivers is better than that of city residents, according to Ed Murray, chief examiner of the Iowa motor vehicle department.

NOTES The treasury has not yet expressed itself, but it has no objection to the Cochran proposal to levy income taxes on federal and state employees under a constitutional amendment. From the standpoint of a more equal distribution of taxes, the proposition is appealing, but from a revenue raising standpoint, it is unattractive. Federal and state salaries are low.

The Norwegian government's delay in approving the appointment of Mrs. Daisy Hartman has prompted much speculative conversation in diplomatic circles. There seems to be an undercurrent of feeling that some foreign governments do not particularly like our policy of naming eminent political or social women to diplomatic posts, although you will never hear them say so aloud.

Since the Wagner decision, one Washington business man has been greeting his office force each morning: "This is just the humble boss arriving."

FILER First in a series of recreational programs to secure money for a community tennis court and equipment is scheduled for April 29 at the Filer Rural high school. Dates of programs to be presented later will be announced in the near future, those in charge announced.

The W.C.T.U. will hold a Spring Institute, April 23, at 10:30 a. m. at Hansen. Hot coffee and potatoes will be furnished. Awards in the recent W. C. T. U. contest will be made by Gerald Wallace, Twin Falls, at a public meeting scheduled for May 6 at 8 p. m. in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Rayburn were hosts to their contract bridge club on Sunday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Corless, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Williamson. Prizes were received by Mrs. Williamson and Mr. Brown.

Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Newberry and Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Newberry visited in Filer over the week-end. A no-host dinner party was given Friday evening at the E. S. LaHue home for employes of the Filer Fidelity National bank in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. McKibben. General arrangements were under the direction of Mildred Cobb.

Tuesday evening the Girl Reserve Cabinet met at the high school for the nomination of officers for the coming year. They planned a pot-luck and theater party for next Wednesday evening. The Girl Reserves held their annual election of officers last week and chose: Lois Pond, president; June Vincent, vice president; Barbara Beem, secretary; and Martha Olvera, treasurer. These girls will take office in May and serve next year. Elinore Jamerson was elected as a delegate to district meetings. The committee chairman gave their annual report.

Only 3 in Canine 'Jail' But Roundup is Coming

Veterinary Declares It's a Shame to Kill Some of Pets

Old dog Tray's ever faithful; Grief cannot drive him away; He is gentle, he is kind—I shall never, never find A better friend than old dog Tray!

—Stephen Foster.

But even man's best friend sometimes gets in "dutch" and is put in "jail," the Roving Reporter of the Evening Times discovered today while visiting the city pound located in the rear of Dr. H. R. Groome's veterinary hospital.

Today only three "inmates" of the dog jail look forlornly out through the wire and wonder why they are not permitted to roam at will. But after the dog licenses become due on May 1 and the annual roundup of stray dogs is made the location becomes literally overrun with these "friends of man."

Kind-Hearted

Dr. Groome, under the law, is paid for keeping the dogs only two days. After that he is supposed to send them out of this life. But today he said:

"I hate to dispose of some of these dogs. That little white fuzzy dog has been here two weeks now and the other two, including that large brown and white one and the more active, smaller brown and white one have been here over a week. It is a shame that someone can't come and get them. They would make great pets for some child somewhere."

Spring Roundup

Dr. Groome said this was particularly true after the spring roundup next month when many dogs—some good, some bad—are brought in. But if no one calls for them they are sent to "dog heaven" or wherever dogs go when they leave this life.

The doctor used to dispose of the dogs by putting them in a barrel which had a pipe connection with the back lot fence. To this pipe he attached a hose which ran to the exhaust of his car. The motor started and the fumes did the rest, but not after much struggle by the animal, the doctor found.

Today they are disposed of in the most human way possible. An injection of chloroform intravenously does the work within a few seconds. The minute the chloroform passes through the vein and reaches the heart the dog has expired.

Room 212 Takes Win In High-Score Duel

Room 212 softballers won from room 208 by a narrow margin of 2 runs yesterday with the score standing 15 to 13 at the close of a third round game in the junior high school home room softball league. The third round or semi-finals to determine division winner is nearly completed and as soon as it is finished the championship round for the league winner will be played.

CALIFORNIA AUTO TOLL UP

STAGE SET FOR SUB-DISTRICT MEET HERE

Four Schools to Participate In Annual Track Competition

The entry list is completed and Lincoln field track is in readiness for the annual sub-district meet to be held here Friday, according to Coach R. V. Jones, Bruin mentor, and all that is needed now is a touch of spring weather.

The meet is scheduled to start at 3 p. m. sharp.

Although 10 schools in this district are eligible for the sub-district meet here, only four will participate, states Jones. Those entered are Buhl, Filer, Murtaugh and Twin Falls.

Cold weather the last two days has hampered the conditioning of the athletes and unless a bright sun appears tomorrow afternoon it is doubtful if any record-shattering performances will be turned in.

Best markers are expected to be set by Slater, Twin Falls, in the javelin; Gentry, Filer, pole vault; Musgrave, Filer, sprinters; Kuykendall, Twin Falls, half mile.

Buhl Looks Strongest

SPORT SQUIBS

(by H.J.W.)

Most recent innovation in the aid of breaking records in the world of athletics is a stimulant known as dextros. We have not inquired into the possibility of its being used in southern Idaho, but if reports from eastern cities are true about the power of the energizer, then it might behoove the coaches of this section to start the use of dextros.

Dextros is a sugar made from corn and, according to a recent survey, is used by some of the leading athletic coaches, teams and directors in the country.

Among admitted users of the product are the St. Louis Cardinals; Johnny Kelley, winner of the 1935 Boston marathon run; Davis tennis team; Fred Perry, sensational pro net star, and Lawson Robertson, probably the most widely-known track coach in the world today.

It is also reputedly used by many college and high school teams the world over. It is supposed to be "non-habit forming" and will not harm the system in any shape, form or matter.

The stuff may be as powerful as is claimed, and must be good to have so many leading sports figures use it, but we were just a little leary of its potency after reading the following:

"The 1935 winner of the Boston marathon was Tarzan Brown, a Pawtucket Rhode Island Indian, who did NOT use dextros, but fortified himself for the grind by gorging a large and rare steak, a tapering-off diet calculated to baffle scientists and trainers alike."

The man he easily defeated was Kelley, who DID use dextros!

Short Shots: Virgil Mintun, former star Kimberly high school athlete, and slooping pitcher, is in the army now, and passed through here Monday with the troops en route to Fort Lewis, Wash. . . Eddie Johnson, son of Walter Johnson, the big league hurler who got his start in Idaho, is one of the leading hitters of the University of Maryland baseball team. . . Forest Jensen, the Pittsburgh Pirate first sacker, who used to play with Pocatello in the Utah-Idaho league and was considered a weak hitter, is one of the long-range clouters on the Buc team.

What the Big League Umpire Does On A Rainy Day: Exactly Nothing

By HENRY McLEMORE

NEW YORK, April 22 (UP)—The rain beat down on the roof of the Lincoln hotel.

I knocked on the door of 1730 and a voice said, "come in." I went in and shook hands with Timmy Parker, youngest and smallest umpire in the National league.

The last time I had seen him he was working behind the plate in the exhibition baseball game at the Olympics at Berlin.

"The Giants and Dodgers are rained out today, all right," he said looking out the window into the wet, outside world. "Don't know how I'll kill the time. Glad you dropped in."

I had never thought much about it—what an umpire does on a rainy day, but here I was about to find out it won't take long to tell you what he does.

Nothing.

Can't Go to Movies

That is, he doesn't do things like other people do. Go to the movies, for instance. That's bad for the eyes and you need good eyes when guys like Hubbell and Blanton and Mungo have all their stuff and are nicking the corner.

Have a few drinks? Not for an umpire, Parker said. It might make them jittery and they have to do quite a bit of hopping around, on those close plays at second. Nobody can see through a cloud of dust when he has a head the size of Gehrig's batting average and hands that are wobbling like a Fitzsimmons knuckle ball.

There's another reason for an umpire not drinking, Parker explained. A hangover would make him doubt himself, and if he loses faith that leaves exactly nobody with any faith, because the ball players and the fans consider him a blind robber from start to finish.

Few Friends

Few friends drop in on an umpire on his days off. Because of the nature of his work his acquaintances mostly are ball players—and ball players and umpires don't mix. There's actually no rule against it, but the unwritten law of the diamond says that when the game is over the players must go one way and the men in the blue the other. They don't even stay at the same hotels when they can help it.

What I've always wondered is what the players say to the umpire when he calls a strike on them and they turn around and start jabbering at him.

"Sometimes," Parker said, "they are beefing at me. If they smile when they call me what they sometimes do call me, I don't chase 'em. But if they get a little bit of a snarl in the voice I shoo 'em to the clubhouse. You know how it is—you've got to judge each case on its merits."

Fans Start Ride

"But here's a funny thing. Lots of times when the batter turns around and sticks out his jaw he says something like this: 'Well, that was the payoff pitch; all right; a perfect strike; I could have ridden that into the stands; kick me in the pants after the game, will you?'"

"As soon as a player starts talking to the umpire, though, the fans figure he is giving me the works and they start yelling for him to pour it on."

Parker told me something I had never thought of before. Presidents have been removed

ATTORNEY-GENERAL TAYLOR LASHES SUPREME COURT

IDAHO OFFICIAL SAYS JUDICIARY NEEDS NEW MEN

Points to Various Changes of Group During Past Years Of History

BOISE, April 22 (AP)—Attorney General J. W. Taylor today told members of the Boise trades and labor council that the "welfare of the nation depends largely upon reorganization of the supreme court of the United States."

He charged the present court was "suffering from hardening of the arteries and softening of the brain." His address was part of a program last night being conducted by the labor non-partisan league in an attempt to create a national sentiment favoring planned court reorganization.

Sizes Change
Taylor said that change in number of justices was not unprecedented, and said in the period from 1789 to 1863 the court had gone from six members to 10, and had decreased to five members in 1801. In 1869 he said, the present number of justices was set up.

He said justices should be elected every four years by the people, and not appointed. Taylor also charged that the court was in need of new blood, and cited figures which he said showed disposition of cases before the court.

Behind Schedule
"On Jan. 1, 1937," there were 1,277 cases on the supreme court docket that were at least a year old. Of this number, 1,007 were two years old, 880 were three years old, and 732 were four years old. And going down the line, there were 264 which had been untried for 10 years.

Taylor said the court should be changed "immediately," and a constitutional amendment prepared to "make the change stick."

Hart of Seattle, consultant for the Idaho Anti-Tuberculosis association, will be in Twin Falls April 27 through May 1 to examine X-rays taken of various children during the drive for the discovery of early tuberculosis sponsored by the Twin Falls county health unit, Dr. J. W. Hawkins, director of the unit said today.

U.S. FLEET READY FOR WAR GAMES

Attack From Sea and Air Will Attempt Capture Of Island Base

ABOARD U. S. S. PENNSYLVANIA, Mid-Pacific, April 22 (AP)

The county for consultation on X-rays.

Dr. Hart is at the present time in the southeastern part of Idaho doing similar work in that section.

—Light and heavy units of the U. S. navy's Pacific fleet were in readiness today to launch an attack from the sea and the air at dawn tomorrow in an attempt to "capture" the island of Oahu of the Hawaiian group in what was considered one of the major tactical offensive and defensive maneuvers of the year.

Army land forces, consisting of mobile artillery, infantry, pursuit planes and heavy Martin bombers were stationed in secret positions awaiting the attack. If the landing forces are repelled it is believed that military authorities will be agreed that the entire Hawaiian defense unit is adequate.

In 1936 about 28,000,000 motor vehicles were registered in the United States. Of this number, 24,459,940 were passenger cars.

Post at Columbia University Taken By Local Student

An assistantship in the department of electrical engineering at Columbia university has been offered Clement Streifus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Streifus, Twin Falls, according to word received here. He expects to combine teaching with continued advanced study majoring in power transmission. A student at Columbia for the past year, Mr. Streifus expects to graduate in June with a master's degree in electrical engineering. He attended the University of Idaho, southern branch, and the University of Idaho, where he graduated in 1935 with high honors. He was a member of Sigma Tau and was vice president of the student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Debate Team Will Compete in National Tourney

ORATORY WINNER ALSO WILL MAKE TRIP TO ILLINOIS

Funds to Help Group Are Promised By Board and Student Council

The state champion debate team and the state oratorical winner, all from Twin Falls high school, will go to Jacksonville, Ill., to compete in the National Forensic and Declamation contest on May 3, 4 and 5, it was announced today by H. D. Hechtner, high school principal, following a meeting of the student council yesterday afternoon.

The debate team consists of Ed Benoit, Bruce Painter, Paul Wright and Roland Hutchison.

The state oratorical winner is Grant Sawyer.

Gerald Wallace, high school debate coach, will accompany the Twin Falls group to the national competition.

Entry of the five local youths will bring the south central contingent at Jacksonville to nine, since four Burley high school declamation students will also go east.

It was reported to the student council that the Twin Falls school board would donate $250 to the student fund for the purpose of helping defray the cost of the trip to Jacksonville. The council voted to accept the amount and pledged an additional sum from the student activities fund to supplement it, with the sum to be given by the council not to exceed $250.

Mode of travel for those making the trip is still undecided, Mr. Hechtner said today.

Rotarians Urged To Oppose Park

Cooperation of Rotarians in the opposition movement against the proposed establishment of a national park in the Sawtooth mountains was urged by F. G. Thompson, Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce manager, in an address yesterday at the meeting of the club at the Park hotel.

He stated that the park would greatly hamper the livestock and mining industries of southern Idaho. Guests were Dr. W. P. Shaw, president of Gooding college, and W. E. Heiser, Los Angeles.

Jury Deadlocks in Salmon Murder Trial

SALMON, Idaho, April 22 (U.P.)—A deadlocked jury late Wednesday failed to reach a verdict in the case of William Woodward, 31, charged with the murder of his friend, Jack Leach, in an asserted argument over a dog. Leach, 72, was killed at Gibbonsville, Idaho, three weeks ago. Woodward surrendered and pleaded self-defense. The jury was dismissed.

GOLD INCREASES CANBERRA (U.P.)—Australia's gold production of the past year, which will exceed $50,000,000, will almost reach the peak output of the famous decade of 1851 to 1860. At that time the total output for the 10 years was $28,353,820.

SERUM IS TAKEN BY 300 PERSONS

Immunizations For Spotted Fever in County Shows Precautions

More than 300 persons living in Twin Falls county have been immunized to date against rocky mountain spotted fever caused from the bite of infected wood ticks, it was announced today by Dr. J. W. Hawkins, director of the county health unit.

A supply sufficient to immunize over 300 individuals has already been distributed by the health unit to private physicians throughout the county, records show, and enough serum for approximately 100 immunizations was obtained by private physicians direct from the government laboratory at Hamilton, Mont., where the serum is made.

Limited Amount At the present time, Dr. Hawkins said today, only enough serum is on hand at the unit offices for a few more immunizations and additional serum will probably not be available in the immediate future because of the limited facilities at Hamilton and the increased demand for its use throughout the large district which the laboratory serves.

Commenting on the disease today, Dr. Hawkins said that Idaho's death rate at one in three cases is higher than the federal death rate at one in four cases, records reveal.

"The rate in Idaho in 1935 was 36 deaths in 100 cases, and in 1936 it increased to 42 in every 100 cases," Dr. Hawkins said. "In 1935 10 persons died of the disease in Idaho and in 1936 11 succumbed to it."

10 May Die On the basis of past records it is estimated that 10 Idahoans are likely to die of the disease this summer, Wood ticks, which abound in the brush and saged areas, transmit the disease to humans.

Dr. Hawkins said that he has been informed by State Bacteriologist L. G. Peterson that prospects are poor for an adequate supply of serum from the Hamilton laboratory which manufactures it, and distributes it free of charge.

You're Paying for Automatic Hot Water Service Now ... Why Not Have It and Enjoy Its Comforts?

The old-fashioned methods of heating water are not cheap—and certainly not convenient. Furnace coils and bare basement tanks waste the fuel it takes to keep water hot. More fuel is wasted to bring cold water up to high temperature.

So—you're probably paying the cost of operating an automatic heater right now, using old methods. Why not install one of the new electric heaters while prices and terms are so low?

It Doesn't Take A Sack of MONEY To Build Your Boise Payette Home!

For Example, THIS MODERN COTTAGE

can be built for $27.97 PER MONTH

Can you afford to rent in the face of these easy F. H. A. terms arranged through Boise Payette?

This economical 4-room cottage acknowledges the place the automobile has in life. The fact that a wide driveway is not necessary alongside the house makes building on a narrow lot possible, with room to spare for lawn.

Naturally, the construction of your home will determine the terms you may arrange. The home illustrated can be built for about $700 down, including the value of the lot. The monthly payment of $27.97 will then include interest, taxes, insurance and regular reduction of the mortgage.

This is but one of the many suggestions that Boise Payette's Home Planning Department has to offer. Perhaps you have definite ideas about the arrangement of the home you intend to build. Our home designers can assist in working out those ideas, and keep them within your budget.

This estimate calls for the use of

4-SQUARE LUMBER

That means better construction at lower final cost. It means that every piece of lumber that goes into this home will be THOROUGHLY SEASONED before the carpenter nails it in place.

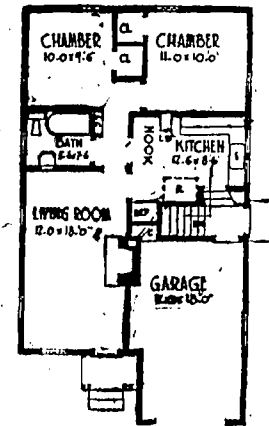

It means a saving in time because both ends of every piece of 4-SQUARE are squared at the mill, doing away with much hand-squaring on the job. Estimates are more accurate because lengths are exact.

AUDIENCE LIKES OPERETTA OFFER

"Gypsy Rover" Well Received At First Presentation For Public

"Gypsy Rover" operetta by the high school chorus classes, was well received by an enthusiastic audience as it was presented in its first public performance last evening.

The romantic leads as played by Jeanne Robinson and Don Petrolid were the interest of the audience from the first appearance of the couple to the finale.

Lewis Heltzer as Lord Craven was excellent in the comedy role of the pompous English lord he portrayed.

The plots for the operetta was presented in an opening scene taking place in a gypsy's woodland camp and was effectively produced by Ethel Anlauf as Meg and Ellis Gardner as Marjo.

Musical for the entire performance was furnished by the off-stage piano accompaniments of Maxine Smith.

The chorus
Ethel Anlauf, Mildred Arrington, Fern Bailey, Helen Bailey, Madonna

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

CANCER IS NOT DUE TO A GERM, AND, THEREFORE, IS NOT CATCHING!

A PLOW, LEANED AGAINST A TREE ON THE LEFFINGWELL FARM, NEAR EXIRA, IOWA, MORE THAN FIFTY YEARS AGO, REMAINS THERE TODAY, IMBEDDED IN THE TREE.

WHEN DANGER THREATENS, THE PARENT GREBE TUCKS ITS YOUNG UNDER ITS WINGS, AND DIVES.

COPY, 1937 BY NEA SERVICE, INC. T.M. REG. U.S. PAT. OFF. 4-22

Cancer, one of the oldest known diseases, is curable, but because of delayed treatment, is the second largest cause of death in the United States. However, contrary to popular opinion, it is not catching, is not due to a germ, and cannot be transmitted directly from parent to offspring.
