

Congratulations, Cakes and Candies! The Quins Are Three Years Old!

Here we are at the gayest birthday party of 1937, which marks the day when the Dionne quintuplets will begin "going on four." Marie, left, has lifted one candle from her cake, and Cecile, next, is pleased to have lifted some icing on her thumb. But Emilie, center, seems to have achieved both. And Annette and Yvonne are both trying the icing and finding it good. "Many happy returns" is the wish they're sending back to their many admirers.

F. D. R. to Press Action Against Tax Defaulters

Avoidance of Income Levy to Be Hit in Congress Message

WASHINGTON, May 28 (UP)—President Roosevelt said today he would press for action at this session of congress against what he called immoral and unethical avoidance and evasion of federal income taxes in the higher brackets.

The action—Mr. Roosevelt said it would come fairly soon— involves millions of dollars, according to evidence put before the President by U. S. treasury officials.

Mr. Roosevelt used strong language at his press conference to criticize individuals who, he said, are immorally and unethically finding loopholes in the government revenue laws through which they escape income taxes.

The action Mr. Roosevelt said he intended to take probably will come in a special message to congress.

Complete Study The President will make the request after he and Secretary of Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr. complete a study of individual cases being compiled by the treasury department after a field study by Inspector Henry Howell S. McMill.

Asked if the action would result in prosecutions, Mr. Roosevelt said that questions must be decided by (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

SEARCHERS FIND CCC BOY'S BODY

Ohio Youth at Camp Minidoka Discovered Drowned in Second Lift Cannon

MINIDOKA CCC CAMP, May 28 (Special)—The body of Earlthorn Clutter, 15-year-old CCC cadet, missing since Wednesday morning, was found today at about 9 a. m. in the second lift cannon 160 yards from highway 30 south near Dech.

Searchers discovered the body caught on an old oil can at the bottom of the cannon. "That circumstance," they explained, had made it necessary to drain the cannon so the body was submerged when the water was running.

Cadet Joseph Payne gave a verdict of accidental drowning as the cause of death. The youth had been with three marks on a mile above the spot where the body was found. It was indicated that he had lost his footing and slipped into the water.

At the time of the accident Clutter was with a detail doing rodent control work on the camp banks. He was ordered by his companions late in the night and the entire camp personnel joined in the search which was successful today.

Clutter was born Feb. 8, 1919, and lived at Hiram, O. He had been an enrollee at Camp Minidoka since January. The body will be sent to Jackson tomorrow by the Johnson mortuary, Burley.

Quins Celebrate 3rd Birthday As Cake and Candy Are Banned

CALLANDER, Ore., May 28 (UP)—The Dionne quintuplets celebrated their third birthday today under their watchful eyes of nurses who said "no" whenever they reached for a piece of cake.

Tonight Marie, Emilie, Cecile, Annette and Yvonne may say "hello" to the world in a "fraternal broadcast" from 3:30 to 4 p. m., MST over a National Broadcasting company network. But they may revolt and say nothing.

Dr. Allen Dufco, the country physician, who arrived at the farm home of Oliva Dionne on May 28, 1934, to take part in a medical miracle, issued the "no sweets" order. He said candy and cake weren't good for little girls—not even on birthdays.

Parents expected The quins were permitted to indulge in their love for fancy bows and laces, bright socks and new shoes. Their dolls were dressed up, too, in bracelets, necklaces and bright-colored coats.

Mama and Papa Dionne were expected to visit the nursery with their other children, Oliva, Jr., who was born last July, probably will be left at home because the quins weren't very lady-like during his last visit. They gave him a "going over."

Dr. Dufco reluctantly admitted that the girls were "a little rough" at times. He doesn't object, he said, "when they occasionally swing a toy shovel at each other, but it's embarrassing when they take a swing at visitors."

No Kissing Allowed The quins won't be permitted to kiss their mother or father or their brothers.

"It's not very healthy with children of that age," said Dr. Dufco. "As part of their early training, we are teaching them to shake hands."

There weren't so many birthday gifts as there were a year ago. Dr. Dufco said the quins were getting "a little old," and that most of the presents were for their babies—the dozens of dolls that occupy almost every corner of the nursery. The quins received picture books, paints and artists' tools.

Shantytown Prepares To Seek New Homes

Fifty families, comprising some 400 individuals residing in Rock Creek canyon Shantytown on the southern city limits, this afternoon were making necessary preparations to move their homes after they had been officially notified yesterday afternoon that the property on which they reside had changed hands.

The area, consisting of some 25 acres and extending from France's alley, just east of thirteenth street, to the property line of the state fish hatchery upstream approximately nine city blocks, is the site of numerous makeshift homes. Occupants of the area in some cases reside in caves in the canyon wall while in other cases shacks are constructed of discarded packing boxes and other material. In a few cases the homes are made of one or two of permanent nature.

Given 10 Days Yesterday afternoon a sheriff's deputy and representatives of the new owners of the land, M. M. Daniels and William Hoyle, visited each family and individual residing in the area and explained that they would be expected to move from the area within 10 days, or by June 8.

However, this afternoon Sheriff P. P. Prater said no court orders calling for eviction had been served by any of his force. City police are not concerned by the moving.

The new owners have no intentions of forcing any undue hardships on residents of the area, Mr. Daniels said today. He said they would be assisted in any manner possible and asked at all times in assisting them adequate notice is given.

During the survey late yesterday dozens of all residents were tabulated, a great majority of those saying they would look for other homes at once. Little trouble is expected with the residents although at least two were quoted as saying they will not move. The area will be developed into pasture land in connection with livestock.

CLARK REMOVES COHN AS STATE RELIEF DIRECTOR

Governor Names Albert Lee, Canyon Commissioner, as Successor

By DAVID N. JOHNSON BOISE, May 28. (UP)—Governor Barzille Clark continued his sudden burst of executive activity today by removing from office Peter Cohn, state director of public assistance.

The governor appointed Albert Lee, Canyon county commissioner for the last 10 years, to take Cohn's place. The appointment is effective June 1.

Lee, prominent in Canyon county politics, sprung into prominence recently when he took part in a protest against provisions of Idaho's relief bill which stipulates acceptance of a lien on property by relief clients.

Made Protest With approximately 100 angered recipients of relief, he made strenuous representations against action of the last legislature in passing the lien provision of the state's assistance bill.

Lee said it "removed the last vestige of self-respect from the relief client, and made acceptance of relief money tantamount to a pauper's oath."

The Nampa man was strongly recommended for the post. He has had much experience in relief work, it was said.

Cohn was an appointee of ex-Governor O. Ben Ross.

The governor said no reflection on Cohn's administrative abilities was intended, but said he had accepted.

WORK ON FLYING FIELD POSTPONED

Mayor Asserts City's Lack of Funds Under New Set-Up Cause of Delay

Improvement of the Twin Falls municipal airport will not be undertaken during this year although such improvements as were contemplated have not been dropped.

It was said here this afternoon by Mayor Lem A. Chapin.

Under the WPA it was planned to improve the local landing field with construction of runways, installation of lights for night flights, construction of a hangar and general improvements throughout.

City Funds Necessary Mayor Chapin announced this afternoon, however, that the new WPA set-up makes it impossible to give the city direct grant for the work.

This being the case it would be necessary for the city to have approximately $15,000 on hand in order to order that the work of improving the field might get underway.

At the present time the government will only reimburse the sponsor of the project for funds which appear to have been spent for WPA labor during the course of the construction.

Under this set-up it would be necessary for the city to advance $15,000 in cash, the mayor said.

At the present time this money is not available. We have no right to take it from the general fund and in order to obtain the necessary amount it would be necessary to levy and also a permanent levy which would provide for upkeep of the field once it was improved.

Not Abandoned The mayor further explained that, although the field will not be improved this year, the matter had not been abandoned.

The city has a five-year lease on approximately 400 acres of land in that area. The lease was granted by the state just board and rental is $100 a year.

With this lease it is possible that improvements can be made should money necessary be obtained under some arrangement, he pointed out.

John L. Mayo, director of the O. J. O. street workers' organizing committee in the Youngstown district, outlined with the officials the extent of continued operations in the Warren plant. The company said 1,000 men were still on the job. Mayo said the number was only 200 in 1936.

Mayo toured the picket line around Youngstown and found all quiet. Philip Murray, chairman of the B. W. O. C., arranged to tour the district later in the day.

TROOPERS CAMP AT FAIRGROUNDS

Army Takes Over Flier Again As 38th Infantry Heads Back to Utah

The army took over the Flier fairgrounds again today as infantrymen from Fort Douglas, Utah, camped for the night on route back to their home quarters.

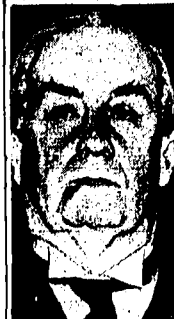

Approximately 800 men, traveling in more than 80 trucks, set up camp in the buildings at the grounds. Mobile kitchens swung into action immediately after the main body of troops arrived between 11:30 a. m. and noon, and hundreds of pounds of supplies were sent from Twin Falls establishments to feed the hungry soldiers.

Advance guard of the movement reached the fairgrounds at 10:30 a. m., according to Thomas Parks, secretary-manager of the county fair.

The 38th infantry, forming the bulk of the caravan, was transported in trucks of the Post Lewis convoy, since the 38th's own trucks passed through this area yesterday.

Oliver Stanley moved from president of the board of education to president of the board of trade, succeeding Walter Runciman, who retired.

Other Appointments Viscount Hallahan was reappointed lord high chancellor.

UNION ORGANIZER FILES COMPLAINT

BOSTON, May 28 (UP)—Sam Haulberg, New England organizer for the United Automobile Workers of America, charged today that 100 union members were discharged "without notice or reason" at the Ford Motor company assembly plant in Romulus, Michigan.

He filed a formal complaint with the regional office of the national labor relations board charging the Ford company with discrimination and coercion.

Sandberg saw the action as a possible attempt by the Ford company to test the "working" of the operation provision of the Wagner act.

CLARK REMOVES RELIEF DIRECTOR

Governor James Albert Lee, Canyon Commissioner, As Successor

The chief executive indicated to all day that he was thinking of an appointment of a relief director to regulate departmental activities in a manner which would eliminate conflict within the state capital building.

Indication was that other departments might feel charges. "I want to see the governor a fair chance," said the governor. "I realize that fair play is the best thing for the state as a whole, and for the people, might be in contact with our state departments."

The governor said he would continue a quiet course in relation to other appointments or changes, and said he intended to release the tension existing in statehouse offices.

Doesn't Take Sides At the same time, the governor declared that he had no intention to take the part of Joe Stemmmer, director of highways, when he signed a commission giving the state engineer authority to take over the highway department.

The governor said he was merely carrying out his principles of "fair play" to the public.

"Stemmmer never had been actually appointed to the office," said Clark. "He had served almost six years without having a certificate of appointment, through an oversight of the Ross administration."

"Bumpered Stemmmer" "This might have been hampered his legal defense when he comes to court to face Taylor's suit."

"That would never do. I want to play fair with everybody," the governor concluded.

Asked if he had intended approval of the commission to indicate that he was in sympathy with Stemmmer, the governor voiced an emphatic denial.

He said he was not through with an investigation of the highway department and that he was not yet satisfied that "everything is all right."

The governor indicated an important announcement concerning the highway department would be forthcoming within the next 10 days.

Avoidance of Income Levy to Be Hit in Message to Congress

Mr. Roosevelt said that most of the avoidance or evasion reported to him so far concerned individuals.

He said that the avoidance of income tax was a national problem.

When congress passes an income tax law, Mr. Roosevelt said, the senate and house would make a study of the avoidance of income tax.

The income from the yacht's account, Mr. Roosevelt said, was used to pay the boat's expenses.

Mr. Roosevelt said that the study of income tax avoidance and evasion had been made because the practice had increased in the last year.

He explained that, while the practice had become more frequent in the last 10 or 15 years, it had been gaining momentum in the last 12 months.

Diplomas Awarded Largest Class Here

High school days had ended for 212 Twin Falls seniors today—largest graduating class in the history of the city. Graduation exercises at the high school auditorium last night formally closed the school year in Twin Falls and inaugurated a three-month vacation period that will end the first week of next September.

The impressive commencement last night, three trumpeters announced the class, the rear doors of the auditorium were thrown open and the 212 graduates of 1937 wound their way up the aisles and took their places on the platform to the strains of the "March From Aida," by Verdi, played by the high school band under the direction of J. T. Balbridge.

After the seniors were seated in their places under yellow and white streamers strung from a large "37" painted on the wall, W. B. Smith was superintendent. But the school introduced Rev. H. E. Heiman who delivered the benediction. All other numbers on the program were announced by Mr. Smith.

Student Speakers Five student speakers supplanted the regular commencement speaker. The initial speaker, Bruce Frazier, spoke as his topic, "Now It's Up To Us." In his talk he stressed the point that up to this time the seniors had not been given responsibility assisted along their way by teachers, parents and the community who all worked to maintain a smooth road. But the road of life's up to us to take the ungraded road of independence and decide for ourselves the destination of the road, the entire responsibility rests with us.

Life may be likened to a game of football in that it requires that a person strive for success by going consistently to the goal. His ability in his chosen profession.

In bringing out the fact that the individual should be a good citizen, Mr. Frazier stressed a group of attributes which would be demanded by the world as good character and habits, clear thought and common sense, sincerity, honesty, ability, resourcefulness, energy, work, economy, acquiescence, respect and reverence.

Dreams of Youth "The Prayer of Youth" as given by Nathan Tolbert expressed his hopes and dreams, longings and aspirations and his prayer is the prayer for success that through it owns efforts these dreams may come true. He said that Twin Falls as it is today is the realization of the fondest dreams of the first graduation class of 1908 in closing the book of the future in its dreams, hold to two ideals: May we have due reverence toward those things in life that are character, vision, ability, ambition and perseverance to bring about constructive changes for the advantage of civilization.

A special senior chorus then sang in choir style, "The Spectacular Firmament on High," from "Creation," by Handel under the direction of Lloyd Thompson.

Youth Has Chance "Today is Ours," said Mac Hopkins. "The younger generation has the chance, now it's our turn to decide what laws we shall have, what policy we shall adopt toward civilization."

Stalwart Pioneer Holds Spotlight in Land Suit

A stalwart, 83-year-old Van Dyke bearded six-footer—pioneer of Idaho and Twin Falls county—was central figure today in district court as attorneys offered final arguments in a prolonged family controversy involving ultimate disposition of some 4,000 acres of land and 1,600 head of cattle in the 7-U outfit of the Three Creek country.

The pioneer is Samuel Grandall, Dunn, who has amassed vast holdings in his 45 years in the cattle business.

Plaintiffs are the elder Mr. Dunn, together with Samuel Dunn, Mrs. Neva A. Smith, James F. Dunn, Mrs. Jenny Womack, B. V. Dunn and Emma Dunn, Alva Dunn and Opal Dunn. Defendants are Wilford E. Dunn and Eva L. Dunn. The intervenors are Karl Patrick and Carolyn O. Patrick.

Bothwell and Povey, Twin Falls, represent the plaintiffs. Chapman and Chapman, Twin Falls, are counsel for the defendants, and Stephan and Blandford, Twin Falls, represent the intervenors.

The elder Dunn, known to his intimates in the Three Creek area as "Grandall," told court observers that "I can still do 10 hours a day in the saddle." His contemporaries agreed that the 83-year-old cattleman does his share in caring for a great herd of beef cattle.

The father has repeated on the witness stand during the two weeks of hearing his desire that the property should be equally divided among all his children. One of them, Wilford E. Dunn, contends that by conveyances of his father, he is entitled to hold without reservation one-half the extensive real estate and personal property involved in the 7-U holdings.

Added important issue in the litigation is that presented by Karl Patrick, also of Three Creek, seeking to have his title quieted in one of the ranches originally included in the wide Dunn domain. He requested the ranch from one of the sons of Samuel C. Dunn.

Asked "Implied Trust" Counsel on the side of the aged pioneer appealed to the court to declare "an implied trust, resulting or constructive" arising by operation of law. . . Other cases have involved the same property but in different actions among members of the family.

The suit is being tried before Judge T. Bailey Lee without a jury. It has been pending since 1934. Other cases have involved the same property but in different actions among members of the family.

EAST CLUBS WIN IN INTERSECTIONAL SERIES

Hubbell Cops 24th Straight for Giants

Detroit Tigers Triumph over Yankees in 13-Inning Game at New York, 5-4

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
NEW YORK, May 28 (UP)—Puzzling results of the second east-west intersectional series, which ended yesterday, furnished plenty of food for thought in the major leagues today.

The Giants, who were the eastern club in the first east-west game, made a triumphant western invasion. Only the fast-throwing New York Yankee ace, the eastern pitcher, gave the east the edge in both intersectional series.

Among the high spots of the east-west games were:

The Giants, who could only break even at home against the west, blazed through that section on the record with eight out of ten best records of any National league club.

Pittsburgh, winner of seven out of nine on the eastern invasion, succeeded at home, taking only three out of eight.

The Cubs, with five out of nine, were the only western team to win an even break at home.

The Boston Bees, who won only one out of eight against the west, earned a cracked 13th of an even light on the road.

The Yankees, who lost five out of nine in the west, set the pace for all American league clubs by winning seven out of nine.

Philadelphia, notoriably a weak road club, fared well everywhere except at Yankee Stadium, winning six out of ten.

The Athletics, who won six out of seven in the west, couldn't keep up the pace at home, and dropped six out of ten.

The Tigers, who dropped six out of nine at home, recovered to win six out of ten on the road.

Hubbell and Mel Ott, boasting a batting average of only .182, gave the New York Giants their first straight victory and a 2-1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Hubbell came in as a relief pitcher in the eighth inning, and the pitcher who faced him for his 24th consecutive victory, Ott's homer in the ninth decided the game.

The victory elevated the Giants to within one game of first place as the league-leading Yankees were rained out in the third inning of their game with Brooklyn.

A ninth inning rally led and the St. Louis Cardinals lost to the Boston Bees, 2-0, at the time.

A ninth inning rally led and the Chicago Cubs, 8-2, Bucky Walters held the Chicago Cubs to nine runs and a 1-2 victory.

Detroit snapped the Yankees' six-game winning streak by winning a 13-inning battle, 5-4. The Tigers led the score with two runs in the ninth and won on the extra-inning George Felsch's double and Pete Fox's single. Hal Trosky's triple with the bases loaded featured Cleveland's 6-7 victory over the Athletics.

Ben Chapman led Washington to a 2-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox. He scored his eighth run and made three of the Senators' eight hits off Monte Stratton. Monte Weaver held the White Sox to six hits. The Browns-Red Sox game was rained out.

Relapse Only Obstacle To Cochran Recovery
NEW YORK, May 28 (UP)—Mickey Cochran's chances for recovery will be regarded much brighter if he does not suffer a relapse today.

The Detroit Tiger catcher-manager has gained very satisfactory since being struck down by a ball pitched by Bump Hadley in last Tuesday's game with the New York Yankees.

Attending physicians believe continued improvement over the next 12 hours will remove him from immediate danger.

Bob Nestel Battles Pastor in Bout Tonight

East and West

Bob Pastor, below, a smiling, big town slicker, is in Los Angeles to fight Bob Nestel, the California comber, tonight.

RECORD GATE IS SEEN FOR FIGHT

35,000 Spectators Expected To Pay $135,000 to Watch Match

LOS ANGELES, May 28 (UP)—Bob Nestel of California and Bob Pastor of New York, whose professional careers date back little more than a year, meet tonight in a 10-round bout which is expected to produce the number two challenger for the world heavyweight boxing title.

The bout will draw a record post-depression boxing crowd. Thirty-five thousand spectators are expected to pay $135,000.

Nestel is banking on a dynamite right hand and proven strength and endurance to knock out the man who stayed 10 rounds with Joe Louis. If Pastor follows the technique he used against Louis—boxing in, head down—he will run into the most potent uppercut possessed by any heavyweight.

Flashy Boxer
Pastor has fought 24 battles, exactly twice Nestel's number. He is a flashy boxer with a good head and a fair country punch. He is rated as good or bad as any of the current challengers except Max Baer.

He is a better boxer than Nestel, but lacks the latter's chilling punch. Odds are 4-5 and take your pick. The consensus is that Nestel will win by a knockout before the seventh round or Pastor will take the decision.

Nestel will weigh approximately 194 pounds, Pastor 182.

Supporting Bout
The supporting bout on any other night would be headliners. In the first, Henry Armstrong, unofficially recognized as world featherweight champion, is tackling Wally Healy, Los Angeles.

The last 10-round pits the west's premier welterweight challenger, Jimmy Young, against Billy Brannan, Birmingham, Ala. Lee has defeated Cefelino Garcia, while Janazzo has lost only a shade to Champion Barney Ross.

Kimberly Plays U.I.S.B. Sunday

The Kimberly team, boasting won over Hazzett of the SCI league, and the strong Burley independent outfit, is pointed out by Miller, Genou Sheppard expected to be on the mound. Matt Begian behind the plate, and the veteran hard-hitting Charley Muttan at first base.

Others in the lineup will be: Snobson, 2b; Hoobler, 3b; Livingston, 4b; Miller, Genou Howard and Griffen, outfielders. The players are from Twin Falls, Kimberly and Hansen.

The Kimberly team is made up of a group of youngsters, inexperienced in comparison with the locals, but all fast and hard hitters.

ATHLETES READY FOR 4-A CONTEST

30 Schools Vie For Title in 61st Intercollegiate Meet in New York

NEW YORK, May 28 (UP)—Track and field stars from 30 eastern colleges and two mid-western schools—Marquette and Michigan State—began battling today for titles in the sixth ever held on I. C. A. A. dally's Island stadium.

The race for the team championship was expected to develop into a dog fight between Columbia, 1937 indoor winners and last an outdoor winner in 1935, and Pittsburgh, which never has won a I. C. A. A. team trophy.

Columbia's chances of adding the outdoor crown to its list seemed to depend on its Negro sprinter and jumper, Ben Johnson, who will seek to score a triple in the 110 and 220 yard dashes and broad jump. If he does, Columbia should win—it would give the Lions 15 points and the expert figure that anything better than 20 will be enough.

Biggest at Masters
Waterston, who is a Fallafan fellow, works out of Augusta, Ga., principally, but anywhere there is a little loose money is home sweet home to him. His biggest boss is made on the Bobby Jones' Masters' tournament, but he makes all the principal championships.

His only rival is Jack Doyle of Broadway, but Jack can't go south because that green coat of his, which was made out of the top of one of his old billiard tables, is too heavy for Mason and Dixon wear.

And does that Waterston make a killing at Augusta each year? Every man who lost a grandfather at Shiloh comes whooping into town to back Bob

AMERICANS SEEK DAVIS CUP WIN

Play Opens Tomorrow With Australia on Forest Hills Courts

NEW YORK, May 28 (UP)—Ten years ago in Philadelphia the United States lost possession of the Davis Cup to France's famed "Three Musketeers."

America had never won back the cup.

Tomorrow, America's team starts another quest, meeting Australia in the finals of the North American States tennis tournament at Forest Hills, which will be the next cup custodian, since England is minus Fred Perry.

Australia's strength will be centered in Jack Crawford and Adrian Quah, who whipped the United States in 1927.

In the other two rounds of eight matches—Byron Nelson, the handsome youngster who won the mermaid, and Kay Laffoon and Harold McSpadden meet Henry Picard.

Well-Fed McLemore Places 2 to 1 Bet That Denny Shute Wins Meet

By HENRY McLEMORE
PITTSBURGH, May 28 (UP)—Newspapermen meet such interesting people.

One of them is Tom Waterston, a very bookish person. Cook-bookish and betting-bookish.

"I'll do you a Spanish omelette, or he'll lay you 50 to 1 on Joe Doakes."

He believes that the easiest way to a man's pocketbook is through his stomach. "A well-fed sucker never squeaks," is the motto that hangs over his desk. His technique is as follows:

He lures you to his apartment, stuffs you with rich viands until you are too gorged to complain, and then makes you a gambling proposition. I was up to his diggings the other night and wound up with acute indigestion and 2 to 1 on Shute in the 2-63. A championship. The food was very good, but the odds were lousy. Shute had not even played a match at that time, and was 20 to 1 in anybody's book, including Dr. Elio's five-foot shag!

Waterston, who is a Fallafan fellow, works out of Augusta, Ga., principally, but anywhere there is a little loose money is home sweet home to him. His biggest boss is made on the Bobby Jones' Masters' tournament, but he makes all the principal championships.

LONDON, May 28 (UP)—Alice Marble, the American champion from San Francisco, reached the finals of the Middlesex tennis tournament at Chiswick today by beating Joan Whitmarsh of England, 6-3, 6-0.

The best Bob ever finished in his own tournament is 13th, but they still want him. Waterston usually closes Jones at 4 to 1, which is a blood count, in Jersey. Waterston says so himself.

"Those southerners are nuts about that guy," Waterston told me. "I call it idiolatry—not betting."

Interesting Facts
The man told me some very interesting facts about golf betting. One was that Henry Picard and the Henney "drop-em" kid who never has won a major tournament, is the most heavily backed golfer of them all.

"You can't see the odds on that bird too low," Waterston said. "They'll go for him at even money against the field."

Sarazen used to be the heavy play guy—five years ago three dollars were played on the Italian fellow for every dollar played on somebody else. But that's all over. Gene Sisti gets a sentimental backing, but that's about all. Paul "Little Polkon" Runyan is another hot favorite, especially in the New York sector, as is Jimmy Hines.

In Chicago, the boys and girls shoot the works on Harry Cooper and Horton Smith. To the upper lake region the Victorian Al Watrous pushes Picard.

Waterston rates the Pacific coast as the worst betting area in the country. He says there are no more than half a dozen customers who play more than a dirty duce.

GOV. CLARK COMES TO DEFENSE OF P. C. O'MALLEY

EXECUTIVE HITS AT ROSS REGIME IN SHARP THRUST

Claims Former Governor and Aides Should Take Blame Along With Credit

By DAVID N. JOHNSON
BOISE, Idaho, May 28 (UP)—Idaho's usually soft-spoken Governor Barzillai Clark today came openly to the defense of P. C. O'Malley, state insurance fund administrator, and aimed a sharp thrust at the regime of former Governor C. Ben Ross.

O'Malley, administrator of the Industrial Insurance fund during the Ross administration, was placed under a cloud yesterday when a supreme court decision denied a writ of mandate for payment of a fund administrative overdrift, and wrote into the opinion the law which states a departmental head shall be judged guilty of a misdemeanor when the appropriation is overdrawn.

The overdrift, incurred in the purchase of supplies and printing, amounted to $1,402, and companies holding bills against the fund had instituted proceedings for a writ of mandate asking immediate payment. The claims were held void and the writ was quashed by the court. O'Malley conferred with the governor and issued a statement in which he said he would not be held guilty for the overdrift, and said he would not take ouster attempts "lying down."

The governor in a sharply worded statement criticized Karl Evans, present administrator of the bureau of insurance, who reported to Governor Ross. The ex-governor, and Theodore Barrough, auditor in Evans' department during the Ross regime, said "during the depression, O'Malley's office suffered a loss of activity along with other insurance companies. The new deal program gave an immediate stimulation to business, and office supplies ran short."

Then the governor charged that Ben Evans, and Barrough had claimed credit for management of the fund when it showed an increase in business. Claim credit "During the biennium when the state insurance fund showed such an increase in business, it is generally understood that Karl Evans, Governor Ross, and Mr. Barrough all claimed credit for its management," he said.

"If that is true, it seems as though somebody besides Mr. O'Malley should take the credit for the overdrift for office supplies during that same biennium."

"It will be interesting to find who signed the purchase orders which caused the overdrift, and who permitted the insurance fund budget to become overdrawn in the bookkeeping of other departments."

"I did it," Governor Ross like to say "I did it," and if that is true, I would like to see them take the credit for this overdrift," the governor concluded.

O'Malley, asked for a statement today, said he would make statements to no one "except the governor who gave me my present appointment."

Clark, later commenting on editorial attacks against O'Malley, said, "Mr. O'Malley is not aggressive in the matter of self-defense, he lets the newspapers and those people who hope to build up their own political fortunes at his expense, hammer him down."

Public Aid Clients Accept Assistance Under New Law

A great majority of those in Twin Falls county who are receiving assistance under the social security or direct relief program, as set up by the state of Idaho, have requested that their assistance be continued under terms as provided by the last legislature. It was announced here this afternoon by H. H. Burkhardt, county supervisor for the department of public assistance.

Under the new arrangement by which assistance funds are distributed, the government is provided with the opportunity of recovery of such funds distributed either from the recipient or from the recipient's estate.

Items Against Property Burkhardt points out that this does not mean property or other items owned by those receiving assistance are signed over to the state. It merely means that funds advanced by the government to the surviving spouse, or dependent but the statute of the limitations shall not begin to run against such claim so long as the collection thereof is prohibited as hereinabove provided. Such claim shall be made by the county or, in cases of cooperative assistance, by the state on behalf of all participants contributing to such assistance.

The law becomes operative with the assistance received the first part of this month.

PYTHIAN'S HEAD VISITS TEMPLE IN TWIN FALLS

"Pythianism" was the topic of an address given by Mrs. Varas Mogrovo, grand chief of the Pythian Sisters of Idaho, who made her official visit to the local temple last evening. She stressed tolerance, and a closer application of its principles in regard to the work of the order and associations with each other.

Short talks were also given by Mrs. Clemence Eldred, a past grand chief; Mrs. Dorothea Putzier, immediate past grand chief; and Mrs. Medaie past grand chief. Mrs. Eldred, chief of the Twin Falls temple. The full work of the temple, including the initiatory ceremonial, was explained by Mrs. Eldred.

Mrs. Mogrovo, Mrs. Eldred and Mrs. Putzier were presented with corsages by Mrs. Morrison on Sunday at the temple and each responded. Mrs. Morrison was also presented a corsage. A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served at the home of Mrs. Margaret Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Eldred. Mrs. Mogrovo was guest of honor at luncheon at the Liliac Gardens. Covers were laid at six tables lighted by red lamps.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Goertzen made the place cards which bore the temple insignia in gold on white paper in the colors of the order.

In the evening Mrs. Mogrovo was entertained at dinner at Wray's cafe with Mrs. Liza Kuitila, Mrs. M. J. McWhir and Mrs. Eunice Gates in charge of arrangements. Spices and peaches centered the table and at either end were crystal bowls of fruit. Lighted lapers in temple colors provided illumination.

Like a perfect host ... it should be a mixer

Blending so smoothly that you neither smell nor taste the gin in the finished drink...

At least, that's the American idea of mixed drinks and Americans ought to know. We invented them! Fleischmann's—the original American gin—is especially distilled to please the American taste. Only 4 men and a safe know the secret formula which gives Fleischmann's its magnificent mixing quality. But everyone can enjoy the smoothness of a Fleischmann drink.

STEEL EADS IN DULL RECOVERY

NEW YORK, May 28 (UP)—Steel shares led an irregular, dull recovery on the stock exchange today. All major security markets and northern commodity markets will be closed tomorrow and Monday. Many traders left the streets today and sales dropped to around the half million share mark.
 The weekly car loadings report, but raised issues continued dull. Automobile production slipped back into line with expectations, but this had no influence on motor shares, which were steady. Continued improvement in farm income exerted a favorable influence on farm shares. Most issues had gains ranging to 2 points. Mail order shares recorded gains. Some interest was displayed in the paper group, notably International Harvester, where gains ranged to more than 10 points. Numerous special issues were advanced by a few cents.
 Non-ferrous metals held just another session of losses. Fertilizer issues were higher. Utilities were mixed, chain radio issues being the highest. Interest in the market continued light here and abroad. However, reports from London connections reported British and American stocks on a balance. British markets will remain open here on Saturday. Dow Jones preliminary closing averages showed: Industrial 174 1/2; Railroads 110 1/2; Utilities 219 1/2 of 0.06.
 Transactions approximated 560,000 shares compared with 600,000 yesterday. Trading was the lightest since the spring of 1935, but transactions approximated 154,000 shares compared with 150,000 shares yesterday.

Army Takes Over Flier Again As 38th Infantry Heads Back to Utah

 Officers were traveling in passenger cars.
 The soldiers will remain overnight at Flier tonight, and will leave shortly before 6 a. m. Saturday for Fort Douglas. The truck convoy will return here Tuesday evening on its way back to Washington.
 No Special Program
 Although hundreds of sight-seers were expected to see the drive to Flier tonight to see the encampment, no special program was planned, officers said. The 38th Infantry band will play a concert April 10 when the troops were headed for Washington, returned to Utah yesterday in the trucks that comprise the main body of troops.
 Col. Walter Fulton is commanding officer of the caravan. The trip is said to be the longest ever taken in motor vehicles by any United States regiment.

Canyon Residents Prepare to Move After 10-Day Limit in Announced

 If some residents refuse to vacate, court orders will be issued and served where necessary.
 This afternoon Sheriff Prater said the residents were taking the matter in a very good way. We do not anticipate any trouble. No court orders have been served up to the present time.
 The squatter section, termed by civic leaders as the eyesore of Twin Falls, is an area occupied since the start of the depression by unfortunate transients, drought refugees and some petty criminals.
 A survey revealed that the oldest resident moved into the canyon in 1907. Since that time the population has fluctuated, during harvest seasons the law has been lenient to an estimated 500 persons.
 Residents Face Problem
 Where to move is the greatest problem facing the residents. Some indicated that they would seek homesites further down Rock creek on the other side of Frame's fish hatchery. Still others are seeking owners in the city with the idea of moving on land which is not used for anything at the present time.
 Under the law the new purchasers legally come into possession of all buildings on the area which they purchased. However, the new owners said, the residents will be given every chance to move their homes. In cases where a refusal to move is made, it might become necessary to evict residents and tear down their dwellings.

OMAHA—Hogs: 1,200; market opened 20c to 10c higher to shippers and traders; closed steady to 10c lower; top $11.00; choice 10.00 to 10.50; averages $10.75; 100 to 180 lbs. $11.15 to $11.45; good packing sows largely $10.10 to $10.75; smooth lightweights upward to $10.75 and better.
 Cattle: 1,500; calves 500; fed steers and yearlings steady; largely $8.75 to $11.50; market 10c to 15c lower; new corn well off 1/2 cent to 1 cent; old corn 1/2 cent higher; and oats 1/2 to 1 cent lower. Indifferent buying demand not successful. Hides and wheat: steadily lower after a weak opening.
 Reports to a local grain house said the first car of 1937 wheat had been received at Fort Worth. It was said to test number one and weigh 62 pounds.
 Profit-taking and the setback in wheat brought down the corn market. Although a fairly good demand was reported for cash corn, it displayed less strength than in yesterday's activity.

YOUNG SLAYERS SENT TO PRISON

Glady MacKnight and Elizabeth Escapa From Electric Chair
JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 28 (UP)—Glady MacKnight, 17-year-old high school girl and her former sweetheart, Donald Whitman, 19, were under sentence today to a prison term for the halcyon murder of her mother.
 The jury saved them from the electric chair by returning a verdict of second degree murder with carries a maximum sentence of 30 years and a minimum of one year. It deliberated only three hours.
 Whitman, who testified that he had confessed the crime to police "to prove his love" for Glady, shouted at her:
 "You made a murderer out of me!"
 The Lombardy Glady accused the verdict with more restraint. The only evidence of emotion was a single tear that trickled down her cheek.
 The jurors said, after their deliberation, that if the defendant had been older, "we would have given them the chair."

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

TIGERS ARE FOUND IN BOTH HOT AND COLD CLIMATES, BUT NOT IN TEMPERATE REGIONS.

THE ENDING, "WORT," FOUND IN NUMEROUS FLOWER NAMES, SUCH AS BELLWORT, SPIDERWORT, ETC., IS AN OLD ENGLISH WORD, MEANING PLANT, OR HERB.

COURBOWS ARE KNOWN ALSO AS "CROW BUGS" BECAUSE THEY BECAME ABUNDANT IN NEW YORK CITY AT THE TIME THE CROTON WATER SYSTEM WAS INSTALLED.

Tigers are common in the hottest parts of India, Burma, and Sumatra, yet they are found high in the Himalayas, at altitudes of six to seven thousand feet. And in Siberia they are to be found withstanding the severe cold of that area, wearing thick, shaggy fur.
