Chrysler and Packard Forced To Shut Down; Over 8,000 Idle

MARTIN IN STEEL FIGHT

Loyal Workers Chase Union Loggers From Town in Michigan

(By United Press)

Two major automobile manufacturers—Chrysler and Packard—were forced to close factories today because of new labor trouble in the Detroit area.

Chrysler closed its Jefferson and Kercheval avenue plants to an estimated 8,100 workers after attendants on the motor line had refused to work with employees who do not belong to the United Automobile Workers of America.

Packard announced that a sit-down strike of 150 workers in the metal stamping and finishing division at Detroit had brought a partial shutdown to the body division where 2,500 workers are employed.

Martin Enters Steel Strike

Gov. Martin L. Davey of Ohio entered the steel strike controversy, proposing to meet with strike leaders in an effort to find a basis of mediation to end a strike which resulted in idleness for 70,000 workers.

In Newberry, Mich., 150 striking loggers and sawmill workers, fled from the city after an unsuccessful attempt to close the plants of the Newberry Lumber & Chemical Co.

FAMED SPEAKER PLANNED JULY 4

Committee for County's 2nd Celebration Will Try For Borah or Hoover

Plans for a nationally-known speaker to address the second annual Twin Falls county independence day celebration at Piller fairgrounds July 4, were being discussed today following a meeting of the county wide committee at Piller last night.

Efforts will be made to secure Ben. William E. Borah, former President Herbert Hoover, H. H. Hays, John C. Overton, Henry Hood of Utah or some other equally noted figure, committee men said.

Don Parks, secretary-manager of the county fair, presided at the meeting of the independence day committee in absence of H. A. DeNeal, chairman.

Parks stressed the need for united effort and asked the committee in connection with cooperation in the event.

Harold Hoover, publisher, was named publicity chairman for the county. Other committees will be named at the next meeting of the general committee, scheduled at the fair grounds June 14.

PROBE FAILS TO REACH DENTIST

Ada County Sheriff Confers With Cassia Authorities On McCarthy Case

(Special)

Failing so far in a search for the dentist in the vicinity of Boise thought to have made a set of false teeth for the murdered F. J. McCarthy of Meridian, believed to be the slain man found Sunday on the desert near Rupert by a sheepman, Sheriff Don Hendrick of Ada county, was scheduled to arrive here this afternoon for a conference regarding the case with Sheriff F. D. Face of Cassia county.

Photographs of the dead man's hands were sent to Washington, D. C., today for possible identification through fingerprint files of the veterans' department, McCarthy having been a World War veteran.

It was said that the taking of actual fingerprints yesterday afternoon, it is hoped the photographs can be enlarged in order that a comparison may be made.

The body of the man, supposedly McCarthy, was buried at the Burey cemetery yesterday afternoon. He has no known relatives.

Patture to find the dentist who made McCarthy's teeth is blamed on the fact they might have been made several years ago and the dentist has moved since that time.

McCarthy was the father of a six-month-old child May 20 at which time a blood-stained automobile was found abandoned near Burey. Police are attempting to find out who had been with McCarthy when he left Boise on (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE FINAL VAN VLACK HOPE

Appeal May Be Made to State Pardon Board For Life In Prison

CLARK NOT APPROACHED

No Request Will Be Made Until Remittitur to Twin Falls Court

(UP)

BOISE, Idaho, June 4 (UP)—An appeal to the state pardon board for commutation of his death sentence to life imprisonment today was seen as the last avenue of escape for Douglas Van Vlack, convicted triple slayer.

It was indicated that an appeal to the state supreme court for resentence proceedings would not be made.

The United States supreme court Thursday declined to extend the statutory 90 days time allowed for filing appeal from state supreme court action, and thus virtually imposed sentence of death on the man who has fought execution through legal channels since his conviction in 1936.

Not Approached—Governor Barilla Clark said today he had not been approached concerning summoning the pardon board to special session, and it was not thought such a request would be made until the state high court handed down its order of remittitur to Twin Falls district court.

A remittitur writ would call for setting the date of execution, if at the state prison, and talked with the state supreme court, and authority rests with the tribunal to release the prisoner to the district court for setting time of hanging.

Prison officials said Van Vlack was maintaining his usual quiet air, and would talk of his case to any one except relatives and attorneys.

Van Vlack, executed, it will be the last hanging in Idaho since July 9, 1926, when John J. White was executed on a conviction of first degree murder.

White, who was sentenced in Twin Falls district court, he pleaded not guilty. He was committed to the penitentiary October 7, 1924.

Price Assumes Duties As Forest Supervisor

He succeeds Carl B. Arntson, recently transferred from Burley to the Wyoming national forest at Kemmerer.

Movie Extra Charges Assault At Film Party; Beery is Hero

HOLLYWOOD, June 4 (UP)—Wallace Beery, the actor, today described as "very orderly as far as I could see" the film studio convention party at which a girl extra, one out of 125 brought there as entertainment, charged she was attacked.

The party was brought to the attention of the district attorney's office by Patricia Douglas, 20, who claimed she was a "movie extra" brought to the party under the impression she was getting film work.

Gaillard "Movie"—Beery had been cast as a "golliwog" "reacher" who offered to drive home another distressed actress, Chicago girl, to her home.

Beery, reached in San Diego, however, declined work, but other than the contents of giving a "kiss" to two of the extra girls seeking to reach a Hollywood studio from the coast is sure of the party.

"Much as I'd like to be a hero, I can't claim the honor," said Beery.

Asked for his part, two extra girls asked me for a kiss but to the studio where they had to check in their costumes, I might have been one of these two girls, perhaps.

Miss Douglas, affidavit said she was brought to the party in the same manner as Miss Douglas, after being outfitted with a costume, and was assigned to help entertain the film work.

As Steel Strike Food Plane Crashed

Sidestepping out of control, this plane, carrying food to the strike beset Republic Steel corporation plant at Warren, Ohio, is shown just after it crashed into a box car for the first air casualty of modern industrial strife.

According to the plant manager, the pilot said engine fire and a barrage of bricks and bolts hurled at the low flying plane frightened him into an uneven landing. The pilot was uninjured.

The 1937 falling plane is a section of the string of cars involved in the crash, and the approach to the runway which had been used by five planes bringing supplies to workers in the plant.

Duke and Duchess Arrive In Venice on Honeymoon

Crowd of 1,000 Cheers Couple as They Stop for 3-Hour Tour of City

VENICE, June 4 (UP)—The duke and duchess of Windsor, smiling and happy, arrived at the famous city of canals at 3:50 p. m. today en route to their secluded honeymoon retreat in Austria.

They were cheered by 1,000 persons at the station. Military and naval officers, Venetian citizens and tourists crowded around the ducal coach as the train arrived. They cheered when the duke and duchess left the train and went to the quay.

Police held the crowd back while the honeymooners culminated on a motor launch furnished by the municipality and started a tour of the city, having three hours for sightseeing before starting for Arnoldstein, Austria.

The duke and duchess were welcomed at the station by the British consul, Albert Meyer, and by Count Belgioioso on behalf of the municipality of Venice.

The duke wore a single-breasted brown plaid suit without vest, a blue shirt and a red tie. The duchess was in a blue and white print frock and small white hat.

Both looked a bit self-conscious as they made their way to the quay between lanes of cheering crowds.

ITALY, GERMANY FORM DEFENSIVE

Two Nations Plan Entente To "Wait For World To Return To Peace"

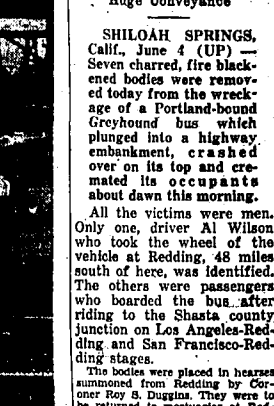

ROME, June 4 (UP)—Italy and Germany have formed a definite defensive entente, Virgilio Gysela, director of the authoritative Giustizia and semi-official spokesman for Premier Benito Mussolini, announced today.

Gysela asserted that while waiting for Europe to return to good peace and reason, Italy and Germany respect already initiated during the bloody trials of the great war between the two armed forces of the two nations, and develops mid-defines the lines of this defensive entente which will appear one day in its true value as a protective shield for the whole of European civilization.

The editor referred to the presence in Rome of Field Marshal Werner von Blomberg, German minister, and declared: "It confirms the cordiality and reciprocal respect already initiated during the bloody trials of the great war between the two armed forces of the two nations, and develops mid-defines the lines of this defensive entente which will appear one day in its true value as a protective shield for the whole of European civilization."

Victims Burn In Greyhound Bus Accident

Substitute Driver Still at Wheel as Flames Consume Huge Conveyance

The bodies were placed in hearses summoned from Redding by Constable Roy S. Dugdale. The passengers were not identified immediately.

SHILOAH SPRINGS, Calif., June 4 (UP)—Seven charred, fire blackened bodies were removed today from the wreckage of a Portland-bound Greyhound bus which plunged into a highway embankment, crashed over on its top and cremated its occupants about dawn this morning.

All the victims were men. Only one, driver Al Wilson who took the wheel of the vehicle at Redding, 48 miles south of here, was identified. The others were passengers who boarded the bus after riding to the Shasta county junction on Los Angeles-Redding and San Francisco-Redding stages.

The bodies were placed in hearses summoned from Redding by Constable Roy S. Dugdale. The passengers were not identified immediately.

Capt. F. S. Curran of the Shasta civilian conservation corps camp, located about a mile from the site of the wreck, said he and a corps of COO boys saw at least seven bodies in the flames-charred wreckage.

"We were still sitting in the driver's seat," he said. "We could see other bodies strewn through the wreckage."

The line's Redding agent, who boarded the bus at Redding, said it was a San Francisco-Portland northbound vehicle at Redding. The passengers were not identified immediately.

The driver was identified tentatively as Al Wilson, a substitute who took over the wheel of the San Francisco-Portland northbound vehicle at Redding. The passengers were not identified immediately.

WALLY BEERY, famed motion picture star, and fan of Idaho sports, today said he was "too busy" to attend the party in which an extra girl charged a salesman with assault.

Beery appeared "out of harmony" with the affair and, getting that she was distressed, politely offered to drive her home. He said she accepted the offer.

SPUD SHIPMENTS CLIMB FOR YEAR

Increase of 96-Cars Revealed For 1936 Crop Compared To 1935 Yield

Potato shipments from Twin Falls covering the 1936 crop year, were 96 cars greater than for the 1935 crop, it was revealed here this afternoon in a spud shipping summary announced by Frank Haasch, Union Pacific agent.

The 1936 crop shipments totaled 901 cars. The aggregate for the previous year was 815 cars.

Estimated income received by growers in this immediate area was approximately $48,730 for the 901 carloads, according to unofficial tabulations based on a tentative average of $2 per hundred and about $720 per car.

The 901 carloads moved out of Twin Falls during the last half of 1935 and the first half of 1937, Mr. Haasch said.

January of this year was the peak month for outgoing potatoes, the summary shows. In that month 125 cars left the local yards. February was next with 132, and April of 1937 and October, 1936, were third with 127 carloads each.

Many are "associating their spirits and forces in defense of their great national values, in which are also associated many common European values."

The editor referred to the presence in Rome of Field Marshal Werner von Blomberg, German minister, and declared: "It confirms the cordiality and reciprocal respect already initiated during the bloody trials of the great war between the two armed forces of the two nations, and develops mid-defines the lines of this defensive entente which will appear one day in its true value as a protective shield for the whole of European civilization."

BEERY NAMED TO ASSISTANCE JOB

BOISE, Idaho, June 4 (UP)—Charles E. Biggs, former county supervisor in Twin Falls, Ada, and Canyon counties, today took over duties as state supervisor for the Idaho public assistance department.

BOISE, Idaho, June 4 (UP)—State young Democrat club officials announced today a convention had been called for August 14 at Shoshone.

CLARK REFUSES AID TO DUNSHIEE

Governor Will Not Intervene In Proceedings of Alty. Gen. Taylor

BOISE, June 4 (UP)—Governor Barilla Clark, who yesterday sat with the board of examiners in a hearing which resulted in discharge of Alty. Gen. Taylor, today said he would not intervene in the case of Dr. J. D. Dunshiee.

Dunshiee was held to be unqualified for office by Attorney General J. W. Taylor, who said the director of state public health had not qualified as an alty. gen. before the court the position in December, 1935.

Governor Clark said the case had not come to court, nor had any court delivered an opinion concerning the case, and that under the circumstances he thought it best for Dunshiee to "fight it out."

Dunshiee yesterday announced that he had retained legal counsel to contest any attempt which might be made to oust him from office.

The governor indicated that he would not intervene in any manner unless a decision was reached as a result of a court test on the case.

Governor Clark said the action of the board of examiners in discharging O'Malley was for the best interests of the state.

The chief executive pointed out that while O'Malley continued in office, the state auditor refused to honor claims or vouchers signed by him.

PHYSICIAN GIVES VACATION HINTS

"Do's and Don'ts" of Summer Period Listed by Health Unit Director

For all those persons vacation bound, it should mean a change in occupation but not too radical a change in daily personal habits.

Dr. W. Hawkins, director of the Falls county health unit pointed out this afternoon, in listing "do's" and "don'ts" of vacation time.

And for those persons who crowd their vacation into two short weeks he points out that, if possible, the whole summer should be used to recoup from the winter's losses.

Dr. W. Hawkins said. "Look over the place where you propose to eat before ordering lunch." Dr. Hawkins said. "Untidy surroundings usually mean dirty people. Dirty people tell dangerous food. Beware of wayside water supplies and farmhouse wells. Better carry a bottle of water from a safe source."

"Habit of decency should not be forgotten in the country any more than at home. The summer cold is as uncomfortable as the winter grippe and almost as dangerous. Avoid it. Sufficient sleep and warm clothing on cool nights will aid."

Beware of Accidents

"On the matter of accidents let me point out that they are bad enough at the best but are likely to be more distressing when they occur far away from home. Watch your step. Don't rock the boat. Unless you are a good swimmer stay close to shore, and above all, avoid excessive sunburn." Dr. Hawkins said.

Because a majority of citizens make vacations via the automobile, Dr. Hawkins stressed the fact that alcohol and accidents are often closely associated.

"Don't drive a car unless you are in full possession of all your faculties, and then only with great care," he said.

If a person "behaves," he points out, a vacation can really be enjoyed to the utmost.

WPA WORK AIDS WATER SUPPLIES

Construction Projects Boost Idaho Values, Says State Administrator

BOISE, June 4 (Special)—Improved conditions through increased water supplies will be noted in future years on Idaho irrigated tracts where the WPA has completed or has underway $3,638,899 worth of conservation work.

L. Hood, state works progress administration administrator announced today.

Storage dam construction, canal digging, extension of laterals, improved drainage and reclaiming of both land and water, will play their parts in boosting values of Idaho crops and acres, Hood declared as he reviewed accomplishments of the Conservation program approved by the state planning board.

Some of the larger projects include reservoirs at Indian Valley and Brundage Meadows in Adams county and at Carey in Blaine county.

When Italy Celebrated Founding of an Empire

Drawn up in great platoons in magnificent Venice square at Rome, thousands of soldiers are pictured here as they took part in the recent celebration of the first anniversary of the founding of the "Italian Empire." Massed on the steps of the great memorial were more uniformed soldiers and black-shirted guards of it. The celebration marked the passing of one year since the conquest of Ethiopia.

C. C. C. COMPANY MOVES LOCATION

Shoshone Camp F-100 Starts Operations; Road Work High on Schedule

SHOSHONE CAMP, C. C. C., Rogerson—Company 587 is now established at its summer location, Shoshone camp F-100, near Rogerson. Moving the camp was begun last week and is now completed except for a few minor details. The company vacated the Rock Creek camp which has served as its winter quarters for the past eight months. Construction and cleanup work at the Shoshone camp is going along at a fast pace. Numerous repairs and changes are being made on the buildings, the grounds must be cleared and a sufficient wood supply obtained before work on the projects can be started in earnest.

Road Work
The major project to be carried on during the summer will be road maintenance and not construction of the Rock Creek road, as stated in a former news item. This work is to include the widening of the Oakley-Rogerson road between Blotter and the Shoshone camp. Numerous turnouts are to be made along this road to accommodate the traffic, as the road was constructed to single track standards.

An unexpected snowfall at Shoshone CCC camp Saturday night, delayed camp construction work for a couple of days. The snowfall was estimated at six to nine inches deep.

Sport Program
Sports and recreation will play an important part in the enrollees' educational program at Shoshone camp this summer. The camp softball team is getting in shape for the coming season and looks very promising. Various other sports including outdoor basketball, horseshoe pitching, volley ball, badminton, ping-pong and track work will be made accessible to the enrollees.

In addition to athletics, "All Camp Night" will be held at regular intervals. On such an occasion all members gather around a campfire to enjoy programs given by the enrollees, tell jokes and join in group singing. The camp educational adviser organizes and supervises the entertainment which has grown to be very helpful in maintaining a high camp morale.

Basque Youths, Back from Spain, Tell War Horrors

Boise, June 4 (UP)—Two Basque youths who heard the whine and crash of high explosives while they hid in underground caverns in Bilbao, and who witnessed the complete destruction of Guernica, were today with parents and friends after being under fire in the Spanish civil war.

They told members of the Basque colony a gripping story of the conflict which has beset parts of Spain familiar to most Basques here.

The lads were Domingo Arizabalaga, 17, and his brother, Joseph, 15, who were evacuated from the war-torn zone through efforts of the American consul in Bilbao.

The two youths had been in Spain for the past four and one-half years, studying and living with their uncle, Marcos Abidal, at Ibarrogue, 20 kilometers from Bilbao.

They said the most horrifying sight they witnessed was the bombing and complete destruction of Guernica, small city near Bilbao, by rebel aviators.

"We were returning by train from Bilbao with our uncle," Domingo said. "From the train we saw 27 bombers approaching."

Then, he related, while the train still moved, panic-stricken passengers leaped from coaches, afraid that the ships overhead would drop bombs on the cars.

Leap Into Stream
"There was a small stream near the tracks. Into this leaped the frightened jostling people, the two lads and their uncle included.

The water was deep enough to cover them, and they alternately swam and floated while from Guernica came the thunder of huge bombs and the crackle of machine guns being turned into the market place.

"We swam and floated," said Domingo. "We saw some people drown. We were in the water three and one-half hours while the rebels destroyed Guernica."

When the bombers roared away from the stricken city, leaving it a mass of flaming wreckage, the passengers crawled to the bank of the stream, and exhausted, collapsed.

The two lads and their uncle retreated, and then hid to Barcelona. They had to go around Guernica. The entire city was burning.

"There were children and old people standing around, crying," said Domingo.

Before the boys were evacuated from Bilbao to Bordeaux, France, by the loyalist government, they were under fire in Bilbao.

"When air raids came," Domingo related, "we fled for the underground tunnels and stayed there until the danger was over."

Once the youths witnessed aerial combat high over the city.

A lone loyalist aviator, beset by seven rebel planes fought and downed three of the fascist ships before he was sent plummeting to earth.

In Bilbao, the lads said food was scarce. "We lived on black bread and rice," Domingo said.

One piece of black bread and a handful of rice was their ration for a day, the lads said.

The boys were landed recently at New York, and by help of Senator William E. Borah, were transported quickly to their homes here.

They said it was "good" to be in a peaceful country once again.

RADIO MINISTER WILL TALK HERE

Dr. A. U. Michelson, Founder Of 1st Hebrew-Christian Synagogue, Coming

Twin Falls will hear a nationally known radio minister deliver two sermons at the First Christian church here Sunday.

He is Dr. A. U. Michelson, founder of the First Hebrew-Christian synagogue of Los Angeles, Calif. He will speak at 3 p. m. and 8 p. m.

Notable Career
The distinguished churchman has spoken in numerous churches of different denominations, according to Rev. Mark C. Cronenberger, pastor of the First Christian church. Dr. Michelson, the son of an orthodox Jew, has had a notable career, starting in Germany in the house of a Jewish rabbi and including studies at several European universities in law, medicine, languages, theology, philosophy and psychology.

His long bar examinations with highest standing before judges of the German supreme court, was himself both a judge and criminal lawyer in Germany, and in those capacities acquired deep insight into human experience.

After embracing Christianity, he gave up his position as an imperial officer in the German courts, surrendered his immense practice as a lawyer in that country, and came to America as professor of foreign languages and literature. He is now the only Christian Jew who has been permanently on the radio preaching the gospel.

Dr. Michelson's First Hebrew-Christian synagogue is the first church of his kind in the world. Within its walls both Jews and Christians worship together in the name of Christ, Mr. Cronenberger said.

Unity
Mrs. Elaine Pike is enlarging and making extensive improvements on her home.

Mrs. Alice Olson, Salt Lake City, is visiting at the home of her son, Floyd Olson.

Primary May festival was held Friday evening. Miss Mary Campbell served as queen over the spring songs, dances, and winding of the Maypole. Mrs. Fred Hill and Mrs. J. C. Paxon, Burley, state board members attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fairchild, Butte, Mont., visited friends here on Monday.

Miss Yolanda Tinsley has completed her third year of teaching at King Hill and will spend her vacation here.

Mrs. Oscar Pike is ill at her home. She returned Sunday from Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Homer and family have moved to the George Haycock farm. They came here from Hurricane, Utah, where Mr. Homer has been teaching in the L. D. Seminary.

Warren Bingham has returned from teaching at Franklin.

Mrs. Alfred Crane entertained Tuesday with a lawn party in honor of the 11th birthday anniversary of her daughter, Minnie.

number. She could phone them; that would save several hours' work.

She rushed back to the newsstand again, and changed three one-dollar bills for nickels. The clerk looked at her in astonishment, and after she left, he tapped his hand against his forehead as he confided to the young man at the other end of the counter.

At nine o'clock she was downtown again, to Columbus Circle, and she changed her course and went over east to work uptown.

At nine-thirty a woman informed her severely that it was too late to show the room that night; she had better come back in the morning.

"I'll try for two more," Dorothy persisted. "I'm a few more, until it's ten o'clock. Not every body goes to bed so early."

It was exactly quarter to ten when she climbed the stairs of the untidy house on the poor side street.

"May I inquire if a young lady who rents this room this morning?" Dorothy asked mechanically.

"A young woman? Yes indeed. A slim, blond young lady." Miss Andrews.

Miss Andrews, Joan had borrowed the name Bob wanted so badly to give to her. Tears of relief sprang into Dorothy's eyes, and she began to hug Mrs. Griggs. "I'm so glad," she said, "that you're so kind as to let me see the room."

"No," she said, "don't think I'm sure just now. I do want to be sure," she thought, "I'll search through her bag and draw forth a snapshot of Joan's smiling face. She'll be surprised to find she's in the drug store. 'Thank you so much,' Dorothy breathed.

"She dashed to the corner drug store, though her knees trembled and she threatened to sink beneath her weight. But her heart was light, and her headache had disappeared. "Thank you so much," Dorothy breathed.

STRENGTH

WASHINGTON, June 4.—War men were less excited about the Russo-German bomb-bombing in Spain than were the fluttering diplomatists. Fighting men felt little prospect of a situation getting out of hand, for reasons which sound convincing.

Hitler and Mussolini in the first place are merely the barker in their respective circus. Behind them, in the invisible arena, are the great powers. No military man can believe the German and Italian general staffs will permit a conflict at this time, unless they wish to commit national suicide.

Their known deficiencies have been widely advertised, but you can get a bird's-eye picture of the whole situation by considering one simple fact. Wars cannot be conducted without iron, ships, airplanes, tanks and men under arms count much in the first crucial clash, and conflicts cannot be sustained without iron.

The latest official figures (1935) show the relative strength of the nations in iron production (millions of tons):

Germany, 12.
Russia, 10.
France, 8.
Japan, 2.
Italy, 0.6.

Note—Some changes have occurred since 1935, notably the acceleration in Britain and Rumania, but Italy has not improved and the relative is about the same.

FACE

No answer that you can find for either Germany, Italy or Spain in their maintaining the Spanish fighting makes any real sense. The only excuse for their interest in Spain is their economic development because their nations were dissatisfied with the division of the bones after the war. The idea is to restore their nations to a diplomatic and economic position in the world without fighting. They want an agreement, but not a war.

So far, they have done fairly well. The economic side has been little on the economic side (except, of course, within their own borders). Neither Germany nor Italy has been able to gain the approval of the BEO for a bond issue. They are unable to cover their international poverty, making the best of their bad situation.

The only cause in Spain is purely political face-saving and face-maintaining. And if they do not fight, they will be without fighting a general war, they

New Sample of Old Diplomacy

The Spanish government has prepared a "White Book" which presents its case to the family of nations much in the same manner of a little boy "telling" on the neighborhood toughies who beat him up.

"This "White Book" is supposed to be a complete and untinted resume of the conditions under which the government was forced into civil war and how it was unfairly clouted by outsiders awaiting their chance to scavenge the marbles that might roll from the Spanish pockets.

All this is well and good. There should be a frank record of a situation which has been so covered with the slime of intrigue and covert plotting—and so fought with the danger of a general war. But the record doesn't end there.

Cables report that the "White Book," as prepared for the League of Nations council, deals mainly with "Italian aggression" against Spain, with little mention of Germany's part on the Rebel side. The only logical deduction is that the Loyalists, with the silent approval of France and Great Britain, were moving to minimize German intervention, allow Hitler to withdraw from Spain without loss of prestige and thus bring about a split in the lately cultivated Berlin-Rome friendship.

Summed up, this means that diplomacy, the strict ethical requirements of vaunted foreign service schools, and myriad peace and anti-Fascist leagues have brought us no nearer, in actual practice, to international honesty than we were before, during and after the World war.

It does not take a genius at modern history to recall how the allies colored half the facts and concealed the other half in order to drag the United States into the World war. It is on the record that Japan sided with the allies because the Japanese were offered an easy grab of German possessions in the Orient. And in the case of Rumania, which sold out to the allies merely because they could promise more war spoils, we have a classic example of intrigue on the grand scale.

After the World war came a flood of "White Books," "Red Books," and "Yellow Books" issued by the individual governments in a feeble effort to whitewash their own guilt. They provided valuable details for the technical historian, but they did not reveal the scheming and plotting or the underhand methods of war making that might steer future generations away from the same kind of trouble.

Experience still is our best teacher, and Americans who feel the stirrings of interest in some "glorious cause" overseas should refrain without delay to the current manipulation of Spain's "White Book" and all that it implies.

Toward Democracy

When the spring elections in Belgium dealt a crushing blow to the ambitions of that country's Fascist party, it began to look as if the swing toward dictatorship might be subsiding in Europe. Further evidence to the same effect is now provided by the elections in Holland.

In Holland the voters gave a strong endorsement to the "middle of the road" policies of Premier Hendrikus Colijn. The Dutch Nazi party, which had expected to win at least 10 seats in Parliament, apparently gets no more than four. The Dutch Communists suffered a similar setback and evidently must forfeit several of the seats they now hold.

For a time it looked as if the swing toward dictatorship would be irresistible. The democracies have got their second wind, however, and the old standards of freedom and liberty are advancing once more.

Job Need Continues

Imperfect as our statistics on unemployment are, they are at least complete enough to show why there is such a wide discrepancy between the increase in employment since the pit of the depression and the continuing large number of unemployed.

Figures compiled by the Alexander Hamilton Institute show that in March the number of employed persons in the United States rose to 41,698,000—highest for the recovery movement, with the exception of last December, and a gain of 8,433,000 since the depression low in March, 1933.

At the same time, there are still—according to the same authority—9,621,000 unemployed persons in the United States, a reduction of only some 7,000,000 from March of 1933.

For as men go back to work the population continues to increase. The supply of workers is larger now than it was when the depression began. To end unemployment, we must actually reach a higher level of employment than we ever have known before even in our best years.

The first customs of the evening were already on the streets, and the mysterious death of John Ware Hendry headlined every front page. Dorothy bought a newspaper and went into the room to read it. So far only the barest details had been made public.

"The police are concerned," she read, "over the simultaneous disappearance of Miss Joan Barrett, secretary to the murdered man. As far as can be determined, Miss Barrett was the last person to see Mr. Hendry alive." That was all, there was no reference to Joan's past.

As she folded the paper together to go to bed, she turned to the classified advertisements on page 23. The words "Rooms to let" struck her forcibly.

From one address to another she hurried; when the distance in between was too great, she took a bus or a taxi. She climbed a staircase, consecutive flights of stairs.

But she found no trace of Joan. Discouraged and defeated, all manner of doubts assailed her. She kept on, nevertheless.

ROBINSON ORDERED TO PUSH COMPROMISE COURT BILL

FDR WANTS VOTE FOR MEASURE AT PRESENT SESSION

Farm Tenancy, Nuisance Tax, Slum Clearance Also Listed on Agenda

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt returned today to the battle for judicial reorganization with orders to senator majority leader Joseph T. Robinson to push a compromise bill to vote at this session.

President and congress are moving toward a test of strength on major issues. Broad programs are being inevitable. Democratic opponents of court reorganization said they welcomed the challenge and supreme court at its normal membership. Robinson said, however, that the high bench needed "new blood."

A compromise favored by many Roosevelt men in the senate would increase the supreme court from nine to eleven in contrast with the increase of six proposed by the President in his court message on Feb. 5.

Coincident with the summons of Robinson to the White House, there was a report that the President had contemplated asking the federal judges to postpone their vacations to clear their dockets. The senate court summer recess began this week.

Lists Keynotes

Robinson listed New Deal legislative keystones for this session as:

1. Farm tenancy.
2. Slum clearance.
3. Extension of nuisance taxes and closing tax evasion loopholes.
4. Executive department and judicial reorganization.
5. Wage and hours bill.

But he quickly denied this was a White House "must list." Enactment was not imperative but was desirable, he said.

Confers at White House

He conferred for more than two hours at the White House last night with the President. Emerging, Robinson said he expected a court vote before adjournment but intimated compromise so broadly that it was believed the President might finally consent to limiting reorganization to the lower courts, leaving the supreme court at its normal membership. Robinson said, however, that the high bench needed "new blood."

SPRING WHEAT IN COUNTY IS GOOD

Weather, Crop Data Show Cold Weather Generally Slowing Growth

Spring wheat is good in Twin Falls county, corn is mostly planted and some beets have been thinned, the weekly weather and crop summary by the United States department of agriculture weather bureau as of June 2, shows.

Some beet fields have been abandoned because of poor stands, the report continues, and alfalfa is limited as backward.

In Camas county, the report shows, winter wheat is looking fine with oats, pastures, meadows and ranges good. Gooding county shows most all crops in a satisfactory condition but backward. At Wendell corn is from three to six inches high. Pastures, ranges and truck crops are good.

At Richfield in Lincoln county the weather is listed as still too cold for growth. Mormon crickets are reported in great numbers. Beans and beets are fair with meadows, pastures, ranges and potatoes slow.

Maximum temperature during the week ending June 2, was above at Weiler, with low recorded at New Meadows being 22 above.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By William E. McKenney

Secretary, American Bridge League

The bridge player who has "two strings to his bow" is much more likely to produce the pleasing music of a fulfilled contract than the player who depends on only one. This of course, is the reason why the advice is repeated so often that a dealer, in making his plan of play, should leave the way open for an alternative line of play if the first line fails.

In today's hand, which is not difficult, it was because the declarer made the correct plan of play and reserved an alternative in case the first line failed, that the contract was made.

The bidding of both East and West was based on the fact that North and South were vulnerable, and the contract was made. It is not spades the sacrifice would be slight, but North had too many high cards and South too much distribution to permit a paying sacrifice.

Today's Contract Problem

South's contract of five hearts has been doubled by East. Should South trump finesse upon a successful trump finesse to make the contract?

Solution in next issue.

The opening lead was won with the ace of spades. South could see that he had to lose one diamond trick, and that the contract might rest on a successful heart finesse. He could discard one loser on the spade king, but this did not solve his problem.

Correctly analyzing his problem, he won the second trick with the ace of clubs and then led a low club to the queen, dropping the last adverse trump. Now he led a diamond to the dummy.

West went up with the ace and led his only heart, but it was too late. The ace won and the losers went on the high spade and diamond.

Had West refused to win the diamond, then a discard would have been taken and the heart finesse tried.

Finally, had West opened the heart, the hand, of course, would have gone down one trick, as the heart king would have been established before the ace of diamonds was driven out.

JAMBOREE UNIT LEADERS NAMED

Naming of Troop Leaders Made at Local Meeting; Pageant Planned

Official appointments of leaders of the Scout jamboree area council, Boy Scouts of America, Jamboree contingent was completed today following a meeting of Jamboree troop leaders held last night at Scout offices in Twin Falls.

Official appointments included that of E. M. Dossert of Kimball as Scoutmaster. Also appointed were Ray F. Potter of Kimberly as assistant Scoutmaster in charge of physical arrangements and Earl Carlson of Murtaugh as assistant Scoutmaster in charge of activities.

Paul Leighton of Twin Falls troop 68 was named senior patrol leader for the Jamboree unit and Walter Williams, Scoutmaster of troop 66, also of Twin Falls, will be a member of its service troop of this regiment.

Plans were also inaugurated for a pageant which will be presented by the Jamboree troop members on June 19, the second day of the area-wide Jamboree which will be held at Lincoln Field in Twin Falls. The program will be given at 8 p. m. and a small admission charge will be made, leaders decided.

2 LETTERS ADD TO PLANE CLUES

Searchers Find Fragments of Mail Postmarked December 14

ALPINE, Utah, June 4 (AP)—Fragments of two letters believed to be from the mail load of a Western Air Express plane that crashed in mountains near here December 13, today were added to other clues that have set scores of men on an intensive search for the plane.

Airline officials and independent searchers believed that latest leads indicated they were on a hot trail that might lead to discovery of the crashed ship at any time.

Co-finders of the latest clues with Will Healy and Frank Bateman, whose original discovery of mail from the ship precipitated the present search, were Ivo Evans and Jesse Spafford. Yesterday they picked up an envelope postmarked Los Angeles, December 14. Bateman and Healy also discovered additional mail clues yesterday, but they refused to name the location of the plane's instrument board had been discovered, but verification was lacking.

Bateman and Healy yesterday brought Fred W. Kelly, WAF chief pilot, to a clump of trees that showed marks of the impact of a heavy body. Trees were shattered as from a heavy blow.

Oll declared to be unmistakably from the wreckage of an airplane has previously been found on the mountain side.

Objections Raised To Use of Duce's Phrases on Dress

ROME, June 4 (AP)—Objections were raised today by the newspaper Il Lavoro Fascista, to the use of quotations from Mussolini's speeches as decorative motifs on women's print dresses.

The paper described the dress of one young girl as being stamped all over with "memorable fighting phrases of Mussolini."

"The Fascist war cry—A Nol—let's go was repeated several times," the paper said, "and in some cases was located on the dress where, because of the association of ideas, it took on a meaning, the least of which can be said, was unexpected."

"This girl may personally virtue; she may be a saint; but her person doesn't seem to be the place to recount that we must: 'March, construct and, if necessary, fight to win!'"

"Wallis Blue" Boudoir Ready for Duchess of Windsor at Old Castle

ARNOLDSTEIN, Austria, June 4 (AP)—A Wallis blue boudoir awaited the duchess of Windsor today at old Wasserburg castle where she and the duke were expected to be tonight on their honeymoon.

Wallis blue wall paper and Wallis blue coverings for the boudoir furniture were given a final inspection today as workmen left the estate after reconstructing the castle and re-doing the gardens.

The white curtained French windows of the boudoir looked out across the swimming pool. Its numerous cracked tiles replaced, and down a beautiful valley.

Paintings which had been on the wall were removed in favor of the wall paper and a profusion of roses in all tints.

The castle is but five miles from the Italian frontier.

Begin in the 13th century and rebuilt in the 18th century, the castle faces the rough bare peaks of the Julian Alps while at the rear is the Gail valley with its peaceful villages embedded in green foliage.

There are 14 individual suites of sitting room, bedroom and bath in the honeymoon nest in addition to the general living quarters.

Townsendites Hear Talk by Organizer

Townsend club number 1 of Twin Falls met Wednesday evening in the high school auditorium for a program of speeches and entertainment.

R. E. Bobler, district chairman, introduced Adolph Giessen, district organizer, who gave a talk on the Townsend recovery program. G. C. Hall, local attorney, also spoke briefly.

Special numbers included: "The Old Refrain," and "In the Gloaming," sung by Mrs. Ronald Graves playing her own accompaniment. "Summer Boat," and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," were presented by Joe Seidel with his mother, Mrs. George Seidel, accompanying him. Clinton Anderson accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Kliffner sang "Little Old Lady," and "Love Ship." Other numbers presented on the entertainment program consisted of readings by Miss LaVaun Hyde and Miss Billie Wilcox.

AUTO "DIM" LAW NOW EFFECTIVE

Other Musts For Idaho Car Owners Include Checkup Of Brake Condition

BOISE, June 4 (Special)—Idaho's new law requiring motor vehicle drivers to dim the headlights of their cars when meeting another vehicle on the highway is now effective. This was the announcement of J. L. Balderston, commissioner of the state department of transportation, in calling drivers attention to a number of the state's regulations. He said that among the "musts" for the drivers to observe were those laws requiring the testing and inspection of brakes and lights, also that drivers must have their driving license renewed before July 1. Extracts of these laws follow:

Must "Dim" Lights
Dimming head lamps—Whenever a motor vehicle meets another vehicle on any highway—the driver is hereby required to tilt the beams of the headlights downward or to substitute therefor the light from an auxiliary driving lamp or lamps which shall give sufficient illumination under normal atmospheric conditions and on level road to render clearly discernible a person 75 feet ahead, but shall not project a glaring or dazzling light to persons in front of the vehicle.

Brakes—Every motor vehicle, trailer and semi-trailer, when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of said vehicle or combination of vehicles and to hold such vehicle or combination of vehicles. All such brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall conform to regulations not inconsistent with this section to be promulgated by the Commissioner.

Proper Lights
Lights—Every vehicle upon a highway within this state during the period from a half hour after sunset to a half hour before sunrise and at any other time when there is not sufficient light to render clearly discernible any person on the highway at a distance of two hundred feet ahead, shall be equipped with a lighted front and rear lamps.

Drivers' License—Every operator's license shall expire July 1 in the second year following the issuance of such license.

Service Honors
Fred E. Rathbun
Friends and relatives attended services held yesterday afternoon at the White mortuary chapel for Fred E. Rathbun who died May 27 at Kimberly, Dr. E. L. White, Methodist minister, officiated at the rites. Music included "The Sun Shall Never Go Down" and "Going Down the Valley," sung by Otis Sampson, Willis Sampson, Vance Naylor and A. R. Spott, all of Hansen, accompanied by Mrs. M. A. Robinson. Pallbearers were J. H. Martin, W. E. Fennwald, Stuart Scott, James Standee and L. R. Carter, all of Hansen. Interment was in Sunset Memorial park.

Sportsmen to Invade Last Of Sawtooth's Wilderness

THE LAND OF PLENTY

SUN VALLEY, Idaho, June 4.—The veil of obscurity shortly will be lifted from a large slice of the nation's last primitive wilderness. With their appetites whetted by thousands of square miles of virgin timberland, mountains, and lakes replete with fish and game, sportsmen soon will begin their initial trek to the great central Idaho wilderness north of here.

There, in a primitive area of 25,000 square miles, much of which has never felt the tread of a white man, they will begin the penetration of a good-sized section of America's last frontier. They will fish roaring mountain streams, the denizens of which never have seen a hook. They will tramp forests far from trail's end.

When the last of the great snows disappear, probably late this month, Sun Valley will be prepared for an influx of sportsmen eager to test their mettle in the wilderness. In the country of the "River of No Return," beyond the mighty Sawtooth mountains, they will vie with nature in a thrilling and dramatic contest.

By pack train from Sun Valley they will cross the Sawtooth range through rocky Galena summit, 25 miles away. Here, in the headwaters of the Salmon river, the famed "River of No Return," they will find the kind of fishing which is the dream of sportsmen.

Lakes, Streams Unspoiled
Through rocky canyons the Salmon makes its way across Idaho in great, meandering curves for almost 500 miles. The longest river wholly within the confines of one state to be found in North America. The boiling, spray-flecked river is the only obstacle that turned back the intrepid expedition led by Lewis and Clark in 1805. After that it remained unconquered for almost 100 years, or until an adventurous riverman rode a flat-

Sharp pinnacles of the Sawtooth mountains pierce the sky in the wilderness north of Sun Valley, Idaho, which is to be penetrated for the first time by sportsmen when the last of the great snows disappear. Left, John Baumann, sports supervisor of Sun Valley lodge, bags a white-faced mountain goat near Marble creek.

bottomed saw through its thundering rapids to the mouth. The canyon through which the Salmon flows is the second deepest in North America and where it has slashed its way through the Seven Devils mountains peaks are 7,000 feet above the river's surface. Along the rim of the great canyon is more than a million and a half acres of the wildest country in America.

It is a region of more than 1,000 lakes, most of them offering virgin fishing. Rivers like the Salmon, the Wood, and the Lost are streams so unspoiled that they might well set a real fisherman to gibbering with delight. The Wood river itself, with its numerous tributaries, offers more than 100 miles of fishing within 30 miles of Sun Valley. And the Wood only touches the great wilderness.

Hunting Matches Fishing
In lakes and streams of the area are rainbow, brook, and native trout, steelhead, Dolly Varden and landlocked and ocean run salmon, some of which have scaled 40 pounds.

LABOR SHORTAGE NOTED ON FARMS

Placement Director Asks Aid From Youth of This Area In Offering Services

Because of a shortage of labor available for work in beet fields and in other agricultural interests, Terry Prater, supervisor of the farm placement service for Idaho with headquarters in Boise, this afternoon urged school boys and girls over 16 years of age to call upon their nearest employment service office and register.

Last year, Prater explained, hundreds of young men from southern Idaho were sent into the north woods for blister rust work. This year, he said, there will be no call for blister rust labor.

"If these young men, who offered themselves for work in the forests last year, will make themselves available for farm work this year the labor shortage will be overcome," Prater said. Prater said that in the interests of Idaho labor all parties concerned should take advantage of this work rather than force importation of laborers from California.

The United States employment service office for this district is located in Twin Falls and is under the direction of Ray Butler, manager.

Soviet Peace Era Seen
WOOSTER, O. (U.P.)—O. D. Gerig, a member of the League of Nations secretariat, believes Russia will be so busy with internal development for the next 50 to 100 years that it will constitute no menace to European peace.

DUCES PASSPORT FOR SALE
LONDON (U.P.)—Premier Benito Mussolini's last passport, issued on Dec. 27, 1921, at Milan, is being offered for sale by a London book-selling firm. Its price is $2,500.

The high mountain country to east of fly into some uncharted lake may perhaps be rewarded by a sight of a great herd of mountain goats, for within 40 miles of Sun Valley are the greatest concentration of mountain goat ranges in the United States.

SUN VALLEY

Gene Van Guilder will have charge of all advertising for Sun Valley both winter and summer. Mr. Van Guilder is connected with Steve Hanagan, nationally known advertiser. Bob Miles, who is in charge of outdoor sports, is in California and nothing has been done toward the construction of the rodeo grounds. The new highway to Sun Valley is receiving a surfacing of Raylig. The state highway department is doing the work and all traffic will be detoured to the construction road which runs directly from the T. P. warehouse over the hill and into Sun Valley. The Trail creek road is badly in need of repair. It is hoped that the road will be widened and improved as the road in its present condition will probably not be traveled by many motorists. The trip over Trail Creek summit is a beautiful one and should not be missed by any motorists. Word was received in Ketchum that J. V. McNeil was seriously ill in a Los Angeles hospital and was not expected to live. But word was received later from Lawrence McNeil that his condition had improved. Mr. McNeil and his brother Lawrence are contractors for the new Challenger Inn.

TRAILERS SCHOOL
KENT, O. (U.P.)—A camp for automobile trailers is being built on the campus of Kent State University for the use of summer session students who own mobile homes.

IT USES NO CURRENT AT ALL
THAT'S what we mean by FULL POWER Kitchen-proved

Think of an electric refrigerator that uses no current at all more than 80% of the time! That builds up enough cold in just a few minutes to last almost an hour! Here's real full-powered refrigeration... and operating economy, too. It's the new Kitchen-proved Westinghouse—Kitchen-proved the world over.

In tests early this year, running time of the mechanism averaged only 13%—much less than two hours out of twelve. Current consumption also was remarkably low—averaging only 2.3 kw. per day, only 10 kilowatt hours per month.

But... come in and see the new Kitchen-proved Westinghouse!

DATED BEER

This famous trade-mark means "ONE OF THE WORLD'S REALLY FINE BEERS"

WHENEVER you order beer... on draught, in bottles or in "Kaglined" cans... look for the famous red Lucky Lager "X" trade-mark, it's your guide to "one of the world's really fine beers."

For Lucky Lager is a product of highest quality, made of only the choicest ingredients that money can buy, under the exclusive Lucky Lager brewing process. It is slowly mellowed "Nature's Way"... the expensive way... in sanitary aging tanks.

One golden glass of Lucky Lager will convince you that it is deliciously different from ordinary beer. You'll enjoy Lucky Lager's rich, full-bodied flavor... its creamy smoothness... its refreshing tang.

For beer at its best, insist on Lucky Lager... the dated beer.

4 MILES IN 5 ARE STOP-AND-GO

It's the costliest kind of driving you do

STARTING UP after just one stop can waste enough gasoline to take you 1/2 of a mile.

To cut down the high cost of stop-and-go driving around town, Shell engineers have developed a way to "balance" gasoline.

By this balancing process the entire chemical structure of gasoline is rearranged. Actually it is made "digestible" for your motor, just as food is made digestible for you by cooking.

When you're starting, shifting, accelerating—at all times—your motor gets the full benefit of Super-Shell's high energy contents.

"Motor-digestible" is the best way to describe this gasoline.

Try a tankful of Super-Shell at the Shell dealer in your neighborhood.

Wedding Gowns Seen At Aid Society Event

Modeling of wedding gowns dating from 1849 and to 1937 was a feature of the unusual program arranged yesterday afternoon by Mrs. James Vandenberg following a dessert luncheon. Title of the program was "June, the Month of Brides" and introducing it was a paper on "Marriage Customs" by Mrs. Earl Walker, explaining the traditions surrounding the use of the wedding veil, the best man, the honeymoon and other wedding customs.

As Mrs. I. G. Goodding played a wedding march the gowns were modeled. The bonnet and shawl worn by the mother of Mrs. Lulu Cecil in 1847 was shown first by Miss Edna Foster. Mrs. Corda Bowen's gown of 1890 was modeled by Miss Gwendolyn Helfrecht. Dorothy Van Engelen showed the dress worn first by her grandmother in 1894 and later by her mother. Mrs. Joseph Blake's dress which she wore on New Year's Eve in 1930 was modeled by Miss Foster.

The dress worn by Mrs. Frank Schubert in 1900 was shown by Mrs. Caroline Dudley and a gown from the trousseau of Mrs. Thomas Mott in 1901 was modeled by Myrtle Madding. Mrs. Frank Kellogg's dress dating from 1913 was worn by Miss Lorene Fuller and Mrs. F. A. Goodykoont's dress of 1925 was worn by Miss Anna Ruth Goodding.

Miss Edna Foster modeled Mrs. Lloyd Gilmore's dress which she wore in 1927. Mrs. Lewis Hack, Piner, wore Mrs. Ralph Day's gown of 1923 which was enhanced by a veil made in Italy. Dorothy Van Engelen showed Mrs. Edgar Ehler's dress worn in 1929 and Miss Fuller displayed Mrs. Fred Stump's gown which she wore in 1932.

Those modeling their own wedding dresses were Mrs. A. E. Dillon, who was married in 1936, Mrs. A. W. Madland, 1936, and Mrs. J. T. Anderson, Jr., 1937. Coinciding number was "Bachelors" sung by Mrs. Raymond Graves, accompanied by Mrs. O. H. Simpson.

Proceeding the program luncheon was served at quarter tables attractive with spring flowers. The room was also trimmed with baskets of garden blossoms. Devotional were

OFFICERS NAMED BY CLUB MEMBERS

Mrs. Violet Herrick was elected president of the Dutch and Chatter club at yesterday's meeting held at the Herrick home with Mrs. Elsie Swanson as co-hostess. Other officers are Mrs. Frieda Douglas, vice president, and Mrs. Mildred Cowham, secretary-treasurer. Roll call was answered by 11 members with Father's day quotations. By-laws were read and revised and it was decided to continue the friendly surprise feature. The prosperity gift was received by Mrs. Douglas. Confetti featured the social hour and prizes were won by Mrs. Jessie Smith and Mrs. Phyllis McInturf. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served. It was announced that the next meeting will be held June 17 with Mrs. Ada Baily, Kimberly, and that there will be an outdoor party and wether roast on Sunday evening for members and their husbands to be held at the home of Mrs. Bess Herrick. Guests were Mrs. H. A. Gilson, Miss Jerry Herrick and Miss Smith.

GIFT RECEIVED BY AID SOCIETY

Mrs. Eleanor Rommetved presented Immanuel Lutheran church with communion veil at yesterday's meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society. The session was held in the church parlors with 34 members present and five guests entertained. Rev. M. H. Ziegler led the devotional and Mrs. Bertha Werner, secretary of Christian knowledge spoke on "Synagogue of the Church". After the business session the afternoon was spent in sewing. Mrs. Pauline Knigge was hostess.

CONVENTION PLANS MADE BY AUXILIARY

At last evening's meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans held at Legion Memorial hall plans were made by the group for the state campmeeting to be held July 12 to 14 at Pocatello. Decision was reached to cancel July and August meetings and commence fall activities with the September session.

BRIDE-ELECT FETED AT PARTY

Miss Sara Laubenhelm, who is to be married next week, was complimented last evening at a card party arranged by Mrs. Gene Dillon at her home. Pincushes as play through the evening and prizes were received by Miss Sara Laubenhelm and Miss Lillian Laubenhelm. Following the games shower gifts were presented to the honoree. At a late hour refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. W. Madland.

Members of the Bid-Or-By club were guests on Wednesday of Mrs. C. J. Nordling at luncheon at her home. The rooms were trimmed with peonies and iris. The afternoon was spent in contract with prizes going to Mrs. C. W. Duerig, Mrs. V. C. Balaantyne and Mrs. Carl Anderson.

NEW STAFF NAMED BY SOCIETY

Members of the Missionary society of the Church of the Brethren meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. N. Nicholson near Piner, elected the following officers for the coming year: Miss Ethel Hempleman, president, and Mrs. Ella Norris, vice president, and Mrs. Faith Perry, secretary-treasurer. The program which was arranged by Mrs. Irene Melton, included a reading by Miss Lois Nicholson; vocal duet, "Home Town," Miss Mary Wright, and Miss Virginia Keplin, and "The Cross of Calvary," a report on the book, "Gongo Crosses," by Mrs. Dorothy Ronk. Group singing was the final number.

EVENT ARRANGED FOR NEWLY-WED COUPLE

Mrs. and Mrs. Bruce Glendon, who were married June 1, were guests of honor last evening at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hewlett at their home. Mrs. Glendon was formerly Miss Wanda Hewlett, daughter of the hostess. The table was trimmed with crystal bowls of painted daisies. During the last course of the dinner Mrs. Glendon cut and served a three-tiered wedding cake, the gift of Mrs. A. C. Rutherford. Mrs. Hewlett was assisted by Mrs. Rudolph Martin. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Glendon, Mrs. Florence McAuley, Mrs. Mae Glendon, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Keplin, and Mrs. Bernice Hazel, Bobe, Clinton Anderson, Mansel Westfall, Weldon, Jr., and members of the Hewlett family.

CARD CLUB GAMES

Members of the card club to which she belongs were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. George Chiles at her home. At cards prizes were won by Mrs. Paul Wellner and Mrs. Jess Sisley.

MEETS FOR GAMES

Following the games refreshments were served. A guest was Mrs. Gisley.

MEMBERS ENTERTAINED

Members of the Bid-Or-By club were guests on Wednesday of Mrs. C. J. Nordling at luncheon at her home. The rooms were trimmed with peonies and iris. The afternoon was spent in contract with prizes going to Mrs. C. W. Duerig, Mrs. V. C. Balaantyne and Mrs. Carl Anderson.

GRANGERS AWAIT TALK BY LEADER

Arrangements Completed For Visit By L. J. Taber at Piner Monday

Final plans were completed today for the visit Monday of L. J. Taber, Washington, D. C. national master of the Grange, who will be guest of Pomona Grange members and others interested in agriculture at a special all-day picnic meeting called for Monday noon at Piner fair grounds. Announcement of the plans was made today by E. L. Metz, master of the Pomona Grange of Twin Falls county.

Taber is en route from Washington to state sessions of the Oregon and Washington Granges. He is accompanied by Fred T. Freestone of New York and E. A. Eckert of Illinois, both members of the executive committee of the National Grange. During the picnic lunch cream for coffee will be furnished by Twin Falls county subordinate Granges. Each will contribute one gallon, Metz said.

Taber has just completed a series of conferences with Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and other agricultural leaders and will inform Grange members here of latest developments in the field. Aside from Grange members, Metz points out, all farmers are welcome and urged to attend.

Study of Peace Begun by L. D. S. Women's Class

Promotion of peace has been chosen as a study project for the month of June by the women's adult class of the L. D. S. church Sunday school which will have the subject discussed at every church meeting held in the first ward. It has the approval of Bishop N. W. Arrington and is directed by a committee comprising Mrs. C. Vern Yates, chairman; Mrs. W. W. Thomas and Mrs. Bertha Miller.

The first meeting on this subject was held yesterday afternoon in the stake chapel, attended by 29 or more members of the Relief society. Mrs. L. A. Hansen, one of the stake counselors, reported. The Primary department officers will direct the project of peace among the youth of the church, and the adult division will be directed by the Relief society, Sunday school and the Boy Scouts. Mrs. Hansen explained. Speaker was Mrs. A. O. Larson.

The project has been adopted at this time because young people are out of school now and may become interested in a special study of this kind. Many young people are inclined to join groups in which they often develop the "gang" spirit, the peace committeewomen reported.

They hope that by encouraging and discussing peace they may help to dissuade boys and girls from getting interested in any activities or ideas relating to military matters. One purpose in this respect is to help eliminate military toys such as cannons and guns, the women state, and to take the "glory" idea out of war.

Methodist League Stages Kid Party

Approximately 30 members and guests of the Bethany Epworth League of Methodist church met in the church parlors last evening for a kid party.

Hosts for the evening were Loren Fuller, Margaret Vasquez and Earl Hayes. To the members dressed in kiddie costumes and enjoying all-day suckers, the main feature of the evening was a gallery of baby pictures for guests to identify.

Towards the best costumes went to Helen Davis and Lyle Pearson. Children's games occupied the evening and refreshments were served at a late hour from tables decorated with a profusion of flowers. Miss Mable Case, sponsor of the group, was in attendance.

Church Here Files Incorporation Copy

Headed by a board of deacons as administrators, the Pentecostal Church, Inc., Twin Falls, today had filed certified copy of articles of incorporation with the county recorder.

The church, with property estimated at $3,500, elected F. E. Faden and H. G. Hills to one-year terms on the board; H. B. Haynes and Lyman Collier, two years, and Charles Alfred Herron and John McGinnis, three years. O. W. Witham, Twin Falls attorney, drew up the articles of incorporation.

Church Nearly 150 Years Old

Sacred Heart Religious Group Claims to Be Oldest West of Snakehollow

CEANEWAUGH, Pa. (UP)—Sequel-Centennial celebrations on June 31 to establish official recognition of the Sacred Heart church here "the oldest in 1723. The religious worship of any denomination west of the Snakehollow River," is expected to attract more than 25,000 Roman Catholics to a Pontifical field mass.

The Catholics also will claim recognition of the tiny Sacred Heart Church," as the first one on the North American Continent. Records, meanwhile, are being searched by the Sacred Heart diocesan priests to learn if the claim may be extended to other parts of the world.

Bishop George L. Leach, announcing the observance said the first mass was celebrated in "The Mass House," in 1723. The "house" was a hall in the residence of a surveyor, Robert Owings, who objected to property from the "Right Hon. Charles Lord Baron of Baltimore and Avalon."

While the history of Conego goes back to the early years of the early 18th century, Bishop Leach said, "the present Sacred Heart church," dates to 1787, being the second church built by the Jesuit Fathers on the site. This is the first church in North America, if not in the world, dedicated to the "Sacred Heart."

Students of 18 high schools in the Harrisburg diocese, scheduled to present a large concert depicting the founding and first years of the church, rehearsed parts and music for several months, without being told when and where they would act their parts.

Bit of Wood Brings Sinus, Eye Trouble

ANDOVER, O. (UP)—Scott Clark did not worry about his sinus troubling him, since most people have sinus trouble anyway, until he began seeing double.

He went to Ashland, O., general hospital, was X-rayed and operated upon. The surgeon found a piece of wood as large as a quarter of an inch in diameter, which had been lodged in his eye, and was being pushed on the eyeball.

It became lodged there when Clark had been sawing wood two months before, and a small piece of wood, caught in the saw-teeth, was flung against his forehead with great force. He is recovering, although it will be some time before his normal sight will be restored.

McClosky Health camp. Mrs. A. R. Scott had charge of the program and gave a book review. Reports from the delegates to convention were given. Mrs. Nelson Bryant, sister-in-law of Mrs. Stuart Stevens, visiting here from Edwall, Wash., was a guest. Refreshments were served from a tea table with Mrs. Kenworthy and Mrs. Byram presiding. The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. T. E. Calley.

Members of the Junior Latawah club will hold their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cletus Kluttz.

SPANISH BASQUES JUBILANT AT DEATH OF GENERAL MOLA

LOYALISTS OPEN OFFENSIVE AFTER CRASH OF PLANE

Gen. Davila Will Succeed Rebel Leader on War Front in North

By HARRISON LAROCHE
HENDAY, French-Spanish Frontier, June 4 (AP)—Basque loyalists, jubilant at the death of Gen. Emilio Mola, opened a general offensive on all fronts in the Bilbao area today in hope of smashing the nationalist stage.

Gen. Antonio de Aguirre, president of the autonomous Basque loyalist republic, took the field and ordered his men to attack wherever they had into attacks in all sectors.

Basques celebrated the death of a man whom they hated—and believed to be the strongest man the nationalists could put in the field. Davila Named.

Gen. Francisco Franco, nationalist commander in chief, named Gen. Jose Fidal Davila, president of the technical commission in his governing junta to succeed Mola as head of the Basque front and nationalists asserted that he would continue Mola's drive on Bilbao without pause.

Informants intimately acquainted with the Bilbao front where Italian and active, the nationalist advance of the nationalists on Bilbao largely to Mola's personal leadership. They said that his use of flexible movements particularly showed him to be a first rate strategist.

Mola was the youngest general in the Spanish army at the time of his promotion after the world war and he was second only to Franco himself among nationalist leaders. He captured Iruin and San Sebastian, and was in command of the Madrid front at the time when the nationalists made their best progress.

Killed in Crash
Mola was killed yesterday when his plane crashed into a mountain in dense fog on his way from Victoria to Valladolid. With him died Lieut. Col. Pozas, a brother of the loyalist general Sebastian Pozas; Capt. Chamorro, the plane's pilot; Maj. Oheane of the general staff and Sergt.-Mechanic Barrado.

Field Chamorro found himself trapped in mountains. Presently saw him turn one way, then another, each time to start into a peak. He sought a way through the mountains, but a wing caught on the jagged out-cropping rocks. Only a shepherd boy saw the actual crash. He ran to the village of Castille de Peones nearby with the news. Villagers identified Mola, badly mutilated like the others, by his general's rank and the documents he carried.

The bodies were taken to Burgos and placed in a room in a candle-lighted room of the captain-general's headquarters. Mass was solemnized for them this morning, and burial with military honors arranged.

Yes—And Feeling Fine, Thank You

Kenneth Wall, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wall who reside southwest of Twin Falls, is pictured above as he received treatment at St. Alphonsus hospital in Boise for infantile paralysis. Treatment was made possible through cooperation of state and national governments. The youth is home and "feeling fine" at the present time. (Photo courtesy Idaho Statesman).

Treatments Promise Cure For Young Paralysis Victim

When he was nine years old, Kenneth Wall, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wall, residents southwest of Twin Falls, was stricken with infantile paralysis.

Today, at the age of 12, the boy still has his left arm and shoulder, the affected parts, in a brace; but, physicians say, he will be able to use the arm again in the near future.

Kenneth's condition was discovered at a children's clinic held in Twin Falls last year. His case was brought to the attention of the proper authorities and he entered St. Alphonsus hospital in Boise last November. Treatment was made possible, at no cost but transportation to the parents, through funds set up by the children's bureau of the United States department of labor and snatched by state funds.

This he still wears but in the future it is anticipated he will be able to use his arm once more. Without the treatment, physicians said, the youth would have gone through life with his arm permanently injured.

Since being discharged he has returned to Boise once for an examination and was found to be much improved.

Numerous other cases such as that of the Wall boy are being cared for through children's bureau.

Crippled children work in this section is carried on through the Twin Falls county health unit.

Last year's clinic was the first scheduled in Twin Falls. Another is anticipated before school gets underway next fall.

GOLD DUMPED ON LONDON MARKET

Price Breaks as Bars Worth $21,100,000 Placed For Sale

LONDON, June 4 (AP)—Gold hoarders dumped a record total of $21,100,000 in gold bars on the London bullion market today, breaking the price 4 pence an ounce and creating confusion in gold shares on the London stock market.

Heavy selling of gold bars before time of price fixing—a total of 1,493 bars coming to the market—largely was attributed to the heavy selling of gold shares on Switzerland yesterday. This latter was interpreted in financial circles as meaning that the bank for international settlements had "heard something."

Such selling brought out further demands from the financial district—demands which even spread to the house of commons in debate yesterday—for some sort of joint statement from signatories to the tripartite exchange agreement. Such a statement, the financial district believes, will check the panic offerings of gold by those who have hoarders since the supplies in London banks recently. It is estimated that there is a total of 20,000,000 ounces of gold still remaining in London with a valuation of around $140,000,000.

Since the second gold scare started May 24, gold hoarders have unloaded a total of $77,415,000 in gold bars. The bulk of which has been taken by the exchange equalization fund at various discounts under parity.

Jean Francois Platre de Rozier, court scientist, was the first human being to make a balloon ascent, in Paris in 1783.

Smartest Middle

If he continues the record made at Annapolis, Jack A. Obermeyer ought to find life easy sailing. Honor student of the 1937 class, the New York midshipman will be presented the first commission at graduation exercises.

"COMPOSERS" IN PHONE BOOK

CLEVELAND, OH — Famous composers are well represented in Cleveland's newest telephone directory. The book reveals nine Bachs, eight Mendelssohns, seven Schuberts, five Handels, three Haydns, three MacDowells, two Nevins and a Verdi.

Including transportation costs, the average travel expenditure per day is $8.43. This includes travel by rail, boat, plane, train, and bus.

PLAYGROUND SITE OPENS SATURDAY

Ceremonies to Mark Spot in Summer Recreation Setup in Twin Falls

Everything was in readiness this afternoon for the opening of the city playground at Drury park tomorrow morning at 10 a. m. with supervised play under the direction of W. P. A. supervisors. It was announced jointly by Larry Lundin, Twin Falls recreational director, and Don Spaugy, area supervisor for the state recreation division with headquarters in Twin Falls.

Workers have completed installation of a large bulletin board at the park and a flag pole was being installed this afternoon. A teeter-totter, sand box, horizontal bars and horse shoe courts have also been completed.

Opening Ceremonies
Opening ceremonies will be held at 10 a. m. and parents are invited to attend. During the first day volleyball, circle games, singing games and croquet will feature. The wading pool will not be ready for opening day, repairs not yet having been finished.

At the park Olive Daily will have charge of girl's activities while Delbert Smith and Eugene Breedlove will supervise activities among the boys. The supervised play periods will be held each day from 10 a. m. to noon; 1 p. m. to 6 p. m. and 7 p. m. to 9 p. m.

Harmon Monday
Opening of the playground at Harmon park, also under the sponsorship of the Twin Falls Recreation Association, will be held Monday morning starting at 10 a. m. The same schedule that will be observed at Drury park will be followed at Harmon.

It is also possible, Spaugy said, that a WPA woman supervisor will be stationed at that park during the day to supervise play for younger children at that point.

40,000 Elks Slated To Visit in Denver

DENVER, June 4 (AP)—Denver will be the host city this summer to the first national Elks convention, expected to be one of the largest fraternal meets ever held.

More than 40,000 members and their families, representing the 1,600 Elks lodges in the United States and insular possessions, are expected for the week-long gathering which opens July 11.

Nursery School Continues Here

With thousands of city school children out on summer vacation, "school" is continuing for students at the WPA nursery located in portables at the rear of the Lincoln school building, and they like it.

This afternoon Maude M. Mason, head teacher, announced the nursery would continue through June and part of July. A full program of visitations to various city parks has been arranged for the youngsters as well as outdoor games and other amusements. Story telling also features the program which is under direct supervision at all times.
