Sen. Asks Amendment to Bill Asking Law to Limit Power of Postmaster General

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
WASHINGTON, June 12 (UP)—A senate battle over federal investigation of labor disputes was threatened today as a result of proposals to "find the facts" behind charges of illegal activities in the steel strike.

The controversy centered in the usually placid post office committee, headed by Sen. Kenneth D. McKellar, D. Tenn. It involved the scope and manner of conducting an inquiry originally proposed by Sen. H. Styles Bridges, R. N. H. into charges that union representatives "censored" mail addressed to picket-besieged Ohio steel plants.

Protection Will Be Given to Mass Meet at Monroe

Michigan Governor to Attend Gathering of Union Workers

DETROIT, June 12 (UP)—Gov. Frank Murphy announced today that a battalion of Michigan national guardsmen and a detail of state police would be sent to Monroe Sunday to safeguard the peace and "guarantee the right of free speech and free assembly" to a union mass meeting near the city limits.

Murphy himself will attend the meeting, to be held three miles north of the city limits, but will not speak.

"We are working this out in a common sense way to safeguard both the peace and security of Monroe and its citizens and at the same time to guarantee the rights of free speech and free assembly to union members," the governor said.

"Martial law," the governor emphasized, "has not been, and won't be declared."

Approximately 100 state police will go to Monroe.

"The vigilance of Monroe will not be operating tomorrow," the governor said. "All possible traffic will be kept outside of the city of Monroe."

New Health Bureau Head Says No Place in Idaho to Train Assistants

BOISE, Idaho, June 12 (UP)—The future of Idaho's public health service, already endangered by departmental decurt, today was said to be further menaced by the lack of adequate training facilities for public health workers in the state.

Dr. W. H. Hawkins, newly appointed director of public health, said that nowhere in the state could there be found hospitals or educational institutions with facilities for education of persons for public health work.

"There is not a medical school in the state," he said. "The University of Idaho at Moscow is not equipped to train workers effectively."

Outside Workers
Hawkins said lack of such facilities caused the public health department to have to depend on the selection of solicitors workers from outside the state.

BRIDGE COMPANY PLACES COST FIGURES AT $1,108,709

REPORT CHARTS. ANNUAL INCOME WITH EXPENSES

Commissioners of Twin Falls and Jerome Counties Get Data They Demanded

Cost figures on which toll opponents hope to base condemnation and eventual sale purchase of the Twin Falls-Jerome inter-county bridge had been filed today with the county commissioners of Twin Falls and Jerome counties.

Showing an estimate of $1,108,709.06 as the cost of constructing and equipping the 1,400-foot span across the Snake canyon, the report was filed only three days before the original deadline for forwarding of franchise. Commissioners of both counties served notice April 13 that the franchise would be voided if overdue annual reports were not submitted within 60 days.

Revenue from bridge tolls—allotted to Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce drive against the present charge to users of the span—highest for six years. Revenue report submitted to Bruce C. Shoria, Seattle, head of the Twin Falls-Jerome inter-county bridge company, revealed today.

Depression bottom in revenues was $52,292.82 in 1933. This was the lowest revenue total listed for the full year, although the light and one-half months from the opening of the bridge on Sept. 15, 1927, had been included.

Interest item largest. By far the largest item under expenditures each year is the interest on the bonds. This was $127,063.00 last year, although the amount of the bridge from the least burdensome of the major items, amounting to $112,359.00 in 1936 and being completely absent in the nine years covered by report.

Interest charges, as listed by the company's survey, ran from $28,219.12 last year to $50,152 in 1932.

Cost of building the bridge, Mr. Shoria advised the two county boards, included $550,000 for steel, $100,000 for the concrete bridge and dredging company, Seattle, for construction and materials, and $145,000 for engineering to the Union Bridge company.

Added Payments. In addition the lump sum contracts for erection of the giant bridge, Mr. Shoria said, are being communicated to the commissioners the fact that a $58,700.00 cash payment was made last year. He itemized them as follows:

Supervising engineer, $6,000.00; interest during construction, $24,000.00; highway improvement, $15,000.00; garage and water plant, $1,000.00; premium to contractor for completion ahead of schedule, $1,254.45; proportion of trustees fees and salaries and traveling expenses of the chief engineer, $2,000.00; office and miscellaneous equipment, $2,000.00.

WOMEN PROTEST CLERK DISMISSAL

Mrs. Bailey, Chief Aide in Game Department, Ousted By McIntyre. BOISE, Idaho, June 12 (UP)—Women's civic organizations were gathering today to protest the announced dismissal of Mrs. Lucille Bailey, chief clerk of the state game department, for six years.

It had been previously announced that Mrs. Bailey would "break in" Smith when he came to the department on June 15 to assume duties of chief deputy to Smith.

McIntyre said, however, that Mrs. Bailey's future with the game department would rest entirely with Smith.

Mrs. Bailey will be subordinate to Smith, he said, "and if Smith wants to keep her working, it's okay with me."

When word of the impending change came out, first among women leaders to protest any such act was Mrs. M. J. McGowan, state professional and Business Women's club.

At a recent meeting in Pocatello, a strong resolution of protest against the action being given preference over women in appointive jobs was adopted, and copies were sent to McIntyre.

It was indicated today that members of the club would conduct a mass protest against the change.

"Such a dual system of banking as is now in operation should be protected and encouraged for the best interests of the nation."

"We members of this association therefore do on record as opposed to passage of these bills, or passage of any other legislation that will impair or restrict the present dual system of banking, or that will change present restrictions now governing the extension of branch banking beyond state lines."

The private banks, with interest and liberal withdrawal privileges allowed the depositors by the postal savings system are now getting insurance on his deposits up to $5,000, and we feel that the need for the postal savings system has passed."

The association also warned the nation that the use of the most serious dangers confronting it is the "illusion that government expenditure is in itself a cure for economic ills."

SEWER LINE PROGRAM WILL START SOON IN TWIN FALLS

30 BLOCKS WILL BE LAID IN NEW IMPROVEMENTS

Additional Street Projects Will Be Bought Under WPA Set-Up

A sewer line installation program in Twin Falls, which will include the laying of nearly 10 blocks of four or six inch cast iron pipe, and in some instances, replacement of wood lines, will get underway here in the immediate future, it was announced this afternoon by Hamer Adams, superintendent of the city streets and water works department.

Completion of the sewer line project, which has been approved by WPA, will see new sewer lines installed along three blocks of Third avenue east and three blocks of Elm street in the Block addition; five blocks in the Shoop avenue, eight blocks in the alley between Plimrose and Harmon streets in the Elk Lakes addition; the entire length of Pine street in the DeLong addition; two blocks between Shoshone street and Third street west of the alley running between Fourth avenue west; two blocks along Commercial avenue, which will replace wooden pipe.

Representing approximately 17,000 man hours of work, the project will represent an expenditure of $12,353.22 of which materials will total $9,954.62 and WPA labor will be furnished by the government at a cost of $2,398.60, Mr. Adams said.

Announcement was also made this afternoon of WPA approval of a project calling for curbing, grading, seeding and other improvements of city owned property. This project includes 12 triangular areas where the streets intersect. Additions include Blue Lakes boulevard and Washington street. Also included is construction of a 24 inch rock retaining wall on both sides of the open lateral which crosses a section of Harmon park.

At Shoshone Falls also approved a project calling for improvement of the city-owned park area at Shoshone falls. This work may be started in the near future, Adams said.

Projects for which application will be made to Boise in the immediate future, according to Adams, will be one calling for replacement of the flush line from the filter plant. Also applied for will be a street improvement project for the entire city which will permit grading and graveling of travelways as well as improvement of crossings whenever demanded.

It is also proposed to set up a sewer project to complete the Five points sewer and make the municipal sewer system in the city broad enough to include any necessary sewer improvements which might be required in the future.

Mapping President's Conservation Plan

Full flung control of the natural resources of the nation is that proposed by President Roosevelt in bills now before Congress providing for the establishment of seven great river valley authorities. The plan, as shown on the above map, is to develop natural resources, to develop navigation, flood control and electric power. Starting in the east, these authorities would include the Atlantic seaboard; Great Lakes and Ohio valley; drainage basins of the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers; drainage basins of the Missouri and Red rivers of the north; the Arkansas, Red and Rio Grande rivers; basins of the Colorado river and rivers flowing into the Pacific south of the California-Oregon lines; the Columbia river basin of the Pacific northwest. In addition, the President proposes to continue the existing Mississippi River commission, as an eighth giant authority governing the channel of the stream itself.

Russians Execute 7 Generals, Marshal for Alleged Treason

Bullet Riddled Bodies of Eight Officers Believed Placed in Prison Morgue

By NORMAN D. DEUEL
MOSCOW, June 12 (AP)—The bullet riddled bodies of eight high army officers were believed to be those of the officers executed in a Moscow prison morgue today, according to a Soviet newspaper in evidence of the swift, merciless punishment that Russia metes to traitors.

The eight men, a marshal and seven generals—the marshal, Mikhail Tukhachevsky, regarded as Russia's most brilliant soldier—were convicted on their own confessions of espionage in behalf of a foreign country unfriendly to the Soviet Union.

Stripped of Titles
The military collegium of the supreme court ordered that they be stripped of all military titles and honors and then shot summarily, without right of appeal or possibility of clemency, by the secret police.

The trial was secret and the government was silent. But Pravda, official newspaper organ of the Communist party, said in its editorial: "The artfulness of the agents of Fascist intelligence services in our country has not helped and will not help them... We have disclosed plans of a certain foreign government, and any attempt by it to attack the Soviet Union will be the beginning of the end of Goebbels and his like."

Germany Suspected
Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels is the Nazi minister of propaganda, and the inference seemed inescapable that Prava was disclosing that Germany was suspected in the treason trial.

Defendants were: Tukhachevsky, former vice commissar for war; Gen. R. P. Elderman, chief of the Osoavkimi, whose 6,000,000 members comprises the army force auxiliary; Gen. B. M. Feldman, chief of the administrative board of the war commissariat; Gen. A. I. Kork, former chief of the army war college; Gen. K. V. Putna, former military attaché at London, Berlin and Tokyo; Gen. E. E. Jukin, commander of the important Leningrad military area; Gen. J. P. Ubovitch, recently replaced as the white Russian area commander; and Gen. V. M. Preimakov, former chief of army personnel.

Members of the G. A. R. met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Trunkley. Two new members were accepted, Mrs. Lattin and Mrs. Carl Hughes. A basket lunch will be held June 14 at the home of Mrs. E. G. Gasley on the lawn commemorating Flag Day. There will be speakers and a program. Those in charge invite the public to attend.

A shower was held Tuesday honoring Mrs. Carol Smith, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Leo Trippe. Musical entertainment was played during the evening with refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomas and daughter, Joan, arrived Thursday from their home near Cheshenye, Wyo., to visit at the home of Mrs. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bunch.

The W. bridge club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Coiner with Mrs. Archie Coiner and Mrs. E. N. Peterson as winners of prizes.

Mrs. Emma McCoy, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Ellen Cline, Twin Falls, and two daughters visited Mrs. Hulda Dotson this week.

Members of the Royal Neighbor lodge met Wednesday at the Woodman hall for a regular meeting and drill practice. Mrs. Charles Baker and Mrs. George Henry were hostesses.

Women of the Community council met Thursday at the church parlors with Mrs. C. O. Clarke presiding. It will be responded to by educational amusements for children. Mrs. Raymond Brown has charge of the program and introduced little Ninette Arment who gave a recitation. Blanche Brown played two piano solos. Six children, Joe Newby, Burdell Brown, Blanche Brown, Betty Prior, Thelma Hayden and Margaret Foster sang, accompanied by Burdell Brown.

Members of the primary group, Mrs. Newby and Mrs. Harold Koeltz were hostesses. For the purpose of giving rural housewives modern methods of cooking the Idaho Power company is sponsoring the Kitchen coach to be held here Wednesday, June 16, at the church from 2 until 4 p. m. again in the evening. Home economists in charge of the coach will endeavor to answer any questions regarding food or cooking problems.

Another of Pitts' clues fizzled out last night when detectives returned from Tijuana, Mex., without Edward F. Sands, Taylor's missing valet who had been reported seen there. Sands, who had been reported seen there, had been hunted since Taylor was shot, Feb. 1, 1922. The director had accused the valet of burglary and forgery before he was killed.

The detectives said a Tijuana policeman and two hangers-on in the border town thought they recognized Sands picture, but a search of all resorts there brought no results.

BEOGGERED MIND OF YOUTH CITED

Many Students Should Enter College Just to Clear Heads, Doctor Says

SPRINGFIELD, O. (AP)—Many high school graduates would do well to enter college, if only to clear minds befogged with superstition and jammed with misconception, Dr. A. J. Arnold concluded from studies in his psychology class at Wittenberg college here.

Dr. Arnold said students entering college are often "victims" of numerous misconceptions, fallacies and biased judgments with reference to such "stuffed thinking," as he put it. He said that the product of psychology class at Wittenberg college here.

Old Beliefs Overthrown
Akin to freethinking psychology classes to submit to examinations on their beliefs and misbeliefs, he discovered 50 per cent of more than 200 believed women have powers of intuition with which men are not equipped; that expectant mothers can mark their unborn by undergoing frightening experiences that beavers know when to prepare for a long, cold winter; that red man's bull will attack the white wilder, and that chess-playing develops powers of concentration.

As many as 25 per cent still cling to the idea of reincarnation or "stream of consciousness" theories of life; power; silent men are deep thinkers; fat people are always good natured; and you can read character by bumps on the head, or by depressions in the skull.

"Obviously there are dangers in such 'stuffed thinking,'" said the psychologist. "A bull may catch up with someone fleeing in a peasant bathing suit, and he may damage the suit; a chess-player may be able to concentrate only on chess. "Certainly there is much yet to be done to clear all of our past thinking that is a hindrance to the national, the bizarre and grotesque."

Why Political Reform Often Fails

Last fall the city of New York adopted a new city charter. In the charter was a provision that city elections hereafter be held under the proportional representation system.

This system is about as complicated a method of electing public officials as could well be imagined, but its chief purpose is to hamstring machine politicians by giving every citizen the chance to vote for candidates in the order of preference. If the man the voter likes best loses, or if he wins by such a wide margin that many of his votes are not needed, ballots cast for him are counted for the citizen's second choice, and so on down the line.

Tammany Hall, which has fallen on lean years of late, vigorously opposed this feature of the new charter. It went to court to get it thrown out; and the other day it met final defeat when the state court of appeals upheld proportional representation and okayed the disputed charter.

Now the surface conclusion to be drawn from all of that is that machine politics, as exemplified by Tammany, has met a crushing defeat and that political life in the metropolis will be cleaner, clearer and most wholesome hereafter.

But people who take this hopeful view of things might well remember what happened in Cleveland some 15 years ago.

Cleveland then adopted a new charter, with proportional representation. Citizens breathed deeply in relief; this new electoral setup would be too much for the old-line political gags, the bosses would be checkmated, good men would be elected in place of subversive ward-healers.

But something happened. The "good men" figured that the city's political life had been reformed forever and a day, and began thinking about other things. The politicians, who work at politics day in and day out, knuckled down and mastered the intricacies of proportional representation. And the first thing anybody knew the same old gang was back in the saddle, the great reform had misfired—and, eventually, the citizens in disgust threw out the new charter and went back to the old way of doing things.

The point is that political reforms usually fail because the reformers, and the people who support them, are so short-winded. Everyone assumes that the battle has been won permanently. The bosses rally their forces, try a new method of attack—and presently are in the driver's seat again.

That happened in Cleveland; it will happen in New York, unless the people who are interested in decent government stay just as wideawake and determined as the politicians.

There is only one cure for misgovernment in America: unflagging day in and day out vigilance on the part of all the people. Our tendency to put on one big push and then relax is the greatest safeguard the machine politician could ask for.

It is getting so that no prominent American who makes speeches can claim to have attained any distinction at all unless something that he says has made Herr Hitler's Nazis raise an angry protest.

This distinction was most recently attained by Dr. Robert A. Millikan, the Nobel prize-winning physicist of California Tech. In a speech at Copenhagen he was quoted as saying that "the world has not known for 300 years a reaction similar to that prevailing today, attempting to lead mankind back to an authoritative irrationality and unscientific superstition."

As you might expect, this drew fire from Germany. The Nazi newspaper, "Voelkischer Beobachter," deplored the "inattentiveness" of the remark, and predicted that Danish public opinion "will value tact and courtesy enough to disapprove such gross misuse of hospitality."

Mild enough, as Nazi protests go. But it does give Dr. Millikan the accolade without which no public speaker nowadays can feel that he has said something worth saying.

Trouble with the arms traffic is that most nations are trying to pass the others on a one-way road to death.

A WPA school boiler project has been completed in Lansing, Mich., and is now ready to take the heat from the government critics.

Germany now has more than six million radio sets, and not one owner can claim to have brought in Moscow.

CHAPTER V
"Down the hatch," says this Irish setter!"

Dear Pat: Shooting... Mrs. Butler takes her little Irish setter, "Sun Valley," down to Ketchikan every day and gives it a glass of beer.

Peaceful, methodical days in the Monterey style had come to an end. Any and every day of the night Rosie descended upon the locked apartment. She was working toward the new play and hinted that her part in the red-heads was meager and allowed no opportunity for her special part.

Inwardly, Pats was a seething torment. She looked on Rosie with an all-consuming hatred; more than that, she feared her. Rosie was working toward a goal. She was brazenly clever, openly seductive. Some day Don would find himself married to her. Pats was sure of that.

But she had underestimated Don's will power. One morning, while Rosie was rehearsing, he called Pats into the living room and closed the door behind her.

"In at the end of my patience," he blurted out, pacing back and forth, his jaw set determinedly. Pats knew he referred to Rosie but she said nothing. She went to the place where tears trembled behind her eyes every time Don spoke to her. "I've got to make the next move and I'm going to make it right now," he went on. "Perhaps you'd better sit down while I tell you about it. You've sunk into a chair, her bewildered eyes never leaving his face."

"I NEED a wife," he said flatly. "If I had a wife I'd get some peace and nothing. I know you've seen me suffer." He laughed shortly. "That's why I'm asking you to be generous enough to try to help me."

Pats gasped, as if he had thrown ice water in her face. "This is my proposition," he continued in a business-like tone. "You are the only woman who does not irritate me, who allows me a little life of my own. You have protected me from that side of the Blue Triangle club and I'm asking you to extend that protection to my private life. If agree-

SOMEONE she loved. Pats' heart almost turned over. The man she loved was brazenly asking her to act as his mistress. It might, indeed, be a smoke screen for his protection. But, and the thought brought little ripples of excitement, he was asking her to accept his life as it was. He wanted to share his life. It was something—

Long after Pats had gone to bed in a lovely chintz hung room she heard the rhythmic tap-tap of a typewriter and the sound of a pen nib scribbling on paper. He was a pitifully small thing to remember on her wedding night but the casual word of endearment had been a revelation.

4 VETERANS TIE FOR LEAD IN OPEN TOURNEY

Barrage Against Par Goes Merrily Ahead

Walsh, Dudley, Guldash and Thompson in Front After Second Day's Shooting

OAKLAND HILLS COUNTRY CLUB, BIRMINGHAM, Mich., June 12 (UP)—They thought Tom Manero had something last year when he set an all-time record score in winning the National Open Golf championship, but Tony's 282 of 1936 was in extreme jeopardy today as the final 36-hole rounds of the open season.

This ultra-tough course still was steaming this morning from the torrid sharp-shooting of four veteran campaigners who led 65 professional and amateur qualifiers into the select group of finalists.

Out in front of the parade are four of the greatest shots in the game. They are tied for first with aggregates over the first 36-holes of 140: Ed Dudley, 139; Tom Manero, 140; a pair of par-busting pros, were the first to reach the low figure in yesterday's second round when, paired together, they duplicated 70's hanged out in the opening day.

Guldash and Thompson

New into this exclusive group came Ralph Guldash, lanky and bushy-headed St. Louisan, who battered the competitive course record with a punishing 62 on the 18-hole ward nine yesterday despite a four on the ninth hole. He combined it with a 72 on the 18-hole round that added to his first round score of 71.

The quartet of leaders was rounded out by that declining gentleman from Pennsylvania, Jimmy Thomson of Shawnee-on-the-Delaware. He created an uproar with his unbelievable 65 in the second round yesterday which coupled with a 74, two over par on the first day, to kick him into the front row.

If any of the four leaders can clip two strokes off par—not a hard job for such veterans—Tom Manero, Walsh, Dudley, Guldash and Thompson—they can equal Manero's record-shattering 282.

No Stay Course

Oakland Hills is not a snap course by any way or means. It requires perfect execution and delivered in generous quantities yesterday at every turn. One or two miscues and the four leaders, as well as the 65 crowd, scores, the veteran Willie MacFarlane remarked.

Driving along at the heels of the quartet for first is a quartet that turned the halfway mark with 142's two strokes better than par. In this group are four widely known golf sharpshooters. Lighthouse Harry Cooper, veteran Chicagoan, posted a sub-par 72 yesterday when the couple of birds, Cooper was heavily backed as the pre-tourney favorite.

Manero virtually kicked his title good-bye by nullifying yesterday's combine with his inelegant 76 of the day before the 140. And of the other aspirants with a 36-hole score over 145 needed divine assistance to move up in front.

TEAMS TIED FOR LEAD IN PACIFIC

Sacramento Moves Up Even With Seals in Torrid Coast Race

(By United Press)

The battle for leadership in the Pacific Coast league was deadlocked again as Sacramento moved up to tie the San Francisco Seals.

The Seals lost yesterday 10-6, for their second straight setback at the hands of the third place San Diego Padres.

Sacramento, realizing a golden opportunity, defeated Oakland, 4-3, under the arc lights to enter the week-end with a share in the top post of the second straight Saturday.

Lefty O'Doul's worst fears were realized in San Diego. The Seals manager went south with a tired and crippled pitching staff to use against the team considered the stronger "home club" in the circuit. After winning two games on surprise pitching performances, the Seals dropped two with their ace, Sam Gibson and Lillard, in the box. Things got so bad last night after Lillard had driven to cover and ailing Pete Dainis failed to hold them that O'Doul went into the box himself to finish the game. San Diego slammed the Seal hurlers for 17 hits, including a homer by Thompson. Ward was the winning pitcher.

Los Angeles made it three in a row over the island Mission Reds by plastering the Reds with a 9-3 win.

Seattle and Portland engaged in a double header. The Indians won the first one, 10-4, with Mike Hunt and Gavelman contributing homers in the 18-hit attack on three Beaver pitchers. Portland took the second game 6-2.

White Sox Hall of Fame

It's getting to be news when a Chicago White Sox pitcher doesn't have a no-hit, no-run game to his credit. When Bill Dietrich, bespectacled right-hander, hurled a no-hitter against the St. Louis Browns he became the third member of the staff with such a performance to his credit. Here the Pale Horse Hall of Famer discusses his achievements in the clubhouse. Left to right, they are Ted Lyons (against Red Sox, Aug. 21, 1928); Dietrich, and Vernon Kennedy (against St. Louis, Aug. 19, 1935). Charley Robertson pitched the perfect game for the Sox against Detroit in 1922, no Tiger reaching first base.

Mac Plans for One-Man Cheering Section at Open Golf Tournament

By HENRY McEMORE

OAKLAND HILLS COUNTRY CLUB, BIRMINGHAM, Mich., June 12 (UP)—My next dispatch may be from the bridal suite in the Birmingham bawle. I am warning you in advance because today, during the final rounds of the National Open golf tournament, I expect to conduct an experiment which is highly likely to withdraw me from circulation.

To quit all this dilly-dallying, I am going to shatter the traditions of the ancient and honorable sport by cheering when my man does well and booping when he fails. This is an unheeded practice among the putter j. abba. Golf galleries are gagged. You can yammer and yell for a race horse or a ball team, but nothing but a well-honored silence is in order among the masle mechanics.

I see no reason why, if a party has a few potatoes reserved on the probability of a bunker ball we'll, he should not be allowed to express his emotions in the clutch. After all, fun is fun, but when my dough is at stake I like to protect it in a proper manner. You are allowed to crowd in a pair of dice in a crap game. Nobody thinks it unseemly if you use a little oral persuasion on the ball that pertains around the spinning roulette wheel. By the same token, free speech should be permitted—my encouragement—at a brassie clank.

By ART KRENZ

LEA Service Golf Writer

Byron Nelson was three over par as he walked to the 18. He tee in the clutch. Open lapping. When he walked off the sixth, the managers' champion was one under. A mighty drive and a deady No. 6 iron save Nelson an eagle two on the 40-yard, par four. No. 3 hole. He followed with an eagle three on the 520-yard sixth hole, sinking a long No. 2, after a terrific drive.

To keep the left arm straight is correct, but in doing so don't overlook the right arm. At impact it also must be straight. If it cannot be played unless the right arm remains straight for some time after the ball is struck.

The straightening process is a great source of power since the right arm is the means of transmitting the power from the right side and shoulder. If it bends at impact, the entire burden is placed on the forearms and wrists.

With the connection to the body broken, the power of the right leg is wasted.

Would Be Pushover

I am not quite certain just how I shall operate the McEmore one-man cheering and booping section. If it were made a law, it would be a pushover. But these open joints are medal, and you can't handle the heat. I shall keep for some farther fuller to kick hell out of a score-board full of rarely penciled figures.

Let me have to get a nutcracker and snort about the link, giving the Houx band to much players a require my attention. For instance, if I find that Edith (Child) Jimmy Thomson, Ed Dudley or Frank Walsh are menacing my man and threatening to take my job, I shall sneak up behind them at crucial moments and unnerve them with such distracting commands as "nice that putt" or "dub that drive."

This will be pretty disconcerting, as you can well imagine, and the havoc will be terrific.

PETER B. D. OOP—The game of hoops with variation, was not looked on as a girl's or lady's game by the Great Plains Indians according to Dr. James R. Walker, student of the Indian's games. The "great hoop game" called by the Indians "apiyaskapi" was played in being success to buffalo hunters, Dr. Walker said.

BRUNSWICK NIPS UTAH CHIEFS, 8-3

Winners Play Errorless Ball To Gain Lead; Powermen Defeat Freighters

Behind Walt Riggert's steady pitching, Brunswick's softball club moved into first place in the National league standings last night by handing the second defeat of the season to the Utah Chiefs. Final score was 8-3.

In the American league encounter, the new and hustling Idaho Power team handed the Consolidated Freight outfit their first league loss of the season with a 6-3 score.

The Chief-Brunswick game went to the winners to the fourth inning when the Brunswick crew romped around the bases for six runs to sew up the ball game. The winners counted on four hits and two errors.

In the Freight-Power tilt, the winners counted in the first inning and again in the fourth. The Freighters came back to tie the score in the first half of the fifth at two-all. But a Power company rally in the last of the sixth counted four runs, eight hits and two errors to three hits, the same number as the losers counted off Croft, but the team made six errors that counted in the scoring.

Philadelphia Team Takes Win From Tribe; Yanks Victorious

White Sox Move Back to Second Place by Drubbing Senators; DiMaggio Stars

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

NEW YORK, June 12 (UP)—Now that the Philadelphia Athletics' early season pennant hopes have fizzled out the Mackmen promise to settle down to the role of troublemakers, a part definitely more suited to their talents.

The A's have lost 16 out of their last 18 games but yesterday's victory was a severe jolt to the pennant-aspiring Cleveland Indians. The A's beat the Indians, 11-5, knocking them all the way from second to fourth place.

Lee Ross, who hasn't been able to start and finish a game this season, set down Cleveland with nine hits. The best White Sox hurler, who had run up six straight triumphs, Hudin was belted off the mound in the third inning.

Philadelphia collected a total of 16 hits off the four Cleveland moundmen—Hudin, Brown, Hartman and Andrews. Wally Moses blasted out two home runs. Bill Werber and Skeeter Newsum each hit a pair of doubles.

The New York Yankees held a one-game lead over the Chicago White Sox by shutting out the St. Louis Browns, 10-0. Lou Gehrig scored his fifth triumph, holding the Browns to five hits. Joe DiMaggio hit two home runs, Johnny Sauer and Skeeter Newsum each hit a pair of doubles.

The White Sox moved back to second place by scoring a 14-8 victory over Washington. Johnny Whitehead, although rapped for 13 hits, went the distance to score his fourth straight victory. Chicago collected 17 hits off Lefty Grove and Casarilla. Every White Sox player made a hit, with Luke Appling and Zeke Bonura getting four each.

Leads Yankees

Joe DiMaggio yesterday helped keep his New York team in front of the American league race by hitting two home runs.

EARTH IS JARRED TO LOCATE OILS

Man-Made Quakes Used to Find Liquid in South of Arkansas

Man-made earthquakes are being utilized to locate oil in south Arkansas. Artificial quakes are made with charges of dynamite.

The seismograph records do not specifically show the presence of oil, but reveal the underground structure from which geologists are able to judge if oil might be present.

Geologists first were used by government geologists to record earth tremors and were introduced successfully in oil field explorations only recently.

The seismograph method has been highly successful in south Arkansas because of uniform deposits of marble-like anhydrite below the surface.

By comparing the time required for the sound waves to be reflected at the different strata, geologists determine the presence of domes.

NATIONALISTS PREPARE DESPERATE ATTACK ON MADRID

AIRSHIPS, TANKS LEAD IN ATTACK ON TWO SECTIONS

Sources Say Rebels Gained Ground on First Phase of Offensive

By RALPH HEINZ (Copyright 1937, United Press) MADRID, June 12 (UP) — Spanish nationalists, hurling themselves on Bilbao with a fury unequalled in the Civil war, prepared today for a desperate effort to crush the loyalists quickly and definitely.

Even the fall of Bilbao, however, would be only a prelude for a great offensive which Gen. Francisco Franco, nationalist dictator, has planned on Madrid, United Press advisers stated today.

It was said that the Madrid offensive had been delayed because of bad weather which prevented the delivery of "certain" war supplies but that it can not be delayed longer because corresponding supplies are being received in the first phase of the offensive.

Madrid fell the loyalist army there would move to the east coast, to await an attack on Valencia, the economic capital, and a possible advance against turbulent Catalonia in the northeast.

Defeat for the nationalists in the Bilbao area, and a resultant failure in the Madrid area, might prove a turning point in the war, however.

A United Press informant in Rome who described plans for a Madrid offensive, said that both Premier Benito Mussolini and Fuehrer Adolf Hitler were most eager for a speedy conclusion of the war, partly because of the tremendous drain on Spain's financial and material resources.

Mme. Genevieve Tabouis, political expert of the newspaper Oeuvre, organ of the dominant radical socialist party in France, asserted yesterday that Mussolini had decided on a "final" large scale attempt to win victory for the nationalists.

Italians who had volunteered for duty in Ethiopia would be directed to Spain and that they would be formed into separate units in Italy.

Spanish "volunteers" have been organized after they reached Spain.

Francisco Gela Aid Within recent weeks, Gen. Franco is reported to have obtained tens of thousands of tons of supplies from all of the Spaniards whom he drafted and trained in Spanish Morocco.

On the loyalist side, Indalecio Prieto, strong man of the loyalist government, now controlling the fighting forces as minister of national defense, told the United Press in a questionnaire published Thursday that his reorganization of the army air force and navy was nearly completed and that he himself intended to start big scale offensives, aimed first at saving Bilbao.

There was no sign of this offensive as the nationalists struck at Bilbao today.

LEADER MAY NOT BE CHOSEN

Oondie Says State Board May Want More Time to Consider Applicants

BOISE, Idaho, June 12 (UP)—The state board of education will probably not choose a successor to Dr. M. G. Neale, president of the University of Idaho, at its meeting June 12, 13, 14, J. W. Condit, superintendent of public instruction, said Friday night.

Condit made his statement before taking a train for Moscow, where the state board will meet.

While candidates for the position may be considered, it is likely, said Condit, that the board would defer final action on a new president for the four-year institution.

He indicated that members wished to have more time to assure themselves of qualifications of candidates.

Other selections which will be made at the meeting, however, include appointment of a successor to Dr. J. W. Condit, superintendent of education, recently appointed head of Idaho N.Y.A.; appointment of a Gooding deaf school superintendent, which post was vacated by the resignation of Dr. P. C. Potts; selection of a superintendent for St. Anthony's industrial school, vacancy caused by death of Dr. E. O. Cook.

The latter part of the afternoon was spent in sewing quilt blocks for the Children's home at Boise. The next meeting will be held in two weeks on the lawn of the Rectory home. The hostesses will be Mrs. Ida Holm, Mrs. Agnes Pospisill and Mrs. Flossie Reed.

Vern Erickson returned from Jewel, Ore., has joined Henry and Heber Nelson at a mine in the Sawtooth for the summer.

Screen Star Will Attend at "Idaho Marches On" Fete; Gable May Come

H. Wegener, celebration association president, said today.

He has portrayed attorneys and G-men, vaudeville dancers and side-show barkers and gamblers. He has played newspapermen on several occasions, and in his latest vehicle, "Behind the Headlines," he has the role of a rambling radio reporter who covers exciting news events and broadcasts them over a portable short-wave transmitter.

Diana Gibson, promoted to the rank of a screen heroine, plays opposite the fast-talking Tracy. "Behind the Headlines" opens at Uncle Joe-K's Roxy Sunday.

Along with Beery, Wegener said, Gable has announced his intention of vacationing in Idaho next week and efforts are being made to have him on hand at the fete.

QUAKE RESTARTS ALASKAN GLACIER

Prehistoric Deposit of Ice Moves at 100 Foot-Per-Hour Speed

Fairbanks, Alaska, June 12 (UP)—Jolled into action by a sharp earthquake, the Black Rapids glacier thundered down its moraine today at the unprecedented glacial speed of 100 feet an hour.

The movement of the 30-mile-long, two-mile wide prehistoric deposit of ice was accompanied by a grinding roar that could be heard for miles and which shook nearby mountains as the echoes reverberated.

Officials said that the glacier had moved more than five miles in four months.

The glacier is about 140 miles from Fairbanks and the only damage it could cause would be destruction of the Black Rapids roadhouse, about two miles in front of the face of the ice.

RANGE CONDITION CLIMBS SLIGHTLY

Two Per Cent Higher Than May 1 But Eight Lower Than Average

BOISE, June 12 (Special)—Condition of Idaho ranges on June 1 was reported at 80 per cent of normal, which was two per cent higher than on May 1 but eight per cent lower than the June 1 to year (1927-36) average, according to Richard C. Ross, federal agricultural statistician.

May was fairly dry, cool, and very windy. Consequently growth of grass and pastures has been retarded and condition of ranges is now extremely spotted. The lower desert ranges are moving to poor condition but prospects are better for the summer range, although they have been slow in developing. Warm rains are needed to improve range condition.

Cattle have continued in good condition and lambs are about normal. The calf crop is also reported at about normal or slightly better.

The continued cool weather and shortage of feed on the low ranges have resulted in a lowered condition of sheep and lambs. Growth of lambs has been retarded, but losses have been relatively light except in a few sections where lambs suffered because of local storms during May. Early lamb crop percentages are probably about normal and the late lamb crop, while yet undeveloped, may be lighter than normal.

You'll Seldom Find Such A Handy Rake SO STRONG

This is the Oliver Sully Dump Rake. Its bridge-trussed frame prevents sagging and twisting and has a reputation for great strength and long service.

Note the convenient position of the levers and the foot pressure pedal. Teeth are lifted and hauled by a pair of strong rods operating from each wheel—with ends shaped into pawls to fit into the ratchet in the wheel hubs. The large number of ratchet teeth in each hub causes the rakes to dump the instant that pressure is applied to the foot dump pedal. The teeth drop immediately, so there is no unneeded strip next to the window.

The upper pedal acts as a foot rest, locks the rake down after dumping, and is used for bunching windrows. There are 5 different "down" positions of the teeth and 4 different "up" positions. You can handle heavy or light hay, under any and all conditions.
