Hope Fades, But Navy Continues Search for Missing U. S. Aviatix

Messages Continue to Come in On Radio; Position Unknown

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6 (AP)—Despite fading hope, the United States navy and coast guard continued to strain every resource today in their despairing search for Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Fred Noonan, lost in the South Seas.

Scores of reports continued to come in that signals and messages had been picked up from the radio band assigned to Miss Earhart's plane, but so far not a single positively identified word has been received from the fliers.

Earlier Miss Earhart's husband, George Putnam, fighting to keep up his courage, was buoyed by a report from Charles K. McGill, Oakland radio amateur, that he picked up at 7:35 a. m. MST a faded voice message on 3,105 kilocycles, one of the missing Earhart frequencies.

McGill said he did not know what "Nru" the voice spoke out tiredly, according to McGill. "KHAQQ, KHAQQ—SOS, SOS, SOS—KHAQQ" is the radio call of Miss Earhart's plane.

"21 North Howland," the voice continued. "Cannot hold out much longer. Drifting slowly northwest. We above water. Motor spinning in water. Very wet."

Coast guard headquarters were skeptical of the message's authenticity. Coast guard officials, however, said they were encouraged by faint carrier signals early this morning picked up by several of their stations and by Pan American Airways which "possibly might have radioed from Earhart's transmitter."

These signals were too faint to permit reckoning the position where Miss Earhart and Noonan might still be alive.

GALLOW'S LOOM FOR VAN VLACK

Unless Reprieve Is Granted, Work on Scaffold Will Start Tomorrow

BOISE, Idaho, July 6 (AP)—Unless Douglas Van Vlack is reprieved or his sentence commuted, execution by hanging will begin tomorrow morning at the state penitentiary.

Van Vlack is scheduled to die July 21 for the murder of his ex-wife, Mildred Hook. He also killed two state policemen, but was not tried for their deaths.

MAN IS BURNED BY FIRECRACKER

Frank of Youths in Machine Brings Face Injury to J. E. Rawlins

A "prank" by what was thought to be a group of local youngsters in an automobile, Sunday night resulted in J. E. Rawlins of the Argonne being injured by a firecracker explosion.

Other incidents of losing firecrackers from machines were noted on the police blotter today. In one case the officers were called after a group of boys had "loosed" a cracker in the entrance of a local theater.

In point of major law-breaking and of serious auto accidents, the July 4 double holiday was "quiet," law enforcement officials said. There was no serious highway crash-up in this area, according to Sheriff E. P. Adler and State Attorney Bolton Ellis.

The torso, that of a man, was a duplicate of the state's first victim. It was found under a bridge. First examination, police said, disclosed the cause of death was strangulation.

Among them are John McClure, Eugene's wife-murderer whose sentence of death was commuted to life imprisonment. He is now applying for a full pardon.

Detectives have believed that a crazed person, apparently skilled in surgery, has been the perpetrator of the slayings.

ROBINSON MOVES TO START WORK FOR COURT BILL

Senate Leader Plans Action; Will Halt Any Attempt At Filibuster

WASHINGTON, July 6 (AP)—Senate Majority Leader Joseph T. Robinson today moved in the senate to begin consideration of President Roosevelt's judiciary program.

After hearing a warning by Robinson that he intended to employ stern tactics against any filibuster tactics, the senate agreed without record vote to proceed to immediate consideration of the measure.

Robinson's move signaled start of formal consideration of the controversial subject of weeks of public debate and judiciary committee hearings which culminated in an adverse report June 14.

Wheeler at White House As the portly senate leader rose in the senate chamber before galleries in which were sprinkled visitors and members of the Boy Scout jamboree, President Roosevelt was conferring at the White House with Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, D. Mont., leader of the senate foes of judicial reorganization.

Robinson explained to his colleagues that he proposed to make the court reorganization bill the unfinished business of the senate. "I shall not object," he said, "to laying the bill aside from time to time for emergency business."

Filibuster Warning Robinson was quick to warn the senate that if a filibuster against the judicial bill developed, he would take whatever steps he considered advisable to meet it.

"If there are obstructionist tactics it is my intention to keep the bill before the senate until it is disposed of, making such reasonable allowance as may be necessary for such emergency measures as may arise. I feel there is no justification at all for suspending the public business under present circumstances so that members may attend a ball game."

FINISH FIGHT ON COURT BILL SEEN

President and Sen. Wheeler Hold Conference; No Solution Reached

WASHINGTON, July 6 (AP)—President Roosevelt and Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, Mont., who leads the opposition to reorganization of the supreme court, decided today in a White House conference that the issue would be decided by the senate.

Senate leaders brought the administration bill up in a storm of denunciations in which "judges" were charged with "usurping the power of the people."

Wheeler and the President met in a private conference, apparently through the mediation efforts of Sen. Homer T. Bone, D. Wash.

Wheeler's message in the anti-reorganization battle said Wheeler went to the White House at the invitation of the president and later on a personal invitation of the president.

The Montana senator contended to Capitol Hill to report to his colleagues that "we went round and round on the whole proposition."

Persons who conferred later with Wheeler said the President told him it was essential that the court bill be passed and that Wheeler had refused.

"I was your worst enemy, Mr. President, I'd help you get it through. I'm your friend and I'm your ally. It's the difference between you and me that counts. You are a great President or as a bad one I don't want to see that happen to you."

Hit and Run Driver Injures State Man

BOISE, July 6 (AP)—Law Williams, director of state charitable institutions, was injured today by a hit-and-run driver.

Williams was struck in the back by an unidentified driver Sunday near Twentylee as he was changing a tire on his automobile. He suffered bruises and sprains.

These Strike Riot Photos Shown to Senators

Flying night-sticks, drawn guns, fleeing strikers—here is the stirring scene as Chicago police battled striking workers marching on the South Chicago plant of Republic Steel in the famous Memorial Day riot. Taken by a newsreel cameraman and heretofore unreleased for public view, this is one of the "hills" which was introduced as evidence at the Senate Civil Liberties Committee hearing in Washington.

Non-Strikers Return to Jobs as Guards Stand By

Peace Reigns As 3 Republic Plants Reopen

CLEVELAND, July 6 (AP)—Non-strikers marched back to their jobs under protection of national guardmen today as Republic Steel Corporation reopened the last big Ohio plants affected by the committee for industrial organization strike.

Men went peacefully through the heavily-guarded and picketed gates of three big Republic mills normally employing almost 8,000 men.

"You can't walk a street corner, strike police forces and detachments of militia deputies watched the march into the mills which company officials said brought back so many men an could be used immediately.

"You don't want to go in there," pickets shouted vainly to workers who moved through the gates on foot or in automobiles.

The accident occurred Sunday when Sara drives by Thomas Howard of Gooding and Leonard Vander of North Dakota collided at the intersection of Third avenue north and Seventh street, north. Damage to both machines was slight.

Oddities

MISTAKE HALT LAKE CITY, July 6 (AP)—James M. Wilkinson, a cigarette smoker, was carrying a firecracker in the same pocket that contained his supply of cigarettes.

BERLIN, July 6 (AP)—An edict of the national chamber of theaters today forbade spectators from using eggs, milk and other articles in their acts, asserting that such "waste" of food was not permissible under the four-year plan of economic self-sufficiency.

One Minor Mishap Noted On Holiday

NIPPONS, SOVIETS CLASH ON AMUR

New Series of Battles In Reported on Manchukuo-Russian Border

TOKYO, July 6 (AP)—Japanese army headquarters at Hsinking, Manchukuo, reported a new series of clashes between Russian and Japanese-Manchukuo forces along the Amur river boundary between Manchukuo and Russia, the Japan news agency said today.

Two Russian soldiers were killed in one clash, the agency said, and Russian casualties were believed to have been heavy in an unsuccessful raid by 350 Manchukuo with artillery on a Japanese-Manchukuo outpost.

In a third clash, according to the Japanese army authorities, five Russian soldiers crossed the border and attacked a Japanese guard. The raid was repulsed, it was said, and one Japanese soldier was wounded slightly.

Fellow Prisoners Hurl Epithets at Slayer of 3 Girls

INGLEWOOD MURDERER MOVED TO NEW CELL FOR SAFETY

LOS ANGELES, July 6 (AP)—Lynch threats shouted by fellow prisoners caused Albert Dyer, who confessed he strangled three little girls and ravished their bodies, to be hustled today into the center of a tier of seven empty cells of the county jail.

"Let us at the yellow dog," other prisoners shouted through the bars at the confessed Inglewood slayer, covering and groaning in a corner of his isolated cell. "He ought to be hung up and pulled apart with pinchers."

NLRB REVERSES RULING; INLAND GIVEN RECORDS

"Off the Record" Proceedings Made Accessible to Big Steel Corporation

CHICAGO, July 6 (AP)—The national labor relations board today reversed the ruling of its labor examiner and ordered that Inland Steel company should be furnished a transcript of all "off the record" proceedings in the nation's first test of whether the Wagner act requires a written contract.

Chief Trial Examiner Benedict Wolf telegraphed from Washington to Inland's chief counsel, Ernest S. Ballard.

"In instructing the Inland trial examiner (Charles A. Wood) to permit an official reporter to make a full stenographic report of all 'off the record' proceedings for use of the respondent, these matters not to be considered part of the official transcript."

Wood Saturday had a stenographer engaged by Inland selected from the courtroom when the reporter persisted in taking notes on "off record" proceedings. The trial examiner reprimanded Ballard for "conduct unbecomingly of an attorney taking responsibility for the reporter's actions."

The hearing is on complaint of the steel workers' organizing committee that Inland violated the Wagner act in refusing to sign a contract on wages and hours. The case is expected to go to the U. S. supreme court.

CHANGE SEEN IN EXCEPTIONS BILL

Shift in Van Vlack Document Indicated as Judge Files List of Papers Used

INDICATION that the bill of exceptions submitted by defense counsel for Douglas Van Vlack must be changed to conform to the record of proceedings at the re-opening of the case on June 22 came this afternoon when Judge T. B. Lacey filed a certificate of the papers used at the hearing.

The certificate, which was called by Judge Lee to Frank J. Smith, county auditor, recorder and ex-officio clerk of the district court. It will be filed with other Van Vlack records.

Certifying of the actual papers and records contained June 22 was taken by unofficial observers to mean that James F. Allshire, Jr., Boise, Van Vlack's attorney, will be told to revise his bill of exceptions to conform to the matters brought up June 22. No official word was given, however, as Judge Lee had not yet returned from a trip to Halsey and the Hawthorn region over the holiday.

County Attorney Edward Babcock had previously indicated he would contend the bill of exceptions in Allshire's proposed bill of exceptions. Signing of the bill by Judge Lee probably will not be carried out until such matters are worked out.

"The bill is apparently unprepared as a basis for a new appeal to the Idaho supreme court."

U. S. SPENDS $250,000 PER DAY IN EARHART SEARCH

FLEET OF SHIPS COVERS PACIFIC FOR LOST FLIER

Destroyers, Battleships and Mine Sweepers Look For Missing Aviator

WASHINGTON, July 6 (AP)—The United States government is spending an estimated $250,000 a day in the search for Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan, a survey of navy and coast guard activities showed today. More than a half dozen warships, scores of airplanes and thousands of navy officers and men are engaged in actual searching operations.

In addition, the navy communications system has ordered wireless operators to stand by continuously at every radio station where there is a possibility that signals from the Earhart plane may be picked up.

In Use Anyway

Navy officials pointed out that much of the equipment being used in the search would be in use in normal operations, even if the search were not in progress.

A tabulation of the navy personnel and ships actually engaged in the search showed the following:

The airplane carrier Lexington, en route to the scene of the search carries 1,899 men and 150 officers.

Battleship Colorado

The battleship Colorado, on route from Honolulu to Hawaii Island, carries 920 men, 45 officers and three airplanes.

The three destroyers engaged in the search carry approximately 115 men and five of six officers each.

The mine sweeper Swan carries approximately 50 men and four officers.

The coast guard cutter Itasca carries 115 men and five officers.

Franklin D. Roosevelt and myrrh, both of Biblical fame, are in use today. Myrrh is used in some brands of toothpaste, and frankincense in mustard plasters.

Younger Set Divided Over Visiting Young Movie Star

By O. A. KELKER

As Twin Falls' younger set sat back today and pondered the presence of a Hollywood movie star in their midst during a week-end of festivities, opinions were sharply divided as to whether that same younger set liked, or didn't like, that movie star.

The star coming in for such contention one way or another is Mickey Rooney, visiting here on a week's vacation from his film work on the western coast.

Surprising Reaction

And, as I moved among these members of the younger set today, and asked their opinions of Mickey, his actions, or anything else it might be possible to weave into a story, I was surprised, to say the least.

Mickey, I found out, was not having a hard time getting around places in Twin Falls. Putting it mildly, he has been almost every place and has been the guest of almost everybody.

At Sandpoint he was nearly mobbed by admirers and the same thing occurred wherever he happened to go. In fact he was the center of almost every street or in many other places.

But today, it develops, some of the admirers of yesterday aren't so "hot" on the 16-year-old juvenile star. Some girls, it seems, don't like to be "stood" after they arrange for a date and then that date doesn't show up.

Overbearing?

One fellow said he thought Mickey was "just a little overbearing" while another said that "he was a fine kid."

It was generally felt that he was an expert along that line—in fact one young miss who talks from here and is a sophomore at the local high school, summed up Mickey's dancing ability in this manner:

"He is a very good dancer—and he knows it," she said.

Another countered with "He is the best dancer I ever watched and I like him very much. And this talk that he is stuck up is all rot. He is no such thing."

But so, with the score about even both ways, I decided to give up this conquest and let it go at that. Mickey is visiting here and will go home soon, so what is the difference?

Oh Well, He's Young

But the words of one of the older workers in a local confectionery still ring in my ears.

"What do you think Mickey?" I asked him as the young star went out the door.

"Oh," he said, "I don't pay any attention to him. I was a kid once."

Music included "O My Father" sung by Mrs. Kirkman, Mrs. Earl W. Henderson, E. M. Guest and Claude Brown, Jr., a solo by Mr. Nielson, and a duet, "At the End of a Perfect Day," by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Payne, Burley.

Butler was 76 years and son-in-law of Mr. Butler, who died Thursday at the hospital here. Interment was at Shelby under the direction of the Payne mortuary, Burley.

RAILROAD AIDING IDAHO PRODUCTS

Union Pacific Actively Backs Campaign to Advertise State Produce

Union Pacific railroad officials, through booklets and other printed data distributed throughout the United States, are aiding in Idaho's campaign to advertise its state's products. It was revealed here this afternoon by Joe P. Marshall, Twin Falls, member of the state advertising commission and vice president of the National Potato Association.

"The Union Pacific," Marshall said, "is keeping in close touch with our advertising efforts in Idaho. It is vitally interested in our welfare and is cooperating in a highly beneficial manner."

Features Idaho

"One booklet set out by the railroad is entitled 'The Story of Potatoes' and deals with historic facts. Featured mention is made of Idaho, termed the home of the big baked potatoes."

During the month of July the Union Pacific is carrying out a large scale advertising and radio program dealing with the potato.

The present program affords opportunity for Union Pacific to present interesting historical and human interest phases pertaining to the potato as the most important article of diet, Marshall points out.

The radio programs will be featured from coast to coast in more than 30 stations. By writing the Union Pacific at Omaha a copy of the "Romance of Transportation" schedule can be obtained. It lists all stations over which the various programs can be heard during July.

Potatoes for Health

At the present time, Marshall said, the Idaho commission is preparing a campaign to offset damage done the prestige of the potato by literature stating it is not a healthful food.

"We will prove by facts and figures," Marshall said, "that the potato is good to eat and is good for you."

Marshall is termed the "Potato King of the Nation." He grows more potatoes than any other man in Idaho and records show that he has also been able to secure the highest prices for his produce. Recently he was featured speaker at the convention of the National Potato group held in Virginia.

The potato provides extra vitamin C, readily available calcium and phosphorus and a high content of iron and vitamin B. All are important elements to good health and the commission will prove this through its advertising," Marshall said.

The district had charged Craven with misappropriation and knowledge that the bank had been insolvent from 1928 until date of closing.

Craven was also treasurer of the school district.

Seaman of England Takes Second and Rex Mays of United States Is Third

WESTBURY, N. Y., July 6 (U.P.)—There wasn't a snicker at the Alpine hills on the Bavarian shores of Bernd Rosemeyer today as the blond, affable German stepped up to check for $20,000—first prize for his daring victory in the second Vanderbilt cup race.

Those oddities were forgotten by a horde of 70,000 persons who jammed Rosemeyer's raceway and saw the "Rhine-land Rocket" dominate an international field of the finest drivers and the speediest racing machines in the world. The victory was a tribute not only to his superb pilot but to the magnificent piece of machinery and the precision of his pit crew.

His 180 M. P. H. Rosemeyer, at times flashing down the straight ways from 120 to 140 miles an hour, finished the 300-mile grind—90 laps around the 3-1/3 mile course—in three hours and 38 minutes for an average of 224.84 miles per hour. His 110-cylinder silver Avia Union roared across the finish line 51 seconds ahead of Mercedes driver Dick Seaman of England who took the second place check of $10,000.

The race followed its epic when Dino Purifoy of Italy, last year's winner, and Rudolph Caracciola of Germany were forced out by mechanical difficulties on the 17th lap.

Only 12 of the 30 starters finished. The race began down and the drivers were forced out with mechanical troubles including broken axles, transmissions, oil lines and motor failures.

Star Cardinal Hurler Leaves Red Bird Train in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, July 6 (U.P.)—Mrs. Jerome Herman Dean, wife of the St. Louis Cardinals' hurler, said that her husband Dean came home "to transact some business" today and then left for Washington to play in tomorrow's all star game.

ST. LOUIS, July 6 (U.P.)—Jerome Herman "Dizzy" Dean, St. Louis Cardinals' leading and most eccentric pitcher, returned here today announcing that he needed a rest—and would not pitch in tomorrow's game between the National and American league all star teams at Washington.

"My arm's tired," he told reporters en route here. "I need a rest. My arm bothers me something like Paul's did when his went bad."

Secretary Francis Lloyd of the Cardinals said he would call President Sam Breadon to notify him of Dizzy's decision. Breadon was slated to leave today by plane for Washington for the all-star game. It was possible the eccentric hurler might change his mind and accompany his boss.

Capacity Crowd A capacity crowd of 32,000 persons gathered for the game. Among them will be President Roosevelt who pronounced his arm in shape to toss out the first ball.

REDFISH, BURLEY TEAMS GET WINS

OOO Club Opa Tournament at Hailey; Kimberly Loses Twice

Southern Idaho baseball teams were active over the Fourth of July week-end, the Kimberly club journeying to Burley for two games, and five teams taking part in a round-robin tournament at Hailey on the fourth and fifth.

Burley gained revenge for a earlier season defeat by Kimberly by taking two games, two days on the home field. Lefty Jenkins, star pitcher, held the Kimberly club to five hits as the home team won the Sunday tilt 3-2. Moon Shepard, on the mound for the losers, was handed his first loss of the year. In the second game, slugging pitcher, Redfish, pitched a shutout, and was named for both teams, the Burley club gaining a 12-6 decision.

In the Hailey meet, Buhl won its first game from the home team, and was in turn eliminated by the Redfish CCO camp team. Redfish then defeated Garnett in the semi-finals, and downed the Hailey team to take the championship.

SOLONS HOLD TO LEAD ON COAST

Sacramento Gets Ahead of Field by 1-2 Games

(By United Press) Pacific coast league teams faced new opponents today after a prolonged series in the states which left hurling staves riddled but with no major changes in the standings of the clubs.

San Francisco remained in first place, one and one-half games ahead of the Seals. Both leaders, however, lost the first game of the series, which moved to within two and one-half games of the top.

Portland took its sacramento series, five out of the eight games. The clubs split the Monday doubleheader with four hits being scored in the first game, and three in the second.

San Francisco dropped two to the Athletics in the holiday bargain bill but the Seals traded the series, five to four, by winning the first four games. The Athletics slugged Bob Cole and Manager Lefty O'Doul around in the opener for an 11-2 victory. In the second game they hit the Athletics combined five hits in the first and second innings, but made Sam Gibson, beat ace, 6-2.

Double Win Oakland cleaned up on Seattle today to register the most decisive series of the week, seven to six. Bill Miller and Al Piccinini, both with 11 strikeouts, were the star taking the first 7-4 and 7-4 victories, the second, 6-4.

LAUNCHES CANOE

At this point a desire to launch a canoe was expressed without warning. An honest confession being good for the soul the next thing I knew I was Adams' apple deep in Massachusetts bay. No one thought anything about it until they noticed that I had no canoe and was fully dressed.

I was in the vicious arms of an undertow and might well have been carried off to the Grand Banks had not a beachcomber named A. Lindo Power laid down his comb and rescued me.

STAGNANT WATER CAUSE OF WORK

Eighth Avenue Lateral Will Be Tapped to Benefit Monroe Residents

Hamer Adams, superintendent of streets, today had asked permission of the city council to cut into the Eighth avenue lateral for the purpose of eliminating a stagnant water drainage which accumulates for two blocks along Monroe street.

Adams informed council members last night that the cost of piping the section, estimated at $5,000, was too much for the present budget but said the condition could be eliminated by merely "tapping" the lateral to insure running water through that section at all times.

The condition is caused as the storm sewer, which travels uncovered in that section, sometimes runs dry and water in a two-block section stagnates.

Adams also indicated purchase of a carload of cast iron pipe of various sizes was imperative at this time. He pointed out that no pipe was on hand in case of a bad break in any of the city's water lines.

Councilman also took action "annulling and setting aside" special improvement district levies against the west half of lot 4, block 2 of the Jerome addition. Such action was taken when councilmen were informed by W. A. Babcock, Jr., local attorney, that the city was barred from collecting the taxes from 1927 to 1933, both inclusive, as the result of action taken by the district court in the case of J. Malinda Hall and her husband, C. C. Hall.

The taxes were outlawed through failure of the city to take any action in a suit filed to quiet title on the lot involved. Babcock said. Amount of taxes involved come to over $100.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

THERE IS NO POWER BEING EXERTED TO KEEP THE EARTH ROTATING ON ITS AXIS!

AN OAK TREE ON THE M.S. COMES PLACE, PEARL RIVER, N.Y., SEPARATED AND THEN GREW TOGETHER AGAIN, AT A POINT FIFTY FEET FROM THE GROUND.

CLOTHES-MOTH LARVAE NOT ONLY FEED UPON THE WOOL FABRIC OF OUR CLOTHES, BUT USE FRAGMENTS OF IT IN MAKING THEIR PUPAL CASES.

All that is necessary to keep the earth rotating on its axis is that no force act to stop it. The only important force operating to form a brake on the motion is that caused by the tides, and this is minute.

"Safest and Sanest" Fourth Brings Reduction in Death Toll

DECREASE SHOWN IN AMOUNT DEAD OVER WEEK-END

Only 146 Killed By Drowning As Compared With 300 Or More Predicted

(By United Press) The "safest and sanest" Independence day celebration to date was recorded today on police and coroner's records. A nation-wide United Press survey showed 224 violent deaths during the three-day celebration. The toll was expected to approach 600 with the death of many of those injured, and with filing of reports from outlying districts. National Safety Council statisticians had anticipated 600 deaths, on basis of 1936 figures.

A comparison showed: Predicted, 600; Actual, 224. Traffic, 500; Fireworks, 100; Miscellaneous, 75. Coroner and police officials said traffic, health and fireworks campaigns, through newspapers, were responsible for most of the reduction. Heavy weather which dampened celebrations in some sections of the country, reduced highway traffic, and discouraged swimming and boating aided.

Greatest single tragedies were in Texas and Florida. Five persons drowned when a fishing boat overturned in the Gulf of Mexico off Florida coast. Three men were killed and six injured in a Jefferson, Tex., oil tank explosion. More than 1,000 were injured in fireworks accidents, but only five died immediately. The toll by states included: Deaths - Drown-Traf. Misc. works inj. fic. California 0 10 24 11; Idaho 0 3 0 0; Montana 0 0 3 0; New Mexico 0 0 3 4; Oregon 0 3 4 0; Utah 1 0 7 0.

United Press Writer Awarded Plaque for Abdication Scoop

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 6 (U.P.)—Awards for outstanding achievements in reporting and writing were announced today by the National Headliners club after a survey of the major journalistic achievements of the past year. Henry Frost Russell of the London staff of the United Press was awarded a gold plaque for his work of last December on the fact that King Edward VIII had made an irrevocable decision to abdicate.

Robert Okin of the Trenton (N. J.) bureau of the Associated Press won the prize for best domestic spot news reporting on his coverage of the Hindenburg disaster at Lakehurst. William Randolph Hearst was honored for the exclusive story obtained by him, definitely announcing the impending marriage of King Edward.

Inside Information Two days before the king's abdication message was read in parliament, and at a time when it was still generally believed that Edward hoped to marry Mrs. Wallis Warfield Simpson and keep his throne, Russell of the U. P. learned from an inside source of the monarch's irrevocable decision. His dispatch was more than 36 hours ahead of all rivals.

Other awards follow: For the best series of dispatches on a subject of general interest: Paul V. Anderson, Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Post-

CITY'S ENGINEER NAMED AT MEET

P. B. Wilson Replaces Hayes As Council Approves Set-Up Change

P. B. Wilson today had been named as city engineer, succeeding John E. Hayes who served in that capacity for the past four years. Action of naming Wilson was taken at the regular city council meeting last night. His salary was fixed at $150 a month, when employed. Previously the city engineer had been paid $4 duty when his services were required.

Most of Hayes' salary had been paid by the government, the city merely "borrowing" him when needed.

O. Wynn Duerig, special engineer for street work, will be retained in his present capacity, councilmen said last night.

Clark Appoints Wallace Beery As Deputy Idaho Game Warden

BOISE, Idaho, July 6 (U.P.)—Wallace Beery, motion picture star, has been appointed an honorary game warden by Governor Borah today.

Beery wrote the governor, asking for the job. "Hello, pardner," he wrote. "Please use your influence to have Bill McClure (game warden) make me a warden on his staff. I have to pay taxes in Idaho now so you'd better let me work it out for the state."

The governor wrote him the following letter in longhand: "Dear Wallace: In regard to your application for a job as deputy game warden, I think it is a good idea. Your voice would carry up the hills and down the canyons to call in the sports at the end of the season."

"It will not be necessary for you to kiss all the deer in the primitive area, but there is nobody to check on that."

(The governor's reference to kissing deer was based on Beery's action the night of a pageant here when he planted a firm smack on Miss Katherine Miller, queen of the celebration.)

"Of course," the governor continued, "you understand that a game warden is not supposed to hunt or fish himself, and I am
