IN THE DAY'S PARADE

Mentioned

Named as a possible successor to the job of the late Joe T. Robinson as senator in early leader, U. S. Sen. Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky.

Next

Not content with two subsequent flights over the north pole, Peavley was going forward today in Russia for a trip with a four-motored plane piloted by the greatest of all aviators, the Russian, Lieutenant Lermantoff, above.

Lightning Rod

The voice was that of Arthur J. Peavley, local real estate and insurance man and a pioneer of this city. "We have had such fits like this come up before," Peavley told the businessmen, "and always before there has been one thing done. We have secured the services of a new secretary in order that the organization might be instilled with new ideas and new blood. It has usually worked."

INQUEST PROBES FATAL ACCIDENT

Six Witnesses Scheduled to Appear Before Coroner's Jury Here Today

G. O. Padgett, Twin Falls auto dealer, testified today at the inquest into the death of August C. Ochsner that the crash vehicle was struck by lightning although he was not present at the scene.

A nine-man coroner's jury this afternoon was hearing testimony of six persons in the county coroner's hospital where they are still undergoing treatment.

Those dark spots on the forehead, nose and wrist of Max Haas, Bronx, N. Y. youth, are evidence that he really was struck by lightning although he lives to grin about it. The bolt melted the frame of his glasses, cracked one lens, scalded a hole in the other lens and damaged his wrist watch.

Body of Ill-Fated WAE Pilot Recovered

HALF LAKES CITY, Utah, July 16 (AP)—A Western Air Express searching party today brought the body of H. J. Simpson, pilot of a plane which crashed south of here last December, to a spot Lake City morning, following its discovery yesterday.

Leaders Decide To Widen Scope As City Benefit Board Calls Special Meeting To Name New Committeemen

Spurred by the renewed support pledged at last night's public meeting at the Park hotel, the board of directors of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, at its weekly luncheon this noon, discussed extensive plans for increased chamber activities in the immediate future.

It was decided to go into a special meeting of the board next at the Park hotel. With the added co-operation of the approximately 40 business men who pledged their support at the chamber "show-down" meeting last night, belief was expressed this noon that the chamber will be in much better position to take advantage of the city's opportunities.

New committees will be named Tuesday night, and members will be selected largely from those who have just volunteered their services. The question was raised as to whether it would be advisable to hold monthly meetings in the future, in addition to the regular weekly board meetings. Belief was voiced that in this way the board would work more efficiently and more interest could be encouraged for general chamber activities by having larger attendance at the monthly open gatherings.

At the general chamber meeting at the Park hotel last night, which paved the way for today's action by the board of directors, only one dissenting vote was cast among the 40 businessmen present. And that vote was not cast against the proposed plan, but rather against the board of directors.

The voice was that of Arthur J. Peavley, local real estate and insurance man and a pioneer of this city. "We have had such fits like this come up before," Peavley told the businessmen, "and always before there has been one thing done. We have secured the services of a new secretary in order that the organization might be instilled with new ideas and new blood. It has usually worked."

Ship Which Bore Russians on Long Flight

Here is the red monoplane, of great wing-spread but with only a single engine, which battled polar storms and California fog to carry its three Russian aviators to a new non-stop distance record. Actually the men from Moscow reached San Diego, but circled in the fog and returned to a point east of Los Angeles and near the U. S. Army's March field. The ship is pictured as it was surrounded by spectators in the meadow where the landing was made.

Solons From Both Houses in Attendance to Pay Last Respects to Leader

By JOE ALEX MORRIS WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—The great and humble said a sad farewell today to Joseph Taylor Robinson of Arkansas.

The senate battlefront from which death took him in the midst of the climactic conflict of his career was transformed into a field of mourning as President Roosevelt led dignitaries of the nation at a state funeral in final tribute to "a soldier fallen with his face toward the battle."

Wage Standards Undermined Circulars have been distributed to headquarters of many unions. One made public today by Frey, said in part:

"Unscrupulous employers who strive to devise ways and means of undermining the wage and working standards of these men are long ago invented the device of classifying workers. They sought to establish first, second and third classes, A, B and C classifications.

"The C. I. O., under written agreements, has agreed to this inequitable system which is so inimical to the interests of the workers as to constitute a violation of every statement made herein."

Hollywood Dancer Director Is Nanted For Assault on 17-Year-Old

LOS ANGELES, July 16 (AP)—Roy H. Lindberg, Hollywood dance director, was freed under $2500 bail today awaiting trial on a charge that he offered a 17-year-old child actress a room and board for the night, and then attacked her.

"It was too long for me to go on," Lindberg testified, "and I accepted Lindberg's invitation to spend the night there. I expected to stay in another room, but he kept making advances to me. I tried to resist, but he forced me to submit."

In the morning, she said, the dance man gave her a dollar for taxi fare home.

TACIT TRUCE ENDS AT 7:30 P. M. SATURDAY, HEADS SAY

TIENTSIN, China, July 16 (AP)—The general commotions in both official and unofficial circles tonight was that Gen. Sun Chieh-Yuan, head of the north China provisional government, would accept a face-saving compromise in the crisis with Japan, including agreement to all the Japanese demands, at least in a modified form.

"PEIPING, July 14 (AP)—Four crack divisions of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's German-trained central government army have taken up positions in Hopei province and are ready for major fighting which may come within 24 hours, a spokesman at Chinese military headquarters told the Tactit truce which has prevailed for the past 24 hours will end at 7:30 p. m., Saturday, the spokesman said, adding: "We are not worried. Our troops have taken up their assigned positions and are prepared to defend themselves."

The spokesman intimated that he expected the Japanese to attempt major operations during the week-end.

Other sources understood the Japanese had served a virtual ultimatum and had given the Chinese until 7:30 p. m., Saturday to accept permanent truce terms which have been submitted to Gen. Sun Chieh-Yuan, chairman of the Hopei-Chiang Kai-Shek wing to north China's governing body in Tientsin.

Missouri Preacher Confesses Brutal Killing of Paris Mail Man's Wife

PITTSFIELD, Ill., July 16 (AP)—The Rev. C. E. Newton, gauging Baptist parson of Paris, Mo., looked up from washing his shirt in his bath cell today long enough to agree to being bound over to the grand jury on a first-degree murder charge.

The six-foot, 125-pound country clergyman appeared listless and carefree after liberating his conscience with a confession to the hammer slaying of Mrs. Dennis Kelly wife of a Paris mail man.

Police Magistrate T. E. Aldrich went to Newton's cell for the formally. State's Attorney Merrill Johnson explained that Newton was entitled to a formal arraignment in court if he preferred but that the result would be the same if he waived examination.

"I can see that it would serve no useful purpose to have a hearing," the parson said with good humor.

Judge Aldrich then ordered Newton held without bail for the grand jury on a first-degree murder charge.

The meeting was called by Ray Ingles, director of the California department of motor vehicles. For purpose of drafting an interstate contract providing for reciprocity in treatment

Gripped Children's Clinic Arranged in Twin Falls Aug. 20 and 21

YOUNGSTERS OF EIGHT COUNTIES TO BE EXAMINED

Dr. Manley B. Shaw, Boise, Will Be in Charge of Check-Up Here

Twin Falls orthopedic diagnostic clinic, more commonly known as the crippled children's clinic, will be held at the county health unit building in this city for two days, Aug. 20 and 21. It was announced this afternoon by Dr. H. L. McMartin, unit director.

The clinics are being held in eight centers throughout Idaho under the supervision of the state of Idaho division of public health. In each case an orthopedic specialist will be in charge. McMartin points out.

Eight Counties At the Twin Falls clinic, which will attract children from Gooding, Lincoln, Jerome, Cassia, Minidoka, Camas, Blaine and Teton. Boise will have charge. The doctor will be in charge of the clinic held here last year.

Children of sound mind, under 21 years of age who are suffering from a crippling orthopedic condition and who are already receiving adequate care are eligible to attend the clinic for examination. All local physicians referring cases for examination at the clinic are urged to attend with their patients.

Orthopedic cases, Dr. McMartin points out, are those which include any disease or deformity of the bones, joints, muscles and tendons or any deformity resulting from any accident or disease of the spine, neck, head or nerves.

As a result of last summer's clinics over Idaho, 100 children have received hospitalization and treatment. The clinics, aside from the one in Twin Falls, are held at Coeur d'Alene, Lewiston, Idaho Falls, Pocatello, Boise, Caldwell and Weiser. The first clinic opens on Aug. 2 and the final one will close Sept. 2. Dr. McMartin said.

FDR PRESENT AT SENATOR'S RITES

Bolton From Both Houses in Attendance to Pay Last Respects to Leader

(Continued From Page One) leader and, stretching back to the walls of the chamber where the Democratic caucus was held, followed Robinson—some faithful through 15 years of tribulation and of victory; some who rebelled at first but who had failed to respect his leadership.

Jesus said, let not your heart be troubled, and let not your faith be shaken. In words peculiarly fitted to a record of partly loyal and partly paralytic congressional leadership, the speaker said, "The truth and the life."

Butler Present To the left of the flower wreathed desk, Associate Justice Butler sat among army, navy, marine and diplomatic corps representatives in the bright chandeliered hall behind them the Republican membership of the chamber shared straight-lacked cheer. In the roomy senate adials to accommodate the membership of the house of representatives.

Look On In the galleries the families of members of congress, personal friends of the late majority leader in private life and the senators, many of whom had served him during a life-time of public service crowded the galleries.

"The God's gracious mercy and protection we commit you," the Rev. Phillips said, in the words of the Episcopal prayer book service. "The bright city of heaven direct your peace both now and evermore."

Miss Helen Howison, soloist at the Church of the Covenant, sang the service. "Lead Kindly Light," sang the concluding hymn "Abide With Me" and the Rev. James Sherrington, chaplain of the house where Robinson once served, offered the benediction.

The president cancelled all his engagements and attended the regular weekly cabinet meeting in respect to Robinson.

At the head of the casket was a wreath of lilies and directly behind it a wreath of gladiol, carnations and lilies, presented by the senate corps of senate page boys, attired in black knicker, white shirts and black ties, stood in hushed grandeur about the casket.

Sen. Joe Pittman, D., Nev., president pro tempore of the senate and presiding officer in the absence of Vice-President Cramer, stepped and gave promptly at noon and members of the house filed in two by two. Speaker William C. Clegg followed. Jolene spoke on the rostrum.

President Roosevelt entered the senate chamber at 12:14 p. m. The guests gathered in the Pierce Butler, the only member of the bench in the city, represented the tribunal and occupied a seat of honor across the aisle from President Roosevelt.

Signs of Ancient Forest Revealed By Well Digging

Proof that an ancient forest lies beneath the Broken Bow in Custer county, has been provided by well-drilling operations at a service station, according to Twin Falls friends of L. A. McLean, Broken Bow well driller.

McLean's equipment hit a "pebble" material at a depth of 60 feet. Some of this material was pumped from the well, and was found to be wood in condition of preservation.

The digging "bit" was in the wood area for a considerable time before it was pushed through it, reports said.

The new proof that a centuries-old forest lies under Broken Bow follows several similar confirmations, McLean said. He has hit wood at about 60 and 70 feet depths in other wells and around Broken Bow. Fragments brought to the surface recently have been identified as cedar, although the latest samples were said to be more like box elder or cottonwood.

Fragments of the wood will probably be examined by state experts.

HIGH SCHOOL RENOVATING IS CITY'S NO. 1 HOUSECLEANING

Twin Falls' biggest "housecleaning" now being carried on at the local junior and senior high school buildings, is really quite a job, late it from George O. (Ollie) Taylor, building superintendent who has charge of the improvements.

Featured among the work to be done before school starts again next fall will be the laying of 17,000 square feet of new flooring covering approximately one-sixth of the rooms in the building. Contract for this work was just let and Mr. Taylor said this afternoon that when the work gets underway the force of the building, now numbering 12, will be increased to 20.

New Roof of Tin Another "big piece" of work to be done is the new roof which will be put on the junior high school building in the immediate future. It will be tin.

In all classrooms of the building, where it was necessary to remove the plaster on ceilings, a new system of lighting has been installed to give each student 12 candlepower for his own desk.

Another floor space repaired is the "high front" stage in the general assembly hall, Taylor points out.

Plenty of Activity And, among other things, everything is being washed, varnished, painted, kalsomined, repaired or replaced. All desks are being re-stained and will be painted. Showers are being repaired, including re-placing of much of the cement banisters.

Even outside of the junior and senior high school buildings the work is being carried on. "Bad" spots in the walk are being cared for. Cleaning is going on at the Bickel school and some floors are being sanded, while regular repair work is being carried on at the Washington and Lincoln schools.

And it's not part of the $350,000 rebuilding program for the school system, but a "clean-up, paint-up and fix-up" job.

ROOMMATES EARN HIGH U.S.B. GRADE

Dean Congratulates Father Of Local Youth

Ralph Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Powell of Twin Falls, and his roommate, Howard Burns of Blackfoot, established some sort of a scholastic record when they attended some of the Southern university at Pocatello during the last semester. It was revealed here this afternoon.

The two boys roomed together in Pocatello and they couldn't very well help each other in their work because they were both taking different courses. Powell was majoring in history and Burns in chemical engineering.

This afternoon Powell's father received a personal letter from John R. Nichols, executive dean of the university, saying that because of the high standards required at the school "you, as a father of one of these boys, have every right to be proud of them."

The dean pointed out, that with as a perfect grade, Powell received 5.0 and Burns, 5.02.

SCARED

The lives of local policemen are not all crammed with a hunt for criminals. Sometimes they meet amusing situations.

Last night, the police blotter shows today, a lady called at 11:30 p. m. and informed police she thought someone was in a house at 140 Ninth avenue north.

Police investigated and in the remarks column today may be found the words: "Found a couple of scared birds."

ACCOMMODATIONS MAPPED IN CAMP

Improvement at Baptist Site Outlined For Girls' August Session

A detailed map showing accommodations available to Camp Fire girls for their session from Aug. 15 to 23, at the Baptist assembly grounds on Wood river has been presented to the camp committee of the organization by Mrs. B. L. Price, Twin Falls Mrs. Fay Carlsson and Mrs. E. L. Berry, Buhl, following an inspection of the site.

The map will be used by the placement committee in making arrangements for the outing. Their report showed that the new dormitory will house 38 girls making a capacity of 168. A fire escape has been erected on the old dormitory which houses 60. The remainder are to sleep in tent frames.

An important addition to the camp is the refrigeration cellar cut into the hillside near the kitchen. It will be used to store meat government specifications. An adequate water supply has been ascertained.

Announcement was made that the bridge at the entrance to the grounds will be locked each night while the girls are in camp. O. L. Johnson, Rupert, representative of the Baptist assembly, will be in charge of the grounds during the session.

Kind-Hearted

Twin Falls county jail is kind-hearted once in a while. Entry on the record book at the sheriff's office today said tersely:

"Allowed to remain and eat in jail acct. of treatment to eye." The entry followed the name of Fred Williams, who is having an eye treated and who was allowed to stay at the jail rather than being sent to the county farm and making the trip in-to-town daily.

Local Members Go To Buhl Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Parker, Dr. Floyd Ham and H. C. Edson, Twin Falls, attended the meeting of the Moose Legion held last evening at Buhl.

A program was provided and an exhibition drill was presented by a drill team of the ladies auxiliary. Refreshments were served the auxiliary members.

During the session plans were made by the lodge to send delegates to the state Moose association convention at Jerome July 22, 23 and 24. Drill teams of the lodge and auxiliary will compete for prizes at the session.

Man in Hospital After Auto Wreck

G. B. Shirellif, 64, Suffering From Arm Abrasions

An automobile accident last night at 9 p. m. on Elizabeth street today had put G. B. Shirellif, 64, in the county general hospital where he was undergoing treatment for abrasions on the hands and arms.

This afternoon hospital attaches said his condition was "good." Shirellif was injured when a light truck he was driving left the road and crashed into a telephone pole. Two other passengers of the machine were not injured sufficiently for treatment.

Mrs. Neville Coleman, England, refused to sit at a table set for 13, dined alone, and was stricken with a fatal heart attack halfway through her meal.

COMMISSIONERS INSPECT FARMS

Another inspection trip to look over ranch property on which applications for assessment decrees have been filed will be made by Twin Falls county commissioners Saturday. Chairman James L. Barnes and George R. Hart will make the trip.

The two and Robert Ray, third member of the board, took their first field jaunt yesterday to areas near Twin Falls, Hansen, Crook creek and the rim bridge.

Decision as to the valuation adjustments sought will be made after the commissioners complete their inspections. The group is acting as a board of equalization.

BARKLEY LOOMS FOR CHOICE FOR BOURBON CHIEF

President Criticizes Bolsons For Political Moves Before Robinson Funeral

By LYLE G. WILSON
WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—President Roosevelt's abrupt fight-to-the-finish orders on judiciary reorganization smashed head-on today with a congressional movement to scuttle the court bill and adjourn.

It caught adjournment forces unprepared for the maneuver by which Mr. Roosevelt became the active, aggressive leader of senators who would expand the judiciary.

Some observers believed Mr. Roosevelt also had boosted Sen. Alben W. Barkley, D. Ky., toward the majority leadership under circumstances which may bring a caucus showdown among senate Democrats next week not only on the court issue but on New Deal spending and its policies in general.

Backs Administration
Barkley's election would boom administration prestige and place in the senate a man enthusiastically committed to New Deal plans. Choice of Sen. Pat Harrison, D. Miss., the other outstanding candidate, would be viewed as notice to the White House that a majority of Democratic senators believed the New Deal was more too fast and too far. It would be a step toward early adjournment.

The President wrote Barkley that it was the duty of congress and especially of Democrats to devise methods and enact judiciary reorganization. In rather sharp language he rebuked senators who forget "decent respect" for the memory of Mr. Justice Louis Brandeis. Robinson to discuss political and legislative measures before his funeral. Robinson's state funeral will take place in the senate chamber today preliminary to final services at his Little Rock, Ark., home.

Mr. Roosevelt ruled constitutional amendment an "impossibility" because it would require too much time and could be blocked by a minority in 12 states.

Both Constitutional

Mr. Roosevelt said both the original bill and Robinson's substitute were constitutional because of delay potential in the constitutional process and because the civilized world is endangered by economic crisis and major social needs. Mr. Roosevelt asserted his demand for action now.

The abandonment of judicial reform, "including, of course, all federal courts, because of the failure of a majority of senators or a majority of representatives to agree on method and reach a vote places the responsibility on the congress of the United States."

The letter invited further compromise if necessary on method of judiciary reorganization but insisted upon realization of the objectives of what Mr. Roosevelt term "judicial reform."

"Bad Counsel"
Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, D. Mont., leader of the fight against the court bill, said he could not believe President Roosevelt "can make political capital out of a tragedy" such as the death of Robinson. The letter, Wheeler said, must have been written after "bad counsel."

"I cannot believe the President would write such a letter," he said. "It is not in the character of the man who is President of our country and the leader of our people and the man other liberals and I fought for in 1932 and 1936."

Sen. Edward R. Burke, D. Neb., indignantly declared opponents to the plan to be strictly observing the letter. "I agree," he said, "to both sides following the death of Robinson, regardless of the President's 'recuse' the political activity continued. He pointed out that Wheeler had cancelled all speaking engagements."

BLISS

The Bliss Grange strayed the fourth of July in its regular meeting, Wednesday night, with 30 members present. Hot call was answered by having some prominent American citizen, The Fred Bliss and Mrs. Willhatch served the lunch at the close of the evening.

The Sunshine club is to meet July 23 at the home of Mrs. O. A. Smith, instead of today as formerly announced. This puts the meeting a week late but Miss Marian White, the home demonstration agent, reports it impossible for her to be here sooner. Hot call will be "What I've learned in Club."

Black—And What a Jonah!

Seafaring men shuddered when a little stray black kitten turned up aboard the British freighter "Sandgate" several days at sea bound for South Africa. No good would come of it they said. Sure enough, the Sandgate Castle caught fire and was abandoned. Crew and passengers were picked up by the President Pierce and Little Ellen Haines of Staten Island, N. Y., a passenger aboard the liner, claimed killy. Here are Ellen and her seafaring Jonah—now christened Sandy in honor of the ship—safe in their Staten Island home.

VACANCIES OPEN FOR NYA YOUTHS

Representative Makes Call to Fill Quota of District, Ages 18 to 25

Although several local youths have applied and been accepted for National Youth Administration work, more positions are open in the quota for this district. It was announced this morning by Harold A. Salisbury, field representative.

In Twin Falls the youths will be used principally in park and recreation work. Salisbury said. Applications should be made at the new NYA office located in the basement of the band shell at city park.

Eligible youths must be between the ages of 18 and 25, both inclusive, and must come from families receiving some form of governmental assistance.

Time Marches On!....

Just four years ago, the 13th, I "Opened Up" Harry Musgrave's Sales Agency with nothing to sell, but nothing to lose—just an empty building full of ideas. A year later, the name, "Merchandise Mart" was added. Because, by then people had consigned with me every thing imaginable for me to sell—Everything from baby huggies to breathing machines, from washing machines, phonographs and used farm machinery meant more to me than all the lovely new merchandise I now have on display in my New Modernized Mart, located in the Masonic Building across from Hotel Idaho.

I started out four years ago working for you and wound up four years later by you working for me. I give you credit for it. All I had with which to build a business was the "Good Will" that I hoped that I had built up during the past 12 years when I was connected with the Fuller Brush Co. (for two years) and with the Mangrove Bros. (for ten years) with still are McCormick-Deering Implement Dealers in Filer.

"Things were tough then—13 million unemployed and myself—right up to our necks in depression. The farmer was wondering just how he was going to pay his banker, the business man, it was tough when the old dairy cow wouldn't even pay for the feed she ate, let alone show a profit. This went for the bumper crops that were aimed as well. Well that's over, you agreed with me and I stayed with you. I sold things for you you could get along without to your neighbor who could not afford new furnishings. What a change now—the best is none so good as the new farm equipment for Mr. Farmer and new home furnishings for the Mrs. I have progressed along with you and have stocked three floors with Quality Merchandise including all kinds of furniture, Chester Oak Ranges, E. & J. Electric Blowers, Harness and Collars, Pianos, Grinders, Refrigerators, Irons, both wool and Woolens, Farm Machinery, Office Equipment, including safes. In fact, when we say Merchandise Mart, it truly is a market where all kinds of merchandise can be bought and sold at a price. Where both the buyer and the seller can live and let live. Right now money on the barrel-head has made our low prices possible and our business grow. Mr. Cash Buyer, you do not have to pay for the losses of the other fellow. We get the cash and sell for a lot less. Come in and compare our Quality Merchandise and Prices.

It is not getting too excited and hiking my prices just because a few farmers sold their surplus for a high figure, but I am keeping in mind that a farmer has a lot of things to pay as well as to contend with, Mail, Taxes, etc., well I'm not a peasant but—Let's be mercantile.

LET'S STICK TOGETHER FOR ANOTHER FOUR YEARS...
Thanks a million for your wonderful support and for the Business you have helped me to build.
Sincerely,
... Harry Musgrave

Placing U. S. Flag on High Sea

One of the queerest things in American history has been the way in which the country has allowed its merchant marine—once one of the finest and most famous on the seven seas—to sink to the position of unwanted and undernourished stepchild.

A century ago American ships were seen in every port on the globe, and the flag was a familiar sight on every sea. This not only meant that American exporters were doing a whale of a business; it meant that the nation was fully alive to its membership in the world community.

But during the past generation the merchant marine dwindled and almost died. Save for the coastwise trades, American-flag ships were rarely seen. An enormous fleet had been built during the war, but it was rusting to obsolescence in remote harbors.

A few years ago, attempts were made to revive the merchant marine. The government awarded mail carrying contracts to divers steamship lines, paying out fabulous sums so that a packet of a dozen letters might be dropped off at out-of-the-way ports. The contracts were really subsidies, to enable steamers to make runs which otherwise would not pay. Since they were disguised subsidies, they were expensive and inefficient.

Now, at long last, it begins to look as if the merchant marine is to be established on a straightforward basis. The old mail contracts have been canceled. In their place are a set of straight-out subsidies. The government has signed contracts with 23 steamship companies, under which the companies will receive direct money payments from Uncle Sam so that they can compete with foreign-flag lines on an equal basis.

Oddly enough, the direct payments are proving less expensive than the indirect ones which were made under the mail contract system. For instance, agreements which will keep 151 ships in operation during the next six months are costing the government $4,600,000; under the mail contract system, the cost for the same ships in the same period would have been $7,600,000.

Furthermore, the subsidies are set up in such a way that the steamship companies, by returning to the government all profits above 12 per cent, actually stand in some cases to return the full subsidy price.

The net result if this new system should be all to the good. In the first place, it should revive the American merchant marine on a sound, healthy basis. In the second place, it will lead to much new ship building—it is estimated that 100 new ocean ships will be built in the next few years.

Lastly, it will prove a stimulus to American commerce. Our eyes will be turned beyond the seas once more, as in the great old days before the Civil war. We may get away from the Chinese wall theory of prosperity—and, with the world for a market, find a strong new prop for our industrial richness.

National Vote on War

One bit of pending legislation worth more than a passing glance is the constitutional amendment drafted by Rep. Louis Ludlow which would provide for a national referendum before the United States could enter any war.

For two and one-half years the bill has been slumbering peacefully in the house judiciary committee. Now Mr. Ludlow is circulating a petition to force a vote on the measure, and there is a chance that he may succeed.

It is not hard to think of pretty sound reasons for supporting such an amendment. It is the plain people who do the fighting in a war, who pay the bills and endure the privations that a war makes necessary. Why should not they themselves—through their own votes, and not through their congressional delegates—be permitted to say whether the country should go to war?

Another Side on Taxes

Although a good deal of criticism has come down on the rich men who incorporated their yachts and reported to other devices in order to avoid payment of income taxes, the fact remains that there is a lot to be said on the other side.

Alfred P. Sloan, jr., for instance, recently issued a statement showing just what he did in the way of paying taxes during 1936.

In that year, he and his wife had a total income of $2,976,810. Of this, they paid federal and state income taxes totaling $1,725,760. Of what was left—$1,150,950—they gave half to charity and kept half for themselves.

This, to be sure, left them with rather better than $600,000 to get through the year on. Yet a man who retains only a fifth of his income for himself—who gives an even half to charity, after paying his taxes—can hardly be branded as a bloated plutocrat who is trying to evade his obligations.

TALE OF THE VERY BRIGHT CANINE FIDELITY

Dear Sir:
I HAVE NEVER BEEN A LAWYER myself, but I am going to let you in on the secret of how I amassed my present comfortable bank account.

I saw a fellow once with a police dog that was so intelligent it grasped a tooth brush between its top pads and scrubbed its own teeth. So I bought the dog and started in training it.

After two years, I had Reggie ready to go so I sent him out on a crowded Saturday street corner.

The dog waited until he saw a prosperous looking fellow. Then Reggie went up to him, wagging his tail and looking friendly.

The man was very pleased that such a beautiful and intelligent animal wished to be friends, so when the dog knook on his hind legs and extended one paw, he shook hands with Reggie.

Then my prize canine pretended to have a fit and stood on his hind legs, thereby falling against the man. The fellow laughed and patted the dog on the head.

But meanwhile Reggie's educated paw—not the one the man still had in his hand—was working around behind the fellow, came into his hip pocket, and came out with the man's wallet.

Reggie then completely disappeared away with the wallet completely tucked into his capacious mouth. With the man knowing nothing about it.

Reggie repeated that trick 5228 times before he unfortunately died of tuberculosis contracted when he was carrying away with the wallet completely tucked into his capacious mouth. With the man knowing nothing about it.

THE POT SHOTS treasury is three cents to the good, but we will put the money in the Fund for Feeding Seattle Canyon Conductions in their Old Age. "Fibbercette" of Murch, who won the 50 cents in our contest, had we sent us three pennies with which to forward the half-penny. We will cherish the three pennies fondly, because nobody else thought to do that for us. Fibbercette says: "Ordinarily I wouldn't thank you or anybody else for sending me the biggest liar in this part of the country, but since a particular kind of glory and also a 50 cent piece goes with the alienation, I feel that I should not take offense too much."

SUPERSTITION MOUNTAIN

By Dr. Orin Arnold

CAST OF CHARACTERS:
CAROLEE COLTER, R. Arnold, proprietor's daughter.
"Auntie" Corolee Colter's lover.

Yesterday Stuart brought back to the mountain, before daylight, a couple of sacks of buck, which he substituted.

CHAPTER VIII
THERE was nothing especially romantic about the way they found Stuart Blake. Silas Colter saw him first, and grasped his lover's arm.

"Ain't—ain't that a man away 'over yonder'?" He was staring in the distance.

It was a man, undoubtedly. Silas unconsciously cocked the rifle he carried. The man was staggering, half crawling, but he wasn't menacing. He hadn't even seen the Colters, in fact.

Carolee was with the Colters that day, but that was just happenstance. She had hung out her sheet signal on the morning after her experience with Stuart, but he had not met her down trail. She had plumed her considerably; she'd wait a week or more before she tried to signal him again, she promised herself. Paul Colter had gone alone to study the high plateau country, and Silas and the father had spent a day at wood gathering. On the second day they and Carolee went mite hunting.

"He appeared not to see the distance, but didn't recognize him."

"He's in trouble, ain't he?" she demanded.

They had no field glasses, and he was several hundred yards away. They turned to get nearer him.

"It's that Blake fellow!" Old man Colter recognized him first.

"What?" cried Carolee.

They all started their horses to move as fast as they could. The rugged terrain permitted.

STUART still didn't see them. He appeared not to see them even when they dismounted in his presence. He had been deceived by many a mirage.

"The sawdust was in his eyes, Nobody noticed his familiarity. He didn't answer. He couldn't have answered, anyway. He just stared, blinking. His face was rather black, his clothing torn. "Have you water, and a can of food?" the Colter men had to hold him off the water, once he got a sip. They let him drink a swallow of a lime, with a pinch of salt. Carolee took his brow with a moistened handkerchief. Nobody did any talking for a long while. He was still peering in his pack, and fed Stuart the sweet juice, then some of the fruit. After that Stuart slept. They sat with him a while, and recognized them as real people, not phantoms.

"Carolee!" he murmured, and smiled. She smiled back and asked, gently, "Do you feel better?"

"Yes, yes, more water, and some more of the food they offered. Strength was flooding back into him. "This—this—Wednesdays?" he asked.

"Thursday," she said. "What happened? How long have you been here? Who is with you?"

"Nobody. Nobody happened. To me, I mean. My horse fell over a ravine, and I got here yesterday, I suppose. Where are the panthers?"

It was his last moment, and his speech was confusing. He realized he had to explain.

"I found some mountain lion babies, panthers. Like those in the filling station zoo. Not the old ones. I expected them to come and eat my child."

"They don't do people no harm," Mr. Colter said, watching Stuart intently. "What's your horse?"

"I don't know. Dead somewhere, on the old-time stony ledge. But by gosh, it was also beginning to make sense."

He couldn't come out openly and accuse them, or Paul, of stealing his horse. But he had to say it. Or of running Stuart's own horse off the cliff yesterday. He had no proof, and here the Colters were saving his life anyway.

But it was Carolee, he reasoned, who was aiding him.

Luckily for him she had ridden with her men. She was a swell. He looked carefully at her. He had never seen such natural beauty. Back in Chicago he would be ready here making ancient love to her, but out here—well, Stuart promised himself to make a change in tactics regarding the same old love.

He thanked them sincerely when they left him at the yard gate of Superstition Lodge.

HE felt he was talking himself into a pocket. He had already

The Family Doctor

By DR. MORRIS FISHER
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

In some people, albumin in the urine is associated with disturbances of the kidney, and is called albuminuria. This condition has been called non-renal albuminuria.

It may be due to the presence of certain foodstuffs, such as meat, or to the presence of certain drugs, such as salicylates. It is a condition of the blood coming from the kidneys.

Occasionally it is the result of the formation of pus in a slightly infected area. Some of the walls of the kidney are broken down by the passing of small stones.

The only way in which the physician can be certain that the condition is due to a kidney is by the presence of any other symptoms or complications which help the doctor to make a diagnosis in most instances.

Thus the study of a case in which albuminuria is present requires a vast amount of information and a long period of observation for the doctor and may require a great deal of time and assistance on the part of the patient.

It is necessary to understand the facts of the case from the very first. The patient must be examined under various circumstances and conditions.

In general far too much emphasis has been placed on the examination of the urine alone as a means of determining whether or not a person is sick or well.

True, an examination made every three months by the patient's physician will give some additional information, but a complete examination should be made at least once a year, and should consist of the latest physical methods of the condition of the patient, and should be made at the latter part of May instead of at the busy harvest season.

The Twin Falls delegation will leave at 6 a. m. Monday for the grounds where there will be plenty of shade, plenty of fresh water and plenty of fishing. There is an easting house on the grounds big those who desire may cook their own food. The program will be held in the mornings and evenings. The afternoon will be devoted to rest and recreation.

Among those who will probably go are Rev. W. H. Toliver and family; Mrs. A. J. Bequa and daughter, Dilbert Bequa, Wilson Bequa, Walter Sparks, Robert Nicholson, Alma and Howard Bierbeck, Jessie Olson, Albert Johnson, and Mrs. Ruth McFarland and her and Merrill Shotwell.

Robert A. Parrott, one of the leading optometrists of Chicago, has taken office in the McKinnell building and decided to look here permanently. Dr. Parrott recently gave up an important position with P. A. Hardy and company, his largest optical house in America, and he is equipping his office with the latest electrical instruments for examining the eyes, so an expert plant for grinding lenses. As there is no other grinding plant in this part of the county, Dr. Parrott will be sure to do a big business, and he caters to the wholesale as well as retail trade.

Ex-Congressman Burton L. French spent a few days in Twin Falls county in the interest of his candidacy for congress. Mr. French stated that he believed in the direct primary but thought the indirect plan was the wrong thing of the year and should report about the latter part of May instead of at the busy harvest season.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By Rodney Duttler

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(AP) One person during the Democratic convention at discussing the question of who had made the best speech within the memory of each of the group.

It came the turn of a certain Georgia congressman and he began to speak seriously and with enthusiasm on the oratorical power, the personal grace, the beautiful choice of words and the unequalled vigor of a fellow who once made a speech in his own district.

While it turned out that the speaker he was praising had been making a eulogistic introductory address—all about the congressman himself, trying to present him as the constituent's political ally.

JUST PLAIN DEAN
Secretary of Agriculture Wallace has been making a curious looking object, consisting of a transparent disc superimposed at right angles on another disc, each disc being made of plastic. The resulting form of a new liquid glass. In one of the discs is imprisoned a bright red bean.

An inquisitive visitor poked up to the organ and asked what it was.

Wallace related of the chemical formula, the process of manufacturing and other up-to-date facts. The visitor asked about the bean and Wallace pointed to a label which bore the Latin name. But that meant nothing to the inquirer, who wanted to know what he could call it if he were to eat it. In plain America, Wallace puzzled over that. "Then—then I haven't any idea," he confessed.

NO CONGRATULATIONS THERE
It's a general custom for star witnesses before grand investigating committees to step up to the chairman at recess time and shake hands. Regardless of what the witness has been through or what he has confessed, there usually are thanks if not congratulations, and assurances of no hard feelings.

But one of the Chicago police officers who had been testifying about the so-called "massacre" of demonstrators near a Republic steel plant stepped up the other day to shake hands with Senator Bob La Follette of the civil liberties committee.

La Follette deliberately turned away from him.

AS BAD AS REST
Little has been heard lately of former Comptroller General John R. McCar, whom in the New Deal days he had helped to get out of office and he subsequently helped Governor Landon in the campaign.

He is practicing law here, but until recently he was feverishly busy making up his mind that he would write a certain cigarette company widely advertised, offering immense prices. McCar was just as busy over the course of hundreds of thousands of others appeared to be.

BUT NO MAIN CHECKS
In spite of the terrific rain that came down on the last presidential inauguration, the local business men obtained refunds of most of the money they put into the show. The refund was $40,000 in the case of the show. The show was held on the 10th and 11th, which in 1932 cost $16,000 and took in $37,750.

FINDING OLD GRAVES
Senators Peter Gerry and Theodore Green of Rhode Island have discovered that each has a great-grandfather buried in the ancient congressional cemetery here. Gerry's ancestor, Senator James Burrill of Rhode Island, served from 1817 to December, 1820, a rose from bed one of his trips in a vote despite a bad cold—and died. Gerry's great-grandfather, Elbridge Gerry, was vice president and died in office in 1832. Gerry's ancestor was in the cabinet when Gerry was born.

AUSTRALIA SETS RECOVERY PACE

CANBERRA, (AP)—Australia is making a recovery pace in the first member of the British commonwealth, if not, indeed, the first country in the world, to turn completely the corner of trade depression.

As a consequence, it is now benefiting greatly by the general rise in the world level of prices while unemployment here has been reduced to a normal level.

Official figures just gathered by the government show that Australia is back on a normal basis from the world-wide depression that resulted from the World war.

Bank Deposits Gain
Deposits in the 10 Australian trading banks have reached the total of $1,335,000,000 and are in excess of advances by $225,700,000. While London funds to meet debt of the national government were increased during the last year by roughly $200,000,000.

The unemployment has fallen from 15.5 per cent in 1932 to 10.5 per cent in June, 1932, to 8.4 per cent, which is normal. In Western Australia, however, the unemployment was 15.5 per cent.

Building is enjoying an exceptional boom throughout the country, curving with it a corresponding increase in the heavy industries.

Building Rooms
In the six states, nearly $120,000,000 was spent on building during the fiscal year just ended, an amount only $20,000,000 less than the $140,000,000 spent during the last year.

Travel traffic also is reflecting the return of prosperity. The railway receipts carried by the Victorian railways for the year was $2.2 per cent, or 46 per cent more than the $1.5 per cent carried by the first class American lines.

Wales government officials expect to beat their record of passenger traffic for the year by more than 7,500,000 passengers, according to the world's safety record of carrying 1,300,000,000 people in the last 10 years without a fatality.

SMALLPOX RATE HIGH IN NATION

U. S. Leads World But Mild Character of Disease is Bright Factor

NEW YORK, July 16 (Special)—Although several states have been entirely free from smallpox for a number of years the United States as a whole has one of the highest smallpox sickness rates in the civilized world, according to statisticians of the Metropolitan Life insurance company.

With the 7,813 cases reported in 1936 by states and the District of Columbia only slightly under the 1935 figure, and with a total of 850,000 cases recorded during the 17 years, 1920-1936, the smallpox situation is described by the statisticians as disastrous for a country that boasts of leading in the control of preventable diseases.

To bright spots, however, stand out in the portrayal of smallpox conditions. The disease continues to be mild in character with the death rate exceedingly low, for among the more than 7,800 cases reported in the country last year, there were only 33 deaths, a case fatality rate of 0.42 per cent or one death in every 227 cases. Also, the disease has been practically eliminated from eight states and the District of Columbia.

NOBLE SELECTED AS LEGION CHIEF

Elected Commander Here to Succeed Smith; Other Officers Named

W. W. Noble had been elected new commander of Twin Falls American Legion post today. The former artilleryman was chosen last night to succeed H. A. Smith. Named with him were Tom Bucklin, first vice commander; Harry Taylor, second vice commander; R. V. Jones, adjutant; Ray Joslin, sergeant-at-arms; Wilton Peck, chaplain; John Harvey, historian; and Howard W. Gillette, service officer.

Noble, Bucklin, Smith, J. Edward Warbur and Hugh Boone were elected delegates to the Idaho department convention at Lewiston, Aug. 15-18. Alternates are Harry Bennett, Carl E. Ritchie, R. P. Parry, Floyd Campbell and Terry Prater. Plans for attendance at the quarterly convention of the fifth district, scheduled Monday at Pler, were outlined.

PILL SLAVE FREED FROM CONSTIPATION

A convincing tribute is paid to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in this letter from Mr. F. C. Amivener of Seattle.

"I suffered with constipation for many years and was compelled to use pills every night. Since I got your ALL-BRAN, it works fine. I was so deathly sick of taking pills. Now it is so different. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN works so naturally, and is pleasant to eat."

Inside the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, forming a soft mass that gently sponges out the intestines. It also supplies vitamin B to help tone the intestines, and iron for the blood.

You'll enjoy getting Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. As a cereal with milk or fruits, or in appetizing recipes. Two tablespoons every day are usually enough—three times daily if needed. Sold by all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Film Honeymooners "Right at Home" in Hawaii

These two famed Hollywood honeymoon couples, seeking the traditional solitude on an island under a tropical sky, found just what they might have expected when they landed at Honolulu—a mob of well-wishers and a battery of cameras. However, the pictures are proof that the new-ways could take it smiling.

Asked the latest baseball team to sponsor the tournament, the Legion has withheld final decision until the number of teams to be entered, final decision as to amount of cash prizes, and possible underwriting of the tournament by individuals of the town can be ascertained.

Cramble, one of the committee in charge of the dance, stated that the Harry Coeds orchestra, to play at the new American Legion hall in Gooding on July 20, is one of the clearest dance bands to come through here. Miss Nellie Knight, a local girl is a member of the orchestra.

SMALLPOX RATE HIGH IN NATION

NEW YORK, July 16 (Special)—Although several states have been entirely free from smallpox for a number of years the United States as a whole has one of the highest smallpox rates in the civilized world, according to statistics of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company.

With the 7,813 cases reported in 1935 by states and the District of Columbia only slightly under the 1935 figure, and with a total of 650,000 cases recorded during the 1925-1936 period, the smallpox situation is described by the statisticians as disgraceful for a country that boasts of leading in the control of preventable diseases.

Too Thoughtful KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—An automobile belonging to Charles Mynatt was stolen from in front of his hotel, but Mynatt isn't complaining much. The thief drove it less than a mile to a garage, had the gas line repaired, the battery charged, the brakes repaired and the thief couldn't pay and detectives recovered the car.

POISON IVY MORE VIRULENT MILWAUKEE (AP)—More people will be affected by poison ivy this summer than for many years, in the opinion of Albert M. Fuller, botanical curator of the Milwaukee public museum. Fuller said he knew of no reason for the excess virulence of the plant this year.

NOBLE SELECTED AS LEGION CHIEF

W. W. Noble had been elected new commander of Twin Falls American Legion post today. Former artilleryman was chosen last night to succeed H. A. Smith. Named with him were Tom Bucklin, first vice commander; Harry Taylor, second vice commander; R. V. Jones, adjutant; Ray Joslin, sergeant-at-arms; Wilton Peck, chairman; John Harvey, historian, and Howard W. Gillette, service officer.

Stolic, Bucklin, Smith, J. Edward Warner and Hugh Boone were elected delegates to the Idaho department convention at Lewiston, Aug. 16-18. Alternates are Harry Bennett, Carl E. Ritchie, R. P. Parry, Floyd Campbell and Terry Prieter. Plans for attendance at the quarterly convention of the fifth district, scheduled Monday at Piler, were outlined.

PILL SLAVE FREED FROM CONSTIPATION

A convincing tribute is paid to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in this letter from Mr. F. C. Amisen of Seattle. "I suffered with constipation for many years and was compelled to use pills every night. Since I got your ALL-BRAN, it works fine. I was so deathly sick of taking pills. Now it is so different. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN works so naturally, and is pleasant to eat."

Inside the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, forming a soft mass that gently sponges out the intestines. It also supplies vitamin B to help tone the intestines, and iron for the blood. You'll enjoy eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. As a cereal with milk or fruit, or in appetizing recipes. Two tablespoons every day are usually enough—three times daily if needed. Sold by all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

OUTLOOK "FAVORABLE" FOR FARM PRICES AND INCOME

WHEAT PROSPECT SHOWS DROP FOR WORLD'S SUPPLY

Little Change in Wool Before September; Cattle to Stay at High Level

WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—The department of agriculture today reported a favorable outlook for farm prices and income during the next few months.

Prices of most farm products, already somewhat above those of a year ago, probably will advance further during the next month, the department said. It was believed that cash income in July will show a markedly greater, though seasonal increase over June.

Highlights of the situation by commodities were reported follows:

Wheat: Prospective world supplies for the year beginning July 1 are expected to be smaller and demand continues to decline during the summer, but egg prices have begun a seasonable rise.

Butter: The seasonal low point in sheep and lamb prices is expected to continue during the next few months.

JULY BEET FUND PAYMENT PASSED

Uncertainty of Legislation in Congress Given as Reason For Step

Because recent discouraging reports concerning the enactment of sugar legislation at this session of congress have created a situation which makes it impossible to anticipate, with any degree of accuracy, the average net returns from the sugar yet to be invoiced, the Amalgamated Sugar Company, through R. H. Tallman, Idaho district manager, announced today the July 15 payment on the 1938 crop will not be made.

Growers were notified of the company's decision in letters which were to be received by them today. The final payment date will be Oct. 20 at which time whatever payment might be due will be made and information called for in the contract will be furnished.

The terms and conditions of the 1938 beet contract July 15 is specified as a date for further payment on the 1938 crop, provided the company deems it is justified in making payment after taking into consideration the average net returns from the final average net returns from sugar yet to be invoiced, Mr. Tallman said.

"Recent discouraging reports concerning the enactment of sugar legislation at this session of congress have created a situation which makes it impossible to anticipate the average net returns from the sugar yet to be invoiced, which represents 50 per cent of the entire 1938 production. The average net returns from this portion of the crop will have a large bearing on the final average net returns, and for this reason we are unable to justify a payment at this time," Tallman said.

Do You Know Idaho Folklore? Writers Can Use Your Help

Can you predict weather by signs of the pioneers? Or spin the tall tales the pioneers loved? Or reel off a lusty Idaho lumberman's ballad? If you can, the Idaho writers' project under Yordis Fisher has need of your aid.

Fisher, head of the WPA group which is drawing up the volumes that are helping to publicize Idaho to the nation, declared in a communication received here today that the writers' project is now gathering material for a new book, "Idaho Folklore." The Idaho encyclopedia, he said, is now completed and in the hands of the printers.

Any Twin Falls or south central Idaho residents with material which should go into the state's folklore collection, he pointed out, should communicate with him at Boise.

Here is Fisher's tentative outline of the sections to be included in the book, giving you an idea of the kind of help you can give if you know your Idaho.

Section I—Cherms: against illness; to make wishes come true; for luck—good or bad; love charms. Signs to predict the weather; danger; death; regarding marriage; birth; journeys. Curatives: home-made remedies, traditionally efficacious although frowned upon by modern medical science, used in treating both human beings and animals.

Section II—Customs: of pioneers; of Indians; picturesque or unusual present customs; used in treating both human beings and animals.

Section III—Idioms, colloquialisms and picturesque manners of speech; such terms as "doodle-bug," commonly and most appropriately applied to promoters of unreliable mining enterprises; "wildcat," meaning "unsound" or "unreliable," used to characterize the schemes promoted by "doodle-bugs"; unusual expressions, such as: "cold as blazes"; "wer danged tooled"; "his holy jumped-up Moses"; and variants of words: "lurks"; "lurch"; "He left him in the lurch."

Section IV—Legends: told by Indians and pioneers—traditions—legions popularly accepted as historical but not verifiable by historical records. In this section will be stories of haunted houses, ghosts, great strength or boldness, of ferocity or kindness, etc.; anything told in your neighborhood that has become a tradition. It doesn't matter if the story is true if it is one that a lot of people here have heard and still hear and it is interesting.

Section V—Quasi-historical stories: those that, although they may sound like tall tales, could possibly have happened and probably are based on fact, such as that of the Seger family, the children of which are said to have come from Fort Hall to Boise riding a cow.

Section VI—Tall tales: impossible to imagine an old-timer, a fisherman or a hunter who doesn't have a large stock of these utterly preposterous and wholly delightful stories to tell.

Section VII—Folk-songs: ballads of

23 NAVY PLANES LAND IN ALASKA

Twelve Aircraft Assigned to Kotliak Island; 11 Go to Sitka

KODIAK, Alaska, July 16 (AP)—Twenty-three navy bombing and patrol planes, making the largest mass flight of planes ever seen in the northern territory, were in Alaska sea base today prepared to begin extensive maneuvers and training.

Twelve of the planes were assigned to the Kotliak Island base and the remaining 11 were moored at Sitka, the old Russian capital.

The airplane carrier U. S. S. Langley was stationed at Sitka and the U. S. S. Sandpiper, a minesweeper, was at Kodiak to act as the base ship.

The planes are operating under command of Lieut.-Comdr. T. J. Gray, who is remaining at Sitka.

HAIL SERVES TO HARM BEET CROP

Slight Damage Recorded in Fields of Twin Falls and Other Districts

Slight damage to sugar beets by hail in scattered sections at the Twin Falls, Burley and Rupert districts was noted here this afternoon. R. H. Tallman, Idaho district manager, who said that the 1937 crop would not be materially affected, however, by such damage.

In the Buhl and Castelford areas, Tallman said, approximately 100 acres of beet leaves were picked up. At Parsons, 30 acres out of 70 had the leaves stripped while in the Greenwood district about 90 acres suffered severely from the hail. Approximately 125 acres was damaged in the Declo district, 25 being termed as good practice where the leaves have been stripped," Tallman said. "To go through the fields with it would not be irrisigate immediately."

"Aside from these few damaged spots there are in exceptionally good condition," Tallman said.

At the same time Tallman said that maintenance work and improvements in progress at the Idaho factory in manner in the different factory districts.

IN MISERY WITH GAS AND BLOAT

Thought His Stomach Would Burst; But Now Van-Tage Has Relieved Him.

Many druggists of this section say they never saw anything like the way Bellville, Texas, people relieve gas and bloat. This is the Amazing New Van-Tage which is being sold in great quantities here and more rapidly than in Dallas, Texas, endorsed by MR. HOLT.

"For over 2 years I had been a very sick man with constipation, and a gassy, bloated stomach," said Mr. Holt. "It didn't seem to matter what I ate—everything seemed to turn right into gas and I would start bloating and swelling up until I felt like my stomach was going to burst. I was always taking strong physics. I heard about Van-Tage, and I made up my mind to get some of this medicine. I see if it would help me. After suffering for so long, you can imagine my surprise when the FIRST BOTTLE really gave me real, honest relief! The awful bloating and swelling with gas has been relieved and I can eat heartily without suffering with gas like I used to. My constipated bowels have been given a fine cleaning and now they matter what I eat, I can only but praise a medicine like Van-Tage."

VAN-TAGE contains over 50 ingredients as it is taking several medicines at once. Brings forth gas and bloat, helps cleanse bowels and invigorates sluggish kidneys, so that special druggists made them feel different ALL OVER. Van-Tage is NOT expensive, so that people everywhere in the Schramm-Johnson Drug Store, 102 North Main Street.

The evening was spent socially and at boating. Data for the meeting Aug. 12 at the home of Mrs. Schimke.

Marian Martin Pattern

PATTERN 9235
The Spirit of Summer is personified by this distinctive, warm-weather frock that Marian Martin has designed for the larger sizes, and Pattern 9235 solves the old problem of what to do about those extra pounds. A belted model in front, its fitted waist is nipped in by six tucks which enables the long panelled skirt and bodice line to remain unbroken. You'll find that this unusual feature will make you look ever so much taller and slimmer. The flared caplets and pointed yokes are all in one piece, and are accented by decorative buttons. A gay, feminine detail is that of the soft bow. Send for the pattern and find out for yourself how quickly and easily this festive frock can be made with the aid of the Complete Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart.

Pattern 9235 may be ordered only in misses' and women's sizes 18, 20, 24, 28, 32, 36, 40, 44, 48 and 52. Size 36 requires 4 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, and STYLE NUMBER.

Away with "sardonic problems!" Order the new Summer MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN BOOK for choosing, easy-to-make clothes that fit your needs to a "T." Brighten up hours of work and play with Jolly wash frocks, carefree sportswear, dainty sheers, lovely party styles—"winners" all! See the newest ideas for multiplying your current kiddie and Junior togs, too! BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. PATTERN FIFTEEN CENTS. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS FOR BOTH WHEN ORDERED TOGETHER.

DRAGGING OF AIR FIELD UNDER WAY

State Cooperates in Program of Idaho Pilots' Group To Secure Aids
Dragging of the Twin Falls municipal airport was underway here this afternoon through cooperation of the state department of aeronautics, was announced by Lt. A. Dean, president of the Idaho Pilot's association.

The airport dragging was one division of the four-point program adopted by the association at the last meeting held in Twin Falls. Others were the securing of an examining physician for pilots in this city; the marking of the city so that existing pilots would be able to find the airfield; and the holding of a statewide air meet in Twin Falls this fall.

"One point of the dragging of the field, has been secured through Ed Bryan, state aeronautics director," Dean said. "It can be also said that we are almost certain that a local physician will be officially appointed by the department of commerce to examine pilots. This will save men in this section a trip either to Boise or Pocatello."

Dean said the association was still working on plans for the air meet and the marking of the city. "And when I say working on the plan," he said, "I mean we will get them."

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

LION
THE MIGHTY LION, WHEN TOO OLD TO HUNT BIG GAME, IS NOT TOO PROUD TO SUBSIST ON BEETLES AND GRUBS.

A BEE
RECOGNIZES EVERY OTHER MEMBER OF ITS HIVE, ALTHOUGH THERE MAY BE FROM FIFTY TO EIGHTY THOUSAND MEMBERS.

SUN-SPOTS
FREQUENTLY ARE VISIBLE WITH THE NAKED EYE, BUT THE EYES SHOULD BE PROTECTED BY A DARK GLASS.

EACH colony of bees has its own particular odor, and any strange bee is detected at once and driven out. If a hive is divided, a difference develops in the odors of the two colonies and within one week's time the insects are total strangers.

Twin Falls Mermaids Feast at Sun Valley

Camp Outing Slated By Murtaugh Group

MURTAUGH, July 16 (Special)—Boy Scouts activities here are taking on new life at present with the outlook for a successful summer camp being encouraging. At present scouts are equipping themselves with hats, cooking kits, axes, stoves and first aid kits for the outing.

The outstanding activity prior to camping is the patrol contest in which each patrol is working for the set of signal flags to be awarded before the camp season. For the camp service of July the scouts will furnish the program for Pioneer day to be observed July 27.

Those to be presented before the court of honor this month are Donald Bronson, George Anderson, Bill Clawson, Clinton Adamson and Walter Day for merit badges. Requirements for tenderfoot badges have been met by Melvin and Anton Sedawy, Merr Bronson and Foris Bates.

The cocker spaniel and Angora cat of Leuk Robert Meyer rode from Pasadena, Calif., to Fort Wayne, Ind., in the same cage without incident, in the same cage to which exchanging hot words.

New Master Chosen By Jerome Grange

JEROME, July 16 (Special)—Following the resignation of W. F. Eaton, who with his family will leave soon for California, William N. Hardwick, Jerome county assessor, was elected master of the Jerome Grange, at a meeting of the organization in the Grange hall Friday evening.

Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed, with a program being presented under the direction of O. R. Peterson, lecturer. Roy Smith reported on the institute of cooperatives which he recently attended in Ames, Ia. Music was furnished by Mrs. Dale Thomas, who played two piano solos, and by Miss Lilla Mae Callen, who sang two solos, accompanied at the piano by Beverly Rice.

Next meeting of the Grange will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cook.

GOODING HORSES HIT BY DISEASE

Brain Fever on Increase in Southern Idaho, Says Dr. E. H. Ikard

GOODING, July 16 (Special)—Brain fever in horses is again on the increase, according to Dr. E. H. Ikard, veterinarian, who reports three cases in the near vicinity of Gooding. Many cases throughout southern Idaho have been reported during the past two weeks, indicating that the dread disease that has been afflicting horses is again taking formidable proportions as the hot weather season comes on. Only one case had been reported in the county previous to this week.

Veterinarians can prescribe no cure for the disease, but two men, Dr. Shahan and Dr. Gilliver, noted scientists, during the past two years have developed a vaccine that has prevented the disease when given the horses in time. The vaccine is made in two commercial laboratories under government supervision. Used in southern Idaho during the past two years, it has been 90 per cent efficacious when properly given and in time.

The so-called brain fever, encephalomyelitis, has taken untold toll of farm animals in the United States and has been directly responsible for motorizing of many ranches. It does not necessarily attack the weaker or aged animals, but frequently the younger and more valuable horses.

$11 Tops Jerome's Hog Pool Receipts

JEROME, July 16 (Special)—With $11 per hundredweight for top hogs, the last Jerome county hog pool was sold to Carstens Packing Co. Thirty-five farmers participated in the pool, selling approximately 140 hogs. Officials of the pool indicate that hog men are still very late about listing hogs, 16 individuals in the pool bringing in hogs without listing them at all and others listing them later in the week than required. Hog men wishing to ship hogs through the pool are urged to list them by the Saturday prior to the shipping date.

A penalty of five cents per cwt. was charged against the last pool for excess freight. Proper listing of hogs will avoid such penalties, it is stated.
