COUNTY'S REAL, PERSONAL TAX VALUATION RISES $379,670

EQUALIZED TOTAL FINDS FIGURE AT OVER 20 MILLION

Aggregate Shows Substantial Advance Over 1936 Mark Auditor Finds

Total increase in Twin Falls county assessed valuation, after equalization, is $379,670 for 1937, over the real and personal property tax rolls, it was revealed this afternoon by the office of Frank J. Smith, county auditor and recorder.

The net equalized valuation does not include the utilities or subsequent rolls, the auditor's office said.

Over 20 million

Valuation after completion of equalization by the board of county commissioners is $20,985,000. The equalized valuation for last year was $19,705,315.

The assessed value on the real and personal property rolls, as of January 1, 1937, was $20,230,610. The commissioners, after granting exemptions on $235,155 in valuation over appraisals of the statute affecting the real and personal property, the board allowed valuation reductions amounting to $470 on requests for tax abatement, of which $175 were made this year and only three granted.

Exemptions Less in 1936

Exemptions granted in 1936 amounted to $226,015, last year's records show.

The gain in valuations for 1937 reflects improved conditions in the county but does not mean a gain in tax levy, county assessors attached pointed out. Higher valuation means that property will raise more income, they said.

Talking at Meeting

Burke told reporters that Garner, Barkley and Wheeler, although not members of the committee, had been granted the privilege of participating in the discussion and all three had "talked a good deal."

The formal motion adopted by the committee was made by Burke, who said that the measure had been approved without a record vote.

The judiciary committee action came as Speaker Clegg announced that a definite legislative program be laid down in order for congress to speed up legislation.

The speaker asserted that plans for temporary house recesses during the dull legislative era are "definitely in the discussion and approved."

Asks Adjournment Speed
"Whatever we do, we should get down to business and adjourn sine die," the speaker said.

Administration leaders said three bills had been put on the "must" list for action:

1. A revised wages-hour measure.
2. General farm legislation.
3. Part of the program proposed by President Roosevelt for governmental reorganization.

It was believed that part of the reorganization program permitting employment of six additional secretaries at the White House, $10,000 a year, would not meet "serious" house opposition.

DAIRY HERDS AT TOP, MEET HEARS

Idaho Cattle Take No "Book Seat," Experts Inform

Debayment of Idaho need not take a "book seat" for any producers in the world when comparisons of herd quality and production are made, south central dairy herd owners had been informed today.

M. B. Nichols, Holstein-Friesian breeder, said that the fact that California purchases of Idaho dairy cattle were almost twice as much from the Gem state as from all other states, he said, was 9,000 in 1936 alone.

Geneticist Speaks
Chief technical discussion at the meeting was offered by Dr. E. E. Heiser, geneticist from Ohio State University, who stressed breeding and improvements in herd genetics. SERVICE SECURES MANY POSITIONS

Private Building Activity In This Section Offers Drop In Farm Demands

More than 100 registered persons, both men and women, have secured employment this month to date through the United States Employment service office located in Twin Falls, Ray Butler, local manager, said this afternoon.

At the same time, Butler said between 40 and 50 non-registered persons were referred to sources of employment.

Private building activities in this section are more than compensating for the demand drop in the demand for farm labor, which probably will not rise again until harvest time.

"A decided increase in building activity, pertaining to employment demands, is noted this month," Butler said. "This increase in construction has more than offset the slump in farm demands."

Butler also said that "around Aug. 1" a number of federal highway projects would open in this section, thus creating a demand for more workers. "Outside labor is not needed, however, as local locals can adequately meet demands."

You can't hardly get your foot inside of a store but what you hear folks asking for Our Family's Whiskey, and commenting on how mild and tasty it is. But here's a funny thing. Some way or another I never saw the real tony folks asking for it up until only just lately. Tom says they couldn't help but hear of how this is the personal recipe of our Family and how we've been a family of distillers for some way back in the early days. But Tom says maybe they had their mind set on buying a lot of their whiskey, and Our Family's Whiskey didn't cost them enough. Well anyway, they've caught on now—and I say the more the merrier!

COUNTY YOUTHS WILL RECEIVE $17,454 IN NYA BUDGET

PROJECTS IN CITY GET $10,912 OF AGGREGATE FUND

Work in Twin Falls and Five Other Counties Included Under Program

Twin Falls county youths will receive a total of $17,454 of NYA funds in the present fiscal year, and of this amount $10,912 will go to youths within the city of Twin Falls. Harold A. Salisbury, field representative for the National Youth Administration, announced here this afternoon.

The $17,454 going into business channels of the county and city represent the budget of the NYA for salaries in Twin Falls county and in this city for the fiscal year which started July 1 and will end June 30, 1938. That the budget will be approved by state headquarters is indicated by the fact that projects on which this money will be expended are already underway in the county.

Park Work Here
Principal project which will be worked in Twin Falls during the year, Salisbury said, will be that in the parks. For this work the budget calls for $5,220 and all of it goes for salaries, no part of the money spent for anything else, the representative points out.

Second in Twin Falls is the aid given the public library. Here $1,500 will go to workers in the form of monthly pay checks. Ranking third is the $1,152 budgeted for aiding the WPA nursery school.

In the county proper the greatest amount will be spent in NYA aid given the general hospital, this amount being $3,648 for the fiscal year.

"Sixty-five youths are now at work in the general hospital, this office, located in the basement of the bandshell at city park," Salisbury said this afternoon. "This number will be materially increased as soon as reasonable labor is over and more youths are available for projects which will reach their highest capacity around Nov. 15."

Plan Buhl Project
"At the present time a project of five or six youths is being contemplated for Buhl for work in the parks and the library. A project just submitted for operation at Fairfield includes one youth for work in high school office, two laborers for buildings and grounds and one as assistant in the library," Salisbury said.

A complete list of projects now working, and the amount to be spent on each, follows:
Jerome recreation (summer) $195; grade school, Filer, $200; library, Filer, $400; NYA office, Twin Falls, $100; public schools, Gannett (summer), $36; adult education, Twin Falls, $400; fairgrounds at Filer, $1,466; Twin Falls parks, $5,220; Twin Falls county hospital, $3,648; health camp Buhl (summer), $204; WPA nursery school in Twin Falls, $1,152; county health unit, Twin Falls, $852; recreation, Twin Falls (summer), $676; WPA canning kitchen, Twin Falls, $744; recreation, Hansen (summer), $102; library projects: Gooding, $612; Wendell, $408; Pictou, $204; Bellevue, $400; Twin Falls, $1,500; Kimberly, $408; and Murtaugh, $408.

Entire amount of the budget for the six counties comes to $10,873, records show.

Mother at 11, Doubly Happy at 13

Eighteen months ago this proud young mother, Mrs. Daniel Gonzales of Fort Arthur, Tex., was the talk of the country. For, before her 12th birthday, she gave birth to a 7-pound son, Jan. 18, 1936. If the last you heard was: "Mother and baby doing well." Just look at this. Not only has Mrs. Gonzales' first born become a husky youngster, but he has acquired a sister, Estelita Alice, born July 7 this year, less than a month after the mother celebrated her 13th birthday on June 15. The Mexican father is 22.

NO MORE DITCH—THIS YOUNG LADY WANTS THE DEEP WATER

Wading in a small ditch which runs in front of her house on route one was all right in its day but now that pretty little Patricia Cappel, who will be 11 years old in August, is "growing up" she wants to learn to swim so she can go out into the deep water.

Thus Patricia explained to an Evening Times reporter why she has enrolled in the current Red Cross swim campaign underway at Harmon park pool under the direction of Tom Gill of Boise, registered senior life saver.

Ditch? Not Now!
"I think everybody should learn to swim," Patricia said pertly, "and that's why I'm learning. Wading in the ditch in front of our home was fun a little while ago but now I want to go out into the deep water."

Each day a friend brings the little girl into the city for the classes. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Cappel and Mr. Gill points out that she is a willing pupil.

But on the other hand, Gordon Elisinger who is just turning six and will attend the school, comes next fall, is having his troubles. "I want to learn to swim," he said, "but my mother forgets to wake me up in the morning and I have a hard time getting to the pool on time."

Gordon comes to the pool with a group of his friends each day and proudly insisted that he was "going to take swimming lessons in Moscow but I left there too soon."

He Started Early
That his swimming ambitions started at a tender age can be seen in his next statement that he has lived in Twin Falls "about two years."

Gordon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern J. Elisinger of the Burgalow apartments.

And with the swimming pool reserved for classes, the Eighth avenue lateral, which crosses a section of the park, is coming into the "history" it knew in former days.

ICKES ATTACKS U. S. REFINERS

Interior Secretary Answers O'Mahoney on Pending Sugar Legislation

WASHINGTON, July 22 (UP)—Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes today attacked American refiners' "propaganda" against pending sugar legislation and defended the bill as the collective product of the agriculture, interior and state departments.

He answered an adverse statement on the administration bill by Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, D. Wyo., with the assertion that "the senator either has been misinformed as to the facts or he has been deceived by the propaganda of the sugar refiners' lobby."

"The administration's concern," Ickes said, "is that Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands receive fair treatment. There is no limitation upon the refining of sugar in the mainland and there should be no discrimination with respect to the conduct of refining operations in our territories and island possessions."

"The provision which the refiners desire to become permanent law would deprive Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands of their rights to engage in interstate commerce in equality with the 48 states. Let it be reiterated that the entire administration is solidly against the efforts of a small but effective group of manufacturing monopolists to entrench themselves further at the expense of the American people."

The sugar bill now before congress removes trade barriers between Hawaiian, Puerto Rican and Virgin Island sugar producers and the American market.

GMTC TRAINEES THRILL AT HIKE

Men at Fort Douglas Prepare For Visitors' Day, Set Thursday, July 29

GMTC HEADQUARTERS, FORT DOUGLAS, Utah, July 22 (Special)—Perfection of various drills is now occupying a feature part of routine matters as C.M.T.C. trainees seek to provide "something different" which will impress visitors on the special day set aside for them on July 29.

Trainees just completed the overnight hike, an annual feature of the month-long training period, in a manner which earned the commendation of army officers from Brigadier General Walter C. Sweeney, camp commander, down on the hike the group camped at S'meltner's hot pots, near Heber City, Utah.

Healthy effect of three weeks outdoor army life, athletics, wholesome meals and plenty of sleep was seen following the hike, for very few of these trainees assembled throughout Idaho, Utah, Nevada and western Wyoming had to report to the camp physician for as much as a blistered foot.

Drury Youngsters Plan Friday Hike

Picnic Lunch, Swimming Will Feature at Blue Lakes

Drury park playground will be more or less vacated Friday as youngsters from 11 years old and up hike to Blue Lakes for a day's outing.

The six-mile jaunt will be made under the direction of E. D. Bredelove, senior recreation supervisor, and Dora Williams, NYA assistant at the park.

Leaving at 8:30 a. m. the group expects to return by 5:30 p. m. A picnic lunch and swimming will feature the day, each child providing their own food. It is expected about 30 will attend.

Death Claims Paul Pioneer in Provo

PAUL July 22 (Special)—Afton Johnson last week was called to Provo to be at the bedside of his father, John Johnson, who died the day after his son arrived.

Mr. Johnson was one of the early residents of Paul owning the ranch where his son now resides. He left there about five years ago moving to Provo where he entered the business. While living here he was trustee for the Lincoln school district and superintendent of the L. D. S. Sunday school. Funeral services were held July 18.

FLAMES RAGE IN NORTH FORESTS

MISSOULA, Mont., July 22 (UP)—A forest fire was reported raging out of control in the Rocky Mountain regional forest, eight miles from here today, sweeping rapidly along a southerly path and threatening destruction of a number of homes along Miller creek.

Forest service officials said that more than 700 men had been sent out to battle the blaze, the worst forest fire of the season in Montana.

FRESNO, Calif., July 22 (UP)—A forest fire swept out of control near North Fork on Kings river today and had burned over 500 acres before 150 fire fighters, conscripted from GCO and ranger camps, were able to man the lines.

Roy Blood, assistant forest supervisor at North Fork, was in charge of fire fighting operations and said that the rugged nature of the mountainous country made the fighting difficult.

MOSCOW, July 22 (UP)—A new technique in fire fighting was introduced today when men were sent by airplane to the site of a forest fire in the Arctic region by airplane and parachuted to the ground. They extinguished the blaze.

$13,000 AWARDS AT FAIR IN BOISE

West Idaho Exposition Will Offer More Prizes Than Last Year

BOISE, July 22 (Special)—Cash prizes to be awarded to winning exhibitors at the Western Idaho State fair to be held in Boise, Aug. 25 to 29 inclusive, total $13,000. This figure is about $3,000 greater than the amount paid in prizes in the first renewal of the fair last year and does not include the prizes which will be given in horse racing and rodeo events. Fair managers state that the premiums offered compare very well with those offered at other important fairs.

Prizes are offered in 13 divisions with 457 items including $43,432; swine $1,584; beef cattle $1,875; sheep $1,336; sheep $250; poultry $452; farm products $222 and fruit $452. Women's crafts will be awarded with $490 for time arts, $110 for flowers and $107 for pantry and kitchen products. Future Farmers of America will receive $322 and a very substantial sum has been reserved for boys' and girls' clubs.

Prizes are completely listed in a 46-page booklet of rules and regulations which is now being distributed throughout Idaho and which may be obtained by writing to Ed L. Sprout, fair manager, in Boise.

Construction is being rushed to completion at the fair grounds and all projects will be finished well in advance of the opening day of the fair, assuring plenty of room and accommodations for all exhibitors, of which there will be many more than last year. Some of the exhibition buildings have been doubled in size, and two new buildings are already completed.

Forest Area Sets Record for Year

BURLEY, July 22 (Special)—Only three fires in the Minidoka forest this year to date is the boast of the local forest office. Of the three fires, only one was man-caused and burned only an eighth of an acre. The other two were caused by lightning and in each case only one tree was burned down. The rain during hot days has minimized the fire hazard and that, coupled with diligent patrol by forest rangers, may set a new record by Oct. 30.

There were 11 fires last year between May 9 and Oct. 30.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By William E. McKenney

PUTS DEFENSE IN MIDDLE

By WM. E. MCKENNEY
Secretary, American Bridge League

The forced lead, or end play, is one of the most interesting tactics at bridge, because the final situation must be prepared with much care. Often every play must be considered in sequence in order that the defender, who is to be throwing in, will have no saving exit.

This, of course, requires wording his hand of cards in return that would permit him to return the burden of the lead to the declarer, before the trap is ready to be sprung.

Today's hand is taken from a recent rubber bridge game in which Irving Epstein, of New York, who has met the nation's master players on equal terms, was seated fourth.

After the opening lead, South was far from happy. The spade situation was bad, and there was a losing heart to be disposed of somewhere.

South won the club queen with his ace. The second trick was won

Today's Contract Problem

West opened the bidding with one diamond, North doubled, South bid two clubs, North two hearts, and West East doubled, South went to three clubs, which East also doubled. Should declarer play the five of the king, to the first trick?

with the ace of trumps in dummy, and a low heart was led to the king. The lead of the king of spades dropped the queen, showing that East still held the ten and eight.

Epstein decided that his best chance to make the contract was to shorten his trumps and compel a lead up to him on the twelfth trick. He cashed the ace of hearts and the king of clubs, and ruffed dummy's last club in his own hand.

Then the diamond ace was cashed, the king was led, and East was on the spot. If he ruffed, South would overruff, pick up his last trump and concede a heart.

Instead, East chose to discard a South dropped a heart, and led another diamond, ruffing with a low trump.

Now the last heart was led, and this was the only losing trick, as the ace of hearts was retained. (Copyright, 1937, NEMA Service, Inc.)

ICE CREAM

Because a youngster was lying flat on the sidewalk in front of the Idaho Department store yesterday afternoon and was literally "giving his eyes out," an Evening Times reporter parked his car, and went over to see what it was all about.

But just as he lifted the little boy off the sidewalk, loaned by his handkerchief, for little nose blowing and face rubbing, and got his crying stopped, the mother of the boy appeared.

"I was just wondering what was wrong," the reporter said. "He wants an ice cream cone, and he isn't going to get it," the mother said.

And the crying started all over again.

LIQUOR LEADERS START CLEAN-UP

Drive Commences to Close Illegal Places in East Part of State

POCATELLO, July 22 (AP)—The state liquor control commission has started its drive in eastern Idaho to close up illicit bars and saloons.

M. B. Yeaman, of Boise, newly-named chairman of the commission, and Frank Meek, secretary and attorney for the group, working in conjunction with County Attorney Milton E. Zeuer, of Bannock county, and sheriff's officers, have outlined a unique procedure to dry up this part of the state.

First, they secured a list of federal retail liquor permits issued in the county, possession of which is a technical violation of the state liquor code.

Deputy sheriffs Bert Empey and Dave McNichols then began to call on those on the list to collect the federal licenses. Only one holder of a federal permit, the officers stated, refused to relinquish his license.

From Pocatello, the commission members are going to Idaho Falls to continue the same procedure.

Smoke in Cabin, Plane Lands at Mountain Club

By WILMA KEEL

IDAHO ROCKY MOUNTAIN CLUB, Stanley, July 22 (Special)—A near-fire in an airplane that descended on the club landing field here provided temporary excitement for guests and staff.

The craft which had passed at high altitude in the direction of Stanley, returned in a few minutes, circled around and then swooped down to the field. The four Salt Lake men aboard the craft said they discovered smoke in the cabin interior just after passing the field. Fearing fire, they rushed back to the landing field.

Cigarette is Cause

A smoldering cigarette dropped behind a cushion and caused the smoke. It was discovered just in time to prevent its bursting into flames.

The men had taken off from Ketchikan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sells spent the week-end at the club. Mr. Sells is Assistant Traffic Manager of the Union Pacific Railway at Salt Lake City.

Charles M. Davidson, Boise, Mrs. W. P. Smith and daughter, Miss Gertrude Smith, and Miss Mae Janet Smith, South Grange, N. J., came to the club for breakfast Saturday morning, en route to Boise. Mr. Davidson is landscape artist at Sun Valley Lodge. W. P. Smith is connected with J. Averill Martin's office in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Chapman, W. Orr Chapman, Twin Falls, and Master Griff Marshall, Goshute, Calif., were dinner guests at the club Saturday evening.

R. B. King, Boise, general superintendent of the Idaho Power company, and J. F. Emery, Boise, distribution engineer, came Sunday afternoon to stay over night. They had been to Salmon City on business, and were returning to Boise.

First moonlight picnic of the season was held last week. All of the guests and staff left the club at 5:30, and rode horseback down the lake a few miles to a lovely spot on Cleveland creek. After a dinner cooked over an open fire a ball game and various athletic contests were held. The horseback ride home in the moonlight was particularly enjoyable. These picnics have been a tradition with the club for a number of years, and are held once each month during the full moon.

"Strike Deaths Were Unnecessary," Says Civil Liberties Report

GROUP CLAIMS STEEL SLAYINGS WERE AVOIDABLE

Report of Investigation Is Submitted to Senate; Police Accused

By RUSSELL TURNER
WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP)—The senate civil liberties committee today charged that its inquiry into Chicago's fatal Memorial day outbreak showed that 10 deaths resulting from the clash between police and striking steel workers "were clearly avoidable by police."

The report of its investigation submitted to the senate today, the committee declared that "the force employed by the police was far in excess of that which the occasion required," and added: "Its use must be ascribed either to gross inefficiency in the performance of police duty or a deliberate attempt to intimidate the strikers."

Signed by Committee Chairman Robert M. La Follette, Jr., P. Wis., and Sen. Robert D. Thomas, D., Utah, only other member of the committee, the report criticizes the investigation of the violence conducted by the Chicago and Cook county authorities. Of the investigation conducted by city authorities, the report said:

"The action of the responsible authorities in setting the seal of their approval upon the conduct of the police forces in this event, possibly where responsibility properly belong but will invite the repetition of similar incidents in the future."

"The La Follette committee report was made public two days after a Chicago coroner's jury, after inquiring into the cause of the deaths, returned a verdict of "justifiable homicide" in connection with the death of the 10 men.

Concerning the investigation conducted by Chicago Police Commissioner James P. Allinan, the report said: "The entire effort of the police was directed, not toward an impartial investigation of the event, but to an attempt to build up a case against the marchers."

"Probe inadequate" the report said, "is apparent from the fact that the police investigation was entirely inadequate to the occasion; that it started with an assumption of guilt on the part of the marchers, and failed to make any impartial examination of the conduct of the police."

"The report criticized conduct of police after the clash occurred and charged failure of police to render first aid to wounded."

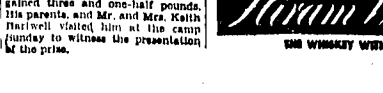

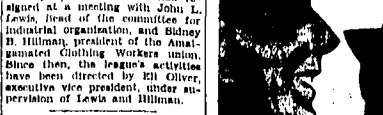

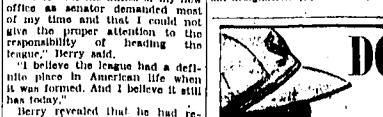

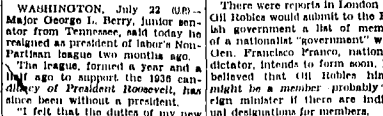

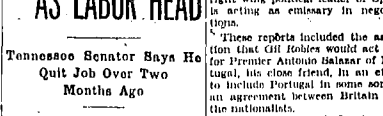

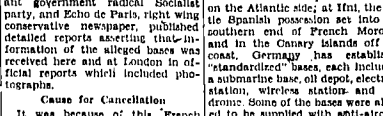

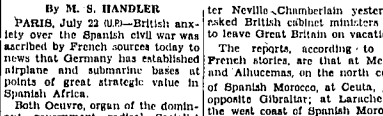

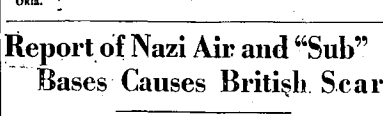

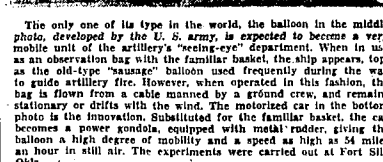

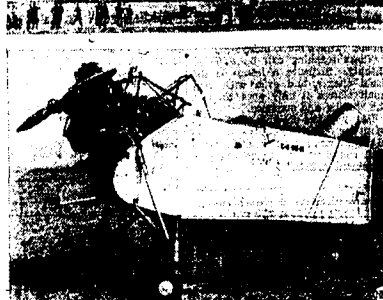

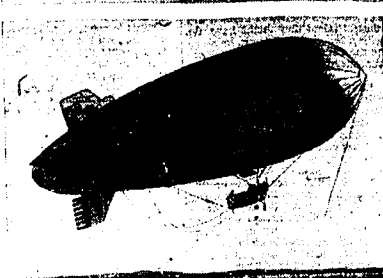

"Our conclusion that the use of excessive force to disperse the marchers was deliberate and confirmed by a consideration of their care of the wounded."

"The report said the police in testifying before the committee admitted that 'no attempt whatsoever was made to render first aid to the wounded.'"

"Not only," said the report, "did the police neglect the wounded, they prevented the union from giving aid."

"Sad Commentary" the report said, "is at least a sad commentary on the discipline of the Chicago police. Evidence makes it clear that the use of clubs, where clubs were readily unnecessary, was the official policy of the police on the field."

"This conclusion is finally confirmed by the photograph which shows Captain Kilroy, second in command, who stands idly by while several policemen are engaged in clubbing two marchers, both on the ground and incapable of resistance."

GROCERY OWNER ANSWERS BLAST

Small Establishment Operator Says Long Hours, Sundays, Are "Necessity"

Contrary to the findings of a representative group of local store clerks at a meeting held in the union hall Tuesday night at which time neighborhood groceries were termed as "demoralizing" to working conditions in Twin Falls, J. O. Nell, owner of such a store, this afternoon said operation of such stores, Sundays, and holidays was "more or less a necessity."

Mr. Nell, who has been in business in Twin Falls for the past four years, is owner of the Nell grocery and service station at Five Points.

"World Loss Business" "If the city is closed up tight on Sundays, holidays and at night, the business will go elsewhere, especially that business found among tourists, neighbors and those on pleasure trips."

"Filling stations, operating a small grocery in connection, would find it almost impossible to close the grocery section when it is in reality one unit of the station work," Nell said.

Mr. Nell said he spoke "for many small groceries and stations which I say that it is right to remain open even though in some cases there is no money in it and it is more or less of a courtesy."

"Downtown store owners should not feel that outlying stores are imposing on their business by being open when they are closed because merchandise sold by these stores is really in the form of emergency items to be consumed on the day of purchase, and in many cases this purchase is absolutely essential to that person," Nell said.

Not "Demoralizing" "I cannot see where this service gives the public and traveler is demoralizing to labor in Twin Falls. In most cases the small store is staffed by members of the owner's family."

"And regarding the fact that it is taking business away from the downtown area, I might say that in my experience I have found very few cases where the purchase of staples merchandise on Sundays, holidays or at night. What they do buy is something they have forgotten to get during the time the downtown stores are open," Nell said.

Trailers House New Population For Hagerman

HAGERMAN, July 22 (Special)—The hope of a large increase of population in Hagerman since the work on the Idaho Power Upper Salmon plan began in the past spring has proved difficult.

In fact, an outlooker in town on Saturday night might be puzzled as to where all the people live.

The answer to the riddle would be Trailer houses, and tent houses.

It is difficult to estimate the number of trailer houses and tent houses dotting the landscape here and there throughout the valley. Several small colonies however are grouped together in the open woods, near the Motor Inn camp grounds, Collette farm, Briggs farm.

Many others are located at points along the valley.

Turkey production has exceeded materially in Cassia county the past few years, due probably to previous drought and some low-priced years. Chicken production is apparently holding its own as to population, but is not showing any material increase.

The number of large commercial flocks of chickens as well as turkeys has been decreased in the county, but perhaps there has been an increase in a general distribution of small flocks of chickens.

Aqua-Quadruplets

Cassia's Poultry Check-Up Slated

BURLEY, July 21 (Special)—Prem Moore, extension poultryman, will be in Cassia county Saturday visiting poultry producers with W. W. Palmer, county agent.

The principal purpose of Mr. Moore's visit is to check pullet and turkey pox development in this county. Disease troubles have been reported in some sections, such as Newcastle disease, which is a nutritional condition or parasitic infection.

Mr. Palmer states that if poultrymen have any special problems that they wish to bring to Mr. Moore's attention they should call the county agent's office.

Report of Nazi Air and "Sub" Bases Causes British Scare

By M. S. HANDLER
PARIS, July 22 (AP)—British anxiety over the Spanish civil war was increased today by the publication of news that Germany has established airplane and submarine bases at points of great strategic value in Spanish Africa.

Both Ouezzou, organ of the dominant government radical Socialist party, and Echo de Paris, right wing conservative newspaper, published detailed reports asserting that information of the alleged bases was received here at London in official reports which included photographs.

Cause for Cancellation "It was because of this," French sources asserted, that Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain yesterday asked British cabinet ministers not to leave Great Britain on vacation.

The reports, according to French sources, are that at Melilla and Alhucemas, on the north coast of Spanish Morocco, at Ceuta, just opposite Gibraltar, at Larache on the west coast of Spanish Morocco, and in the Canary Islands off the coast, Germany has established "standardized" bases, each including a submarine base, oil depot, electrical station, wireless station, and air-drome. Some of the bases were alleged to be supplied with anti-aircraft or coast defense guns.

Seeks Rebel Relation Reports were circulated both here and in London that Britain, because of the international complications, is seeking better relations with the Spanish nationalists and that Jose Maria Gil Robles, the outstanding right wing political leader of Spain, is acting as an emissary in negotiations.

These reports included the assertion that Gil Robles would act as a Premier Antonio Salazar of Portugal, his close friend, in an effort to include Portugal in some sort of an agreement between Britain and the nationalists.

There were reports in London that Gil Robles would submit to the British government a list of members of a nationalist "government" which (Gen. Francisco Franco, nationalist dictator, intends to form soon. It is believed that Gil Robles himself might be a member, probably foreign minister, if there are individual designations for members.

Tennessee Senator Says He Quit Job Over Two Months Ago

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP)—Major George L. Berry, junior senator from Tennessee, said today he resigned as president of labor's Non-Partisan league two months ago.

The league, formed a year and a half ago to support the 1936 campaign of President Roosevelt, has since been without a president.

"I felt that the duties of my new office as senator demanded most of my time and that I could not give the league attention to the responsibility of heading the league," Berry said.

"I believe the league had a definite place in American life it was formed. And I believe it still has today."

MUSIC TAUGHT AT 12¢ PER LESSON

Toronto Stook Broker Helps 500,000 Canadian Youths To Learn to Play

LONDON (AP)—Henry George Stanton, Toronto stock broker, who has enabled 500,000 Canadian children to learn to play the piano in the last 20 years at a cost of only about 12 cents a lesson, admitted in an interview here that he could not play any musical instrument. Stanton thought it a pity that children from poor homes should not have the chance to develop any musical talent they might have. So, with a few wealthy friends, he started the Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music.

Doesn't Play
"Met Oh, no, I don't play myself, only wish I could," he said. "I'm just musical," very interested in music, enjoy listening, but can't do anything about it myself."

"I am still director of the bureau, an entirely voluntary job. At the moment there are 35,000 school children scattered over most of the Canadian provinces learning to play piano and violin. It's my contention that children always do better in a group. It's very monotonous for some poor child to be told to run home and practice the piano when every other child is out playing. In class, there is interest and rivalry. Practice at school.

"If the children haven't got pianos at home, they can practice at school. That's much more fun. "Class teaching can be done so cheaply. Sixpence a lesson is the usual charge, and even with very small classes it only goes to, say, one shilling and sixpence.

"Many of the children who succeed at home, they have gone on to win honors and prizes at the musical conservatories. Some are now prominent artists."

Goldwyn Apologizes To Mrs. Roosevelt For Rumor of "Ad"

HOLLYWOOD, July 22 (AP)—Samuel Goldwyn, movie producer, today addressed a public apology to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt for making it appear that she had been added to his payroll as an advertising writer. In a statement released by the studio Monday night, it was announced that Mrs. Roosevelt would write a "plug" for "Stella Dallas." Goldwyn said: "Statement Not True. "I want to apologize to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt for the publicity statements recently circulated that she had been engaged as one of my advertising writers.

"This is not true. Mrs. Roosevelt, through her literary agent, Mrs. George B. of New York, was told the story of 'Stella Dallas' and, as a result, wrote a beautiful editorial entitled: 'Stella Dallas inspires a discussion of a mother's vital problem.'"

Buyer-Editorial
"Mrs. Roosevelt graciously permitted me to buy this editorial and use it in a series of advertisements to appear in national magazines and newspapers.

"At no time, however, was she ever engaged as an advertising writer for me."

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

HORSES MIGHT NEVER HAVE BECOME SO USEFUL TO MAN, HAD IT NOT BEEN FOR THE SPACE IN THEIR JAWS BETWEEN THE INCISORS AND THE GRINDING TEETH.

THE BIT IS PLACED IN THIS SPACE, AND THE ANIMAL CANNOT TAKE IT IN HIS TEETH; THEREBY, IS ABLE TO CONTROL AND GUIDE HIM.

IN TROPICAL FORESTS, WHERE HUMIDITY IS HEAVY, AND WATER SUPPLY FROM THE ROOTS IS PLENTIFUL, CERTAIN LEAVES ARE CONSTRUCTED TO LEAK WATER, THIS PREVENTING THEM FROM BECOMING WATER-LOGGED.

Were it not for the fact that tropical trees can get rid of their surplus moisture, the leaves would become so coated with water that transpiration would be retarded. Some leaves have special drip tips which conduct the water from the rest of the leaf surface.
