

REGISTRATION AT ALL-TIME MARK

Enrollment at High School Soars to Intensity Pupil Congestion Problem

Soaring to a new all-time record this year, the student congestion problem, Twin Falls high school enrollment today was 1,102 pupils—77 more than the former peak of 1,025.

The old record was made last fall at the end of the first six weeks, when the top registration in the senior-junior high school building reached 500, Homer M. Davis said.

The peak this fall after six weeks will show a decided jump above today's all-time mark of 1,002, the superintendent said. It was unofficially estimated that high school enrollment at that time probably will exceed 1,200 students.

Absorbs "New" Space

The abrupt climb in enrollment, partially caused by influx of drouth area pupils, has already absorbed one-half of the space to be gained by moving sixth graders out of the senior-junior high school building under the $300,000 building program, Supt. Davis said.

And the bulk of the sixth graders, he pointed out, will not be returned to grade school buildings until completion of the new Bickel and Lincoln units next summer.

Total enrollment in the entire public school system today, the superintendent's figures show, is 3,483, also representing an all-time high registration in grade buildings and in the junior high is "about as high as it has ever reached in the past."

Grade school pupils now total 1,470. Junior high students aggregate 911. New enrollments in these units at the high school are still coming in, with 30 more signed up yesterday in the senior high alone.

Lincoln Leads

Lincoln school, which congestion is rapidly becoming more serious, leads grade buildings with 600 pupils today. Bickel is next with 430 and Washington third with 380.

First graders lead all divisions in the elementary schools, nosing out the fifth graders by five pupils, 409 to 394. There are 295 second graders, 283 third and 276 fourth graders.

In the high school, ninth grade or freshman class leads with 409 enrolled up until today. Sophomores are next with 283, juniors third with 243 and seniors fourth with 207.

Daring Evening Gowns Stop Shows in Paris This Season

New Creations Make Models Blush

By ROSETTTE HARGROVE (INEA Service)

PARIS—The evening gowns that stop all shows in Paris these days resemble, and none too faintly, the costumes a more or less modest "strip tease" artist might wear. Still to reveal every line of the body, often with décolletages so daring that even the models blush, these are a new "low" in "sex appeal" clothes.

Some necklines are cut in elongated V's, extending almost to the waistline in front and biting most of the neck. Others are heart-shaped, and there are many off-the-shoulder décolletés. Straps are not content to lie over the shoulders—the newest style is to have them go around the top of the arm, and neckline straps or scarf arrangements are cut in one with the very low bodice, which is sometimes nothing more or less than a small inverted triangle of fabric just covering the bust.

Silhouettes Emergent

Two silhouettes emerge distinctly from the bewildering choice of creations offered in the autumn collection. One is the princess line, clinging like a glove to the figure, with uplifted bust and fullness gradually introduced above or below the knees to the hem; the other is the full, romantic skirt, sometimes starting from a lowered waistline and attached to a fitted, corseted bodice.

The first is intended for the flawless figure, developed according to modern canons of beauty. The second is easiest to wear, but both demand an impression of height, and even the flowing skirts preserve somehow the impression of the streamlined silhouette.

In a category all by themselves are the period dresses. Crinolines, bustles and panniers, in modified and modernized expressions are featured in picturesque gowns which Malinbocher calls Robes de Style 1838.

Director's Period

The Director's period is also present in high-waisted, long and slim, slashed skirted gowns with trains looped over the arm. All these are destined for very special formal functions and should not be interpreted as a current fashion. The short evening dress, with full, ballerina skirt, is another special mode, intended for the "jeune fille" only.

The most varied as well as the most sumptuous fabrics yet seen complete the evening fashion picture. Sulf brocades or embroidered satins, shimmering moires and awl-headed silks, draped velvets, glittering laces are used alone or combined with chiffon, tulle and lace. Verticolored sequins and paillettes or heavy gold embroidery add a further note of luxuriousness to the already handsome fabrics, all typifying the richness and feeling for color of the present season.

Vionnet, for example, veils gold or silver lame sheaths with filmy black Chantilly lace or sheer mousseline de soie, the lame being used as an edging to the full-skirted overdress. These gowns have ultra-low décolletés sometimes veiled with sheer lace or chiffon and skirts attached to brassier tops with the fullness massed in front, or back and front, in deep godets. She also shows an arresting model in gold lame with wide, gored over-skirt in stiff gold cellophane lace which strikes an altogether new note.

So far as colors go, the boldest shades have been featured. The first in importance is pink, in shades varying from that of "pink pills" to peony and other vivid floral pinks. Some of them are reminiscent of the colors seen in Peruvian embroideries. Next come blue, ranging from deep indigo to light blue, passing by royal and madonna blues.

The sex appeal note is treated in masterly manner in Nancy Kouff's gown of handsome black and silver lame in lace design. The waistline is stressed by horizontal shirring, and the long sleeves offer a startling contrast to the exaggerated décolletage. It's worn with a neckband of pink and green velvet ribbon to match the muff.

Deep rich yellows have made their appearance. Purples include bishop's purple, violet and parma, all the pattern shades are good and the reds include damask and flame as well as the deep and light wine shades.

Black and white, used alone or relieved by a vivid touch of color or glittering embroidery, share honors with all the new shades. As a matter of fact, there are many more all white and all black dresses than in previous seasons.

ACTION SEEN FOR WHITE RAT FIGHT

Extermination of Rodents in Rock Creek Canyon Begins Early in October

Campaign to wipe out hordes of white rats infesting a large area in Rock Creek canyon today, as city officials were informed a government representative will be in Twin Falls early in October to discuss the situation and make a general survey of the area.

The rats, numbered in the thousands, came as the result of a few liberated about two years ago by a family selling them at that time. Since then they have grown both in number and size and have returned to their wild state. They attack chickens and other fowl and also present a potential health threat to Twin Falls should they migrate from the area. To date only a few have been noticed out of the canyon proper.

Some type of poisoning will probably be used to exterminate the rodents, officials said.

At the same time today city officials were pushing efforts to secure WPA funds for labor which will permit completion of a sewer project near Five points, west, officially known as sewer district number 68.

At the present time and until the project is completed, it was pointed out at a meeting of the city council last night, outstanding warrants amounting to approximately $2,700 cannot be paid. Upon completion of the district, it will be possible to sell the bonds or levy the cost of the improvement against each individual property owner to be paid over a period of 10 years with interest. Lack of available WPA labor was given as the cause for delay of completion. At the present time approximately half the work is in and some is in use.

Shadows that the casual observer thinks of as just gray or black in a painting will be revealed, on close examination, to be full of color, sometimes quite bright.

Pride Bruised

HARRISBURG, Pa. (UP)—It took the chamber of commerce here 38 hours to check up on the number of bridges in this 11-square-mile city to answer a citizen's question. The chamber reported Harrisburg's 88,000 population walks or rides over 137 bridges or viaducts.

Thine Coyotes

RAWLINS, Wyo. (UP)—Cartoon county ranchers have killed approximately 500 coyotes within the last few months. In one case a litter of 11 pups was killed with the mother coyote when the adult was tracked to its lair. The state pays a bounty of $3 a head for coyotes.

2 MEN RUN OVER BY SHEEP TRAIN

Utah, Kansas Workers Killed After Falling Asleep on Railroad Tracks

EMMETT, Idaho, Sept. 14 (UP)—Dick Cummings, 26, Logan, Utah, and Cole Paynter, about 35, Goodman, Kansas, were instantly killed early today when run over by a sheep train one-half mile west of here.

Chester Finch, Union Pacific engineer who was in the cab of the east bound freight, said the two men were apparently sleeping in the center of the track near a cattle guard.

The engine and four cars passed over the men's bodies before Finch could bring his heavily-loaded train to a stop, according to deputy sheriff Vance Jones, Gem county.

Lived at Auto Camp

Jones said evidence was that the two, who lived at Brubaker auto camp three-quarters of a mile west of Emmett, had walked toward home along the railroad, had become tired, and sat on the rails to rest.

Then, he said, they probably fell asleep. The accident occurred at 2:05 a. m.

Finch said he saw the men in the glare of the headlight before the train struck, and that he applied emergency brakes. Weight of the on-rushing train was too great to permit a stop before striking the men.

No inquest.

Gem county coroner's office said there would be no inquest.

Cummings was employed by Terrelling and Sons, contractors, Jones said, and his companion was a painter by trade.

Paynter had been living at the Brubaker camp for about a year, said Jones. He did not know how long Cummings had been there.

NATIONAL LINES PRESS-TO GIJON

Women Don Helmets as Loyals Try to Defend Last Base on Bisceay

HENDAYE, FRANCO-SPANISH FRONTIER, Sept. 14 (UP)—Three nationalist columns pressed slowly toward Gijon from different directions today in an effort to join their lines and cut off the last loyalist base on the Bisceay coast.

While urgent warnings blocked the Gijon harbor, nationalist contingents pushed across Asturias province from the west, south and along the coastal road from the east.

The defending loyalists fought desperately to halt the advances. Women donned loyalist uniforms and fought in the front lines with their husbands.

On the coast the nationalists concentrated on encircling Ribadesella, 28 miles east of Gijon, the capture of which would give them the key to Gijon.

"CREEPING PARALYSIS" SLOWS DOWN INDUSTRY IN SOVIET

PRODUCTION CUT IN COAL, STEEL, IRON IS NOTICED

Decrease in Work Put Out By Labor Also Tends to Make 5-Year Plan Impossible

(Editor's note: Here is the fifth of six dispatches by Webb Miller, European news manager of the United Press, on Russia as it is today.)

By WEBB MILLER (Copyright, 1937, United Press) MOSCOW, via London (uncensored), Sept. 13 (UP)—Creeping paralysis has stricken Soviet industry, seriously affecting fulfillment of the second five-year plan for the time being.

This does not mean that industry has collapsed. But in all vital branches it is not attaining the levels set in the plan, which generally were about 20 per cent in excess of last year's production. In many cases, actual output is not even reaching the 1936 levels.

This situation is marked by recent disastrous drops in the production of basic industries such as coal, oil, pig iron and steel, which, moreover, and immediately affect all other industry; by decreases in the production of labor; by a falling off in quality and large waste in consumers' goods; and by troublesome increases in labor turnover and absenteeism.

Such a state of affairs was freely admitted to me during my 3,000-mile trip into the interior of the Soviet union. It even was caustically criticized and bewailed by the Soviet press. It is upon that point that Soviet claims of freedom of the press are based.

The newspapers are making no attempt to conceal the critical situation which exists throughout industry and are mercilessly attacking officials and industrial directors.

A damning indictment of the state of affairs at present can easily be made out simply by reading official publications.

From the Bolshevik point of view, which regards increasing industrial production as the life blood of the Soviet regime, the situation already has reached a critical point. Political administration and industrial management are indistinguishable and thus each reacts upon the other.

Party Disaffection Disaffection in the Communist party helped bring about dislocation in industry. And the crisis in production has widened and accelerated the present purge, which has brought tens of thousands under arrest, including directors of industry accused of not fulfilling their tasks.

The wave of arrests has terrorized directors, sub-directors and foremen in industry. They therefore pass the buck and dodge responsibility for important decisions. That stops production all along the line.

The confusion and hesitation are understandable in the circumstances. It is near that chief administrators of the cotton industry in the Moscow and Leningrad districts are under arrest for not fulfilling their duties under the five-year plan. The chief of the all-union furniture trust and the director of the Leningrad cotton trust are among the hundreds who have been arrested for similar reasons.

In Leningrad the new commissar for heavy industry, who once bought an entire automobile plant in the United States and transported it to Russia, declared in speeches late in May that the majority of heavy industry was lagging behind the plan. He also stated that there was great confusion due to waning activity and criticism, with the result that many directors refused to accept responsibility.

Pravda in June asserted that absences from work and loafing in the Chelyabinsk coal basin were "alarming" and the rate of pay "disastrous." It said that bureaucrats had been trying to saddle the responsibility on the engineers, resulting in the dismissal and firing of 100 engineers or skilled men in four months, which disorganized the work still further.

Coal Production Down Coal production throughout the Soviet union in the first six months of 1937 totaled 60,340,000 tons or 86 per cent of the quota, compared with 66,974,000 tons in the same period last year.

This year's harvest is claimed to be the best in years and this fact, as I can testify from observations during more than 1,000 miles of travel over the north Caucasus and Ukraine regions, provides a large bright spot in the prevailing gloom. Even several weeks ago it was asserted that grain deliveries to the state had reached 4,000,000 tons, or double those of 1933, the previous record year for grain deliveries. Pravda stated that the "rich harvest increases the raw material resources of the food industry tremendously. The prospects are such that it may be confidently asserted that the food industry is guaranteed the materials for ever-fulfilling the plan."

But as the organ for heavy industry observed, it is a "gigantic problem" for industry to make for its present lag in the remainder of the year.

OPERETTA TRIALS SET FOR SEPT. 29

Lloyd Thompson Calls Tryouts For High School Music Production

Call for tryouts for the Twin Falls high school opera was issued today for September 29 by Lloyd Thompson, music supervisor. The opera selected for presentation this year is known by two names, "The Bell of Barstapool," or more commonly the "Nautical Knot."

Two special classes for chorus students for this term were also announced by Mr. Thompson. A special voice class and a class for instruction in directing. One hour a week will be devoted to each of these classes during the sixth period.

The voice class will be held for the purpose of helping to develop tone quality and singing ability and to iron out any difficulties experienced during the regular chorus class. All students who anticipate trying out for opera leads should enroll in the special voice class, Mr. Thompson announced.

The class in directing will develop the basic technique in directing students. This will give each one enrolled in this class the method of directing student musical productions as well as being of aid in the production of musical programs planned for the school year, he said.

Twenty-one prizes, running from $25 for first place to $1 for those in the lower bracket, await contestants who enter the "theme song" competition forming a feature of the autumn style event here, according to officials of the Chamber of Commerce merchants' bureau, sponsors.

Total prize money is $715.

REHABILITATION SET-UP CHANGED

Former Program Now Part of Farm Security Plans, Supervisor Says

Twin Falls county's rural rehabilitation program is now a part of the Farm Security Administration, created by the secretary of agriculture, to administer the tenant and rehabilitation sections of the Bankhead-Jones tenant bill, replacing the program formerly carried on by the Rehabilitation administration, announced L. F. Wiseman, county supervisor, Quick Service building, Twin Falls.

Present procedure and policy in the rehabilitating of tenant farms to farm families unable to secure adequate commercial credit, will continue as heretofore except for being under the new agency, said Wiseman. Farm debt adjustments, together with community and cooperative services were likewise transferred to supplement the regular rehabilitation program.

While the section of the tenant bill providing loans for tenant farmers to become owners is part of the new program, the small percentage of tenancy in this state as compared with southern states, as well as the small allotment for operations this year, will make very few loans of this type available. Committees for making tenant loans this year are expected to be set up in only one or two counties.

There are now 10 farm families in the county set up under the rehabilitation program with a loan for capital goods, supplemented by farm and home plans, Wiseman said. "These families have been in the past and no changes will be required in any of the loan papers or other procedure."

This long-sleeved gown, by Ira Belline of Paris, has a nude bodice, in filmy black net over which drapery of black chiffon to match the skirt covers the chest and winds around at the back of the sleeves.

PROJECT TOUR IS MAPPED FOR FOUR

Proposed Trip Would Take President to Three Huge Dams

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 14 (AP)—A tour of three mammoth army engineering projects which President Roosevelt might inspect during his hoped-for western trip later this month today was arranged tentatively by Maj. Gen. Edward M. Markham.

Indications were, however, that the European and Far Eastern wars would prevent Mr. Roosevelt from leaving Washington for such an extended journey.

Markham suggested that the President might stop to see the army engineers' $120,000,000 upper Mississippi canalization project, Fort Peck dam across the Missouri river in Montana, and the Bonneville dam across the Columbia in Oregon.

Markham said he outlined the tour to the President on the "morning" he would go to Seattle to visit his daughter, Anna, and her family.

The Mississippi project will provide a nine-foot navigable channel on the river from St. Louis to St. Paul. Fort Peck is the largest earth-dam in the world.

Bonneville will be ready to start hydroelectric power generation in November or December, although small generating units could be put in operation now.

Five days of breath-taking activities—dances, banquets, football games—lance in store for winner of the semi-finals in the Bing Crosby talent contest. It was disclosed today when plans for the concluding phase of the contest, to take place in Spokane, Wash., were received here.

Six young men and six young women—two of whom may be from Twin Falls—will be guests of the singing star in Spokane on Wednesday, Oct. 20, through the following Sunday. And there won't be a single moment during the entire five days, the program indicates.

Bing in Spokane

Crosby will be in Spokane to receive an honorary Ph. D. in music from Gonzaga university, and the talent contest, which offers a boy and a girl from the Pacific northwest the opportunity to win a screen test and possible movie career, is being staged as a part of the homecoming.

The Idaho Evening Times and the Opheim and Idaho theaters are co-sponsoring preliminaries locally. Finals in Twin Falls will be held Sept. 25. Those interested in this opportunity must register by Sept. 19. Selections have not been, nor will they be made until that date. There are big local prizes, courtesy of the Rowles-Mack company and the Mayfair Shop, for the boy and girl selected, whether or not they win out in the semi-finals in Boise the first week of October.

Finals Oct. 21

Actual finals, which will take place on the stage of the Fox theater, Spokane, Oct. 20, will open the five-day round of festivities for the semi-final winners. T. J. Lester, head of the Paramount Studio Talent department, will select Crosby in choosing a boy and a girl from among the semi-final winners to receive the grand prize in

BARBSON PREDICTS '20-CENT DOLLAR'

Inflation or Repudiation May Be Resorted to as Means Of Clearing Debt

BOSTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—Economic writer W. Babson warned today that "the chances are 6 to 4 that we are headed toward a 20-cent dollar."

"Inflation or repudiation" may be resorted to as a means of wiping out huge public debts, he told the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

Babson, who predicted the 1929 crash, said, however, that "for the next year or two at least, the favorable factors far outweigh the unfavorable factors" for better business.

General business is bound to be better this fall than last fall. Farmers, wage-earners and stockholders will all have more money to spend. It is an attempt to stay in control. But in a gradually declining bond market... People who are now buying certain... low rate issues are crazy.

"As to stocks... if the country enters a period of real inflation, the bull market has only just started. Although the present technical reaction may not have run its full course, it is very dangerous to go short on stock today."

Famed Peanut Heaver Works Out at Bannock County's Annual Fair

POCAHONTO, Sept. 14 (UP)—John Britala, widely publicized peanut heaver from Colorado college, blew into town today without a single pebble.

In an attempt to stay in control, Britala started his peanut vending, only to have the business force him to drop his peanut career when it grew to large proportions.

Britala gained notoriety through his long socks of peanuts into customers' eyes with uttering aim.

His ability to hit the mark was tested, and he entered professional baseball. That lasted one day. His thumb was fractured and he caught a ball with it.

He plans to show his peanut-tossing ability at the Bannock county fair this week. He says he can fling a bag of goobers 150 feet into the lap of any given customer.

He is equally adept at catching the forthcoming coin.

AIRPLANE WILL PROVE AID TO HUNTERS IN SEARCH FOR DEER

Thanks to the airplane, deer hunters of this area, if they so wish, will be able to miss the strenuous three-day pack journey to reach Idaho's primitive areas.

Using the Twin Falls airfield as the local base and a forest clearing as the "wilderness" base, W. H. (Pete) Hill, local transport pilot, will carry both hunters and deer when the season opens. It was revealed at this afternoon in an announcement made jointly by Frank Johnson and Craig Coleman, owners of the plane which will be used in the work.

Completely reconditioned, the ship was test flown Sunday by Hill and next Saturday will be flown to Pocatello where it will receive its department of commerce license. The ship is a Ryan B-1, powered with a 225 horsepower engine and having space for five passengers. Reconditioning work was done by "Pit" Brannan, aviation mechanic, under the supervision of Hill who aside from having 7,000 hours in the air is also an aircraft and engine mechanic licensed by the government.

CANOE BUILDING ART IN REVIVAL

Canadian Indians Use Birch Bark in Constructing Exhibition Fleet

TORONTO (AP)—The art of building birch bark canoes is not lost. New evidence of its survival was provided by the launching recently of the big vessel to be used in the Indian production of "Hiawatha" at the Canadian National Exhibition here, Aug. 27 to Sept. 11. Nearly all the 650 Indians on the Garden River reserve at Sault Ste. Marie were present for the launching, a colorful ceremony presided over by Chief Shawanoo.

Spoken in the Ojibwa language the chief remarked that the canoe was probably the largest built on the reserve in more than half a century. He explained that birch bark canoes would be built at the Indian village, which is being set up here under the direction of J. W. Curran. He assigned to skilled members of the tribe the manufacture of various Indian handicraft at the exhibition.

The last big regatta in which birch bark canoes were used exclusively was held at Orillia, Canada, July 1, 1916, according to Chief Shawanoo. In general, such canoes are no longer built outside of Alaska and a few other Indian areas. For the last few years masts have been used by builders for the gunwales ("makwink", rim), instead of tamarac roots as formerly.

Chief Shawanoo had some remarks to make about words that have generally been considered Indian, "canoe" is not an Ojibwa word. It was originally picked by the Spaniards for the aborigines of the islands of Haiti, who called the vessel "canoe." The French and English got it through the Spaniards in the same way the words "tobacco" and "hammock" were taken from the Arawak Indians of Jamaica.

Necklet
LONDON (AP)—A fine diamond necklet, formerly the property of the ill-fated Queen of France, Marie Antoinette, brought $45,000 at an auction sale here. It was purchased by the Maharajahs of Darbhanga.

HOW TO CLEAN BATHTUBS
To remove scum which has formed on porcelain tubs or basins, rub well with a cloth which has been saturated with kerosene oil. Then scour with a mixture of soap (either a soap powder or soap flakes) and a non-abrasive powder, rinsing thoroughly with hot water and dry.

LUXURY FOODS FOR ALL
With several excellent brands of frozen foods on the market, out-of-season fruits and vegetables are no longer in the luxury class. Modern methods of freezing foods vary quickly at 50 degrees below zero, so cell structure is maintained intact, thus sealing in natural flavor of fresh produce.

PEARLING BOOM SEEN IN HAWAII
Discovery by Filipino Gives Rise to Hopes of Renewal Of Industry

HONOLULU (AP)—As the result of the discovery by Paulino Iborra, a Filipino fisherman, of a black pearl valued at several thousand dollars the Hawaiian islands are again aglow with the possibility of reviving the Japanese oyster industry. Pearl oysters formerly were plentiful in Pearl Harbor, for which the latter was named, but the heavy and continued dredging operations there necessary to construct the Pearl Harbor Naval Base, together with the increasing flow of streams, eventually caused the oyster to migrate.

Off Hiau
While Iborra found his big black pearl off the Island of Maui, present plans are to re-establish the pearl oyster industry in Kaneohe Bay on the opposite side of the island of Oahu from Honolulu. In fact, the fish and game commission has planned a few thousand oysters there and next year it will be seen what they produce in the way of pearls.

The same system will be used in the Hawaiian islands as that of Mikimoto, the famous Japanese grower of Japanese pearls. A grain of sand is injected into the oyster shell, causing the oyster to begin immediately the surrounding of the latter with secretions that eventually form the pearl.

Hawaiians Certain
Hawaiians are convinced that the industry can be developed to an even greater degree here than in Japan, due to the fact that the Hawaiian waters are warm the year around.

As an oyster can be planted to every square foot, a single acre is sufficient for 45,000 oysters and if one good sized pearl is produced in each oyster the returns would be exceptional. Even the oyster shells themselves have a commercial value that would aid in making the industry profitable.

Commercial cars and motorcycles included, there are 14 vehicles for every mile of road in the United Kingdom, in the United States there is one automobile for each eight miles of road.

JEROME WOMAN SEEKS DAMAGES

Mother of Accident Victim Asks $25,000 From Utah Construction Co.

Basing her claims on the fact an agent of the Utah Construction company is alleged to have hurried her into settlement of a claim as the result of the death of her son Elmer, 21, last Aug. 26, Mrs. Maude Levitt of Jerome today had started suit in district court seeking $25,000 damages.

The youth was killed when he was struck on the head by a derrick which is alleged to have become dislodged during the time a derrick was said to have been operated by Earl Palmer, manager of the construction company's Shoshone and Big creek ranches.

In seeking the damages Mrs. Levitt alleges that the company claim agent said the company was not to blame for the mishap but at the same time insisted she accept $500 in cash as well as permitting the concern to pay the youth's funeral expenses which amounted to approximately $300.

Attorneys for the claimant are Rayburn and Rayburn, Twin Falls, and M. L. Lewis, Jerome.

TEACHERS TO AID CUPID
SOUTHAMPTON, Eng. (AP)—Teachers should help girls to become interesting sweethearts and wives by advising them about the best brands of lipsticks and where to get the best cheap silk stockings, Miss S. E. Davies, a former Board of Education inspector, told a youth conference here.

The Arctic ocean sea route, now used regularly by Russian ships, once was pronounced impractical during the present geological era.

PEARLING BOOM SEEN IN HAWAII

Discovery by Filipino Gives Rise to Hopes of Renewal Of Industry

HONOLULU (AP)—As the result of the discovery by Paulino Iborra, a Filipino fisherman, of a black pearl valued at several thousand dollars the Hawaiian islands are again aglow with the possibility of reviving the Japanese oyster industry. Pearl oysters formerly were plentiful in Pearl Harbor, for which the latter was named, but the heavy and continued dredging operations there necessary to construct the Pearl Harbor Naval Base, together with the increasing flow of streams, eventually caused the oyster to migrate.

Off Hiau
While Iborra found his big black pearl off the Island of Maui, present plans are to re-establish the pearl oyster industry in Kaneohe Bay on the opposite side of the island of Oahu from Honolulu. In fact, the fish and game commission has planned a few thousand oysters there and next year it will be seen what they produce in the way of pearls.

The same system will be used in the Hawaiian islands as that of Mikimoto, the famous Japanese grower of Japanese pearls. A grain of sand is injected into the oyster shell, causing the oyster to begin immediately the surrounding of the latter with secretions that eventually form the pearl.

Hawaiians Certain
Hawaiians are convinced that the industry can be developed to an even greater degree here than in Japan, due to the fact that the Hawaiian waters are warm the year around.

As an oyster can be planted to every square foot, a single acre is sufficient for 45,000 oysters and if one good sized pearl is produced in each oyster the returns would be exceptional. Even the oyster shells themselves have a commercial value that would aid in making the industry profitable.

Commercial cars and motorcycles included, there are 14 vehicles for every mile of road in the United Kingdom, in the United States there is one automobile for each eight miles of road.

NATIONAL PENNANT DASH MOVES WESTWARD

Giants to Spend 11 Days on Road Trip As Cubs Stay Home

Chicago Team Given Edge to Take Flag as New Yorkers Face Stiff Doubleheaders

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 (UP)—The National league pennant dash shifted westward today with the New York Giants battling to hold their game and a half lead over the reviving Chicago Cubs.

For the next 11 days the Giants will play in the west while the Cubs will have the advantages of Wrigley field. The Giants open their junket in Pittsburgh today with a doubleheader, then they have two more games each with the Pirates, the Cincinnati Reds and the St. Louis Cardinals before moving into Chicago for the series which may decide the pennant, on Sept. 21, 22 and 23.

The schedule favors the Cubs. They have 21 games left, 14 at home and seven away, and only one double-header. The Giants have 24 games left, 18 away and six at home, but the big hitch is that they have four double-headers in four successive days against the Reds and Phillies in the last week of the season.

Prospect Dismer
The Giants' prospects of retaining the pennant are not nearly as bright as they were a week ago. Their infield has weakened under pressure. The Cubs were tossed away in Boston by Mel Ott's wild throw and errors, and mental lapses by first baseman Johnny McCarthy. The Giants' pitchers have slackened off with Carl Hubbell, Hal Schumacher and Harry Campbell all beaten in their last starts.

Pitching Recovers
The brightest spot in the Cubs' outlook is the return to form of the pitching staff. Larry French has pitched two shutouts in his last two starts and Ray Carleton hurled one in his most recent game.

Softball Series in Semi-Finals
The Bendix Brakes Team of South Bend leads way as title game nears.

Coach Jones Has Only Two Stars Missing From Last Year's Club

By RONALD WAGONER
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 14 (UP)—The word was out today that the University of Southern California, in an effort to revive football prestige after three lean years, will abandon the off-tackle power system in favor of the wide open game.

Coach Howard Jones has plenty of material romping around in Bonanza practice sessions and it is the beller of Trojan followers that U. S. C. may go places if the youths can execute properly the many new plays, forward and lateral, which Jones has placed at their disposal.

Know Fate Early
The Trojans should know their fate fairly early in the season. They open with tricky College of Pacific on September 25 and on October 2, take on the coast champion University of Washington.

DRAPE

No simple job is the designing of the "perfect" drape—lounge—suit. There must be just the right amount of soft, deep folds at the chest, not too much "break" in the sleevehead, and the collar must fit just so. Perhaps that explains the rapidly growing preference for "Savile Lounge," rated America's premier drape. Tailored by HART SCHAFFNER & MARX to create the broad-shouldered, trim-waisted effect so important to well-dressed men today—needed in a feature-top Triple Tent Worsteds... It's a top "buy" at

Mystery of Barefoot Dancing Girl Vexes Hollywood Police

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 14 (UP)—The mystery of the barefoot dancing girl, spotted with blood which was not her own when found sobbing at the gate of the B. F. Schuler movie studio, embroiled Los Angeles police today in a most vexing predicament.

Miss Laura Lee, red-haired, 21 years old and pretty enough to dance under any name—besides the name she had when she was arrested, she said, when they should have jailed the celebrated scenario writer she accused of trying to attack her.

She hit him on the head with a telephone, she added, thus explaining the blood splashed on her face, neck and blouse. Had police arrived only a couple of minutes earlier, she said, they would have discovered her nude, except for the blouse, which was twisted around her neck.

Officers E. W. Smith and W. C. Burris charged that Miss Lee kicked them, injuring Burris so severely he was forced to seek medical aid.

"I only kicked him when he called me a foul name," Miss Lee insisted. "Anyway, I couldn't find my shoes—I was barefooted!"

The blunts ran up the stairs to the office, to find it empty, except

STOCKS BAL IN LIGHTER VOLUME

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 (U.P.)—Stocks rallied today in lighter volume.
Other markets were firm.
Stocks opened to points higher, but fell to 1/2 point below their early advance, and climbed higher. Some early buying was short covering. A moderate volume of new buying was noted later. Margin selling was insufficient to turn the upward movement. When demand lagged the market was sustained by lack of selling pressure. Sentiment was less bearish, although there still was a note of caution. Interest was shown in a speech by Roger W. Babson, economist, who told members of the Boston Chamber of Commerce that in his opinion "Odds were 6 to 4 the dollar would fall to the 20-cent level eventually." Currently, he looked for a moderate recovery of the market and an improved stock market. The "American Steel Market," in its weekly steel review, said that production of steel in the United States is trending downward. Dow Jones preliminary closing averages showed: Industrial, 163.90; up 4.80; railroad 114.50 up 1.08; utility 22.50 up 0.88. Transactions approximated 1,510,000 shares compared with 1,620,000 shares yesterday. Curb transactions approximated 346,000 shares compared with 578,000 shares yesterday.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

The SUN'S ENERGY RECEIVED BY EACH SQUARE FOOT OF THE EARTH'S SURFACE IN A YEAR, IF USED IN A PERFECT SOLAR ENGINE, WOULD HOIST A 100-TON WEIGHT TO A HEIGHT OF ALMOST A MILE!

MAN CAN BREED DOGS ALMOST TO ORDER AS TO SIZE AND SHAPE, BUT HE CAN DO LITTLE WITH CATS, EXCEPT TO CHANGE THE TEXTURE AND COLOR OF THEIR FUR.

Man has been able to breed dogs into almost any shape, size and color he desires. The largest and smallest breeds we have today all sprang from the same wolf ancestors. With cats, it is different. The domestic cat of today is little different from his forbears of a thousands years ago.
