KIDNAPERS MAKE NO DEMANDS FOR RANSOM OF ROSS

Foul Play Feared as Time Passes Without Word About Chicagoan

By WILLIAM F. McILBRATH CHICAGO, Sept. 28 (AP)—Each tick of the clock beside the silent telephone in the apartment home of aged Charles S. Ross brought new fear today that he had died in the hands of his kidnapers.

Mrs. Ross, on the verge of a nervous breakdown, kept a lone vigil beside the telephone, awaiting instructions from her wealthy husband and his kidnapers. None came. Mrs. Ross, 72, was ill when she disappeared. His offered a weak heart which might have collapsed under sudden strain.

Investigators reasoned that if Ross were now in a condition to be released, he would have offered to release him, probably for $250,000. Police saw indications that the abductors were amateurs. Three men in a car halted Ross and his secretary, Miss Florence Prehagen, they were returning from a dinner conference in Sycamore, Ill., Saturday night. One of them, so nervous he almost dropped his gun, said: "I am convinced this was a real kidnaping, but that it was accomplished by amateurs."

UNEMPLOYED TO RECEIVE CENSUS CARDS BY MAIL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—Eighty thousand mail carriers today faced the task of delivering 31,000,000 unemployment census cards in two days.

The survey of the nation's unemployed, from which the government hopes to obtain data for unemployment, relief and allied policies, will start Nov. 16. For two days mail carriers will deliver the cards which must be filled out and returned by mail before midnight Nov. 20.

The details of the census were outlined by a dispatch from Tokyo, asserting that the Japanese hope to cut off supplies of raw materials from Mongolia and Soviet Russia on the other side. It appeared today that the Japanese are planning to use the census for the latest and "big push" for control of the Shanghai area.

Emphasizing that the survey would be entirely voluntary, Biggers also announced that he would start immediately an "intensive educational campaign" to convince workers and employers of such a census to them.

Fourteen questions will be asked, covering labor classification, length of unemployment, occupation and related information. Biggers said that no attempt would be made to ascertain whether a person is employable, but that the information of that kind are not ascertainable on a census blank.

Biggers said the survey "simply will not" cost above $5,000,000.

JAPANESE DENY FISHING ATTACK

Nippon Heads Claim Story To Turn U. S., Britain Against Invaders

DRIVE PLANNED HERE TO KILL OFF CANYON WHITE RATS

U. S. FUNDS WILL BATTLE RODENTS, AHEAD INFORMED

Thousands of white rats infesting an area in Rock creek canyon along a stretch comparable to 10 city blocks in length, will face extermination through a program in the district of rodents gets underway here shortly after Oct. 1, it was announced this afternoon by Leonard Aveni, city commissioner of streets and water.

The project, which will be carried on by the United States department of agriculture, bureau of biological survey, will get underway soon as stated in a letter received by Aveni from T. B. Murray, district agent, with headquarters in Boise.

Supplies Due Soon
Aveni was in receipt of a letter that a supply of red squill and other materials had already been requested through the Washington office and would be delivered in the near future.

"We will try to get this project underway on or about Oct. 1," Murray stated. "It has been our experience that rat control work can be done best during fairly cool or during cold weather. We will try to get started on the rubbish cleanup as soon as possible since this work will have to be done before the actual material for control purposes is distributed."

The white rats, which present a serious pest problem to the people of local citizens, started to spread over two years ago when a party of transients, who were selling the rodents for pets, landed at about 14 inches in length, not including the tail. They have been known to destroy crops and damage property.

Since that time the rats have returned to their normal size and some of the rats are now measuring 10 inches in length, not including the tail. They have been known to destroy crops and damage property.

The extermination of the rats is included as one of the 34 projects suggested by the United States bureau for adoption by the city council. Immediately after the extermination drive was suggested the council voted to accept it and a committee would be appointed to plan the extermination of the rats and the poisoning of the rats.

Murray's letter pointed out that it might be possible to shift men off some other projects now operating within Twin Falls in order that the extermination drive could be carried out with the best of results.

Miss Frethage said a ball-boy, Cecil Vandemore, 19, who saw Ross talking to a strange man in a gray cap in Sycamore's Fargo hotel a few hours before his kidnaping, was asked to look at pictures in the "rogue gallery" of the federal bureau of investigation.

Miss Frethage said she would recognize one of the abductors, at least.

Miss Frethage had been Ross' secretary for 11 years, and was employed by the valetine and greasing car company which Ross once headed and in which he still had an interest, she made periodic reports to him about his business.

CIO PRESSES CRIMINAL CHARGES ON FEDERATION

NO THREATS OF BATTLE APPEAR IN COAST STRIKE

Lewis Organization Cites 62-Year-Old Statute in Making Case

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28 (AP)—The committee for industrial organization today pressed criminal charges against American Federation of Labor leaders who are blocking the ports of San Francisco bay.

Citing a 62-year-old civil rights statute, C. I. O. attorneys said the federation's actions constitute a crime to deprive any American citizen of rights guaranteed him under the United States constitution or statutes.

Cite Warner Act
The C. I. O. attorneys said the Wagner labor act was a federal statute, and they accused the federation of violating it by a "conspiracy to create widespread fear among workers in order to prevent them from freely choosing C. I. O. unions as collective bargaining agents."

The teamsters are trying to force warehousemen back into the A. F. of L., and compel the C. I. O. longshoremen-warehousemen union to liquidate.

Strange Scene
The scene on the docks here was strange but not forbidding. C. I. O. longshoremen waved greetings to A. F. of L. pickets as they passed by their jobs. The longshoremen got a sound truck yesterday and speakers began broadcasting encouragement to C. I. O. men. The teamsters soon produced a sound truck and moved it alongside the other, with the result that noises blended in a keel.

The nearest thing to violence developed when a longshoreman called a teamster "panty-waist." The teamster replied, "You're Nihil, accused white cap." The elements of a fist fight were there but when a police siren sounded in the distance, the scuffle returned to their respective ranks. The police chased the sound trucks away.

ALFALFA SEED'S FORECAST GAINS

Increases Noted in Southern Idaho, U. S. Bureau at Washington Says

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (Special)—Production of alfalfa seed this year is expected to be slightly larger than that of last year, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. The increased production in the southwestern area is expected to offset the smaller production than last year in the central and northern areas. Drought and damage by grasshoppers again caused a reduction in acreage and yields in some states. Many meadows which lived through the drought of 1936 were damaged by dry weather and grasshoppers this year. In a number of sections east of the older producing districts it was too wet for the proper setting of seed.

It was difficult for many of the growers and shippers who reported to estimate closely the yield because in many districts only a small portion of the seed had been threshed by September 7, and some of the crop was still subject to severe injury from early frosts should they occur. Based on the reports at that time, it would appear that the largest decrease in production from that of last year are in Ohio, Nebraska, South Dakota, Wyoming, and Michigan.

On the other hand, increases over last year are noted particularly in western Texas, eastern New Mexico, southern California, eastern Oregon, southern Idaho, and southern Arizona.

The average yield per acre expected this year by the 261 growers who reported is 180 pounds, compared with 175 pounds which they obtained last year. Nearly the same group of growers obtained yields in other years as follows: 1930—170 pounds, 1931—180 pounds, 1932—150 pounds, 1933—185 pounds, 1934—175 pounds, and 1935—160 pounds.

Gooding Horses Annex Prizes at East Idaho Fair

GOODING, Sept. 28 (Special)—

Gooding county draft horses are persistent, according to William Henry who returned from Blackfoot, with an account of winnings at the eastern Idaho district fair held at that town Sept. 20 to 23 inclusive. Henry's Belgian stallion, Brussels, captured first in the three-year-old class and grand championship. A. H. Butler of Bliss took eight winnings with 12 horses, including grand champion in Percheron stallion class. Glen Sherman of Wendell won a first with a three year mare.

Butler's other prizes were first with senior stallions; first with three year old stallions; first in two year old stallion (and grand champion); first and second in senior mares; first in four-year-old mares; first in young mares, and first with yearling foal.

Sherman with three entered, took first in three-year-old mares and second with mare in foal. In addition to second for senior stallion.

Butler's 12 horses, Sherman's three and Henry's Belgian stallion make up a cartload and were sent to Salt Lake City for the show there on September 25 to October 2. The same cartload has been shown in Boise, Burley, Pika and Pocatello shows with Butler and Henry taking grand championships in the Percheron and Belgian stallions in all of them as well as Blackfoot.

Buhl Man Wins HIGHEST HONORS

Aids in Preparation of Best Essay at American Chemical Meet

MOSCOW, Sept. 28 (Special)—Ivan Taylor Buhl, a University of Idaho graduate and faculty member, had a hand in preparing what was rated the most interesting paper presented at the recent fall meeting of the American Chemical Society at Rochester, N. Y.

He was one of three Columbia university scientists who have been doing significant research on the isotopes of potassium (a phase of commercial fertilizer research). His associates were Dr. H. C. Urey, Nobel prize winner in chemistry in 1935, and Dr. A. K. Brewer, another Columbia man. Mr. Taylor has been on leave of absence from Idaho for two years, working toward his doctorate at Columbia.

To Mr. Taylor goes the distinction of being one of the few young scientists who has presented two papers before a single meeting of the American Chemical Society. In a second paper he discussed the results of his researches on the Idaho campus, on the beta and pentahalides of copper sulfate.

His work with Dr. Urey and Dr. Brewer at Columbia may yield significant commercial results, some observers believe. If enough of the heavy isotopes of nitrogen and potassium can be obtained, further study may disclose their value as fertilizing materials.

Mr. Taylor is a 1931 Idaho chemical engineering graduate plus a master's degree in the same subject in 1933.

EXTENSION SEEN IN PARKING AREA

Zone May Include 3 Times As Many Blocks as Present Section; Vote Planned

Extension of the downtown parking area to include nearly three times as many blocks as are now designated for this purpose, loomed today as the matter was being studied by Police Commissioner Carl E. Tulcey.

Extension of the district was urged by the Chamber of Commerce at a recent meeting and came before the council at regular session last night with indications it would come up for vote next Monday.

The "greater zone" would include two blocks each way on Main avenue from the Shoshone street intersection; two blocks north and south on Shoshone street from the Main street intersection; one block on Second avenue north; two blocks on Second avenue east, and one block in all four directions from Main avenue on Second street.

The present area includes one block each way from the main intersection both on Shoshone street and Main avenue, except that on Main avenue east there are two blocks in the zone.

What Two Things Happen When You Are Constipated?

When you are constipated two things happen. First, you feel the pain and discomfort. Second, you feel the odor. This is because the waste matter in your bowels produces a gas which is very offensive. It is this gas which causes the odor. Therefore, if you are constipated, you should take a laxative to relieve the pain and discomfort, and to remove the waste matter from your bowels. This will also remove the gas and prevent the odor. Calum's Laxative is a safe and effective laxative. It is made from natural ingredients and is completely non-toxic. It will relieve the pain and discomfort, and remove the waste matter from your bowels. It will also remove the gas and prevent the odor. Calum's Laxative is available at all drug stores. POT SHOTS WITH The Gentleman in the Third Row

No need for Rabble Rousers Walter B. Pitkin's plea for a "rabble rouser of the right" would seem to be about the least helpful of all the many suggestions that have been made for the preservation and regeneration of this great nation of ours.

Prof. Pitkin voiced this plea in an article in the current issue of Aedevising Agency. He was complaining that those who have most reason to want to see the traditional American values preserved in this era of change are not being vocal enough about it; and he wound up with the following exhortation: "The hour has come for words which smell, for words which set fire to men and things, for words which loosen avalanches back in the mountains. The pat phrase, the polite pater and the unctuous argument will never save America. Heaven send us a rabble rouser of the right!"

One would suppose that a man of Prof. Pitkin's broad outlook would realize by this time that all calamities which can descend on a nation these days, none can easily surpass that which is embodied in the person of a really gifted rabble rouser. When you get such a person uttering "words which loosen avalanches back in the mountains," you never know just what those avalanches are going to sweep away. The post-war history of Europe offers some striking examples.

For the rabble rouser is a man who calls on men to think with their emotions rather than with their minds. His "words which set fire to men" are, by definition, the kind of words which men use when they have grown tired of trying to solve their problems by intellectual effort. And when men get into that state of mind, they are headed for trouble just as surely as night follows day.

Hitler went up and down Germany for years, his entire stock in trade consisting of just the sort of words Prof. Pitkin is talking about. In the course of years, conditions being bad and the outlook dark, he persuaded the German people to listen to him and to confide their future to his hands. He "loosened avalanches back in the mountains;" does any sane American want similar avalanches loosened in this country?

Hitler is not the only example, of course. Every dictatorship in Europe got its start in precisely the same way. And when you stop to think what democracy really means, the fact is not hard to understand. Democracy is based on the assumption that people will use their gray matter rather than their feelings to solve their problems. It takes for granted that there will be enough coolness, patience and good sense to permit issues to be argued out, and that things will be settled rationally rather than economically.

Of all the things that our America does not need, a rabble rouser—whether of the right, the left or the dead-center—stands at the head of the list.

Home-Made Vote Issues It seems to be taken for granted that as a result of the New York primary, the city's mayoralty election this fall will not be fought on the issues of the New Deal.

Senator Royal S. Copeland, who valiantly entered both the Republican and Democratic primaries, sought to make the New Deal the principal talking point of the campaign. Since he was defeated in both contests, and since both Mayor LaGuardia and Democratic Nominee Mahoney are pro-New Deal, this issue vanishes. And that—regardless of one's opinion of the New Deal—is an excellent thing.

Arizona's Sky Island Nothing more purely fascinating has appeared in the news of late than the account of Dr. Harold E. Anthony's expedition to the "Island in the sky," down Grand Canyon way. Dr. Anthony has reached the top of a rock plateau which seems to have been cut off from the rest of the country some 10 or 20 thousand years ago; since the natural forces there have had all those millenniums to develop uninfluenced by the currents of ordinary life, there is a fair chance that some strange and extraordinarily interesting finds will be made.

CHAPTER XI MR. CROWELL was unusually colloquial when Cilly explained the tragic affair to him. "Don't worry about the office, Miss Pierce," he ordered, gently. "I'm sorry about the Harvey case, because particularly you were bound to handle it. But this is a terrible situation. Don't try to come in for the balance of the week. And if you feel in need of any legal back-up, remember that my law stand behind you. Don't let the police frighten you."

"I just stopped to see about a week's pay by way of planning," and I thought I might just as well cheer the place up a bit. Cilly thanked him. She appreciated his thoughtfulness, nevertheless she resented his flowers. No matter how Mrs. Harvey Hutchinson tried to be a thought, she would not like them. "I had a nice visit from the police this afternoon," Harry offered. He settled himself in a comfortable chair and took out a cigarette. Watching him, Cilly was forced to admire him, in spite of herself. He was undeniably handsome, his face was even and perfect, as if it had been molded to some special order. His face lacked the rugged charm, the wrinkled forehead of Clint, but it was attractive, nevertheless. With exaggerated nonchalance he lit the cigaret and blew out the match. "You know that fellow Dolan's?" Cilly asked. "A smile of faintly amused boredom hovered on his lips. "I told him, 'so, too.' " "Did you really?" "He did not catch the irony in Cilly's words. "I certainly did," he admitted, self-approvingly. "Turning an affair like this into a deep, baffling mystery so they can get a few weeks' newspaper publicity while they're trying to solve it... it's ridiculous."

HISTORY OF Twin Falls City & County As Gleaned from Files of The Times

15 YEARS AGO SEPT. 28, 1922 The Laving pavilion was the scene of two most delightful functions Tuesday when the city's athletic club gave its opening reception in the afternoon and the ball in the evening. The room was elaborately decorated, the autumn shades of green and orange furnishing the main color scheme. In the afternoon the guests were seated at the tables by the reception committee and presented to those in the receiving line, the past presidents of the club; Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. W. F. Pike, Mrs. C. A. Ames, Mrs. S. S. Humphrey, Mrs. E. J. Schroeder, Mrs. C. J. Schroeder.

27 YEARS AGO SEPT. 28, 1910 The Twin Falls county fair and exposition opened today with exhibits far beyond the dreams of the most enthusiastic boosters. The committee on grounds and buildings under the supervision of H. W. Jones, was busy all day in the preparation of every arrangement made to take care of the exhibitors and those desiring concessions for stands. Throughout the whole arrangement, Cilly's thought, the careful planning of the general committee and the able assistance who have given weeks of time to the preparations.

"I understood your relationship perfectly," Cilly said. "Of course, I was very serious. She had other interests... a great many other interests..." Harry leaned forward in his chair. "That's exactly what I've been trying to say, Priscilla. There was someone else. Someone who hurt her a great deal."

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON By Rodney Datcher Evening Times, Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 — The latest important judicial appointment, that of Senator Hugo Black of Alabama to the supreme court, has been attracting plenty of attention. The next one appears to be something that nearly everyone expects to see in the near future. This appointment will fill the present vacancy on the District of Columbia circuit court of appeal. Those who know him intimately know that it is a highly important one. It is the president and the attorney general of the United States and nearly all the lawyers inside and outside the administration. Backstage maneuvers are in full swing.

COSTUME ORDER SENT FOR DRAMA

Thirty-Five Will Be Worn In 'Taming of Shrew'

Come From Seattle

Plans for the staging of "The Taming of the Shrew" Twin Falls high school's all-school play to be produced during the week of Oct. 25, were growing apace today as 35 Elizabethan costumes were ordered from Brooklyn Costumes, Inc., at Seattle. The 35 colorful costumes will be used each time the play is presented, some of the characters changing clothes in each scene. The costume plot follows the type of Elizabethan dress being elaborated in the play. The men will wear light, leather jerkins, brightly colored hose, velvet pants and hats with red and blue ribbons. The women will be gowned in silks and brocades of varied hues with pearl caps in their hair. Colors range from plum colored velvet, green and purple silks, red and black cloth with orange and gold braid and brightly colored feathered plumes in the mens hair.

Miss Florence M. Rees, as director of the production, feels that the expense of the costumes will do much to add to the effectiveness of the presentation of this three-act comedy.

Photos Donated By Eastern Man Boost Collection

Twin Falls collection of "old time" photographs and other treasures, being collected for posterity by City Clerk W. H. Eldridge, has been enriched today by official acceptance of a gift of photographs from James C. DeLong of Syracuse, New York.

The pictures were the property of Mr. DeLong's father, M. B. DeLong, first secretary of the Twin Falls Land and Water company while the Milner dam was under construction and prior to the building of Twin Falls. The senior DeLong died in Paris, France, during a visit in 1907. The photographs were found by the young Mr. DeLong in a trunk and sent to Mr. Eldridge.

One of the most interesting pictures in the gift was a snapshot which shows Frank J. Buhl, deceased, after whom the city is named, in a water tank. Buhl, now a resident of California, after whom the city of Buhl was named, is the son of Long, and an unidentified man who was clerk of the water company at that time. The photo was taken on June 28, 1905, and the men were seated on the porch of the company house at Milner during the dam's construction.

Also included is an album of pictures taken during course of construction at Milner and a picture of the village of Milner, now extinct.

Furnace Coils Give Wasteful Hot Water Service

Scientific tests at Purdue University have proved that when water is heated in furnace coils, one shovel of coal in every five goes to heat the water. Think of it. 20% of the fuel for water heating! And much of that waste comes because the old-fashioned tank loses its heat into the basement. Stop this waste—heat your water supply electrically, for only a few pennies a day. Idaho Power's rates are among the lowest in the nation.

COSTUME ORDER SENT FOR DRAMA

Thirty-Five Will Be Worn In 'Taming of Shrew'; Come From Seattle

Plans for the staging of 'The Taming of the Shrew.' Twin Falls high school's all-school play to be presented the week of Oct. 28, 29, were growing apace today as 35 Shakespearian costumes were ordered from Brookline Costumes, Inc., at Seattle.

The 35 colorful costumes will be ready each time the play is presented, some of the characters changing clothes in each scene.

The costume plot follows the type of costumes being designed in every detail. Men in the cast will wear light, leather jerkins, bright colored hose, trunk and garters with ruffles while the women will be gowned in silks and brocades of varied hues, pearl capes of hair, color ranging from plum colored velvets, green and purple silks, red and black cloth with orange and gold braid and brightly colored feathered plumes in the women's hats.

Miss Florence M. Reed, as director of the production, feels that the expert costuming of this play will do much to add to the effectiveness of the production of this three-act comedy.

Photos Donated By Eastern Man Boost Collection

Twin Falls' collection of "old time" photographs and other interesting items, being collected for posterity by City Clerk W. H. Eldridge, had been enriched today after city officials accepted a gift of photographs from James C. DeLong of Syracuse, New York.

The pictures were the property of Mr. DeLong's sister, M. B. DeLong, Mrs. secretary of the Twin Falls Land and Water company while the Minnet dam under construction and prior to the building of Twin Falls. The senior DeLong died in Paris, France, during a visit in 1907. The photographs were found by the younger DeLong in a basement trunk and sent to Mr. Eldridge.

One of the most interesting pictures in the gift was a snapshot which shows Frank H. Buhl, deceased, after whom the city of Buhl was named; Walter Filer, now a resident of California, after whom the city of Filer was named; the senior DeLong, and an unidentified man who was clerk of the water company at that time. The photo was taken on June 28, 1905, the year before Twin Falls was surveyed, and the men were seated on the porch of the company house at Minnet during the dam's construction.

Also included is an album of pictures taken during course of construction at Minnet and a picture of the village of Minnet, now extinct.

First Bank Home

Dated Jan. 29, 1906 is a picture of the original home of McCormick and Company, Bankers, which firm is now the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company. Included among those in the picture is G. J. Articles found in their possession included jewelry, clothing, a gun, a sword, and six suitcases.

Kidneys are sluggish, causing backache, sciatica, oil, buchu leaves, etc. made into a state green saccharine called Bujax to flush the kidneys. Just as you would use motor oil to flush the engine, help nature eliminate troublesome waste and excess acids. Ask any drugist for the test box of Bujax, locally at Majeux Pharmacy.

Furnace Coils Give Wasteful Hot Water Service

Scientific tests at Purdue University have proved that when water is heated in furnace coils, one shovel of coal in every five goes to heat the water. Think of it. 20% of the fuel for water heating! And much of that waste comes because the old-fashioned tank loses its heat into the basement. Stop this waste—heat your water supply electrically, for only a few pennies a day. THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

LONDON POLICEMEN ARE CALLED "BOBBIES" BECAUSE THE FIRST LONDON POLICE FORCE WAS RECOGNIZED BY SIR ROBERT PEEL.

THE INSECT DOES NOT ENTER PEOPLE'S EARS ALTHOUGH IT IS KNOWN IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES AS EAR-WING, EAR-WORM, EAR-BOBER, EAR-ENTERER, EAR-TWISTER AND EAR-PIERCER. ANCIENT EGYPTIANS, OF WEALTH, PLACED GROUND-LIS EMERALDS IN A FIRE, AND INHALED THE SMOKE AS A CURE FOR VARIOUS AILMENTS.

The little ear-wig seems to be the innocent victim of a misunderstanding. It may have come by its ear-entering-reputation from its habit of creeping into crevices to escape light, or, according to some authorities, the name is a corruption of ear-wing, which may have been the insect's original name, because of the likeness of its wings to a human ear.

Church Survey of Report Completed

RUPERT, Sept. 28—While many rural districts of the Mindoka project are yet to report, the religious survey, conducted under the leadership of the ministerial association, has been completed in Rupert.

The results of the 631 homes visited have been tabulated and show the following church preferences: L. D. S., 207; Methodist, 113; Christian, 97; Baptist, 37; Episcopal, 34; Pentecostal, 33; Lutheran, 19; Presbyterian, 10; Christian Science, 3; Reorganized, L.D.S., 3; Mennonite, 2; Evangelical, 1; Reformed, 1. Only 20 persons expressed no preference.

Sunday, Oct. 3, is designated by all churches of Rupert as "go-to-church Sunday." An active visitation campaign is under way this week with workers of all churches making an effort to reach all residents with a personal invitation to attend the church of their choice, each of which will have special features Sunday. The bells of the churches will ring at 6 p. m. daily reminding the citizens of the place of religion in the community.
