JAPAN'S TROOPS PLAN TO DIVIDE CHINA'S DEFENSE

Army Tries For Landing at Haichow in Effort to Form Strong Line

NIPPON ARMY ADVANCES

(Copyright, 1937, United Press)
 NANKING, Oct. 2 (U.P.)—Japanese troops are trying to effect a landing at Haichow, one of the Chinese coast, in an effort to form a strong line along the Yellow river and cut China in two.
 Japanese armies are advancing with astonishing swiftness down the Peking-Hankow and Tientsin-Pukow railroads.
 Now the plan is to land a third army on the central coast and drive inland to join the Tientsin-Pukow army and form the Yellow river line. This would give Japan rich Shantung province, a buffer between the northern and Shanghai troops and if the juncture were effected would cut off all Chinese troops between the Tientsin-Pukow railroad and the sea.
 On a visit to the northern front which I returned today I learned that the Japanese have an aircraft carrier off Lianyungang, the seaport of Haichow. Its planes are constantly raiding Haichow and points to the north—an indication that the Chinese, who have a strong army in the area, are resisting such operations. The Japanese have reported that 10 warships have arrived off Lianyungang.
 Fighting in the Shanghai area is spectacular. But the Chinese-Japanese war is being fought on the northern front where the observers believe it will be won there.
 Estimates which I have received at the front indicate that the Chinese have all between 400,000 and 600,000 men there against 200,000 Japanese in the entire north.

BRITISH-FRENCH NOTE SUGGESTS SPANISH PARLEY

Two Nations Ask Italy to Consider Withdrawal of Troops in Spain

LONDON, Oct. 2 (U.P.)—A joint British-French note inviting Italy to discuss withdrawal of foreign volunteers from the Spanish civil war was dispatched to Rome last night and was expected to be delivered today to Count Galeazzo Ciano, Italian foreign minister, it was understood.
 The note asks Italy's participation in "fresh discussions" of issues referred to foreign ministers in Paris, Perih, British ambassador to Rome, to present it to Count Ciano.
 Britain expects a prompt reply. The note insists on the urgency of questions to be discussed. Official circles refused to say where they thought the conference might be held.
 Today, Soviet Russia demanded a note to the Spanish non-intervention commission from the British and French. It is believed that the Russian loyalists are accorded the right to buy arms openly abroad and to receive volunteers from abroad.
 Franco's close views on the matter, cited here, views on the Spanish non-intervention situation and was believed to have indicated strongly that he also is needed to end breaches of the neutrality agreement.
 Russia's note argued that the abandonment of the British-French naval neutrality patrol of the Spanish coast gave a decided advantage to the foreign intervention forces. Russia said, should be offset by giving the loyalists the opportunity to buy arms.

Idaho, Nevada Resume Salmon Water Battle

BOISE, Oct. 2 (U.P.)—Idaho and Nevada today resumed an interstate struggle over water rights on Salmon Falls creek, stream originating in Elko county, Nev., and flowing into Twin Falls county, Idaho.
 The Salmon River Canal company, operated by Governor Barzilla Clark, that it was denied the right to file for applications at the engineer's office in Carson City, Nev., for permits to use the waters of the stream in Idaho.
 Stream Insufficient
 The company further charged that the stream was insufficient to adequately irrigate the Salmon tract (15,000 acres of Idaho land served by the canal company) and such encroachments have led to disastrous and disastrous on the treaty relative rights of citizens of Nevada and Idaho.
 Rights Settlement Asked
 The company said that because of investments in securities made by school districts and residents on the treaty a settlement of rights to the water should be made between Idaho and Nevada.
 Water from the stream flows into a reservoir near Rogerson, Ida., for use on the 35,000-acre tract.
 Twin Falls county senators and representatives signed the complaint issued by the canal company.
 Governor Clark instructed R. W. Paris, state commissioner of reclamation, to give the complaint his "immediate and earnest attention."

Denounces Creed Of Hooded Group

TALK ENDS ALL RUMORS OF RESIGNATION POSSIBILITY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (U.P.)—Acknowledging a former membership in the Ku Klux Klan, Hugo L. Black prepared today to don the black robes of a high justice and to sit Monday for the first time as an associate justice of the United States supreme court.
 Speaking to an estimated 81,000 persons over the nation's combined radio networks last night, Justice Black set forth his former connection with the Klan, denounced indirectly, its creed and objectives, and pleaded for religious tolerance and liberal principles.
 His speech ended all reports that he might resign or that he would accept any suggestion that he should resign. It was believed that he had endeavored to close finally the public controversy growing out of a newspaper exposure of his former Klan affiliation.
 First reaction from public figures "was favorable to Black, and many expressed the opinion that the matter was now closed."
 In Phoenix, Ariz., Senator Henry F. Ashurst, D., Ariz., chairman of the senate judiciary committee, said he would call the speech because "it may be called upon to sit at an impeachment trial against him, and I could not then justify a resignation by forming an opinion."
 FDR Doesn't Listen
 President Roosevelt was in Washington today to begin his return journey to the White House. Members of his staff said that he had not listened to the speech. "He is busy," they said.
 He was one of only a comparative few Americans who did not have their radios tuned last night to the modest suburban home where Black, surrounded by a small group of intimates, made a statement to the people.
 "I did not listen," Black said, speaking each word slowly.
 "I later resigned, I never rejoined."
 He paused an instant, then continued: "What appeared then, or what appears now on the records of the organization, I do not know."
 Card Never Used
 "I have never considered and I do not now consider the uncolored card given to me shortly after my nomination to the senate as a membership of any kind in the Ku Klux Klan. I have never used it. I did not even keep it."
 His affiliation with it must have been either because he was sympathetic with its aims or because of some note his own political cause. Either, in his estimation, is sufficient to prove his unfitness for the job of one of the United States supreme court.

ECKERT ACCOUNT SEEN OVERDRAWN

Charge Made That Former Game Warden Used More Than Expense Quota

BOISE, Oct. 2 (U.P.)—Charges that Amos Eckert, former state game warden, over drew his expense account to the extent of $2,900 over a period of three years today received attention of Attorney General J. W. Taylor.
 "I haven't seen the audit report yet," the attorney general said, "but if it appears that Eckert illegally drew beyond the extent of his $1,800 annual expense account, we will probably act."
 Eckert was not reappointed to his position this year, being replaced by William McIntyre.
 An audit of Eckert's books was conducted by Karl Evans, bureau of public accounts director, and allegedly showed that Eckert had overdrawn his expense account for three successive years.
 If proved against him, the charges can be converted into a felony complaint.
 Other overdraws on the part of other game warden officials were alleged, and it was said that Karl Jones, deputy game warden at Pocatello, received $2,000 miles in mileage allowance which he should have had only $200.
 Officers are allowed 6 cents per mile for traveling expenses.

ATTORNEYS HERE DIVIDE ON VIEWS OF BLACK'S TALK

Praise, Opposition Expressed For Justice Under Fire On Klan Issue

Praise for Justice Hugo L. Black's courage and reiterated opposition to his qualifications as a supreme court justice were both expressed by Twin Falls attorneys today, along with other views, as aftermath of Black's address to the nation last night admitting Ku Klux Klan membership but asserting he severed such connections 13 years ago.
 Some lawyers answering an Evening Times survey, viewed the address as proving Black's sincerity in severing ties with the organization, as doing nothing to establish that fitness; one deplored the Justice's action in engaging in controversy; another thought the incident should be regarded as closed.
 The comment:
 Justice H. Blackwell—"Justice Black's statement only emphasizes what I believe has been known when the senate confirmed the appointment. There never was any valid question as to his disqualification as a justice of the supreme court on account of an affiliation."
 "By his statement he has shown admirable courage and rare judgment," two very necessary characteristics on the supreme bench."
 Frank L. Stephan—"I heard Governor Black's radio address. I expected him to tell the American people why he affiliated with the Ku Klux Klan. Of course he knew the avowed un-American purposes of the Klan when he became a member."
 "His affiliation with it must have been either because he was sympathetic with its aims or because of some note his own political cause. Either, in his estimation, is sufficient to prove his unfitness for the job of one of the United States supreme court."

No Currency Revision Play, Say Officials

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (U.P.)—Treasury officials indicated today that there was no basis for reports of an impending revision of the treaty of currency agreement between Great Britain, United States and France.
 The opinion prevailing here was that weakness in the French franc was attributable more to the activity of speculators than to internal economic or political conditions.

"Man in Street" Opinions Differ on Black's Speech

 After Justice Hugo L. Black finished his radio speech last night, United Press reporters went into the streets of the major cities and asked for their opinions on the speech. The replies follow:
 Detroit
 Frank Griswold, auctioneer: "I still don't think he should be seated."
 San Francisco

 John Murphy, unemployed: "I'm against him and always have been. But I'm for Roosevelt."
 New York
 Mrs. Clark Barrett, housewife: "He sounded like a politician. The speech didn't change my opinion."
 Byron Shugart, military sergeant: "He expressed himself honestly and sincerely and exonerated himself as far as I'm concerned."
 St. Louis
 L. C. Hornell, railroad stenographer: "I thought he was all right to begin with, since Roosevelt appointed him to the Klan, but that is no reason for holding anything against a person. Black was gallant. Anybody who thinks that high is bound to make enemies."
 New York City
 Aston Levy, dressmaker: "He sounded okay to me. I guess it's okay."
 St. Paul
 H. J. Hendrick, clerk: "I got no use for a Ku Kluxer, past, present or future."

MOSLEM LEADER GOES IN HIDING

British Authorities Form Virtual Martial Law in Holy Land

JERUSALEM, Oct. 2 (U.P.)—The Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, the powerful Moslem in Palestine, hid in the sanctuary of the Mosque of Omar in Jerusalem today. British authorities established virtual martial law throughout the Holy Land in an effort to stamp out terrorism.
 The Grand Mufti, Haj Amin el-Husseini, was temporarily safe because British authorities cannot approach the Mosque which is sacred Moslem territory.
 He was deprived of all except religious powers, however, as the British arrested and deported most of the members of the Arab High Committee which he had been president.
 The Grand Mufti also was stripped of his powers as chairman of the powerful Wafk committee which regulates Moslem law.
 Several Moslem religious notables, possible candidates for the office previously held by the Grand Mufti, received threatening letters advising them to refuse the post.

"Let's Stick Together," Buhl's Sinking Farm Tenant Tells Kansan Whose Land is Slipping

He said the Idaho farmer to the Kansas farmer: "After all we have at lot in common and should stick together, more or less."
 Thus did Harley Robertson, tenant of the notorious Kansas "sinking canyon" farm near Buhl write Charles E. Joseph of Pocatello, Kan., who also has a "sinking farm" under his feet.
 "Heading of your own 'sinking farm' is a newsworthy thing. I will make you sympathetic with you, seeing as now I have a sunkun area on the farm on which I live here in the west."
 (Cites Neepleso Night)
 "I hope that your farm does not attract the universal attention and publicity which mine did, because I know that if it does you will have a very sleepless night and a vast number of days telling your story over and over again to everyone who happens to come your way. And, if yours develops like mine did, there will be a lot of things coming your way. Some will be good and some will be bad."
 One good thing which came my way is a trip to New York, all expenses paid, which I will make next Saturday. I will tell the story of my 'sinking canyon' over the air the night of Oct. 7 during the Bankers' hour on the Columbia Broadcasting System.
 Heads for N. Y.

The program by sections:

Four conference games scheduled—Western State-Colo college; Brigham Young-Utah; Montana State-Utah State; Colorado Mines-Colorado State, Denver, Utah, Brigham-Young and Wyoming tied for lead with one victory each. Outside the conference the Forsyth and Taylor met Denver-New Mexico played last night; Colorado-Missouri and Wyoming-Nebraska.

Three conference games, top one pairing champion Washington and contender U. S. C. California, favorite of the west, opened a three-day competition against Oregon State. A Stanford meets Oregon. U. C. L. A. leads conference with one victor. Outside, Washington State plays Idaho; St. Mary's meets Gonzaga and San Francisco plays Daniel Baker of Texas.

Colgate favored over Cornell; N. Y. U. over Carnegie; Texas A. and M. over Manhattan and Boston College over Kansas State in the major games.

MID-WEST

Minnesota-Nebraska game at Lincoln tops the program. Purdue and Ohio State meet in only Big Ten game. No Big Six games scheduled. Michigan meets Michigan State and Chicago journeys to Nashville to play Vanderbilt in Big games.

SOUTH

Four games scheduled in Southern Conference, which Duke and North Carolina State lead with one victory each. Conference games: North Carolina-North Carolina State; Davidson-Duke; W. and M. V. M. I. and Richmond W. and L.

SOUTHWEST

Bowers Outflays Easterners, But Lacks God Scoring Punch

CALDWELL, Ida., Oct. 2 (UP)—Caldwell defeated Buhl high school in a Big Ten conference game here Friday night by the score of 6 to 0. The Caldwell squad put on a passing attack in the third quarter and shoved over a touchdown.

Throughout the contest Buhl outplayed the Caldwell squad, ramming the ball deep into Cougar territory, but not quite making it to the line.

A series of short passes runs, then another pass brought Caldwell its first. Attempt at conversion was blocked.

POT SHOTS WITH The Gentleman in the Third Row

CONTOURING THE NEWSPAPERS, you're ready to tell someone upstairs is implicated.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON By Rodney Dutcher

How About Ducking 'Next' Depression? For a long time the people of this country had one question which they were constantly asking: "When will the depression end?"

There seems to be general agreement now that the depression is pretty well over. So the old question has been dropped, to be replaced by an equally anxious one: "When will the next depression begin?"

There seems to be no particular confidence anywhere that we have mastered the problem of preventing depressions. We got out of the last one, by hook or crook, and we are now enjoying a fair measure of prosperity.

Figures on industrial production are ordinarily dull reading. But Elmer C. Bratt of Lehigh university has presented some, in the current issue of The Annalist, which indicate that the "prosperity curve" is going to keep on rising for some time yet—possibly for as long as four years.

A business decline, remarks Mr. Bratt, follows a period in which industrial production gets out of adjustment. In good times, production of durable goods—buildings, factory equipment, railroad engines, and so on—tends to exceed the production of consumer goods.

The country's need for durable goods is met, workers making them are released, their release causes the demand for consumer goods to fall—and down we go in the unpleasant spiral of a depression.

Right now, continues Mr. Bratt, no such situation is in sight. The country still needs a great many more things in the durable goods bracket. The railroads have only begun to make up for the long period in which they bought little equipment.

All of this is very encouraging—as far as it goes. But must we accept the old depression-and-prosperity cycle as an immutable law of nature? Is there no way in which we can avoid these disastrous dips into misery and want?

To know that we shan't have a depression for several years is good, but not good enough. It might be a good thing for us to stop thinking about recovery and start thinking about prevention.

GO TO THE ABYSSUM WITH OUR BLESSINGS! I believe in fairy tales. I believe in Santa Claus. I believe love conquers all. I believe the good shall inherit the earth.

APPROPRIATE, EH WHAT? Spot Shota: I believe in young lady in my native Burley wrote a letter to a 'young man up at the University of Idaho. He lives in the Sigma Nu house. She sent him the very best in care of the 'Sigma Nu' house.

There is a legend, I have heard, passed down in Indian lore, by word. That when the snakes start for the river Winter's near to make us shiver.

It's strange that snakes symbolize of the devil. Doomed to live 'neath god's foot. Abhorred by beasts and man alike. Should be endowed with such insight.

Today I passed by four big And, I admit, my knees did shake. Oh, you know just what you think. That I had had too much to drink.

But truly this is on the square. The snakes I saw were really there. So when you get out your old red flannels, For snakes are seeking river channels! —Ruby

CHAPTER XV CONTRARY TO Cilly's expectations, the funeral services for Amy Kerr were well attended. She had asked that they be held in the smallest parlor, and now the room was almost crowded.

Harry Hutchins was there, of course, and Harvey Ames. With Mr. Ames was his partner, Mr. Wakefield, and four others whom Cilly recognized as employees in the realty office.

Immediately following the service Cilly noticed that the steps of the funeral home were lined with photographers. For the first time she realized that the newspapers were playing the case. The murder of a young girl was always meat to the public interest.

It was not much more than an hour later when Cilly returned home from the cemetery. As she turned into the entrance of the Bayview, she heard, through the open window, the ringing of her own telephone. She hurried to her steps. It was Sergeant Dolan.

BORAH HOPES FOR END OF BATTLE AGAINST BLACK

'NOTHING CAN BE GAINED,' STATES SENIOR SENATOR

Sees Former Bolon Taking Seat Monday Without Further Furor

BY DAVID N. JOHNSON
BOZEMAN, Oct. 2 (Special)—Sen. William E. Borah, who voted against consideration of Hugo Black's nomination to the U. S. supreme court, said Friday night that he hoped the matter of Mr. Justice Black and his nomination to the Ku Klux Klan would be dropped.

Sen. Borah said that nothing could be gained by continuation of the discussion, and expressed the wish that the Alabama appointee could take the bench Monday without renewal of the furor over his Klan membership. Accusations were first made.

The Idaho statesman listened to Black's speech in which the justice said he had been a member of the Klan, but had since dropped his affiliation, at the home of Dr. Ralph Falk, his close friend.

Borah then returned to his hotel, called a United Press reporter, and handed a Black press release to his knees wrote out a statement with pencil.

JEROME FORMS HEALTH COUNCIL

Organization of the following representatives were present: Mrs. J. A. Craig and Mrs. Rowbottom of Grandview club; Mrs. Maude Hedrick, Women of the Goodwill; Mrs. Bertha Newman, Methodist Ladies Aid society; Mrs. E. V. Cooke, Westfield club; Mrs. L. J. Williams, Pleasant Plains Grange; Mrs. C. F. Yings, Canyonville Grange and Canyonville Community club; Dr. P. H. Davis, Grange and representing the medical profession; Mrs. Jack Webster, Grange and representing the Grange; Mrs. Delno McManhan, American Legion Auxiliary, and Mrs. D. E. Smith, O. C. Club.

While he wrote, Borah repeated that his desire not to have Black considered for post of supreme court membership was based on Klan grounds, and not from questions concerning Mr. Black's affiliation with the Klan.

Sen. Borah said that he thought retirement of a justice did not create a vacancy; that the justice was still an associate member of the court.

"In my opinion," Borah said, "special act of congress is required to create a vacancy of the supreme court bench, because justices are appointed for life."

Borah's statement

Justice Black stated the matter of his relationship with the Klan was understood by the senate. I understood then he had been a member but had dropped his affiliation about 11 years ago.

"He will take his seat as a member of the court on Monday. Nothing is to be gained by a continuation of the discussion. I hope the subject of the Klan will be dropped."

The senator would make no comment on suggestions that Black having admitted affiliation with the Ku Klux Klan, ought to resign.

"IT'S GREAT to be paid promptly!"

"This business of getting paid is a little different with me, for you see, I'm in business for myself, and just like any other business man, before I can draw my salary from my business I've got to collect from my customers first, and then pay my paper bill at the office."

"If all my customers pay me promptly each month, Oh Boy, I draw a full salary from my business. . . But, gee, if a few aren't home, and a few more just don't pay, you can see the spot I'm in . . . 'cause I just gotta pay my bill at the office each month."

"But my own little business of carrying The Times, is pretty swell most of the time, 'cause most of my customers take special care, at least that's the way it seems to me, to be 'johnny on the spot' when I come to collect. . . And thanks a lot folks . . . for as I've said before, it's sure great to draw a full salary each month from my business. And I do appreciate it, for you make it possible for me to do so."

Sincerely . . .
