

POTATO PARLEYS CALLED TO EXPLAIN MARKETING PLAN

TWIN FALLS AND BUIH NAMED AS MEETING SPOTS

Gatherings Will Be Held on Saturday and Monday Evenings

Full explanation of the federal potato marketing agreements expected to become effective next week will be given at Twin Falls county potato growers at two meetings called in Buih and Twin Falls, County Agent Harvey S. Hale announced.

The meetings will be held this Saturday, Oct. 16, at 8 p. m. in the Buih city hall and next Monday, Oct. 18, at 8 p. m. in the district court room, Twin Falls.

Luke V. Sommer, Buih, member of the Idaho delegation to the national meeting approved the plan for marketing plans at the Chicago conference called last week by Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, will address both sessions.

Sommer will review the Chicago meeting and will explain the operation of the potato agreement. "Immediate effect of the program should be to strengthen prices," Mr. Sommer said today. "The agreement will bring with it a new era of potato marketing."

Similar sessions are being held throughout the states in which the agreement will be effective.

Delegation Planned

The spot meetings follow return of the Idaho growers and dealer delegation from the Chicago conference, with the delegates expressing satisfaction in outcome of the conference's approval of the marketing program for late potatoes, according to Mr. Sommer.

"The program, as outlined and approved by the more than 50 growers and dealer representatives in attendance, is aimed at increasing returns to growers of late potatoes," said Mr. Sommer. "It will be brought about through a regulation of the amount of potatoes to be moved in interstate commerce."

Chas. E. Hahnstedt

The agreements for the three late producing areas provide for the limitation of the amount of interstate commerce, and compulsory grading and inspection, and empower the control committee to regulate the dealers further to limit shipments through withholding a percentage of the crop from market, the regulation etc. The plan also provides for a government purchase and diversion program.

"Even though the industry in Idaho is not yet in the market, the referendum, it was the general conclusion of the conference that the other late states should cooperate with the government in an immediate program to improve potato prices. Maine was extended an invitation to cooperate by the growers and dealers at the Chicago meeting, and it was evident that there is considerable interest in the program in that state."

U. of I. Leader Says Football Not Overdone

By JEAN SPRAGUE
Is football over-emphasized in American colleges—and, more specifically, at the University of Idaho? Emphatically not, President H. C. Dale, head of the Moscow Institution, told the Evening Times in an exclusive interview last night.

"Football is a fine thing to get 'steamed up over,'" the University of Idaho leader said. "It creates a wholesome school spirit."

President Dale was enthusiastic over the Vandals' showing this year and over their climb, under the leadership of Coach Glenn D. Snelson, to the top of the gridiron depths of recent seasons.

Frankly Elated
The Moscow educator, whose primary interests are in the educational advantages the university offers, revealed versatility of interest and confirmed Idaho student's view of him as a "regular fellow" by stating frank elation over the Vandal 7-0 homecoming victory over a mighty Oregon state eleven. The triumph celebrated opening of the new stadium and contradicted both tradition and the unanimous selection of the only one week at the University of Idaho.

President Dale gives an immediate impression as a rare combination of scholar and administrator, one whose ideas will be felt in the life of the institution he heads and may well become a guiding influence.

Although he has been at the university only three weeks as its president, succeeding M. G. Neale, Mr. Dale has already outlined a three-point relationship between university and student body.

Cultural Knowledge
He believes wholeheartedly that every graduate ought to have acquired a broad base of cultural knowledge during his college course and that he should have a body of knowledge that will enable him to make a living.

"Four years is not too short a time for a student to have acquired these two things," Mr. Dale said in his brief, but well-considered, address of which bespoke his Harvard education.

For his first objective, Mr. Dale is particularly interested in seeing that every opportunity be given each student to develop the best possible training available in a living language.

He emphasized his point by saying that for many students their college years open for the first time a world of opportunity to make their own choices. They must be helped to make them wisely and well. Informal contacts between faculty members and students are the means by which aid may be given.

Own State Best
It is wise for students, at least in their undergraduate years, to first try to take advantage of institutions in their own state, President Dale feels. The gains in making contacts with the state through these years are great and valuable associations are made. "The student takes root" in the section where his home is, and he who has completed their general background and are interested in advanced study in specialized fields may find a school especially equipped for those studies elsewhere.

The stadium, the new Willis Sweet hall, the library wing and the new gymnasium, ranked by medical authorities as the best in any college in the country, as well as the student union building complete Idaho's building program, President Dale said.

Social Center
All were much needed additions. The student union structure, he singled out as valuable in providing a social center on the campus. It houses the various student activities and publications, a bookstore, a restaurant, lounge and dancing space.

The new president is not a newcomer to the university but returns to it from Miami University, Ohio, where he was dean of the school of business and administrator for two years. Before that he held a similar position at Moscow for eight years.

His bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees were both obtained from Harvard university. Unlike many university presidents, he does not have a Ph. D.

Concerned with educational and administrative problems, he nevertheless leaves you with the impression that here Idaho's students will find one who is first of all a friend.

In the narrow streets of the Chinese quarter on the other side of Soochow creek from the Bund, the Chinese "big sword" men and infantry with bayoneted rifles charged the Japanese. Fighting was incessant as that of madmen, all at close quarters.

After dark, all about in the battle sectors, in Pootung, Hongkew, Chapei, the flames of big fires thrust upward. Pallen electric power lines in Hongkew, the Japanese part of the settlement, sent eerie flashes into the sky.

A Chinese spokesman said that this would prove to be the postponed "anniversary offensive" in celebration of the Sunami's 20th anniversary of the revolution. It had been known that in hope of making a gigantic attack the Chinese had massed men and guns all about Shanghai.

He Finds 'No Doubt' About City Being Best in Idaho Today

That Twin Falls, in its state, is the "busiest city in the United States," was the opinion expressed here this afternoon by Roy C. Lane, chief of employment for the WPA with headquarters in Boise.

Lane, a former lawyer, Idaho, merchant for more than 30 years, said he was "amazed" at the volume of business being done locally.

"There is no doubt in my mind," he said, "that Twin Falls is the best town in Idaho today."

Seen Today

Youth affixing new bicycle license to his machine, remarking that he guessed "the cops really meant it." Irritated motorist waiting beside his car parked on Main street, a battery man hauls up another battery and takes out the duplicate one. Brown leaves home for the office, increasing quantity. Recruiting party in front of postoffice, telling youths about adoption of army life. Farmer rained, arguing with group of men in local clearing, trying to get them to accept his proposition. If well prepared for the three-day air-fest.

The festival is one of two special events planned by Twin Falls merchants. The first will be the two-day Twin Falls days celebration Oct. 22 and 23, and the second, a children's pet parade downtown, all bridge refunds and other features.

PITTMAN SAYS NINE-POWER PACT 'MUST' BE ENFORCED

NEVADA SENATOR CLAIMS NO NEED TO START FIGHT

Says Signatories Should All Boycott if Japan Refuses To Attend Conference

RENO, Nev., Oct. 14 (AP)—Key Pittman, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, said today that unless the nine power pact was enforced in the Sino-Japanese conflict, "further world peace efforts will be impossible and the world will be retrograded to conquest by the powerful."

The United States and other signatories of the nine power pact must act, Pittman said, but they need not go to war even if they decide unanimously that Japan has violated the treaty.

"Japan Must Be Reasonable"—President Roosevelt's invitation to Japan and China into the proposed conference of nine power treaty signatories, Pittman said, "is probably that Japan will be reasonable and just when the matter is presented by so many friendly governments."

"If Japan continues to be obstinate and arbitrary, all the governments that are signatories to the treaty would be morally and legally justified in refusing to have dealings with Japan."

"Such determination," he said, "would not involve war unless Japan saw fit to attack all such governments, which is the suggestion of an absurd proposition. No government in my opinion could successfully continue war under such a determination."

Only Foreign Tie-up—The United States has no treaty involving this country in the affairs of any other, except China under the nine power pact, which obligates the U. S. to confer with other signatories when Chinese political and territorial integrity is threatened, the Democratic Nevada senator pointed out.

Pittman endorsed President Roosevelt's recent talks in which he outlined American foreign policy, and also the state department pronouncement naming Japan as an aggressor.

Wins by Forfeit—No football games were played at the junior high school yesterday as boys from room 016 won from 112 by a forfeit. Room 016 was credited with 1-0 wins, teams from 217 and 211 were scheduled to play in today's competition.

New-Type Glass On Store Front First in Region

Milton Powell, manager of the Twin Falls Glass and Paint company store at 133 Main avenue west, isn't afraid that anyone will throw a brick through the new store sign, which "tops off" extensive remodeling work completed at the establishment.

Not that he wants anyone to try out the sign with bricks, but today it was disclosed the sign is made of vitrolux, the new unbreakable, uncrackable glass. Installation at the local store was the first in the intermountain country, Powell said today.

Novelty of the glass is the fact that the firm name is heated right into it. There is no painting and the name will be as bright and new looking 100 years from now as it is today.

Other improvements at the paint store include an entirely new front which features the latest and red vitrolux for the bulkheads.

Inside the store new displays have been completed showing the methods of finishing and re-finishing all types of surfaces. Below these displays are the new colorizer.

Through stocking of colorizer, the firm is now able to offer, using white as a base, 54 colors in 100 parts over the 12 formerly carried.

Work remaining to be completed in the store includes a wall paper and mirror display section.

BUBONIC PLAGUE SOUGHT IN RATS

State Expert Makes Study of Several Rodents Killed in Rock Creek Canyon

Searching for evidences of bubonic plague among the thousands of white rats infesting the Rock Creek canyon area, Paul Ward of Boise, connected with the state department of public health, this afternoon completed examinations of specimens taken from the section.

Examinations on the bodies of the rats killed by Ward disclosed no evidence of the disease although some of the rodents were infected with body parasites. Might Be Menace—This does not mean, however, that through contact with some other rodent, such as gophers or rock chucks, the rats could not become a menace by being infected with the disease, Ward said.

At the same time Dr. H. L. McMartin, director of the district health unit, said that with thousands of rats present in the canyon a serious situation might develop should plague ever start in their midst.

A close watch, McMartin said, is to be kept and frequent surveys will be made through facilities of the laboratory at the local unit and the state lab at Boise to find any possible traces of the disease.

Ward explained that bubonic plague is transmitted from rodent to rodent or from rodent to man through the parasites, or fleas, which infest the rats. Of the rats killed, examination showed some to have bodies between 10 and 12 inches in length with weight set at more than a pound.

"Peaceful Methods" Cannot Stop China War, Sen. Borah Believes

BOISE, Ida., Oct. 14 (AP)—Serious doubt that Japan would "yield to peaceful methods" in settlement of the Sino-Japanese conflict was expressed today by Sen. William E. Borah, R. Ida.

"Borah said he also did not think that Japan would attend the nine-power conference. He warned however against pushing intervention in the Asiatic conflict beyond 'peaceful means.'"

"When we have exhausted peaceful methods, we have done all that we should do," he said. Commenting on President Roosevelt's fire-side chat, Borah said he thought Mr. Roosevelt voiced the same general idea.

"I do not anticipate that Japan will yield to peaceful methods or that she will in all probability attend the conference on the nine-power pact, but when we have exhausted peaceful methods, we have done all that we should do," he said.

"That I understand to be the significance of the President's speech as it related to the foreign situation," he said.

Yesterday, Harry's Marlene... "Who? Kerr, Senior, stole him; his son is here to dispose of them."

"This is a surprise," Cilly said to the stalwart figure in the doorway. "I didn't expect to see you again today."

Sergeant Dolan peeled himself out of his dripping raincoat and hung it over the kitchen door.

"I didn't expect to be here," he commented. "Enjoy the pictures?"

"Very much, thank you. Except that I missed some visitors by being out this afternoon."

Dolan looked at her shrewdly. "So they had the afternoon, might have known..."

He walked into the living room looked around. "Cilly went about lighting the table lamps. It was growing dark quickly."

"So your afternoon was wasted," she asked. "As far as your apartment is concerned, yes. But we had much better luck in other quarters."

"Where?" "At the Ralston." "Cilly started. The Ralston Hotel was where Jim lived."

Cilly stifled the cry that came to her lips, her eyes staring hypnotically at this new piece of evidence. The belt belonged to Amy Kerr's blue chiffon dress.

POT SHOTS WITH The Gentleman in the Third Row... Telephone 88... Showing Youth Crime Doesn't Pay...

Showing Youth Crime Doesn't Pay... If you should see a policeman in uniform neglecting his beat in order to help a bunch of boys stage an informal baseball game on a vacant lot, you probably would wonder irritably just what that copper thought the city was paying him for.

MAMA MAE, WHO says she has been lecturing Hubbard for 10 years on necessary changes in men's styles, wins the half-dollar for last week's Pot Shots contest.

A LADY CONTRIB from Buhl suggested an article on the subject of this week. It's "Sheepskins and Cowpunchers." Just give us your ideas on the matter and maybe you'll win the 50 cents.

YEP, HOT SOUP TAKES IT OFF EVERY TIME! I'm again, this matter of wall-to-wool in our Twin Falls beaneries using bright red fingernail polish.

OUR ALMANAC AND HISTORY LESSON... The string of a violin is broken in stretching it too much.

HOUSING CERTAINLY SHOULD INTEREST HIM! It's very appropriate indeed for the duke of Windsor to be studying housing problems. If you'll remember, he was kicked out of his own house over in London.

ALL THE NOVA MYSTERY CLEANS AT LAST! Jeremiah and others seem to be hollering for me to reveal who owns that sofa on which George Washington slept — or anyhow, on which he very probably slept.

NO FUNDS ON HAND! Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Hull and various other matters have had their say. How is America going to join in the international cooperation idea.

FAMOUS LANT LINE... YEP, Whiteman's music even made Max waltz dance!

Showing Youth Crime Doesn't Pay... If you should see a policeman in uniform neglecting his beat in order to help a bunch of boys stage an informal baseball game on a vacant lot, you probably would wonder irritably just what that copper thought the city was paying him for.

On second thought, however, you might feel differently. For if a cop's chief job is to prevent crime, the officer who teaches the youngsters in his district to look-up to him as a friend and counselor is doing a very efficient and praise-worthy job of crime prevention.

J. Edgar Hoover, chief G-man, touched on this point the other day in a speech before the annual convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, at Baltimore.

Suppose, said Mr. Hoover, that a $100,000 bank robbery occurs in a given city. Every youngster in town is, to a certain degree, stirred by the excitement and the adventure of the affair. In a great many cases he will conclude that the robber has done a brave and romantic thing and is a person to be emulated. In other words, he makes a hero of him.

But if the police have means of contact with the city's youth—through police athletic associations, police play officers, police instructors and umpires for school athletic contests, and so on—then the police have a fine chance to make youth see the robber, not as a hero but as a sinner.

"You simply cannot combat in the literal mind of youth the fact that someone got $100,000," said Mr. Hoover. "He can listen to platitudes forever, but the thought remains in his mind—a man robbed a bank and a man got $100,000, and certainly in this instance crime must have been made to pay. And so our job as the guardians of youth is to say why and how that $100,000 is worthless."

"The boy must be made to understand that the money can be spent for no sensible purpose. He must be shown that this sum will be split among dozens of persons whom the robber must pay for aiding his escape."

"He can be convinced that every cent of this money for which a man has dared his life and the penitentiary must either be expended for things which do him not one particle of good or be paid out in a desperate effort to defeat the law, leaving him in the end penniless, a broken being living in a filthy, worm-eaten, rocking house of crime and robbed of everything worthwhile which a life of decency might have given him."

That, as Mr. Hoover says, is a job well worth doing. It is a job the police can do easily enough, if they have the contacts with youth that enable them to get their message across. Such contacts, obtained through a systematic campaign of friendship and understanding, could be invaluable in the great work of crime-prevention.

The average criminal starts out as a juvenile cop-hater. If that trend can be reversed, a great step in law-enforcement can be taken.

The Safest Ride... Railroad passenger traffic has been coming back in the last few years. Part of this is due to lower fares and part of it to the new equipment and faster schedules which the railroads have been adopting. But a good share must be attributed to the fact that travel by train is by far the safest form of travel in existence.

As a sample, consider this fact: during the first six months of 1937, not one passenger on any railroad in the United States lost his life in a train accident. Impressive as that record is, it becomes even more so when you realize that the railroads carried nearly 247,000,000 passengers in that time.

Neither air traffic nor auto traffic can present comparable figures. Such a safety record speaks volumes for the efficiency of modern railroad operation—and is an excellent indication that the railroads will continue to be our greatest mass transportation agency.

A Vote on War... Reports from Washington say that a determined campaign for a constitutional amendment prohibiting a declaration of war without a nation-wide referendum will be made when Congress next convenes.

Here is a proposition that takes on special importance because of the apparent reversal in our foreign policy implied by Mr. Roosevelt's Chicago speech.

The great objection to a co-operative foreign policy has been the fear that our government might get jockeyed into a position where it would feel obliged to declare war dependent on a national referendum.

That fear. The people might be willing to play a more active part in foreign policy if they knew that no declaration of war could be made without their direct and specific approval.

Bull-Goading Tilt Tops Southern Idaho Grid Menu

Bruins to Play Jerome; Oakley Battles Wendell

Rupert Invades Kimberly, While Burley Bobcats Journey to Blackfoot

Nearing the center of their schedules, southern Idaho football clubs will romp onto the gridiron fields this week-end in feature matches of the season. Most of the teams have three or four games already under their belts, and the coaches know just about how good a club they have this year.

Best battle of the section expected in Friday tilts will pit the twice defeated, but plenty good, Buhi Indian team against Coach "Ap" Berg's Gooding Senators—another top-notch team that has lost to some of the Twin Falls and won over Kimberly. The gridiron contest is scheduled for Gooding.

Coach Hank Powers and his Twin Falls Bruins will play their first out-of-town game when they journey to Jerome to take on the undefeated Tiger club, coached by John Norby. Former champion of the Buhiers Bobcats in a night contest. After disposing of Wendell and Shoshone on successive Saturdays, the Tigers had a last week-end and are expected to be in excellent condition for the Bruin clash.

Kimberly vs. Rupert. Other Big Ten teams to see action will include the invasion of Kimberly by the Big Rupert club and a journey of the Buhiers Bobcats to Blackfoot. Rupert and Kimberly both have records that show no wins—and at least one coach is expected to be in the field. The Pigeons have been downed by three good clubs—Oakley, American Falls and Blackfoot.

Blackfoot and Burley both have in-and-out records. The Pesteers have a 4-3 record and are expected to be charged to the mighty "Football club, but were good enough last week-end to defeat and win over Piler to its credit.

HUNTERS SET TO SEEK PHEASANTS

Thousands of Idahoans, Plus Outsiders, Will Invaade Fields Friday

Thousands of Idaho hunters, and outsiders, are expected Friday morning on what is expected to be one of the best pheasant hunting seasons in recent years.

On the other hand, the Indiana have already suffered two losses to Caldwell and Oakley, and with big Jerry Hoke and the injured tilt, it looks like a tough day for Coach Floyd Powers and his crew. The Buhiers-Blackfoot tilt is also one of the toughest. It is thought that the Buhiers are a Class A club and the Senators Big Ten staff, but that doesn't make a difference. Coach "Ap" Berg has a tough bunch of veterans playing on his squad—a club that will stack up favorably with any in the state.

Husky quarterback, to Wendell. The Huskies—picked to mop up, lost 6-3.

Albion, Gooding Clubs Will Clash on Friday

GOODING, Oct. 14 (Special)—The Gooding college boys met it up with their traditional enemies, the Albion State Normals, in southern Idaho's week-end football classic for Friday night, under the lights at Gooding. Both teams are under rigid training this week to strengthen their weekend plays. The Gooding eleven is evidently giving Orville Hult, Albion coach, plenty to worry about this season, in defending the south central Idaho championship, for he has had three games scouted. Both schools are showing unusual strength this season.

FUND SHORTAGE FACES FEDERAL RECLAMATION PLAN

U. S. Commissioner Says There Will Not Be Funds To Cover Program

CASPER, Wyo., Oct. 14 (U.P.)—Delegates to the sixth national convention of the National Reclamation Association were told by John C. Page, commissioner of reclamation, that threatened shortage of funds is the most pressing problem which faces federal reclamation.

Page said that income to the reclamation fund which may logically be expected this year will not be sufficient to carry on next year the program now underway which has been tied to the fund.

He said that construction repayments will provide only about $4,000,000 of the $10,000,000 or $12,000,000 which will be needed and other sources which contribute to the fund under present laws would add only about $3,000,000.

"Some means must be found to fill this gap, if the program is to continue with reasonable speed," Page said.

(City Two Courses)

The reclamation commissioner cited two courses which have been suggested to fill the gap. One would lead to the elimination of the reclamation fund as a special fund, and would require appropriations for all projects direct from the general treasury with all payments to return direct to the general treasury. The other would lead to retention of the reclamation fund with dependence upon advances from the general treasury or the discovery of some revenues. Page advocated the second suggestion.

"The position of federal reclamation this year is stronger than in many past years," Page said. "One of the outstanding achievements of the year is to be found in the surveying movement toward a firm and continuing national policy of conservation of our natural resources."

Long Range Plans

The ultimate goal of reclamation, Page said, must be the formulation of long-range plans based on drainage basins. He praised the work of the water resources committee in giving irrigation a prominent place in the new picture of the development of the country. The putting in operation of the first four generators in the Boulder dam power house made the bureau of reclamation the most important governmental agency in the field of power production, according to Page. Power plants have become an integral part of reclamation projects. Page said the argument that irrigation of additional lands in the west is in conflict with the broad agricultural program of the nation "is not true and never would be true."

Barrie Plans to Exhibit Mummy, 500 Years Old, At Idaho Falls

IDAHO FALLS, Ida., Oct. 14 (U.P.)—Morris Barrie, Navajo Indian who says he has found the 500-year-old mummy of an Indian warrior in Skull canyon, said today he would exhibit the mummy in a local school building Saturday to substantiate truth of his find. Barrie's assertions were questioned by a group of Pocatello professors who went to Idaho Falls Sunday to take a look at the mummy in its crypt of birch bark and pitch. Barrie refused to let them see it, because, he said, "I would be a fool to disclose the vault before I receive cash on the line." The professors, headed by Charlton Laird, returned to Pocatello and voiced their general opinion that Mr. Barrie didn't have a mummy, and that picture writings which the Indian claimed led him to the find were of "general non-importance." Barrie said he thought the professors were trying to pull a whizzer on him and get the mummy for nothing, and that until he saw the color of somebody's money, nobody would see the mummy. The Navajo said today that he was "mad," and would dig up the mummy and show it around at the school-house. Meanwhile, Godfrey J. Olson, of the Museum of the American Indian in New York, said that Barrie's claims concerning a cash offer made by the museum were "not true."

RED CROSS ROLL CALL DATE SET

Tie-Up With Legion Post in Twin Falls Urged as Officials Meet

Decision to strengthen the Twin Falls county chapter of the American Red Cross before the annual roll call starts on November 11, had been made here today following a meeting of organization officials at the Chamber of Commerce last night.

Also advocated during the meeting was a closer "tie-up" with the American Legion to the end that both organizations would benefit through increased support.

"The Legion and the Red Cross should work hand in hand," Mrs. O. J. Alexander, chairman, told the group. "Such cooperation would be for the benefit of both."

Plan Chairman

Officials today also started plans for selection of a roll-call chairman for this district. Several local persons were mentioned for the honorary position at the meeting last night but no choice was made pending personal contacts with the eligible citizens.

Clyde Baird, field representative for the Red Cross, Pacific division, told local officers the county unit, including the chapter at Buhl, had a roll call second only to Ada county in Idaho. The number of members now stands at 1,886 with 1,219 in percentage of population enrolled. The Buhl unit ranks fourth in Idaho with a mark of 807 in the west end.

Junior Red Cross activities were discussed by Baird who said the county junior group is "by far the best in Idaho and is right at the top among these organizations of the entire western states."

Membership in the Junior Red Cross here, he pointed out, stands at more than 2,500. This is approximately one-tenth of the members in Idaho.

Swim Event Best

He also told members the swim campaign held at the Harmon park pool this summer was the "most successful in Idaho" and that local contributions to the food relief, totaling $2,500 or $1,000 over the quota, is among the highest recorded over any set quota.

Mrs. Genevieve Dwight, secretary.

Housewives' Strike Brings Down Price Of Chicago Meats

CHICAGO, Oct. 14 (UP)—Housewives' "pork chop strike" is forcing meat prices down. O. W. Kaiser, representative of 2,000 Chicago butchers, announced today.

Kaiser, secretary of the retail meat dealers association, said meat prices generally will drop 10 per cent within a week.

"Prices on all but the choicest cuts of beef will fall," he predicted. "Pork prices" already have fallen and will follow suit within a few days.

Kaiser said that with meat prices at current high levels, the wives "just won't buy anything but soup meat and hamburger."

The movement is unofficial but widespread, he said.

A United Press survey showed recently that meat prices throughout the nation are higher than at any time since 1929.

Since that time, however, pork loins have dropped from 31 cents to 25 cents a pound.

Kaiser said that the down movement will not include the choicest cuts of beef because the beef supply still is low due to the drought and resulting feed shortages of 1934, 1935 and 1936.

This year's abundant feed prices will not react on meat prices until next year, he said.
