Stolen Car's Death Victim Feared He Would Kill Pair

Thomas Fulton, Twin Falls, Asked For Prison, Sheriff Reveals

Death which caught up with Thomas Leroy Fulton only a few hours after he took a Twin Falls motor car and $200 in cash, wrote "finis" to the career of a young man who had feared he would be murdered and who wanted to be sent to Idaho's penitentiary.

That was the story behind the headlines which told of Fulton's swift retribution, it was revealed today by Sheriff E. F. Prater.

Fulton was killed shortly before noon Wednesday 60 miles west of Ely. His stolen car, taken from the Batsh Motor company here, thundered off a curve at high speed.

Although earlier reports said the former driver of the Lind service establishment was unmarried, the man three weeks ago told Sheriff Prater he had a divorced wife and two children. Their location is a mystery and today's revelation of his death has cast a gloom which help locate them, the sheriff believes.

Fulton told the official that he had hooded over his wife's divorce and marriage to another man, and said:

"I'm afraid I'll kill her and she may kill me. I don't want to go to the penitentiary. If I got in the pen a year, I might change the way I feel."

The former wife may be in Nebraska, it was indicated to Sheriff Prater by Fulton's employee he hailed from that state. His real name, however, was not Fulton, he informed the sheriff.

Wasn't First Request Fulton's appeal to the sheriff

"Come down here," he said. "There's going to be trouble. I'm going to hurt some one."

"I went down. He'd been drinking and it was then he talked me about his former wife."

It was that night also that Fulton was jailed overnight at his own request.

Plans for disposition of Fulton's body at Ely had not been determined today, according to work reaching here. Sheriff Prater said he wished to claim it was at an apparent standstill, officers indicated.

This was regarded as an implied invitation to the powers to make their program one which would permit Japan to attend—at least in the opening phases—and give her own version of the war. Japanese believe firmly that their case has been prejudiced, that they were goaded beyond endurance by China, and that if the world knew the story Japan would not be regarded as an aggressor but as a friend of world peace.

FEES FOR BOOKS CLIMB TO $1,304

Grade School Payments Now At 86 Per Cent Under New System

Payment of textbook fees by grade school pupils under the new Twin Falls district-owned book system has reached $1,204.63 to date and is "satisfactory," Supt. Homer M. Davis said today.

Fees are now over 86 per cent paid.

"Coast to the district for new books and for purchase of old ones from pupils has been $2,856.12," Supt. Davis said. "The cost to the district has been only $1,551.50 more than was collected to furnish books to 1,340 students."

Additional cash is still coming in and there is $100 credit for certain old books returned. General fund donations worth $250 were in the grade school book stores, however, when school opened.

Lincoln school leads the three grade units with $479.85. Bickel is second with $355.67 and Washington third with $355.01. In percentage of fees paid, Washington is the top with only six per cent still unpaid. Lincoln and Bickel both have 15 plus per cent.

Credit slips given out to junior high pupils who turned in grade books totaled $470.22, and at the high school $182.65.

Books for junior and senior high students are still handled under the former purchase system at the book store in the building. Extension of the district-owned method is planned in those units later.

BICYCLES EASING SCHOOL BUS JOB

But Load Will Grow Bigger When Winter Halts Bikes, Superintendent Says

Bicycles have lightened the load of Twin Falls school district buses—but winter weather will see the bicycles retire and the bus loads climb.

That was the report today of Supt. Homer M. Davis, who found that the bus system is giving "excellent service."

The buses are "not overcrowded" at present, Mr. Davis said, but will find heavier loads when cold weather forces many students to stop riding bicycles to school.

Loads carried daily by the buses vary from 107 for two trips to 208. Largest single load was 88. Because of congested conditions at Lincoln school, the George Wagner bus carries overflow pupils from there to Washington school morning, noon and evening. About 80 are carried daily.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—The discovery of an American "missing link" in an almost forgotten cave near great Salt Lake was announced today by Dr. Julian H. Steward, Smithsonian Institute archaeologist.

The primitive skeleton may be the oldest ever found on this continent, Steward said in a Smithsonian report. The remains were those of a youngster less than a year old whose body was buried in the gravel of the cave from 5,000 to 12,000 years ago, he said.

The bones were so immature that even modern experts could not ascertain the sex of the baby.

Fill History Blank

The skeleton is a true "missing link" in that it fills a blank in the history of America about which archaeologists previously have striven to guess. It represents a culture between the basket makers, the late peoples of which science has a fairly complete picture, and the so-called Folsom men.

Folsom men, the oldest known Americans, are noted for their unique double-headed arrow heads. Despite a decade of the most vigorous searching, scientists have been unable to find any of their skeletons.

Lived Near Lake

Steward believes that these early Americans lived near the great Salt Lake because the shrinking of that large body of water after the last ice age still says in the banks. Primitive families, seeking shelter where they could, took to these natural homes almost as soon as they were dry. Steward found that charcoal was mixed with the very top layer of the lake gravel, indicating that little time, if any, lapsed after the lake receded until human beings occupied the caves.

The cave in which the skeleton was found is now 364 feet above the lake level. This gave scientists their most valid clues in computing the age of the child.

Our Jobs Part of the Whole

The business world wants the small liberal arts college to supply it with "men who are citizens first and business men second."

Dr. Luther A. Harr, Pennsylvania state secretary of banking, made this remark before some 600 educators who had gathered at Muhlenberg college the other day for an academic symposium. He went on to expand his statement by saying that the business world needs men with these qualifications:

"Men with an awareness of the pressing problems of our distressed world; men with the desire to grapple with the most dangerous and difficult issues; men with enough historical background not to be deluded by the strens of Fascism or the vigorous claims of Communism; men who realize that business is not the be-all and end-all of life, but a part of a larger whole."

All of which shapes up to quite a set of specifications. It is much like telling the colleges: "We need a smarter and more altruistic set of human beings—won't you please start grinding them out?" It is a good trick if the colleges can do it.

And yet something along the line of what Mr. Harr is asking for is very greatly needed—not only in the whole world of business, but in all other walks of life as well. For we are under the necessity nowadays, more than ever before, to realize that all of us Americans are in the same boat together, and that we can't drift our way out of our troubles, and that we need something more than a mere application to the problems of our own bread and butter.

Life has grown almost unimaginably complex in this modern world. The national welfare depends on the mutual adjustment of an infinite number of individual selfish desires—which boil down, in the end, to the varying ways in which each of us tries to get as many of the good things of life as he can possibly lay his hands on.

Our success, or lack of it, in that age-old human quest depends largely on the sort of country we have—its degree of prosperity, its ability to evolve policies that will keep the economic machine working, its readiness to remove disabilities from the shoulders of the unfortunate. And yet these things, in their turn, grow out of the way in which we as individuals go about the business of earning a living.

We are all links in a chain which describes an endless circle. No trade, business or profession can settle its problems without reference to the larger whole. It is hardly going too far to say that our national future depends on our ability to see our personal concerns in their relation to the national picture. If the colleges can help us to do this, then more power to them.

Not Invincible

For a good many years now we have heard a lot about the mighty naval and military machine which the Japanese have built for themselves. But one who studies the current news from China is apt to feel that this machine is a little less irresistible than advance reports indicated.

The Japanese have been outnumbered in China, to be sure—but they were supposed to be enormously superior in material, training and leadership, things which are of supreme importance in this age of mechanized warfare. Yet their Shanghai attack has obviously bogged down, and their drive through North China has been far from meeting its expected success. Furthermore, their great superiority in the air has not won them anything like the advantages one would have supposed.

"Is it going too far to suggest that the Japanese 'colossus' is a good deal less siveiny and robust than everybody thought it was?"

Heading off Fascism

It begins to be quite apparent that the capital city of the British empire is not a favorable breeding-ground for Fascism.

At various times in the past, Sir Oswald Mosley's Fascists have sought to demonstrate their strength by parading in London's streets, and each time the populace has handled them rather roughly. The most recent attempt brought the British black shirts their worst drubbing to date, with 100,000 citizens pouring out to drive them from the streets.

Such as one must deplore violence, rioting and the like, it is hard to avoid the feeling that these Londoners have a fairly sound idea of the way to choke off fascism. Sir Oswald will have trouble impressing any other organization's strength as long as the London crowds show their disapproval in such an unambiguous manner.

When we were wondering what had become of the "pops up as one of the New York Giants"

BOISE—Declaring that business in Twin Falls is on the upgrade, Shad L. Hodgins of Twin Falls, attending the Republican party caucus at Boise today, talked informally but earnestly with neighboring groups of Boise business men. Hodgins was both to discuss political subjects but was loud in his praise for his home city and country. He said in part:

"Our country has bumper crops, which represent the real cause of our being larger or better in quality. The yield of beans has been reduced by the four corners, but the yield of the corn and of 25 to 27 is the normal yield for other states. The seed crop is equally as good. We will average 40 bushels to the acre also. The prices for beans and seed are fair, but potatoes and wheat are pretty low. In fact, every enormous crop the farmers will not get as much money as formerly."

The first charter that has been issued by the American Federation of Labor in southern Idaho was granted under date of Sept. 23, to the Twin Falls Trades Assembly, which has been located in the city office, all the trades unions in Twin Falls. Such a move is significant, for it means that now the local organizations enjoy the privileges attendant upon the gaining of a charter from the largest organization for labor in the world.

Dolan stood in the living room, taking in the situation. "You're home," Cilly yelled. "Hello, Mr. Perry. This is Sergeant Dolan, from police headquarters. Mr. and Mrs. Perry are my next door neighbors, sergeant."

Dolan acknowledged the introduction with a brief nod. "Oh, yes, it is just too horrible for you, my dear," Mrs. Perry went on. "And to have that fellow in the minute your young man was called away..."

Cilly leaned helplessly against the wall while Dolan proceeded to give orders over the telephone to trace Jim's call. Jim had phoned from the Pennsylvania Hotel. The operator verified that. He could get out and disappear into the subway in 30 seconds. She felt a little pleasure at having outwitted Dolan. It was so sure that she was right. He was going to turn her in. What did he matter to her that he was reading an innocent man to jail; to the... to the electric chair? For the first time, Cilly caught the full significance of what Jim was facing. She held her breath as a new terror seized her.

Dolan was arresting her. There would be nobody to carry on for Jim... nobody to watch the Hunter man, or Harvey Ames... nobody to check on Caruthers who also came from Utah. Dolan would forget all that.

Suddenly she faced Dolan, her eyes burning with indignation and terror and despair.

"Why are you so determined to accuse Jim? What about Harvey Ames? He had every opportunity and just as good a motive. What about Hunter? There are a dozen angles that you refuse to consider." Dolan frowned in annoyance.

There were voices in the outer hallway. Cilly recognized them. A second later, her bell rang.

"K. Answer it," Dolan ordered.

Cilly opened the door to admit Mr. and Mrs. Perry, who lived next door in Apartment 1-B.

"Hello, Cilly," a friendly little woman, held both hands out to Cilly in a motherly gesture. "You poor dear," she murmured. "We only heard about it today. I'm so terribly, terribly sorry."

thing Roosevelt hoped was that his own strong speech and the government's subsequent condemnation of Japan might have been enough to pick their way carefully through an assortment of situations which, there is good reason to believe, the President had almost as confused about the future as the next fellow.

The future seems a bit muggier than usual even to the most experienced soothsayers, and one observes a tendency here toward rest rather than glittering generalities and invective.

As to the international situation: Having abandoned isolation and stuck the national neck out into the Pacific, the administration shares the general wonderment over the question where we go from there.

As to the business situation: The acceleration of recovery has temporarily stopped and no one knows just when it will be resumed.

As to the political situation: It is far from certain whether the forthcoming session of congress will see some snappy action on the administrative program, or develop into a general dilatory row over foreign policy, the Klan and other issues.

1938 BUICK CARS OFFER ADVANCES

Engineering Developments in Style and Mechanics Feature Models

Four outstanding engineering developments, with major improvements both in style and mechanical design, are featured in the new Buick cars being publicly announced in dealers' showrooms throughout the country today, according to the Buick Engineering Company here.

The new cars have one of the most important engine developments of the past 10 years by which power has been increased by 20 per cent and gasoline economy bettered without increasing the bore and stroke and without changing the size of the engine.

At the same time, a starting new rear suspension, as revolutionary in design as the front action, and involving the use of coil springs on the rear wheels, has given new riding and steering qualities to the cars not heretofore achieved.

A new method of body mounting, by which body bolts are located in quiet zones, or zones of least vibration on the frame, likewise contributes to the riding comfort and effectively dampens noise and vibration within the car bodies.

A fourth major improvement is the new self-shifting transmission which automatically shifts gears and provides a gear ratio effecting marked improvement in performance and economy.

The new Buick cars will be offered in four series for 1938:

IDAHO WILL BATTLE UTAH STATE SATURDAY

Seven Major Football Teams Face Defeat in Crucial Contest

FAST AND TRICKY PLAY EXPECTED IN BOISE GAME

Pavkov, Smith, Belko Injured But Will Perform For Vandal Club

BOISE, Oct. 15 (UP)—The gridiron classic of southern Idaho—the fourth inter-sectional contest between Utah State and University of Idaho Vandals—was ready today for presentation Saturday at 2:30 p. m. on public school field here.

Ted Bank, Idaho mentor, and Dick Romney, Utah State strategist, said they were ready for the fight. Romney has been working up a passing attack, and Bank has been strengthening his aerial defense.

From all indications, it appears that the game will be a battle of the air, with Idaho trying to offset Utah bombardments with heavy line plays.

The Vandals have an edge of two to one in Utah State-Idaho standings to date. At the third game of the series, played at Ogden a year ago, Idaho went down to defeat.

But since then, Romney has lost a stellar player—Kent Ryan, All-American.

Razzle-Dazzle Stuff Practice sessions held by Idaho have indicated that the game may see a bit of razzle-dazzle stuff. A trick single wing-back makeup of the Vandal squad is said by scouts to permit bothersome reverses, spinners, and laterals.

Idaho has put the tempo up by doing his deceptive stuff, but against Utah's scheduled aerial attack. He may permit the boys to cut loose.

Injuries to both squads were slight, the coaches reported. Vandal injuries were confined to Lyte Smith, center, Stanko Pavkov, tackle, and Steve Belko, halfback, all with bad ankles.

They made the trip, however, and will see action, Banks said.

Pep band performances and radio broadcasts were scheduled for tonight with arguments from both colleges participating.

Near Sell-Out A near sell-out in advance sales was reported at ticket booths.

Before the game Saturday, the Vandals will be presented with a football autographed by Wallace Henry, screen actor who adapted the "orphans of the conference" and by Governor Barzilla Clark.

Sportsmen Outline Fish, Game Program

Frontier Plans Include Everything from Help for Beavers to Youth Education

Program that would include everything from the protection of beavers to the education of children in the propagation of wildlife was under consideration today following a meeting of the Frontier club of Idaho in the rooms of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce last night.

Seven speakers reported progress of committees during the summer months, and outlined plans for the coming year's work.

The problem of protection for beavers to aid in the preservation of fish, to increase vegetation, and to help irrigation, was brought up by State Game Warden W. R. McIntyre.

"We need your aid," he stated, "if the beaver is to remain of any help to Idahoans. Right now, anyone that asks for a permit to hunt the animal can come to my office and have to give it to him. What we want is some new legislation that will halt the slaughter of the beaver."

As the principal speaker on the program he also talked on the pleasant propagation, fish streams and big game hunting.

Other speakers of the evening included John Beaumont of Sun Valley lodge; State Senator Dick Admonson of Blaine county; Charles J. Dougherty, assistant supervisor of the Sawtooth national forest; Harry Barton, secretary-manager of the E. B. Moore, forest supervisor of the Sawtooth national forest; and G. Curtis Price, supervisor of the Minidoka national forest.

The possibility of installing fish screens at the headwaters of all canals was discussed by Mr. Beaumont.

"The loss of fish in irrigation ditches is an unknown percentage," he stated, "but it is known to be high. If we are going to have fish planted in our streams we should first see that there are screens on all canal intakes to keep the fish from ending up in somebody's alfalfa field."

He stated the cost of the screens would be about $250 for an eight-foot size, $100 for the four-foot size. This cost appeared to be the thing that is mainly holding back the installation, as it was announced that it would take about 500 acres to take care of the Wood River irrigation district alone.

A complete description of the primitive area in the Sawtooth national forest was given by Mr. Moore.

SPORT SQUIBS

Looks like another tough week in the national gridiron circles—what with upsets the common rather than the rare things these days.

There are lots of tough games on tap, from coast to coast, and of the 22 undefeated and untied major clubs in the country, there can't possibly be more than 14 left with perfect records—and that's not counting upsets. Six contests will feature clubs with clean slates and somebody is bound to come in second best. These games will pit Navy against Harvard, Holy Cross vs. Georgia, Detroit vs. Catholic U., Pitt-Fordham, Army against Yale, and Centenary against Baylor.

Our choices are as follows: Idaho over Utah State, 10-0. Colorado to stop BYU, 25-6. Washington to down WSC, 20-13. Utah to beat Greeley State, 13-6. St. Mary's over Loyola, 27-0. Santa Clara to halt Portland University, 35-7.

Montana to defeat San Francisco U., 14-12. California to win over College of Pacific, 20-0; over California Aggies, 30-0. UCLA to trip Oregon State, 14-12. USC to stop Oregon, 20-7. Navy over Harvard, 13-12. Georgia to down Holy Cross, 12-6.

Dartmouth over Brown, 19-8. Notre Dame to slow down Carnegie Tech, 20-0. Tulane to beat Colgate, 13-0. Columbia to halt Pennsylvania, 14-13. Cornell to drub Syracuse, 25-0. Pitt over Fordham, 14-7. Duke to beat Georgia Tech, 12-0. Illinois and Indiana in 0-0 tie. Michigan to bow to Minnesota, 6-3.

Nebraska over Oklahoma, 20-7. Northwestern to down Purdue, 13-0. Southern Methodist to beat Vanderbilt, 21-0. Texas to win over Arkansas, 12-12. Wisconsin to down Iowa, 6-0.

Twins Falls Lumber sought to take the odd game and defeat Kimberly Teachers, 2-1, in the City League bowling match here last night. Idaho Power and Elks, who postponed their match, will meet tonight.

Bill Smith leads team in Nosing Out Teachers By Two to One. Bill Smith took all honors for the night, with 530 total and 209 single game.

After playing a scoreless first half, Coach John Flatt's Twin Falls Cubs pushed over touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters yesterday to win over the Bull Cubs 13-0 in a hard-fought game.

The Bull club carried the fight through most of the first half and had the ball in Twin Falls territory. But the second half had the story reversed as Max Croft sparked the locals to the win.

TRAYNOR HEADS PIRATES IN 1938

Pittsburgh Manager Retained For Next Season; Makes Deal For Outfielder

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 15 (UP)—Harold (Pie) Traynor today signed a contract to manage the Pittsburgh Pirates ball club of the National League in 1938 and also revealed his first step in re-building the club.

His first deal in re-building the team was the purchase of Outfielder John Rizzo, from the St. Louis Cardinals. Rizzo was obtained in exchange for Catcher Tommy Pham, rookie first baseman Bernard Cobb and an unannounced sum of money.

Playing for Columbus of the American association last year, Rizzo batted .258, made 208 hits, scored 117 runs and batted in 123 runs in 150 games.

After playing a scoreless first half, Coach John Flatt's Twin Falls Cubs pushed over touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters yesterday to win over the Bull Cubs 13-0 in a hard-fought game.

The Bull club carried the fight through most of the first half and had the ball in Twin Falls territory. But the second half had the story reversed as Max Croft sparked the locals to the win.

Hockey Season Will Open November 4

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (UP)—The National league hockey season will open Nov. 4 when the Detroit Red Wings, champions and Stanley cup winners for 1935 and 1936, clash with the Maple Leafs in Toronto and the New York Americans tackle the Blackhawks in Chicago.

Boston goes into action Nov. 6 against the Maroons at Montreal, and the New York Rangers open in Detroit Nov. 7. Last season to begin the season will be Les Canadens which entertains Chicago in Montreal Nov. 9. The schedule ends with three games on Sunday night, March 20, 1938.

LEWIS FIGHTS HEAVYWEIGHT DETROIT, Oct. 15 (UP)—John Henry Lewis, world light heavyweight boxing champion, tonight will tackle Lesford Castaneda, Spanish heavyweight, in a non-title, 10-round bout at Olympia. Lewis over Elmer Castaneda a 25-pound weight advantage.

EASTERN TEAMS IN STIFF CLASHES

Doson Major Unbeaten Clubs Take Part in Battles as Season Hits Peak

By LENIX AVERY NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (UP)—Eastern football reaches the peak tomorrow when a dozen major unbeaten, untied teams risk their perfect records in four all-eastern and two inter-sectional clashes.

While no other action can boast a collision between eleven with unblemished records, the Atlantic seaboard offers this list: Navy vs. Harvard at Baltimore; Yale vs. Army at New Haven; Fordham vs. Pittsburgh at New York; Cornell vs. Syracuse at Ithaca; Holy Cross vs. Georgetown at Boston; and Catholic University vs. Detroit at Washington. Dartmouth, 11th undefeated eastern club, apparently has a pushover against Brown, at Providence.

The Fordham-Pitt affair is attracting most interest because both are Rose Bowl contenders. In two previous meetings they have played to a scoreless tie. The Panthers, with one of the strongest nifties in their history, are slight favorites.

With Clint Frank, a super tie back, Yale goes the road over Army. Cornell rates too strong for Ohio State's Syracuse eleven, despite the loss of right-halfback George Peck, who had a vertebrae fracture last Saturday.

By FRED STONE

The lads from the Twin Falls Lumber company took the last game to make it 2-1 over Kimberly Teachers.

Mr. William Smith of the lumber outfit took everything on Bear creek—he had 200 for high single and 250 for the three-game total. He William got doubles in both his first and third games, four in a row and then a double to get his 200 second game.

"Just the way I'm going to get those peanuts," said Jack Kings as he munched 'em for doubles his first and third hits. Jack also got a turkey his last game. It all totaled 200.

Hifer and Ritek also doubled up their slivers. McReeley no so.

F. Youka was high for the Kimberly boys with 450. One double during his second game. Brother John got the high single for them with 164. A turkey for him.

CUBS OF TEROME SUBDUED DIETRICH

DIETRICH, Oct. 15 (Special)—A sturdy band of Jerome high school Cubs nosed out Dietrich's amateurs here yesterday by 13-0 in spite of a last quarter rally that saw Dietrich breaking loose in a final effort to overcome a two-fourth-inning handicap.

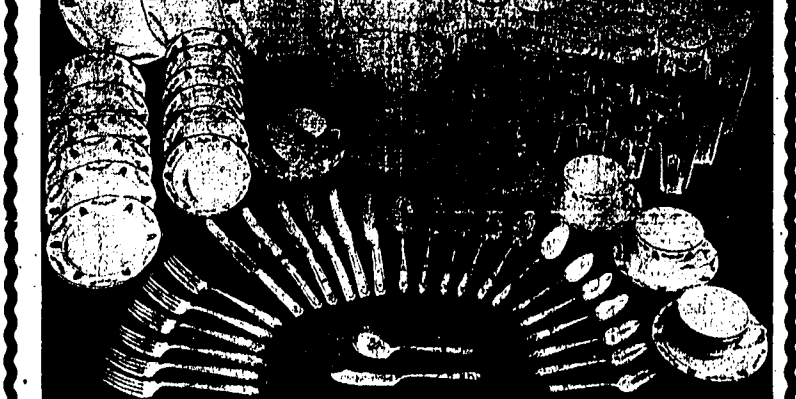

Both clubs displayed strong defensive ability and each held several scoring threats by its usual Jerome looks the best in the opening stanza by sending Bull nosers for six points. Dietrich tightened up thereafter and checked the nosers until the seventh when Jerome pushed over again and added six extra points.

Dietrich got underway to score once in the ninth, with Watson clanking up the touchdown.

COMPLETE UNION BREAK IS FEARED

Administration Heads Believe Wage, Hours Legislation Might Cause Breach

By FRANK McNAUGHTON
WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—Administration supporters feared today that enactment of the pending wages and hours legislation will widen the break between the American Federation of Labor and the committee for industrial organization.

In line with President Roosevelt's request for "immediate" action to shorten hours and increase wages of the "lowest paid labor," however, administration leaders in congress were determined to compromise with the Black-Connelly bill. They hoped, however, to avoid generating a major battle between the two rival labor organizations.

AFL Skeptical

The bill was passed by the senate last session and now is in the house rules committee, where it was pigeonholed last summer by southern Democrats. It need not be re-introduced.

The A. F. of L., which obtained important amendments to the bill when it was in the house labor committee, adopted a skeptical attitude toward it at the convention in Denver yesterday.

The C. I. O. meeting at Atlantic City, endorsed wages and hours legislation and demanded a job for every worker and federal licensing of interstate commerce business.

Both labor groups have endorsed wages and hours legislation in principle and John L. Lewis, C. I. O. head, has criticized congress for failure to pass the Black-Connelly bill. He charged that the Democratic party had failed to carry out its campaign pledges.

Opposition May Melt

Pressure upon southern legislators for a farm program, No. 1 objective of the special session, may melt their opposition to a wage-hours law. Congressmen wanting the Black-Connelly bill probably will attempt a compromise with southerners on the bill for crop control.

Chairman John O'Connor, D. N. Y., of the house rules committee, was ready for immediate action on the wage and hours bill when congress convenes Nov. 15.

Last session, the wages-hours fight bogged down, and the bill was revised and changed a half-dozen times. As now written, the measure sets up a five-member board, to be named from different sections of the country, to administer the law.

1937 Termed Successful at Dude Ranches

BILLINGS, Mont., Oct. 15 (AP)—Irving H. Larom, president of the Dude Ranchers' association of Wyoming, Montana and Idaho, said here today that dude ranches have just completed a successful 1937 season.

Larom, who was in route to Cody, Wyo., for the annual convention of dude ranchers next week, predicted a better season next year.

"Labor troubles in the east this year," he said, "cut down business activity and forced businessmen to remain at their posts instead of coming out west."

An unusually large number of big game hunters, however, are roaming the primitive areas of Wyoming and Montana at the present. Larom said he criticized the early closing of Yellowstone national park, pointing out that the closure completely bottled up the shortest routes of travel between Wyoming, Idaho and Montana.

He said he would discuss big game hunting, preservation of primitive areas in national forests, fish and game conditions during the dude ranch season.

ICC IS TERMED POWER USURPER

State Public Utilities Group Hits Federal Agency For Closing Truck Line

BOISE, Ida., Oct. 15 (AP)—The Idaho public utilities commission today charged the interstate commerce commission with "usurpation of power" in cancellation of a truck line between Boise and Atlanta, small mining community.

The I. C. C. suspended the truck line's operation, said to be only means of transportation between the two points until it obtains a motor carrier's permit.

The charge, made by J. G. Bruce, chief of transportation for the Idaho commission, highlighted a long-standing feud between the two agencies as to supervision of state vehicular transportation.

Present controversy centers on right of Claude V. Almandinger to haul ore and supplies from Boise to Atlanta without a federal motor carrier's permit.

Atlanta is situated in the center of Idaho national forest, 120 miles from the state capital.

DISAGREEMENTS ENDANGER PASSAGE OF FARM BILL

SHARP VARIANCE OF OPINION MAY BLOCK MEASURE

Sec'y Wallace Refuses to Be Drawn Into Conflict; Says 'Not Ready'

By FRED BAILEY
WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (U.P.)—Sharp disagreement between farm organization leaders, administration officials and farm state congressmen today threatened the early passage of a crop control bill by the special session of congress.

While there appeared to be divergent views on the type of farm legislation necessary, official congressional circles doubted that a comprehensive, permanent farm bill could be prepared by the committee by Nov. 15.

The differences were the same that blocked enactment of a farm bill near the close of the regular session.

Wallace Won't Fight

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace refused to be drawn into the fight. He said his department would not prepare a bill for congressional consideration. He will be ready, if asked, to give advice and "other assistance," he said.

The national Grange and the farm union are opposed to the emergency-grain measure sponsored by Edward A. O'Neal of the American farm bureau, the most powerful of farm organizations. Wallace approved the O'Neal bill "in principle" in testimony before the house agricultural committee.

Both the house and senate agriculture committees have been busy since adjournment gathering data on farm bureau legislation as the first order of business in return for administration approval of cotton loans.

Sen. Ellison D. S. C., divided his senate agriculture committee into two sections. One has been holding hearings on the west-southern hearings today at Louisville, Ky. The two subcommittees will meet jointly at Oklahoma City, Okla., on Oct. 27, and then will return to Washington to draft a bill.

Reconciliation Necessary

In the two weeks between Nov. 1 and 15, it is expected that a multitude of conflicting viewpoints must be reconciled to satisfy all farm interests.

Like in the last session, it was recalled, leaders of farm organizations, headed by the American farm bureau federation, proposed an all-inclusive farm bill. It was weeks before Sen. James P. Pope, D. Idaho, and George McGill, D. Kansas, finally introduced the bill in the house. Chairman Marvin Jones, D. Tex., refused to sponsor the measure.

In the meantime the agriculture department has changed the objectives sought in farm legislation. Last session's proposal sought "parity prices" for agricultural products whereas the agricultural department now seeks "parity incomes" for farmers.

ITALIANS TO LIBYA

NAPLES, Oct. 15 (U.P.)—En route to Libya to swell the ranks of the newly formed 20th army corps, 2,000 troops started boarding the S. S. Saganio at noon today. The divisions from which the soldiers came were not revealed.

West End Pushes Harvest; Buhl Construction Climbs

By BLAINE HOWARD
BUHL, Oct. 15 (Special)—The west end residents are going forward with their harvest, and it is a good harvest on the whole.

Some crops are light in sections, while in other localities the yield is more plentiful. There, at least, two fields of red clover that are now maturing their second crop of seed this year. These seed raisers say they have no cut and dried formula for pushing the clover, only that they cut the first crop as early as possible, then push the second crop with water.

Apple harvest is well started with a good average crop in progress but with prices a bit soggy. Sprinklers in the orchards as to price.

Lots of Building

There is considerable building going on in and around Buhl. Some farm houses are under construction and several business structures under way, such as the Shields and Cannon elevator annex, and a new number 20. Mr. Hopkins has over to a nearby vacant lot with his intention.

There are several streets being oiled and curbed in the residential section by WPA crews, while a new water main is being laid on lower Ninth street in the newly built up section of Buhl. Seventh street is being built up northward of the city, while numerous trailer houses are being put on under construction.

Some good modern dwellings are going up in the better residential sections, some with full basements being excavated in the solid lava rock.

New Sped Cellar

Jacobsons are building an enormous modern storeroom cellar at the southwest corner of town, while a good sized touring camp is being completed at the northwest corner of the town site. The new power plant below Gaiman falls has employed numerous men through the summer, with much machinery being un-loaded at Buhl by huge cranes and trucked to the new site. A new drug-store has sprung up in the corner of the Sport Shop on Main and Broadway.

The sunken canyon is still drawing staggering visitors from out of state and local, and the tin can industry are flocking in for the fall harvest. Many cannot find a home for rent, and are forced to pitch tents on coolies and vacant lots, thus creating another city problem, that of sanitation.

Wages Better

Wages are somewhat better than last year on the whole, the workers say, showing that farmers are demonstrating their willingness to be as fair as possible with their seasonal labor.

Many local hunters have reported getting their deer in the Sixteens since the season opened, and pheasant hunting fans are out in force now. Watermelons are still on sale and small boys' mouths still water for lemon. If it is a bit chilly.

Popcorn harvest is upon us with some good yields. R. B. Howard west of town, having the largest acreage heard from, has 70 acres and is debating yet the best method to be employed to harvest it. Combines can do the work if it is not too short stalked, while the old hand-picked method seems to be the surest way, but is too slow for the modern tempo and machine age.

YOUNG VIOLINIST WINS HIGH FAME

Leona Flood Appears Here Oct. 21; Proceeds to Go to Purchase of Field

Leona Flood, brilliant young violinist, will present a concert Thursday at 8 p. m. at the Methodist church, under the auspices of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Her coming is seen as a rare opportunity for music-lovers of this section.

Highly enthusiastic reviews of her European triumphs have been received as introduction to her first American-Canadian tour, part of which will be her stop in Twin Falls.

Critics in Berlin have been quoted as saying she has "no noble pose and astonishing surety. Must be counted with the important masters of her art" and in Copenhagen as having "big, beautiful tone, astonishing virtuosity and excellent musicianship."

Frankfurt critics reported that "the young artist masters her instrument to an astounding degree. The melodic passages have been given variations and especially her playing of Bach came out with soft and flexible tone quality—the Paganini was played in a very distinctive and finished manner."

In Milan it was said "with expert treatment and technical as well as interpretive details and difficulties of the works she played, the gifted American violinist, Leona Flood, was played in a very distinctive and finished manner."

Ketchum's Trio Startles Rupert En Route East

RUPERT, Oct. 15 (Special)—Arriving in Rupert Tuesday evening with their odd assortment of animals, a bull, two horses, and a mule, Ketchum's three cowboy musicians made a strange procession that attracted its full share of attention.

On Wednesday they were seeking a harness maker in the hope of being able to hitch the bull to a cart that would permit more than one ride at a time. Late afternoon, however, saw them plodding down the highway toward Coeur d'Alene. No changes had been made.

It was their intention to camp four or five miles beyond Rupert for the night.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

AMERICAN ORIOLES ARE NOT TRUE ORIOLES AT ALL. BUT A RELATIVE OF THE BLACKBIRDS' TRIBE. ORIOLES ARE FOUND ONLY IN THE OLD WORLD. HUMAN HEADS CONTINUE TO GROW UNTIL OLD AGE SETS IN. INDIAN SUMMER IS NOT CONNECTED WITH ANY PARTICULAR MONTH! IT MAY OCCUR ALL THE WAY FROM SEPTEMBER TO DECEMBER.

The American Oriole is named for its resemblance to the true oriole of the Old World, and is known under the scientific family name of Icteria. To this same group belong the blackbirds, meadowlarks, bobolinks and starlings.

TREASURY EXPERTS STUDY SILVER PURCHASE POLICY

WESTERN SOLONS ASK CONTINUANCE OF PRESENT BILL

Pact, Designed to Stabilize World Market, Ends on December 31

By SANDOR S. KLEIN
WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—The future of the government's silver purchase policy, a possible major issue of the special session of congress being studied today by treasury experts.

President Roosevelt's silver proclamation of Dec. 21, 1933, under which the treasury pays $1.75 an ounce for domestic mined silver, and the London silver agreement, designed to stabilize the world silver market, both expire Dec. 31, 1937.

Spokesmen of western silver producing areas today are urging continuation of the present policy. Determined attempts by the congressional "silver bloc" to organize support are expected as soon as congress assembles.

The president has authority to continue the existing silver purchase program through issuance of another proclamation. There has been no indication that the London silver agreement, which is extended, but understandings may be reached with the major silver powers.

Back to report.
The treasury's study, which may serve as the basis for this country's future silver purchase policy, was given impetus by the return from China of Prof. John L. Buck, treasury economist, who will report to Secretary Henry Morgenthau, Jr., on the Chinese fiscal situation as well as the silver dollar conflict. The United States has a separate agreement with China to buy silver from the Chinese and make gold available to them for currency stabilization purposes.

Buck made his report to Morgenthau late yesterday but declined to give either John L. Buck, treasury economist, who will report to Secretary Henry Morgenthau, Jr., on the Chinese fiscal situation as well as the silver dollar conflict. The United States has a separate agreement with China to buy silver from the Chinese and make gold available to them for currency stabilization purposes.

FROSH INITIATED IN F. F. A. GROUP

'Green Hands' Accepted Into Membership at Ceremony in High School

Initiation of "green hands" in the Future Farmer organization was conducted at a meeting held Wednesday evening in the agriculture rooms at the high school.
The meeting was opened with the general F. F. A. procedure and the initiation was then conducted with J. V. Briggs, instructor, presenting the bronze emblems which are the insignia of the green hands.
"These emblems are bronze," he said, "because the hardness and endurance has been used for ages by men who sought a good substitute for crude stone instruments. May these qualities of hardness and endurance carry you far in the Future Farmer work."
Green hands is the first degree in agricultural work with Future Farmer second, state farmer third and American farmer the highest honor in the order.
Freshmen receiving the green hand emblems were: Daron Berrington, Orrin Hills, Dick Hansing, Benny Howard, Bill Noble, Raymond Edwards, Byron Laughmiller, Herbert Rank, Claude Cowles, Ralph Bailey, Gerald Taylor, Howard Arrington and Royal Reams.

Suburban Churches BANKERS PLEDGE TO FIGHT DEFICIT

63rd Yearly Gathering Comes To Close in Boston; Adams Warns on Monopoly

BOSTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—Four thousand American bankers went home today, pledged to campaign against the federal deficit and the extension of branch banking beyond state lines.
The 63rd annual convention of the American Bankers association ended yesterday. Choice of the 1938 convention city was left to the December meeting of the administrative council.
President Orval W. Adams of Salt Lake City, Utah, called on delegates to convince their millions of depositors that continued deficits will curb purchasing power.
"We must stabilize such an insistent public demand as will result in a balanced budget," he said.
Adoption of a resolution condemning extension of branch banks beyond state lines climaxed a long controversy between country and big city bankers. It was aimed directly at the McAdoo bill, which would permit branch banking across state lines within federal reserve districts.
Adams, long a champion of unit banking, warned that a monopoly in banking would follow a discard of state autonomy.

In the City of TOMORROW
Pedestrians won't tie up traffic at Street Crossings
predicts NORMAN BEL GEDDES, authority on future trends
"By 1960, elevated sidewalks will take pedestrians off the streets," says Mr. Geddes.
"You will walk above traffic... shop at the second-story level... cross streets on conveniently located bridges."
"You will speed 50 miles an hour down Express Streets when driving 10 blocks or more. No stop lights... no intersections..."
but TODAY, 4 miles in 5 are Stop and Go
ONE STOP can waste enough gasoline to drive a third of a mile!
While traffic authorities are planning "the City of Tomorrow," Shell engineers have developed a fuel... Super-Shell... to meet today's driving problem today.
Automotive engineers use the term "motor-digestible" to describe Super-Shell, because at all motor speeds it is converted so quickly, so completely into power.
Your regular use of Super-Shell will save on stop and go. There's a Shell dealer near you.
