FEDERAL MEN SEEK CLUE TO PLANE CRASH

All That Was Left of Luxury Ship

The forward of the cabin of the United Airliner ship that crashed into the Uinta mountains is shown above. In the jumble of crushed steel and wood can be seen one of the many passenger seats that were tossed out through the roof of the plane, along with the riders.

One of 18 Bodies Tossed from "Mainliner"

A NEA cameraman at the scene of the wreckage of a United Airliner in the Uinta mountains, caught this sad shot—the body of one of the victims stretched out arms over ahead, as shown in the center of the picture. Most of the passengers were tossed out of the plane so hard that their shoes came off.

Barograph Seen Important Link In Finding Cause

Fall of "Mainliner" is Worst Transport Smash

EVANSTON, Wyo., Oct. 20 (U.P.)—Federal investigators waded through the snows of a mountain peak today collecting bits of wreckage from the United Airlines transcontinental plane "Mainliner" which crashed Sunday night, killing 19 persons in the nation's worst commercial airplane disaster.

The company announced that remains of the wreckage would be burned today after federal and airline officials have salvaged vital instruments aboard the transport.

The officials were principally interested in the barograph, a recording instrument used on all United planes—a recording barograph. If found reasonably intact it will indicate up and down movements of the plane throughout its flight.

The scene of havoc, 10,000 feet up in the Uinta mountains of northeastern Utah, furnished only slight hope that the investigators would ever learn what happened to cause the crash.

One theory prevailed. Pilot and Woodruff was an exponent of high altitude flying. "Mainliner" was 20,000 feet higher than usual when it crashed. It was necessary to clear the western mountain air traffic, but the engine malfunctions by his instructions and for any slight deviations from the route that might lead to a crash.

The fact that Woodruff failed to descend to clear the mountain air traffic had been shown forward by air reports of the storm at the time of the crash. The plane had been forced downward by air reports of the storm at the time of the crash. The plane had been forced downward by air reports of the storm at the time of the crash.

Four Bound Over in Liquor Case Hearings

Four men this afternoon had been bound over to the November term of district court to answer charges of operating "public nuisances" as the same number of preliminary hearings, two of which started last Monday, were concluded this morning in the court of Justice of the Peace Guy T. Swope.

The four, Y. Arrascaeta, Twin Falls, operator of the Blue Front bar; Eugene Conner, Kimberly, operator of the Kimberly Klub; W. R. Cameron of Twin Falls, operator of the Golden Gate and Henry Thomey of Bull, operator of the Midget bar in Thomey's cafe, are free on bonds of $700 each, the bonds being posted at the time of their arrests and ordered continued this morning by Judge Swope.

Arrests of the men resulted after a series of liquor raids the night of Oct. 2. The raids were conducted by city and county officers and all participants were called to the stand for questioning during the four hearings by the defense attorneys. Orr said Marshall Chapman, Paul Boyd, Bull, is co-accused for Thomey.

Originally scheduled to be completed Tuesday, two of the hearings were continued until this morning when Sheriff E. F. Frazier, out of the city on business, was available for questioning. This morning on the stand he told of the quality of liquor he had seen at each establishment and said it was being held in his office at the court house.

At the conclusion of each case defense attorneys made a motion for dismissal which was granted by Judge Swope.

Girl Violinist, 19, Goes Pheasant Hunting Here

By JEAN SPRAGUE

She has had the critics of the great cities of Europe; Canada and the United States at her feet, has Miss Leona Flood, 19-year-old violinist who is accompanying members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce on a pheasant hunting trip and she's an enthusiastic horsewoman.

If there weren't scrabbles and brief cases overflowing with newspapers from the cities of Copenhagen, Vienna, Milan, Berlin, London, and San Francisco, that seem to try to outdo one another in the playing, you would never think from her unassuming manner that this charming yet retiring young woman had established herself as a musician of the first rank.

Pioneer Learnings
Tall and blond, Miss Flood shows her Scandinavian ancestry in her features and also in her name. Her father, who has been a pioneer of artist one must build on a foundation of art which has included "pioneering" in small towns of her own country and other nations.

"Most young artists, she feels, 'have been hurried out by too much playing before the public as well as responsible for great interpretation of the great masters, for an artist can only put into music what he has in his mind and heart.' Her most thrilling experiences have included playing in small communities such as the well-known birthplace of the violinist Heifetz and Gabelowitz where the timpanist had never heard of three persons wanting three private rooms. The whim of privacy cost the group $15 for a single night because the rooms were arranged for 10.

Detests "Dead" Music
"Nothing is duller than dead music," she said. "You must have experienced life for your music to be filled with life."

It is to gain these experiences that she has traveled as well as to give generously of her art that she comes by preference to many smaller communities where other artists do not venture. Her first American tour which is to include appearances in both large and small cities is her first.

Born in Spokane, Wash., Miss Flood began her American tour there to win that most skeptical of audiences, the American, and being interested in the things of the world. She has been in San Francisco, and other coast and northwest cities to repeat her European triumphs according to the press notices. She is now working south with almost nightly concerts scheduled.

Began at 5
Her career as a violinist began at the age of five when her parents noted her musical talent. With no idea of starting her on a professional life she obtained a quarter-size violin, that's why she's a violinist and not a pianist, and each week made the 85-mile trip to Pullman for lessons.

When she was 11 the floods realized she needed more advanced instruction and moved to California where she continued her training as well as attending the Cammock high school.

Her subsequent study was principally with Dr. Demetrius C. Douglas, O. He has since moved to New York in New York and Europe. During the past six years she has been in every large city in the world. Until her debut in Oslo, Norway, Miss Flood with a single exception, had never appeared before an audience but so broad and sound was her foundation that even her stage

Featuring the DYNAFLEX ENGINE and TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING—In the Most Modern Chassis in the World

NOW ON DISPLAY at BUICK dealers everywhere

THEIR GAS TRAILER in the new Buick looks like any other. The wheel has a familiar feel in your hand. But under that long, proud bonnet is an engine unlike any you've ever known before. And giving silk-smooth loveliness to the ride is springing such as no other car can boast. What happens in the DYNAFLEX engine happens in no other car. Fuel is converted into tiny, flat-size cylinders—and the cyclompression that results makes gasoline give up more performance than ever before in any commercial engine! Matching DYNAFLEX power in importance is Buick's new TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING and the arrolite ride it provides.

Old leaf-type springs are gone. Each wheel has a soft, shock-smothering cushion of stout coiled steel. No shackles, no spring covers, no grease points. Nothing to go wrong, wear out or clog with dirt, rust, grease. Skid risks are bloodsily reduced. Rear tires last longer. The whole car handles more easily. Whether it's power you're after or matchless comfort and security, you'll want Buick this year. And with the DYNAFLEX engine and TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING you get half a score of other features. You can learn about them all from your nearest Buick dealer, now waiting to tell you the engineering "must" story of the year.

"Better buy Buick!"

Stakes on Far East Trade
There has been a great deal of toflop talk about our stake in the Far East...

Table with 2 columns: Buyer, 1936, 1937. Rows for China, Japan, U.S. imports.

Instead of windy generalities about such trade, the thing to do is to put on a pair of spectacles and look closely.

The 1936 figures are more reliable as a gauge for the future, because the increase in both China's and Japan's imports from the United States this year is clearly up in both cases largely to their demand for raw materials, airplanes for the Chinese, and scrap-iron and other similar supplies for the Japanese.

Taking the figures for 1936, before the present war, we find that American exports to Japan were exceeded by those to Canada and the United Kingdom...

Sportsmen Urge Game Commission Free from Politics

FISH AND GAME GROUP REQUESTS RIVER PRESERVES

Cooperation of Three States Asked by University of Washington Man

Conservation of fish and game, especially salmon and migratory water fowl, as well as a game commission free from politics and manned by "experienced" leaders...

Speakers stressed the importance of the establishment of migratory waterfowl bases on islands of the Snake river, a project now about half completed...

"One such project," he said, "has been approved and the land transfers have been completed. This brings the project to about the shore falls along the river. Now the next project, already contemplated, will continue the establishment of such bases from Shoshone falls to Hagerman."

"In each case food suitable for migratory bird consumption will be provided in some sort of natural protection. It is hoped that this will aid the birds in finding winter food and will encourage local hunters to encourage local last year," Cole said.

"The state president then opened an attack against politics in the game department, charging that it was holding up progress on the range program because no money had been started when game wardens were replaced so often."

"This securing of a non-partisan game commission is the number one project of any sportsman association," Cole said. "We know that the state's range program is getting ahead while Idaho is almost at a standstill."

"Cole took exception to statements made by W. R. McIntyre, state game warden who spoke just previous to the wild life president."

"McIntyre urged the establishment of a course at the university to provide means of training men in game management and hunting. I ask you what good would this do? Under the present political measures these men could not work for Idaho and expect to make a life here. They would have to seek employment outside of Idaho if they sought employment along these lines all."

"During the speech McIntyre urged greater cooperation among sportsmen."

"The organization of sportsmen is not founded on selfishness," McIntyre said. "The game department of the state is one which is sacred to sportsmen and to hunters that it will be kept that way. We must work together. No one ever won a major battle single handed."

"Following showing of motion pictures of the Columbia river, Fred Traister, of Seattle, member of the Trout and Game Club, and also the University of Washington faculty, urged an agreement between Idaho and Washington regarding the Salmon industry."

"At the present time," he pointed out, "there is little cooperation between the three states. In each case one is trying to outdo the other two in the matter of salmon fish take."

"To remedy this I suggest a tri-state agreement which would see Idaho buy two $60,000 trout hatcheries in return for absolute protection of salmon in Idaho waters. The other two states would have regular 'take' and would not exceed this. Some step like this would be necessary or the salmon industry will fall."

Other short talks were given by George Grebe, Kuna, regional director of the National Wildlife Association, and Roy Peck, Twin Falls, chairman at the banquet at the Homer M. Davis, superintendent of schools in Twin Falls.

Two Tame Games: Two games of baseball were played yesterday by girls in Miss Margaret Robert's junior high school class. Both games were won by a margin of one point. Noon 5-1 defeated 0-0 by 4-3 score and 1-14 won from 1-0 with 10 points scored by 1-4 and 3 by the losing team.

New York Commission Fines Braddock, Manager $1,000 Each

Joe Dinkelspiel, Pal and Partner of Jack Dempsey And Gene Normile in Race Track, Visits Twin Falls

By HAROLD J. WOOD

"No, I wouldn't say that horse players did bring me Mr. Joe Dinkelspiel yesterday. I would even go so far as to say that quite a few men make a good living doing nothing but betting on the ponies."

And who is Mr. Dinkelspiel? He is the most silent partner of Gene Normile and Jack Dempsey in the ownership of Agua Caliente race track—one of the best known courses in the world. And Joe was here, accompanied by his wife, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Kaplan, the ladies being the guests of the evening.

Dinkelspiel, who has toyed around with the horses and betting game since he was a youngster, got in on one of the best sports bets that has come up in recent years when he, in company with Normile, Dempsey, a former fight manager, and the Massachusetts Mauler himself, purchased the $2,800,000 Agua Caliente race track for $135,000 from the Mexican government last year. The government had some of the track built about the $2,800,000 Agua Caliente race track for $135,000 from the Mexican government last year.

"These Idaho riders that you folks send for to the big race tracks for the ones that certainly stand out. I wouldn't say that the top-notchers are any better than those produced in some other states, but the average from here is high," Dinkelspiel commented on the Gem state jockeys. "We've had some at our track this past season—but none of the nationally known ones. Wayne Wright has been racing at Santa Anita, though."

Because of the fact that the Agua Caliente track had been closed for two years, the future of the course was a bit of speculation when taken over by the present management. They had to sand which in their dates between those put out by the California state commission to the Santa Anita track and Bing Crosby's layout.

At the races this spring and summer, the biggest purse offered was $3,000 one race, and the maximum was $500. But the track runs eight races on Thursday and Friday, nine on Saturday and 19 on Sunday, so that purses can be easily seen.

"Joe stated, 'the week-day crowds will average 2,000 to 3,000 customers, and on Sundays we have on an average of 10,000 there. Of course, people were skeptical when we first started up and Bing's come, but now the crowds keep increasing. If business keeps up we expect to resume the famed old Coltrah (Agua Caliente) track, which has a purse of $100,000—one of the two largest in America."

"Yes, we made a little money last year. As a matter of fact, if we lost the plan today we would still be money ahead."

Crosby Dempsey

It also attracts many Hollywood celebrities. Before Bing Crosby opened his track he kept a string of horses at the Agua Caliente course.

"And all this stuff about Bing's horses keeping him broke is nonsense," said Mr. Dinkelspiel. "When he was racing at our tracks he won lots of races, and he has made a little money off his own track."

Some of the owners of the best horses in the country had stables there at the last meet, and Dinkelspiel, Normile, et al, are expecting to house at least 1,500 horses at the next gathering which is set to start some time in December.

C. E. Howard, owner of Seabiscuit, greatest money winner of the 1935 season, kept a string there for the full season, as did the Morgan brothers, Texas oil tycoon, owners of Helyar, Nelthorpe of the nationally known race, there, however.

Dinkelspiel, who used to run a cigar store in Salt Lake City with Gene Normile working for him as a bookmaker, has been a friend of Dempsey for many years and believes that he is the ideal model of a self-made man.

"You know, Jack couldn't make a speech to save his soul when he first won the title. But after he had accumulated a little money he hired a tutor, took English and public speaking now he is right at home in any sort of society."

"He is the ideal of every boy he ever met or came in contact with. Normile and I took him fishing in Wyoming one time and every town we stopped in there would be a flock of youngsters on his heels within 15 minutes. And Jack is just a kid at heart, too. He enjoys a drink and hands with the youngsters just as much as they do getting a glimpse of him."

Dinkelspiel was here to do a little pleasant hunting, returned to San Diego yesterday where he will start the wheels of the winner. He will, he would ask the district attorney to collect it. The commission is empowered to levy fines up to $5,000.

PAYMENT SET TO BE MADE DEC. 1

Penalty Ordered For Failure To Appear at Scheduled Schmeling Fight

NEW YORK, Oct. 19 (U.P.)—Former heavyweight champion, Jim Braddock and his manager, Jim Glick, have until Dec. 1 to pay fines of $1,000 each. The penalties were levied by the New York boxing commission because Braddock failed to appear before the commission five days before his scheduled title defense against Max Schmeling June 1.

Chairman John J. Phelan said that unless the money was paid before Dec. 1, he would ask the district attorney to collect it. The commission is empowered to levy fines up to $5,000.

Braddock was in Michigan training for his bout against Joe Louis when he was required to appear before the commission. Glick said the federal district court at Philadelphia refused to recognize a Madison Square Garden contract calling for the champion to defend his title against the German.

Gould also requested refund of the $5,000 forfeit, which the Garden appropriated and divided between itself and Schmeling.

Fight's Decision Is Enforced by Police

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20 (U.P.)—It took a police riot squad to enforce the referee's decision that Leon Zorrilla of Los Angeles beat Freddie Gilmore of New York in a boxing match at Olympic auditorium last night.

The 10 rounds of Zorrilla's game Zorrilla while ringers adjudge a sound beating, flooring the local fighter for a seven count in the third round and, when referee Freddie Gilmore proclaimed Zorrilla the winner, the crowd surged up under the ropes.

While the riot squad held back the angry crowd, four plain clothesmen escorted the referee outside to his automobile. A hundred spring fans followed.

Both boxers weighed 148 pounds.

SPORT QUIBS

There probably has never been a football player who has been 'toppy' for so many stories as Ben Hagerman of the University of Minnesota's battering fullback.

Nagurski never became as famous as Fred Gange for sensational runs, but to the average football opponent, he is generally conceded to be the nearest thing to a brick wall in the line of play.

Willis Smith, Idaho's gift to the college professional football clubs, tells of the time he tackled the Bronco in the game when he was playing for the Chicago Bears and Smith, a 140-pounder, was in the backfield after the game.

The line opened up, as lines after lines seemed to do when hit by Nagurski, and there stood little Willis, as if he were a matter of fact, a brick wall.

Well, I made a tackle and just bounced off like a rubber ball," Smith says. "Afterward, Nagurski asked me to make a life here. They would have to seek employment outside of Idaho if they sought employment along these lines all."

ART BOONE TOPS STUDEBAKER WIN

Toppled 606 as Auto Squad Sets New Match Record; Brookfield Victor

Paced by Art Boone's total of 606, Studenaker bowlers walloped Idaho Bowler's 510 in a new in Commercial league ranks last night—and set a new match total record in doing it. The automatic rolled 971 to crack their own former mark of 932.

Table with 2 columns: Bowler Name and Score. Includes names like Studenaker, Boone, and Johnson.

Another fable about Nagurski is of the time Kenny Brown, the former New York University star, was backing up the line for the Colliam boys as they played the Bears.

The Bears were battering away down near the four-yard line when the ball was thrown to Nagurski. Once T. Boone Bronco ploughed through the line, right over Ken Brown, across the goal stripe and into the end zone, which was at the end of the playing field.

Strikes to Spare

By FRED STONE

Studenaker really showed the Power company how—and how! Art Boone curved 'em down for a new member to the 600 club, with scores of 185, 217 and 205 for 605.

Mac Spohr, with 231 in his first season, capped the high single game.

Cap Emerick had a nice three-game total of 549, largely because his did of good job of picking up his spare.

Bob McCracken and George Buhler didn't go so hot although their scores helped set a new season record of 475 for a team total. Studenaker had the old record of 2,695.

W. I. Johnson was top for the Power boys with 311 to his credit. His middle game of 194 was high for his game.

Brookfield everywhere - high three game total of 2,232.

Floyd Harper, taking three-game best with 530, was the leader for the night. After he got away with the high single game of 219.

Anchor man Strain pulled a trick shot in the second frame of his second game—hit the 10-pin with his first ball and got none of them on that shot. He had pins all over the alley.

Wally and Hancock didn't go so good.

Lead-off for the lumber boys, Hafer was best for them with 503. Rick had three doubles. Art for Smith—was just plain Smith last night. You remember last week it was Miltier Smith because he got a 200 game that time.

Jack Kimes almost ran out of turkeys, one in his first, another his second. He just bowled in his turn the last game.

POCATELLO MAN HURT IN CRASH

Pocahontas, Oct. 29 (Special)—Donald E. Hurlburt is recovering from a head injury on his face sustained in a Saturday when the car he was driving collided with a station wagon that was stationary on the highway. Hurlburt, 29, two miles west of here, was accompanied by Mrs. Albert E. Hurlburt, his wife. The car was damaged.

CALLS HEAVY ON FIELD LABORERS

Requests for Workers Still Pile Up at Employment Offices Here Demand for field labor continued heavy in Twin Falls this afternoon as the sun dried ground made wet by heavy rains over the week-end. Even the rains, however, failed materially to affect the farmers' call for aid. At the office of the United States Employment service in Twin Falls this afternoon W. C. Williams, office manager, said there are jobs for all the best tappers we can get hold of. Demand is also active for apple pickers in this district as well as for potato diggers. With most of the potato diggers now needed on the north side, Williams points out those especially in demand have camping equipment. Number of apple pickers needed comes in 20, services records show. No estimate was placed on the number of best tappers required although it was indicated it would go well over the 200 mark.

Punctuation in Telegrams Now Provided Free

Now you can stop saying "stop." The word "stop," which has become so familiar in telegrams as the word "love," is no longer necessary. Punctuation marks and paragraphs will be sent free in all future telegrams. It was announced here today by T. J. Foster, local manager of the Western Union Telegraph company. "Notice of this change in the telegraph practice of the nation was given in a leaflet filed with the Federal Communications commission," Mr. Foster said. "In future punctuation marks employed in the text of domestic telegrams—but not in points outside the United States—will be sent as written and will not be charged for." To enable the public to use the telegraph with the same clarity of meaning and as freely, easily and fluently as in any form of communication, without having to ponder over the phrasing of messages to make sure that absent punctuation will be understood, Western Union initiates this change, giving complete punctuation service without charge. "Marks to be sent free are: the comma, the period, the colon, the semi-colon, the dash or hyphen, quotation marks, parentheses, the question mark, and the apostrophe. Messages written in paragraphs will be transmitted in paragraphs at an extra cost. The words 'stop,' 'comma,' 'period,' etc. each when spelled out in telegrams, will continue to be counted as a word and charged for."

HOOVER REPLIES TO BORAH BLAST

Ex-President Says Idaho's Senator 'Not Informed' Of Facts

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (Special)—Former President Herbert Hoover, replying to criticism of the proposed mid-term national Republican convention, said today that Sen. William F. Borah was not "fully informed" on the facts of the projected meeting.

Borah objected to the plan advanced by a group of Republican leaders on the grounds that such a convention would have no authority and would represent "just the views of individuals."

"There would be no better way to stir discord," the Idaho Republican leader said.

Mr. Hoover, reviewing the aims of the proposed congress, said in a statement that America faced a "national crisis" but that there were fundamental issues involved upon which "most Republicans could agree."

He said that the Republican plan embraced two distinct steps:

1. That a committee of "distinguished Republicans should be selected by the national committee in cooperation with Republican leaders . . . to draft a declaration of fundamental convictions."
2. That this draft should be submitted to the conference some time this spring with the hope that the party could be "reoriented to the problems of the times" and that a "solid front based upon ideas free of personalities could be presented to the American people."

Pomona Head to Attend Sessions

Jerome Picks Delegates to State Grange Meet

JEROME, Oct. 20 (Special)—Pomona Grange meeting was held at the Pomona Grange, with every officer present.

It was voted to send the master of the Pomona Grange, E. R. Brock, to the Lewiston State Grange meeting which is to be held the last of October. Mr. and Mrs. John Trenchard were chosen as alternate. A livestock committee was also appointed which will work in cooperation with the Associated Meat Producers, Incorporated, and will act as a central committee for this district. The committee is Carl DeVoe, chairman, Jim Fulkerson, and Jack Wheeler.

At this meeting Carl DeVoe gave a resume and an explanation of the developments of the potato conference which he attended in Chicago last week.

The Grange also appointed a committee to draft resolutions concerning the election of state officers. Miss Harriet Russell, Jerome county public health nurse, presided at the meeting concerning health work in the community.

'Sit-Down' Wife of Convict Becomes Mother at Boise

BOISE, Ida., Oct. 20 (U.P.)—Mrs. Eldon Clevery, 29, who threatened to give birth to her child in the statehouse unless her husband was released from Idaho's prison, became mother of a healthy baby boy Tuesday. The child was born in St. Luke's hospital here.

Mrs. Clevery had told state officials that unless they released her husband from prison, where he has served six months of a sentence imposed on a statutory conviction, she would "just sit around" the capitol building until she had her child.

The pardon board refused to grant leniency, and friends succeeded in having Mrs. Clevery enter the hospital.

Pilot Tells of Discovery Of Wrecked United Plane

Editor's note: Pilot Ralph J. Johnson, who led the first party to reach the wrecked United Airlines plane, in the following account describes how he tracked through deep snow at night to the scene of the crash and found all 19 persons aboard the plane dead.

By RALPH J. JOHNSON
United Airlines Pilot

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 20 (U.P.)—After ten hours spent in covering 25 miles of ground our party reached the wrecked plane shortly after midnight yesterday morning.

Starting from Knight, Wyo., we drove a truck about 25 miles, which is as far as the roads were passable for the truck. Then we walked about five miles. It was uphill all the way. We had a ranch boy, Wes Myers, to break trail for us. There were three feet of snow near the top, and it took more than six hours to make the five miles.

On Side of Slope
We found the plane on the side of a slope at the head of Hump canyon. It had hit the side of the hill, about 200 feet from the top, evidently in level flight.

The right motor was 150 feet ahead of the plane and the left one 100 feet in front, both covered with snow. If the ship had been pointing down when it struck the motors probably would have been with the plane.

Passage Split Open
The top of the fuselage had split wide open from the right side of the passenger door to the front. Inside there was nothing but jumbled equipment. All of the bodies were thrown out of the cabin except one, which was found in the pilot's cockpit.

The leading edges of both wings were damaged badly. We didn't touch a thing. Our only purpose in forcing our way to the plane last night was to render first aid.

When we got there and found that no aid was necessary, we returned to Knight.

The trip back was not difficult, but I was so tired it seemed long. Travel even in the truck was hazardous, because the roads were all but wasted out in places.

Appleton Club Has Completion Record
JEROME, Oct. 20 (Special)—The Golden Times club of the Appleton district, under the leadership of Mrs. Charles E. Otto, is the first Jerome club to show a 100 per cent completion, according to Earl Stansell, district club agent for south central Idaho.

The club, which was awarded the county honor club prize at the county fair, is a clothing club. Jerome has a good opportunity to lead the district in the percentage of completions, according to Stansell, if those who are still incomplete will finish up at once.

Clubs lacking only one completion at this date are led by Mrs. Targie O. Barker, Mrs. Wayne McCandless and Mrs. Faye Hayes. Others lack two or more completions.

The monster tree of Yosemite national park measures 208 feet in height, and is almost 4,000 years old.

BOARD NAMED TO PROBE ACCIDENT

Commerce Secretary Roper Announces Group of U. S. Experts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (U.P.)—Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper today had announced appointment of a special board to investigate the United Airlines crash in Utah, which took 19 lives.

The board will be: Miller C. Forsgren, aide to Assistant Secretary of Commerce J. Monroe Johnson; Bryan M. Jacobs, chief of air commerce bureau's certification and inspection division; E. L. Yuravich, chief of foreign airline inspection; technical adviser Jesse W. Linkford, accident analysis section, and special advisors: W. D. Hammond, chief of the Utah aeronautics commission and Preston Peterson, member of the Utah commission.

Yuravich flew to the scene of the accident yesterday with two other air commerce bureau airline inspectors from Oakland, Cal. No date was set for hearings.

ON SHOW TODAY
Seven Rows of Main Floor, Third Opening, Will Be Reserved.

Costumes for the all-school play, "Mamma of the Shrew," in the "seven downstairs rows" and the "five rows" in the "front" will be reserved at 50 cents. It was announced today by the director, Miss Elizabeth M. Hays.

The advance in price on these costumes was necessitated by the cost of the elaborate costumes and scenery for the Shakespearean comedy. It will also assure the townspeople of being able to secure a good seat, as the sides are to be reserved for students.

35 Costumes
Making of the 35 costumes which have been ordered from a costume house in Seattle, has been completed. Although the "Mamma of the Shrew" may be, and has been, in modern dress as an exception, the costumes for the Shakespearean comedy are in period. That is to say, costumes of the period existing between 1588 and the middle of the Elizabethan reign are more in keeping with the spirit and idea of the play. The play takes in dramatic, historical and educational value when presented in this fashion.

Typical example of a woman's costume is a light fitting dress, starched ruff or low neck, a lace collar, elaborate a series of ruffs, and skirts with ruffles. The lace caps were luscious and elegant, and educational value when presented in this fashion.

Body's Appearance
The chief articles of dress for women of the period, a close fitting high necked, ruffs or linen heavy cloth hose and heavily embroidered gowns at the knee length, were made in a variety of styles. Hats for the men consisted of high feathers and were worn in the clubs, were made of the softest materials, and were used as a shield in case of an attack.

SHAKESPEARE IS EXHIBIT'S THEME

Material Furnished by Noted Library Put on Bulletin Board at School

A Shakespearean exhibit is the feature of the Twin Falls high school bulletin board and is arranged by the junior and senior English classes. These students are now studying the tragedy, "Macbeth," and Shakespearean scenes of the school are represented by the all-school play, "The Taming of the Shrew," to be presented next week.

The exhibit material was secured from the Folger Shakespearean library in Washington, D. C., which was regarded as the finest collection of source material in the world on Shakespearean theater which occupies the center of the Folger building. This setting is used to produce plays as Shakespeare wrote them and as they were produced in England and that has been used to treat a sinus disorder of Franklin D. Roosevelt, jr., son of the President.

Small pictures from the frieze work on the Folger building surround the reproduction of the theater. These pictures are taken from works such as "Macbeth," "Romeo and Juliet," "Midsummer Night's Dream," and others.

Also in a prominent place on the board is a copy of Visshesh View of London, in 1816. This etching at the time of its completion was considered very fine and gives a true picture of London and its buildings during the Shakespearean period.

BUDGET BALANCE HOPE ABANDONED

Public Debt Hits New High Mark for Eighth Straight Fiscal Year

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—President Roosevelt has abandoned hope of a layman's balanced budget in this fiscal year and has recommended the country with alternatives of quick economy or higher taxes to bring expenditures within federal resources.

Mr. Roosevelt's October budget report confronted the nation with its eighth consecutive deficit and pointed the public debt toward a new $37,000,000,000 high mark.

Mr. Roosevelt acknowledged that the treasury's good credit rating probably would force the public debt considerably beyond the $37,100,000,000 figure indicated in this budget summation. But sterilization is rated a prime asset and available always to reduce the debt at its face value. Mr. Roosevelt's reference to good credit is intended to mean that the treasury would continue to buy all metal offered here at New Deal prices.

Trimming revenue estimates and increasing his spending schedules Mr. Roosevelt looked to a gross deficit of $857,000,000 on June 30, 1938, the close of this fiscal year. He estimated the second largest federal income in treasury records.

The net deficit, excluding $200,000,000 for statutory debt retirement, will be $657,216,000.

10 PATIENTS DIE IN TULSA AFTER USE OF NEW DRUG

Medical Association Says Manufacturer Attempts to Recall Medicine

CHICAGO, Oct. 20 (AP)—The American Medical Association announced that eight out of 10 patients given a preliminary trial of sulfanilamide have died at Tulsa, Okla., and that the manufacturer is attempting to recall 375 shipments of the medicine.

The association's laboratories began "careful chemical and physiologic tests" to determine whether the deaths were due to an error in manufacture, decomposition of the sulfanilamide in the presence of another substance in the elixir or the effect of one of the other components of the elixir.

Medical Sensation Sulfanilamide has been the sensation of the medical world during recent years because of a broadening field in which it appeared to be useful, and public interest increased when it was announced that sulfanilamide had been used to treat a sinus disorder of Franklin D. Roosevelt, jr., son of the President.

MURTAUGH

The Murtaugh school held a dance and box social at the L. D. S. hall Friday, John B. Darling and Alvin Schurka furnished the music for dancing. Money will be used for athletic equipment.

Mrs. Pat Cochran entertained the Pioneer Bridge club Saturday at her home in Idaho. Guests were Mrs. Clifford Evans of Blackfoot, Mrs. Emma Corman of Hasleton, Mrs. Loyd Davis, Mrs. Mabel Jeffries and Mrs. Faye Kendeke, all of Murtaugh. Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. Kendeke and Mrs. Louise Johnson received prizes. Decorations were fall flowers and fall leaves.

Seven-Foot Flowers Reported in Tropics

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Flowers taller than a man were reported encountered by Paul Allen, manager of the tropical station of the Missouri Botanical Gardens at Balboa, Canal Zone, on his return from an expedition into the interior.

The specimen was an Aristolochi, which Allen described as the largest he had ever seen.

"It is all right," he said. "This plant has a flower measuring 7 feet 8 inches from the top of the flower to the tail."

Develops After Elixir

"The elixir of diethylene glycol is itself not an indifferent substance. Its use is not permitted in food products because of the absence of any scientific evidence establishing its harmlessness beyond doubt."

Since the patients had been taking sulfanilamide tablets without ill effect over a period of two weeks and then developed the typical train of symptoms after taking the elixir, it is probable that the deaths were due to an error in manufacture, decomposition of the sulfanilamide in the presence of another substance in the elixir or the effect of one of the other components of the elixir.

Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal, made the editorial public prior to his regular reports in the Journal for the protection of the public.

He announced at the same time the withdrawal of the elixir by the manufacturer.

WONDERFUL PET PARADE WILL FEATURE 'TWIN FALLS DAYS'

Youngsters Will Occupy Limelight on Saturday; North Side Day Friday

10,000 May Watch Children March in Search for Awards

Youngsters in all types of costume, leading pets of varied and probably unexpected nature, will headline "Twin Falls days" here Friday and Saturday.

The first annual south central Idaho pet parade is scheduled for 10 a. m. Saturday.

W. A. Flynn, general chairman of "Twin Falls days," announced that the parade will be held on Saturday.

The parade on Saturday, "north side day" on Friday and special merchandise attractions in all Twin Falls stores for the two-day period comprise the attractions which had been arranged today by the merchants' bureau and the Chamber of Commerce.

Thousands of busy shoppers and pet parade spectators are expected to crowd downtown streets along Main avenue for the pet parade which will start at 10 a. m. Saturday.

The children and their pets— including dogs, cats, horses, ponies, guinea pigs, rabbits and perhaps a dog sled— will compete for prizes contributed by Twin Falls merchants. Grand award is a new high bicycle, with lights, green gun and other "kiddie" things. And after that come 10 other prizes for boys and 10 for girls.

Boy awards include boxing gloves, football, wheel skates, knife, flashlight, marbles and others.

Girl prizes will consist of dolls, dollhouse, roller skates, beauty boxes and other "girly" things.

Judges in the pet parade will be Mrs. L. A. Chapman, Ralph Carpenter and Mrs. E. C. Tracy. They will judge the competing youngsters and give out the prizes.

Prizes at 10 a. m. on Saturday will be given to the winners of the parade.

The parade participants will form at 9:30 a. m. at the Union High School, according to chairman Flynn.

At 11 a. m. the parade will start from Main avenue and the parade will end at the Chamber of Commerce.

Bridge Toll Refund Will Be Offered

With special merchandise bargains awaiting them, north side urban and farm residents will be guests of Twin Falls Friday, which will be north side day in the 1937 "Twin Falls days" fête.

North side residents are also expected to swell the pet parade entrants Saturday and to boost the throng which will watch the parade, but Friday will see added inducement in bridge toll refunds, according to W. A. Flynn, general chairman of Twin Falls days.

Shoppers from across the river, Mr. Flynn said, will have their bridge cost refunded for one way by stores at which they make a $5 purchase. Refund for both ways will be made on purchase of $15 worth of goods.

The refund plan applies to the toll cost for motor cars and also to the added cost for occupants.

Merchandise opportunities offered on north side day will range from apparel to farm equipment and appliances. Merchants today were arranging attractive buying specials.

Blue Triangle girls of Twin Falls spent Monday evening in the H. S. gymnasium rehearsing the grand and old fashioned dances for the Girl Reserve Story Book ball which is to be held on Thursday evening.

Miss Margaret Ebert served as director.

Cabinet members of the freshman-sophomore Twin Falls Girl Reserves met Monday after school to complete plans for the decorations and refreshments during the third annual Story Book ball, invitations enticed in a small brown book cover have been issued to all girls in the high school and to the faculty.

The Plier program committee met last week with its chairman, Ellice Janssen. Entertic and personal appearances were discussed as themes for the program. These may be presented in comedy skits.

Seasickness

ELKO, Nev., (U.P.)—Sickness on the desert that lost a workman his job, was reported here. The worker was employed on a dredge recovering gold from the Nevada desert. Water had been pumped into a small depression, forming a lake. Wind blowing across the pond caused waves, rocking the dredge, until the workman became ill and quitted because of seasickness.

Girl Reserves Magic Valley District

Recognition service with the Girl Reserve ceremonial was held by the two high schools at the Methodist church Monday evening.

Rev. E. R. Berg of the Baptist church led the devotionals and Miss Dorothy Hyde played the processional during the candlelight services.

Miss Ruth McKentim, district secretary of the Magic valley, presided during the recognition service.

Miss Ruth Grodeon was in charge of the arrangements and the two sponsors, Miss Maurina Alderson and Miss Helen Henriksen participated.

Circulars Carry Description Of Bills Paid in Ross Ransom

CHICAGO, Oct. 20 (U.P.)—Ten thousand descriptions of justice circulars carried to all parts of the nation today a description of the $50,000 in bank notes which Mrs. Charles S. Ross paid out in a futile attempt to secure her husband's release from kidnapers.

The department of justice asked to be informed immediately of discovery of any of the ransom money—$15,000 in $20 bills, $25,000 in $10 bills, and $10,000 in $5 bills. The department's descriptive circular contained serial numbers of all bills.

Men moved into the search in full force, at the end of a period of ultimatum in which Mrs. Ross gave the abductors their last chance to carry out their share of the bargain without molestation by officers.

The ultimatum expired at 8 a. m. yesterday. Within an hour the department announced the ransom had been paid. It was reported from sources other than the department that a representative of the abductors sent Ross' hat to Mrs. Ross to verify their claim, and that she demanded and received a specimen of her husband's handwriting before she agreed to meet their terms.

Ross was kidnaped Sept. 25. The ransom apparently was paid on or before Oct. 2.

Ross, retired greeting card manufacturer, was waylaid and abducted as he returned from a dinner engagement in Sycamore, Ill. He was 72, and under constant treatment for a heart disease.

ROOSEVELT ENDS FUTURE RFC JOB

Recovery Unit and FWA Get Order to Handle Only Promised Loans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—President Roosevelt today wrote an end to the active career of the government's two recovery agencies—the reconstruction finance corporation and the public works administration.

He told them, in effect, to shut up shop to all future business and to remain open only to those who already had been promised loans or grants. He expressed hope that many of those promised money will not ask for actual cash.

Mr. Roosevelt announced his policy in a statement accompanying the revised 1938 budget forecast. "I have determined," he said, "that no further commitments should be made by the reconstruction finance corporation, other than for administrative expenses, and that the money represented by commitments now on its books, which for one reason or another may later be cancelled, should not be used for expenditures on other commitments, but be completely cleared from the books, thus insuring the elimination of such potential charges against future budgets."

The pantomime was directed by Mrs. Alfred Kramer. Refreshments closed the evening.

PUBLIC SERVICE ACTIVITY CURBED

Removal of Stocks, Bonds in Custody Stopped By U. S. Power Commission

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—Hundreds of public service companies operated today under a drastic order of the federal power commission forbidding the removal of stocks, bonds, notes and other securities from their custody or the jurisdiction of the commission.

The commission handed down the order unexpectedly, stating that information had come to it that "certain public utilities" unnamed, were transferring their securities.

An investigation was ordered to determine if such transfers were a nature to "affect the adequacy of service performed by said public utilities and impede or prevent proper examination" of their books by the power commission.

The order also stated that "the action was taken to secure information as a basis for the recommendation of legislation to the congress," indicating that an enlargement of a nature to "affect the adequacy of service performed by said public utilities was impending."

Cows Look Suspicious as Business Men Enter in Milking Competition

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 20 (AP)—The cows looked at the business men and the men looked at the cows.

The milking contest at the American Royal Livestock show, an event for amateurs and politicians was ready to commence.

"On your stools," cried Mayor Brice B. Smith. "Get set, go!" Seventeen pairs of hands began to tug and squeeze, while milk sprayed and splattered, the milkers grunted, and the cows bawled and swished their tails in agony and indignity. Walter A. Hummer of Kansas withdrew at the last minute because he was wearing a tuxedo and both he and his cow agreed it was an inappropriate dress for the occasion.

City Manager H. F. McElroy of Kansas City squatted like a Buddha, appraised the cow's equipment and was going strong after two minutes when his cow kicked the bucket. He retrieved a trace of fluid and a lot of tankard but he stayed in the race.

It went on for four minutes, when the gun cracked and buckets were submitted for weighing.

The winner was Sig Stern, Kansas City investment broker, who used an approach-fencing system and an approach grip. His bucket weighed three pounds and an ounce.

Tied for second were Dr. Harry P. Parker, state health commissioner of Warrensburg, Mo., and Lloyd Hutchinson, Kansas City banker.

CANADA REAPS LOWEST WHEAT CROP SINCE '14

OTTAWA, Ont. (AP)—Canada's 1937 wheat crop, ravaged by the worst drought in history, will be the smallest in 23 years.

The Dominion bureau of statistics in its first crop estimate, forecasts that the harvest this year will be approximately 18,100,000 bushels, compared with 22,218,000 bushels in 1914.

The 1937 crop, although apparently 30,000,000 bushels higher than earlier estimates, will be the lowest since 1914 when a crop of 18,100,000 bushels was harvested from an acreage only four-tenths the size of the 1937 acreage.

The bureau said the drought damage in 1937, particularly in Saskatchewan, was the worst in the history of the Prairie Provinces, and the average yield per acre was the lowest on record.

Stream-Lined Robots Promote Haven to U. S. Stenographers

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—A stenographer's haven — where streamlined robots do practically all the work and bosses never play focus under the desk — was demonstrated here today.

It was the 14th annual national business show, dedicated to "efficiency" and the codding of office girls with a view to making more and better work from them.

More than 1,500 sleek-looking gadgets were exhibited, all "futuristic-modern" and all designed to save wear and tear on the working girl's nerves, figure and brain—especially the brain.

The devices, some of them so new they won't be available to buyers until 1938, range from a highly complicated and 90 percent automatic machine which keeps a record of 87 things at once, to an attachment that turns the pages of a stenographer's shorthand book.

Nowhere was the stenographer's comfort, well-being and capacity taken more into account than in the chair department. The chairs, most of which for continued seats and backs were guaranteed against rust-producing splinters, sudden collapse and that well-known tendency to slide out from under the sitter.

Another chair, for the boss, is guaranteed not to flip over backward when he puts his feet on the desk preparatory to heavy thinking.

Threatened Grand Jury Calling May Bring Critical Period to Idaho

INQUIRY FOR ALL DEPARTMENTS IN STATE FORESEEN

Attorney Gen. J. W. Taylor Says He May Ask More Than One Probe

BOISE, Oct. 20 (AP)—Political observers said today that with the threatened calling of a grand jury to investigate alleged irregularities in state government, Idaho faced one of the most critical periods in its history.

Attorney General J. W. Taylor, when the first installment of an audit of the highway department was near completion, said he would ask for "one, two, three, grand juries" to investigate that department.

Public Should "Know Why" — The state claimed that the highway department had illegally spent, either willingly or unknowingly, "tremendous sums of money" and that the public was entitled to "know why."

Latest developments, however, make it appear that the grand jury, which would probe the activities of that one department, rather, is to be feared by state officials. It is feared that the grand jury would be the result, it was feared.

Gov. Clark has not made any direct reference to purported reasons for calling the grand jury. He said, however, that "much of these alleged irregularities can be traced directly to the depression, when departments needed money to carry on their business."

An audit showed that during the administration of Warden Amos Abbott, expense accounts had already been overdrawn.

How About Your Boy or Girl?

Have you a boy or girl that might be interested in music? Do you know that music will occupy the idle moments of any boy or girl? Give them something worth while to do. Keep them in harmony with things which are good.

It's the idle moments when things happen. May we be of service to you?

How About That Old Horn?

Are you still trying to make music on that old worn out horn? The one that blows so hard, with the stiff hard action. The one that no matter how hard you try the tone just isn't there. If a good musician can't make good music on a poor horn how do you expect to? Trade it in on a new horn.

Look at the empty oil barrels that Pratt emptied in one month's time. He has sold 20 times that much oil since he came to Twin Falls 2 years ago. (Billings) Special every day is the reason.

Often people have remarked that Claud Pratt, especially his business, just like killing mice. Now Claud Pratt is actually starting into the rat killing business. I can't think of anything much dirtier than rats and mice. Some time ago someone made the remark about Claud Pratt that they would like to drown that rat in front of Pratt's place. He's after the smaller rats, including the mice. You can always tell rats from mice by the smell they make around the place. In other words, a rat looks like a rat and smells like a mouse. Mac Pratt's grocery man, is selling a rat and mice bait that is absolutely harmless to human beings, pets and poultry, but it will make an old mouse and rat get out in the open and run himself to death. When you find him he'll be lying with his feet in the air, with his tongue sticking out and he'll never send his collar to the laundry any more. You people that have rats and mice as bad as Claud Pratt does, jump in your car, drive down in front of Pratt's place, honk your horn three times, drive out a quarter and we will give you 15 individual baits that are capable of killing at least a bushel of mice and perhaps 10 to 20 rats, but won't kill you, neither your pet, nor your dog, nor your cat. This way you can get rid of your rats and mice and let us show you how much lower our prices are on the business badge tires and tubes than even mail-order houses. People are buying tires here so fast that it's really hard sometimes for us to walk on the public and over in our lumber yard across

Eliminate CHAINS with Firestone Ground Grip Tires

The greatest traction tire ever built. Deep, thick bars of rubber dig into the softest roads and pull through where other tires with chains get stuck. The patented tread and continuous design prevent bumping on smooth roads. Buy a set today at our low price and drive safely and surely this winter.

CHANGE TO Winter LUBRICANTS

Firestone Specified Lubrication guarantees proper winter oils and greases. Summer lubricants become thick and gummy during cold weather causing stiff gears — poor lubrication and extra drain on the motor due to the fact that it takes more power to start the battery when the oil is thick. Change to winter lubricants today and eliminate repair bills.

U.S. Official Announces Plan For Work in 4 Counties Among Children

Complete survey of school children relative to immunization status is underway at the present time in Twin Falls, Cassia, Jerome and Blaine counties. It was announced here this afternoon by Dr. H. L. McMartin, director of the district health unit.

The work, Dr. McMartin pointed out, points toward a program of immunization against common communicable diseases in these areas. Tentative plans for the program have been completed for this work in Twin Falls county where it is to be started in the near future.

Three Other Counties

Arrangements are being made at the present time in the other three counties under the direction of the medical profession aided by the public health nurse in each case.

More than 3,500 immunizations were given in Twin Falls county alone last year, records show, through facilities of the medical professionals and the health unit. Over 1,000 immunizations against smallpox and typhoid fever have been given here this year to date.

"Much of the success of the program the past year has been due to the cooperation of the medical group and the parents of the school children," Dr. McMartin said.

Number Increases

"Interest has been shown in this work as evidenced by the increasing number of those of pre-school age who are receiving the protection against smallpox and diphtheria. Since these two conditions are more severe in babies and youngsters, protection while young is very important.

"All babies ought to be immunized against these two illnesses before they are a year of age. With facilities available from all family physicians there is no need for any child to go unprotected at this time."

VIRGINIAN WINS FARMER AWARD

21-Year-Old Youth Given Honor as 'Star,' Gets $300 Cash

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 20 (U.P.)—Twenty-one-year-old Robert Lee Bristow, who took over his parent's debt-ridden Virginia farm when they died five years ago and made it pay, won the $300 war farmer award at the American Royal Livestock show.

The award is one of the top prizes for the 143,000 rural youths of the future Farmers of America. It went to Bristow for achievement with his Galuda, Va., tract of 203 acres.

When his parents died, Bristow relinquished the farm and ultimately bought it in his own name. Today, under his management, cash sales from products will exceed $1000 annually. The farm, worth $2,000 when he acquired it, now is valued at $2,500.

SPUD PLAN TOLD TO JEROME MEN

JEROME, Oct. 20 (Special)—At the special potato meeting called at the court rooms Saturday night in the interest of local growers, Carl De Voo, one of a committee of delegates who attended the potato conference held in Chicago last week, presented the growers with the proceedings of the meet in Chicago and gave an explanation of the potato marketing program which is now in effect.

This program is a plan by which all culls will be eliminated from the market. The growers are to hold a part of their No. 2 potatoes and will be reimbursed for those withheld. In other words, the government plans to give the market all it needs but not to over supply it. It is the cause of lowering of prices of potatoes.

It was brought out at the meeting that a cull potato is worth as much in equal weight as to food value as corn stlage.

BIDS RECEIVED

JEROME, Oct. 20 (Special)—Bids on Black Locust seed, 25,000 pounds, were rejected by the soil conservation service. It was announced by the Southern Idaho county marketing association. Firms protested that the bids had not been advertised. New bids will be received and opened at Spokane, Wash., on Oct. 23, the Jerome county agent announced Saturday.

Buhl Men Fined in Jerome Court Cases

JEROME, Oct. 20 (Special)—Three Buhl men were brought before Heber N. Fullman, probate court judge Monday afternoon, after being arrested by Deputy Sheriff Paul Smith. They were brought into court by Sheriff James Harris and were fined each $5 and a court costs for being drunk and disorderly. The men were Jack Fynn, Myrd Clark, and Charles Charlton, all residing at Buhl.

Petition Urges Amelia Earhart Be Ruled Dead

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20 (U.P.)—A petition to have Amelia Earhart legally dead was on file in Probate court today.

The famed woman flyer's husband, George Palmer Putnam, asked for appointment as trustee of Miss Earhart's estate, which was listed as "deceased" in the probate court and real estate of unincorporated value.

Putnam explained that his wife had communicated with him on her way to her last flight, but had failed to reach Howland island, was still missing despite an extensive search of the area.

Los Angeles County Judge Fred Brown, however, is of her world and has ruled that she is still alive. He is presently set for the Probate court.
