NEUTRALITY LAW SEEN AS BARRIER TO 'QUARANTINE'

Four Suggestions Made to Apply Pressure on China Invaders

By WALLACE CARROLL
BRUSSELS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Any international effort for concerted action to halt Japan's war on China is unlikely to succeed because the United States is unlikely to modify its neutrality law, diplomatic sources said at the far eastern source conference asserted today.

Fifteen nations have pledged themselves to consider such action. The 15-nation far eastern conference was in recess for one week. The prevailing opinion was that congress would not permit the United States to join other powers in a "quarantine" of Japan.

May Adjourn Indefinitely
In event congress takes no action to modify the act, it was said, the conference will reconvene next Monday probably to adopt a resolution recording its decision to adjourn indefinitely.

The conference, overriding Italy's attempted veto, approved yesterday a strongly worded declaration censuring Japan's action in China. The United States, Great Britain, France, Belgium, Canada, China, South Africa, Australia, Bolivia, India, Mexico, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Portugal and Russia approved the declaration. Denmark, Norway and Sweden abstained.

Four Suggestions

Four suggestions have been made to put "pressure" upon Japan:

1. The Chinese two-way plan—arms, munitions and credits for China and economic penalties against Japan.
2. A plan discussed by the United States, British and French delegates to fight her own struggle.
3. The Australian plan for a boycott of Japanese goods.
4. A suggestion attributed to the United States—re-affirmation of the Stimson non-recognition doctrine as a warning to Japan that her conquests will not be recognized by the other powers.

Cantor Stars in Hit at Orpheum

Fun-making Eddie Cantor and Twentieth-Century-Fox have combined their talents for the first time and go to town as the comedy king, screen, stage and radio stars in a fine comedy-musical entertainment, "All Baba Goes to Town," with Tony Martin, Roland Young, June Lang, Louise Rooker and a tremendous cast, which opens a four day engagement at the Orpheum theater tomorrow.

The creators of "You Can't Have Everything," "Thin Ice" and "Wake Up and Live" set the sky as the limit to give Eddie Cantor the pleasure that is said to top everything he has ever done, and marks the beginning of a new and important phase in his brilliant career.

This comedy is a side-splitting political satire that takes good-natured cracks at the New Deal, with Cantor in the role of a budget-balancer in Baghdad.

Just in case you are walking downtown in the not too distant future and hear a whistle, don't think it's your best friend or even a creditor calling.

Inspector Waldrop said slowly: "Routine. But necessary. You understand?"

"Miss Dexter, please awaken my sister," Jack spoke briefly.

He became aware that Miss Dexter's usually expressionless countenance was working with emotion...

When she made no move to leave, he turned to the girl.

"Do you make the girl doesn't know her own father?" Inspector Waldrop stopped in sheer astonishment.

"We thought it was kinder to wait, your mother the shock?"

Jack walked away, Miss Dexter got to her feet and patpered after him.

Jack whirled. "Then you were trying to tell me something?"

"Oh yes, Mr. Jack. You see, Miss Jill isn't in her room."

"You're sure?"

"Yes, everything is in a whirl. She's gone."

He went back to the sunroom. "The secretary has just informed me that my sister went out early. Probably to some breakfast or other..."

He realized his words were falling from his mouth...

He saw amazement in his mother's eyes, a queer glint in Barry's and stark unbelief in Inspector Waldrop's.

Inspector Waldrop said gravely: "I might as well be honest with you, Mr. Westworth..."

"We've reached our destination," the inspector said, "We agree with Dr. Lockwood that your father died from a fall..."

"Mr. Westworth," Inspector Waldrop was standing in the door.

Inspector Waldrop replied slowly: "Routine. But necessary. You understand?"

"Miss Dexter, please awaken my sister," Jack spoke briefly.

He became aware that Miss Dexter's usually expressionless countenance was working with emotion...

When she made no move to leave, he turned to the girl.

"Do you make the girl doesn't know her own father?" Inspector Waldrop stopped in sheer astonishment.

"We thought it was kinder to wait, your mother the shock?"

Jack walked away, Miss Dexter got to her feet and patpered after him.

Jack whirled. "Then you were trying to tell me something?"

"Oh yes, Mr. Jack. You see, Miss Jill isn't in her room."

"You're sure?"

"Yes, everything is in a whirl. She's gone."

He went back to the sunroom. "The secretary has just informed me that my sister went out early. Probably to some breakfast or other..."

He realized his words were falling from his mouth...

He saw amazement in his mother's eyes, a queer glint in Barry's and stark unbelief in Inspector Waldrop's.

JILL absent! What could it mean? Why had she gone?

Inspector Waldrop said gravely: "I might as well be honest with you, Mr. Westworth..."

"But, we believe," the inspector continued, "that shock was the result of being struck suddenly by some heavy object..."

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON BY Rodney Dasher

This is the fourth of six stories on Congress and what lies ahead of it in special session.

(Special Session of Congress)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Reorganization of the federal government, which is the subject of conversation, seems likely to become a reality as the 75th Congress adjourns.

The best reason for thinking so is the fact that reorganization bills designed to effect a portion of the recommendations of the Brownlow-Merriam-Quilley committee of experts, carries an overwhelming majority.

The price payable to Congress would be the removal of a thousand of more government career men—men who are now being paid so on—in a process which would lay their jobs open to patronage.

And the price may be raised before Congress adjourns.

Stanford-California Game Highlights Grid Program

Duel to Settle Title Hopes of Alison's Club

IDAHO WILL ATTEMPT TO END MONTANA'S UNBEATEN RECORD

By HENRY SUPER
NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (UP)—The football pendulum swings to the Pacific coast this Saturday—the last big weekend of the 1937 season.

At Palo Alto, California's Golden Bears, unbeaten, but tied, meet Stanford in No. 1 game of the day. As stake will be the conference championship and a chance to represent the west in the Rose Bowl.

California will be favored. The Bears led the conference with five victories and one tie. Stanford is second with four conference victories, one defeat and one tie. Should they tie for the title, members of the conference intend to have to decide which to select to represent the west at Pasadena New Year's day.

Elsewhere this week's competition will be comparatively light, because many teams will rest in preparation for Thanksgiving day engagements.

Only two of the nation's five undefeated, untied teams will be in action. Lafayette winds up its season against Lehigh and Montana plays Idaho in its next to last game. Colorado, Santa Clara and Alabama are idle.

All the undefeated but tied teams will be busy. Fordham, after a week of rest, engages St. Mary's in its day's leading intercollegiate game. Yale plays Harvard in its curtain-dropper that will decide the tradition Big Three title. North Carolina meets Columbia, Pittsburgh plays Penn State, Villanova engages Temple and Holy Cross meets Carnegie Tech.

Princeton plays Navy Other games by sections: EAST—Princeton-Navy, Boston College-Boston, Harvard-Yale, Michigan-Niagara, Syracuse-Colgate and Army-St. John's of Maryland.

MID-WEST—Big Ten competition comes to a close with the following games: Ohio State-Michigan, Purdue-Indiana, Chicago-Milwaukee and Wisconsin-Minnesota. Minnesota, leading with four victories and no defeats, can take the title by defeating Wisconsin. Outside game pair: Northwestern-Minnesota. Big Ten champion, against Notre Dame; Nebraska-Iowa and Marquette-Duquesne.

SOUTHWEST—Interconference games in the southeastern division—Auburn-Georgia; Florida-Georgia Tech and Sewanee-Tulane. In the southern division, Duke plays North Carolina State in the only conference game of the day.

SOUTHWEST—Only one conference game—Rice-Texas Christian. Rice leads the division with two victories and one tie. Other conference games are: Baylor-Washington-Arkansas; Baylor-Loyola of Los Angeles and Texas Tech-Centenary.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN—Colorado, the leader, is idle. Conference games are: Colorado college-COLORADO State; Greeley-COLORADO Mines; and Brigham Young-Montana State. Outside games pair: Idaho-Montana and Kansas-Arizona.

PACIFIC COAST—Stanford-California game features the most rivalry of conference competition. Only other conference game is U.S.C.A.-A. on Dec. 4. Other conference games this week are: Washington-Oregon and Washington State-Oregon State. Outside games pair: 12, 13 and 14, Southern Methodist and Portland-Gonzaga.

Trojans Rest for Notre Dame Game
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16 (UP)—Coach Howard Jones of Southern California called off practice today for the Trojans and planned to resume preparations tomorrow for the Notre Dame game. Bears Practice for Game with Stanford
BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 16 (UP)—Coach Hub Allison ordered a scrimmage today for his unbeaten University of California team against the Bears brushed up on the plays they will throw at Stanford. The game returned from the Oregon battle in Portland in a good shape.

Reid Nominated to Head Golf Group
NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (UP)—Archibald M. Reid of the B. Andrews Golf club, Hastings-on-Hudson, has been nominated for his unbeaten University of California team against the Bears brushed up on the plays they will throw at Stanford. The game returned from the Oregon battle in Portland in a good shape.

Bruin Center Ill.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16 (UP)—Johnny Ryland, California at Los Angeles center, was in the hospital today with a cold. The Bruin physicians feared may develop into pneumonia. Ryland will not take part in scrimmages this week but may play Saturday against Southern Methodist. Backs Hal Hirschon and Walt Behle, injured Saturday, will be in shape.

Indian Broom to Run at Tanforan
HOLDER of World Record to Race in Opening Event of Season
TANFORAN RACE TRACK, SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16 (UP)—Indian Broom, Maj. A. O. Taylor, of the mile-and-a-half world record, was scheduled to come back to the track today to look over the opening day handicap, the inaugural of Tanforan's 20-day fall meeting.

Stanford Cripples Return to Lineup
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., Nov. 16 (UP)—Two injured players, on the shelf for more than a week, worked out with Stanford today. The squad today as the team prepared for its crucial game with California. Both Bill Willard, end, and Bob Dake, guard, looked ready to play. At Abilene, quarterback, and Fred Lederer, regular right half-back, were on the bench, the former with a sore injury and the latter with a cold. They expect to be ready Saturday.

ARMY MULE'S FAKE KICK BOOMERANGS

"It's a kick," the stands howl as Woodrow Wilson, Army punter, gets off a beautiful fake kick in the game against Notre Dame at New York. But if you look closely, you'll see that Charles Long, extreme left, scoots the end with the ball. It was just such a fake play that paved the way for Army's defeat. Wilson "kicked" beautifully but—

—Ryan carried the ball, instead of sweeping the end Ryan fumbled, and it was Notre Dame's ball. However, Ed Simulovich rolls in the end game with the Army 13. Ed Beiner makes the recovery above for Notre Dame—

—And four plays later Notre Dame swept to victory. The Army 13. Ed Beiner makes the recovery above for Notre Dame—

CALIFORNIA BORDER OFFICIALS SEARCH MAC FOR BOLL WEEVILS

By HENRY McEMORE
EUREKA, Calif., Nov. 16 (UP)—When a man reaches the age of 30 he is very grateful to find out things that are not wrong with him.

One month ago I increased my insurance, as a sort of guarantee that my wife would be able to bring a decent dowry to her next husband. The doctor, who thumped my heart, changed me in several delicate sections and finally pronounced me fit.

This made me feel very good. I said to myself "McEmore, you are a very fit specimen despite your youthful frivolity. You are of plump stock. You came into this world in a covered wagon. Your roots are the roots of the Redwood tree, which according to the alert California Chamber of Commerce, have existed since Noah overpowered his household.

Today I felt even better, because I passed the examination for my new California license. I had to pass before entering California. At the state line California has placed gentlemen who stop every car and subject its occupants to a going over more severe than was ever thought up by the best minds of Johns Hopkins, the brothers Mayo, and that fool guy named Locke, or something like that.

I can say truthfully today that my person is not contaminated with the boll weevil, the Japanese fruit fly, the Egyptian mummy moth, the Greek alfalfa pest, the Chinese ring worm, or the Mediterranean chicken pip.

When I drove my car to a halt at the examination shed—a wooden device so built that the rain and the wind whipped up the trousers legs of all who stopped—a bright young man in green uniform stuck his head in to my car, unknocked and said: "What have you got in all those bags you have in this car?"

"Well," I replied, "I have alfalfa, collars, drawers, glass balls, alligator eggs, sun glasses, high buttons, shoes and many other things, such as your own."

"Have you any pests with you?" the man in the uniform asked. "I gave my wife a sharp looker and she gave me back a sharper one."

"No I have no pests," I said. "The young man did not believe me. He ordered, in a voice that only a semi-important official can muster, to take everything out of my car except the carburetor. As I look it out he looked at it. He studied my golf bag as though it were something from Mars. He opened my Gladstones and rooted through them, an eager glint in his eye. I almost felt sorry for him when a corn bore bug did not drop from my favorite fawn spat.

God's Country
He peered into my duffelbags with a wicked eye. His face dropped when nothing dropped out but a bottle of White Horse and a Rhode Island hen which I am carrying with me to insure fresh eggs no matter how far I wander from civilization. Finally he gave me an OK card. With this card I am given the power to wander about California spending my eastern money as well as I am privileged with this card, to stop and watch Wallace Berry get paid for sweating, and Jane Withers paid more for being annoying.

In other words, I am in California, God's country, the land of eternal sunshine. Agriera prima gentis, and the Pious Square Gospel. (Copyright, 1937, United Press)

Orv Coleman topped all performances for the night with 599 total and 223 for best single game. Jack Kimes scored high to lead City league with 550 and a single tilt of 213. The lumbermen's win came by way of a scant two-pin margin in the first game, which they took 750 to 748.

Loyola Club to Leave For Game With Baylor

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16 (UP)—Loyola university, optimistic after upsetting Centenary last week and breaking a five-game losing streak, leaves tomorrow for Texas to play the Baylor Bears. The Lions resumed practice yesterday, with the line working on defensive plays and the backfield polishing up its passing. No workouts are planned on the trip.

HOYT IS NAMED TO HEAD A. A. U.

BOSTON, Nov. 16 (UP)—Peace apparently was restored today in the national Amateur Athletic union, which will be headed during the next year by Judge Samuel Eugene Hoyt of New Haven, Conn.

Unanimous election of Hoyt, a compromise candidate, was one of two peace moves at the 40th annual A. A. U. convention which ended yesterday. The other was appointment of a six-man committee, which today is carrying the olive branch to Washington.

There it will meet with like committees representing the national association of amateur owners on the question of control and supervision of Olympic teams made up mostly of college or ex-college athletes. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss a compromise agreement on the controversial subject.

POINTS WITH FRIDE

YELLOW SPRINGS, O., (UP)—Antioch College claims to be the first American college to employ a woman professor on equal terms with men. In the first Antioch catalogue, issued in 1883, Miss Rebecca Denney was listed as professor of natural and civil history.

Dog Race for Idaho Children Included on Winter Program

SUN VALLEY, Nov. 16 (Special)—One more opportunity for Sun Valley lodge was announced today with the setting of the annual winter sports carnival for Jan. 15 and 16. Included on this program are dog races, skating events and skiing.

Strikes to Spare

By FRED STONE
After dropping the first and second games, the Astoria Stars came back with a vengeance and took the last one with the high single of the night, 853.

O. Coleman led both teams with the best single game of 225, and his 599 total was just one point short of the 600 club.

High Boone turkeyed out to end his first game. He also sneaked over a double his last.

Bill Bailey anchored the boys—especially first and second games. He showed quite an improvement in his finale.

Louis Fulgiano paced the Laundry boys with 544. His best game was 183, and he struck out to end it.

Brother Al was just 10 points behind. His last game of 203 was high for the cleaners. Two doubles in it.

Art Wood made quite an about face compared to his bowling at Boise. He actually got a double his first game. So what?

Sprouts curved that ball around, in front and across the pins. At that he smacked 'em for a couple of doubles. I know of several bowlers who would have been proud of a 600 total.

Bill Ford isn't very large, but he was quite an anchor that last game.

It was all the Lumber company in the City league. Anchor Man Kimes, captain, manager, etc., was the shining light with a snappy 313 for high his snafu game. Five strikes in a row. 11 all added up to 535; also the top total.

Huber doubled out his second game. Rieke started off with one; in between, not so good.

Bradford, bowling in place of Joe Deiss, was tops for the Log Tavern with 310 for his total. His last game was also the best; double and turkey his last.

Despite a double to end his opening game in the dog-house, and a double to end his last game, he got one double his middle game.

HOWARD SHADES ROMELO
SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 16 (UP)—Jack Howard, Spokane, defeated Jack Rome, Chehalis, in his match bout of last night's boxing contest here.

HALIFAX LEAVES ON BERLIN VISIT

EDEN
A handkerchief shower was given by the Relief society Thursday for the members whose birthdays are this month. They were Mrs. Myron Beck, Mrs. Freda Jackson, Mrs. Ray Henry, Mrs. J. L. Hancock, and Mrs. C. B. Averill. Each of these ladies had charge of decorating a table and after the shower they served a two course luncheon.

By RICHARD D. McMILLAN
LONDON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Viscount Halifax, one of Britain's best diplomats left for Berlin today to discuss European peace with Fuehrer Adolf Hitler. Col. Gen. Hermann Goerring, his right hand man and other Nazi leaders.

It was believed here that the talks might be one of the most important developments in recent European diplomatic activities. Apparently in an effort to cut the rumors that the visit might be postponed, the government advanced Lord Halifax's departure by one day.

Richard Strain and his bride from Montana have returned to Eden. They will live at the Elms Chawver farm where he is employed. The bride is being graduated. Carlos Kniffing is in charge of the work.

Paris Rumors
Any such revision would entail complete cessation of the hated Versailles treaty from the covenant, and thus remove the league's present responsibility for enforcing it.

Overhauls Other Visit
Lord Halifax's departure overshadowed another visit of importance—that of King Leopold of Belgium to London, to see King George and to talk to British government leaders. King Leopold was to be the king's guest at Buckingham palace until Friday.

There are 4622 miles of railway within the boundaries of the state of North Carolina.

IT REALLY HAPPENED IN FOOTBALL!

BEFORE the "Praying Coynels" of Little Centre College, Danville, Ky., gained national fame by defeating Harvard in 1883, West Virginia at Charleston, West Va., "Uncle Charlie" Murray, known as a big league baseball umpire, was coach.

In the second half, Murphy, a Centre substitute, ran onto the field in a football uniform, but to a dismayed crowd and media, cloths replacing spikes. One play was called and Murphy charged his better-protected teammates. On the second play, he was on the field, caught a forty-yard pass from Bo Molloy and entered the goal for the touchdown that gave Centre a 24-0 victory.
