PLAN TO TAX GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES ENDED

Court's Decision Halts Attempt to Lift U. S. Revenue

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (UP)—A study of Monday's supreme court tax decision prompted the house ways and means committee today to abandon all proposals to tax salaries of state and municipal employees or levy on the interest from tax exempt securities.

Sen. Lewis Hits Speculators, Frickster, in Floor Speech

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (UP)—While the house ways and means committee was studying revision of the tax structure as an aid to business, Sen. J. Hamilton Lewis, D., Ill., denounced "speculators, racketeers and racketeers." He said that these men were seeking to create panic by "false cries about the stability of the nation's securities and its business." Lewis charged that some superior force was directing this campaign of criticism which was being put under pressure on the securities and exchange commission to liberalize regulations to permit watered stock and other frauds to be imposed upon the public.

Duke and Duchess Accept Tribute of Britons

It is a big occasion for the duke and duchess of Windsor, which probably accounts for the excited expressions that they had on the scene when they were taken to the camera in recent months. They are pictured on their way to the first social reception in Paris to the duchess since her marriage to the former monarch of England. When she opened the Jubilee silent Christ church, Neilly-sur-Seine, it was her first appearance at an English church function. Today the famous couple was backed by a humorous American organization for "king and queen of United States"—with Charley McCarthy, the wooden dummy, as the sole member of congress.

Mrs. Pruett Bound Over to District Court

Confessed Killer Of Husband Files Not Guilty Plea

GOODING, Dec. 8 (Special)—Pleading not guilty to a charge of murder in the first degree, Mrs. Genevieve Agnes Pruett, 32, was bound-over to district court at conclusion of a preliminary hearing here this afternoon before Probate Judge W. F. Cochran.

Mrs. Pruett was not called to the stand either by the prosecution or the defense. Her plea was made through her attorney.

The woman is alleged to have shot her 25-year-old husband, Robert Donald Pruett at Bliss the evening of Nov. 24. It marked the tragic end of what was said to have been a "family argument" of long standing.

Judge Cochran remanded her to custody of the sheriff. She was held in the county jail.

Prosecution and Defense Witnesses Take Stand at Hearing in Gooding Case

Prosecuting Attorney M. F. Ryan during the morning session which started at 10 a. m. First to take the stand was Mrs. Mary Pruett, grandmother of the slain man. In her testimony she related instances in the life of the dead man and also what she had seen at the shooting near her home.

DEBIT CLEARANCE DROPS AT BANKS

Low Farm Prices Reflected In $400,000 Dip Under November of 1936

Reflecting low prices for farm products, individual debit clearances at local banks for the month of November showed a drop over the previous month and also over the same period during 1936.

These facts were disclosed here today as individual check clearance figures for the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company and the Fidelity National bank of Twin Falls, were released through bank officials.

Individual clearances at the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company for November of this year amounted to $4,751,194.58. At the Fidelity National bank clearings were $1,822,525.25. The Fidelity figures disclosed a gain of approximately $70,000 over November of 1936. Bank and Trust figures show a drop of approximately $400,000 in the November, 1936 and 1937 comparison.

China Refuses German Offer Of Mediation

GENEVA, Dec. 8 (UP)—Sources close to Chinese representatives at the League of Nations disclosed today that semi-official dispatches from Hankow, the temporary capital, revealed that China had declined Germany's offer to act as mediator in the Chinese-Japanese war.

Contrary to previous Chinese denials that Germany, through Ambassador Oscar Trautmann, had offered to act as mediator, the dispatch said that Germany had offered her good offices to arrange an armistice and settlement of all outstanding questions.

"While appreciative of the friendliness which prompted the German government to make this proposal," the note added, "the Chinese government declines the offer of mediation unless Japan shows sincerity in respecting China's territorial and administrative integrity."

IN THE DAY'S PARADE

Marital Mixup

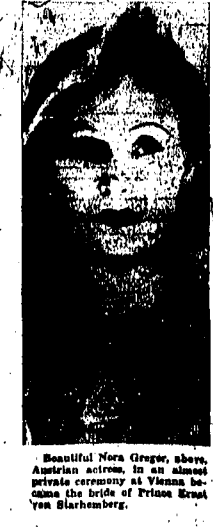

Charged and counter-charged featured a sensational marital mix-up when Mrs. Marion Allgeyer, above, and Millonaire H. E. Spaulding appeared in a New York court. Each contended the other was married before the two were wed in 1925 and, later divorced. Mrs. Allgeyer, now wife of a New Orleans physician, asked $1,000,000 damages on her bigamy complaint.

Finds Mother

United States army officials at the Presidio, San Francisco, are investigating the story of Paul Crawley, 20, private, who deserted. He said, to find his mother. He voluntarily returned to the barracks when the search was unsuccessful. Meanwhile, the mother located the youth. He was a former member of the Russian nobility, Prince Flavia Valdemar, and a former actress, now the wife of a New York broker.

Beautiful Nora Greger, above, American bride, in an almost private ceremony at Vienna became the wife of Prince Ernst von Starhemberg.

NO SANITY PLEA SUBMITTED HERE

After attorneys for Douglas Van Vlack reported to the state parole board today for a sanity hearing, and had been referred to Twin Falls county authorities, no request for Sheriff F. F. Prater early this afternoon.

Prater, under an old Idaho statute, officials believe whom the plea must be addressed.

Granting or rejection of the request for the hearing would be made by the jury hearing would rest with the sheriff and the district judge here.

Statements by Gov. Mirra Clark indicating that he feels any further reprieve by him would be an abuse of constitutional power, left the sanity hearing move as the final faint hope of the condemned slayer. He faces hanging at the Idaho prison shortly after midnight Friday.

SPUD DIVERSION QUOTA UNFILLED

Start Schedule Soon; New Order Allows Receiving More Applications

Actual diversion of south central Idaho surplus potatoes for stock feeding will begin "in the very near future," County Agent Harvey S. Hale said today as the Idaho potato control commission announced that the diversion quotas are not yet exhausted.

New applications are now being accepted, Mr. Hale said, although these further diversion requests hinge on the allotment actually granted to the county.

The spud control commission is expected to announce the definite quotas by county next week. Each county agricultural conservation board will then apportion individual allotments at once, and diversion will get underway as soon as inspection is completed. (Continued on Page 3, Column 3)

Rotato Eating Contest in Washington With Maine, Idaho Spuds Ends in Draw

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (UP)—The great potato contest between Maine and Idaho, conducted amid kid lights, movie cameras, celebrities and even the sawtooth humpers of a Hollywood newsreel, ended in a draw.

Four judges sank their teeth into succulent baked potatoes from Idaho and Maine, another set with butter from Wisconsin. Then, they tossed in blank ballots.

Speaker William B. Bankhead, D., Ala., who acted as umpire in the contest held in a dining room in the capitol building, said the result "amused" him.

"So neither Maine nor Idaho," he said, "has a potato that is better than the other." He said that the judges had eaten the potatoes and that the result was a draw.

Japan's Army Meets Stubborn Resistance

SHANGHAI, Dec. 8 (UP)—A Japanese army charged on Nanking from three sides today but ran into stubborn Chinese resistance.

There was furious fighting a few miles outside the city, directly in line with the east gate. The Chinese were withdrawing inside the east gate and the Japanese vanguard had not caught up with them.

Japanese sources said that heavy artillery pieces were being set up on the summit of Purple mountain, to dominate the city and the Yangtze river for many miles.

The fall of the capital appeared inevitable. The Japanese were confident that it would be soon, perhaps today.

CIO to Draft New Demands in Steel Industry

WAGE POLICY TO BE ASKED WHEN DELEGATES MEET

Lewis to Address 1,000 at Gathering in Pittsburgh Set Next Week

By C. L. ZULBERGER
WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (U.S.)—The committee for industrial organization announced today that John L. Lewis will meet with his steel workers' organizing committee next week to draft new collective-bargaining demands upon the $5,000,000,000 industry.

A wage policy to replace that contained with 445 companies, headed by United States Steel and its largest subsidiary, Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation, will be presented to the industry's management.

Full Power
It was indicated the leadership of S. W. O. C. headed by Chairman Philip Murray, would seek to empower the committee's officials with full authority to negotiate the best possible new agreement and would insist on a clear-cut of Lewis' commitments as to specific work-week and hourly rate standards.

However, it was learned, a large number of the 800 resolutions already submitted for consideration of the S. W. O. C.'s first convention, meeting in Pittsburgh Dec. 14, request that definite standards be sought.

Among these, reliable sources said, were demands for a 30-hour week in the hot mill—repeal of the present 40-hour schedule—and a 33 1/3 per cent wage increase.

Requests might be tabled. It is possible that these requests might be tabled by the leadership if possible—because steel operations have dropped perceptibly and the mills now working on the estimated national schedule of 30 per cent capacity.

The purpose of the S. W. O. C. convention is to formulate a new working condition requests.

2. To draft new by-laws which will govern lodges of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin workers—a C. I. O. affiliate which is governed by S. W. O. C. at present.

In order to stimulate the lagging industry, the S. W. O. C. is expected to recommend promotion of a federal-financed housing program backed by $5,000,000,000 in government funds—or of approximately the total capitalization of the business.

Home Construction
This program, which is to be offered by Murray, would call for construction of 1,000,000 new homes.

C. I. O. officials said Lewis would go to Pittsburgh in the middle of the week and address the convention, which will have about 1,000 delegates.

It was reported here today that some friction might arise in the steel convention because of the curtailment of expenditures on the part of C. I. O., which has necessitated dropping of many steel organizers.

At present the S. W. O. C. holds contracts with a major portion of the steel companies but has been unsuccessful in attempts to secure recognition from a group of "little steel" operators, headed by Republic and Bethlehem Steel corporations.

Filmite Mel Douglas Selects Challenger Inn for His Stay

By J. P. GALLAGHER

SUN VALLEY, Dec. 8 (Special)—Melvyn Douglas is coming back to Sun Valley to spend the Christmas holidays, which is something of good news, for we all got to know him rather well last year when he was here to play in the Paramount film.

What is more, he plans to stay at the Challenger Inn, which indicates very clearly that the new hotel is not a "second" because of the fact that it offers accommodations at a lower rate. We have found that such a misunderstanding has been quite general, but there is a really good foundation for it, at all.

Service Just as Good
Rates at the new Challenger Inn will certainly be more moderate all the way around than they are at the lodge, but the service and accommodations, while not so elaborate, will be just as good in every respect. And there most certainly will be no line of demarcation between the two establishments.

Guests of the Challenger will come to the lodge to take advantage of the cocktail lounge, the ski-room, the beauty parlor and the facilities, while lodge guests will visit the Challenger's clubhouse, ski-shop, etc. All of the guests in Sun Valley will be enjoying the new supreme skiing facilities, which is really the most important thing of all. So it isn't a question of where are you staying? but rather "how is the skiing?"

Perhaps we are a bit of a misanthrope, but we rarely find any points in the so-called clever remarks of children. But one was made in our hearing yesterday by Mrs. Pap Guller's precocious little four-year-old "Clinda" that we believe worthy of retelling. Sometimes incorrect but always graphic, she was noticing the yellow stripes in the middle of the highway while riding south of town. "Why," said she, "do they have that strip of mustard up there?"

Saturday Night Town
Sun Valley, for all its world renown, is still a Saturday night town. Everyone gathers in the village to forget the cares of the week, and proceed incidentally, that takes all night. And the new Hotel Saint George, and the Club Saint George remain the hub and center of activity, which is really quite right, for the interior of the Saint George is very attractive, immaculately clean, staffed with very congenial and capable people, and all in all, has that very desirable something that is so appealing.

James Schaufetter has arrived at Sun Valley lodge to act in the capacity of secretary of the Sun Valley Ski club, the roster of which club by the way, now looks like a metropolitan phone book. Schaufetter graduated from Amherst in 1935, and was captain of their ski team during which time he worked quite a reputation in collegiate circles as an all-round performer. Having spent the last several months in and about Denver, he has become quite well acquainted with the Inter-mountain skiing set-up. Speaking of the Inter-mountain-area, interest is really running high over this valley of the Sawtooth Sun. We were in Salt Lake City last week, and at a Junior League ball held in Salt Lake's exclusive Alta club the main center of interest was a Sun Valley display covering one whole wall of the ball room.

Skating Rink
Pete Bonin of the Hotel Saint George reports that his skating rink will be opened this week. If all goes well, it certainly is being whipped into shape, and it we are any judge at all, it will be one of Ketchum's better attractions this winter. . . . Charley Chaplin, famed writer, is a visiting comedian of the screen for many, many years, is to be a guest at Sun Valley during the Christmas holidays and we are willing to wager there are many who are sharing our conjectures as to how his foot-spread will react upon a pair of skis.

And we were discovered last night, when after having had dinner in a Ketchum cafe on the "last frontier," we were confronted with fingerbowl!

Other meetings are scheduled at Sacramento, Dec. 8; Carson City, Nev. Dec. 9; Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 10; Boise, Idaho, Dec. 13; Olympia, Wash., Dec. 15.

Other meetings are scheduled at Sacramento, Dec. 8; Carson City, Nev. Dec. 9; Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 10; Boise, Idaho, Dec. 13; Olympia, Wash., Dec. 15.

PLANS MADE FOR BULL SALE HERE

Banquet For Stockmen and Buyers Sunday Evening; Auction Monday.

A banquet at the Park hotel for visiting stockmen and buyers will highlight activities Sunday night to the opening of the first annual registered Hereford bull sale which will be held at the arena of the Twin Falls Livestock Commission company next Monday starting at 10 a. m. It was announced here this afternoon by M. M. Daniels, auctioneer.

The banquet will be held at 7 p. m. A complete program has been arranged, those in charge say.

The sale Monday at the arena, during which time at least 150 registered animals will be offered, has been advertised from California to Colorado and is expected to attract a record number of buyers as well as stockmen. Registration papers on the animals to be sold have already been received and the first shipment of bulls is expected to arrive at the yards Thursday.

The sale will be held under the auspices of the Internationally Hereford association and will be held in auction fashion.

It will be patterned after like sales held in the east and sponsors plan to make it an annual event for Twin Falls.

LODGEMEN HONOR WILLIAM HOOPS

William Hoops, st. was guest of honor last evening at a surprise banquet held at the Rogerson hotel by 30 members of the Odd Fellows lodge. C. E. Rowcliffe was toastmaster.

Short talks were given by long-time members of the order, Joe Day, Eldar; George Leth, Jerome; Walter Blain, noble grand, and Rep. Watkins, pioneer member. Mr. Hoops, who has been confined to his home until recently by illness, responded to the talks.

The lodge orchestra played three numbers.

Idaho Lacking In Number of Famed Bells

BOISE, Dec. 8 (Special)—The search for historic bells in Idaho, inspired by the town crier of the 1937 Christmas seal with his bell and lantern, and carried on by the Idaho Anti-Tuberculosis association, has provided two "bells" first, that Idaho is too young a state to have any large number of bells with unusual histories, and also that Idaho historians have overlooked this intriguing field of research, as information on the bells is scarce and hard to secure.

The association has found that the first church bell sounded in Idaho was undoubtedly rung at the Cataldo mission established by the Jesuit Fathers in 1852, but official record is lacking, and no ancient bell now exists at the mission.

There is a very old bell at the Catholic mission school at the Kootenai Indian reservation near Bonanza Ferry. A blind Indian, Chief David, 81 years of age, has been ringing the church bell there for 20 years, morning and evening each week day and three times Sunday, calling the Indians together for prayer and song.

W. N. Northrup of Boise reports the church bell longest in service in Idaho, the bell installed at the old St. Michael's Episcopal church in Boise in 1870, later moved to Christ Church, Boise, and still in use.

The bell at the old Masonic Temple at Idaho City is one of the oldest. The temple was built in 1867, and soon after a bell tower and bell were installed adjoining. The bell has been used as church bell, fire bell and curfew ever since.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By Rodney Duffer

(Evening Times Washington Correspondent) WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The net result of a conference between Roosevelt and public utility executives is simply this: If there is a demand for more electric power, the utilities will spend money to expand their plants; if there isn't, they won't.

EVERYONE FELT BETTER The chief result appeared to be that Roosevelt's policy would be considered to feel better after the conference. One further federal grants for municipal power plants are being held up by EWA in being before the supreme court.

UTILITIES WANT ASSURANCE Best estimates here are that the utilities might spend between $400,000 and $400,000,000 on expansion in 1938 if they became convinced that the business cycle would soon turn and recovery would return.

An "Impossible" Cure for Business

If you sit back and look at the autumn of 1937 through half-closed eyes, you are apt to get the haunting and melancholy impression that you have seen the whole show before.

There was a busy summer, with bumper crops and plenty of jobs; there was a stock-market smashup, with southeasayers of high and low degree hastening to announce that falling security prices didn't really mean anything.

To be sure: in 1929. How it all comes back to one! How familiar it all is—and how ominous the parallel begins to look, when one remembers what 1929 led up to.

So the country approaches the end of the year in a state of anxious expectancy, wondering whether the old-business cycle is going to have its way under the deal as under old. Are we, after all, helpless? Is there nothing we can do but take it, decade after decade?

Today there doesn't seem to be much reason for pessimism. And yet—well, somehow, it is a little surprising to notice a quotation from a letter written by Andrew Carnegie in 1905. This quotation, reprinted in the Industrial Bulletin circulated by Arthur D. Little, Inc., of Cambridge, Mass., goes as follows:

We are greatly pleased with our new Wintron from the very start it has done its work and never let us down. There may be improvements yet to come even such autos, but it is difficult to see much room for improvement.

Carnegie wrote that away back in the pleistocene age of automotive development. The motorist crossed his engine with the crank, straining his neck and yielding a fractured wrist. He did not dream of driving in winter; with his inefficient brakes he was apt enough to skid on dry pavement, and there was no way of cleaning snow or ice off the windshield. A cross-country drive of a hundred miles was a miracle if it did not include at least one flat tire and two flat tires. Forty miles an hour was a dizzy speed indeed, and a car even moderately comfortable or controllable in the rain was unheard of.

Yet Andrew Carnegie, who could peer as far ahead as the industrial age as the next man, could not control the car of 1905 could ever be improved much. And yet today's cars are better than the best cars of 1905.

Whether it be true that the boys on the University Pittsburgh football team actually demanded cash in the barrelhead as a reward for participation in a post-season game is something for Pittsburgh to figure out. But if they did, the affair reflects discredit on American university authorities generally rather than on the boys themselves.

American universities have made football a professional sport. It is foolish to deny this, when gate receipts are counted by the hundred thousand and an athletic department is offered $50,000 for one "bowling" game. That sort of money simply isn't a part of amateur sport, and never will be.

If the boys who are drawing that kind of money through the gate decide that they would like a little of it for themselves, who can wonder at it? They may be surprised about their status as students playing a game for the fun of it—but the confusion is entirely the fault of the university authorities who let the game get out of hand.

The move for paper money printed in different colors is superfluous with so many budgets already in the air.

Tangible Evidence That Idaho Opposes War Sought By Signature Drive

Tangible evidence that Twin Falls residents favor America staying out of "war" will be presented to congress by the local post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, when signatures are to be secured to a petition to be circulated immediately.

The campaign is to be conducted in unison with a nation-wide drive by 3,000 local units of the organization to convey to congress prevailing sentiment against war.

The petitions read as follows: "We the undersigned citizens of the United States America, call upon the congress and the President to adopt and apply policies designed to keep America out of war and supported by a national defense program adequate for the protection of our country and its people."

On the occasion of the petition will be given to the Gold Star mothers in Twin Falls, and they will be followed by war mothers, decorated heroes, disabled veterans, city and other public officials and private citizens.

MEAT UNIT PICKS BOARD MEMBERS

Nine Directors Elected Here By Assatisfied Producers; Encouragement Seen

Nine directors, to serve three, two and one year terms, had been elected today by members of the Associated Meat Producers, Inc., after that group met here Tuesday in annual sessions which occupied almost the entire day.

Results of the election show those elected to three-year terms were T. E. Stansell, Bull; O. H. Albee, Jerome, and P. E. Peterson, Jerome. Serving for two years will be J. L. Bush, Rupert; Ben O'Harrow, Twin Falls, and E. M. Gregg, Jerome. One year directors are L. A. Adams, Wendell; J. D. Kirk, Kimberly, and M. V. Middleton, Burley.

Principal speaker during the sessions was Ezra Benson of Boise, extension economist. Encouragement regarding future outlook for the concern was expressed.

At a general meeting, stockholders discussed problems for the coming year.

The meet was being held in the Chamber of Commerce headquarters under the Bank and Trust.

The growers will elect directors late this afternoon. Encouragement for the past year have been Vern Krelgh, Bull; Oliver Johnson, Murtaugh; Carl Leonard and O. C. Thomas, Pahr; J. E. Jerome Collects Funds in County

JEROME, Dec. 8 (Special)—William N. Hardwick, county assessor, reports that his office has collected and turned over to the county treasurer here $40,076.10 up to Nov. 1, a gain of $7,095.84 over that of last year at this time.

Of this total amount collected by the assessor the state of Idaho receives 12.7 per cent or $5,081.66, the balance of this amount, $34,994.44, is credited to the road and bridge account and only lacks a few hundred dollars of making care of these bonds and the interest for this year.

It is noticeable that since August of this year, license collections have dropped off approximately 20 per cent under that of last year. This is due to the new car sales falling off during the last four months, as much as 20 per cent, he asserted.

The total sale of plates is as follows: 2,290 automobile plates, 604 truck plates, 11 motorcycle plates, and 58 trailer plates.

Winnings Named In Union Contest

MURTAUGH Temperance Unit Sponsors Competition

MURTAUGH, Dec. 8 (Special)—

Robert Lee and Margaret Lindau won medals in the W. C. T. U. sponsored double silver medal contest held Friday at the high school auditorium with members of Miss Williams' public speaking class taking part. Mrs. Bethel Day, local president, announced the program. Bishop David G. Moyer of the L. D. Z. church opened the program with the reading of the prayer and the invocation. The American flag was held by Billy Rambo during the singing of "America" by the audience and the salute to the flag led by Bobby Rambo, a Boy Scout.

Readings given in the first group were: "All in a Glass," Robert Lee; "The Cost of One Glass of Wine," Laurel True; "The Chicken Story," Walker Day. To complete this group substitute readings were given by June Peck and Elizabeth Davis. Between the two contests Mrs. Betty Hall and Mrs. Lola Cockrum sang "My Wild Irish Rose," accompanied by Mrs. Turner, and Mrs. Albert Corlies sang "The Rosary," accompanied by Mr. Darling.

Readings given in the second group were: "The Spelling Match," Olivia Arstein; "My Car and Why I Killed a Baby," Elizabeth Davis; "The Story," Beanie Haman; "Mockery," June Peck; "In the Death Cell," Margaret Lindau. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Turner played a piano duet "The Stars and Stripes Forever." Miss Williams introduced the young people and presented the final plaque because of the white-hearted work done in preparing the readings. Rev. E. L. White, a pastor of the Community church, presented medals to the winners.

Judge of the contest were Mrs. Kenworthy, Mrs. Homig, and Miss Lundgren of Hansen. Rev. W. H. Horton, district superintendent of the Methodist church, pronounced the benediction.

NYA QUOTA HERE GIVEN INCREASE

25 More Youths Are Offered Opportunity For More Vocational Work

An increase of 25 youths in the National Youth administration quota for vocational training in southern Idaho was announced here this afternoon by I. Q. Wood, Boise, district supervisor.

The quota, originally set at 225 for this part of Idaho, was raised, Mr. Wood said, in order that more youths could be trained in a definite vocation.

A large percentage of the youths who come from Twin Falls and Twin Falls county, he pointed out, providing suitable projects will be sponsored and providing the available youths here are interested in a vocation.

Waiting list for educational advantages through the NYA is expected to care for the increased enrollment, Wood said.

Former Owner of 200 Acres, Man Seeks Any Kind of Job

Once an Iowa farmer with 200 her and her baby together. This, she explained, would permit her husband to go elsewhere looking for work.

"He will not leave me until he knows I am taken care of," she told Gay Butler, area supervisor, and I can do housework. Perhaps there is some local family which wouldn't mind having a small child around. He really is no bother and it will be helpful.

Diesel Worker

"My husband has been studying Diesel engines in between the times he has been looking for work. He is not just waiting, like some men would do in his position," she said.

In commenting on the case this afternoon, Mr. Butler said: "I told the man not to sell his tools. Those belong to his trade and he must have them. Anyway, $50 wouldn't go very far. Today we are looking for jobs which he or his wife can fill and it is to be hoped we will find them. We have been successful in the past, and after meeting this couple, it is to be hoped we can be successful this time."

Has Tools

Somewhat skilled in the mechanical trade the man has a set of tools valued at $50. Aside from this he has lost everything, records show, and needs work. He is skilled in operation of mechanical farm equipment.

The young wife also applied for work, anything which would keep her and her baby together.

Coast Coaches Work On "Dictator" Plan

$20,000-Per-Year 'Czar' May be Named; Hollingbery Gets 3-Year Contract

DEL MONTE, Calif., Dec. 8 (UP)—Pacific Coast conference coaches were expected today to make some definite recommendation regarding the proposed appointment of a $20,000-a-year "high commissioner" to control athletic contests of the eight big western colleges and universities.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8 (UP)—Here's the difference between the baseballs used by the two leagues...

AMERICAN LEAGUE—The so-called jack-rabbit ball they have used since 1915. It has a number 3—this—cover and four strand seams. This is a slower ball, but livelier than the number 1 ball used by the league during the 1935 season.

NATIONAL LEAGUE—Number 1 ball—this—cover and five strand seams. This is a slower ball, but livelier than the number 1 ball used by the league during the 1935 season.

Cadets Given 3-Year Rule

WEST POINT, N. Y., Dec. 8 (UP)—Army athletic ranks were closed today to college stars who were completing their three-year varsity competition elsewhere, with the exception of sports cars at West Point.

Previously, three years of varsity competition was allowed in each sport, irrespective of college experience. It was this disregard of rules prevailing in virtually every college in the country that precipitated the famous break in Army-Navy football relations in 1925, and caused Big Ten teams to drop the West Pointers from schedules.

Without or without knowledge of the voluntary change the Big Ten decided the cadets would be acceptable on future schedules at the present conference convention.

DUSEK WINS

NEW YORK, Dec. 8 (UP)—Dusek, Omaha, pinned Nick Campofreda, Baltimore, Joe Mowand, New York, downed John Grandovich, Poland; Al Billings, Cleveland, and Mike Maszaki, New York, drew Jack Fisher, Kansas City, pinned Tom Adams, New York; Guy Draymond, Iowa, tossed Bobby Roberts, Dayton, O.; Jesse James, Hollywood, and Chief Thunderbird, Canada, drew.

In the area, had every member on the squad named at least once for the all-star team. Tributes were paid to many of the stars who did not make the first string club or not even the second or third. These were generally specialists— youngsters who were expected to take a particular job—but a long way from triple-threat men.

That included Every Sherrill of Twin Falls, far and away the best punter of the region, and Gano, the place-kick expert from Burley—the latter also named to have to have a job in a right tackle. In the final lineup, players from 11 schools were named.

Careful, Gus!

Just because he was entered in a six-day bike race at Madison Square Garden was no reason why Gus Kellan, one-half the German team of Kellan and Hans Vogel, couldn't keep that snappy appearance.

He is shown nonchalantly shaving with an electric razor while pedaling around the saucer. An electric battery supplied the current.

Coach R. V. Jones today had his playing squad of hoop aspirants cut down to 19 as he sent his charges through drills in preparation for the Bruin squad, but the second half the German team of Kellan and Hans Vogel, couldn't keep that snappy appearance.

League Forms In Junior Hi

Junior high school boys are in the process of organizing teams for a do-nut league with play to start Saturday morning under the supervision of Larry Lundin.

Games will be conducted on either a double elimination or round robin schedule, depending on the number of teams signing up.

Four heavyweight teams and two in the lightweight division have already signed for signing in Jan. 5 with play to start Saturday, Jan. 8. It is desirable though that all intending to play indicate this before the Christmas vacation period if possible, he said.

Lightweight teams are: The Black Angels, Glen Olick, captain; Eugene Polan, Juniper Sullivan, Dick Price, Oliver Bahner and Forest McMullan; Five Hornets, Bruce Etnasberry, captain; Robert Nelson, Albert Tague, Howard Allen, Jack Jones and Bill Jones.

Heavyweight teams and players are: Basketers, Tom Oatney, captain; Wayne Fuller, Paul Miller, Melvorne Tubert, and Wallace Brown; Red Devils, Leo Binqueton, captain; Kenneth Johnson, Jay Martin, Donald Wade, and Charles Flynn; Red Terrors, captain, Lawrence Meesh, Jack Tiffany, Jack Gooding, Phillip Keitrawe, and (two others).

Retention of Lively Ball by Junior Loop Opens League Breach

CHICAGO, Dec. 8 (UP)—Weary club officials of both major leagues turned their annual club season with Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis into a peace conference today in an effort to settle the wide-open breach over the jack-rabbit baseball.

Virtually all hope of seeing a major player deal completely faded as they assembled. Several managers, fatigued by constant haggling and lobby duty during the major and minor league meetings, already have quit the scene.

The rabbit ball, however, remained a live topic. Each league reportedly was asked at the other's action which may give them a different type of ball for the first time since a standard was reached in 1933.

Stand Reached: No sooner had the National league voted to slow down its official ball than American league owners reversed their stand and announced their own, home run hitters continued prosperity at the expense of the lively ball used in 1937.

Only activity on the trading mart today was a catcher trade which sent Earl Grace of the Philadelphia Phillies to the St. Louis Cardinals in exchange for Cap Clark, a youngster who played with the Houston club of the Texas league and Columbus in the American Association.

The meeting was almost over and Brooklyn still had its problem child, pitcher Van Mungo, on its hands with the Chicago Cubs still stymied by their own refusal to trade outfielder Frankie Demaree, the proposed deal between the Chicago White Sox and Washington fell through when the Senators refused to accept Zeke Bonner, the Los Angeles Angels' pitcher, and Buddy Meyer.

Bears Study Pass Defense

CHICAGO, Dec. 8 (UP)—The Chicago Bears, finest defensive team in the national professional football league, went to work today on a new strategy for the coming season. It is slugging Sammy Baugh and the Washington Redskins in the league championship game here next Sunday.

The Bears never have had to defend themselves against Baugh's stinging passes and since the Bears' aerial defense has been uncertain at times, Washington likely will be a slight favorite. A sellout crowd of 45,000, second of the year, will witness the title game.

Except against passes, the Bears have been defensive marvels. Few teams gained through the giant forward wall. An even 100 points were scored against the Bears in 11 games.

SILVER FIRMS ON U.S. STATEMENT

South Idaho Growers Would Participate Under Move For Surplus Control

South Idaho bean growers are expected to participate in a nationwide bean program that attacks on three fronts the present low price level, according to J. S. Feldman, Twin Falls secretary-manager of the Southern Idaho Bean Growers' association.

Based on hearing at 4:30 p.m. the American equivalent of the spot price today was 41.24 cents a bushel, compared with 41.70 cents a bushel on Monday.

Forward silver, which has been depressed relatively more than gold, also rose 1/4 penny to 18 1/2-1/2 today.

THE MIDDLE CLASS

Editor, Evening Times: One of your outstanding editorials of the past week pointed to the fact that at least some bright young men had discovered who constitutes the great majority middle class. The stock and bond holders are greatly outnumbered by stock and bond salesmen, it would seem.

So, the ex-Economist held a sob-fest at Burley and condemned to perdition all the 'measures President Roosevelt and his future secretary school teachers had advanced to help this very class. We notice that the personnel of speakers were either politicians or would-be politicians and Billy Bergen never loses or are they so narrow minded that they can only see profit and gain?

They condemned the wage-hour bill. Now Gov. Clark has released the figures for Idaho that 33,370 human souls are on direct relief and about 25,000 on WPA, making 58,000 persons dependent on government aid for food. Any man who has not arrived at the point of his thinking process where before day-dreaming to get dark to raise crops he cannot sell.

They did not like the farm bill for it will keep the poor dirt farmer from slaving from before day-dreaming to get dark to raise crops he cannot sell.

Four years ago we sent from this congressional district a young man pledged to support Roosevelt. He first deserted on the utilities bill. Now he is opposed to the wage-hour bill. It was stated at this Burley meeting that he was doing for a promotion. If I know the middle class and organized labor he is due to be promoted to sell. The man who will find the other members of the machine that elected him.

We had a bond election in this town not so very long ago. A fact-finding committee of our upper class tried to have it passed. A committee from the middle class knocked it into a cocked hat.

The middle classes are beginning to awaken and think for themselves. They see the need for a man who makes much good will in no way makes him a leader in social or governmental activities. We would like to make this Yuletide appeal to those of you who believe in and work for the Prince of Peace, to pray, "God, give these, thy little ones, a greater light."

LESLIE W. WILLIAMS, Twin Falls, Dec. 8.

LOCAL STUDENTS TO ATTEND MEET

Thirteen Expect to Journey To Buhl Saturday For Journalism Parley

Convening at the high school at Buhl at 8 a. m. registration will be completed by the association and each school will answer roll call with progress made in journalistic activities.

The luncheon program is to be composed of entertainment provided by a group from each school. From the 12 schools are expected to attend this session as nine schools were represented at the last year's session in Twin Falls.

Accompanied by the instructor, Mrs. Mercedes Paul, students tentatively planning on the trip are Harley Barnhart, Jean Harvey, Virginia Chase, Dorothy Strain, Ernest Ostrom, Francis Lang, Jean McGavin, Leonard Fields, Verne Bunn, Carl Dossert, Gene White, Elma Betts and Bert Tobert.
