WOMAN SOLON BATTLES ANTI-LYNCH ACT

Senator Caraway Leads Attack on Planned Measure House Group Votes in Favor Of Treasury, Post Office Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (U.P.)—Senator Hattie W. Caraway, D., Ark., led the senate filibusters today against the anti-lynching bill which is obnoxious to the south. She charged that the measure was designed to destroy the south politically and industrially.

While the Arkansas woman senator, dressed in black and wearing horn rimmed spectacles, argued against the measure in place of Sen. Carter Glass, D., Va., the house appropriations committee reported favorably a $1,616,662,286 treasury and postoffice bill.

Samoan Clipper Sinks In Water 1 Mile Deep

Searchers Report Finding Tiny Bits of Huge Plane

PAGO PAGO, Tutuila Island, American Samoa, Jan. 13 (U.P.)—The Samoan Clipper went down in 1,000 fathoms of water after an explosion so terrific that it strewn the ocean with tiny bits of debris from the sheltered interior of the fuselage, searchers reported today. The old U. S. minesweeper Avocet, only available ship at this remote south sea island, returned late last night from an only splash of the sea 14 miles from the island where Capt. Edwin C. Musick and his six companions of the clipper crew were lost Tuesday morning. They were the men of the Avocet who found the Clipper's watery grave 16 hours after the Pan American Airways ship had disappeared on a flight from here to Auckland, New Zealand. The wreckage that was left, Chief Boatman H. S. Bogan of the Avocet said, indicated that the clipper was blown to pieces. "Bits of wood and paper covered the sea. They seemed to be fragments from the interior of the plane. All the pieces were from one to six inches square. We found nothing larger than that. "We found one bent tin clasp which we believe belonged to Brooks' (engineering officer). "And Coak. They also found a coat, Bogan said, bearing the Pan-American insignia. The coat had been burned full of holes. A small piece of a chart board was identified and the book of navigation tables was picked up. "A sign was placed in command of the Avocet when Lieut. T. B. Williamson went aboard the ship's island, to survey the scene from the island. "Neither the search by sea or air produced any trace of the bodies of the seven men who disappeared. The crew took soundings and found the water more than a mile deep. "Little more was known of the clipper's fate than that she burned and sank. Several things about her disastrous trip remained to be solved. "Two-Hour Gap "One was a two-hour gap in the plane's log. It was at 5:30 a. m. (10:30 a. m. MST) Tuesday, when Capt. Musick lifted his great four-engine craft from the runway and headed south on the 1,800-mile, last lap of Pan American's new route from the United States to New Zealand. "It was 38 minutes later, at 6:08 a. m., when Capt. Musick reported that one of the motors had developed all leak and he was heading back to Pago Pago. "In that time he would not have gone more than 75 miles, Auckland is nearly due south of here, and that was the direction the clipper went. "Then, for almost two hours, nothing more was heard of the plane. It was 7:55 a. m. when the clipper passed over Apia, on the island of Upolu. The island is 75 miles west of Pago Pago. "Evidently Capt. Musick had turned northwest to return to Pago Pago in his four-engine plane. (Continued on Page 3, Column 3)

Hits New Taxes

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (U.P.)—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., outlining Treasury policy to a house committee, expressed unexpected opposition to new taxes during the business recession and indicated disagreement with the administration's silver program. Morgenthau's views were disclosed today with publication of the transcript of testimony on the treasury department appropriation bill for 1939. He testified at secret sessions of a house appropriations subcommittee. The treasury requested an appropriation of $1,695,398. "Keep Tax Basis Morgenthau told the committee: "1. Because of the business setback, it is most important that the present tax basis be maintained. "2. He opposed payment of subsidies to domestic silver producers or any kind of subsidies. "3. Over-stocking by businessmen, based on the false assumption that the administration could not check runaway inflation, was partly responsible for the recession. "4. It is most essential that the treasury's stabilization fund be continued until its expiration, June 30, 1939. "5. Budget-balancing should be accomplished, through economies rather than taxes. "Two Reasons The business recession could be blamed on two developments, the secretary said. He cited seasonal influences as one factor. The other, he said, was excessive inventories. The survey is being conducted under terms of house bill number 423 which was passed by the twenty-fourth legislature. "In conducting the survey today, Dr. Weisbrod, who has charge of the work over the state, said that information is needed to develop a plan for occupational industrial hygiene service in Idaho. Solon Urges Voters' Initiative Move to Get $5 License Fee

Calling for a statewide initiative move by voters to force a $5 automobile license law in Idaho, State Rep. W. C. Thornton, Gooding, charged today that such a bill "can never get through the legislature because too many lawmakers are tied up with the state highway department." Thornton told the Evening Times that the initiative move for a uniform $5 license law could be pressed simultaneously with the plans now underfoot to secure a non-partisan game commission through the same method. "I advocate this $5 license law as a companion issue with the game commission effort," he said. "Author of Bill Thornton was author of the bill in the 1937 legislature, asking the fee for motor cars instead of the present rates by weight. The bill was killed by a narrow margin. "The highway department exerts too much influence to permit such a bill to get through the legislature," he charged. "The initiative plan seems to me the only way to secure this relief for the state's overburdened motorists. "The initiative plan calls for signature of a certain percentage of voters who balloted at the last general election. The move, if successful, can create a law without action by the legislature, the Gooding spokesman declared. "If this movement gains strength," he said, "I can furnish definite information that the $5 license law is workable. "Wound Healed Tax To reimburse highway districts, who receive 87.2 per cent of motor vehicle license receipts, Thornton advocated turning back the extra (Continued on Page 3, Column 1)

JUDGE CONSIDERS ROAD TEST SUIT

Reply by the state of Idaho to a highway test case of statewide interest was taken under advisement here today by Judge Barbery after a hearing this morning in district court. The state presented its answer to a demand by the Murtaugh highway district, that maintenance be continued on a six-mile stretch of U. S. 30 near Murtaugh. Judge Porter's verdict is expected within 10 days. 150,000 JOBLESS

SURVEY REVEALS IMPROVEMENT IN EVERY DISTRICT

By MAX L. BROWN
(Copyright, 1935, United Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 18 (UP)—Approximately 150,000 jobs were not employed in the next two to eight weeks, and 10 of the 12 federal reserve districts expect marked improvement in employment before April, according to a nationwide survey on unemployment by the United Press.

The survey coordinated analyses of the conditions in all 12 federal reserve districts and included special reports from "key" industrial centers.

The findings were:

1. That the increase in unemployment which started last October began leveling off in 1.
2. That approximately 100,000 men, not included in previous reports, are now in the labor force. And that 50,000 more are expected to rejoin their jobs before end of this month.
3. That 10 of the 12 districts anticipate an improvement in employment before April.
4. That a substantial percentage of the employees in heavy manufacturing lines are on part-time basis.
5. That many large organizations have revived the depression "spread the work" idea to provide employment for as many workers as possible.

Little Pay Cutting

6. That there has been little pay cutting and that payrolls have decreased generally in proportion to cuts in employment and hours.
7. That some southern districts have been affected to a small extent by the business slump than have most other areas.

Sufficient material came from authentic sources to provide an accurate "ever-check" of employment conditions in the various sections and the nation as a whole.

Reports from the different regions which averaged on:

- Northwest: Percentage basis with the unemployment rolls of the federal government, indicated that approximately 1,500,000 persons have lost their jobs in the last two and a half months of 1935, while about the same number had hours of employment reduced.

CLIPPER SINKS IN MILE-DEEP WATER

the west, but he was never more than 75 miles from either Apia or Pago Pago. Even with one motor stalled, it was not considered possible to land on any of the islands. He proceeded slowly enough to take two hours to arrive at Apia.

The inference was that the clipper may have landed at sea for repairs, then have arisen again and continued its return trip.

After passing Apia at 7:55 on the return trip, Capt. Musick reported by radio at 8:27 that he was dumping his excess cargo of gasoline for a landing in Pago Pago, and expected to arrive there in a few minutes.

That was the last ever heard from the plane.

Pan American officials believe that the gasoline might first have been dumped, and caused the explosion. That was the theory of J. T. Tripp, president of the airline. He said the dumping of the gasoline was done by a conservative and normal practice. "Tripp was in Washington.

While the crews at every little Pan American island base in the Pacific—Alake, Guam, Holland and Manila on the north route, at Honolulu where the trails split, and at Kingman's Reef on the southern course—all grieved today over the loss of Capt. Musick, the celebrated trail blazer, and his crewmen whom they all knew, the clippers sped on as usual today over their regular trails.

Less than six hours after the Avocet's crew found the oily spots on the sea and confirmed that the Samoan clipper was lost, the Philippine liner, the Santa Ana, left San Francisco harbor and sped away for Honolulu and Manila, with 11 undaunted passengers and a full cargo of arms and explosives.

China Clipper Ready

The China Clipper, flagship of the fleet, was ready to leave Guam on its return trip to San Francisco and the Hawaiian Clipper, also plying the northern mainline, was speeding from Wake to Guam.

Pan American headquarters announced that all service would continue as usual, and that the company has no thought of abandoning the new route to New Zealand where Capt. Musick blazed the trail last month and died on his second trip over it.

There was only air express aboard the Samoan Clipper. The company had not yet been authorized to carry passengers on the new route.

Capt. Musick's crew included: Capt. O. G. Sellers, first officer; one of the most distinguished seafarers who sailed in the World war; P. S. Brunk, junior flight officer; F. S. McLean, navigator; J. W. Stockrod, junior flight officer; J. A. Brooks, the assistant engineering officer whose clear head was found and transferred to the Samoan Clipper and death because he wanted to have Christmas with his family in Honolulu; the sea school for another Clipper which left before the holiday; and T. F. Findley, radio operator.

All Veterans

All were veterans of the Pan American lines. Capt. Musick had flown more than 100,000 miles, many thousands of them over unexplored routes of the north and south Atlantic and Pacific. Musick was the No. 1 pilot and captain when Pan American, the guiding genius of Pan American, was realizing his dreams of spreading his air service into new and distant lands.

The loss of the Samoan Clipper was the first major disaster for Pan American in more than 1,500,000 miles of flying on the most hazardous routes. It was one of the newer clippers, a 15-ton flying boat that had 138 devices on its instrument panel as an indication of the equipment which science had provided it for safety and efficiency.

Whether the seven bodies would be found was problematical.

No Probe Yet

The nature of an investigation into the clipper's accident also had not been determined in Washington. Fred Fass, Jr., director of the air commerce bureau, said that an investigation would be made if the bureau's representative in Honolulu could obtain transportation to the scene.

Fass said he authorized F. L. Yuravich, senior Airline inspector of the foreign division, to proceed to Pago Pago aboard the coast guard cutter Taney. But coast guard authorities previously accepted a request to send the Taney to Pago Pago for Pan American officials.

Fass believed that Yuravich might find the wreckage and conduct an investigation there after the evidence—the bits of wreckage—was brought to him.

TREASURY HEAD HITS TAX PLANS

ary continued, "the country was so convinced that we would have inflation, and that this administration would not be able to control runaway inflation, that business generally adopted a policy of holding their money. Then, when they felt that this administration would not stand for inflation, and would not let prices run away, they found themselves with more than normal inventories.

Morganthau avoided revealing his attitude toward the silver purchase act by saying that he had made it a practice never to criticize any act of congress.

Opposes Silver Subsidy

Taking the attitude that government payment of almost 20 cents an ounce for silver would be a subsidy to silver rather than a subsidy to American silver producers, Rep. Louis Ludlow asked:

"Is there any more reason why we should do this than to subsidize Idaho potatoes or Georgia peaches?"

"We are doing this for some commodities," Morganthau answered. "I am opposed to all subsidies of any kind. I will make that statement for the record, and will stand by it."

Demurrer Vested

The demurrer claimed that the district court lacks jurisdiction; that the petition by the Murlough district lacks sufficient facts to maintain the action; and an attempt to control the discretion of state officers.

Attorney Barnes explained this afternoon, however, that the demurrer is not being taken but is attempting to force certain officials to perform their duty under the previous judgment of the court.

Future Steps

If Judge Porter sustains the state claims, the Murlough petition will be dismissed and the state will file a new petition, Mr. Barnes said. If the judge upholds the Murlough claims, the state will be given time to answer and a hearing will be held at which evidence will probably be taken. In either event, it was indicated that the highway district will appeal to the supreme court if the state loses the case.

"We are doing this for some commodities," Morganthau answered. "I am opposed to all subsidies of any kind. I will make that statement for the record, and will stand by it."

Arraignment Set On Liquor Cases

Four proprietors of Twin Falls county establishments branded as "public nuisances" by the state because of alleged liquor sale will be arraigned in district court Friday, according to announcement today by Judge T. Bailey Lee.

Those who will face the court on the nuisance claim are W. R. Emerson and Y. Arracada, Twin Falls; Henry Thomey, Buhl, and Eugene Conner, Kimberly. Their establishments are now open after a temporary injunction was dissolved late in December by Judge Lee.

The criminal and civil actions were filed by County Attorney Edward Babcock following four raids last October. Three more establishments, two in Twin Falls and one in Buhl, were hit this week by civil proceedings for "padlock" orders and hearing on these is also scheduled for Friday.

nese troops may lock with 500,000 Japanese was expected to center at Boochow, junction of the north-south Tientsin-Nanking railroad and the east-to-west Lungai railroad, which extends west across China from Hailchow on the coast. Japanese are moving from north and south along the Tientsin-Nanking line, and a Japanese army spokesman said here today that there is still a gap of 150 miles between the northern and southern columns.

An official statement issued at Canton, commercial capital of south China, asserted today that 10 Japanese, apparently blue-jackets, had landed in the Chungshan district, 30 miles west of Macao at the mouth of the Canton river.

Twenty-eight Japanese airplanes raided the Canton area last night. They bombed railroad lines. A bridge on the Canton-Hong Kong railroad was smashed.

There were increasing indications that the Japanese intended to make Canton their next objective. Reports were that three aircraft carriers, with accommodation for 30 airplanes, were off the south China coast.

LEGION SELECTS SAFETY LEADER

Action leading toward formation of a local safety council was taken here this afternoon as J. H. Blandford, chief of police, was named as American Legion safety commissioner.

Announcement of the appointment was made by W. W. Noble, commander of the local Legion post. Such appointment is in line with a suggestion yesterday by J. P. Banks, executive secretary of the Idaho Safety Council. Formation of a local council was suggested by Banks through the Evening Times.

Other civic groups, including the Elks and Odd Fellows, were urged to appoint commissioners to a group which will function during safety week, set to start Jan. 17.

the compensation measures for legislative consideration. The information obtained in this survey will be used only for the purpose of appraising the potential occupational disease problems. The industrial hygiene division of the United States Public Health service is giving technical assistance in this survey. Dr. Weisskopf said.

Random Selections

He explained that samples of the various industries to be surveyed were selected at random and that selection of any one institution is not to be interpreted as indicating that the institution has unfavorable conditions which are detrimental to health.

"On the contrary," the doctor said, "we are just as interested in observing the conditions which safeguard and promote improvement of the health of workers."

Findings of the survey will be completed before next summer and all accessible industries will be surveyed throughout the winter. Those which at the present time are inaccessible will be visited in the spring.

At the present time survey work in the Boise section is being carried out by W. V. Leonard, state chemist.

The survey, Dr. Weisskopf explained, has the support of labor, insurance industries, insurance companies and the state medical society.

INITIATIVE URGED FOR $5 LICENSES

one cent per gallon gasoline tax enacted in 1929.

This cent tax," he asserted, "is no longer needed by the state. It was passed to liquidate certain bonds for state highway construction. Those bonds were liquidated Dec. 31, 1932—and yet the additional cent still is being paid by motorists.

"I would turn this tax over to the individual highway districts in proportion to their population. The districts would be the chief losers by a $0 license plan, but this gas tax refund would make up the loss."

State Gets 12 1/2%

"He said the districts receive 87.3 per cent of license money and the state 12 1/2 per cent. Counties get nothing, although they do the entire collecting.

Thompson said that the movement for an initiative vote on a non-partisan game commission to replace the present state set-up in game management is "apparently gaining weight."

several prison officials were implicated.

The bureau of public accounts has been compiling photostatic copies of receipts, disbursements and assignments over which question has arisen.

Evans said that the report was constructed under advice from Attorney-General J. W. Payne so that it might be introduced in evidence during grand jury proceedings.

The public health unit, Evans said, also had numerous faults of a technical, or legal, nature. The audit was begun shortly after Dr. J. D. Chubb, former head of the department, was displaced from his holding office on the grounds that he had not fully completed state health department requirements.

Evans said both audits would be delivered in about a week.

POLICE LOOK FOR WOMEN FORGERS

Local police this afternoon were asked by the Buhl chief of police to be on the lookout for two young women who yesterday afternoon were alleged to have cashed a forged check in that community.

The two girls, whose names were not learned, are said to be selling machine oil. One of the girls is being red headed, five feet two inches tall and inclined to be "tall, dark and slender."

The check cashed was said to be for $5.

BOARD RE-NAMES CANAL MANAGER

John Iron today had been re-appointed to serve another year as manager of the Twin Falls Canal company as members of the board met in reorganization meeting here yesterday afternoon.

Members of the board also re-appointed James R. Bothwell, re-computer of the state, and E. Wick as assistant secretary-treasurer.

Only change in the officers of the board came when J. M. Thomas was elected vice president, succeeding E. W. Kinyon who did not enter the election race last Tuesday.

Other officers of the board, all succeeding themselves, are Peter Link, Hansen, president; J. F. Cordes, Twin Falls, secretary-treasurer; N. V. Shio, Piler, and W. B. Hatfield, Buhl, are the other board members. Sharp was again selected as a member of the committee of nine, as the local company's adviser to the Snake river watermaster.

GROUPS COMBINE IN SAFETY DRIVE

Red Cross of Twin Falls county, Junior Red Cross, Granges and the district fire unit were cooperating today in observance of the county-wide observance of Idaho safety week which starts Monday.

Plans for the drive were made yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the safety campaign committee called by Mrs. A. J. Peavey, vice chairman of the chapter, for its first meeting. Cecil Jones is new chairman of the committee.

List of Hazards
Schools of the county will be sent safety posters and literature and each pupil will be given a check list for common hazards on the farm and in the home compiled by the national organization.

Mrs. Doris Stradley, county superintendent of schools, announced that Junior Red Cross clubs are to be started in the county schools soon and they are already taking part in the safety campaign. They will be aided in the distribution of material by the health unit nurses with Mrs. Elizabeth Smith as committee representative.

Questions for the home cover the condition of floors, stairways, porches, balconies, yard and garage and inquire into provisions made for fire, trash and rubbish and the storage of sharp tools, toys, firearms, foods and poisons. Exam questions are on the repair and use of machinery, storage of tools, condition of buildings, yard and home and the care of animals.

Report Given
The meeting yesterday included a report by Mrs. Rose North, former committee chairman, on the magazine subscription drive which netted a profit of $22.50. Athletic equipment and the work of the individual clubs are financed by the proceeds.

Those at the meeting included Mrs. North, Mrs. Stradley, Mrs. Peavey, Mrs. Vera C. O'Leary, junior high school principal; Mrs. Ethel Gray, Blakedale principal; Mrs. Vera Fritz, Washington principal; Miss Beulah Way, Lincoln principal, and Mrs. C. W. Eriksen, adult education head. Mrs. Peavey presided.

MEAT MEN SCAN CALDWELL PLANT

Members of the board of directors of Associated Meat Producers today were pondering complete reports on the recently opened home of the Cooperative Meat plant at Caldwell, said to be much the same as the plant which is planned locally.

The reports were made to the directors by Harvey Hale, county agent, and worthy Olds of Buhl, who inspected the Canyon project, commenting on the Caldwell plant Hale said there was every indication the venture would be a success.

Modern Plant
"The plant is modern and efficient," he said, "and there is no reason why they should not succeed."

Mr. Olds as well as Mr. Hale told local directors that a supply from two counties is sufficient to operate the plant. Six counties are planned to be served by the Twin Falls unit when constructed.

"This should make the local plant all the more desirable," they said.

Willing to Help
Directors and manager of the Caldwell plant informed the visitors they would be more than glad to aid local officials in getting underway. Manager of the Caldwell plant is George Slinger.

Present at the directors' meeting here at which the reports of the Caldwell plant were made were J. E. Stansell, president; C. H. Albee, secretary; Frank Peterson, Roy Durk, Ben O'Harrow, L. A. Adams, Edward Gregg and Field Manager John Troendly.

BOARD REVOKES NEIL'S REPRIEVE

BOISE, Ida., Jan. 13 (UP)—Leicher P. Nell, 26, convicted of manslaughter in connection with a fatal automobile crash inampa, today began serving a one to 10 year sentence in the state penitentiary.

His reprieve, granted by Governor Barzilla Clark two hours after he was sent to the prison Tuesday, was revoked by the state board of pardons after Donald Anderson, Canyon county prosecuting attorney, protested the action.

Nell was sent to the prison Tuesday after an appeal to the Canyon county district court, Justice, and he had just been put into a cell when the reprieve, good until July, arrived.

Late Wednesday, after hearing Anderson's arguments, Governor Clark joined with the pardon board in voting to revoke the reprieve.

Arley Crowley, former assistant attorney-general, who had opposed the case for the state when it was taken to the supreme court on appeal and lost, spoke for Nell and said he thought the conviction had been a "miscarriage of justice."

The fatal crash for which Nell was convicted took place at an intersection, and claimed the life of Mrs. Eileen Lockner, of Medford, Ore.

Barber Exams

BOISE, Ida., Jan. 13 (UP)—The department of law enforcement announced today that examinations for licenses to practice barbering in Idaho will be held at the clubhouse, Hotel at Pocatello, and at Lewiston, on February 8.

Applications and fees should be sent to the department not later than Jan. 25. J. L. Dalderson, commissioner, said.

The Lewiston date is not definite. The examination may be held at Coeur d'Alene.

Sun Valley Given Title of "Best Rodeo" at RAA Meet

SUN VALLEY, Jan. 13 (Special)—Sun Valley received the first award for having the finest rodeo in the United States and Canada in 1937. It was announced on behalf of Variety magazine at the national convention of the Rodeo Association of America in Ogden Saturday, according to Bob Miles, outdoor activities director of Sun Valley who attended the convention.

This award places Sun Valley, in her first year of rodeo operation, at the top of a large and long established list of rodeos including Cheyenne, Fendleton and Madison Square Garden.

Miles, who was responsible for the success of last summer's rodeo, and who was in attendance both days of the rodeo convention at Ogden, reported a fine meet. Under the chairmanship of Maxwell McNutt, able attorney and judge from California, it was decided to place with the association the control of all rodeos and contestants. Performances will no longer be called shows, but rather competitive contest for prizes put up by promoters. Such contests will now be open to the world. Every cowboy will be allowed to participate as long as his entrance fee is paid and he acts in accordance with the rules of the Rodeo Association of America governing such competition.

Delegates from all parts of the western hemisphere were present to witness the end of possible closed shops among rodeo performers. Bob Miles, upon his return, made the statement that "the rodeo set up is now in the best shape and condition it has ever experienced since the history began. There has been some controversy between the union and non-union factions of cowboys in recent months, but it was all ironed out in the most constructive convention I have ever seen."

Too Fond of Apples
EXETER, Cal. (UP)—A 400-pound bear in the nearby Biermas, experimented on the saying that "an apple a day keeps the doctor away" and found that maybe it did keep the doctor away but not the owner of the apples. D. G. Wood, who finally shot the apple stealer, declared it had consumed between two and three tons of the fruit.

Issues "If" Award
SAN JOSE, Calif. (UP)—When Mrs. Fanny Frucht applied for divorce she asked also for half the money which she alleged her husband had hidden away in sacks. When the court granted her interjutory decree he also authorized the possession of half the money if she could find it.

DISTRICT PLANS FOR ROAD WORK

Start of a $30,000 road improvement program in the Twin Falls highway district was envisioned here this afternoon by J. D. Sinema, district engineer, after press reports carried news of the approval of the WPA application in Washington.

The dispatch from Washington indicated $25,792 had been set aside for road construction in the district. Local WPA offices are expected to be informed of approval of the project in the near future after the authorizing letter is received by Boise.

Sinema, in commenting on the project, said it was set for no particular section of the district but rather could be worked according to the will of the board of directors. The district's share of the new project will amount to approximately $12,000 while the balance will be in WPA labor.

Pipe Comes Through Floor and Pierces Leg of Street Car Rider

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 13 (UP)—Alexander Oliphant, 31, one of the most surprised commuters ever to ride a street car, was resting comfortably in a hospital today.

A section of three-quarter inch pipe popped through the floor as he rode to work, pierced his groin and thigh, and pinned him to the seat for 35 minutes until rescuers cut it through with an acetylene torch.

The foot-long pipe apparently lay in the groove beside the rail. A car wheel curved it and flipped it up, driving it through the heavy floor and wooden seat.

Oliphant, a bank clerk, was reading a magazine as the car rumbled along the street.

"I heard a crack and felt a shock in my right thigh, but I didn't know I was hurt until I tried to get up," he said. "Then I found I couldn't move—I was nailed to the seat."

"And what a funny feeling that was—looking down to see a pipe sticking up through my leg."

The pipe was stuck tight in the seat and just as tightly in Oliphant's leg. He sat there gritting his teeth for 15 minutes while the car crew stood by helplessly. Then a police ambulance arrived and the surgeon eased his pain with drugs.

A fire and a street car wrecking crew were called. It took another 20 minutes to free him.

With part of the pipe still imbedded in his leg, Oliphant went to a police hospital where Dr. Edgar Spear removed it.

Jerome Rotarians See Fishing Film

JEROME, Jan. 13 (Special)—Frank Hanafan was a guest of the Rotary club this week and displayed film on tuna fishing. Some of the scenes were in technicolor, filmed while he was tuna fishing off the coast of Central America.

Mr. Hanafan has been a guest here at his sister's homes since Christmas and plans to leave about the first of February when he will take up his duties as radio operator on a Van Camp Clipper. The boat docks at San Diego, and is manned by a crew which sails in Central American waters and other points for tuna and porpoise fishing.

These same scenes were shown to the children of both Lincoln and Washington schools this week.

The first English theater was constructed at Shredredich in 1978.

FRENCH POPULAR FRONT CABINET FIGHTS OFF CRISIS

GEORGES BONNET THREATENS HEAD WITH RESIGNING

By RALPH HEINZEN
PARIS, Jan. 13 (AP)—The popular front cabinet, plagued by labor and finance problems, fought off a crisis today after Finance Minister Georges Bonnet had threatened to resign.

After an emergency meeting of three hours and 20 minutes, with Premier Laval presiding, the cabinet, sitting in part of the time, officials announced that Premier Camille Chautemps would draft a statement that Finance would read this afternoon in the chamber of deputies.

The statement presumably would be read after stock market and money market closing. Governor Fournier was said to have approved the statement.

Nervousness Prevails
As the cabinet meeting started, general nervousness prevailed. Resignation of Bonnet and of the entire cabinet, he announced today. But no resignations were announced. It had been reported that Bonnet was offering his resignation, agreed to defer it until tomorrow at least to give Chautemps a chance to seek an agreement with the Finance Ministry, to end a long series of strikes, and to strengthen finances.

Bonnet was dissatisfied both with the finance situation and failure of the government to effect an agreement between capital and labor.

It was rumored that Bonnet would not be a real liquidation of the crisis for several days even if Bonnet were to resign, and that Chautemps would be the last wing cabinet prepared for a fall.

Heriot Mentioned
Edouard Heriot, president of the chamber former premier and veteran leader of the Radical Socialist party, was mentioned as a possible successor to Chautemps in the event of a popular front cabinet. Despite its name the "Radical Socialist" party is at the conservative end of the political spectrum.

It was believed possible either that Communists might be invited to participate in a new cabinet or that they would look to the central party groups for support.

Georges Bonnet, a respected finance master, came back from Washington, where he was sent as a special ambassador, to assume the finance portfolio when Chautemps succeeded Laval.

It was said that Bonnet called attention to a heavy drain on the exchange equalization fund in the last few days, and to continued pressure on the franc, due to renewed speculative activities and exports of capital by persons frightened by labor-capital tension.

A-1938 Cinderella

Naively gowned and every inch a lady, pretty blond daughter of the prosperous Odo business man, looked like this when she dined in the Bert Room at the Waldorf Astoria, in New York, with her father and one of his acquaintances from Sweden, who was a guest at the hotel.

You can imagine her shagrin, then, when her host of the evening before returned unexpectedly next day to his room at the Waldorf to find her looking like this—and cleaning up his room. But it's all easy to explain—she is a student of hotel management doing "laboratory" work.

This Explains Who Must File Return on State Income Tax

If you're single and earn $700 or more net per year, or if you're married and earn $1,000 net annually, you must file an Idaho income tax return, south central Idaho residents were reminded today by W. G. Garlock, tax deputy.

Form returns have been received by various taxpayers, and other residents coming under the provisions of the law can secure the forms from county auditors, state field deputies, banks and the income tax department at Boise.

Here are income tax facts issued today through Mr. Garlock by L. D. Shellworth, department director: Taxpayers required to file income tax returns:

All single persons receiving a net income of $700 or more during the taxable year. All married persons receiving a net income of $1,000 or more during the taxable year. All persons receiving a gross income of $2,000 or more during the taxable year.

In arriving at the taxable income, a taxpayer is entitled to an additional $200 exemption for each dependent entirely supported by him during the taxable year, provided that such dependent is under the age of 18 or is mentally or physically incapable of self support. All persons doing business in the state are required to file reports regarding the amount of their net income.

Returns are to be filed not later than March 15, 1938. The rates of tax are as follows:

- First $1,000 of taxable income, or portion thereof, at 1 1/2 per cent.
- Second $1,000 of taxable income, or portion thereof, at 2 per cent.
- Third $1,000 of taxable income, or portion thereof, at 4 per cent.
- Fourth $1,000 of taxable income, or portion thereof, at 5 per cent.
- Fifth $1,000 of taxable income, or portion thereof, at 6 per cent.

Field deputies will aid taxpayers in making up their returns and will announce dates on which returns will be in each county, Mr. Garlock said.

RULES SHIFT ON U-P SCHOLARSHIP

BURLEY (Special)—The Union Pacific railroad has issued from the office of its president, W. M. Jefferson, a revised set of rules for the annual scholarship awards to members of boys and girls 4-H clubs. Under the regulations set forth, a scholarship is offered annually to one boy or girl in 100 members of each county served by the railroad, for use in the state school or college of agriculture and of home economics, according to Earl R. Stansel, district club agent.

A $100 scholarship award is made if the winner selects an enrollment for four-year course, or a $50 scholarship, is awarded if the winner elects to enroll for a winter short course. In addition to payment of the amount of the scholarship award, the winner will be reimbursed for railroad or bus transportation only over the Union Pacific Railroad or bus line, for one going trip and one return trip, to and from the college, for transportation entirely and only within the state.

The winner in each county is determined on the following basis: 50 per cent on quality and quantity of project work; 20 per cent on records and story; 30 per cent on character, interest, activities of leadership, community qualities, school activities and club membership. An alternate is to be chosen in each county and should be the club member ranking second according to the project work.

To be eligible for a scholarship, a club member must have completed at least two years of completed years and the student must have average grade of 80 or better (or its equivalent) or stand in the upper one third of the class.

Projects on which the awards are made shall conform to the regular state 4-H club requirements. This includes, as a possible condition, a club girl to win a scholarship in home economics work, whereas, in past years, it was necessary for a girl to be a member of a 4-H club before a scholarship award could be made.

Gossett Warns ICC Head That Farm Debt Grows; Hits Rates

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 13 (AP)—State officials, farmers and shippers from Montana, Idaho and Wyoming had warned the Interstate Commerce commission today that their states are not supporting a blanket 15 per cent freight rate increase asked by the nation's railroads.

Testifying before a regional hearing into the proposed 15 per cent rate increase, Idaho Commissioner of Agriculture, Lieutenant-Governor Charles C. Gossett of Idaho declared that farm debt and tax delinquency was on the increase in Idaho.

"The producer seems never to have had anything left to himself after paying operating costs and freight rates," Gossett said.

He pointed out that Idaho farm indebtedness increased from $50,000,000 in 1929 to $73,500,000 in 1935. "The average farmer in Idaho is not even able to know the 1935 figure has not been reduced since that time," he added.

Shoshone Man Has Old Coins

SHOSHONE, Jan. 13 (Special)—Coins, old, new and otherwise of interest, are in the limelight these days. Recent exhibits of coins have resulted in several good collections coming to light. Another lot was disclosed by a Shoshone business man, consisting of a varied assortment of silver and copper coins of old mintage. One of the groups is the old time copper cent—made in one-eighth inches in diameter—and carrying the dates 1817-32-40-47-48-49-56-50 and 58.

There is also a Lincoln and Union penny of the 1854 date. It is a cent, but not so stamped. Nickels late as 1853 carry the V mark only to denote the value, but not the word "cents." There is a half-cent piece of 1828, also a five-cent piece of 1867 with shield. Then several of the buck-copper-nickel eagle pennies of 1857 date are in evidence, those on either side of that date being of some value to coin collectors.

A certain amusing "New Deal" pun was issued about the time the livestock conservation program was operating and apparently was created by private interests. While not a bonafide United States coin, it is the exact size of a quarter, is of pure sterling silver, without a milled edge, without wording, and on one side appears the outline of a hog, while on the other the hams of the same animal. It is said issuance of the coins was curbed, but some of them are in existence.

Many of the odd thin copper and silver coins of foreign stamp date as far back as 1600 and earlier.

DRUG MANAGERS DIE

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Jan. 13 (AP)—Joy H. Johnson, vice president of the Schramm-Johnson drug chain, died at Palm Springs desert resort, Monday, after a long illness.

Cause of death was given as a heart attack induced by Johnson's second paralytic stroke. Deputy Coroner Lester Earlight said Johnson formerly was prominent in Salt Lake City.

RUPERT PIONEER IS PAID TRIBUTE

RUPERT, Jan. 13 (Special)—Funeral services for Marion Delmar Grace, Rupert pioneer who died early Sunday were held Tuesday in the Christian church in the presence of members of his family and hundreds of friends.

Music for the occasion was furnished by a male quartet, composed of D. L. Carlson, L. V. Carpenter, L. A. French and A. E. Johnson, who sang "Come Unto Me" and "Goin' Down the Valley." Mrs. Wayne Newcomb sang "The Prayer." Christian friend, neighbor and citizen. Scores of beautiful floral offerings proclaimed the esteem in which he was held by his many friends.

Mr. Grace affiliated himself with the local Christian church soon after its organization in 1906 and served as an officer many years, being a deacon at the time of his death.

Eight high school girls from Mrs. Grace's Bible school class served as flower bearers. They were Mildred Paul, Wilma Cox, Thelma Randolph, O. W. Paul, Carl Lippis, H. B. Reynolds and Ted Lippis.

Members of the Eastern Star, of which Mrs. Grace is a member, attended in a body.

Interment, under the direction of the Goodman mortuary, was in the Rupert cemetery.

GRAND JURY DEFINITELY SET FOR JAN. 31 IN ADA COUNTY

JUDGE C. KOELSCH SIGNS ORDER FOR COURT CONVENING

BOISE, Ida., Jan. 18 (UP)—A grand jury inquiry which is expected to reach into most government departments was definitely set today for Jan. 31 in Ada county court.

The order convening the second grand jury in Idaho's history for the purpose of investigating state affairs was signed Wednesday night by Judge Charles Koelsch and C. E. Winand.

It fixed the start of the 1938 term of court for that date, and ordered that the grand jury should be convened on the first day of the new term.

The jury originally was slated to begin in December, but was cancelled because the grand jury was found to be out of order.

Another date was set, this time for Jan. 17, but that date was dropped because temporary quarters for Ada county officials would not be ready.

The present courthouse is being demolished to make way for a new structure.

Action of the jury will be based mostly upon evidence said to be contained in audit of the highway department, although the state prison will be investigated as provided by statute.

Ultimately, it is claimed, the entire governmental setup will be quizzed, since many "irregularities" have been charged to the various departments.

The remainder of the staff as announced by Mrs. Paul is:

THREE HOLLYWOOD favorites, Sally Eilers, John Beal and Harry Carey, head the cast of "Danger Patrol," new film melodrama from RKO Radio which opens Friday at the Roxy theater. The picture is a vivid story of the professional handlers of high explosives in the Texas oil fields.

Carey is cast as a veteran "soup handler" and Miss Eilers portrays his daughter, while Beal plays a young medical student who enters the industry to earn money for his education.

Strong supporting cast appears with these three players including Crawford Weaver, Ed Gargan, Jack Arnold, Lee Patrick, Sotly Ward and Richard Lane.

Dick Foran Star Of Idaho's Film

DICK FORAN, popular, big, red-headed singing cowboy of Warner Bros. pictures, returns to the Idaho theater Friday in "Land Beyond the Law."

This is said to be a lively tale dealing with the pioneer days of the territory of New Mexico, when it was described as a land beyond all law by General Lew Wallace, who was its first governor. This, by the way, is the same General Wallace who later won fame and fortune by writing "Ben Hur."

Robinson plays a gangster who serves ten years in prison for a crime he did not commit. He is determined to save his child from disgrace. Prison riots, a grim trip in a prison car, penitentiary life, gangland intrigues, dramatic action in newspaper offices and other vivid scenes form the background for the central romance.

JUNIOR MYSTERY DRAMA FEB. 16-17

PRESENTATION OF "Mystery in the Library" will be made by the Twin Falls high school Junior class on Feb. 16 and 17 in the high school auditorium.

Written by Helen Hines, the story concerns the editorial staff of a college newspaper in session on a dark and stormy night in the college library. The staff finds itself involved in a mysterious affair of national significance.

The plot is logically worked out and has a thread of romance running through it. There are also plenty of good clean laughs to relieve the chill, the director, Miss Florence M. Hess, said.

A tentative cast has been selected from the more than 100 juniors trying out for parts but will not be announced until eligibility has been checked at the conclusion of the semester.

THE SCYTHIANS
A NOMADIC TRIBE THAT ROAMED THE COUNTRY NORTH OF ANCIENT GREECE, LIVED IN CO-DRAWN HOUSE TRAILERS BEFORE 200 B.C.

NEVADA PASSED A LAW IN 1875, PROHIBITING CAMELS FROM RUNNING AT LARGE UPON ITS HIGHWAYS.

EACH STAR IN THE SKY IS DYING OUT SLOWLY.

CAMELS ACTUALLY BECAME A NUISANCE THERE AFTER THEY HAD BEEN INTRODUCED FOR USE IN TRANSPORTATION WORK ACROSS THE DESERT.

IN 1855, Congress appropriated $30,000 for the purpose of importing camels into the United States, to be used in the desert areas of the southwest. Others were brought in from time to time, but the enterprise finally flopped, and the animals were turned loose to roam as they pleased.
