Former Washington Man Caught at Race Track in Coast City Secrecy Surrounds Movements as Federal Agents Capture Confessed Killer

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 18 (AP)—A man who confessed kidnapping and killing Charles S. Ross, elderly Valentine manufacturer, was rushed back to Chicago by G-Men today with a secrecy that indicated other developments may be impending.

He was Peter Anders, 30, a husky curly-headed logger from Washington state. Arrested at a racetrack window, gambling part of the $50,000 ransom, he confessed not only to killing his victim, but also his partner in the abduction of Ross.

Edward Hoover, chief of the federal bureau of investigation, came here to handle the case and announced the capture last night only after Anders already was on his way back to Chicago. He refused to say whether the prisoner went by air or train.

Hoover said Anders made a 29-page confession, detailing how he kidnaped Ross with the aid of a confederate collector, and how they shot both men through the head.

But Hoover made only a brief statement of the confession and refused to elaborate. He made no mention of the kidnapping per se, but by the victim's secretary. He told no details of how or where the 72-year-old Ross was taken or kept, or of the circumstances that led Anders to shoot his own aide as well as the kidnaped man. Hoover said Anders had a long criminal record but that the FBI could not be sure his aides would reveal it. Hoover shrugged off all inquiries and went to bed.

The secrecy, unusual even in the kidnapping of G-men, brought reports that Hoover has not yet completed his investigation of the case; that he still is hunting a third man, that Anders may be suspected of other crimes. Anders was a logger in Washington when Charles S. Ross was abducted and slain in what federal agents regard as now their only unsolved kidnapping case.

Ross was kidnaped near Chicago the night of Sept. 25, 1937. His family received proof that he was alive before they paid ransom. The kidnapping was heard from the kidnaper after the money was delivered, and Ross' body was not found.

In 27 typewritten pages, the deconfidential Anders, who has been living in the grand manner, detailed his crimes by the G-men. He said he first shot his victim, then his partner whom he identified as Atwood Gray. The bodies he hid near Rockford, Ill., presumably across the state line in Wisconsin. G-men carry today were seeking the bodies.

JURYMEN CHOSEN IN MURDER TRIAL OF MRS. PRUETT

GOODING, Jan. 18 (Special)—The jury which will hear the case of the state vs. Genevieve Agnes Pruett, 32, who is accused of fatally shooting her husband, Albert Donald Pruett, 25, on Nov. 24 at Bliss, was sworn in at 10 a. m. today.

Mrs. Pruett is being tried on first degree murder charges. Prosecutor M. F. Ryan opened the state's case by outlining the charges, contending that Mrs. Pruett gave away the murder weapon at Bliss where the shooting took place, having visited it three times, the last time five days before the slaying.

Ryan contended that the woman had bought the .25 caliber gun with which Donald Pruett was killed, and had purchased it under a false name, later sending her suitcase to California under an assumed name and retaining at the Bliss hotel also under an assumed name.

Mrs. Pruett, he said, later went to the Pruett home where she killed her husband. She immediately returned, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pruett, uncle and aunt of Donald Pruett, to return from a duck hunt.

When the trial resumed, he alleged, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pruett went into the house and Donald Pruett into the yard. The accused woman got into the back of the car, opened the door and shot her husband when he returned to the car, the prosecutor said.

She attempted to empty the gun into her husband's protruding body after the first bullet struck him but the gun jammed after the second shot went through his hip, Ryan charged.

Mrs. Mary Pruett, 65, grandmother of the slain man, was called as the state's first witness. She stated under oath that she heard the two shots fired, and that Donald Pruett came crawling up into the house on the back of the car.

She continually referred to the victim as "Jeff," she said she then went out to the car where Genevieve Pruett was sitting. She asked her, "What have you done?" She stated that the alleged slayer then said: "I can't come here to kill him."

Clark Asked to Send Out Beans To 47 Governors

Twin Falls called on Gov. Barzilla Clark today to send sample bags of Idaho beans to the governors of every state in the union.

Clark was expected to agree to the request.

Clark Anderson, vice-president of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, made the suggestion to the governor at Boise this afternoon on behalf of the chamber.

"The sacks which Gov. Clark is expected to send to other chief executives will be taken from among the 3,000 bags now being prepared under chamber auspices for distribution to all parts of the country. Printed inscriptions on the bags praise southern Idaho's beans and publicize Twin Falls."

Beans Priced Printing of the bags was completed today, and sacking of beans will get underway tomorrow at the active task of the chamber.

The bean samples—two pounds of select No. 1 great northern—will be mailed out by the chamber for any resident of this area wishing to benefit the state's product.

"Every man and woman on the entire tract should mail at least one bag of beans," Lawrence said. "It's a campaign to prove southern Idaho's bean supremacy and to help the farmer move the surplus crop as a means to getting better prices."

Includes Mailing "Every man and woman on the entire tract should mail at least one bag of beans," Lawrence said. "It's a campaign to prove southern Idaho's bean supremacy and to help the farmer move the surplus crop as a means to getting better prices."

Price of each two-pound bag is 35 cents. Lawrence stressed the fact that this includes the cost of mailing. Active taking of the mail is no additional expense involved for the chamber.

If residents wish to do their own mailing, however, the cost of each two-pound bag will be 45 cents. A 50-cent mailing charge paid by the chamber will be 21 cents, varying from 18 to 26 cents.

Orders for the bean sacks will start Thursday, and mailing will begin then. Orders will be taken in local stores, and chamber members and other local residents were also asked to turn in orders. Notices are already coming in at chamber headquarters.

Blaze in Quebec School May Take Toll of 25 Lives

Priests and Boys Missing as Tragedy Hits Catholic College

ST. HYACINTHE, Que., Jan. 18 (AP)—Fire which destroyed a dormitory spread panic and death among 160 boys pupils of the Sacred Heart college here today.

Hours after the last scream had died away, the local police and the St. Charles hospital counted a known toll of 13 dead. Eleven bodies were recovered from the ruins, including those of Father Jean Baptiste and several children.

Two victims died in the hospital and a dozen still were missing. Authorities said they feared the deaths might finally total 25. Twenty persons were in the hospital, several of them in serious condition.

Church bells rang without intermission for the worst horror in St. Hyacinthe's history shortly after a workman discovered the fire at 2 a. m. Hundreds hurried to the scene to stand helpless, unable to approach near enough to the blazing east wing to aid the trapped pupils who ran hysterically in all directions along the fire-blocked corridors.

Leap From Windows After the fire was brought under control the hysteria continued. In a panic which followed soon among grief-stricken parents whose sons were among the missing. Some children escaped by leaping from windows or scrambling down the fire escape but many fell to the four stories to the low-lying ground.

Friends who found the fire seriously injured, including several who lost lives, the death toll was 13. The nearby convent attached to the college was spared.

Started in Dormitory Officials believed the fire started in one of the dormitories but the cause was not learned. Boys sleeping in the east wing awoke to find themselves surrounded by flames.

In the panic which followed many were crushed and left unconscious in the building. Others were pushed from the fire escape, landing by the pressure of those behind.

Volunteers aided police, firemen and church officials in the search for bodies in the dormitories but the cause was not learned. Boys sleeping in the east wing awoke to find themselves surrounded by flames.

In the panic which followed many were crushed and left unconscious in the building. Others were pushed from the fire escape, landing by the pressure of those behind.

Four priests were missing. As each body was removed from the ruin, it was carried to the emergency hospital where, in some cases, often futile, were made to establish its identity. Many were so burned that authorities said identification would be possible only by process of elimination.

PLAN SEEN TO CUT PRICES IN STEEL, BUILDING MATERIALS

SLASH IN WAGES OF HELP LOOMS WITH REDUCTION

By C. L. BULZBERGER (Copyright, 1938, United Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (AP)—High administration officials said today they are scrutinizing proposals for general reduction of steel and possibly other prices. Neither new steel or steel replacement would discuss the program publicly.

A coincidental reduction in steel wage rates has been advanced by some as a likely accompaniment of any price decrease. This phase and a suggestion for a guarantee of annual steel wages is not, however, beyond the discussion phase.

White House Secretary Stephen T. Early said he knew of nothing positive as to any drop in steel prices or wages. Officials emphasized that no specific plan for accomplishing these ends had been drafted. They said, however, that the steel price proposal is integrated closely with efforts to boom demand through building, merchant marine construction and the new housing program.

KILDER OF ROSS GOES TO CHICAGO

son was recovered by the G-men. They believed that the man had been spent in race track betting and high living. He had left an unmistakable trail of swart bills at race tracks and G-men following it stalked him across the continent though they were caught up with him at a pari-mutuel window of the Santa Anita track, a ransom bill in his hand, on Friday.

It was taken at once to the department of justice offices here and questioned. Through Friday night, Saturday night, and part of Sunday, Anders denied any connection whatsoever with the kidnaping. Confronted with an ever-increasing quantity of circumstantial evidence, he finally confessed.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the G-men, arrived Saturday and late last night the called in newspapermen and told them of Anders' arrest and confession. Anders already was on route back to Chicago, presumably by airplane. He had walked out of the city with the kidnaping. Anders was described as exceptionally calloused—a fancying himself a master criminal—supper-high guy. Hoover said that in addition to confessing one kidnaping and two murders, he confessed 20 bank robberies. He said he had the criminal record but did not make it public.

Hoover said that Anders had been a loner in Washington since he began his career of crime. He said the kidnaping was 30 years old, five feet, eight inches tall and was a blond with light hair and a light complexion. Anders shot both Ross and Orby through the head, Hoover said.

Type of the swift slitting movements and unexpected captures of public enemies was the G-men's seizure of Dr. Ross' kidnaping. Until Hoover's announcement there had been no evidence that Dr. Ross was dead. He had been listed as missing, but after his family posted the ransom demanded by the kidnaping, no further word came from him after three months. Little hope for his safety remained.

Held for Weeks
Hoover said that Anders killed both Ross and Orby Oct. 10 or 11, more than two weeks after Ross had been released from his automobile on a road 12 miles west of Chicago. Ross was killed to eliminate any possibility of their being accomplices. Gray was killed because Anders wanted all the ransom money.

Federal agents followed the trail of ransom money to Spokane, Boise, Portland, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Miami, New Orleans and finally to Los Angeles.

In all those cities the money appeared usually at night, race tracks and gambling dens. The trail here from New Orleans and had lived 10 days in an expensive hotel suite, driving a new automobile. Sent to the prison at Gretna, where he was found in his hotel suite room and in his automobile.

Hoover made his announcement in a formal statement, and according to their custom, the G-men added little to it. Three men were involved in the crime, but the G-men said nothing of the names of the persons who had known Anders casually in the 10 days he was here, said witness against him had not been heard. He was said to have used the aliases Albert March and Roy Kramer.

1 DEAD, 5 HURT AS AUTOS CRASH

BOISE, Jan. 18 (AP)—Monday inaugurated traffic safety week in Idaho—and Monday night, Leo P. Johnson, 46, of Crescent, died here of injuries received in an automobile crash which sent five persons to a hospital.

His death raised the Idaho traffic toll for 1938 to six—one death each three days since the start of the new year. The accident took place an hour after a minute of silence—tribute to the 180 accident victims of 1937—was observed as the start of safety week.

The fatality happened when a car driven by Ted Bucklin, Mountain Home, skidded on a slippery highway, west of Crescent, and into the machine driven by Johnson's son, state policeman said.

A coroner's investigation will probably be conducted.

in which he named factors of education as "four-fold, reading, writing, arithmetic and religion, which is the greatest of them all." ... The education of America is superb but it means nothing if it does not foster the love of God in our children," he asserted.

The sessions will conclude tomorrow. Idaho Advantages D. L. Fourt, president of dairy husbandry at the University of Idaho, discussed the natural advantages Idaho has, such as climate, cheap feed of high quality and excellent pasturesland yesterday at the second session of the institute.

He addressed dairywomen of this section and in his talk attributed the high average production of butterfat in Idaho to favorable conditions for dairy production and to the widespread use of high quality bulls through the state.

See Profits Karl Hobson, assistant extension economist, spoke on "The Outlook, a prediction for farmers." He also prophesied that the next three or four years will probably be more profitable for the dairyman than the past few years because of general business conditions and the consumer demand increases.

Ivan Loughery of the agricultural extension service was unable to attend the meeting. "Modern Problems in Education" was the theme of the talk by H. C. G. president of the University of Idaho, at a special session of elementary and high school teachers. He pointed out the need and stress on the part of the state for more education along vocational, character and personality lines. He also stressed the fact that democratic institutions are to survive it will be necessary aggressively to indoctrinate the minds of young people with the heritage of traditions and ideas of democracy.

COURT RULES IN COSGRIFF FAVOR

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 18 (AP)—Right of the Cosgriff Outdoor Advertising company to purchase property of the defunct Twin Falls Athletic association for $5,026 was affirmed today by the state supreme court.

In an opinion, the court held that sale of the property was a judicial function, and not a private business endeavor, and rejected the claim of L. E. Gibbs, who offered a first bid of $4,000 and sought to lay claim to the premises.

Two Blocks The association owned two blocks of property in Twin Falls, and on April 26, 1937, John Clark, J. B. White and C. J. Hann, asked district court to appoint them trustee of the institution to offer it for sale and liquidate its assets.

On March 10, 1937, they reported that Gibbs had offered $4,000 and that offer was considered proper. Judge James Porter made the offer returnable on March 19 for a hearing but did not specify in his order that other bids would be received.

Trustees published notice of the hearing, and said other bids would be received. Higher bids were offered, and the Cosgriff bid was accepted by the court, over the protests of Gibbs who said his offer constituted a private sale and the matter was not judicial.

Stockholders objected to selling the property to Gibbs at the lower price, and the matter was appealed to the supreme court by Gibbs. The supreme court ruled that his appeal on the grounds the liquidation sale was not judicial was inconsistent.

The stockholders re-elected I. E. Varms to the board without opposition, and E. W. Rietman of Hazelton was elected to succeed August Wolters, who declined to be a candidate. L. Studvink, Jerome, one of the stockholders, completes the directorate.

A surprising bit of information was given at the annual meeting when it was announced that only $7.75 was as yet uncollected from $4.75 per acre assessment on 12,000 acres of the corporation's land.

Hamby is accused on charges made by a 16-year-old Twin Falls girl. Judge J. W. Foster today denied for the second time a defense motion seeking a directed verdict of acquittal. The court also denied a state motion to reopen its case in order to ask a prosecution witness one specific question.

Hamby was recalled to the stand today by the defense for cross-examination. Defense attorneys also called Dr. Dean Affleck, Twin Falls. The state summoned five witnesses in rebuttal, including Patrolman H. D. McCracken.

Chinese Irregulars Battle Japanese

FIGHTING RAGES NEAR SHANGHAI

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE
 SHANGHAI, Jan. 18 (Special)—Six thousand Chinese irregulars are attacking the Japanese who are a few miles from the center of Shanghai. It was disclosed today. Chinese sources asserted that the irregulars had captured one village with a garrison of 270 Japanese troops.

So serious was the challenge of the Chinese that the Japanese closed the Pootung section of the city, across the Whangpoo river from the international settlement, and cancelled permits for removal of foreign cargoes from ships at the Pootung docks.

Capture Chenasha
 Heavy skirmishing occurred near Chokachiao, between Shanghai and the Yangtze river on the south side. Chinese sources said that the irregulars had captured Chenasha, 14 miles east of Shanghai. It was there that the irregulars claimed capture of a Japanese garrison. Reports were that the Chinese were holding their prisoners as hostages and therefore the Japanese hesitated to bomb the area.

It was understood that the irregulars are commanded by Gen. Tao Huetsh-Sen. The Japanese were reported to have refused to become peace preservation committee of the entire Shanghai area and induce his own irregulars and some 10,000 more operating west of Shanghai, to lay down their arms.

Embassy Detailed
 Tao, according to the reports, sent an emissary to the Japanese to refuse and, when the Japanese detained the emissary, opened a big scale attack.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek was reported to have paid another visit to the Haichow front, where the biggest battle of the war was in progress, to supervise the Chinese defenses. It was said that 400,000 Chinese troops already were massed in the area and that thousands more were moving in from south and west.

'Love and Hisses' Is Orpheum Offer

Walter Winchell and Ben Bernie, those famous feudists who put puns into their punches, are back for a great return match in "Love and Hisses," coming Wednesday to the Orpheum theater. This time the reason for all the barbed wire will be the fight over their new street-hat from Paris, the saucy and vivacious Arlene Simon, who sings operatic songs and popular ballads for the greatest variety of the year.

This new-idea musical show from Twentieth Century-Fox features a great cast, including Bert Lahr, Joan Davis, Dick Baldwin, the Raymond Scott Quintet, Ruth Terry, Douglas Fowley and Chick Chandler.

Brand new songs by Gordon and Revel head the musical score, with additional hit parade melodies by Pollock and Mitchell, Raymond Scott, and Zeno and Irwin.

Darryl F. Zanuck, maker of the big hit shows, was in charge of production and Sidney Lanfield directed. Lanfield also made "Sing, Baby, Sing," "Thin Ice," "One in a Million," and "Wake Up and Live."

'Mountain Music' Idaho Return Hit

The movie-going public which has come to identify Martha Raye as a singing singer de luxe, are in for a surprise in "Mountain Music," in which the vivacious comedienne is co-starred with Bob Burns. The picture opens Wednesday at the Idaho theater as the regular mid-week return hit.

Miss Raye sings a ballad, "If I Put My Arms in My Song," especially written for her by Sam Coslow and Al Siegel. The song is described as a homey ballad with a hillbilly twist.

DANCE FUNDS TO AID CAMP PLANS

An expanded program of health-giving for children of Twin Falls county will be facilitated at the McCusky Memorial health camp, 20th, by funds from the benefit dances planned for the 1938 Roosevelt birthday celebration, according to Mrs. W. F. Alsen, general chairman for the Jan. 29 dances.

Seventy per cent of the proceeds from all the F. D. B. birthday dances in the county will go to the McCusky camp. Thirty per cent goes to the Warm Springs foundation, pet project of President Roosevelt in the nationwide fight against infantile paralysis.

The 1937 facts about the McCusky camp and 1938 plans, as outlined by Mrs. W. F. Alsen, chairman of the Twin Falls County Anti-Tuberculosis association, 108 Children Aided.

Children in both the older and younger children's camp—108. Weeks of camp, approximately 558 since older girls attended three weeks each, and younger boys and girls six weeks each.

1938 program—Plans now formulated show that the camp will provide an even better health program. Cool forecast, at $3 per child per week. This, when considered with the donations of food given each summer by many residents of the county, calls for an expenditure of about $1,750.

$500 from Seals. Of this, about $500 is furnished by seal sales, $250 by the Community Chest, and the remaining $250 must come from the President's birthday benefit dances, donations by individuals and clubs, cash payment by all children coming from outside the county, cash payment by those children the county whose parents are able to do so.

An additional 100 children could be cared for in 1938 if funds were provided. Mrs. Chapman informed Mrs. Alworth.

If you are suffering from rheumatism, no matter in what form, how severe or chronic, come to our office today and be made well again by the herbs God put into the ground for the purpose of healing mankind.

Many testimonials by people who have been immediately relieved by our treatment.

September 20, 1937.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am a local farmer and used to hard labor in the fields. In fact it is necessary to my livelihood. But about four years ago I became subjected to severe attacks of rheumatism which kept me almost helpless in my shoulders and upper arms.

The pain which accompanied these attacks was most apparent during the early morning and just before retiring. Sometimes it affected the back of my neck as well as the other parts of my body. These members became stiff and pained so that I could hardly do my work.

After four years of pain I decided to try the Chinese Herbalist, Chan and Wing Co., in Idaho Falls. Now after only six weeks' treatment under their care, I raise each morning and retire each night without any sign of pain . . . and my work is a regular part of my daily routine.

Needless to say I am thankful to Chan and Wing for the good they have done me with their carefully prepared herb compounds. I gladly recommend them to anyone similarly troubled.

EARL M. RICE,
Firth, Idaho.

November 11, 1936.

To Whom It May Concern:

For eighteen months I was in constant pain from rheumatism. My back, my right arm and right leg seemed to be where the rheumatism settled as these parts ached and pained me so much that I was in continual discomfort.

Several of my friends recommended Chan and Wing Herb Co. to me and finally, I decided to give them a trial. But eighteen months of this wretched pain made me very skeptical. You have no idea of my surprise and great relief -- when I found that all the pain and discomfort completely disappeared after just one week's course of treatments.

I sincerely recommend that anyone who suffers as I did give these Chinese Herbalists a trial. I am sure whoever does will find the same satisfaction and relief that I did.

Respectfully,
(Signed) FIANK MATTONSON,
R. P. D. No. 1, Idaho Falls, Idaho.

To Whom It May Concern:

I suffered with rheumatism for a long time and my neck was hard to turn, my arms were hard to raise, and every joint in my body was stiff and very painful, and I decided to try Chan and Wing's Herb treatment. After two weeks my trouble had apparently gone. I am very glad to recommend Chan and Wing's Herbs to anyone.

TWIN FALLS MAY BE IN NEW BASEBALL LOOP

League Would Include Teams In 3 States

By HAROLD J. WOOD
Evening Times Sports Editor
There was the faint possibility today that Twin Falls might return to the ranks of cities represented in professional baseball.
Work is under way for the formation of a new Class D league that would include Lewiston, Boise and Twin Falls, Idaho; Baker and LaGrande, Ore., and Walla Walla, Wash.

Announcement of the new loop was made here today by Albert Kurbitz of Lewiston, who is working with the support of Joe Carr, national minor league executive. They believe that the time is ripe for organized baseball in this vicinity and if there is any possibility of making a go of it, they plan to open activities in the spring with a six team loop.

Need Backers
"We believe that a good Class D baseball loop would go over in this territory, and all that is needed is for someone to bring the thing and push it," Kurbitz stated.
"I have already contacted Lewiston, Baker, LaGrande and Boise, and they are pretty well in favor of the whole thing. Walla Walla is also set to come in, and all we need is to find a spot for the sixth team. Twin Falls, with one of the best grounds in the northwest, would be the logical spot," he continued.

Owa Lewiston Franchise
Kurbitz, a young man under 30 years of age, owned the Lewiston franchise of the Western International league last year, and now also controls the one at Bellingham, Wash., where the team was moved this season.

No Ball Park
Other handicaps would be the fact that there is no baseball park here at the present time. It is expected that a site for a ball park should be made up of minor league baseball. There must be night games played, and that softball is firmly entrenched here as the game to be watched.

That softball one," Kurbitz commented, "is just another promising feature of place to me. It just proves that people here will attend the games if they are offered."

It was suggested to him that Burr-Joe might be interested in good baseball towns in this area, but he feared they would be too small to support an organized league club.
He plans to return here next week and will further investigate the possibilities.

Boxers Add to Cage Menu

KIMBERLY, Jan. 18 (Special)—A pair of short boxing matches will be featured on the new live program for the Kimberly. The first basketball game here tonight.
Two members of Coach Louie Denton's team will perform during half-time intermission of the preliminary game, and two others will watch punches between halves of the feature game.

Clark McDrummond and Richard Wheeler will box one of the exhibitions at 135 pounds and Frank Wheeler and Eugene Moran, at 105 pounds, will battle in the other.
Preliminary basketball tilt on the card tonight is set for 7:30 p. m. The main event, at about 8:30, comes as an unexpectedly hot tilt as a result of Hollister's surprise victory over Ostler last week. The Wolves are regarded as one of the toughest of Class B squads.

Shoshone Kegler Wins Match

A Shoshone bowler triumphed over a local league in a special challenge match at the local alleys when Tracie Lapsier, Shoshone, won from John Mendolia. A substantial gallery watched the match between the two Basque sportsmen.
Outcome of the tilt decided a "best-of-three" tilt participants said.

Joe DiMaggio, here from the west for a round of festivities and banquets, told the United Press last night that negotiations concerning his contract must be opened by the Yankees.

Six Basketball Games On Card Tonight

Three more Class A and three Class B basketball games top the program in south central Idaho basketball clubs tonight.
Coach R. V. Jones' Twin Falls Bruins, with only a defeat at the hands at Oakley to mar their record, take on the vastly improved Rupert Pirates on the Twin Falls floor in one Class A encounter.

At Piler, two of the teams that turned in upsets last week were scheduled to meet. They are Buhl and Jimmy O'Brien's Wildcats. Coach Fred Luff's outfit, equipped the highly touted Oakley Hornets by a score of 26-17 on Friday night to enter the ranks a powerful contender for the throne of the district. They take on a fighting Piler outfit that turned in a surprise by holding Twin Falls to even terms for four quarters Saturday night, only to lose out in the over-time.

Tigers to Burley
John Nords and his Jerome Tigers will journey to Burley for a game which the Bobcats are expected to win. Both clubs have met set-backs in seasons, but the Bobcat competition has been a little tougher.

In the Class B quarters, Kenny Barrett's Glenns Ferry club is not expected to find much trouble downing the Mountain Home team again. They turned the trick last week and appear to be on the way to becoming the dominant central powers again this year—a position they held last season.

Boldogs vs. Hollister
At Piler, Coach Louie Denton's Bulldogs will take on the invading Hollister club and are expected to chalk up a victory over Wendell Wendell will entertain Shoshone in a north side clash.

On Wednesday two of the more powerful Class B basketball clubs, Declo and Albion, will meet on the Declo floor.

Venturi Case Will Be Reviewed in New York Today

NEW YORK, Jan. 18 (UP)—The New York athletic commission meets today to discuss the case of Enrico Venturi, Italian lightweight, who was knocked out under questionable circumstances last Friday night by Featherweight Champion Henry Armstrong.

Venturi was counted out in the sixth while writing on the canvas and claiming "foul." Commission physician Dr. William Walker annulled him in his dressing room after the fight and reported "no eviling of a foul."

Venturi's share of the purse was held up pending today's commission meeting.

Holdout?

"Who-e-e-w" whistles Joe DiMaggio as he breezes one down the middle of the fairway at St. Petersburg, Fla. The great St. Louis Cardinal outfielder is already reported to be a hold-out and a long-drawn-out argument looms. He drew $11,000 last year.

Pay for 1938 May Touch $30,000 Mark

NEW YORK, Jan. 18 (UP)—Joe DiMaggio, the 23-year-old Italian from fisherman's wharf, San Francisco, who blazed his way to major league stardom in two years, awaited a summons today from the New York Yankees for a conference on his 1938 salary.

DiMaggio, here from the west for a round of festivities and banquets, told the United Press last night that negotiations concerning his contract must be opened by the Yankees.

"I'd like to have the contract settled right now," DiMaggio said, "but I won't make a move until I hear from the Yankees."

The tall, black-haired outfielder denied that he had signed a contract for $25,000 last July, and added that he hadn't made up his mind on the exact sum he intended to ask for. His answers indicated, however, that he has in mind a figure somewhere between $20,000 and $25,000.

"Would $35,000 be too high, Joe?" a scribe asked.
"What's the matter with $35,000?" Joe responded. "That's a nice figure."

DiMaggio, who has been named "the player of the year" by the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers' association, drew $5,500 in his first year, 1936, and $15,000 last year. He has plenty of evidence to back up his demands for a big increase.

He hit .346, led the majors with homers with 46, drove in 167 runs and was second to Charles Gehringer in the most valuable player award. He has developed into a top-ranking box office attraction all around the circuit.

Reports that he considered himself the equal of Lou Gehrig and would demand parity with "the Iron horse" were denied vigorously by the Californian. Gehrig drew $38,750 last year, the highest salary in the majors.

"I never made any statement that I rated myself on par with Gehrig," DiMaggio said. "I never rate myself with anyone, especially Gehrig, who's been in this business a long time and has a record of more distinction than mine."

Albion Edges Nazarene Club

ALBION, Jan. 18 (Special)—Coach Orville Hill's Albion Normal cagers staged a hair-raising finish in their opening game of the season here last night to turn back the invading Nampa Nazarenes by a score of 35-31.

The visitors held a 9-17 advantage after the intermission, but the Panthers pulled up on even terms at 22-21 a few minutes later. From there on the score was tied at nearly every point—Albion being ahead at the moment the final gun was sounded.

Nampa's team was seriously crippled in the fore part of the final half when Schell star center, was forced from the contest with a wrenched knee.

High scoring honors for the game went to Emrick of Nampa who collected 14 points, while Martindele of Albion was second with 11.

Don't Skip on WIRING

When You Build or Remodel!

Many a family lives inside a spider-web of extension cords—and all because the wiring wasn't properly planned in the beginning. Outlets are too few to connect lamps and appliances, switches not in convenient places, wire too small to carry the load. Make your new home really convenient—put the outlets where they'll serve all your needs in the future (it's costly to deliver full electric service to every lamp and appliance. Don't go ahead with wiring until you have consulted a competent wiring contractor.

...and Don't Forget to Put the Switches Where They're Easily Reached!
