ROSS ABDUCTOR THOUGHT OF SERIOUS CRIMES

ST. PAUL, Jan. 19 (UP)—Federal department of justice agents indicated by indications of serious and strange actions today that Peter Anders, 30, confessed kidnaper and slayer of Charles S. Ross, wealthy Valentine manufacturer, was suspected of other crimes at least as serious.

J. Edgar Hoover, their chief, a special squad of his men and, presumably, his prisoner were here after a strange airplane flight from Los Angeles where Anders was arrested, and confessed. Paul is more than 300 miles off the direct air line from Los Angeles to Chicago, the scene of Anders' known crime, but it is on the northern air line from Tacoma, Wash., to Chicago, Tacoma was the scene of the kidnap-murder of 10-year-old Charles Mattson, which, now as the Ross case is solved, is the one remaining unsolved kidnaping.

No explanation There was no explanation given for Hoover's activities, and it was presumed that he made public only a part of his case when he told newspapermen in Los Angeles Monday night of Anders' arrest and confession.

Immediately after he conferred with newspapermen, Hoover disappeared. He was next seen at the St. Paul airport last night when a huge transport plane belonging to one of the transcontinental lines landed and taxied immediately into a hangar (Continued on Page 5, Column 3)

17 KIDNAP DEAD IN SCHOOL FIRE

ST. HYACINTHE, Que., Jan. 19 (UP)—The roll was called at what remained of the Sacred Heart college for the education of children and failed to answer. Seventeen were known to be dead. It was feared that the other children were among those that destroyed the school yesterday.

Icey winds and weather 10 degrees below zero hindered police, firemen and volunteer workers, who poked in the ruins for more bodies. Of the bodies recovered, only two had been identified — those of Rev. Brother Jean Baptiste, 64, and Joseph Vincent, 15.

Coroner Paul Morin ordered an investigation of reports that an explosion had occurred at the fire, which was discovered at 3 a. m. yesterday. He said that several survivors had told of having felt the building shake. A debris was found a hundred yards away.

Search for Bodies Today, dozens of mothers and fathers walked through the smoldering ruins to the little mounds to search for the bodies of their children. Most of the bodies had been charred, and identification was almost impossible.

Eward Meier, step-father of three boys, all feared dead, refused to believe the fire, which had been started six months to a widow, and had killed her children, Hans, 13, Tony, 12, and Joseph, 9, in the school.

Our house is almost directly across the street from the school," he said. "When we heard the alarm, we rushed over there. We were sure we would find our boys. Other children, some of them terribly burned and injured, were brought to our house. But today, Joe and Hans— I returned his search.

Some bodies lay on planks, others on shingles built last night. Two died in the hospital. (Continued on Page 5, Column 3)

BANDIT FOILED IN KIDNAP ATTEMPT

DARIEN, Conn., Jan. 19 (UP)—A state police officer was brought today by the apprehension of a masked man who criminally assaulted a maid at the home of Elmer F. Hurlbut, New York advertising agent, after being frustrated in an attempt to kidnap his five-month-old daughter.

The maid, Miss Catherine O'Connell, 22, was in a serious condition under a physician's care. The attempted abduction occurred shortly after 10 p. m. and Mrs. Hurlbut left home for the movie last night. Miss O'Connell said she was taking a bath when she heard someone in the bathroom. She slipped on a robe, she encountered a masked and armed man in the hallway and pleaded with him to put the child back in his crib as she had a cold.

When she picked up a telephone to call Mrs. Hurlbut's sister, Mrs. Walter Osborn, who lived nearby, she said she grabbed the instrument from her hands and struck her on the head, rendering her senseless. It was then that she was assaulted, she said. The man then placed the baby back in her crib and fled.

RUNAWAY YOUTHS TAKEN AT WELLS

Three Twin Falls youths who ran away from home Tuesday on the first leg of a long-planned hunt to see the world were held today at Wells, Nev., after being picked up there this morning by Ray King, city marshal.

King notified local police that the boys were being held pending action for their return to Twin Falls.

H. A. Holmes, 710 Second avenue north, father of David Holmes, 13, one of the three youths, will return the two boys Thursday, he said this afternoon. He will bring them to juvenile authorities for consideration.

The other two are Walter Dale, 15, Second avenue west, and Willie Stickline, who lives north of Main avenue on Heyburn. The three were reported missing by Holmes at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.

J. M. Shank, probation officer, immediately contacted Wells, surmising that the boys would take the 415 Oregon Short line train. This proved correct and the boys were located by the Wells marshal at 2 a. m. today.

The youths, all in junior high school, have been causing their parents considerable trouble with truancy from classes. Mr. Shank said that the boys would take the 415 Oregon Short line train. This proved correct and the boys were located by the Wells marshal at 2 a. m. today.

THREATS SENT TO FRIEND OF KING

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 19 (UP)—A Vienna government official said today that threats were being circulated to arrest resistance against her. Their tone generally was: "The King government is a fascist government—God is a puppet of their red-haired apostate Jewry... Romanians can be saved only by the attack of Carol's troops which away with the she-wolf, and away with Carol also if he continues to protect her policy of ruin for Romanians."

Four-Face Charges for Storming LDS Church

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 19 (UP)—Four men who attempted to storm their way into the Mormon temple building Sunday by attacking a "torchlight" parade were found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon today and were transferred to the county jail.

In an effort to restrain the men from entering the temple building, Julius Langbein was severely burned around the head, hands and arms. The men were found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon today and were transferred to the county jail.

Madge Evans Suffers From Hiccough Attack

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 19 (UP)—Madge Evans, film star, was confined to her home here today suffering from an attack of hiccoughs of more than six days duration.

Her physician, Dr. W. L. Marger, said that she was taken over by hiccoughs, following an attack of influenza, and defied all efforts to halt the hiccoughing.

Sheriff's Testimony Damages Defense in Trial of Mrs. Pruett

GOODING, Jan. 19 (Special)—Wayne Flack, Gooding county sheriff, stepped in as the feature witness for the state and offered what observers termed damaging testimony to the defense when he was called to the witness chair today in the trial of Genevieve Agnes Pruett, 32, Boise, who is being charged with first degree murder in the fatal shooting of her husband, Albert Donald Pruett, on Nov. 24 at Bliss.

Tuesday's witnesses failed to identify the death weapon positively, but it was admitted today as an exhibit when Sheriff Flack identified the .25 caliber gun as the lethal instrument.

Also admitted into evidence as exhibits were a box of cartridges Mrs. Pruett had purchased, the bullet that took the life of Donald Pruett, and a pamphlet found in Mrs. Genevieve Pruett's purse giving directions on how to operate the gun.

Chief of Remarks Sheriff Flack testified that when he arrived on the scene he questioned Mrs. Genevieve Pruett and she said: "I'll tell you later what happened." Pointing to the gun she added, "This is the gun I did it with."

"I want to get this off my chest," the sheriff said she told him, "I have nothing to be sorry for." She related to the sheriff that she came to Bliss to get the car that "Donald had stolen." Both had been parked in front of the Pruett home, so she returned to the hotel and registered. Pruett meanwhile went duck hunting and she loitered around the home until his return.

Cites Argument Whereas all the other witnesses had stated that husband and wife did not have words or quarrel outside the house, Sheriff Flack testified that according to Mrs. Pruett's statement she had argued with her husband to take her to California. Donald Pruett answered back that he would not take her anywhere.

She entered the car to talk to him, but he got out and started to take the shotgun from the rumble seat. She then stated that she took the gun out of her purse, released the safety catch, and called to her husband: "We've got to settle this thing!" "Beat it," answered her husband. "Then let him have it," Sheriff Flack testified. Pruett said she was crying.

Chambers' Crowd A. F. James, attorney for the defense, was cross-examining Sheriff Flack, the only witness of the morning, when Judge Doran H. Sutphen recessed the court. The courtroom (Continued on Page 5, Column 5)

North China Leader To Ask Peace Parley

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE SHANGHAI, Jan. 19 (UP)—Chen Qun-Fu, an outstanding North China leader, intends to consult the Japanese government on plans to form a Japanese-supported "national" cabinet which would seek to rule the country from Nanking, Chinese sources reported today.

Tang Shao-Yi, one time premier of China, would lead the "national" government informants said. Some reports were that Chen already had left for Tokyo, with peace terms which included recognition of Manchukuo, economic cooperation with Japan, financial independence for China, recognition of a reorganized government, and the preservation of rights of foreign nations, observance of foreign treaties and non-interference in the affairs of areas in which it might be agreed they were no longer necessary.

Chen asserted that Chen had the support of some elements of the present Chinese leadership, those inclining to the right wing, who are opposed to the present government of Communists in government councils.

Foreign observers here were inclined to believe that Chen's move succeeded it would not be for some time. There were conflicting reports that Chen had advanced new peace terms to Hsu-Fu-Shi-Ying, Chinese ambassador to Tokyo, who is soon to return home due to the new Japanese non-resistance new peace terms were said to be based on economic cooperation, employment of Japanese to train the Chinese army, and settlement of Japanese claims by mayors of Peiping, Tientsin, Tsingtau, and Shanghai, and withdrawal of Japanese troops except from Peiping, Tientsin, Tsinan and Chefoo areas. Foreign observers suggested that any Japanese terms are likely to be more drastic.

CONTRAST MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 19 (UP)—Lola De Prek, 19 one-time "bomber" in a New York night club who tips the scales at 160 pounds, today was the first wife of Bill Curtis, 79-pound midget, 10 years her senior. Miss De Prek is six feet four and one-half inches tall, weighs 143 pounds and has a one-half foot tail.

Curtis left for the ceremony yesterday for New York to join a troupe which he is publishing. Walt Disney's cartoon "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." His bride said she plans to join him later.

Veteran Miner Expects New Boom in Jarbidge

"Jarbidge may be on the verge of a new boom in population, if the latest mining operations discover the ore bodies located by diamond drills last year," Theodore Parks, veteran mining operator from Jarbidge, said today. He is publishing a pamphlet outlining the mining business relative to his mining interests.

Parks, a mine operator in Jarbidge since 1909, is the proprietor of the Jarbidge Hotel. He is a member of the Jarbidge Club. He has been in the Jarbidge mining camp of another era, "a man goes old blind when he mines his own business," he refused to be quoted definitely on any of the mining operations of the new company, but showed pictures of a much larger Jarbidge than the one still in publication that stated the situation at Jarbidge.

The Jarbidge mine, a great former producer, has been taken over by the Newmont Mining company, operating under the name of the Gray

LEWIS CHARGED WITH BLOCKADE OF LABOR PEACE

Copyright, 1938, United Press WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (UP)—Wm. Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, today blamed C. I. O. Chairman John L. Lewis for collapse of recent A. F. L.-C. I. O. negotiations and suggested that it was time for somebody else to "carry the ball."

He hinted that his hope for a new peace movement depended on David Dubinsky, president of the ladies' garment workers union.

Dubinsky seems for the moment that Green is taking on the burden of carrying it. Green said, "Whether he can push it close to the goal line is a matter to be determined."

Green said that he had not given up hope for a settlement of the more than two-year-old labor civil war and he called for solidarity and harmony in the labor movement.

He revealed that the federation had issued a standing invitation to the "big four" independent railroad brotherhoods to join the A. F. of L. The brotherhood claims 500,000 members, and always have remained independent of other labor groups.

Dean in 18th Day Without Food, Water MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 19 (UP) Senate looked today at the case of William Hodson, 47, charged with the 18th day without food or water, and said it might be a fortnight before the trials that will decide whether he lives or dies.

Dean Noe, seeking to condition himself to the point where he will be nourished by spiritual strength alone, wanted to know about an illness in his family. Mrs. Noe fainting last night, 15 minutes before the dean was to take a train for Knoxville where the Episcopal division of Tennessee is holding its convention. Although church law requires his attendance at the convention, the dean cancelled his departure, explaining that he would go to Knoxville tonight if Mrs. Noe's health permitted.

The dean firmly believed that his fast was bringing him closer to the state of a "balanced body," a body sensitive enough to function on the highest plane of life and real enough to carry on in the daily plane.

NAVY ENDS MASS FLIGHT IN PACIFIC

PEARL HARBOR, HONOLULU, T. H., Jan. 19 (UP)—The navy completed its greatest mass flight in history today when 18 of its huge bombers settled here after a 2,800-mile over-water flight from San Diego.

The first of the 14-ton, two-motored "flying battlebirds" landed at 6:45 a. m. (EST). Thirteen of the ships, carrying a total complement of 127 officers and men, were to land at regular intervals. The last ship to land here was the one which they will headquarter.

A dead calf prevailed over the water and the navy's fighting planes. The first craft of the V-9 and V-10 squadrons to complete the journey touched here just 20 hours and 12 minutes after the takeoff from San Diego at 10:38 a. m. (MST).

The time when the fastest ever flight by the navy in a long mass flight although it was approximately 20 hours and 12 minutes after the first ship to land carried Lt. Commander B. H. Warner, in charge of the flight.

Order Comes as Congress Studies Taxes and Relief

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (UP)—Vice-President John N. Garner told the senate, which has been the scene of an un-nampered filibuster for two weeks, that the rules henceforth would be enforced "in a technical manner."

This first definite move to end the filibuster against the anti-lynching bill, opposed by southern senators, came as congressional committees studied proposals for tax revision and relief matters, the importance of which has been accentuated by the business recession.

In a statement at the opening of today's session Garner said that controversy had developed over enforcement of the rules and said that a majority which started Jan. 8 against the anti-lynching bill, constituted a filibuster. He announced that rules provided obstacles of unrestricted speech. The presiding officer ruled that a senator would lose the floor if he yielded for anything except a question. Quorum calls, which would bring delay and give the speaker a rest, also were barred.

Legislative Day of Jan. 6 "We are still in the legislative day of Jan. 6," Garner said. The senate has two sets of rules. One for ordinary business and another for such occasions as this. "When I am in the chair, I am going to enforce the rules in a technical manner in this case."

William Hodson, commissioner of public welfare in New York City, told the senate unemployment and relief committee that his chief concern should be to get a job for the kids. His testimony came after Secretary of Labor Francis Perkins published a report indicating that every tenth worker in the U. S. is unemployed.

Special Investigations of Federal Income Tax The House Ways and Means committee today reported the repeal of all inheritance, gift and estate taxes and deductions from federal taxes the charitable contributions. He said that the present system of federal income taxes was unworkable.

Harry Lundberg, secretary of the sailors union of the Pacific, told a senate committee that federal investigation had concurred all seamen on record as favoring a few changes of lack of discipline and suggested that those who made the charges should be investigated. He intimated that every tenth worker in the merchant marine workers might be propaganda by foreign shipping interests.

LOANS

BOISE, Ida., Jan. 19 (UP)—A penitentiary audit progress report, submitted today to the state board of public accounts, said advised Governor Barzilla Clark that discovery of "several unusual and extraordinary situations" had delayed final delivery of the audit.

Evans, in a letter to the governor, said the "extraordinary" situations included personal loans by convict to penitentiary employes, a $500 loan by a convict to a former warden, and a former warden's authorization to employ a convict clerk to do the penitentiary books at a bank instead of depositing them with the state treasurer.

Prisoner Escapes State Penitentiary

BOISE, Ida., Jan. 19 (UP)—John Franklin, 60, serving a 3 to 10-year term from Adams county for a state felony crime, escaped today from the state penitentiary, parole officer Edward Wilkinson announced.

GERMAN SCARE PUTS END TO CRISIS IN FRENCH CABINET

MARCHANDEAU IS KEY MAN IN NEW SET OF LEADERS

PARIS, Jan. 19 (UP)—A warning that Germany might take forceful action in foreign politics was a contributing factor in a quick ending of France's cabinet crisis, it was reported today.

Two informants told the United Press that Andre Francoise-Poncet, ambassador to Germany, made a most optimistic report to the government regarding the possibilities of Germany's intentions in the foreign field.

A right wing source asserted that the report was so serious in nature that it was a contributing reason why Leon Blum, Socialist leader, tried to form a cabinet on a national coalition basis and then abandoned his attempt when he found himself out of the majority both left wing and centrist support.

Government Warned

"This informant said that Francoise-Poncet warned the government that Adolf Hitler was preparing some such move like his denunciation of the military clauses of the Versailles treaty and his military reoccupation of the Rhineland. It was indicated that the German move might be made in March.

The abandonment of his attempt to form a cabinet left the way open for Camille Chautemps to step in and form one, with the membership restricted to his own Radical Socialist party. Chautemps, leader of the Popular Front cabinet which fell last Friday, remains in charge of the difference between the Socialist will support him who were not included in the cabinet membership.

Key Man

Paul Marchandean, 49, is key man in the new cabinet as finance minister, succeeding Paul Bonnet, who was the central figure in last week's cabinet fall.

It was apparent that the composition of the cabinet of the 20th cabinet was more conservative. Talk in the chamber of deputies' corridors indicated that some control and right wing leaders were expected to be included to support the cabinet on a basis of social and political peace.

The house opened strong at noon.

SUSPICION SEEN FOR ROSS KILLER

that had been prepared for it. In the plane was Hoover, his squad of G-men, and a prisoner. The plane had been so long out of Los Angeles that it could easily have flown as far off the course as Tacoma, Wash., Resemblance

In Tacoma, investigators noticed resemblance of pictures of Anders and an artist's drawing of the Mattson "kidnap" from the description of the only persons who saw him—the three children who were with Charles when he was abducted.

Dr. William W. Mattson denied that either Hoover or his prisoner had been in Tacoma. The F. B. I. officers there refused to make any comment.

Hoover's explanation of his coming here instead of going directly to Chicago was that he "wanted to get some rest before getting into Chicago." He said he, his agents, and their prisoners would continue on to Chicago this morning.

Killed Deliberately

In the Mattson case, the kidnaper killed the victim, the kidnaper, who once was a logger in Washington state, killed Ross deliberately. He also killed the partner in crime because he didn't want to share $50,000 ransom.

In the vicinity of Rockford, Ill., there was no indication that Anders was looking for the bodies of Anders' victims, though Anders confessed to them that he had buried them there. He also told the partner that night that the bodies had not been recovered.

Also the men had nothing to say about the "kidnap" described by Miss Florence Frisgabe, 44, secretary of Ross, who was with him on the night of Feb. 25 when he was kidnaped near Syracuse, Ill.

Miss Frisgabe was positive there had been three men—who dragged Anders out of a car, a third man walked at the wheel.

"Miss Frisgabe will be the only identifying witness against Anders."

Man reaching hastily for dime lying on sidewalk and getting red ears as eagle-eyed woman beats his hat.

Two teen-agers, who were informing other "Men" him fought for two hours and a half.

Socks filled with beans, piled on Chambers street, were noted on Chambers street today.

Two colored gentlemen talking to each other across the street.

MAILERS WARNED ON FULL ADDRESS

Stressing the fact that insufficient addresses are being put on letters mailed for local delivery, M. A. Strunk, postmaster, stated this afternoon that merchants in particular must see that a complete specific address is given on each of their bills and statements which are mailed monthly.

Quoting from the rules and regulations of the postoffice department, Strunk said that "letters of local origin without specific address or undeliverable at the address given and bearing a return card, will be returned immediately to the sender, thus making it necessary for local mailers who have all mail for local delivery specifically and correctly addressed."

Patrons Increase

The number of patrons of the Twin Falls post office has grown to such proportions that mail carriers are not specifically addressed has become a real problem, the postmaster said. Approximately 17,000 to 18,000 persons are served daily by the local office and while experienced sorters are employed in the distribution of mail, it is impossible for them to remember the address of each of the large number. The office force tries to locate correct addresses in directories, Mr. Strunk explained, but the best results have been obtained by insufficiently addressed mail matter.

This reason he warned that patrons of the office should keep their correspondents, local and out of the city, advised of their correct address, which will require no letter sent than routine sorting and delivering.

Small Town No More

"Twin Falls is no longer a small town where everybody knows everybody else, but a city too big to handle letters insufficiently addressed," added Strunk.

"Over 15,000 pieces of local mail are dropped at the post office during the first few days of the month. This is why we must require the attention of local merchants in learning the correct address of their mailers before addressing their mail specifically."

Cold Wave in East Lets Up

(By United Press)

The east's sharpest cold wave of the winter abated slightly today. With the slowly rising temperature came a prospect of snow in several areas.

In New York City last night's lowest temperature was 7 above zero, compared with 5 degrees yesterday. Probable snowfall tomorrow was forecast by the weather bureau.

Hartford, Conn., registered a low of 5 degrees below zero, the lowest temperature there in two years.

CHIEF CALLS FOR ALL-YEAR SAFETY

With only one minor automobile accident listed by police records during the past twenty-four hours and other minor mishaps of mangled fenders and broken headlights and bumpers during the storm period over the week-end, Chief of Police Howard W. Gillette issued admonition today to drivers to be careful not only during safety week, now being observed, but each day of the year.

Chief Gillette's statement to the public said: "Safety week can be a splendid observation. If the motoring public will use all of it to consolidate all firm resolution to drive with care and consideration for the rights of others throughout the entire year."

"Don't be like the hypocrite who goes to church on Sunday and then breaks every rule the rest of the week."

Gillette struck at careless driving, hit-and-run cases and automobile accidents. These are a daily occurrence, he said. Local doctors are being called to treat attention publicly issued during safety week in regard to home accidents, many of which come because of the careless use of furniture and other household and kindred thoughtless acts that can be avoided.

GOVERNOR GIVES HELP ON BEANS

Governor Barilla Clark not only will ship Twin Falls samples of Idaho's select great northern beans to the governors of the other states, but will also send out the same beans to his friends and friends, he informed the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce today.

The chamber this afternoon dispatched 100 bags to Governor Clark, his secretary, Juneau H. Shinn, formerly of Twin Falls, will also send out samples to officials.

The beans were dispatched by Consolidated Truck Lines, which carried them free of charge.

Sacking Underway

Sacking of the remainder of 3,000 bags of select Idaho beans at the Twin Falls warehouse, and mailing will start Thursday by the chamber on behalf of all residents wishing to have their beans mailed.

The sacks carry getting Idaho and Twin Falls beans, including a sheet of recipes utilizing Idaho beans and urging that buyers in all parts of the U. S. "ask your grocer for the great northern beans produced in large quantities in Twin Falls county."

Names Taken

Names for mailing were being left at the chamber today, and similar "order taking" will start Thursday in downtown stores. Cost per sack—with all mailing charges paid—will be $1.00.

Meanwhile, as National bean week progressed, reports here indicated that the bulk of Idaho farmers were shipping their beans to Michigan, although the local sale has already risen 10 cents. Michigan bean men, according to several dealers, were sending the freight differential free to them as an advantage in price.

fecting the main face of swine, which is corn."

Pork Scarcity

In taking up beef cattle he stated the reason for beef being so high is due largely to the scarcity of pork.

"If we have more near normal corn crops in the next few years in the Pacific northwest, pork production will again be back to normal in three more years. If this happens it will be more likely to cause cattle prices to rise than to fall."

"The cattle price cycle is moving downward."

"The hog market will probably not be affected so much by an increase in hog slaughter," he pointed out.

The need for scientific knowledge and the need for better methods of problems in game management in our national forests was the theme of Dr. H. Rutledge, forest supervisor for the Intermountain area, and speaker on the institute program, at the opening of the Rotary club luncheon at the Wood cafe yesterday.

The meeting was largely attended by local men and Rotarians, as well as visiting members from Halley and Shoshone.

HULL ASKS TALK TO SOVIET 'SPY'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (UP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull instructed the American charge d'affaires in London today to get permission to interview Mrs. Ruth Marie Rubens of Philadelphia, held by Soviet authorities as a possible espionage agent in an alleged espionage plot.

Hull said that although Mrs. Rubens and her "husband" were traveling on fraudulent passports under the name of "Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Robinson," she is an American citizen and entitled to counsel and protection. The same Hull will apply to Robinson if he proves to be an American.

The mysterious disappearance of the Robinsons was solved yesterday when the Soviet foreign office admitted that the couple was being held in the man's spy, his supposed wife as an accessory.

The announcement climaxed weeks of sharp exchanges between Hull and Soviet officials since November when Robinson vanished from the National hotel in Moscow.

Of the 27 missing, a great majority were children.

The fire enveloped half the building when the sleeping children and their teachers were awakened. Church bells, pealing an alarm, brought hundreds of townspeople to the school to hear the cries of children running through the fire-broken corridors.

Many were injured jumping from the roof or from broken windows. Survivors, clad only in nightgowns, huddled in the bitter cold before they were given refuge in nearby houses.

SHOSHONE MARKS WEATHER CHANGE

SHOSHONE, Jan. 19 (Special)—During the week-end there was a change with the start of slight rain, the atmosphere being like that of April. Then came the snow, plenty of it, wet and thick, and it continued throughout the day Monday. Where all was dry and drab Sunday is a white world.

Most of it ran off the hills, and the streets were sloppy with hard going for cars. One accident occurred on Friday night. Two cars went into a head-on collision. One was involved in a fire. No one was injured and the cars but slightly damaged.

Reports from the hill section state a considerable fall in the section late Sunday and the day following and at Ketchikan all conditions are reported to be improved, as the Howl of the day previous had melted. In the course of the day, it is figured a heavy surface will again put the track in fine condition. Many parties took in the two-day sports carnival at Sun Valley, and a name was made by train.

The Hagerman section, where Ketchikan and left here Sunday, left late for the east. President of the Union Pacific was sent to Hagerman, where he will remain for three or four days.

THE plain truth of the jail problem is that nothing constructive can be done until the people themselves wake up to the fact that conditions are deplorable.

While you're doing those mental gymnastics on monopoly and its evils, you might work out a while with this one—polyopoly!

They Came Back For the 10th year, Alabama tries out its "Christmas parole" plan for "most worthy" prison convicts.

Nicaragua doubled salaries of all government employees to meet high cost of living. Let's hope it doesn't do our Congress any ideas.

THEY had slipped into a ditch, facing the bank, which was fortunate. At the other side of the road there was a sheer drop of more than a thousand feet.

STUDENT COUNCIL UPHOLDS DANCES

Two resolutions were adopted and a ruling passed by the regular meeting of the Twin Falls high school student council at a session this week. The first resolution passed unanimously and was read to all upper class attendees today. It stated members of the council definitely approved of the dances being sponsored by the P-T-A, and urged the P-T-A to continue to sponsor them.

The other resolution favored a longer noon hour but no other action on the matter was taken.

The ruling passed provided that members of the pep band were to receive chenille lyre emblems in recognition of their service, provided to be made at the discretion of the director, Harley B. Smith.

Salvation Army Asks Donations To Aid Destitute

A mattress, bedding and baby clothes are vitally needed by residents of Twin Falls who have applied to the Salvation Army for aid. The official request today. Children's clothes and shoes are also badly wanted.

In describing the destitution behind some of the calls the organization cited the case of children in a family of seven who sleep on pieces of cardboard on the floor. They have little covering that they shiver all night. Other children cannot go to school because they lack proper shoes and clothing.

A free tree is maintained every Monday afternoon at the Salvation Army headquarters and receives an average of 25 calls from families in urgent need. This week almost the entire supply was given away in answer to requests.

Only means of aid are through contributions, officials said today. Those who have articles to give are asked to bring them to the hall on call 303-J and they will be called for.

GROVER ALEXANDER GIVEN HIGHEST HONOR Managers Start Worry Over Weak Spots in 1938 Ball Clubs

Writers 'Elect Old Hurler to "Hall of Fame"

Bronze Tablet Will Pay Tribute to One of Baseball's Greatest Pitchers

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (U.P.)—There'll soon be hung on the wall of the baseball museum at Cooperstown, N. Y., a bronze plaque depicting the image of a leather-necked, freckle-faced player—the latest addition to the hall of fame.

On the plaque it'll say: "Grover Cleveland Alexander 'Old Hurler' of the 'Hall of Fame'." "Alexander the Great" Phillies 1911-1917; Cubs, 1918-1926; Cardinals, 1926-1929; Phillies, 1930.

Those lines will cover the bare facts of a career of 19 years of major league pitching service during which he won 373 games more than any other national league pitcher in history, an amazing record every pitcher laurel except a no-hit, no-run game. But, neither those lines nor any other can tell of his high and low. Alexander's checkered career.

Get Freshman Record
They do not tell how same one from five Minneapolis to the Phillies in 1911 for the insignificant draft price, won 28 games, a 20th century record for a freshman pitcher. In 1912, he won 280 a month, less than half of what the lowest rookie gets nowadays for sitting on the bench. They do not tell how that same one—"Old Pete," as he was affectionately called by ball players, pitched four successive shutouts.

Nothing is really about how in 1915 he pitched four 1-1/2 games, or how he won 31 games and compiled an earned run average of 1.29, a record for a pitcher working in as many as 250 innings.

There is nothing to bring back his record of 10 shutouts in 33 victories, all when he pitched with the Cubs and finally his release to the Cardinals in 1926 because he and Joe McCarthy couldn't see eye to eye on training rules.

Biggest Five Minutes
And missing most of all is the biggest minutes in his life—his dramatic fanning of Tony Lazzari with the bases filled in the 7th inning of the 7th and deciding world series game between the Cardinals and Yankees in 1926.

The bronze tablet will not tell how "Alex the great" drilled back the nation, then down to the David—barbarians, then down, down until he had reached baseball's lowest level, taking work when and where he could find it. How they plotted him up for dead on a courthouse at Evansville, Ind., a year and a half ago.

Now at 51—Alexander's name goes up to the hall of fame alongside those of Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson, Ed Walsh, Homer Dubs, Ray Chapman, Babe Ruth, and Cy Young. All were voted places by the baseball writers' association and members of the National League—Connie Mack, John McGraw, Sam Johnson, George Wright and Morgan Kousser, the contest, president of the National League.

Alexander now is official scorer for the Empire Hotel, Springfield, Ill., when he makes the occasional semi-pro-team in the summer time. Out of the 362 writers who voted in the election, he received 212. Seventy-five per cent of that 197 were necessary for election.

Bruins Defeat Rupert Quint By 28-22 Score

The Bruins of Twin Falls had more victory tucked under their belts here today after a none-too-convincing win over Coosaw. Wes Shurtiffs sharp-shooting Pirates of Rupert. The final count was 28-22, but the score was knotted at 21-11 with only four minutes to go, and Rupert led at least half of the ball game.

The visitors got an even break for the evening when their junior jockey downed the Twin Falls frosh-soph club 23-21 in the last five seconds of play.

Brown, speedy guard who played on the Twin Falls five last year, led his team in scoring with seven points and played a fine defensive game. On three different occasions he was on the free throw line for gift shots to tie the score and made good every time. He sank five free throws in five attempts.

The Bruins moved into the front at the start of the game to hold an 8-5 advantage at the quarter. Rupert, led by the long-shooting Wilson, came back to gain a one-point 14-13 lead at the intermission.

In the first quarter the lead changed hands for every score until the final three minutes when Twin Falls went into its four-point rally to end the period 21-17. Rupert came right back to knot the count at 21-11 in the early part of the final quarter.

Art Tranner broke the deadlock with his first score of the evening, and then Walte dropped in a gift shot to give the Bruins their biggest advantage of the game as the game neared its close.

All through the game the Twin Falls forward wall broke through for what appeared to be set-ups, only to miss the basket, Jerry's edition of the "Pittsburgh merrymaking" worked to perfection—greatly to the man that stood up with the ball always missed the basket.

In the preliminary 14, neither team was led by more than three points throughout the whole game. The visitors were ahead with 45 seconds to go, but the Bruins took the ball the entire length of the floor and Seaman dropped in the winning counter, just before the four-point.

Trojans Score Shoshone Win

WENDELL, Jan. 19 (Special)—Cooking Shoshone's victory and a riddle Wendell Trojans noosed out the invading Shoshone club in a thriller here last night by five points, 20-15, at the half time, 15-11.

In a preliminary 10 the invading girls barely gained a 37-36 victory over the local misers in another game that was a heart-breaker to lose.

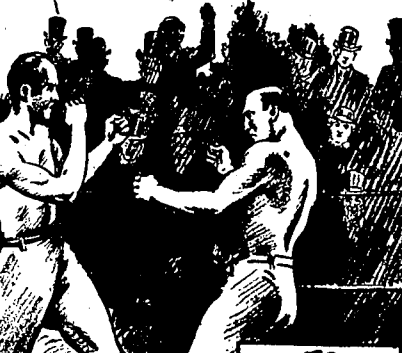

The visiting Indians were behind 3-3 at the end of the first quarter, but a powerful defense held Wendell scoreless in the second stanza as Shoshone run up to 10-3 before the Trojans rallied in the final frame.

Barrett, unorthodox, but sharp-shooting Wendell forward was outstanding in the contest, scored 10 points, regular Trojan guard was missing from the lineup because of injury.

In the girls game Wendell trailed 14-3 at the quarter, 20-11 at the half, and then tied to 29-30 at the third stanza.

Mac Says Braddock is a Fool To Get in Ring with Farr

By HENRY McLEMORE
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19 (U.P.)—James J. Braddock fights Tommy Farr in New York Friday night, and I think he's a fool to do it. And I believe if he asked Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey for their honest opinion, they would tell him the same thing.

Dempsey refused a genuine offer of $750,000 to fight Gene Tunney, but he's no business out there if he was afraid of what another fight with the sharp-shooting Tiger might do to his eyesight. Louis hit his head on it, and the money, just as anyone who always used three-quarters of a million dollars. But his sense of values wouldn't let him gamble his eyes against a checking account.

Not so wise
Sharkey was not so wise. Greed got the better of him. He rose to the lure of the cash offered him to fight Joe Louis, and came out of retirement. He went in the ring with a killer in his brain. And a long, long career in the mazy art. He had plenty of money, but wanted more. You know what happened. Louis hit his head on it, and the money, just as anyone who always used three-quarters of a million dollars. But his sense of values wouldn't let him gamble his eyes against a checking account.

Braddock has no business fighting Farr. Even if he needs money, and needs it badly, he's awfully foolish to gamble his brain. And that's what he is doing. Jim is through as a fighter. He has reached the age and condition where he has no business out there in a 15-round fight, even if his foe is a man no better equipped than Tommy Farr.

Could Jim in Early Round
Jim's only chance to win is to land his right in an early round. Maybe he will, but the chances are much against it. Louis could hit him for three times as quick as the Jersey Irishman. Once that 15th round is past, Braddock is certain to be a stationary target and even a Farr puncher against Braddock is ally.

Strangely enough, it is Braddock's courage that was the most. The Irishman is one of the most lovable fellows ever to pull on a glove, doesn't know how to quit. Or how to preserve himself. He knows but one thing—move in and keep punching to the end. He proved his point. Louis. He never could have licked Louis that night in Chicago, but he could have saved himself a wicked target and even a Farr puncher against Braddock is ally.

hain't a chance against Farr. He has. Any living man has a chance against Farr. Because the Englishman can't fight a lick. All he has is youth and vitality. That talk about his planning to become a puncher against Braddock is ally. You are born with a punch. You can't buy one. But he has youth. Braddock has it. Hean't had it for 10 years in fact. I wish he wasn't fighting Friday night.

WHAT CATHARTICS DO TO YOU!

Harsh pills and purgatives often over-stimulate your system, and leave you weak and listless. If your constipation is of the common type that is due to insufficient bulk, then a better way to treat it. Kellogg's All- Bran supplies the bulk you need. It absorbs moisture and softens stools like a sponge. This water-soaked mass aids elimination. But All- Bran does still more. It contains bran, which is rich in vitamin B1, which vitamin is essential to the intestinal tract.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

THE SOUTH MAGNETIC POLE OF THE EARTH HAS NOT BEEN REACHED!
IT IS LOCATED IN ANTARCTICA, AT ABOUT 72° SOUTH AND 155° 16' EAST.

IN 1917, MORE COAL WAS USED IN THE UNITED STATES THAN IN ANY OTHER YEAR... 6.08 TONS PER CAPITA... A RECORD THAT PROBABLY WILL STAND FOREVER.

THE ROCKING FISH CAN TASTE WITH ITS FEELERS AND FINS, AS WELL AS ITS MOUTH.

Capt. Douglas Mawson of the Shackleton expedition almost reached the exact spot on the south magnetic pole. He found a place where the dip of the compass needle was only a fifth of a degree from vertical.

PIONEER TRIBUTE PAID AT SERVICE

High tribute for Lloyd Brown and for the Brown family as a vital factor in the history of Twin Falls and old Cassia counties had been paid today by pioneer leaders.

The tribute from pioneers marked funeral services conducted at White mortuary here yesterday for Mr. Brown, prominent Kimberly rancher who succumbed to injuries received when a team of horses bolted at the ranch of his brother, Rev. George Roseberry, Rupert, Methodist pastor, officiated at the services and delivered a eulogy.

48er Chief Speaks

Hyrum Lewis, Declo, president of 48er association, addressed the overflow group of friends and pioneers who stressed the importance of the Brown family in the setting and government of old Cassia county.

"The history of Twin Falls and Cassia counties would not be complete without the story of this family," the 48er president stated. Mr. Brown's father, "Gub" Brown, was county auditor and sheriff in old Cassia for many years.

Alma Wells, Twin Falls L. D. S. churchman, whose family is listed among pioneers of this section, also spoke at the services.

Funeral Services

Included in the gathering that paid tribute yesterday were pioneers from Rock Creek, Albion, Burley, Pleasant Valley and other sections. Music at the services was provided by a faculty mixed quartet from Kimberly, Miss Lucille Ward and Miss Louise Ostrand, diocesan choir teachers and classmates of Mr. Brown's daughter, sang with H. W. Ewert and Supt. L. A. Thomas of the high school faculty. Flower offerings were impressive.

Interment was in Twin Falls cemetery.

FRUIT MEN HEAR SPRAYING RESULT

Results of the 1936 and 1937 experiments in apple spraying were outlined before a large gathering of fruit growers of this district last night by Dr. Claude Wakeland, head of the University of Idaho entomology department and director of the Idaho agricultural experiment station at Moscow. The meeting was held at the inspection offices here.

Dr. Wakeland explained charts showing the results obtained in the use of seven commercial and home-made sprays. He stated that the best all-around spray that the department would recommend for control of codling moth, was the standard spray used extensively for the past eight years, composed of one-fourth pound of coloidal copper, three pounds of lead arsenate, and one-half gallon summer oil to 100 gallons of spray. He stated that this mixture gave satisfactory control, complete coverage and brought up the least problems.

Red Spiders

His recommendation for the control of the red spider was an early application of a spray solution of one to one and one-half gallons of summer oil per 100 gallons of spray. "It is not necessary to use an extremely heavy spray loads in the Twin Falls area to secure satisfactory control," stated Dr. Wakeland. In concluding his talk, he warned fruit growers that the extremely light winter would make 1938 a bad year for acorns.

Apple Men "Better Off"

A. W. McDonald, purchaser for the Federal Surplus Commodities corporation, told local growers that the Twin Falls section is better off in regard to an apple surplus than are other localities in the state. He stated that 350 carloads of fresh apples had been purchased in the state, 400 carloads of fresh apples had been sent to the dryer at Payette and that approximately 100 carloads still remained in the district.

J. R. Douglas, head of the bureau of entomology here and USDA research investigator for beet leafhoppers, and Joseph A. Gillette, Moscow, assistant entomologist at the experiment station in charge of insect control of beet leafhoppers, attended the meeting and were introduced by Dr. Wakeland.

APPLE GROWERS ALLOT PURCHASE

Allotment of surplus apple purchases by the Federal Surplus Commodities corporation had been made today by the Twin Falls Horticultural association.

The group convened at the inspection offices last night in conjunction with the meeting that heard Dr. Claude Wakeland, University of Idaho entomologist explain apple spraying experiments. Joe H. Day, Egan, president of the fruit growers, presided at the horticultural session. Commitment from various districts apportioned on an equitable basis the purchases of apple carloads by the federal agency. Cars will be loaded at Twin Falls, Pier, Kimberly, Buhl and Hansen. The growers heard A. W. McDonald, USDA agent, outline purchases to date.

Duffy Rites Set For Buhl Friday

BUHL, Jan. 19 (Special)—Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Betty Duffy, 58, who succumbed at her home on Monday, had been completed today. Services will be conducted on Friday at 2 p. m. from the Buhl Methodist church, with the pastor, Rev. Walter H. Walker officiating.

Interment is to be at Buhl under arrangement of the Evans and Johnson families.

Church Official to Assist in Revival

KIMBERLY, Jan. 19 (Special)—Rev. Glen Griffith, Nampa, Idaho—Oregon superintendent, will assist in the revival here of the Nazarene church beginning Thursday evening and will remain for the dedication of the new church at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Rev. J. Russell Brown, Gooding, will sponsor the movement. Griffith, a Christian, and last evening had for his topic "Death, Hell and the Judgment." On Friday evening the services will be featured by a silver love offering for Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Schaap.

$10,000 DIVIDEND FOR HOME LOAN

Harry Eaton, secretary of the Home Loan company, announced today at a meeting of stockholders that a 10 per cent liquidating dividend totaling $10,000 is being distributed to stockholders. This brings the total reimbursements to $85,000 which has been paid out to stockholders since the company was organized in conjunction with the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company in 1933.

"Another liquidation may be anticipated in 1938," stated Secretary Eaton.

All directors of the corporation, were re-elected by the stockholders. Rev. H. B. Howell, who recently was president of the group, L. A. Chapin, Harry Eaton, O. K. Hunt and George E. Sandmole.

COMMISSIONERS CONSIDER LEVY

County commissioners are considering a proposition for assessing a one-tenth mill levy on the $23,385,000 of assessed valuation of property here to contribute $2,338,500 to the state-wide program to advertise Idaho at the Golden Gate International exposition in 1939.

Each county is being solicited by the State Chamber of Commerce for cooperation in its effort to raise $30,000 for construction of an Idaho display. Other western states are conducting similar campaigns.

A 100,000 Western States building is to be erected with the committee department and director of studies and will house a huge relief map constructed on a scale of one mile to the inch.

The Idaho participation in the program dates from a meeting on Jan. 7 of the San Francisco fair committee headed by Gov. Barzilla W. Clark, president, and L. F. Parsons, secretary.

BANK AND TRUST RENAMES CHIEFS

Stockholders of the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company re-elected members of a seven-man board of directors at their annual meeting Tuesday at the bank office, and heard Curtis Turner, cashier, read reports showing a rapid four-year growth of the institution.

Robert S. Blacklock, Dr. J. F. Coughlin, Harry Eaton, F. A. Kennedy, Peter Link, C. A. Robinson and Curtis Turner compose the re-elected board of directors. Robert Blacklock was again re-elected president of the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company.

An increase of $2,000,000 in bank assets from 1933 to December, 1937, was shown by the cashier's report. During the same period an increase of $1,740,000 was shown in earning assets.

During 1937 the bank's surplus increased to $120,000 from $80,000 in 1936. Deposits remained at the same level with earning assets, being increased to $2,000,000.
