TAX REVISION BILL INTRODUCED IN HOUSE

FATHER PLEADS NO INTERFERENCE IN KIDNAP CASE

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., March 1 (AP)—Murray Levine, prosperous attorney, attempted to negotiate today with the kidnapers of his 12-year-old son, Peter, who disappeared last Thursday and was being held for ransom, reportedly $60,000.

The kidnaping was announced officially by Philip A. Alden, director of public safety of New Rochelle, last night on the eve of the sixth anniversary of the kidnaping of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr.

Levine was described by friends as well-to-do but not wealthy. The following appeal on his behalf was broadcast by radio over the greater New York metropolitan area.

"My son, Peter, 12-years-old, has been missing since Thursday afternoon. I have made every effort to keep this from the public because of my desire to do everything I possibly can to meet the demands of those who may be holding my boy.

"The authorities, local and federal, have promised me that I am to be permitted to negotiate with them to accomplish the return of my son without any interference on their part. Those who may be holding my boy can safely deal with me.

"I especially ask the newspapers to refrain from having their representatives telephone my home or congregating in the vicinity. Until I have had a reasonable opportunity to work this out, I shall give no further information.

"I beg my friends and the public to refrain from making any statements alone. All people of decent sentiment (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

THREE PRINCESSES ARRIVE FOR VISIT

NEW YORK, March 1 (AP)—Myriam, Rubie and Maxine, sisters of King Zog I of Albania, began a three-day visit today at the Waldorf-Astoria, with a display of royal dignity that chilled receptionists, that they were looking for wealthy American husbands.

"There is no motive in our trip, except friendly curiosity," the princesses said in a formal statement issued after they had impressed reporters on the liner Costa di Suvola with their annoyance over the husband-seeking reports.

"We are tourists on a vacation," they said. "The world-famous courtesy and spirit of hospitality of the American people give us hope that a freedom of privacy granted to all tourists will be extended to us.

Mrs. Capone Makes 2nd Alcatraz Visit

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1 (AP)—Mrs. Mamie Capone, blond wife of Scarpia A. Capone, made a spectacular dash in a taxicab to the Port Mason dock today, boarded a government tug under protection of federal officers, and sailed out to Alcatraz island in San Francisco bay to pay a second visit in two days to her mentally-stricken convict husband.

Mrs. Capone was accompanied by her brother-in-law, Ralph Capone. Yesterday they dodged interviewers in another wild taxi ride.

Today's trip to "the rock" was carried out with Mrs. Capone's customary secrecy. From an undisclosed temporary residence in the city, she and her brother-in-law went to the waterfront in a limousine, approximately a mile from the "Birds and Bees" wharf.

Crissling slowly along the Embarcadero, they halted a taxicab. Making a quick transfer, they ordered the cab driver to go to the dock "without stopping." The driver said afterward.

Newspapermen and cameramen, who had been waiting for the wharf by federal agents, were waiting for Mrs. Capone's arrival. The cab, traveling at a high speed, skirted a guard post of men who ran out to intercept the cab. The cab came to a quick stop at the wharf.

Mrs. Capone, wearing a mink coat, ankle length and a light straw hat with suede shoes to match, covered her face as cameramen sought to take her picture from a distance. She ran off the gangplank with Ralph Capone behind her.

WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP)—Chairman Robert M. Doughton, D. N. C. of the house ways and means committee, today introduced in the house the administration's tax revision bill designed as an aid to fighting the recession by removing some of the restrictive measures on business.

JAPANESE BLAST WAY TOWARD OPENING TO HANKOW

EVACUATION OF ALL FOREIGNERS ASKED IN BILLS

By JOHN R. MORRIS
SHANGHAI, March 1 (UP)—Chengchow, a railway junction in the central China, was the object today of a mass bombing by Japanese warplanes seeking to blast defenders from the city and make an opening for Japanese forces driving toward Hankow.

Preparations for an extensive bombing of the junction of the east and west Lanchow road and the north and south Peiping-Hankow line were undertaken after Japanese columns lifted the north bank of the Yellow river above Chengchow, had been unsuccessful in frontal attacks.

Drop Leaflets
Chinese reported that Japanese planes dropped thousands of leaflets written in English warning foreign residents to evacuate Chengchow at once.

Attempts of Japanese to send small forces across the river between Chengchow and Menghsien to the west following destruction of the Chengchow bridge, have been repulsed repeatedly, the Chinese reported.

Scores of Japanese were mowed down by machine gunners.

The Chinese line of defense along the Lanchow route, 250 miles in length and reportedly 25 miles deep, has been under constant fire from Japanese heavy artillery across the river.

Troops Battered
On the east central front, on the southern sector of the Yientsin-Nanking railway south of Hsuehchow, the Japanese reported that Japanese planes heavily bombed Chinese troops in the vicinity of Mingkwang, Who and Linhwakwan in an attempt to relieve Chinese pressure against forces pushing northward.

The assault, it was said, averted a Chinese rear attack. The Chinese troops seeking to escape across the Hwai river in Sampans fell easy victims of machine gunners, it was added.

Japanese officials in north China admitted that they were considerably troubled by the practices of Chinese troops in that area who, before withdrawing, arm peasants in the territory with rifles and machine guns to carry on guerrilla operations.

Here is the first of a series of meat recipes which will be offered during the campaign by the Evening Times.

BAKED HAM
Select a ham of the desired weight. Wipe it with a damp cloth, and place it with the skin side up in a roasting pan. Set the pan in the oven and bake until it is done. Allow 20 to 30 minutes per pound, using an oven temperature of 250 to 325 degrees F. or a slow oven. A cup of water or cider may be added at the beginning of the roasting period. Remove the ham from the oven three-quarters of an hour before it is done. Remove the skin except for the part over the shank end. Score the fat top in criss-cross fashion with diagonal slashes about one inch apart. Insert whole cloves at each cross section, rub the fat with two tablespoons prepared mustard, then cover with half-inch layer of brown sugar and very fine bread crumbs combined in equal amounts and moistened with vinegar. Bake the ham back in the oven and bake at a moderate temperature (325 degrees F.) in the case of hams which have received a strong cure. It may be advisable to soak the meat in water over night before baking, according to the University of Minnesota experiment station.

INITIATIVE FOR THE $5 LICENSE
Editor, Evening Times:
I saw an article in Feb. 24 of the Twin Falls News which I want to answer regarding Mr. Leonard's and the $5 auto license fee for which Mr. Leonard is advocating petitions circulating in each county of the state to present to the members of the legislature.

I want to say to Mr. Leonard that I appreciate the effort he has put forth to show the favor regarding the $5 license plate issue but I would much rather have Mr. Leonard get behind the initiative movement which will give the people of Idaho that right to enact a law for the $5 auto license fee which absolutely belongs to the people of Idaho.

I further would like to say to the people of Idaho that I expect to get the initiative movement on the way cast in May.

For the past 20 years I've been in the hospital, and I have not been able to do anything, but I'm gaining rapidly and hope to be going soon.

Sincerely,
W. O. THORNTON,

Keeping U. S. Army Out of Politics

It may seem unfair that an army colonel has to be the goat when Paul V. McNutt's political exuberance carries him out of bounds, but no unrejudged observer will condemn or undervalue the prompt action of the army in disciplining one of its officers for involving himself even indirectly in party politics. Col. Davenport Johnson was relieved as commandant of Hamilton Field, the army bombing base at San Francisco, and transferred to a secondary post at Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill. Chanute Field, in military parlance, is "down the river," the "St. Helena" of the army air corps. The army said the transfer was routine, but it followed in quick sequence the act of Colonel Johnson in flying Indiana's Presidential Hopeful McNutt from San Francisco to Denver without authorization from the War department, an act distinctly against army regulations. To make matters worse, the colonel not only flew McNutt, but carried with him a delegation of enthusiastic Indiana Democrats who had met McNutt when he arrived by trans-ocean plane in San Francisco.

May 7, 1932—Jerry Hughes married Helen Gladstone.

June 2, 1932—Jerry and Frank Stevens form partnership in a filling station in Chicago.

July 6, 1932—Jerry draws his will, leaving his estate to his wife, Frank's bachelor, draws his will at the same time and bequeaths his share of the filling station to Jerry.

July 7, 1932—Jerry leaves his filling station at noon on a fishing trip as Frank comes to work. Frank is killed in a holdup at the station at 8 p. m. At 8:40 p. m. Jerry returns home and find police officers waiting to question him. He tells them he has fished all afternoon and that he has been out on his boat. Frank was slain. After hearing Jerry's alibi, police take him to the station for further questioning. There they learn from Jerry that he profits by Frank's death. The killer lifted the cash box of $11, the day's receipts. He quarreled with Frank the day before the murder. Police then booked him as Frank's killer.

There is all reason to believe Colonel Johnson acted in good faith.

McNutt is a past Legion commander and commander and governor general of the Philippines, and as such occupies sort of a quasi-military position. McNutt was on a semi-official trip to Washington. And the colonel wired both his chief of staff and the War department for permission to make the flight. He undoubtedly felt himself swept away by McNutt's haste and didn't wait for replies. Permission was denied.

Friends of McNutt are now crying inter-Democratic politics and claim Colonel Johnson was transferred with Presidential knowledge—as a reprimand for McNutt that he was a little hasty in starting his Presidential boom.

Indiana's Senator Minton asks for an investigation.

Perhaps it is party politics. Perhaps the administration is sharp-shooting at the ubiquitous McNutt. Neither of these reasons excludes the fact that an army officer climbed out on a limb for a self-avowed presidential nomination candidate whose official business was opportunely being turned to noisy political capital.

Look abroad and see how the army has mixed into politics throughout central Europe.

And see what the results have been. The United States has politics and the United States has the army. Keep them separate at all cost.

WHY?

YOU'RE DEALING NOW IN FAIRY TALES:

Pot Shots: Here's a problem for your bright readers: If Hitler and Mussolini had a speech-making bee, and each spoke 500,000 words, and neither exceeded Hitler and Mussolini or "our fatherland's glory," or "Our country's might," or "Our glorious destiny" or "We are stronger than ever." How many words would be the international situation in Europe? Answer—There would be $7,665,111 cash in the bank from the super-caricature amusement. Yours for more accurate statistics. —Tlay Tim

NEEDED: BETTER GARTERS!

Dear Pot Shots: Will someone please tell a certain local high school teacher that it isn't a sin to put your nose in public because every female does it nowadays. Maybe the Japanese aren't putting out such good quality hose since some of our girls are boycotting them, for they are always falling down. Now, we subscribe to knee-length, if they have elasticized, if they did fall down it wouldn't be so far to pull them up. —Two Embarrassed Bystanders

OKAY—WON'T DEGRADATE YOUR LITERACHORE!

Pot Shots Editor: Well, I don't want to be telling you how you should ought to run your newspaper, for even though I think I could do it better than you do, I bet I would have a dog-around hard time making you think I could and I won't even try. I expect that as a graduate's one of these three journalism schools and you take somebody who is a graduate of one of them colleges and who doesn't know just what is best for you. But Mr. Pot Shots Editor, what I am getting at is this—you know that you write letters and they call them STYLE and what do you think I want to the University a "Lecturer" for and what do you think I have been a try to do all these last 25 years I have been a writer for newspapers? Well, sir, after I have at last developed me a style which practically does not duplicate, you come along and just to show how smart you are you decorate up my words with a lot of apostrophes and darn right run it. Irvin Cobb once said that if a person was bound to write that he should ought to get all the education he could and then forget it, and I bet you think I have done pretty good.

Let's Talk Budget and Those Spring Clothes

By JEAN FRAIGRE
What with violets beginning to bloom here and there in protected corners and other signs being reported daily that spring is just around the corner, it's high time for serious thought to be given to that all-important subject, Spring clothes.

Easy on Budget

Every woman knows there is something about spring dresses, coats, suits, hats and the fascinating accessories that is apt to make her forget completely any sense of portion she may have, and to overlook the fact that as long as anyone can remember summer has followed spring, and then come fall and winter.

As a beginning we did a little detective work and found the average woman's income in Twin Falls ranges between $1,000 and $1,500 a year. Of that the experts tell us we may safely put aside $100 for the lowest paid woman to about $75 for those in the upper brackets. These figures, however, can only be generalizations and have to be adapted to each individual's need.

Starting with the $100-a-year wardrobe your spring purchases should be a spring coat costing about $15, a $6.25 print dress, a $1.55 hat or $2.00 to $1.50 a year. Of that the experts tell us we may safely put aside $100 for the lowest paid woman to about $75 for those in the upper brackets. These figures, however, can only be generalizations and have to be adapted to each individual's need.

On the other hand, the woman who is going to spend nearly $600 during the year will probably be interested in a spring suit costing more which will last her about three years. She may have her last year's hat blocked and buy one for $20, probably a smart felt, for she is the woman who buys better things which have quality and style to make them good for several seasons.

Her suit may be a tailored one of black imported gabardine just received by one of the stores here or it may be a three-piece suit with a broad-brimmed hat and a light spring coat. She will spend $10 for corset and brassieres and probably $12 for cleaning and repairs. In other words, her spring buying this year will total a little less than $100.

Another year she will still have the suit but will pay $20 or more for hat and shoes, $8 for underwear and $8 for bag and extras. The third year she is still using the suit but buys a $7.50 blouse, a $50 spring coat which calls for $12 shoes and a $10 hat. She will also probably acquire a $25 silk dress to wear under the hat and shoes. With the usual $10 for cleaning and alterations her expenditures will probably come to a little more than $100 for the three months.

Expenditures for the three seasons are in proportion to your spring budget requirements and although one year or for one part of the year you may spend a little less or a little more the relation between your income and your clothing expense should be maintained.

With wise planning such a relationship can be maintained and if you look ahead in your buying you'll find yourself with a smart and above all, a practical wardrobe. One that will have the right thing for every occasion.

Ladies, we give you budgets and better buying!

U.C.L.A. Seeks New Coach As Spaulding Retires

By JACK GUERTNER LOS ANGELES, March 1 (AP)—The University of California at Los Angeles has been looking today for a new head football coach to replace William Franklin Spaulding, who retired after a long career at the school. A large stack of applications was expected by wire today, but immediate action is anticipated. It is understood that Spaulding will be the incumbent of the job until he leaves the present staff long has been criticized for his defensive tactics. Spaulding announced his retirement yesterday after a meeting of the student council and faculty representatives, ending six months of bittering among students and faculty members. He will remain as director of athletics at the same salary, approximately $42,000 a year.

Spaulding has been coaching for 32 years, the fourth longest record in America. Strong on fundamentals, his teams have lacked the offensive flair and dynamism of other great coaches. His best season was in 1935, when the Bruins defeated the Stanford team which later defeated Southern Methodist in the Rose Bowl, and tied with Stanford and California for the Pacific coast conference title. For months the Wood River campus has been a busy one with investigators to determine what is wrong with our football team. Last season U. C. L. A. won only two of nine games, and disgruntled alumni held several meetings and issued numerous "why do our teams play like chickens" one Saturday and like schoolboys the next!

Although the coaching position carries a salary of $42,000 a year, campus observers were quick to point out its drawbacks. Material and scholarship are scarce, and the academic standards are the highest of any state university in the nation. Spaulding came here in 1926 when the school was struggling in the Southern California conference, unable to win the titles in the Pacific Coast conference, and into the title in 1928.

Graduated from Wabash college, Spaulding finished seventh in Western State, Michigan, where he was coach for three years, but he won 41 out seven and tied four, and gained fame as the coach who stopped Harold Redd Orange, the Calipatria champion of Illinois. At U. C. L. A. for 14 years, he won 55, lost 44 and tied six.

Girls' Court Title To Be Decided This Week-End

Idaho Finishes Good Season With WSC Win

MOBOW, March 1 (Special)—The University of Idaho victory today had completed their most successful year in 18 seasons as they defeated the Cougars of Washington State 61-36, and knocked their old foe out of the northern division of the Pacific coast conference lead. The victory gave the Vandals a record in conference competition of 12 victories and eight losses. Last night's battle was a fast tilt from start to finish, with Idaho holding the advantage in the close checking tactics. Idaho was ahead 10-4 early in the game and the leaders brought the count to 15-11 just before the half, and then went ahead at the intermission with a field goal. The second half was a nip-and-tuck affair, with the count tied at 28-28. But from there on the Idaho men steadily forged ahead to break even in the two-game series. Hooper of WSC was high scorer for the game with 13 counters.

Wildcats Play Bruins Here Tonight; Gooding Club Loses

There is only one basketball game on the schedule for tonight, but that game should stand out as a top-notch—despite the fact that the participants are far apart in the Class A court standings. The two participants will be the Twin Falls Bruins and the Wood River Bruins in a second place, the Fall team in last. But last night Coach Jimmy O'Brien's district served notice that it could just as easily win the district title as any other of the eight clubs in the loop as he handed the previously undefeated Gooding Senators a 27-26 set-back in a thriller.

Rupert Defeats Heyburn Club... RUPERT, March 1 (Special)—Coach Wes Spaulding's Rupert Bruins, competing for the Class A tournament next week, continued its good late season showing last night by handing a second Class B Heyburn a 27-18 defeat. The game started with a nip-and-tuck affair, with the second string men and Van Avery, at center, emerged from the game as high point men, with 12 counters. Heyburn led at the quarter 12-10, but was behind 17-14 at the half time. Rupert moved up to a 28-16 advantage at the third quarter.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 1 (AP)—Manager Joe McCarthy has all smiles today because his two 20-game winning pitchers, Vernon (Red) Ruffing and Charles (Lefty) Gomez, were on route to the New York Yankees spring training camp bearing signed contracts.

Only one of the five remaining Yankee holdouts is a pitcher—Spurgeon Chandler, a sophomore second baseman and center fielder, chalking up the best earned run average in the American League—. Chandler, however, is not considered as serious a holdout problem as Joe DiMaggio, Lou Gehrig, Red Rolfe or Frankie Crosetti.

Almost a century and a half ago, in the mountains of North Carolina, John Morris kindled a fire in his hearth, and since fires were hard to start with flint and tinder, he kept it burning. Sentimental folk around the blaze, and each succeeding generation look over the task of keeping it alive. But "Old Bill" in whom the trust now reposes, is a bachelor and last of the Morris line.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS PLAN CANVASS OF 'LITTLE' MEN

FRANK OUTLINES SET-UP TO TAKE OPINION CENSUS

By JACK GURWELL
 OREGON, March 1 (AP)—The Republican committee on program, charged with the task of sounding the nation for a new interpretation of Republican policies, heard completion today of a definite program for party rejuvenation.

The committee, guided by Dr. Glenn Frank, chairman, agreed on a regional setup to canvass the views of the "little" men on whose votes leaders believe rest the party's chances for a return to power in 1940.

"We are not going to let any grass grow under our feet in the completion of this survey," Frank said. "The program, he said, will be based on:

- Two Vice Chairmen
- 1. Appointment of two vice-chairmen to lead a special committee of William Hart, assistant national committee chairman John D. M. Hamilton, and eight regional chairmen to maintain contact with the central office.
- 2. Organization of eight regional sub-committees, authorization for a separate committee on special problems and a permanent organization committee staffed by paid employees, assigned to research work at a central office in Chicago.
- 3. Restatement of party political and economic philosophy and a complete report on specific problems.

No statement of policy will be made, Frank said, until the survey is completed.

Special Committees
 The program provides for special committees to study fields of labor, industry and agriculture, and incorporate their findings in the reports of the regional chairmen.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt, New York, one of 12 "regional" speakers who addressed the group last night, said the main issue facing the party was to save "our free institutions and representative democratic government."

"The power in the hands of the federal executive spells tyranny—a robbing of the selective Peter to pay the collective Paul," he said.

TREES ASKED BY CITY PARK HEAD

Persons having trees or shrubs they wish removed, and which will be suitable for use in the city parks, this afternoon were urged by S. Claud Stewart, city park superintendent, to notify his department and the trees will be removed without charge.

In making the call Stewart explained that in many cases trees and shrubs are cut down because they serve no further use in the locality in which they are planted.

"Before cutting is resorted to," he said, "the citizen should contact our department because of the possibility that such material would be of use in the city parks. If, after investigation, we find that it is suitable we will remove it without charge."

"At the present time plans are being completed to remove many trees into the parks from the planting area near the city filter plant.

"Prevailing weather is permitting us to get an early start in the matter of park beautification. Many of the flowers and shrubs are above the ground at the present time and continued favorable conditions will see them in bloom earlier than usual," Mr. Stewart said.

JEROME

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Atkins and daughters, Nelma and Lajene, have returned from a two month's trip to visit Mr. Atkins' relatives in Oklahoma, Mississippi, Arkansas and Alabama.

Because of severe storms, washouts and heavy snows over the mountains in Donner Pass, they were forced to retrace over a thousand miles of road to await better road conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Houston, Pleasant Plains district, have returned from Eugene, Portland, McCredie Springs, Ore., and Redding, Calif. They have spent the winter months there with their son and with Mrs. Houston's relatives in Portland.

Portrait to Honor Dean

MOSCOW, March 1 (Special)—Alumni of the University of Idaho have decided upon an oil portrait of Miss Fernest J. French, dean of women emerita, as a fitting tribute to her nearly 30 years of active service on the university staff.

Miss French retired from active duty last fall with the title, dean of women emerita. She had served almost continuously as dean of women at Idaho from 1908.
