Clues Point to "Friends" In Texas Murder Mystery

No Trace Reported of Killers of Coast Pair

VAN HORN, Tex., April 5 (U.P.)—District Attorney Roy D. Jackson said today that it was possible Mrs. Weston G. Frome and her daughter, Nancy, were slain by someone who they believed to be their friend.

Footprints and clues discovered in the sand where the bodies were found indicated, he said, that they were attacked suddenly, without any warning of impending danger.

"From a study of footprints, authorities believed it likely that the two California women got out of their car, walked a few feet, and then were struck down."

Tracks in the sand showed that there was at least one man walking with the victims.

"Mrs. Frome's footprints show she walked straight ahead, then took three or four steps each way," he said, "and there was a man walking with her."

"There was no evidence of a great struggle," he said. "Nancy's tracks were not so clearly defined because she was wearing low-heeled shoes, but she apparently was accosted before she turned around."

Fought desperately
 However, in the attack, Nancy fought desperately when she realized her danger.

The sand and the condition of her body told of a violent struggle with her assailant or assailants in the isolated desert section where she and her mother disappeared last Wednesday.

Officers believed from other clues that two or three other persons probably were involved in the murders.

Earlier today three witnesses told Jackson that they saw two women who they believed were Weston G. Frome and her daughter, Nancy, driving the Frome automobile last Wednesday.

Paris, April 5 (U.P.)—A violent exchange of insults and a near fist fight forced suspension of the chamber of deputies session today after it met to consider a series of draft finance bills on which hangs the fate of Leon Blum's Popular Front government.

Temper cracked in a verbal exchange between Paul Cassa, Rightist deputy, and Minister of Interior Max Dormoy. They rushed at each other prepared for physical violence.

The chamber was thrown into an uproar and Edouard Herriot, chamber president, was forced to adjourn the session at which Blum had presented for debate the financial bill which most observers expected to be his political death warrant.

FERRY MAN DIES OF FALL INJURIES

GLENN'S FERRY, April 5 (Special)—Injuries sustained in a fall down basement stairs of the Ferry club proved fatal early today to Earl H. Strum, manager of the Commercial cafe.

The cafe manager started to the basement and a moment later his companions at the Ferry club heard the sound of a fall. His brother, G. F. Strum, rushed downstairs and found Mr. Strum lying on the cement floor, bleeding about the head. A doctor was called and the victim was rushed to the hospital.

Mr. Strum and his wife have managed the Commercial cafe for a number of years. They have been Glenna Ferry residents for more than 20 years.

Grain Elevator Proves Popular
 Blasts Kill Five In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, April 5 (U.P.)—Six fire companies early today disabled a blow in the seven-story public grain elevator that broke out just before midnight, nine hours after a series of explosions that killed five and injured 17 workers.

There was no fire at the time of the explosion yesterday afternoon. The explosion was attributed to accumulation of grain dust.

The dead and injured had already been removed and the rubble thoroughly searched when the fire broke out. Bodies of the 17 injured were in a critical condition.

13th Child Arrives at Dionne Home

CALLANDER, Ont., April 5 (U.P.)—The Dionne quintuplets have a new baby brother.

He weighs seven and a half pounds and has brown eyes. He was born at 8:15 last night in the same farmhouse where, on the night of May 28, 1934, Olivia Dionne, 24-year-old farmwife and mother of five, gave birth to the world famous girls: Kyvonne, Annette, Cecile, Emilie, and Marie.

"Doing Nicely"
 Both the mother and baby were "doing nicely" today, Mrs. Dionne was attended by Dr. J. J. Joyal of Nott's Bay. He said that it was a breech delivery but that the mother had survived it in good condition.

Dionne was present, holding Olivia, Jr., 21 months old, on his knee. Dr. Joyal also attended the birth of Olivia, Jr., the first baby born to Mrs. Dionne after the quintuplets.

The quintuplets were in bed in the D'Arcy nursery across the road from the farmhouse and were not advised of the arrival until today.

The new baby was the Dionne's 13th although only 12 are living. The quintuplets have been divorced from the rest of the family as wards of the Ontario government and now live in the nursery, named for Dr. Joan Alan D'Arcy, who arrived at the farmhouse during their birth and who was their foster mother.

Dionne is six years older than his wife, who is 38 years.

CRASH KILLS ONE; FILER MEN SAFE

Two Filer men, George Stutzman, 30, and Vern Stutzman, 34, brothers, were reported uninjured today in a terrific automobile collision Sunday night near Las Vegas.

One man was killed and another seriously injured.

Deceased member of a geological survey party stationed at Dry Lake, 30 miles north of Las Vegas, died Monday from injuries.

It was reported at first that Cyrus Stutzman of Filer had been the driver of the truck as he was driving near Las Vegas when a regular produce route to Phoenix, Ariz., but later information revealed that his two brothers, George and Vern, had been in the truck for the scheduled run.

Immediately upon receipt of the wire Sunday night narrating the accident and reporting that his brothers were injured, Cyrus and another brother, Elmer, left by automobile for Las Vegas. Filer relatives stated that the two trucks were paired in the Nevada city and the run to Phoenix completed.

Norma Shearer Admits Ping Pong Is Her Chief Fame at Sun Valley

By J. F. GALLAGHER
 SUN VALLEY, April 5 (Special)—"Ping pong is my leading accomplishment here at Sun Valley," said lovely Norma Shearer as she sat in the drawing room, sipping tea.

And it's a fact. Norma loves the ailing and its exhilarating, but she just can't seem to master all the necessary tricks that would make her a polished performer.

The Trims Austrians
 They too she wrenched her knee slightly the other day, which mishap kept her off the slopes for a few days, and she lost out that time.

"Really," continued the petite, M-G-M star, "I always have enjoyed the game, but it was when we used to go up the slopes before Montreal which is our home, and all winter long that we just couldn't get it. Never had any of this control method. I just wish we could have learned that long ago."

 Miss Shearer left for Hollywood Sunday to work on her present picture "Marie Antoinette," a production that she has thus far enjoyed very much, though it demanded strenuous efforts on the part of the whole cast, running the gamut of emotion from the most frenzied of happiness to the starkest of sorrow.

But Norma appreciates working in the hard way, maintaining that "if things are made too easy, one

BUSINESS HEADS WILL RECOMMEND HOMES PROGRAM

SUN VALLEY, April 5 (Special)—An extensive national housing program on a lower cost basis for ill-housed workers in the lower income bracket and federal support of the new home construction will be recommended, as an imperative aid to recovery, to Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper and President Roosevelt by the business advisory council, now in session at Sun Valley, it was announced today.

The building program becomes the third major recommendation from the business leaders of the nation. In previous sessions they stated that it was essential to create present assets through increased industrial activity, with new uses for farm products and elimination of waste in distribution, and urged the revision of the labor relations laws to bring about a clearer definition of rights under the measure to speed recovery.

Monday afternoon's meeting opened at 4:15 with the radio message broadcast to the group by Secretary Roper who stressed the speech that the members of the council had received no compensation for their work, except the personal satisfaction in public service of endeavoring to secure constructive administrative procedure. Their ability to bring pressure to curb recognized abuses and to work hand in hand with the President to avoid tendencies detrimental to business was cited by Roper.

Roper insisted in his address that the work of the council should be industrial and agricultural, as well as national liabilities, because the tendency of the public was to magnify episodes and misadventures as indicative of national trends.

Heated Discussion
 A heated disagreement between business leaders led to the formation of aid in supporting the new building program ensued during the discussion, but members were in general agreement that public welfare would be benefited socially and economically.

STRIKE ENDED IN MICHIGAN PLANTS

DETROIT, April 5 (U.P.)—Regular crews returned today to Stignaw valley power plants which committee for industrial organization workers surrendered last night after winning a four-month extension of their contract for exclusive bargaining rights.

Foremen of the Consumers Power company, whom the strikers evicted last Friday, took charge again.

The strikers had maintained service to the northeastern Michigan industrial area, which they had controlled three days. The new agreement extended their contract until Aug. 4, guaranteed against wage cuts prior to that date, and promised there would be no discrimination against those who struck.

Alert Jerome Dog Knows His Stuff As 'Member' of City's Police Force

JEROME, April 5 (Special)—He's a very important member of Jerome's constabulary.

He's only three feet, two inches in height, is five years old and weighs 35 pounds—but no north side miscreants take any chances with him.

Because King—better known as "Chink"—is a full-blooded sleuth and a tough customer in a pinch. He's the Unique.

This German police and college dog is believed to be unique in Idaho police annals.

Born in Boise, in February of 1933, he was formerly owned by a Chinese restaurant in a garage. Later he was owned by Louis Wong, also a Chinese, of Jerome, and it was at this time that his capabilities for an excellent police dog were realized.

Woodson O. Harman, city marshal, purchased "Chink" for the dog has since come to be recognized as an incomparable mascot of the police force. He is black in color, with white front feet, and a natural bobbed tail.

By nature he's congenial and has a fondness for children but is not to be fooled by all "bums," drunks, vagrants and dog catchers. He likes to ride in an automobile, and is an inseparable member of the "coolies."

He is an excellent sleuth and

"CHINK" No. 1 canine sleuth with whom no Jerome lawbreakers care to argue.

when asked to come and "let's go roll the jungles," will work ahead of the officers, scenting out the traps of loiterers around the box cars.

Being especially eager to see an intoxicated person or a vagrant placed in jail, he will snap at the culprit's heels if there seems to be a slight indication of hesitancy on the part of the arrested person as he sends the steps to the "coolies."

An episode occurred sometime ago in "Chink's" life to make him doubly appreciated as a "police-man." An alleged dog addict was suspected of having suddenly changed his mind. Chink immediately sensed the man's action and bounded after him. With snarl raised and teeth bared he jumped before the man and placed front paw on his shoulder. If the officer had been alone it would have been impossible to stop the man without shooting.

It was a subdued man who had consented to being led into the steps into the jail safely behind bars, and away from the vicious-looking canine who had been one policeman with whom no lawbreakers argue.

Action to secure a 20-acre recreational tract adjoining Harmon park moved into legal phases to clear title, today when the Junior Chamber of Commerce filed quiet title suit in district court.

The deed placed the Jaycees in position to file suit in the name of the project, and the action was started on behalf of the group by Stephen and Biandford, local attorneys, at Las Vegas, Ariz., north and northwest of Harmon park.

Hope to Avoid Borrowing
 Robertson said the Junior Chamber "hopes to raise the additional $2,300.41 by Sept. 23 without resorting to borrowing."

Other defendants in the suit include Edith M. Hillon, heirs and devisees of James P. Callahan, the late owner of the land, and Robinson, the state of Idaho and Twin Falls county. The state was included only to determine whether it had any claim on the land, and the county merely for title purposes.

Approximately 90 days are expected to be consumed in the title action.

BUSINESS FRONT OPTIMISM NOTED IN SOLONS' WORK

WASHINGTON, April 5 (U.P.)—The senate finance committee today recommended for the senate a revised tax bill which it said would rapidly decrease unemployment by its liberal treatment of business.

With this major development came a series of congressional activities on important measures, many of them designed to halt the depression and clear up conflicts. An optimistic note in the business front was expressed from two quarters.

The senate finance committee in reporting its revised tax bill anticipated greater revenue from lower taxes because from an "impendent upturn in business." Jesse James, chairman of the committee, said the bill would "discourage the plight of 'stranded' business men planning a reorganization."

James told newsmen that the measure would "help business men who are in a bind and that the bill would help business men who are in a bind and that the bill would help business men who are in a bind."

Opposed New Drive
 While members of the opposition coalition organized for a new drive against the administration's general reorganization bill, Speaker Charles McNary said that he hopes to put the bill to a vote this week.

He was confident of administration victory and said that the issue should be settled quickly so that the important appropriation bills could be passed.

When the house resumes debate on the measure later today it will continue to be a "top priority" item, giving each member an hour of speaking time. Sen. Frank B. Rowland, Jr., Va., charged that individual members of the opposition coalition should not be named.

Borah immediately announced he had declined the appointment.

"I don't believe in investigations by 'town meeting.' Borah told reporters today that he would not accept the appointment.

"If I had been a committee of three or five senators, I would have been glad to serve."

Borah had broken out in a committee of three or five members of the house it might be more effective. "I've never seen any good come of joint investigations."

Consented No One
 Senate Minority Leader Charles McNary, D., Ore., also declined the post. He is too busy with present duties.

Garner said he consulted no one on the making of the committee. Not even the senators named knew of their selection until the clerk read their names, he said.

NO TRACE FOUND IN MURDER CASE

(From Page One) Of some other persons who reported seeing Mrs. Fromm and her daughter in that he saw no women in the black coupe that followed the car.

Jackson said other witnesses had told him that two women accompanied the men. One of the women was described as a blond about 24 years old, the other a brunette of about 30.

Soldiers 666 Car. Jackson also recalled that two soldiers, whose names were not available immediately, had reported seeing the Proms Packard near Belmont. They also said there were two women occupying the Packard. They did not see any other persons in the car.

From the stories told him by residents of Idaho, money that Jackson attempted to reconstruct the apparent facts of the crime. He believed that the women were killed by two men who shot and killed them with lighted cigarette butts; knocked them down and stomped on them, then backed in their heads and shot them.

Purpose of Torture. The purpose of the torture, Jackson theorized, was to make Mrs. Fromm disclose where they had hidden a large sum of money which she believed they had been carrying.

The mother and daughter were making a leisurely cross-country drive from their home in Berkeley, Calif. They had stopped in El Paso to visit a friend, Wednesday they started out for Dallas.

Excellent Subjects. Driving a large, expensive car, being well dressed, wearing expensive jewelry, Mrs. Fromm and Miss Proms appeared to be excellent subjects for a roadside robbery.

Autopsy showed that neither woman had been raped, which ruled out the theory that crime had been one of sexual gratification. One angle was puzzling. The murderers took Mrs. Fromm's diamond ring and left her wedding ring.

Funeral Services. The bodies will be returned to Berkeley, where the funeral services will be held in private funeral parlors.

No charges will be filed, he reported, as the road is in bad condition and the Peterson car was traveling in the center of the road.

Rites in Wendell. The body has been taken to the Burley funeral home and from there will be taken tomorrow to the funeral home for the funeral rites at 2 p. m. at the Lutheran church in Wendell, with Bishop Erickson officiating.

FRANCO TO DEMAND ABSOLUTE LOYALIST SURRENDER

REFUSAL WOULD BRING PITILESS BOMBING DRIVE

By HARRISON LAROCHE
 HENDAYE, French-Spanish frontiersman, April 5 (AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco, Spanish nationalist commander-in-chief, is planning an ultimatum to the loyalist government demanding an absolute surrender, it was reported today.

The ultimatum, it was reported, would be a merciless attack on Barcelona by every agency of war at the nationalist command, including a renewal of the mass airplane bombardments that brought protests from foreign governments.

As the report came, the nationalists outside Tortosa commended with their artillery the Barcelona-Vallencia road, last great artery of communication between Catalonia and the rest of loyalist Spain.

Everywhere the nationalists were advancing, driving into and smashing the remnants of the loyalist army which had defended the Catalan front.

Nationalist jubilation was unrestrained. The official Salamanca radio broadcast: "The war is won!"

Report Authorized
 Nationalist political quarters at Burgos, the grand headquarters, were given as authority for the report that Franco planned an ultimatum to the loyalists. The United Press at Lisbon, relying the report, said that it was in fact Franco would issue an ultimatum soon and in the nearest terms.

He proposed, it was said, to give the loyalists a reasonable time to surrender unconditionally, citing a desire to prevent the useless shedding of more Spanish blood.

The ultimatum, it was said, would tell the loyalists plainly that if they rejected the nationalist terms, Franco would order a "decisive" attack at once on Barcelona, emergency seat of the loyalist government.

Francisco in Barcelona
 The nationalist Salamanca radio alleged that there was panic in Barcelona, due to reports of the loyalist collapse on the Catalan front and the confirmatory arrival of thousands of refugees from the war zone. It was alleged that there were angry demonstrations in the streets, that Anarchistic elements joined the demonstrators, and that people had been killed wounded in riots that resulted when assault guards fired over the heads of a crowd.

More than 200 complaints have been received that a Franco concern is repurchasing old mules and selling them to farmers in that and adjoining states for young breeding animals. The farmers want a law to stop it.

It was charged that the "mule factory" had been reverting to an old horse-trading practice known as "shiping"—the filling of new cups.

Another way the ages of mules are determined is by the various spaces above their eyes. These sunken places do not fill out when an old mule is fattened. To obliterate that sign of age the "factory" allegedly inserted paraffin around the eyes with a hypodermic needle.

To further rejuvenate the mules their hair was dyed. Gray mules were dyed a sleek black or red. Some farmers complained that their "faces lifted," the teeth filled and their ages otherwise disguised by subterfuge.

Royalty Goes Slumming

No slum scene can be complete without the traditional swapping of snuff talks over the back fence, and in this picture half of the conversation is being carried by personages of no less renown than King George and Queen Elizabeth of England. The photo was taken when their majesties made a recent tour of the South London slum areas of Battersea and Wandsworth Plain. Startled by the unexpected visit, the mother and child above are nevertheless pleased by the gracious interest which the royal couple showed in the domestic affairs of the slum dwellers.

Duped Farmers Demand Law To Stop Mule Rehabilitation

By FRED BAILEY
 WASHINGTON, April 5 (AP)—Southwestern farmers asked congress today to do something about a mule rehabilitation factory which they said is selling them patched-up stock.

More than 200 complaints have been received that a Franco concern is repurchasing old mules and selling them to farmers in that and adjoining states for young breeding animals. The farmers want a law to stop it.

It was charged that the "mule factory" had been reverting to an old horse-trading practice known as "shiping"—the filling of new cups.

To further rejuvenate the mules their hair was dyed. Gray mules were dyed a sleek black or red. Some farmers complained that their "faces lifted," the teeth filled and their ages otherwise disguised by subterfuge.

One of the principal ways of telling a mule's age is by his teeth. On the edges of the incisors were grooves or cups that wear away as the animal advances in years.

It was charged that the "mule factory" had been reverting to an old horse-trading practice known as "shiping"—the filling of new cups.

BEHOIT TELLS OF LAW AS CAREER

Continuing the weekly vocational talks for senior English students the program yesterday afternoon featured Harry Behoit, local attorney.

Mr. Behoit emphasized the fact that a student should not consider the profession of law as a money-making one.

"A fair measure of success will bring a good living but as a rule lawyers do not become fabulously rich," he said.

Keep Studying
 Students should not consider this profession unless they are willing to be a student and content to continue study each day and are thoroughly sold on the work, he pointed out.

Attorney Behoit refuted the idea that the study of law was of benefit to a farmer or stockbreeder. It is better to put that time and money in the desired work, he indicated, rather than spending it for a smattering of law.

Two Needs
 The two qualifications cited for any student of law intelligence are the liking for the work and ability to study. He corrected the impression that dramatics were an essential part by stating that 75 per cent of the work was carried on in the law office as a counselor.

Ernest Stettinius will speak to the group on banking at next week's session.

COUNCIL GRANTS DUMP CONTRACT

Charles L. McMullen today has been awarded the contract to care for the city dump after such action was approved at the regular meeting of the city council last night.

The contract, which calls for payment of $1 a year to McMullen, also stipulates that he has the right to all salvage he can get out of refuse, garbage and junk which is dumped at the grounds.

The place must be kept in a sanitary condition at all times, according to terms of the contract, and the salvage must be sold by McMullen and cannot be allowed to accumulate on the grounds.

FAKE CONFESSOR CHARGED INSANE

EL CENTRO, Calif., April 5 (AP)—Sheriff Robert Ware has said that insanity charges would be filed against a 55-year-old odd job man who confessed to a sex murder he never committed, and to an assault upon a child that never happened.

The man, Basil Coleman, complained: "It was just trying to cooperate with the police."

The child who caused his arrest, Magdalena Garcia, 10, said she made up the story of being attacked. Asked why, she said: "Because I am a great big liar."

Coleman was walking barefoot and clothes along Main street on a cool night when taken into custody as a suspect in the girl case. He readily "confessed" not only the girl attack, authorities said, but also the unsolved murder of Ruth Muir, Y.W.C.A. secretary, at La Jolla two years ago.

He also confessed to two other child attacks. He repudiated his confessions as fast as he made them.

He succeeded Myron C. Taylor, 64, who relinquished the leadership of the world's largest corporation to younger men after guiding it through the latter part of the depression.

He succeeded Myron C. Taylor, 64, who relinquished the leadership of the world's largest corporation to younger men after guiding it through the latter part of the depression.

Stettinius began his business career only 14 years ago and joined the steel corporation in 1931.

CAMP HINGES ON CONGRESS VOTE

Retention of Rock Creek CCC camp "will be difficult" unless congress passes the $50,000,000 Woodrum amendment to the delinquent appropriation bill, Cong. D. Wertz Clark informed President A. J. Coderquist of the Chamber of Commerce today.

Clark wired that "I am supporting it vigorously and we have hopes of its passing. Doing everything possible for Camp F-42."

The $50,000,000 proviso would call for keeping all cancelled CCC camps in operation until July 1, 1939. Vigorous protest against abandonment of Rock Creek camp has been forwarded to the Idaho congressional group by numerous Twin Falls organizations and individuals.

U. S. MAY HELP IN HEYBURN EXHIBIT

Federal assistance is being contemplated toward helping Heyburn high school set up a permanent art center, according to word received here today from Sen. James P. Pope.

Heyburn, scene of the annual art exhibition that ranks among the finest in the international country, has been working toward the art center plan for several years, purchasing at each exhibition some of the finest canvases for permanent display.

Williams, deputy administrator of WPA and the actual chief during Harry Hopkins' long illness and recuperation, has written a letter in the request for assistance to the Heyburn art project.

Mr. Whiting's request has been brought to the attention of the officials of the federal art project, and I am glad to tell you that they will be pleased to assist the Heyburn schools in every possible way toward the establishment of a permanent art center to which works produced on the federal art project may be loaned.

It may also be possible to arrange for some of the federal exhibitions shown in other cities at art centers in that region, to be scheduled for the Heyburn schools, and the matter has been referred to the director of the federal art project for the western region.

Various reports of city departments were submitted and approved by the city council last night.

Pilots Repair Broken Landing Gear on Plane While Cruising

SALT LAKE CITY, April 5 (AP)—Two transport pilots for Western Air Express kept their plane aloft for more than two hours early today while they made repairs on the landing gear, enabling them to set their plane down without damage.

Henry Holtenbeck, pilot, on a flight between Salt Lake City and Great Falls, Mont., discovered at Idaho Falls, Ida., that his landing gear had jammed. Quickly he regained altitude and directed a radio message to the airport in Salt Lake City, asking instructions.

He and his co-pilot, Bert Mooney, were advised to return the plane for a possible crash landing. Airport officials enlisted the aid of the fire department in the emergency. Ambulance sped to the airport.

Alpine mechanics said they did not know how the plane might be repaired successfully in mid-air. A radio message was sent to the Lockheed plant at Los Angeles.

Instructions received from the plant were relayed to the men in the plane.

Holtenbeck relinquished control of the plane to Mooney, ruttled up his sleeves and went to work.

Orpheum to Play Gangster Farce

"A Slight Case of Murder," a farce film that frankly and unreservedly makes fun of the whole business of gangsterism and racketeering, is scheduled at the Orpheum theater for four days commencing Wednesday.

It is a Warner Bros. production with Edward G. Robinson as star. But he's a different Robinson. He's no menacing, gun-totin', sinister underworld character this time. He's a fellow who was a beer-baron in dry days and now, since repeal, has been trying to get along as a legitimate brewer. But he's a dry at heart; he's never tasted his own brew. His mob, which used to run run, and force Robinson's beer upon the speakeasy proprietors, are now salesman without suits, forced to dress nicely and bath daily. In addition to all of this, his beer is so bad that nobody wants to drink it.

A romance runs through the story, between Jane Bryan, Robinson's daughter, Willard Parker, state patrolman. Ruth Donnelly is the beer-baron's comical wife. Gangsters are Allen Jenkins, George E. Stone, Ed Brophy and Paul Harvey. The yarn was written by Damon Runyan.

Child Star Plays In Roxy Feature

One of Bobby Bren's biggest thrills while he was on location in Honolulu for the RKO Radio picture, "Hawaii Calls," was a visit to the famous Upside Down falls.

Bobby thought they were kidding when they told him they'd show him water flowing up the side of a thousand-foot precipice.

"You can't kid me," he scoffed, but Bobby changed his mind when they took him to the falls. The secret is that the water pouring over the precipice is caught by a strong wind sweeping up the mountain side and is blown back up.

"I'm ready to believe anything now," Bobby remarked as he watched the phenomenal exhibition.

"Hawaii Calls" ends its run at the Roxy tonight, to be followed by Otto Kruger in the thrilling "Council for Crime" Wednesday and Thursday.

LIMIT MAY BE PLACED ON BASEBALL SALARIES

Demands of Yankees For High Wages Hurt Smaller Clubs

By HARRY GRAYSON
(NBA Service Sports Editor)

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 5—Demands of New York Yankees stars may force the major leagues to adopt their first salary limit, it has been revealed at the club's training camp here.

Lou Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio asked $40,000 each. Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing wanted $20,000 apiece. Red Rolfe sought $14,000. Frank Crosetti insisted upon the $14,000 he collected in 1937 despite the fact that he had a poor season. All except DiMaggio have signed — at a low figure. But it is significant that even one of the recruits, Bud Chandler, the Georgia pitcher, had contracted hold-out, before finally capitulating to terms.

Only three or four other organizations besides the Chicago Cubs, Boston Red Sox, and Detroit Tigers, which play with the purse-strings so tightly that they are usually Thomas Austin Yawkey and Walter O. Briggs, respectively — can match the payroll of the Yankees.

Support no doubt would see to it that money is paid to the government in the way of a payroll tax. It would be done in the interests of clubs vastly less well financed than the Yankees.

When the Francisco club was open to bids for Joe DiMaggio four years ago, it quickly became apparent that only the Yankees could afford to gamble on a young outfielder who had injured his knee. The team wanted players who were not likely to be injured, and only the Yankees had the money to pay for the privilege of taking a chance on DiMaggio's leg injury, and only the Yankees had the money to pay for the privilege of taking a chance on DiMaggio's leg injury.

Tigers Gun for 11th Win in Fifteen Starts

LAKELAND, Fla., April 5 (UP)—The Detroit Tigers went gunning for their 11th victory in 15 exhibition starts when they entertained the Brooklyn Dodgers today. Brooklyn won both of their two previous starts against Mickey Cochrane's men, and the Tigers will have to take both today's and tomorrow's games for an even break in yesterday's record, the 7-9 record of the Buffalo Bisons of the International league 5-3 while the Dodgers were stopped 4-2 by the Boston Sox. Lou Pette went the route for Boston and turned the floundering back with four hits.

A'S RALLY WINS
ATLANTA, Ga., April 5 (UP)—The Philadelphia Athletics sought their eighth victory over Atlanta's Southern league Crackerjacks today. A tenth inning rally gave the A's their third win 5-3 yesterday. The two clubs play their concluding game at Rome tomorrow.

SOX WIN OVER CUBS
CHICAGO, April 5 (UP)—The Chicago White Sox drew to within one game of the Cleveland Indians today, their series now standing six games to five in favor of the Cubs. The Sox won a four-hitting exhibition yesterday at large, the Shoshone Rod and Gun club went into a dispirited huddle of considerable import and outlined a tentative program for the next few months.

Yankees Lose To Houston
HOUSTON, Tex., April 5 (UP)—The New York Yankees made the fourth stay of their pre-season exhibition tour here today to meet Fort Worth's Texas Rangers in the first of two games. The Yankees won 4-2 yesterday by the Houstonites who put on a four-run rally in the ninth. The Bulls walked the first two batters and scored the ninth outback in 10 starts for the world champs.

INDIANS DOWN GIANTS
BRYAN, Tex., April 5 (UP)—The Cleveland Indians won their 18th exhibition game today, the Indians trailed by only one game after winning 11-7 yesterday at Fort Worth. The Indians won 18-10 and Lohman for 19 hits, including a homer by Lynn Lary. Allen and Galusha kept 14 batters wild scattered to the Giants.

HEAVY SCHEDULE
WINTERBERG, Fla., April 5 (UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals will begin their spring exhibition games against the Columbus farm team today at the American Legion. The Cardinals opened their Washington Series 11-1 yesterday by their 16th victory, including a homer by Fred Green. Columbus is in game 19 this year. The Cards have a game scheduled every day until the National League season begins.

REDS VS. SOX
SAVANNAH, Ga., April 5 (UP)—The Boston Red Sox and the Cincinnati Reds topped here today to play the first game of their home-ward bound exhibition campaign. In four Florida games the Reds beat the Sox three times and the Sox beat them once for the next week.

GOTCH WOULD BE HORRIFIED

Bob Gregory, lightweight wrestling champion of Europe, may not be at the meet world on first during his American tour, but he sure does know how to bring the photo sappers flocking. He is shown above "in training" at his New York hotel, assisted by his pretty wife, the Princess Baba, daughter of the white Rajah of Sarawak. (Editor's note—Maybe it's the princess who brings the cameramen flocking.) At any rate, some of the old-timers hardly would recognize the rigors of such a training grind.

MYRA NORTH, SPECIAL NURSE

HEY! CUT IT OUT TO ME--PHILUB--GLUMPH--

SO YOU TRIED TO PULL A FAST ONE, EH! MAKING IT LOOK LIKE DUDLEY WANGLE WAS REALLY SPEAKING!

AND ALL THE TIME IT WAS JUST A PHONOGRAPH RECORD OF TRYING TO BEAT FRECK BY CHEATING, EH! I'LL FIX THAT!

WELL, YOU STAY IN THERE UNTIL I DO WHAT I'M GOIN' TO DO! TRYING TO BEAT FRECK BY CHEATING, EH! I'LL FIX THAT!

PEACE, LET ME REPEAT, IS ONLY THE FEEBLE WEAPON OF A COWARD!

WAIT! HE SEES WHAT HAPPENS WHEN I PUT ANOTHER HOLE IN TH' RECORD--IT'S JUST OFF CENTER!
