COMPARE THESE NEW LOW RATES WITH ANY IN THE UNITED STATES

For eleven years, rates for your electricity have been going steadily downward. This last reduction, in effect April 30, saves our customers approximately $100,000 in the next twelve months, and the same amount each year thereafter. Twenty-two such reductions since 1927 now save our customers a total of more than $600,000 annually. This is a rate reduction record that is outstanding in the United States. Our customers, too, are entitled to some of the credit, because their increased use of electricity has helped us to make lower rates possible. Today, with all minimum bills on residential combination rates reduced to 90c per month, with a top kilowatt-hour rate of five cents, your electric rates are among the lowest in the nation.

Secret Police Guard Against Assassinations of European Rulers

STALIN, IL DUCE AND HITLER FEAR POSSIBLE PLOTS

By WEBB MILLER
Copyright, 1938, United Press
LONDON, May 2 (U.P.)—The secret police of three great totalitarian nations of Europe took extraordinary precautions today to guard against any attempt to assassinate three rulers.

Germany's Gestapo and Italy's Ova, joined in efforts to avoid or to frustrate any attempt to kill Benito Mussolini during the visit to Rome on which Hitler starts tonight.

The guard upon Josef Stalin, of Russia, already the closest guarded man in the world, already had been increased. It was understood, as the result of reports that a threat had been made by radio—a new technique in the history of terrorism—to kill him.

It has been reported persistently for several days that a secret short wave radio station, purported to be in Russia, but possibly operated from an airplane, had broadcast: "Stalin has been sentenced to death and the Liberators' league will carry out the execution."

Listeners along the Baltic coast have tried vainly to find whether the station is broadcasting from inside Russia, as is claimed, or in one of the Baltic states.

For months past, high officials of the German Gestapo have been in Rome, Arturo Bocchini, head of the Italian secret police, and Heinrich Himmler, chief of the dreaded German Gestapo, have crept. Himmler will be in Hitler's personal entourage when he leaves tonight, along with the devoted Sepp Dietrich, chief of Hitler's personal bodyguard staff, and a corps of Italian agents pledged to die if Hitler does.

A United Press canvass of sources on the continent revealed that 10,000 operatives of Mussolini's Ova have been on special duty in Rome, Florence and Naples, which Hitler and Mussolini are to visit. This week they included several hundred women who lounge in bars, on trains, in the streets, with eyes and ears open for suspicious characters. A number of these women will be invited to all functions at which the dictators appear.

Guards in Crowd
When Hitler reaches the steps of his chancery in Berlin this afternoon to leave for Rome, secret guards will be in the cheering crowd around him, alert for any suspicious move. Guards will be in his own automobile, in automobiles preceding and following him.

Guards will line the railroad tracks to Munich and beyond. All across Austria, special patrols will stand with backs to the tracks as the train flashes by, and at the Italian frontier special Italian guards will take up the task. Every switch point will be watched. A special passport control has been established on roads to Rome, Naples and Florence. All motorists will be questioned during the time of their stops by Hitler and Mussolini.

Himmler, the Gestapo chief, sent

Geisha Sings Near Censored Gun

Japanese army officials don't mind when photographers take pictures of pretty geisha girls entertaining weary soldiers on armored trains, but it is a different matter when cameramen take close-ups of the train's guns. Note the dotted line in the picture above, taken in Shanghai province. It indicates where a gun would have appeared had it not been painted out because of army censorship.

500 of his agents to Italy long ago. Several German Jewish and anti-Jewish newspaper men have been quietly invited to leave Rome in recent months.

During Hitler's visit no private individual will be permitted to receive a boarder or lodger without notifying the police.

Flower pots have been removed from balconies and windows along the routes Mussolini and Hitler will travel—possible missiles which would enclose a bomb. Landlords have been warned that they will be held responsible for conduct of their lodgers and that they must report at once any suspicious conduct.

Agents with steel rods will probe every square foot of the floor beds bordering the routes, possible 'beds' for time bombs. Ova agents will be stationed on flat roofs overlooking procession routes.

Hitler's inner bodyguards will consist of 12 specially picked men of the Begleitkommando.

'SS' Bodyguards
At Mussolini's request, Hitler sent 500 of his crack black uniformed 'SS' bodyguards here for his visit. Hitler travels customarily in an automobile in which he sits beside the driver, with guards in back. He is said to have nearly 9,000 guards in all—12 of the Begleitkommando, 1,500 of the Leibstandarte or bodyguard regiment and five thousand plain clothes men of the Sicherheitspolizei.

There is a special technique for guarding against assassination attempts at particularly dangerous

INSPECTOR SCANS NATIONAL GUARD

Annual federal inspection of the 11th Engineers regiment with companies throughout the state was inaugurated at Boise yesterday by Capt. Lewis W. Prentiss, Corps of Engineers, military inspector of the Nevada national guard, as he conducted survey of the headquarters and headquarters and service company.

Col. F. C. Hummel, Boise, is commander of the regiment. Lt. Col. J. G. Lauterbach, Hansen, is executive officer of the regiment. Maj. Lyle Rowell, Boise, commands the first battalion; Maj. Walter Senten, the second battalion, and Maj. George C. Hiley, Twin Falls, heads the medical department detachment. Capt. Theodore Downing is in command of the H. and S. company at Boise.

Duhl Tonight
Inspection will continue this evening as Capt. Prentiss inspects Co. D at Duhl, commanded by Capt. Elmer W. Jones, and on Tuesday will conduct the inspection of the medical department detachment of the 11th engineers directed by Capt. Harwood L. Stone, and Co. E commanded by Capt. Joseph H. Stever, Jr., at the local armory.

On Wednesday Capt. Prentiss will inspect Co. B at Burley, which is commanded by Capt. Ross G. Youhans.

Other companies to be inspected are: Co. A, Idaho Falls, Capt. Clarence Stonebocker; Co. F, Rigby, Capt. Leslie E. Burt; Co. G, Pocatello, Capt. Howard Hamilton.

Two Phases
The federal inspection consists of two phases: First, the inspection of records, equipment, and the armory of the company; second, the inspection of the personnel as to training and ability to take the field in case of emergency.

Capt. Prentiss, during his inspection of the Twin Falls national guard units, will be accompanied by Brig. Gen. M. G. McConnell, commanding officer of the 66th cavalry brigade and adjutant general for Idaho, and Capt. P. D. C. Berrigan, inspector inductor of the 116th Engineers.

Simone Sorry

Looking more like a little girl than a glamorous movie star, Simone Simon is pictured above as she appeared at the district attorney's office in Los Angeles to discuss a complaint against her former secretary, Sandra Martin, accused of defrauding the actress of between $16,000 and $25,000. Unmoved by Miss Martin's pleas for "tell plenty," Miss Simon said she was "very sorry to have to do this."

Jaycees Pick Hale, Church

Stanton G. Hale, Twin Falls, was nominated today for state president of the Idaho Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Tom Church, Burley, was selected to run for the post of state treasurer. It was announced by E. W. McFadden, member of the Idaho Jaycee nominating committee.

Nominations of Hale and Church, along with others on the slate of officers, will be submitted to the Idaho convention at Idaho Falls May 29. Other nominees may be introduced from the convention floor for the election.

The complete slate picked by the nominating committee includes: President, Stanton G. Hale, Twin Falls; first vice president, Ben Johnson, Preston; second vice president, Don Baird, Boise; secretary, Charles Shaffer, Caldwell; treasurer, Tom Church, Burley; Idaho national director, Frank Wenzel, Boise. Wenzel is retiring state president.

Members of the nominating committee which picked the official slate are James J. McElroy, Burley; Otto O. Power, Gooding; E. A. Small, Jerome; Louis Thorne, Nampa; W. S. Guthrie, Chaffinch, Boise, and McFadden.

Convict Escapes Idaho Prison on Borrowed Horse

BOISE, Ida., May 2 (U.P.)—A convict who once escaped from the Idaho state prison by stealing the warden's automobile tried it again yesterday—this time on a horse—before he was recaptured.

Louise Walling, a trusty serving a five to 10-year sentence for robbery, left the prison early yesterday. He was captured at Burley, small community near here, riding a horse.

Seven years ago, Walling climbed into the property of H. E. Thomas' automobile and left the state. He was serving time for another offense. He was recaptured and finished out that sentence.

3 CARS DAMAGED BY GARAGE FIRE

Three automobiles were badly damaged by fire which partially destroyed a garage at 300 Addison avenue at 3:43 a. m. Sunday, records at the local fire department showed this afternoon.

The fire, from the standpoint of loss, was the greatest to be recorded in Twin Falls this year. Damage was set at $1,800.

Machines partially burned were the property of Clifford L. Van Auden, Robert Warberg and T. F. Leffery. The Warberg car was the only one covered by insurance.

STACOMBS THE WORLD FOR PICTURES THAT THRILL

What Margaret Bourke-White, famous photographer, said when Ralph Martin asked if she found a difference in cigarettes

"I've found that Camels are very, very different. Mr. Martin—not just in one way, but in a lot of ways. For example, my nerves must be just as steady as a rock as a single Jack's. Camels don't jangle my nerves. They taste extra-mild and delicate too. Camels never leave an unpleasant after-taste, and they're so good to the throat. In fact, Camels agree with me in every way I think that's what counts—how your cigarette agrees with you!"

37 IDAHO CITIES GET 1ST FLIGHTS

Thirty-seven Idaho cities and towns will have "first annual flights" on May 19 in connection with National Air Mail week; it was announced here this afternoon by officials in charge of local arrangements.

Of the 37 communities, 13 will send their first mail to Boise by plane. The balance of the mail will go either to Spokane, Wash., Idaho Falls or Salt Lake City. At each point the special mail will be picked up by an established airline.

Committees of Idaho whose air-mail will be carried to Boise on that date, include Twin Falls, Mountain Home, Jerome, Gooding, Glenns Ferry, Caldwell, Coeur d'Alene, Oringville, Lewiston, McCall, Nampa and Payette. Buhl mail will go out on the Twin Falls flight.

Special first flight covers are now being accepted in Twin Falls and the other cities named above. Those sent to Twin Falls should be mailed to the Chamber of Commerce. None should be folded.

Burley Student Band Plays for Salt Lake Elks

BURLEY, May 2 (Special)—The Burley high school band left Saturday to attend the golden jubilee of the Salt Lake City Elks lodge.

The band was asked to march in the parade by Harry Joseph, who heads the Salt Lake City parade committee for this event, when the Elks of his lodge visited the local chapter on Washington's birthday.

Lead T. Hyde accompanied the band as director, chartering a Union Pacific bus for the trip.

Approximately 50 members of the local Elks lodge also attended the festivities in Salt Lake City.

Buhl's Assembly of God Church Opens

BUHL, May 2 (Special)—The Assembly of God church has leased the old Pentecostal Mission building across the street from the American Legion hall, made extensive repairs and rededicated and opened officially Thursday evening.

Rev. W. R. Mungler of Aberdeen, S. D., was pastor.

Ronald Davis is pastor of the church, and announces Full Gospel messages of the Assembly of God may be heard regularly from the pulpit.

Held for Brothers' Deaths

Former inmate of a mental institution, Elizabeth Wagner, 22-year-old Astoria, N. Y., girl, is being held on a charge of homicide in connection with the deaths-by-poisoning of her two brothers, Henry, 21, and Charles, 14. Police say she admitted dropping successive doses of poison in the boys' food. According to police, the Wagner girl said Henry had often beaten her, knocking out a tooth and lacerating several fingers on one occasion. She was reported, however, to have been fond of the younger boy, and to be unable to explain why she poisoned him, too.

Farmer Amazes Insurance Firm by Seeking Policy Against Mule-Birth

GREENBURG, Ind., May 2 (UP)—William H. Mobley can't insure his mule against mule-birth because a started insurance company is sure that such a thing can't happen here.

Biologists and veterinarians also are flabbergasted over the possibility of an expectant mule mother. Records say it isn't possible, a mule being a sterile animal, cross-breed of a horse and donkey.

"It's going to happen, though, or we and some high class veterinarians are wrong—but we aren't," Wayne Mobley, manager of the mule farm, stated.

As a precautionary measure the Mobleys wrote for coverage for the birth to a reputable insurance company.

The company wrote back "you can't kid us."

COLUMBIA, Mo., May 2 (UP)—The Greenburg, Ind., farmer who wants to insure his mule against mule-birth may not be kidding the insurance company after all, animal husbandry experts at the University of Missouri college of agriculture said today.

"Mule births are rare, but they have occurred," Prof. L. A. Weaver said. Weaver related an experiment carried out by the Texas agricultural experiment station at College Station, Tex.

He wasn't sure what the offspring should be called.

Buhl Moose Members Install New Officers

BUHL, May 2 (Special)—The Local Order of Moose met Thursday and installed the following newly elected officers of the order: Leonard Howard, past dictator; Ed Hall, dictator; Lyle Dals, vice dictator; Earl Eldmore, prelate; Harold Hamby, treasurer; Nels Nelson, trustee; Martin Buchelle, sergeant-at-arms; John Frilick, assistant sergeant-at-arms; Clarence Walcott, inner guard; Cecil Harris, outer guard.

PLUMBERS' HEAD TO ATTEND MEET

BURLEY, May 2 (Special)—The national president of the Master Plumbers' association, L. J. Kruse of Chicago, will speak at the state convention here May 11 and 12, according to E. W. Pyle, who is general chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

Walter J. Wikner, Portland, Ore., a director of the national association, will also speak at the sessions. Other notables of the organization who will be on hand are Floyd A. Campbell, chairman of the national association; Thomas Conklin, first vice president; Boise; George J. Kintzer, Parma, second vice president; and G. O. Thompson, Reensburg, secretary.

The cooperation of the plumbing industry in the federal housing program will be one of the chief topics of discussion. Members of the women's auxiliary will also meet at the same time in the National hotel.

Delegates to the Pocatello Short Course should be fifteen years of age and prospective local leaders as the instruction is primarily for leader training.

Practical Home Gardening Annuals—How to Plant Them

By DONALD GRAY
Idaho Evening Times Gardening Consultant

Any sized piece of land, whether the soil is sand or clay, will produce flowers by planting annual seeds in the spring. It is the form of gardening in which any amateur beginner can get results all in one season.

For best results, the ground should have good growing soil 12 inches deep and the location should have full sun most of the day.

The difficulty that confronts most gardeners is what seeds to buy to get the best color combinations and the ones that will produce a continuous crop of flowers.

Seed catalogs are available to anyone who asks for them. The temptation in reading the descriptions of the plants is to buy many more than it is possible to plant in the available space.

Some varieties of annuals like snapdragons must be started in hotbeds or indoors early in the winter. Others are better if planted in a cold frame a month before the last frost.

Here is a suggestion of a garden plan that can be planted with seeds in the open ground in April or early May just as soon as the ground can be worked. The numbers refer to locations on the sketch above:

Key	Name	Color
1	Heliandrus	White
2	Primrose Stella	Yellow
3	2 Cosmos Purly	White
4	2 Larkspur	Blue
5	2 Blue Bell	Azure Blue
6	4 Petunias Blue	Blue
7	6 Sweet Alyssum	White
8	6 Calendula	Bright Apricot
9	Apricot Queen	Bright Apricot
	2 Bachelor Buttons	White
	Ultra Double	Blue
	Blue Boy	Blue
	3 Marigold	Yellow Supreme
	3 Marigold	Yellow Supreme
	2 Crown of Gold	Orange

World Expert to Perform on Wire in Burley Show

BURLEY, May 2 (Special)—Billy Cronson of Alhambra, Cal., reputed to be one of the world's greatest tight wire performers, will entertain the public Wednesday with an exhibition of tight rope walking under the auspices of the Burley Merchants' association. There will be three performances, the first at 1 p. m.

Cronson has performed for the president of the United States and other notables, and has appeared in motion pictures, working at a height of 840 feet.

Last Rites Honor Jerome Resident

JEROME, May 2 (Special)—Funeral services were conducted Friday for Vincent Richter, 63, who succumbed to his illness Wednesday after a heart attack.

Rosary was said at the Jerome Funeral chapel Thursday evening and interment was in the Jerome cemetery, after services at the St. Jerome's Catholic church with the Rev. E. A. Schermerhorn officiating.

Funeral bearers were Tony Humbach, Tom Maschler, John Stickle, Jess Buckles, Frank and George Ermentrout.

Mr. Richter was a native of Odessa, Russia, and came here about 16 years ago. He was born May 14, 1875, and was engaged at farming at the time of his death.

19 SCHOOLS QUALIFY MEN FOR DISTRICT MEET

Clouting N. Y. Giants Capture 10th Consecutive Victory

90 Athletes Will Compete on Track and Field

Over 90 south central Idaho athletes, representing 19 schools, will converge at Burley on Friday for the annual district track and field meet—last preparatory competition prior to the so-called "state" events set to be held at Boise May 14 for this section of Idaho. On the same day, "state" meets will be held at Pocatello and Moscow, for other sections of Idaho, with high marks at any of the three to be recognized in state record competition.

At the Burley events, seven, and possibly eight schools, are given a chance to win. The Burley Bobcats, winner of the sub-district meet on their own field last week, qualified men in 13 events to lead the parade. But they were closely followed by Twin Falls with 12, Gooding, Rupert and Jerome with 11 each, Buhl with 10, Filer with nine and Halley with seven.

Other schools with eligibles for the meet, and the number of events in which they will participate, follow: Paul S. Murray, 12; Glenn Ferry, 2; Albion, 1; Ratt River, 1; Gooding State school, 1; Hammett, 1; Bagman, 1.

But to try and pick a winning squad from the entry list is a near impossibility. While some of the schools with high lists in the meet are given better chances than others, some of the small entry list schools have as good a chance, as measured by the number of second and first in sub-district competition.

First Placers
Twin Falls took away first, Gooding second, Rupert third, Jerome fourth, Buhl fifth, Filer sixth, Albion seventh, Paul S. Murray eighth, Glenn Ferry ninth, Ratt River tenth, Gooding State school 11th, Hammett 12th, Bagman 13th.

Budge Loses Exhibition
Hollibaugh, Jerome's great all-around athlete, has the best mark in the 200-yard dash with a 34.1. Wilson of Buhl and Stewart of Paul are expected to give him his greatest test in that event.

Mac Leaves for Kentucky Derby After Watching Fighting Fox

NEW YORK, May 2 (UP)—He's rolling down to Louisville on a train today, and don't be surprised if he comes rolling down like a comet at Churchill Downs like a horse. The Kentucky Derby is the man to beat in the mile event. He surprised Coach R. V. Jones by doing the distance in five minutes and 17 seconds in the meet here to capture first place. But he will probably receive plenty of opposition

Rain Puts Halt To Sunday Golf Play Here

Jupiter Pluvius put a stop to play of probably the biggest crowd in the history of southern Idaho golf yesterday as he rained and thundered through most of the day to make a goodly share of the ace shotmakers were expected to compete against a like number of players from Twin Falls—and most of them had arrived on the local lines before the downpour started. Twenty-six were here from Jerome, half that many from Gooding, a full team from Buhl, and about five carloads from the Burley-Rupert club, but as the water drenched the field, play was indefinitely postponed by Starter Fred Stone at the club.

Some of the more hardy enthusiasts toured the course anyway, but scores as a rule ran high, with most events being called before they were completed. The 100-yard dash and the windy blasts numbing the players' hands.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

WHO ARE THESE FAMOUS SISTERS? HAJA, TANZETA, ELETIA, MAREDO, ATLAS, MARVINE, ALCHOP AND ALCHER. TORONTO, CANADA.

1,500 YEARS PASSED AFTER JULIUS CAESAR TOOK THE FIRST GIRAFFE INTO EUROPE, BEFORE ANOTHER WAS TAKEN TO THAT CONTINENT.

THE CYCADS, A GROUP OF PLANTS THAT LIVED MILLIONS OF YEARS AGO, IN THE JURASSIC PERIOD, STILL ARE REPRESENTED TODAY BY SEVERAL SPECIES.

Julius Caesar, after his conquest of Egypt, brought the first giraffe to Rome, where it aroused great curiosity. It was the first one to reach the European continent. Five centuries later, Lorenzo de Medici imported one and exhibited it at Florence.

GERMAN TEST OPENS WITH HITLER VISIT TO ITALY

NAZI EXPANSION COURSE WILL BE SET AT MEETING

By JOE ALEX MORRIS

United Press Staff Correspondent.

Nazi Germany today begins a vital test of Europe's remodeled peace structure.

Adolf Hitler, leading figure in this week's international drama, goes to Rome for a formal visit with his co-leader of the dictatorial bloc, Fascist Premier Benito Mussolini.

Officially, Hitler's journey was strictly a gesture of friendship. Actually, every chancellor of Europe believed that behind the flower-banked parade routes, behind the flaming flags and display of military might would be found developments indicating the future course of Nazi expansion.

Trading Foes

Mussolini has maneuvered himself into the most favorable trading position of any ruler on the continent. He is in partnership with Hitler on the famous Rome-Berlin axis designed to give Germany a free hand in achieving dominance of eastern Europe. He is negotiating for a similar treaty with Great Britain in a new friendship treaty designed to act as a check rail on Nazi tactics of war. He is negotiating for a similar treaty with France, which is now joined in a powerful defensive alliance with Britain.

The whole trend of recent diplomacy has been keyed by Hitler's effort to line up a powerful combination which would force Hitler to muzzle his threats of war as a means of spreading Nazi influence eastward—especially in Czechoslovakia.

Now it is up to the Nazi leader to determine—and possibly to show the world—the strength of his partnership with Rome.

Military Alliance

Well-informed sources report that Hitler would like to create a firm military alliance with Mussolini; a combination that would strengthen the Rome-Berlin axis as opposed to the London-Paris alliance. There has so far been no indication that the Fascist premier would accept such a fighting partnership.

On the contrary, there have been indications that Mussolini does not intend to surrender his position as a sort of balance wheel between Nazi military might and the Anglo-French bulwark against war. Many Frenchmen, particularly regarding trade in central Europe, in Italian relations with Germany are "un-" announced, in addition to the fact that the Fascist ruler cannot forget that Nazi soldiers now look down from the Brenner pass upon Italy.

Millions for Deception

This week may produce no more than formal communique in which the suspicious dictatorial partners shake their heads on the back, but there is a little question that it will give an indication of the extent to

Fireman Here Builds House Set on Props

Build a home while you work is the motto put into practice by Leonard Young, local fireman.

Mr. Young is building a portable home for himself in spare time. The house is being constructed on props set up behind the fire engine. The house is being constructed on props set up behind the fire engine. The house is being constructed on props set up behind the fire engine.

Other men on the fire department lend a hand occasionally with hammer and saw.

The three rooms and bath finished on the interior with insulating and floor is nearing completion. Mr. Young hopes to have the building completed in two or three weeks—that is if there aren't too many fires in the meantime.

Entrance now is gained by traveling through the fire house, out the back door and stepping onto a tree stump which puts you into the room which will be used as a combined kitchen and dining room. The other rooms in the house are front room, bedroom and bath with a number of closets.

As soon as the work is finished the house, which measures 22 by 24 feet will be moved to Elizabeth boulevard and Locust street.

The house will be placed on a cement foundation over a full basement, which has already been prepared.

Mr. Young hopes there won't be too many fires before he gets his house completed.

Buhl Grangers Hear

Future Farmer Boys

BURL, May 2 (Special)—Several boys from the Buhl Future Farmers organization and their instructor, Carl Hemmings, were guest entertainers at the meeting of the Buhl Grange meeting last week.

Junior Williams talked on the "Purposes of the F. F. A." Dee Harris spoke on "F. F. A. Activities," and Charles Harris on the subject of "Degrees." Marvin Jagels gave his oration that won first place in the state contest this spring. His subject was "Benefits of Cooperative Marketing to the American Farmer." A concluding humorous act was given by Clifford Stevens, Elmer Weaver, Max Smith, and William Johnson.

The regular Grange business meeting was held at the opening of the evening.

which Fascism and Nazism may depend upon one another in the future.

The visit of Hitler to Rome is resulting many millions of dollars in decorations and entertainment but behind this display other millions are being spent to guard against violence which might strike down one of the leading actors.
