70 Killed, 100 Trapped In English Mine Blast

RESCUE CREW FINDS SHAFTS FULL OF GAS
CHESTERFIELD, England, May 10 (U.P.)—Seventy miners were killed today in explosions which wrecked the Markham colliery of the Staveley Coal and Iron company and trapped more than 100 workers underground.

The first blast at 5:45 a. m. was followed by another at 8 a. m. Throughout the day rescue workers sent up body after body, many of them burned. The shafts were filled with deadly carbon monoxide.

Late today the death toll was fixed at 70. Many others were in hospitals.

RULING SET FOR GESS DEMURRER

BOISE, May 10 (U.P.)—A general demurrer to an indictment charging William H. Gess, former warden of the Idaho state penitentiary with failure to keep and pay over $250,000 in prison funds, will be ruled on tomorrow by Judge Charles Koelich.

Gess appeared in Third district court today for arraignment on the grand jury charge but did not enter a plea. He will answer to the allegation tomorrow, providing Judge Koelich rules against the demurrer.

Committed Accidentally
The demurrer was presented by Eugene Anderson, Gess' attorney. Anderson is a former state senator from Elmore county.

He based his demurrer on the general contention that a person cannot commit a crime accidentally.

"The indictment does not show intent to do the act which constitutes a violation of the law," he argued.

The attorney claimed the indictment did not allege intentional or knowing failure to keep and pay over funds received by the prison from the sale of the institution's livestock.

Request Granted
Anderson's request for a bill of particulars outlining in full details the circumstances of the alleged failure to pay, was granted automatically by Willis C. Moffatt, county prosecutor.

Gess is charged with the same offense which Ira J. Taylor, also a former warden, was convicted.

AGED MAN FOUND DEAD IN BUILDING

A. I. "Shorty" Leydard, 77, former permanent resident of the county farm, was found dead early this morning in the basement of the Bunch building at the corner of Main avenue and Shoshone street.

The aged man apparently died of a heart attack. Friends who saw him Monday said that he did not complain of feeling ill. Records show that he was admitted to the county farm in November, 1935, and left there in February, 1937, because at that time he divided his residence between the basement of the building and the farm. He stayed at the farm Sunday night but left Monday.

After the body was found an investigation was conducted by Dr. George O. Halley, county coroner, and local police. It was announced that no inquest would be held.

Leydard was born at Belvedere, Ill., on Sept. 4, 1860, according to records available at the county farm. He has no living relatives.

"The body was taken to the Twin Falls mortuary awaiting funeral arrangements which probably be in the Pifer cemetery."

Late FLASHES

WHEAT FORECAST
WASHINGTON, May 10 (U.P.)—The agriculture department today forecast a winter wheat crop of 76,153,000 bushels.

The forecast based on May 1 condition of 50,577,000 acres left for harvest indicated an average yield of 1.5 bushels per acre. A crop of 82,000,000 bushels was predicted a winter wheat crop of 78,187,000 bushels.

The forecast in Idaho is a crop of 2,000,000 bushels, which is being exceeded only by 225,290,000 bushels in 1931. It compared with a crop of 225,000,000 bushels last year and a 1927-28 average of 240,290,000 bushels.

Baby is Recovering from Eye Operation; Still Has Vision

CHICAGO, May 10 (U.P.)—Six-week-old Helaine Judith Colon apparently was recovering today from an operation which medical authorities believed was her best chance for a great cancerous eye growth and paved the way for them to save at least part of her vision.

A week ago her parents had abandoned hope, certain that she would die or be doomed to a life of blindness. Yesterday she had an operation which was a "good chance" that at least partial vision of the remaining eye may be saved by use of radium treatments.

Attorney Samuel Ingram, family spokesman, said the baby's mother, Estelle, 23, who had been in a state of collapse, had returned to nurse. The father, Dr. Herman Colon, 30-year-old dentist, said he and his wife were "eternally grateful" to the physicians who saved them.

"We hope our experience will benefit others," he said.

Budget Expense Set at $101,805

Anticipated expenditures from the general fund of the city of Twin Falls today had been officially set at $101,806.61 after members of the council last night adopted and approved the budget for the fiscal year ending April 30, 1939.

INDICTMENT HITS STATE EMPLOYEES

BOISE, May 10 (U.P.)—The Ada county grand jury today returned an indictment charging a number of public works department with false certification of a voucher.

Following return of the indictment, the grand jury recessed until Monday in order to give state auditors time to complete surveys of several departments before the jury returns to investigate employees of the public works department with false certification of a voucher.

The indictment alleged that the defendants, including James Jewell, former equipment engineer, falsely certified a voucher paying $294,000 to the Bunting Tractor corporation.

APPROVAL GIVEN TO MAIL FLIERS

Lamorne Stevens and Lionel A. Bean, both local pilots, this afternoon received official authorization to carry United States government airmail on May 19 in connection with special flights from this section of Idaho to the airline terminal at Boise.

The authorization to carry the mail was made by Harry Vest, postmaster at Idaho and chairman of Idaho's National Airmail week activities, set for May 10 to 21.

Bean will fly the airmail from this section of Idaho including Twin Falls, Piler, Jolli and Kimberly while Stevens will fly the mail from Jerome and Cheesing counties. Bean will leave the local field about 11 p. m. on May 19 while Stevens will probably take off from Jerome an hour earlier.

Anita Louise Asks $100,000 For Damages

HOLLYWOOD, May 10 (U.P.)—Anita Louise, one of Hollywood's most popular "radio girls," today demanded $100,000 damages from a grounds she was erroneously identified as possessing a husband and snatching in a chain and chair hunt conducted by him.

The patrician blond of the movies asked this sum in a suit against James H. White, a business man in the American Bonded Finance Co. She claimed "malicious prosecution." Her claim is based on another suit filed by White brought last week which gave Hollywood a start in surprise by identifying a film scientist's wife as Anita Louise.

White has the wife referred to, Anita Louise pointed out, who would have married scenarist Jack Jacobard when she was a girl of 10 years.

White's suit asked $1,665 back from Jacobard, and Jacobard's wife. It claimed they damaged the furnishings of his rented home by "malicious" arguments, and physical encounters. They buried dishes and chairs, but were poor spins, the suit claimed.

White's complaint, Miss Louise alleged, went on to identify Jacobard's wife as "Anita Louise, formerly known as Catherine Dinking Jacobard."

These Stars Gild Box Office

The controversy rages. Defenders of the glamor stars say the Independent Theater Owners' association is grossly wrong. But box office figures for last year show that the stars the public paid to see were the luminaries pictured above—and that they weren't named as luminaries in the now famous advertisement. The box office leaders and their salaries:

1. Clark Gable, $5000 a week.
2. Shirley Temple, $125,000 and bonus per picture.
3. Robert Taylor, $5000 a week.
4. William Powell, $5000 a week.
5. Jane Withers, $2500 a week.
6. Gary Cooper, $150,000 a picture.
7. Bing Crosby, more than $100,000 a picture.
8. Myrna Loy, $5000 a week.
9. Sonja Henie, $100,000 a picture.

The stars are not listed according to their place in the box office sweepstakes. India Temple has led for the last three years. The dance team of Astaire and Rogers completed the first 10 turnstile champions.

Blast on "Prestige" Stars Pleases Heads of Picture Industry

HOLLYWOOD, May 10—Although openly defending its own prestige and some of its "prestige" stars, the motion picture industry secretly is not displeased by the recent blast from a group of exhibitors against a number of high-pay, low-grossing players.

Nation-wide attention was directed to a statement signed by the Independent Theater Owners' association, which came right out in print and characterized Mae West, Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford, Katharine Hepburn, Kay Francis, and Marlene Dietrich "as box office poison."

Oddities

"DOODLER"
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., May 10 (U.P.)—A "doodler," a person who fills in O's and scribbles idly while telephoning, left permanent evidence of his "affliction" in about 8500 worth of scratching on plate glass store windows, office said today. They thought some one had "doodled" on the windows with a diamond, a glass cutter or some other abrasive instrument while window shopping.

FUNNY
DENVER, May 10 (U.P.)—Steve Nash, of Denver, hunted E. H. Swann, 50, for two months to collect $20 on a worthless check. He knows now where to find his man, but he didn't get his money. Swann was sentenced yesterday to five years in the Colorado penitentiary for writing a bogus check.

Five States Oppose Pullman Rate Boost

WASHINGTON, May 10 (U.P.)—Regulatory commissions of five states filed a brief with the interstate commerce commission today opposing any increase in pullman rates and charging that the Pullman company seeks an increase "to enable dividends to be paid in a time of great depression."

The brief was filed jointly by the commissions of Idaho, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Dakota and Utah. The Pullman company has asked the ICC for authority to raise its rate 10 per cent.

Committee Sends Favorable Report On Huge Measure

WASHINGTON, May 10 (U.P.)—The house appropriations committee today favorably reported a $3,514,425,000 recovery bill which it said would create jobs for 4,935,000 persons next year.

The house was prepared for immediate debate on the measure, which makes direct appropriations of $2,519,425,000 for lending aid, spending under President Roosevelt's five-billion-dollar program. The measure also carries authorizations of $336,000,000.

In addition to jobs carried by the pending bill, the committee said, the civilian conservation corps, which already has received its 1939 funds, will employ 300,000 youth and the federal program for public roads, parks, flood control and similar work will provide employment for another 500,000, making a grand total of 4,935,000 persons receiving federal jobs in the next fiscal year.

The committee gave a breakdown of the employment as follows:

Works program administration	2,700,000
National youth administration	2,000,000
Federal buildings	60,000
Public works administration	1,000,000
Total	4,135,000

The report showed that the public works program contemplates 7,100 projects at an average cost of $24,000. The bill at present has 2,700 applications on file. New projects totaling from 4,300 to 4,800 may be started.

The committee submitted an analysis of persons receiving relief showing that last March an unduplicated total of 20,100,000 persons were being aided from various government sources.

This total compared with a peak in February, 1934, of 1,900,000 households including 4,600,000 persons receiving relief, and a low in September, 1937, of 4,600,000 households including 14,400,000 persons.

The appropriations committee reported a joint resolution carrying a supplemental appropriation of $4,500,000 to the social security act for administration of state unemployment compensation in 1938.

It explained that the additional money was made necessary "due to the expansion of state programs at a greater rate than was anticipated at the time the budget for 1938 was made necessary." The amount already appropriated is $3,840,000, budgeted for fiscal year 1938 provided will prove insufficient by $15,000,000 or $20,000,000.

TWO ENTER PLEA OF GUILTY HERE

Two men accused of forgery—one charged with writing a fraudulent $500 check and the other with forging a certificate of motor car title—entered pleas of guilty in district court today.

They were Halls Asher, Buhl, named in the check accusation, and Thomas E. Clawson, Twin Falls.

Judge J. W. Porter set 10 a. m. Wednesday for sentencing.

Two other men, who pleaded guilty yesterday on grand larceny and forgery charges, were to be sentenced by Judge Porter this afternoon. They are Miles Bunker, 22, Olliepage, named as co-defendant with Lester Schumann, 17, Denver, in theft March 29, of a car owned by Leonard Lerzma, Buhl, and A. J. Petty, accused of forging a $175 check at the C. O. Anderson store here May 2.

Schumann pleaded not guilty to 10 a. m. Wednesday was granted continuance of his case until May 11. Lewis J. Stephens, 34, both Twin Falls, when their attorney, W. L. Dunn, was unable to appear, O. C. Anderson, the pale-in-the-absence of Dunn.

SELASSIE CAUSE CALLED HOPELESS

LONDON, May 10 (U.P.)—Efforts of Haile Selassie to prevent the recognition of the Italian conquest of Ethiopia were admitted today to be "absolutely hopeless," by Dr. Wahlenk Martin, Ethiopian minister to London.

"There is no object in the emperor, going to Geneva," Martin told the press, after the arrival here of Haile Selassie from Bath, according to reports that he would go to Geneva. "It is absolutely hopeless. His written appeals have been almost ignored."

"What would be the use of making a personal appearance?" Martin asked. He said, however, that the Ethiopian emperor continues to fight until "the bitter end."

National Attention

South Idaho is now observing two movements holding the national eye—Life Insurance week, and National Hardware week.

Both days are being observed in every town in Idaho. Special advertisements of promotional character are being placed in the Idaho Evening Times, and the Twin Falls News, by local and national units, emphasizing the value of a balanced life insurance plan.

Quality timely are the general insurance plans which provide protection for the dependents of the insured against the economic hardships of death, disability, and old age.

WARSHIP SAILS TO RESCUE AMERICANS FROM CITY OF AMOY

METROPOLIS OF 250,000 BURNS AFTER BOMBING

HONG KONG, May 10 (AP)—A United States warship sailed for Amoy tonight to evacuate Americans endangered by a terrific Japanese aerial bombardment of the island port off the east coast of China.

United States naval authorities dispatched the ship in response to an appeal by radio for assistance from Leland C. Altshoff, United States consul at Amoy. The report indicates that the city had been bombed throughout the day.

A private vessel to a shipping firm nearby reported that a large section of the city is "going up in smoke." Chinese reports said that 18 Japanese planes dropped more than 200 bombs within a dozen Japanese warships shelled the port.

The civilian population of nearly 250,000 was in panic as shells and bombs crashed at short intervals.

Landing Attempts

Under cover of the shelling the Japanese began attempts to land troops and supplies on the island shore but admitted that they had met stiff resistance from the Chinese defenders.

Several small circles it was believed that the Japanese attempted to occupy Amoy in an effort to divert Chinese attention from the island, which has been the scene of fighting, because of the scheduled movement of 800,000 troops in Kwangsi province to the northern front.

Survey of all forces and naval sources failed to indicate the size of the Japanese landing party.

Active Participation

For many months the Japanese fleet has been active in the vicinity of Amoy. Some quarters believed that the navy had decided on the action in order to force more active participation in the Chinese war.

According to records at Washington there were 38 Americans and 23 Chinese in Amoy as of March 11.

Best Harbor

The harbor of Amoy is one of the best in the world. It is 100 miles north of Hong Kong and Canton and about 125 miles westward of the large Japanese island of Formosa off the China coast.

The city was for a long time the world's greatest tea export center and from it was shipped the cargo of the British liner, the Warrington, which was dumped into Boston harbor as a start of the American war of revolution.

Amoy is on an island 35 miles in circumference, lying three miles off the mainland of Fukien province, China.

The directors adopted resolutions of appreciation for patronage at the recent nurses' dance which made possible the founding of the camps.

DEBATE SET ON RECOVERY BILL

The bill, charged that "waste is tremendous" under the present system.

We cannot longer permit greedy politicians to administer relief without bringing to our country complete disaster," he said.

The House committee deferred voting on a rule for consideration of the recovery bill until tomorrow.

The action, however, did not interfere with the start of debate today because a unanimous consent agreement was reached to debate for 10 hours. The rule will be necessary before the bill can be read for amendments.

John Starling Anew

Most of Hollywood has risen to greet the death of John Crawford, who also was listed among the "poison" stars. Of her last five pictures, none was highly successful, yet the lowest gross of all was $99,000 for "The Bride Wore Red."

"What Hollywood does not know," says Francis, "is that Crawford was here a new career in celluloid. Begin the story."

Recently a prominent actor agent, M. C. Levey, invited Louis E. Mayer to hear some operatic and popular recordings made by a "new" girl singer. Mayer listened, and announced the signing "marrage."

Levey then identified the girl as Joan Crawford, who has been seriously studying voice with the idea of getting out of ingenuish roles into substantial stardom as a singer.

Result is a new contract, signed last month.

Will Katie Be Scarlett?

When Katherine Hepburn came to Hollywood she signed a five-year contract with RKO. Her salary increases terminating at $100,000 per picture. At option time recently, she was receiving $35,000 and would have gone into the top bracket if a disagreement had not prompted the studio to drop her.

Her strictly departure, together with some other circumstances, has convinced certain RKO executives that Miss Hepburn has agreed to be Scarlett O'Hara when David Selznick and Director George Cukor get around to making "Gone with the Wind."

Marlene Dietrich had one more picture to make under her contract with Paramount. But the financial nose-dive taken by "Angel" sent her scurrying to her with an offer of a cash settlement and cancellation of the remaining commitment.

One's Got Top Salary

Her first three pictures, "Blue Angel," "Morocco," and "Shanghai Express," were profitable. But after that, beginning with "Scarlet Zerkow" in 1934, she was a prestige but not a profit star. Meanwhile she has been paid $100 each to the four children living at the time the wills were executed April 4 and 8, 1919. Estate was valued at $7,000 in both cases, and included personal property valued at $5,000 and Kimberly real estate estimated at $2,000.

Two sons, one daughter and two granddaughters, children of a deceased son, were listed as surviving heirs. Judge Guy L. Kinney set hearing for May 28. Stephan and Blandford are attorneys for the petitioner.

she was paid $150,000 per picture, plus a percentage, plus a salary as a writer. "She Done Him Wrong," and "Till No Angel" made in 1933, and "Belle of the 90s" in 1934; made a lot of money. After those her box office appeal declined.

Kay Francis declares that when her Warner Brothers contract expires in September she will marry and retire.

The exhibitors' group, in its message to the industry, called attention to the large profits made by economically produced series pictures and westerns. "Does that mean," asked a Metro executive, "that they expect us to teach Garbo to ride a broncho and strum a guitar?"

DEGREE ASKED IN PIONEERS' ESTATE

Estates and wills of two prominent Kimberly pioneers who died last month within 19 days of each other were on file for probate court action today.

The proceedings were those concerning the late A. O. Burkhalter, Kimberly, and Mrs. Martha A. Burkhalter. Petition for administration with both wills attached was filed by Frank A. Burkhalter, Jerome, a son.

Each had been made beneficiary of the other in the wills, after bequests of $100 each to the four children living at the time the wills were executed April 4 and 8, 1919. Estate was valued at $7,000 in both cases, and included personal property valued at $5,000 and Kimberly real estate estimated at $2,000.

NEW YORK, May 10 (AP)—Louise Mulder, a former Brooklyn girl who played Juliet to Edwin Booth's Romeo, died in Lenox Hill hospital today. She was 81.

Booth she remembered as "a melancholy man" upon whose face was "written the tragedy of his brother who shot Mr. Lincoln."

Sen. La Follette Calls on U. S. Voters to Unite with Progressives

SEES REALISTIC REALIGNMENT OF POLITICAL UNITS

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON, May 10 (Special)—Sen. La Follette today is charging that reactionary Democrats threaten now to wreck the liberal Roosevelt New Deal. He is charging that the party is not the standard of the National Progressive America.

Although paying tribute to Mr. Roosevelt for good intentions and an "incomparable ability to present the essence of complex economic problems to the voters," he complained that the Democratic party had not been purged of anti-New Deal elements interfering with the political action under the new standard of the National Progressive America.

"On April 14," he added, "the President recognized the seriousness of the situation—with the $4,512,000,000 lending-aid program now coming before the house of representatives."

La Follette's address, delivered over a nation-wide radio network, was his first formal endorsement of the new party launched in April by his brother, Gov. Philip P. La Follette of Wisconsin. He said that the new party was not aimed at 1938, 1940 or any other election year but was launched now because the time for a realistic alignment of political parties had come. The new party expects to have candidates in at least 10 states this year.

Denounces Coalition

The senator denounced what he regarded as a congressional coalition movement of reactionary Democrats and Republicans to hamstring the New Deal. Although critical by indictment of Mr. Roosevelt's accomplishments and especially his political strategies he had fainter praise.

"The irreconcilable factional cleavage in the Democratic party," he said, "has thus far impeded, and now threatens to destroy the effectiveness of one of the great liberal leaders of modern times—Franklin D. Roosevelt."

SEES FORCES OF GREED FIGHTING SEN. POPE

Editor, Evening Times:

The term "Jeffersonian Democrat" is being used in certain high places as a smoke screen to camouflage the record of a few gentlemen who rode the Roosevelt landslide to a soft seat in congress. It is the usual locus focus to keep the small taxpayer from voting for his own interests in a world torn with financial and political conflicts. It is the voice of the bell weather hearing for the sheep to vote as they dictate and return congress to the control of special interests.

Thomas Jefferson's philosophy of living and government was wholly expressed in the words, "all men being created equal." That expression was not modified in the least or qualified by worldly possessions or special privileges. He so strongly stressed the idea that human rights are above property rights that he lighted a torch in the hearts and minds of men for all time. So great was the impression he made on the common people that the exponents of the 19th degree to keep the masses of people in ignorance. The weakness of their system caused it to break of its own accord from its own defects when there was no Klondike rush or western homesteaders ready to hand to repair the breach. Jefferson is said to have foretold the disastrous calamities the financial system would suffer if greed was allowed to run rampant.

So, after the "wonderful one horse show" of special privilege and international finance has fallen to pieces before the eyes of the people, and statesmen are trying to build a modern "Jeffersonian" democratic method of feeding, clothing and housing the population, we hear that a congressman who votes record after record in support of special privileges, called a "Jeffersonian Democrat." Ye gods and little fishes! what an affront and insult to the memory of one of America's greatest men! Fairness and moderation is all that one should ask in any situation. So when we place a brand on a public official, it is only fair that his record be searched and his merit written accordingly.

Sen. James P. Pope's congressional record is the only one of the taxpayers' representatives from Idaho today that can be consistently written in modern statements as a "Jeffersonian Democrat." Pope has stayed on the job, worked and voted for the best interests of the common people so well that special privileges are determined to beat him. The sticky hand of greed cannot be hidden behind the party label. It works in all political parties. It behooves the voter to listen much, read a lot, think more, and do not follow the bell weather to a totalitarian government.

A FEW TESTIMONIALS

April 6, 1938

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I am a middle aged lady—and very heavy. For a long time I have suffered from indigestion. This condition caused my stomach to bloat, sour and burn after every meal. I was continuously constipated and in general poor health and I experienced terrible difficulty in breathing.

One day I read Chan & Wing's ad in the newspaper and I felt their marvelous herbs and herb compounds could help me. So I visited them one day—and after only a three weeks course of their herbs I find that all of my old ailments have disappeared and I feel as good as new.

Naturally, I am grateful and I take this opportunity to recommend Chan & Wing's Chinese Herbs to my friends or any one who suffers as I did.

April 8, 1938

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

For the last seven or eight years I have suffered badly from rheumatism. During that time my right arm would become so badly afflicted that it was hard for me to raise my arm to comb my hair or have strength to lace my shoes or even raise a light object.

This condition caused me even more pain during the night when my legs would cramp up, leaving me in pain and restless. I am an old man and sleep is necessary to my health. But with all this trouble I couldn't feel well or enjoy good health.

Finally I read of the work Chan and Wing were doing with their herbs and I decided to see if their herbs would help my condition. Just two weeks was all the time it took to prove that these herbs would correct my ailments. Now I sleep well and all traces of the rheumatism are gone. I am happy to recommend these herbs—and Chan & Wing.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

By ROONEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Some very special reasons figure in the determination of wage-hour bill advocates to struggle to the last for a measure from the house this session.

Among the reasons is a general belief that the senate—which passed a wage-hour bill last year and would have to be asked to do so again this winter if there were no enactment by the present congress—wouldn't pass such a "good" bill next time.

The senate has become more independent since the recession began. But the chief loss to the wage-hour forces came through the resignation of Senator Hugo Black, former chairman of the senate labor committee, to the supreme court. Black was a fighter and although the original administration bill was torn to pieces, he managed to secure a larger part of it through than a less vigorous leader could have done.

The present committee chairman is Senator Ebert D. Thomas, the Utah scholar, who is sincerely opposed to such a bill. There have no other strong labor members on the committee's Democratic members.

BUSINESS BOOST The senate bill set up standards of 40 cents an hour and 40 hours a week, to be administered by a board which was empowered to make exceptions.

Further, it's orthodox wage-hour theory that such a law would aid recovery by forcing purchasing power and protecting many "legitimate" business men from unfair competition. Twenty-two Pennsylvania congressmen have signed a petition claiming that thousands of workers in their state have lost jobs lately when industries moved here from states to pay starvation wages. American business seeking cheap labor importers has its own customers, they claim.

Some advocates believe passage of a wage-hour bill would cause a spurt of production in low-wage industries, somewhat similar to that preceding NRA codes in 1932.

TYROLEAN TOYS There isn't any Austria in Europe any more, but the department of agriculture is making sure that there will be a little bit of it in America.

Some guides of the forest service will be equipped with green Tyrolean hats to replace the army campaign type of top. It isn't planned to provide them with yodels. Yodeling will be optional with the individuals.

HELIUM HUNTING Dr. Hugo Eckener, the Zeppelin man, who is about as popular a figure as a Zeppelin could be expected to come over and try to pry some helium loose from government officials, will soon be in Washington whodunnit.

Some time ago Eckener was tossed into the Nazi doghouse and his name barred from the German passport. He is now in the United States sufficiently pro-Nazi and was getting too much publicity, now Hitler and Goering think he can be used.

But Eckener is likely to run in to a stone wall in the person of Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes, who is under the impression that he must sign any contract for sale of this country's helium to any foreign nation, won't let Germany have it. President Roosevelt felt him he must.

Helium for Germany happens to be an emotional issue with Ickes, and he is sure that the United States will get a long before this if German planes hadn't bombed Barcelona babies and German troops hadn't taken over Austria with subsequent cruelties to Jews.

Just the same, Ickes figures he is technically justified because the helium act says such regulations should be made in quantities of military importance in any foreign country.

Roosevelt has given Ickes permission to handle the situation as he thinks best. And if Eckener hopes to cure the secretary's case, he will have to have Ickes see the head man and get him to change his mind.

CANAL COMPANY OBJECTS TO TAX

SHOSHONE, May 10 (Special)—Because of a recent federal decision that employs working on that part of the Elgin project of permanent projects from the American Public Reservoir are not subject to social security payments, an objection has been made by the Shoshone company taking the same position.

The department recently informed the company that it would refund payment of part of the lower part of the project if the company would forward a revised list of employees, a difficult task. According to the company, the list of employees is not in the company files, neither the canal system nor its employees are subject to the federal security law.

Mr. Bass states heavy expenditures will be necessary on the canal system this season because of the high waters.

And Here, Ladies, are Styles in Sportswear

Other issues of Life Magazine have had the pages worn from between the covers for various reasons, but it's a brand new one this week. This time it will be the women of America who will wear the magazine to tatters for it full pages are devoted to graphic illustrations of what they will spend $5,000,000 in the next three months on sport clothes for the coming season.

It includes a perfect picture of clothes suitable for all occasions and quotes prices with care in allowing that the prices range from the those suited to the modest pocket book to the one for which price is no object.

Evening Bazaar

Starting with evening wear the styles are fashioned in rayon, synthetics and reflect the functional daytime lines. A novel feature is the evening sweater which shows signs of having a larger season ahead of it.

One of the chief loves of American women, slacks, requires two full pages to do it justice and is illustrated in all its variations from long regulation type to the new three-quarter and knee-length which are the latest and more expensive.

SURPRISING SENATORS MOVE INTO 1ST PLACE

Washington Club Wins Sixth Straight as Red Sox Beat Indians

NEW YORK, May 10 (U.P.)—The sharpshooters and rail-birds today were about ready to admit that they overlooked the best long shot in the majors in not giving the Washington Senators a tumble in the spring forecast.

Most observers consigned the Senators to the second division. They are called Senators by everyone but Clark Griffith who wants his team to be known as the Nationals because his mail winds up in congress when the senatorial nickname is used. They went to the post at 30-1 to win, 100-1 to place and 1-1 to show, with only the Browns and Athletics at longer odds.

Today finds Washington leading the American league parade, a half game ahead of Cleveland and the Red Sox. And the other managers agree that the Senators are no longer a soft touch.

Three big changes in Washington's array as pitcher Bill Leonard, the Brooklyn castoff with the mystifying knock-out, and the new acquisition, Casey, the fleet-footed outfielder, and Zekke Bonura, whose spirit and big bat have made a big difference.

The team scored his third triumph yesterday, holding the St. Louis Browns to seven scattered hits as the Senators won 7-1. Johnny Rick Farrell and Leonard hit triples in a 14-hit attack on Oral Hildebrand, who was Washington's sixth straight strike.

Cleveland Drubbed The Boston Red Sox knocked Cleveland off its high perch by slugging the Indians with a 10-3 beating. Rookie Jim Bagby held the Indians to six hits. Jimmy Fox hit two homers, nos. 8 and 7, and drove in five runs. Joe Cronin also hit a homer.

The Boston Bees scored a 10-9, nine triumph over Pittsburgh, 7-0, in a 10-inning game. The Bees' single with the bases loaded in the tenth, Wilbur Brubaker with the bases in, hit the Pirates' half to end the game.

With a supposed betting order circulating the Indians with a 10-3 beating. Harry Craft and Bill Zerkowberger collected three hits each.

Medwick's drive, his fourth hit of the game, tripled the St. Louis Cardinals and gave the Browns a 1-0 lead. Each team made 18 hits. Osoy Rosen, Dodger's rookie outfielder, had a perfect day, 4 for 4. Ed Critchfield hit a homer with one out.

Maxie Has No Doubts on Beating Joe

NEW YORK, May 10 (U.P.)—Max Schmeling, heavyweight champion, has arrived on the liner Bremen, brimming and confident of recapturing the championship from Joe Louis on June 27.

Schmeling said, "I am in fine condition. I weigh about 178 pounds, only two over my fighting weight."

He assured newspapermen and photographers that he would defend the title in the Chicago Coliseum in September after "beating Louis in June."

Game, Fish Leaders Seek to Change Warden System

BOISE, May 10 (U.P.)—A group of sportsmen and fishermen here today are seeking to change the warden system of the state's game and fish lands.

The group, which includes those of Donald Budge and Helen Will Moody, tennis stars, and Joe Di Maggio, baseball star, are seeking to have the warden system replaced by a system of game and fish wardens.

The group criticized the failure to employ a large number of warden-wardens, a system of suppression and censorship.

LAWRIN'S BAD START—AND GRAND FINISH

None of the wise-money boys who skipped carelessly over Lawrin's name when they doped the 6th Kentucky Derby had any reason to worry about their bets on touted favorites as the pack came into the quarter, and, as seen above, Lawrin (No. 1), indicated by arrow, was in the luck and badly boxed against the rail. But they reckoned without the Missouri hill-billy colt's stout heart and flying hooves and the race-crazy hands and knees of veteran jockey Eddie Arcaro. Confident Eddie wasn't worried, inched Lawrin along until their opening came, then—they were off in a merry-go-round swing past rivals ahead, creeping steadily up on the falling leader, Meneo Nixon, passed the race second all theirs. But the worst was yet to come when Dauber shot out in a homestretch challenge that gained continuously on the pounding Lawrin until they flashed over the finish line in the order above.

Lawrin first Dauber a close second, Carl Swilt nodding out Meneo for third, and Stagehand's unexcused, The Chief, fifth.

Youngest Walker Cup Team Sails Today

NEW YORK, May 10 (U.P.)—The youngest Walker cup golf team ever to represent Great Britain and Ireland tonight determined to make it 10 straight over the British in the biennial team series and also bring the British amateur title back to the United States.

Nine players, headed by Francis Quimet of Boston, member of all 10 previous teams, will sail on the Bremen at midnight for the amateur championship May 23-28 at Troon, Scotland, and the international series June 3-4 at St. Andrews.

Britain Has Never Won. Britain never has won the cup which was placed in competition in 1822 and even the most ardent British fans can't see anything but defeat in the cup of yesterday's draw which placed seven of 12 American bracket and paired two others in a first-round contest. Britons already have virtually conceded their amateur championship to this country.

With the exception of Oulmer, who won the U. S. open title in 1913 and 1921, the other eight members of the American team are under 30 years of age.

Four Veterans. Four of them are veterans of previous international encounters: Johnny Fischer of Cincinnati; Johnny Goodman, Omaha, Neb.; Reynolds Smith, Dallas, Tex.; and Charley Yates, Atlanta. The newcomers are Ray Holloway, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Tom Finlay, Chicago, Ill.; and Fred Hoss, New Orleans; Charlie Kiebas, Detroit, Mich.; and Marvin Hart, Grand Rapids, Mich.

The series consists of four four-somes matches the first day and eight singles the second day. Oulmer said he hadn't decided what line-up he will use.

Stablemate of Stagehand III

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10 (U.P.)—The Chief, Maxwell Howard's colt, today was suffering from the same ailment that afflicted the stablemate Stagehand, winter book favorite, out of last Saturday's Kentucky derby.

The horse has a cold, sore throat and fever and will not run in Saturday's Preakness at Pimlico, Md. Apparently the Chief, fifth in the derby, contracted the cold from his stablemate.

Stagehand reportedly was recovering, but was not expected to run in the Preakness.

Trout Killed By Floods Reported Few

SHOSHONE, May 10 (Special)—It is apparent that very few, if any, trout have been killed by flood or pressure conditions during the present high water of Big and Little Lost rivers, states Fred W. Dier, chairman of the fish committee of the Shoshone Rod and Gun club.

A statement had been made at a recent meeting of the committee, which consists of W. Dier, Harry Gault, H. A. Stoner, Emmet Kelly and F. L. Stewart, and while some department men were found, it was considered but a natural condition inasmuch as perch cannot stand the heavy fall over the spillways.

However, a good many trout will likely be lost when the water recedes from the old channel of Big Wood, as they will be caught in the potholes, and there is little chance of removing any of them to open water, formerly the capture of these trout has been permitted, and without limit, by fishing, as that is the only method by which they can be recovered.

Nearly all the streams of this section, including Silver creek, one of the favorite waterways of this area, carry an abundance of food, and it is possible with adequate and systematic planting recovery of former trouting conditions will be obtained. Chairman Dier is of the opinion that the propagation of fish can easily be accomplished by the same department men who are shared by many other sportsmen of this locality, and they have likewise been the output of the Hayapur hatchery should be distributed entirely in the local streams.

A sub-committee will make an immediate survey of existing conditions to the end that the situation may be cleared for this season's troutling.

So good natured... He made one exception, however—the big politicians who "get tanked up" and then threaten to get your job if you put a hand on 'em."

Vandals Win Over WSC Nine, 8-2

Softball Site Will be Set At Meeting

Definite announcement of the field which the local softballs will occupy this summer will be the feature announcement of a meeting called for Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Fans, team managers, officials and team sponsors are requested to be present at the gathering, according to Fred Stone, secretary of the Twin Falls Softball association. At the same time W. G. Jeff Swin, chairman of the softball committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring organization, will explain the Jaycee set-up and general connection with the circuit.

Last year 12 teams participated in two leagues and it is expected that fully that many will take part in the program again this summer.

School Committee Given Power to Grant Field Use

Appointment of a three-member committee with power to act in granting the Junior Chamber of Commerce the use of Lincoln field for softball this summer had been carried out today by the Twin Falls school board.

Trustees at their meeting last night voted unanimously in favor of action of the committee. Chairman George A. Ward then appointed S. H. Graves, Ralph King and Supt. Homer M. Davis.

The trio was instructed to investigate how many of the Lincoln field lights and poles are owned by the Junior Chamber and how many by the school district. After clearing up that matter for future information, the committee will confer with the Jaycee softball committee, headed by Chairman W. G. Jeff Swin, to arrange details under which use of Lincoln field will be granted the Junior Chamber.

Eddie Arcaro Hops Plane to New York, Wife, Belmont

By HENRY McLEMORE LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10 (U.P.)—Eddie Arcaro, winner of the Kentucky Derby, left Louisville today for New York to join his wife and Belmont.

The embarrasment and fright of the gaudily dressed herd who rode out to call the derby field on the track... One foot of his golden trumpet and his horse reared up, all but unseating his rider, who threw down the trumpet and held on for dear life.

And for the first time in memory the horses came to the parade to the post without a budge call.

JAPANESE LAND NAVAL FORCES FOR ROAD FIGHTING

800,000 CHINESE TROOPS PREPARE TO DEFEND SITE

By ROBERT BELLAIRE
SHANGHAI, May 10 (AP)—Large Japanese naval forces landed at Kiangsu, eastern province on the eastern China coast today and engaged the Chinese in violent fighting.

Japanese airplanes, apparently from aircraft carriers off the coast, flew over the area dropping leaflets warning foreigners to evacuate.

Foreign naval observers here confirmed the landing at Kiangsu, where strong Chinese forces are situated. It was presumed that additional Japanese troops would be landed to reinforce the Japanese army attempting to storm the Lunghai railroad in the north.

Reinforcements Arrive
 Eight hundred thousand of China's best fighters, aided by reinforcements arriving constantly, entrenched themselves in the Shuchow area in southern China, in readiness for a gigantic defense of the Lunghai road, along which runs the Lunghai-Hindenberg line.

One of the biggest Japanese offensives of the war, threatening to encircle Shuchow, was in the making. The Japanese anticipate cracking the Lunghai road at Shuchow to consolidate and merge their northern and central Chinese provisional governments along the 400-mile road from Peiping south to Nanking.

Make No Claims
 Japanese communiques made no claims of substantial advances at any point along the railroad today. Chinese authorities were confident they would halt the invaders before they reached the road.

Chinese commanders based their hopes of repulsing the Japanese at Shuchow on the fact that 800,000 troops under Gen. Li Tsung-jen, awaited them.

Guerilla Warfare
 In addition, they believed that the Japanese columns would be thinned out by the time they reached the sea coasts. Chinese guerrillas were expected to retard further the Japanese advance as soon as the lines were drawn out.

A Japanese column moved toward Ningpo, on the coast, south of Shanghai, one of the chief sources of Chinese supplies and an important guerrilla base. The column was said to have occupied Shaoching, 30 miles southeast of Shanghai. Occupation of Ningpo would give the entire Hangchow bay under Japanese domination.

Wallace Louis Minto, Jr., of Jersey City, shown above examining a beaker in his makeshift basement laboratory, is a young physicist who, at 16, may have made one of the greatest scientific discoveries of the age. The youth, a high school senior, is reported to have found a method of producing "artificial radium" and other radio-active minerals from ores obtainable in northern New Jersey and adjacent states at a cost of $250 per gram as contrasted with the current cost of $25,000 per gram of real radium. He has been invited to present his claims before the annual convention of the Eastern Electronic Research association in New York.

H. S. OPENS TASK OF REGISTRATION

Preliminary registration for next semester was conducted in the home rooms of the high school this morning during the advisory period.

Explanation of the credit system and of the requirements under the new set-up of a three year high school were explained to all students.

Aids Fall Task
 Supt. Homer M. Davis announced to the students that the registration today was to facilitate the arrangement of the classes next year and that permanent class assignments and course sign-ups would be conducted in the fall as usual. All students not now registered in the high school and contemplating attendance next year are requested to call at the superintendent's office for preliminary enrollment.

Under the new system only 24 credits will be required for graduation instead of the 32 under the four year plan.

Other Necessities
 Other requirements include three years of English or two with two years of foreign language, one of which may be taken in junior high school, a year of United States history and civics. All sophomores are required to sign up for English three courses and biology one.

Juniors are required to enroll in English V and History V while seniors are required to enroll in History V and English VII unless they have had or will have had two years of foreign language.

The notice sent out by the superintendent also recommends that students planning to enter college after graduation take algebra, geometry, two years of foreign language and two years of science.

Upheld in Sitdown

A wife who stages a "sit-down" with her infant son for 15 hours in the lobby of her husband's apartment home is not committing disorderly conduct, said a New York court which freed Mrs. Helene Fabiani, seen above with her six-weeks-old son, of the charge. The former Hollywood dancer, wife of Ray Fabiani, wrestling promoter, charged that he had "kidnaped" her other child, a 19-month-old daughter, from their Philadelphia home.

RANGE PROGRAM DEADLINE JUNE 1

Deadline has been set for June 1 for South Idaho stockmen expecting to qualify for participation in the 1938 AAA range program, according to word which had been received today by County Agent Harvey S. Hale from H. L. Stafford, Moscow, executive officer of the state AAA office.

Applications on the range program must be filed at offices of the county agents.

The program provides ranch operators an opportunity to get assistance in undertaking and carrying out a cooperative program designed to protect privately owned or controlled range lands against permanent damage by soil erosion.

County committees and range examiners will be available to assist in filling out the application forms, Stafford said. It will also prove to the advantage of the operator in having high individuals help in developing a long time program to build up the fertility or grazing capacity of the ranch, he pointed out.

Practices included in the 1938 program are natural reseedling by deferred grazing, artificial reseedling, contour listing, furrowing or subsoiling, spreader dams and terraces, development of stock watering places and establishing fire guards.

Lawsuit Results From Ditch Leak

A restraining order today had been issued by Judge James W. Porter, district court, causing the city of Twin Falls to stop discharge of water through an open ditch in the southern portion of block nine in the Blue Lakes addition.

The action was brought against the city by R. S. Toftiemre and Lona Toftiemre, husband and wife, who claimed that seepage from the ditch, 25 feet from their home, now under construction, is causing damage to the basement.

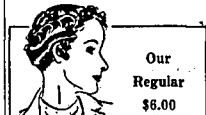

The restraining order forces the city to discontinue use of the ditch until termination of the action. The Toftiemre home is located in the 100 block on Fillmore street.

Papers were served by the sheriff on all council members yesterday. It was discussed at the regular council meeting last night.

The council also accepted land for a new street which will run from Railroad avenue to Shoshone street, going around the Railroad addition in the wholesale district near Rock creek. The strip, approximately 40 feet in width, was deeded to the city by Asher B. Wilson, president of the Rock Creek Realty company.

Is your "Hot Water" TOO HOT? TOO COLD?

Your Hot Water is Always "JUST RIGHT" with an Electric Heater

One of the privileges of having an automatic electric water heater is that the water is never wastefully too hot, nor inconveniently too cold. Thermostatic control insures an even temperature—always hot enough.

Have Hot Water when You need it

No more wasted time, "waiting for the water to get hot." No more running up and down the basement stairs to light and put out an old-fashioned heater. Water heated electrically is AUTOMATIC—ready to use the moment it's needed. Minutes saved during the day mean hours of leisure during the week. Save time, hard work and nervous energy, with an automatic electric water heater.
