Idaho Ranks at Top in Feeder Air Lines, Says Commerce Super

12 SHIPS BRING 20,000 LETTERS TO BOISE'S PORT

BOISE, Idaho, May 20 (Special)—Col. E. C. Popp, bureau of air commerce airport superintendent for the 11 western states, said today that he believed Idaho ranked highest in the nation from the point of pioneering feeder air lines.

Colonel Popp said that the state was proceeding rapidly in the trend toward ultimate establishment of regular branch air lines to connect with transcontinental airways from outlying community centers.

Seven mining industry.

The state has gone especially far in development of air transportation for purposes of serving one of the richest industries of the world, which in the primitive area is barely accessible by ground.

The colonel noted that approximately 300 tons of mining equipment and machinery had been delivered to Idaho mines through the use of small commercial airways and private planes.

"Transport companies realize," Colonel Popp said, "that the matter of feeder airlines is rapidly becoming a reality. In the future, efforts will be made to establish such lines on a sound basis, providing they can be economically handled and well-served."

He said the bureau of air commerce was conducting surveys in an effort to locate spots for landing sites which could become a part of such a feeder system.

12 Ships Arrive

Popp was here in connection with the state's observation of national airmail week when 12 ships came into Boise's airport bearing 20,000 letters more than in any other week. The ships brought mail and snow but arrived without mishap.

Fourteen ships started the flight but Ray Crowder, Boise, was forced down at Water with a broken gas line and Dr. L. F. West had to hold up at McCall to wait for a break in line which thereafter finished the appointed flight.

CHANGE MADE IN FARM PROGRAM

BURLEY, May 20 (Special)—Some rather important changes have been made recently by the agricultural adjustment administration with respect to the regular farm conservation program, W. W. Palmer, county agent, pointed out here today.

The rate of payment per bushel for potatoes has been increased from 30 cents to 35 cents per bushel for a 100 percent per acre on potatoes determined by establishing a normal yield for the farm. The rate for each acre is based on the producer plants, providing he does not plant over his acreage allotment.

The rate of penalty for exceeding the soil depleting acreage allotment, if a wheat allotment is established for the farm has been reduced from eight times the wheat rate per acre to five times the wheat rate. If a producer exceeds his depleting acreage allotment and a wheat allotment is not given him, the penalty has been reduced from 80 to 40 per acre for each excess acre.

During the many months of its run in the United States, a certain farming motion picture caused an average of 25 percent a week to faint or go into hysterical collapse.

Mercy Trips High on List For Aircraft

By NEIL HULETT
(Editor's note: This essay won third prize in the Twin Falls airmail contest.)

As through the day and night, giant-winged airplanes speed across the continent, taking relatives to a dying person, or delivering a dying person to a clinic, carrying huge bags of mail that must be delivered on schedule and cutting hours of traveling time. This is a picture of the giant planes of the various airlines of the United States.

A hundred city newspapers bear these headlines: "STRANDED IN MISSISSIPPI FLOOD AREA." Immediately transport, commercial, and private planes take off from a hundred fields to take food in or bring out refugees.

It's Hail on Automobiles

Citizens of the town of Duncan, Okla., were out of pocket an estimated $100,000 and farmers even harder hit when the vicinity was showered by a barrage of hailstones as big as baseballs—some 2 1/2 inches in diameter—on automobiles, as evidenced by the pulverized car top shown in the lower picture. The top photo shows how the phenomenal hailstones sized up alongside a ruler.

Plane Takes 1,244 Letters Waiting for It Nine Years

MARLIN, Tex., May 20 (UP)—A mail plane finally stopped at Marlin and 1,244 letters which have been waiting for it for nine years were put aboard.

The letters were left at the postoffice in 1929 and 1929 by stamp collectors who heard an erroneous report that Marlin was to be an airmail stop in connection with an airport dedication. The senders asked that the letters be put on the first mail plane leaving Marlin.

Thursday a mail plane stopped here in observance of the 20th anniversary of the first flight between New York and Los Angeles. Postmaster A. B. Johnson dated off the nine-year-old letters and put them aboard.

Since airmail rates have boosted since 1929, many of the letters required added postage. The Chamber of Commerce put up the money for the extra stamps.

One of the letters was addressed to King George V of England, who since has died. Many were destined for Hawaii. Since Hawaii did not have airmail in 1929, extra stamps were put on the letters today so they could be carried in the China Clipper.

Range Program DEADLINE JUNE 1

BURLEY, May 20 (Special)—Range land operators are advised, according to word coming from the county agent's office today, that the closing date for receiving applications under the range conservation program is June 1. To date, W. W. Palmer, county agent, states that there are only about half as many applicants as there were at this time last year.

In applying under this program, which provides for improvement of privately controlled range lands, the operator must give the description of his land and indicate the practices which he desired to carry out. There are numerous practices, the principle one being natural reseeded by deferred grazing. This practice provides for the retirement of 25 per cent of the range land from this period of growth in the spring to July 15, or until after forage plants have seeded. The amount of land retired from grazing during this period may be less or more than 25 per cent of the total area as determined advisable by the county committee in conference with the operator.

Looks at Death

WHEAT SURPLUS LOANS PLANNED

WASHINGTON, May 20 (UP)—The agriculture department will make loans to farmers on 200,000,000 bushels of surplus wheat this year.

President Roosevelt asked congress for a supplemental appropriation of $50,000,000 to license and supervise additional grain elevators in which grain would be stored under the plan.

The secretary of agriculture advises that the 1938 wheat crop as of July 1, 1938, is estimated at 950,000,000 bushels and that domestic consumption and export of wheat during the marketing year is estimated at 780,000,000, acting budget director Daniel W. Bell advised the house appropriations committee.

"If (Henry A. Wallace) advises that under these conditions, a loan to producers of wheat on the 1938 surplus of over 200,000,000 bushels will be necessary."

When Hills Bros. began business in 1878, they decided to use only the best grades of coffee in their blend. This early decision has become a tradition. Too Many Toes to Watch

Since the moving picture graduated from its old childhood status and became a big league entertainment, it has been waiting impatiently for its growth up.

Once in a while, to be sure, something like "Snow White" comes along to indicate that the movies have indeed grown up—in spots anyhow. But for the most part, the industry's long adolescence continues, and the industry are regrettably few.

There are a big league movie producer—none other than Sam Goldwyn—who put his finger on the industry's ailment the other day that he was "dramatizing the selling of Germany. This promptly raised a storm among the other movie barons, who objected to the American movie business in Germany being dramatized. Goldwyn replied:

The Family Doctor

By DR. MORRIS FISHER

Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

Physicians everywhere are beginning to see increasing numbers of cases of polio, the new disease developed in the United States.

Recently an outbreak occurred in Vermont in which 64 people were afflicted with the disease. The doctors first realized that there was an outbreak when a soldier came to an army camp suffering with headache, chills, and a general feeling of malaise. His temperature was 102 degrees, his eyes were swollen and painful, that he had a sore throat, and that he also had sores in his muscles.

It was a few days later that the outbreak eventually reached 102 degrees. An examination of the blood revealed the presence of a greatly increased number of white blood cells, with an especially large increase of one variety known as eosinophiles.

Within a period of a week, seven cases of polio were found with this condition.

The doctors then began making a careful study of the diets of the patients. It was found that the diet was very similar to the diet of the first patient. It was found that the diet was very similar to the diet of the first patient.

MEXICAN LEADER MASSES TROOPS TO SUBDUE GEN...

ASKS DISARMING OF UNAUTHORIZED ARMS CARRIERS

SAN LUIS POTOSI, Mex., May 30 (AP)—More than 10,000 federal troops were concentrated in San Luis Potosi state today to force, by force if necessary, the submission of Gen. Saturnino Cedillo and his agrarian army.

The troops were augmented by 19 army airplanes which flew here today in command of Gen. Alfredo Lozano.

President Lazaro Cardenas, writing in a memorandum to the chief of state, was understood to have ordered disarming persons unauthorized to carry arms.

Charges General Cedillo had carried on subversive activities against the government, was determined by the military. He was considered to have employed the support of the greater masses of San Luis Potosi residents.

The state's chief of police could not be estimated, but federal army officers believed it could not offer opposition. Federal troops had been arriving in San Luis Potosi and surrounding states for a week.

Cedillo, the state's "warlord" and a former cabinet member who broke with Cardenas over the latter's agrarian reform program, was still at his estate at La Palomas. He defied the government when he refused to accept a transfer to the Michoacan military zone and subsequently was retired from active army service, officially at his own request, because of illness.

Mighty Panja General Reports were circulated that Cardenas might punish the former general by sending his La Palomas property to the state, turning it over to the peasants.

Meanwhile, the president received an urgent request from Las Potosis, in Mexico state, asking him to order the disarmament of rural defense forces there following a battle among peasants over land ownership in which several persons were killed.

The battle, according to the Mexico City newspaper Universal, took place at Atilaco.

Cardenas sought to avoid all military precautions around his person. When he left his train he walked alone, and at this time the military guards his train he walked drawn.

"A government functionary such as I am who merely seeks to serve the people's interests has his best defenders in the people themselves," he said.

FORESTER TO GET U. OF T. HONORS

MOSCOW, May 30 (Special)—In recognition of "distinguished service" to the advancement of forestry in Idaho, the University of Idaho will confer an honorary degree upon one of its former students, Richard E. Rutledge, district forester of section four of the U. S. forest service at Ogden, Utah, announced President Harrison C. Dale, Mr. Rutledge, who attended the university in 1914 and 1915, will receive the honor at the university's 43rd commencement exercises, June 13.

For the 10 years following his attending the university, Mr. Rutledge divided his time between school teaching in Idaho and practice in the lumber industry. In 1908 he entered the forest service as a ranger on the Sawtooth national forest, later transferring to the Payette forest. In 1907 he became supervisor of the Coeur d'Alene forest. A year later he was made chief of the office of recreation in the regional office at Missoula, Idaho. Advancements, came fast. In 1908 he became assistant district forester and the next year district forester of Region one. In 1920 he was transferred to Ogden to take charge of Region four, which includes much of southern Idaho, a position he has held continuously since.

Rutledge is an outstanding national figure in the forestry profession. When he was elected to Region four, which because of the wide range of conditions has presented the most difficult administrative problem of any of the western regions, E. T. Meredith, then secretary of agriculture, said of him, "during the past 18 years Mr. Rutledge has proved himself one of the ablest administrators in the forest service and a man of broad human sympathies."

Last honorary degree was a doctor of engineering in 1935 to Walker R. Young, a university graduate in the class of 1908, in recognition of his active government service in charge of construction at Boulder dam, then the biggest engineering project since the building of the Panama canal.

Assension Hits Ranks of National Spain Leaders

FRANCO REFUSES TO BOMBARD BIG LOYALIST CITIES

By EDWARD J. MCHILAN
LONDON, May 30 (U.P.)—Foreign advisers to nationalist Spain have demanded direct assaults against Barcelona, Valencia and Madrid, which Generalissimo Franco refused, causing the most serious differences here today.

These advisers insisted that Franco bring the war to a speedy conclusion by launching offensive against the three important loyalist strongholds. This was refused to do on the grounds that it might involve frightful casualties and total destruction of the cities.

The difference of opinion, it was said, constituted the real background and explanation for the present stalemate between Spain and invading Paris, Rome and London.

The Spanish non-intervention committee will meet May 30. It was announced today to consider new problems that have arisen in maintaining neutrality in the civil war.

It was expected that the question of a neutrality control of the Franco frontier would be an important topic of discussion, because of the difficulty that has arisen over Spain, with the possibility of a Franco-Soviet military treaty.

The Daily Express asserted today that Generalissimo Franco, the Italian ambassador at Rome, had insisted Franco halted the advance of the Spanish forces there could be no treaty.

Sermon Will Tell Wonders In Twin Falls

Advantages and "wonders" of Twin Falls will be the theme of a sermon to be delivered at the First Christian church here at 8 p. m. Sunday by Rev. Mark O. Cronenberg, pastor. It was announced today.

The sermon will feature the Sunday evening one-hour service.

Statements by Residents
Rev. Cronenberg will use statements made by a number of prominent citizens, and will ask his congregations for additional suggestions concerning the "wonders of Twin Falls."

Among statements made to the pastor, and to be included in the unusual address, are these:
Mayor Lem O'Connell—"One of the striking features of our city is its well-kept parks, lawns and gardens. Many tourists tell me that this city is unusually clean and its buildings, streets and parks are very attractive."

Harry Ferguson commented on the "many fine churches" and added: "Geographically, Twin Falls is in a desert area. It cost a great sum of money to bring water into this land and at once sewage became a problem. This was solved by digging tunnels down into the lava beds where the water was run into cisterns. It was used again at a lower level, thus repaying the cost of digging the tunnels by 'siphoning' the water. This, in my opinion, is a wonder and all most a miracle, a man done by the Twin Falls Canal company."

Mighty Sheabone Falls
Henry Jones composed a poem, written by an old man, describing Sheabone falls: "Majestic mighty child of God, whose majestic voices bespeak thy Maker's boundless power." He also mentioned the Magic hot springs south of the city, with radium deposits and minerals, and pointed out the lava beds and ice caves as wonders of the area.

F. G. Thompson called attention to the typing and business conditions: "There is a recorded per capita buying of $1,100 as against $316 for the state, and it is $640 more than the general average of the U. S. Ninety-eight per cent of the city population is American-born-white."

Grant O. Fudge cited "a remarkable instance of faith in the community" by pointing to an investment of more than $200,000 in one local business institution.

Mr. Cronenberg also will also speak Sunday night of the seven wonders of the old world, the middle age and the present era. He will outline "spiritual wonders" that are in evidence here.

Special music and congregational singing will be on the program for the service.

John Bunyan, author of "Pilgrim's Progress," was a tinker in Bedford, England.

SUMMER SCHOOL ENROLLING OPENS

Registration for Twin Falls summer school sessions were being taken today by Mrs. P. D. Barnhart. Those interested to take the opportunity to advance in classwork, make up lost time, or for the general knowledge to be gained were signing up from two until five in room 208.

The sessions are scheduled to get underway on Monday at 7:30 a. m. at the Washington school. Classes are to be conducted in the new section of the building six days a week. All periods are of one and a half-hour duration and the student is expected to spend as much time in outside preparation as spent in class, Mrs. Barnhart announced.

Members of Junior high school pupils has already signed up and more are expected to be present for the opening session in addition to high school pupils and others wishing to attend merely for the sake of gaining more knowledge. Mrs. Barnhart pointed out that there is no age limit on the enrollment.

Mrs. Barnhart will instruct in languages and English. C. D. Merrill, Fairchild superintendent, will teach all science courses and Miss Joyce-Thompson of Pocatello will instruct commercial courses. More teachers will be secured if the enrollment warrants it, Mrs. Barnhart announced.

STRIKERS CLOSE GOODRICH PLANT

AKRON, O., May 30 (U.P.)—A strike today closed all six Akron plants of the S. P. Goodrich company.

Workers have demanded rubber workers' union.

Workers of the United Rubber Workers' proposed main gates of the Goodrich in protest against what they charged was company violation of a national 1944 in lay-offs of 25 employees.

The strike at first had arrested only the main plant.

L. A. Callahan, president of the U. R. W. union, said that he and his committee were in contact with the company, but the company refused to do.

It was learned from sources close to the company that the union does not plan any attempt to reopen its plants.
