IDAHO AD VALOREM TAX TO BE LIGHTEST IN HISTORY

$500,000 IS ALL THAT IS NEEDED, CLAIMS PARSONS

By DAVID N. JOHNSON
BOISE, Ida., July 28 (UP)—State Auditor Harry Parsons today advised the state of Idaho that it will be necessary to raise more than $500,000 for the general fund through ad valorem property taxation this year.

Based on his figures on condition of the general fund and the 1937 state property tax valuation of $31,000,000 plus evident additions for 1938, Parsons said a levy of one and four-tenths mills would be sufficient to raise the $500,000.

This levy would be the lowest imposed ad valorem tax in the history of Idaho and the amount proposed by the tax would be the lowest since 1928.

Parsons' estimate showed the state to be in excellent financial condition—especially the general fund—and showed an increase in property valuation of more than $20,000,000 since 1928.

The auditor said the fact that the state's general fund has been able to carry the additional burden of $1,650,000 per year for relief and at the same time increase the surplus remaining at the close of the last biennium is sufficient evidence that no new taxes need be added for the coming biennium.

Five Mills Last Year
Lack of necessity for adding new taxes held true only about 1937-40 appropriations not be materially increased above 1937-38 for operation of state departments.

The tax levy imposed last year by the state board of examiners was five mills, raising an income amounting to slightly more than $1,500,000 from taxable property.

Thus the reduction in taxes, if carried out by the board along the line of Parsons' recommendation, will amount to almost three-quarters of the levy assessed in 1937.

The auditor reported that with 75 per cent of the 1937-38 biennium elapsed, all departments and institutions were well within their budgets.

Few Excesses Percentage
A few departments and institutions operating on both general and special funds have exceeded their 75 per cent from the general fund, Parsons said, but he adjusted this condition would be subjected as a larger portion of the expenses are charged to special funds.

During the last 18 months, the bonded debt decreased by $916,000, leaving a total outstanding debt of $1,534,000 on June 30, compared with an outstanding total of $2,160,500 on Jan. 1, 1937.

The cash balance of the general fund on June 30 was $1,195,877, the highest mark ever reached at this period of the biennium in the history of the state.

Additional Revenues
Additional estimated revenues to accrue to the general fund, exclusive of the 1938 ad valorem tax, will amount to $1,600,000, Parsons reported.

Income tax collections during the first 10 months of this biennium totaled $2,308,953 as compared to $1,422,299 for the same period last biennium and an increase of $2,082,987 in five other tax division accruals was registered.

LEAFLET BOOSTS UIS 4-YEAR GOAL

Declaring that the enlargement of Idaho Southern university into a full-fledged four-year school will not prove injurious in any way to the University of Idaho at Moscow, Charles S. (Clio) Crabtree, business representative here for the UIS committee, began today on distribution of the latest leaflet prepared for use through southern Idaho.

The committee is composed of prominent men from the 32 southern Idaho counties which are closer to Pocatello than to Moscow.

"There has been a good deal of misinformation about this move," Crabtree said. "The general plan is to establish at Pocatello a broad and better university teaching essential four-year courses in the college of letters and science and in the college of engineering, plus the four-year courses already given in pharmacy. Such a business program wouldn't call for specialized instruction in agriculture, mining, forestry, law or any graduate work—all of which are given at Moscow and are expensive to maintain."

Figures quoted in the latest leaflet show that enlargement of Idaho Southern can be achieved at a cost of less than $100,000 a year. The leaflet claims that no increase in educational funds would be needed, and asserts that a businesslike distribution of the Idaho educational money now available would provide the funds without increasing taxes.

TAX DEED MOVES START IN AUGUST

Delinquent taxpayers of Twin Falls county were warned today that tax deed proceedings will begin in August.

Mrs. Cora E. Stevens, county treasurer, said that her office will begin proceedings then on delinquents for the years 1932, 1933 and 1935. The 1934 delinquent taxes do not come up for tax deed until next year under provisions of the state constitution.

The treasurer said that all accumulated interest prior to Jan. 1, 1935, has been cancelled; that taxes for 1930, 1931, 1932 and 1933 draw six per cent interest from Jan. 1, 1935, and delinquent taxes of 1934, 1935, 1936 and 1937 all draw 10 per cent interest from the first of January of the following year.

Two Events Welcome New Yorkers on Visit

Charming among the many courtesies which have been arranged by local hostesses for summer visitors in Twin Falls, was the tea which Mrs. W. G. Swim presided this afternoon in compliment to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Dudley Swim, New York City. The eastern visitor will also share honors with her husband this evening at an "open house" planned by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swim, parents of Mr. Swim.

Forty friends called during the afternoon at the hostess's home, 261 Lincoln street, to welcome Mrs. Swim who is making her second visit to Twin Falls. As a bride, she was first introduced to Twin Falls friends by her husband three years ago, while they were on their wedding trip.

Tea was served from a beautifully appointed table, a handsome Italian cut-work cloth, silver services and a central arrangement of roses and sweet peas completing the ensemble. Harmonizing bouquets of roses and sweet peas were grouped throughout the room.

During the hour from 3 to 4 o'clock, Mrs. Harry Eloek and Mrs. Francis Shenbergh presided at the table.

Mrs. A. L. Swim, mother-in-law of the honor guest, and Mrs. Henry J. Wall presided during the latter half of the afternoon.

Mrs. M. C. Baird, Detroit, Mich., house guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry Eloek, and Mrs. James S. Deane, Chicago, who is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Wall, were out-of-town guests.

Reception Tonight
When Mr. and Mrs. L. Swim entertain this evening at the informal reception for their house guests, they will receive in the garden at their home, 910 Addison avenue.

The hours are from 8 to 10 o'clock, and all friends and classmates of Mr. Swim during the former residence here are especially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Swim will spend approximately a week here en route to their home from a business trip to the west coast.

Both aviation enthusiasts, they are making the entire trip by plane.

BEAUTY STAFF
HOLDS BANQUET PICNIC
Staffs of the Athletic Beauty societies of Twin Falls and Buhl journeyed to Banbury's Tuesday evening for a swimming party and picnic. The sixteen present left Twin Falls at six p. m. for the outing.

Following the picnic lunch and swimming activities the group adjourned to the home of Mrs. Marie Terry, Buhl, for a watermelon feed.

SOCIAL AFTERNOON
SPENT BY THALIA CLUB
Dispensing with a formal program, Thalia club members socialized at the home of Mrs. Phil Carlisle, 561 Fourth avenue north.

The birthday of the young Miss Trinity was appropriately observed. Mrs. Carlisle served refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

The club will meet Aug. 10 at the home of Mrs. Carl Weaver.

HAZELTON LOCAL GAMES
Twin Falls and Hazelton members of the Young People's Christian Endeavor society of the United Brethren church met at the Hazleton public ravine at Hazelton, Idaho, Tuesday evening for a jolly outing.

Refreshments were served at the picnic spot, and athletic games were played following the picnic supper.

Twenty-seven young people, accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Jack Eik and Mr. and Mrs. John Frankbauer, were present. Chairman of the social committee was Mrs. Frankbauer. Mrs. Frank Hunter is president of the group.

ENTHUSIASM
"OPEN HOUSE" PROGRAM
An atmosphere of enthusiasm marked the "open house" event at the D. S. recent ward chapel last evening. A houseful of people, the general plan of the classrooms, recreation hall, coffee room and auditorium was introduced to members and visitors attending through the evening. Large electric lights were strung throughout the structure.

Charles Blirley directed the program of community singing of old favorite songs, "Our Mountain Home is Dear," "When I'm Singing," "The Rock of Ages," and "Hallelujah." A Hawaiian number by Mr. and Mrs. Mel Carter, with vocal refrain by Wendell Brown, opened the program. A mixed quartet by the Double Glee chorus sang "Goodnight," accompanied by Mrs. Lola Pratt.

Humble Cockrell and his tin-pan band presented a humorous number, "The Old Apple Tree." Thanks are due to the D. S. and other members of the second ward followed. Mrs. Lloyd Oakes gave a humorous reading. Misses Helen and Fern Bailey sang an original duet; an instrumental trio by Francis Luke, Hubert, Charles Blirley, Violet, and Mrs. Peay, pianist, and a double quartet, singing in their accompaniment, completed the musical entertainment.

Wendell Brown explained the purpose of the party, stating that the division of financial responsibility for the chapel, to cost $42,000, rests with the first and second wards. Honorable mention was given Dr. Lloyd Oakes, Russell Robertson and Miss George Ward for special services toward the building fund.

Out-of-Towners Complimented at Terrace Supper

A taper-light supper of smart appointments was the delightful courtesy at which Mr. and Mrs. Miles J. Brown, Jr. and Mrs. W. P. Haney entertained last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Blomquist, Dallas, Texas.

The supper was served on the terrace at the Browning house, 1441 Seventh avenue east. Guests were seated at five tables, which were illuminated with pastel lamps. The buffet table was centered with a crystal bowl of orchid petals and covered with a lace cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Blomquist left today for Caldwell, Mrs. Blomquist's former home.

The evening, following supper, was spent socially. Among the out-of-towners present were Mrs. Kenneth Keever, Carlsbad, Calif., guest of her sister, Mrs. Brown, and her mother, Mrs. C. M. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Pravey, jr., Hailey.

Parent-Teacher Value Stressed

"Because of the increasing complexities of problems of parents, we need the impartial views and the pooled experiences of as many parents and teachers as possible, particularly in advancing child welfare."

This was the keynote of the annual program of the Idaho Parents and Teachers Association, held at the home of Mrs. Len Kunkle, described P. T. A. members not only as beneficiaries but as contributors to the local, state and national program of the organization.

Both Mrs. Joslyn and Mrs. Roy Evans, guest speakers at the meeting, stressed the importance of the P. T. A. in the education of the child, and the national program of the organization.

Approved by Columbia Attitude of Columbia university toward the effectiveness of Parent-Teacher activities, was pointed out by Mrs. Rose Murray in a recent letter to Mrs. Joslyn, Mrs. North, dean of girls at the Twin Falls high school, and state chairman of the high school association.

Mrs. Lulu Hacker directed the parliamentary drill. Mrs. Marie Powell presided at the meeting. Mrs. Mac Doolittle, the hostess served refreshments.

THE P. T. A. IS JUST an interested in what the individual parent and teacher can give to others, because each has a unique gift which he or she has no right to withhold, especially now, when the pliers of parenthood are facing ever-new frontiers, with the shattering experiences of a new world war in prospect.

"We can give whole-heartedly because of the kind of a P. T. A. we have in Idaho, which is actually non-political. There is none of the rivalry for office found in some organizations, and former officers continue in service to give new officers the benefit of their experience," she concluded.

Mrs. Kunkle, a past officer of the Royal Neighbors, was presented with a gift from the P. T. A. club, Mrs. Winifred Whitehead making the presentation.

Mrs. Dorothy Kieffer arranged the afternoon's program, which also included playing numbers by Miss Patricia Graves and community singing.

Assistant hostesses were Mrs. W. J. Hollenbeck, Mrs. Ruth Whitehurst and Mrs. Maude Clark. Mrs. M. L. Benth presided.

Captain Harold, director of the Harris Zoological expedition to South Africa, has invented bullets which will kill wild animals but not kill them.

CANNING PEACHES
While peaches are at the peak of flavor, the thrifty homemaker is storing the ready-to-eat glass jars for next winter's menus.

Peaches are among the easiest of foods to can, requiring very little preparation. Select tree-ripened peaches that are firm and good in flavor. If peaches are uniformly ripened they may be removed by immersing them in boiling water for one minute then plunging into cold water.

Peaches discolor rapidly after peeling and to prevent delay in canning procedure after fruit is peeled, prepare jars and other canned equipment before starting preparation of fruit. Check over jars, discarding those which are nicked, cracked, have sharp sealing edges, wash jars in warm soapy water and scald thoroughly. A water bath canner is preferred for processing fruits. Place canner on stove with enough water to cover jars at least one inch over top. This water should be near boiling point when jars of fruit are placed into canner.

To prevent discoloration of peaches, drop them as soon as packed into mild salt solution made by dissolving one teaspoon salt to each quart of water. When ready to pack peaches in jars, drain and pack solidly, filling jar to within 1/2 inch of top with peaches and 1/4 inch of top with syrup. The density of syrup will depend upon sweetness of fruit and personal preference. As soon as jar is filled, place sealing lid on jar with sealing composition next to glass and screw the bands firmly in place. Place jar in canner and process for 20 minutes, counting time from minute water in canner reaches rolling boil.

When processing is complete, remove jars from canner. Do not tighten self-sealing cap again. Set jars right side up to cool. When jars are cold, test for seal by tapping lid with spoon. A clear ringing sound denotes a seal. If not sealed sound will be dull and low in key in which case you have an opportunity to re-can contents and save your food. Remove screws from hands with jar cap and sealed and use them in next canning procedure. For free booklet on home canning visit Home-Makers Institute in care Idaho Evening Times.

Seventy-one persons were killed in Idaho traffic accidents during the first six months of this year. It was revealed here this afternoon by local police after receipt of statistical data from the department of law enforcement.

During the same period there were 398 accidents reported and investigated over the state. 329 were caused by negligent drivers and property damage amounting to $749,340 as a result of the crashes.

More accidents occurred on Sunday than any other day of the week, the report shows, with the next most dangerous day being Saturday. Sunday deaths total 20, and with 90 accidents recorded. In the fatal accidents 43 of the persons involved were male and 28 female, with 11 in fatal accidents. 23 persons involved were male and 9 female.

Fifty-eight of the accidents reported, including fatal mishaps, occurred between the hours of 12:01 a. m. and 6 a. m., the report shows. Eighteen of the drivers involved in fatal mishaps were between the ages of 20 and 29 years. Three were 30 and 39 years of age, 65 persons or older with nine being between 50 and 64 years. Four of the fatal accidents and 32 of the 71 accidents were a direct result of speeding.

$5 FEE SPONSOR CHARGES THEFT

Eleven sets of initiative petitions on the $5 license fee plan were stolen, and scores of other petitions were not turned in because of misunderstanding on the time deadline.

W. C. Thornton, Blaine, congressional candidate who sponsored the unsuccessful statewide drive, charged here today.

Thornton said that if all these petitions were to be accepted, he would see the initiative drive to place the $5 license proposition on the November ballot "would have come over in a big way."

The congressional applicant lashed at "organized groups and tax-and-take bodies who issued misleading statements to fool the public," and charged what he termed erroneous statements concerning additional property tax on farms if the $5 plan was through and an increase in personal property tax on automobiles.

"Both of those claims were entirely untrue under the bill I framed," Thornton said.

The petitions which Thornton said were stolen at Boise were all signed and notarized. Each of the 11 contained 30 names. The petitions, he asserted, were taken from a Boise barber shop.

Final Feminine Carrier of Mail Finishes Career

ANAONDA, Mont., July 28 (AP)—Anna McDonald, last woman mail carrier in the nation, went to work on a clerical post in the local office here today.

New postal regulations prohibited women from working as city mail carriers. Miss McDonald took the job during the World War when a shortage of men carriers occurred.

PLANS SHAPE UP FOR CASSIA FAIR

BURLEY, July 28 (Special)—Plans for the Cassia county fair and the Old Oregon Trail Stampede Sept. 1, 2 and 3 are rapidly being completed here.

Premium lists are now being mailed, and Cassia farmers falling to receive one may notify Manager B. P. Mahoney at the fair office, phone 307. Exhibits, it is hoped, will be entered in the list of last year which holds the record for Cassia county fairs to date. The board urged Grange, communities and other groups to route their entries into shape soon for attractive booth displays.

Work is underway now by the Cassia county Rod and Gun Club to have again an outstanding wild life exhibit. This feature last year was one of the most unusual of its kind in Idaho.

A business concern can contact the fair manager now to secure attractive display space.

Chief night attraction for the three evenings, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 1, 2 and 3, will be the Old Oregon Stampede, which is expected to prove the finest rodeo ever glimpsed in this section. The famed Moomaw and Bernard stock will provide thrills, and the western finest cowboy riders will be on hand.

NEW MUD GEYSER AT YELLOWSTONE

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo. (Special)—Great gobs of steaming clay are being catapulted 30 feet into the air by a new mud geyser in Yellowstone National Park, superintendent Edmund D. Rogers said recently.

Starting this summer, the geyser has carried out a crater 15 feet long, 10 feet wide and at least 30 feet deep. After a period of bubbling and surging the mud is thrown from the bottom of the crater. Some of the sticky substance has clung to the top of a 40-foot tree standing nearby. Several smaller trees in the vicinity are nearly engulfed by the stream which has poured out during eruptions.

The new mud spouter is the largest of its kind near any highway in the park, the superintendent said. It is more unusual because of the rapidity with which it has dug its crater and because of the force with which it hurls the hot clay into the air.

It is located in the Dragon's Mouth spring vicinity within 100 yards of the Lake to Cannon highway and can be watched from the main road.

Much vegetation in the locality has been killed within the last two years by a series of eruptions. One large mud pot and several smaller ones became active last summer.

WHITAKER BACKS IDAHO 'AD' PLAN

W. P. Whitaker, Pocatello, candidate for governor of Idaho subject to the Democratic primary on Aug. 9, this afternoon said he was "entirely concerned regarding the success of agriculture and its development" in Idaho, during an interview given here while en route to Boise.

Along the line of showing interest in the governorship, Mr. Whitaker said he believed that a "generous appropriation" should be made for re-establishment of the state highway department. He also declared himself in favor of agricultural research with a view to discovering new uses which would build broader markets for farm products.

Whitaker, who will speak in Twin Falls either later this week or the early part of next week, he was "highly in favor" of a non-partisan fish and game commission for the state, believing that the game department should be managed by "experts with a background of experience."

Whitaker said he was also in favor of continuing the state highway system and especially with "completing the highway north and south." He also favored contractors being let to Idaho contractors "so far as possible."

Whitaker, in his candidacy for the governorship, is supported by practically the entire membership of organized labor in the state, labor leaders say.

FEDERAL LOANS TO IDAHO FARMS TOTAL $3,577,312

MONEY ADVANCED FOR FEED, SEED AND LIVESTOCKS

BOISE, Ida., July 28 (UP)—The farm security administration announced today that loans totaling $3,577,312 for livestock, machinery, feed, seed, cooperative facilities and other capital goods had been extended to 3,961 Idaho farmers unable to secure credit from other sources.

Farm families in the state aided by the FSA totaled 3,718 at the end of the 1937-38 fiscal year July 1.

A debt reduction service available to all farmers in the state resulted in cutting debts of 1,522 families from a total of $5,202,897 to $2,380,632 and the payment of $37,925 in overdue taxes, the administration said.

Assistance has been extended to hundreds of drought refugees attempting to establish themselves in Idaho, the administration reported.

This assistance included FSA loans and grants.

More than 2,000 farmers received improved land holding agreements as a result of the administration's work in combatting farm tenancy, it was reported.

TENCKINCK HERD EARNS HIGH RANK

A Twin Falls dairyman today held one of the highest ratings in the nation for Holstein herds.

He is Louis J. Tenckinck, at whose ranch yesterday some 35 south central dairymen, breeders, county agents and dairy experts from two universities and from the Holstein-Friesian association were on hand for a herd re-classification.

High Rank

Eleven registered Holstein cows not previously classified—most of them first calf heifers—were typed by Prof. J. C. Knott, Washington State college. The results:

Two "very good"; six "good plus"; three "good."

"That is a splendid rating," M. B. Nichols, field representative for the Holstein-Friesian association, said today. Both Nichols and Prof. D. L. Fourt, University of Idaho dairy department, said that the classification of the 11 cows, plus the high ranking of the other animals in Mr. Tenckinck's herd, "give him one of the high-rating herds of the nation."

Nichols added that "Mr. Tenckinck's herds—for herds milked twice daily over a five-year period—is our second highest producing herd in the entire country." The average was 423 pounds of butterfat for the five-year period.

Leads State

In the Dairy Herd Improvement association, headed by Ivan H. Loughary, extension dairymen, the Tenckinck herd has the best 20-year average in the state. The mark is 407 pounds of butterfat on twice-a-day milking.

Scoring under the new classification rules is excellent, for the highest rating; then very good; next, good plus; good; fair; poor. Tenckinck has two "excellent" cows from the previous classification. Nichols explained that when an animal is classed as fair, she can have no more bull calves registered from her. When a cow is classed as

Gavel Brought To Twin Falls

The Pomona Grange's gavel had passed today from Cedar Draw to Twin Falls Grange.

Transfer of the gavel in the countywide Grange and parliamentary contest was carried out last night at a meeting in I. O. O. F. hall, with the visiting Cedar Draw group under William (Billy) Zink, Grange master, putting on the program. Tom Speedy, Twin Falls Grange master, presided for the hosts.

Excelsior Next

The local Grange will take the gavel to Excelsior Aug. 19. After that meeting only four Granges, all in the west end, will remain to receive the gavel before the prize is awarded.

Frank L. Atkins, Buhi; J. R. Dark, Kimberly; and Raymond Thomas, contest judges, were present last night to score the Cedar Draw group on its handling of the program.

In the course of the evening Cedar Draw voted to hold a picnic July 31, next Sunday, in Buhi city park. The resolution which formed that portion of the contest program was of humorous type.

Bull Ancestry Among Finest

Herd already being used in the L. J. Tenckinck dairy herd and in the A. J. Jagels herd, Buhi, are among U. S. bulls having the best breeding ancestry, M. B. Nichols, northwestern field man for the Holstein-Friesian association, said here today.

Mr. Tenckinck's herd, at re-classification yesterday, ranked among the best in the nation for type. It was already the second finest in America for production on twice-a-day milking.

"The dam of the Tenckinck bull has three records above 600 pounds of butterfat," Mr. Nichols said. "In 1922 she was selected as the outstanding show cow in America. The sire of the Tenckinck bull is the leading herd sire in Canada from the standpoint of production by his offspring. He has 72 daughters which have completed 126 records averaging 518 pounds of butterfat." Tenckinck's herd sire is brother to that being used by Mr. Jagels, who is president of the Idaho Holstein-Friesian breeders' association. Both are from the Colony farms in Extondale, B. C.

Return from Mountains

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Babcock and family have returned from several days' outing at their summer home at Easley hot springs.

poor, she immediately becomes a grade animal.

Cows in the Tenckinck herd all rate above fair.

These Attended

Among those in attendance at the classification event on the Tenckinck ranch three-fourths of a mile west of South park were Guy Graham, state commissioner of agriculture; Hans Sorenson, Pocatello, owner of a registered herd of Holsteins that had the highest production mark in Idaho last year; C. W. Daugh, Minidoka county agent who brought an auto load of Rupert dairymen and breeders; Chester Mink, Gooding agent who brought a number of Gooding dairymen; Albert Jagels, Buhi, president of the Idaho State Holstein-Friesian Breeders association.

Sorenson's herd, with a 423-pound butterfat average, was built up to its high standard with bulls from the Tenckinck and the University of Idaho herds.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

The STARFISH
PROGRESSES BY MEANS OF ITS SUCTION CLIP ARMS!
THE CREATURE CREATES VACUUMS IN ITS TUBES BY FILLING THEM WITH WATER, PLACING THE CLIPS AGAINST A SURFACE, AND THEN WITHDRAWING THE WATER INTO ITS BODY.

BRAZIL,
IRON ORE PROSPECTORS ARE GUIDED TO DEPOSITS BY THE PRESENCE OF ORCHIDS WHICH GROW IN SOILS ASSOCIATED WITH THIS TYPE OF ORE.

AUTOMOBILES
USE MORE PLATE GLASS THAN THE BUILDING INDUSTRY!

Starfishes have feet on the end of their arms, and these feet consist of small tubes that terminate in a sucker-like disc. By fastening the extended feet to a surface, the fish contracts them and draws itself forward.

SIDE GLANCES By George Clark

"Now, please, lady, it wasn't altogether his fault."
