FDR THREATENS PURGE TO "TRAITORS" President Calls "Obstructionist"

Jury Charges $1,000,000 Gas Funds Illegally Spent

PROBERS ATTACK MONEY USAGE IN BEN ROSS TERMS

BOISE, Ida., Aug. 17 (UP)—Outside influences have prevailed on employees of the state highway department to use inferior materials in road construction, the Ada county grand jury charged today in a laudatory report.

The grand jury said it had been unable to find "one single instance in which the hundreds of reported failures of materials to meet specifications had resulted in rejection of those materials."

By DAVID N. JOHNSON BOISE, Aug. 17 (UP)—One million dollars of the state's gasoline tax fund were expended illegally on road construction during two years of former Governor C. Ben Ross' three administrations, the Ada county grand jury charged today in an interim report.

The grand jury said such expenditure was made despite the protest of highway officials and alleged the money was used for bids which could not be considered a part of the designated state highway fund.

Certain counties, the jury said, contributed their portions of the gasoline tax but did not receive the highway department's share of the tax funds for purposes other than state road building.

Highway officials, the report said, had knowledge of these allegedly illegal donations and had called attention to the fact that the use of gasoline tax funds for purposes other than state road building was contrary to statute.

The grand jury said that during a period covering Ross' three administrations and the first eight months of Governor Barzilla Clark's administration, the highway department's practices became of great magnitude.

One such practice, the grand jury said, was failure of the state purchase agent to call bids on purchases as required by law.

"Millions of dollars worth of equipment for the highway department were purchased without bid, the jury said, and the highway department was permitted to directly purchase hundreds of thousands of gallons of gasoline and oil."

Followed Instructions The report said that a purchasing agent was instructed that, although he knew he was breaking the law, "the chief executive of the state—his superior officer—had instructed him to follow this practice."

The grand jury said that Karl B. Evans, former state auditor, had recommended to Governor Ross in 1932 that a full investigation of highway department practices be made before the three-year statute of limitations caused evidence to be lost for court action, but that his recommendation had gone unnoted.

In the report, the jury said that Evans had told state officials there was a "real headache" to the highway department from the conviction of Henry Gusman, a dealer in machinery, on charges of illegally purchasing equipment and that should a full investigation be started, as he requested, a grand jury would be the result.

Tammany Chief Faces "Racket Buster"

Chief defendant in the most important legal attack on Tammany hall's power since the days of Boss Tweed, James J. Hines, right, above, is smiling confidently as he entered New York supreme court on the arm of his lawyer, Lloyd Paul Stryker, left. Hines, most potent Tiger leader, is charged by Manhattan's racket-busting District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey with "controlling a lottery"—the $100,000,000 numbers racket run by the late Dutch Schultz. The greatest penalty, for all charges, that can be imposed on Hines is 25 years. But on his fate hinges the question of the survival of Tammany as a political force in New York.

With a grim, determined expression, District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey, of Manhattan, is pictured mounting the steps of New York's supreme court to meet the crisis of his skyrocket career—the trial of Tammany leader James J. Hines as political fixer of the late Dutch Schultz.

JAPANESE DRIVE MAY BE HATED BY MOSQUITOES

By ROBERT BELLAIRE SHANGHAI, Aug. 17 (UP)—Mosquitoes threatened today to paralyze the Japanese drive up the Yangtze river valley where cholera and malaria cases approached epidemic proportions.

Mosquitoes breeding in numerous lakes and flooded areas spread disease in the Japanese columns which were being diverted from Kiating where cholera was the worst, Chinese report said.

The Chinese admitted the disease was serious behind their own lines. Many cases of cholera were reported at Nanchang and Tzehan and to east of Kiating.

The Japanese advance on the north bank of the Yangtze was at a standstill because of floods between Hwangmang and Wusueh. It was admitted, however, that a Japanese column was pushing slowly along the south bank toward Malou, 30 miles west of Kiating.

President Calls "Obstructionist"

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (UP)—President Roosevelt left by train for Canada today after projecting the threat of a New Deal purge to every primary involving congressional candidates he considers traitors to broad objectives of his administration.

The President is bound for Kingston, Ont., where he will receive an honorary degree tomorrow from Queens university. Later he will help dedicate a new international bridge in the Thousand Islands and then go to Hyde Park.

Mr. Roosevelt left behind him a President's attack in a nationwide radio address at 5:45 p. m. (MST) tomorrow over a Columbia broadcasting system hookup.

Sen. William W. Tynes, Republican conservative whom Mr. Roosevelt linked with his slashing denunciation, maintained silence. He was expected to answer Mr. Roosevelt's attack, however, in a speech scheduled for tomorrow.

The attack on these anti-New Deal congressmen in the past days was the most bitter he has made— even more outspoken than his plea to Georgia voters last week for support of Sen. Walter G. George, D. Ga.

But like George, O'Connor, described by the president as "one of the most effective obstructionists in the lower house," struck back. Accepting the challenge in a brief formal statement, he said that he was "even more outspoken than his plea to Georgia voters last week for support of Sen. Walter G. George, D. Ga."

Mr. Roosevelt used an editorial from the New York Evening Post as the vehicle for his attack. He said that he was "not a man for reading it to reporters but that they could attribute it to him. To this O'Connor, who may answer the president's attack in the district, he said: "The president saw fit to quote from an editorial from a newspaper long since recognized as one of the most effective obstructionists in the lower house, in the western part of Maryland, to the eastern shore where he will speak at a New York, N. Y., is his congressional."

Lindberghs Land Plane In Russia

MOSCOW, Aug. 17 (UP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh landed at Moshler, White Russia, approximately 325 miles south of Moscow at 10:30 a. m. today. They were expected to reach Moscow late this afternoon.

Tomorrow the Lindberghs are to be guests at the annual Russian air show at Tushino airport, 20 miles from here. The show is one of the most spectacular in the world, but it is not a military one, but it generally includes mass parachute jumps and the landing of machine guns and other heavy weapons by paratroopers in addition to the flight formation of many hundreds of Russian fighters.

The Lindberghs were expected to spend several days in Russia, making several flights about the country and particularly inspecting airplane factories.

With his denunciation of O'Connor and Tynes, the President threw his support behind their chief opponent, Rep. Charles McNary, D. Ore. Rep. David J. Lewis, D. Md., whom he described Monday night in a radio address as one of the "most effective obstructionists in the lower house."

U. S. TO SUBSIDIZE WHEAT EXPORTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (UP)—An authoritative source said today that the administration has decided to meet competition in world markets by subsidizing American wheat exports.

The proposed plan, which was discussed by the Agriculture Department yesterday, was formulated at a meeting between officials of the treasury, the agriculture department and the federal surplus commodities corporation. The objective is to open foreign outlets for about 100,000,000 bushels of surplus wheat.

Customs Receipts Available The plan would utilize the provision of the agriculture adjustment act which authorizes the secretary of agriculture to make immediate loans to the difference between the domestic price of agricultural products and the world price.

The United States faces intense competition in the world wheat market from Canada, the Argentine, and other countries. (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

Auction Sale Offers Wide List Tonight

Does your son want a pet dog? Would you like a better car? Or perhaps a candid camera? Or jewelry and silverware? These and scores of other items will go on the auction block at Lincoln field at 6:30 p. m. today when the Junior Chamber of Commerce opens its final benefit auction of the year.

Funds raised at the sale will help defray the remaining $2,300 for purchase of the 20-acre recreational grounds expected to provide facilities for the entire community starting next spring.

Assurance that at least one and probably two dog pets will be offered at the auction came today as committeemen filed up final details and swung into the task of transporting the contributed materials and livestock to Lincoln field. Glyn Henth, Twin Falls, donated the better call.

Under Lights The auction will proceed under floodlights when darkness falls, according to Chairman George Detweiler. W. J. Hoffecker is volunteer auctioneer. He handled the first sale which netted $650 for the benefit cause.

Included among the auction goods donated by merchants, householders, farmers and dealers are two three-arm star pearl necklaces with green clover, silver brooch and brooch; silver buffet set; silver service for six, 1847 (Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

BRIDGE ASSESSED VALUE REPORTED

BOISE, Ida., Aug. 17 (UP)—The assessed valuation of the Twin Falls-Jerome highway bridge was placed at $200,000 today by county assessors reporting to the state board of equalization, according to Secretary of State H. H. Monahan. An assessed valuation of $150,000 for each county's portion of the structure was declared. Masters said, assessed valuation, however, is only a portion of total value on any type of property.

Original cost of the bridge, according to Ben Herdwick, Jerome county assessor, was $160,000. Other estimates above the cost higher.

Meanwhile, the state board of examiners still awaited an appraisal from the federal bureau of public roads in Goshute before continuing with plans to purchase the bridge.

Tramp of Hob-Nailed Boots Jangles Continental Nerves

BY WEBB MILLER Copyright, 1938, United Press LONDON, Aug. 17 (UP)—The tramp of hob-nailed boots today jangled the nerves of a continent already striven by recurrent war scares.

At least 2,000,000 men were testing modern war machines—the largest number on a war footing since the end of the World War. Germany's maneuvers alone represented as vast an assemblage of troops as ever brought into the chair of arms of a single nation.

Europe's war jitters were reflected in the stock markets and the exchanges. They have affected business in general.

But significantly, unlike previous scares brought on by the Austrian-German Anschluss and German troop movements at the Czech frontier, many officials in England, France, Germany and Italy deplore the present furore. They seem genuinely less perturbed than during the previous crises.

Sugar Beet Tonnage Will Set New Mark

Sugar beet tonnage in southern Idaho, grown for the Amalgamated Sugar company, will set a new mark in the history of the industry in this section. H. A. Elcock, district agriculturalist for the sugar company, announced here this afternoon after completion of a survey of this section.

In the Twin Falls factory district, figures show, there are 14,428 acres planted to sugar beets. These are expected to yield 197,150 tons of an average of 13 tons per acre against 11.07 tons per acre in 1937.

Because of the bumper crop in this section of Idaho, plus a similar crop over the United States, there will undoubtedly be a quota allotted to all sugar beet producing areas in the United States for the 1939 beet crop.

He pointed out that in the United States on Aug. 1 of this year, there was an indicated sugar beet crop of 1,138,000 tons which exceeded by 108,000 tons the all-time record set in 1933.

COLLEGE'S BOARD OFFERS NYA BID

Gooding college board of trustees today has extended an invitation to W. W. Oartin, state administrator of the National Youth Administration, to use the college building for an NYA school beginning Sept. 20. It was learned here this afternoon after a telegram from the NYA had been received by the Evening Times from Rep. I. G. McCallister, Twin Falls, secretary of the board.

The school would be offered for use by the NYA as first alternative to the Evening Times building. The board of trustees' action last night, however, was the first official move taken on the subject.

The school was recently closed for financial reasons. If taken over by the NYA, the building would be operated similar to the Welser school as a federal residential school. Whether or not it will be for boys and girls or for only one sex has not been known until final decision on the offer is made by NYA officials at Boise.

Under NYA rules, those boys or girls attending such a school must come from low income families and meet other requirements which will be outlined on request by I. W. Pillsbury, field representative with headquarters in Twin Falls at the county office building located near the street from the American Legion hall.

CHURCH BUILDERS HALTED BY UNION

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17 (UP)—The security program of the American Union, which has attracted nationwide attention because of its activities in keeping church members off their feet, came into direct conflict today with the principles of trade unionism.

The union's objection was based on the old practice by which members of the church, who are unable to pay their share of the cost of a new church, donate their labor to the project. This practice has been carried through into the new security program of the church.

Prosecutor Hits Number Game Racket

BY JOSEPH L. MYLER NEW YORK, Aug. 17 (UP)—District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey told a supreme court jury today that he hopes to send James J. Hines, 41-year-old Tammany district leader, to prison for 27 years as political fixer for the $100,000,000 policy racket of the late Dutch Schultz.

Dewey charged that a few months after Hines conferred with Schultz in March 1932, arrests in the $100,000,000 policy racket of which Schultz was a leader, "dropped in half."

"By late summer or early fall," Dewey said, "the number of arrests among this group of racketeers had dropped in half."

The eloquent prosecutor accused the former blacksmith of conspiring with the "Dutchman" to create a racket monopoly which flourished from 1931 to 1937 under political protection allegedly supplied by Hines.

"Political Fight" The gray-haired politician began his attack on Dewey formally by stating Hines has called "just another political fight."

In outlining the one conspiracy against Hines in the indictment against Hines, Dewey described the numbers game, or policy racket, as a "racket" exploitation of "the poorer people of New York City."

HULL WARNS NATIONS ON ANARCHY GOVERNMENTS

U. S. SEEKS TO AID RETURN OF LAW AND ORDER

By JOE ALEX MORRIS (United Press Staff Correspondent).

The United States again today sought to exert moral strength in a world struggle for peaceful return to international law and order.

With world capitals nervously seeking to quiet threats of international conflict in Europe, Czechoslovakia and the Far East, Secretary of State Cordell Hull made America's most vigorous contribution to preservation of democratic government by warning that a general conflict could be averted only by reversing the trend toward anarchy.

Hull's statement, delivered in a radio address last night, was reminiscent of the declaration of Abraham Lincoln 78 years ago that a nation could not exist "one half free and one half slave."

The secretary's declaration was more far-reaching than any previous statement of the powerful language and of the circumstances in which it was issued.

Was Reason

Hull necessarily reiterated the United States opposition to foreign entanglements but he spoke at a moment calculated to be most helpful to Great Britain's program for averting an explosion in central Europe; to aid in counteracting war tension caused by Germany's great army maneuvers coincident with intensification of the Czech minority crisis.

He asserted, moreover, that there is no middle ground for either large or small nations in the struggle to re-establish international security.

And he left no doubt that—if the next World War cannot be avoided—the United States will be allied with defenders of democracy.

Thus the secretary carried one step further the program which he has persistently advanced as the only hope for future peace. This program is based on conviction that the modern trend of international relations—tinged with big league banditry, bluff, piracy and outland aggression—must slowly be turned back to a legal foundation. To achieve that objective, he holds that the United States must do its part or be drawn into the chaos otherwise inevitable.

Two Frontiers

In this manner, Hull has two actual frontiers in American foreign policy. One is definite: The consolidation of the two Americas for peace on the basis of the Monroe Doctrine. The second is indefinite and much broader: The active use of moral force parallel to other great democratic powers such as Britain and France in the uphill struggle against international anarchy.

The shibboleth of American foreign policy—national isolation and fear of another war have vastly retarded the second frontier. But on various occasions, Hull or President Roosevelt have acted to stiffen the outlying border. The secretary's latest pronouncement appeared to be a new outpost.

Good Citizenship

"Our efforts should be directed toward the ultimate goal of good American citizenship," Mr. Stephan said. "We are proud of the Republican party record. We should realize that our politics contains the seeds of good government, and there is a question of how long our democracy could last unless citizens had at heart the interests of good government instead of merely selfish political aims."

Approximately 45 members attended the meeting.

The directors will convene Aug. 30 to map plans for the next general session, which probably will be a banquet to which Roosevelt election candidates will be invited.

Pride of Home Upkeep Termed Local Feature

Pride of upkeep marks the bulk of Twin Falls homes, in the opinion of W. C. Malvern of Hagerman, president of the Federal Home Loan bank, Portland. Mr. Kaley, here briefly as part of a trip through the north, to contact Home Loan bank members, inspected residential sections and conferred with directors of the First Federal Savings and Loan association.

The Portland executive said he found that home building reflects the forward strides being achieved in Twin Falls and south Idaho. He cited the swift growth of the First Federal as a criterion of that progress, and praised officers and directors of the organization.

The local association, among the first buildings in loan groups to take out a federal charter, has the savings of each investor insured to $5,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan insurance corporation. The 12 Federal Home Loan banks in the nation serve as a reservoir of capital to supply member organizations. Mr. Kaley explained, and these member groups such as First Federal here handle the dealings with the public.

ARMSTRONG, AMBERS SET FOR TITLE FIGHT

Hammerin' Henry Seeks to Win Third Fight Crown

NEW YORK, Aug. 17 (AP)—Henry Armstrong surges out into a pool of hot light at Madison Square Garden tonight to try to convince friends and foes that he can lick any man in the world between 135 and 147 pounds.

Of Armstrong wins—and the odds favor him three to one—he will be the first man ever to hold the featherweight, lightweight and welterweight championships at the same time. Win or lose, it will be a momentous night in the life of the little Negro and he met this crisis by, in effect, writing a new will.

"The rest of the world is blacked out. The only place left is this squared ring.

Under the glaring lights a man I must rout.

Or myself become a beaten thing."

The boys backing Armstrong insist his punching is more rhythmic than his meter.

Lucky for Jacobs

This little argument between Armstrong and Ambers was supposed to have settled a week ago tonight, but rain fell at the Polo grounds and Promoter Mike Jacobs decided to take the boys back to Madison Square Garden. It probably will turn out to be one of the smartest things he ever did. It looked like a slumpy $60,000 gate at the Polo grounds, but in the Garden tonight there probably will be 17,000 customers who will pay around $120,000.

Armstrong, a murderous puncher who has knocked out 25 of his last 38 opponents, is the boy who is drawing them. There is only one kind of battle Armstrong knows how to fight—to start punching when the bell rings and keep his fists flying until the round is over. He'll trade punches any time, gambling that if he lands one good one in 15 goes the man in front of him is going to fall. That's his style, his way of making his way up from obscurity and tonight he's sticking to it.

No China Doll

Most of the money riding on Ambers was placed there because some people believe no championship fight ever should be a three to one shot. Ambers, they argue, is a China doll and his record bears them out. In all the time he has been fighting he never had that strange sensation of his knees turning to water of the lights going black and of waking up 10 seconds or more later to learn that he has been knocked out. He is a prizefighter who is used to stand toe to toe with a killer like Armstrong, but he knows his way around the ring. And, most important of all, he is in the ring in the first and last acts.

Group in the semi-finals now shows Barnett, Glenn Hull, Glenn Terry and Jack Hopkins still in the race for the title. Terry and Hopkins are unbeaten, but Hull and Barnett have one set-back each. The tourney is double elimination, however, and any of these already winners would still capture the championship.

Defends Lightweight Title

Lou Ambers, the New York challenger and champion of the 135-pound division, was given only a 1-3 chance of successfully defending his crown when he fights Henry Armstrong, the hard-hitting Negro, tonight at 7 p. m. Madisonian. The fight will be broadcast over the blue network of the NBC.

Eyston Nearly Asphyxiated In Salt Lake Flats Trial Run

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah, Aug. 17 (AP)—Capt. George E. Eyston took his world record-holding manderoll out on this natural salt speedway today and sped it at 270 miles per hour in his first test run of the season.

Giving the machine's new chelozed cockpit its initial trial, Eyston was nearly asphyxiated by fumes from the brakes and motor. Only after rator drawing fresh air from the outside saved him from being overcome, the English racing driver said.

At the conclusion of the nine-mile trial, the captain's white overalls were black, and his face was covered with soot.

Eyston said the brakes should have been rubbed off before the run. Aside from the breathing difficulty which the captain said "must certainly be avoided," the car apparently functioned perfectly.

With both ends of the track wet, only about nine miles of the 13-mile course was suitable for today's test. Eyston estimated that the flats will have dried sufficiently for an attempt to surpass his own 312-mile-an-hour record in about a week.

CAPT. GEORGE E. EYSTON

Barnett Wins Tennis Duel

Paul Barnett hadtled his way today into the semi-finals of the Times-New carrier boys' tennis tournament.

Barnett yesterday captured victory over George Lost in a three-set clash, 6-3, 1-6, 6-3. Lost flashed his best beams in the middle set but couldn't fathom Barnett's strokes in the first and last sets.

Group in the semi-finals now shows Barnett, Glenn Hull, Glenn Terry and Jack Hopkins still in the race for the title. Terry and Hopkins are unbeaten, but Hull and Barnett have one set-back each. The tourney is double elimination, however, and any of these already winners would still capture the championship.

Sacs Move Up As Angels Lose Contest

Los Angeles dropped a game of its Pacific Coast league margin last night and second-place Sacramento moved up within two games of the leaders.

San Diego opened the week's series by beating Los Angeles, 6-4, coming from behind with a three-run rally in the ninth to win. Ward and Humphries gave Los Angeles seven hits and San Diego got 11 from Frim.

Sacramento coked out a 1-0 shut-out against Seattle when Tony Freitas limited the Rainiers to two hits. The Solons got their winning run in the first and left it up to Freitas.

Hollywood took a 5-3 win over Oakland after the Oaks stole the game. Hollywood secured a 9-0 lead when Pucellini homered, Oakland turned on a three-run burst in the eighth that took the lead, but three Hollywood runs in the ninth pulled the game out of the fire.

San Francisco beat Portland, 3-0, when Ed Stutz whitewashed the Beavers with three hits.

Pittsburgh Faces Tough Battle to Win Pennant

Cubs, Reds and Giants Stay On Bucs' Heels

CHICAGO, Aug. 17 (AP)—Mid-August finds the two major leagues gradually getting under to normal—an American league walkaway and a National league dog-eat-dog fight.

Late last month it appeared that the Cleveland Indians might offer the Yanks some serious opposition down the stretch. The Boston Red Sox also were hanging on like they might cause trouble. First the Indians came in, then the Red Sox.

Now the New York Yankees are without a serious rival. Widening their lead to eight games, longest of the season, the Yanks all but settled the pennant race yesterday by knocking over Washington twice, 16-1 and 6-2.

Pirates Come Out of Slump

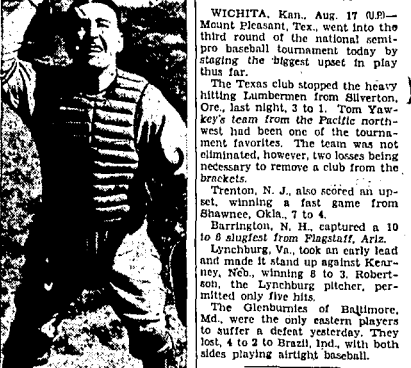

Even though the Pittsburgh Pirates came out of their slump and increased their National league lead to five games, the situation remains about the same. The Pirates are the Giants, Cubs and Reds are all hanging on grimly, and out of this group is likely to come a dangerous pennant contender.

Tom Yawkey's Semi-Pro Club Meets Defeat

WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 17 (AP)—Mount Pleasant, Kan., went into the third round of the national semi-pro baseball tournament today by staging the biggest upset in play thus far.

The Texas club stopped the heavy hitting Lambern from Silverton, Ore., last night, 3 to 1. Tom Yawkey's team from the Pacific northwest had been one of the tournament favorites. The team was not eliminated, however, two losses being necessary to remove a club from the brackets.

Trenton, N. J., also scored an upset, winning a fast game from Shawnee, Okla., 7 to 4.

Barrington, N. H., captured a 10 to 6 slugfest from Flagstaff, Ariz. Lynchburg, Va., took an early lead and made it stand up against Kearney, Neb., winning 8 to 3. Robertsville, Mo., took an early lead and made it stand up against Kearney, Neb., winning 8 to 3.

The Glenburys of Baltimore, Md., were the only eastern players to suffer a defeat yesterday. They lost, 4 to 2 to Brazil, Ind., with both sides playing airtight baseball.

Girls Win Over Filer Team

Margaret Gee led the fair-weather team down with four hits in the sixth inning game, while Twin Falls was pounding eight runs across the plate in the fourth inning and adding 12 more in the sixth. Filmer made six of their 7 runs in the final frame on four walks and a pair of doubles.

The triple play was a fielding gem that saw Howe at third base get the ball from the batter, whip it to second to Watson, who in turn tossed to Coleman at first.

Leading the batting attack for Twin Falls was Irma Goodnight with a home run and two three-baggers in five times to the plate. Gee hit a homer and a double in four times up and Watson hit two triples in five trips to the plate.

Eightlight, Johnson and Musgrave of Filer each connected for two-base hits.

6 of 8 Escaped Convicts Killed

HUNTSVILLE, Texas, Aug. 17 (UP)—Six of the eight convicts who escaped from the Eastham prison farm yesterday have been killed, penitentiary officials said today.

Four of the fugitives were shot to death in battles with guards, Capt. J. P. Hamilton, manager of the farm, reported. The body of a fifth man was found floating in the Trinity river.

The bodies of two men were found in the Trinity river. One had been shot, the other drowned. Neither was identified.

In an earlier battle a few hours after the break, guards killed Jack Kinley, Oklahoma City desperado, and Charles Aaron.

W. E. Garner, Beaumont gunman under a 100-year sentence for shooting a state highway patrolman, was captured yesterday.

The eight convicts escaped yesterday after slaying a guard, John Greer. They took Greer's shotgun.

LEADERS OUTLINE LOANS ON WHEAT

JEROME, Aug. 17 (Special)—Outlining of full details on the wheat loan program was being made here today by county soil conservation committee and county agents of the six south central counties.

Phil Bishop, supervisor from the western divisional offices of AAA, and Hinkle Cox, representative of the Idaho agricultural conservation office at Moscow, were to explain various phases of the wheat loan set-up. County Agent E. W. Whitman presided as chairman.

The Jerome party is one in the state series which includes gatherings at Pocatello and Moscow.

Taking the facts outlined here, the various executive committees of the county soil groups will go back to their own areas and will arrange educational parleys to help farmers decide whether or not they wish to take advantage of the wheat loan program.

IDAHO WEATHER AIDS FRUIT CROP

BOISE, Aug. 17 (Special)—Weather during July favored the development of most of Idaho's fruit crops.

Fruit crops suffered a heavy drop during the month resulting in a considerable decline in prospects. The crop on Aug. 1, was forecast at 17,500 tons compared with 12,900 in 1937 and an average for the 10-year period (1927-1936) of 19,400 tons.

Apple prospects were somewhat lower on Aug. 1 than a month earlier but the production of cherries was considerably better than was anticipated even a month ago. The preliminary estimate of production of cherries was 12,000 tons in 1937 compared with 10,000 tons in 1936 and the 10-year (1927-36) average production of 27,000 tons.

Richard C. Ross, statistician for the USDA bureau of agricultural economics, pointed out that the fruit production estimates relate to total quantities harvested in the state, and not merely to quantities grown for commercial uses or in commercial areas.

BANDS OF SHEEP SENT TO MARKET

KETCHUM, Aug. 17 (Special)—Many alpacas have been trucked down Warm Springs to Ketchum during the past few nights for loading for shipment to outside points.

John Palk has moved two large bands of Jay Farmers sheep with heavy truck equipment. In a few days the Gooding outfit will be in Idaho Falls and Palk will go over the Smokey summit to aid in moving William Newman's sheep. They will be hauled to Pahrfield for loading in stock cars.

The sheep have fared exceptionally well on the grazing lands of this section during the past season and are in fine condition. Wet weather during the early part of the summer accounted for a long season and green grazing area. Lambs also benefited.

Several other concerns have indicated they will start sheep shipments within a few days.
