Hitler Campaigns to "Liquorate" Enemies

Foremost Russian Aviators Denounce Col. Lindbergh
For His "Belittling" of Soviet's Aerial Strength

By NORMAN B. DEUEL
MOSCOW, Oct. 10 (UP)—Elevens of Russia's foremost aviators bitterly denounced Col. Charles A. Lindbergh today on the ground that he had belittled Russia's air force, and they added, in defending Soviet aviation: "According to information in the highest quarters in London, Paris and Prague, the Soviet air fleet is quantitatively at least equal to the combined German-Japanese air forces and is qualitatively much superior."

The denunciation of Lindbergh was based on allegations spread partly by rumor, that during the Czechoslovak crisis or earlier he asserted that Russia's air force had been weakened dangerously by the political purge and that Germany's air force was equal to the combined strength of Great Britain, France, Russia and Czechoslovakia.

But the statement which the Russian aviators in their anger made regarding a statement by Lindbergh that aviation was one calculated to be an international sensation.

COL. AND MRS. CHARLES A. LINDBERGH which played a big part in the British-French "surrender" to Adolf Hitler.

Estimates of Russia's air strength vary widely. There is little official information on which to base estimates. A fleet of Russian fighting planes caused a definite turn for the time in the aerial phase of the Spanish civil war; Russian planes have flown to and landed at the North Pole and have flown from Moscow to the American Pacific coast.

In their letter, published in Pravda, the official newspaper organ of the Communist party, the aviators denounced Lindbergh as having Fascist tendencies, asserted that he had abused the hospitality shown him in Russia, ridiculed his accomplishments since his trans-Atlantic flight.

The men who signed the letter were among those who aided in entertaining Lindbergh when he and his wife visited Russia in August, 1927, and were among the first to meet him when he returned to the United States.

"He came to Russia uninvited under instructions of English reactionaries in order to testify to the weakness of Soviet aviation and provide Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain with arguments for capitulating at Munich," said the letter.

"He paid his Russian hosts duly performed his duties to his bosses."

"The Russian fliers' letter was headed 'To the Soviet Union, which permitted only because American reactionaries requested it.'"

Vassily Mokhov, chief of the civil air force; Mikhail Kokkinaki, one of the few fliers of all Russia; Mikhail Gronov, one of those who flew from Moscow to Riverside, Calif., in July, 1937; Valery Chkalov, of the crew which flew to Vancouver, Wash., in June, 1937, and Makrili Stepanov, who escorted Lindbergh in Russia, were among the 11 signers.

"The letter was signed by a 'Pasci' lackey who performed a non-stop flight into the realm of ludicrous, calumnious fabrications in order to brag at records of Baron Munchausen."

TERMS IL DUCE
AS "ONLY GREAT GERMAN FRIEND"

By JOE ALIX MORRIS
Copyright, 1938 United Press
Europe's peace rested on Benito's today.

In Germany, Fuehrer Adolf Hitler began a campaign to liquidate "Marxists and other state enemies" from the newly occupied Sudentland, announced that Germany's defenses would be extended and declared that the Reich's only "real friend" was Italian Premier Benito Mussolini.

Hitler, while announcing plans for demobilization after asserting that Germany was now strong enough for peaceful relations with her neighbors, bitterly assailed British and French plans for attacking the "Jewish-treasy speech"—including Winston Churchill, Anthony Eden and Alfred Duff Cooper, the former government minister who has expressed acceptance of the Nazi peace terms.

The British government, urgently seeking to consolidate peace on the basis of Czech settlement, was expected to speed up armaments as a result of the Hitler declaration.

Churchill, former chancellor of the exchequer, had been in London this week in a radio speech which some observers expected to indicate whether the Tory dissident conservative might hope to become the next prime minister at the head of a "stop Hitler" movement.

Mediocrity Problem
But Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's chief immediate objective is solution of Mediterranean problem, which will have important participation in the Spanish civil war. To that end, negotiations are continuing for complete withdrawal of Italian troops from the front, and for closing of the French border to loyalist war material. If such an objective is attained—44,000 of more than 80,000 Italian fighters home—an armistice might be brought about in Spain.

Long Been Mystery
The Russian air force has long been a mystery. It is reported that Germany has 10,000 fighting planes never before confirmed but were reliable enough to be used in the attack on Czechoslovakia. The Russian air force is reported to have 10,000 fighters home—an armistice might be brought about in Spain.

AFL Demands Sweeping
Changes in Wagner Act

By ARTHUR F. DEGREVE
CONVENTION HALL, HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 10 (UP)—The American Federation of Labor convention today demanded nine sweeping changes in the Wagner act and ordered a showdown with President Roosevelt in the U. S. senate over his reappointment of Donald Wakefield Smith to the national labor relations board.

The action came after President William Green vigorously assailed the national labor board's administration of the act, insisted upon changes in its personnel and demanded a "square deal" under the New Deal's major labor agency.

Previously the convention had gone on record unanimously demanding an immediate pardon for Tom Mooney, serving a life term in a California prison in connection with the San Francisco Preparedness day bombing in 1917.

COURT REFUSES
MOONEY REVIEW

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (UP)—The supreme court today refused to review California state court decisions denying freedom to Thomas J. Mooney, serving a life term in prison for conviction on charge of participating in San Francisco's 1916 Preparedness day bombing.

The high court's action apparently terminates finally legal action in one of the most celebrated civil liberties fights of the century. Mooney's petition to the high court was regarded as a last resort in his battle to have the conviction reversed.

WHEAT HOLDS IN CHICAGO TRADING

CHICAGO, Oct. 10 (UP)—Wheat prices held generally steady in a dull featureless trade on the Chicago board today.

At the close wheat was unchanged to 1/8 cent off for No. 2, and 1/4 cent off for No. 3.

A weak Liverpool market, slow export demand, and bearish crop reports from the Argentine helped to have much effect on local wheat trading.

A holiday at Winnipeg was partially responsible for the restricted trading.

World wheat shipments last week were 1,747,000 bushels against 1,625,000 bushels the previous week.

Corn prices held fractionally, but steadied under good shipping demand and improved export sales. Purchases to arrive were light, but receipts were estimated at 711 cars. Export sales were around 200,000 bushels.

RELIGIOUS REVIVAL SEEN FOLLOWS AUSTRIA RIOTS

NAZI FOLLOWERS CAUSE CRISIS AS CRUCIFIX BURNS

VIENNA, Oct. 10 (Special)—Roman Catholics predicted today that a religious revival would sweep Austria as the result of Nazi riots in which a crucifix, prayer books and a painting of the Madonna were burned.

Already heavily increased attendance had been noted at all Catholic church services, even though newspapers had published no reports of the riots and the news was circulated only by word of mouth.

It was forecast that the first real indication of a surge of religious sentiment might be apparent in an increased attendance at schools where religious education is part of the program. Only a week ago priests were compelled to read no religious education at schools was no longer compulsory. But yesterday, in all churches of the Vienna archdiocese Cardinal Innitzer, archbishop of Vienna and now storm center of the religious controversy, appealing to parents to make their children attend religious education schools.

Many priests urged parents to make their children attend religious education at home.

Take Precautions

Nazi authorities seem to be taking every precaution against a new outbreak against the Roman Catholic church among their followers. But there was some alarm over an unforeseen incident cause new violence.

Thousands of defiant young Nazis milled about the cathedral neighborhood yesterday. After last night's services, 100 boys in Hitler youth uniforms headed by flagbearers and drum corps, marched past the cathedral singing marching songs. Later, youths in civilian clothes assembled near the cathedral's place, shouting:

"To Dechaut! To Dechaut!"

Dechaut is the great German concentration camp.

Police were watchful. They kept the crowds moving and arrested one "Hitlerist in a white".

Cardinal Innitzer remained underground in his place. An official spokesman explained that he was not under "protective" or any other form of custody by the Nazis—that the "SS" bodyguards in and about the place were in solely to protect him and to preserve order.

The cardinal was not under any form of detention or in any sort of custody by a placard, despite reports, by a Nazi newspaper at the main entrance to the cathedral, announcing that he would speak Thursday at the last of a series of five Bible study hours inaugurated yesterday.

LDS CONCLUDES UTAH SESSIONS

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 10 (Special)—The 100th annual conference of the Latter Day Saints church closed here yesterday with leaders urging the 10,000 Mormons who attended the three days' session to observe tolerance with neighbors and peoples of other countries.

Closing talks by President Heber J. Grant and his co-counselors—J. Reuben Clark, Jr., and David O. McKay—all struck a similar vein.

"You should not condemn people in other countries for doing what we think they ought not to do," President Grant declared after bestowing his blessings on the church's 750,000 members and expressing gratification at the growth of the Mormon denomination.

The 61-year-old L. D. S. leader also repeated his request that his followers observe safety on the highways as they returned to their homes. During a conference, Grant declared that Utah's death rate, highest in the nation, was a "disgrace to the state and church."

RECOVERY ACT'S GOALS ENDORSED

JEROME, Oct. 10 (Special)—Emphasizing that greater circulation of money would result from the recovery act embodying the Townsend plan, Ben Defendorf, former finance commissioner of Idaho, supported that act and endorsed President Roosevelt at a meeting in Eden Saturday night sponsored by the Jerome county Democratic women's club.

Concerning the recovery act he stated that a farmer, even if he had some income, would still receive an additional sum under the Townsend plan if his income was insufficient for adequate living.

In support of President Roosevelt, he said: "He will get the situation well in hand and will get property to working again." Defendorf aimed a blast at "capitalists in the east," as being responsible for our distressing conditions.

Defendorf, now a Jerome rancher, was highly applauded.

William A. Peters, Democratic chairman, emphatically corroborated Mr. Defendorf's remarks.

Jerome county candidates were introduced in a crowd as part of the evening's program.

Mr. Ford said the new car would be priced in the range between the Lincoln V-8 and the V-12 Lincoln-Zephyr.
