AFL Offers to Negotiate "Honorable Peace" with CIO

Ross Pledges to Buy Toll Bridge Or Build Another

In terms which could not possibly be misconstrued, C. Ben Ross, Democratic candidate for governor, said here this afternoon in an exclusive interview with the Idaho Evening Times that the Twin Falls-Jerome intercounty bridge would be bought by the state or, if that proves not feasible, "the state will build a new one."

Ross, who will be principal speaker at a rally set for the high school auditorium in Twin Falls today at 8 p. m., said the matter of making the bridge free was "of overriding importance" in contrast to statements made by C. A. Bottolfsen, Republican opponent, that it was "a local issue."

Days of Toll Bridges Passed "The day of toll bridges in Idaho is past," the former three-term governor said emphatically. "We must have free transportation on our roads. We will find a way to eliminate the toll on the Twin Falls-Jerome bridge immediately after the next legislature. "If the bridge can be bought at a fair price, we will buy it by issuing bonds which will be legal, if the state endorses them. These bonds will draw a reasonable rate of interest which in turn will be put back into the fund. "We will give the bridge people the cash for the structure and will retire these bonds over a term of years out of gasoline tax money, thus paying interest to ourselves—the school fund. This method will eliminate the toll at once."

GREEN SUGGESTS 2 ORGANIZATIONS RE-START TALKS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (UP)—The American Federation of Labor declared today that "there can be no question but that wage-earners throughout the country and the nation as a whole want a united labor movement" and declared it was ready to negotiate an "honorable peace" with the committee for industrial organization.

An editorial in the "American Federationist," of which William Green is editor, said that AFL's executive council "is charged with responsibility for carrying out the program of conciliation to reach a mutually acceptable basis for lasting peace, not surrender of our rights."

"The American Federation of Labor believes the difficulties in the way of unity are not insurmountable if there are sincere and disinterested efforts to make peace," the editorial continued.

Questions of overlapping jurisdictions, rights in union benefit systems, treasuries, etc., can be solved when the will to unity can prevail. "The negotiations of peace, as we well realize, carries with it responsibility of assuring the rights of those concerned, together with the machinery for meeting problems that arise from day to day so that the spirit and structure of unity can be maintained."

The AFL editorial attacked CIO Chairman John L. Lewis for allegedly vetoing a peace agreement which AFL negotiations committee was reached in last year's conference, but added that the AFL was willing "to take up the dispute where we left off a year ago to meet at its conference table again without commitment and without reservations."

AFL Wants Peace "We want to negotiate peace—people that provides the basis for unity and coordinated progress," it said.

The AFL editorial appeal for peace came just nine days before the CIO holds its first constitutional convention in Pittsburgh to set up a permanent national executive committee.

President Roosevelt and administration officials have been increasing pressure on both labor groups to settle their work stoppage. Mr. Roosevelt is expected to send a message to the CIO convention on this subject, just as he did at the recent AFL convention at Houston.

FBI ASKS LIBERALS' ELECTION Groups Reds, GOP Together In Broadcast

By FREDERICK A. STORM HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 5 (UP)—President Roosevelt's general election message called upon the people today for continuous liberal government—the New Deal—and grouped Communists and old-line Republicans alike among those with Fascist aims.

He did not mention the Democratic party. But he warned that both Fascism and Communism would thrive if liberalism failed.

"I am not talking mere idealism," Mr. Roosevelt said. "I am pressing realistic necessity."

His speech was an appeal for internal and national unity in the face of dangers, he said, which he warned that democracy weakened by internal dissension and social injustice was no match for autocracies.

He called for democracy of tolerance and unity at home, but one militant against social oppression or military aggression.

He spoke last night from Hyde Park in general appeal for liberal government and in direct endorsement of Gov. Herbert H. Lehman and Sen. Robert T. Wagner, Democratic candidates for re-election Nov. 8.

Both Lehman and Murphy are in the fight, and in New York and Michigan. "The Democrats will stand or fall largely with them."

GROUP TO STUDY HELP FOR RAILS CHICAGO, Nov. 5 (UP)—A preliminary study group of railroad officials and three labor executives will meet at Washington Monday to begin drafting a broad legislative program for rehabilitation of the railroad industry.

The committee scheduled its conference yesterday after the president of 138 class 1 railroads had voted to abandon a plan for a 15 per cent wage cut for their 900,000 employees, thereby eliminating the possibility of a general strike.

The carriers' hopes for a solution to their financial plight center on the committee's recommendations. The program is expected to be presented to the next session of congress. Rail and labor leaders said the rate of interest will be the following points in formulating the program:

Rate Revision Revision of the rate making machinery of the interstate commerce commission; low interest rate government loan; repeal of the long and short haul clause; new regulations toward the freight car; reduction of the long freight rates set up under land grant measures; and exemption of the undistributed profits tax to permit railroads to lay up surpluses during prosperous years to tide them over during depression.

Tented Ghetto on "No Man's Land"

Innocent victims of the diplomatic chess game that may change their nationality without consulting them, hundreds of Jews huddle, homeless, penniless and hungry in the neutral no-man's-land between Germany and Poland. Reports coming from Europe today stated that the dreaded typhus disease had broken out in the area and doctors were being rushed to the place to attempt to halt its spread. Some sleep in ditches or under hedges, while others, like those pictured, found shelter in make-shift tents.

Typhus Breaks Out in Jewish No-Man's-Land

Eyes dull with despair, this Jewish mother and daughter gaze toward a future that seems hopeless as they huddle on the cold ground of a refuge camp in the no-man's-land. They live in a self-made roadside ghetto, penniless and hungry, scrambling in the fields for potatoes overlooked by harvesters. Their only shelter is a tarpaulin given by a sympathetic frontier guard.

RACE FOR STATE GOVERNORSHIP IS PREDICTED CLOSE

By DAVID N. JOHNSON BOISE, Ida., Nov. 5 (UP)—State office-seekers and candidates for national representative positions went into the final stretch of their general election campaign today and prepared a "blue Monday" for the day before, when an estimated 200,000 voters will cast their ballots.

As time for the momentary cessation of campaign hostilities drew near, prospects of a close race between C. A. Bottolfsen, Republican, and C. Ben Ross, Democrat, for the governorship became increasingly apparent.

Political scientists seem closely divided and the general assurance—wrong though it may be—that the governorship battle, no matter who comes out, will be the hottest ballot count of the entire ticket.

At stake in the governorship is the effectiveness of a grand jury investigation of state administration and a far-reaching audit of the state department of public works.

Major Battle Flag Net outcome of the investigation and the audit will be the last three administrations over which Ross presided as chief executive were "irregular" in many respects, particularly in the public works department.

This Ross denies, and this the Republicans have carried as one of their major issues. The rest of the ticket—with the exception of the senatorial contest—remains largely on platform standstill.

For the senatorship, an old-line Republican and orator, Don Callahan, is driving victory into the New Deal and the Democratic administration, carrying his campaign on a "revitalization" program.

Callahan is driving victory into the New Deal and the Democratic administration, carrying his campaign on a "revitalization" program. He has been substantially Republican throughout the campaign.

Falling farm prices have formed an important basis from which both candidates have worked.

ARE YOU READY FOR THIS WET WEATHER?

Severe frost that coated housetops, farm fields and lawns this morning brought the autumn's coldest yet.

Official reading at the U. S. bureau of entomology went to 28 degrees, one degree below the 27th.

Forecast for tonight, as drawn by the U. S. weather bureau at Salt Lake City, showed another stage of severe frost.

Although the 26-degree chill froze the upper surface of the ground in most places, it was still several degrees above the danger zone that might drop to 40 to 40 cent of the lower part in the Twin Falls sector, several patches said.

Some loess, however, was inflated on spuds which had been dug but not sacked, and which were lying on the surface of fields.

GERMAN CONSUL PUTS BLAME ON 'RED' INTERESTS

OAKLAND, Calif., Nov. 5 (AP)—Federal agents plunged into an investigation today of a writer of charges, reports and rumors surrounding a mysterious underwater blast that sent the German steamer Vancouver aground in shallow water in the Oakland estuary.

Their investigation, admittedly "a ticklish situation," began to assume the aspects of an international incident the hour after the blast, when agents could examine the hold of the damaged vessel.

From Baron Manfred von Killinger, German consul-general at one of the first "strong men" of the early Nazi regime in Germany, came a charge that he was convinced Communist agents had set a time bomb under the Vancouver's hull.

Investigators also discussed reports that the German press had taken occasion to castigate the United States as a "nation of gangsters" because the blast has occurred.

Agents planned to investigate reports there was a possibility the steamer was carrying munitions along with its other cargo, although maritime authorities said there was a federal law restricting the carriage of such cargo on passenger vessels.

Adding an air of mystery to the investigation was the fact that the entire hold of the vessel was flooded with water. It was hoped this would be pumped out some time today and allow investigators to report definitely on whether the blast occurred inside or outside the hull.

HEAVY RAINS PUT HALT TO BLAZES

By United Press

Heavy rains, driven by a strong gale, swept across Indiana and Illinois, and halted forest and brush fires which had destroyed thousands of acres of timberland.

Rains were heaviest in the west across the midwest and south and were expected to bring relief today to volunteers and CCC workers fighting fires in 19 other states.

The fire belt extended from Michigan to northern Alabama and from the Mississippi to the Ohio river.

The situation had been so serious in southern Illinois that Gov. Henry Horner had declared a state of emergency and issued a proclamation prohibiting the starting of open fires in the state's forest area without permission from the forestry department. The proclamation had night in the wake of tornado which had swept across Missouri, Illinois and Indiana.

Battle Rages

An estimated 6,000 CCC enrollees, WPA workers, farmers and volunteers still were battling fires raging through Kentucky, Tennessee, Michigan, West Virginia and Virginia.

Rangers counted 276 fires in Kentucky, Michigan, West Virginia and Virginia alone. They reported that one-fourth of West Virginia's timberland was dotted with fires.

The fires in Kentucky were reported to be the worst in the state's history. An estimated 8,000 acres of timber has already been destroyed in Westchester county.

The loss being in excess of $200,000.

Airline pilots and rangers reported scattered fires also in the Carolinas, Georgia, Mississippi and northern Alabama.

A force of 200 men was battling fires in the Beechdale mountains near Jenkins, Ky., in an effort to save their homes.

Families Flee Homes

Many farm families had fled their homes in isolated sections of Indiana before the rain last night. Flames destroyed three homes and farm equipment near Madison, Ind. The entire community was threatened but firemen and citizens saturated the area with water before the flames broke through.

The rain saved the lives of four CCC enrollees who had been trapped by a fire five miles west of Hindustan, Ind. They had left camp and crossed a fire line in an attempt to halt flames spreading in another direction. A wall of flames closed about them, cutting off escape. Fifteen minutes later the rain began to fall. It drenched the area, extinguishing the flames.

Farmer Electrified

A farmer was electrified at Twin Falls, Ind., when lightning struck the window blinds down a power line and hurled a charged wire across his body.

Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan was prepared to declare a state of emergency in lower Michigan where 40 fires were out of control.

Missouri fire was reported in the Cumberland mountain region near Chattanooga, Tenn. In West Virginia, Gov. Parrier Dan H. Griffith appealed for 2,000 more volunteers. He said the fires were the worst the state had experienced in eight years.

RE-ELECTION OF LIBERALS ASKED

failed to do so. He said the large majority of business men had accepted "certain necessary supervision" of private business.

New Continuous Liberalism

"The voters throughout the country should remember that need for continuous liberalism when they vote next Tuesday," he said in charging that broken continuity interrupted progress. Too many persons, he added, talk of saving democracy but really offer only to save things as they were.

"I reject," he continued, "the merely negative purposes proposed by old-line Republicans and Communists alike—for they are people whose only purpose is to survive against any other Fascist threat than their own."

"As of today," Fascism and Communism—and old-line Tory Republicans—are not threats to the continuation of our form of government.

"But I venture the challenging statement that if American democracy ceases to move forward as a living force, seeking day and night by peaceful means to better the lot of our citizens, Fascism and Communism, allied unconsciously together, will grow in the wake of Republicanism."

The President claimed for the United States under the New Deal "a more stable and less artificial prosperity than any other nation in the world has enjoyed." He cited the fact that the 1937-38 depression did not become a major economic disaster, as proof that his administration is on the right recovery road.

"But," he warned, "if there should be any weakening of the power of a liberal government, the result would resurrect false hopes on the part of some business men, now believing in change antiquated ideas, as proof that his administration is on the right recovery road."

"We all remember well-known examples of what an ill-advised shift from liberal to conservative leadership can do to an incomplete liberal program," he said.

"Started by Teddy Roosevelt, for example, started a march of progress during his seven years in the presidency, but after four years of President Taft, little was left of the progress that had been made. Think of the great liberal achievements of Woodrow Wilson's new freedoms and how quickly they were liquidated under President Harding. I did not think it reasonable continuity in liberal government to get permanent results."

Mr. Roosevelt said he was proud of his record as governor of New York and President was free of any call upon armed forces of the state or nation except on mere emergencies.

And he sent Murphy into the campaign with the impetus of his endorsement of the governor's peaceful settlement of the Michigan automobile strike.

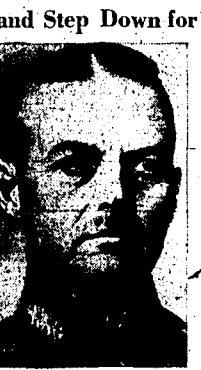

"Turning his heaviest fire on Thomas E. Dewey, the 39-year-old Republican, prosecuting a Horsey who is giving Gov. Lehman a spectacular race in this state, Mr. Roosevelt challenged him as unfitted on the ground of inexperience and youth. And he recalled, pointedly, that in 1918, when he, also, was 39 years old, he was offered gubernatorial nomination here.

Declined Offer

"I declined the offer," he said, "and glad I did, for looking back on that time, I do not think I had

Pioneer Resident Paid Last Tribute

Burial services were held at 2 p. m. at the cemetery.

RED CROSS HEAD CHARTS BENEFITS

Membership in the American Red Cross kept the disaster relief program, home nursing, first aid, swimming campaigns, highway first aid stations and the accident prevention drive, in honor and far from alive," Dr. C. R. Scott, Twin Falls, state roll call chairman, emphasized last evening.

"The Red Cross is a peppy organization," he said, "and we should be proud to have it in our midst."

Theme of his address was the Biblical quotation, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." He was introduced by Mrs. D. L. Alexander, president of the local chapter, who presided in the absence of Rev. Marg C. Cronberger, city roll call chairman.

A. L. Shafer, San Francisco, Pacific coast manager of the American Red Cross, discussed national plans for the year.

He also gave instructions on how to approach prospective members, and how to manage the roll call campaign.

LEGION POST IN BIG STATE PUSH

The local American Legion post is joining other Idaho and national posts in observance of National Legion Membership week, running from Nov. 4 through Nov. 11, as announced here last afternoon by J. Edward Warner, district membership chairman.

During this period, according to Warner, all posts will strive to meet membership quotas assigned to them. The drive will end with a national parade on Nov. 11, which will be signed by every post throughout Idaho and the nation.

At a dinner Nov. 4, Day, chairman of the local post membership drive, said the quota here would be 230 members by Nov. 11. The post now has 140 members, making it necessary to secure 90 new members by Armistice day. Day also pointed out that the state membership drive at the present time is higher than it was during the same period last year. He urged those who have not paid their dues to do so at once.

Reorganizing Set For Rail Company

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—The reorganization of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific Railroad company, under which holders of $117,000,000 in common stock would receive nothing was proposed to the interstate commerce commission today by Examiner M. S. Johnson.

Johnson said his investigation showed that the common stock of the road "has no value" and recommended that the holders not participate in reorganization.

Johnson proposed that the reorganized road be capitalized at $600,000,000, of which approximately 44 per cent would be represented by funded debt.

ROSS POINTS TO SLASH IN TAXES

Jerome, Nov. 5 (Special)—Hurling specific figures of tax reduction to 800 persons at a Democratic party and city dwellers in Idaho, Gov. C. Ben Ross last night assured more than 800 persons at a Democratic party here that "election of a Democratic administration will mean a tax saving to you of $200,000 annually."

Ross said that his past Democratic regimes had slashed both the tax burden and the high assessed valuation.

Answers Pensioners

Speaking of old age pensions, he said:

"I favor the old age revolving pension plan because we've got to have some means of circulating money."

He indicated that he favors a system by which the old people would be "forced" to spend $100 a month, thereby putting more money into operation and benefitting all classes.

Programs for American education week will feature work of the entire Twin Falls high school system next week. The national celebration of education and the schools, sponsored by the American Education Association and the American Legion for Nov. 7-11.

Each parent will receive a pamphlet Monday telling something of the purpose of the week, the history of the school and urging visits to class periods during the week.

Groups Map Plans

Other than the special work planned by each teacher or class demonstration, special work is being planned by a number of groups. The entire Junior-Senior P. T. A. program Wednesday evening will be built around this theme. Junior high school pupils will present a special assembly Wednesday afternoon, under the direction of Miss Winnifred Fryer. This program will be supplemented with music by the Junior high choir directed by Hattie D. Smith. High school pupils are furnishing luncheon programs for the service clubs, Rotary and Kiwanis. The entire observance will reach a climax Friday morning as the American Legion post with aid of high school pupils presents an Armistice day program for senior and junior high school students.

At the P. T. A. meeting being arranged for Wednesday officials will request the special attendance of alumni of the schools to witness not only the physical changes, but also the high school program for those attending will be taken to determine the class with the best representation.

He was born May 22, 1876, at Cedar Bluffs, Miss. He was married in September, 1928, to Miss Julia Hartfield.

Anti-Freeze? Local Autoists Display "Put It Off" Habits

Take the word of local dealers for this one—Twin Falls motorists are in the habit of waiting until the last minute (and sometimes until after the last minute) before they resort to anti-freeze solutions of various types for the radiators of their machines.

And it isn't always that they don't have the ready cash—most of the anti-freeze sales being paid on delivery—it's just because they keep "putting it off tomorrow" when they should have done today, according to local dealers.

"Taking an interest in this phase of winter driving," the Evening Times today made a survey of eight local dealers just to find out "how the public acted."

It's Unanimous

Answers given by the various dealers were practically the same. In fact they were so much the same that to repeat all 10 would come down to repetition.

Rather than do just that, four of the better of answers were selected and are printed here. The trade names of the dealers aren't given; they are merely designated by numbers.

Here they are:

Dealer One: "There's always a chance, sure, although such a risk does not always drain us of our supply. Last year we had a little anti-freeze left over."

Care Often Pressed

Dealer Two: "We sell most of our anti-freeze when the first cold snap comes. In this case we usually put the frozen car to the garage, thaw it out and put in the anti-freeze. During this period we usually sell all the anti-freeze we can get."

Dealer Three: "Our anti-freeze business has been going right along. Last year the motorists waited until late, but this year they are showing

But the picture now is different. The dictatorships are not merely on their muscle; they seem to be doing their very best to create the kind of world in which only dictatorships can survive.

On top of all this, they have introduced a new kind of commercial war to the world. Driving down their own living standards, they defy competition by nations which refuse to reduce their own living standards.

Today's dictatorships are not in the least like the dictatorships of the past. In the old days we could ignore dictatorships, figuring that the world was large enough to contain repression and freedom side by side.

Good Work—So Far... Motorists in America may look back over the nine-month period since Jan. 1 with pride. For that period represents a reduction of the traffic death total of 21 per cent for the nation.

CHAPTER XXV DAN NIELSEN, his long, old-fashioned nightgown trailing beneath a battered bathrobe, opened his front door and blinked at Bob Tall.

"You'll be glad I did," Tall said, slipping into the house. "You called the musician we're looking for."

PEELEY looked up. "The guy is nuts." "I'm not slightly. That's what I banked on when I put the ad in the paper. He couldn't stand to have it rubbed in—and no doubt the $10,000 had something to do with it."

Simple honesty and fairness in all dealings is the only basis of all healthy progress. To borrow one's self into prosperity is an economic impossibility. The thought of having more by producing less is plain foolishness.

Capital can be paid in no way only that way is by newly created wealth, and wealth is brought about by production only.

USC-CALIFORNIA TILT HOLDS NATION'S EYES

2 Clubs Tangle For Invitation To Rose Bowl

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—The football capital of the United States moves westward to Los Angeles today where a couple of west coast teams put the Rose Bowl glory on the 50-yard line and play for it.

An unidentified California team and a southern California outfit that is surging to the peak of its power meet in the banner game of the day. The contest is almost certain to carry the hopes of the west into the Rose Bowl on New Year's day. California, with power, prestige and a record of 10-0 in the scales, is a slight favorite.

It you can't arrange to be in Los Angeles this afternoon, Pittsburgh is the place for you. There Dr. Jock Slocum and his team will be in action against University of Pittsburgh team against a Cornell Tech eleven that is loaded and anxious to knock Pitt out of the contest.

Here in New York Jip Medigan of St. Mary's comes to the end of a long and successful career. He has been playing in the Polo grounds against Fordham. Each team has won three games in this series and they have played in the Polo grounds for 10 years.

Top Southern Game. Dixie offers Alabama against Tulsa at Birmingham, Ala. for its top-flight game. Tulsa, Big, fast and exciting, is under way after a slow start and the advice from down south is not to go overboard on Alabama.

BARB—Pittsburgh at Butler, who started this thing called football. When some young man stepped off the field in the rain and duggers were not so far from the field as they are an old feud. Yale meets Brown.

Colgate plays Syracuse in one that should be close. Boston college meets Middlebury. Dartmouth meets Colgate. North Carolina State plays Wake Forest. Virginia invades Old Dominion. Wake Forest and Auburn meet in a game that will be watched by thousands.

WISCONSIN—Northwestern finds it hard to catch the main chance. The Big Ten tilt Ohio State against Michigan. Minnesota looks toward an easy time with Iowa. Wisconsin meets Minnesota. Michigan meets Ohio State. Pennsylvania meets Michigan. Iowa State vs. Drake. Missouri vs. Michigan State.

WISCONSIN—Wisconsin already looking toward the Rose Bowl, has a chance against Ohio State. Georgia plays Florida, and Georgia Tech meets Wake Forest. Missouri meets Rice and Arkansas meet in the best game of the season. Baylor plays Texas. Texas Christian meets a tough little team from the state of Missouri. Brigham Young vs. Utah State.

GAME CANCELLED. HAZARDON, Nov. 5 (Special)—Rain, snow and cold weather combined to cause the postponement of a scheduled athletic football game between Hazardon and the University of Montana. Coach E. D. Eddington of Hazardon, and J. W. Shelton of Hamilton, stated that the game would be played at a later date.

Sport Squibs

Good Backs at Filer—We waded through the mud, rains, snow, sleet and what-have-you yesterday afternoon to watch Filer and Oakley engage in what is supposed to be known as football—but which looked more like water polo.

Some of the Better Players—Just thumbing through the schedules, we find that we've watched some of the best football in the state. Coach Bill Powers has done a wonderful job with the little men he has to work with. Generally during a season we get to look at each team once a year, but this happened to be our third time to watch the Oakley club in action.

Powerful Filer Outfit—The powerful Filer Wildcat moved up into a threatening position in the Big Six league here as Merle Harding and Red Gilmer ran wild to conquer the cellar-dwelling Oakley Hornets.

Underdogs Win Bowling Tilts—Led by Dix, who had a three-game total of 600, Brookfield took two out of three games from the Perrine club last night in one of the many City league bowling and in the other Firestone edged the Twin Falls Flour Mill by the same way.

Grizzlies Win In Cold, 15-0—CASTLEFORD, Nov. 5 (Special)—Playing in a sea of mud and a snowstorm that swirled over the field throughout the game, Grizzlies of Castleford by a 15-0 score here yesterday.

Power Plays Bring Bruins 7-0 Victory

POCATELLO, Nov. 5 (Special)—Coach Hank Powers and his Twin Falls Bruins, a team that has displayed remarkable development in the last two weeks, were in Pocatello this afternoon to watch the Idaho Southern-Albion Normal college game after yesterday's victory over the Idaho Falls Tigers 7-0 on a muddy field.

American Falls Turns Back Burley, 14-0

AMERICAN FALLS, Nov. 5 (Special)—The American Falls Beavers found the Burley Bombers in much trouble here yesterday afternoon and pushed and gnawed their way to a 14-0 victory on a wind and rain swept field in the annual renewal of their long series of games.

Harbig, local left halfback, scored the first points in the second quarter on a six-yard smash over tackle. A pass, Ryman to Aguire, counted for the extra point. In the third quarter Walter Ingers, quarterback, led the team for two yards to get the second touchdown. Another pass, Lounsbury to Wetzel, accounted for the first field goal.

In the first quarter, a long series of short passes appeared to click for the Bruins, but they didn't get into scoring distance. In the second quarter, American Falls held a 15-8 edge and had to punt only once during the entire game.

Grizzlies Win In Cold, 15-0—CASTLEFORD, Nov. 5 (Special)—Playing in a sea of mud and a snowstorm that swirled over the field throughout the game, Grizzlies of Castleford by a 15-0 score here yesterday.

The heavier showers collected the victory by unclogging one long touchdown play and then by taking advantage of two "breaks" to complete a safety and another touchdown.

There was no scoring in the first quarter, but in the second period, the Bruins scored twice by scoring a safety for Edson, reached up to corral a long pass. He ran the rest of the distance for a 50-yard gain and a touchdown.

Castelford battled on even terms in the third stanza, but in the early minutes of the fourth quarter they added two points by scoring a safety after punting to the Wolves.

Castelford ran into three misfortune later in the period when one of the Bruins dropped the ball on his own goal line. Phillips, Edson left halfback, recovered for a touchdown. Worsman took the ball on punting play to score the second point.

Shoshone and Gooding Tie

GOODING, Nov. 5 (Special)—The cold rain that pelted the field in yesterday's football game here in Coach Ap's Seniors and L. L. Delphin's Shoshone Indians played through four quarters to a scoreless tie on a muddy field.

Both teams threatened frequently, but poor footing and a slippery ball halted the scoring on every occasion. Gooding drove to the Shoshone 10-yard line on three consecutive downs in the first half, but the attack stopped the ball on downs.

The most serious threat of the game came in the third quarter when Wright, a boy who has been playing in the line all season, packed the field most of the way as Gooding moved the ball down the field. Wright again the Shoshone team stiffened and took the ball over.

In the fourth period, despite a slippery ball, McCain, Indian fullback, loosed passes with abandon, many of which connected. But Gooding was a couple of them to put a halt to drive inside the Seniors territory.

Powerful Filer Outfit Drubs Oakley, 26-0

FILER, Nov. 5 (Special)—The fighting Filer Wildcat moved up into a threatening position in the Big Six league here as Merle Harding and Red Gilmer ran wild to conquer the cellar-dwelling Oakley Hornets by a score of 26-0 on a rain and snow swept field.

The Wildcats marveled down the line early in the first quarter, only to get a 15-yard penalty for holding. But a few minutes later a flock of Filer players blocked an attempted Oakley punt and Stutzman recovered for the Wildcats on the three yard line.

Drive Halted by Fumble—In the second quarter Filer again was halted on a touchdown drive by a 15-yard penalty, but Harding broke loose on the 30-yard line on an off-tackle play and raced one fabled mile. The try for point failed and the score at the half stood 13-0.

The third quarter came in the third stanza as Merle Harding romped across from the 12-yard marker and then Gilmer again hit the line for the extra point. Fourth touchdown was made by Filer, who bucked the line on an off-tackle play, an attempted dropkick with the slippy ball was wild.

14 First Downs—The powerful little Filer team made 14 first downs to one scored by the Hornets in the final quarter. The line for the extra point, 65 yards to 30 against the visitors.

Some fine punting by the Oakley backs kept Coach Bill Powers from getting the going start of the line. Gilmer and Harding played outstanding games for Harding on the backfield while Brunst was outstanding at end. Cummings, Oakley end, stood out for the losers.

Lineups: Filer Pos. Oakley. O'Leary Pos. Causey. Hale LG. C. Gilmer. Tolman C. Carter. Hooper RB. Krohn. Walker LG. Lorraine. Matthews T. Andross. Critchfield T. Brunst. Dahlquist Q. Harding. Lee RB. G. Heston. K. Lee RB. Spencer. Cooper FB. G. Gilmer.

Substitutions: Filer—Stutzman, Eiler, G. Brunst, G. Brunst, today had the northern division championship bucked away following a football game which the Acquia club gave to the Builders first team. The home club is now scheduled to play King Hill at Twin Falls for the six-man championship of south Idaho.

The Acquia club played Kimberly scrubs in a practice game, with the team changing up a 14-0 victory. Willard Woodland, sensation young freshman quarterback, scored twice in the first half for the Denton crew to tank the game away.

Plastino's Pass Gives Jerome 6-0 Victory

RUPERT, Nov. 5 (Special)—Charles Plastino, the passing sensation of Coach John Norby's Jerome high school team, connected with one of his bullet-like heaves here in the third quarter yesterday and that was all that was needed for the Tigers to clinch a Big Six victory over Shurtliffs Rupert Pirates, 6-0.

After a sustained drive had stalled on the Pirate 20-yard line, Plastino faded back and heaved the pigskin to Arnold, the star Jerome end, and the receiver romped over the goal line standing up for the only score of the game.

Rupert Hill by injuries. The Rupert squad—hard-hit by injuries and playing with only six regulars, finally got going in the fourth quarter when a pass, Bruce to Ernest, netted a 40-yard gain. Max Johnson hit the line for five more, but that was the end as the Tigers applied the brakes and took possession of the ball.

The victory kept the Jerome club in the race for conference honors and clinched third place. The Tigers played the Pirates in the undefeated Bull team, which in turn must take on the fast Filer team that has not lost a game in league competition.

With these tough games in prospect, the league pennant appears to be pretty much anyone's at the present time. Rupert retained its fourth-place standing with the defeat, with one victory, one tie and three losses.

Dietrich Edges Richfield

DIETRICH, Nov. 5 (Special)—Led by the star backfield man, Bolton, Dietrich turned back the invading Richfield team here yesterday afternoon in a regulation Class B league game by a score of 6-0.

Bolton scored the lone counter of the game in the second quarter. Bolton scored the lone counter of the game in the second quarter. Bolton scored the lone counter of the game in the second quarter.

CHAIRMAN CITES RED CROSS AIMS

Sheltered in the intermountain valleys, Idaho is spared the calamities that strike the rest of the nation but Idahoans should respond to the 1938 Red Cross roll call in the spirit of the "golden rule." Dr. Charles R. Scott, Twin Falls, state chairman, said here last night in a radio address.

Dr. Scott spoke prior to the roll call conference meeting at the Park hotel last night.

Cites Drawings

Outlining the various work of the Red Cross, the state campaign chairman touched on Idaho drawing deaths and Idaho home accidents for both of which the Red Cross offers a remedial program. He then cited the "dangling number" of highway accidents.

"Intelligent first aid care saves lives, conserves limbs and shortens the period of disability," he said. "To furnish this kind of care the Red Cross has installed thousands of highway first aid stations, trained first personnel to render first aid, and furnished the stations with adequate equipment for it." Many such stations are located in south central Idaho.

Meat Economy Will be Shown In Event Here

The south Idaho housewife who stretches every dollar in her food allowance to obtain its utmost value will find valuable hints in the program which Miss Charlie Mae Hill, member of the staff of the national livestock and meat board, will give for the University of Idaho extension service on Wednesday, Nov. 9, in Radioland ballroom, Twin Falls, at 1:30 p. m.

This demonstration of new methods of meat cooking, with information about the selection of cuts for various purposes, has been planned to combat the homemaker's costly mistakes in cooking and to add to the charm and variety of her meals with an increase of expenditure according to Miss Margaret Hill, district home demonstration agent.

"In no field of cooking have methods changed more radically in recent years than in our way of cooking meat," Miss Hill points out. "A great deal of scientific research has been done in these changes. It isn't simply a matter of opinion nor is it a 'fad' when we state that meat should be roasted at a lower temperature and for a longer period than the older methods called for."

FIRST HUNT, FIRST IBER COALINGA, CAL. (Turning from housewife to nimrod, Mrs. R. L. McCannan, on her first deer hunt, brought down a three-point buck with her first shot.

INDIAN APPEARS FOR KIWANISANS
Preceding his address to the club he sang "Indian Love Call" and his own composition "Land of My Prairie Dreams." He concluded his musical numbers with an Indian song in his native dialect playing his accompaniment on the tom tom. The chief, who has appeared on many totem programs, told of the efforts being made to educate the American Indians and the interest shown in trying to better the Indian living conditions. He stated "had this interest been shown 150 years ago, the Indians would not now be the wailing race."
He also stated that the Indians who enlisted in the World war were made citizens in 1918, and it was not until 1924 that they received their citizenship rights. He concluded his talk with one of his own poems "Poem of a Vanishing Race." Through the efforts of the Kiwanis club the Chief was presented at the Buhl high school Thursday afternoon, appearing before the student body in his native costume and chief's head dress.

Lots of you folks are really misinformed when it comes to making money these days. Now for instance I know a fellow that had to advertise in classified that he wants to buy a load of apple or mabogary wood for his fireplace. Somewhere there is a man with a lot of apple wood to sell and here his customers have to hunt him up.
You farmers with hay and grain to sell are misinformed the same opportunity. Plenty of people are wanting feed right now but you're waitin' for them to hunt you up. It's easy to put in your classified ad and get cash out of what you have to sell.

INDIAN APPEARS FOR KIWANISANS
Preceding his address to the club he sang "Indian Love Call" and his own composition "Land of My Prairie Dreams." He concluded his musical numbers with an Indian song in his native dialect playing his accompaniment on the tom tom. The chief, who has appeared on many totem programs, told of the efforts being made to educate the American Indians and the interest shown in trying to better the Indian living conditions. He stated "had this interest been shown 150 years ago, the Indians would not now be the wailing race."
He also stated that the Indians who enlisted in the World war were made citizens in 1918, and it was not until 1924 that they received their citizenship rights. He concluded his talk with one of his own poems "Poem of a Vanishing Race." Through the efforts of the Kiwanis club the Chief was presented at the Buhl high school Thursday afternoon, appearing before the student body in his native costume and chief's head dress.

HOOVERS MAY DEVELOP QUICKSILVER MINE IN IDAHO

ASSISTANT TAKES LEASE FOR LAND NEAR TO WEISER

WEISER, Ida., Nov. 5 (UP)—A large surface deposit of chlorides on National flat northwest of Weiser, which was inspected yesterday by former President Herbert Hoover, chief of the nation's outstanding mining engineers, has been leased and may be developed, the United Press learned today.

Requa, a California mining engineer associated with Alan and Herbert Hoover, Jr., sons of the ex-president, disclosed that he has been "looking for a quicksilver mine and had apparently found a good one."

Requa told the United Press he had leased the claim and that the Hoovers were "actively interested."

Active Development
"We are going ahead at least with the idea of bringing this claim into active development," Requa said. "It will be some time yet before we take any definite steps, however."

Requa said that the deposit, approximately 400 acres and valued at grade of ore. He said that the claim had not been sufficiently investigated to definitely prove the exact worth of the holdings.

Estimates from other sources have placed the value of the ore at from $1 to $50 per ton.

Mr. Hoover, greeted at the railroad station by his sons, stopped over here on his trip to Spokane, Wash., where he will speak tonight, to look at the claim. Requa said the former president made no comment for publication concerning his estimate of the claim's possibilities.

Continues Trip
Following his inspection of the claim, Mr. Hoover continued his trip by automobile, driving through Oregon via Pendleton, instead of through Idaho by the north-south highway as he had planned.

Development of mines producing quicksilver and mercury—two necessities in the manufacture of military explosives—has been hastened throughout the world because of the Spanish civil war, during which the world's chief mercury producing mines fell into rebel hands.

Low Income Housing Plan Termed Vital

Charging that any housing program thus far introduced by the federal government has "failed to give a just return to those citizens of the low income brackets," Thomas M. McDougall, acting low cost housing administrator for Idaho, this afternoon cited the need for "homes these people can rent and own."

McDougall stopped briefly in Twin Falls on route to Boise. Low cost housing legislation, prepared by a committee of notables from over the state, will be introduced at the next session of the state legislature. McDougall is founder of the low cost housing plan in this state.

"Sadly Neglected"
"There has been considerable information in the press of late dealing with low cost housing for lower income citizens under the F. H. A. and the U. S. H. A.," McDougall said. "I have made a careful check to see if it were possible for the lower income citizens to get a just break, as they have been sadly neglected so far as any housing program offered by the federal government is concerned."

"The government has taken care of the higher income brackets through active interest in promoting programs and money to carry them through. If citizens have equity and income enough they can get the most out of a business enterprise. If the citizen is in the lower income brackets, however, he gets little more than talk."

"The government is now trying to work out a program for the poor man and so far as I can see it still will not work until the government realizes that from a business standpoint, a man must have prices within reach of his income or go in the red. The lower income group cannot pay $10 per room per month for a home, neither can they pay $5 per room per month."

Too High
"A family of five persons needs four rooms and a bath. At $5 per month this would mean, under the government system, that they would pay $20 a month. The man of the low income group who makes but $20 or $25 a month cannot pay this rent and still have enough left to take care of himself and his family."

"The government knows of cheaper homes that are sound and that would come within reach of the low income group. That, program is in Idaho and will be offered at the next session of the state legislature. It takes public interest as well as the interest of those wanting a home of their own to put it over. I believe the government will keep on until they take over housing unless private interests wake up and do the job better. Smaller homes are sound investments if the prices are right."

"Those of the low income brackets could pay for one of these homes at a charge of $5 to $7 a month. This is the only way they can do it and the chance must be provided for them," McDougall said.
