Johnston Trial Gets Under Way on Monday, Nov. 28

Former Mayor Again Enters 'Not Guilty' Plea at Arraignment

Duncan McD. Johnston, former mayor of Twin Falls who is charged with the murder of George L. Olson, Salt Lake City jewelry salesman, will go to trial in district court before Judge James W. Porter Monday, Nov. 28.

U. S. Delegate

ALFRED M. LANDON

The reading of the charges this morning marked the fourth time Johnston had heard himself accused of murder by the state. He has heard the charges read twice in probate court and twice in district court.

Johnston is formally charged with murdering Olson "on or about May 21, 1938." The state, in the information, claims the murder was committed with a .25 caliber Smith and Wesson pistol.

Johnston was arrested nine days later and has been held in custody since that time, bail application having been denied. The order to arrest Johnston was issued by Chief of the Howard Chandler who was moved his office when Johnston was arrested.

William LaVonde, previously arrested with Johnston and charged jointly with the crime, is free. He was released by Judge J. O. M. Hartley at conclusion of the second preliminary, held Sept. 22, 28 and 26. After being bound over with Johnston after the first preliminary, LaVonde was released after his attorney, William Dunn, secured a writ of habeas corpus from the Idaho supreme court.

Johnston case was returned by the district court to the probate court. LaVonde was re-arrested. LaVonde, (Continued on Page 4, Column 5)

GERMAN STOCKS SLUMP AS JEWS SEEK QUICK SALE

BERLIN, Nov. 14 (AP)—The Berlin stock market slumped sharply today as leaders of Germany's 700,000 Jews frantically sought to satisfy increasing Nazi demands designed to eliminate their participation in German life.

There were almost no buying orders, indicating that business leaders generally looked unfavorably on the possible economic consequences of the government's sweeping new anti-Jewish laws.

Nazi made a quick effort to limit the slump when the Reich private bankers' organization instructed members not to accept orders from Jews for sale of securities and not to lower their price limits for orders from Jews.

Foreign financial circles believed that the government would use the annual October census to identify Germans who were collecting the $400,000,000 mass fine.

It was suggested that the levy probably would not be carried down to the lower brackets, but would be worked out with particular care among the wealthy Jews.

President Roosevelt's appointment of Alfred M. Landon, his Republican opponent in the 1936 election, to the American delegation of the eighth International Conference of American States was interpreted today as a move to unite the nation on the administration's foreign policy.

The conference, to be held at Lima, Peru, Dec. 9, is designed to strengthen cooperative action among the republics of North and South America and to further peace among the nations of the western hemisphere.

Special significance was seen in the placing of Landon second on the list of 12 delegates—immediately beneath Secretary of State Hull—just prior to the recent national election, it was recalled, Mr. Roosevelt appeared for a common national front in the face of a troubled world.

Chance to Gain Eyesight

After four men condemned to death in Colorado had refused to give an eye to blind Attorney William Lewis of Denver, pictured here with his family, hope came today for the lawyer when a Wyoming prisoner offered one of his eyes for transplanting.

LARAMIE, Wyo., Nov. 14 (AP)—A prisoner who believes it is better to give than to receive insisted today on donating an eye so that blind William Lewis, Denver attorney, could see.

The prisoner, William Cardiff, held for passing a worthless check, wanted to go to Denver immediately for the operation after persuading Lewis to come here and talk with him.

"I don't expect to receive any leniency or privilege from authorities if helping me get out of trouble. And I am not doing it for any publicity purposes."

U. S. COURT AGAIN REFUSES REVIEW TO TOM MOONEY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—The supreme court today reiterated its earlier refusal to review Thomas J. Mooney, 22-year-old fighter for release from the life imprisonment sentence he is serving in San Quentin, Calif., penitentiary.

The act came when the court denied the plea of Mooney's attorneys for reconsideration of its Oct. 10 decision, rejecting their petition for review of state court decisions refusing to release Mooney on a writ of habeas corpus.

Mooney was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1935 for his conviction in San Francisco's "Preparedness day" parade bombing.

The Mooney case is the only one in which only one minor written opinion was presented. No major pending decisions were presented.

It also was charged that state court actions, rejecting his plea for habeas corpus release, were biased and illegal and deprived Mooney of his right to a fair trial.

HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 14 (AP)—Centralization of control over American banks whether by the government or private organizations, was emphatically opposed today by delegates arriving for the sixtieth convention of the American Bankers Association.

Jew Liquidation By Nazis Causes Nations' Unrest

By JOE ALEX MORRIS Copyright, Unlight, 1938 Europe's hope for an era of mutual confidence and peace dwindled almost to the vanishing point today as a result of liquidation of Nazi Germany's 700,000 Jews.

Steady increase of restrictions on Jews as the Nazi extremists tightened their hold on the government in Germany emphasized four immediate developments away from the goal of general appeasement set up by the four-power conference at Munich. They were:

1. A surge of public indignation in Great Britain, where Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain was forced for the time being to postpone plans for getting together with the dictatorial Nazi-Fascist partnership in the interests of peace.

2. Increased interest of the United States in Jewish affairs, which culminated in a Pan-American conference in Peru, where President Roosevelt apparently intends to press a program for unity of the Americas and preparedness against the possibility of foreign influences.

3. The increasing uneasiness of the anti-European government—of France—which are neighbors of military power Germany as reflected in their mild rejection to the so-called "Munich" pact.

4. The increasing uneasiness of the anti-European government—of France—which are neighbors of military power Germany as reflected in their mild rejection to the so-called "Munich" pact.

Lewis Terms Hitler "Bloodthirsty Wolf" as CIO Sessions Start

URGES FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO MAKE PROTESTS

By ARTHUR F. DEGREVE, THE OBITO, PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—John L. Lewis, chairman of the committee for industrial education, brought 40 delegates to the first constitutional convention to their feet in a noisy demonstration today when he struck back at the critics and attacked President Adolf Hitler as a "bloodthirsty wolf." Criticizing Nazi pogroms against Jews as "one of the most appalling crimes in history," Lewis pounded a speaker's table with his massive hands as he roared demands that the state department vigorously oppose against these cruelties inflicted upon a defenseless people. "I say to you that when the United States government does not take the lead in protesting against these crimes, it is a disgrace to the United States," he declared. The delegates rose to their feet, whistled, screamed, applauded and banged on desks. Protestion of Race Lewis used the Nazi attacks on the Jews as a vehicle to compare the state department's vigorous opposition to the CIO. His jaw struck forward, swinging his massive head and rapping the table sharply, Lewis exclaimed: "I say to my fellow countrymen and to the rich Jew, to the rich Jew or to any other American, that we should take down the flag that is a symbol of a powerful movement of workers such as the CIO which stands for equality and progress, and raise any minority, any religion, or any creed that exists in our country."

T. here for the past 15 years, has been named as the new work official serving as temporary chairman, called by the delegates to the Salt Lake City conference. Labor peace was made in quick succession by Fagan, Mayor Cornelius D. Scully of Pittsburgh, who welcomed the delegates, and the Rev. Paul F. Hays, pastor of the First Baptist church, Salt Lake City, who said that labor peace would be restored, while Fagan said the CIO would accept nothing but an honorable peace. Lewis plunged into a pungently worded defense of the organization. He stood looking sternly at the delegates, one hand over his heart as he said: "Modern Movement... There has been born in America a new modern labor movement dedicated to the proposition that all who labor are entitled to equality of opportunity, the right to organize and bargain collectively and the right to share in the bounties and blessings of this country. He said it was a coincidence that 27 years ago in Pittsburgh the late Sam Compton founded the American Federation of Labor which he described as the "labor movement of his generation." He declared that his movement served that generation "but line moves on." He traced CIO organizational achievement to the steel industry and said that "the CIO has done in three years what the AFL could not do in 37 years." Offers Military Help... Lewis said that if it were possible the country needs the cooperation of the "millions of workers in the CIO" that will be forthcoming. But he emphasized the CIO does not demand "that we be treated fairly now."

DEATH COMES TO ELDERLY MATRON

Chapter AO... Mrs. Jessie Barkley, 80, honorary member of the Twentieth Century club, and one of the most alert and active members of the community, died at 12:50 a. m. today at the home of her son, J. G. Seen Today

Prisoner in district court appeared as Attorney John Graham, stipulated as defense counsel, going up and says he has handled criminal case in 25 years. Motorist turning left at Main and Shoshone, shouting rudely to pedestrian who points in surprise at the no-left-turn sign on spot light. Reminder of that Martin means and some that displayed at Harry Muggs's place, including portraits that look like Martin means and some that defy description. Black dog running down middle of street, barked wildly in effort to catch his master's motor car. Rancher puffing his pipe and remarking it was a good thing the last pupil had just gotten out of a school bus when it was rammed by a beet truck in a collision on the beet factory way. Woman blowing horn to attract feminine pedestrian friend, but causing instead a mighty crash of necks as everybody in eight turns around that the increased yield this year of super-optimalist oil enthusiasts leaving for Sun Valley with car loaded with ails, getting ready for season they hope will open soon.

PORK

The mystery of the missing pig had been solved today. A resident of 630 Diamond street called officers to report a "pig" had come to his house. If anybody reports one missing tell them it's here. Shortly thereafter, a woman wearing overcoat over a pair of silk pajamas, called at the police station to inquire if the officers had located anything of a lost pig. The officers answered in the affirmative. At last reports the strayed pig was home—and contented.

Graves, W. W. McNeely and E. E. Haag. The service was under the direction of the Drake and Reynolds funeral home.

MILLION IN BEET MONEY GOES OUT

(From Page One) was credited with the high yield in the face of a heavy white fly infestation. The initial payment is being made at the rate of $4.40 per ton, which is 80 cents below the first payment in 1937. The checks sent to farmers, are in payment of the crop which was loaded up on and including the night of Oct. 31. Block estimated that the increased yield this year will make up the difference in the initial payments as compared with last year. Farmers still will receive a second payment in December. In addition those complying with the AAA best regulations will receive federal benefit funds later. Decrease in the per ton rate of initial payment was caused by the reduction in the retail price of sugar. Block said. He predicted that final production in the Twin Falls district will reach 211,000 tons in the Buhl-Rupert district 193,000 tons. On that basis, the subsequent payment about Dec. 31 on the crop delivered after Oct. 31 should mean an additional half million dollars.

RESPONSE GOOD FOR RED CROSS

Response to calls by campaign workers on the annual roll call for members in the American Red Cross this morning, the opening day of the campaign drive, was "especially gratifying," several captains announced today. More women than ever before are aiding in the roll call this year, involving the citizens of Twin Falls and community to assist in raising the $1,400 quota. Men's organizations are also active in the field. So generally has the linen in the loan closet been used, that 40 new sheets were added to the supply last week-end, according to Mrs. D. L. Alexander, chapter chairman. One of the many activities of the local chapter is the maintenance of stock-room and toyette supplies for needy families. NBC programs on the American Red Cross drive for membership will be carried over the local radio station, KTFM, at 7:30 p. m. tonight. Scott, Idaho state drive chairman. Tonight the Red Cross campaign will come over the local station at 7:30 p. m. and Saturday of this week at 10 a. m. It will be heard at 3 p. m. in the announced. Memberships will be received Friday and Saturday of this week at the booth set up in the lobby of the Portin hotel, for those who have not been selected, or for those who find it more convenient to subscribe downtown, according to Rev. Merck O. Cronenberg, local roll call chairman.

GILBERT TO MAP YULE DECORATION

First step toward Christmas decoration of downtown Twin Falls streets was taken today by the merchants' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce. The bureau, at a meeting this morning at C. O. headquarters, named A. S. Gilbert as chairman of the Yule decoration committee. Mr. Gilbert was instructed to draw up a plan for the Yule decorations and to submit his proposal to the bureau. The Yule decorations committee will be acted upon at 10 a. m. Thursday at a meeting set for that time by Chairman Gilbert. The Chamber of Commerce will not sponsor a November harvest event, as had been suggested in some quarters, for it is in conflict with the Junior Chamber of Commerce who go ahead with its own plans for its second annual turkey derby on downtown streets.

KRAUEL SERVICES SET FOR TUESDAY

BURLY, Nov. 14 (Special)—Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Krauel, 81, prominent pioneer resident of Buhl, will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Evans and Johnson funeral home. Rev. E. R. Berg, pastor of the Baptist church, will officiate, and interment will be in Buhl cemetery. Mrs. Krauel died Friday at 10 a. m. at the Buhl hospital, following an illness of two months. She had been a resident of Buhl since 1906, coming here from Yakima, Wash. Her husband, Fred Krauel, died in 1908. Mrs. Krauel was afflicted with the Royal Neighbors. She is survived by two sons, Robert Krauel, Twin Falls, and Fritz Krauel, Buhl, and one daughter, Mrs. Nell Grose, Shoshone.

DEATH COMES TO NURSE OF DECOLO

BURLY, Nov. 14 (Special)—Miss Eva Linville, former instructor in the Bury high school, and a nurse in the Declo district, died Saturday at the Nelson sanitarium on Overland Avenue. Miss Linville had been in failing health since last March. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, and since her retiring from teaching, she had been nursing. The body rests at the Bury funeral home. Funeral services are pending the arrival of a sister, Mrs. Minnie Shown, Prineville, Ore. Other surviving relatives are a brother, Henry R. LEFT WINGERS START SALVAGE OF ELECTION DAY WRECKAGE

LEADERS DISCUSS POSSIBILITIES OF FDR THIRD TERM

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (UP)—Progressives and left wingers are expected to begin salvaging the election day wreckage of their movements this week in preliminary maneuvers bearing on the possibility of a Roosevelt third term candidacy.

Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia of New York is tentatively scheduled to begin reconstruction here in conference with some of those New Dealers generally held responsible for President Roosevelt's unsuccessful primary election "surprise."

Last Tuesday's voting makes any general Progressive-left wing movement especially significant. Unofficial and unconfirmed returns from 28 states, excluding the Democratic south, showed the Republican party again in the majority in the great areas where it formerly stood secure. The margin was close: Democratic vote 15,334,150, Republican vote 15,517,270.

It is reasonably obvious, however, that organization of a first class Progressive-left wing movement would cut Democratic voting strength outside the solid south—and perhaps within it—and increase the margin of middle class progressive Republican supremacy. That might make a big difference in the 1940 presidential election.

In an inconclusive Progressive-New Deal meeting took place in New York Saturday between La Guardia and Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan. Murphy is a 100 per cent New Dealer who was voted out of office largely by a combination of rural and middle class conservative votes against his handling of the sit-down strike epidemic in the automobile industry.

Came from Washington
Sen. Bulkeley, D., another New Deal lame duck, was a coincidental participant in the La Guardia-Murphy conference. It was reported that the governor saw La Guardia with Mr. Roosevelt's knowledge. Murphy came directly from New York to Washington to discuss changed political conditions with the New Deal high command.

The New York conference produced immediate indications that the Progressive elements have not yet adjusted themselves to the shocks of election day. Big La Guardia has undertaken to credit the Progressive camps to the new and more conservative political poles now established.

Third Party Discussion
La Guardia's version of the New York conference was that there had been discussion of whether or not to undertake a third party Progressive movement. If the New Deal of the Democratic party loses control of the 1940 Democratic national convention—that is, if the Democratic conservatives kidnap the presidential nomination in June of 1940.

La Guardia generally is said by his intimates to oppose a third term Roosevelt candidacy.
Murphy emerged from the mayor's office expressing the opinion that leadership of the Progressive movement should be by Mr. Roosevelt and that all concerned should keep an "open mind" on a third term.

Bulkeley, who just dropped in because he was in town, apparently doubted that a third party movement would develop and seemed equally doubtful of the necessity of desirability of Mr. Roosevelt seeking a third term as leader of a New Deal-Liberal party or a New Deal-Democratic party.

WALTZ CONTEST FINAL SATURDAY

Seven couples will compete next Saturday night for the city championship of the Great Waltz contest, and the right to enter the state contest which will be held at Radcliff Nov. 26.

The seven couples Saturday night survived the first eliminations from a field of nearly 30. The seven were picked as a group and not rated in any specific order. The contest is sponsored jointly by the Orpheum theater and Radcliff.

Couples competing next Saturday night for the city championship are Viola Ward and Eugene E. Clark; Gladys Givrey and Don Stoddard; Doris Andrews and Arnel Hill; Arvilla Young and Virgil Young; Velma Johnson and Carl McTranney; Ruby Van Zante and Bill Truender.

Murphy Suggests "Open Mind" for FDR Third Term

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (UP)—An "open mind" on a third term for President Roosevelt was suggested by Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan who came here to discuss with Mayor F. H. La Guardia a program for Progressives in the light of last Tuesday's election.

Sen. Robert J. Bulkeley of Ohio joined the city hall conference with the mayor who plans a series of such meetings with liberal leaders. Both Murphy and Bulkeley were defeated in the election. The governor took his setback philosophically.

"Only by adversity do we learn," he said, "and it might be a good thing. It doesn't hurt a man in public life to be liberal leaders. Both Murphy and Bulkeley are a 'great leader' who was in the forefront of the battle for clean government. Later he declared that the 'practical way' to meet the challenge of conservatives is to 'center the light around the leadership of the President. He is the one who has made possible more progressive steps than any other.'"

"Does this indicate that the Progressives will rally around the President for a third term?" Murphy was asked.
"Well, I'd rather not say," he answered, "but I think our minds should remain open on that entire question."

Murphy and possibly Bulkeley will go to Washington, it is understood, presumably to confer with the President.
Officers Recover Stolen Machines
Two automobiles stolen in Twin Falls Saturday night, have been recovered, records at the local police department show.

One car was the property of Bill Cunningham, route three, and was stolen from a point near the intersection of Second avenue south and Shoshone street. It was recovered two hours later on Second avenue east.

The second car, property of E.F. Boyd, 108 Ramage street, was stolen about 5:15 p. m. on Second avenue south. It was recovered Sunday morning.

New Mexico Scouts Get Land Gift

New Mexico Boy Scouts will enjoy camping in the wilderness as the result of a gift made to the Scouts of that state by Mr. and Mrs. Waite Phillips of Tulsa, Okla. The couple gave the Scouting organization 35,857 acres of land in the famous Kit Carson country and also provided $50,000 for its development as an area for Scouting use. The acreage is located near Cimarron, N. M., and the gift has just been accepted by the national council.

ARMY PERFECTS POWERFUL GUNS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (UP)—The war department has announced perfection of two new guns—a powerful anti-aircraft gun and an armor-piercing anti-tank cannon—which will be major items in the program to strengthen national defenses.

Both guns have been standardized. Large scale production is expected to begin as soon as the next congress appropriates the necessary money.

In announcing completion of tests of the guns, the war department said that both emphasize speed and mobility and can be towed by trucks over highways or rough ground.

The new anti-aircraft gun, which is expected to meet these requirements, is of 27 MM caliber, automatic type, mounted on an all-around fire, four-wheel trailer. The unit has a 120-inch wheelbase, a 58-inch tread and weighs about 5,000 pounds.

The department said that its study of defenses against tanks had been concentrated on greater armor-piercing ability as well as increased mobility. The new tank cannon, also of 37 MM caliber, is mounted on a carriage that can be towed by high-speed trucks or hauled short distances by man-power. The two man crew is protected by armor. The unit is about 12 feet long, five feet wide, three feet high and weighs about 950 pounds.

MAN LIVES TO TELL OF GANGLAND 'RIDE'

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14 (UP)—Joseph Pugliese, 26, lived today to tell detectives of a "gangland ride" that failed.

Police, attracted by a shot, arrived at a desolate section of the north Philadelphia meadows to find Pugliese on his knees, "saying his prayers." Standing over him with a pistol in one hand and a watch in which he was checking off the seconds in the other, police said, was Joseph (Brenday Joe) Di Lucas, 27.

Di Lucas, Pugliese said, had given him two minutes to live. He started counting off the seconds as Pugliese prayed and pleaded for mercy. A noise attracted Di Lucas' attention, and Pugliese leaped up, grabbed his would-be assassin's gun and fired one shot before he was again overpowered.

The police who heard the shot also arrested two other men, William (Blackie) Pastvo, 25, and Fred (Mammy) Perardi, 26, nearby. They had left to find another victim, police said, as Pugliese was pleading with Di Lucas to spare him.

Brilliant with color and authentic in costume detail and dance motif will be the floor show presented as a feature of the Latter Day Saints dancing club's social event of Thursday evening at Radioland. Six dancers will demonstrate the hula and the ole, native dances of Hawaii, and the poi, native dance of New Zealand, wearing beautiful costumes from these islands.

Mrs. Myrtle Rogers, Miss Nola Jean Carter, Miss Beatrice Bell, Miss Laura Brown, Miss Margaret Cockrell and Miss Beverly Ribbin will be the dancers. They have been instructed by M. J. Rogers and A. M. Bell, who recently returned from Hawaii and New Zealand where they spent many years learning the dances and customs of the natives.

In Receiving Line

Dr. O. T. Lake and Mrs. Lorinda Phillips, presidents of the stake M. J. A. and Mrs. L. A. Boyce, Mrs. and Mrs. V. C. Yates, and Mrs. and Mrs. Virgil McBride, executive assistants, will be in the receiving line.

Special musical arrangements for the floor show will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. Mel Carter, playing Hawaiian steel guitars, Chuck Helm and his Continental band will provide the music for the dance.

Clifford Barrow, stake dance director, has been assisted by Tom Wilkin and Mrs. Edna Stokes, outside advertising, and Mrs. Juanita Hull, publicity, in making arrangements for the event.

The public is invited to attend, and members from Murching, Buhl, Kimberly and Twin Falls will be in attendance. These dances are held once a month and are semi-formal. Their primary aim is for the members to become better acquainted socially with residents of surrounding towns, and to further a plan of supervised dancing as well as to develop a desire for better dancing, according to those in charge of arrangements.

Five Teams Dominate Nation; TCU Named In Second, Duke Third

By HARRY FERGUSON

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—Football moves into its final fortnight today with Dixie and the Midwest boasting five teams that dominate the 1938 season.

The five leaders—Notre Dame, Texas Christian, Duke, Oklahoma and Tennessee—are undefeated and untied, but there is many a slip between mid-November and the Rose bowl and none of them is going to have a picnic this week-end.

Notre Dame goes against a rugged, tough Northwestern team; Oklahoma plays Rice; Duke takes on North Carolina State in one of those neighborhood brawls that so often produce upsets. Oklahoma beats Texas State, tied but not defeated; and Tennessee has the easiest time of any of them, against Kentucky.

Irish Lead Parade
Taking into account the stiffness of the schedules and what happened last Saturday, all teams will have to make way for the Irish of Notre Dame. Elmer Layden has brought a great team to its peak here in mid-November and for a brief week it has been in the king of the gridiron.

Leading out the great teams that have been defeated or tied, the ranking of the Big Five is as follows: 1. Notre Dame, 2. Texas Christian, 3. Tennessee, 4. Duke, 5. Oklahoma.

Notre Dame moves to the head of the list not because any of the others followed or even tied the Irish, but because the Irish proved on Saturday that they could catch a power team and go on to victory. That is to victory over Minnesota saw Notre Dame at its best when it was needed. Layden has sent his team to the war every time this year and you can search in vain for a soft spot on this schedule.

Notre Dame—Kansas, Georgia Tech, Illinois, Carnegie Tech, Army, Navy and Minnesota.
Oklahoma—Texas Tech, Oklahoma State, Oklahoma A&M, Oklahoma State.
Tennessee—Kentucky, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech, Tennessee A&M, Tennessee State.
Duke—North Carolina State, Wake Forest, Duke University.
Texas Christian—Texas Tech, Baylor, Texas Christian University.

Blackhawks Top Ice Loop

The Chicago Blackhawks, with four straight victories, headed the national hockey league by four points today.

The Hawks kept their clean edge by beating Montreal's Canadiens, 4-1, in the last game of the week. The Hawks were in the lead when they scored in the first minute of the game.

Mac Sees Three States Seceding from Union

By HENRY McLEMORE
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 14 (AP)—A few weeks of travel through the fried chicken and sweet potato pie belt has convinced me there is a possibility that no fewer than three southern states will secede from the Union before the end of the year.

I speak with a fair amount of authority on this subject. I have been in the South for several years and have seen the situation from the inside.

The first state to secede will be Texas. The second will be Florida. The third will be Georgia.

The current Duke team. From the blackest of the hills to the biggest tobacco planter, the Blue Devils are treasured and incapable of doing any wrong. Let California ignore them when Rose Bowl time comes around and the entire state will be looting mad to remain in the same Union with it.

In Texas, the alarm no longer is the show thing of the state. T. C. U. is the show thing of the state. T. C. U. is the show thing of the state.

They had a pretty good case, too, because the Tennessee team of the year 1938 is something to behold when it turns on the power. It did it in the quarter against Vanderbilt. From city kicked to city, they whooped it up with fervor.

USC-Irish Grid Game Holds Key to Rose Bowl Entrants

Idaho Outgains Cougars, but Loses 12 to 0

MOSCOW, Nov. 14 (AP)—Statistics showed today that the University of Idaho gained 97 yards from rushing as compared to 22 made by Washington State in the two schools' traditionally hard-fought game which ended Saturday with USC on the top and a 12 to 0 score.

Idaho, boasting one of the best teams in years, made five first downs in the game, but was outplayed and kept both teams passing to a minimum.

Washington State scored first when Clarendon Wingo fullback intercepted a pass from Harold Rolie, Vandal halfback, and sloughed down the field for a touchdown.

The second game in the last period six plays after an Idaho punt was blocked on the 10-yard line. Dick Emerson went over for the field goal.

End of "War" Nears for Idaho Pheasants

The "war" was almost over today for southern Idaho's much-harried pheasant population—and by the same token, the ducks of Idaho still will be in for a long bombardment before war starting through Dec.

For that's the final deadline on pheasant and duck hunting season. The pheasant season ends today, and the duck season ends tomorrow.

Even if the Redskins should win tonight, the 31-7 whipping from the Chicago Bears yesterday makes the odds even greater against their defeating the western winner. The Bears are only a third place club in their section and twice have been beaten by last place Cleveland Rams.

Laugh, who passed Washington to the title last year, was bottled up from the start yesterday, and although he flung one aerial after another, only five connected for a total gain of 17 yards.

New York blanked Cleveland 28-0 to take command of the eastern lead. The Rams never threatened although they played the last period against substitutes.

Green Bay, with only one more game to play, virtually clinched the western division title by whipping Detroit, 28-7. The Brooklyn Dodgers overwhelmed the Philadelphia Eagles, 23-14.

Little Chance for "Pro" Champs to Retain Title

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—It's a 100-1 bet today that the jinx against any team retaining the Ed Thorpe memorial trophy will prevail again this year, with either the Green Bay Packers or the New York Giants replacing the Washington Redskins as National league football champions.

Not since the league was split into divisions and the play-off system inaugurated six years ago has any team won the title two years straight.

The Redskins still have an outside chance, but the odds against Sammy Baugh and company seem almost insurmountable today.

The Redskins took a shelling from the Chicago Bears yesterday, and were dropped into second place as the Giants moved into the eastern division lead with a victory over Cleveland. The eastern title probably will hinge on the last game of the year between the Giants and the Redskins Dec. 4. The New Yorkers will be favored because of their touchdown victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers, who twice have held Washington to ties.

Utahns Retain Slim Lead In Big Seven

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 14 (AP)—Utah retained a slim lead over Colorado in the Big Seven football standings.

Utah Saturday gained its third conference victory in five starts at the expense of Colorado last night. The score was 13 to 0 and brought the Utes' conference record to three wins and two ties.

Colorado remained in second place by whipping Brigham Young University, 8 to 0. Colorado has won three games, lost one and tied one in conference play. Utah and Colorado each must play one more conference game.

In the other conference game, the Wyoming Cowboys left Logan with a surprise 27 to 12 victory over Utah State. Utah State, whose early-season defeat of Colorado has made Utah's exclusive hold on first place possible, appeared to be suffering a setback from a week before when they defeated Brigham Young, 2-0.

Hawaiians Tough
Denver U. whipped the touring University of Hawaii team 20 to 12. The Denver defense as well as the writers had trouble with one Kaalukuku, whose running and passing set up both the Islanders' touchdowns. Utah plays the Hawaiians Dec. 17 at Honolulu.

In the Utah-Colorado State game, the work of Ray Peterson, 183-pound sophomore fullback, was outstanding. Peterson time and again ripped off stable gains through the rugged Colorado State line. He scored one of the Utes' two touchdowns after the plunges had highlighted a 60-yard march.

State's Defeat
B. Y. U. continued punches against Colorado at Boulder. The Cougars have scored only three points in their last three games, and Utah State's defeat could be attributed largely to the backfield efforts of Wyoming's Johnny Winters. The eastern title probably is scored two of the cowboys' touchdowns, and Winterholler's passing and off-backle slants kept the red and white agiles at bay throughout the game.

Standings of Pacific Teams Muddled after Huskies Defeat Bears

By JAMES A. SULLIVAN
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14 (AP)—A football team that has nothing to say about the situation directly holds the golden key that will unlock the gates of Pasadena's Rose bowl New Year's day for a Pacific Coast conference team.

The 10 members of the Pacific conference will do the direct choosing of the western representative, but it will be the fighting Irish of Notre Dame who will make the selection for them.

The Irish, whose recent policy has been to frown on participation in the post-season spectacles, play University of California in Los Angeles Dec. 3, and right after that game, it is expected, the coast conference will announce the western representative.

Right now U. S. C. and University of California, the 1937 champion, are checked in the conference standings at five victories and one defeat each. Each has one more conference game to play, California against Stanford Saturday and U. S. C. against U. C. L. A. on Thanksgiving day.

It is generally taken for granted that the Bears will hurdle the Stanford barrier without difficulty in view of Stanford's five defeats in seven games. U. S. C. also should beat an erratic U. C. L. A. team in the turkey day thriller in Los Angeles.

Could Have Been Different
That would leave the two contenders deadlocked, and the decision would rest on their records outside the conference.

A defeat by Notre Dame, however, would give U. S. C.'s record with three defeats, as against the one California would have suffered on its full season, the 12-7 setback at the hands of the Trojan. Alabama beat the men of Troy in the opening game.

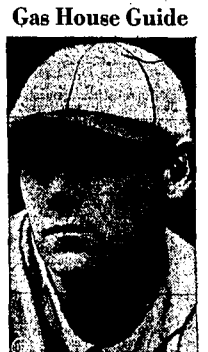

The story would have been different were it not for another of those wild upsets that have marked the 1938 football season, it came Saturday at Seattle, Washington, which failed to defeat the Bears in its first five games, beat U. S. C., 7-6, on a muddy field. Now lost dropped the Bears' record to 12 with the win of California that Notre Dame is being called upon to unlock.

Second Major Upset
It was the first upset of two major ones on the west coast. The other was the St. Mary's 7-0 win over Santa Clara, which was Santa Clara's first defeat in 17 games and its second setback in Buck Shaw's three-year coaching regime. It was the final game for the Gaels, who are not interested in any bowl arrangements.

Santa Clara, winner in the Sugar bowl twice, plays Detroit Nov. 27 before calling it quits for the season.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14 (AP)—Two-Ton Tony Galento, politer barkeeper from Orange, N. J., returns to the ring tonight for the first time since a pneumonia attack last summer to face Harry Thomas, Eagle Bend, Minn., heavyweight in a scheduled 12-round bout at Columbia Hall.

Galento is ranked number one heavyweight challenger by the National Boxing association and tonight is fighting his second fight. He lost his ability to take it when he was given a "nine count" by pneumonia or "ammonia" as he describes it.

"Two-Ton" knockout conqueror of Nathan Mann, Leroy Haynes, Al Ettore, Lorenzo Pack and Charles Lewis last year, Galento has lost 100 pounds with the N. B. A. for a title bout with champion Joe Louis this summer. He must win tonight to retain his standing.

Thomas lost to Louis and Max Schmeling on technical knockouts but will fight for 60 minutes with Galento. He has never been floored for a 10 count himself.

Plans Progress For Title Tilt

Plans are going ahead for the championship play-off of the Big-Man football league here, now definitely set for Friday afternoon, Nov. 18, it was announced today by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, local organizer in assisting in the promotion of the affair.

The game will be played at Lincoln field on a regulation gridiron, and will pit Kimberly and King Hill, undefeated six-man teams in their own leagues, against each other for the south central Idaho title. Each team won six consecutive games in the southern and northern divisions of the league without a defeat.

Plans announced today that officials of the game will be Jack Numan, veteran filler arbitrator, and Skip Towner, former Utah State coach, will handle the game.

Admission prices have been set at 25 cents for students with student tickets to any high school, 50 cents for adults, and 75 cents for adults for the championship contest.

The game is scheduled to start at 3 p. m.

GERMANY AND GREAT BRITAIN POSTPONE PEACE TALKS

ENGLISH CHIEFS IRKED BY ATTACK IN NAZI PAPERS

LONDON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Negotiations between Great Britain and Germany, which Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain hoped would bring a lasting European peace, have been postponed indefinitely, it was reported reliably today.

The postponement was caused by the severe Nazi campaign against Jews and Adolf Hitler's personal attacks on leaders of British public life, including several prominent members of parliament.

Public opinion was high, especially because the new anti-Jewish campaign came after the four-power "appeasement" conference at Munich which decided the fate of Czechoslovakia.

Personal attacks against such men as Winston Churchill, a power in the Conservative party, Anthony Eden, former secretary of foreign affairs, Alfred Duff Cooper, former first secretary of the admiralty, and others could not be overlooked to permit new negotiations between the two nations, it was said.

Chamberlain's Plans Negotiations Chamberlain was reported reliably, however, still to be determined to negotiate with Hitler. He realized that immediate discussion was impossible because of high British indignation with Germany as well as Hitler's apparent irritation. Britain, often manifested in its recent speeches.

Despite unqualified protests on all sides, it was understood that the government would not intervene openly in the German anti-Jewish campaign. The government was expected to regard the interests of British Jews in Germany, however. It also was expected to protest the article in the German newspaper, Der Angriff, alleging that Churchill, Eden and Duff Cooper helped investigate the assassination of Ernst Thaelmann, secretary of the German embassy in Paris, by a Polish Jew. This protest may be made "privately" to spare "German pride," it was said.

Italian-British Accord Chamberlain, however, starts his peace program in another direction. He is expected to announce the new British-Italian agreement, agreed upon last April, but never implemented. The agreement was expected to be signed in Rome on Wednesday. At the same time Lord Perth, British ambassador to Italy, was expected to present the details to the Italian government, addressed to King Victor Emmanuel, sponsor of Ethiopia, which will recognize British recognition of the Italian conquest.

Regarding the problems of Jews in Germany, it was understood that Britain was to adopt the same attitude as other nations—that the affairs in Germany are internal problems in which other powers cannot intervene.

TERMS TOWNSEND PLAN A 'SWINDLE'

Editor, Evening Times:

I have read the communication signed by Mr. Gus, H. Purkis regarding my article in the Evening Times of Nov. 5 relating to the Townsend old age pension plan. I wish to say to Mr. Purkis that he has not thrown any light on the subject as I see it. He refers to a certain bill which has some modifications in the plan, but which appears impulsive, insulting or disrespectful, but his reference to a great relief to the poor man is the most absurd thing I have ever read. It has all pointed at us since the BOWEN plan came into existence.

The Townsend plan is the most unscrupulous swindle ever conceived or known about. When the Jack Dillinger gang wanted money they too had a plan and used it for all those over 40 years of age who lose some and not suffer very seriously. When Dr. Townsend and his men wanted money they used the Townsend plan. They set a big figure, put a bill on the hook that all could see, namely $200 per month for all those over 60 years of age. Who would not bite at such a lot of money for such a small amount of nothing? They appealed to the aged who are in their mental decline or second childhood. The brotherhood of the plan solicited and accepted donations in any amount from one penny to ten and used every device to get the pennies, selling the booklet telling all about the glories of the plan. Boys on the street selling the "Townsend Weekly" where all manner of deceptive bunk was displayed under the disguise of truth. No home was too humble, no occupant too poor or black, all pennies had the same value.

HIGH COURT WILL HEAR ROAD CASE

Hearing will be held Tuesday before the Idaho supreme court to decide whether or not the state department of public works must maintain a six-mile strip of highway near Murtaugh.

At that time the Idaho high bench will consider the state's appeal from the Twin Falls district court order which directed that such maintenance be carried out. The strip of road lies between Hansen and Murtaugh and was U. S. 30 before opening of the cut-off route.

The Murtaugh highway district won its fight in court here on testimony that the road is essential to school buses, farmers and mail carriers. J. H. Barnes represented the district in its protracted but successful battle. He left today for Portland to attend the supreme court hearing.

POPE PIUS RAPS ITALIANS' POLICY

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 14 (AP)—The Pope has protested formally to the king and to Premier Benito Mussolini against Italy's new racial laws, Observator Romano, official Vatican organ, revealed today.

The Pope complained that the racial laws violated the concordat between the Holy See and the Italian government, which recognized the spiritual and temporal power of the Vatican.

Discussing the law forbidding Italians to marry non-Aryans or foreigners, even if Aryan, the newspaper charged a violation of article 6 of the Lateran accord, which grants the church the right to perform marriages.

SHEEPMEN VOTE ON BOARD POSTS

Sheepmen from various areas of south central Idaho headed for Burley early today for the district No. 2 grazing board election which was scheduled for the Cassia county seat.

Nominations and the election were scheduled as the final event on the sheepmen's program. The vote was called to order at 10 a. m., and the order of business called for explanation of the Taylor grazing act and interpretation of full reading of regulations on voting; general discussions, and then nominations.

Sheepmen's terms expiring include those of James Turnbull, Carey, Fred Martin, Ghoshone, and Wesley B. Ward, Elba. Three cattlemen and one "free-use" man were also elected. Cattle directors whose terms expire are Wallace Baker, W. J. Tapper and Charles Irwin. The "free-use" director is Joe Thompson. Elias Stockman, voting to fill Thompson's post must be running less than 10 head of stock.

PET DISLIKES

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—A survey taken among students of the University of Oregon revealed that the "alopexiness" of the men students and the latter have their grievances against the Betty Coeds. The coeds objected especially to "dirty cords" and the male students to long, spiky fingernails, run-over heels, crooked stocking seams and poorly applied make-up.

There were two "uses" to be paid. They soon had vast sums piled up to their liking, and the old "racket" goes on, taking money from all who are willing to pay. It's not their much needed pennies. The plan of taking eight million people out of employment and giving big jobs to younger people is absolutely ridiculous. How many old people can any Townsend recall past 60 that has a job that a young man or young woman would accept as properly becoming to it in all walks of life is preposterous, no greater hoax or delusion could be devised.

I fall to see where any farmer or laborer in town struggling for the bare necessities of life will be benefited. If the so-called pension should be given the most of it would go out of the country for something on the installment plan, but a very small amount would go into trade channels at home. The home folks would have the additional TRANSACTION SALES TAX in another direction. They set a big figure, put a bill on the hook that all could see, namely $200 per month for all those over 60 years of age. Who would not bite at such a lot of money for such a small amount of nothing? They appealed to the aged who are in their mental decline or second childhood. The brotherhood of the plan solicited and accepted donations in any amount from one penny to ten and used every device to get the pennies, selling the booklet telling all about the glories of the plan. Boys on the street selling the "Townsend Weekly" where all manner of deceptive bunk was displayed under the disguise of truth. No home was too humble, no occupant too poor or black, all pennies had the same value.

Pomona will Take Bean Loan

Twin Falls county Pomona Grange has elected to carry to the national Grange convention at Portland its move to secure federal commodity loans on white beans. The move is being carried on at the session in Piler Saturday, named E. L. Metz, retiring master, as special delegate to present the Idaho Grange request.

The movement, started by the Twin Falls Pomona, then endorsed by the North Side Pomona and finally given approval by the Idaho State Grange convention, calls for loans of $250 per hundredweight on three-fourths of a grower's crop.

Thomas J. Masten, Pomona, was elected Pomona master to succeed Metz. Emphasizing a policy of active interest in the community, Masten, the Grange voted to take part in the county's annual budget hearing by the board of commissioners. That hearing is started each year to permit interested taxpayers to voice opinions concerning any items in the county budget. Masten named a standing committee for the budget hearing. Members are Carl Leonard, George Baxter and Eric Jones. Mr. Leonard is the retiring secretary of the Pomona organization.

The resolution calling for participation in the budget hearing cited the fact that farmers are especially interested in county affairs and particularly the county fair and the county agent's office.

Study School Proposal

Careful Grange study will be given to the state school survey recommendation that Twin Falls county school districts be consolidated into four major areas, it was decided Saturday. The Pomona authorized committee to look into that consolidation proposal. Fred Jones, Frank L. Atkins and Oliver Johnson were chosen as committee members.

The ranchers outlined in with the tri-city move to secure improvement and closing of the Burli-Wendell route and passed up the idea of asking the state department of public works to complete widening of U. S. 30 through Twin Falls county. The widening work already begun west of Twin Falls.

Offering a significant hint to Governor C. F. Bittolmer after the Republican party, the Grange urged that the state agriculture commis-
