RELIEF BILL REQUESTS TOTAL $173,000

$43,000 SOUGHT FOR DEPENDENT CHILDREN'S AID

By DAVID N. JOHNSON
BOISE, Ida., Nov. 29 (UP)—The house appropriations committee today introduced a bill asking $43,000 for the relief of dependent children for the month of December.

The bill provides that if the money is appropriated it will be paid into the cooperative social security fund to be administered by the governor.

Introduction of the $43,000 measure was made by the Democratic caucus called a caucus to discuss the new measure and during the caucus heard Warden C. Meredith discuss prison finances.

Senate in recess
The senate went into recess pending the adjournment of the house.

2. Sen. Thomas Heath, Franklin county, said he might introduce a resolution calling for the resignation of Albert Lee, state auditor.

4. Rep. Fred Reynolds, Camas county, leader of the state economy bloc, said that Democrats were trying to spend the $3,000,000 general fund surplus on a Republican administration couldn't touch it.

Other bills before the house—the originating body for all appropriations—will be considered by the committee until Dec. 31, 1938, and $15,000 for the expenses of the extraordinary session of the legislature.

Warning of what may prove to be an exhaustive probe into the relief fund slump which made the special session necessary was given in the caucus when members questioned

Amount of the relief appropriation was hiked to $100,000 from Governor Bailey's original $40,000 recommendation because Lee informed the group that with the extra $60,000, the state could pay the 10 per cent of its social security remittances during December.

Several other speakers are to appear and association business will occupy part of the program.

First annual meeting of the Idaho Livestock Marketing Association will be held at L. O. C. hall in Twin Falls, Thursday, December 1, 1938.

Convict Leaves Prison; Writes He'll 'Be Back'

BOISE, Nov. 29 (UP)—Idaho state prison officials today were looking for Bert Hartley, 28-year-old convict, who Monday walked away from the prison grounds and left a note explaining his absence.

"I'm doing something I'm not proud of," wrote Hartley, a trusty who was in charge one of the prison farm's turkey flocks.

"But if you don't catch me I'll prove my innocence. Tell Capt. Hartley I'll be back in 10 or 15 years of the yard at the penitentiary."

TOY COLLECTION HERE DEC. 4TH

Collection of old toys which can be repaired and used to make underprivileged Twin Falls youngsters happy on Christmas day will be carried out Sunday, Dec. 4, from 12:30 p. m. to 4 p. m. at the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Campbell said that any household willing to donate toys for the collection should bring them to the store at Santa Claus—may have the playthings picked up by trucks which will come over Saturday.

The trucks will start at 12:30 p. m. Sunday and will pick up the playthings for two or three hours. It was announced that the trucks will be used to take over the toys to the children's homes.

JURY CHOICE SPEEDS

TESTIMONY MAY OPEN WEDNESDAY IN MURDER TRIAL

Selection of a jury to hear the case for and against Duncan McJ. Johnston proceeded rapidly in district court today and observations were made by the prospective jurors.

Johnston, former mayor, World War veteran and once president of the state Municipal Officers' league, is on trial on a charge of murdering George L. Olson, Salt Lake City Jewer salesman.

Some court observers expressed opinion that completion of the jury might come before court adjournment at 5 p. m. today, but the majority held this was not probable.

As both sides drew upon the reserve supply of jurors, which numbered just under 50 when court started yesterday, doubt was expressed some of the prospective jurors remaining would be sufficient.

Johnston was arrested on a charge of murdering George L. Olson, Salt Lake City Jewer salesman.

Daladier Masses Army To Halt French Strikes

PARIS, Nov. 29 (UP)—Premier Edouard Daladier massed the armed forces of France today to break tomorrow's general strike against the government recovery program and to keep essential services running.

The first violence occurred in Valenciennes in northern France, where government troops were injured in efforts by pickets to prevent striking metal workers from resuming work in the village of Raismes. Five were arrested.

It was estimated Daladier had 200,000 men under arms, including the 100,000-man police force, the 100,000-man militia and the 100,000-man reserve militia.

Called for Showdown
Daladier has called for a showdown on the efforts of the left wing labor leaders to rouse his financial and economic decrees modifying the social reforms so recently gained.

The decree would lengthen the hours of labor, increase taxes and generally call on the nation for heavy sacrifices in the interests of recovery.

Daladier kept labor moving today by keeping most of his preparations secret. No official announcement was made of the number of troops and mobile garrisons sent by train during the night to Paris.

SENATE BLOC TO FIGHT EXCESSIVE ARMAMENT PLAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (UP)—A sizable senate bloc favoring an adequate but opposing an "excessive" armament program appeared to be forming today as two more senators warned against extreme national defense plans.

Charles Walsh, D. Mass., of the senate naval affairs committee, and Senator-Edict D. Worth Clark, D. Ida., admitted that United States defenses need considerable strengthening, but said that they would oppose any expansion plans beyond our needs.

Yesterday Sen. Bennett Champ Clark, D. Mo., and George Norris, Rep., expressed similar views, Clark warning against defense plans based on "war hysteria."

Although returning congressmen were cautious about expressing how far this country should go in a preparedness program, nearly all agreed that expansion of the army, navy and air corps probably would be the major issue when congress convenes Jan. 3.

Walsh said that the current world situation called for "some expansion" of national defense, especially coastal defenses, "but I think we should get President Roosevelt's recommendations" before trying to formulate any program.

Sees European War
Sen. Clark was of the opinion that the European war will break out before long, but emphasized that the United States policy should be to "mind our own business."

"I'm in favor of increasing our national defense up to a strength where it will be theoretically able to stand up to defend our nation against any invader or any combination of invaders," he said.

"Norris, one of the small group of congressmen who are against expansion of this country into the world's affairs," he said.

2 Survive After United Airlines Craft Goes Down

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19 (UP)—Trapped in a drenching rain and wind storm, a United Airlines transport plane, en route from Seattle to San Francisco, with seven persons aboard, was forced by lack of fuel to make a crash landing today in the ocean near Point Reyes, 30 miles north of the Golden Gate.

O. C. Richardson, assistant western superintendent of United Airlines, reported from the scene that two of those aboard escaped with their lives. The others were reported "missing."

Those who escaped were Capt. Charles B. Stead, pilot of Seattle, and F. R. Edelstein, Los Angeles, passenger.

Richardson said Edelstein was badly hurt. Pilot Stead apparently was uninjured.

The plane, a high 14-passenger Skyliner, one of the most luxurious craft operated by United Airlines, was wrecked.

The crew and four passengers aboard the plane left Seattle at 8:30 last night. It cleared Portland and Medford, Ore., for Oakland and San Francisco, Calif., on the condition he leave the United States.

Edelstein's parole was the second he received from the Washington state penitentiary at Walla Walla by Gov. Clarence D. Martin last Wednesday on the condition he leave the United States.

Edelstein was one of the two persons aboard the ship still alive.

NEW PLAN MAPPED FOR MOVING OF GERMAN JEWS ABROAD

AUSTRIAN LEADER WOULD ORGANIZE BIG STOCK FIRM

By FREDERICK OCHSNER
 BERLIN, Nov. 29 (AP)—Arthur Kuffler, a displaced Jew and prominent Austrian industrialist, will submit to international authorities in London a new plan to resettle German Jews abroad, it was learned today. He was en route to London. Kuffler hoped to organize a stock company with headquarters in London. The company would raise the cost of resettlement of the Jews on a business basis instead of through charitable contributions. The plan was originally drawn up by Kuffler and Hans Gildemeister, son of a Dutch "Aryan" minister. It was reported to have had German official approval. Kuffler abruptly halted after the slaying of Ernst von Rath in Paris.

Popular With Nazis
 Gildemeister was reported to be popular with the Nazis because during the Dollfus regime in Austria he helped to organize a company through which his efforts it was hoped that the plan would be revived. The plan proposes a company capital of $2,000,000, with 20,000 shares valued at $100 each. With this fund the company would negotiate with nations to buy or rent areas suited for settlement. Homessteads would be erected and all essentials would be provided. These homessteads would be rented or sold on an installment plan to settlers or settlement companies. Property to be sold.

If possible the company would agree with the German government to have the property of Jews emigrating under its auspices turned over to a trustee to be appointed by the company.

The company gradually would pay off these amounts to the emigrants through the sale of the property. It was expected that Kuffler would be able to present the plan to the Reichstag in London Friday.

Reports on China

W. H. Plant, far-eastern representative of U. S. Steel Products and president of American Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai, pictured in Vancouver, B. C. on way to Washington to report to President on Chinese trade situation.

Lee closely concerning the relief set-up.

Sen. Heath, Franklin county, produced figures which he said indicated there had been an insufficient number of increases in relief cases to exhaust their funds for caring for indigent.

He demanded to know "what the loopholes are" in the relief laws.

Favors Rigging Appropriation
 Rep. Harrington, Canyon county, said he favored making a county a greater appropriation than the governor's request. "We have plenty of money," he said. "Let us use it as a Christmas present."

Throughout the membership of both houses there was development of an attitude of dissatisfaction toward the relief law. It was suggested that the special session advance a recommendation to the regular session that it make drastic revisions in the program on a permanent basis.

Receiving most condemnation was the practice of governing the amount of funds to be allotted to a county on the basis of that county's assessed valuation.

Centralized Program
 That results, members claimed, in hundreds of one county relief laws, relief funds than indigents of another county. A move toward state centralization of relief payments was suggested.

Under a centralized program, the state would receive the county's taxes for relief, would redistribute them to permit payments of equal pensions and direct relief funds to all indigents, irrespective of the county in which they reside.

At present, it is one of these policies that the counties have the greatest assessed valuation in the knowledge that county will receive more funds for relief work than any other.

MEN SHUN LONGIES AND MILADY STICKS TO SCANTIES — BUT HAS NICE, WARM PAJAMAS

By JEAN DINKELACKER
 They go along with it—and my, how she's grown—toddling off to her trundle bed in a brushed jersey "snooder," a chic, adult version of the "Dr. Denton sleeping garment days."

You, too, can emulate Angel Child, and insulate yourself against the winter's cold, providing you are a miss or a little woman. If you wear larger than a size 14, there's supposed to be enough of you to keep yourself warm.

For milady who trips the light somnambulant toe on the end of a table leg, and damnations her sleep-walking antics, there's nothing quite so satisfactory in night-wear as those snooders. And don't try to tell me that the stocker age has obliterated the sleep-walker.

Try Them

If you would have your "sleepy time" hours have that "down south" warmth and comfort, you really should give these cuddly garments a chance. They're to be found locally, and they have reinforced feet, latex drop seats, half-front fly closings, and turn-down knotch collars.

Another popular pajama, boasting the sporty tickle-kick-legs, is a strictly tailored garment, in the novelty-tuck stitch.

The new winter sleepers are by no means confined to the pajamas, there are gown galore, both long and short-sleeved, in knit, wool, and the good old flannel, including flannels. The latter come in solids, florals and stripes.

When Angel Child was learning nursery rhymes, she used to recite a little jingle about

"See the fly upon the wall,
 She hasn't any clothes at all,
 No shimmie-shirt, nor petticoat,
 Boo... ain't she cold!"

There may be an excuse for the fly's being cold, but not so Angel Child, now adult.

Twin Falls stores have everything—and I mean every description of scanties, briefs longies, and whatnot, to keep her comfortably toasty.

Red Flannels Out

True, the old fireman red outing flannels are not to be had at any price. A museum's the place to look for such.

But winter undies in novelty yarn stitches are abundant. These tuck attached union suits in two pieces, vests and pants, with an assortment of lengths, including top of hose, knee length or below, or full leg length, won't make the Monday clubhouse any more glamorous in appearance, but they are guaranteed to put up a pretty stiff fight against the winter's icy blasts. Garter topped panties are in popular demand.

That the good old union suit is becoming more and more a tradition of department stores is indicated by the fact that where stores used to buy them by the case, they now buy them by the box.

By O. A. KELKER
 Men's "longies" are going the way of all former customs — and that's out the window.

Winds and rains, alect may sweep the country, snow may bank high around the old front door and the temperature may be "way down the line" but the modern man shuns anything resembling long underwear—that is, excepting in one case.

One case where "longies" are permissible, this Evening Times reporter discovered after a tour of local stores, is when they are known as "jockey longies." Jockey shorts are those abbreviated creations which men wear nowadays and which look much like pairs of jockey trunks. And lightweight material to cover the legs, add a lightweight top with half-sleeves and you have jockey longies.

These Sell Fastest

Believe it or not but these are now apparently the fastest selling — and the newest — among men's undergarments.

The red flannels just no longer keepers. Of course heavy union suits are still sold but mostly to the man who spends all of his time out of doors. Those spending part of their time out of doors including those who like winter sports — wear the jockey longies while all other men (take it from local store keepers) wear shorts the year around and like it.

The reason? You guessed it—our modern living. Homes are no longer cold at night and day with freezing temperatures in all rooms excepting where the stove is located. Furnaces answer this problem and rooms are alike—warm and comfortable. The long underwear is too bulky and uncomfortable as a result.

Youngsters? Hah!

And so far as the coming generation is concerned—well, they don't care what a union suit means—unless they believe it was something which the northerners wore in the Civil war. Imagine a flannel time out of doors, or football player undressing in front of his teammates and taking off a pair of long woolies. His social standing would be ruined and his shorts are the things—cold or not cold.

The average, modern man likes his underwear short and snug. He also likes them light in weight.

In fact a man's taste today so far as underwear is concerned, is for the light, the soft, the sleek, the speaker—just short enough to be enjoyable and long enough to cover the subject.

Heads Delegation

State Sen. H. A. DeNeal, Buhl, heads the Twin Falls county legislative delegation gathered with the rest of Idaho's legislators in special session at Boise today to consider relief and prison finance problems. Senator DeNeal, who did not run for reelection, leaves office after the special session to devote his full time to extensive business interests at Buhl. Through error in Buhl's file, the picture of Harry Barry, former state representative, was printed in place of that of Senator DeNeal.

PAIR ACCUSED OF CHECK FORGERIES

Two men accused of forgery were to be arraigned in probate court today before Judge Guy L. Kincaid.

The pair—Marlin Genzler, Enid, Okla., and T. J. Murray, Spokane—was arrested by city police today on complaint of the J. G. Penney company, where both were alleged to have attempted to pass checks. Complaint against Genzler alleges that he forged a check for $3 and the charge against Murray cites a check for $3.45.

Complaints were signed by John Deakin of the Penney company.

FARM GATHERING SET FOR DEC. 5

Provisionary to community education, the farm gathering, a general conservation program, a general gathering of farm residents was called today for 3:30 p. m. next Monday, Dec. 5, at the Legion hall in Twin Falls.

Notice of the meeting was issued by Ray W. Lincoln, secretary of the Twin Falls County Agricultural Conservation Association. Chief speaker at the open session Dec. 5 will be E. W. Cook, representative of the state committee at Moscow.

Purpose of the several meetings, Lincoln said, is to discuss important provisions of the agricultural adjustment act of 1933, and answer any questions farmers may have in regard to the coming community election.

The elections, he announced, are planned for Monday, Dec. 12, in the seven communities into which the county is divided for agricultural purposes. Community committees will be named in each area, plus one delegate from each community to attend a county convention week later for the purpose of electing the county conservation committee.

"At the farmers' gathering in Legion hall Dec. 5, Lincoln said, full explanation will be made as to the boundaries of each of the seven community sectors.

$43,000 SOUGHT FOR CHILD HELP

Lee closely concerning the relief set-up.

Sen. Heath, Franklin county, produced figures which he said indicated there had been an insufficient number of increases in relief cases to exhaust their funds for caring for indigent.

He demanded to know "what the loopholes are" in the relief laws.

Favors Rigging Appropriation
 Rep. Harrington, Canyon county, said he favored making a county a greater appropriation than the governor's request. "We have plenty of money," he said. "Let us use it as a Christmas present."

Throughout the membership of both houses there was development of an attitude of dissatisfaction toward the relief law. It was suggested that the special session advance a recommendation to the regular session that it make drastic revisions in the program on a permanent basis.

Receiving most condemnation was the practice of governing the amount of funds to be allotted to a county on the basis of that county's assessed valuation.

Centralized Program
 That results, members claimed, in hundreds of one county relief laws, relief funds than indigents of another county. A move toward state centralization of relief payments was suggested.

Under a centralized program, the state would receive the county's taxes for relief, would redistribute them to permit payments of equal pensions and direct relief funds to all indigents, irrespective of the county in which they reside.

At present, it is one of these policies that the counties have the greatest assessed valuation in the knowledge that county will receive more funds for relief work than any other.

M. I. A. Sets Date for Green and Gold Ball

Date of the annual Green and Gold ball, most elaborate social event of the entire year for the Twin Falls State, M. I. A., as well as other stakes throughout the entire church organization, has been set for the evening of Jan. 18. The decision was reached at a meeting of the stake board last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Yates.

Coronation of the queens will be the highlight of the ball, as in past years, and extensive plans for the presentation of the "rulers for an evening" were considered by the board members. The event will take place at the Radio-lan hall room.

Plans were also made for the next L. D. S. dancing club's formal dance Thursday evening, Dec. 15 at Radio-lan. The highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the original compositions of Utah writers. Particularly delightful to the audience were those of Harrison R. Merrill.

The business session was presided over by Dr. O. T. Luke. Mr. and Mrs. Yates served refreshments during a pleasant social hour.

RELIEF SOCIETIES ANNOUNCE PROGRAM

Relief societies of the first and second wards of the L. D. S. church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church.

Mrs. Juanita Hill will lead the discussion for the first ward on "The Problem of Growing Older," presenting the question, "Are the women of today adjusting themselves to meet this change?" Mrs. Afton Hunt will direct the theology lesson for the second ward on "Education in the Roman World," pointing out the high standards attained by the scholarly researchers during the Roman civilization.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH PLANS PENNY SUPPER

Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church will entertain at a "Penny Supper" Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 7:50 o'clock, to which the public is invited.

Musical will be furnished throughout the dinner hours, according to the committee in charge, which includes Mrs. Mabel SteenSmith, chairwoman; Mrs. J. R. Sylvester and Mrs. Lee Venable.

NOVEMBERINER ATTEND DINNER PARTY

Annual birthday party of the Novemberiners was held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Johnson, and was among the delightful events of the Thanksgiving season.

A turkey dinner was served buffet style at 7:30 o'clock, the guests being seated at one large and two small tables. Nautariums and silver tapers were the table trim. Chinese checkers formed the afternoon's diversion.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Madland and infant son, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rowan and daughters, Edna and Betty, Mrs. Mac Davidson and Mrs. Astor Hobson.

BOX SOCIAL AND DANCING SCHEDULED

A box social during the refreshment hour, and dancing throughout the evening, are the planned entertainments of the St. Edwards parish party Monday evening, Dec. 5. The event will take place at the Odd Fellows hall, and will begin at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Jennings and her orchestra will play the dance music. A number of awards will be made throughout the evening.

League Outlines Varied Program

Ranging in subjects from a discussion of literary England to a study of how to win contests, next year's program of Twin Falls chapter, League of Western Writers, will offer unusual variety.

Guest speakers will be featured on at least four or five programs during the coming year. The year books were completed at a meeting of the group last evening at the home of Mrs. John W. Graham, 201 Tenth avenue north.

Mrs. Martina Yeter, 201, president of the chapter, conducted the business session. Mrs. Graham gave a resume of an article, "Reading, A Successful, Happy Experience," by Miss Betty Beavey. The article appeared in a recent issue of the Oregon Educationist. Miss Yeter, Twin Falls, is an instructor this year at Prineville, Ore.

An exchange of inexpensive gifts, aids in the program. The first light a meeting of the chapter Tuesday evening, Dec. 20, at the home of Mrs. Olive May Cook, 560 Fifth avenue east. Original verses will accompany the gifts.

Mrs. Graham served refreshments assisted by Mrs. Cook.

VARIETY MARKS OPEN NIGHT PROGRAM

All classes will be represented on the Open Night program presented tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the L. D. S. recreation hall by the second ward M. I. A. The public is invited to see the program.

The Bee Hive Girls will open the program with a chorus, "The Gleam of Twilight Shadows Fall." The Gleamers' Club will present a humorous skit, "Ferdinand, the Bull." Representing the senior class, Jay Spracher will play two piano solos.

Mrs. Jack Carson was hostess to the group at her home on Third street east. The gift was presented following the games of contact.

Honors at cards went to Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Harold Hoover and Mrs. Artie Kelly.

Others present were Mrs. Ralph Bampton, Mrs. Walter Ross, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Bill Thomas and Miss Helen Koehler.

CHAPTER XV

"Haven't you learned your lesson yet, you idiot?" she asked herself fiercely, after Dwight had gone. Just thinking of the things Marvel Hastings had said to her, that day in the Coronado, when she came to explain about Dwight's going off on the ship, made her blood burn and a shudder pass over her. Certainly Marvel had left no doubt of her opinion, and to cultivate her now—worse, to try to lead her steps right as it were—would be sheer folly. "Sticking your neck out!" Yet she had not the heart to refuse Dwight. She loved him. It was the torture of it. Despite everything, she loved him still. Just his presence beside her could make her weak and apathetic. The sound of his voice, the touch of his hand. He could get her to do anything he wanted, merely by being Dwight.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The reciprocal trade treaty with Great Britain and her self-governing dominions and her colonies is rather too lengthy and is sprung upon the public in too much of a lump to allow any just appraisal.

One point is important to keep in mind. The British make much of what they call the political side of the treaty as they are justified in fashion, for the American government set the stage to encourage this interpretation.

But this is a mistake. This is merely one of 19 reciprocal trade treaties—with Belgium, France, the Netherlands, Sweden and many South and Central American countries.

There was no political significance in these other treaties. There is none in this one.

It is a trade treaty pure and simple, adopted because each of the signatories believe most contain features which will help him.

WON'T HELP WHEAT FARMERS GREATLY

The second point has to do with agriculture. We will have to hear from the agricultural interests before we can form an unbiased view of the effects of the treaty.

The most striking feature at first glance is that it provides for a duty on wheat. But only at first glance. It will probably make no very great difference.

It will certainly hurt countries—Argentina and Canada chiefly—have immense wheat surpluses and have been dumping wheat on the United States for some time.

The U. S. has been dumping too, selling wheat below the world price in England and subsidizing wheat in other countries. But that is their surplus. Still, while the abolition of the tariff will deprive the British government of that revenue, it will as things now stand have no very great effect upon wheat exports to England.

How much, of course, remains to be seen.

Progress Rests on Our Own Confidence

Although Americans are supposed to be the greatest braggarts in the world, and often do their best to live up to the title, it just happens that one of our troubles these days is the fact that we're not cocky enough.

Perhaps you could blame it on the depression. The 1929 crash made us discover that some of our most cherished idols had feet of clay; and we went on from there to tabulate our faults in great detail, with the result that we fell into the habit of picking flaws in everything that has been done in the last half century.

This may have been good for us. A proud soul is usually all the better for a little chastening. But it did not create the best possible psychological atmosphere for recovery. The elements that go to make for recovery are intangible, and one of the most important is confidence—confidence in one's ability, in one's future, in the drive and energy and intelligence of one's fellows. A dash of the old-time American cockiness would have helped wonderfully.

So it is proper to call attention to remarks made the other day by William O'Neil, president of the General Tire and Rubber Company, on his return from a tour of Europe.

America may have her troubles, says Mr. O'Neil, but compared with Europe she is practically next door to the golden gate. The best labor in the world and the best employers in the world are to be found in America; they operate in the world's richest market, and between them they maintain the world's highest standard of living.

Which leads Mr. O'Neil to his next point. "Some politicians," he says, "have tried to persuade us that America succeeds because of its natural resources and because it is a comparatively new country. Go to Europe and you will see the fallacy of this. Relatively there are more natural resources in Rumania than there are in the United States, just as there are in Brazil, but this country has gone ahead of them both."

And that is a truth it wouldn't hurt us to remember. We have had a rich continent to exploit, to be sure, but that isn't the whole answer and we do ourselves a disservice by pretending that it is. Our great advantages are human—our system of government, our social and economic organization, the vision and ability of our business leaders, the intelligence and ambition of our labor. It is on these things that America's greatness has been built in the past; it is on them that its recovery from this depression will be built.

So it would help if we could regain some of that old-time cockiness. For recovery and progress rest, after all, on confidence. We don't create confidence by telling ourselves that we're just lucky. We can create it—and we have every right to do so—by examining the reasons for past success and doing a little exultant chest-thumping once more.

Streamlined Bad Boys

Bad boys appear to be going streamlined in keeping with the times. Dr. Mandel Sherman, who has had rather more than his share of experience with 1,000 problem children at the University of Chicago, is authority for the statement that weird states of mutism, deliberate deafness and involuntary yawning have taken the place of ordinary misbehavior such as putting ticks on teacher's chair.

In mutism, the children affected speak only to close relatives, and then only when alone. These days a child who speaks only to close relatives may be a remarkably discreet youngster. If he gets a little deaf, he escapes a great many unpleasant realities, and who would blame him?

The single dire note is that the youngster doesn't put ticks on teacher's chair and it is to be hoped that his negligence in this matter has not yet become so great as to be a matter of concern to the national or Idaho Education associations.

Toy Soldiers

Santa Claus will be happy to hear that toy soldiers may not be in such bad repute this year. A small boy has just won a case with a high authority, his grandmother, which distinctly favors the soldiers—for peaceful purposes only.

The boy is Curtis Roosevelt Dall; his grandmother is Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. With a wisdom befitting grandmothers she has frowned on war toys, soldiers, forts, toy pistols and the lovely little things which man invents to slay his fellows.

Grandson Curtis heard some of these views from time to time. Then he expressed himself. "I don't like the people to kill each other," he said. "I don't like the people to slay the advocate for the small boys world war in his clincher, 'but I love parades.'"

Mrs. Roosevelt is buying a few toy soldiers.

Dear Pot Shots:
This is for the "Can You Beat It" column.

When the prodigal cat came back, there's more than a pig-killing, I can tell you!

A year-and-a-half-ago, almost to the day and hour, Fussy was taken across the Snake river canyon to Haxleton to stay until the mistress came back from her vacation.

But Fussy didn't like the country, and disappeared within a day. His seat in the car was considered to be the limbo of coyote-killed kitties, and the mistress tried to forget the pet.

Saturday night he walked Fussy to the Twin Falls dam, the white part of his trick leggings suit more than slightly streaked with soot, but looking his whiskers and meowing in a friendly "will you forgive me!" fashion.

Public Forum

ASSERTS NAZI CRUELTY IS FACT

Editor, Evening Times:

In a recent forum article by Joe Schormann of Burley he makes this statement: "These stories about mistreatment of Jews in Germany must be a good deal the same as the stories of German atrocities during the World war."

It is my belief that a person who discredits and scoffs at reports of Hitler's anti-Semitic activities is either ignorant or so stiff that he is in sympathy with Hitler's "purge."

As regards this gentleman, if he doubts the authenticity of the innumerable news items and articles appearing in countless publications, should read the current issue of the magazine "Life," dated Nov. 28, 1938. In this magazine he will be able to see the results of Nazi atrocities.

It should also have listened to the "We the People" program over the Columbia Broadcasting System on Tuesday evening, Nov. 22, and he would have HEARD an eye-witness describe the very conditions which he intimates do not exist.

It is my belief that the gentleman who accepts press reports due to Nazi sympathies, I would argue that, to the best of my knowledge, transportation is still available on lines operated between New York and Hamburg.

The Family Doctor

By DR. MORRIS FISHEBIN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

Every year between 35,000 and 40,000 people are killed in this country by motor accidents; 100,000 are seriously injured, and perhaps 1,000,000 are slightly injured. It is, of course, possible for the driver to be a minor injury to develop into something exceedingly serious.

Some abrasions or wounds of the surface, contaminated with dirt from the road or even with material from the clothing, may give entrance to the germs of lockjaw. What seems to be a mere bruise of the surface of the body may conceal a ruptured internal organ of the body which may require immediate attention to prevent death.

A minor fracture of a bone as a result of improper handling may involve nerves and blood vessels and bring about a serious damage which may require months for healing and recovery. Obviously, therefore, immediate scientific attention to injuries resulting from motor accidents is of the utmost importance.

The Red Cross has established first aid stations along most of the main traveled roads of the United States in which first aid attendants who have been trained in first aid technique. Every person who travels in a motor car ought to have available a first aid kit. The kit should contain some of the following: a small first aid kit, a small first aid kit, a small first aid kit.

do when there is a fracture, a dislocation or a sprain.

A fracture refers to the breaking of a bone, either wholly or partially. If the fracture is complete, the bone is broken and the continuity of the bone is broken. It is commonly called a "green stick" fracture.

If, however, a bone is broken completely and a portion of the bone breaks through the skin, the condition is called a compound fracture. If the bone is broken but the skin is not broken, the condition is called a simple fracture. What is done immediately in relationship to a fracture may be of the utmost importance in the healing.

The first thing to do when a fracture occurs is to make certain that the patient is kept in a hospital. If there is a trained Red Cross attendant in a first aid station, even such an attendant should be called in to help. Do not attempt to make certain that the patient is quiet and in a comfortable position until the arrival of a doctor. When the bone is completely broken, the rough edges may damage the tissues or even tear blood vessels if there is any movement of the parts. If the bone is broken but the skin is not broken, the broken portions may be kept in place simply by fastening the limb to a board or a piece of wood on which a rolled-up blanket or pillow has been placed. If no such material is available, it is often possible to fix the parts in position by wrapping a magazine or several thicknesses of newspaper around the limb and tying the ends so that the dirt or material will hold the parts and not permit motion.

STRONG DEFENSE GETS DUKE ROSE BOWL BID

lacho Vandals Termed Champions of Rocky Mountain Area

Blue Devils will Tangle with USC In Grid Classic

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 29 (UP)—Because they twisted the tail of that old cracker-barrel favorite about a good offense being the best defense, the Duke university Blue Devils of Durham, N. C., will meet University of Southern California's Trojans in the 22nd renewal of Rose bowl football on Jan. 2. It was defense, and a powerful lot of it, that won the boys from the tobacco country the most coveted invitation of the football year. The Blue Devils are the first major team to complete a season undefeated, untied and unscored on since the Colgate event of 1932. That neat feat brought them the bid to the east-west extravaganza, and $90,000 in gate receipts, in the shortest space of time in the New Year game's history.

Two of these today who thought that Texas Christian, Tennessee, Oklahoma or some other eligible may have had a stronger team than when last argued in discord the facts remained that the Southern California players didn't think so, and Trojan athletic director, Will W. Wainwright, think so, and they were the parties who mattered.

Two-to-One Preference
The players voted two-to-one preference for Duke. Hunter said simply: "The Duke football record of being undefeated, untied and unscored in nine games is unequalled by that of any other team in the nation."
The choice of Duke, first member of the present southern conference to be so honored, was announced six hours after the 10 Pacific coast conference institutions voted unanimously that Southern California should represent the west.

The game will bring together two coaches who have met in the Rose Bowl three times and never been defeated. Jones came to USC in 1925, after the Trojans had beaten Penn State, 14-3, in their "first Pasadena appearance in 1923, and has defeated Pitt, 47-14, in 1930; Tulane, 21-12, in 1932, and Pitt again, 35-0, in 1933.

Wade came west with Alabama three times and went home with two years ago, in 1937, in Washington in 1928 and 24-0 over Washington State in 1931, and one tie, 7-7 with Stanford in 1927.
The record Duke is undefeated and untied in nine straight games while USC has been defeated twice in nine starts and must face Notre Dame here Saturday, having defeated stronger opponents, USC players said.

"We've got a job to do on Notre Dame first. Then we will start thinking about Duke."

Conn Asks for Return Match

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 29 (UP)—Billy Conn, fast-rising young Pittsburgh middleweight, appealed today for a championship match with Solly Green, National Boxing association champion whom he defeated last night in a non-title scrap.

The black-haired Conn easily out-boxed the Brooklyn butcher in their 12-round bout before 6,000 fans in Duquesne garden. It averaged a 10-round defeat administered by Kriger last December.

Conn won nine of the 12 rounds on the United-Press score sheet, losing only the fourth, 10th and 11th, when his sharp left jab fell on Kriger.

In those three seasons Kriger proved that Conn was not his match as a slugger. He gave the youngster a terrific beating about the body and head. He also gave Conn with sharp right uppercuts in the 10th and 11th, but he recovered quickly.

Kruger, who won N. B. P. recognition by defeating Al Hoak in Seattle early this month, weighed 123 in his first start as champion. Conn weighed 153 1/2. In New York and California Fred Apostol wears the 160-pound bonnet.

Mac Spends $13.84 on 'Phone Call to Get Interview with Wallace Wade

By HENRY McLEMORE
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 29 (UP)—Thanks to Alexander Graham Bell and his invention of the telephone, it was no more than 10 minutes after Duke university had been asked to play in the Rose Bowl that I was talking to Wallace Wade, coach of the Blue Devils, and asking him what he thought of the chances.

The Los Angeles operator asked me who I wanted, I told her, on the other end of the line 2,800 miles away, was Wallace Wade, the quiet Tennessee fellow who turns out football teams with a bang.

I said congratulations, Wallace. He drew a "Thank you, Henry," and then wanted to know why I was calling him up.

From here on out I'll just quote our conversation:

H. M.: Listen, Wallace, there are a lot of folks out here who think Southern California picked

Amputation Ends Career Of Sox Hurler

DALLAS, Nov. 29 (UP)—Monty Stratton, whose promising baseball career was ended by a bullet wound that necessitated amputation of his right leg, was recovering slowly from loss of blood and the effects of the operation today.

Stratton, 25-year-old right-hander of the Chicago White Sox, was injured when a pistol he carried strapped to his leg accidentally discharged while he was hunting rabbits on his mother's farm at Greenville, S. D.

Monty, a strapping giant, appeared last season to have reached the threshold of a great career. He had blinding speed and despite wisdom caused by an arm ailment, led all other Sox hurlers. He won 15 and lost five in 1937 and won 15 and lost nine last year.

Villanova Gets Sun Bowl Bid

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29 (UP)—Villanova college, undefeated for two seasons, has been invited to play New Mexico in a post-season "Sun Bowl" football game held at a swimming "bowl" position, it was disclosed today.

Villanova Coach Maurice J. (Gipper) Smith received the bowl offer at the annual Maxwell club dinner last night and at the same time declined his had been offered $10,000 to coach Boston college.

Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian university quarterback and the season's No. 1 aerial quarterback, was selected as the nation's outstanding college football player and was awarded the Robert W. Maxwell memorial football club trophy.

O'Brien has accepted an invitation to receive the trophy personally here Jan. 10.

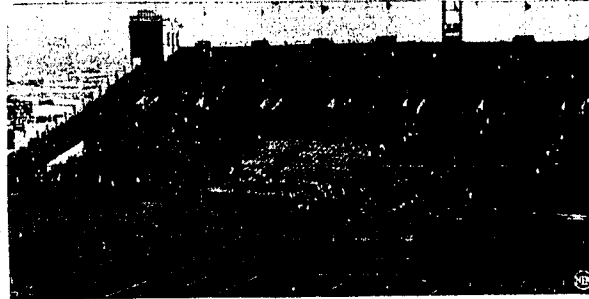

Villanova's reluctance to accept the "Sun Bowl" bid was understood here to leave University of Utah as a possible recipient of the invitation.

Army Gets Kick Out of Navy Game

Over 100,000 onlookers watched Army cadets parade at the annual service football game, staged in Philadelphia's municipal stadium, below. Army's Charlie "Huey" Long, No. 2, extreme right, who had made an 80-yard run for touchdown, kicks the extra point over the heads of a cloud of bludge blockers, in photo at top. It was Army's day by 14 to 7.

Probably dates and times for schools for officials will be set at this meeting, it is reported.

There is a possibility that the many Class B sub-district teams would be eliminated and the eight best teams of the region be sent to the district tournament.

The complete plan for this has not yet been set, however, and this situation is expected to be ironed out by the Saturday conference, according to Roberts.

Six-Player Deal Looms Between Tigers and A's

FORT WORTH, Tex., Nov. 29 (UP)—Howard Grubbs, Texas Christian university athletic director, announced today that the undefeated, untied TCU football team had accepted an invitation to play in the New Orleans Sugar bowl game Jan. 2.

Carnegie Tech, defeated only by Notre Dame and victor over Pitt, has been invited to be the TCU's opponent.

TCU coaches and athletic officials discussed offers from the Sugar bowl association and Dallas' Cotton bowl sponsors Tuesday night and decided upon the New Orleans game.

The Horned Frogs, champions of the southwest conference, defeated Louisiana State university 3 to 2 in the Sugar bowl game Jan. 1, 1936.

Tiger Jack Fox Meets Gainer

NEW YORK, Nov. 29 (UP)—Tiger Jack Fox of Spokane, Wash., and Al Olander of New Haven, Conn., Negro contenders for light-heavyweight honors, met tonight in a $10,000 fight at Madison Square Garden.

The winner of the 15-round match earns the right to fight Melio Bencio of Bracco, N. Y., for the New York version of the 175-pound title.

John Henry Lewis, N. B. A. champion, is sanctioned in this state because of his loss to Melio Fox, the local champion's No. 1 challenger.

sorta feel we won't face it team any tougher this year. Maybe Southern California will be as tough, but howdy, they can't be any tougher.

W. W.: Well, Henry, maybe we are, and then maybe we aren't. You've been looking at football teams a long time, and did you ever see one with enough luck to play nine games without losing one or even having a point scored against it?

H. M.: That's right, Wallace, but tell me this—is this the best football team you ever coached? Is it as good as those three Alabama teams you brought out here without taking a licking?

W. W.: Henry, that was a long time ago, and this is this year. Football has changed since then, I can't very well compare this team with those of the past. But Duke this year is a mighty good team.

H. M.: You think you'll win this, huh?
W. W.: I'm not saying that, but I'll tell you I've brought three teams out here to play in the Rose Bowl. We never were licked. I'm bring-

Hoop Coaches, Officials to Meet Saturday

Basketball coaches, officials and high school players will gather here on Saturday, Dec. 3, for the regular winter meeting of the south central Idaho high school athletic association. It had been announced today by Harold Roberts, Jerome secretary of the organization. The meet is called for 2 p. m.

Court schedules for both Class A and Class B will be drafted at the meet, and tournament sites and dates settled, according to those in charge. J. Buchheit, Glenn Perry, president of the association, and Earl Rogers of Piler is vice-president.

Strikes to Spare

By FRED STONE

Scores were fairly even in the Studebaker-Eliks match, which was won by Studebaker boys. Ted Emerick, their lead-off man, got high three-game total with 556. Ted's middle game and Max Spohr's first game of 18 tied for top singles for both clubs.

John Ford, with 535, was the top left for three games and his middle game was their best.

Something unusual in this match, H. Boone and Ted Emerick, both lead-off men, went over the 500 mark. Coleman and Bob McCracken, both the middle men, went over 500 and John Ford and Max Spohr, both inner men, also went over the 500 mark. The second and fourth men on each team fell under 500.

Those 188 scores start out the week's high single games for Commercial league play.

Twin Falls Lumber company was pushed out of the top position in the standings of the City league by the Kimberly team, as the latter club took two out of three in their match.

Acc Miller, lead-off for 'the Lumberjacks, took high three-game total with 574. You'll have to admit Ace improves every game: 182-193-194!

John Rogers, with 192, got the high single for both teams. Kilborn with 553 was by far tops for the Kimberly crew for three-game total. John Yostka, with 192, got the high single. It was a plenty tough night for Ruth Rogers, Louis Denton, Frank Voska and Joe Alinworth.

John Rogers' 188 starts off of the City league high and the Lumber company's 2410 starts out for next week's first bowling.

Kimberly Pin Team Turns Back Leaders

Kimberly bowlers pushed the Twin Falls Lumber company team out of first place in the City league, last night by taking two out of three in their match.

The high score in the City league play went to Ace Miller of the Lumber club with 570, and individual game honors went to John Rogers with 192.

In the Commercial league, Ted Emerick had 556 for three-game honors and tied with Max Spohr for single high game at 192.

By JAMES A. SULLIVAN
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29 (UP)—The parade of 1938 Pacific coast intercollegiate football champions: Pacific Coast conference: California, 1937 champion, and University of Southern California, fifth last year, tied with six wins and one defeat. (EUB USC plays in the Rose bowl).

Far Western conference: College of Pacific, successfully defending its 1937 honors, which it shared with Fresno State.

Pacific Northwest Conference: Willamette and Pacific university tied for four wins and one defeat each. Willamette was 1937 champion. In the last five years Willamette has won 27 out of 28 conference games.

Idaho Champion Southern California Conference: Pomona, which returned to the group this year. The 1937 champion was San Diego State.

Big Seven Conference: St. Mary's of Moraga, supplanting San Jose State college, with 11 straight wins as the far west's only undefeated, untied team.

Big Seven Rocky Mountain champion: Utah, replacing Colorado. Rocky Mountain unofficial champion: University of Idaho, which defeated Utah, Big Seven champion, Montana, and Utah State.

State of Washington unofficial champion: University of Washington through 200 in over Washington State Saturday.

State of Oregon unofficial champion: University of Oregon through 15-0 win over Oregon Saturday.

Most Improved Teams

Champion of the northwest division of the Pacific coast conference: Oregon State, which defeated Washington, Washington State, and Oregon (but lost to Idaho).

Champion of the California division of the Pacific coast conference: U. S. C., which defeated California, Stanford, and U. C. L. A.

Montana champion: University of Montana, which captured its annual game over Montana State.

The most improved teams in the major class during the year were U. C. W. which went from 20 fifth to a tie for first in the conference; U. C. L. A. which hopped from eighth to fourth in the same group; St. Mary's University of San Francisco, and Idaho.

Durham Celebrates Duke Invitation To Rose Bowl Tilt

DURHAM, N. C., Nov. 29 (UP)—Man and boy, Durham forewore all claims on Santa Claus, today and only reluctantly ended its premature Rose bowl celebration.

The spontaneous celebration, a tribute to Duke university's football Blue Devils, had begun early last night when word came from Los Angeles that it would be Duke against Southern California in the Rose bowl Jan. 2. Self-appointed town-criers passed the word around and the citizenry did the rest.

High school parade units quickly formed and every able-bodied man, woman and child appeared to have joined in the fun within a few minutes. The police gave over the streets to the throngs.

About the quietest man in town was Coach Wallace Wade, who managed to suppress a wide grin into a pained smile and say: "I think it's all right, all right."

TENNIS TITLEHOLDERS
Champion in the boys' junior high tennis tourney, forced to halt by cloudy weather, are Glenn Olib and Ken Iustert, ninth grade; Oliver Halmer and Bill Jones, eighth grade; Estelton Spill and Sonny South, seventh grade.

AMBERN WINN EASILY
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29 (UP)—Former lightweight champion Lou Ambern today had cleared another hurdle in the path of his comeback drive toward a return bout with champion Henry Armstrong with an easy 10-round decision over Tommy Cross, Philadelphia, Negro.

ELOOK TO TALK AT BEET PARLEY

Harry Elcock, Idaho manager for Amalgamated Sugar company, has been added to the list of speakers for the annual meeting of the Twin Falls county Beet Growers' association Dec. 6, President Carl Leonard, Filer, announced this afternoon.

The two speakers definitely lined up now include Mr. Elcock and Preston Ellsworth, Lewistown, president of the Idaho Beet Growers' association, it was decided at a meeting of the county association's board here today.

At I. O. O. F. Hall
The board also definitely set the place of the Dec. 6 annual meeting as I. O. O. F. hall, Twin Falls. Instead of being an all-day session, as was previously contemplated, the beet gathering will start at 1:30 p. m. More than 200 growers are expected to attend.

Beets are regarded as certain to be taken by the assembled producers, according to County Agent Harry B. Hale, is a vigorous resolution against any restriction of sugar beet acreage allotments.

New Applications
The sugar company's plants in south Idaho are understood to have many new applications from growers who find beet the best cash crop available, and the meeting next Wednesday probably will outline a strong case to be presented to Washington in favor of increased acreage for this cash.

Beets are a vital crop to this entire region—in cash to ranchers and in business to merchants through farm payments, labor funds and the factory payroll. Hale said. "We intend to make a strong effort to secure adequate acreage."

The annual parley Dec. 6 will also elect officers of the association.

WENDELL, Nov. 29 (Special)—Charged by an 1800 pound bull, James Spencer, living south and west of Twin Falls, was severely injured one afternoon last week.

Only the loyalty of his dog, who rushed the stampeding animal, prevented Wednesday morning he was dangerously and perhaps fatally wounded.

Spencer was crossing the field when the bull charged and turned around as the bull was about to attack him.

He caught hold of the bull and threw him into the air. Again the bull attacked after he had fallen to the ground.

At the local hospital, X-rays revealed the six ribs were broken, a collar bone fractured, one hip crushed, and one shoulder fractured. He was also bruised about the face.

RIFLE ACCIDENT HURTS TRAPPER
GLENN'S PERRY, Nov. 29 (Special)—Fired firearm accident in the Glenn Perry district this season came Saturday as an aftermath of the "Dutch" Promet, who lives west of town, was examining his trap lines on Snake river when he dropped his rifle. As he attempted to pick it up, his rifle accidentally discharged, the soft-tipped bullet entering his right forearm near the elbow.

He was taken immediately to the office of Dr. H. E. Snyder where the bullet was removed.

No bones were broken but a few pieces of the bullet could not be removed. Further complications set in, the injury should not be serious.

Dated Nov. 28, 1939. "DORR" McCLURE, Administrator of the estate of C. D. THOMAS, deceased.

CHAMBER STARTS TASK OF MOVING

The job of moving the Chamber of Commerce equipment, its voluminous records and other material was started Wednesday morning.

It was announced this afternoon by committee in charge of transferring the headquarters.

The C. C. will set up offices at the F. C. Graves and Son realty floor, 349 Main avenue north, the former location before the organization moved about a year ago to the basement quarters under the Bank and Trust company.

Task of moving probably will be completed by Thursday, committee men said.

The WPA recreational division, which has been housed in the site since the C. C. is changing is now negotiating for new quarters in Twin Falls, Miss Vernon Richards, director, said this afternoon.

She said she expected to complete arrangements soon, it was indicated the new recreational site might be located in one of the Twin Falls churches.

WHEAT AND CORN REGISTER GAINS

CHICAGO, Nov. 29 (UP)—Wheat and corn prices ruled firm on the Chicago board of trade today.

At the close wheat was up 1 cent, corn up 1/2 cent, and oats up 1/4 cent higher.

Wednesday is the first day when contracts can be filled in intention to deliver grain on December contracts. Cash interest continued to switch over from December to January contracts, with wheat at a difference of 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents.

Late firmness in the deferred month at Liverpool encouraged some buying in the local market. Liverpool wheat closed 1/2 cent lower to 1/4 cent higher. Winning wheat prices deteriorated as steady.

Corn prices were bolstered by fall demand for cash and shipping interest and indications of revived foreign interest.
