WRIST WATCHES TAKE SPOTLIGHT AT TRIAL

Two Timepieces Claimed Part of Olson's Property

Two federal bureau of investigation representatives arrived in Twin Falls this afternoon, although they will not reach the witness stand in the district court trial of Duncan McEl Johnston until next week.

Police Chief Howard Gillette was expected to take the stand late this afternoon, with defense cross-examination scheduled probably early Monday.

Johnston is charged with the murder of George L. Olson, a Salt Lake City jewelry salesman, on or about May 21 of this year.

The watches, both of Elgin make, are declared by the prosecution to have been known to have been in the possession of Olson at the time of his murder.

A. E. Morley, a jeweler of Sky, Nev., and the second witness called by the prosecution this morning, said that he had known Olson for 10 or 15 years.

He stated under questioning of Prosecutor Edward Babcock that he had given Olson two watches about March 15, 1938.

Morley said, however, that he had given Olson about March 15, 1938, he said that he recognized it because of its general appearance and also because of the number of the watch.

Cross examined by E. L. Rayburn, defense co-counsel, Morley produced an invoice which showed he had sold the watch to the Decker jewelry company on April 10, 1937.

He was recalled to the stand by the prosecution and said that he had noted "two in Olson's brief case to three two" in Olson's brief case.

HEATLIE, Dec. 3 (UP)—Blood-stained, fire-battered floor boards in a "little brown house" where James Eugene Hanes, 35, Annapolis Md., governor-elect, disappeared 10 years ago, were eliminated as clues today in the first degree murder trial of Detective Earl Mayer, 42, and Mrs. Mary Eleanor Smith, 73.

Prosecutor J. Tracy Warner said the stains were old and faint and the state did not hope to use them as evidence.

Warner admitted "the state does not have an airtight case, but so far as Hanes is concerned, it is airtight."

The state demanded the death penalty in an opening statement by a jury of eight men and four women.

The murder charge was filed by Deputy Sheriff Don Lowery, already indicted on the same charge.

PROBE IS OPENED ON 'STRONG ARM' STRIKE TACTICS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (UP)—The justice department said today it is investigating charges that "strong arm" methods are being used to hamper union organization in the Chicago stockyards.

The department said several telephone complaints had been received but that the major complaint was filed by the Congress of Industrial Organizations in written form today.

The complaint, officials said, alleged that persons not regularly employed by the stockyards have been interfering with union organization at the stockyards.

In connection with the noticeable inability of the economic system in recent years to maintain itself at the level it had held there appears to be a lessening of competition, Henderson said.

He said that the "strong arm" methods are being used to hamper union organization in the Chicago stockyards.

2. Shall it purchase the Independent Packing plant?
3. Shall it build its own processing plant in the quarters below the plant?

The field manager reported today the board of directors has been informed that the two local plants would be open to purchase negotiations.

Deadlock Feared In Car Industry At Peak Season

DETROIT, Dec. 3 (UP)—Three strikes by United Automobile Workers kept 20,000 men idle today and threatened the jobs of 13,000 more the first of next week.

Most of the plants normally are closed on Saturdays, under the five-day week program, but it was feared that unless settlements were reached before Monday, the paralysis would spread quickly.

The strikes were at Fisher body plant No. 1, at Flint; the Chrysler plant at New Castle, Ind., and the Nash-Kelvinator factory at Kenosha, Wis.

The Buick plants depend on the Fisher plant for bodies. Buick's Flint plant, employing 3,000, was closed because of the strike when the supply of bodies ran out, and company officials said it no bodies were delivered.

Christmas Seals Offer Vital Help In Wide Program

What does your purchase and use of Christmas seals issued by the Anti-Tuberculosis association mean to Idaho?

It means that you are helping to pay for the tuberculin testing and X-ray program of the association; for health education material in all the schools of Idaho; that you are helping to send physically under-par children to summer health camps; and that you are assisting in maintaining the salaries of public nurse and the tuberculosis consultant of the Idaho Anti-Tuberculosis association.

The far-reaching effects of the Christmas seals were pointed out today by Mrs. C. E. Chapman, director of the Twin Falls county Anti-Tuberculosis association.

Clarifying a number of questions that are frequently asked concerning tuberculosis, Mrs. Chapman made the following summary:

"Nearly three times as many deaths from tuberculosis occur in the 10 southwestern counties of the state and the panhandle than in all the rest of the state put together."

"Children, especially those under school age, are most easily infected with tuberculosis. This is why it is particularly recommended that tuberculin tests be made for all children at home, so that they do not infect the children in their homes."

"Had Germs in Past"
"When a child has a positive tuberculin skin test, it does not mean that he has tuberculosis; it means only that, some time in the past, he had one of the germs of the infection in his body."

"X-ray filming of the chest is the most accurate and the simplest way of finding early tuberculosis of the lungs. The doctors can often see trouble in the lungs on X-ray films long before they can hear it by listening with a stethoscope."

RALLY ATTRACTS DISTRICT SCOUTS

Driven indoors by inclement weather, Boy Scouts of the Twin Falls region staged their district rally this afternoon at the high school gymnasium.

Originally slated for Idaho field, the rally was shifted to the gymnasium on Friday. The program made, operated on a hundred instead of a placement basis the rally included many interesting features. Signaling, O'Grady drill and fire by flashlight, according to Gordon Day, district area council executive.

Judges were Dr. Frank J. Meater, Tom Fraevy and Parley Kall. Scoutmasters who arranged the rally included L. C. Gilliland, Fred Locke and Tom Adams.

In the afternoon sessions, troops achieving high points to reach a specified standard were to be given a number of prizes. The trophy or satisfactory number. The rally culminated with the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner." A total of 200 or more points in the rally on the program was to bring "satisfactory" prizes to troops achieving high points. The trophy which honored 50 or more points were to be honored with "excellent" awards.

The famous Twin stars, Casler and Pollock, have been recognized as a pair for thousands of years, but modern instruments show us that they are of entirely different groups. Pollock is speaking in one direction at a rate of 16 miles a second, while Casler is teaching a separate course at about nine miles a second.

"HERE'S What I Expect An Advertisement To Tell Me!"

"Is the Christmas Season Really Here? I don't feel that it is really time to think about getting ready for Christmas until all the stores start making gift suggestions. When the ads come out saying "buy dad this new razor" or "buy your baby girl the doll with this and that"—then I know I'd better get busy shopping.

"Where Can I Buy It? Naturally, one of the first things I want to know about something I see in an ad is—where can I buy it? It isn't simply a matter of convenience and of saving time in planning my shopping, either! No, the name of the merchant, itself, often decides whether I buy or not. Invariably, you see, I give preference to stores whose ads I see—I know those stores must have good values or they couldn't go an advertisement.

"What Will It Do For Me? I find it so much easier to make up my mind when the ad tells me facts about the merchandise! What is it? What will it do? How will it help me? Why should I buy it? I want to know about color, weight, texture, material, style—I enjoy reading those things and I usually buy from the merchant who tells them to me.

"How much Is The Price? Of course nearly every ad mentions the price, but if an item has been marked down I want to know from how much. So many ads say "Was Higher" . . . how much higher? I want to know how much I am saving and I want the chance of deciding for myself if the item is a real value or not. I have more confidence in the store that is consistently truthful and buy from such a store regularly—and my husband says an old customer is worth three new ones because new ones cost additional money to get!"

HER mother opened the door, a message that she mustn't let go like this. It was probably nothing important. She was imagining things. But into her mind came the picture of planes flying over a dark sea, and she could hear again Jack Hanley's voice saying, "We had casualty."

There was no sleep for Judy that night. She tried to control her nerves, but she couldn't. If anything had happened at sea, Naval Communications would not call her father. The commander would be called if it was actually trouble on the Enterprise.

HER mother's arm slid around her shoulder. "Darling, you must quiet down. He wouldn't want you to act this way no matter what happened. And then she said, "We must be quiet. We must get to Diane at once."

MASTERS SHOWS HOPPER LETTERS. BOISE, Ida., Dec. 3 (UP)—Joseph P. Modern armaments take three forms—land, sea and air. And an insular nation must approach its defense problems from a different angle than a nation which does not enjoy the protection of the sea.

It was not by accident that England enjoyed unbroken freedom and democracy for so many years. It was able to do so because, being defended on and by the seas, it could attain security without supporting an immense military establishment.

100,000 WITNESS USC-NOTRE DAME GAME

Betting Favors Irish to Retain Unbeaten Record

By Henry McElmore
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3 (U.P.)—In a football game that even the Hollywood press agents have to admit is tremendous, stupendous, and slightly colossal, the Trojans of Southern California meet the Irish of Notre Dame in memorial coliseum today.

The game, which means so much to both teams, is certain to be watched by 95,000 spectators, and there is a good chance that every one of the coliseum's 101,000 seats will be occupied. With all the choice seats sold long ago, the scalpers did a brisk business among those customers willing to pay upwards of $25 a pair.

Today's game, the 10th in a series, finds the glamorous Irish in Los Angeles with an unbeaten and untied team for the first time since Knute Rockne's mighty glory days. The Irish are unbeaten over Kansas, Georgia Tech, Illinois, Carnegie Tech, Army, Navy, Minnesota and Northwestern. The Rose Bowl would give the South Bears routing claim to the national championship of 1938.

But as important as the title is to the Irish, it is more vital to the men of Southern California. They have won everything but a title and everything to lose, and it is a sure fire thing that they will shoot the Irish to the biggest wolf among the dogs. The Trojans know that a licking by the Irish will make their bow appearance little more than a farce, and they will be out to uphold prestige of the mammoth flower pot.

A victory over the Irish would mean the ending of the reign of the Trojans suffered at the hands of Alabama and Washington earlier in the year, and go a long way toward getting the Irish Howard Jones, a new contract. Jones' position has been shaky all year, but after the biggest wolf among the dogs could cry for the scalp of a coach whose team gave Notre Dame its lone defeat and also made the Rose bowl, with its $100,000 in cash.

Betting Odds Unstable
The betting odds have been unstable for a week, and they were unstable today. One price was offered here and another one there. In the end, however, they probably will have settled down and Notre Dame is likely to take the field as a 2 to 5 favorite. Hundreds of thousands of dollars will change hands after the game, because not for many years has Los Angeles seen such wagering on a football game.

Notre Dame Arrived Late
Notre Dame arrived late yesterday, taking its last practice at Tuam, Ariz. Coach Elmer Layden reported that the team which left for the middle west last season is in top shape with the exception of one player, halfback Sheridan, who hurt his shoulder in a workout at Tucson, but will probably get in the game.

The Statements
The statements of the rival coaches were models of tact and caution.
"It will be a very tough game," said Layden.
"It will be a very tough game," said Howard Jones.

Only man to come out with a flat prediction was the weather man. He said the game would be played in the best weather conditions, with blue skies and a sun overhead, and a fast, dry turf down below.

New Mark Looms for Pro Attendance

By Leslie Avery
NEW YORK, Dec. 3 (U.P.)—Detroit's 75 per cent gain probably will offset losses by Pittsburgh, Cleveland and New York and carry the National Football league to a new attendance record, a United Press survey indicated today.

Despite bad weather and some unfortunate schedule breaks, attendance is running even with last year's only pace and with three games remaining to be played Sunday, the total may surpass the 1,170,476 of 1937.

169 Better
The present total (52 games) stands at 1,073,845 and unless undue predictions are too optimistic, 100,000 fans will pay to see Washington at New York, Philadelphia at Detroit and Pittsburgh-Cleveland at New Orleans this Sunday. This would bring the year's total to 1,176,645—or 169 better than last season. Compared to gains shown in former years, this increase will be trifling, but still remarkable in view of the sad decreases at Pittsburgh and Cleveland.

37 Per Cent Increase
For six home games, Detroit has shown an approximate 75 per cent increase. The Lions have played to 170,251 compared to 105,725 last year. With this Sunday's game deciding whether they will be Green Bay or the western division title, they should add more than 40,000.

The New York Giants' slump was attributed to the fact that two of their best drawing cards—Chicago Bears and Detroit—did not appear there. The Giants, who set the pace last year with 260,000, have attracted only 181,000 fans, but their game against the Redskins Sunday which will decide the eastern division title, almost certain to pull 50,000, and carry the season's total to 239,017.

Hartruff Tops Senior Team

Maurice Hartruff, Bruin varsity star, will captain the senior interclass basketball team and Hank Powers will serve as coach, the program voted at a session yesterday afternoon.

Captains and coaches were selected previously by the other two classes; Doug Smith, captain, and Mike Anderson, coach, juniors; Pat Wallace as captain with Leroy Hughes and Edward Rogel as coaches sophomorees.

Next year the league is scheduled to get underway Thursday.

Spokane, Twin Falls Tie in with Seattle

Reports reached here today that the Twin Falls club of the Pioneer professional baseball league, owned by Bill Ulrich, Spokane sportsman, had been tied up with the Seattle Mariners of the class AA Pacific Coast league, through the Spokane Hawks.

The word came through a report in the Sporting News, trade paper of the sport, and although the deal was not yet completed, it appears very much as though the Spokane Hawks would tie in with the Mariners, and thus the Twin Falls franchise would be included in the deal.

In a dispatch to the Sporting News from Seattle, the respondent has the following to say: "Arrangements for a three-way tie-up involving Seattle, the Pacific Coast league, Spokane of the Class B Western International, and the Twin Falls of the proposed Class C Pioneer circuit, are in the process of formation."

Negotiations were opened at the Western International league meeting, final details will be ironed out at the convention of minor leagues at New Orleans, and official announcement will be made at the Pacific Coast league camp in Seattle, Jan. 17.

Duke Takes New American Legion Promoter During Fight Card Here

Duke Players Listen to USC Contest
DURIHAM, N. C., Dec. 3 (U.P.)—Duke university's Blue Devils and Coach Wallace Wade listened to the Notre Dame-Southern California football game today, and they were cheering for the U. S. C. Trojans, whom they will play in the Rose bowl at Pasadena, Jan. 2.

Duke's first major defeat indicated and unscored on football field in the country in five years, wanted U. S. C. to win and add prestige to the Tournament of Roses game. The Trojans have been beaten by Alabama and Washington and a third defeat would detract significantly from their meeting with Duke.

If the Irish eight-game winning streak is stopped today, and Duke can go on to top the Trojans, it will give them a clear cut claim to the mythical national title.

Two Duke coaches were scouting the game. Eddie Cameron, backfield mentor, and Carl Voyles, end coach. The Blue Devils resume practice Monday after a week's vacation.

The southerners will be strengthened for the Rose bowl game by the return of George McAfee, southern passer who is one of their most brilliant backs. McAfee suffered a foot infection before the season began and saw only a few minutes action in the last four games. The rest of the squad is in perfect shape.

Cunningham's Mile Mark Is Accepted

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (U.P.)—Glenn Cunningham's 4:04 mile, fastest ever run by man, becomes an American record today as the A.A.U. convention goes through the formality of accepting the recommendation of the records committee.

Cunningham's performance around Dartmouth's track last March never will be recognized as a world standard, because the International amateur athletic federation does not list indoor marks.

It was the 124 applications scanned by the record committee at the opening session yesterday when the track and field committee tabled a proposal to abandon the metric measuring system and return to the linear (inches, feet, yards and miles) system.

Great Britain was the only one of 48 members of the I.A.A.F. which banned the metric measurements.

Headed Home

Back to his home state goes Dr. Edward Anderson, who leaves Holy Cross for Iowa, where he has signed a three-year contract to coach the Hawkeye football team, replacing Ira El Tubbs.

The Holy Cross that makes school is slumped like an apple seed. During his life, it secures a substantial known as the team, which forms a body over the years. Later, the covering is discarded, and is collected by man for the making of shingles.

You can do these things. Now get out there and do so. Now. Make up two dollars and your team as follows:
Much importance is attached to brains in football, but sometimes it is wonder if they are as important as they are made out to be. It would be very easy to prove how important brains are, by the way. Instead of just giving a player a jersey number at random, his average grade in his studies could be put on his back. For example, a player whose average in his course was 85 would wear that figure on his uniform. It would be interesting to see how much better for or worse No. 85 did, than No. 80 or No. 92, or No. 45. My guess made after a decade of watching football players run up and down the field, is that the low-numbered boys would do most of the work. This, for two reasons. In the first place, the low-numbered boys outnumber the scholars by 50 to 1, and in the second, no one is going to tell me that brains, like they are, can offset a great deal of legs, or, in the turn of speed, or a set of hands like a gun.

Ray's Texaco, Emerick's Win Pin Tilts

In two City league bowling contests last night, Ray's Texaco took three straight from Emerick's, and Firestone edged DeWeller's—three to two.

Edwards led the victorious Ray's Texaco club, with a 202 first game and 518 total for three-game series. Clark topped the losers with a 173 middle game.

In the other contest, Bob Warner of the Firestone was high man for the evening with a three-game total of 524 and a high single game of 192. High individual honors went to Charles Sieber with a 199 third game and a 503 three-game total.

CITY LEAGUE

Team	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Ray's Texaco	153	181	164	500
Emerick's	158	145	136	439
Firestone	81	127	144	352
DeWeller's	155	140	109	304
Firestone	122	151	294	567
DeWeller's	102	159	324	595
Emerick's	178	141	164	483
Ray's Texaco	137	166	168	471
Firestone	174	185	150	509
DeWeller's	88	73	79	240

Lee Scores K. O.
In the wind-up event, Earl Lee, two whitening Oklahoma fighter, earned a technical knockout at the end of the first round on Tony Manzanillo of the Rock Creek CCC when Referee Franconi had to stop the bout due to a heavy flow of blood from the Italian's eye, caused by a bad gash. The two had put on a fast fight the first round, with matters standing about all even at the going. They weighed 130 pounds.

In the semi-windup a couple of local heavyweights, Charles Huntley and Clarence Shawkey, lumbered through three rounds, the nod going to Huntley.

Probably the best bout of the evening pitted Herb Stiles, veteran south central Idaho batter, against Paul Leavitt, a budding, hard-punching CCC youngster, who appeared to have the makings of a real athlete. The bout was stopped with 10 seconds to go of the canvas round, when Referee Damico dropped, but newspapermen awarded the decision to Leavitt.

The fight in the first round will drop, but newspapermen awarded the decision to Leavitt. The fight weighed in at 125 pounds.

In the evening's opener, Roy Johnson, Twin Falls, lost a decision to John Berko, CCC.

First Round K. O.
Other results: Norman Plummer, CCC, scored a knockout in the first round over Harry Briggs, Twin Falls, when the latter was hurt after one minute and 30 seconds of sparring around the ring. A light tap on the chin by the invader set the bent youth out on the canvas, where he rested until the count of 10.

Art Barnes of the CCC took the first two rounds and the decision from Emanuel Will, Twin Falls. Will came back to gain the final round as both boys badly out of condition, wrestled around the ring. They weighed in at 155 pounds. The decision was justly bout.

Best Boxers
Tony Delmont, CCC, won the decision over Elmer Beverly, Twin Falls, at 135 pounds; and Smokey Cunningham staged a whirlwind finish to edge Elmo Coyle of the CCC in the fight that displayed the best boxing of the evening. They weighed in at 135.

The death of Damico came as a blow to local fight followers. Damico had lived in Twin Falls for the past two years and recently had been employed at the courthouse as elevator operator. He was a member of the American Legion and a former regular army man. While serving with the U. S. army in the Italian division, Frankie was featherweight champion of that area. He later turned professional and fought some of the top-notch men of his time, including Frankie Genaro and Pat Moran, the speedy Canadian lad.

It's a Battle of Brains vs. Brawn at Los Angeles Today

I don't know what the Southern California players think about the things that have been said about them. But if they aren't all the things said, then they must be sore, because they have been called slow, dull and stupid, and about as quick on the brain as a dumb-bell in the country.

The game has been advertised as a battle of brains and brawn, and with Henry Dame representing the logic side of the reason, and the men of California mass muscle, representing the brawn side, it is not surprising that thinkers could extra hono as easily as they

PURGE CONTINUES ON "IRON GUARD"

BUCHAREST, Dec. 3 (AP)—Three more members of the Fascist anti-Semitic Iron Guard were shot and killed today while allegedly attempting to escape from police.

The victims were Josef Pagaru, Anarie Glica and Andria Petru. Police said they had been arrested in connection with the attempt to assassinate Dr. C. I. Bruculescu-Goga, rector of Cluj university last Tuesday.

The killing added to the victims of King Carol's drive to stamp out the anti-Semitic Fascist movement, which has continued to flourish despite official suppression of the Iron Guard and the arrest of its members.

Arrests of Iron Guard sympathizers have been in progress on an extensive scale since Wednesday, when Nicholas Codreanu, jailed chief of the organization, was shot with 13 followers in an "escape" attempt while being transferred from an outlying prison to Bucharest for questioning.

Former Prime Minister Nikola Titulescu said today that Neamtu Romanescu charged that Hungary was directly responsible for the recent disorders in Roumania.

The arrest of the Iron Guard sympathizers was taken from her after the World war and annexed to Roumania.

MANIAC ATTACKS TWO; KILLS SELF

MARION, Ind., Dec. 3 (AP)—Leonard Fritz, 27, escaped from the state insane asylum at Logansport last night and attacked two men, driver and detective, then committed suicide before horrified pedestrians on a busy street corner.

The alleged madman, Neamtu Romanescu, was taken to the asylum shortly before dinner last night and fled to a residence on Third Street.

Fritz, Ind. Then he summoned Charles Quinn, a local driver, and armed with a rifle and ice pick, forced him to drive to Marion.

After reaching the district of Marion, Quinn jumped out of the cab at a bed light. Fritz ran after him, firing the rifle. All of his shots hit the man.

Detective Sgt. Lester Andrews, attracted by the shots, started after Fritz. The maniac fired one wild shot at the detective, then ran back into the taxicab and fired a bullet into his own head.

DIES COMMITTEE SEIZES RECORDS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—The Dies committee investigating Un-American Activities seized records today after a United States marshal seized a copy of the records of the committee's investigation of the work of the administration guides in New Jersey at Montclair under a subpoena issued by Chairman Dies, D. Tex.

The Dies committee's official indication why the committee demanded the records, but it was recalled that earlier this week Dies introduced portions of the New Jersey bills to the committee record. It is believed that the committee wished to compare notes taken yesterday to see whether changes had been made.

The subpoena was served on Director Henry Albers of the federal intelligence project. Officials said that the project was being conducted without question and that the WPA was willing at all times to cooperate fully with the committee.

Farm Aid Resolutions Conclude Co-op Meet

Striking vigorously in resolutions designed to aid Idaho farmers, the Idaho Cooperative council has closed its eighth annual meeting today with a series of resolutions and with reelection of its officers.

All officials were reelected except one member of the board who resigned because of illness.

Council members urged enactment of the uniform cooperative association act, asked an agriculture commissioner sympathetic to the cooperative movement, rapped at the increased tax on oleomargarine, favored adoption of dairy products, opposed any step which would hurt efficient methods of distribution, endorsed a study of short-term financing through credit unions, and favored a number of other moves beneficial to farmers.

Pres. at Head Officers re-elected were E. S. Frank, Idaho Falls, president; J. R. Brown, Caldwell, vice-president; Era T. Benson, Boise, secretary-treasurer. There are on the executive board, as are the following reelected trustees: Earl H. Brockman, Caldwell; William A. Schulberg, Preston; Roy D. Smith, Boise, and J. O. P. Ball, Idaho Falls. Others who spoke informally at the dinner were E. T. Taylor, Coeur d'Alene, State Grants master, and E. R. Brown, Spokane, federal representative of the farm credit administration.

Co-op Parley Benefits Mr. Benson, state secretary, called the American Institute of Cooperation meeting at Moscow and Pullman as an outstanding event on the year's activity program. Speaking of the business session, he termed that parley "particularly beneficial" to this area. He mapped out the business session for the year as follows: a program for the council's 1938 agenda.

Quoting a against territorial farm legislation, securing passage of a model uniform cooperative act, E. R. Brown, federal representative of the farm credit administration, said that parley "particularly beneficial" to this area. Woman, Sentenced to Die, Gets Regular Visits from Son, 12

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 3 (AP)—Beginning Monday morning, Oscar Hahn, 12, will be given free access to the state prison where his mother, Mrs. Hahn, is confined. Hahn died in the electric chair Wednesday night.

Warden James O. Woodward reported that the boy moved into his mother's cell.

"I couldn't let Oscar spend the last three days with her practically alone, but I might let him in and out of her cell with some regularity during that time. Each visit might be limited to an hour or two, according to what I believe is proper at the time," he said.

It was Mrs. Hahn's idea that she and the boy live together in the prison cell. The boy has furnished with a rocking chair, pillow and curtains over the barred window. She has virtually abandoned hope for her life, although Gov. Marvin L. Dwyer said he would decide Tuesday whether to commute her sentence to life imprisonment. She poisoned an elderly man for his money, and was suspected of having murdered at least six other men.

The boy has visited here frequently, during holidays from his school in Cincinnati.

Printer Sued in Dispute on Pay

Asking $124 for accrued labor wages, Paul J. Dauven, Twin Falls, had filed suit in district court today against H. L. Clark, local printer, and Security Printing and Loan association, Billings, Mont.

Dauven says that his wage sum be paid, plus ten cent and attorney fees, or that the building at 559 Main Avenue west be sold to satisfy the claim. He asserts that he worked for J. J. Dauven, contractor, from April 19 to June 3 of this year under Dauven's contract to enlarge and improve the rear of the residence, in which Clark installed a commercial print shop.

The complaint charges that Clark refused to pay for the contractor's bill, has paid him. His attorney is J. H. Barnes.
