President Calls on Nation to Re-Endorse Liberalism

RAPS STATEMENT THAT ELECTIONS HIT 'BODY BLOW'

BY FREDERICK A. STORM
CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Dec. 5 (U.P.)—President Roosevelt today called upon the nation to re-endorse the liberal principles of the New Deal and provide leadership so that democratic systems in the modern world might survive.

The President, speaking before the political forum of the University of North Carolina, rejected predictions that the Nov. 28 elections represented a body blow to liberal political action.

Mr. Roosevelt's speech was carried throughout the nation and to Europe and South America by radio.

Need Affirmative Action
The future of America, the President said, rests not on mere balance alone, not on mere conservatism, nor on mere progressivism, but on the affirmative action which we take in America.

"What America does or fails to do in the next few years has a far greater bearing and influence on the history of the human race for centuries to come than most of us here are here today can ever conceive."

"We live in an era of acceleration, we can no longer trust to the evolution of future decades to meet these new problems. They rise before us today and they must be met today."

"Going Places"
Mr. Roosevelt did not touch on the international situation. The President addressed directly to youth, to support liberalism which, he said, was embodied in the phrase "going places."

"These two 'going places,' he explained, 'seem to be an essential in modern civilization. They represent the conviction on the part of the young people of America that the future never remains static, that there are better days ahead than ever before, and an opportunity to find a way of life, to earn a living, to raise a family in comfort and security are better today and will be better tomorrow."

"There may be those in the world who believe that regimented people, whose every thought and action is directed by one man, may give some people a type of security which is pleasing to them. But whatever conditions I have, none is stronger than my ability to believe that the security and well-being of the American people can best be served by the democratic processes which have made this country strong and great."

Most Powerful Democracy
In conclusion, he declared: "We are not only the largest and most powerful democracy in the whole world, but many others are looking to us for leadership that will direct their policies may survive."

"I am speaking not for the external policies of the United States. They are executed on the side of (Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

BEET PRODUCERS RAP ACRE SLASH

BURLEY, Dec. 5 (Special)—Acting vigorously to condemn restriction of southern Idaho sugar beet acreage for 1939, beet growers of Jerome, Gooding, Lincoln and Cassia counties met at a conference today as demanding acreage at least equal to that of the current year.

Growers from four counties met here last week, scanned the entire sugar beet picture closely, and took action along several lines.

These were:
1. Asked the Amalgamated Sugar company for enlarged weighting and receiving facilities for 1939. It was emphasized by a number of growers that recent beet crops had proved too small in some cases.

2. Asked the Amalgamated to clarify for the growers the method by which the $440 initial payment here last year was arrived at, in contrast with the $3 initial payment for 1937.

3. Appointed an executive committee from the main four-county body of growers, and instructed that committee to "take such steps as necessary" to secure prompt payment of the government's provisional payment for 1938 beets.

4. Instructed the same committee to draw up a resolution condemning the restriction of acreage for sugar beets in 1939—and asking an acreage for next year at least equal to the 1938 figure.

Copies of that resolution will go to Sen. William E. Borah, Sen.-elect C. West Clark, Cong.-elect Henry Dworkin and Cong. Crompton J. White.

5. Expressed disappointment at learning recently that the sugar (Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

BENNETT DEFENDS FORD STATEMENT

DETROIT, Dec. 5 (U.P.)—Harry Bennett, personnel manager of the Ford Motor company, today defended the Henry Ford statement on Nazi persecution which Father Charles E. Coughlin assailed in his radio address.

Father Coughlin charged that Rabbi Leo M. Franklyn of Temple Bethel wrote the statement, that it distorted Ford's remarks, and that Ford actually did not believe there was widespread persecution of Jews in Germany.

Bennett said that the statement, which was published as "authorized" by Ford after a discussion by Dr. Franklyn, was "absolutely correct" for the record, and that before it was released and added that it was "reproduced exactly as my copy of it read."

Asked for comment on the priest's charges, Dr. Franklyn said that "all copies from Father Coughlin must come from his own office."

At Johnson, after being away from the screen for several years, he returns to pictures within a few months as the star of a musical film.

Pennsylvania Opens Boom For 3rd Roosevelt Term

Leader Sees Big Campaign During 1940
WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (U.P.)—Pennsylvania's unexpected boom to renominate President Roosevelt in 1940 threatened today to involve the new congress in a third term debate which would jar the Democratic party from top to bottom.

Mr. Roosevelt was put forward to head the "unofficial" faction of the Republican party by Sen. Cuffey, D. Pa., a member of the Democratic national committee and now independent Democratic leader of his state. He fired the first big gun in the 1940 campaign with this statement:

"Pennsylvania was, is and will be for President Roosevelt and Pennsylvania's 72 votes at the next Democratic convention will be cast to make him our standard bearer in 1940."

The 1940 campaign will be the most momentous in the history of the nation. The issue will be the liberal democracy of Franklin D. Roosevelt versus the unbridled Fascism of powerful financial and industrial interests conspiring under the colors of the Republican party.

These politicians interpreted Cuffey's statement as a maneuver to protect his powerful state delegation in the nominating convention against bids by "middle-of-the-road" candidates of other Democratic wings of the party.

So long as Cuffey and his delegates are pledged to Mr. Roosevelt, they remain comparatively safe from other pressure and would be in a position to make the best possible bargain if Mr. Roosevelt finally refused to permit his name to go before the convention in June, 1940.

But if Cuffey has undertaken to lead a draft-Roosevelt movement, it (Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

James Roosevelt Takes Post in Movie Industry

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 5 (U.P.)—James Roosevelt, son of the President, broke a White House precedent today by going into the movie business. He became vice-president of Samuel Goldwyn, Inc., Ltd.

Never before has the son of a President been in the amusement field, though another Roosevelt son, Elliott, is a radio executive.

First look of the smiling, 31-year-old James Roosevelt was to hold a press conference to tell of his transition from a $100,000 post in the White House secretariat to a $200,000 job as the right-hand man of the great Goldwyn, producer of million dollar films and subject of perhaps 20 per cent of the gossamer Hollywood.

Young Roosevelt's second look was a $25,000 grant award to one of the five $10,000.

ENGLAND WARNS ITALY ON FRENCH COLONIAL PLANS

By WALLACE CARROLL
LONDON, Dec. 5 (U.P.)—Britain has warned Italy that recent colonial demonstrations against France are likely to disrupt the new efforts at friendship between Britain and Italy.

Chamberlain said Lord Perth, British ambassador, has been instructed to tell Count Galeazzo Ciano, Italian foreign minister, that the demonstrations in the Italian chamber for Italian annexation of French Tunisia, Corsica, Savoy and Nice "must have a detrimental effect on the prospects of collaboration."

Chamberlain announced that nothing in the new British-Italian agreement, which is part of his plan for general European appeasement, has selected British obligations to France.

Stands with France
He thus served notice that Britain will stand with France in resisting any attempt to change things in the Mediterranean.

"While Tunis, Corsica and Nice are not specifically mentioned in the agreement," Chamberlain said, they are covered by the provision regarding the status quo in the Mediterranean.

In Paris, Premier Edouard Daladier announced that France will defend the integrity of all her possessions.

Count Ciano said further that the Italian government does not associate itself with the demonstration.

The prime minister's statement was in reply to several questions. He told one questioner:

"If any part of the British Commonwealth were attacked, this country would not hesitate to go to its aid."

Generally it is a matter for each part of the British government (the empire) to decide the extent to which it would participate in any war in which the British Commonwealth is involved," Chamberlain said.

It was announced that Britain would automatically give military aid to any British dominion which suffered aggression, but the dominions themselves would have the right to decide whether they would enter a war in which Britain or another dominion is involved.

FRENCHMEN PLAN COLONY DEFENSE

By HAROLD ETLINGER
PARIS, Dec. 5 (U.P.)—Premier Edouard Daladier replied to Italian agitation for possession of French Tunisia in northern Africa and the island of Corsica with a statement today declaring that France will defend the integrity of all her possessions.

He said in a communique that he had received thousands of telegrams of loyalty from Corsica and Tunisia. Yesterday's demonstration against Italy in Corsica and Tunisia were the best reply to Italian manifestations and proved that the French are ready to hold their positions wherever the tricolor floats, the communique said.

No More Demonstrations
The demonstrators were evoked by a clamorous demand by members of the Italian chamber of deputies last Wednesday for resumption to Italy of Tunis, Corsica, Savoy and Nice.

Five national planes which left to bomb the city yesterday were kept away by loyalist planes. The Italian planes were shot down by 20 Italian and German bombers from raiding Valencia yesterday.

The war fronts were reported quiet.

Chief Gillette Identifies Gun In Murder Case

BULLETIN
Vigorous cross examination of Chief Howard Gillette was started this afternoon by defense counsel.

Previously, the state produced the mysterious letter which the defense had asked Patrolman Robert C. Winterhoffer if he received from a Mr. Mills. Chief Gillette said the letter made no mention of the basement under the Johnston store, or where to search for any Jewry. The letter, he said, was anonymous but he traced it to Mills. It was sent to the Decker Jewelry company, Salt Lake City, and forwarded to Gillette Monday before arrest of Duncan Johnston. The chief testified that in his opinion the letter disclosed nothing of any importance in this case.

Like a man of the sea, Chief of Police Howard Gillette today "picked up" the loose ends of the net of evidence the state is attempting to spread around Duncan McD. Johnston and was nearing the process of "tying them together."

Gillette, star witness for the prosecution and the man who ordered the arrest of Johnston, jeweler and former mayor, was on the stand the entire morning, being questioned by Prosecutor Edward Babcock. Johnston is charged with the murder of George L. Olson, a Salt Lake City jewelry salesman.

Santa's Aides Start Work on Toy Landslide
Twin Falls firemen had a landslide of toys today to fix up in their role as chief assistants to Santa Claus.

No less than seven full truckloads of old and discarded playthings were donated Sunday by Twin Falls residents as five volunteer trucks toured every street in the city from 12:30 to about 4 p. m.

Every Kind
There were toys of every description, from dolls and smaller playthings to 'tricycles and roller skates.

Ferry said this afternoon that his fire-fighters are in need of additional paint with which to make the toys shiny again for the youngsters who will receive them from the Junior Chamber of Commerce on Christmas eve.

The chief said that he had just cleaned up the other toys when these came in.

Boy Scouts assisted the Jaycees and the volunteer truck drivers in Sunday's collection, and Chairman Campbell praised the youths today by declaring "they worked very hard and deserve lots of credit."

The collection was made as part of the Jaycees' Christmas kids' party under general chairmanship of Bob D. Werner.

Two of the five trucks had to go back and collect a second load, Campbell said. Hundreds of local (Continued on Page 2, Column 3)

Italian Colonial Demands May Shatter Munich Pact

MUSSOLINI GETS CHANGE TO TEST NAZI FRIENDSHIP

By JOE ALK MORRIS (Copyright, 1938, United Press)

Has Europe's post-Munich road toward peace reached a dead end? Will Mussolini's quarrel with France knock the props from under Europe's friendship program?

The answer to these questions rests today with Adolf Hitler. His attitude toward the Italian empire in the Mediterranean area has become the big question mark in world affairs as this year of war alarms draws to a close.

Here is the picture: Today Mussolini is demanding his share of the profits of the Munich settlement—the influence in the Mediterranean at the expense of France.

Disrupt Peace Negotiations

Without the aid of his Nazi partner at Berlin, Mussolini could hope to do little more than disrupt peace negotiations with Britain and France. With Hitler's active support, the fascist premier might easily create an unbearable strain in the Mediterranean where both France and Britain have vast interests immediately essential to their existence as world powers.

The Italian-French crisis is a vivid illustration of the complex and uncertain—and most of all—interdependent balance of power in the new Europe. The foundation is the combination of jealously and need for mutual security in which roles are continually appearing. British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain has taken over the task of plugging these holes as they appear, knowing that if he should fail to fill any one of them in time, the whole works would fall.

II Duces Plan

Viewed from the broad background of European developments since the Czech crisis was ended at the Munich four-power conference, Italy's sudden and strange outbreak against France is not out of keeping with Mussolini's reputation as the smartest of dictators.

Less than a year ago, he was in a key position in Europe. He held the balance of power between rising Germany and the alarmed but still unswerving British-French combination. He showed down Hitler to the risks, grabbed Austria and the Sudetenland and dominated the Berlin-Rome partnership. Mussolini gave him real support and came away empty handed.

Makes Bid

The fascist premier is now making his bid before the real test of Italy's share in the new settlement of Europe. He has acted in his usual spectacular manner by sweeping Chamberlain's Munich settlement from French territory as Tunisia, Corsica, Nice and Savoy. He could expect to gain such prizes only by a miracle. His real purposes are less spectacular.

It appears likely that three main factors prompted the fascist leader:

- 1—By a powerful propaganda campaign for French territory to which Italy has no legal claim but in which she has an historical or minority interest, Mussolini might create favorable conditions under which to win lesser concessions from Paris such as granting Belgium the right to the Spanish insurgents or giving Italy a greater share in the Suez canal management and profits.
- 2—By threatening to wreck Chamberlain's appeasement program, Mussolini might persuade Britain to bring pressure on France to grant these lesser concessions.
- 3—By creating a crisis on the eve of the signing of a new anti-war accord between Germany and France, Mussolini could test how far Hitler will go in backing up Italy's demands in the Mediterranean area.

In the long run, Italy's demands will go to great lengths to work out a peaceful settlement. Hitler, busy in central Europe, may aid him directly or indirectly.

BOOM OPENS FOR FDR THIRD TERM

It is believed that congressional opposition will develop to stop him.

Sen. Guffey is not the leader of the Democratic party," snapped Sen. King, D. Utah, in reply to the third term proposal. "The American people never have favored a third term and all moves toward such an objective in the past have been abortive. Precedents set on this issue should be followed."

King is among half a dozen conservative Democrats who supported Roosevelt's third term resolution introduced at Mr. Coolidge in 1928. The others were Sens. Gerry R. J. Glass, Va.; Harrison, Miss. Smith, S. C.; and Gurnea, N. Y. Norris, N. D.

The following "precedent" if they offered a similar resolution against a Roosevelt third term.

Embarrassing Looms

Such a resolution might embarrass some senate New Dealers who did not hesitate in 1928 to oppose a third term. They include: Sen. Barkley, Ky.; Ashurst, Ariz.; McKeeler, Tenn.; Hayden, Ariz.; Neely, W. Va.; Pittman, Nev.; Thomas, Okla.; Clegg, N. H.; Norris, N. D.; LaFollette, Wis.; and Shipstead, Minn. The 1928 resolution was introduced by LaFollette, then a Republican.

Conservative Democratic opposition is almost uniformly opposed now to a third Roosevelt term. Clearing in dispute over a supreme court and government reorganization, wage-hour legislation, pump priming policies and allied New Deal programs have almost directly toward a division of opinion on "Roosevelt for '40." It is believed that it is impossible to support any anti-third term proposal but to insist that it be formally sponsored by Democrats.

So, as could be determined today, Guffey raised the Roosevelt third term banner without consulting Chairman Farley of the Democratic national committee or with the President. Farley has repeatedly said he did not know what Mr. Roosevelt planned to do. The chairmanship is held by the ready to join in the movement to nominate a mid-road conservative in 1940 any time Mr. Roosevelt removes himself from the contest.

ITALIAN PAPERS RENEW ATTACKS

ROME, Dec. 5 (UP)—The controlled Fascist press renewed its attacks on France today and bitterly denounced French "insultations" of Italy's partnership with Nazi Germany was being strained.

Virginio Gayda, who is close to Premier Benito Mussolini, wrote in his latest column in the "Fascist" that the French government, instead of advancing institutions about the Rome-Berlin axis, should remember that her frontier provinces of Alsace and Lorraine are inhabited by 3,000,000 Germans.

Gayda's attack was considered particularly significant in view of the fact that the French government has taken the position that the chamber of deputies demonstration in Berlin that the Italian campaign against France came on the eve of the signing of a new German-French anti-war accord.

Attacks Ordered

Attacks on Italian consulates and institutions in Tunis and Corsica were ordered by the deputies, as a result of shouts of individual Italians (in the chamber of deputies) which were "only expressions of principle and not to be unduly criticized."

Long live Corsica! To the firing post with Mussolini!"

Supreme Court HITS NLRB RULE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (UP)—The supreme court today ruled that the national labor relations board employed faulty procedure in seeking to invalidate the Edson Co., and an American Federation of Labor union.

The high court modified the board order to allow the contract to stand but upheld the remainder of the board order and continued board jurisdiction over utilities which are in nature but service interstate industries.

Refuses Mooney Appeal

The court also refused to permit the petition for Thomas J. Mooney for the full for an original writ of habeas corpus releasing Mooney from his life sentence in Alcatraz prison. Mooney, convicted of participating in San Francisco's fatal 1916 "preparation day" bombing, contended his conviction was based on perjury and an illegal trial.

The NLRB decision was presented by chief Justice Hughes. The case was divided 5-4 in the usual manner.

Court Divided

Justices Reed and Black, appointed by President Hoover, declared that the entire labor board order should have been upheld. Justices Brandeis and Brandeis agreed with the majority but would have gone further to set aside the entire order on jurisdictional grounds.

While overruling the labor board order that contractual relations between the A. F. of L. international brotherhood of electrical workers and non-union workers in the case of the court did allow that portion of the board order to stand which held that the IREW should no longer be recognized as the exclusive collective bargaining agency of Consolidated employees.

Attacks Ordered

Attacks on Italian consulates and institutions in Tunis and Corsica were ordered by the deputies, as a result of shouts of individual Italians (in the chamber of deputies) which were "only expressions of principle and not to be unduly criticized."

The Italian government has taken the position that the chamber of deputies demonstration in Berlin that the Italian campaign against France came on the eve of the signing of a new German-French anti-war accord.

Delator, saying that the Italian government had virtually disavowed the demonstration by the deputies, asked the Corsicans and Tunisians to refrain from further manifestations.

Not only in Corsica itself but in Tunisia and in French cities, Corsicans led yesterday's demonstrations. At Ajaccio, the chief town of Corsica, the demonstrators, led by Mayor and members of the municipal council marched through the city, singing the French national anthem and shouting "Long live France! Long live Corsica! To the firing post with Mussolini!"

Breakfast to Arrive

It was expected that Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet would seek a declaration from German Foreign Minister Ribbentrop in which the Nazi government was not supporting any Italian agitation for French territory.

Supreme Court HITS NLRB RULE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (UP)—The supreme court today ruled that the national labor relations board employed faulty procedure in seeking to invalidate the Edson Co., and an American Federation of Labor union.

The high court modified the board order to allow the contract to stand but upheld the remainder of the board order and continued board jurisdiction over utilities which are in nature but service interstate industries.

Refuses Mooney Appeal

The court also refused to permit the petition for Thomas J. Mooney for the full for an original writ of habeas corpus releasing Mooney from his life sentence in Alcatraz prison. Mooney, convicted of participating in San Francisco's fatal 1916 "preparation day" bombing, contended his conviction was based on perjury and an illegal trial.

The NLRB decision was presented by chief Justice Hughes. The case was divided 5-4 in the usual manner.

Court Divided

Justices Reed and Black, appointed by President Hoover, declared that the entire labor board order should have been upheld. Justices Brandeis and Brandeis agreed with the majority but would have gone further to set aside the entire order on jurisdictional grounds.

While overruling the labor board order that contractual relations between the A. F. of L. international brotherhood of electrical workers and non-union workers in the case of the court did allow that portion of the board order to stand which held that the IREW should no longer be recognized as the exclusive collective bargaining agency of Consolidated employees.

ITALIAN PAPERS RENEW ATTACKS

ROME, Dec. 5 (UP)—The controlled Fascist press renewed its attacks on France today and bitterly denounced French "insultations" of Italy's partnership with Nazi Germany was being strained.

Virginio Gayda, who is close to Premier Benito Mussolini, wrote in his latest column in the "Fascist" that the French government, instead of advancing institutions about the Rome-Berlin axis, should remember that her frontier provinces of Alsace and Lorraine are inhabited by 3,000,000 Germans.

Gayda's attack was considered particularly significant in view of the fact that the French government has taken the position that the chamber of deputies demonstration in Berlin that the Italian campaign against France came on the eve of the signing of a new German-French anti-war accord.

GRAND TOTAL OF TAXES IN COUNTY AT $1,165,769

AGGREGATE LEVY SLICED $120,000 FROM LAST YEAR

Grand total of all taxes to be paid by Twin Falls county residents for 1938 is $1,165,769.74—a reduction of $120,228.40 from the 1937 figure, according to figures compiled today at the county auditor's office.

The grand total places Twin Falls county third in the state for amount of tax monies raised by all units, from the state down to smallest school districts.

Last Year's Total
The 1937 figure in this county was $1,285,998.14. Reduction in the state school tax charge for 1938 accounted for much of the slash in levy.

Ada county tops the state with $1,578,887.37 to be raised in taxes, including payable this month. Bannock county is second, barely edging out Twin Falls county with $1,297,359.88.

Canyon county, including the cities of Caldwell and Nampa, ranks fourth with $990,574.86.

Twin Falls county's $1,165,769.74 tax total includes 74 taxes for the state, county, cities, villages, highway districts, school districts, American Falls reservoir district and for special purposes.

Real Property Leads
Bulk of the taxes will be realized from real property, including utilities. Total levy upon those rolls is $1,082,410.01.

Personal property tax is the other major item, totalling $83,359.73. Of that aggregate amount, $71,283.85 is levied on the regular personal property roll; $2,774.30 on the car company utilities roll; $8,797.82 on the subsequent personal roll and $502.47 paid on 1937 levies.

CITY DECORATION LABORS RESUME

Work toward completion of the downtown Twin Falls Christmas decorations was resumed here as remainder of the necessary equipment arrived. A. S. Gilbert, decorations chairman for the merchants' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, announced this afternoon.

Mr. Gilbert estimated that the comprehensive system of Yule decorations would be completed on downtown streets "by the middle of the week."

Work had to be interrupted about a week ago for various reasons, including the fact that the decoration system this year is almost a complete change and supplies had to be secured. These were ordered where possible through local dealers. Some delay was also occasioned by the fact that property owners had to be contacted to secure permission for placement of the bolts which will hold up the zig-zag streamers of lights on Main avenue and Shoshone street. These streamers will have the effect of a continuously moving chain of Christmas lighting, Mr. Gilbert said.

BOARD EQUALIZES MIGRATORY ROLL

Sitting as a board of equalization for the final time in the present administration, the Twin Falls county board of commissioners will hear complaints this week concerning any possible inequalities on the subsequent personal tax roll.

'Higher Realm' Cited as Salvation of Democracy

"We must live in a higher realm than mere law obedience if our Democracy is to be preserved," President R. H. Snyder of Albion State Normal told more than 200 persons here Sunday afternoon at the annual memorial services conducted by the Twin Falls Elks lodge.

"The rites paid tribute to departed members of the Elks organization, with special tribute to the eight members of the Twin Falls lodge who died within the year."

His Prophets of Gloom
President Snyder, as featured speaker at the observance, called on Americans to refute the "prophecy of gloom" by living in "the higher realm." Those prophets, he said, predict that "we are at the threshold of another dark age."

But the noted southern Idaho educator told his hearers that these gloomy predictions can be made empty.

Good Will and Tolerance
"We may obey all laws and yet fail to administer justice. There is no law that can compel good will, tolerance and unselfish service. The future of the nation will depend not on how faithfully and religiously we obey the laws, but upon the uncoerced qualities of our citizenship."

Pointing directly to the moral of his plea to America, President Snyder told his Twin Falls audience: "The good citizen is the man who uses his own time and money in service to his fellow man."

Twin Falls high school orchestra, under J. T. Bainbridge, provided musical selections at the memorial services and W. Thomas presented vocal selections. Elks lodge officers participated in ceremonies honoring the deceased members. List of the Elks who died in the past year was read. It included John Maxwell, Dr. D. L. Alexander, Dr. W. H. Dwight, Merlin L. Catmull, Arthur Bonning, E. M. Seaton, Frank T. McAuley and Robert W. McCuree.

Carl Gibb, exalted ruler, headed the official staff taking part in the services.

Materialism
Dr. Snyder's address emphasized that "we are living in a culture that is based on materialism." He said significantly: "We have a mania for law-making."

In the realm of freedom of choice, the educator asserted, "our minds go at once to the rights guaranteed to us by the constitution."

America's Salvation
But it is in the third realm—that which cannot be enforced—that Dr. Snyder found America's salvation.

"This is the realm of courtesy, good manners, culture, refinement, unselfish service, spiritual idealism," he said. "No person deserves much credit for obeying the law. Law obedience is one of the requirements of good citizenship, but good citizenship in a democracy means much more."

He pointed out that the good citizen in any community are not the men who live according to the letter of the law but those "who go beyond and render some service to their neighbors."

He admitted that "to live in this higher realm is not easy—it takes courage, it takes thought, it takes intelligence." In concluding, he drew on religious belief:

"Whom does the Savior condemn—not the robber, but the priest and Levite who obeyed all laws with the exception—Whom does the Savior commend—the Samaritan, member of a hated race, who went out of his way to do more than was required of him by law."

Elks memorial service committee consisted of F. C. Sheneberger, chairman; E. O. Rasmussen and W. O. Waltra.

PLANS MADE FOR C. E. YULE PLAY

Preliminary plans for the annual Christmas play and program were made at a special meeting of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor society yesterday afternoon.

the choral speaking section were rehearsed yesterday afternoon. The choral reading will be presented in a candle light ceremony. Music for the Christmas play will be directed by another sponsor, Miss Eunice Eber.

Refreshments for the afternoon were served by a committee of Debra Coussell, Esther Tolbert and Bob Harvey.

The members paid a surprise visit to the Buhl Christian Endeavor society in the evening. John Hassmussen and Patricia Smith presented musical numbers as a conclusion of the Twin Falls group to the program.

KIWANIANS HOME FROM GATHERING

O. P. Duval, retiring district governor of Utah-Idaho Kiwanis clubs; U. N. Terry, district secretary under his administration, and Wilbur S. Hill, president-elect of the Twin Falls Kiwanis club, have returned from Ogden where they attended the annual mid-winter conference, Dec. 2-4.

Twenty-three out of the 24 clubs in the district were represented at the conference, the best mid-winter session ever conducted. During the administration of Duval as district governor, an 11 per cent membership increase was noted, and the attendance record was increased two per cent.

Those attending the conference voiced the opinion that the district's activities had increased 100 per cent during the Duval regime.

The conference, a training school for officers-elect, including secretaries and lieutenant governors as well as club presidents, adopted the slogan, "Youth-Americanism-Safety, the Triple Challenge to Kiwanis."

Incoming district officers are George Lowe, Ogden, district governor; Quill Neuber, Ogden, district secretary; Henry Hall, Helper, Utah; Roy H. Ashworth, Salt Lake City; Guy A. Poulsen, Idaho Falls, and Leonard Wood, Boise, lieutenant governors.

Officers-elect were also in attendance from the Buhl and Filer Kiwanis clubs.

SOLICITOR ADDED TO C. OF C. STAFF

Guy V. Williams, Twin Falls, became associated today with the Chamber of Commerce as special solicitor. President H. P. Fajen announced this afternoon.

Mr. Williams' appointment is effective immediately and is in line with the chamber's new program which has seen the offices moved into quarters with the F. C. Graves realty firm and abandonment for the time being of a full-time paid executive secretary.

Fajen said that results of the new policy already show increased cooperation from businessmen behind a program to boost the city and place the chamber on a sound basis.

MARRIAGE LAW WORRIES OREGON

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 5 (UP)—Romance traveled a rocky road in Oregon today as the state's new marriage examination law developed kinks that troubled everybody from fiancées to physicians.

Not a single marriage license was issued by the week-end in Multnomah county since the law—requiring physical and mental—went into effect Thursday. Other Oregon counties reported similar slumps.

Two obstacles towered before romancers:

Fee Higher

1. The price of getting a marriage license is increased from $3 to a possible $13, with the law adding $5 apiece as a physician's fee for medical examinations.

2. Until today there was a shortage of blanks, on which results of the examinations must be filed. The state board of eugenics hastily mimeographed emergency blanks which the attorney general ruled legal, but permanent forms probably won't be available for a month, Dr. Frederick G. Stricker, secretary of the state board of health, said.

This emergency blank failed to solve the crisis. Margaret Klees, head of the Multnomah county marriage license bureau, told the United Press, "the couples just aren't coming in."

Good Idea But—

Mrs. Klees said she believed the law—passed by a wide margin at the Nov. 2 election—was sound in principle but would encounter difficulty due to the lack of uniform laws in other states.

Several physicians objected privately to the maximum $5 for the law allowed them for medical examinations, particularly since they are required to send the samples to state approved laboratories for testing and the regular charge for testing is $2.50.

However, Dr. Stricker said he believed such problems would be minimized as adjustments of the law were made, and people became familiar with its operation.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5 (UP)—Mrs. Olive Randolph Colby of Kansas City, Mo., today had sued Harold F. McCormick, millionaire chairman of the board of the International Harvester company, for $2,000,000, charging breach of promise.

The complaint, filed in superior court, alleged that McCormick promised to marry her in February and September, 1923, but informed her in December of the same year that he had changed his mind. As result, she said, she suffered "pain, humiliation and loss of reputation."

She gave her age as 51. McCormick is 62.

McCormick, previously married to Edith Rockefeller McCormick and opera singer Ganna Walska, married his nurse, Ada Wilson, 31, Shoshone, Ida., at Pasadena, Calif., last spring.

Man-Hunt Starts At 15 for Girls, Researchers Say

BERKELEY, Calif., Dec. 5 (UP)—The average female of the species starts her "man-hunt" at the age of 15. University of California psychologists said today.

From a study of behaviorism of 350 junior high school students, they found that at 12 girls associate friendship and popularity with an definite thought of later developments—such as marriage. But within three years, they begin to show aggressive tendencies and from then on the quest for a mate is the paramount issue in their lives.

Researchers said that boys of 15, meanwhile, were mature of the attitude of their girl companions. But they did begin to pay attention to such details as combing their hair, and occasionally shaving their shaves.

Jack Schlund bought the barber shop at 127 Shoshone St. and is cutting hair for 25c.—Adv.

2 SKATING RINKS PLANNED IN BUHL

BUHL, Dec. 5 (Special)—Two ice skating rinks are being planned for the centers of Buhl and work was started last week getting them in shape for winter sports. The pond in the Buhl city park was cleaned and drained Tuesday and water turned in Tuesday evening.

Mayor Gail Thompson also announced a second rink was being constructed on Broadway through the efforts of the Buhl Junior Chamber of Commerce. The site was cleared of weeds and rubbish Wednesday and a city grader was leveling the ground preparatory to turning in the water.

FILER AND LOCAL SCOUTS WIN TOPS

A Filer and a Twin Falls troop captured top place in the Twin Falls district Boy Scouts rally at the high school gymnasium here Saturday. The rally was transferred indoors because of rain.

Troop 30, Filer, and American Legion troop 68, Twin Falls, both captured "excellent" ribbons for achieving 350 points or more in the various competitions. L. C. Gillilan headed the Filer results as scoutmaster and J. R. Keenan as scoutmaster of the Twin Falls Legion troop.

Five Twin Falls troops won "anti-factory" ribbons. GREYHOUND

Swift, graceful, and remarkably wise. Ancient Egyptian Greek they regarded him as a symbol of aristocracy. His distinguished lines and proud bearing appear on Egyptian carvings dating to 2000 B. C. Racing has made this breed popular in the U.S.

IT'S THRILLING to watch the flashing greyhound in full flight. But it's important to note that when the race is over he lets up and rests—as the greyhound above is doing now. Though the dog's high-level nervous system closely resembles our own, the dog relaxes instinctively! Like us it is today leads us to ignore fatigued nerves. We're apt to carry on despite increasing tension and strain. The kind to your nerves if you want them to be kind to you. Pause while every now and then. LET UP—LIGHT UP A CAMEL! Let the frequent enjoyment of Camel's mild, ripe tobaccos help you take life more calmly, pleasantly, profitably!

They know how pleasant life can be when they "LET UP—LIGHT UP A CAMEL"

WOMEN'S SHOOTING CHAMPION

North America, Mrs. Lela Hall, says: "Holding a shooting rifle four years straight puts pressure on the nerves. I give my nerves frequent rests. I let up—light up a Camel—often! Camel is so soothing."

DID YOU KNOW:

—that tobacco is remarkably sensitive to moisture? That at one stage, practically all the moisture is removed from cigarette tobacco, and then later just the proper amount is added? That there are more than 4000 different conditioning machines where Camels are made? Camel spends millions to remove all the moisture and the richness of Camel's leaves, more expensive tobaccos.

"A THOUSANDTH OF AN INCH is important in my work," says Charles Dietrich, lowlander. "I've got to concentrate. Naturally, my nerves would be on the spot if I didn't pause now and then. I let up—light up a Camel!"

That mouthwash advertisement was telling you to "ask your best friend if you dare."

March 17, 1921, allies commander-in-chief, was making a triumphant tour of U. S.

It was merry Christmas for new "Irish Free" states created by treaty that climaxed 700-year struggle for freedom.

Joel Priest of the Union Pacific railway introduced himself as the oldest Rotarian in the state, since he was a charter member of the first club organized in Boise. He spoke of the difficulties that railroads have had in recent years, citing the fact that one-fourth of the railroads are now in the hands of receivers.

President Harrison C. Dale of the University of Idaho spoke of the western viewpoint as against that of the east. The success of Idaho people, he said, depends on the "extractive" industries while the success of the east depends on the "fabricative" industries.

Among "extractive" industries he placed agriculture, fisheries, and mining. Giving the response in behalf of the visitors was George Mitchell, Musical numbers were furnished by a trio composed of Betty Pixton, piano; Red Hyde, clarinet; and Carl Olson of Heyburn, cellist.

DAMAGES SOUGHT BY BULLET VICTIM

Coming as aftermath of a farm shooting and a previous district court trial that cleared a Twin Falls woman, suit for $5,000 damages and $67.23 for medical attention and loss of working time filed here in district court today by Est. O. Smith against two women and two men.

Defendants listed in the complaint are Miss Gladys Caudle, Miss Helen Caudle, Harry Miller and John Michaelson. Miss Gladys Caudle was cleared by a jury at the last term of court after trial on criminal charges in connection with the shooting of Mr. Smith. Miller is alleged to be foreman in employ of two men.

Smith's complaint charges conspiracy to breach the contract of employment he claims between himself and the owners of the Kimberly ranch at which the shooting occurred last July 6.

The damages action charges that Miss Caudle wronged Smith in the way he headed for the house after he had asked whether or not the Caudles sisters held a court order to take his household possessions from the ranch residence and pile them near the road outside. The suit accuses the sisters and another woman removed the goods. It charges Michaelson had gotten Smith's two sons out of the house by saying he wished they were his own.

Chapman and Chapman and Leonard Campbell are counsel for the damage claimant.

CUNNING COYOTE MEETS MASTER

BRECKENRIDGE, Tex. (UP) — Ranchers and farmers of Stephens county are praising the anonymous government trapper who rid their flocks of "Double-Peg," a twice crippled coyote that turned savages.

The coyote was caught twice in traps, and left a forefoot in one and a hindfoot in the other. The trapper sharpened the beast's cunning and made it a killer of domestic animals and fowls, with sheep the principal victims. Coyotes ordinarily eat rabbits and other wild game, but the injuries slowed this coyote until it could not cope with the wilds.

His depredations on sheep flocks became legendary, and for two months or more this rald raptor cost ranchers hundreds of dollars. One Double-Peg killed ten or more sheep in a single sortie, apparently for the lust of killing more than for food.

The ranchers' traps remained empty and Double-Peg was the section's most sought prey.

The trapper finally discovered that Double-Peg patronized one secluded water-hole on the Benney ranch. So a trap was set and the trapper waited for the coyote. The trapper never so much as changed clothes during the vigil, for fear that Double-Peg would be wary of a strange man-creature.

The peg-legged killer finally relaxed its vigilance and was trapped on one of its two hind legs. Then killed. The trapper reported to County Agent W. R. Luce, then deputized for other hunts — without even giving his name.

STRIKERS RETURN TO JOBS AT FISHER BODY PLANT

OTHER WALKOUTS ENDED AS UNION, FACTORIES AGREE

DETROIT, Dec. 5 (Special)—Workers in the Fisher Body corporation in Flint went back to their jobs today. They had been on strike since Friday. Last night officials of General Motors settled their grievances in conferences with officials of the United Automobile Workers union. The strike, if it had continued, would have forced the huge Buick plant in Flint to shut down, throwing 10,000 men out of work. Buick has reached the peak of production, and the plant had enough bodies to last only a few days.

Henry Wilson, president of the local, said the union was seeking to replace a piece work wage with an hourly rate. Disliking piece work, he said, 6,000 employees voted 5 to 1 to strike.

Violated Agreement
The company, through Vice President C. E. Wilson, asserted the strike was "in direct violation of our agreement" with the union.
At Kenosha, Wis., the 7,600 employees of the Nash-Kelvinator company and its subsidiary, the Seaman body company, Milwaukee, resumed work as a result of a settlement Saturday of an unauthorized strike of 300 UAW members.
The company dismissed the strikers Friday after they had started a sit-down to support demands for an increase in wages from 22 and one-half cents per hour to $1 per hour. The union's executive board investigated and persuaded the company to withdraw the dismissal and ordered the strikers back to work under threat of dismissal from the union.

Probe Continues
A county grand jury at New Castle, Ind., continued its investigation of inter-union strife which forced the Chrysler corporation assembly plant to shut down for three days last week.

Prosecutor M. M. Edwards said he would demand suspension of the investigation although the dispute was settled Saturday.

Company officials shut off electricity at the dischargers after members of the United Automobile Workers local had barred members of a small American Federation of Labor union. The UAW claims 88 per cent of the plant's 3,600 employees.

The settlement provides that the AFL and UAW (CIO) unions and the company negotiate further.

Mining Man Dies
HELENA, Dec. 5 (Special)—Death last week took Frank Bouquet, a miner of this area for a considerable time.
Bouquet, born Oct. 27, 1869, at Anceal, France, left no known relatives in the United States.
Services were held at the Presbyterian church, with J. O. F. Lodge in charge. Rev. Lehman officiated and burial was in Bellevue cemetery.

Count Felix Arrives at Sun Valley

SUN VALLEY, Dec. 5 (Special)—Count Felix Schaffgotsch, Austrian nobelman-sportsman, arrived at Sun Valley Friday to resume his third season of sporting activity at the famous resort. Schaffgotsch, in the early winter of 1935, was the man who selected the site of Sun Valley. He is at present inspecting the new ski trails on Bald mountain and Proctor mountain, and the rugged area surrounding the recently built Pioneer cabin, eight miles northeast of Sun Valley near the Hyndman Peak country. The cabin, which accommodates eight, will serve as a base for hardy skiers who choose to take ski-mountaineering expeditions into the high areas.

CHICAGO'S STOCK YARDS REOPENED

CHICAGO, Dec. 5 (UP)—The Chicago livestock exchange resumed normal operations today under terms of a temporary agreement reached yesterday by yard officials and striking handlers affiliated with the congress for industrial organizations. The strike had paralyzed the exchange since Nov. 21.
Cattle, sheep and hogs from farms within a 100-mile radius of Chicago began moving into yards last night after the strikers, numbering about 350, voted almost unanimously to return to work. Leaders of the union, the livestock handlers local 507, immediately sent a skeleton force of men to the pens to feed and water the stock. The remainder retiring after the work early today.

The agreement, put in writing by the Union Stock Yards and Transit company after meeting with union leaders under supervision of federal and city conciliators, contained three provisions:

The company agreed to recognize the union as exclusive bargaining agents for the 600 workers in the yards; the company will continue negotiations on hours, wages and working conditions; and the company will put the agreements made in negotiations in writing.
The strikers voted to reserve the right to strike again unless a contract is signed within 10 days.

24TH VICTIM OF CRASH SUCCUMBS

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 5—The fatal toll of the broadside collision of a freight train with a Jordan school bus—24th worst traffic accident—stood at 24 today, following the death of 15-year-old Reta Deckstead from injuries received in the crash.
Miss Deckstead died at a Salt Lake City hospital only a few hours after funeral services had been completed yesterday for 14 other victims of the tragedy. Last night other Jordan high school students and the bus driver who died in the accident were held today.

Funeral services have not yet been arranged for Miss Deckstead. It was feared that the death toll may rise still higher because the conditions of two of seven children still in hospitals as a result of the accident were reported serious. Little hope was held for the survival of Macjane Deckstead, 16, and Ann Webb, 16.

Thousands of persons gathered in the Riverfront Junior high school auditorium and two D. C. church ward chapels yesterday and today to attend the funeral services for the 23 students and bus driver who were killed instantly or died a few hours after Thursday's accident.

New Strike Outbreak Threatens in France

By RALPH HEINZEN
PARIS, Dec. 5 (UP)—A new outbreak of strikes was threatened today as the government prepared to welcome Joachim von Ribbentrop, German foreign minister, due here tomorrow to sign a French-German peace declaration.
Efforts of Premier Edouard Daladier and his cabinet colleagues failed to end a maritime strike which immobilized 33 ships, including the crack liners Normandie, Le France and Paris, at Le Havre and Boulogne.

Dock Workers Threaten
Dock workers threatened today to start a sympathetic strike to support the seamen who struck in protest against the dismissal of some of their fellows, and there were dismissed themselves.
The government dispatched labor inspectors to industrial cities all over the country to order employers to reopen factories which were closed as the result of the abortive one day general strike last Wednesday.

Plants to Reopen
Many plants were expected to reopen during the day, but there was still tension in some cities. Fifty-one textile mills, employing 80 per cent of textile workers in the Lille area, were yet closed. Nearly all metallurgical plants in the region remained shut. One hundred thousand workers were locked out in the Marseilles area. Many arrests were reported in the Valenciennes region.
Labor union leaders complained that as a sequel to the general strike, employers were trying to rid themselves of union leaders in industry, blaming them for alleged violations of collective bargaining contracts.

PURSE TAKEN BY SNEAK BURGLARS

Thieves, probably late Saturday night succeeded in removing a purse from the home of E. E. Ostlander, 1430 Poplar avenue, after poking a hole in the screen, a police report shows today. Nearly $15 was in the purse.

The stolen article, police were informed, was the property of Mrs. B. F. Magel, an evening guest at the Ostlander home. The purse was probably taken sometime after 9 p. m. while the guests were in another section of the house.
No tracks were found outside the house, near the window nor in the room. The loss was discovered early Sunday morning.
