U. S. ARGENTINA AGREE ON DEFENSE PACT

SUPREME COURT AGAIN REBUFS N. L. R. B. ORDER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 (AP)—The national labor relations board today was rebuffed by the supreme court for the second time within two weeks.

The court today declined to consider a labor court appeal from the first circuit court of appeals decision setting aside a board order handed down in a maritime labor controversy.

Like the Consolidated Edison case last week in which the court set aside a portion of a board order today's case involved a controversy between the National Labor Relations Board and the American Federation of Labor affiliates.

Decisions to Listen
Today's rebuffs to the board was not through the medium of a formal opinion as in the Consolidated Edison case. The court merely noted in its formal opinion that it had declined to hear the board's appeal in a case involving the Peninsular and Occidental Steamship Co. No reason for the denial was noted.

The lower court set aside the board order on grounds it was not supported by sufficient evidence. The board had ordered reinstatement of members of the National Maritime Union, a CIO affiliate, who were expelled from the union by the Florida and the Cuban members of the International Seaman's union, AFL, with which the board had a contract.

The company contended the discharges were ordered in fear of future labor trouble. It had contention was upheld by the circuit court.

Gaston B. Means, Noted Swindler, Succumbs in Jail

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Dec. 12 (AP)—Gaston B. Means, noted swindler, master liar, and gifted detective, died early today. He died a prisoner of the government, serving time for defrauding Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean, wealthy owner of the Hope diamond, of $104,000 in connection with the Lindbergh kidnaping.

He was 57 years old and his giant's frame had been withered by an illness extending over several years. He was brought here from the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., a week ago for a gall bladder operation. He succumbed to a heart attack. In his prime, he weighed 230 pounds and very little of it was fat.

The court merely noted in its formal opinion that it had declined to hear the board's appeal in a case involving the Peninsular and Occidental Steamship Co. No reason for the denial was noted.

COUGHLIN STIRS CONTROVERSY ON JEWS' SENTIMENT

CHICAGO, Dec. 12 (AP)—A new controversy centered today around the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin on the matter of religious and racial tolerance.

George Cardinal Mundelein, archbishop of Chicago, formally disassociated the Catholic church from Coughlin's radio utterances.

Frank J. Hogan, president of the American Bar association, denied Coughlin's charge that he had been the "engaged spokesman" of the National Jewish council when he spoke for religious and racial tolerance on the radio yesterday afternoon.

The Brooklyn diocesan union of the holy name society, elected to represent the sentiments of 200,000 members, threatened to boycott the advertisers of a New York radio station which had barred Coughlin from the air. The Jersey City council of the Knights of Columbus also took Coughlin's side.

Blames Jews for Revolution
The controversy centered on whether or not Coughlin traduced the Jewish race when, three years ago, he asserted that Jews had led and financed the Russian revolution and had been in control of Communism. Coughlin maintains that he had condemned Jews as a whole, but merely Communist Jews, and that Jews should join in a fight on Communism. His opponents have charged that he was seeking to arouse anti-Semitism.

Mundelein became the second prelate of Coughlin's church to speak out against his radio utterances. William Cardinal O'Connell, archbishop of Boston did so in 1934. Mundelein's statement was read on a coast to coast network of the National Broadcasting company last night. It declared that Father Coughlin had not authorized to speak for the Catholic church and that his views "do not represent the doctrine or sentiment of the church."

Mundelein had been back only a week from Vatican City where he was received in a number of distinguished audiences last Sunday. It was believed that he had discussed Coughlin with the pontiff. While churchmen doubted privately that he had acted without the approval of the Pope, they pointed out that the weight of his statement was increased by the fact that he acted without his superior's approval. Coughlin's ecclesiastical superior is Archbishop Edward Mooney of Detroit who passes on his radio speeches.

Famed Comedian Admits U. S. Smuggling Charge

NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (AP)—George Burns, famous stage, radio and screen comedian and member of the team of Burns and Gracie Allen, pleaded guilty to smuggling in federal court today a few moments after he was named in a sealed indictment returned by a federal grand jury.

The maximum sentence on the charges listed against Burns in two indictments returned by the grand jury last week is 18 years in prison and a fine of $45,000.

Burns was among several Hollywood and stage figures questioned before the federal grand jury concerning alleged smuggling operations which last week resulted in the indictment of two persons today named Burns, Chapman, former convict, self-styled attorney of the Niagara Falls, N. Y., area, and a woman known as "Ma Honey" or Paula Chybkayna.

The indictments charged that Burns in collusion with Chapman and the woman, aided and abetted in the evasion of payment of duties by smuggling into the United States from the latter foreign goods.

The smuggling investigation reportedly started after a German serving man in the latter house was arrested in the latter house on Nov. 10, 1938 and his wife, however, will come later.

The new arrangement, it was announced, will also permit continued speeding up of the justice service.

Together with the Evening Times late-afternoon delivery, the new set-up will also mean Sunday delivery of the Twin Falls News.

TWO COUNTRIES IN ACCORD FOR WORLD WARNING

By HOBART C. MONTYEE (Copyright, 1938, United Press)
LIMA, Peru, Dec. 12 (AP)—The United States and Argentina agreed today on the outstanding objective of the eighth Pan-American conference.

The agreement is for a solemn, forceful warning to the world by the 21 American nations to tread as on a fly's wing at aggression or any other attempt to subvert American political institutions.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull submitted a proposal to various delegations which seemed drafted in a manner to constitute a definite pact of defensive alliance. Castillo repeatedly has announced that Argentina refuses to sign any pact of alliance.

Developments of the past 24 hours brought the United States and Argentina together again after a short period during which they differed over how far the terms of a defense accord should go.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull submitted a proposal to various delegations which seemed drafted in a manner to constitute a definite pact of defensive alliance. Castillo repeatedly has announced that Argentina refuses to sign any pact of alliance.

However, Castillo informed Hull that Argentina is ready to join a defense accord if it is put in the form of a declaration or resolution of the conference.

Hull therefore was obliged to accept Castillo's viewpoint, which some leading members of the committee feel to be equally as effective as a pact or alliance signed by the American nations.

The United States-Argentine agreement is so complete, it was learned, that Castillo assured Hull that he would not discuss the matter with the conference.

MRS. ROOSEVELT WILL PAY TAXES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today that she would pay income tax this year on all money she has earned for charity.

Despite a treasury ruling that income from her work for organized charities was tax exempt if paid to charitable organizations...

On reading the law, she said, "I came to the conclusion that the work I do is more nearly of the type that should be classified as what would go to charity."

The income from Mrs. Roosevelt's lectures and writings always had gone directly to her and been included in her tax reports.

Under those radio contracts—some with shoe stores and the other with cosmetics manufacturer—Mrs. Roosevelt received $1, and some $30,000 under each contract...

It was the contracts for the benefit of the American Friends Service committee that the American Friends Service committee, in July, 1937, filed Congressman from the Roosevelt's Hyde Park district, disclosed them as an "unethical scheme" to avoid income tax payments.

LOCAL BUILDING ACTIVITY SLOWS

Building operations in Twin Falls during November's chilly weather totaled $9,175, the lowest of any month this year to date, W. H. Edridge city clerk, announced this afternoon.

New dwelling construction during the period amounted to $4,550 while all other new construction totaled $2,250. Repair and remodeling work totaled $1,375.

November's total brings to $351,710 the aggregate for the year to date. With only one month to go it is highly probable that the total for 1938 will not even reach the half way mark of that recorded for 1937 which was $851,465.

SENATOR LISTS 5 REASONS FOR ROOSEVELT 3RD TERM

MONTANA SOLON SAYS FDR BEST WAR INSURANCE

By FRANK McNAUGHTON
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 (AP)—Sen. Murray, D. Mont., suggested a third term for President Roosevelt today and presented five reasons for the prediction that he would win over any Republican candidate in 1940.

"Although I realize it would be a tribute to the man's leadership and credit for him to have to go through," he said, "I really believe it would be to the best interests and welfare of the country for him to serve a third term."

Murray's "five good and compelling reasons" for advocating a third term were:

1. The President's "personal magnanimity and his hold on the people."
2. His sympathy for the problems of all groups, "not of one group but of all groups."
3. His accomplishments since 1933.
4. Danger of "emasculating Roosevelt reforms."
5. His adherence "to traditional American policies in foreign affairs."

Mr. Roosevelt, he said, "is the best insurance we have against getting into a war."

Murray's statement came as speculation on both sides of the third term question increased. Although the President remained silent on the subject, his every move was being watched closely for a hint of his plans.

The most recent stir among those both for and against another term was precipitated by his announcement Saturday of plans to place his name in a special election in a building on his Hyde Park estate.

No Political Significance
 Many persons believed it would imply that Mr. Roosevelt would not run again. But White House attaches said that there was no political significance in the announcement.

Those who tried to read political implications into it, however, argued that the decision to ship the papers to the new building as soon as it is established was an indication that he probably would not be a candidate in 1940. They based this contention on belief that he would not make the papers available to the public while still in office.

Mr. Murray's statement expressed an almost opposite viewpoint from that of his colleague in the senate, Sen. Wheeler, D. Mont. The latter, in a speech in 1940, recently warned that the third term talk would break up the Democratic party and predicted that Mr. Roosevelt would be defeated if he ran again.

Sen. Party "Wreck"
 Others sharing Wheeler's opinion were Sen. Burke, D. Neb., and King, D. Utah, both critics of the President. They believe that a race for another term would "wreck" the party.

However, Sen. Cuffey, D. Pa. proposed a third term during Mr. Roosevelt's Pennsylvania's 72 votes in the Democratic convention.

Murray said that there was "nothing at all" to Wheeler's objections, and that "out in the sticks" in Montana—the President still has the great masses of the people with him.

"Business and industry will be very fortunate if President Roosevelt could be induced to serve a third term," he said, "I don't see how the American people could fail to recognize what he has accomplished for the country and the importance of the continuation of his leadership because of his grasp of our problems."

"He has had courage and justice in his soul, and he didn't straddle. He will go down as our greatest President, and I do not expect such great men as Washington and Jefferson.

5 South Central Counties Face Grasshopper Invasion

MOSCOW (Special)—Five south central counties form one of the "hot spots" in the biggest and most serious grasshopper problem which has yet faced Idaho.

That's the assertion of Dr. W. E. Shull, entomologist with the University of Idaho agricultural experiment station and leader in the federal-state cooperative hopper program.

Based on the 1938 fall egg survey, conducted by the Idaho station in cooperation with the U. S. bureau of entomology and plant quarantine, Idaho will need to spread poison bait on 225,654 acres of crop and adjacent land. For this job 1,224 tons of bait, to be supplied as part of the nation-wide hopper campaign, will be needed. In making an egg survey entomologists count the eggs in thousands of samples of soil from fields in hopper-infested areas. These egg surveys have proved highly accurate in basis for forecasting future hopper populations.

South Central included
 The state grasshopper picture includes four rather serious "hot spots" in which severe injury to crops will be certain unless early control is done. Counties in which the situation is most serious include Bear Lake, Caribou, Franklin, Bannock, Power, and Blaine. In the north central region: Ada and Valley in the southwest; Nez Perce, Clearwater, Lewis and parts of Idaho and Latah in the central region; and Boundary in the panhandle.

In addition to these four "hot spots" there are large areas in which hoppers have reached "threatening" proportions but may not be dangerous until next year and still larger areas, including just about all of the farming land of the state and much of the adjacent land, where hoppers are rapidly nearing the peak of their normal five-year cycle and approaching outbreak proportions.

Dr. Shull says this is the first time in the history of the experiment station's work in grasshopper control that hoppers have threatened on such a statewide basis.

The 1938 hopper campaign will be essentially the same as that for 1936, he explains, except that no more un-mixed ingredients will be given to farmers for them to do their own mixing. Central mixing stations will be established in each county where all of the bait will be mixed before it is delivered to the farmer.

Cash Saving
 Estimates for the 1938 hopper campaign indicate that for every dollar expended in hopper control work approximately $100 worth of farm crops were saved.

Between now and the hatching season, which normally begins in April, Dr. Shull is sponsoring a series of district educational meetings with county agents, county commissioners, and others involved in the hopper program. Now he is sending to officials in each county results of the 1938 egg survey in their county, an estimate of the amount of poison bait needed in 1939, and a general outline of how the campaign should be organized.

"The principal need during 1939 is for widespread cooperation among farmers in scattering the poison bait, particularly in the regions where there aren't enormous populations of hoppers now," says Dr. Shull. "If nothing is done in those large areas this year there is every reason to expect enormous increases and heavy crop damages in 1940."

A major portion of the program will be furnished by the grade school with the four churches cooperating with additional numbers. The program will be given at the high school auditorium.

WENDELL ISSUES $26,500 IN BONDS

WENDELL, Dec. 12 (Special)—The board of the village of Wendell has issued $26,500 worth of bonds of three and one-half per cent to purchase, Childe and company, Boise, and Frank Dalstrom, Boise, in accordance with two ordinances passed by the city officials. Ten thousand dollars worth of bonds were issued for street lighting, water works improvement and fire truck bonds. The remaining bonds are for the refunding of old bonds.

In connection with the water works project, a telegram from D. Worth Clark, congressman, received last week, stated, "WPA advises presidential approval project 02244 in the amount of $5,689 to make general improvements to water system throughout the village of Wendell."

A new American La France fire truck has already been ordered. The third project listed for improvements in the community is a street lighting program. Over $3,000 for each project will be the cost for the new improvements.

U-P ORDERS HUGE NEW LOCOMOTIVE

Purchase of a new 4,000 h. p. Diesel-electric locomotive from the Electro-Motive corporation of La Grange, Ill., subsidiary of General Motors, has been announced by W. M. Jeffers, president of the Union Pacific railroad. Delivery of the locomotive, which will consist of two non-articulated units of 2,000 h. p. each, is scheduled for Mar. 1, according to word received here.

Except for improvements in details and the fact that each of the four engines in the locomotive will have 1,200 h. p. instead of 900 h. p., the new locomotive will have the same appearance and construction principles as embodied in the 5,000 h. p. locomotives now handling the New City of Los Angeles and City of San Francisco streamlined trains. The 5,400 h. p. locomotives have 2,700 h. p. engines in each of three units.

The new locomotive will have an overall length of 141 feet, 6 1/2 inches, and will weigh 605,000 pounds. Mr. Jeffers said the new locomotive will be one of the City of Los Angeles streamliners. This train's observation-lounge car, Mr. Jeffers pointed out, is "The Copper King," the only railroad car equipped with Polaroid "light-controlled" windows and with interior decorations and appointments of copper.

John T. Flynn Says

(Until a successor to the late Rodney Ditcher is named, the column by John T. Flynn will continue to appear in the space of "Behind the Scenes in Washington.")

Another odd statement is that in the depression years we lost 133 billion dollars. Taking 1929 as his base, Dr. Lubin concludes that if we had gone on making what we made in 1929 we would have made 132 billion more than we did make. This he calls a loss of 133 billion.

There were other statements which were desired on the score of illumination and to put it mildly, precision. Dr. Lubin informed the committee that the Bureau of Economic Warfare is not a new pronouncement. In 1929 when economists first began to point out the facts on which this concept of it was little understood by the business world and even as by most politicians.

Marriage Told At Gay Event

Interesting news was revealed at a smartly appointed breakfast yesterday morning, presided over by Mrs. R. E. Schurr and Mrs. Arthur Schurr, at the apartment of the former, 1315 Seventh avenue east.

The 12 guests were apprised of the marriage of Miss Edna Harris to Lawrence Pries, both of Twin Falls. The nuptials were solemnized Thanksgiving eve.

Cleverly worded prescriptions, enclosed in small capsule boxes gaily wrapped in cellophane, were found beneath small Christmas trees which centered the three tables at which breakfast was served.

Breakfast was served at 10 o'clock, and the remainder of the morning was spent socially.

The bride is associated with the Mason Beauty salon.

Present in addition to the hostesses and the honoree were Mrs. Ralph Tullock, Mrs. Hattie Heisky, Mrs. William Russell, Mrs. C. A. Parlier, Mrs. E. E. Matson, Mrs. Richard Dill, Mrs. Dan Sieber, Miss Grace Matton, Miss Mary Walker and Miss Mildred Siren.

Filer Rancher In Canal Race

George Erhardt, pioneer Filer pipe rigger, today became the first announced candidate for one of the five board posts of the Twin Falls Canal company directors.

Erhardt announced this afternoon that he will be a candidate at the elections which will form one of the highlights of the annual meeting in Twin Falls Tuesday, Jan. 10. Incumbent members of the board probably will be candidates for reelection.

Erhardt settled in the Filer area in 1910. He and Mrs. Erhardt are owners of 320 acres in that region. This rancher said he has not sought public or canal office before.

The five candidates with the highest vote will win the board seats.

Post-Nuptial Shower For Mrs. J. O. Colbert

Complimenting Mrs. J. O. Colbert, a charming post-nuptial event was given this afternoon at the attractive country home of Mrs. F. W. Neale. Mrs. Colbert, before her recent marriage, was Miss Myrna Sikes. The affair was in the form of a miscellaneous shower, and the afternoon was spent socially.

Mrs. Neale, Mrs. V. E. Morgan, Mrs. R. K. Alexander, Mrs. Albert Cederburg, Mrs. C. E. Grieve, Mrs. E. L. Rayburn and Mrs. F. S. Cayley were hostesses of the afternoon.

Mrs. E. J. Colbert, mother-in-law of the honoree, was asked to pose during the tea hour. The tea table was especially attractive with a centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums in an ivory bowl, flanked by lighted ivory tapers, and a lace cloth.

An ornamental Christmas tree, sparkling with electric lights, arranged in the living room, contributed a festive holiday note to the occasion.

Present to honor the recent bride, in addition to the hostesses and Mrs. E. J. Colbert, were Mrs. A. C. Victor, Mrs. R. D. City Dreams

CHURCH AFFAIRS DEC. 24 FASTING

VATICAN CITY (UP)—Christmas eve must henceforth be considered a day of "abstinence and fasting" according to a verdict by the Congregation of the Council.

Because of the increased work on Dec. 24, involving increased consumption of food which "because of its quality and quantity is forbidden by ecclesiastical laws."

The bishops suggested that the "abstinence and fasting" limit be moved back to noon of Dec. 24, permitting Catholics to celebrate the "Birth of Christ" on the eve without violating any of the ecclesiastical laws.

To add strength to their argument, the bishops cited Canon 1252, paragraph 3 of the Code of Canon Law, which specifies that fasting ends at noon on Holy Saturday.

The Congregation's reply was categorical. It said that the reasons advanced for the discontinuance of fasting on Dec. 24 "do not seem based on solid facts."

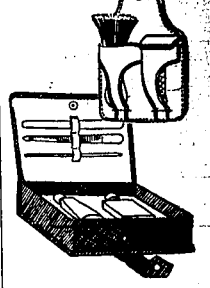

The practice of violating fasting, it added, should be considered an abuse and every effort should be made to discontinue it and particularly by those who seek solace for the soul.

Fasting Exceptions Ploited. The Congregation further pointed out that provisions already had been made for fasting exceptions in Canon 1245, paragraph 1 of the code. Here bishops and priests are authorized to excuse special cases from fasting whenever deemed advisable.

For these reasons, concluded the Congregation, "it is necessary to turn down the request of the bishops. It invites them contrarily to instruct the faithful of another opportunity of obeying the common and general laws of the church."

NEW YORK GIANTS WIN PRO GRIDIRON TITLE

GIANTS GIVE $30,000 AND 2 PLAYERS FOR ZEKE BONURA

New Hero Hailed As Green Bay Is Defeated, 23-17

NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (U.P.)—Ward Cuff, a hard-driving back made of concrete and steel, was the toast of the town today as New York's Gridiron Giants—new world champions of professional football.

They were heroes aplenty out there on the muddy Polo Grounds turf yesterday as the Giants conquered the Green Bay Packers, 23-17, in the National Professional Football league championship playoff. But it remained for Cuff, a virtual unknown when he played at Marquette, to cop the wreath with a smashing tackle that saved the game late in the fourth period.

It was THE tackle of a game so ham-fisted that the crowd of 48,120—largest ever to see this gridiron world series—marveled that flesh and bone could stand up under such punishment. There were other cool-witted players saved some of their hot-tempered mates from swinging their fists in free-for-alls.

It was the game which the boys were leveling all for dollars—not for alma mater but for dollars and cents. And when the Giants' Cliff Hilt, Johnny Dell, Glenn Guard, and Johnny Dell, Glenn Guard, were in a hospital with possible fractures, respectively, to a breast bone and the vertebrae.

The Giants, winners in 1934 and first team ever to take the title a second time since the playoff system between the western and eastern division winners was inaugurated in 1932, were out in front—21-7 when Cuff did his thing.

Halted once on the Glantz 40, the Packers had the ball on their own 37. Archie Herber pitched two incomplete passes and fullback Jackowski could make only a yard through the Glantz line. Herber faded back and dropped a long pass to Cuff.

Cuff charged in from his defensive halfback position just as Beckenbawg led the air on the Glantz 30 and caught the ball. Cliff Hilt hit him. The impact was heard all over the stadium and Becker fell. The ball rolled from his arms and "The Glantz" landed on his own 22. This break seemed to take the fire out of the Packers.

It was the same Cuff who started the Giants on their victory march early in the game when he kicked a field goal from the 14 after Jim Lee Howell had blocked and recovered Clark Blinke's punt.

The Giants added two touchdowns and a conversion to their lead. The game was over to lead Green Bay 14-14. Green Bay took the lead, 17-16, on "Tiny" Engelbrecht's field goal in the third period, but the irascible Glantz came back quickly to score a touchdown on a long pass from Danowski to go into the lead and end the scoring.

Very late in the game, after Cuff's final tackle, the Packers threw the second mistake. Herber threw a 17-yard pass to Bill Gantenbein, and on the Glantz 43 but the official called the play back, gave the ball to the Giants on the Facker 44 and ruled that on the shift, Gantenbein moved out of his end position and became an ineligible player.

The Packers return home today. The Giants will reassemble in Los Angeles in Jan. 2 or 3 to prepare for the season opener at the Coliseum. The Packers will start on Jan. 15.

Ticket Sales Under Way For Cage Tilts

Ticket sale for the University of Idaho-University of Utah basketball battles here on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 26 and 27, was well under way today as members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce opened a drive that is expected to result in a sellout for the two games. They will be played in the Twin Falls high school gymnasium.

Chairman W. O. Cliff, of the Junior Chamber, said that the drive today had announced the following sub-chairmen to handle the ticket sale as the city was sliced up into divisions, with a thorough canvass planned: Harold Lacey, Al Young, Judd Clark, John Sieber, Lewis P. Roberts, E. M. Chaney, W. McRoberts, Fred Stone and Emmett Hood.

Ticket scale was announced today as follows: Adult, for both games, $1.50; 10 cent tax; single game, 75 cents; for school children, both games, 55 cents; for single game, 35 cents.

Preliminaries for both games will be played. Twin Falls basketball is a high school team and will travel on Monday night, and the Bruins and Pirates of Rupert meet on the second day of the series.

Idaho Vandals continue their victory parade. Saturday night Coach Forrest Twagood's outfit won by a score of 47-29 over the Eastern Washington college outfit, with their huge center "Hook" Hilton leading the way by scoring 11 points. He started six feet, eight inches high.

And in Utah, the Redskins downed Weber Junior college by a count of 47-26 in an impressive season opener.

Cage "School" Opens Tonight

The complete "school" schedule is as follows: Monday, Dec. 13—Burley, Tuesday, Dec. 13—Gooding, Thursday, Dec. 14—Twin Falls.

"These schools are specifically designed to aid the officials in getting proper school on the rules," says Roberts. "It is an important school of officials attend one of the schools there will be a uniform interpretation of the rules throughout the district, a factor that will tend to eliminate protests over rulings."

United Press Chooses Armstrong as 1938 "Greatest Athlete"

By HARRY FERGUSON
United Press Sports Editor
(Copyright 1938, United Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (U.P.)—Henry Armstrong, only man who ever held three world boxing championships at the same time, was crowned today as the greatest athlete of 1938 in the United Press annual poll of sports writers representing every section of the nation.

The honor came to the kink-haired, little Negro as a sort of birthday present. He was born 26 years ago today in St. Louis, the youngest of a family of 13 children.

Eight years ago Armstrong was living around the country in a decrepit flivver, fighting for a living in the Armstrong quarters; today he is recognized as a man who may be the greatest fighter pound for pound, that ever lived.

Closely Pressed Armstrong was as closely pressed to this poll as he ever was in his ring against A. Ross, an Ambers or a Garcia. He barely beat out Don Sudge, the great tennis player who turned professional near the end of the year.

Armstrong got 36 per cent of the votes cast in answer to this question: "Who was the greatest athlete of 1938 and why?" Sudge got 30 per cent of the votes and 20 per cent for John Reid, who pitched two consecutive no-hit games last summer. There were scattered votes for Patty Berg, dominant figure in women's golf; Glenn Cunningham, a great runner; Joe Parker, professional baseball and football player; Whizzer White, triple threat man for the Pittsburgh Pirates of the professional football league; Hank Greenberg, the Detroit Tigers' home-run hitter; and Sammy Sneed, biggest money winner among the professional golfers.

Hill Tops in 1937 Armstrong's march to the top started in October, 1937, when he knocked out Pety Sarron in six rounds at Madison Square Garden and won the featherweight championship of the world. As he grew, he found that his natural fighting weight was around 133 pounds and he began to campaign against welterweights and lightweight.

One June 1, 1938, he climbed into the Madison Square Garden bowl against Barney Ross, welterweight champion. What followed was slaughter. Ross, as gallant a boy as ever hit the canvas, took a terrible beating but managed to last 13 rounds. The welterweight title passed to Armstrong on the unanimous decision of the referee and the two judges.

Sterner Test Armstrong's sternest test came this fall when he met after Lou Ambers' lightweight title. They met at Madison Square Garden and Armstrong won a split decision. Not until the next day did anybody else know how hard Armstrong had fought. He had been. Physicians said a quart of blood during the battle.

His featherweight title late this year and concentrated on defending the lightweight and welterweight championships.

Football Termed as "Too Brutal" for French Taste

PARIS, Dec. 12 (U.P.)—It is, Parisians agreed today, a combination of Rugby, soccer, wrestling and bull-fighting and very much like a collision between a bulldog and a pig—much too brutal for the French taste.

"They were talking, and with gesture, of the first American football game ever played in Paris. The game was played by two teams brought over by Jimmy Crowley, the American manager. The American stars beat his New Yorker 23-14 Saturday and the New Yorkers turned the tables yesterday to the tune of 35-0.

Not for French The 2000 fans who got their first taste of football decided it was no game for the French. They considered the huddle the best part of the game.

"It is by far the most interesting part of the game," said a prominent Parisian while the crowd joined in the chorus, making it impossible to hear the signal-caller.

"Wounded" Players The reporter with which two lines checked instructed another writer. He reported that "the field was strewn with wounded players" and the "action" between the two teams regarded as an indication of mutual dislike that made the game seem "more like war than sport."

Other sportsmen, however, regarded it as a combination of Rugby, soccer, wrestling and bull-fighting and "very much like a collision between two animals." One writer declared: "Football would be too brutal for the French taste."

Goes to Giants

ZEKE BONURA

The best information in baseball today was Zeke Bonura, hippopotamus-like first baseman who'll wear the spangles of the New York Giants next season.

Bonura's importance isn't derived from his size or the fact that he'll play for the Giants in 1939 but the fact that he is the key man in a deal which supposedly swung the American league in favor of night baseball.

Other clubs vying for night ball are Cleveland, the last club to withdraw waivers on Bonura, released his claim to the Colorado "Italian" man they couldn't use anyway—in return for Washington's vote for night baseball. The Indians, who want to play seven national games in Cleveland's municipal stadium with its seating capacity of 78,000 had mustered four votes for night baseball.

Two of the most important items on the agenda for the major league meeting, which will be held under the same roof, the Waldorf-Astoria, for the first time in baseball history, are the American league's vote on night baseball and a resolution to increase the player limit from 25 to 28 men. Both seem likely to pass.

The matter of the dead ball again will come up with the two leagues likely to agree on a ball similar to the one used by the National league last year.

Fans Can't See Cardinals in Pennant Race

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 12 (U.P.)—Manager Ray Blades to the contrary, baseball followers here believe that unless the owners of the St. Louis Cardinals do some fast and furious trading this winter in addition to digging deeply into club coffers, the one-time Gas House Gang will suffer its worst season in two decades in the 1939 campaign.

Although the appointment of Blades, which evoked surprisingly little comment from fans, should solve at least the problem of friction between Branch Rickey and club managers and supporters of the club, the Cardinals' prospects pessimistically to say the least.

2 Outstanding Players As the roster stood at the end of last season, the former Gas House Gang had only two outstanding players—Joe (The Duck) Mewick and Johnny Mize. The rest of the pitching staff, with the exception of the club's ace, were neither mediocre veterans or relatively "promising" rookies.

Rickey, vice president and the active boss of the Cards, said he is dicker with two major league clubs for important trades which he avowed would bolster the Red Birds. Cardinal fans, however, immediately classed that statement with the statement Rickey made at the start of last season—that the club was the best in the club's history. It finished 4th.

The Cardinals' offensive next season is expected to be built around Medwick and Mize, but the effectiveness of this pair of stellar batsmen in any future campaign is open to speculation.

Medwick in Slump Although Medwick led the league in batting in 1937, he was in a slump virtually all through the summer which left him completely out of the running for batting honors in 1938. Whether he can stage a comeback is a question that will not be determined until next summer.

Mize, the Cardinals' offensive hitting ace toward the end of the 1938 campaign that made him runner-up in National league batting for the second successive year. His showing for the first three months of the season, however, was not especially good. He was described by some of avoid-impuls and Mize can be expected to pay considerable attention this winter to his physical condition. His fielding, however, has never been outstanding, a fact that detracts from his value.

The western hemisphere now obtains most of its radium from Canada, from a deposit on the shores of Great Bear lake.

Night Games for American Loop Assured by Deal

NAZIS IN LITHUANIA WIN LANDSLIDE ELECTION VOTE

TINY NATION MAY BE RETURNED TO GERMANY'S REICH

By GEORGE KIDD
MEMEL, Dec. 12 (Special)—Kaunas (Kovno), capital of Lithuania, and Kaunas province were put under a state of emergency today as German Nazis celebrated a landslide in Memel territory.

The state of emergency was imposed after a sudden surge of demonstrations by students who demanded the return to power of exiled Antanas Voldemaras, who for years had urged close friendship with Germany. This it was indicated that coincident with the Nazi sweep for German Nazis resident in Memel territory, there was a vigorous new campaign for reorientation of the state's policy on the basis of friendship for the greater German Reich.

What lay in store for Memel territory from Germany after the World war had handed to Lithuania, was uncertain.

Walden lies in Berlin.

Dr. Ernest Neumann, the German leader, commented to the United Press that Memel territory had proved their loyalty to Germany. As to the territory's future, and the possibility that it might be demanded by Germany, he said he did not know. "The decision lies elsewhere"—meaning that the next word, if any, must come from Berlin.

The heavy vote yesterday shows that you can not change people by using night sticks on them as the Lithuanians have done during the last 15 years. They come to us now offering us the same programs that we began for 18 years. Perhaps they have come too late. We shall be no more.

May Return Germany

Dr. Neumann was asked whether the new state would initiate some move to take the territory back to Germany.

"It is possible," he replied, "that something will be done."

A minimum of 26 of the 29 seats in the Memel territory diet was won by the Nazis. The other 3 seats were won by the Lithuanians. The Lithuanian party was divided and submitted four separate tickets, thus dividing the Lithuanian vote.

Emergency Decree.

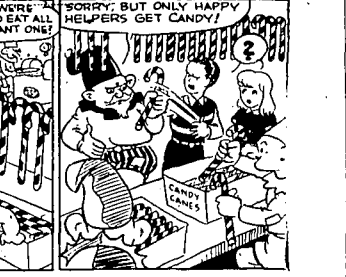

It was the situation in Lithuania proper, however, that became interesting.

The Lithuanian government clamped down a "state of emergency" in Kaunas city and province not long after the polls closed in Memel territory. The government explained its action as the result of "certain disorders, especially among students."

ENGINEERS SEEK CHANGE IN LAWS

Criticizing state laws controlling engineering as "antiquated and operative," the Idaho Society of Engineers approved Sunday a request for passage of model engineering regulation laws by the next legislature.

Dr. L. Smith, assistant engineer of the Twin Falls Canal company, who attended the meeting, said the new law would provide for increasing the licensing of engineers in Idaho from approximately 250 to 500 and make regulations more stringent.

Fifty engineers and architects, many of them delegates from regional meetings held a week ago at Idaho Falls and Moscow, endorsed the bill.

Mr. Smith quoted Raymond J. Briggs, Boise, secretary of the association as saying: "The proposed law will permit the registration of engineers in Idaho from 17 national engineering organizations and 21 states.

"The service table is a handsome antique walnut drop-top, with covered with a lace cloth and centered with an attractive arrangement of knobby and jolly. Red tapers in crystal holders formed the illumination.

A brilliantly decorated Christmas tree dominated a corner of the living room, and Christmas greens lent an air of festivity to the home.

Mrs. Allen, Mrs. W. H. Eldridge and Mrs. Mae Jinks, Twin Falls, and Mrs. O. R. White and Mrs. J. F. Carr, Buhl, were hostesses.

Holiday Theme Prominent in DAR Program

The Christmas theme was reflected in the program and the service appointments as well when members of Twin Falls chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution met for a buffet luncheon this afternoon at the country home of Mrs. G. Allen.

Mrs. J. S. Butler gave an inspirational talk on "The Spirit of Christmas." Mrs. H. L. Hoggatt discussed "Christmas the World Around."

A complete recreation program for the winter, starting probably after Jan. 1, is now in process of mapping, the director announced.

WHOOPIING COUGH VACCINE ARRIVES

The state division of public health, through the district health unit here, is now providing whooping cough vaccine for use of the general public. It was announced today by Dr. Robert Stump, director of the unit.

This vaccine is new in Idaho and it has been in use in other states for 18 months or more because of the small supply and also because it is to this age group that immunization is most important, the director said.

HIGHEST AMONG BABIES

The death rate from whooping cough is highest among the very young. It is responsible for more deaths in children under two years of age than from diphtheria, measles and scarlet fever combined. In the age group up to and including five years, the disease causes as many deaths as any one of the three diseases mentioned.

Eighty-five to 90 per cent of the deaths from whooping cough occur before the age of three years. The disease is fatal in as high as 25 to 30 per cent of the cases. Deaths are due to the complications which include pneumonia, acute heart disease, middle ear infection and convulsion.

REMODELING JOB GETS UNDERWAY

Remodeling of the old Nazarene church is now underway in preparation for occupancy by the recreation division under the WPA program. Director Vernis Richards said this afternoon.

Herman Schuriger, owner from whom the building has been leased, is arranging the remodeling but recreation department workers will assist in calculating and in cleaning the floor and basement. Miss Richards said.

Two new restrooms are being placed in the structure; the stairway is being rebuilt for safety; cement walls will be refinished. The recreation division is also seeking means to furnish the building.

A complete recreation program for the winter, starting probably after Jan. 1, is now in process of mapping, the director announced.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 10 a. m. at the St. Nicholas Catholic church. Interment will be in Rupert cemetery.

Mrs. Meuleman was born in Belgium April 19, 1865. She came to America in October, 1899.

HUSBAND ASKS DIVORCE ORDER

Charging that his wife was cruel by deserting him at various times, Lester E. Johnston filed suit for divorce in district court today (Special) against Mrs. Anna Johnston.

The couple married July 25, 1916, at Pocatello. They separated Nov. 16, 1935. Mr. Johnston asks the court to award him all of the community property, which included 39 1/2 acres of ranch land in Twin Falls county and 68 acres in Jerome county. Rayburn, Reubens and Smith are counsel for the husband.

Tough Luck

KALISPELL, Mont., Dec. 12 (Special)—Schmidt had a little hard luck with his automobile. A flat tire started it. Ozzie and friend stopped to change the tire on a narrow mountain road. The brake didn't hold and the car broke away down the grade. He caught the car as it teetered on the edge of a bluff. He held as long as he could, but it went over and rolled 200 feet down the edge of the cliff.

Ozzie ran two miles to Bolton, hoping to arrive in time to flag train due to come along soon. He arrived at the train pulled out. When he got back to his car, there wasn't much left but scrap iron.

RECREATION PLAN GRANTED PRAISE

Idaho's recreation program, active in Twin Falls, Bury, Rupert, Kimberly and other south central communities, drew high praise from Dr. Woodward, regional director of WPA in 11 western states, according to Miss Wernis Richards, local recreational chief who had returned today from a week's conference at Boise.

Dr. Woodward was "much impressed" by the Idaho program and asserted it made big strides ahead in the past year. Miss Richards said.

Other prominent figures at the week-long sessions were John W. Clonke, superintendent of public instruction; R. L. Roberts, assistant superintendent; O. K. Hine, state WPA director; Frank Elvick, director of the education-recreation division of WPA in Idaho; and Willis Smith, assistant director of recreation.

These officials met Friday with regional supervisors and aides, who submitted outlines of the work underway. The regional leaders were Carl Vanden Poot, Idaho supervisor area No. 2; Don Spaugh, Coeur d'Alene, area No. 1; Tom Gill, Boise, area No. 3; Alva Richards, assistant supervisor for area No. 3; Sandpoint and Moscow also were represented.

The regional leaders, in other conversations during the week, considered training for recreation leaders, standards and rating of the leaders, and revision of the bulletin service.

Man Held for Knife Attack

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ida., Dec. 12 (Special)—James Grinnell, 43, was held in the Mountain Home jail today on assault charges after an alleged knife attack on William Brant, 53, in front of the James Grinnell home Sunday.

Bryant was stabbed twice just below the collar bone with a three-inch blade knife after an argument over an alleged "small thing" from Colton when the two men occupied the same living quarters of Colton and Bryant, according to police, had worked on the same ranch together and during the past weeks had occupied living quarters together. Bryant then moved to the Grinnell home and when he left, there was an argument over possession of several small articles.

Colton allegedly went to the Grinnell home Sunday to "settle accounts."

Former Shoshone Matron Succumbs

SHOSHONE, Dec. 12 (Special)—Mrs. C. W. Pettick, 80, former resident of Shoshone, died recently at Ontario, Calif., according to word received here.

The body was taken to Honesdale, Pa., for interment.

Surviving Mrs. Pettick are three sons, Tom Pettick and Charles V. Pettick, Shoshone; Frank Pettick, Boise, and four daughters.

County Approves December Claim

Twin Falls county today approved the state's December claim for social security contribution totaling $3,049. A smaller supplemental claim will probably bring the December total to $3,200, Chairman James L. Bettes of the board of commissioners said.

The claim approval, commissioners said they understood, concludes this county's payment for 1938.

The social security contributions formed the trouble center that suited the special session of the legislature and appropriation of added state funds for relief. Twin Falls county had been slightly delinquent for October and had not paid the November claim because the state did not present it after $222 from October became delinquent. The local board, following the meeting of commissioners at Boise, agreed to transfer poor fund money from other classifications to handle the December payment.

CANAL MEET SET HERE IN JANUARY

Plans were going forward here this afternoon for the annual election and stockholders' meeting of the Twin Falls Canal company which will be held Tuesday, Jan. 10, in the Idaho theater, it was announced by John Iron, general manager of the company.

Aside from the election other principal items of business will be the adoption of various resolutions and also the reading of annual reports. Such reports will be given by Mr. Iron, James Bottwell, company attorney, and Miss Emma Wickes, assistant secretary.

Five posts will be open on the board of directors, the term of each lasting only one year. It was indicated, however, that present directors will all seek reelection. Board members are F. L. Lih, Hansen, chairman; J. P. Cordes, Twin Falls, secretary; N. V. Sharp, Filer, W. R. Hatfield, Buhl; J. M. Thomas, Cassford.

Approximately 500 stockholders are expected to attend the day-long session.

Respectable Family

He was born in 1878 of a highly respectable and well known North Carolina family. He began a legitimate career there, and, brilliantly educated, brainy, suave, likeable, seemed well on his way to a legitimate success when, in middle life, he turned crook.

His wife, faithful to him through it all, came here to be with him during his illness. She claimed the body will be returned to the family home in Concord, N. C., for funeral services and burial.

Two cars of Utah stove-lump coal will be on the track Monday and Tuesday. It's $2.30 a ton, and it yourself out of the car door. The coal has raised 50c at the mines and we've raised two more cents to get the $2.30 per ton and cutting our profit down to only 50c a ton, whereas we would have a dollar. Here is the heavy we require $2.25 at Utah mine, 42c freight, 25c for shrinkage, 10c for weighing and 50c profit. That totals up to just $2.30.

We bought our first few carloads for $2.70 per ton at the mines. All of these cars will undoubtedly be sold out by Tuesday or Wednesday night. Then we expect to raise the price of the stove-lump coal to $2.80 a ton, right out of the car door. Our delivery charge is 50c right here in Twin Falls.

I would have been mighty glad if the mines would have continued to sell us coal for 50c less; but that's out of our control and I am trying to get the best I can for you. The coal in your bins at a very reasonable price. Among these four cars of coal there will be one car of stoker slack, one car of oil field stoker slack.

Understand me now, that the two cars of stove-lump are on the track right now. I phoned this in at 10:30 a. m. and the stoker slack and the two cars of lump arrived Saturday afternoon, and we're expecting the slack and oil on the track Monday or Tuesday. The slack and oil will cost less than...

Before I got this ad finished, the Union Pacific's agent called and says, "Just your car of stoker slack will be on the track Monday." The oil (the oil of treated stoker slack) will be on the track Monday. The oil (the oil of treated stoker slack) will be on the track Monday. The oil (the oil of treated stoker slack) will be on the track Monday.

Call up as soon as you read this ad if you're interested in the stoker slack or oil, and ask Claud Pratt if they are actually spotted so you can get at them.

1940 Budget Expected to Call for Eight Billions

CONTINUANCE OF DEFICIT IS SEEN BY LEGISLATORS

By LYLE C. WILSON
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 (UP)—President Roosevelt's 1940 budget estimates were expected today to call for expenditures of $4,000,000,000 or more in the next fiscal year and to assure another large treasury deficit.

The budget message will be submitted to the congress during the first week of January, probably Jan. 4, the day after congress meets. Budget plans are carefully kept secret until estimates are read before congress. But upon the basis of known administration plans it does not appear possible that Mr. Roosevelt will be able to bring government costs in the next fiscal year low enough to justify hope for an early budget balance.

Year Starts July 1
 The current fiscal year is budgeted for revenue of $5,000,000,000, expenditures of $6,000,000,000 and a deficit of approximately $1,000,000,000. Fiscal years begin annually on July 1 so that there remains almost seven months of the current period.

In the first five months and eight days of this fiscal year the deficit has increased daily by an average of almost $10,000,000 and from congressional Republicans and Democrats there is a rising chorus of protest and criticism.

There is no substantial prospect, however, that congressional criticism will be translated into affirmative action to reduce government expenditures sufficiently to make any major change in the condition of the treasury.

Would Alter Spending
 Rather than materially cut government expenditures, this new congress, set to office on a somewhat changing tide of public sentiment, is expected to undertake to alter some New Deal spending methods. Conservative congressmen of both parties are active over the expenditure of the budget.

Mr. Roosevelt's control over spending was shifted from the capitol to the White House by the lump-sum appropriation method of Mr. Roosevelt with emergency relief funds. Once those funds were voted, Mr. Roosevelt was able to distribute them largely at his own discretion.

This winter will bring the opposing forces to a showdown on the curbing of government operations, whereby congress not only would appropriate relief of public works funds but would resume the practice of stipulating where and how they should be spent.

Defense Expenditures Up
 Third largest item in the current budget is $1,800,000,000 for national defense. Legislative departments and agencies and the judiciary are to cost $1,217,500,000 this year. And recovery and relief will have consumed more than $2,150,000,000 by June 30, when this fiscal year ends.

Those items probably will bear a different relationship in the new budget to be submitted in about three weeks. National defense then easily may become the most expensive item in government operations. That does not mean that Mr. Roosevelt will ask for $2,000,000,000 or more for defense. But the defense item probably will run up to $400,000,000 or $500,000,000 and recovery and relief may be trimmed in proportion.

WALTZ ENTRANTS WIN THIRD PLACE

Twin Falls entrants in the great waltz contest, semi-finals at Los Angeles last week captured third place, rating above the entries from both Utah and Arizona, officials of Radioland and the Orpheum theater, co-sponsors, said this afternoon.

The local couple, which won the Idaho state waltz championship, was Gladys Glangrey and Don Stoddard. They returned last week with their champions. The trip was made in a Ford V-8 volunteered by Union Motor company.

The Los Angeles waltz pair captured the western zone title and will compete in the national finals in New York City.

REBELS' LEADER SETS ZERO HOUR

HENDAYE, French-Spanish Frontier, Dec. 12 (UP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco, Spanish nationalist leader, has set Thursday as the zero hour for an offensive in eastern Spain in an effort to break the loyalist resistance. It was reported along the border today.

It was said the Franco was leading Moroccan troops on the south Spanish coast, intending to use them as shock troops. Preparations for the battle proceeded on a scale that foreshadowed major fighting.

Pending the offensive, an international conference of the warring sides and guns for the battle, all war fronts were quiet.

Governor-Elect Buys Christmas Seals

In quaint Victorian costumes, two Boise children right out of a 1938 Christmas seal poster visited Governor-elect C. A. Bottolfsen at his office in the Owyhee hotel and sold him two sheets of Christmas seals. The governor-elect, although in vacation, wrote his address in the inaugural to be held Jan. 2, stopped right in the middle of his work to greet the children cheerfully and pose with them. They were Bobbie Shanahan and Roberta Merriman from Central school, Boise.

RED CROSS WILL SELECT OFFICERS

Selection of officers for the Twin Falls chapter, American Red Cross, will form part of the business program at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the city hall, leaders of the chapter announced today.

Every person who enrolled as a Red Cross member in the 1938 drive may attend the session and may vote on matters brought up. Forrest Stewart, Boise, Red Cross field representative in Idaho, will be an official guest.

WENDELL

The first annual community auction sale, held Thursday was marked a success by local citizens and numerous business men of the community, according to Dr. E. L. Simonton and LeRoy Schouweiler, who were in charge of the program. Approximately $700 was netted and the proceeds will go for the finishing of the primary rooms of the M. E. church. Next year the proceeds are expected to go to some other community project.

Mrs. Lydia A. Walters, and Mrs. Sade Weinberg left last week for Long Beach, Calif. They plan to spend the winter there.

Star of the West chapter, O. E. S., held an election of officers Wednesday at the Masonic temple with Mrs. Alta Oates being elected worthy matron, succeeding Mrs. Ida Breim. Other officers are: Fred Eaton, worthy patron; Mrs. Ortha Hoskins, associate matron; Charles Poole, associate patron; Mrs. Miriam Kelly, conductress; Mrs. Betty Plegenbaum, associate conductress; Mrs. Lillian Barton, secretary; Mrs. Anna Kappel, treasurer; and Mrs. Faith Eaton, organist. The worthy matron will announce the appointive officers at the next meeting.

No Sale of Ice Cream, Bread, Beer Under Idaho Blue Law

BOISE, Dec. 12 (UP)—Idaho's blue law went into effect with a vengeance Sunday after remaining dormant for decades and merchants started a campaign of enforcement, in an effort to have the law repealed.

The greatest demand was for cigarette banished from Sunday sales by the state's Sunday closing law, held valid by a supreme court decision handed down last week.

Cigarette vendor machines were sealed with tape. A clerk in one store said he found a package of cigarettes was "stolen" from a council display and 15 cents deposited on the counter.

Citizens who wanted to make Sunday purchases found they could:

- Have a malted milk WITHOUT ice cream.
- Buy a big black cigar but not baby food.
- Purchase a bottle of soda pop but not a glass of orange juice.
- Disgruntled customers stormed and fumed at clerks to no avail. A large sign in one store asked patrons to "ask your state legislators to repeal this silly law."
- Voluntary enforcement by merchants eager to arouse public indignation against the law was carried out in Ada and Canyon counties but no arrests were made. Many stores remained closed.
- Under interpretations of attorneys, no cigarettes, beer, ice cream, bread, butter or cheese could be sold.

Chamber Reviews Status of Relief

SHOSHONE, Dec. 12 (Special)—At the regular session of the Shoshone Chamber of Commerce, a communication from Secretary L. F. Parsons of the state Chamber of Commerce, was submitted. It reviewed the activities of the public assistance body and gave a comparative statement showing the discrepancy existing between the counties that are delinquent in payments to the state on relief funds and those maintaining their own financial status.

Among other items it was cited that the counties of Lincoln, Clark, Camas, Blingham and Jerome had paid during the past year, over $30,000 more to state funds through state levies than they had received. They received no part of federal funds provided, but under a plan took care of their own situation, which led the chairman of the relief fund to state that they had received "mistakes in dryly remarks."

The secretary of the Shoshone club, Ross B. Hudock, was instructed to take the communication which he is to convey to the counties as an informative issue, which was done, though no action further than filing it followed.

P-T. A. Considers Visual Education

SHOSHONE, Dec. 12 (Special)—An interesting program was presented by the Parent-Teacher association last week at the high school building, "Visual Education" being the topic, with Fred Haldridge conducting the exercises.

Three films were used and the practical side of the subject was made manifest in interesting manner.

Prof. Harula led the singing and Betty Lou Locke and Guy Duggess gave musical selections. The sale of Christmas seals was organized, Mrs. Frances Dill, presiding, receiving at the session, and outlined them for future meetings.

SULLIVAN HEADS SEALS PROGRAM

HAILEY, Dec. 12 (Special)—C. C. Sullivan, county superintendent of schools, is directing the 32nd annual sale of Christmas seals in Blaine county.

The program, under the local unit of the Idaho Anti-Tuberculosis Association, is the yearly drive to secure funds to battle the "great white plague." High response is expected from generous Haileites, since this community was among the very first towns in Idaho to get behind the seal sales—winning second place for sales in 1916.

Mr. Sullivan urged every Blaine county resident to purchase the seals now on sale on all Christmas mail. They are available at several locations or can be secured directly at his offices.

MERCURY DROPS TO CHILLY LEVEL

The overcast—and a couple of flurries, too—had become a valued friend again today in these parts.

Unseasonably warm Indian summer weather departed hastily over the week-end after dominating much of last week, and official thermometers slumped to nine above zero this morning.

Forecast of the return to normal winter levels came Sunday morning when the mercury dipped to 18. All day Sunday it didn't get above freezing, and most of the time it was below 32.

Continued cold is forecast for tonight and Tuesday by the USDA weather bureau at Salt Lake City.

Clark Surprised By Gossett Move

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 (UP)—Gov. Barzilla W. Clark of Idaho said last night that he "was surprised to believe" that L. G. Charles Gossett had appointed a new game commission during Clark's absence from the state.

Gov. Clark said he had been under the impression that there was an "understanding" that no appointments would be made during his absence.
