BUSINESS PRESENTS SOLID FRONT ASKING NLRB REVISION

HEADS ASK LAW THAT IS FAIRER FOR CAPITALISTS

(Editor's note: This is one of several dispatches concerning the impending congressional battle over the Wagner act and the national labor relations board, it discusses proposals for amending the law.)

By WILLIAM H. LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP)—Business presented an almost solid front today in a demand for major revision of the Wagner labor act but organized labor was split over the question.

Business interests say they want amendments to make the act more fair to capital. Some propose outright repeal of the statute.

The American Federation of Labor is committed to specific changes which it contends are essential "lest our unions be rendered impotent by an unwholesome degree of the law." The Congress of Industrial Organizations opposes all proposed amendments.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce at its last convention advocated repeal of the law. It said that "if the act is not to be wholly withdrawn we urge that it be structurally amended."

Advocates Amendments

President George H. Davis of the chamber has advocated amendments which would relieve the employer from a responsibility to bargain with unions demanding a closed shop or a check-off system in connection with the sale of goods, for unions, and to require the NLRB to honor employer's demands for elections to determine the proper bargaining representative of their employees.

Although the National Association of Manufacturers had long advocated major changes in the law, its recent convention in New York passed a resolution calling for "co-operation with the government" and resolutions to revise the Wagner act.

AFL Suggestions

The AFL wants these specific changes:

1. Changing the appropriate bargaining unit rule so that it will be obligatory to grant employer the right to select its bargaining representative by majority vote.
2. Curtailment of the board's power to invalidate contracts.
3. Requiring the board to give notice to all interested parties in NLRB cases.
4. Establishment of definite qualifications for examiners.
5. Liberalization of NLRB subpoena rules.
6. Lifting of secrecy rules on NLRB files.
7. Requiring elections within 30 days after petitions are filed, and requiring election of cases within 45 days after the close of taking testimony.

SPUD MEET WILL CHART CAMPAIGN

Campaign to recruit every spud-growing county and community will be charted by the Idaho potato contact committee at a meeting Friday noon at the Hannon hotel.

Poetello, south central Idaho buckers said here today.

The committee was formed Dec. 6 during Idaho Cooperative Potato Growers here. Parrell L. Hansen, Idaho Falls, is chairman. He invited three growers from the Jerome-Twin Falls area to attend, along with three from the upper Snake region and one from Canyon county.

Proposed constitution for the potato growers' group will be submitted at Poetello by Ezra T. Benson, extension division economist.

Most immediate factor which brought formation of the spud group was the depressing price effect on Idaho spudmen from shipment of culls.

Expected to attend the Friday meeting from this general region are Eugene Whitman, Jerome county agent; W. W. Palmer, Canyon county agent; Levi S. Disney, Burley; E. G. Montgomery, Eden, and Joe P. Marshall, Twin Falls.

Mrs. Orvil Ward and children are visiting in Twin Falls with her parents. They expect to leave soon for Salt Lake City to join their husband and father, and make their home there.

Mrs. Henry Norton was given a surprise party recently. Games and refreshments formed the evening entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Curtis returned Sunday from Payson where they were called to attend the funeral of K. L. Curtis's sister.

Lorraine Ward returned to Holm Monday after a few days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Ward.

SHOOTING BRINGS DECREE OF GUILT

Accused by the state of assaulting Mrs. Truena Ellison of Kimberly with a deadly weapon, Charles E. Mackey, 27, Twin Falls, had been found guilty today by a district court jury.

Judge J. W. Porter will pass sentence on Mackey Friday morning, which is also the time set for sentencing Virgil E. Hartley, 22, found guilty previously on charges of attempted robbery.

Mackey, put on the stand by Defense Counsel O. C. Hall, admitted he had been drinking but asserted the .45 caliber pistol went off accidentally. He had gone to the Ellison home at Kimberly to see his estranged wife in early hours of Sept. 10. He drove at once to the sheriff's office and surrendered.

Mrs. Ellison, wounded in the groin, appeared as a state witness. She is walking on crutches.

Defense witnesses included Mrs. Arnelia Traylor, Mrs. Norma Aspy and Joseph H. Brewer, Jr. Bullet witnesses, in addition to the bullet victim, were Al Kinder, Kimberly sport shop owner; Charles D. Ellison, the wounded woman's husband; Dr. Charles H. Heymer and Deputy Sheriff W. W. Loggery.

RESERVOIR GROUP RE-NAMES THREE

Three directors of the American Falls reservoir district today had been elected to their posts following tabulations of the district-wide vote which was cast yesterday.

Re-elected were C. J. Chapman, Wendell; W. H. Spence, Kimberly; and A. A. Davis, Pler. Other members of the board are R. E. Shepherd, Jerome, president; J. H. Barker, Bull, secretary; H. K. Wiley, Blugham county, and P. E. Sawyer, Bliss. Shepherd has served as president of the district since it was first organized in 1923.

Completed tabulations were not available today awaiting receipt of results from the Bliss and Springfield voting places. In each case only 12 to 15 votes are normally cast in either of the two precincts.

Announcement that the three directors had been re-elected was made in Twin Falls by E. B. Johnson, assistant secretary. Johnson said that on the tabulations received, Davis and Spence received 290 votes and Chapman 288. Pete Erickson received four votes in his own Pler precinct.

Gable Asks Wife for Divorce; Lombard Wedding Predicted

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 14 (AP)—Clark Gable asked his second wife, who is 11 years older than he is, for a divorce today and the movie colony believed that he would marry Carol Lombard by February.

The film lover last night made the long-expected announcement that he was asking his freedom from Mrs. Rhea Gable, who was a well-to-do Texas widow when he married her. They have been estranged three years.

Nevada Suit Seen — Mrs. Gable said nothing about Miss Lombard, and no comment was forthcoming from her. But the movie colony took it for granted that their marriage would follow at once when Mrs. Gable gets a divorce.

It was also taken for granted that Mrs. Gable would immediately sue probably in Nevada where it takes only six weeks.

Her suit is expected to follow settlement of differences over their financial affairs which were to be heard by a Los Angeles court today. They were married in 1931, and parted in 1935.

Mrs. Gable declined to file suit without a formal request from her handsome husband. Why she insisted upon this was not known. Her friends did not believe she hoped for a reconciliation.

Gable's first wife, Mrs. Josephine Dillon Gable, a pretty teacher of dramatics, divorced him a year after he signed his first major film contract. She was given credit for discovering him, a telephone line man "trouble-shooter," and coaching him along his road to fame in the movies.

Married Before — Gable's romance with Miss Lombard began a few months after his separation. It has since become one of Hollywood's most publicized. Both steadfastly refused to comment on it.

She has been married before, to the suave screen actor William Powell. They fell in love when the blond actress was his leading lady, and wed in 1931. Two years later Miss Lombard divorced him at Carson City, Nev.

Hoops, My Dear—Distance Dancing

The pool process worked out the past year to good effect. In this county, states County Agent Harry S. Gaul.

Officers elected for the next year were Chester Johnson, president; Dewey Williams, vice-president; Harry S. Gaul, manager, secretary and treasurer; the following were chosen on the directorate, as well as those mentioned heretofore: Joe Jauregui and J. A. ### STANSELL HEADS MEAT UNIT AGAIN

Reorganizing for an energetic year that is expected to see purchase of a packing plant here and active operation of the processing factory, the board of directors of the Associated Meat Producers, Inc., had named its officers for 1939 today and had authorized an executive committee to push the purchase transaction.

I. E. Stansell, Buhl, was re-named president; H. W. Lehman, Buhl, was elected vice-president, and O. H. Albee, Jerome, was re-elected secretary.

The executive committee to handle purchase of the Idaho Packing plant consists of Ed Gregg, Jerome; Ben O'Harrow, Twin Falls, and Mr. Lehman.

J. McHargue, Wendell, was chosen on the advisory committee.

Membership drive will be pushed in all areas of south central Idaho, the directors decided.

The guitar, which is traceable back to 1700 B. C., is one of the world's oldest musical instruments.

CHARGE FILED IN STABBING AFFRAY

JEROME, Dec. 14 (Special)—A charge of assault with intent to commit murder on the person of Woodrow Watts, Jerome, was filed Tuesday afternoon in Probate Judge Herber N. Folkman's court against Charles Keith, 31, who is alleged to have stabbed Watts in an altercation early last Friday morning on a ranch near Jerome. Watts has been convalescing at the Wendell hospital from the serious wounds on his body, head and right arm.

Keith asked for time to consult an attorney before preliminary hearing which has been set for Thursday morning, Dec. 15, at 10 a. m. before Judge Folkman. Placed under a bond of $2,500, which was not furnished, Keith is awaiting hearing in jail.

Toy Tipton, alleged to have aided Keith after the affray in escaping to Mountain Home, will probably be charged with being an accessory after the fact, Prosecutor Frank Rettig said Tuesday.

Both Keith and Tipton were objects of a widespread search by authorities and were apprehended at Mountain Home Saturday. Sheriff James Davis returned the two, after they were arrested in Mountain Home by a deputy sheriff of that town.

In a statement, Keith said he stabbed Watts in self defense. Watts, his brother-in-law, signed the complaint.

MODERNISTIC

If you should happen to see a sleek, powerful looking, streamlined, modernistic vehicle gliding by on the highway, don't be alarmed. It's not an invasion from Mars. Chances are it will be the new Comforator coming to Twin Falls, according to L. R. Henry, manager of the Sawtooth company, 122 Third avenue west.

The new power unit for farm and industry, built by Minneapolis-Moline, will be displayed at the showrooms here Dec. 16 and 17, Mr. Henry said.

VAGRANT'S STUMP COURT SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (UP)—The prisoners would talk, all right, but no one in police court could understand them. Two vagrants, both deaf mutes, told the judge their stories. The judge could not read sign language. Sentencing of the pair was delayed until an interpreter could be found to inform the court the plea was "guilty."

Income Tax Forms Ready About Jan. 5

BOISE, Dec. 14 (Special)—The new 1938 federal income tax forms will be available at the internal revenue office at Boise on or about Jan. 5, John R. Viley, collector, announced today.

All taxpayers in Idaho who filed federal returns for 1937, will receive the new forms without application. All others who were not required to file for 1937, but who come under the law for the current year, must apply for the forms, as these taxpayers are not on the collector's mailing list. Failure to receive forms is no excuse for failure to file returns, Viley stated.

Because of changes in the 1938 law which classifies corporations according to income, and provides different methods of tax computation for each class, two separate corporation tax forms will be issued. Corporations having total receipts in excess of $250,000 or net incomes of more than $25,000 will use the usual form 1120. Those with receipts and net incomes falling under the above figures will use a new simplified form, 1120-A. All banks, corporations organized under the Clingman act, corporations whose principal business is within a possession of the United States, foreign corporations engaged in business within the United States, insurance companies and mutual investment companies must use form 1120, regardless of income.

No changes have been made in the requirements for individual filing. Personal exemption for married couples remains at $2,500 and for unmarried persons, $1,000. All corporations and partnerships are required to file, regardless of the amount of income.

POLE FINALLY GETS FLAG LORAIN, O. (UP)—Police have found finally an expert flagpole-coupler to place a flag at the top of their two-year-old, 92-foot "flagless flagpole." Edgar Ellis, who repairs the school board's flagpoles, agreed to equip the police pole with pulley and rope, paint it and attach a flag to its top.

SUGAR ACREAGE INCREASE ASKED

POCATELLO, Ida., Dec. 14 (UP)—Idaho sugar beet growers today asked the Idaho congressional delegation to demand increased local allotments for sugar beet cultivation and curtailment of sugar imports.

The State Beet association drafted and passed a resolution demanding that congress enact a new sugar-control law.

Sugar now is selling at an all-time low price which threatens the life of the sugar beet industry, the resolution, drawn up at the annual convention here, said.

The growers admitted that more beets were grown in 1938 than could be sold profitably but added that Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace had administered the sugar act poorly and domestic growers were permitted to produce only 28 per cent of the nation's sugar supply. The association represents 10,000 south central and southeastern Idaho growers.

Pioneer Feted By Friends on 91st Birthday

Mrs. O. P. Duvall and B. F. Magel were judged the best waltzers of the evening, and were presented with an award at the conclusion of the prize waltz. Mrs. E. E. Ostrander received the door prize.

BOTT WILL ASK BILL FOR CIVIL SERVICE SYSTEM

MERIT BASIS TO BE SOUGHT FOR STATE WORKERS

BOISE, Ida., Dec. 14 (UP)—Gov.-elect C. A. Bottolfsen intends to introduce to the next Idaho legislature a bill to provide the merit system for all non-elective state officials and employees, he announced today.

The system would apply to every department and would govern selection of personnel on terms of ability and efficiency," Bottolfsen said.

The governor-elect asserted the bill is intended to combat "too great an attention to politics in the selection of state employees."

Seeks Remedy

"After seeing the conditions in this state which result from political favoritism," the governor said, "I have determined to try to remedy them through a system which will not recognize political pull or ambition as a governing factor in employment."

The governor-elect said that a preliminary survey showed it would combat costliness and inefficiency in administration.

Bottolfsen pointed out that 34 states have some form of merit system now in effect and in 14 of these it is applicable to the entire elective system.

By terms of the proposed measures, the system would be in the process of organization by next September and would be in full effect the following January.

Candidates Examined

A board examines each candidate to determine his ability, efficiency, general education, fitness and then selects the highest ranking persons examined.

The governor-elect pointed out that the merit system does not provide for an inflexible term of office. The examinations can be renewed periodically, usually every five years, he said. The five-year period, beginning in the middle of an administration, would serve to remove employment from the scope of any one political campaign, he concluded.

Christmas is Ideal Time to Adopt 'Good Neighbor' Policy

BY MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

(NEA Service)

Let's build this Christmas on the good neighbor policy. Why not do as our grandparents did—send over a batch of hot rolls for Christmas morning breakfast—or a few jars of your special jelly for the Christmas morning toast?

Sweet Rolls
(12 rolls)

Three-fourths cup milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 compressed yeast cake, 2 tablespoons luke-warm water, 2 1/2 cups sifted flour.

Spread for dough: 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup chopped nuts.

Pour scalded milk over butter, sugar and salt placed in a large mixing bowl. Mix yeast with luke-warm water and add to luke-warm milk mixture. Do not overheat the yeast. Sift in half the flour, beat vigorously for 3 minutes. Then beat in the remaining flour to form a stiff dough. Knead on a floured board about 10 minutes or until dough does not stick to unfloured board and is smooth and elastic.

There is no brighter nor any more neighborly Christmas greeting than a holly-decorated box of home-made jelly.

Round dough into a ball and place in a greased, buttered cover and set in a moderately warm place until doubled in bulk. This takes about honey, 1 egg, 2 1/2 cups flour, 2 teaspoons double acting baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup pineapple juice, 1 cup whole bran shreds, 1/2 cup nut meal.

Cream butter and blend with honey. Add well beaten egg. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, reserving 1/4 cup flour for nuts. Add half of the sifted ingredients to egg and honey mixture, blend well. Add pineapple juice and bran shreds.

Mix well, add remaining dry ingredients and nuts. Pour into a 1-quart loaf pan. Let stand 15 minutes. Bake in a slow oven (350 degrees F.) about 1 1/2 hours.

Cinnamon Candy Jelly

A few jars of unusual jelly, arriving bright and early Christmas morning, say with holly and ribbons, is all in the spirit of the new "good neighbor" interpretation of peace on earth to men of good will.

Two and one-half cups (1 pound) 2 ounce sugar, 1 1/2 cups water, 1/2 pound cinnamon candies, 1/2 bottle fruit pectin.

Measure sugar, water and cinnamon candies into saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add bottled fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 4 glasses, 6 ounces each.

There is no brighter nor any more neighborly Christmas greeting than a holly-decorated box of home-made jelly.

2 hours. Place dough on a slightly floured board, roll out until 1/2 inch thick and 12 inches wide. Brush with melted butter, sprinkle with sugar and nut meal.

Roll up as for jelly roll. Cut into 1-inch slices and place out side down in a well-greased baking dish, about 12 inches by 8 by 2 inches. Cover with a clean cloth and let rise until double in bulk. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 25 minutes, or until rolls are nicely browned.

A loaf of bread, itself often a religious symbol, becomes a welcome Christmas morning greeting when perfectly baked and delicately seasoned.

SAWTOOTH AREA SNOW DECLINES

Snow depths in the Sawtooth country showed a decided decline during the week ending Monday, according to the report received here today from F. S. Moore, Sawtooth national forest supervisor.

A week ago both the cumulative fall and the depth remaining on Sawtooth hills and mountain sides were above the figures for the same time in 1937. But the intervening seven days, with no appreciable snowfall, saw both those figures drop beneath 1937.

At Ketchum the depth was three inches Monday, as compared to eight last week and in 1937. Halley showed two inches, which was a one-inch increase over a year ago but more than two inches less than on Dec. 5.

Wendell Auto Tangles With Freight Train

WENDELL, Dec. 14 (Special)—A Wendell motorist tangled with a stationary freight train late Monday night, and came out second-best.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Prince, ran across the street in front of a car driven by Herman Blahop about 6:30 p. m. Monday. The boy sustained a simple fracture of his right leg above the knee. Blahop reportedly tried to miss the boy by pulling over to the left. The child was picked up in front of the car.

George Smith, driving a pick-up truck Tuesday morning, was coming east on Main street when he ran into a truck driven by Ed Grouse, coming from the north, at the Methodist church corner. Both windshields were frosted at the time. Estimated damage of $200 was suffered by the Smith vehicle.

CARNEGIE WIN OVER PITTSBURGH GREATEST UPSET

Sports Editors Pick Tech for Best Surprise

By HARRY FERGUSON United Press Sports Editor NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (UP)—The scene of the greatest sports upset of 1938, in the opinion of sports editors across the country, was a stadium in Pittsburgh, where 61,000 persons were on hand at the dusk of Nov. 6 and read on the scoreboard—Carnegie Tech, 20; Pittsburgh, 10.

They could hardly believe their eyes, and next day the talk wherever open sports are held through the country was of Carnegie Tech had turned the trick against a powerful Pittsburgh team that had been undefeated in its previous 22 games.

Division of Opinion There was more division of opinion over the greatest upset of the year than of any other question asked of sports writers in the United Press annual year-end poll. But when the ballots were counted the results were as follows: Carnegie Tech's victory over Pitt... 23 per cent of the votes cast.

Navy's victory in the Poughkeepsie regatta... 19 per cent. Southern California's defeat of the Notre Dame football team... 13 per cent.

Keyser Victory Solly Keyser's victory over Al Hostak, which brought Keyser recognition from the National Boxing Association as middleweight champion... 7 per cent.

Seaside's triumph over War Admiral in their match race at Falmouth... 6 per cent.

Those voting for Carnegie Tech... 14 per cent.

Lou Nova to Battle Tommy Farr on Friday

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (UP)—The "million dollar baby" promoters have been seeking for three years—a "white hope" capable of standing toe-to-toe with heavyweight Champion Joe Louis—may walk out of Madison Square Garden late Friday night.

The occasion is a 15-round battle between Lou Nova, a young California scrapper known as the "Alameda Adonis," and rugged Tommy Farr, the Welshman who went the full distance with Louis and two former champions, Jimmy Braddock and Max Baer.

Farr is only 23; he has had but few professional fights; his line is mule with either hand and has a profile and physique that would do justice to a screen idol. But he is meeting his first big time on a man with many years experience.

Farr 5-10 Favorite Punch promenade said today that Nova is the "big one" established Farr as an 8-1 favorite.

Such a stout boxing judge as Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney have predicted that Farr will win.

FBI HOLDS SPIES ON THEFT CHARGE

United States, and what the United States navy intelligence has learned about the Japanese navy, military bases, navy extension and mobility plans, and data on the number and power of Japanese ships. This information would be of the utmost value to Russia, federal agents said.

Corin formerly was a Russian consulate official here. He is a Russian citizen and federal agents were reportedly afraid he would obtain bail and flee to Russia. Salch, however, is a naturalized American citizen and can be held here.

Planned Record Sales
It was learned that Gorin supposedly had arranged with Salch to supply confidential records or copies of them from the U. S. naval intelligence department.

Gorin was said to have taken three times by telephone with Soviet charge d'affaires in a line Oumansky in Washington since his arrest Monday night. The last call lasted 14 minutes and originated from the jail here.

Robbery Charges Quashed but Man Faces New Count

Two men accused of robbery won dismissal of charges against them today—but one of the men received a new job, reportedly thereafter from the sheriff's office.

He was taken to county jail to be sent to St. Anthony, where he is wanted on charges of job-breaking.

The pair is Earl James, 27, Denver, and Arthur Simmons, 23, Cumberland, Md. James was released but Simmons must face the job-break charge at St. Anthony, where he had been held for an alleged burglary, sheriff's officials said.

Rejoice Delay
Judge J. W. Porter ordered dismissal of the robbery charges this morning on motion of Prosecutor Edward Babcock after establishing Defense Attorney E. T. Hamilton's objection to Babcock's request for continuance of the case.

James and Simmons were accused of robbing Frank B. Clark, McClatchy rancher, of $100 on the night of Oct. 21 at Kimberly. Officers claimed they also slugged the rancher. The charge was dismissed when Babcock informed the court that Clark is now in Chicago and C. A. Bates, other key witness, is in Colorado.

Last Criminal Case
The case was the last on the criminal calendar for this term. Only one civil jury action is listed and Judge Porter set that for next Monday.

Fremont county sheriff's deputies are to come here to return Simmons to St. Anthony. Sheriff E. F. Prater said.

Irvin S. Cobb, Bob Burns Feud Over Native States

By PAUL HARRISON (NEA Service)

IRVIN S. COBB

HOLLYWOOD—It's fun to sit with Irvin S. Cobb, on a sound stage or at a bar, or anywhere, and listen to the running comments of a great place, and data on the number and power of Japanese ships. This information would be of the utmost value to Russia, federal agents said.

The fat man with the look and gentleness of an old mastiff lives out near the ocean in a big house once occupied by Greta Garbo. The only reminder of her fragile former presence, he says, is a Swedish hot water bottle that she left behind. It's a tremendous thing: holds about a gallon.

Winding Up His Memoirs
Cobb comes into town now and then to do a broadcast or appear in a picture. His big job, though, is finishing the book of memoirs which he began three years ago. It is not a chronology or a cold account of himself, but a book hinged by reminiscences, with one thing reminding him of the next. He wanted to call it "But I Forgot It," but Burton Rascoe beat him to the title. It probably will be called "Mastiff About Me."

Much of his published action has been bought and adapted for the screen, but Cobb isn't a movie writer. "I have sold a few originals though," he admitted. "You see, I'd tell the stories to the producers and cast them as I talked; instead of talking about the boy and girl and the tough old uncle, I'd use Gable and Colbert and Wallace Beery. I'd act it out. And I'd put the manuscript aside, though I was so excited about the yarn that I had had to tell it in my own words."

Great Actor
For 58 years, Cobb never donned greasepaint. But he had told stories all his life, and long ago he had learned to act. He was a master of the small gesture, the wise look, the delayed climax, the quick switch and—most of all—(trilling).

Lately some of the studios have asked him to work on the scripts of pictures in which he would appear. Cobb would smile and write for that guy? "I should say not!"

He likes to act occasionally because there's still a chronology of novelty about it for relaxation. His last picture, though, "Arkansas Traveler," wasn't much fun during 10 days on location near the desert, at 118 degrees. But he liked working with Bob Burns, whom he admires as a philosopher and yarn-spinner. The feud was carried on a bitter feud about their native states, Arkansas and Kentucky.

Burns Was Burned Up
But Burns' most scurrilous cracks about Kentucky were topped by Cobb's account of how he once was traveling through Burns' home county—"not by choice, of course"—when a troop of riders who seemed to be for nothing headed the line and off again over hills and fences, through gulleys and underbrush.

No, the boys weren't hunting foxes, a nutting assured the astonished Cobb. It seems that this was the 21st birthday of a local judge's son, and it was a custom of the region that whenever someone came of age the neighbors would assemble and run him down, and catch him, and put pants on him.

Stories Happened True
Cobb says he is convinced that all the best stories really happen true. Maybe they're very old, and have been modernized many times, but at some time they happened to somebody. The veteran humorist is acquainted with at least part of the history of a certain fable which has been popping up in various forms ever since he can remember. A man once offered to provide documentary evidence that the incident really

White House Annual Social Season Opens

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP)—Another social season in the national capital opened today following the first formal White House dinner of the year.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt entertained 88 guests at dinner last night in the state dining room and received 300 additional guests at a musicale and dance recital in the east room.

The dinner was the annual one for cabinet members and their wives that opens the social season—two months of state dinners and receptions to both sets of about 25.

In the absence of Secretary of State and Mrs. Hull at Lima, Peru, the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Morgenthau headed the list of guests. All other cabinet members, except Secretary of Navy Swanson, who is ill, were present.

Other guests included high government officials, many of them heads of government departments. Among the non-government guests were Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

POPE FEARS NEW NAZI RESTRICTION

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 14 (AP)—Vatican authorities fear that Germany is soon to enact a series of laws imposing restrictions of unprecedented severity on Roman Catholic church activities. It was said today in reliable quarters.

So seriously does the Vatican regard the prospect, informants said, that if the laws are passed the Vatican intends to publish at once a diplomatic "white book" that sets forth more than a year, chronicling relations between the Vatican and the Nazi government over a long period and citing alleged Nazi injustices to the church.

Some significance was attached to the publication by the Osservatore Romano, the official newspaper organ of the Vatican, of an article from the Luxembourg newspaper Wort, the Catholic-conservative organ of the principality.

This article asserted that Hans Kerrl, Nazi minister for church affairs, intended to submit to the Reichstag a bill for the revision of the draft of a law governing church activities.

Melbourne Booms

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Australia's comeback from the depression manifests itself more and more every day. Local building permits for the past year were $32,160,172, the highest for 10 years past. In one month permits were issued for 441 dwellings, 23 shops, 11 factories, 9 business premises, 2 public school buildings and a theater.

Charles Burns, a Twin Falls resident, had often heard the story of a pack rat which always leaves something in exchange for something he has taken away—but he never thought a "human pack rat" would pull any such tricks on him.

Fact that the trick had been committed, however, was revealed by Burns to local police today. He informed them that he came out to start his car but the motor wouldn't turn over. He investigated and discovered that someone had stolen the battery to his machine and inserted in its place one which was "dead."

The theft, he said, occurred some time between Dec. 5 and the present date. The car was parked behind the Baker rooms on Main avenue south at the time.

Statement by Institute

The Smithsonian Institution, discussing the project, said in part: "This three-hour engagement, in which the French colonial troops were handicapped by lack of artillery and the Indians were supposedly directed by English traders, may have had a significant effect, at the time unappreciated, on the Indians' view between the two empires for the possession of the territory between the Appalachians and the Mississippi."

Germans Start Drive Against 'White Jews'

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE, Jr.
 BERLIN, Dec. 14 (AP)—The Jewish League for Human Rights, organ of the picked "SS" Nazi storm troops, opened a drive today against elements which it called "white Jews" and defined as "Aryans with the same lust for profits, the same cunning, the same unscrupulousness in choice of his means as black Jews."

Explaining its drive, the publication said:
 "We have not gone through years of struggle and endured pressure and war agitation to enable these evil vultures to sit down at the table which Jews have just been forced to vacate."

Fascist Drive
 This article coincided with a drive in Fascist Italy against bourgeois elements as part of which every effort was made to make middle class persons appear as the opposite of everything for which Fascism stands. Premier Benito Mussolini's newspaper Popolo d'Italia of Milan said, for instance: "To let the bourgeois live is equivalent to letting the proletariat survive."

 The "SS" organ's article also coincided along with an official Nazi radio broadcast which assured German housewives that there was no food shortage. It was specified that plenty of cabbage and turnips were available.

As regards the cakes which housewives are preparing to bake for Christmas, the broadcast suggested that housewives take flour "which it is felt sure they have stored" and to add saccharine and marmalade to it.

Food Advice
 Because housewives have found it difficult to plan meals, due to a shortage of various kinds of food, they have been advised frequently, by radio and in newspapers, to use those foodstuffs which are plentiful, namely, turnips and cabbage. Sugar may be obtained without difficulty. The advice to use saccharine was suggested because saccharine is cheap. Marmalade was suggested instead of butter. The present butter ration is 200 grams (seven ounces) a week in some areas, 150 (5.3 ounces) in others. Lard is scarce, and obtainable only at rare intervals. Pork and veal are scarce. There is a shortage of fresh fruits, especially apples. Oranges, normally the favorite fruit at this season, are not obtainable at present.

Race Pollution
 Along with the new "white Jew" drive of the "SS" troop organ, the campaign against what it called "black Jews" continued.
 The government forbade Jews to keep homing pigeons and the chief Nazi anti-Jewish publication, Der Sturmer, demanded that Jews guilty of "race pollution" be castrated instead of sent to jail.
 Technically, "race pollution" implies sexual relations between Jews and "Aryans." Actually, in many instances Jews have been convicted in Nazi courts for merely conversing with "Aryan" girls, the courts having found that the Jews charged "had the intention to commit race pollution in their minds."
 There is no explanation of the homing pigeon decree.

Looked at Germany
 "The trouble is that Bottolone and a lot of the rest of us are trying to get away from politics, and you can't do it under a democratic form of government."
 "They got rid of politics in Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy, but what did they get as a substitute?"
 "Now my idea is, that if they really want to remove appointments from politics, they could appoint a commission to appoint a game commission to select a merit system for appointment of the appointments. That would remove the appointments from politics even further—would it?"

Bi-Partisan Control
 Other Democrats expressed the belief that Bottolone was trying to get a lot of Republicans in the race, and then fix it so they could not be removed.
 They pointed out that civil service systems were in effect in several state departments, including public welfare and unemployment compensation and a bi-partisan control resulted.

TAYLOR OPPOSES MERIT SYSTEMS

BOISE, Ida. Dec. 14 (AP)—Attorney General J. W. Taylor and other statehouse Democrats today expressed disapproval of Governor-elect C. A. Bottolone's plan for a merit system for appointment of all state officials.
 "The plan would tend to freeze into office a number of unqualified appointees who once passed an examination but have defects of character or have committed acts that make them unworthy to serve in public office," Taylor said. "It puts no premium on loyalty or honesty or character in office."

Looked at Germany
 "The trouble is that Bottolone and a lot of the rest of us are trying to get away from politics, and you can't do it under a democratic form of government."
 "They got rid of politics in Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy, but what did they get as a substitute?"

 Lecturer for the fourth event in the Town Hall series will be Carl Taylor, youthful Milwaukee "Wop" business executive. Mr. Taylor arrived in Twin Falls this afternoon.
 He will be introduced by Guy H. Oberer, president of the Fidelity National banks of Twin Falls and Piler.

SKIING IS KING OF WINTER—SO GET THE RIGHT OUTFIT

You Can Do Better If Your Equipment Helps, Not Hinders

So you're going to do some skiing this winter? It's becoming the Idaho Winter Rage, to put it mildly, but there are lots of pointers every ski beginner ought to know about his apparel and his equipment.

SKI TIPS

You're about to climb on the "slippery boards" for a spot of skiing.

SKI CLOTHING The jacket should be water-repellent, with plenty of arm and body freedom. It should be wind-proof of smooth finish so that snow and water won't stick to it.

The trousers (and lady skiers wear "one too") should be of the same material but should be heavier in weight because they're subjected to more wear and tear. If you've got a ski spill, or watched somebody take one, you'll know what the club president means. Since the trousers are more often in contact with the snow than is the jacket, they'll need to be more water and wind resistant.

Sing at Waist Trousers should be snug around the waist, eliminating as many open buckles and buttons as possible. "Zipper or flap pockets with non-breakable buttons are best.

There are many styles," Dr. McAttee said. "The newest seems to be the trend to the 'downhill' trousers. These taper from waist to boot. The other types come down to the boot or gaiter and then bulge over there, somewhat like a long pair of knickerbockers."

It's best to have an elastic bottom on a strap to tighten the pants leg above the boot.

There are gaiters or a suitable binding between the top of the boot and the bottom of the trouser leg.

SKI BOOTS The ski boot—well, here's the terse remark the club leader offers you on that:

"Your ski boot is very important—it's one of the most important pieces of equipment you connect the skier with the ski."

And now the boot qualifications: It should be of good, waterproof-resistance leather, with heavy and reinforced sole. Preferably it should have the square-toed toe, also reinforced. The heel should be of the composite type suitable for use of cable binding. The heel should be either of excellent grade rubber or of high grade leather.

There are many types, but if you're ski-wise you'll use the type preferred by the leaders of the ski club here. These are wool-lined mittens, with an elastic top at the wrist. Also good, say many skiers, is a combination of wool mittens covered by leather mittens.

The "winter longies" may be going-out-of-style-for-everyday-wear but not for skiing.

"Good old longies are the ideal undergarment for the skier," Dr. McAttee said. "Get 'em in red or pink 'em in white—that doesn't matter—but get 'em in white beneath the ski trousers."

The skirt for skiing ought to be wool, or perhaps you might wear a woolen sweater, one of the crew-necked and light-wristed type that comes popular now. If you wear the skirt, light-colored are better.

CARE OF OUTFIT How about care of your outfit? The jacket and trousers should be cleaned and waterproofed as needed. The boots should be cleaned of all snow and dirt AFTER EVERY USE.

Now, granting that you're warm in a tent, even while diving head-first into the snow, there's another matter—protection from the sun. In every Idaho ski spot the sun is something to consider because Idaho has real sunshine even in winter.

Guard against snow-blindness by using non-breakable, shatter-proof goggles.

FACE PROTECTION Protect your face from sunburn via the snow reflection by coating your countenance, nose, forehead and your neck with snow ointment or grease. Zinc oxide ointment will do the trick.

YOUR SKIN There are many types and sizes—but it's a valuable tip to suggest you consider your height and weight when buying gear for yourself.

The long ski isn't so easily manipulated or controlled as is the shorter ski. It requires an exceptionally strong ski for all their skiing because it's faster. But for the non-competitor, who does mostly downhill skiing, the shorter ski is better.

TONY RICHTER OF SUN VALLEY suggests as a fairly good general rule

Ice Skating Climbs To New Popularity

Old-time devotees of the silver blades are again coming into their own in this territory and are rapidly gathering many newcomers into the ranks of skaters. Interest in this sport has been greatly revived in the past year or two by the exploitation of the naturally favorable climatic conditions and winter resorts.

Staking sequences and stories built around the figure skaters on the scene are also drawing more enthusiasts each day.

Many Rinks Numerous private and city skating rinks are being prepared for the advent of weather which will freeze the water solid enough to hold up a group of skaters.

The city of Buhl has two rinks in process of construction, one in the city park and the other under sponsorship of the Junior Chamber of Commerce on Broadway. Jerome also has a like project underway.

A number of small outdoor ponds near Twin Falls is being utilized, when solid, by skaters for evening and week-end skating parties. One of the most popular of these is Cedar Draw, two miles west and one mile south of South Park, where the canal backwash, in favor with the younger element is the backyard of the J. H. McMillen residence on Blue Lakes boulevard.

Additional skating facilities are tentatively planned by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the 20-acre recreation grounds, near Hoover field. Definite action, however, has not yet been taken and committees indicated the move probably will not come until January. So-sharpen up the blades on your skates and you'll be prepared to practice figure eights and spread eagles on any one of the innumerable skating surfaces. You might bring a pillow, too, just in case you aren't too expert.

CITY AND JAYCEE ICE RINK LOOMS

Ice skating facilities within easy reach of those who haven't motor cars will be set up in Twin Falls under a city-sponsored WPA project at the Jaycee recreation park.

Bob H. Warner, chairman of the Junior Chamber ice skating committee, announces that a public rink will be constructed as soon as the city's WPA undertaking starts on general improvements and landscaping of the area.

A rink will be arranged and flooded. One of the newest rinks is under construction near Sun Valley by Pauline Butler, who plans to conduct a skating and skiing club.

The city of Halley boasts of two rinks, the newest of which is "White Bowl," just one block west from the main highway below the forest ranger station.

Additional skating facilities are tentatively planned by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the 20-acre recreation grounds, near Hoover field. Definite action, however, has not yet been taken and committees indicated the move probably will not come until January. So-sharpen up the blades on your

SKI STAFF ADDS EUROPEAN STARS

SUN VALLEY, Dec. 14 (Special) — Sun Valley's staff of skiing instructors for the coming winter season which opens formally on Dec. 21 will be the finest in the country. Each of the 10 instructors is from the inner circle of Austrian skiers among the finest in the world and all have competed in championship meets throughout Europe.

An addition to last year's staff who will provide a distinct innovation will be Friedl Pfeifer, one of Europe's foremost racing instructors, who will give advanced skiers lessons on downhill and slalom racing. Olympic Coach Pfeifer, who at 27 has been teaching for 14 years, was skiing instructor to the United States women's Olympic ski team during several months the members spent in Europe in 1936. In 1935 and 1936 he coached the Austrian men's and women's Olympic team.

He also has taught skiing to Prince Nicholas of Romania and last winter gave Claudette Kolbert, the movie star, some pointers on skiing during her European vacation.

Pfeifer has competed in scores of championship races in Europe. In 1936 he won the downhill and slalom events in the Kandahar meet at Saint Anton Am Arberg, one of the world's greatest ski meets. He has been listed by the Federation Internationale de Ski as one of the world's five best skiers.

All-Around Star Another new instructor at Sun Valley this season will be Peter Raschner, one of Austria's finest all-around skiers who has held seven Austrian championships. He specializes in downhill, slalom and giant slalom, and also is a capable jumper.

The other instructors who gained scores of friends among Sun Valley visitors last year and turned out a great many able skiers from raw material, are Hans Hauser, three times open ski champion of Austria, Hans Hauser, his brother, Paul Deschauer, Roland Gschwan, Heinrich Zehentner, Joe Schwalbinger, Al Dingl and Franz Epp.

Skating, a sport that is increasing in popularity at Sun Valley with each season, will be taught by lovely Marie Lannell, well-known skater from Austria. She has given expert exhibitions in England during the past few months and will arrive at Sun Valley in time for the season's opening.

There are 63 army airbases and 26 naval air stations in the United States. The latter figure includes marine and coast guard stations.

Burley Sparkles In Holiday Dress

BURLEY, Dec. 14 (Special) — Santa Claus and his reindeer will soon be tracking down Burley-Way, judging by the Christmas decorations that adorn the streets and squares. The colored lights that sparkle all during the year are unusually appropriate during the festive season, and more strings of lights have been drawn from post to post. At the end of Overland, a huge Christmas tree is lighted on the court house lawn which may be seen from many parts of the town.

Sturdy evergreen trees are placed on lawn posts to lend holiday atmosphere. Stores along Thanksgiving have decorated their counters and buildings with colorful reds and greens as well as the popular blues and silvers.

SKI APPAREL IS THE IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFT FOR MILADY

Here's What the Lady Winter Sports Addicts Will Wear This Season

By JEAN DINKELACKER
"Wool gabardine is the fabric, and springerhosen, or downhill trousers, is the style."
And I'm speaking particularly "out loud" to the Man on My Left. We're part of the mob that's crowding around a particularly intriguing gift counter in a local store—and isn't every one else, these days before Christmas?

To it, buy her a ski skirt, either wool gabardine or whipcord, circular or pleated; with hockey tights or heavy-ribbed-to-the-waist gaiters to wear beneath.
Though I warn you, the ski skirt is verboten unless the wearer is a crack skier, and the spectators expect her to live up to "Flying banner in the breeze," and no awkward spills, if you please.

GOODING PUPILS APPEAR AT CLUB

CASTLEFORD, Dec. 14 (Special)—Supl. Driggs of the State School and two of the teachers, Miss Marshall and Miss Stromberg, together with six pupils gave a very interesting program at a meeting of the Everwoman's club at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Walker in Buhl, Thursday.

Miss Marshall demonstrated the methods of teaching the deaf children and conducted classes with three boys of grade school age. The children were all lip readers and had been taught to speak as well as write.

Miss Stromberg demonstrated the work the school is doing with the sonnets to help the deaf. She used two girls and a boy of high school age. They could hear and name the songs played although totally deaf.

Both Miss Stromberg and Miss Marshall have been training at the Park school for the blind at North Hampton, Mass. This is the school at which Mrs. Calvin Coolidge taught.

Mr. Driggs, who collects bells as a hobby, showed his collection to the group. He had American and French bells, Swiss chimes, chimes from Chinatown, Russian bells, Turkish bells, old English ski bells, bells from one of the old California missions, and bells of many other kinds and many others in his collection.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Leroy Walker, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. E. L. Brackett.

POCATELLO, Ida., Dec. 13 (UP)—Idaho Beet Growers association in annual convention Tuesday drew up a resolution demanding that Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace relinquish control of the sugar trust or enact new sugar control legislation.

The growers objected to increased imports of sugar which they said caused low prices. They re-elected Preston Eisworth of Lewistown, president; M. E. Wilks, Rupert, vice president; Alma Lindholm, Idaho Falls, secretary-treasurer.

SKIER ACTIVITIES FOCUS ON CLUB

Skilling activities of this section of south central Idaho have a definite focal point this year with active organization of the Twin Falls Ski Club.

The club, which includes members from Buhl, expects to cooperate with Shoshone and Gooding clubs and probably with ski groups at Burley and Rupert to coordinate the programs of such units in this sector.

Special insignia
The Twin Falls club has voted to wear special insignia. It will take action tonight on constitution and by-laws, and its leaders will soon go to Shoshone to make officers of the reorganized club there.

Skilling trips to Sun Valley and to the ski sites near the Rock Creek CCC camp are listed as major features of the winter program. It is also probable that the unit will here take part in interclub events planned by the Wood River Ski club at Halley and the Kelchum Ski club at Kelchum.

Offers Meeting Place
Lynn Stewart, manager of the Ferguson hotel, has extended use of a room in that establishment for the club's indoor meetings.

Winter Time is Time for Fun

Winter time used to be the time for "helling up" and waiting for spring. But that's out these days. Skiing has made winter time the time for fun—as this artist's sketch of a Sawtooth scene shows you.

PAULITA SUTTER PLANS NEW CLUB

Big news of the new year for Sun Valley is the fact that on Jan. 1, Paulita Sutter will officially open Sutter's Ski and Skating tea club, perched high upon one of Ketchum's hills.

And Paulita, vivacious dancer-superb, and wife of the impeccable and dignified Herman D. Sutter, matron d'hotel of the Christiana club, is probably more excited about her "opening day" than any first night behind the footlights.

Skating Rink
Because, immediately to the rear of Sutter lodge, perfect replicas of a Swiss chalet, will be a skating rink for the use of guests of her tea room. Up to 25 can get the skating urge at the same time, according to Mrs. Sutter, for that is the number of skaters the rink will accommodate.

The tea room, at one time the summer cabin of Dr. Barrett, has been transformed into picturesque winter quarters by the Sutters, and fascinatlingly and hospitably cover the sitting room walls.

Among them are a William Tell scene and a Swiss picture, gifts to Mrs. Sutter from her countryman, the late John E. Bolliger, sr.

Minute of stature, Mrs. Sutter has an abundance of energy. Before her marriage, she was a professional dancer and also a noted horsewoman. Her professional name was Paulita de la Torre.

Mrs. Sutter, whose interests are numerous and varied, is also looking forward to a busy August, 1939, when she and Mr. Sutter will be distinguished guests at the Golden Empire Centennial at Sacramento.

Mr. Sutter is the great-nephew of General John A. Sutter, founder of Sacramento. Last summer, Mrs. Sutter visited Sutter's Fort, and spent several days conferring with Curator Harry Brown about her husband's famous relative.

General's Sister
The former Swiss dancer, who speaks with an intriguing Swiss accent, said that her husband's grandmother was General Sutter's sister. She left Switzerland about the same time John A. Sutter decided to go to California. She later settled in a Swiss colony in South America where her family developed mining interests.

It is only by coincidence that our name is Sutter, she explained. "My husband's grandmother was named Siegel. Her daughter married a Sutter who was no relation to General Sutter. The daughter's son is my husband."

"It was only two years ago we discovered the relationship. We were visiting in Freiburg, Germany, where some of our relatives live."

"I saw a German picture about General Sutter entitled 'The Kaiser of California.' This made us curious and we began to investigate. A few inquiries of our older relatives proved to us in a hurry that General Sutter was my husband's great uncle."

Many Plans
But in the immediate future, there is the tea room to think about—and the ice pond in the rear—and with shining eyes and a warm cordial she tells enthusiastically of her many plans for the entertainment of her guests.

Mrs. Sutter, who scored a success at the World's fair in Chicago in 1934, was a provocatively entertaining dancer at the Ram club last winter.

Cablegram Tells Of Matron's Dying
BURLLEY, Dec. 14 (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Doman and family received a cablegram last week telling of the death of Mr. Doman's mother, Mrs. W. J. Doman, Liverpool, England. She died following a paralytic stroke after being confined to her bed for the past three months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Doman visited their son and family in Burlley, and their daughter, Mrs. M. C. Olley, Pocatello, during the summer of 1937.

Traffic accidents have increased, but the use of motor vehicles has increased more, so as a consequence since 1925, the death rate based on mileage has decreased 17 per cent.

Hilltop Haven Welcomes Enthusiastic Skaters

Here is where the Swiss Mrs. Paulita Sutter will greet her guests when she officially opens Sutter's Ski and Skating tea club at Ketchum the first day of January. Rustic exterior, the cabin's interior is one of cozy charm, and "atmospheric" with historic objects d'art and souvenirs from her native Alpine land. At the rear of the cabin is a silvery ice-pond where guests of the club may disport themselves at will.

Right Type of Ski Waits You In Shops Here

If you ski—or want to learn to ski—there's just the right type of skis waiting for you among the extensive stocks carried in local stores a survey by the Evening Times showed today.

Principal types of skis offered include pine, maple and hickory. The pine skis, recommended for the beginners and for the youngsters who just want to push themselves around have flat tops with a hole through the section on which the foot rests. Through this hole goes the foot strap.

The maple skis have sole protectors which keep the boot from wearing out on the back. The construction is firm and the skis are used by both amateur and professionals.

Hickory the Best
The hickory skis are entirely sold all the way through. To be worn they must have a ski binding. These skis are principally for those who go in for the sport in earnest—but then must demand the best even when starting—and the best skis anyone.

Lengths of the skis vary from four to seven and one-half feet with a few available at the eight foot length.

If the type of ski selected has a harness then a ski boot is almost a necessity. The ski boots, constructed with a steel shank built in, provide a great amount of protection to the foot in case of accident. Aside from that they have the stiffness to tend to hold the ankles rigid and absorb this is one point to note—a good ski boot, if used only for skiing, will never wear out.

You Need Poles, Too
Also necessary are ski poles, required for balance and also to aid in going up or down hill. But back to the skis again, all "big name" brands are available in Twin Falls stores. Some of these brands follow:
Northland, Girard, Lund, Griswold, Sun Valley, Anderson, Thompson and some 20 others.

This year—more than ever before—skiing will be popular. Local merchants say, when the snow comes, the sport will top all others.

Wielder of Cutlery Finds Self Jailed

SHOSHONE, Dec. 14 (Special)—Ed Grace, hailing from St. Paul, Minn., took on a cargo of high spirits the other night, and as a result, he will remain in jail with members of the sheriff's force for the next 60 days, decided Justice B. E. Todd, Graveland, in addition to asserted intoxication, generally used things in a cafe, wielded a butcher knife and cleaver and frightened a good many people before he was subdued, state the officers.

She's Hostess

Mrs. Paulita Sutter, in the intriguing Tyrolean garb of her native Switzerland, who will preside as the vivacious hostess at Sutter's ski and skating tea club on a hilltop overlooking Ketchum.

SHOSHONE

A session of the Democratic Women's club was held the latter part of the week, and the following were elected officers: Miss Grace Brown, president; Mrs. C. C. Shaw, vice-president; Miss Grace Pease, secretary; Miss Lena Withrow, treasurer. Routine business attendant upon closing up campaign affairs occupied the attention of the session.

Jack and Bill Bulwar, for a long period members of the Sun Valley recreational forces, and associated with other activities at Ketchum, were in town for several days. They stated they are ordered to report for duty on Dec. 15 as have other employees, in readiness for the opening of the sports resort on the 21st.

More snow is desired for the start. Mrs. Lettie Parks and son, Fririk, were visitors here Friday, returning to Halley in the afternoon.

Streets and roadways were somewhat slippery the past few nights, due to fog, and traveling was slow.

Man at Fairfield Shot Accidentally

FAIRVIEW, Dec. 14 (Special)—Dale King, while hunting Sountey, accidentally shot himself in the foot with a rifle.

While the bullet has not yet been removed, he is in a satisfactory condition.

There is a total average of 17,845 miles, approximately, in a modern automobile.

SKI ACCESSORIES ARE YULE MUSTS

The United States came of age quickly in the matter of skiing. And with the nation so with southern Idaho, all the more encouraged by the proximity of Sun Valley, number one ski paradise of the west.

Time was, in fact only about a couple of years ago that it was thought the proper thing to see that wool ski accessories found their way to spots of prominence beneath the Christmas tree.

Fuzineas Out
But fuzineas is out, and the wind and snow repellent fabrics are in and those in the know will have none of the concoctions that sop up the snowy moisture like sponges.

WHY so many people interested in the sport, ski accessories are "Christmas musts" on numerous gift lists this year, and more thought and appreciated contributions cannot be had.

Among the best things you can buy a woman friend whose hobby is skiing:

KNIT BAGS—Water resistant, equipped with bells, to carry sand, powder, lipstick and such.

WIND MITTENS—Moisture repellent, that are over-alls for the knitted mittens and gloves.

WIND MITTENS—Moisture repellent, that are over-alls for the knitted mittens and gloves.

TYROLEAN SWEATERS—Noted for their typically floral motifs, to be worn under certain kinds of windbreaker jackets.

FLANNEL SHIRTS—with zipper or pearl button closings, in dark colors to wear with ski suits.

Gay Socks
SKI SOCKS—Gaily embroidered on the turn-backs, and in many instances matching SCARFS and SPORTING CAPS to complete outfits.

SUSPENDERS—For after-ski clothing made of black velvet with wool flower trimmings.

GOOGLES—Of the unbreakable kind, in a flat case, assuring proper vision against the glare of the snow.

WAXES—Some assortments come in separate little kit bags or canteens.

CAPS—The favorite this year is mannish, made with a visor, has inside protection against the cold, and is fashioned of gabardine.

BONEHEAD
Seniors of Twin Falls high school today are being put to the test—at least as far as English is concerned. All are taking the "Bonehead" grammar examinations today. Results on this examination determine whether the student must take a special course in grammar next semester or will be allowed to select some other subject in place of English.

Erle Jones New Head of Grange
KIMBERLY, Dec. 14 (Special)—Erle Jones was named to head the Kimberly Grange as master at the meeting held Monday in the Grange rooms at the Christian church, Ray Hamilton presided.

Jones and the other officers named will be installed at joint rites this evening with other east end Granges in the I. O. O. F. hall at Twin Falls with Twin Falls Grange as host.

Sarlin; treasurer, Tom Nall; secretary, Roy Haverland; gatekeeper, O. S. Sarlin; Corer, Mrs. Anna Jones; Pomona, Mrs. Edith Brown; Flora, Mrs. Grace Beer; Indy assistant steward, Miss Ella Beer.

SNAPPY APPAREL FOR MALE SKIER

Male skiers this year will be dressed to kill, and by that it isn't meant that they will be heading for a fall.

Rather, they will make the beautiful surroundings of the course in this section pale by comparison, and in addition to that, they will ward off the wintry blasts as though they didn't exist.

A survey of local stores, dealing in clothing for the ski runs, revealed to an Evening Times reporter that the best selling jacket this season in Twin Falls will be waterproof parka adequately termed the "Sun Valley" model.

Windproof
It is windproof and waterproof—snug at the waist—roomy at the shoulders—double front—improved buckles—two button fronts.

Inside the coat are carrying straps which come in handy when the weather becomes too warm but the owner doesn't want to lay the jacket on the ground.

In other words the jackets are "just right." These new jackets are not too stiff—not too heavy—not too expensive. They have the sheared elastic waistband in the back and that one buckle clip in the front.

The next best seller locally, so far as the jackets for men, are concerned, will be the all-wool gabardine. They have a zipper front and also zipper pockets and come—this year—in navy blue and grey.

Gabardine (downhill model) ski parka will go with the jackets. The pants of this type are popular in Europe as well, local leaders say. They are pleated and have the high waistband. They are full at the top but taper to the bottom. An elastic band goes over the foot and in the foot. They will be navy blue.

Cape Top coats are important and they will resemble those seen on the baseball field although they will have higher collars. They will also be provided with ear flaps.

Gaiters (leggings) are of waterproof canvas with a special clip to fasten on the shoe. The gaiters are shaped so that they will not interfere with the ski harness.

Most popular mittens will be of calf skin with the navy blue gabardine back. The leg cuff fits tight at the top and bottom with elastic construction. The long cuff fits tight at the top and bottom with elastic construction.

Field Shirt
A heavy plaid shirt will be worn with the outfit and gentlemen—the louder it is the better.

An accessory which many skiers will want will be the seal neck belts with the tasche on the side—suitable to carry a bottle of coffee or what have you.

Goggles will be black smoked.

BURLEY

Vernon Cunningham and James Ahern have gone to Butte, Mont., to do further landscape artist work since they completed their work on the new Catholic church here.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Emma Lorey, 83-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gillman Severe, Oakley, in Bell Garden, Calif. A sister, Mrs. E. H. Severe, Burley, also survives.

Rev. J. S. Nelson has returned after spending three weeks assisting in the preparation of the Christmas church in Jerome for a new minister. In his absence, the Rev. John McArthur of Jerome and Oakley, Eugene, Ore., occupied the pulpit.

Postmaster Urges "Mail Early" and Offers Rules

Pointing out that during holiday time the volume of mail throughout the United States increases more than 200 per cent, Postmaster M. A. Stronk this afternoon called upon citizens of this area to mail early.

"It is a physical impossibility to handle this great mass of mail matter efficiently and promptly within few days before Christmas," Stronk declared. "Therefore to assure delivery of their Christmas presents, cards and letters by Christmas day the public should shop and mail early."

Do Your Christmas shopping so that you can mail your gifts, greetings and letters to relatives, friends and loved ones at least a week or 10 days before Christmas, according to the distance, Stronk said. "This will not only make it certain that they are received before Christmas day, but will be of great aid to your postal service and to postal employees and enable them to spend the Christmas holiday with their families."

At the same time the postmaster listed "wrapping and packing" rules which should be observed by those sending packages of various nature. Some of these rules follow:

1—All parcels must be securely packed and wrapped. Use strong paper and heavy twine.

2—Umbrellas, canes, golf sticks, should be reinforced their full length by strong strips of wood tightly wrapped and tied or otherwise sufficiently wrapped to withstand transportation. When three or more are tied together, wrapped and tied, no reinforcement is necessary.

3—Hats, Pack in strong corrugated or fiberboard boxes. Ordinary pasteboard hat boxes must be padded. Ladies' hats and stiff hats, easily damaged, should be marked "fragile."

4—Shoes, Pack in strong corrugated cardboard boxes wrapped with strong paper securely tied with heavy twine.

5—Cut flowers, Place in strong suitable boxes of wood, tin or heavy corrugated cardboard. Wrap with tissue to retain moisture.

6—Candies, Enclose in strong outside boxes or containers.

7—Drawings, paintings, unmounted maps, etc., Pack or wrap in strong material to avoid damage. When not flat, roll around a wooden core and then wrap and tie carefully or place in strong pasteboard tube.

8—Sharp-pointed or sharp-edged instruments or tools must have points and edges carefully guarded to prevent injury to clerks in handling or damage to other mail. Cradle suitably or thoroughly wrap so that they cannot cut through the wrapping.

9—Books must have the edges well protected with stiff material and be packed in a wooden or strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard box double lined with the crumbe material.

10—Articles easily broken or crushed must be securely packed or crated or boxed. Use liberal quantities of excelsior or like material in, around and between the articles and the outside container.

Home-Knitted Cap-Mittens Set Makes Ideal Christmas Present

By NEA Service
 NEW YORK—As Christmas draws nearer and nearer knitting needles and crochet hooks click faster and faster. Women who are skillful enough to be able to make Christmas presents for their friends and family are turning out a wonderful array of gifts to wear, gifts for the home and many that are just plain fun to own.

Among the items that will be most appreciated by active youngsters are new scarf, mitten and cap sets. The one shown here is fairly simple to make, can be made in any color combination that strikes your fancy.

Materials required are: 5 (1 oz.) balls of zephyr in main color; 2 balls each of 2 contrasting colors, hereafter referred to as A and B; 1 pair No. 4 knitting pins (3/8 min. size); steel crochet hook No. 2; a set of steel pointed needles No. 2.

Gauge: 6 sts make one inch; 8 rows make one inch.

HAT: Starting at lower edge of crown, with color A cast on 106 sts. 1st row: * K 2, p 2. Repeat from * across. Repeat the 1st row for 1 inch. Break off. Change to color B and continue for another 1/2 inch. Break off. Change to main color and work until piece measures 8 inches. Break off. Attach color A and work for 1 inch. Break off. Attach color B and work for 1/2 inch. Break off. Sew both ends together.

With two strands of color A make a chain about 10 inches long. Draw this chain over and under each stockinette st 1/2 inch down from bound off edge. Try that on and pull the chain tight so that hat fits head. The ends in a double knot.

CROCHETED BALLS: Starting at center with color A 2, turn at rnd: 6 c in 2nd ch from hook. Join with sl st. 2nd rnd: 2 s c in each c around. 2nd rnd: * 2 s c in each of 2 s c, 2 s c in next c. Repeat from * around until there are 24 s c in the rnd. Work 2 rnds straight. Then do 1 s c in every 3rd s c until 8 s c remain.

Stuff the ball firmly with cotton wool. In every 3 c until all sts are worked off. Break off. Make another crocheted ball same as this with color B and sew one to each end of cord.

You can knit and crochet this smart cap, scarf and mitten set for any youngster you know and be perfectly sure that she'll love them. Each piece is quite simple to make.

MITTENS: Right Hand. Starting at cuff, with color A and No. 4 needles, cast on 48 sts. 1st row: * K 2, p 2. Repeat from * across. Repeat the first row for 1 inch. Break off. Change to main color and work for 2 more inches. Break off. Attach color B and work for 1/2 inch. Break off.

Transfer the sts onto a steel needle, having 14 sts each on needle. Hereafter work is done in rnds (instead of rows). Work in pattern straight for 3/4 inch.

2nd rnd: Starting at open side of cuff, work in pattern across 14 sts, then inc. in next 2 sts and complete rnd. Work 2 rnds straight, following rnd: Work across 14 sts, inc. in 1st st of 2nd needle, k 2, inc. in next 2 (thus increasing for thumb). Hereafter work in pattern, increasing 2 sts in every 3rd rnd, until 18 sts are increased for thumb, thus making 2 additional sts between the increases on each increase rnd.

On next rnd work around to within the 18 sts of thumb; then transfer these 18 sts onto a safety pin (to be worked later for thumb). Cast on 4 sts and complete rnd (46 sts in rnd). Hereafter work in pattern, until mitten, when it is 1 1/2 inches from tip of middle finger.

Next rnd: * Dec 8 sts at equal distance apart (make all decreases on the p. sts only). Work 2 rnds straight. Repeat from * 2 more times, making the decreases in the p. of the thumb where decreases were not made previously. Then * k 2, p 2. Repeat from * until 6 sts remain. Then k 2 tog. until all sts are worked off.

Thumb: Transfer the 18 sts of thumb onto 2 needles, pick 4 sts (with 3rd needle around opening of thumb, and continue to work in stockinette at its end), decrease on under side of thumb if necessary until mitten, when tried on, reaches 1/2 inch from tip of thumb.

Then * k 2, p 2 tog. Break from * around Work 1 rnd straight. Now k 1, k 2 tog. Repeat from * until 6 sts remain. Then k 2 tog. until all sts are worked off. Break off, leaving a thread.

about 4 inches long to fasten on wrong side. Having colors to correspond, work a row of s c along side opening of mitten. Lace cord through opening. Sew one ball to each end of cord.

For cord and crocheted balls, see directions of hat.

SCARF: Starting at narrow end, with color A cast on 48 sts. 1st row: * K 2, p 2. Repeat from * across. Repeat 1st row until piece measures 2 inches. Break off. Attach main color and work until piece measures 5 inches. Break off. Attach color B and work until piece measures 6 inches. Break off. Attach main color and work until piece measures 23 inches in all.

Then work border to correspond with border opposite end. Bind off. With a needle and color A work polka dot about the size of a half dollar in the center of the white stripe in border to work polka dot work chain stitch around, and around, giving a solid effect. Then with color B, work a polka dot about the size of a penny on each side of polka dot just made.

Finish other border in same way.

Well-Dressed Skier of 1939 Should Keep Careful Eye on Practicality

By PAUL ROSS (NEA Service)

NEW YORK — Skiing, though a recent comer to these shores, is no longer a simple sport where you put on what-have-you to go sliding downhill on a pair of elongated barrel-slats. Oh, no, no, me hearties. Nowadays, it's a great big set of social customs surrounded by a bunch of them.

And unless a guy wants the indoor sports at the ski lodge to hand him the bird behind his back, he dresses in up-to-the-minute ski wear and in the manner laughingly known as "correct."

Skiing smarties this year are buying streamlined gabardine pants which fit right into the boot-tops without bousing at the ankles. It seems the blouse-effect ski-trouser passed away with last winter's snow. The new pants, with lots of room at the rear, usually contain an abdominal band for support and neatness.

These outfits are smart, yet have the simplicity demanded by real skiers. At left is shown lawn-colored wadded gabardine trousers worn with a new double-breasted cotton poplin jacket that has shoulder pads for skis. The chap at right prefers plus four knickers, in spruce green. His white jacket, also in cotton poplin, is a pull-over and is worn over a green plaid wool shirt. The new elastic back ski gaiters keep out the snow.

Popular colors and slate blue, navy, dark green and fawn. If you can't make a snap at your expert skier, stay away from fawn unless you don't mind spectators' snickers. Knickers of plus-four width are also coming into the picture, but these in any shade are reserved for the boys who are good.

White shoes who insist will stick to woolen or leather jackets, wind-skiers will don lightweight, wind-and-moisture-resistant cotton jackets over a couple of sweaters and a woolen or cotton plaid shirt. These "wind-chasers" come in many varieties. One type is modeled on the sweat shirt, another of similar design has a pouch at the front in which you can keep hanky, cigarettes, and other necessities.

Some models slide-fasten down the front, and one snazzy one closes with a slider on the side. Several varieties have knapsacks built into the backs for holding lunches, wax and stuff. Pockets with slide-fastener closings are popular. Cuffs either button closed or have knitted bands to hug 'em tight. Bottoms hug the body against wind via cord inserts at the knee, ribbed wool bands or just plain, good tailoring. Most models have gussets under the arm-pits for extra room. Colors run to off-white.

To head-gear there is a visored humanism type of cap with ear flaps that come down if necessary. These are of cotton or gabardine and come in colors. Beas' krummels like a knitted forehead band that protects the ears, but leaves the head uncovered. Finally, there's the Tyrolean hat, but amateur skiers should avoid this baby. Some fags wear colored wool, cotton or silk scarves around their throats.

Boots are getting thicker in the soles to compensate for the pull of the new "cables" on skis. Get good boots or your cables will buckle the soles. Cute trick in boots is to wear colored laces. It's intelligent to don gaiters over boots to keep out snow. Hose is long and comes in solid colors. A new type of ski goggle serves either as eye-shade or wind-protector. Very handsome, too. A good ski outfit will do you for tobogganing, skating, and general whoop-te-do in snow. But if you no like there are some beautiful new wool, suede and leather jackets on display, as well as mackinaws. The reversible trend which hit tops once has invaded the jacket field and you can now get 'em with wool or gabardine insides and leather or suede outsides.

The bush coat that is popular for summer wear has been transposed to a winter setting and appears in leather, suede and wool. Mackinaw makers recently introduced a "dicky" or rudimentary vest in the neck opening of their product. This protects your chest and looks very nice.

Man, with the brain he has, would have advanced but little if he had not been able to work with his hands, and the opposable thumb, which enables him to use the delicate instruments that he constructs, must be given credit with the brain.

While this ski meet is restricted to undergraduate college skiers, scores will be kept for the school contestants. Competitors are being housed in the new skier's chalet, a recently completed unit of the Challenger Inn which sleeps 80 persons in 20 rooms, each equipped with four bunks. It was built for the express purpose of accommodating skiers in the four annual ski meets held each winter season at Sun Valley.

The intercollegiate meet will be held every year during Christmas week at Sun Valley, according to present plans of the Sun Valley Ski club. Arrangements for the tournament will be handled by the Executive Officer, acting resident secretary of the club, assisted by W. Darroch U. S. Olympic team skier and a veteran in ski competitions throughout the world.
