Speeding Auto Crashes Near Here; Trio Killed

Aged Sisters And Brother Die in Mishap

Excessive speed today was given as cause of an automobile accident which Sunday morning took the lives of three aged Las Vegas, Nev., and Emmett residents, when the machine in which they were riding left highway 93 near Rogerson and turned over and over until it came to rest approximately 240 feet from the point where it left the road.

The dead:

Mrs. Nellie Reader, 66, Las Vegas, Nev.
Mrs. Mabel Knight, 62, Las Vegas, Nev.
Russell Allen, 70, Emmett, Idaho.

All were members of one family, Mrs. Allen being a sister of the two women. The party, according to State Traffic Officer V. K. Barron who investigated, was en route from Las Vegas to Emmett, Idaho where Mr. Allen resided. They left Las Vegas Saturday and are believed to have spent Sunday night at Wells, leaving there shortly after 9 a. m. Sunday. The tragic mishap occurred at about 11 a. m.

Srs. Allen and Knight, en route from Nevada to Boise, were first on the scene after the accident. They stopped to get gasoline before continuing to Boise, but he was first stopped by fresh tracks leaving the highway. Following the tracks with his eye he noticed the car several hundred feet from the road, and he saw the three people lying on the highway. Personal effects, he said, were scattered over a large area. He said Allen's body had been thrown 40 feet and that of Mrs. Reader, 18 feet.

The unknown motorist immediately contacted Deputy Wail Snyder at Rogerson who in turn informed Twin Falls authorities. Aside from Barron, the machine was taken to investigate the crash included former Sheriff T. T. Plaster, Dr. James W. Green, county coroner, Dr. George C. Halley, former coroner, and Deputy Snyder.

High Speed

The three elderly persons, according to Barron, were traveling in a 1928 Chevrolet which was evidently driven at high speed. He placed the speed of the machine at the time of the accident in excess of 70 miles an hour. The road was straight at the point where the car left the highway and the surrounding country was covered with one and one-half inch snow, but little remained on the highway.

The car was demolished. The bodies of the three were taken to the Twin Falls mortuary in Twin Falls.

Brother and Sister Here

Frank Allen, of Emmett, Utah, a brother of the man killed in the mishap, arrived here from Utah this morning. Also arriving here was Earl Allen, a son of the deceased. The son resides in Emmett.

The relatives said that arrangements were under way to take the bodies to their homes.

Harrington Demands Greater WPA Funds

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (U.P.)—Works Progress Administrator Francis C. Harrington, opening an administration fight to restore the $150,000,000 slashed from the relief bill by the house, told a senate subcommittee today that $875,000,000 is the minimum needed by WPA for the next five months.

Unsuccessful

Harrington, appearing before an executive session of the senate appropriations subcommittee asked that the relief deficiency bill be restored to the $875,000,000 requested by President Roosevelt. As passed by the house, the bill provided only $725,000,000.

"Nothing has happened since I appeared before the house appropriations committee to change my views on the question of relief funds," Harrington said. He asked the house group for $875,000,000.

See Senate Approval

Senators generally predicted that the senate would support house request to accede to the administration's estimate. Some privately expressed desire to make a further reduction in WPA funds.

Harrington and Corrington Gitt, assistant WPA administrator, were asked to continue their testimony later today. The subcommittee hoped to report the bill to the full committee by Wednesday.

See Carl A. Hatch, D. N. M., introduced several proposed amendments to the relief bill to divert monies from WPA. He had the support of two senate committees—the Sheppard campaign expenditures committee and the Payne committee on unemployment and relief.

Hatch Amendments

The Hatch amendments would:

1. Prohibit solicitation of funds for political purposes from WPA personnel or any person receiving relief.
2. Make it unlawful for any person to offer a reward for political activity to WPA workers.
3. Penalize persons attempting to intimidate or threaten WPA workers.
4. Make civil service rules against political activity apply to the relief bill.

PROBE RESUMES ON MONOPOLIES OF U. S. PATENTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (U.P.)—The national monopoly committee resumed public hearings today with more testimony about patent practices and their effect on the economic system.

Free Exchange

The department of commerce, represented on the joint legislative-executive committee by Assistant Secretary of Commerce Richard C. Patterson, Jr., summoned 13 witnesses to begin the third phase of its study of the economic system.

Head Car Glass Manufacturers

The committee began its investigation last fall with general statements by government officials on economic and social trends. It included hearings before the holidays with testimony by automobile and glass container manufacturers on patent practices in those industries.

Beginning today the committee will study current practices of the patent office, which is under the jurisdiction of the commerce department.

Free Exchange

Previous testimony on patents was designed to show the existence of two different practices in industry. In the automobile industry, free exchange of patents is customary.

Leaders of the automobile manufacturing industry, including Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor company, and William S. Knudsen, president of General Motors corporation, described and defended that system.

The glass container industry, on the contrary, operates on a basis whereby patents are closely restricted. Only a few companies have access to manufacturing processes.

Testimony before the committee disclosed companies desiring to compete with patent holders must pay high royalty fees.

Junior College Bill will Test Strength of Backers For Pocaello Institution

BOISE, Jan. 16 (U.P.)—The opening skirmish in the biennial Idaho legislative battle over higher education began today when Ada county Sen. Ed Baird introduced a bill to permit organization of junior colleges.

Backs Husband in 'Mercy Death'

After pondering the deed for years, Louis Greenfield, 47, left of the Bronx, N. Y., sent away his wife, Anna, above, and reportedly chloroformed death his 17-year-old son, Jerry, to end the youth's pain as he lay in an epileptic seizure. Greenfield's reason, police say, was that the boy was an "incurable invalid."

Mrs. Greenfield is standing by her husband, whose attorney is in the Bronx court. Doctors reported the son a helpless imbecile with the mind of a two-year-old baby.

The report, required annually by act of congress, was compiled for the President by the national emergency council.

The appropriations, provided in relief acts of 1933, 1934, 1935 and 1936, totaled $10,240,137.73, leaving an unexpended balance at the end of 1938 of $16,854,585.

Of this amount, $10,819,643.28 was from funds appropriated under the 1938 act, which expires June 30, 1939.

The report showed the relief provided under April 8, 1935, to Dec. 31, 1938, as distributed among states, as follows:

Idaho $1,377,604.10
Montana 1,078,594.28
Utah 54,625,343

The report suggested the date for instituting pensions under the old age pension system, which was authorized in 1940 instead of starting in 1942 and that coverage be broadened to include approximately 10,000,000 persons not now protected by the system.

The President praised the functioning of the old age, unemployment and child aid plans of the present social security act but declared the government "would be compelled" to take the responsibility of not taking advantage of the emergency we have accumulated to strengthen and extend its provisions.

Improvement Important

Mr. Roosevelt said improvement of the old age pension system was of primary importance.

The report suggests a two-fold approach which I believe to be correct," he said. "One way is to increase the payment of monthly old age benefits sooner, and in liberalize the benefits to be paid in the early years."

The other way is to make the monthly federal grants-in-aid to those states with limited facilities as fast as they may provide for them. The second method is to increase the federal grants-in-aid to those states with limited facilities as fast as they may provide for them.

Mr. Roosevelt said the additional federal grants-in-aid would be small and suggested that the principle of increasing such grants to poorer states might be applied to other federal grants-in-aid.

One Way

The President also proposed grant aid to dependent children and noted that the social security board proposed two methods whereby that aid might be extended.

"One way," said Mr. Roosevelt, "to extend our federal old age insurance system and as to provide relief for the military and naval veterans."

Passage of Act Would be Death Blow to School

BOISE, Jan. 16 (U.P.)—The opening skirmish in the biennial Idaho legislative battle over higher education began today when Ada county Sen. Ed Baird introduced a bill to permit organization of junior colleges.

Passage of the bill probably would mean a death blow for this session to the plans to create a four year university at Pocatello. Lobbyists indicated they would await the outcome of the junior college legislation before they introduced the four year university bill.

Meanwhile a bill to reduce all Idaho automobile license fees on pleasure cars to $4 sent to the senate for consideration when appropriate of the measure failed to muster enough votes to keep it in the lower house for reconsideration.

55 License Passes House

The house passed the bill, 44 to 1 late in the Tuesday session but Rep. Arthur B. Beck, D., Bannock county, moved for reconsideration. When a voice vote on reconsideration came up today, the speaker held the opposition was not strong enough to warrant further discussion.

The senate had legislation of its own to work with when Sen. Ed Baird of Ada county introduced an enabling bill that would permit counties to organize junior college districts throughout the state.

The bill provided:

1. Junior colleges shall be established in the first two years of instruction at the University of Idaho.
2. The colleges shall be supported by tuition from the state and levy on taxable property within the established districts of not to exceed 20 cents on the $100 assessed valuation, by allocation to the junior college of each district 50 per cent of liquor control tax funds apportioned to the junior college district.
3. A junior college district shall include one or more school districts or one or more counties, having an aggregate high school enrollment of not less than 800 students and equal property assessment rolls of $10,000,000.
4. School districts in proposed districts may petition for establishment of a junior college and approval by the state board of education, a special election in the district may be held.
5. Student tuition will be $50 a year for residents within the district, $75 for non-residents.
6. A board of trustees, empowered to issue bonds for construction of buildings.
7. The board may open gun for higher education in Idaho. Northern Idaho legislators are pledged to support the bill.
8. The bill would require the state board of education to report to the legislature the results of the four-year, degree-granting institution.

ROME-BERLIN, PARIS-LONDON AXES TIGHTEN AFTER TALKS

LITTLE REPORTED DONE AT MEETING OF 2 PREMIERS

By STEWART BROWN
 ROME, Jan. 16 (Special)—The chief point on which Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and Premier Mussolini agreed in their talks here was that Great Britain is closely allied to France and that Italy is bound more firmly than ever to Germany. It was disclosed today.

This was made plain in a semi-official Italian version of the talks, published by the "Informazione Diplomatica" which the government utilizes to disseminate news.

Closer Relations
 "In a necessary tour of the horizon, naturally certain questions of a general character were faced," said the agency of the talks, "and while the British prime minister referred to the close relations between Paris and London, on the Italian side it was declared in the most formal manner that the basis of Italian diplomacy is and remains the Rome-Berlin axis."

Mussolini also took occasion, according to the statement, to say it was absurd to deny belligerent rights to the nationalists in the Spanish civil war, and to announce it would be impossible to negotiate an agreement with France until the Spanish war had ended in a nationalist victory.

Loyal to France
 Next came the reaffirmation of Britain's loyalty to France and Italy's adherence to Germany.

"As regards Spain I have repeated that the remaining Italian colonies would be repatriated when the Reds also will do as much, and when that right of belligerence which it is absurd to deny them shall be accorded to the nationalists," said the statement. "I have added, however, that if in the near future there should be intervention on a large scale on the part of governments friendly to the loyalists, Italy would take her liberty of non-intervention since the policy of non-intervention is to be considered closed and a failure."

DAY SPEAKS FOR FILER KIWANIS

FILER, Jan. 16 (Special)—Gordon Day, Twin Falls, Boy Scout executive, was a guest Tuesday of the Kiwanis club in the Methodist church basement. Day praised the Pler Scout organization, saying it is doing wonderful work.

Mrs. C. L. Gillilan, grade school music instructor, presented a double solo in two selections, Singers, from the seventh and eighth grades, were Joan Gillilan, Phyllis Allison, Adeline Simon, Donald Travis, Sam Peterson and Lois Brown.

Murray Munson, presented "Willie McCarty," his ventriloquist dummy, and gave a short program.

Reporting for the committee composed of Postmaster Gilbert Smith, A. C. Travis, George Anthony told the club that the matter of checking the list of men eligible for work in the high school additions has been attended to, that the list has been inspected by the committee and those falsely classified as Pler men had been eliminated.

Mr. Travis reporting for the boys and girls committee composed of himself, Rev. I. Metz and William Peters, said they had inspected the razed building next to the postoffice for its possibilities as a roller skating rink and had found that the cost involved in putting it into shape for the purpose prohibitive. An entire new covering of cement flooring would be needed, they found.

The matter of Pler school children who need glasses was brought up by Mr. Travis who referred it to the boys and girls committee.

Leighton Earns Cornell Honors

Paul W. Leighton, a freshman in the College of Engineering at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, is one of 28 students from the university to be elected as workers in the dramatic and announcing divisions of the Radio Guild.

The post of workers leads to associate and active membership in the Guild after participation in a number of broadcasts.

Seaplane floats made of rubber balloons have been found to be highly successful. The floats act as their own bumpers when encountering buoys and driftwood.

Here's What They're Saying About the BENDIX HOME LAUNDRY

Twin Falls, Idaho
 Jan. 12, 1938

Mr. John W. Iselin
 Soden Electric
 Twin Falls, Idaho
 Dear Mr. Iselin:

After using a Bendix Home Laundry in my home for several months, I am so pleased with this equipment that I feel justified in expressing to you my complete satisfaction.

The ease with which one can do the laundry with this machine is remarkable. Until one has used the Bendix Home Laundry it is difficult to believe that any machine could automatically turn the water on and off, fill and refill, adjust the temperature by thermostat control, put the wash through the different stages in clean water, and then finally spin the clothes practically dry. The indicator on the Bendix and, telling you exactly what is going on while the machine during the progress of the washing, combines to make the Bendix simplicity in itself.

I have also been impressed with the safety of this machine, so much so in fact, that I recently purchased another Bendix Home Laundry for my sister who lives in Portland. She has found it so easy to do a washing with the Bendix, that she is now doing all her own laundry.

My experience with the Bendix Home Laundry has been such that I have no hesitancy in recommending it to anyone.

Yours truly,
 MRS. EMMA CLAUJCHER.

Five Queens to Depict Seasons At Elaborate Gold, Green Ball

As one season of the year drifts into another, and leaves behind it a distinctive memory, so will the queens of the season, chosen to reign at the Gold and Green Ball Jan. 19 at Radioland, be remembered for their charm long after the promenade is over, according to the sponsor organization. The five queens have been chosen according to their merits as Gleaner Girls.

The queen supreme will be Miss Altha Wells of Twin Falls first ward, L. D. S. church M.I.A., who will represent Ceres, queen of nature, occupying the elevated throne on a revolving disc.

Seated a step lower will be the four other queens. Each queen will represent spring: Kimberly Queen, summer: Martha Queen, autumn, and the second ward queen, winter. Each queen will have beautifully gowned attendants and flower girls. The manner of presentation has been the to the inaugural words, so the procession will be diversified and original. After the seating of the royals, a show of dances appropriate to the seasons of the year will be given. The exhibition will be staged at 10 o'clock.

Dunn Helm, instructor of dancing; Miss Margaret Egbert, of the Junior high school faculty, and Vernie Richards, of the city recreation unit, will direct the dances.

Sponsored by M.I.A.

Mrs. Edna Stokes and C. Vern Yates are in charge of the occasion as chairman of state activities. They will be assisted by various committees of state board members. Juanita Hill is directing publicity. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Phillips, Dr. and Mrs. O. T. Lake and President and Mrs. J. W. Richards will be in the receiving line.

INTER-CLUB DANCE ANNOUNCED AT CLUB

Inter-club council will sponsor a dance Jan. 27 at the Elks ballroom, according to announcement made at a meeting of the Twin Falls Knights club yesterday afternoon.

Bob Sahberg was host to the club at a business session, over which Dean Brown presided.

Names of prospective neophytes who will be chosen at spring pledging day, 29, were submitted by Fred Bates, club sponsor, was present.

DANCERS APPEAR AT BOISE CONVENTION

Wayne and Roberta, the dancers who have been so popularly received throughout southern Idaho since their return from a successful eastern tour, were featured performers at the convention of the Associated General Contractors of America last week-end in Boise.

They appeared in the Crystal room of the Hotel Boise. The dancing pair, accompanied by Mrs. William Osterander, Mrs. Evan Tarr and Mrs. June Jones, returned to Twin Falls yesterday.

GROUP MEDICINE DISCUSSED FOR A. A. U. W.

Medical insurance, handled by the medical profession, will eventually come to John F. Coughlin, director of the American Association of University Women Saturday afternoon when women met for luncheon at the home of Mrs. A. L. Norton.

The American medical profession is in favor of insurance for physicians in the lowest income bracket, as they do not pay the doctors who treat women, but objects to a system which would become like the costlier medicine plan of Germany, where half of the fees go to a clerical staff, rather than to a doctor, he explained.

"State medicine" would be noxious to both the doctors and the public, but group medicine is not opposed, he told the audience.

Miss Esther Rinnelmeier, treasurer of the Girls League of the Twin Falls high school, was a special guest. Mrs. J. N. Davis, program chair, introduced the guest speaker.

Mrs. Ed Tolbert, assisted by Mrs. Charles Tolbert and Mrs. H. Hansen, presented legislative problems in which the national A. A. U. W. has expressed keen interest.

Mrs. H. B. Bull presided at the business session. Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Harry Elcock, Mrs. Gordon Durr, Mrs. Anne Williams and Miss Sue Evans were assistants.

WEATHER SLOWS COYOTE HUNTERS

High winds, snow flurries and general unsettled weather combined during the first 15 days of this month to hold the coyote hunting activities of two Twin Falls fliers at a minimum during operations in the vicinity of Gooding. It was learned here this afternoon.

The two are Lamorne Stevens and Grant Kilbourne who are flying under sponsorship of sheepmen in that section. Stevens said the coyotes have been killed during the hunt to date after 19 hours in the air. The fliers use a Cub sport plane for their operations and hold a special government permit to do the work.

"When the weather gets more settled we expect much better hunting," Stevens said. "The coyotes are now nearing the mating season and this will also help the hunting because they will be traveling in large groups."

Last year the two men killed more than 250 of the animals during the winter.

Stevens said that operations would continue off the Gooding airport for the next 30 days and then they would move either to the Twin Falls airport and operate throughout this county or would hold a quarter at Shoshone, covering Lincoln county.

"Marjorie's been invited to another snooty birthday party. I wish we could get in with some of her friends."

Uncle Si Says . . .

If you folks could just spend a day around the newspaper office you'd realize just how some of these classified ads get results. One fellow says, "I ran an ad for a young fellow to work and 35 answered." Another says, "I rented my house the first day the ad was in the papers." Of course all advertisers aren't that lucky, but it goes to show that if you have the right proposition and tell the public about it in a correctly worded ad, you will get quick results.
