

SENATE VOTES INFORMATION OF HOPKINS TODAY

COASTAL SOLON
DEFENDS ACTIONS OF EX-WPA HEAD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Senator Charles McNary, D-Ore., today defended the actions of Harry J. Hopkins, ex-head of the Federal Works Administration, in a Senate debate on qualifications of the ex-head of the F.W.A. McNary entered the final hour today with a vote on Hopkins' confirmation expected by the Senate.

The Senate operated under a limitation of debate which restricted McNary to one speech of 30 minutes. Confirmation was expected with 20 to 30 votes in opposition.

Sen. James B. Schwenck, D-Wash., defended Hopkins and McNary's record as works program administrator with a speech of 30 minutes.

Sen. Sherman Minton, D-Ind., said he was "surprised by White's protests."

"They had a statute in Maine," he said, under which a pauper could not vote. The attorney general of the state held that a WPA worker was a pauper and could not vote.

It was a disastrous law, but the senator from Maine, who was campaigning in 1936, never raised his voice against it.

Sen. Wallace White, R-Me., attacked McNary's defense of Hopkins, saying it was "surprising that McNary should be so glib in his agency as big as the work program administration."

Sen. Sherman Minton, D-Ind., said he was "surprised by White's protests."

10 SURVIVORS IN AIRPLANE CRASH

The plane and crew barely managed to get out of the bulk into the sea.

The much was known. All the ships motors failed at the same time and the plane was in the air for 12-15 seconds before it crashed. The plane was a biplane, altitude 1,500 feet. Forced landing in a few minutes.

Thirteen minutes later the plane was on the ground. The plane was a biplane, altitude 1,500 feet. Forced landing in a few minutes.

Shares Ruppert Fortune

Under the will of the late brewer-sportsman Col. Jacob Ruppert, Helen Winthrop Vernal, above, was left $300,000 outright and became one of three women who will get the New York Yankees ball team along with other properties in the colony's residual estate. Miss Vernal was known on the stage as Winthrop Wayne.

RELIEF BACKERS
OPEN NEW DRIVE

The drive has been opened at the grounds economy should be effected otherwise than by cutting federal expenditures on these "now living like beasts."

It was after Borah's statement that the appropriations subcommittee amended the house-approved bill so that relief rolls could not be more than five per cent during February and March.

The compromise amendment, designed to placate senate critics of the smaller appropriation and possibly ease White House pressure, would authorize the President to request additional appropriations later, if he deems an emergency has arisen.

Chairman Alva O. Olin, of the subcommittee, praised the compromise plan as "an honest effort to provide a bill that would give adequate relief to everybody and at the same time eliminate administration waste."

TOY GUN BANDITS
SLUG STORE MAN

Heldup, those placed under arrest have confessed the felony. In addition to numerous other arrests made locally within the past few days in which the persons arrested have been or will be charged with grand larceny.

Elmer Weighall, Twin Falls, attempted to pass a worthless $45 check at the J. C. Penney store here and was arrested on charges of forgery, police records show. He confessed to the charge.

Lawrence (Smoky) Gabbart, Twin Falls, confessed to entering 11 local homes and taking such items as radios, guns, lamps, cameras and bedpans. He also said he had raided several chicken houses and taken the chickens. He will be charged with first degree burglary this afternoon in probate court.

Charges of grand larceny will be filed against L. C. Harper, formerly of Pocatello, in connection with theft of a fur coat at Buhl. Harper was arrested by local police and turned over to the sheriff's office. Police records show he carried a loaded gun at the time of his arrest.

NATIONALS POUND TO WITHIN SIGHT OF BARCELONA

AMERICANS TOLD TO QUIT CAPITAL AS REBELS NEAR

HENDAYE, French-Spanish Front, Jan. 23 (AP)—The United States consulate at Barcelona urged Americans today to evacuate the city at once as the nationalist armies pounded their way to within sight of the loyalist capital.

HENDAYE, French-Spanish Front, Jan. 23 (AP)—Spanish nationalist troops were in sight of Barcelona today as their gigantic "end-the-war" offensive on the loyalist emergency capital entered its second month.

Men of the 5th Navarre division planted a nationalist flag on the Montañas heights near Olen de Bonavalls, seven and a half miles east of Villafranca del Panadés, and only 14 miles west-southwest of the suburbs of Barcelona.

The insurgent troops could command from their positions in the hills, a wide sweep of the Mediterranean itself, extending from Matara, 16 miles northeast of Barcelona to Ventrell, 34 miles southwest of it, except for a small stretch which was obscured by the rocky hills around Sant Llorenç de Morroix. Troops were climbing these hills today.

At the northern part of their front, the nationalist troops after a long day of fighting their way along mountain mule tracks, sighted the key city of Manresa, on the left (eastern) bank of the Llobregat river, at a distance of less than four miles.

The final phase of the offensive was now at hand, dispatches from nationalist territory said.

Barcelona's danger was acute—not only from an enemy air assault, but from an enveloping movement at the north end of the nationalist front which would cut off Barcelona from communication with France by land, and thus isolate, to be reduced to leisure, scores of thousands of nationalist troops and thousands of their military and political leaders.

President Fieser Well-informed sources at Perpignan, on the French side of the frontier at the Catalonian border, asserted that nationalist forces already had left Barcelona for an unknown destination.

It was known the nationalist government was prepared to evacuate Barcelona if necessary, transferring its machinery to Valencia and leaving an emergency government to function at Gerona, 30 miles northwest of Barcelona and 35 miles south of the frontier.

The nationalists were evidently continuing to make astonishing gains—gains whose momentum indicated there could be little serious resistance for the moment at least.

In HOLLYWOOD Today

(By United Press) Col. Robert Gerard, "loaned" to Hollywood by the French government to keep too much fiction from the "lax" production of "Beau Geste," said today that the tough fighting men of the foreign legion are seeking for cowboy movies, Mickey Mouse and Snow White; that on Claude Rains' pictures; that Clark Gable and Gary Cooper make swell movie soldiers and consider gangster pictures the bunk.

Dorothy Lamour was undergoing treatment for a serious inflammation of the eyes, the result of working for long periods under powerful lights on the sound stages.

Alexander Korda, British film producer, will return here during the current year to shoot half his pictures in Hollywood with the rest to be produced in England.

Hollywood's mid-winter, the playground of movie-makers, are "pique" compared to catnip in downtown Los Angeles, a report of Police Chief David Davidson disclosed.

Grange Sponsors Series of Debates

JEFFERSON, Jan. 23 (Special)—More than 80 Grange men and women were present last week at the Appleton schoolhouse change held when a debate, "Resolved: That the United States should continue to uphold the Monroe Doctrine," was argued by a representative of Lincoln county and a member of the North Side Grange.

Affirmative was presented by Clifford Dandy, Blomfield, and the negative was given by Mrs. Nellie Roberts, North Side Grange.

William Snyder, post master, gave a brief explanation on why such debates are participated in by the Farmers of the counties in this district, previous to the debate.

A letter of congratulations was read from the Grange, which was received from the state Grange master, E. T. Taylor, and commended the Grange for taking part in this type of educational project. Mr. Taylor also sent his regards in not being able to attend the meeting.

Miss Marietta Jones, high school dramatics instructor, presented Helen Overfield, Cole Reed, Clifford Ackerly and James Freeman in two acts.

Group singing was also enjoyed. Later dancing followed and refreshments were served.

The Grange will hold another debate sometime in March when a team from either Twin Falls or Minidoka will be on the opposing side.

"Bott" Shows You the Winning Idaho Spud Display

Here's Gov. C. A. Bottolfin holding an enlarged picture of the display that won the nationwide Idaho potato display contest. This display, judged best from among entries from 22 states, was built by Grocer George C. Maxwell of Lincoln, Neb. The judging committee that picked the winner last week-end was composed of Gov. Bottolfin, the advertising managers of Boise's two daily newspapers and two prominent Boise grocers. As national winner of the contest, Maxwell received a grand prize of a 1939 two-door sedan. The national Idaho potato display contest was sponsored by the Idaho fruit and vegetable advertising commission as part of the participation in National Potato week.

FLEXIBLE LEASE AVAILABLE HERE

A new "flexible farm lease" incorporating simplified lease arrangements, provisions for permanent improvements and arbitration of disputes and developed by the Farm Security Administration, is now available to Twin Falls county farmers in the 100 block of Third street south.

Designed as a practical means of encouraging better lease arrangements and particularly in getting these done in black and white, according to Mr. Wiseman, the new form is equally advantageous to both tenant and landlord. Most difficulties between owner and tenant arise from verbal agreements or minor questions not discussed at the time the farm was leased.

Serving to place in constant form the usual lease terms and arrangements accepted in oral form, the new form has the advantage of clearly defining responsibilities of both parties as the proper basis for understanding and mutual confidence.

The lease encourages longer and more stable tenure. When necessary, optional terms may be stipulated giving landowners the right to terminate at the end of any year by giving landowners the right to terminate leases at the end of any year by giving advance written notice or it may make the lease automatically renewable unless written notice is given by a specified time.

Problems are made for permanent improvements with the consent of the owner and compensation to some form for the renter if the lease is terminated before the benefits of improvements have been secured. Improvements would include fences, building, soil improvements and similar activities, Wisconsin said.

Arbitration of disputes between renter and landowner by an impartial committee of neighbors, one selected by the renter, one by the landlord and the third by the first two named, would provide a solution for any difficulties that might arise.

The Farm Security Administration is distributing improved form by representing a written, signed lease for the term of its lease to landowners. These leases are to be made on the FSA forms or under special circumstances on a form approved by the Federal director, Wisconsin said.

FOUR EVENTS AT UNIVERSITY FETE

MOSCOW, Jan. 23 (Special)—Four related events to be held on the University of Idaho campus will launch the institution's semi-annual celebration on Monday, Jan. 30, reports President H. C. Gable.

First and most important will be a general assembly in the Memorial gymnasium between 12 and 12 o'clock. Classes will be dismissed in order that students may attend. Faculty members will wear caps and gowns.

Dr. C. J. Brouman, professor of American history, will review briefly the university's stirring past. The Vandewater chorus and symphony orchestra will present the cantata, "The Light on the Mountain," composed originally for the golden jubilee by Prof. Hall M. Macklin of the public department. Works for the cantata were adapted by English Professor John Goshman from the Idaho pageant of the same name written by Talbot Jennings, class of 1924.

Members of the board of regents who may be present university guests and others in the platform group will be entertained by a luncheon following the assembly. Moscow townpeople will join the festivities at a 50th anniversary anniversary dinner to be held at the Blue Buckle Inn at 6 p.m. Three hundred tickets have been printed.

All who attend the dinner will have reserved seats at the radio broadcast which will continue in the university auditorium between 7:30 and 8 o'clock.

Members of the board of regents who may be present university guests and others in the platform group will be entertained by a luncheon following the assembly.

GREAT CHANGES MARK 6 YEARS OF NAZI POWER IN GERMANY

Factories Work Steady; National Debt Increases

By FREDERICK C. OESTER
BERLIN, Jan. 23 (AP).—Six years ago, Germany was a nation of despair. Today, it is a nation of hope. The changes in Germany since 1933 are so profound that they have astonished the world. The nation has emerged from the shadows of the Weimar Republic and is now a powerful, unified state. The factories are working steadily, and the national debt has increased, but the future is bright. The people are proud and confident, and the nation is on the rise.

Looking Across World's Fair Lagoon

A "maritime" view such as might be obtained at a beautiful lake is this pleasant vista of the California state building and colonnades at the 1939 Golden Gate International exposition. The view is that seen over the Lake of Nations, which lies between one of the main exhibit palaces and the group of state and county structures.

power than any man in German history. In general terms, that is the Nazi version of what has happened to Germany, a picture of industry and progress and triumph, culminated by the spectacular rise of the Reich in 1938 to dominance of eastern Europe; to a place of equality in world councils that had been denied it since the World War.

Nazism has ended all political opposition and suppressed all other political organizations, throwing many of their leaders into concentration camps. Nazism has more than doubled taxes, yet also more than doubled the official public debt which is now officially put at $10,000,000,000 but is privately estimated at about two or three times that figure. Question Unanswered. Most frequently of all the question asked by visitors to Germany is: "Are the Germans really behind Hitler? Are they happier than before he came into power?" Neither question can be answered definitely. But it can be said with reasonable accuracy that the people are behind Hitler in the sense that they prefer certainty to uncertainty. It can be said that even those who were not enthusiastic about Nazism are getting used to it, and it can be said too positively that every day sees a decrease in the number who believe that a military dictatorship or a return to the republic or the monarchy would be a preferable alternative.

FIREMEN BATTLE STEAMER BLAZE

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (AP).—Firemen poured water through holes cut by torches into the hold of the 15,000-ton British freighter, Silverash today in a final effort to stop flames that had burned since midnight. Assistant Fire Chief Joseph O'Hanlon, trying to grow out of the fire or stop the ship, ordered holes cut in the hull with acetylene torches. The Silverash, owned by the Kerr Steamship company, was docked on the Brooklyn side of the East river when a vapor heater spilling oil over the engine room. A spark ignited the fuel. More than 200 firemen battled the flames in extremely cold weather.

Pupils Addressed On Immigration

JEROME, Jan. 23 (Special).—Dr. Gerald Verduyn, spiritual representative of the board of Christian education of the Presbyterian church, was the special assembly speaker at the Jerome high school last week and gave a talk on "The Story of an Immigrant."

3 Girls Unreported; Minister Has 'Clue'

No further trace had been found in this area today of three Oregon runaway girls, although a Twin Falls minister reported having given a ride to three girls who might have been the trio in question. The only girl whose parents requested official aid in return is Thelma Dupree, 15, Vale, Ore. The other girls include one about the same age and another about 20. Rev. Mackey J. Brown said today that last Thursday he gave a ride to three girls which was "thumping" on the southern edge of the city. He said he took them nine miles and then let them out near the Henry Rayburn ranch. The girls told him they were going to school at Rogers-on, that their name was Dexter, and that their father and mother were killed about a year ago while driving back to Nebraska. An uncle, they said, rent for them.

Furniture Mart Activity Viewed As Cheery Omen

It's a cheerful indication for 1939 business—the way furniture buyers set a new all-time high record for thronging the big American Furniture Mart building at Chicago—in the opinion of W. H. Burkholder, Twin Falls home furnishings dealer. Mr. and Mrs. Burkholder, back from a business trip to Chicago, said that the rush of people at hotels was the greatest in their experience. The local pair made the trip to purchase new furniture stocks for their establishment here. The crowds at the furniture mart for buying purposes showed 11 per cent gain over the 1937 all-time high and 68 per cent above 1938. Present indications, Mr. Burkholder said, are that furniture prices will keep the 1938 price level this year with no boost in retail sales.

PROMENADE

TARANTO, Italy, Jan. 23 (AP).—Battista Rocca, 28, was arrested in a main street today as he promenaded wearing only an umbrella slung on his arm. "I'm Mr. Chamberlain," he explained to questioning policemen. He was taken to hospital for observation.

THREE CHILDREN BURNED IN FIRE

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Jan. 23 (AP).—Three children were burned to death today, but their mother escaped when fire destroyed their home on isolated Butts' pit road. The dead were Marilyn, 4, her sister Shirley, 3, and their brother, Edward, 1, children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snap. Mrs. Snap, asleep on the first floor, was awakened by the crackling of flames, but was unable to reach the children because the stairway and upper story were ablaze. Her husband had gone to Boston seeking work.

LET UP...LIGHT UP A CAMEL

SMOKERS FIND THAT CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS ARE SOOTHING TO THE NERVES

101 STORIES UP on the world's tallest building, Sidney Evert swings in the wind with only a frail scaffold between him and—well, it's 1100 feet to the street. His work is to repair windows in the tower of the Empire State Building. Nerve straining, you bet, but as Sid Evert says: "A fellow with jumpy nerves wouldn't last long on my job. So I ease the tension on my nerves whenever I can. I let up—light up a Camel. I find Camels are soothing to the nerves." Smokers in a wide variety of nerve-nagging occupations, nerve-straining sports turn to Camels for the same reason. They find it pays to ease nerve tension often. So they let up—light up a Camel!

TRAPPED ON A BLAZING WRECK.
Captain Hans Milton displayed courage and nerve-power that won him head-lines from coast to coast. He says: "On the schooner Pioneer, shore 400 miles out of Halifax, we had a little food and water and some Camels. Those Camels were a great comfort through the nerve strain of worry and danger. It's a rule with me, whenever I feel my nerves getting tense, keyed-up, to let up—light up a Camel."

"RUNNING A HOME is a full-time job," says Mrs. Frank H. Smith, housewife and business, "and every minute of it can be nerve straining. Cleaning up, planning meals, social affairs would run me pretty ragged (and add years to my looks) if I didn't make sure to protect my nerves. My way of avoiding jumpy nerves is this: The minute I feel tense and 'keyed up' I pause—I let up—light up a Camel. I find Camels really soothing to the nerves."

(above) A GORDON SETTER is pictured here—a handsome, muscular dog to be proud of. It's a thrill to watch his flashing action. And it's a valuable lesson to observe that after strenuous activities, this dog suddenly halts ... relaxed! Though his nervous system is high-strung like our own, the dog responds quickly to the just-uttered urge to rest. We don't usually look after our nerves that well. Perhaps you have often willed yourself on ... hour after hour at a task ... ignoring nerve strain. Try breaking that nerve strain occasionally—pause now and then—LET UP—LIGHT UP A CAMEL! Camels are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS ... Turkish and Domestic.
